Manistique, Michigan

The boat launch at the site of the old go-cart track is ready to be used by anglers. Representatives of the private sector, public sector and business cut the red ribbon.

City may increase water rates

Residents of Manistique may have to pay as much as $7 more per month on water bills to pay for a water department project.

Manistique city council unanimously voted Monday to proceed with the acquisition of a $4.5 million loan to improve the city's waterworks.

City manager Alan Housler said that although the ways the city can finance the project are not set, the cost will not change much.

"The figures have to be re-fined," he said. "They are not way off, but they could change slightly."

When councilman Don Halling asked where the 15 percent increase or $7 per household figure came from, Housler said it was based on a 3,000 to 4,000 gallon per household estimate.

Half of the $4.5 million will come from a grant, while the other half will come from Farnier's

45th annual Hamfest to be held Saturday

The 45th Annual Hamfest hosted by the Manistique Amateur Radio Association will be held Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at St. Francis De Sales in Manistique.

Hamfest will give amateur radio operators and those interested in the hobby the chance to test and purchase the latest in amateur radio equipment.

"We will have dealers from Texas, Ohio and Illinois along with several from Michigan," said Debbie Barton, Manistique Radio Association treasurer and chairperson for the event. "There has been a lot of interest in computer and CD-ROM technology in amateur radio."

There will be software dealers at Hamfest along with people demonstrating the latest technologies.

Barton said there will also be dealers selling used equipment.

"For those who are interested in getting involved in amateur radio," she said, "used equipment is relatively inexpensive."

Andy Biggar gives direction to soccer players attending the Britannia Soccer-Reebok community soccer camp. Biggar works for the Watford Football Club in Watford, England.

English coach helps kids

This is the second year the Britannia Reebok camp has been held in Manistique," he said.

"There are around 300 other camps throughout the U.S."

Biggar has been seven different communities throughout Michigan and Indiana and will be in the United States teaching unit on Sept. 20.

He said he became involved in teaching soccer because of his love

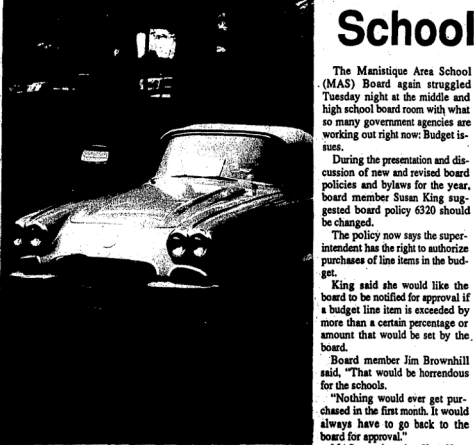

by Robert Kirkbride

Andy Biggar is the same as any 26-year-old in Manistique. Except for his accent and his ability to teach and play soccer.

Biggar, from Watford, England, is coaching soccer this week in Manistique as part of the Britannia Soccer-Reebok Community Soccer Camps.

The Britannia Soccer-Reebok camps have been working in the United States for the past 11 years. The five-day camps are open to boys and girls and the number of students is limited to offer intensive study.

Biggar arrived in the United States June 10, along with more than 60 other coaches from England and Scotland to teach the game to American kids across the country.

This Corvette was just one of the entrants in the Krux-In Classic car show held Saturday at the Pine Park.

This is not your father's Oldsmobile

The first Krux-In Car Show brought auto enthusiasts together on Saturday at the Pine Park in Manistique.

More than 600 car lovers added to the cars. Each had their own special favorite.

"Whether it be a classic Corvette, your father's Oldsmobile," the car was the place to be.

Some 100 owners entered cars in the show.

Some came from several states to see the car.

Unique aspect of the show was the fact that the people chose their own cars.

People's choices were: Don and Ruth Brook of Manistique for their 1934 five-window Ford coupe; Mike and Kathy Hanson of Escanaba for their four-door, hardtop 1959 Ford; Dan and Pat Langston of Schaffer for their hardtop 1957 red Chevy; Jeff and Gail Dentons of Kaukauna, Wis. for their two-door 1935 Ford sedan; and Lyle and Cloe Kotchouk of Manistique for their two-tone 1955 Pontiac Catalina.

School board looks at policies

The Manistique Area School (MAS) Board again struggled Tuesday night at the middle and high school board room with what so many government agencies are working out right now: Budget issues.

During the presentation and discussion of new and revised board policies and bylaws for the year, board member Susan King suggested board policy 630 should be changed.

The policy now says the superintendent has the right to authorize purchases of line items in the budget.

King said she would like the board to be notified for approval if a budget line item is exceeded by more than a certain percentage or amount that would be set by the board.

Board member Jim Brownhill said that the school board does not have to be notified every time a line item is changed or exceeded.

"This is getting at the very basis of operation at the school level," he said. "I know how many decisions need to be made on a day to day basis that would be slowed by this."

Another budget issue the board discussed was how much time board members got to examine the budget before it had to be passed.

Under board policy number 6220, the superintendent must give the school board sufficient time for the board to examine the budget.

"I'd like to see a specific amount of days we would have to examine the budget," said King.

"I would like to see June 1 as that day," said Harroun. "This would give you sufficient time before the budget meeting to look over the budget."

New state of Michigan and United States flags were raised at the Schoolcraft Historical Museum and Water Tower. The Disabled American Veterans Manistique chapter 26 donated the American flag and Rep. Pat Gagliardi donated the state flag.

Hospital accepts bid for building addition

The Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital (SMH) Board of Trustees decided at their July 21 meeting to accept the $71,000 bid from Peninsula Contractors of Marquette to renovate the obstetrics unit and expand the hospital's laboratory.

