BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

Man Suspected of Murder Was Ex- amined at Rapid River on Monday.

WITNESSES HEARD.

Bremen Was Seen With Revolver in His Hand on Night of the Murder

James Brennan, alias John Jones, who is suspected of being the man who murdered W. W. Dimmock, agent for the Commercial Collection Agency of Milwaukee at Masonville on the night of June 28, was examined before Judge Kniskern of Rapid River, on Monday morning and was bound over for trial without bail at the next term of the circuit court. Brennan took the stand at the examination and made conflicting statements concerning his actions on the day of the murder. He admitted that he had been in Masonville on June 28, and that he had made inquiries of people concerning Dimmock's business. He stated that he had left Masonville at four o'clock in the afternoon by boat for Gladstone. Shortly afterwards he claimed that he left on the eight o'clock train and when his attention was called to his two conflicting statements he became confused and said he could remember but little of his actions on that day.

Brennan refused to answer whether he had served a term in the Wisconsin state prison for the larceny of $1400. Sensational testimony was given by Mrs. A. McGee who claimed that she saw Brennan on the Soo line tracks on the evening of the murder and that he had some shining instrument in his hand which appeared to be a revolver. She said that he appeared to be placing cartridges in the cylinder. Mrs. McGee testified positively that she saw Brennan in the vicinity of her home at 10 o'clock on the evening of June 28.

Alfred Olson, bartender in the saloon of James Christensen, of Masonville, testified that Brennan had entered the saloon and inquired the name and business of the collection agent.

James Christensen, Arthur Neveu, Deputy Sheriff Edward Hill and E. F. Davis gave testimony concerning the finding of the body and of Brennan's actions on the day of his arrest.

Both of these young people are well known in Escanaba and have many friends to whom the news of their marriage came as a complete surprise. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple took the train for Chicago where they will spend about three weeks.

Funeral services over the body of Nicholas H. Johnson, the five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Johnson of Ford River, who died at the home of the parents Wednesday were held Thursday afternoon. The Rev. Philip Thelander of the Swedish Lutheran church of Escanaba conducted the service. Interment was at the Ford River cemetery.

FIRE ON SCHOONER

Coal Barge at Gladstone Damaged by Fire

The schooner Athens, a coal barge, caught fire at Gladstone Tuesday night and suffered a loss of about $1500. But for the prompt arrival of the Soo line and city fire departments the barge would have been a total wreck, for the fire which originated in the after cabin had also ignited the cargo of coal, several tons of which were burned before the fire was extinguished. The captain had $100 in paper money in the after cabin and this was burned.

WAIVED EXAMINATION

Conrad O'Donnell Must Await Trial in U. S. Court at Marquette.

Conrad O'Donnell, 15 years of age, who was arrested at Chicago last week after eluding the officers for several days was examined before United States Commissioner I. C. Jennings Tuesday afternoon committing an offence against the postal laws. O'Donnell admitted without hesitation that he took a letter addressed to the Oliver Hotel company from the post office opened it, and took from it a check for 100.

O'Donnell appeared in the court alone neither his father nor any of his brothers being present to show any interest in the matter. He waived examination and was bound over to the United States court at Marquette with bail fixed at $500.

As the United States court will not meet again at Marquette until next May, O'Donnell must remain in the county jail here for eight months unless bail is furnished. For a youth of fifteen to be placed in a county jail in contrast with older criminals for that length of time it is certainly unfortunate.

Lectured at High School

Colonel C. H. French lectured at the Escanaba high school on Wednesday and Thursday. He gave three lectures each day at 3 p. m., 5 p. m. and 8 p. m. On Wednesday and Thursday afternoon he lectured on Mont Pelee, Martinique and the destruction of St. Pierre, the most frightful calamity in human history. On Thursday night the subject was Japan; the most wonderful empire in the world. The lectures proved quite interesting and instructive.

Fell Dead at His Bar

Joseph Brunson, aged fifty-two, died suddenly in his saloon at the head of Delta avenue at Gladstone. He was talking to a man at the bar, when he sank slowly to the floor. Dr. Kee, who was called, pronounced it a case of apoplexy, and it was thought unnecessary to hold an inquest.

