SENDS REPLY TO MAYOR

Board of Public Works Disagrees with Mayor on Condition of Lighting Plant.

PLANT IN GOOD SHAPE

Mayor's Request for Exhaustive Examination of Plant by Outside Engineers, termed "Meddler's Extravagance."

The members of the Board of Public Works, in reply to a letter from Mayor Perron in which they were asked to cooperate with him in securing an exhaustive physical and financial examination of the condition of the lighting plant by outside engineers and accountants, submitted to the council on Wednesday evening the following report:

Escanaba, Mich. August 7th, 1906.
Hon. M. Perron, Mayor,
Escanaba, Mich.

Dear Sir:—
Your communication to this Board, bearing date June 8th, 1906, was read at our regular meeting held on June 30th, when the President of the Board was directed to prepare a reply at this meeting for approval.

While we could see no good reason for complying with the request contained in your communication, that the Council be asked to employ outside expert engineers and accountants, we nevertheless felt it our duty to the people of our City, with those interests we have been entrusted, to treat your request carefully and without undue haste, and to act as we believe to be for the best interests of our people.

In your communication you begin by stating, "Since becoming Mayor of this City there has been lodged with me considerable complaint about the operation of our present electric and gas lighting plants, both on account of poor service, delayed service and very poor street lighting."

Inquiry among the members of the Board discloses the fact that no such complaints have been lodged with any of the members individually, nor with the Board as a body, and our Superintendent of the Lighting Plant informs us that he has received no such complaints; and we are at a loss to account for the nature of the particular unfavorable conditions and the source of the complaints which you say have been lodged with you since you became Mayor, as the conditions of the Lighting plants has been much improved during the past year, and yet no complaints were lodged with our previous Mayor, when the conditions were less favorable.

We are satisfied that the physical condition of our Lighting Plant is very good and not "poor" as your letter would indicate, as the carnival recently held on the streets of our City was furnished 1,000 extra incandescent lamps, besides several arc lamps, and without any inconvenience to the regular consumers or the Lighting Plant, and we feel that the demand for current can increase considerably before it will be necessary to install either additional dynamos or engines.

The new boiler which was purchased while you were a member of the Board, will soon be ready for use, and the Lighting Plant will then be in a very favorable condition as to its steam supply.

Three boilers can furnish the steam necessary to meet all demands, and the fourth boiler can be kept in reserve, and by changing the boilers in use plenty of time can be given to the making of repairs and the cleaning of the boilers to insure their most economical operation.

Our street lighting system, while the same that was in use when the City purchased the plant, is doing very good service. During the past winter the street lamps were all over-hauled and put in a first class condition and the city is receiving better street lighting service than at any time since it came into possession of the plant. The boys who persist in breaking the lamps in the different parts of the city, cause about the only interruptions in our street lighting service.

As to our gas plant. It is capable of furnishing double the quantity of gas now being consumed, and where even ordinary attention is given to the burners by the consumers, no complaints are heard, and practically all of the complaints are made because of a lack of knowledge in the burning of gas, or because of the neglect of the consumers and not because of the quality of gas furnished.

The charges that the plant is "steadily running behind" are untrue, and in support of this statement will refer you to the report of the auditor, R. E. Morrell, for the six months ending December 31, 1905, which was accepted by the Board while you were a member. This report gives the net profits for these six

Remains of Mrs. Mary Ann Appleton Interred Monday

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Appleton who died Friday morning a week ago, was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's church, the Rev. Fr. Eusebius conducting the services.

The church was filled with old friends and acquaintances of the deceased and the funeral services were impressive.

The remains were laid to rest in St. Joseph's cemetery.

A large number of carriages containing friends of the dead women, followed the body to the cemetery.

Arranging Recital

Arrangements are being made by the First Presbyterian church for a recital to be given by Fred Erickson and Master Reber of Ann Arbor.

Mr. Erickson has been a student at the University of Michigan School of Music and is considered as one of the most promising pianists and organists at the University.

Master Reber is a fine violinist and the recital should prove a real musical treat.

Mr. Erickson and Master Reber will begin a tour of the principal cities of the northwest within a few days.

MORE PARK PROPERTY

City Council Decides to Acquire Strip on Bay Shore Known as Glaser's Addition.

TO COST ABOUT $4,800

Donations From Property Owners on Michigan Avenue Will Reduce Price to About $3,500.

Through the efforts of Mayor M. Perron, the city of Escanaba will acquire an addition to its park property along the bay shore and will also give the city a strip of land on the bay shore where the city will soon own the riparian rights.

The strip which the city has decided to purchase is that known as the Glaser addition and joins the present city south shore park on the south. Mayor M. Perron secured options from the owners of this property and in addition secured donations amounting to $1,300 from property owners on Michigan avenue to be applied toward the purchase of the new park. The property should thus cost the city less than $3,500.

An option on a portion of the strip owned by George Mashek is given for $2,500. An option on the greater part of the remainder are given by the Riparian Land Company for $1,500 and an option on another portion is given by Joseph J. McKinnon for $750. There still remains one lot upon which no option has been secured and the mayor and city attorney have been authorized to take steps to purchase it at a reasonable figure. In case no understanding can be arrived at with regard to the price of this lot, proceedings will be started to have the property condemned and the price to be paid by the city estimated.

The new park project is, we believe, a very good move on the part of the city and we hope it will be carried through at once.

WERE LAID ON THE TABLE

City Council Takes No Action on Gas Franchises.

TWO WERE SUBMITTED

Propositions Received from H. C. Higgins of Dixon, Ill. and J. C. Kirkpatrick of this City.

Two propositions for the construction and operation of a gas plant in Escanaba were received by the city council Wednesday and both were laid on the table.

One proposition was from H. C. Higgins of Dixon, Ill., and the other from J. C. Kirkpatrick of this city. Of the two, that of Mr. Kirkpatrick is by far the best as he offers the city $75,000 for the present gas plant.

However it does not seem to be the wish of the council to grant a franchise to anyone at this time. To do so would seriously cripple the municipal lighting plant.

Alderman Garrity championed the cause of municipal ownership in the council and his remarks were heartily applauded by the spectators in the council chamber.

JUDD YELLAND
Le-nominated for office of Prosecuting Attorney.

OFFERS WATER FRANCHISE

City Council Has Framed Franchise Which City is Willing to Grant

LOW RATES PROVIDED

Meter Rate to Private Consumers 15 cents per 1000 Gallons and Hydrant Rental Placed at $30 per Year

In accordance with a former report in which the members special water committee of the city council advised that the city frame a suitable franchise to offer any company desiring to accept it, the special committee submitted to the council on Wed. evening a franchise which they considered would be about right for the city to grant and recommend that a franchise along the same lines be advertised to find some company to accept it.

By the provisions of the franchise submitted, the rental for fire hydrants is reduced to $30 per year or about one half the amount now paid.

A 15c meter rate is also fixed in the sketch of the franchise, an amount just half that charged at present. Another reduction is that in the rate for residences which was placed at $1 per year for a house of seven rooms.

It is not known whether the council will be able to get a company to accept the franchise as it now stands.