According to a letter from hospital administrator, as soon as appropriate financing has been obtained, a formal construction contract will be signed with Peninsula Construction.

Once the construction is complete, the hospital laboratory will be doubled in size and the obstetrics department will have two birthing rooms, a newborn nursery, six post-partum rooms and a waiting room for friends and family members.

Construction is scheduled to begin in late August, and should be completed in March, 1994.

The following bids were also received for the project:

- Menze Construction of Marquette bid $742,000.
- Closter Construction & Sales, Inc. of Marquette bid $774,800.
- Johnson Brothers of Munising bid $798,800.

In other action, the board: ...heard a proposal from Harris, Kovaks & Alderman Medical Search Consultants regarding certified registered nurse/anesthetologist (CRNA) recruitment opportunities.

...accepted the Hospital Quality Assurance Plan that is required by accrediting bodies that defines how the hospital will work to assure quality.

...supported the Michigan Employee Retirement Systems (MERS) stance on the option to choose a Defined Benefit Plan and/or a Defined Contribution Plan.

Medical Care Facility Birthday Party

by Dorothy Hoholik
Summerfest continued at the Schoolcraft County Medical Care Facility on Wednesday, July 21 at 12 o'clock noon. The annual picnic was held in the Pavilion Annex. Sunshine contributed to the successful outing as eight birthdays were celebrated with a record breaking crowd of patients and guests. As the patients began filling up the pavilion decorated with a Western theme, bag lunches were passed out. Ham salad sandwiches, macaroni salad, baked beans, lemonade and birthday cake were the menu for the picnic lunch.
A pre-dinner show of dance was ably presented by "The All In The Family Show." Coming to the facility to entertain the patients at the annual picnic for the past 12 years, was Holly Cyrus of Farmington Hills, MI. Holly is the granddaughter of volunteer Betty DeSauteau. Tap and jazz dancing in the attention of auditors and patients. The Senior Citizens Swingers played their annual concert following the picnic lunch. As always, they played the music the patients love to hear and special dance numbers like the "Tea Rose" under one roof. I am confident that more and more private employers are meeting the challenge and providing veterans with job and training opportunities," says Gary Bjorkquist, Veteran Employment Supervisor. "Among the services offered for veterans will be interview appointments, job applications and information about career opportunities from the many area employers. Questions please call Gary Bjorkquist at (906) 786-6841.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Zellar

Linda Swanson and Jeff Zellar exchange vows

Linda Lee Swanson and Jeffrey John Zellar were united in marriage Saturday, June 19 at Church of the Redeemer Presbyterian. The 2 p.m. double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. L. Barry Phelps. The bride was given in marriage by her parents, John and Wanda Swanson. Parents of the groom are Stanley and Joanne Zellar of Gulliver.

Serving as maid of honor was Stacey Zellar, sister of the groom. Bridesmaids were Stacie Kennedy, Connie Zellar and Tammy Harris. Meghan McKenzie, cousin of the groom, was the flower girl.

Best man was Pat Braun. Groomsman were Stanley Zellar Jr., James Zellar, brothers of the groom and Paul Sartori. Ring bearers were Nicholas Pomeroy and Bradley Zellar, nephews of the groom.

Serving as ushers were Kevin Swanson, brother of the bride and James Dusseault.

The bride chose a full length gown featuring Victorian lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of freeze-dried roses and wore pearl drop earrings, a gift from her mother.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore tea length floral print gowns. The flower girl's dress matched the bride's and she carried a basket of baby's breath and roses.

Following a reception at Blansy Inn the couple took a wedding trip to Mackinac Island. They are making their home in Gulliver.

The bride is employed at Six County Consortium, Manistiquie and the groom is employed by Specialty Minerals, Inc., Gulliver.

At home with Sarah

by Sarah Bignall

Elma Bowersox is one of the best bakers in town and known for her wonderful pies. She served this blueberry pie when I visited her and I was very pleased that she shared it with me. It is better than any blueberry pie I have ever made.

BLUEBERRY PIE

2 1/3 cups all-purpose flour	4 cups fresh or frozen (thawed) blueberries
3/4 cup shortening or butter	1 teas. grated lemon peel
1/2 cup shortening	1 teas. gd. cinnamon
3/4 teas. salt	1/2 cup plus 2 teas. sugar (or 3/4 cup)
1 large egg	1 tbl. oleo
1 tbl. white vinegar

In a large bowl stir 2 cups flour and salt. Cut shortening into flour until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. In cup, beat egg slightly and stir in vinegar and 3 tbl. cold water. Add egg mixture to flour mixture, mixing lightly with fork until dough will hold together. With hands, shape dough into 2 balls, one slightly larger. If you are using frozen berries, drain. Gently toss berries, lemon peel, cinnamon, sugar and remaining 1/2-cup flour.

Roll out crust and place loosely in pie plate. Spoon blueberry mixture into crust. Cut oleo into small pieces over mixture. Moisten edge of bottom crust with water and place top crust over filling. Cut a two inch X in the center of top crust. Fold each corner over, leaving an open square in the center for steam to escape. Bake pie for 40 minutes until filling begins to bubble and crust is golden. If crust browns too quickly, cover edges loosely with foil. Cool before serving.

Sarah says Keep a small bag handy when mixing dough just in case the telephone or doorbell rings. Slip your hand into the sack and open the door or lift the receiver without getting dough all over.

Sherry Sablack was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Julie Reid, Brit Gray, Amy Braeger, sister-in-law of the bride, Kim Baker and Sue Fischer. They wore teal tea length satin gowns.

Jason Arnold was the best man and groomsmen were Ron Braeger, brother of the bride, Craig Gogola, Mike Braeger, brother of the bride, Troy Baker, cousin of the groom and Tom Holcik.

