

THE IRON PORT.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR

ESCANABA, MICHIGAN, SATURDAY, OCT. 14, 1905.

NUMBER 86

PHYSICIANS APPOINTED

DRS. FENELON, FORSYTHE AND COTTON
Selected by County Board

FOR COUNTY HOSPITAL.

Several Ballots Necessary Before
Choice of Board Could be Determined. Physicians Will Serve Three Years.

The selection of three physicians for the county hospital was taken up by the County Board of Supervisors on Thursday afternoon. The terms of Dr. H. E. Reynolds, Dr. John O. Groos, and Dr. W. A. Cotton, who are the hospital physicians at present are about to expire, and there were a number of candidates for the positions.

Dr. M. P. Fenelon was chosen on the first formal ballot, the vote standing as follows:

Reynolds 11.
Fenelon 14.
Cotton 1.

It required three formal ballots before the next physician was chosen, Dr. Forsyth lacking but one vote for election on the two ballots. On the third formal ballot Dr. Forsyth was chosen, the vote standing as follows:

Forsyth 14.
Cotton 11.
Groos 1.

On the fifth informal ballot for the third physician Dr. Cotton received 21 votes, Dr. Groos 3, and Dr. Reynolds 1. The informal vote was made formal and Dr. Cotton declared appointed.

TWO BRIDGES

One in Ford River Township and One in Garden Township Will be Built

A new bridge over the Ford River near its mouth and a bridge at the Fish Dam in Garden township will be built next year. A resolution was introduced at the county board on Thursday by which the county contributed $1,000 toward the erection of these bridges.

The bridge over the Ford River will cost $5,000. The township of Ford River will raise $4,000 to pay for the bridge and have asked the county to raise $1,000. The bridge at Fish Dam in Garden township will cost $3,000, of which Garden township will raise $2,000 and for which the county is asked to raise $1,000. As there is only $1,000 in the fund to be expended for this purpose this amount will be divided between the two bridges and it is likely that the board will vote a similar amount next year.

MORE SMALL POX

Seven Cases Discovered in City on Tuesday

Two new cases of smallpox were discovered Tuesday in second and third grades in Franklin school, and five other cases were found in three families in the city. An order that all pupils on the first floor of the Franklin school be re-vaccinated or be required to show certificates of vaccination within a period of five years has been issued by the board of education. Every effort is being made by the health officials to stamp out the disease.

SOCIETY MEMBERS ATTEND FUNERAL

Members of the Institut Jacques Cartier attended the funeral of Adolph Carron who died on Monday after a long illness, at St. Anne's church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The members of the society marched to the church in a body and after receiving high mass had been celebrated accompanied the body to its last resting place at St. Anne's cemetery.

BROKE RECORD

Last week the crew of the steamer Maywood performed the fire drill required by the U. S. steamboat inspectors in time never before equaled in this district. Within 45 seconds after the signal was given the life boats were launched.

BLACK BEAR CAUGHT

A medium sized black bear was received at Bittner's meat market on Thursday morning. The animal was trapped by Mr. Burns of Trenary. One of the hind paws was nearly cut off by jaws of trap.

MET DEER IN BAY.

The steamer Lotus, while on its regular trip up the bay Tuesday met a deer swimming across the bay near the Gladstone furnace. The boat passed within a few feet of the deer was pursued by bounds and took to the deep sea as a refuge.

A full set of teeth for $10.00 at Dr. Wain's.

DEEP WATERWAYS

Are Responsible for Passing of Small Schooners Says Tugman.

One of the tugmen, in speaking of the disappearance of the schooners from the lakes, remarked that it is the deep waterways that did it. These demands of the big combination being satisfied they keep building larger boats until now some of these monster carriers transport in one load as much as fifteen or twenty schooners could carry. This likewise reduced the number of tugs in commission and consequently a falling off in the men employed has also been the result. It has been a case of the big fish eating up the small ones. The little fellows, by this is meant the 200 and 300 foot carriers, will also gradually be supplanted by the big boats if the depth of water is increased at some of the ports that cannot now be reached.

ABOUT DEC. 5

It is Expected that Navigation will Close About that Date

It is expected that the official closing of navigation this fall will take place about the 5th of December, the same date that it was closed last year when the last boat went into Green Bay. A few boats will probably run after that date, however, notably the huge car-ferries of the Ann Arbor system. All marine licenses for the different vessels, expire on the 25th of November but it is stated that licenses can be secured after that time although the price demanded therefore is considerably higher than at other seasons of the year and the protection afforded by the insurance companies is greatly lessened. It is expected that the season this year will be an open one and that the vessels will be able to run up to the date of official closing of navigation. The big Ann Arbor car-ferries are the last vessels to run as they are so built as to be able to break their way through the ice. In other parts of the lake outside of Green Bay the Ann Arbor boats run the year round.

