WILL BUILD FINE STEAMER

Escanaba and Gladstone Transportation Co. Have Contracted for Steel Boat.

BOAT WILL COST $50,000

New Boat Will Carry 800 Passengers and Have Speed of 17 Miles an Hour.

The announcement of the Escanaba & Gladstone Transportation Company to the effect that they have contracted for a fine new steel steamer has aroused considerable interest among marine men and citizens generally. The project is received with much satisfaction by those interested in Escanaba's welfare for the addition of such a boat to this port means also the development of Little Bay de Noc as a place for summer resorts.

The new boat is being built at Manitowac and will be delivered here April 1. It will be 140 feet in length, beam of 28 feet, and a depth of hull of 14 feet. The entire hull will be built of steel with water tight bulkheads and will be constructed according to the most improved designs for beauty, strength and speed. The upper works will be of good construction. Steel engine and boiler rooms will occupy the main deck, aft of which are purser's office and an elegantly furnished dining room. Beneath the main deck are the quarters of the crew with galley and mess rooms.

The cabin deck will be a novel feature of the boat. It will be arranged so that the sixteen staterooms may be thrown together into one large hall or divided into private rooms. The staterooms will contain "Pullman" berth settees instead of ordinary steamer bunks. Above the cabin deck is the shade deck where the life boats and rafts will be placed. A long promenade has also been arranged on the deck.

The boat's machinery will be of the best and of the latest improved kind. The steamer will be able to make 17 miles an hour without any difficulty.

The Manitowac Dry Dock company with whom the order has been placed is well known as a reliable progressive firm which has turned out many fine boats. The capacity of the new boat will be 800 persons. It will be used in excursions to the various resort points along the northern coast and will be an important factor in the development of the resorts in the immediate vicinity.

SHOT BY COMPANION

Former Brampton Family Lose Son by Shooting.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Deverell, who until recently lived at Brampton where Mr. Deverell was employed as agent for the North-Western road, will be sorry to hear of the untimely death of their 11 year old son Carl who was accidentally shot by a companion at Willmar, Minn. where the family now live.

Carl with two companions had gone on an expedition to a lake and one of the lads carried a shot gun. The gun was accidentally discharged as the three were walking along the road and the entire charge entered young Deverell's side causing internal injuries from which he died in a few hours.

The funeral is described as being one of the saddest during the past year.

Mr. Deverell and family are quite well known throughout this county. He was agent at Brampton for many years, previous to the removal to Willmar.

COMMON COUNCIL

Regular Meeting Held Last Wednesday Evening.

An adjourned regular meeting of the common council was held Wednesday evening. Among communications received were petitions for arc lights at the corner of Sarah and Jacob streets and at the corner of Norris and Sarah street.

The report of City Engineer John G. Zane on the work of Joseph Fleming was received and the sum of $2775.99 which was 80 per cent of Mr. Fleming's bill was ordered paid.

The city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance to prohibit certain vehicles from passing over the recently improved streets of the city.

A resolution was passed establishing the width of the sidewalks on the west side of Stephenson avenue from Ludington street to Roller avenue as eight feet.

Alfred P. Smith.

The citizens of Delta county want a straight forward business-like administration of the office of county clerk and by voting for Alfred P. Smith, the Republican nominee for that office, they will get it. Mr. Smith has been tried in the office and has not been found wanting. His office is noted for the carefulness and promptitude with which the business of the county is transacted. Mr. Smith too is universally courteous and obliging to those who transact business with him. He has lived in the county for many years being an attorney at Gladstone previous to his election to the office of county clerk.

Hardwood Era at Hand.

The gradual decadence of the pine lumber industry is well illustrated by the conditions at Menominee, for many years the lumber center of the United States. The monetary lumber business once done in that city and district has in recent years annually shown a falling off until now there is but little left of it. Next season only three mills, none of them of large proportions, will be in commission and in the year following it is expected that but one plant will continue in operation. As the pine is disappearing more attention is being paid to the manufacture of hardwood. A number of important flooring plants have been established in recent years while veneering factories are springing up in all parts of the peninsula. The cedar industry also has become one of importance, while more hemlock, spruce and cordwood are being cut than ever before. Their cutting and manufacture giving employment to large numbers of men and will continue to do so for many years to come.