Ushers were Steve Bosan and Dean Deloria. Amber and Allyson Wood were the flower girls, and Stephen Braeger was the ring bearer.

The reception was held at the K C Hall with dinner and dancing. Parents of the bride are Joe and Laura Braeger and parents of the groom are John and Bonnie Garvin.

Patti (Braeger) and John Garvin were united in marriage on Saturday, March 27, at St. Francis de Sales Church in Manistiquie.

Father James Menapace performed the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony. Cousin of the bride, Jill Burnis, was the soloist, while Sandy Szczygiel played the organ.

The bride wore a satin schiffli embroidered gown by Alfred Angelo. The mandarin collar neck of the gown was embroidered with sequins with drop pearls accenting the front. The dress had puffed sleeves, an empire waist and a chapel length train. The back of the gown had a heart shape with pearls accenting it. The embroidered chapel train emanated from a heart shaped pleum. Her headpiece was intertwined with strands of pearls forming the band with flowers and pearls adorning the

The voice of Schoolcraft County since 1876

Good choice

Government decisions are often criticized by the general public and the media.

Sometimes it is justified and sometimes it is not. Only rarely is government praised for a wise decision it has made.

Praise must go to the Manistique city council for their decision to unanimously accept Linda Armock as the new city clerk/treasurer.

Armock has struggled to rise to the top of the Economic Development Corporation, serving as the executive director for the past 18 months.

In the last 18 months, she has made dramatic improvements to the EDC.

Her knowledge and skill at acquiring and administering federal and state grants has made her an invaluable employee to city and county government.

The citizens of Schoolcraft county are losing a proven leader at the EDC.

Luckily, the city of Manistique will be getting her considerable skills.

City manager Alan Houser said at Monday's city council meeting that Linda Armock was well qualified.

He couldn't have been more on the mark.

Pat Erikson, the present city clerk/treasurer who is retiring Oct. 1, has done a great job for the city and should also be commended.

As tension grows between the government and the public, we need to stop and give credit to the city council and city manager where credit is due.

"There will be some inequities in any plan that goes forth," said councilman Dougovito. "What to charge commercial haulers is a city and township choice. It is an individual choice."

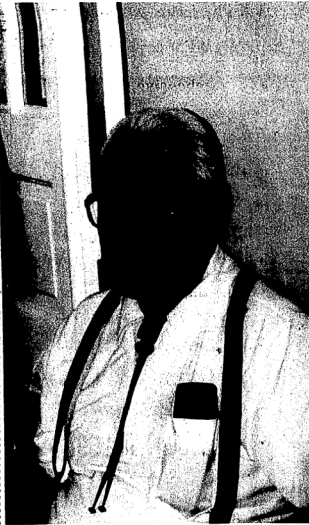

"It is up to the city council to decide on a way to collect for commercial."

"I could be by weight or it could be by cubic yard."

"It's up to each government to decide."

Halling said he could not understand how the CDDPW could present the $15 per capita idea without knowing what the commercial policy would be.

"You (CDDPW members) are the ones collecting $220 per meeting," Halling said. "Why did

Downstate Differences

by Robert Kirkbride

Sugar-beaters like me who are from below the bridge have a different way of viewing things. Not better, not worse, just different.

In this column I will try to explain some of the differences and why they exist.

The next time you look through the Manistique telephone book look for families, not specific names.

The people of the Upper Peninsula still believe in a thing called family.

It is evident at events such as the Fourth of July celebration, Folkfest and school sporting events.

One can often find three generations of a family celebrating together. The joy of one family member is shared, so is the sorrow.

Downstate, the feeling of family has been lost somewhat throughout the years.

Families have drifted apart, and only rarely does one find a strong family unit.

This is especially true for the cities. It is easy to lose track of a family member in a big city. Even though they may only live a few miles away in another neighborhood, it is in the rush to "get there" whatever that means, they are forgotten.

Although the families in Upper Michigan are strong, the people in the region often makes it impossible for families to stay near and a separate way to fund the closure would be needed in the future when preliminary studies are complete.

...The city council named Linda Armock to the position of city clerk/treasurer to take the place of Pat Erikson, who is retiring.

Armock formerly worked as the executive director for the Schoolcraft County Economic Development Corporation (EDC). She worked with the EDC for five years and worked in various positions within the organization.

Armock will begin her new job on Aug. 16 and will learn from Erikson until she retires on Oct. 1.

Houser said the application process was done in the widest circle applicable. He added that there were 21 applicants for the position.

"I concluded there was one applicant that was very qualified for the position," he said. "That person is Linda Armock."

"One area we looked at was the probability of longevity in the position. That does become very, very valuable to the community."

"She would bring skills to the job such as experience with grants and she knows local folks and how the system works."

Halling made a motion to accept Houser's recommendation and hire Linda Armock as city clerk/treasurer. The motion was seconded by Boyd and passed unanimously.

Armock will receive $24,000 for her work.

John Filoramo, of Davis, Olson, Filoramo, Jarvi & McNamara, P.C., was named city attorney. Stephen F. Pereira, of the same firm, was named assistant city attorney.

According to Houser, compensation will be $1,562 per month effective as of July 1, 1993. This amount includes all money being paid as salary, with no fringe benefits, at Filoramo's request.

...City council discussed the possibility of a snow ordinance that would require either the city to clear snow from sidewalks in Manistique or individual homeowners.

"This is in regard to a letter we reviewed at the March 11, 1993 city council meeting," said Stewart. "The letter was from a concerned parent who's kids had to walk in the roadway because the sidewalks weren't cleared."

"I favor the idea that each individual property owner clear their own sidewalk area."