TEAMS PLAYED A TIE GAME

High School Players and St. Joseph's School Team Met in Close Contest On Saturday.

St. Joseph's school players held the high school team to an even score at South Park Saturday afternoon and the contest ended with the score standing at 5 to 5. The principal feature of the entire contest came within three minutes after the game had been opened when Manning, one of St. Joseph's half backs tore around left end with lightning speed and sprinted down the entire length of the field for the first touch down. He was at all times one of the principal stars of the game for that team.

Boyle, fourteen years of age, playing quarter back for St. Joseph's appeared to have no idea of fear. He saved the game by tackling run-away players of the opposing team and while playing showed the form that makes the successful foot ball players.

Powers for St. Joseph's team also played a hard game his work at tackling being excellent and in the straight line players he was able to make good gains.

After a punt from the center of the field followed by end runs by Manning and center rushes by Lowel and with but four minutes to play it appeared that St. Joseph's school was to score for a second time.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Anna Collins Passed Away at Green Bay Hospital.

After an illness extending over a period of two years Mrs. Anna Collins, widow of Patrick Collins and an old resident of this city passed away at the Green Bay hospital on Tuesday.

Mrs. Collins was seventy-four years of age and is survived by two daughters and two sons, all of whom live in Escanaba with the exception of one son Timothy Collins who is engaged as a sailor on the lakes.

The body was brought to Escanaba Wednesday morning and taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Timothy O'Brien on Wells avenue and funeral services were held at St. Patrick's church Thursday morning.

Miss Helen Mead will attend Bryn Mawr college this year and left Thursday night for Philadelphia.

MONUMENT WRECKER

CAUGHT AT ISHPERING.

Kose Kazimer Captured While in the Act of Breaking Tombstones.

Kose Kazimer, a thin, clad, half starved Hungarian, forty-six years of age, is the man who has been engaged in wrecking tombstones in Wisconsin and Michigan towns the past few weeks. He was captured Thursday morning by Marshal John Lehman and Deputy Marshal Trevarrow, while in the act of breaking monuments in the Ishpeming Catholic cemetery.

Officers had been on duty at the Ishpeming cemetery for several days. Sunday morning when the news of the raid on the Negaunee cemetery was received, Mayor Persons ordered Marshal Lehman to put on officers during the day as well as during the night. The marshal and deputy went to the cemetery at five o'clock to relieve the two night men, remaining there until seven o'clock when the two day officers arrived. Thursday morning they left the city at 4:30 and entered the cemetery from the west end below the hill, taking secluded positions behind tombstones in the tall grass.

Thomas Ryan and Gust Peterson, the night officers, departed as soon as Lehman and Trevarrow arrived. At 6:10 Lehman heard a noise. He looked up and saw a man in the act of breaking a stone. He crept within 100 feet of the fellow, before the latter turned and saw him. The officer covered Kazimer, who immediately threw up his hands. Kazimer offered no resistance. Lehman soon saw that he was not a desperate character, and asked him why he had broken the stones. The reply was "Good for the God." Kazimer was arrested in the act of breaking a stone cross he had pulled from one of the smaller monuments in the Volker lot. He had already broken crosses from the monuments in lots owned by the Perault and Russett families, all being in the northeast corner of the cemetery, within a few feet of the Third street fence and almost opposite one of the entrances. Kazimer smashed the crosses by striking one against the other, and carried no hammer.

Kazimer's belongings were tied in a red bandana. In another bandana he carried several pieces of a large raw turnip which judging from his appearance had constituted the principal part of his diet for some time past. The larger bundle contained a pair of socks, a shirt, a pair of spectacles in a case, an awl, a piece of leather about three inches square, a small piece of wire, a knife with a blade, and about a dozen slips of paper on which were printed religious emblems and prayers in the French and Hungarian languages. In a carefully wrapped package was a

St. Ignatus medal. In another package even more carefully wrapped were nine sticks of wood, varying in length from one and a half to four inches, a short lead pencil and a large safety pin. From the care with which these were wrapped it would seem that Kazimer valued them more highly than anything else he carried. He had two silver dollars.

