AUSTRIANS ARE UNABLE TO HOLD BACK ITALIANS

General Cadorna's Men Continue Their Line Smashing Drives on Carso Plateau With Renewed Success.

TAKE MANY PRISONERS

(Associated Press War Summary.) Smashing the Austrian lines on the Carso plateau and in the mountainous region north of Gorizia the Italians have made additional and important gains.

Between Jamiano and the coast, the Italian troops carried a strongly fortified hill southwest of Medoazza, less than two miles north of Guino. A field battery of ten guns and 812 Austrians were captured by the Italians.

Near Plava, where the Italians began their successful drive, Cadorna's men carried by storm, the heights and the head of the Paliova valley. By this success they connected their lines on Mount Cuco with those on Hill 363, both of which were taken early in the recent fighting.

In France there has been a recrudescence of infantry activity, but not on a large scale. The British made gains in local attacks northwest of St. Quentin and near Fontaine-les-Croisilles, on the southern end of the Arras battlefield, and repulsed a German attack east of Loos, north of Arras.

ACTIVITY ON FRENCH FRONT.

On the Aisne and Champagne fronts both the Germans and French have been active. Around Teton, in Champagne, the Germans succeeded in penetrating the French line. A counter-attack by General Petain's troops, however, forced the Germans to retire.

Two more Spanish steamers have been sunk with the loss of probably 100 lives. The largest vessel was the mail steamer C. De Ezagurre, of 4,300 tons, and an official statement reports only twenty-two of her forty passengers and crew of sixty landed.

FRENCH HOLD BACK GERMANS.

(By a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press)

Grand Headquarters of the French army in France, May 27.—(Afternoon)—German troops made another futile effort in the course of last night to regain a footing on the Chemin des Dames, in the vicinity of the Moulin de Laffaux, the loss of which they feel acutely.

VICTIM OF MONGOLIA TARGET PRACTICE IS LAID TO REST

Chicago, May 27.—Miss Helen Bennett Wood, the nurse who was killed during target practice on the United States steamship Mongolia, while she and other members of Base Hospital Unit No. 12, were on their way to Europe, was buried at Rose Hill cemetery today, with military honors.

DON'T TAMPER WITH THE DRAFT GREGORY WARNS

Official Says Attempts to Discourage Registration Will Bring Prosecution

Washington, May 27.—Criminal prosecution awaits persons who attempt to prevent registration under the war army bill by propaganda, or otherwise. Attorney General Gregory announced tonight that his attention had been called to the circulation of propaganda, designed to discourage registration, and that the government would deal vigorously with such cases.

"Such action is a plain violation of the law," said Mr. Gregory, "and the department of justice is prepared to prosecute promptly any person guilty of such conduct. The officers and agents of the department throughout the country have been instructed to watch carefully for infractions of this law."

TO PROSECUTE OFFENDERS.

"The act of May, 1917, which may very properly be entitled the 'Selective Soldiers' bill,' is now a law of the United States, so that all conspiracies to hinder, prevent or delay the appointment, or instrumentalities of the government, or in making the registration therein provided for, will be dealt with accordingly by prosecution and when convicted doubtless severely punished."

CONGRESS AT WORK ON WAR MEASURES

Food Legislation and Other Important Bills to Be Considered This Week.

Washington, May 27.—A variety of war legislation, new and nearing completion, comes before congress in this, the eighth week of its extraordinary session. Calendars of both bodies and their committees are replete with war bills, including food, revenue, appropriation, commercial, and other measures for dealing with war conditions at home and abroad.

Passage of a food measure, providing for stimulation of production and a national food census is expected early in the week. Both the senate and house tomorrow will resume consideration of the bill in virtually its identical form. The senate probably will vote tomorrow and the house a few days after. Soon afterward will come the second bill for control of food supplies.

TO CONSIDER WAR BUDGET.

After disposal of the food bill tomorrow the house program calls for consideration of the $3,342,000,000 war budget bill. The house is expected to pass and send the measure to conference without much delay.

As both branches plan to adjourn on Wednesday, Memorial Day, the impending new fight over newspaper censorship, in the espionage bill, is not expected before Thursday.

PRINCE UDINE VISITS GRAVE OF WASHINGTON

Italian Mission Pays Homage to Memory of America's First President in Pilgrimage to Mount Vernon.

LAYS WREATH ON TOMB

Washington, May 27.—Italy paid honor to America and her first president today, through the Italian war ministers, who made a pilgrimage down the Potomac to Mount Vernon, and laid on the tomb of George Washington, the bronze wreath, which since the days of ancient Rome has been bestowed on famous heroes.

In the presence of a distinguished party of American officials, grouped about the entrance to the tomb, the Prince of Udine, as head of the mission, expressed in solemn words the belief that the spirit of Washington will guide all the allies in the present war for freedom and democracy. He renewed the pledge of Italy to fight until "our liberty and the liberties of the peoples who are suffering with us, shall be rendered safe against all surprises and all violence."

William Marconi, member of the mission, declared the fellowship of America in the war was "dear and welcome to all the allies, but particularly to Italy." Both made their addresses in English, and were applauded enthusiastically. Secretary Daniels, as host to the party on the trip down the river to the presidential yacht Mayflower, introduced the speakers.

It was the first time any member of the Italian royal house had ever visited Mount Vernon, and indeed the first time for many years that a European prince had entered the tomb of Washington.

LAY WREATH ON TOMB.

The great bronze wreath, which had been made in Italy especially for the occasion, and was brought here by the mission, was carried into the tomb by four Italian blue-jackets and laid where another bronze wreath was laid a few weeks ago by the French mission, and where Foreign Secretary Balfour, and his colleagues of the British mission, left a wreath of flowers. The Prince of Udine entered the tomb, his head bare, and stood at salute as the wreath was placed.

The prince then addressed the assembled party, including members of the diplomatic corps and cabinet officers and their wives.

"We come today upon a devout pilgrimage to the tomb of your great national hero," he said. "The wreath, which we have come to lay upon it, and which we have brought from Rome, is such as used to be offered to Roman heroes. It represents the homage of the Italian nation to the man who symbolizes the purest traditions and the most noble aspirations of the American spirit."

"We cannot avoid a feeling of sadness, gentlemen, when we behold the most civilized nation on earth, dragged by powerful oligarchies into this colossal war, than which there never has been a greater one; one more abounding in sorrow."

EULOGIZES GEORGE WASHINGTON.

"But the fact that we have gathered here today bears witness to the purity of our sentiments and to the nobility of our sacrifices. "Therefore we come to the tomb of your hero to seek purification. His noble austere figure tells us that we must do everything in war, that we must be ever audacious and that we must never shrink from a sacrifice. He conquered forces which seemed invincible; he did not hesitate in the face of any danger, nor was any obstacle great enough to arrest him, but after victory was obtained he willed the triumph of democracy and of justies."

In addition to members of the Italian mission, the party included Secretaries Lansing, Baker, Honston, Redfield, Wilson and their wives, Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, the Italian, French and Brazilian ambassadors, Herbert C. Hoover, Edward N. Hurley, Winston Churchill, several representatives, and a number of other officials.

Tomorrow the Italian mission will begin its formal conference with American officials over various phases of war cooperation.

PEOPLE EAGER TO TAKE UP THE BURDEN OF WAR

McAdoo Says He Met Grati-fying Response to Pleas for Taxation

Washington, May 27.—Secretary McAdoo, home from a speaking tour of the middle and western cities in the interest of the Liberty Loan, declared in a statement tonight that the people were behind the administration's program of raising approximately $1,800,000,000 for war purposes, by taxation.

"I found the most gratifying disposition on the part of the people everywhere," said the secretary, "to bear the necessary additional taxation required for the war and for the maintenance of sound economic conditions in the country. I spoke specifically of the necessity of raising no less than $1,800,000,000 in new taxes and the response of every audience was instantaneous and gratifying."

"While everyone wants the new taxes to be equitably distributed, there is a willingness—in fact, eagerness—to make the necessary sacrifices to strengthen the government's finances and support to the utmost the gallant men who are going to the front."

PRAISE FOR MINNEAPOLIS.

Minneapolis, Mr. McAdoo said, had done conspicuously valuable work. A house to house campaign there, he said, had resulted in the sale of $10,000,000 worth of Liberty Loan bonds to 19,882 purchasers.

He commended the plan to all other cities for consideration. Treasury officials announced tonight that beginning tomorrow the New York Stock exchange would begin a daily advertising campaign to last until June 15, in the interest of the bond, in newspapers of New York, Cincinnati, Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, San Francisco, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

They will be the first advertisements ever run officially by the exchange, it was said.