LARGEST EVER CAUGHT

Lake Trout Weighing 57 Pounds
Caught in Lake Michigan

Manistique, Mich., Oct. 6.—The tug Berger of the Coffey fishing fleet, brought a prize to port yesterday in the shape of a mammoth lake trout. The fish was laid on the scales immediately upon reaching port and was found to weigh exactly 57 pounds, undressed. The greatest girth measurement was found to be two feet and seven inches, and its length was just four feet. The width of the tail, when spread, was found to be one foot. The Burger discovered the prize when hauling in her nets yesterday morning near Barque Point, and succeeded with great difficulty in landing their catch, the services of two men with hooks in their hands being required to bring the monster to the deck.

CHILDREN ARE GIVEN AWAY

Wife of Defaulter at Marinette is Forced to Break up Family by Husband's Action

Mrs. Arthur Cole, wife of the missing clerk of court, has given away six of her children to different people, and in a few days adoption papers will be made out giving the latter the right of parents. The youngest, a boy six months old, Mrs. Cole will keep herself. A number of people want to adopt the little child that is only six months old. There have been no developments in the Cole matter. Investigation shows that his shortage will amount to more than thought at first. Another item of $200 which he failed to account for, was found this week and other similar shortages will probably be uncovered when his books are looked over thoroughly.

Hold Boats to Contracts

That there is going to be a shortage of vessels in the grain trade from now on is certain, as ore men have the greatest part of the tonnage tied up by contracts. The steel trust notified all owners that they would be expected to carry their full quota of ore each week until their contract ore had all been carried, which means late in November for most of the fleets.

Woolpert Re-appointed

Chas. A. Woolpert was appointed by the County Board of Supervisors to succeed himself as a member of the county board of school examiners.

Wm. Kauthen Re-Appointed.

Wm. Kauthen, of Garden, one of the superintendents of the poor for this county, has been chosen by the county board of supervisors to succeed himself.

Funeral Held Monday Morning

The funeral of Eugene Dubard, who was killed by being caught between the side of an ore car and the tender of an engine at the No. 6 Northwestern dock early Friday morning, was held at St. Anne's church at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

FIRE WRECKS BUILDING

Salvation Army Hall and Store of Mrs. A. S. Warn Badly Damaged.

LIVES THREATENED

Sleeping Inmates of Building Escape to Street Clad in Night Clothes.

The double store building at 300 and 301 Ludington street occupied by the Salvation Army hall and the store of Mrs. A. S. Warn was badly wrecked by fire early Monday morning. The occupants of the building were roused to find the building in flames and made their exit with what clothes they were able to find in their haste.

W. W. Bacon, 84 years of age, an occupant of the second floor, escaped by sliding down a rope. Capt. and Mrs. Wilson and their child and other members of the Salvation Army corps escaped with but part of their clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Warn who were asleep in the rear of their store were awakened by the thick smoke and made their escape.

George Preston who occupied rooms on the second floor was able to save only a portion of his effects.

The entire damage is estimated at about $4,000 with no insurance held by the occupants of the building except $1,200 held by A. S. Warn on the stock in her store.

A peculiar incident in connection with the fire is the fact that Mrs. A. S. Warn claims that she had a presentiment that the building would be threatened by fire. She says that she received two distinct warnings to that effect.

The building was owned by Mrs. E. P. Royce.

NELSON AGAIN

Bill From That Rhysician Again
Bobs up.

Attorney Wood of Manistique appeared before the County board of Supervisors Thursday in behalf of Dr. Andrew Nelson who has a bill of $725 against the county for treating small pox patients between June 2, 1902, and August 15, 1905.

Mr. Wood explained that the bill had never been definitely before the board of health. He requested that some action either favorable or otherwise be taken.

Dr. Nelson's bill became the subject for much unfavorable comment, and a number of supervisors expressing their belief that Dr. Nelson had already been paid twice as much by the county as he should have received. To take action on allowing the bill at this session was declared to be out of the question and a motion was made to refer the bill back to the city. Attorney Wood however said he preferred to withdraw the bill than to have it hung so indefinitely by referring it back.

Anti Cigarette Law is Dead

The new anti cigarette law in Wisconsin seems to have lost much of its terrors judging by the boldness with which the young men of Marinette or some of them at least, produce coffin nails upon the street or wherever the spirit moves them. When the law was first promulgated it served as a decided deterrent for a time and the young smokers were in the habit of sitting on the bridges or coming over into Menominee when they desired to smoke. Now, however, from some cause or other, whether from tax enforcement of the law is not stated.