HON. ORAMEL E. FULLER
Indorsed for State Senator by Delta County Republicans.

ANTI SPITTING ORDINANCE

New Ordinance Submitted to City Council.

A new ordinance, which if adopted will make it a misdemeanor for any person to expectorate upon the public sidewalks, upon floors in public buildings, halls, theatres and on stairways, was submitted to the City Council Tuesday evening. Under this ordinance keepers of halls, theaters and other public places will be required to keep their buildings supplied with spittoons. Objection to this phase of the ordinance was made by Abil. Tolan who said he believed the spittoons in theatres would be as big a nuisance as that of spitting on the floor.

The ordinance was referred to the ordinance committee.

BANQUET FOR HARTNETT

Business Men Arranged Fine Farewell Event

John M. Hartnett, Ex-mayor of this city and for many years a prominent business man here who left Escanaba Tuesday night for Chicago to take charge of the Blood berry gum offices in that city, was the guest of honor Monday evening at a fine farewell banquet at the Elks hall, arranged by 50 business men of this city.

The banquet was an elaborate one and the toasts that followed were especially fine. Mr. Hartnett's determination to leave Escanaba is regretted by his many friends throughout the city and all join in wishing him continuous success in his enterprise.

False Alarm of Fire.

A number of boys turned in an alarm of fire Monday afternoon, causing both companies of the fire department to make an unnecessary run to the corner of Mary and Fourth streets. This adds one more to the number of false alarms which have been turned in in the past few months and the police are making every effort to capture the guilty parties. When they are discovered prosecutions will follow.

CHAS. J. SEMER
Re-nominated for Treasurer of Delta County.

OLD RESIDENT FINED

Edward Gaynor Pleads Guilty to Using Insulting Language.

Edward Gaynor, for many years a prominent citizen of Escanaba, was arraigned before Judge Glaser Tuesday morning charged with using indecent, insulting, and immoral language. Mr. Gaynor pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $5 and costs which made a total of $9.

The warrant for Mr. Gaynor's arrest was sworn out on complaint of William Martin, city scavenger, who claimed that the defendant had addressed him in an insulting manner while he was engaged in work on property belonging to Mr. Gaynor and which had been ordered done by the city health physician.

A Good Show

The Seibel Brothers' dog and pony show, which exhibited in this city Tuesday afternoon and evening, attracted large crowds to both performances.

The performances of the trained animals dogs, ponies and monkeys is a revelation of what can be done with dumb brutes through kindness and persistent training. The acts were all good and showed a high degree of cleverness with almost human intelligence.

COUNCIL DID RIGHT

Action of City Council in Accordance With the Wish of the People

The Mirror is surprised over the actions of the council in laying the two requests for gas franchises on the table.

We see nothing in the action of the Council that should cause surprise. The Council acted as they believed the people of this city desired. Last year the people of this city voted down by an overwhelming majority the proposition to sell the lighting plant. This ought to be a pretty good indication of the feeling of the people on this subject. The council did right. The people did not purchase the municipal plant with the idea that the next administration should turn about and give away the franchise which the city paid for.

The plants are doing well, and are paying off the bonds as they fall due, in a few years the city will own the plants without having paid a cent for them, and with no bonds to meet and will be able to get its street lighting for almost nothing.

RUSSIAN STRIFE.

Although the mutinies at Sevastopol have been ended and one at Cronstad has been practically put down, the outlook is still black. The revolutionists, whose hands were suddenly forced by the premature rising at Sevastopol, apparently are undaunted at those initial reverses, and intend to persist in their programme of calling a general strike.

It can be stated definitely that the first step toward a dictatorship may be taken by the nomination of Grand Duke Nicholas to the chief command of all troops in Russia.

The fate of the general strike, which although it has affected close to 70,000 men in St. Petersburg, has met with only slight response in other sections of Russia, probably will be decided with an adverse expression of public opinion.

SEVASTOPOL IN MUTINY OF HUGE PROPORTIONS

Revolutionists Believed to have Crippled Loyal Forces to Such an Extent They Are Unable to Even Call for Help.

Odessa.—A mutiny of huge proportions is believed to be in progress at Sevastopol. The trouble is believed to have started Saturday, and there is every indication that the rebels have gained the upper hand.

There has been no telegraphic communication with Sevastopol since Saturday. This condition would not be allowed to obtain if the government could prevent it, and the fact that the authorities have made no explanation of the interruption of communications adds to the belief that there has been a mutiny and that the mutineers have crippled the loyal forces to such an extent that they are unable even to call for help.

Kaulbars Is Not Heard From.

Several days ago Governor General Kaulbars went to Sevastopol to investigate the reports of serious disaffection among the troops. He has not returned, and so far as is publicly known he has not been heard from.

The inference that there is trouble afoot at the fortress is strengthened by an incident which occurred here Sunday night, and which was carefully noted by spies of the revolutionists, who are perfectly familiar with the secret signalling codes of the army and navy.

A torpedo-boat destroyer appeared several miles off the harbor and was picked up by the search light mounted on the roof of the commandant's residecided to resort to the blowing up of bridges and the destruction of roadbeds.

Fear Soldiers May Mutiny.

St. Petersburg.—An outbreak at Sevastopol similar to that at Cronstad is reported. Reinforcements have been sent to Sevastopol from Odessa.

There is a rumor that four mutinous warships are cruising about Cronstad threatening St. Petersburg. The admiralty does not believe the story.

With the call for a strike the first serious symptoms of military disaffection in St. Petersburg developed. Cossacks were hastened to the barracks of the Moscow regiment of the guards, stationed in the capital. It is circumstantially asserted this regiment is on the point of mutiny.

Serious disaffection among the troops also is reported from Warsaw and Moscow. A portion of the troops in summer camp near Warsaw mutinied Thursday and are in open revolt. The artillerymen have driven their officers out of their quarters. A detachment of Cossacks sent to overpower the mutineers was received with grape-shot. Details are lacking, as extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent the facts becoming public.

The growing restlessness among the troops composing the garrisons in the southern provinces is being carefully watched by the provincial com-dence. The signal was answered by the destroyer's search light and then the commandant's search light flashed the following order:

"Proceed immediately to Sevastopol and report."

The destroyer quickly turned her nose about and started under full steam for the Crimea.

Fear Revolt at Odessa.

Meanwhile there is much uneasiness regarding conditions in this city. For several days there have been persistent reports that a portion of the garrison were preparing to kill their officers and take possession of the barracks and equipment, afterward putting themselves at the service of the revolutionists.

According to these reports an uprising of the populace was to follow and the revolt in southern Russia would be on in full swing. Just what has occurred at the garrison is not known, but there is much apprehension that something serious is about to happen.

That the reports of trouble among the troops are well founded is indicated by the fact that the French consul has been instructed by his government in case of necessity to give refuge to fugitives irrespective of nationality. In these instructions also is seen the possibility that the Paris government has been apprised of an uprising in Sevastopol.

Strikers Plan Reign of Bomb.

St. Petersburg.—After an all night secret session at Terioki, Finland, the council of workmen's deputies decided to overcome the obstacle offered by the apathy of the railroad men toward the general strike, by the use of bombs.