CHICAGO PACIFISTS ASK PEACE TERMS

Pass Resolutions Calling on Government to Make Known Its Demands.

Chicago, May 27.—Two peace resolutions were passed today at a mass meeting which filled the Auditorium theater, and which was called by the Permanent Peace Commission of Chicago.

The first resolution called upon the government of the United States to make a definite statement of the terms of peace proposed by the United States and its European allies.

The second was that the Chicago city council be asked to invite the Russian official commissioners, now in this country, to present Russia's peace terms, to visit Chicago, and make public explanation of the aims of the Russian government.

SEVERAL ARE ARRESTED.

Six men and three young women were arrested as the result of free-for-all fighting at two overflow meetings. Squads of policemen, in response to riot calls, dispersed the crowds at each place and made the arrests. Members of the Chicago Permanent Committee for Terms of Peace disclaimed any responsibility for the overflow meetings. Protest and criticism of the government, the police said, caused the outbreaks.

Smaller towns in Illinois lost a dozen dead on Saturday, with two score injured, while in the southern points of Illinois the wind storms today killed a half dozen and injured a score.

Officials of the local chapter of the Red Cross prepared to aid the tornado sufferers as soon as the news of the catastrophe was received. Six hundred blankets and quantities of food and clothing were purchased for forwarding by the United Charities.

TORNADO'S TOLL!

Herewith is a summary of tornado dead and injured:

Table listing deaths and injuries in Mattoon, Ill., Charleston, Ill., Other Illinois towns, Andale, Kans., Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Totals (Dead 185; Injured 1,107; Property Damage $5,000,000).

MATTOON, ILL., IS WORST SUFFERER; FIFTY-FOUR DEAD

Mattoon Ill., May 27.—Stoically taking up the task of recovering the dead, nursing the injured, and housing and feeding the homeless, Mattoon, swept Saturday evening by a tornado that took a total toll of more than 100 lives in Central Illinois and Northwestern Indiana, tonight had established systematic methods of relief from the disaster.

Sunday's sunrise showed that Mattoon had lost fifty-four known dead, with a score of persons still missing, 500 injured, some whom may die, and the devastation of 140 blocks of homes occupied by workmen in the north part of the city. The wind razed 496 homes and partly destroyed 146 more, rendering 2,000 persons homeless. These are housed with friends, in public buildings, or in a tented refuge in Peterson Park. The twisting wind nipped its victims in spots, and reports from the rural regions indicate that there was no extensive loss of life outside of Mattoon and Charleston.

HITS MODESTO FIRST.

Sweeping through Modesto to the south, where much damage was done, the storm rushed northeast, dropping down on the north part of Mattoon. Leaving unscathed the business parts of the city and barely touching the industrial plants the swirling whirlwind lifted its tentacles until it reached Charleston. There the tornado gripped the earth and tore away substantial buildings, crushing out the lives of two score or more human beings amidst the falling houses, the hurrying of timbers and the snapping of trees.

The storm stiffly wore itself out in the northeastern quarter of Indiana, causing more havoc here and there, as it hopped along on an erratic course to its disappearing point.

Fire broke out in Mattoon, but, as calm succeeded the windstorm, was soon put out without any serious damage. For hours there was a confused rushing about of the survivors in the stricken area, seeking relatives and friends. Efforts to send for help were thwarted by the collapse of wires, but finally a messenger was dispatched to Champagne by automobile, so that a relief train arrived before midnight. Later an uncertain wire to Springfield was made workable and militia was sent to aid in guarding property and helping the homeless.

Before the earliest dawn brought the spectacle of devastation to the sweating rescuers and the bereaved relatives and friends of the dead and wounded, order had been established. Improvised ambulances were rushing hither and thither, manned by kindly hands. The wounded were disentangled from the debris and hurried to the Memorial hospital and to a temporary operating room in a hotel. Beds for the injured were also placed in the public library, the Odd Fellows home and in various churches and school houses.

RUSH AID TO SUFFERERS.

Thousands of bandages, prepared by the United States Hospital Aid Society for war use, were distributed to the hospitals. Hotels prepared and distributed free barrels of coffee and restaurant served meals gratis to the homeless to strengthen them in the search for lost ones. All available tents were hurried to Peterson Park and erected for the occupancy of those whose homes had been wrecked. Four companies of militia, aided by citizens, established a cordon line about the devastated area. A systematic search of the ruins was then begun.

CHARLESTON IS HARD HIT

Charleston, Ill., May 27.—The estimate of the dead in yesterday afternoon's tornado, varies from thirty-five to fifty. The storm swept the entire north portion of the city. Three large grain elevators, the Big Four and Cloverleaf railroad depots, the Maple Hotel, Andrew Brothers Lumber yard and the Cloverleaf round house are among the principal buildings blown down. Company D, Illinois National Guard, reached here at midnight to assist in handling the situation. The Electric light plant and gas plant were demolished.

ISSUE REGULATIONS FOR THE CENSORSHIP OF AMERICAN PRESS

Washington, May 27.—Regulations for the guidance of the American press, in carrying out the voluntary censorship the newspapers have imposed upon themselves since the United States entered the war, were issued today by the Committee on Public Information. Virtually all of the matter specified by the committee as dangerous and liable to be of value to the enemy is of the character which most of the newspapers, of their own accord, scrupulously have eliminated from their columns.

In making public the regulations, copies of which have been mailed to every daily paper in the country, George Creel, chairman, announced that the committee was given its name in no spirit of subterfuge, and that its censorship function will be subordinated to the task of giving the people information.

denies that such was the case. The meat, he declares, was placed in a barn at the rear of the butcher shop without his knowledge awaiting his return to the city from an outside point and at no time hung in the shop or offered for sale, he states.

Guild Hall at any time during the day.
It is expected that the Marquette con-

THE RAILROAD IN WAR.
European strategists speak of the railroad as the iron road to victory. We are at war and if anything should go wrong with the campaign in Europe or the British fleet should lose its mastery of the North Sea, we might possibly have to repel invaders on this side of the Atlantic either on our shores or our Mexican frontier.
Without railroads we could not mobilize enough men at a certain point to resist invasion. We should be thankful that we have the railroads, but we have not yet got all the railroads as we need at all points. As military strategists define the position half of military science consists of massing a superior force at a given point to overcome the resistance of a weaker enemy. This is almost wholly a problem in transportation and in these days on land the only efficient transportation is by the railroads over which modern artillery can be moved as well as stores and men. The British tried to go up the Tigris to Bagdad more than a year ago relying on river transportation, and they lost an OLD RESIDENT PASSES.

Wife of John Scott, Civil War Veteran, Dies After Ten Days Illness.

Mrs. Agnes L. Scott, wife of John Scott, well known veteran of the Civil War, died Saturday morning at 6 o'clock. Pneumonia, from which she had been a sufferer for ten days, was the cause of her demise.

Mrs. Scott was a native of England, where she was born fifty-nine years ago. She had been a resident of Ishpeming for thirty-one years, having come here from Pennsylvania, where she lived for some time, after coming from the old country. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter; Miss Jennie Cowling, of Marquette, one adopted daughter, Mrs. Edwin Lind, also three step daughters, Mrs. William Vivian, of this city; Mrs. George Mercer, of Duluth, and Mrs. Charles Daume, of Lowell, Ariz., and one step son, George Scott, of Dollar Bay. All the members of the family, with the exception of Mrs. Daume, of Arizona, are here to attend the funeral, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Presbyterian church. The Rev. H. N. Allbutt, the pastor, will conduct the services.

STARS IN "INTOLERANCE."

Maie Marsh, Lillian Gish, Tully Marshall, Bessie Love and Others in Cast.

D. W. Griffith's latest spectacle, "Intolerance," which will be shown at the Ishpeming theater June 4 and 5, is such an extraordinary theatrical offering that words fail to convey any idea of its magnitude and grandeur, its marvelous spectacular effects, its human interest and its amazing re-production of historical events.

In "Intolerance" there are four separate stories, each with its own set of characters. Ancient Babylon, Judea of the time of Christ, Paris during the reign of Charles IX and a modern American city are the scenes of these stories.

Such film stars as Mae Marsh, Robert Herron, Seena Owen, Margery Wilson, Miriam Cooper, Lillian Gish, Tully Marshall, and Bessie Love have the leading roles. A feature of the production is the musical score, which is interpreted by a symphony orchestra of twenty.

For the past six months this Griffith masterpiece has been playing to crowded houses at the Liberty theater, New York. Long runs in Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Los Angeles also evidence its remarkable popularity.

