ESCANABA, MICHIGAN, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1906

NUMBER 40

COMMITTED

SUICIDE

Chas. Ehlers, an Employee of the Wm. Mueller Co. at Labranche Took Carbolic Acid.

WAS TIRED OF LIVING

Charles Ehlers, an employee of the Wm. Mueller company at Labranche, committed suicide on Friday of last week by taking carbolic acid.

Ehlers' body was found last Saturday morning in his room at the hotel at Labranche and on the floor at his feet was found a bottle containing carbolic acid.

A letter which the dead man left was found in his room and told his reasons for taking his own life.

Ehler suffered from a cancer of the ear and this was the probable cause of his act. He also lost a sum of money on a trip which he made to his home at Powers and it is believed that this had something to do with his despondent condition.

"May God forgive me for this act," wrote Ehler in the letter which he left. He also expressed a hope that his wife and family would be cared for. He said that he felt that he was in the way and better off dead than living. He also dwelt upon the fact that he had a cancer and intimated that his companions shunned him for this reason.

Ehler was about sixty years of age and leaves a wife and family at Powers. He had been employed for some time as a farmer for the Mueller company at Labranche.

Much to the surprise of many people no inquest was held over the body but a son of the dead man together with Ralph Prince of Powers came to Labranche and took the body to Powers.

Game With Green Bay

A game between the Escanaba and Green Bay base ball teams will take place at South Park this afternoon.

Green Bay has a fast team and as Escanaba will be reinforced by both Henry and Fred Olmstead and William Matt, who have been playing at Appleton, the game should prove an interesting one.

ORDINANCE AMENDED

Property Owners Who Build Sidewalks Must Pay for Filling and Grading

Property owners who build sidewalks must now pay for grading and filling that may be necessary in connection with the laying of the walk. By adopting an amendment to one of the sidewalk ordinances, the city Council on Tuesday evening has clearly defined that all filling and grading shall be done at the expense of the property owner and not at the city's expense.

The city charter was somewhat vague on that point and states that the grade for sidewalks shall be prepared by the city.

Practice Game To-Day

There will be a practice game of football this afternoon at the South Park base ball grounds between the first and second elevens of the high school. There is considerable rivalry this year for places on the first team and many members of the second team are working hard to secure places in the first team.

WHEELSMAN KILLEED

Harry Smith Fell Into Hold of Alfred P. Mitchell Sunday Morning

Harry Smith, wheelsman of the Str. Alfred P. Mitchell was killed by falling into the hold of that vessel at the North-Western ore dock Sunday morning.

No one saw the accident but the dead body of the young man was found at the bottom of the boat, a few minutes after it was discovered that he was missing.

Shooting Club

The Escanaba Gun Club has been organized with Dr. John Groos as president and plans are being made to get a team in readiness to compete with the teams in other cities.

Other officers of the club are: E. P. Bolger, captain; L. I. Hetrick, secretary and Sylvester Denter, treasurer. There is plenty of good material in Escanaba for a fine gun club and it is hoped that all our local sportsmen will aid the movement as much as possible.

POPULAR COUPLE WED

J. H. Lahaie and Miss Angeline Desilets Married Tuesday Morning.

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday morning at eight o'clock at St. Anne's church, in which Miss Angeline Desilets and Mr. J. Hector Lahaie were principals.

Rev. Fr. Mesnard, pastor of St. Anne's church performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride was attended by Miss Katherine Klingner and Mr. Victor Lahaie, a brother of the groom acted as groomsmen.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid wore white silk and wore pink carnations.

After the ceremony at the church, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, only the relatives and a few close friends of the contracting parties being present. The dining room at the home was decorated with ferns and cut flowers and presented a very pretty appearance.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Desilets of 211 South Elmwood street and has been employed as saleslady by the Ed. Erickson company for nearly a year.

The groom is an estimable young man and is employed at the Northwestern freight office.

Many beautiful and useful presents were given to the young couple by their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lahaie left Tuesday morning on the eleven o'clock train over the Northwestern road for Milwaukee on a short wedding trip and will be at home to their many friends after October twentieth at 1218 Hale street.

