Tokyo area. Tokyo hinted at the possible locale of one of the bombings, a broadcast saying 10,000 students, "including 3,500 from Waseda university, were most active in air raid precautions service. They lent their assistance in many places and in many days and aided especially in keeping traffic going."

Waseda university is in the northwest section of the old city, about two miles from the imperial palace grounds and half a mile west of a big army arsenal. West of the university are railway freight yards and warehouses.

Implies Damage Considerable

Domei, Japanese news agency. implied that damage was considerable and that the public nerves were frayed, reporting that cabinet vice-ministers met to discuss raid destruction and methods of controlling "baseless rumors."

An Italian newspaper suggested that the raiding planes might have come from a secretly-ceded base in Russian Siberia. Some British experts conjectured that they flew from advanced bases in the Aleutian islands.

Considering political obstacles on the one hand and the necessary range of more than 4,000 miles on United States should assist in the other, neither suggestion appeared any more plausible than the the countries of the world in the Japanese carrier-to-China version. If the planes were carrier-based, it may be two weeks before the true story is told.

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many Doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin, as directed on label or as your doctor advises, and feel world'sbetter. Get genuine Dr. Caldwell's. When constipation brings on discom-

Salvage All Junked Cars, Dealers Told

Additional steps toward procurng a complete Federal inventory of automobile "graveyards" and other scrap metal accumulations in Upper Michigan, Wisconsin and adjacent areas, as outlined at a meeting in Wausau, Wis., at which 29 dealers from northern Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula conferred with War Production board representatives, were announced here yesterday by J. H. Green, of Marquette. He is chairman of Zone 5 which includes the Upper Penin-sula and the boundary cities of Wisconsin. Mr. Green received his appointment at the Wausau meeting and serves without pay.

He will seek the cooperation of all scrap metal dealers in Zone 5 in an effort to collect all available crap metal in the shortest possible

The J. H. Green company, of Marquette, has been appointed dealer here. Important rules for immediate surveys and collection of scrap metal were outlined at the Wausau meeting by E. R. Grimes, of the War Production board. Dealers Must Keep Record

Grimes told the dealers it is their uty not only to make surveys of all scrap piles but to make bids for the scrap. All bids, he said, must be made part of their records, regardless of whether the owner is villing to sell.

Location of the amount of scrap ogether with the amount of the id, must be reported to the WPB. Grimes said, to permit the Governnent to have a complete inventory of available scrap that can be gathered and routed to the steel mills. Persons unwilling to sell scrap at a reasonable price are subject to having the material confiscated by the Government, under war powers, Grimes declared.

The automobile industry, he said, is the second largest source of scrap. Once the auto graveyards are cleaned up, he stated, the movement of new scrap will be more rapid and systematic. Under new regulations, dealers who buy junked cars must remove usable parts and ship the scrap metal within 60 days of the purchase.

In years past, Grimes said, it was a common practice for auto wrecking companies to let old cars stand around and remove usable parts from them only when an order for the parts was received. Some old cars, he declared, remained in lots for many years, but under the new 60-day rule the practice will not be

Can Get Forms Here

Mr. Green said yesterday that owners of auto graveyards who have not sent reports to the Government can get blank forms for such reports from him and he advised them to act immediately.

Green said that on a survey which he made recently in the Upper Peninsula and a few Wisconsin towns in Zone 5 he uncovered nearly 2,000 tons of scrap metal in automobile graveyards. "I reported the existence of this metal to the Government," he said, "and advised its owners to send in the required individual reports."

The BANKER in WARTIME

The banks of the United States have a major role in the war. They are the principal channel between the Treasury and the investor. They themselves are large buyers of Government securities. They are a contact point between Government and war industry. Their machinery is used at almost every step in the great war program. Fulfillment of this great responsibility will be aided by a clear definition and wide recognition of the banker's duties. That is the purpose of this statement.

FINANCING THE WAR

To avoid inflation the Government must draw the funds it borrows primarily from the current income of individuals and institutions and only secondarily from commercial banks. It is the duty of the banks—

- 1. To encourage thrift and discourage spending so as to accumulate funds for war.
- 2. To push vigorously the sale of war savings bonds and stamps and tax anticipation notes.
- 3. To subscribe for Treasury issues suitable for banks.
- 4. To help maintain a broad and dependable market for Government securities.
- 5. To advise with the Treasury and the Federal Reserve System in planning Government fiscal policies.