Kazimer's appearance tallies very closely with the description of the man suspected of wrecking tombstones at Gladstone, Escanaba and other points. He is about five feet, five inches tall, thin, weighing about 130 pounds, has a heavy mustache, gray and black, the former predominating, and a gray beard less than an inch in length.

John Fisher, engineer on the Northwestern passenger train running between Green Bay and Escanaba, called at the jail yesterday and identified Kazimer as having asked him for a ride out of Escanaba about 8 o'clock the evening the Gladstone cemetery was wrecked, which was the night following the vandals visit to the Escanaba cemetery. Marshal Lehman was advised by an Escanaba officer that the man wanted there were a shoe that had a patch on the sole. Both of Kazimer's shoes are patched on the sole.

While confined to his cell Kazimer talked freely to those who were permitted to see him, but his English was so poor that he could hardly be understood. He told several persons that he had been at Escanaba and later denied having been at Escanaba or Negaunee. He said that a few weeks ago he was working on a farm at Savannah, Wis., that he had no brothers or sisters living but that his parents lived in Hungary where he was born.

Kazimer denied that he had broken any stones of crosses and maintained that he had not been near the Ishpeming or any other cemetery.

Kazimer shows unmistakable signs of mental derangement. The holding of the little sticks, so carefully wrapped in cloth, is a peculiar feature of his case. At the hearing he talked about the breaking of the crosses as being "Good for the God," and mumbled something about looking for work in a lumber camp.

Kazimer was taken to the Marquette prison Thursday. He did not like the sheriff's company and called that officer a "devil" when the hand cuffs were placed upon his wrists. He kept repeating "For God God" and "Please God." "Devils are in the Crosses" he declared when asked his reason for smashing the crosses.

VANDALS AT NEGAUNEE

Cemetery in That City Wrecked Sunday Morning.

Following upon cemetery desecrations in Oconto, Oconto Falls, Peshtigo, Birch Creek, Escanaba and Gladstone, the Catholic cemetery at Negaunee was wrecked at eight o'clock Sunday morning. The guards which had spent the night in the cemetery left at 5:10 o'clock in the morning and the damage was done shortly after their departure. Following is the account of the outrage as given by the Marquette Mining Journal: About eight o'clock yesterday morning a family living near the Negaunee cemetery telephoned to Marshal Gribble that the tombstone wreckers had visited the Catholic cemetery in the eastern part of town. Within a short time the news spread about the city and people began flocking to the cemetery. The damage was not as great as has been reported from other cities but as near as can be estimated at this time it will go above $3,000. About 60 per cent. of the stones were attacked, and four or five were completely demolished. The crosses and ornaments were broken off most of the stones, and others had corners knocked off. Some of the crosses and ornaments were completely shattered.

Few of the stones on the north side, near the highway leading to Marquette, from a point about midway in the cemetery were damaged. A line of stones extending through the center from the middle of the lot to the east end were attacked. The vandals worked entirely in the east end, where they stood little chance of being seen from the dwellings near the west side. The damage was confined to the small and medium sized stones, a number of which cost considerably over $100. Large monuments of which the crosses and ornaments are too high for a man to reach from the ground without a ladder were not touched, and the wooden crosses were not disturbed.

There are no foot prints from which an idea of how many men were in the gang can be obtained. It is thought, however, that there was more than one. It is evident from the appearance of the stones that either a hammer or hatchet was used on them.

Negaunee people were greatly stirred up yesterday over the outrage, but the vandals left absolutely no clue for the police to work on. The watchmen, William Newcombe and John Rock, who were engaged to guard the cemetery at night, left the place at 5:10 o'clock in the morning, and it was between that time and 8 o'clock that the stones were attacked.