TO ENLARGE HALL.

The hall in Tilden township is to be reconstructed and enlarged and Jacob Pine, the township clerk, is advertising for bids on the work to be in his hands by next Saturday, June 2. Contractors desiring to submit bids can secure plans and specifications from Mr. Pine. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. When the work planned is completed the township will have a modern hall, one that will meet all requirements for social as well as business meetings. The present building has been inadequate to meet the needs of the township for some years past.

MAY FETE A SUCCESS.

Two Large Audiences Enjoyed Entertainment by School Children.

The May Fete, by children of the public schools, under direction of W. E. Turner, the physical director, at the Ishpeming theater Friday afternoon and evening, was a complete success. The theater was filled to overflowing at the matinee and there was also a capacity audience in the evening.

The numbers were well presented, and all brought forth appropriate applause. Mr. Turner had a hard task drilling the more than 300 children, as he had comparatively little time in which to rehearse them.

All of the numbers presented were new and some of them were unique and entirely original, making up a program that was different from anything ever presented by the school children of this city. It embraced a number of pretty marches and dances and closed with a drill by senior and junior students of the high school who, for the past few weeks, have been training under the physical director.

Mr. Turner, who has been in charge of the physical training work in the schools here for the past three years, will next year take a similar position in the public schools of Keweenaw, Ia., where he will receive a much larger salary than paid here. He will leave here, accompanied by his family, about Aug. 1.

THEATRICAL.

A gripping tale of Alaska is told in "Pardners," a Mutual masterpiece, with Charlotte Walker, the famous stage and screen star, this evening at both the Ishpeming and Butler theaters. The first show at the latter will start at 7:45, new time.

George Welsh will be seen tomorrow night at both theaters in "Melting Millions," a delightful Fox feature, in which there is much wholesome comedy.

On Wednesday, Memorial Day, matinee and night, Earle Williams will be seen at the Butler in a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, and Colonel Cody (Buffalo Bill) will be seen on the Ishpeming theater screen in his famous Western drama, "The Adventures of Buffalo Bill." This is a special booking for matinee and night.

On Thursday night the regular Paramount feature, changed from Wednesday for this week only, will be shown at the Ishpeming, while a World Brady feature, "Man," with Robert Warwick, will be the offering at the Ishpeming. There will be vaudeville at the Ishpeming Thursday and Friday nights.

SICK HEADACHE.

WRECK ON C. & N. W. CAUSES TWO DEATHS

Local Passenger Ran Into Street Car at Menominee Friday—Traffic Interfered With

A southbound local express on the Northwestern railway was wrecked, with the deaths of two persons and the injury of several, when it crashed into a street car at the Taylor avenue crossing of the M. & M. Light & Traction company at Menominee at 10:20 Friday night. Harry O'Brien, the conductor of the street car, is reported to have said that the headlight on the locomotive was not lighted.

The dead were: ROSE MARIE HENES, eighteen years old, daughter of George Henes, 1408 Grand boulevard. MRS. LAURA MARTELL RASOR, twenty-seven years old, 4805 Grand boulevard, wife of Frederick Rasor.

The injured: ALFRED RASOR, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rasor; fatally injured and lying at the point of death at St. Joseph's hospital. GROVER C. MITCHELL, railroad fireman, Crystal Falls; face bruised and head injured.

TOM GREENE, engineer, Escanaba; right shoulder bone broken, hip injured, and suffering from nervous shock. JOHN ARMSTRONG, baggageman, Green Bay; scalp wound; went home. FRANK HATHAWAY, express messenger, Chicago; knee hurt; went home. HARRY O'BRIEN, street car conductor, Menominee; badly cut in head by flying glass.

HENRY SCHUMACHER, mail clerk; slightly cut and bruised; went home. HARRY TELOT, North Menominee; Menominee; passenger in street car, cut under arm; went home.

MRS. FRANK POLLOCK, Kirby street, Menominee; badly shaken up. Under doctor's care at home.

MRS. WILLIAM KEUP, same address as daughter named above; badly shaken up and suffering from shock; went home.

MISS ETHELYN MORRISON, 943 Ogden avenue, Menominee; badly shaken up; went home.

Car Approaches Track.

The street car was eastbound on the way to Hines park. The car had just turned the corner into Taylor avenue, when Motorman O'Brien looked at his watch and saw that it was nearly time for the 10:20 train to pass.

The motorman approached the railroad crossing and stopped his car. He looked up and down the track, saw nothing and proceeded to cross, after sounding his gong twice. The street car was in the center of the railroad track when the on rushing engine of the express hit it nearly in the center. The statement of Motorman O'Brien that he stopped and looked for the train is corroborated by the surviving passengers on the car, who say that the accident was in no way the motorman's fault.

The locomotive smashed the street car to kindling wood, and rushed on 900 feet south almost to Coleman street, evidently with a part of the steel work of the street car entangled on the front of the engine, for, on hitting the side track 850 feet south of Taylor avenue, where the first accident occurred, the engine was derailed and plunged into the ditch on the east side of the track, overturned and wrecked, after tearing up the track for a distance of several hundred feet.

The engine was not only derailed and wrecked, but the mail car was derailed and crushed in at the end like a paper box, while the baggage car left the track not greatly damaged, leaving only the two passenger coaches of the train in their proper place.

Engineer Was Caught.

When the engine hit the sidetrack and began to tip on its side there was not a moment of time for the engineer or fireman to jump. The fireman was, however, thrown off the falling engine, but Engineer Greene was pinned under the wreck in his cab, the engine falling with the right side, or engineer's place, underneath.

There is a deep ditch on the east side of the track at this point, down some ten or twelve feet deep, and into this the great engine plunged and buried itself in the soft ground.

Spectators gathered in a few moments, and Julius Jacques, with great presence of mind, rushed up and extricated the injured engineer from underneath the wreckage of the locomotive. The fireman was bruised and the engineer suffered a broken collar bone.

A crowd numbering thousands of people were on the scene within a half hour of the wreck, and the spectators remained on the spot until 2 or 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

Weird Night Scene.

It was a weird and uncanny picture. The headlights of the hundreds of autos, the fierce white lights of the locomotives, which quickly came up, one from the evening train from the south, which came up to transfer the passengers from the wreck, and the other that of No. 102, the "Cannonball" express from the copper country, turned the night into a sort of artificial day, while the rescuers, doctors and curious on-lookers, moved about with a continued restlessness, particularly after the injured people had been removed to the hospital.

Early Saturday morning the wrecking

PATRIOTIC MEETING HELD IN BEACON

Ishpeming Men and George Tucker, of Marquette, Gave Addresses Saturday Night.

Practically the entire population of Champion and Beacon attended the patriotic meeting in the Beacon town hall Saturday. The hall was packed to capacity by an audience that manifested unusual interest in the addresses.

The meeting was preceded by a procession from the South Shore station in Champion, to the town hall, in which many of the citizens participated led by the Home Guard band of this city. The members of the band were taken to Champion in automobiles. Scores of residents from this end of the county, also made the trip in automobiles.

Dr. Paul Van Riper, supervisor of Champion township, presided at the meeting, which was opened by a patriotic selection by the band. In his introductory remarks, Dr. Van Riper read Champion's roll of honor, which includes Victor H. Wentala, Matt Nyman, Chester Plankey, Richard Thompson, Walter Nord, Frank La Crosse, Sylvester Niemi and Richard Kuyala.

City Attorney A. W. Jurma, of this city, was the first speaker, talking first in English, and then gave a short address in Finnish.

"American Democracy Assailed."

George Tucker, of Marquette, then delivered a stirring address on "American Democracy Assailed." He opened his talk by declaring that all true Americans are patriots and that never in the history of Champion have the people of that community met under conditions of more serious nature. America is not a nation spoiling for a fight, said Mr. Tucker, "but inasmuch as we are in it, 'My country may she ever be right, but Wrong or Right, My country,' should be our motto."

The United States is eternally right in taking the stand it has against Germany, Mr. Tucker declared. He referred briefly to the circumstances leading up to the various wars in which the United States has taken part, declaring that none of the conflicts were entered into on the impulse, but that there was just reason in each instance. In reviewing the facts leading up to the time America entered into the present war, Mr. Tucker said, this country's shipping rights had been subjected to unbearable treatment. The facts in this case, as well as in the affairs that led up to other wars in which the United States participated, show that the patience of the American people was exhausted. "Forbearance has always been the nation's motto," said the speaker, who then appealed to his hearers to stand with the president as he did not force this country into war of his own free will. National shame and liberty was at stake, and the American people had to get in and do their bit. "No one can foretell crew and train arrived on the scene, and the baggage car was removed, and work begun upon the lifting of the engine and the placing of the mail car again on the tracks so as to clear the way for traffic north and south.