SMALL POX BREAKING

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Olday has Fully Recovered and Home is Fumigated.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Olday is thoroughly fumigated. The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Olday has now almost fully recovered from his illness and danger of other members of the family contracting it has also passed. The illness of Kenton Olday from small pox has entirely disappeared. The work of fumigating the home was done by Allo & Field under the personal direction of J. A. Allo and for eight hours the entire house was turned over to him when the germs of the disease were destroyed.

Notice

To the people of Escanaba. Donations of any kind in the way of furniture will be gratefully accepted by the Salvation Army to help replace the loss caused by the fire. Make all checks payable to the Salvation Army, per Capt. Wilson or send any donations to 226 Ludington St.
Capt. and Mrs. Wilson.

Marquette vs. Negaunee

Marquette and Negaunee High school foot ball teams will play at Negaunee this afternoon. The game will be one of the regular championship series. It is not decided what team will be the opponent of Marquette following the Negaunee game, but it is possible that the Northern Normal may be given a game at an early date, possibly on Saturday of next week. However, the dates have not been definitely fixed. Munising and Escanaba are said to be clamoring for games with Marquette, and will be taken on as soon as possible. The "intermittent" schedule adopted this season by the upper peninsula board of control has been the means of keeping nearly all the teams at sea in the matter of dates. The local high school team is receiving the benefit of hard practice, and is now in condition for almost any kind of game. Some of the men are showing good form, and nearly the whole team is working well together.—Marquette Mining Journal.

Manistique Again Beaten—Marquette 46; Manistique 0.

Manistique was unable to score against the Marquette High School team in a scrappy game played at the fair ground park, although the visitors used their best endeavor to break through Marquette's strong defense, but the errors were not frequent, and the game was otherwise a very good exhibition, the men playing clean foot ball.

The game was called in the second half owing to the darkness after the ball had been in play but a few minutes but not until the Marquette players had piled up two touchdowns and kicked a goal.

Singer Was Head Linger

Had the company presenting "A Girl from Sweden" who appeared at the Peterson opera house Monday night, taken the pains to find a production which was not made up for the most part of portions of plays that were familiar to theatre goers of Escanaba. The members of the company appearing in the east were up to the standard but the production in which they appeared offered no great opportunity for great character interpretations and was unsatisfactory.

United in Marriage.

The marriage of Jean Bergeon of Escanaba and Miss Etta Dupuis of Schafer was solemnized at St. Patricks church at 5:30 Monday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Fr. Langan the pastor.

A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple will make their home in Escanaba.

WAS SURPRISE TO FRIENDS

Miss Lizzie Kendal has been Mrs.
Robert E. Wheeler for Nearly Two Weeks.

Miss Lizzie Kendal, head of the working departments at the Escanaba Steam Laundry was married on Oct. at Fort Worth, Tex., to Robert E. Wheeler a traveling salesman of that city.

All but the members of her family knew of the marriage, and it came as a complete surprise to all.

Mrs. Wheeler will remain with relatives here for the greater part of this month when her husband will arrive and they will leave for the home at Fort Worth.

Sparks Caused Fire

The third in the series of fires that kept the department busy Monday broke out at the home of Adolph DeGrande, at 1918 Tweedy street and was extinguished with but a small damage to the home. It was said that sparks blown from a bonfire was responsible for the blaze. All records of the department for many months were broken Monday morning by the calls the fire department received.

$8,000 Bonds to Construct
New Poor House.

PLANS ARE RECEIVED.

of $1000, the First Payable

The County Board of Supervisors on yesterday afternoon authorized the issuance of bonds to the amount of $8,000 to be used for the construction of a new county poor farm. The construction of a new building to meet the growing needs of the county has been contemplated for some time by the board and plans have already been prepared by Architect John D. Chubb of Chicago. The bonds are to be of the denomination of $1,000 each and the first will become due on June 1, 1907 and one bond will become due on June 1, of each year thereafter until all are paid.

PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Ida Ingalls and Mr. Harry Nicholson of Gladstone Were Married Wednesday.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place at Gladstone for some time occurred Wednesday morning at Trinity Episcopal church when Miss Ida Ingalls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Ingalls, and Mr. Harry L. Nicholson were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick Luke, of Marquette, and was witnessed by a large number of friends. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Sling, and the groom was supported by Mr. Edgar Ingalls, brother of the bride. The bride was attired in white silk muslin over white taffeta with yoke collar and cuffs of point lace.

An informal reception took place at the home of the bride's parents, after the ceremony where a large number of friends gathered to extend congratulations.