The Iron Port joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Old Mill Stops Forever

After thirty years of continuous service, the Reuben Merryman sawmill, one of the best known on the Menominee River, has stopped work for the last time. The plant will be dismantled at once and the machinery sold. The mill was erected in late '70s. It was built for cutting white pine, and during its existence its output averaged 115,000 feet a day. The mill has two hand saws and carriages.

LOOK UP STONE

Street Committee of City Council Will Investigate Stone Question

The street committee of the city council will make an examination of the different kinds of stone produced by the quarries in this section of the country and the prices charged.

The city has a considerable amount of paving to do with crushed stone and the council is desirous of getting the best possible rate. It is understood that there are some new quarries opening up in Door County and they will doubtless be looked into by the committee.

The Era of the Young

The present is certainly the "Era of the Young." The world has seen the "stone age," "the dark age," "the age of iron," and now comes the "Age of youth." On all sides we see the comparatively young forging to the front, and forcing themselves into places where a few years ago it was thought could only be filled by their elders. In fact, it is an open question whether a young man is not "of age" at 18. He is able to cope with the world at that age as his grandfather was at 21. The stage may be taken in point. Recently one of New York's principal theatres was occupied by a play in which the leading role was played by a child, Little Hazel Shannon. The press and the public were loud in praise of her wonderful ability. This clever little girl will be seen in Harry Shannon's powerful comedy "The Banker's Child" surrounded by a strong company of players. Special scenery is used to properly mount the play, and adds to the beauty of the surroundings.

At Peterson's opera house one night only, Tuesday Sept. 25.

Stevenson Harkins

Friends of John Stevenson and Miss Ida G. Harkins former young people of this city have received announcements of their wedding which took place at Chicago on Thursday of this week. Mr. Stevenson who until recently was employed in the general offices of the Northwestern road in this city now holds a fine position in Chicago.

Both bride and groom have many friends in this city who extend congratulations.

Mrs. Ole Erickson spent several days at Milwaukee this week.

NEW CONVENTION IS CALLED

Vacancy in Office of Sheriff and Place on Republican Ticket to be Filled by Convention.

TO BE HELD OCTOBER 8

Republican County Committee Met Thursday and Decided That Convention Should be Held.

The selection of a candidate for sheriff to fill the vacancy in that office caused by the death of Sheriff Richard Perow, and a candidate on the Republican county ticket for the full term of two years will be made by the Republicans in this county in a convention on October 8th.

That the question should be settled in this way was decided upon at a special meeting of the Republican County Committee held Thursday at the court house in this city.

Two ways of filling the vacant place on the ticket were discussed at the meeting of the committee. The members of the committee themselves could fill the vacancy or the matter could be determined by a new convention. When a vote was taken ten votes were cast in favor of having a new convention called and nine votes were cast against that proposition.

It will now be necessary for the chairmen of the republican committees in each ward and township to post notices of the new convention.

October 8th, the date set for the new convention is the same date as that of the meeting of the county board who are also likely to be chosen as delegates to the convention may attend both meetings without any extra expense and loss of time.

The duties of the convention will be confined to the selection of a candidate to fill vacancy and a candidate for full term. The same man may be selected for both.

WANT NEW STREET

Property Owners on Georgia Street Ask for New Paving.

A petition from property owners on Georgia street asking for a new paving on that street was presented to the city council Tuesday evening. The petition asks for a roadway 10 feet to be paved with a crushed stone foundation and granite dressing.

On account of the numerous requests for new streets which the council has been forced to decline, there is no prospect of Georgia being paved this year or next and no appropriation for it has been included in the annual appropriation bill adopted by the council on Tuesday night.

My Friend From Arkansas

It will be a bit strange if the beautiful comedy drama "My Friend From Arkansas" presented by Robert Sherman's excellent company of players does not become as popular as "Way Down East." The play has proven decidedly interesting and it is a pleasure to note that the public taste in affairs of the theatre are again turning to good wholesome plays that tell coherent stories as does "My Friend From Arkansas." The above play will be seen at the Peterson opera house tonight.