Treasurers Report Gives Names of Persons Who are Delinquent. City to Enforce Collection.

A report made by the city treasurer to the council Wednesday evening developed the fact that there is due the city from delinquent personal and mortgage taxes the sum of $16,231.17. This amount is due from the years of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903. In view of the fact that the city is hard up for money and has twice been forced to borrow to pay bills, the council decided that something ought to be done to enforce the payment of these delinquent taxes. The city attorney was instructed to commence suit in case the money was not paid in at once. The following figures show the amounts back since 1900.

Uncollected Personal Taxes for 1900	$1030.93
1901	257.71
1902	870.98
1903	2083.79
Total	$4243.41
Delinquent Mortgage Taxes for 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903	$8473.85
Special Sewer Taxes Unpaid
Third Ward	$140.82
Fourth Ward	333.97
Fifth Ward	2077.12
Sixth Ward	632.71
Seventh Ward	329.29
Total	$3513.91

Total of all delinquent taxes $16231.17 The greater part of these tax debts are good and the city should have no great trouble in collecting the money. In a few instances however, the city will lose small amounts where persons who were delinquent have removed from the city.

A motion was made and carried to spread the unpaid sewer taxes of 1903 upon the tax roll for 1904.

STREET COSTS $9,156.15

Cost of Sarah Street Run Over Estimate by $219.

With the completion of Sarah street, it is now possible to determine the total cost of the street from the contractors bills. The street will cost $9,156.15 which is $219. more than the estimate made by the city engineer.

The items of expense in making the street are as follows: 4,317 cu. yds. of crushed stone $6,260.59 8,749 feet of curbing, 2,537.21 463 feet of 8 in. sewer pipe, 190.35 One man hole, 35.00 Four catch basins, 132.00

Total $9,156.15

CITY BORROWS AGAIN

Treasury is Empty and City Borrows $5,000.

Although the city council only two weeks ago borrowed $5,000 to pay its bills, that amount has been insufficient and at the council meeting Wednesday evening the finance committee was authorized to negotiate another loan of $5,000 at interest of not to exceed six per cent.

This condition of the city treasury is due to the large sums of money the city has paid out for street work. The larger portion of this money will be returned to the city from the property owners. It is slow in coming in and the city is forced to borrow.

Two days previous he was taken to the hospital and operated upon for a bone abscess in his right shoulder. It was at first believed that he would recover but the amount of poison which his system had absorbed prior to the operation proved too great. The trouble it is claimed by the physicians who attended, must have been coming for some time. How it started is unknown, and the boy himself had no recollection of any injury.

The young man was a student in the high school and was well liked by all his class mates. He was considered one of the brightest boys in school. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church. School was dismissed in the afternoon and the pupils of the High School attended the funeral.

Last spring when his books were checked up everything was all right but since the accident matters have become badly mixed.

Attorney G. R. Empson of Gladstone is acting in the interests of Mr. Lenzi and his bondsmen while Attorneys Cummins and Yelland represent the township.

Marinette then kicked off 25 yards and Lehr returned the ball 10 yards.

A series of steady gains by Riley, Semer, Lehr and Walsh brought the ball to Marinette's 15 yard line. Here a fumble gave the ball to the visitors who, after failing to gain, punted.

Good received the ball and ran out of bounds for a touch down. The ball was brought back and Semer circled right end for a brilliant 20 yard run to a touchdown. He was tackled several times but always brushed off the tacklers. Lowell kicked goal.

Escanaba kicked off 55 yards. Marinette punted after attempting to gain. Escanaba with straight gains by Semer, Lehr, and Riley carried the ball over for the third touch down after but eleven minutes of play.

Escanaba kicked off and Marinette unable to gain punted. The ball was brought back and after a few plays Escanaba put the ball over for another touch down. Lowell kicked goal.

Marinette kicked off and H. Mead returned the ball 25 yards. Marinette got the ball on a fumble shortly afterwards and for the first time during the game was able to make first down.

They complained of the hotel to which they were taken and said that not one of the Gladstone players showed up to welcome them. On the field they said that the Gladstone players slugged, bit and kicked when they saw that Norway was the stronger. They claimed that when within scoring distance of the goal they were penalized.