Representatives of all the revolutionary parties and emissaries from Moscow, Kiev, Odessa, Riga and other cities were present and there was severe denunciation of the railroad men for their failure to tie up the transportation lines as an aid to the revolution.

This timidity on the part of the railroad men is due to the fact that a recent law provides severe penalties for participation in strikes which affect communications, and extends to the telegraphers. The Terioki meeting manders-in-chief. Protracted staff councils are being held daily.

A revolutionary manifesto was circulated Friday declaring that Russia is on the eve of a military and naval revolution which will be sharp and desperate.

A general uprising in the navy is among the possibilities, despite the fate which befel the revolt on Pamaya Azova.

An inept mutiny broke out Friday on board the cruiser Bogatyr at Helsingfors. It immediately was put down with the arrest of 200 of the sailors on board.

Soldiers Guard Warships.

A battalion of infantry is guarding the docks at Cronstad night and day to prevent any attempt to destroy the warships there. These include Russia and Grombol, which recently returned from Vladivostok. Their crews remain calm. Reports from Cronstad say that all the sailors have not yet surrendered.

Mutiny at Cronstad.

St. Petersburg.—Developments Thursday were as follows:

More than 2,000 sailors and soldiers at Cronstad mutinied, and a fierce battle followed, in which several were killed and many wounded. The mutiny virtually is ended.

The mutineers at Sveaborg fortress surrendered.

A general strike, which is expected by its promoters to bring about a great uprising, is to be called Saturday or Monday, according to the decision of revolutionists' committee here.

The crew of the cruiser Pamyat Azova mutinied off the Estonian coast and killed some of the officers of the vessel. The uprising was suppressed by sailors who remained loyal.

Military disorders have broken out at Revel. No details are obtainable. It is feared another mutiny has occurred.

Gen. Markgrafsky, chief of the gendarmerie at Warsaw, was shot and killed by revolutionists.

Although the hands of the revolutionists were forced suddenly by the premature rising at Sveaborg, they are undaunted at these initial reverses and intended to persist in their programme.

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with female trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a reliable female tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women."
Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Depot at Battle Creek.

The Grand Trunk Railway System has just completed and opened a new passenger station at Battle Creek. The station occupies the entire block fronting on east Hall street, between east Main and Beach streets. Special station tracks accommodate waiting trains independent of the regular main line tracks, and the approaches to the building, together with ample platforms, are so designed as to handle the greatest number of passengers with ease. Neither palms nor expense has been spared in erecting a station which not only meets every need of the traveling public, but is also a delight to the lover of the beautiful. The general design of the building is a modified mission style. The construction is of Maine granite and paving blocks laid in Flemish bond. The roofs consist of semi-glazed red Spanish tile. The first story contains an entering lobby, general waiting room, ladies' parlor, smoking room and lavatories; in the southeast corner of the main building a lunch room has been provided, and the northeast corner is occupied by the baggage room. A wide veranda connects the main building with the express building. The second story contains offices, etc. The building is perfectly heated, ventilated and lighted. It is one of the finest depots of its size in the country.

Was Willing to Change.

According to Harper's Weekly, Marshall P. Wilder tells of a young man in Wilkesbarre who had aspirations to the hand of a daughter of one of the wealthiest men in that place. Recently the hopeful one had an interview with the father for the purpose of laying the matter before him. "Well," growled the old man; "what I most desire to know is, what preparation have you made for the future?" "Oh," exclaimed the suitor, in a confident and obliging tone, "I am a Prebyterian; but, if that denomination doesn't meet with your approval, I am quite willing to change."

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

THE NOMINEES WERE NAMED BY A UNANIMOUS VOTE FOR EACH OF THEM, WITH APPLAUSE.

THE PLATFORM AND GENERAL FEATURES.

The Republican state convention was held in the Light Guard Armory, Detroit, on Tuesday to nominate state officers and transact the usual convention business. There was no inharmonious, no objections to any candidates, no scrambles for place and all was done in harmony and unanimity. The preliminaries of the night before showed that there would be nothing to delay the proceedings and there was not. The convention was called to order by Chairman Diekema and prayer was offered by Rev. Mac H. Wallace. The delegates were welcomed by Mayor Codd, Representative Fordney, of Saginaw, was chosen temporary chairman, and made a lengthy address. Committees were appointed and a recess taken till 1:30 p. m.

At the afternoon session speeches were made by Governor Warner, P. H. Kelley, candidate for lieutenant governor; Senator Burrows and others. The governor's address embraced these points:

As a summary of two years of close observation, he expressed the conviction that there never was a time when the people watched as carefully and interestedly the conduct of public affairs and when officials generally were more responsive to public sentiment.

In an inventory of the accomplishments of his administration, he frankly admitted that some of the 1,029 acts of the legislature to which he had given his assent had proven a disappointment. One of these was the law making changes of venue mandatory.

Another was the law limiting to dependent relatives the right of action against those responsible for death or injury caused by carelessness or neglect.

Another was the Gibraltar law permitting manipulation under the guise of "equalizing values" in fixing the railroad rate of taxation. Its passage, however, had the advantage of resulting in a judicial determination of an important question.

Divers grounds for Republican optimism were outlined and satisfaction with the primary law and his expressed gratitude for the honor of being the first beneficiary under its operation. Correction of defects in that law were recommended.

General legislation for the more efficient regulation of corporations was also recommended. President Roosevelt was eulogized for his work in this direction and Michigan's co-operation in further efforts of that character was pledged.

The Nominees.

The candidates for governor and lieutenant governor having been nominated at the June primaries, the ticket was completed by the unanimous choice of the convention for all the other places and is here given:

The Platform.

The committee on resolutions received this one from William Alden Smith:

Resolved, That this convention favors the nomination of candidates by direct vote of the people.

There was some discussion which ended by a compromise and the committee made this report which was unanimously adopted and so became the platform of the party:

We, the representative Republicans of Michigan, in convention assembled, unreservedly and cordially endorse the patriotic, courageous and aggressive administration of President Roosevelt. We admire him as the embodiment of the high ideals of the Republican party, for his insistence upon adequate and efficient railroad legislation, and for his demands that the welfare and interests of the people shall be first considered, regardless of selfish promptings and of the organized protests of greed and power. Under his administration the enforcement of law has been prompt and impartial, recognizing neither position nor station in dealing with violators and in urging the requirements of justice.

We are glad to give voice to the high appreciation on the part of the Republicans of Michigan for the splendid work of the fifty-ninth congress, and to the Michigan members of that body, for their legislation of the last session. In our judgment the declarations of President Roosevelt that no congress in the last quarter of a century has accomplished so much good for the whole people of the United States, is a just tribute to the wisdom and patriotism of the Republican majority of that body.

The prosperity of our state at the present time and through recent years surpasses all former records made by our own or any other nation since civilization began. This prosperity has been and is being shared by the working men and the farmer, by the merchant and the manufacturer, and by all men and women who make up the great body of the American producers and consumers. These conditions illustrate, again, as they have so happily in other periods of American history, the practical value of Republican policies and Republican principles, as established in Republican laws and applied by Republican administrations. We emphatically affirm our continued belief in the wisdom of the Republican protective tariff policy. Whatever changes in tariff schedules may become necessary should be so made as to preserve the Republican principle of protection and to aid the further advancement of American industry and achievement.