A jolly party accompanied the bride and groom to the West Gladstone depot and saw them depart liberally supplied with old shoes, ribbons and other decorations commonly bestowed upon newly married couples by their fun-loving friends. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson will spend a few days at Marquette and Newberry before returning to take up their residence at Gladstone.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of Gladstone and has hosts of friends whose best wishes are extended.

The groom is a promising young man, and a member of the firm of Nicholson and Ingalls, who recently purchased the Gladstone Reporter. His former home was at Newberry. They received a large number of handsome presents. Miss Edna Packard of Negaunee, one of the bride's close friends, was present at the wedding.

GLADSTONE TOO STRONG

St. Joseph's School Team Went Down to Defeat on Saturday by Big Score

St. Joseph's High School foot ball team went down to defeat before the Gladstone eleven last Saturday by a score of 64 to 0.

Gladstone proved a big surprise for the local boys who were not expecting such strong opposition. St. Joseph's team played without its regular backs and undoubtedly would have made a much better showing had they been able to take these men along.

WILL OPERATE FERRY

Henry Schaawe Granted Permission to Operate Ferry Between Gladstone and Maywood.

Henry Schaawe, of Gladstone, has been granted permission by the county board of supervisors to build, maintain and operate a ferry between Gladstone and some point near Maywood for a period of 10 years. Mr. Schaawe's request when first presented to the board was referred to a committee composed of Supervisors Narracong, Lancaster and Kay. The committee reported favorably and a resolution granting the request with the recommendations of the committee was adopted. The committee recommended that the bond of Mr. Schaawe be placed at $200, also that the toll be not to exceed 25 cents for each team with wagon and driver, 15 cents for a single horse, cow, or ox, 5 cents for each sheep, pig, or calf, 25 cents for each auto car.

The ferry will consist of a scow 20 feet wide and 40 feet long. It will be in operation by June 1, 1900.

MADE GOOD HAUL

Burglar Gets $1,000 From Reis Coal
Co.'s Vault at Sheboygan.

The large steel vault in the main office of the C. Reis Coal company at Sheboygan was entered by some one who worked the combination to the outside door and smashed three cash drawers inside securing $1,000 in currency. The checks and drafts were left. There are no indications who the robber entered the office. The burglar locked the vault after taking the money and reset the combination to its original position.

HAS STRONG TEAM

Gladstone Eleven Shows Good Promise This Year.

Gladstone has a strong foot ball team this year and is likely to give the teams in the Upper Peninsula a lively race for the U. P. championship. The team is fast and has a number of heavy men. The game between Escanaba and Gladstone at South park to-day will probably be a close one.

Foot Ball Today

The Negaunee and Marquette high school foot ball teams will play this afternoon at Marquette. This will be the local team's first game and Marquette's third this season. Superintendent Schultz said that he does not consider it a championship eleven but so far as he can judge, the boys play pretty good football. They are light but most of the players have speed, and will give a good account of themselves.

Teachers Institute.

A teachers institute for this county will be held in Escanaba Nov. 1, 2, and 3. It will be conducted by Prof. J. H. Kaye of the Northern Normal School at Marquette with W. N. Ferris of Ferris Institute as instructor, and P. R. Legg as committee.

BEN'S GREAT THIS WEEK

Moving Pictures of Britt-Nelson Bout

The moving pictures of Britt-Nelson prize fight are clear and give an excellent idea of the fighting form of the two pugilists in the different rounds up to the time when the knock-out blow was landed and Battling Nelson became the light weight champion of the world.

Another strong specialty of this week is that in which Dick and Effie Guise appear.

Frank Emerson scored a decided hit at Ben's this week with his wonderful soloist. Mr. Emerson is the world's famous bone soloist on the stage today. Higgings and Phelps appear in an Irish comedy singing and talking act which makes the audience pleased with their funny jokes and good singing. Addison and Livingston in a farce comedy sketch called "A Debut in Vaudeville" Mrs. Addison receives great applause each and every night by her coon songs and talking act. Why did He Do It?

Prior to the arrest of the cemetery vandal in this city there were an abundance of theories concerning the kind of a man who would be found when a capture might be made. Some suggested that it might be a religious crank and others declared it was a man in the employ of a number of tombstone companies and was doing the work of destruction because business along that line was dull. Others proclaimed that the vandal was doing it because of an insane freak and others had theories without number. When Kazimer was taken into the toils it was found that the offender was not a member of a new religious sect as one of the state religious papers ventured nor does he seem to meet the requirements of a religious crank. In fact the people appear to be as much in the dark regarding his purpose in committing these depredations as they were before he was captured. There are some indications of insanity in the man who languishes in the Marquette county jail but these are not numerous. He claims he does not pray nor go to church or have anything to do with church matters, so if that is true it would seem to upset the theory of having done the work because of his beliefs in some religious sect. It is easy enough to bring up theories regarding this peculiar freak, but the motive and purpose of Kazimer remain as much a closed book as they ever did in spite of it all. While it was believed that he had one or more partners in his work of destruction that seem to have been only a theory for it would be natural to suppose that he was the only offender as there have not been destructive influences of this sort at work since he was placed behind the bars.—Peninsula Record, Ishpeming.