Traffic Interfered With.

As a result of the wreck, traffic on the Northwestern Saturday was badly interfered with, and the morning passenger train was several hours late into Marquette county stations.

A third auto accident occurred at the Gold street crossing yesterday evening when Sam Kokko narrowly escaped death when his car was struck by a South Shore freight engine. Kokko was driving up the hill to the crossing with two passengers in a touring car when he saw two young men signal him that a train was coming and upon seeing the train himself became confused and stalled his car in the center of the tracks. The engineer saw the car and slowed the train down but was unable to stop, hitting the car, and turning it completely around. The two passengers jumped and were uninjured as was also the driver, who stayed with the car.

what the outcome of this conflict will be," said Mr. Tucker. "Germany's creed is 'Faith, Hope and Hate,' the latter in particular."

Mr. Tucker spoke for the greater part of an hour and a half, and created a profound impression upon his audience.

Thompson on Y. M. C. A.

James R. Thompson, one of the members of the committee in charge of the Y. M. C. A. financial campaign in this county, gave some very interesting facts on what the association has done for the soldiers in camps and on battle fields in the present war in Europe, the Spanish-American war, and for those who spent nearly a year on the Mexican border. The Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross were the most efficient organizations that have assisted in looking after the welfare of the fighting men. Mr. Thompson declared. "The Red Cross has accomplished great things in caring for the sick and wounded, while the Y. M. C. A. has rendered splendid service in helping the soldiers and sailors while in training and detention camps, and at the front," he said.

One of the principal missions of the association, is to safe guard the boys who leave their homes to answer their country's call, so that they may not be led into dissipation. The "Y" has had much experience in this work and its officers are capable of furthering the present vast undertaking, which exceeds in importance and general scope anything previously attempted. The association will be equipped to render services to the boys in battle as well as in camps. They supply them with writing materials, entertainment of a wholesome kind, and comforts that would be impossible otherwise. Their spiritual welfare is properly looked after, as the association takes special pains to have all denominations represented by clergymen, who will labor among the men, and who will conduct religious services at regular intervals.

Mr. Thompson told of some of the things that a soldier has to do while on the firing line, while they are in the trenches, what has happened when they came out for their rest, etc. He said that the Y. M. C. A. has given the boys the greatest possible care and comfort when they returned to camp, after one of their awful fighting periods. The association officials pay particular attention to the things that will divert a soldier's mind from what he saw and experienced while engaged in battle. By this means, they have been successful in fighting trim.

There are at present approximately 100,000,000 men in the war, including the forces of all the nations. He said that Germany was never stronger than she is today, and for this reason it is up to the allies to be on their guard and make every preparation to defeat them in the quickest possible time. It is estimated that there are 5,000,000 men in the hospitals of Germany at the present time. Thirty per cent of the wounded have been cured. Every other train operating today in the European war zone is in the service of the army and on most of them there are wounded soldiers enroute to hospitals. Moscow alone has 12,000 hospitals. The Y. M. C. A. in the United States has started out to raise $2,000,000, and Marquette county's proportion of this sum is $5,000.

He urged all who could spare money at this time to take one or more of the bonds, that by so doing they would be helping their country and complemented the audience on the interest manifested in the meeting and the excellent attention given the different speakers.

Sergeant A. Beck, of the Calumet engineers, who has been in the county the past few days securing recruits for the company, was in the audience and Dr. Van Riper called upon him for a few remarks. Mr. Beck said that he had spent ten months on the Mexican border and that too much praise could not be given the Y. M. C. A. for its work in the interest of the soldiers. He also said that the work of the Red Cross was most excellent. He spoke of the entertainment features provided by the "Y" and what the organization had done in a general way and said that the moving picture entertainments given by the "Y" were a very popular form of entertainment.

Besides the selections by the Home Guard band there were several other excellent musical numbers, including solos by Mrs. John Martin, of Green Bay, who is in Beacon visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Reinhardt, and choruses by the students of the Champion high school, under direction of Miss Bernadette M. Butler, musical director. Miss Butler also played the accompaniments for Mrs. Martin. The meeting closed with the audience singing "America," led by the school students.

GOODMAN PLEASED ELKS.

The Menominee Elks held a big banquet one evening last week. A number of clever entertainment features were introduced, including some original stories and local hits by "Bun Goodman." The Menominee Herald-Leader referred to Mr. Goodman as follows:

"The hit of the evening was made by B. J. (Bun) Goodman, of North America who is the most popular Elk in the entire jurisdiction. He related a number of pointed anecdotes and was encored six or seven times. He convulsed the diners with stories of the troubles in which several of his foreign friends were involved in the Twin cities, denounced the army camp, the Rayburn 'factory,' the lumber work in the woods and many other wonderful things. His stories were clean and witty, characterized by nothing to leave a sting and related in his inimitable fashion."

Mrs. Charles Ekstrom, of Marquette, was a week-end guest at the home of Charles Duquette.

Mrs. F. S. Monical, of Beacon, has returned home, after a six weeks' visit with relatives in Brookline, Ind.

P. J. Welsh and family, of Two Harbors, Minn., are here on a visit to his brother, John G. Welsh, and other relatives.

Carl Melstrand, cashier and head book-keeper for Swift & Co., left Friday night for his home in Beloit, Wis., on a few days' visit with his family. He will return today.

Leif Erickson, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, has been called to Kalamazoo by Lieutenant LeLand. Mr. Erickson leaves for a medical training camp June 1. Being a graduate male nurse Mr. Erickson will be of great service in a hospital unit.

J. Arlington Ham left Saturday evening for Chicago, where he will attend the graduation exercises of the Chicago Dental college. His brother Ed. is a member of this year's class.

Miss Eva Cardinal has returned to her home in Beacon to spend her summer vacation. She has been teaching school in Trout Creek. The school there closed Friday for the summer vacation.

Captains James Stephens and Alfred H. Colick, of this city, and James H. Rough, of Negaunee, have returned from their annual visit to West Baden, Ind., where they spent ten days taking treatments.

Erick Eeklund, 320 East Bank street, found a suit case on the railway track between Ishpeming and Negaunee, Saturday. The case contained a number of articles of more or less value. The owner can have it by calling on Mr. Eeklund.

The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railway company had a large force of men at work yesterday improving the tracks near the passenger station. New ties were put in for a considerable stretch and the switches and frogs were put in good order.

If the boy or girl who found a pocket-book containing keys, etc., at the Ishpeming theater Saturday, will return the keys, he can keep the change that was in the pocketbook, in addition to receiving a reward. The keys are badly needed by the owner.

Many Ishpeming men were busy yesterday planting their gardens at their homes and elsewhere in the city, where they have secured lots. Ishpeming's output of potatoes should be many times larger than usual this season, as there are few married men who are not planting, while many of the single men are also working in the garden.

MORE LODGES TO MARCH IN PARADE

Scandinavian Orders Announce Intention to March on Memorial Day.

Two more local fraternal organizations have been added to the list of the societies that will participate in the memorial day parade, to be held in connection with the observance of the day by the G. A. R. veterans. The societies that have announced their intention of taking part in the parade are the local Scandinavian orders.

Another band, Vampa's Famous Italian band, of Ishpeming, has also been engaged and with the two Negaunee bands will make three musical organizations that will be in the line of march. The local Order of Owls, which is among the foremost of the local fraternities, made the announcement yesterday that the order had engaged Vampa's band for the parade Wednesday.

It is probable that the day will be celebrated as a holiday by all of the mines and business houses in the city. Last evening the grocery and meat dealers announced they would be closed all day and an effort will be made to have the other business houses follow their lead. In the past two years some of the merchant's would only agree to close for a portion of the day, but this year some of the leading businessmen have taken the initiative and will probably do much towards having the others close.

TWO AUTO ACCIDENTS.

Week End Saw Boy Run Over And Two Fords Come Together In City.

Up to a late hour yesterday afternoon only two automobile accidents were reported in the city limits for the week end. Saturday afternoon a young woman driving a machine ran into a boy on a bicycle near Winter & Sues's store on Silver street. The lad was painfully, but not severely, injured and was able to go to his home after his injuries were cared for at one of the hospitals.

Yesterday at noon two Ford owners came to grief when they tried to pass each other going in opposite directions at the turn on Gold street on the County road. One of the machines, which was owned by an Ishpeming man looked as if it had been torpedoe while the other car, which was piloted by a Palmer youth, had only a bent fender and axle.