As Michigan Republicans, as well as in our own capacity as delegates representing the working forces of our party in all sections of the state, we are most glad to give cordial endorsement to the renomination of Gov. Fred. M. Warner, as the Republican candidate for governor, already made by 55,000 Republican votes. In every feature of his official course as governor of Michigan has Gov. Warner fulfilled the promises made by himself to the people of this state and made in his behalf by those who knew him to be courageous, honest and true. He has assisted in the enactment of laws, which he believed were desired by a majority of the people and has as vigorously opposed other enactments, the purposes of which he deemed undesirable. He has familiarized himself with the status and needs of our state institutions, and with sincere regard for their growth and advancement, has successfully urged the greatest possible economy and care. The people of Michigan know Gov. Warner, and their knowledge of his qualities as an official and of his character as a man will lead them to elect him as his own successor in November by an overwhelming majority. We also heartily ratify and approve the nomination of the Hon. Patrick H. Kelley as the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor. We endorse the administration of state affairs by all of the state officers and believe their records will result in their election by overwhelming majorities.

We commend the last legislature for its efficiency and success in the disposition of matters of state importance; for its practical economy in providing for state expenditures and for its fulfillment of its promises made to the people of the state by our party. We believe that the action of that body in the enactment of a primary election law, which is giving the people of this state an opportunity to enter upon the practical test of the direct nomination system, was a general fulfillment of our party's promises, and is an assurance that in such details as may be found necessary that law will be so perfected as to as fully as possible meet the best purposes it seeks to attain.

We heartily approve the action taken by Gov. Warner in appointing a delegation of distinguished citizens to represent the state at the Iowa convention to be held in September next. We earnestly recommend to those delegates that they direct their efforts to the end that the people of the United States so amend the constitution of the United States as to permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The platform which was adopted thoroughly endorsed President Roosevelt's administration, affirmed continued belief in the Republican tariff policy, and endorsed Gov. Fred. M. Warner, the other state officials, and the last legislature. Nominations are as follows: For governor, Fred. M. Warner; for lieutenant governor, Patrick H. Kelley; for secretary of state, George A. Prescott; for state treasurer, Frank P. Glazier; for auditor general, Dr. James B. Bradley; for land commissioner, William H. Rose; for attorney general, John E. Bird; for superintendent of public instruction, Luther L. Wright; for member of state board of education, Dexter M. Ferry, Jr.

New Salt Maker.

The largest and most modern salt block in the United States, erected by the Saginaw Plate Glass Co., with a capacity of 1,000 barrels of salt per day, has commenced operations. The new plant will increase the salt production of Saginaw county 50 per cent, its output being more than half that of all the other ten blocks combined. The salt making is automatic, even to the filling and packing of barrels with the finished product. The plant will work night and day, using the exhaust steam from the plate glass works, and will, it is said, produce salt cheaper than any other brine block in America.

Strange Suicide.

Ernest Bratt, clerk in a Sault Ste. Marie cigar store, took a vacation trip on the steamer Saronic. When a few miles out he commenced reading aloud from the new testament on the deck of the boat. Then he held a prayer meeting, at the close of which he pulled off his coat and jumped into the lake and was drowned. The body was not recovered. Bratt never showed signs of insanity until just before he ended his life. He was a single man, 25 years old. There is no trace of his relatives.

Information and Gossip Furnished by Special Correspondent at Lansing.

Lansing.—It having been reported that certain fire insurance companies doing business in Michigan are settling losses at San Francisco on a 60 per cent basis, Insurance Commissioner Barry was asked if these companies should be permitted to continue doing business in this state. "If it should be shown that companies were refusing to pay less than the full amount of their liability it would certainly be cause for action on the part of this department," said Commissioner Barry. "No complaint has been made to me, however, that companies are not carrying out their contracts. I venture to say that nearly every day in nearly every state in the union losses are adjusted by companies at less than the amount of their policies, the circumstances depending upon whether the loss is total or only partial and upon the terms of the contract. There are some special conditions involved in the losses in San Francisco that should be taken into consideration. There was an earthquake followed by a fire. A certain amount of damage was done by the earthquake, and the companies had never assumed an earthquake hazard. They had never received a single cent of premiums for insurance against loss by earthquake, and I am not prepared to take the ground that the companies should pay earthquake losses on fire policies that specifically exempt losses by earthquake any more than they should pay tornado losses on a contract insuring against fire. Of course, to repudiate a fire loss is a different thing, or to force a settlement with a policyholder for less than the actual amount of the liability. I should want to know the exact facts before reaching any conclusion as a basis for official action. While some of the fire insurance companies now have settled with policyholders in San Francisco for 60 per cent of their losses, it is not understood by the Michigan department that any loss by fire alone has been paid at less than the company's actual liability.

State Democratic Convention.

The Michigan Democratic convention at Detroit endorsed William J. Bryan for president in 1908, and defeated a resolution calling upon the national Democratic committee to investigate the charges made against National Chairman Thomas E. Taggart and demand his resignation if they be proved. Then it nominated Charles H. Kimmerle, of Casapolls, for governor over Stanley E. Parkhill, of Owosso, the only other candidate, after a spirited ballot. The platform blames evils that have arisen under the trust system to the Republican party, which is accused of conferring special privileges on corporations by class legislation. The rejection of Senator La Follette's proposed railroad legislation is pointed to as proof of this assertion. Bryan's name is endorsed for the presidential nomination in this language: "Fully believing in the honesty, integrity and wisdom of William Jennings Bryan, and that under his leadership the people would receive relief from the many ills above referred to, we commend him to the people of the United States as a candidate for president in 1908." The resolutions further favor the nomination of all candidates by direct vote, nomination and election of United States senators by direct vote, a passenger rate of not more than two cents a mile in the lower peninsula and three cents in the upper peninsula, the elimination of the use of the cross at the head of ballots and the use of a cross before each candidate voted for, and enactment of laws making it a criminal offense for members of the legislature to accept railroad passes. The nominations: For governor, Charles H. Kimmerle; for lieutenant governor, Rush Cutler; for secretary of state, P. J. Devine; for state treasurer, Charles Wellman; for attorney general, Judge E. J. Doyle; for auditor general, John Yuell; for superintendent of public instruction, Elmer R. Webster; for state land commissioner, Clarence L. Sheldon; for member of state board of education, James E. Sullivan.

Republican State Convention.

Excepting a slight brush in the resolutions committee over Congressman William Alden Smith's resolution pledging the party to the direct nomination of United States senators, the Republican state convention at Detroit was featureless and partook more of the nature of a ratification meeting than a convention. The brief contest in the resolutions committee resulted in the adoption of a compromise resolution which recommends to the Michigan delegates to the Iowa convention in September that they "direct their efforts to the end that the people of the United States so amend the constitution as to permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The platform which was adopted thoroughly endorsed President Roosevelt's administration, affirmed continued belief in the Republican tariff policy, and endorsed Gov. Fred. M. Warner, the other state officials, and the last legislature. Nominations are as follows: For governor, Fred. M. Warner; for lieutenant governor, Patrick H. Kelley; for secretary of state, George A. Prescott; for state treasurer, Frank P. Glazier; for auditor general, Dr. James B. Bradley; for land commissioner, William H. Rose; for attorney general, John E. Bird; for superintendent of public instruction, Luther L. Wright; for member of state board of education, Dexter M. Ferry, Jr.