He said by not having sidewalk clean-up done by the city, the city does not have to worry about liability if an accident were to occur because of slippery sidewalks.

Boyd favored city clean-up of snow-covered sidewalks. "I'll go back to what I said in the last meeting that we talked about this," he said. "I'm concerned that it would be hard on residents who cannot shovel the snow."

Dougovito said the large percentage of cleared sidewalks in the winter are already those of the senior citizens.

Halling suggested the city only clear the main school routes to save money.

Stewart asked Boyd and Houser to explore the cost and costs of the city clearing sidewalks and bring the ideas to the Aug. 23 city council meeting.

...Stewart appointed Bill Cole to the zoning board of appeals.

...During citizen comments, Peter Markham asked the city to look into the condition of the roofs at the city water water treatment plant.

Catholic faces crisis

How the Church of Marquette can be "Fully Alive in '93" is the issue being addressed by the Catholic Diocese of Marquette.

This summer the clergy and people of the diocese will begin the two-year process of developing a comprehensive diocesan plan. The purpose will be to ensure adequate parish ministry and viable faith communities for all Catholics in the Upper Peninsula.

One of the main reasons for establishing a diocesan plan is to address the diminishing number of priests. In 1982, there were 89 active diocesan priests serving in the Upper Peninsula. In 1992, the number was down to 77. Those priests care for 84 parishes and 31 missions in the diocese.

In announcing the two-year project to the people of the diocese, Bishop James Garland asked for everyone's assistance.

"Having consulted the Council of Priests, the Deans and other advisors, I am asking for your prayers and participation in this planning process," Bishop Garland said.

"We will address the priest shortage and will discern, with the Holy Spirit's guidance, what we can do to call forth from all of us the resources of time, talent and treasure needed to fulfill the mission entrusted to us by Christ Jesus."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

It is reported that a movement is afoot to bring the death penalty to Michigan.

First of all premeditated murder seems to be the worst kind, unless the state does it. I find that rather odd.

Some states even execute mentally sick people. Pretty barbaric in my opinion.

I can't remember the last time a rich, or influential person including big time crime leaders was executed.

The death penalty at best is unfair and prejudicial, at worst it is just another form of murder.

Dear Editor:

Even after reading the letter to the community from Mr. Lawrence Leveque, EPA Community Relations Coordinator, I am still seriously concerned about the EPA's proposed clean-up action in the Manistique Harbor. While I appreciate the EPA's effort behind the letter I do not think that it addressed many of the specific concerns that face this community.

Why is the proposed clean-up being planned for a time during our annual Salmon Derby? If as you say government funds are now available why have three local companies been put on notice that they will have to pay for the clean-up? Do you not understand that a small economically disadvantaged community like Manistique depends on local industries for its economic health?

How can you say that the PCBs in the Harbor are due to an historical process when you haven't made any attempt to find all the sources? It makes sense to me that if you truly want to clean up the environment you would do it right the first time.

The EPA keeps talking about the "severity of the contamination" in the Harbor but still has not told us what the risk to our health or the environment is.

Why hasn't the EPA made an effort to listen to the community and consider any alternate approaches?

Will the EPA respond to citizens comments and questions in an open public forum before any dredging takes place? Will we be allowed any input into what happens to our community?

I appreciate the attempt by Mr. Leveque to inform the community but I think that the people of Manistique deserve more than a one-sided conversation. I think a dialogue in order, the give and take of ideas and information.

This is, after all, our home and we have to live with the circumstances of the EPA's decision.

Meg Wauk

Dear Editor:

It's time to take a stand and deliver.

In 1988, a hit movie, "Stand and Deliver," told the story of a Los Angeles High School whose students overcame the obstacles and the skeptics. These students and teachers performed.

It's time to take a page from their book.

In the last 20 years, Lansing hasn't delivered property tax and school funding problems have steadily grown worse in spite of many legislative efforts to correct the problem.

In the recent past, the problem has been thrown to the voters through the Cut and Cap (Proposal C) and Proposal A, both of which went down to defeat. In fact, the legislature has tried every option conceivable except to attack the real problem, which is our unfair system of taxing property to pay for schools.

We have reached a crisis point. Assessment increases are taking some people from their homes. Schools are having a difficult time passing millages and more school closings like Kalkaska are likely to happen this fall. The Governor was proposing another tax cut without raising revenues for schools. I saw many of our schools sinking in quicksand with no relief in sight.

In the last few weeks, the Legislature once again began tinkering with property tax reform. On Tuesday, Senate Republicans proposed a plan similar to Proposal C, an immediate 20 percent tax cut (phased in over three years). This proposal would have meant a tax relief, no replacement revenue for schools and no solution to the severe funding inequities facing our education system. Instead of improving the quality of education, this proposal would have added to the crisis.

My Senate Democratic colleagues and I instead introduced a proposal for real reform to eliminate property taxes for school funding beginning in the summer of 1994 and calling upon the Governor to immediately convene an Education Summit of top leaders to address the next important step of restructuring funding for our schools. This amendment was adopted by a bipartisan majority of my colleagues in the House and Senate.

By taking this bold action, the legislature has finally said yes to real property tax relief, and we changed the question to "How do we equitably fund our schools?"

I am willing to work with all parties to true reform, but there must be three principles on which we cannot compromise:

1. The property tax cannot be
2. inequity in spending per student between districts must be reduced, and
3. improvement in the quality of education must be a part of this

There are many plans and options before us which we will seriously consider. Central to this process must be parents and teachers. They know best the challenges in educating our children.

This week the legislature really stood up; we scrapped a system that deserved to be scrapped.