Disinterested Escanaba people who saw the game fail to see where Norway had any kick coming. Each team had an official and the game was apparently conducted in a fair manner.

TRIED TO WRECK TRAIN

Terrible Wreck Narrowly Averted on Line.

What appears to have been an attempt to wreck the fast passenger train on the Soo Line occurred one night last week at a siding about four miles west of Faithorn Junction. The switch at that place had been turned and the switch lights put out. The fact that the fast train was late and that a freight train was ordered to take this siding prevented what might have been a terrible catastrophe. The company it is said is much alarmed fearing a repetition, and have ordered the section men and track walkers to watch the track night and day. Detectives are working on the case and it is hoped that the would-be wreckers may be apprehended.

These prepositions the students have used in the yell and it is safe to say that this will be one Latin rule which they have down 'pat'. The idea was suggested by one of the teachers. ### WORST BATTLE OF THE WAR

SLAUGHTER AT LIAOYANG IS FAR EXCEEDED.

Russian Losses in Seven Days' Fighting Near Mukden Admitted to Be 30,000.

London, Oct. 17.—At the close of the seventh consecutive day of fighting between Mukden and Liaoyang the battle was still raging, the Russians offering a stubborn resistance to the fierce onslaught of the Japanese. The position of the opposing forces continually changing, first one and then another assuming the offensive.

Slaughter Is Appalling. The sacrifice of life has been appalling. Estimates of the Russian losses alone in killed and wounded at the end of the sixth day's fighting being conceded 30,000, while it seems not improbable it aggregated at that time 40,000. Japanese official reports estimate that 10,000 Russian dead were left on the field up to the night of October 14, and claim that the Japanese losses are small by comparison with those of the Russians.

Kuropatkin Hard Pressed. Gen. Kuropatkin's report to Emperor Nicholas depicts the desperate character of the fighting and praises the valor of the troops, indicating, however, that he is hard pressed, with the result still in the balance. All hope of securing Port Arthur this season has been abandoned. St. Petersburg has an unconfirmed report that the Japanese Gen. Nodzu has been seriously wounded.

Japanese Guns Captured. Mukden, Oct. 17.—The battle was renewed and continued throughout the night, being especially heavy at midnight. The Russians retain their position along the Shakhe river, and have made frequent attacks upon the Japanese, capturing six of the latter's guns. The eastern army is helping the western forces. There was a very heavy artillery fire Sunday. The fighting is now centered on the plain.

Kuropatkin's Report. St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—Under date of October 15, Gen. Kuropatkin sent the following telegram to the emperor: "On the night of October 13 large forces of Japanese attacked the corps drawn up in line at Shakhe, on the great mandarin road. Several attacks were repulsed, but the last succeeded and the corps was broken. At that moment fighting began on the right flank with a neighboring section. The possibility was that with the rupture of our center, our whole formation would be threatened and that the neighboring troops might force a retreat."

The Fighting at Shakhe. "In order to support the troops on the great mandarin road, several battalions were rapidly pushed forward. The troops were thus enabled to take the offensive, and succeeded in retaking the village of Shakhe, reoccupying the first positions. Reinforced by reserves, the Japanese dislodged us again from the village of Shakhe. Then the advanced reserves and troops defending the position resumed the offensive, and after a stubborn fight we succeeded in re-occupying Shakhe, repulsing the Japanese and driving them back two kilometers from that place.

"On our right wing the position was for some time very alarming. The troops were attacked from the front and by a turning movement on their right flank. The chief of a detachment advanced the troops set apart for a last rally, they having attacked the Japanese from the flank in their turn. Several villages were retaken by us. The right wing maintained its positions on the line of the Shakhe positions. The troops on our center were noticeably advanced in comparison with other troops in the general position of the line. One position on our right flank had been chosen beforehand and partially fortified. Our troops retired from these positions after a stubborn fight."

Troops Tired Out. "The troops have been fighting for four days, and many regiments have not slept for three nights. Nevertheless I have full hope in their capacity to continue the struggle. The Japanese losses must be very considerable."