Trouble in Apportionment.

The supreme court's decision in the senatorial apportionment case is likely to cause considerable trouble, although only a few districts in the state are affected. The attorney general's department already has under consideration the question whether a new nomination in the Ogemaw-Gladwin district is required, and whether the direct nomination method can be employed in the Bay-Midland district, to which Arenac county has been added by the court's decision. It is believed that A. C. Carton's nomination in the Iosco district will not be disturbed, although Arenac county delegates participated in making it. Carton's nomination was made by acclamation and another convention would have the same result. In the Bay-Midland district the situation is perplexing. Direct nominations were voted for, but Arenac not being in the district at that time, did not vote on the question of direct nominations for the senate. In the opinion of several attorneys this would require the nomination to be made by convention, but the lawyers of the attorney general's department incline to the view that if the majority in the district in favor of direct nominations was greater than the Republican enrolled vote of Arenac, the primary method should prevail. An opinion will probably be given out in a few days to settle the questions arising under the court's decision.

Claims less than $500 each amount to about $28,500. The attorney for certain preferred stockholders has filed with the receiver a protest against the recognition of more of the larger claims, alleging that the debts were illegally contracted and that the notes were not signed by two directors.

Summer Institutes.

Approximately 5,000 teachers are assembled at the summer institutes that are being held in the state, and are settling the best of instruction in the art of teaching, according to W. H. French, deputy superintendent of public instruction, who has made a trip of inspection to many of them. Besides these institutes at the normal colleges, there are summer sessions of from two to four weeks at 14 county normal schools.

Lansing May Be Headquarters.

Headquarters of the Republican state central committee for the state campaign will probably be in Lansing. It is the plan to begin active work during September.

Experiment in Cattle Food.

The long drought this summer has caused the farm department to take up a line of experiments of much importance to the farmers of the state. Several herds of cattle at different points in the state will be fed moistened beet pulp as a substitute for the falling pastures. A close record will be kept of the results thus obtained, and later printed in bulletin form. The two herds now being watched are at Coopersville and near Farmington.

Seek Many Signatures.

Candidates for county offices are engaged in a strife to secure names to their nominating petitions. No candidate seems to be satisfied with the number of signatures required by the primary law, but is endeavoring to get as many signatures as possible. Signers of petitions pledge themselves to work for the nomination of the candidate whose petition they have signed, and candidates feel that the more signatures they receive the more likely they are to be nominated.

L. S. Gorham, of 516 East 4th St., Olympia, Wash., says: "Six years ago I got wet and took cold, and was soon flat in bed, suffering tortures with my back. Every movement caused an agonizing pain, and the persistency of it exhausted me, so that for a time I was dazed and stupid. On the advice of a friend I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and soon noticed a change for the better. The kidney secretions had been disordered and irregular, and contained a heavy sediment, but in a week's time the urine was clear and natural again and the passages regular. Gradually the aching and soreness left my back and then the lameness. I used six boxes to make sure of a cure, and the trouble has never returned."

India's Cotton Crop.

The cotton crop of India was larger last year, 1905, than the general average. About 20,000,000 acres were planted in cotton and the yield was about 3,500,000 bales. During the year there were exported from India to other countries over 2,125,000 bales of raw cotton at a value of over $81,000,000, the four countries, Japan, Germany, Belgium and Italy, in the order named, being the largest purchasers, they together buying nearly 1,500,000 bales of Indian cotton, while Japan alone took nearly 500,000 bales.

PHYSICIAN SAYS

Children Thrive on Grape Nuts and Cream.

A Mass. physician has found a cure for constipation in children—citing fifteen cases—by feeding them Grape-Nuts.

"Some time ago," he writes, "I became interested in your food, Grape-Nuts, as a cure for constipation in children. Having tried it in my own family, I have advised it in fifteen cases in which all suffered with constipation more or less severe. The result has been absolute relief in all. I write this that other children may be benefited."

How much better it is thus to bring about a healthy action in the bowels of growing children by natural means, than to feed them with improper food, requiring some kind of cathartic at intervals to overcome constipation.

Grape-Nuts gives energy to the entire nervous system including the nerves that cause the natural contraction and relaxation of the bowel muscles, that propel the food mass along.

It is predigested also, and the blood easily absorbs the food as it goes through the body, storing up vitality and force for the functions of all the organs.

Children especially, should get the right start as to habits of living. They should grow into bright, strong, cheerful men and women. Grape-Nuts solve the question of the start; a wholesome appetite will do the rest.

Children's teeth are benefited by chewing Grape-Nuts, also. Your dentist will tell you that a certain amount of exercise in chewing firm food, is necessary to grow strong, beautiful teeth.

Teeth need exercise just the same as muscles, if they are to grow strong and firm as nature intended. Grape-Nuts gives the exercise and also gives material from which good teeth are made.

"THE DIVINE SARAH" Bernhardt has again been refused the cross of the Legion of Honor. The Paris correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, gives the following reasons for the refusal: "Her financial carelessness, which according to French standards, constitutes the greatest stain on a person's character, turns out to be the reason why the chancellor of the Legion of Honor has again refused the cross to Sarah Bernhardt. The decision is permanent.

"A member of the council of the order said that the insistence of M. Briand, minister of the public worship and instruction, will result in a dispute which may end in the abolishment of the order, since Socialistic as well as other opposition against it as an undemocratic institution was never stronger than now.

"Bernhardt has never paid the slightest attention to her obligations to the city of Paris, from which she rents her theatre. It used to pay in the public treasury several hundred thousand francs annually. From a business point of view she long has been insolvent.

"When she returned from America a few weeks ago with another moderate fortune the city fathers expected that she would pay something on account but away she went to her summer home at Belle Isle without so much as saying 'by your leave' to the city council.

"It is this carelessness which is referred to when the coveted honor was refused the actress on the ground that she did not fulfill the conditions.

"Mrs. Bernhardt has no regard for her regular liabilities, said the informant. "Notes, engagements and financial paper mean nothing to her. The cross of the Legion of Honor cannot be given to bankrupts or to those who are threatened with financial ruin through unbusinesslike methods.

"This will be the answer the council of the order will make to Minister Briand if he insists on decorating Bernhardt."

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has shown his faith in the one dollar popular subscription suggestion made by the chairman of the Republican congressional committee, and his favor for the plan by remitting his dollar to Chairman Sherman, accompanied by good wishes for the movement's success. Michigan republicans, who are not usually laggards in encouraging and supporting worthy party purposes, can expend one dollar in no better way than in following President Roosevelt's example.