Now it's time to deliver a school system that provides real quality education. My colleagues and I are committed and, if we can just put partnership aside for a few months, I believe we will succeed.

Senator Debbie Stabenow
Dear Editor:

As State Treasurer, I am responsible for maintaining the integrity and profitability of the State's pension systems. We currently have very well funded systems for state, public school, judicial, and state police employees and retirees.

Recently, the Legislature has debated a proposal to change the retirement benefits to NEW state and public school employees. This is an important policy issue which I believe is in the best interest of every taxpayer in the state.

Our current retirement plan provides very generous benefits for state and public school employees. The state's plan is, in many respects, more generous than even the "Big Three." Our State Constitution protects current public employee benefits from being altered in any way.

While the state's pension investments have been doing very well over the past 10 years, Michigan residents should understand that they, as taxpayers, are ultimately responsible for public pensions.

Under a new defined contribution system of pension benefits, new state and public school employees would have five percent and their gross annual income placed into an account from which a variety of investment options would be available. All new employees would be provided adequate information about all investment options and how to structure their account to best suit their needs.

By moving to this system the employee, not the taxpayer, then becomes responsible for his or her own retirement.

With a defined contribution program, the State will be providing a pension plan that is more equitably distributed among all employees. It is also portable and provides these public employees with a benefit linked to their position and years of service. This, I believe, represents good public policy.

Without question, I believe the taxpayers of Michigan will benefit from a defined contribution program for new state and public school employees. First, the cost risks would be shifted from the taxpayer to the recipient. Second, these public employees would have a more equitable and fair pension benefit that would apply to all new employees, not just those who work into the next century.

Sincerely,
Douglas B. Roberts
State Treasurer

The Manistique Community Concert in Manistique. Mary and Robert King will perform for the last time in this area. The chamber music concert starts at 8 p.m.

Last time to catch Kings

The second concert of the 25th anniversary season of chamber music concerts, sponsored by the Community Concert Committee, will be given on Sunday, Aug. 1 at the Church of the Redeemer in Manistique.

The program will include area performers David Collins from Fayette, and former summer residents Mary and Robert King.

Pianist David Collins appeared for the first time in the series last year after he had been awarded a prize in composition in an international competition. Last year he was awarded a scholarship from Western Michigan University to compose a symphony, which he has just completed.

The King's are the founders of the chamber music concert series and are the series directors.

This concert marks a milestone in the history of the series. It will be the final appearance of the Kings.

"We have many regrets about ending our performances here and about leaving the area and our many friends and associates," he said. "We have moved often over the years, but Manistique has been almost a permanent home in some senses, since we have returned here every summer for more than twenty-five years."

"Since our retirement to Ithaca, N.Y., we have become heavily involved in performing and in participating in the many cultural and educational activities that are available there, so that leaving becomes harder and harder."

"We will certainly miss our summers here and our many friends, but we wish the concert committee our best in continuing their laudable efforts over the years to bring fine performances of classical music to the area."

Lawrence Leviton, a soloist and ensemble performer from Stevens Point, Wis. will also perform. Leviton teaches at the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point. King will join Collins on the violin to perform a sonata by Brahms.

A piano quartet by Mozart will be performed. The Kings will be on the violin and viola. Leviton will play the cello and Collins will play the piano.

The concert will open with a virtuosic concerto by the famous Baroque composer Telemann. This opening virtuoso is for violin, cello and piano.

The early 20th century will be represented by a group of duos for violin and cello by the Russian composer Opus 11.

The concert will be at 8 p.m. and light refreshments will be served.

...Under the new board policy 220, "Since one of the District's goals is to prepare students to enter the world of work, the Board directs that each course of study include as part of its learning outcomes that students can demonstrate their willingness and ability to be punctual, to be present at the learning site each day unless absent for a legitimate reason, and to complete assignments on time and as directed. The Superintendent's guidelines should include recommendations to staff on how to instruct students in these important work ethics and how to include these learnings in the grades that students receive."

Harroun said it was illegal to discipline students by reducing grades because of attendance.

"What this new policy does is grade," he said. "Instead of losing part of a grade already earned, attendance will be part of earning the grade itself."

"I get a lot of calls from employers who want to know attendance records of a former student."

"Part of our goal is to prepare students for the real world."

"Courses, grades and attendance

Klagstad asked how legitimate excuses would be addressed.

"There's acceptable and non-acceptable excuses," he said. "For example, going shopping is not acceptable."

"The administration is sitting down later this week to decide what will and will not be acceptable excuses."

"(Attendance) is a struggle for us every year."

"The basic thing we run up against is parents will excuse their kids for unacceptable reasons."

...School board committees were organized.

Finance committee members are Sam Johnson, Terry Savage and Dixie Klagstad.

Building and grounds committee members are Dixie Klagstad, Terry Savage and Jim Brownhill.

Threatening behavior consisting of any words or deeds that intimidate a staff member or cause anxiety concerning his/her physical and/or psychological well-being is strictly forbidden. Any student, staff member, or agent of this Board who is found to have threatened a member of the staff will be subject to discipline or reported to the authorities.
The Superintendent shall implement guidelines whereby students and employees understand this policy and appropriate procedures are established for prompt and effective action on any reported incidents.
Harroun said this deals more with sexual harassment. "It seems so vague," said board member Jim Ostlund. "I guess what we need is a clear delineation between threatening behavior and work guidelines," said Harroun. "Some would feel that a review of their work would be threatening."
"This policy will be reviewed."

Manistique All-Stars fall short

The Manistique 13-year-old all-stars fell just a little short of their goal at Escanaba's Veteran's Park over the weekend.

The team was beaten two games to one by the Rogers City all-stars, who will advance to the state championship series to be held near Detroit.