KETONEN-CARR GO PLEASING TO FANS

Announcement of Scrap at Ishpeming on Labor Day Pleases Local Sport Followers.

Negaunee wrestling fans are pleased with the announcement that Manager Butler of the Ishpeming theater has matched Waino Ketonen and Joe Carr for Labor Day. Ketonen has a large following in Negaunee and Carr's reputation is well known to practically every fan in the city. When Ketonen and Carr wrestled a few months ago at Duluth a large delegation of the "Little Finn's" friends in this county witnessed the match.

Ketonen and Carr have wrestled three times for the middle-weight championship of the world, but neither have been able to wrest the title from the other. Carr, it is claimed, by Ketonen's supporters, has never made the weight when wrestling with Waino, but in the coming match he will have a large forfeit posted so that he will be compelled to make the weight at ringside.

In the three times they have met two of the matches went to a draw. The first match was awarded to Carr after the men had been on the mat but a few minutes when Ketonen had injured his shoulder and was unable to continue. The second match went four hours to a draw and was stopped by the police because of the weakened condition of the grapplers. The match last winter was declared a draw after the wrestlers were on the mat for two hours and thirty minutes. All three matches took place at Duluth and promoters there have been exceedingly anxious to bring the two men together again, but this time it will be in this section much to the satisfaction of Marquette county fans.

Ketonen, who is now wrestling in the south, will spend the summer at the Gwinn club's camp on Bass lake, a few miles from Gwinn, and will spend several hours on the mat every day. Bessola, who is one of the coming stars of the wrestling game is looking forward with anticipation the weeks that he will spend with Ketonen as he believes that Ketonen's training will aid him considerably. It is also likely that Ketonen, who is manager of John O'n, the heavyweight contender for the world's title in his division, will have the "big fellows" spend some time in Gwinn with him.

Wrestling fans of the Swanzy range have been well pleased since Ketonen notified Bessola that he would spend

The summer there as they are many followers of the game there. Gwinn has a large number of clever wrestlers and it is likely that Ketonen will receive challenges by the basket full from Gwinn grapplers, who will want to try out against the champion.

Bessola After North and Vice Versa.

There is a big opportunity for a local wrestling promoter to stage a "Big League" wrestling match in Negaunee within the next few weeks. Emil Bessola and Clyde North, contenders for the light heavyweight championship of Michigan, are again at odds relative to their claims for the title. Challenges have been sent back and forth by the two men for some time past and now they are both anxious to get together on the mat for a final test of their ability. North, who wrestles at Newberry, is now at Soo Junction and writes that he will meet Bessola at any time that the latter may name. In a letter to a local sporting man Bessola writes "I am trying to get Clyde North to wrestle me, but am having a hard time to get him on. I want to wrestle him before the season is over so as to convince the Marquette county fans that I can beat him and then I will be satisfied."

Johns After Whitney.

"Dick" Johns, former lightweight Cornish style champion of the upper peninsula, who is now located at Gwinn and has developed into a clever "of a catch as catch can grappler, is anxious to try his ability against Asa Whitney, the Big Bay lightweight. Whitney recently won two falls from Cecil Bengry, who was the title holder in the upper peninsula. Johns would like to get Whitney on for the preliminary match at Ishpeming on Labor Day, when Ketonen and Carr will wrestle.

FUNERAL TODAY.

Mrs. Alex Scott and two sons, William and Foley Webb, of Marble, Minn., arrived in the city yesterday morning from Duluth with the remains of her seven year old son, Walter Webb, who died Saturday morning in a Duluth hospital. The deceased had been vaccinated and on Tuesday he was taken to the Duluth hospital with lock jaw, caused by infection from the vaccination. Mrs. Scott is a sister of Mrs. Patrick Dowd, of this city and the body of her son were taken to the latter's residences on Case street. The funeral will probably be held this morning from St. Paul's church. Mrs. Scott, who is postmistress at Marble, resided here until twelve years ago.

They made room for the old man to sit down again and the rain outside didn't keep the sunshine out of their faces for many blocks.

EIGHT BOATS STILL HELD IN ICE-FIELD

Situation Believed Unprecedented—Theora Breaks Channel to Presque Isle.

Eight boats are now held fast in the ice near Marquette, at various points and distances from the shore, and all within easy vision, making a situation which, pioneers of this region declare, has not been preceded in over fifty years. The boats now held up are: The coast-guard cutter Marigold, the steamer Argo, landed with iron pyrites for the Pioneer furnace; The steamer W. R. Brown, coming up light for ore from the D. S. S. & A. docks; The steamer Michigan, due at the S. & T. docks for ore; The steamer Warriner and her barge the Thompson, due at Pickand's dock with coal; The steamer Steel King, with coal for Pickand's dock; The fish tug Theora, caught while returning from a fishing trip last Sunday.

Falls in Attempt. The Marigold started out Saturday morning to break a channel for the boats held in the ice within a radius of about three miles from shore. She hit the heavy ice shortly after rounding the breakwater, and after breaking a channel for a short distance past the breakwater, she could go no farther. After struggling with these conditions for several hours the Marigold gave up the fight, and last night she was resting in the ice, awaiting that elusive south wind. It is reported the cutter suffered some damage to her propeller. Parker's fish tug, the Theora, succeeded in making port at the old pig iron dock, east of the approach to Presque Isle, late Saturday afternoon, after a momentary south wind had effected a channel just large enough for her to force her way around the island. She will return to her fishing dock as soon as the ice conditions permit. Three miles off Presque Isle for six days. The Warriner and the Thompson have been held in the ice for about a week, and for the past several days have been making no great effort to break a channel. It is deemed useless and a waste of fuel, to attempt any passage until favorable winds loosen the ice. The Argo and the Michigan are held off Presque Isle and they, too, are awaiting a change in the wind.

The ice outside the harbor, as far as the eye can reach in all directions, is still packed hard and close, and is being gradually forced shoreward by the northerly winds, which have prevailed during the past week or more. With the failure of the coast-guard cutter Marigold to break a channel there is no hope for relief of the vessels other than through a change in the direction of the wind, which neither the local weather observers nor the mariners here hoped for the near future. It had been hoped in making this port without trouble from Houghton several days ago, that she would be able to reach at least a part of the small fleet now imprisoned in the ice.

Docks at Standstill. The inability of the boats to reach this port has practically brought to a standstill the work at both the L. S. & I., and the D. S. S. & A., ore docks, and at Pickand's coal dock. There is no boat at either one of the three docks at present, and the officials are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the steamers now held in the ice, that the crews may be put at work loading and unloading.

Condition at the Soo. Whitefish Bay and St. Mary's River, after enjoying a period of respite from the grip of the heavy ice-fields, are again choked, as the result of three days of heavy northwest winds, according to advices from the Soo. The report contradicts predictions by vessel captains that the ice difficulties, for these regions, are at an end. The heavy ice which has been forced through Whitefish Bay and into the mouth of the river comes from Lake Superior. Of the conditions at the Soo, the Soo News says: "From Ironquits Point and Whitefish Point, there is no open water to be seen. The canals and locks are full of heavy ice and lockmen are having the same difficulty in operating the locks that they did the first of the season. Boats are able to progress above the locks however. The ice is heavy, ranging from two to six feet in thickness. It is pointed out that this is heavier than the ice that lay along the shores of Whitefish Bay and has been driven down from the north shore of Lake Superior. "Two lighters, the Reliance and Newman, and a tug released the steel trust steamer William E. Corey from the rocks at Gros Cap Point. Part of the cargo will be reloaded while the lighter Newman will take the remainder to a lower lake port. "The steel trust steamer Douglas Houghton went on the rocks last night at Cedar reef. It is two feet out and is probably badly damaged. The Houghton is downbound with ore."

GALLI-CURCI BEST LIVING SOPRANO

George Tucker Declares None Can Rank With Operatic Star Who Will Appear Here.

To The Mining Journal.—In connection with the appearance of the famous Galli-Curci and Rudolph Ganz, the eminent Swiss pianist, at the Normal auditorium Monday evening of next week, no word of mine could heighten the esteem, or deepen the appreciation of the part of Mr. Ganz, on the part of the lovers of music in Marquette and vicinity. It was my privilege to hear Galli-Curci, who has not yet bowed to a Marquette audience in January last at the Auditorium, Chicago, in Gilda of the "Rigoletto." It has been my good fortune to hear and witness in action nearly all of the world's great vocal and dramatic art since the best days of Adelina Patti, but I have heard no other artist possessed of such power to captivate and thrill an audience as is expressed by Galli-Curci. While it has not been my privilege as yet to hear Galli-Curci in concert with the best vocal authorities, in whose judgment I have implicit confidence, as assured me that her triumphs are as great on the concert stage as in grand opera. It is most earnestly to be hoped, for the education and entertainment of us all, also as a means of sustaining our enviable reputation as being discriminating in our choice of the higher attractions, which of necessity can only come to us rarely, that Galli-Curci and Mr. Ganz will be welcomed by an audience that will fill the vast assembly room to the doors. (Signed) GEORGE TUCKER.