President at Work on His Message.

President Roosevelt is mapping out a lot of work to occupy the attention of congress when it next assembles. Questions that are of great moment to the business world and the public in general are to be placed squarely before the legislature for action.

The president's attitude on the railway rate question has not been modified since he first directed attention to the manifest evil that has grown up under the insidious system of rebates. Mr. Roosevelt strikes the keynote when he says the highways must be kept open to all on equal terms. The abuses of the private car line and the private terminal track side switch system must be stopped, the president says. There is little doubt that the majority of the people echo his sentiments in this regard. If the president has his way, power to revise and regulate rates will be invested in the interstate commerce commission. Another measure of great importance that will be recommended by the president is a bill to prevent bribery and other forms of corruption in federal elections. State courts have shown in a lamentable number of instances that they are not beyond the baneful influence of ward leaders, and attempts to punish violators of the sanctity of the ballot box have ignominiously failed. The absolute purification of politics probably will ever remain an iridescent dream, but there is little doubt that a federal statute, taking the trial of offenders against the ballot out of the control of state courts, would be a long step forward in a commendable effort to free the ballot box of fraud. Federal control of insurance is another question that will be discussed in the president's message. The disclosures that are being made in the investigation in New York have aroused a storm of indignant protest from policy holders who demand that their interests shall be protected and safeguarded by federal control.

Insurance too Costly

If the insurance exposures and reforms are to have any practical effect it must be in the direction of reduced rates to policy holders. If the extravagance and waste in past management is to be remedied efficiently, more insurance must be given for the policy holders' money. No other reform can be anything but an empty name. If the hundreds of thousands of dollars have been taken in graft and lost in bad investments and the other hundreds of thousands that have been given to campaign committees are to be turned into their proper channels, the first practical result must be cheaper insurance. The most amazing part of the revelations lies in the fact that the American people have patiently been paying life insurance rates that are unnecessarily and unjustifiably high.

Prof. Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia university, has been briefly discussing the ethical side of the insurance controversy and puts his finger upon the spot at which every policy holder is most sensitive. "Roughly speaking," he says, "the payment of $200 a year in premiums to an insurance company by a man 40 years of age, and in good health, buys an insurance of the face value of $5,000. An examination of the finances of the great New York companies, as made public in the recent disclosures, and a comparison of them with the finances of the life insurance systems of a country like New Zealand, where the business is honestly managed by the state, indicates that a premium of $200 ought to secure an insurance of between $10,000 and 15,000.

If this statement may seem exaggerated in its figures, it is at least right in its spirit.

The fact that insurance in New Zealand is extraordinarily low, because every taxpayer is a guarantor of the insured, does offset the contention that in our own country insurance is unjustifiably high. The free-handed management which characterizes the companies, the assignment of immense sums annually to their agents and the princely pay of their officers all go to show conclusively that they are taking more money from the policy holders than the insurance itself legitimately costs. Unlawful and wasteful manipulation of accumulated insurance millions is a matter for legislatures and courts to deal with. But a matter that comes direct home to the people is the fact that a large part of these millions have been unjustly taken from the people through rates that are extortionate.

SOIL OF SWAMPS

It Will be Tested by Upper Peninsula Land Co.

Forty acres is to be set apart for an experiment station, near Seney, by the Upper Peninsula Land company. The move is made in order to determine the value of a big tract of swamp land in that locality, and if the experiments prove satisfactory, extensive improvements will be undertaken. It is understood that in case the swamp lands are to be available for agricultural purposes the company will bring under improvement 120,000 acres at a cost of $100,000. Prof. Leo Geismar, of the Chatham experiment station, is of the opinion that the lands under consideration will be found adaptable for many crops. It is announced by a representative of the company that the experiment will have a bearing on a large amount of land in Chippewa county. There is some swamp land in the Waikoi valley, which will be brought under cultivation in case the experiment farm turns out to be a success. One of the greatest difficulties in the development of the upper peninsula is the great effort required to impress outsiders with the fact that this is not the coldest place on the map. There are people in the southern peninsula who think we have snow up here in September. They think the northern farmers cannot raise good crops. Never the less, the farmer in the upper peninsula is better off than his brethren who live farther south. Wet weather has destroyed many crops in southern Michigan this year, but up north crops of all kinds have flourished in a manner that would make the eyes of the southern people stick out in astonishment. A railroad man from South Carolina, who was in the Soo this summer, was greatly surprised at the crops of vegetables grown in this locality. He went camping while here and during the time he was in the woods he was fed on home-grown vegetables entirely. He said they were the best he had ever eaten. Notwithstanding the prosperity of the upper peninsula farmers, it is known that within the past few weeks state officials at Lansing have told persons who contemplated purchasing land in the upper peninsula that it is too cold up here to raise anything and that all the northern counties are good for mining and lumbering. False statements coming from state officials naturally have a bad effect. Notwithstanding this, the country is settling up rapidly and the future seems brighter than ever. Upper Peninsula farmers are prosperous because they raise better crops and get better prices than their southern friends. And the weather here is better than it is in the southern peninsula.