"Rogers City is a well disciplined team," said Manistique manager Mike Parkinson. "They have good strong bats."

In the first game, the Manistique all-stars were defeated 10-6.

"Jeff Parkinson pitched for us with the flu," said Manistique's manager. "Our center fielder broke Paul's arm and could not play in the game. It was tough not having them at 100 percent."

"That, combined with Rogers City playing solidly didn't help us."

Luke Harrison was the bright spot of the game, smacking a two-run home run out of the park.

The Manistique all-stars managed to out-hit the team from Rogers City 10-8, but committed eight errors in the loss.

The errors fell to just two for Manistique in the second game. By combining the absence of errors with impressive hitting, Manistique stayed alive by beating Rogers City 8-3 in the second game.

Brian Spaulding took the mound and allowed Rogers City only five hits.

Manistique scored its eight runs on seven hits including a batted-loaded triple in the third inning hit by Jeff Parkinson.

In Sunday's third game, Manistique was once again bitten by the bobble bug, committing several costly errors and losing 11-7.

Crisis Craig got the start and pitched a solid game for the Manistique all-stars.

"We made a slight comeback in the sixth inning," Parkinson said, "but we just fell a little short."

"We've got a lot to be proud of. The kids got a big trophy and also learned a lot.

"No one from around here has been in that position in a long time. Now the kids and I know what it takes to win the big game."

"I'm sure we're going to be there next year."

Parkinson said all the kids enjoyed the season and had fun playing.

"We've been second to Gladstone for a long time," he said. "Now we are first."

But the States are not new to Bigger. He has traveled here on four separate occasions, including a vacation in Florida and two separate runs in the New York Hamshon.

"This is the first time I have had the chance to see small town America," he said. "The way it works is brilliant."

Bigger 's staying with the Sherman family during his time in Manistique.

"Everyone has been really friendly," he said. "I've been very well looked after by everyone."

Bigger added that he has enjoyed Manistique and the Upper Peninsula. He said he visited the Big Spring on Monday.

"It's very nice here," he said. "The kind of reminds me of England. There is plenty of green and plenty of water."

"Janie (Tyrell) has done a great job with all the paperwork and coordination of the camp."

With all the time he has spent away from home, it is probably good that Bigger is not married, but he said he is "taking offers."

Fish Report
By Sgt. John Walker (Ret.)

Well, summer weather sure has been nice for the last week or so! I sure seems to be getting here it's share of us. I guess a person has to say that we have been pretty lucky with our weather up here. We get a snowstorm, big deal, we expect to have them. We get some heavy rains. If things go right, it will run off into Lake Michigan. If Lake Michigan ever gets full then we may really have a problem. But all in all things have been pretty good up our way.

With the little break in the weather fishing improved a little in our area. It really is something the way a week of warm weather can charge the water levels and improve fishing. They got the brook trout and some nice bass on the lakes and creeks up north. They were also getting a few nice pike.

There was a dad I talked to the other day who had been camping out at Indian Lake with his kids, the wife got to go too. He was talking about the great time they had had. They had bought a camper trailer and fixed it up to hopefully keep the rain on the outside where it belonged. Their kids are grade school age so they spent a week camping with them. It sure got me thinking.

Do you realize how many times a father, whose sons have grown up and left, goes to walking to someplace and all of a sudden he is missing or just different than it was before. Then he gets to thinking back years before when this walk in the morning, or it could be anytime of the day, was a special walk he took with his boys. Maybe he just to talk, or maybe just to get a pop or something to eat, but just a nothing time together, just dad and the kids. Back then you never thought too much of it, the kids were little and in grade school, it would be years before they grew up and went off on their own, there were a couple million things that you wanted to talk to them about and teach them before they grew up but you had a lot of time yet. So you spent those fun days with the kids and family doing the little things that make a family special, seeing the fire out of mom by hiding in the dark and jumping out as she walked by. Firing little rockets under the door when mom went to the only place where she thought she would be safe from those boys. All of a sudden you look around and those grade school kids are not grade schoolers anymore. They now have a drivers license and are talking about college. But you are lucky enough to still have those walks and good time together. You listen to their plans and are so proud of them. There are still a few years before they graduate from high school so you still have time to enjoy them. But all of sudden your grade schooler who became a high schooler is off to college.

Mom and dad don't let the years slip by, enjoy them while they are here.

of the game and love of children.

"It's a good feeling to see them develop," he said. "Who knows?, I may be coaching a future superstar."

According to Bigger, all 12 players he is coaching in Manistique are doing well.

"They are picking up the techniques and playing," he said. "All of them are trying very hard. They could all be good players as long as they continue to work on their skills."

"The younger they start the better."

"If the proper techniques are taught at an early age, it becomes natural."

The camp runs from 9 a.m. to noon.

The first part of the camp is spent doing various drills. Games that work technique are then played and finally, the camp is split into two teams for scrimmaging.

"Watford is the team the rock and roll singer Elton John used to own," Bigger said. "He has been a lifelong supporter of the team."

"That's how most people know about Watford."

His best advice for young soccer players is to learn the proper techniques and practice. He said many great soccer players in England started out by just kicking the ball against a wall.

Bigger said he has played soccer all his life and has coached for several years.

"I just earned my Football Association Coaching Certificate," he said. "I got the official badge that allows me to coach in the States."

here and definitely will after the World Cup is here next year."

Bigger said he works in England for the Watford Association Football Club, a soccer team in the England first division. Watford is a city about 30 miles north of London.

Bigger coaches kids in the Watford area as part of his job with the team. He also works in administration.