LAUDS DEEDS OF G. A. R. VETERANS. The Rev. Martinson Delivers Impressive Sermon at Memorial Service. "What you veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the comrades that have been mustered out before the Great Captain of our Salvation, during the fateful days of battle, and since, have achieved for human liberty and equality constitutes the hub and center of the greatest program of the grandest civilization yet devised by man, under the inspiration and favor of high Heaven," declared the Rev. E. M. Martinson, in his address to the nine resident veterans of the Civil War, in the First Baptist church yesterday morning. The services were impressive. The veterans, escorted by about thirty-five members of Company M, Thirty-Third Michigan infantry, marched into the church and were given seats near the front. They were followed by the woman's Relief corps. And they marched proudly, these nine aged survivors of the great struggle between the North and the South, with their heads high and their shoulders squared. Following are the veterans of the Civil War now residing in Marquette: M. W. BURT C. E. MOORE P. C. BEANSTON ALLAN COWDEN R. P. BYRNE A. O. KRUGER W. A. JELLISSON A. A. COLE SAMUEL E. BYRNE

In his sermon on "The Speaking Past" the Rev. Martinson lauded the deeds of this rapidly thinning little army and reviewed the memories of its members who have passed away. "From your achievement there radiates the greatest avenue of human progress and happiness, to the utmost limits of time and human opportunity," he declared. "What you did formed the bedrock foundation for the upward climb of the race to the gorgeous heights of patriotic duty and destiny. What you gained by your patriotism and heroism, by your sacrifice and service, by your faith and loyalty has been for the uplift and benefit not of our country alone, but for the spiritual emancipation of man. "What you said, by your consecration, to the Union, was typical of the union of all men, epochal in the inauguration of the new era of freedom and equality for all men, elemental in forcing despotism to a death struggle of planetary proportions; for the world cannot exist half Prussian and half free. That voice of the past, which we now honor and observe, was the voice of God, and its accents are today rousing the nations of the earth. "But not without the shedding of blood can men be saved, either spiritually or politically. The rampant evil in the world requires armed and energetic resistance. Only to the degree that we array ourselves in battle against wrong shall we be found victorious. There can be no question of the ultimate victory of democracy in all human government, any more than that there can be any question of the salvation of the soul that repents and believes. "That kindly bird, perched upon the standard of the stars and stripes, may be brought into trouble in this conflict, but if the patriotism of 91 burns in American hearts today, it is a trouble that shall lead to sublime world triumph a triumph which will cover our glorious banner with still further immortal honors. A special musical program was presented. "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was impressively sung by the choir, and the congregation joined in singing "Michigan My Michigan" and "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

MRS. BREITUNG GIVES X-RAY UNIT TO ARMY

Has Been Ordered from France, and Will Be Delivered in a Few Weeks.

The New York Herald says: "X-ray units for service with the medical corps of the United States army will be the contribution of several leading women of society in New York and throughout the country to the cause of America and her allies. The first unit, valued at about $15,000, will arrive here from France in a few weeks as the gift of Mrs. Edward N. Breitung, of No. 16 East Seventy-sixth street. "Mrs. Breitung's offer of a fully equipped unit for application of X-ray treatment to the wounded on the field was made to the War Department on May 8. Encouraging a reply was received that yesterday she made immediate arrangements to have the great motor truck and its complicated scientific instruments shipped to this country without further delay. "Mrs. Breitung has interested her friends in the government's need of medical equipment, and with some of them have begun the organization throughout the United States of clubs of wealthy members of society which will be devoted to raising funds to provide additional units. While Mrs. Breitung has stipulated that her unit shall not go out of the country, no restriction shall be placed on others to be provided in the near future. "It has been thought best by Mrs. Breitung and her advisers that the first unit be kept within the United States for the training of medical officers and ambulance corps aides in the sixteen concentration camps throughout the country. An expert French instructor will come over with the unit and will remain in Mrs. Breitung's employ until American army physicians are thoroughly conversant with the intricacies of X-ray treatment on the field. "Mrs. Breitung has been closely connected with war relief work. Two X-ray units were given by her to the French Medical Corps some time ago and a third had just gone into the service. Mrs. Charles H. Marshall, of No. 22 East Forty-seventh street, is the donor of one unit now in use on the European battlefield. Both women have been prominent in war benefits events in this city and have been interested in hospital work abroad."

The choral parts which have been under the direction of A. W. Jones and the Rev. R. G. Burt, are varied in character, with occasional strong union passages, which are effectively set off by the rich organ background. The accompaniment parts are especially difficult, are as the organ solo numbers, which will be played by A. P. Hamby, the organist of St. Paul's. The following will take solo parts: A. W. Jones, Miss Kate Snell, Mrs. Nellie Damp, Miss Grace Zerbel and Miss Flora Retallic. No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken which will be given to the work of war relief now being carried on by the various local organizations.

'LIBERTY BOND WEEK' OPENS IN MICHIGAN

Bankers Will Redouble Efforts to Dispose of Loan—Railroads Co-Operate.

Today opens "Liberty Loan Week" for Michigan, according to a recent proclamation by Governor Sleeper, and the bankers and public spirited citizens have begun an active campaign to sell Michigan's quota of the bonds, $50,000,000. Indications are that this amount will be over-subscribed. Marquette has already made in public and semi-public subscriptions, the city commission having applied for $25,000 and two fraternal organizations, the Knights of Columbus and the local branch of the Modern Woodmen of America, $1,000 each of the bonds. The bankers have united to make a thorough canvass and to put forth every effort to interest the public in the bonds. A communication from a prominent Marquette county banker declares that: "This is a patriotic move upon the part of the banks, and it is hoped that the patriotism of the people will lead them to generally take advantage of it. All the banks of the county are vitally interested in the movement, and any one of them will gladly furnish prospective purchasers with all the information desired relative to the Liberty Bond issue. "Must Have Money. "Everyone, of course, is vitally interested in the outcome of the war. Money as well as men is necessary to successfully carry on the conflict. The men will be eventually obtained through the selective draft, if not by voluntary enlistment; the money, a good share of it, must come through the Liberty bonds. The time is short, and the banks are being urged to make all haste in securing the subscriptions. "Government bonds are always regarded as gilt-edged investments, and the position this government now occupies, financially, among the nations of the world, makes the Liberty bonds doubly attractive. "The Liberty Bonds bear interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent, but they are free from taxation, except the inheritance and estate taxes. The man with an average income, therefore, is practically assured the full three and one-half per cent return. "All the Marquette county banks have agreed to assist the public in the purchasing of these bonds by loaning money on them. The terms are ten dollars down on the bonds purchased only the three and one-half per cent interest being charged on the unpaid balance. This is an unusual concession, and the banks say the bonds are now within easy reach of all. "The man who saves five or ten dollars per month from his income and pays the first installment on his bond purchase will, within a few months thereafter, find himself in possession of United States government securities which should net him a neat return," asserted a banker yesterday. Railroad Takes it Up. To encourage their employees to purchase the Liberty bonds the L. S. & I., and the M. M. & S. E. railroad officials have caused the following bulletin to be posted in conspicuous places among the offices and shops. "It is our wish to extend to every employee of the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway, and the Munising, Marquette & Southeastern Railway the opportunity to subscribe for the Liberty Loan 3 1/2 per cent bonds. We wish to help our employees to do this, and to that end the company will, if so desired, make payment for all bonds subscribed for by employees, in whatever amount each may feel that he can afford to purchase. An initial payment of 5 per cent of such amount will be required and the company will carry the bonds at the coupon rate, namely 3 1/2 per cent. The balance due on each bond may be paid in monthly installments to run for a period of one year or less, if subscriber so desires, which can be deducted from the payroll, and when fully paid for the bonds will be delivered to the individual owner. "The Liberty Loan 3 1/2% will be dated June 15, 1917, and will run thirty years, the government having a option to redeem at the end of fifteen years. In case the government should put out a bond bearing a higher rate of interest during the period of the present war, these 3 1/2 per cent bonds would automatically bear that higher rate. "The bonds may be had in coupon form, being issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, and $1,000. "The Liberty bonds are free of taxes. "H. R. Harris, general manager, will receive subscriptions from the employees of the L. S. & I. R'y., and the M. M. & S. E. R'y. "WM. G. MATHER, "President."