AID TO WAR PRODUCTION

Business large and small alike must be mobilized for war. The banker can help through his knowledge of business and Government, and his ability to lend. It is his task-

- 1. To assist small business with war orders.
- 2. To finance war industry both in plant expansion and in current operations.
- 3. To participate with Federal financing agencies when the job extends beyond proper banking scope.
- 4. To advise with business customers in converting plants to war use, in dealing with Government agencies, and in other war problems.
- 5. To lend to the farmer and distributor for the "Food for Freedom" defense program.
- 6. To scrutinize non-defense loans with care and to discourage expenditures which might compete with war production for materials or labor.
- 7. To cooperate in the regulation of consumer credit under Regulation W.

KEEPING THE ECONOMIC MACHINE RUNNING

The country's whole economic machine must be put in high gear, to run as it never ran before. Almost every business transaction involves banking: the use of checks or money for buying materials or meeting payrolls; transferring funds; handling securities. The banker's ordinary job has become a war job. It is his responsibility therefore—

- 1. To provide for business and Covernment deposit, checking, transfer, and payroll facilities, on a new, larg-
- 2. To sell and distribute vast numbers of war bonds, stamps, tax anticipation notes, and handle tax checks.
- 3. To cooperate with the Treasury in dealing with foreign funds.
- 4. To offer special services for men in the armed forces.
- 5. To help interpret Government to business and business to Government that they may work together with understanding and unity.

These tasks must be carried through swiftly and accurately while many bank workers are entering military services. This means harder work for bank staffs from top to bottom.

A HOUSE IN ORDER

The nation faces years of great industrial and financial expansion and severe readjustment. To play its part, THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK & TRUST COMPANY will continue to keep its house in order as it has for the past 78 years.

- 1. To maintain the quality of its assets.
- 2. To husband its resources through a prudent policy of reserves and dividends.
- 3. To practice as well as preach the gospel of work and save.

- AND IN THE COMMUNITY

As a citizen of his community the banker who is not himself called into the armed service has special obligations:

- 1. To share with others the responsibility for the success of Red Cross and Civilian Defense.
- 2. To make local, state and national bankers' organizations effective agencies in the Nation's service.
- 3. To help the public understand war taxes, war restrictions, rationing, price controls and other war measures which depend for their success upon public co-operation and public morale.

Releasing Patents

The Department of Justice is making rapid progress in its campaign to obtain free licensing of important patents for production of essential war materials. As a matter of course, committees are performing any useful funccasioned by an attempt to gang up on Mr. tion at this time by prolonged investigations til the wardens decided to turn er Jacob Schiff. into restrictive patent practices and policies on the lights. that are rapidly being abandoned under pressure from the Department of Justice and the force of public opinion. One can thus sympathize with the protest of a head of a General Electric subsidiary. He interrupted hearings before the Senate patents committee to protest against his company being put on trial prematurely, so to speak, when a case brought against it under the anti-trust laws was due to come up shortly.

The indubitable fact is that the Truman special defense investigating committee and the Senate patents committee appear to be stirring up a good deal of ill-will quite unnecessarily. This they are doing by delving into the history of concerns that, as parties to international cartels, allegedly have retarded defense production by their control of important patents. Surely they realize that Congress and the Department of Justice are already in possession of all the pertinent evidence required | tiful stone towers, whence the muto effect a change in the laws governing the use of patents, if such changes are considered is to be seen, however. The pe-

Extensive Inquiries Made Moreover, the temporary national economic ommittee has already made extensive inquiries into the question of patent monopolies It was over a year age that Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold told the TNEC that cartel arrangements and patent agreements lividing markets between domestic and foreign companies had gravely delayed production of strategic defense materials. The evidence presented to the TNEC and subsequent developments strongly suggest that changes in our laws are needed to prevent the ownership of patents from becoming a shield for monopolies and a means of fostering trade restraints. Such legislation, however, should not be regarded as a wartime measure. Rather it should be viewed as part of a permanent rangements between domestic concerns and foreign industries are at no time and in no way politically dangerous to this country.-Wash-

Secret of Personal Magnetism

Anyone who wishes can have one-secret, in one word, is-reading,

As a schoolboy, Sir Walter Scott was far from being a brilliant scholar; in fact, he lingered dangerously near the foot of the class. One day long after he had become famous, he made a surprise visit to his old school. The teacher tried to make a good impression, putting her brightest pupils through their paces; but the effect was somewhat marred by a small boy who sat disconsolately in the corner. He wore a dunce cap! Sir Walter tried to give his comolete attention to the star performance being given, but found his glance wandering again and again to the unhappy lad in the corner. When, at length, the exhibition was finished, the author hastened to the boy, took his hand, and said with great kindness, "My good fellow, I know just how you feel. Here's a crown for keeping my place warm."-Christian Sciphysboro Independent. Want a magnetic personality?