MAS Foundation Open House

by Dorothy Hoholk

Manistique Area Schools Foundation "Open House" plans are proceeding to greet donors, scholarship recipients and interested persons on Tuesday, Aug. 10 from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Community Room of Manistique Area Schools.

Class reunions are an important part of the revenue for the Foundation. Ten 1993 reunions have been held or yet to be held with hundreds of classmates getting together for 10, 20, 25, 35, 40, 50, 55, 57, 58, 59 and 60 year reunions.

An area that could be interesting to donors and others is the explanation of how records are kept for those donating to the foundation. Many donations are small which is as welcome as the large contributions. A card file is kept in the Administration office for each donation given and as the donations accumulate, the donor could become qualified to appear on the "Manistique 100" plaque and then go on to the "Emerald 500" plaque and the "Emerald Grand Plus" $1,000 or over plaque. These valuable plaques of information are displayed in the Manistique Area Schools Community Room and anyone is welcome to view them during school hours. They will be especially invited to view them during the "Open House" on Aug. 10.

All donations become principle for the foundation. All expenses to promote or process are covered by the Manistique Area Schools Administration or solicited donors. All interest earned goes toward Scholarships. All donations, small or large, are tax deductible.

The MAS Foundation board looks forward to your presence at the 10 year open house. The foundation was founded in 1983 by Richard Bonifas, former MAS Superintendent. The 10 year "Open House" is a memorial to his foresight to provide funding for a MAS student tomorrow.

Memories

by LeRoy Fox

Summertime is picnics and reunion time. It is also time to sit with friends and reminisce about old times.

I'm back a little early this month, doing a little pinch hitting! I hope this doesn't give you too much of my rambling!

I was looking for something to write about and I stumbled onto an old Meador. To the old time paper and pulp workers this will ring a bell. To the other of my readers and the younger members of the Manistique Papers, I hope you will get a chuckle or maybe an insight into how we did it way back then. I found an interesting fact about the annual picnic of 1950. There were 176 gallons of beer consumed, 1250 assorted pop, 1800 hot-dogs, buns with catsup and mustard, and 60 gallons of ice cream. That's 2000 ice cream cones.

In the booklet I saw where Shirley Rozich got a scholarship to the University of Michigan. We can't forget our National Guard. They pop up no matter what we read. In the news part of the book I found that Leo Demars qualified in the expert class with the highest score, 183 out of 195! I wonder how good your eye is today, Leo?

Ralph Nelson got the honor of being the first one to be called into service from the Manistique Mill. Of course, I should clarify to those of you who really don't know.

The Manistique Papers Inc., back in 1950, was a division of the Mead Paper Corp. They should also be congratulated for they came along way since then.

This was an October edition of the Meador and in case you might be interested, the birthdays for that month were Art Allen, LeRoy Fox, Bob Winkler, Phil Bouchard, Clifford Jackson, John LaMuth, Frank Rubick, Mike Barkovich, Bob Rozich, Russell Fagan, Grover Winkler, Connie Wood, Frank Hoholik, Melvin Mickelson, Norman Oliver, August Frans, and Addie Boyd. That is an awful lot of celebrating for one month. I hope some of those old timers ring a bell with you all.

Oh yes, the staff of this magazine was Malcolm Miller, Robert Schmeling, Earl LeBrasseur, photographer Noel Harbin, Staff: Art Anderson, Arnold Anderson, Addie Boyd, Earl Cowman, LeRoy Fox, Francis Kasun, Don Mendenhall, Louis Sailer, Violet Sautkamp. In the back of the book, lest we forget, there was a picture of Herb Rosen telling of his paper making history. Of course, we all knew him as Rosie.

I think I had better end this column with a little bit of wisdom that I also found therein:

"The higher men climb, the longer their working day, for to keep at the top is harder almost than to get there. There are no six hours or coffee breaks leading to the top."

If Linda Levin, Manistique, will stop at the Pioneer-Tribune office she will receive a free theatre ticket for Cinema 1.

If Sharon Swanson, Manistique, will stop at the Pioneer-Tribune office she will receive a free theatre ticket for Cinema 1.

Engler on K.I. Sawyer AFB conversion legislation

Michigan Governor John Engler and State Senator Donald Koivisto (D-Ironwood) announced on July 13 their intent to introduce legislation which would create a K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base Conversion Authority. The creation of the Authority is the first step in the long process of converting the facility from military to civilian uses.

Governor Engler stated, "I worked long and hard trying to prevent the closure of K.I. Sawyer, and have now directed my energies toward making the conversion a success story. Creating this Conversion Authority is an important move in the transition process and continues our focus of keeping jobs in Michigan."

Senator Koivisto echoed those sentiments saying that "everyone concerned about the future of the Central Upper Peninsula must now work together to assure a smooth transition from defense to civilian purposes."

The proposed Authority, whose members would be appointed by the Governor, would include the following representation:

(a) One member who is the Chairperson of the County in which the military installation is located, or the Chairperson's designee.

(b) One member from each of the three townships in which the military installation is located (three total members). These members shall be the Township Supervisor or the members' designee.

(c) One member who is a representative of a Business, Commerce, or Economic Development Association operating in at least one of the following counties: Marquette, Dickinson, Menominee, Delta, or Alger.

(d) One member who is a representative of a Public Utility operating in the Central Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

(e) One member who is a representative of an Employer with more than 500 employees working in the Central Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

(f) One member who is a representative of an Employer with less than 500 employees working in the Central Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

(g) One member at large.

(h) Ex-Officio (non-voting) members may be designated by the Governor on an as-needed basis. Initial Ex-Officio members are representatives of: The Michigan Department of Commerce; The Michigan Department of Transportation; The Michigan Department of Natural Resources; The Michigan Department of Labor; The Michigan Jobs Commission; The Northern Economic Initiatives Center.