"The night of October 14 passed quietly. Before nine o'clock this morning a rather marked movement of the enemy was noticed in the direction of our positions on the great mandarin road. Our batteries opened fire on them. I have received a report from the commander of the left wing that the enemy has been strongly reinforced there, as was the case at Liaoyang, the quantity of heavy firing caused a storm to burst forth, followed by a torrential rain. The roads are in very bad condition, and the level of the rivers has risen. The general order for all troops remained the same as before, to offer most resolute resistance. I have just received a report that a considerable Japanese force has crossed the railway line from west to east."

Mukden, Oct. 18.—The Russian forces at 11 o'clock Monday forenoon penetrated the Japanese center and, it is reported, captured 11 or 13 guns and 150 prisoners east of the railway. At another point during the day the Siberian regiments took 24 guns. The Russian operations Monday were quite successful. The Japanese, after a terrifically stubborn resistance, were compelled to retire along their whole line, losing heavily. All the trenches carried by the Russians were filled with the Japanese dead. In one not very large trench there were counted 600 corpses of Japanese. In spite of their losses the Japanese were undaunted. They have brought up siege guns and have left no stone unturned to retain the mastery of the situation. Every step the Russians pushed forward on Monday was in the face of a superb resistance that has cost the Russians dear. The Japanese seem to be willing to fight until they are annihilated.

More Reassuring. St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—The news from the front is more reassuring from the Russian standpoint. The situation is still regarded as being critical, but Gen. Kuropatkin in apparently holding the Japanese firmly on his center and right wing, even having recrossed the Shakhe river, and while there are rumors of an extensive Japanese flanking movement both on the east and on the west, there is no evidence that they are actually occurring.

SAFEST FOOD

In Any Time of Trouble Is Grape-Nuts

Food to rebuild the strength and that is pre digested must be selected when one is convalescent. At this time there is nothing so valuable as Grape-Nuts for the reason that this food is all nourishment and is also all digestible nourishment. A woman who used it says:

"Some time ago I was very ill with typhoid fever, so ill everyone thought I would die, even myself. It left me so weak I could not properly digest food of any kind and I also had much bowel trouble which left me a weak, helpless wreck."

"I needed nourishment as badly as anyone could, but none of the tonics helped me until I finally tried Grape-Nuts food morning and evening. This not only supplied food that I thought delicious as could be but it also made me perfectly well and strong again so I can do all my household, sleep well, can eat anything without any trace of bowel trouble and for that reason alone Grape-Nuts food is worth its weight in gold." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Typhoid fever like some other diseases attacks the bowels and frequently sets up bleeding and makes them for months incapable of digesting the starches and therefore pre digested Grape-Nuts is invaluable for the well-known reason that in Grape-Nuts all the starches have been transformed into grape sugar. This means that the first stage of digestion has been mechanically accomplished in Grape-Nuts food at the factories and therefore anyone, no matter how weak the stomach, can handle it and grow strong, for all the nourishment is still there.

There's a sound reason and 10 days trial proves.

VISITS A TIBETAN TEMPLE

English Officer Describes Diabolical Rites of Monks in Buddhist Cathedral.

A dispatch to the London Daily Mail from Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, gives a striking description of a visit to the Buddhist cathedral there during the service. The correspondent says: "The monks have extraordinary deep, devotional voices, reaching deeper tones than any western bass. The voice of a thousand monks resembles the drone of a subterranean monster, musically plaintive—the voice of the earth-god praying for release to the god of the skies."

"In the inner temple are three enormous images of the Buddhist trinity, set with jewels from foot to crown. In the upper story, in a place called 'hell,' some lamas were worshipping the demon protectress of the grand lama. The music here was harsh and barbaric. On pillars and on the walls were displayed every freak of diabolical invention in the shape of scrolls and devil masks."

"The obscene object of this worship was huddled in a corner, a dwarfish abortion hideous and malignant enough for such rites. All about the lamas' feet ran little white mice, searching for grain, with which they are fed daily. They are scrupulously revered, as in their trail bodies the soul of previous guardians of the shrine are believed to be reincarnated."

"Some of the rites were conducted in absolute silence. As we watched from a latticed window some acolytes looked up, but the monks sat like stone figures, apparently oblivious of our presence. The reek of candles was almost suffocating. 'Thank God I'm not a lama,' said a subaltern at my side, as we clattered out of this unholy atmosphere of dreams."

SEA MONSTERS IN BATTLE

Swordfish Succeeds in Vanquishing Two Whales, One 70 and Other 55 Feet in Length.