Prices 25, 35, and 50 cents.

RAPID VS. STURGEON BAY

Base Ball Game at Rapid River Promises to be Good One

The base ball team season at Rapid River will be closed Sunday, when the strong Sturgeon Bay team will go up against the Rapid River at the latter place. The game promises to be one of the best of the season as both teams are reported in fine condition, and it is expected that a bunch of base-ball enthusiasts from Escanaba and Gladstone will be present.

Escanaba was quite anxious to bring the Rapid River here this Sunday to decide the real championship of this district. But the game with Sturgeon Bay had already been arranged for by Rapid River, and it was late too change dates. As several Rapid River players expect to leave next week for school, the team will probably disband, and the chances for a championship game are slim.

House Full of Stolen Goods

Through the pluck of a servant girl, says the Herald-Leader, the fact has been discovered that for three years systematic looting has been going on in Menominee. In the person of Mrs. Martin Olsson, upon whom circumstances fasten the guilt, the police have found an interesting keptonian, a person who through brain trouble was changed from a woman of irreproachable character to a thief without sense of property or criminal responsibility.

The woman was discovered at night at the home of A. W. Bloom on State street by the servant girl, Clara Johnson. She then had upon her person five jars of preserved fruit. A search warrant was issued, and in addition to finding linen stolen last winter from the kitchen of the Bloom house, the police discovered closets literally full of clothing of the finest cloth and most fashionably cut. A number of articles of jewelry were also discovered, and in the bottom of a trunk were found certificates of deposit for $1,700 on the Stephenson National bank of Marinette.

Eight of Menominee's most prominent women subsequently invaded the home and identified articles stolen. Four automobiles were lined up in front of the Olsson home during the search. There were discovered waists, dresses and underclothes of every description. Fashionable cloaks were in the closets, and fine lingerie in the trunks. A miscellaneous assortment of jewelry, among it a handsome ring belonging to Mrs. Frank Spies, was discovered.

Want Granite Dressing

Property owners on Charlotte street have petitioned the Council to change the plans for the paving of that street so that the top dressing of the street will be granite instead of crushed stone.

Boy Brought Back

Charged with the theft of a watch and rings belonging to Miss Alice Munnings at the New Ludington hotel, Raymond Doe, who was formerly employed as bell boy at the New Ludington hotel, was arrested at the Soo this week and brought back to Escanaba. When taken before Judge O. V. Linden on Wednesday he denied the charges. The hearing will take place this morning before Judge Linden.

Goes to Oregon

Joel Lucia, the well known lumberman, left Wednesday night for Eugene, Oregon to make his future home. Mr. Lucia has been engaged in the lumbering business in this section for many years and has operated mills for himself and others.

He has many friends whose best wishes go with him in his new field, where he will deal in timber lands and claims.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McColl leave today for a trip to Chicago, Lansing and Detroit.

GASOLINE LAUNCH BURNS

E. R. Trippe of Hill Drug Co. Forced To Leap From Burning Boat

GASOLINE WAS IGNITED

Accident Caused by Dropping Spark Plug Against Shaft.

The pleasure launch of E. R. Trippe, of the Hill Drug Company, was burned to the water's edge and Mr. Trippe, who occupied the boat when the fire started, had a narrow escape from serious injury and possible death as the result of an accident which occurred Wednesday afternoon while Mr. and Mrs. Trippe were enjoying a fishing expedition near Portage Island.

Mr. Trippe was in the launch alone when the accident occurred, Mrs. Trippe being seated in a row boat anchored a short distance from the launch.

Mr. Trippe was working with the engine and accidentally dropped the electric spark plug. The plug touched the shaft and brought out a spark which ignited the free oil in the bottom of the boat. Instantly the whole inside of the boat was mass of flames, and in order to escape Mr. Trippe plunged at once over the side of the boat into the water. He struck out for the small boat and was met part way by Mrs. Trippe with the row boat.

The burning launch was seen from shore and Chris Christianson a fisherman went out with a launch to the scene. The tug Tomlinson also arrived after thirty minutes but all efforts to stay the flames proved futile and the launch was left a complete wreck.