Though Days Are Sunny We Might Well Think A Bit

(By MANTHEI HOWE)

It rather seems that now is the time for an honest evaluation of whether we are, or are not, making real sacrifices to help win the war. It is especially a good time to do a bit of cogitating on that subject now that spring days, or at least sunny ones, are with us and it is so easy, when the days are bright, for some folk to almost forget about the war.

Reminder of that came the other day when I saw a cartoon which most of you probably saw, too, which showed two old cronies, comfortably upholstered with easy living, sitting in their club and grousing because there were taxes to be paid and they had been asked to make additional contribution of money and efforts for defense

Did Their Part!

Garumphed one old bloke: "Why, I am doing my share. My butler has gone into the Army!"

Of course, one chuckles at the asininity of the old rounder's remarks, and yet one hears just as silly comments from civilians right in town or among friends we write

They have all comparatively new electrical household equipment, don't need a new lawn mower or garden hose, and have a quite comfortable supply of silk stockings and good woolen clothes on hand.

We Live From Day to Day

One still finds now and then such a rare person, whose life seems to a degree to be untouched by war. But weekly the number of such will decrease. Every Wednesday morning, the Ladies' one will be inescapably aware of Aid of the Finnish Lutheran Suomi the war, the demands it must church will hold a rummage sale needs make upon each man and in the parish hall, Fair and Preswoman, the inevitability of the que Isle avenues. Lads of 22 to 25 haven't had that foods and substituting lower priced chance. Most of them are healthyminded and think they will have but equally nourishing foods.

An Odd Approach

The queer quirks folk get about the sacrifices they make in this war effort are a bit amazing. For instance, very few persons will be able to see eye to eye with the parents (whose son, successful in his profession, has to leave and go into Army service, in a position that gives him a salary of $400 a month) who say: "My boy certainly is out of luck. He has had to make a sacrifice. He has had to pull out of the practice he has established and go into military service for $400 a month. It will hardly keep his family."

Parents making such statements are not aware how most listeners will want to whoop derisively and query: "What do you think is the wage that keeps families going when one of the wage earners, a young man of 22 or 28, is drafted into the Army for ACTIVE ser-

What Then?

Indubitably the professional man who has to leave a good practice which he has worked hard to build up makes a sacrifice. But he wouldn't have been able to get the training, the opportunity for building up that practice, had it not been that this is America. How much of professional opportunity does he think would survive if thousands and thousands of Americans were not willing to make real sacrifice so that the American way of life shall continue? There is no gainsaying that the law of averages operates in war as in peace. We know that all men who enter service will not be killed. We know that some will be. Every young man who is drafted or enlists and is accepted for induction in the armed forces is quite well aware that he has to take the gamble, but because there is a job to be done and he is called upon to help do that job, he takes the gamble of life or death, and lines up with the armed forces.

They Make the Sacrifice

After all, the men who accept that choice and face responsibility are the ones who make the real sacrifice of war.

There will be jobs to be obtained, professional careers to be built, material successes of various kinds to be achieved, when this war is brought to a victorious conclusion. Civilians whose way of living has been disjointed, whose standards of living have had to be lowered, will have years to rehab-iliate themselves. Besides a lot of those civilians have had 15, 20, or more years of reasonably successful and hap-

Dr. Stetson Tells Hearers Sun Is Typical Star

"The stars have a definite effect on the destiny of mankind, but it is an effect that is different from magic," said Dr. Harlan True Stetson, in the excellent lecture on "The Sun and Human Affairs," which he gave yesterday morning in the auditorium of the Northern Michigan College of Education. The audience wasn't surprised at the statement that the earth moves around the sun, but many were doubtless surprised to hear that the sun is a star, and that the earth, which seems so big to us, is small in the scheme of the heavens and is dependent on the heat from the sun for its life.

Nearness Alters Picture The speaker noted that our seasons are dependent on the sun and that those seasons have played their part in human affairs in this war. He reminded that the sun is a typical star, as we would realize At 8 tomorrow night Dr. Luther if the sun were as distant from the S. Brooklyn Dodgers Crush Braves, 9-2, Take Lead In National League

Higbe Wins First Game Of Season

BROOKLYN, April 20- (P) . Brooklyn's durable Dodgers, champions of the National league, took over undisputed possession of first place today by crushing the Boston Braves, 9 to 2.

The defeat, third in three days for the Braves, knocked them out of a first place tie along with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who lost to the New Chicago Cubs.