Sending Money Away

Many people, when they wish to send money to some other place, think they must go to the POSTOFFICE or EXPRESS OFFICE to buy a money order, or that they must send the cash itself in a registered letter or express package. Not so. The BANK is the best institution for the transfer of funds, no matter how small the remittance you wish to make. Bank money orders (or bank drafts, which are really the same thing), are CHEAPER, SAFER and more convenient than any other form of remittance.

It takes less time and less trouble to get a bank money order than a postal money order. At the postoffice you have to fill out an application blank before the order can be issued. At the bank you simply ask for an order for so much money, and it is promptly filled out and handed to you—no RED TAPE and NO DELAY.

We sell money orders payable in all the principal cities of the world.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

THROUGH JUNGLE FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN

Since the discovery of the Isthmus of Panama, or Darien, as it was at first called, there is hardly a spot on earth that has attracted so much attention. Balboa, the Spanish navigator, was the first to cross the divide and saw the Pacific on September 25, 1513. Its history during the nearly 400 years that have since elapsed is filled with stories of bloodshed and cruelty. The Spaniards slaughtered the Indians as they did the inoffensive Caribs. The buccaners under such monsters as Hawkins and Morgan committed crimes against the Spaniards that appear almost incredible. The sack of the old City of Panama is one of the darkest pages in the history of nations. It is a relief to turn from these subjects to a history of suffering supported by the dictates of duty and patriotism as enrolled in the archives of the United States naval department at Washington.

From Tehuantepec to New Granada every effort had been made fifty years ago to find a suitable route for a ship canal through the Cordilleras. An Irish renegade wrote a book describing such a route, and English capitalists sent out an engineer named Giborne to make a survey. He returned with maps and figures and wrote a book describing an alleged practicable route. All were false and it is doubtful if he ever penetrated the isthmus at all. On his statement that there was a gap of only 150 feet in height above sea level, a company was formed with a capital of $75,000,000 to construct a canal. Giborne's falsehoods were speedily discovered, but an English party set out the Savana river in 1852, after penetrating a few miles, returned in despair, minus four men killed by the Chuquanaqua Indians, a fierce tribe of the interior.

Sought Through Route.

The idea at the time was to discover a route from Caledonia bay, on the Atlantic, to Darien harbor, on the Pacific. To this end the United States steamship Cynane was sent with an exploring party to Caledonia bay, while a British ship, the Virago, went to Darien harbor to give assistance if needed. The Cynane's party consisted of Lieutenant Isaac C. Strain, in command; Passed Midshipmen Charles Lattimer and William T. Truxton, First Assistant Engineer J. M. Maury, Midshipman H. M. Garland, a volunteer from the Cynane; A. T. Boggs, S. H. Kettelwell, J. Sterritt Hollins, who were assistant engineers, and Dr. J. C. Bird, surgeon. Mr. Maury was astronomer and secretary. Senors Castilla and Polanco went along as representatives of New Granada, in which state the proposed route lay. The balance of the party of twenty-seven consisted of tried seamen of the navy.

Misled by Giborne's maps and statements, the party took only ten days' provisions, but was amply supplied with arms and ammunition. Of that party of twenty-seven men that left the Cynane, on January 17, 1851, only eighteen ever saw the ship again, the other third having perished miserably in the depths of the tropical forest, or after the rescue of the party.

Advancing up the bed of the Caledonia river, they were soon forced to take to the land, where progress could only be made by hewing a path through the dense foliage. The Indians fled before them, first burning their tents and canoes. The explorers were speedily immersed in the appalling difficulties of a tropical country, aggravated by steep precipices and deep canyons. Holcomb, Winthrop, Hollins, Dr. Bird and Roscoe strayed from the column on January 29 and were never heard of again. Deeply as Strain felt for them, he was obliged to push on after firing repeated signals for them to return. They found an Indian guide, who appeared to be honest at that time and said he would guide them to the Savana, one and a half days' march. He later encountered a band of Chuquanaqua Indians and abandoned the explorers. They finally reached the Sucuteti river, a tributary to the Chuquanaqua, which runs into the Tutrya, and the latter into Darien harbor by a most circuitous route. Chuquanaqua is said to be the most tortuous stream known to geographers, as the unfortunate explorers were soon destined to learn. It is said to take a course double its own direct length.

On Wearisome Journey.

The party struggled along the rock-strewn bed of the Sucuteti, believing it to be the Savana, which would lead them to relief and safety. Worn out by incessant toil, Polanco and Kettelwell gave out, the latter begging to be left behind. The men did not take care of their rations, the Grenadians had thrown away theirs and there was but one day's supply remaining. The officers had some food left, and this was divided among the party. Once more the march was resumed, the men struggling wearily through the hills and dense forests.

Reluctantly Strain gave the order to return to the river he had left and there the first and last council of the party was held. The conclusion was reached that they were on the Iglesias, set down by Giborne as a branch of the Savana. There was no trail through the wilderness; three of the men and one of the Grenadians were utterly worn out. A few plantains were found and divided. Eight birds were shot, among them an owl and a woodpecker, and some small fish were caught by Mr. Truxton. An iguana was shot and, in vainly trying to recover it from the river, Holmes lost his boot, which later on caused his death.

On the thirteenth day the New Grenadians gave up in despair, although the work had all been done by the Americans. Lombard, the boatswain of the party, became very ill. The clothes and boots of the men were torn to shreds and at night nothing was heard but agonized groans. Boils began to appear on the men and each was found to contain a "worm of the woods," some of them an inch in length. On the sixteenth day an acid nut was discovered, but it destroyed the enamel of the teeth and the digestive powers as well. Some turkeys were shot and the stage was reached where over the huzzards and cranes were welcomed as food.

On the eighteenth day they had a great misfortune. Truxton only was entrusted with the sole fishhook. He gave it to Castilla, who turned it over to one of the men, who broke it. Strain said nothing beyond pointing out the probable result. It cost many lives, as the Chuquanaqua, when reached, was full of fish, but there were no means of catching any.

Small Craft Soon Wrecked.

On the twentieth day the Grenadians asked permission to return and take a man with them. This was granted and they were furnished with good arms. Their idea was to reach some New Grenadian settlement and procure aid there. The party was now reduced to nineteen persons and the march was resumed. The Grenadians rejoined the next day; they had built a small craft, but it was soon wrecked. The day after Strain took three men to push their way rapidly down the river and secure aid for the rest of the party, leaving Mr. Truxton in command. Avery, a volunteer, and Golden and Wilson of the Cynane, volunteered to accompany him.

After many periling councils Strain sadly left the main body on February 13. Occasionally a bird or an iguana was shot and furnished a modicum of food for the famished men. Lombard, Harrison and Castilla failed entirely on the twenty-eighth day. Holmes, who had lost his boot, had a wounded foot that was becoming gangrenous. Some huzzards, a turkey and a peccary were shot, but there was no harvesting until the thirty-seventh day and then only for half a mile.

Lombard, Parks and Johnson left the camp and hid. In their terrible sufferings they had matured a plan to hide until Holmes died, exhume the body and subsist upon the flesh until they reached the Atlantic coast. On the thirty-eighth day Holmes breathed his last and his emaciated body, with his musket alongside, was laid to rest on the banks of the river in a grave hollowed out with knives and an ax.

Decided to Go Back.