The launch was one which was built for Mrs. Trippe this season and was considered one of the finest pleasure boats at this port.

IN AN AUTOMOBILE

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd W. Miller of Ford River took Honey-moon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd W. Miller of Ford River took their wedding trip fast and fine. The cars were too common, they must needs ride in an automobile.

They were married Wednesday at the bride's home in Peshtigo. The groom is bookkeeper for the Ford River Lumber company at Ford River. He met his future wife at that town, where she was teaching school. It was agreed that the marriage should take place at the bride's home in Peshtigo. Miller could not get off for an extended trip, so the couple decided to have their fun brief but big.

They chase automobilism as the largest sized sport possible and Wednesday telephoned D. F. Poyer of Menominee for a car. Mr. Poyer left about two o'clock, returning about 3 with Mr. and Mrs. Miller. They stopped there but a short time and then came on to Escanaba, thence to Ford River, where they will make their home.

Filed Protest

The property owners from North Escanaba appeared before the council on Tuesday evening and filed protest with regard to the condition of paving Hartnett street and Stephenson Avenue. Hartnett street was paved last year and has proven to be a failure. The property owners from North Escanaba are very anxious to have something done to improve the condition of the streets and have asked that some action be taken by the council to put those two streets in condition at once. Atty. A. W. Norblad represented the North Escanaba property owners in presenting their case to the council.

It is likely that some steps will be taken by the council to improve the two streets as they are two very important avenues into the city.

The supper served by the ladies of the Wells church needs no recommendation and no doubt many Escanaba people will attend. The ladies also solicit contributions of any kind for their sale.

TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness - Profit by Escanaba People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time, but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy - puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs or ankles, or any other part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old time health and vigor will return. Cures in Escanaba prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

William Anderson, painter, of 1222 Wells ave., Escanaba, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a bad case of kidney complaint and backache from which I suffered for a long time. I thought it was the turpentine and lead used in painting that effected me. The terrible pains through my back often extended up to my shoulders. I had dull headaches, my eyes pained and watered and my limbs became swollen. I consulted a physician and used medicines but could not get much relief. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking three boxes the swelling left my limbs, I have none of the pains in my back, headaches do not bother me and my eyes do not pain and water, and I am still in the painting business. It was my kidneys that were sick and Doan's Kidney Pills produced the whole results I have mentioned. I am very glad to recommend them to others.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

THE CUBAN REVOLT.

After a protracted conference with Secretary of War Taft, Acting Secretary of State Bacon and Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte, President Roosevelt addressed an important communication to Cuba and arranged to send Secretary Taft and Bacon to that island to make thorough investigation of conditions there and lend their influence to restore peace.

Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon left Washington over the Atlantic coast line for Tampa, Fla., to embark on a naval vessel there for Havana, in accordance with the instructions of President Roosevelt, to ascertain the exact political situation.

The government is making final strenuous efforts to restore peace in Cuba and thus avoid any kind of American intervention. The object of these endeavors, it is stated, is that it may be able to say by the time Secretary of War Taft and Acting Secretary of State Bacon arrive that peace already has been secured and that therefore there is no need for the American government's intervention, either to restore peace or insure permanent tranquility.

Lively interest is manifested in Paris over President Roosevelt's decision to send Secretary of War Taft and Acting Secretary of State Bacon to Cuba, and many of the newspapers jump to the conclusion that this will sound the knell of Cuban independence.

The extra session of the Cuban congress called by President Palma completed at one sitting the business for which it was summoned, namely, the granting to President Palma of the fullest power not already constitutionally possessed by the executive for carrying on the war, including the right to appropriate any public funds for war purposes.

Recruits rush to the Cuban revolutionists as the result of President Palma's threat of a policy of aggression.

The Age of Machinery.

We live in the age of machinery. The thinking, directing mind becomes daily of more account, while mere brawn falls correspondingly in value from day to day. That eccentric philosopher, Elbert Hubbard, says in one of his essays, "where a machine will do better work than the human hand, we prefer to let the machine do the work."