Judging from the marks on some of the stones a mason's hammer, with both sharp and blunt sides, was used. The imprint of the blunt side of the hammer is noticeable in four sandstone corner posts surrounding one of the largest monuments. The vandal struck each post a blow, but as there are no marks on the monument it is not thought that he entered the lot. A number of the stones had pieces broken off the edge or top, others show marks on the face, but the marble is so hard that the latter can hardly be noticed. In a few cases the bolts that fastened the crosses to the monuments were unscrewed and the crosses shattered. On other stones the crosses and ornaments were knocked off by a blow from the hammer. Some of the crosses found on the ground were broken in small pieces, and others were smashed in two or three pieces. Among the stones damaged were a number that have been in the cemetery many years, others being comparatively new. The intruder evidently passed through the grounds hurriedly, using his hammer wherever he found it most convenient to do so.

The discovery of the vandals' work was made by a little girl who visited the cemetery before 8 o'clock. She reported it to a family living nearby, and the news was telephoned to the marshal. One of the dwellings is within fifty feet of the grounds, but none of the people living there heard the hammering. Three suspicious characters in the city last Thursday and Friday were watched by Marshal Gribble. Two of them went into one of the saloons Thursday morning, and while they stood at the bar drinking they asked the proprietor so many questions that he became suspicious of them, notifying the marshal. They said they had come from Escanaba, and inquired the distance to Houghton and other upper peninsula points. They acted nervous and uneasy, and were not seen after Friday evening. The third party was shadowed for several hours until Friday evening, when he took a train for the west. He told parties with whom he talked that he was going to the Menominee range. Marshal Gribble thought that the Negaunee cemetery would be less liable to an attack than any other Catholic burial grounds in the county, owing to its being so close to the houses, and was of the same impression as other officers in this region that in case the cemetery was attacked the work would be done at night.

Mrs. Emma Cottrell leaves to-day for Antigo to visit her sister, Mrs. Armstrong.

THREE CENT RATE MADE.

Northwestern Road Makes Voluntary Reduction of Passenger Rate.

IN EFFECT OCT. 1.

Reduction of Fare From 4 to 3 Cents Means Great Saving for People in Upper Peninsula.

The Northwestern road has made a voluntary reduction of the passenger rate in force here and at other points in the peninsula division, and has cut the rate from 4 to 3 cents per mile. The three cent rate has been in effect for some time at competitive points in the division and the new order will not reduce the rates at those points.

The new rate which the road has made is a concession which legislators and newspapers have worked hard to secure but without success, and that it should be voluntarily given by the company is indeed surprising.

The people of the lower peninsula of Michigan have enjoyed the three cent rate for a long time and many of the residents of this peninsula have considered it an unjust discrimination that the roads should be allowed to charge four cents here.

It is believed and hoped that the action of the Northwestern road will be followed by the other roads on the Peninsula.

FIRED AT VANDALS

Guards at Marquette Cemetery Say Plane Was Visited.

A brown felt hat with two bullet holes in the brim offered as evidence of the alleged visit of two graveyard vandals at the Catholic cemetery at an early hour Thursday morning. One of the guards, a Belgian, claims that two men entered the cemetery grounds from the southwest corner at four o'clock in the morning, and were in the act of wrecking one of the tombstones when the guard discovered them and fired a shot. He says he was on the ground when the weapon was first discharged but arose to his feet and fired again in the direction of the fleeing men, this time knocking the hat from the head of one of them.

THE IRON PORT.

BY THE IRON PORT CO.

G. F. Mc Ewen, Mgr.

Entered at the postoffice at Escanaba, Mich., as second class matter. Subscription price, $2.00 per year, in advance.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 30, 1905

Did you ever stop to think that when a business man looks for a clerk that he does not hunt for the youth who talks "sassy," uses slang, smokes cigarettes or taps beer kegs? They look for the boy who is neat in appearance, gentlemanly in his actions, clean in his talk and courteous to those whom he meets. Although you may think that no one watches you or your character, it is safe to say that there is not a business man in town but who knows the character of every boy in it. If you wish to become a useful man it is you and you alone that must accomplish it.

There are few measures of more importance enacted by the last legislature than what is known as the truancy law which became operative last week. The purpose of this law is to provide means through which children of school age can be compelled to attend school, former measures in that direction proving almost worthless in the country districts of the state. It has been officially estimated that hardly sixty per cent. of the children of school age have attended school through the periods required by the state law. In some of the most progressive counties of the state children of parents who could well afford to send them to school have permitted them to pass the school age unable to either read or write. This is an offense against all the people of the state which the new law is intended to prevent.