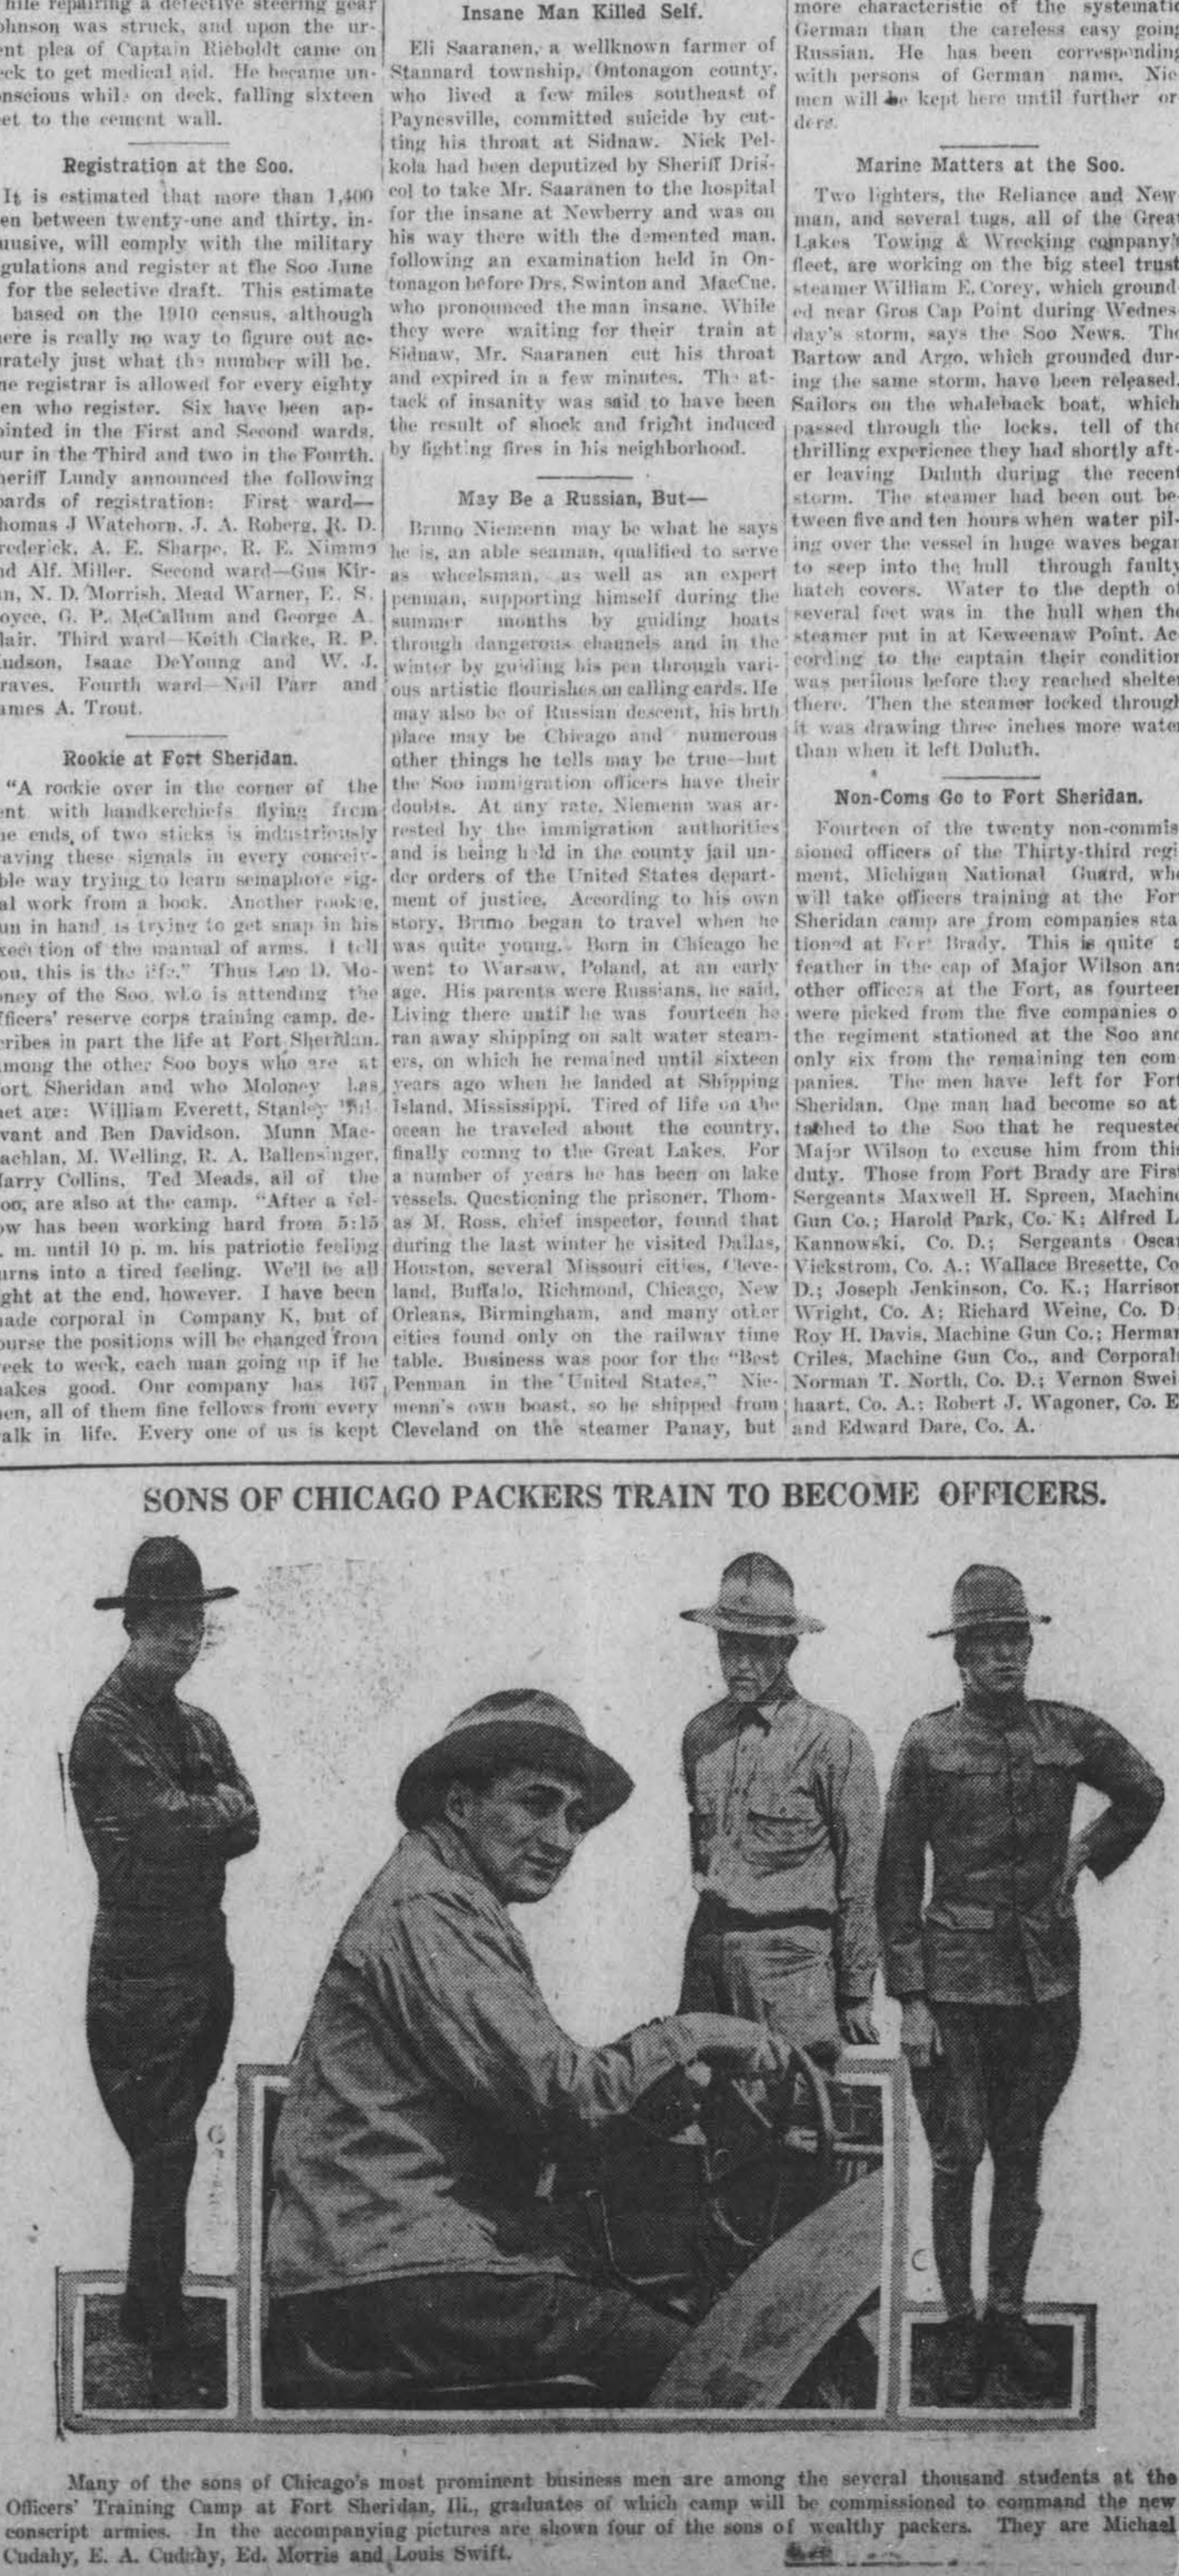

Upper Peninsula. First Mate Killed at the Soo. Augustus Johnson, first mate on the steamer Romania, was killed by a fall from the deck of the vessel to the wall at the upper end of the Soo canal as the vessel was about to leave. Dr. G. J. Dickson, coroner, declared death was accidental. Johnson was thirty-three years old and lived in Beaver, Wis. While repairing a defective steering gear Johnson was struck, and upon the urgent plea of Captain Riebold came on deck to get medical aid. He became unconscious while on deck, falling sixteen feet to the cement wall. Registration at the Soo. It is estimated that more than 1,400 men between twenty-one and thirty, inclusive, will comply with the military regulations and register at the Soo June 5, for the selective draft. This estimate is based on the 1910 census, although there is really no way to figure out accurately just what the number will be. One registrar is allowed for every eighty men who register. Six have been appointed in the First and Second wards, four in the Third and two in the Fourth. Sheriff Lundy announced the following boards of registration: First ward—Thomas J. Watchorn, J. A. Robert, R. D. Frederick, A. E. Sharpe, R. E. Nimmo and Alf. Miller. Second ward—Gus Kircau, N. D. Morrish, Mead Warner, E. S. Royce, G. P. McCallum and George A. Blair. Third ward—Keith Clarke, R. P. Hudson, Isaac DeYoung and W. J. Graves. Fourth ward—Neil Parr and James A. Trout. Rookie at Fort Sheridan. "A rookie over in the corner of the tent, with handkerchiefs flying from the ends, of two sticks is industriously waving these signals in every conceivable way trying to learn semaphore signal gun from a book. Another rookie, gun in hand is trying to get snap in his execution of the manual of arms. I tell you, this is the life at Fort Sheridan. Among the other Soo boys who are at officers' reserve corps training camp, describes in part the life at Fort Sheridan. Fort Sheridan and who Maloney has met are: William Everett, Stanley J. Livant and Ben Davidson. Munn MacLehlan, M. Welling, R. A. Ballensinger, Harry Collins, Ted Meads, all of the Soo, are also at the camp. "After a fellow has been working hard from 5:15 a. m. until 10 p. m. his patriotic feeling turns into a tired feeling. We'll be all right at the end, however. I have been made corporal in Company K, but between the positions will be going from week to week, each man going up if he makes good. Our company has 167 men, all of them fine fellows from every walk in life. Every one of us is kept on the go every minute as we must get in three months practically what West Pointers get in four years. To see all the fellows studying every spare minute you'll agree with what one man said, "Gentlemen, Young America, is not going to hell, it is going to war." We expect that soon we will go where Pershing is going. I am anxious for that as I have always wanted to see the Irish way. Our diet consisted of beans and bacon, changing occasionally to bacon and beans and then back again." Insane Man Killed Self. Eli Saarinen, a wellknown farmer of Stannard township, Ontonagon county, who lived a few miles southeast of Paynesville, committed suicide by cutting his throat at Sishaw. Nick Pelkola had been deputized by Sheriff Driekol to take Mr. Saarinen to the hospital for the insane at Newberry and was on his way there with the demented man, following an examination held in Ontonagon before Drs. Swinton and MacCue, who pronounced the man insane. While they were waiting for their train at Sishaw, Mr. Saarinen cut his throat and expired in a few minutes. The attack of insanity was said to have been the result of shock and fright induced by fighting fires in his neighborhood. May Be a Russian, But—Bruno Niemann may be what he says he is, an able seaman, qualified to serve as wheelman, as well as an expert penman, supporting himself during the summer months by guiding boats through dangerous channels and in