Capt. Swenson, of the launch Leone, which arrived at San Pedro, Cal., recently from San Nicholas Island, reports a desperate battle between a swordfish and two whales which occurred off that island and resulted in the death of both whales, the bodies being washed ashore by the tides and secured by Swenson.

When first seen by Swenson the battle was at its height and the monsters of the deep were lashing the waves into fury in their desperate conflict, the huge bodies of the whales rising many feet out of the water in their attempt to inflict damage to their enemy. The swordfish, which was an exceptionally large specimen, had the fight all his own way and succeeded in killing both its adversaries.

The larger of the whales is about 70 feet in length and 20 feet in diameter, while the smaller is 55 feet in length and 18 feet in diameter. The sword of the swordfish had entirely penetrated the body of the larger whale and there were numerous jabs in the bodies of both. The bodies were washed upon the beach, and Capt. Swenson made an ineffectual attempt to pull the small specimen off the beach and tow it to San Pedro, but the weight was too much for his engines. He thereupon covered the bodies with sand and will make an attempt to bring them over, using a larger boat.

SATURDAY, OCT. 22, 1904.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at a recent meeting held in New York placed themselves on record as taking the stand that the non-union man has as good a right to work as the union man, providing the wages are the same, and expressed their willingness to work with non union men providing this condition was met. This declaration coming as it does from one of the strongest labor organizations in the country, as well as the most conservative one, may pave the way to a general acceptance of this view by union labor. If such were the case, the labor disturbances would be reduced to a minimum. It will probably be some time however, before this principle meets with general acceptance.

Not all public men who are popular enjoy public confidence in the same degree. People may say of a public man: "I admire him for his brilliancy and resourcefulness, but I am not sure that his motives are altogether disinterested." No person speaks that way of President Roosevelt. People not only admire his ability and resourcefulness, but they have absolute confidence in his integrity in the purity of his motives and in his determination to administer the government in the interest of the whole people. That being the case, why not re-elect him and a Congress that will hold up his hands? Why vote to remove a tried and faithful public servant, or for a congressman who would try to tie his hands and embarrass his administration?

Attorney-General Moody in a speech at West Chester, Pa., referring to the Parker Constitution club of New York, said it should have been named the Parker club, leaving the "Constitution" out. It had undertaken to report alleged misdoings of President Roosevelt and his disregard for the Constitution, but thus far it had filled one weak little report on their investigation of his acts, and the outlook for anything further was so dim as not to be at all discoverable.

Secretary Hay's speech at the Boston peace conference has attracted wide attention and elicited much praise. Mr. Hay told them a great truth when he asserted that President Roosevelt was as great a promoter of peace as ever occupied the White house.

"A Roosevelt victory in Nebraska is certain for this fall," said W. J. Bryan in a speech recently. The split in the fusion electoral ticket and the unpopularity of Parker with "reform" voters are Bryan's reasons for this statement.

At Gladstone and Escanaba Wednesday. At Gladstone they attacked a cargo of lumber belonging to the Edward Hines Lumber Co. who owe taxes amounting to $500 to Masonville township. The lumber company put up a bond and the cargo was released.

B. Buchman and Chas. Dillabough, members of the school board, drove to Penos settlement Thursday to locate a new school.

The oil well has been sunk about 600 feet. At 500 feet gas was struck as it was in the old hole. This is considered a favorable sign.

Chas. Wicklander suffered a severe accident by being kicked by one of his horses Tuesday. He was trying to adjust a hay rack upon a wagon but in some way fell with the rack behind the horses. He was kicked in the side and is dangerously sick.

GARDEN.

Deputy sheriff Chas. Olmsted went to Nahma yesterday and captured Alex Flynn wanted here on the charge of forging the name of Charley Arnold to money orders on Wm. Bonifas. Some time ago Flynn took an order to Joe St. John saying that he had been working for Mr. Arnold and St. John cashed it and turned the order over to Nic A. Bink, who took it to the Escanaba bank for collection. Even then the forgery was not discovered until it was returned to Mr. Bonifas. Flynn had a hearing before Justice of the Peace Levi Beardsley, when it developed that another man was implicated by the name of Marcott, who had been traveling with Flynn. Late last night Dr. Hughes of Thompson brought an order to the court room for the sum of $17.35 that he had cashed for Marcott, also a forgery. It seems that Marcott attended book-keeping school at some time where he obtained some blank money orders, and those were what he used. According to the testimony it appears that both are implicated, although Flynn denies having had anything to do with it. Judge Beardsley bound them over to circuit court under bonds of $800.