Much difficulty is experienced at the upper peninsula post-offices because of the postal card fad. The department has definite rules about what shall be mailed, and these rules must be lived up to. There are scores of post cards made of leather, of birch bark and a lot of other material. People mailing these if they put any stamps on them at all use only a one cent stamp. It requires two cents because they do not comply with the law. Then invariably the sender uses but initials, and there is no way to return them. So the cards must be held and a notice sent to the addresses to send the deficient postage. If responded to at all, it means, all told, four or five cents for each particular card to reach its destination, and then only after much delay.

There are also the illustrated cards printed in England, and sent here for sale. No one seems to read the instruction that if mailed with writing on the face side in the blank shown, it requires but one cent "in the United Kingdom only." So into our offices go great quantities of these cards, all to be held up and many to find their way to the dead letter office never to be redeemed, while the writers wonder why they do not receive answers and are blaming the mail service. It would save much annoyance if those selling the cards would give instructions as to the required postage, for surely it is a matter of much importance to the writers.

September 30 and May 25 are "Memory Days" in Michigan. The last legislature passed an act setting aside these days for the purpose of improving the purpose of improving the conditions of cemeteries in the state. This applies more directly to the rural districts. Many of the cemeteries do not receive the attention they should. Weeds and brush are permitted to grow and there is every appearance of neglect. This is not due to the memories of the departed ones not being cherished but rather to the disposition on the part of the people to procrastinate. In many instances these cemeteries are public and consequently there is no one to look after them or have them improved. Attention may be paid to individual lots but the general appearance of the grounds receives no consideration. The state's action in providing a time for doing this work is deserving of commendation and it will be an incentive to the people to remedy this neglect.

Some of the players and rooters manifested their bad feelings over the game by coming to blows with players and rooters of the opposing team. This feature of the contest is certainly to be deplored between two neighbor teams whom the best of feeling ought to exist.

Tired Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vitality is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, she was much worse, and could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when the least excited. She was very restless at night, and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nerve was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week a treatment she was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nerve has completed her entire cure."

THEE IS MONEY IN GROWING GINSENG

Prof. W. L. Howard of Missouri State Agricultural College says: "I advise American farmers to cultivate Ginseng. Big profits may be realized. It is a hardy plant and is easily grown."—A recent bulletin issued by the Pennsylvania State Agricultural College in part says: "The supply of native Ginseng root is continually diminishing and the price per pound is correspondingly increasing, while the constant demand in China stands as a guarantee of a steady market for Ginseng in the future. The market for our cultivated root will exist as long as the Chinamen exist."—Counsel General W. A. Rublee of Hong Kong says in the U. S. Consular reports: sale of the Ginseng root grown in America is very large here and the demand is so great that much more could be disposed of advantageously. The root is as indispensable to the 400,000,000 Chinese as is their rice."

Ginseng is a staple on the market the same as corn, wheat, and cotton. The present market price varies from $5.00 to $8.00 per pound according to quality, while the cost of production does not exceed $1.50. There is room in an ordinary garden to grow several hundred dollars worth each year. The plant is hardy and thrives in all parts of the United States and Canada, except in the arid regions. We are successful growers and can show you how to make money growing Ginseng. You can get a good start in the business for a comfortable income. We have several thousand choice roots for sale for fall delivery. The planting season begins in August and continues till the ground is frozen.

JEST AND JOCLARITY.

Druggist—"Did Mrs. Jones get the medicine I ordered yesterday?" Assistant—"I believe so, sir. I saw the blinds down this morning."

Doctor (to Mrs. Perkins, whose husband is ill)—"Has he had any lucid intervals?" Mrs. Perkins (with dignity)—"E's 'ad nothing except what you ordered, doctor."

She (thinking to take his mind off)—"How restless the waves are, dad. They always seem to be clamoring for something." Dad—"Well, they won't get it if I can help it."

"Try to look a little pleasanter," said the photographer to Mr. Tyte-Phist. "Remember, I am making these pictures at half the usual rates. There, that will do nicely."