Lieutenant Strain was now twenty-one days gone, and it was evident that the sixteen survivors would not live for his return. They believed he was dead and a council of the officers decided to counter-march and try to regain Caledonia bay. It cost a severe struggle to reach this conclusion, but it seemed the only hope. Truxton, seated by Holmes' grave, sadly penned a letter of explanation to Strain, should the latter ever regain the place, and in it he begged him to push on after the party. Then Parks was missing and on March 6 a start was made on the march to Caledonia bay, the former being abandoned to his fate. Both Grenadians were very ill, but some of the seamen threw away their arms to assist them along. All the work was now being done by the officers. The following day Castilla lay down to rise no more and his body was interred by the river. The party strayed from the dark stream and was soon lost in the jungle. Despair settled upon all. Polanco could go no farther, and, with streaming tears, the ragged, torn, starving men were forced to abandon him to his fate. He screamed in anguish, but there was no resource and the unfortunate Grenadian was left alone. Later it was discovered that he had crawled back to his compatriot's grave and died upon it. His remains were later found in that position by Lieutenant Strain.

The following day Lombard asked to be left behind, as it was clear he could go no farther. They shared their remnants of food with him and left him to his fate. What this may have been was never discovered. At his earnest request his boatswain's whistle was left with him. The next day, a terriplan somewhat revived the thirteen miserable men. Miller became delirious and Harwood the weakest, where all were weak. So dragged on the weary days and nights until March 22, when Mr. Boggs agreed that he should be abandoned, although he still hoped for succor. Mr. Truxton became very ill and the emaciated band was forced to halt. It was evident that four or five men would have to be abandoned the next day and that not more than two or three could hope to reach Caledonia bay, if any one ever did.

Knew Fate Was Sealed.

Truxton, Boggs and Harwood, all young men, knew that their fate was sealed. Hunger and toil had reduced them to mere bundles of rags and bones. Harrison and Vermilyea were little better; that evening Maury stood by the gloomy river. All were wrapped in the darkest despair. Suddenly Maury shouted, "Truxton, I hear a gun; I see white men; I see Strain." No words can describe the delicious excitement that brought the despairing, dying men to their feet as deliverance appeared at hand.

Day after day the lion-hearted Strain and his comrades had pushed their way through fearful obstacles, much of the path being cut by himself. Reduced to skeletons, they at last reached the village of Yavisa, to find natives as venal as cowardly. He managed to reach the ranch of an Irishman named Bennet, on the Savana, who gave to him the warmest aid. The Virago returned from Panama and boats laden with provisions were seen on their way up Chuquanaqua river and the rescued men were brought back. They found Parks still alive, but covered with wood ticks, and he died a little later. Polanco's body was found, as described, on Castilla's grave. Through all McGinness had clung to the American flag, wrapped around his body. Later it was wrapped around the coffin of Vermilyea, who died at Yavisa. The others reached Panama, where Mr. Boggs died. The survivors crossed the isthmus to Aspinwall, all that were left of the twenty-seven stalwart young men who started up the Caledonia river on January 17, 1851.

HUCKLEBERRY.—Clean carefully one quart of berries; line a plate with paste; turn in the berries, with a cupful of sugar and one-half cupful of water; dredge with flour, and sprinkle over a very little salt and one-half a grated nutmeg. Cover the pie with a top crust, and bake in a quick oven.

PEACH.—Peel, stone and quarter or dice good ripe peaches. Line the plate with crust, and arrange the fruit in it. Sweeten well, and add a little water. Sit over a teaspoonful of flour. Bake with an upper crust, and serve with sugar and rich cream.

APPLE.—Select tart apples; pare, quarter and cut them in thin slices. Line the plate with good puff paste; on this pile the apples, allowing plenty of filling, sweeten with two or three table-spoonfuls of sugar, according to the tartness of the fruit, and put on the top crust. Bake in a hot oven from 20 minutes to half an hour. A little grated nutmeg or ground cinnamon may be added for a change. Or the apples may be pared and cut into halves and placed on the paste with round side down. Mix a piece of butter the size of an egg with two table-spoonfuls of sifted flour, add two cupfuls of sugar and half a cupful of water. Stir smooth, flavor with grated nutmeg, pour over the apples, and bake. When the apples are cooked, pile on the whites of two eggs beaten to a stiff froth with two table-spoonfuls of sugar. It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

MRS. S. L. YOUNG
324 Pittsburg St., New Castle, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

MICHIGAN EVENTS NOTED

STRIKING MINERS KILLED IN A FIERCE FIGHT WITH SHERIFF.

FORTY ARE NOW IN JAIL

The Result of a Strike of Trammers Which the Other Workers Would Not Join In.

With Pistols and Clubs.

One man is dead, one is dying, several others are wounded and 40 are locked up in the town-hall at Rockland as a result of a riot at the Michigan mine in Ontonagon county Tuesday night. The men under arrest were taken to the county jail at Ontonagon by Sheriff McFarlane and deputies.

The riot was the outcome of a strike which started at the mine on Monday. The trammers asked for higher wages, but the miners and other employes refused to join the trammers and wanted to resume work. The trammers threatened violence if the miners went underground, and Sheriff McFarlane was notified. He gathered a force of deputies and offered protection to the miners, who then continued their preparations to go to work.

Later in the evening the miners started for the dryhouse and a few stones were thrown. After the miners had put on their working clothes and started for the shaft the trammers attempted to rush them. The strikers were armed with clubs and some carried revolvers and knives.

In the mix-up which followed some of the strikers fired into the crowd and McFarlane, and his deputies returned the fire. By this time the whole town of Rockland was watching the fight and practically all of the men participated, assisting the sheriff and his deputies.

The battle was fierce for a time, but the trammers were finally routed. The sheriff and deputies captured forty, and the others carried away most of their wounded, so that it is impossible to give all of the casualties.

The sheriff has ordered all business places in Rockland closed and the town is quiet now. It is believed the trouble was started by a few who had been drinking.

Horribly Mangled.

With his throat horribly cut and mangled from the hackings of an old jack-knife used in an attempt to commit suicide, R. D. Anderson, 80 years old, was found unconscious in an old barn on his farm near Orion Tuesday. He had been missing from his home for some time.

PICK UP BODIES AT SEA

FISHING SMACKS BRING DEAD TO CARTAGENA.

CAPTAIN IS NOT A SUICIDE

Rescued Despite His Refusal to Be Saved, After He Had Gone Down with the Sirio When She Sank.

Cartagena, Spain.—Numerous bodies were thrown up on the shore during Monday. Most of them are of persons of the better class. Several small fishing smacks have arrived, bringing in sometimes one and sometimes several survivors of the Sirio, who were found floating at sea a long distance from the scene of the disaster.

It is believed that some of the passengers who secured life belts have been picked up alive by French, German, Italian or British sailing vessels passing in the vicinity, and disembarked at Barcelona, Port Vendre or Marseilles. The vicinity of Cape Palos is much frequented by sailing and steamships.

Spanish warships stationed at Cartagena and Alicante have been ordered to search the neighborhood of the catastrophe for survivors who may be still floating on pieces of wreckage or with life buoys.