Without doubt the best dancing party ever held in Garden took place in the town hall on the 13th inst. when over 100 couples danced to the fine music furnished by Eugene Sullivan's superb orchestra of Escanaba. Mr. Sullivan won the hearts of all by his fine music and every dance was encored. There were a great many from neighboring places in attendance. Luncheon was served at twelve o'clock and dancing was resumed until three o'clock and even then the crowd hesitated to leave. Mr. John Bonifas, Bond Van Winkle and Ed. Jackson had charge of the affair, ably assisted by Mrs. John Bonifas, Lillie McDonald and others.

CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Laws Governing the Issuance of Naturalization Papers.

Preceding every election there are numerous foreign-born residents who have a desire to become citizens of the United States, and to those who expect to apply this year the following requirements of the law may prove of interest:

An alien who desires to become a citizen of the United States must first declare his intention to become a citizen and this may be done before the county clerk.

After declaring his intention before the clerk no further action can be had for at least two years.

The county clerk at the time of the declaration of intention is made, gives the person making it a certified copy of the paper and the doing of this is commonly called taking out first papers.

Before he can be made a citizen in this state the applicant must have resided in the United States at least five years and for the year just before coming into court in the state of Michigan.

After residing in the United States for five years, and in this state for one year of that time, he may take his first papers and go before the circuit court and make proof of his residence during the time required. It will be also necessary to prove that he has behaved as a man of good moral character, that he believes in the principals of the constitution of the United States, and that he is well disposed to the good order and happiness of this country.

By a late law, he must also prove that he does not disbelieve in and that he is not opposed to all organized government, that he is not a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such belief in or opposition to all organized government, that he does not advocate or teach the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally of the government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, and that he has not violated the provisions of a certain act concerning immigration. This proof must be made by two reputable citizens who have known the applicant during the term of years mentioned.

Strap Around Its Neck. Michael Cusick of Ontonagon county caught a large lynx in a trap at the head of Carp Lake a few days ago. A peculiar circumstance is that the animal had a heavy strap around its neck, showing that at one time it had evidently been held in captivity.

AUSPICIOUS OCCASION

Fair Store will Celebrate Anniversary Saturday and Monday.

SKETCH OF ITS CAREER

From a Modest Beginning It Has Become the Largest Mercantile Concern in the County.

To-day Saturday, October 22d, the Fair Savings Bank Department store will celebrate its first anniversary in the magnificent new building which it now occupies at the corner of Ludington and Mary streets. In calling attention to the event it is not amiss to also call attention to the manner in which the anniversary is being observed by this great store. Not only are special bargains being offered, but a feature that will certainly attract attention is the redeeming of all sales slips Saturday and Monday, allowing two per cent. on the dollar to the holders. Checks will be issued for the amounts due and they may be cashed on presentation or exchanged for merchandise. All sales slips issued during the past three months will be redeemed in this manner. In other words, Mr. Salinsky is going to share profits with his customers by giving back to them two per cent. of all the money they have spent in the Fair Savings Bank store for three months. Such a liberal offer is unique in the history of merchandising in Delta County, and is characteristic of Mr. Salinsky's liberality and progressiveness. The big store will present a busy sight on the two days above mentioned, for the public has long since learned to place implicit confidence in everything it advertises. Comparisons are always interesting and it is therefore interesting to compare the present Fair Savings Bank Department Store with the beginning of the enterprise as it started out in 1896. At that time the business was being conducted by Herman Salinsky in partnership with his brother Benjamin and during that year the former bought out the latter. Starting with unlimited energy and a determination to constantly forge ahead, he has, by a strict attention to business and an unusual capacity for the management of large affairs, increased the business of the store to its present vast proportions. In 1898 he employed 17 clerks. To-day his working force numbers 110 people and it requires six delivery teams to handle the great quantity of merchandise daily distributed.