THERE IS MONEY IN GROWING GINSENG

Prof. W. L. Howard of Missouri State Agricultural College says: "I advise American farmers to cultivate Ginseng. Big profits may be realized. It is a hardy plant and is easily grown."—A recent bulletin issued by the Pennsylvania State Agricultural College in part says: "The supply of native Ginseng root is continually diminishing and the price per pound is correspondingly increasing, while the constant demand in China stands as a guarantee of a steady market for Ginseng in the future. The market for our cultivated root will exist as long as the Chinamen exist."—Counsel General W. A. Rublee of Hong Kong says in the U. S. Consular reports: sale of the Ginseng root grown in America is very large here and the demand is so great that much more could be disposed of advantageously. The root is as indispensable to the 400,000,000 Chinese as is their rice."

Ginseng is a staple on the market the same as corn, wheat, and cotton. The present market price varies from $5.00 to $8.00 per pound according to quality, while the cost of production does not exceed $1.50. There is room in an ordinary garden to grow several hundred dollars worth each year. The plant is hardy and thrives in all parts of the United States and Canada, except in the arid regions. We are successful growers and can show you how to make money growing Ginseng. You can get a good start in the business for a comfortable income. We have several thousand choice roots for sale for full delivery. The planting season begins in August and continues till the ground is frozen.

Prof. Bailey, of Yale university, says that in the town in which he spent his childhood there was a society of women who were active man haters. On one occasion the president prepared a paper presenting the strength of women and the weakness of men, entitled, "Woman: Without Her, Man is Helpless." To strengthen her point she hired a decrepit old man to read the paper before the regular weekly meeting of the club. When the time came the old man stood up, and, reading from the manuscript, loudly announced his title as "Woman Without Her Man is Helpless."

GIRL'S ALLOWANCE

GREAT MISFORTUNE TO BE ABLE TO SPEND MONEY FOOLISHLY.

The Girl with an Allowance Learns to Be Practical and Independent—The Sum Should Be Moderate, But Ample to Cover Necessary Expenses—Handle Your Allowance in a Business-Like Way—The "Amiable Borrowing" of a Boarding-School Girl—Every Girl Should Have Her Charities.

BY MARGARET E. SANGSTER.

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles.) If I had my way I would give every girl a moderate allowance in cash to cover her expenses by the week or the month. Please notice, girls, the force of the adjective. I would not bestow on a schoolgirl so much money that she would be prompted to rush wildly off to spend her little fortune the moment she received it, nor that she could buy all the sweets she craved, or even take unlimited rides in trolley cars, or indulge in any other pastime to her heart's content.

Nothing is so bad for most of us as to be able to gratify every wish without some self-denial. Whether you know it or not, the greatest misfortune that can befall a young girl when she is growing up is to be able to spend money foolishly just because there is pleasure in the spending. To be sure there is a good deal of excitement in going into a shop and buying pretty things right and left, and once in a while it is a satisfaction to be just a little bit extravagant. But the one thing beyond others that you need to know, and the one habit you ought to acquire before you are much older, is that of living well within your income, whatever it is.

A girl who has an allowance has an income, and she is therefore on exactly the same plane, so long as she does not exceed it, as the woman who has a deep purse and counts her wealth by millions. A girl without an allowance is a pensioner. She is not necessarily a mendicant. Her father, her mother, her guardian would be most reluctant to put the little daughter in that position. Nevertheless, she is a pensioner. Sometimes, on birthdays or at Christmas, her pocketbook is well filled; sometimes when she looks especially pretty or has taken honors in school, or her father is in a very bountiful mood, he throws her a bill or a coin of gold, and she is temporarily rich. But her lot is not so enviable as that of her friend who has something regular on which she can count, and whose spending money is neither doled out in dribbles or hung out by the handful, but given her in a business-like way on the first of the month, or perhaps every fortnight.

If I were you and were living in the beautiful season where the years are approaching the teens, or under 18, I would persuade the powers that be to give me an allowance.