"Why do you call her the 'regular out-and-out summer girl'?" "Because she's positively the limit. I've known her to walk 20 blocks in the blazing sun just to get an ice cream soda to cool herself off."

"Now," said the clerk, "this is a very good bath sponge." "Oh!" exclaimed the customer, "that won't do. It's too large." "Large? Why, it's rather small for a bath sponge." "Perhaps, but I live in a flat."

CHRONIC ERYSIPELAS

Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, Although Whole Body was Affected.

Erysipelas or St. Anthony's fire is a most uncomfortable disease on account of the burning, the pain and the disfigurement; it is also a very grave disorder, attended always by the danger of involving vital organs in its spread.

The case which follows will be read with great interest by all sufferers as it affected the whole body, and refused to yield to the remedies prescribed by the physician employed. Mrs. Ida A. Colbath, who was the victim of the attack, residing at No. 19 Winter street, Newburyport, Mass., says:

"In June of 1893 I was taken ill with what at first appeared to be a fever. I sent for a physician who pronounced my disease chronic erysipelas and said it would be a long time before I got well."

"Inflammation began on my face and spread all over my body. My eyes were swollen and seemed bulging out of their sockets. I was in a terrible plight and suffered the most intense pain throughout my body. The doctor said my case was a very severe one. Under his treatment, however, the inflammation did not diminish and the pains which shot through my body increased in severity. After being two months under his care, without any improvement, I dismissed him."

"Shortly after this, on the advice of a friend, I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, two at a dose three times a day. After the second box had been used I was surprised to notice that the inflammation was going down and that the pains which used to cause me so much agony had disappeared. After using six boxes of the pills I was up and around the house attending to my household duties, as well as ever."

Advantage of Manual Training in the Grades

By L. D. HARVEY, Superintendent of Schools, Menomonie, Wis.

MANUAL training as a form of educational effort involves such a systematic training of the hand in constructive work through the use of tools and manipulation of material as is adapted to the proper development of the motor activities of the hand initiated, guided and controlled by mental activities essential for the proper development of the mind.

Over 90 per cent. of the pupils in the grades, after leaving school, earn their living with their hands.

Manual training is justified on the ground that it gives the individual trained, increased power to earn a livelihood through the use of his hands. Justified further because systematic training of the hand demands systematic mental activity, resulting in mental training in dealing with things and processes which is not secured in schools where manual training is not given.

Manual training calls for just this organized thinking needed for the practical purposes in life. It is a mental activity out of which grows skill in doing and skill in doing as a result of intelligent thinking should be one of the chief purposes of education.

The course in manual training in the grades should have a content of its own, wrought out and determined by the capacities and needs of the individuals to be trained. It should not be given as the fag end of other subjects in the course, and not chiefly for the purpose of illustrating or enlarging the work in those other subjects.

Artistic design should go hand-in-hand with manual training. Weakness complained of in elementary schools are not due to the time devoted to manual training for these weaknesses are as likely to appear in schools when no manual training is given as in those schools where it forms a part of the course.

Will Japan become a Christian nation? Most assuredly. Japan may some time lead the world in religion, as she is doing in the art of warfare.

Christianity in Japan when it becomes national will be an ideal one. It will be quite different from Christianity as it exists in the west to-day. Christianity in Russia and that in America are more distant from each other than Buddhism is from Christianity in Japan at present.

We were all human beings long before we ever became white or yellow people. And we were white and yellow a long time before we became Christians or Buddhists. Now the more fundamental things in human life exert modifying influences upon the less fundamental, or these which developed later in the long career of mankind.

Japan, with the rest of the yellow peoples in Asia, has racial traits, culture and traditions that are quite distinct from those of the white people. This difference is much greater than any between several races in Europe.

But why do I call it an ideal Christianity, that Japan will have? Christ meant his religion to be universal. It has to be preached to and accepted by all nations. The Christianity in the west does not permit this. It is too exclusive, too narrow.

This is what makes them peculiarly fit to be the real teachers of a universal religion. That universal religion must be Christianity, and when fully developed Christianity in Japan will be broad and inclusive. It will be truly the Christ religion. It will satisfy equally well the eastern as well as the western peoples.