Kirby Higbe chalked up his first pitching triumph of the season, limiting the Braves to seven hits, while his mates landed on three Boston hurlers for 11 blows and scored in every odd inning in which they batted,

Tom Earley pitched the first three innings for the Braves and absorbed the defeat as the Dodgers turned five hits into as many runs. Dolph Camilli smashed a home run in the first frame and scored behind Augie Galan, who opened the Brooklyn attack with a

War Savings Bond Drive Begins May 1

WASHINGTON, April 20- P A war bond quota system under which every person in each of the nation's 3.070 counties will be urged to put at least 10 per cent of his income into the bonds or stamps was announced by the Treasury department. The campaign, to begin on May l, is in line with Secretary Morgenthau's recent testimony before a Congressional committee in which he recommended that a voluntary system was preferable to a compulsory method of savings through the assignment of war bonds to in-the May quotas for state and counties would be released soon and would be "revised and stepped-up in succeeding months." By July the Treasury said, it was expected the campaign would bring war bond purchases to more than twice the monthly totals previously sold.

Bonds were sold at the rate of $1,000,000,000 a month in January, but the rate recently dropped to about $500,000,000. The total of purchases is now in excess of $5,-000,000,000, the Treasury said.

Morgenthau said in the announcement today that "it is our plan through the war bond quota system to reach every person in the United States who receives an income of any sort, and to reach him as quickly as possible." Management and labor will be asked to cooperate in this, he said, adding that "10 per cent of every company payroll is the minimum war bond goal. The department explained that while setting an over-all figure of 10 per cent it recognized that "some people, because of family circumstances, cannot afford to save 10 per cent of their income, while other persons can afford an even higher percentage."

McKechnie Juggles Reds' Lineup Again

CINCINNATI, April 20— A — Bill McKechnie, the great experimenter, is at it again—and there may come a day when fans will for-get to remember Cincinnati's Reds only as a team that committed eight bobbles in one afternoon.

Out in St. Louis, there probably was sulphurous froth to McKechnie's acid rehash of yesterday's 14inning comedy of errors at Chicago, even though the Reds won, 2-1. But always one to profit by an error, there were signs today that he'd continue to juggle the lineup until his "winning combination" became apparent. For one thing, the pride of Wilkinsburg, Pa., is still on the prowl for punch in both infield and outfield. He has it on the mound. Who but a Paul Derringer, for instance, could keep the Cubs from cashing in on six Red errors in five of the seven innings he pitched?

The next few days likely will find a rookie third sacker, Bert Haas, installed in left field, where yesterday, in errorless fashion, he helped atone for four costly miscues in previous games. Churck Aleno, who last year hit safely in 17 consecutive games, looms as the most likely third base successor, though it might easily be Outfielder Mike McCormick who played third in several exhibition ably there during infield drill. Ival Goodman, currently out with an elbow injury, will return to right field-this week. With Gee Walker playing a bang-up game in center and at the plate, and Harry Craft in reserve, that may mean the gate for either Ernie Koy or Who knows? The fans don't, but they're sure that yesterday's team wasn't the one they'll jam the turnstiles to see next Saturday.

Milwaukee. Might of merit alone can win America's most critical beer market.

And that's what Blatz has done! Year after year, Milwaukeeans drink more Blatz than any other bottle beer. Good taste alone is responsible for this preference-that dry Pilsener taste that is duplicated in no other beer.

If you are one of those discriminating people who want the best, you'll enjoy this dry Blatz beer. Its mellow smoothness, and refreshing, thirstquenching goodness are a combination of unstinted quality and 91 years' brewing experience.

Try Blatz and you will make it your favorite, too. Order it from your dealer today.

City Council Meeting Set For Thursday

ISHPEMING, April 20-The reorganization meeting of the city council has been set for 3, Thursday afternoon in the council chambers, Mayor John J. Johnson announced this morning.

Because of the unusually large number of applications for city positions much interest attaches to the meeting and it is anticipated the chambers will be crowded when Mayor Johnson taps the gavel for his first meeting as the city's chief executive.

There is keen interest, also, in the inaugural statement of the mayor, because of the importance of the attitude of a new administration to municipal matters which have been pending for some time.

WHO NEEDS SAFE DEPOSIT PROTECTION?

Men or women who have personal papers, with either actual or sentimental value, can hardly afford to be WITHOUT a safe deposit box. Valuables kept at home are often misplaced. Some times they are destroyed by fire. And occasionally they are stolen. Some things can never be replaced; others can be, but only at the expense of much inconvenience. You can minimize these risks by renting a First National safe deposit box in our vault.