Some parents begin when their children are very small, and the first allowance is only a few cents a week. This is gradually increased as the children grow older. A girl of 12 should, if possible, have a weekly or monthly allowance large enough to pay her car fares and traveling expenses back and forth to school or town, to pay for her stationary, pens and pencils, to cover little presents she wishes to give, and dainty articles for her toilet, and to purchase the trifles such as ruching, ribbons and bits of embroidery which make the delicate finishings of a young girl's dress. It might as well include enough to buy stockings, handkerchiefs and other requisites of the wardrobe.

If a girl has been carefully instructed in the art of spending money, by the time she is 15 she should be able to select her own clothes and take entire charge of the outfit for frocks, wraps, hats and shoes. For girls are taught this art as they should be. It is at least as important as music or French.

A girl away at boarding school usually has an allowance which is deposited with the principal of the school, and on which she is allowed to draw as she would on a sum in bank. She often has a bank book and a check book, and learns practically how to keep accounts and manage her small affairs to advantage.

The daughters of a certain well-known financier have their allowance paid them quarterly. It is by no means immense, although it is ample to cover the requisites of young women in the society of a small town. Should they spend the entire amount the first day after receiving it, no more money would be forthcoming from papa's millions until quarter day should come round again. This is an important feature, if one is to have an allowance. Parents must not be too ready to make up a deficit.

A frugal girl contrives to have something left untouched on the last day of the month. An improvident girl is often so deeply in debt that her money is anticipated and she has to pay it all out almost as soon as it is in her hands, which is a very bad way of getting along.

If you are permitted to have an allowance, confer with your father and understand precisely what you are to do with it. Then make up your mind firmly that you will never overrun the sum in your pocketbook by so much as five cents. Provide yourself with a blank book and pencil. You do not need an elaborate system of book-keeping, but put down carefully and legibly every day all that you have spent, and subtract the sum from your total. I need not tell you to pay as you go. You will find it at once the safest, most convenient and most satisfactory method of managing money. Do not be too ready to borrow or to lend. A girl should never borrow if she can help herself, and while she should not be mean and grudging, she should beware of loose lending.

Myra, a girl friend of mine, was a student at a fashionable school. She had only a small allowance, but it was punctiliously sent her by her father, and as she had been trained in businesslike ways, she always had money in her purse. Just across the corridor there roomed a girl who dressed with great elegance and had an air of boundless wealth. This girl, who was very sweet and attractive in manner, had a fatal chronic habit of amiable borrowing, and was very slow in paying her debts. She gradually used up the patience of most of her classmates, who learned to be shy of listening to her honeyed pleadings. But Myra did not know her and was rather flattered when Lucy came flying in impulsive and smiling, begging for a loan which took nearly every cent from Myra's little hoard. The money was to be returned in a day or two, but weeks passed and Lucy said nothing about reimbursement. Meanwhile Myra, the honorable, was in the depths of despair and in the greatest inconvenience. She never forgot afterward to be very careful to whom she made loans.

One more suggestion. It is as much a duty to give to those who need it as it is not a duty foolishly to loan money. Every young girl should have her charities. There are other girls in the world who need assistance. There are causes very dear to us. We wish as a matter of course to use money in our church work. To do this in the best way we must do it according to system, and a fixed proportion of every one's allowance should be put aside and held as a sacred trust because it is to be devoted to some unselfish purpose. For the rest, beware of having holes in your pockets. Some people have a purse which is very much like what the Bible describes as a bag with holes. Do not let outgo creep beyond income. Be just first and afterward be generous. Regard money as an opportunity which must be put to good account.

A NOVEL PINCUSHION.

May Be Constructed at Little Outlay of Money and the Result Be Quite Satisfactory.

This is a quaint little cushion for the toilet table that would make an acceptable present, and would find a ready sale at bazaars. It is quite inexpensive to make; all the materials needed would be a few odds and ends of silk or muslin, some bran, and a small doll. The legs should be cut off at the waist, and a round cushion substituted. This may be sewn or glued to the body. Having dressed the doll in the fashion indicated with voluminous sleeves and skirt, the edge of the latter should be gathered and drawn closely together beneath the cushion. Small cushions should also be made to place round the arms to fill out the wide sleeves, which are gathered below the elbow to form a frill.

AN UNCOMMON DESIGN.

"SOME BEAUTY DON'TS."

Don't wrinkle your brows with every word spoken and expect the facial massage to remove them permanently in one hour's time.

Don't worry or cry unnecessarily. Worry makes wrinkles. Tears dull the eyes, says a writer in the Philadelphia Press.

Don't have a wrinkled face. It is as unnecessary as a wrinkled gown.

Don't wash your face with soap, unless you want wrinkles.