One feature that Mr. Salinsky has paid great attention to is the mail order department and to-day the big store is shipping goods all over the county and surrounding territory. In fact, a special force is employed just to look after this department and attend to the prompt filling of mail orders. Prompt service has played an important part in this department, orders being filled the day they are received.

Another thing that has materially assisted in making this store what it is to-day, is the liberal use of printers' ink. Mr. Salinsky is a firm advocate of extensive advertising and he is always on the alert for something new and attractive in this direction. Some idea of how extensively he advertises may be gained when it is known that he annually expends thousands keeping the public in touch with his store. Advertising, and the exercise of up-to-date methods have made the Fair Savings Bank the great bargain center of Delta County. There is one important thing, too, that should not be lost sight of

Through the great patronage that has been obtained Mr. Salinsky has been enabled to sell his goods at a much smaller profit than would be possible in a store doing a smaller volume of business, and it is no exaggeration to say that one may buy goods at this store just as cheap as they can be sold by any of the large stores in the big cities. In this way the Fair store has obtained a popularity that insures a still greater growth, because it has reduced the cost of living to the people of this vicinity. This was well demonstrated in 1898, when for three months, during the time the old store was being remodeled and during which time it temporarily closed its doors, prices in general advanced materially. It was not until the store was again opened that prices went down again.

The visitor to the new Fair Savings Bank Store building cannot but be impressed with its immensity. It is a beautiful structure built of brick, three stories high, with a basement which is a huge store in itself. The building is 50x140 feet and is equipped with all the modern department store conveniences. To attempt a description of its mammoth stock of goods would require columns of space. It must be seen to be appreciated. Each department is in charge of a general manager and customers are given most courteous treatment by an efficient corps of clerks.

A write-up of this store would hardly be complete without some reference to its proprietor, Herman Salinsky. It was in 1888 that he came to Escanaba and commenced clerking for his brother, and soon afterward entered into partnership with him. In 1898, as has already been stated, he branched out in business for himself and his capabilities may be judged by what he has accomplished during the past six years. Mr. Salinsky combines great business capacity with a natural aptitude for management. He is ever on the alert for new methods and when once he adopts a method he carries it out, no matter what the cost is. The significant thing about it is that he seldom errs. Quick of perception, resourceful and progressive, he stands to-day as an example of what a young man may accomplish by grim determination and by keeping everlastingly working. Not the least of the things that has helped to contribute to his success is his innate honesty, which has gained for the Fair store a reputation for fairness and reliability that has had much to do with its grand success.

To-morrow evening a feature of the anniversary celebration will be the music to be furnished by the City Band which has been engaged for the occasion.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Escanaba.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. They cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. John Simmons, of 317 East Hughtt street, Iron Mountain, a miner now retired, says: "I grew so bad with the backache that I could not stoop to bring any strain on the muscles of the loins without suffering excruciating torture. I tried everything in my power to relieve the trouble but I could not even check it until I took a thorough course of the treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills. In three days I noticed an improvement. In time the backache and other symptoms of either backache and over excited kidneys disappeared and up to date there has been no recurrence." Just such emphatic endorsement can be had right here in Escanaba. Drop into Mead's drug store and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Who Was Quincy Adams Sawyer?

The village gossips wondered who he was, what he was, what he came for, and how long he intended to stay. They were anxious to find out all this about a young lawyer from Boston named Quincy Adams Sawyer who had come to live at a small Massachusetts village for a year or so. A very successful book, which has its famous title from this young man's name, was written around Mr. Sawyer's doings in the country and around the village gossips who "wondered" all these things about him, and now the book in play form is to be elaborately produced here Saturday, Oct. 22, at Peterson's opera house. A strong company of well known players appear in the production. It is predicted that it will prove "The best New England play ever written."

The Guanajuato Mining District.
In a recent number of the Mining Magazine, of New York, Mr. Carl Henrich concludes an article of extreme interest on the revival of mining in the famous Guanajuato district of Mexico.

These mines have to their credit the largest output of silver of any mining district in the world. The Veta Madre has been worked since the days of Cortez, and the records show the stupendous production of over $1,000,000,000 in silver and gold bullion from these mines and parallel systems of veins. Nine-tenths of this amount were taken from the mines by man and animal power prior to the application of steam to mining.