(i) Additional voting members may be appointed by the Governor if deemed necessary.

"The structure of this Authority is innovative in its blend of public and private members," Engler said. "This Authority would balance the legitimate concerns of local officials with the necessary national perspectives, contacts, and job generating capabilities of the private sector. The most important goal of the conversion process has to be the creation of employment opportunities for those displaced by the Federal closure action. No one is better equipped to create jobs than the private sector."

Senator Koivisto added that "a great deal of research and coordinated effort has gone into creating an Authority structure with broad vision and local sensitivity, plus capacity to get the conversion process moving quickly. I look forward to fast legislative action on the creation of this Authority, so that the conversion effort can begin in earnest."

Week of July 6, Governor Engler also announced his commitment to help energize the conversion process. The funds could be used for the local match requirements for federal grants or for other transition purposes. In previous comments, the Governor has made clear his intent to assist in the effort. He has specifically stated that, "My office will work to assure that:

- 1) Financial assistance is made available to the extent possible;
- 2) A Conversion Authority will be created and given the tools it needs to succeed;
- 3) There will be coordinated involvement on the part of State agencies;
- 4) The State will open doors to other organizations that might be helpful to the conversion process; and;
- 5) Realistic suggestions for conversion will be solicited from all interested parties and explored to their conclusion."

"I would also like to thank all the regional officials who were involved in reaching these solutions that will help the area," Engler concluded.

Jacobetti discusses KI Sawyer closing

Rep. D. J. Jacobetti (D-Near) announced July 21, the inclusion of a $300,000 appropriation within the Department of Commerce budget, specifically for economic development needs resulting from the KI Sawyer AFB closure.

"Framework will be developed by Department of Commerce personnel after careful review and local input," Jacobetti said.

Representative Jacobetti and Senator Donald Keivisto (D-Ironwood) will introduce legislation establishing a basic closure authority board. This board will coordinate efforts by Local Municipalities, Federal departments and agencies, local economic agencies, Industry and Labor.

"The closure of KI Sawyer AFB will have a $157 million impact on our area, including the loss of 4000 jobs. $300,000 will establish a serious beginning to the development of badly needed jobs," Jacobetti said.

SMCF Auxiliary

by Harriett Abramsen

Although the sun was shining brightly on July 13, there was just a little too much breeze to hold the Auxiliary's annual strawberry social in the outdoor pavilion. So, for the second year in a row the Schoolcraft Medical Care Facility Auxiliary entertained in the dining room of the Facility.

It would have been especially nice to have been outdoors so that all the neighbors living across from the Facility could have heard Virginia St. John play on her new keyboard. Was awesome and the residents loved it.

Everyone laughed while Virginia played "I FOUND MY THRILL ON BLUEBERRY HILL" and Auxiliary members scurried around the dining room serving strawberry sundaes, Nabisco cookies and coffee. "Next year let's have a blueberry pie social," someone said.

To the tune "HAVE I TOLD YOU LATELY THAT I LOVE YOU" the happy but tired volunteers left-thinking "Maybe a blueberry pie social would be nice next year."

Auxiliary members serving were: Evelyn Magoon, Noreen McLaughlin, Helen Creighton, Eleanor Schoffer, Shirley Huston, Shirley Martin, Dorothy Kerr, Carol Carlson, Elsie Barry, Marie Sellman, Virginia St. John, Nora McDonough, Roberta Barton and President Harriett Abramsen.

There will be a meeting on Monday, August 2 to review and adopt the revised by-laws and to appoint a nominating committee for new officers.

Historical Museum

The Garden Peninsula Historical Museum is open on Wednesdays and Fridays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

On Aug. 2, the Society will sponsor a program for the public. Starting at 7 p.m., in the Congregational Church Hall at Garden, Thomas Elgerst, Escanaba, will explain about the book that is being made of the men and women who served in the Armed Forces of the 21st annual National Youth Conference sponsored by First Baptist Church of Hammond.

Keith McKinney, assistant pastor at First Baptist, said the annual convention is open to all Baptist junior high school and high school students and their chaperones.

It is an opportunity to showcase Hyles-Anderson College and the church in Hammond, which is known throughout the country, McKinney said.

While most of the youths attending the convention are from outside the area, 200 to 300 volunteers from the church and college help coordinate events, McKinney said.

The three-day youth convention began Wednesday, July 21 and concluded Friday, July 23.

Local teens visit Hyles-Anderson College

This article was run July 23, 1993 in the Hammond, IN newspaper, The Times.

Mandy Hawes looked longingly at the grounds and campus at Hyles-Anderson College in Hammond, IN, hopeful that one day she will have the opportunity to attend classes at the private school.

"My brother and sister took classes here," said Hawes, 19, of Manistique. "I've been working, trying to save money so I can come here, too."

Until she can raise enough money to attend classes at the school, which is supported by First Baptist Church of Hammond, Hawes said she contents herself by coming to the annual youth conventions at the school.

Hawes is one of more than 7,000 teen-agers from 38 states and five foreign countries who came to the area recently to attend the 21st annual National Youth Conference sponsored by First Baptist Church of Hammond.

Her friend, Theresa Castel, 14, also of Manistique, said the church services will keep her coming back to the convention.

"We have got up at 5 just to get a good seat in the auditorium at the church," Castel said.

Thursday evening, the college hosted a program that included plays, songs and a fireworks display.

"The fireworks display here is bigger than the ones we see on the Fourth of July at home," said Brenda Edwards, 14, also of Manistique.

Historical Museum

"It's fun to come here," said Hawes, who came to the area with 32 others from the communities around Manistique. "We see old friends, people we've met when we came before."