Don't chew gum. It is unsightly and vulgar, as well as a rapid wrinkle producer.

Don't twist the mouth to one side in talking and fondly imagine that it makes the face more expressive.

Don't expect the coat of tan which has been accumulating for weeks, to disappear without some effort on your part.

Don't neglect the daily warm bath. It is a beautifier as well as a health giver.

Don't neglect to ventilate your sleeping room, and the daily airing of the living room, if you desire a good complexion.

Don't press out blackheads with the finger nails, unless you want to enlarge the pores.

Don't be surprised if you have blackheads and pimples, if you eat pastry and confectionery every day in the week.

Don't neglect to have the hands well groomed if you wear costly rings.

Don't bite your nails. It hopelessly destroys the shapeliness of the fingertips, is uncleanly, and detrimental to the health.

Don't neglect the daily care of the hair. Cleanliness is quite as essential for the hair as for the body.

Don't arrange your hair like your friends, unless it also suits the contour of your face.

FLINGS AT THE FAIR.

You can nearly always convince a woman, if you try not to.

A discussion must be carried pretty far to move a woman.

A woman usually tries to endear herself, by making herself as costly as possible.

Few men consider it worth while to be jealous of their wives after they have been married ten years.

A woman who has married for love is generally willing to have her daughter marry for all the modern comforts.

Unless a man wants to know from whom every letter a woman gets it is hard for her to feel sure he loves her.

A woman may never learn anything in a cooking school, but she can turn up her nose at the ones who haven't been.

"GENERAL" FOR 25 CENTS

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway is distributing a very beautiful lithograph, 18x25 inches, of the famous engine "General" which is now on exhibition in the Union Depot, Chattanooga, Tenn. The picture is ready for framing and will be mailed to any address for twenty-five cents. The "General" was captured by the Andrews' Raiders at Big Shanty (now Kennesaw), Georgia, on the Western & Atlantic Railroad, April 12th, 1862, and was recaptured by Conductor W. A. Fuller, Anthony Murphy and others, near Ringgold, Ga., after an exciting chase of about ninety miles. It was one of the most thrilling exploits of the Civil War. The object of the raid was to burn the bridges on the Western & Atlantic Railroad and cut off the Confederate Army from its base of supplies. A booklet, "The Story of the General," sent free upon application.

Advancing the Farmers' Interests.

Traveling agents and salesmen are now sent from the home offices of the Chicago packers into all South American and Asiatic countries. They are going into every land, no matter what language may be spoken or what money be used. They will exchange their goods for cowries or elephant tusks—anything to sell the product and get something in return convertible into money. It may seem odd to some folks, but traveling men, carrying cases with samples of American meat products, can be seen in the desert of Sahara, the sands of Zanzibar or in Brazil, "where the nuts come from." Great is the enterprise of the Yankee merchant. The greater the market, the greater the price and stability of the price of the product and all that goes to make it in its various stages.

WOMEN'S WOES

Grateful Escanaba Women Tell of the Easiest Way to Escape Them

When the back aches and throbs; When housework is torture. When night brings no rest nor sleep. When urinary disorders set in; When a woman's lot is a weary one. There's a way to escape these woes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills; Have cured women here in Escanaba. Mrs. Henry Sourbier, of 116 Mary street, Escanaba Mich., says: "We think a lot of Doan's Kidney Pills. My husband was always complaining of his back, particularly at night, when there was a dull aching across his loins which nothing we could do seemed to relieve, and when he would sit around for a while he would have to catch hold of something for support until he could get on his feet. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Mead Drug Co., and he tried them. Since then he has never complained of his old trouble. We can certainly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, and know other people who have been cured by them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

L. Van Winkle of Van's Harbor Receives Notice That Apple Exhibit (One of Best Shown)

That Delta county despite adverse opinions held by people of other portions of the country ranks among the foremost of the fruit raising districts of the United States, is shown by the diploma that was received this week by Lewis Van Winkle, of Van's harbor for apples that were exhibited at the World's Fair at St. Louis.

The exhibit sent to St. Louis over one year ago by Mr. Van Winkle was considered by him but a fair sample of the fruit that had been raised by him for several years at Van's harbor.

Cherries are successfully grown in Mr. Van Winkle's orchard.

Greatest of Days was Yom Kippur Observed by Jews Monday.
Last Monday was "Yom Kippur," the day of atonement and prayer, which with the Jewish New Year, is considered the most important holiday.

Pious people spent the entire night in synagogues praying and reciting the psalms. Devotions on the day of atonement proper are continued from morning until evening, not only in the orthodox, but also, with a few exceptions, in reform synagogues.

Services commemorating this day were held in all the Jewish synagogues throughout the world.