the winter by flouting his pen through various artistic flourishes on calling cards. He may also be of Russian descent, his birth place may be Chicago and numerous other things he tells may be true—but the Soo immigration officers have their doubts. At any rate, Niemann was arrested by the immigration authorities and is being held in the county jail under orders of the United States department of justice. According to his own story, Bruno began to travel when he was quite young. Born in Chicago he went to Warsaw, Poland, at an early age. His parents were Russians, he said. Living there until he was fourteen he ran away shipping on salt water steamers, on which he remained until sixteen years ago when he landed at Shipping Island, Mississippi. Tired of life on the ocean he traveled about the country, finally coming to the Great Lakes. For a number of years he has been on lake vessels. Questioning the prisoner, Thomas M. Ross, chief inspector, found that during the last winter he visited Dallas, Houston, several Missouri cities, Cleveland, Buffalo, Richmond, Chicago, New Orleans, Birmingham, and many other cities found only on the railway time table. Business was poor for the "Best Penman in the United States," Niemann's own boast, so he shipped from Cleveland on the steamer Panay, but was arrested at Iyng Inlet, Ont., May 5, by Canadian officers on information at Toledo. Niemann speaks German, Russian, English and Spanish, fluently and in every way shows that his education has not been neglected. "My mother told me the Lincoln kindergarten in Chicago," he replied to Mr. Ross, when questioned concerning the schools he attended. According to Mr. Ross, the prisoner has none of the characteristics of a Slav, but is decidedly German in appearance. His methods of indexing letters, and other papers, is more characteristic of the systematic German than the careless easy going Russian. He has been corresponding with persons of German name. Niemann will be kept here until further orders. Marine Matters at the Soo. Two lighters, the Reliance and Newman, and several tugs, all of the Great Lakes Towing & Wrecking company's fleet, are working on the big steel trust steamer William E. Corey, which grounded near Gros Cap Point during Wednesday's storm, says the Soo News. The Bartow and Argo, which grounded during the same storm, have been released. Sailors on the whaleback boat, which passed through the locks, told of the thrilling experience they had shortly after leaving Duluth during the recent storm. The steamer had been out between five and ten hours when water piling over the vessel in huge waves began to seep into the hull through faulty hatch covers. Water to the depth of several feet was in the hull when the steamer put in at Kevecan Point. According to the captain their condition was perilous before they reached shelter there. Then the steamer locked through it was drawing three inches more water than when it left Duluth. Non-Coms Go to Fort Sheridan. Fourteen of the twenty non-commissioned officers of the Thirty-third regiment, Michigan National Guard, who will take officers training at the Fort Sheridan camp are from companies stationed at Fort Brady. This is quite a feather in the cap of Major Wilson and other officers at the Fort, as fourteen were picked from the five companies of the regiment stationed at the Soo and only six from the remaining ten companies. The men have left for Fort Sheridan. One man had become so attached to the Soo that he requested Major Wilson to excuse him from this duty. Those from Fort Brady are First Sergeants Maxwell H. Spreen, Machine Gun Co.; Harold Park, Co. K; Alfred L. Kankowski, Co. D; Sergeants Oscar Vickstrom, Co. A.; Wallace Brettee, Co. D; Joseph Jenkinson, Co. K; Harrison Wright, Co. A.; Richard Weiss, Co. D; Roy H. Davis, Machine Gun Co.; Herman Cylles, Machine Gun Co.; and Corporals Norman T. North, Co. D.; Vernon Sweinhart, Co. A.; Robert J. Wagoner, Co. E, and Edward Dare, Co. A.