I recently visited public school 3, Brooklyn, and with the principal walked rapidly through almost every primary classroom in the building. My presence had not been announced to the teachers so far as I know.

Fighting the School Desk

By LUTHER HALSEY GULICK, Director of Physical Training, New York Public Schools.

In fighting the school desk two things are to be kept in mind; the sitting still, and the tendency to bad position. The other general results in physical training ought to be largely secured through plays and games.

Elegantly Extraordinary. "Yes," said the narrator of the story, according to the Chicago Tribune, "we got into the boat and rowed out to the island, eight miles away, and then we climbed up the hill to get the view. Along about noon we went back to the beach and to our consternation discovered that the boat had become loose from its moorings and had drifted across the bay to the other side."

Six Doctors Failed. South Bend, Ind., Sept. 25th (Special).—After suffering from Kidney Disease for three years; after taking treatment from six different doctors without getting relief Mr. J. O. Laudeman, of this place, found not only relief, but a speedy and complete cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Hard Record to Beat. Friend—Do you think that automobiles will eventually take the place of the railroads? Auto Enthusiast (gloomily)—I hardly think so. The railroad killed 15,000 people last year in this country alone.—Chicago Tribune.

The Irish Pawnbrokers
 The big fun show "The Irish Pawnbrokers" which has been one of the biggest successes ever known in farce comedy will be the attraction at the Peterson Opera house Wednesday night Oct. 4. This is the fourth successful season of the popular skit and each season it has been improved and re-written. This is the fourth edition and is the work of Mr. Edgar Selden. He has so re-written the comedy that not a line of the former editions is retained, at the same time he has woven a consistent story of intrigue depending on the situations and complications together with funny lines and business to furnish the fun, which is all the more enjoyable from the fact that laughs are furnished naturally and with reason, and not from the efforts of performers who as in some farce comedies stop at nothing to produce a laugh whether relevant to the action of the farce or not. The same popular favorites who have been largely responsible for the success of the comedy, have been retained, namely Davis and Mack. They are ably assisted by Miss Mabel Campbell, Violet Hillson, Tony Murphy, Winnie Stewart, Marie Dackman, the Pawnbroker Trio, the Danis sisters, Will Rossy, Jas. R. Lee, Tunis Conway and chorus of female voices. Some of the richest costumes ever seen in farce comedy are promised together with a musical program of all the recent successes and many entirely new numbers written for and produced solely by this organization.

ANNUAL BUDGET

Improvement of but One Street Provided For.

But one street was included in the annual budget and appropriation bill which was passed by the city council Thursday night. Most of the members of the council feel that the city is sufficiently in debt, as it is without building more streets next year. It is likely, however, that there will be some dissatisfaction in certain parts of the city where streets are wanted. The one section of street named in the appropriation bill takes in North Sarah street and Sinclair street from North Sarah street to Stephenson avenue. On a part of the improvement a storm water sewer will be provided for.

Following are the amounts of the funds provided for in the appropriation bill:

Contingent fund $5,000, Salary fund $4,500, General street fund $11,000, Fire Department fund $10,000, Police fund $7,000, Water fund $8,000, Interest and Sinking fund $12,000, Park fund $2,000, General Sewer fund $2,000, Library fund $2120.

North Sarah and Sinclair street special assessment $2,350.00.

The bill also provided that three fourths on a dollar of the assessed valuation of the city be levied upon all taxable property at the next general tax levy for general city purposes and all the funds named in the bill.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Escanaba.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Amos Lusted, miner, living at 128 Mary street, Escanaba, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than all the other medicines I tried. I suffered for a long time with my back. It was caused by a hurt received by lifting some years ago when I was laid up for about ten days with my back. Ever since then I could feel a weakness in my back which at times became a continuous growling aching, the secretions were too frequent both day and night. At times I would be better but soon would have a worse attack than the last. Some one recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and I got a box at the Mead Drug Co.'s store. In forty-eight hours the weakness left me and the backache disappeared, while action of the kidneys became normal and regular. I recommend this remedy as a cure for weak and aching backs."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