British warships at Gibraltar also have left at full speed in the direction of Cape Palos to render assistance in exploring the surrounding seas.

The first reports of the disaster declared without qualification that the captain of the Sirio had committed suicide. Later information, however, shows that he was on board the steamer when she sank, and expressed the determination to go down with his vessel. He was afterward rescued in spite of his refusal to be saved.

The Spanish minister of the interior has requested the ministry of finance to supply funds to succor the stricken passengers. The Italian consul here and the members of the Italian colony, acting in cooperation with the local authorities, have provided for the immediate wants of the shipwrecked people.

BOY'S TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

Mouth and Eyes Covered with Crusts—Hands Pinned Down—Miraculous Cure by Cuticura.

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest and back, in short the whole body was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face and make an open sore. I think his face must have festered most fearfully."

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20 Rink Alley, South Bethlehem, Pa., June 5, 1905."

TO HOLDERS

of U. S. 4s of 1907

Your bonds will be paid off by the Government at par on July 1, 1907, or less than one year from now.

Owing to the demand for Government bonds, due to the appointment at the present time of a large number of temporary public depositaries, we are in position to pay you for your bonds almost as much as you will receive from the Government in principal and interest, even though you should hold them to maturity.

We can pay 103 1/2, or at the rate of $1,032.50, for a $1,000 bond. To retain your bonds when you can sell them at this price is equivalent to your investing your funds at a rate of less than 3/4 of 1% per annum.

Conditions are unusually favorable to the reinvestment of your funds. Railroad bonds of the highest type are much lower than they have ruled for several years.

If you are interested in taking advantage of the peculiarly favorable opportunity to sell your maturing Government bonds, we shall be pleased to have you write us. In case you have $5,000 or more of bonds, we shall be glad to have you wire us at our expense.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

The above is the picture of the only Dr. A. B. Spinney in this state. His history is as follows: Fifteen years in private practice, twelve of these in East Saginaw, Mich., with as large a practice as any physician there had. Two years professor in Detroit Homeopathic College and twenty-two years in Detroit. Had charge of Alma Sanitarium eighteen months; Ypsilanti one year, and for the past seven years has owned a sanitarium at Reed City. On December 13, 1902, his sanitarium was burned, loss fifteen thousand dollars; but in forty-eight hours he had bought another and is in good shape for business again. He will move to Escanaba, Mich., next spring, where he has a Sanitarium with sixty rooms nearly completed.

There is a firm in Detroit calling themselves "Spinney & Co." Their history is as follows: Anson B. Spinney founded the same, but he has been dead some three years, as an extract from the Evening News of September 8th, 1904, will prove. The office has been run by his heirs, settling physicians in the same that they could live until about a year ago when Kieran & Kieran bought them out and have been running the business since. I am the only Dr. Spinney in the state. Have been here forty-five years, so do not make a mistake and consult or write the wrong firm if you wish to see me. ONE CERTAINTY

By the Evidence of Escanaba People

The daily evidence citizens right here at home supplies proof sufficient to satisfy the greatest skeptic. No better proof can be had. Here is a case. Read it.

Samuel Schoneman, miner, of 528 Stephenson Ave., Escanaba, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a bad case of backache and rheumatism from which I suffered for over five years. I had a dull pain across the loins and down into my right hip and leg to the knee, at times so severe that I could hardly hobble about and had to use a heavy stick as a support. I would awake at nights with terrible pains all through my back and would have to turn over although it was agony to move. I used remedies and rubbed on liniments but kept on getting worse. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and went to the Mead Drug Co.'s store and got a box. I felt so much better in a short time that I was surprised. I used three boxes altogether and my rheumatism, backache and weakness were all gone and have never returned. You may refer to me as one who can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

months at over Eight Thousand Dollars.

Mr. Morrell will have a report ready in a few days, showing the results for the six months ending June 30th, and this report will be further proof that such charges are without merit.

While we believe that the accounts of the Lighting plant should be audited every six or twelve months and a complete statement made showing the financial condition and results so that our people can know them, we also believe that such accounting can be done thoroughly and reliably by home talent, and that the employment of outside accountants would be a needless extravagance; and to employ outside expert engineers to go over our plants we believe to be unnecessary, and one from which little or no benefit would be derived.

Any irregularities or deficiencies existing in our equipment are well known to our management and are being rapidly corrected, and our plants are being brought to a very desirable state of efficiency and economical operation.

We realize that in our growing city an increase of power and equipment will some day be necessary and our Superintendent is keeping in touch with the development of the gas engine and the steam turbine, with the end in view of being in position to intelligently recommend either, should they prove to be more desirable than the Corliss engine for our use when such additional equipment becomes necessary.

We desire to do everything within the authority vested in us, to meet the wishes of our people, for we are here as their representatives and will cheerfully recommend any expense or improvement when the need for same becomes apparent.

LENA RIVERS

Will Appear at the Peterson Sunday Evening, August 26.

Miss Beula Poynter, who will be seen at the Peterson opera house on Sunday evening August 26th, as "Lena Rivers, in the play of that name, is by no means a stranger to Eastern audiences. Miss Poynter has been under the management of Nixon & Co. for several seasons and has made several trips to this city.

Among the roles in which Miss Poynter has been seen in the East are: Lady Babbie, in "The Little Minister;" Helene Grey, in "Out of the Fold;" Flavia, in "Prisoner of Zenda;" Thelma, in "Thelma;" Bossie, in "A Texas Steer;" Priscilla in "The Courtship of Miles Standish;" and Anna, in "Way Down East;" Madge Brierly, in "Old Kentucky; Tennessee;" "Tennessee's Partner."

It is said that Miss Poynter exceeds all her previous efforts and reaches her greatest success in this beautiful dramatization of the popular Mary J. Holmes' novel. The part as the authoress has portrayed it in the book is certainly a most delightful character, and if Miss Poynter's portrayal is as good as the press agent claims it is the Peterson Opera house will certainly have a capacity engagement in this city.

NOVEL PRODUCTION

Ringling Brothers' "The Field of the Cloth of Gold" a Beautiful Spectacle.

In the matter of spectacular production the Ringling Brothers have gone many steps farther than ever before attempted in circus enterprises, and their achievement has made previous efforts look colorless and small. The subject chosen for their display is creamy with possibility, and the most has been made of this fact by the progressive firm. The Ringling Brothers have seized upon the salient and stirring features of this magnificent spectacle, and brought them into thrilling focus under canvas. Twelve hundred people are employed in the pantomimic display, and more than 600 horses are used in exciting tournament and picturesque scenes and action of the immense production. The voluptuous side of mediaeval life is illustrated by a ballet divertissement before the English and French kings, in which 200 young girls participate. The music is written for the production and is rendered by a band of fifty musicians. This splendid novelty occupies about thirty minutes at the opening of the big circus program. It requires a special train to convey the enormous scenery, gorgeous properties and 2,500 costumes used in the production of the thrilling spectacle "The Field of the Cloth of Gold."

Ringling Brothers will exhibit at Escanaba Friday August 24th.

The splendid street pageant, for which this circus is celebrated, will leave the show grounds on the morning of the circus day at ten o'clock.