It has been but a few years since the cotton gin, the "spinning Jenny" and the power loom displaced the hand picker, the spinning wheel and the hand loom; since the reaper and binder, the rake and tedder, the mowing machine took the place of the old cradle, scythe, pitchfork and hand rake; since the friction match superseded the flint and tinder; since the modern paint factory replaced the slab and muller, the paint pot and paddle.

In every case where machinery has been introduced to replace hand labor, the laborers have resisted the change; and as the weavers, the sempstresses and the farm laborers protested against new-fangled looms, sewing machines and agricultural implements, so in recent times compositors have protested against type-setting machines, glass blowers against bottle blowing machines, and painters against ready mixed paints. And as in the case of these short-sighted classes of an earlier day, so with their imitators of to-day, the protest will be in vain. It is a protest against civilization, against the common weal, against their own welfare.

The history of all mechanical improvements shows that workmen are the first to be benefited by them. The invention of the sewing machine, instead of throwing thousands of women out of employment, increased the demand to such an extent that thousands of women have been employed, at better wages, for shorter hours and easier work where hundreds before worked in laborious misery to eke out a pitiable existence. It was so with spinning and weaving machinery, with agricultural implements—in fact, it is so with every notable improvement. The multiplication of books in the last decade is a direct result of the invention of Linotype machinery and fast presses.

The mixed paint industry, in which carefully designed paints for house painting are prepared on a large scale by special machinery, is another improvement of the same type. The cheapness and general excellence of these products has so stimulated the consumption of paint that the demand for the services of painters has correspondingly multiplied. Before the advent of these goods a well-painted house was noticeable from its rarity, whereas to-day an ill-painted house is conspicuous.

Nevertheless, the painters, as a rule, following the example set by the weavers, the sempstresses and the farm laborers of old, almost to a man, oppose the improvement. It is a real improvement, however, and simply because of that fact the sale of such products has increased until during the present year it will fall not far short of 90,000,000 or 100,000,000 gallons.

Hindsight is always better than foresight, and most of us who deplore the short-sightedness of our ancestors would do well to see that we do not in turn furnish "terrible examples" to our posterity.

Cure for Whooping Cough.

Irwin, Pa.—The "mine cure" for whooping cough among small children is attracting attention in this section, where the disease is almost epidemic. In one case a Jeannette father daily takes his ten-month-old baby girl down into the Penn mine. He remains half an hour, comes to the surface for the same space of time, and again goes down and remains another half hour. This will be repeated daily for two weeks. The child has a severe case, and from a fit of coughing goes into spasms. A Pittsburg physician recommended the "mine cure" as the only profitable relief.

From Clyde Fitch's Scrapbook.

Clyde Fitch, at a dinner that he gave in honor of a noted dramatic critic, read from his library of scrapbooks a western criticism on Hamlet.

The criticism, which was dated 1873, ran:

"There is too much chinning in this piece. The author is behind the times, and seems to forget that what we want nowadays is hair raising situations and detectives."

"In the hands of a skillful playwright a detective would have been put upon the track of Hamlet's uncle, and the old man would have been hunted down in a manner that would have lifted the audience out of their cowsheds."

"The moral of the piece is not good. The scene where Hamlet sasses his mother is a bad example to the rising generation."

"Our advice to the author is more action, more love-making, and plenty of specialties. The crazy girl scene should be cut out altogether and a rattling good song and dance substituted."

MAROONED ON BEACH

HUNDREDS IN PERIL OF LIVES DURING STORM.

BREAKERS COVER LAND

Storm on Atlantic Coast Causes Sea to Submerge Cottages at Resort and Cut Off Escape from Water's Fury.

Wilmington, N. C.—For six or eight hours upward of 200 men, women and children were cut off from the mainland in imminent peril, while cottages, hotel and railroad property was damaged to the extent of from $8,000 to $10,000 by a fierce northeast storm which swept Wrightsville beach nine miles east of Wilmington early Monday.

The storm reached the zenith of its fury between six and seven o'clock in the morning. It came without warning, and hundreds of cottages at the beach received their first intimation of danger upon awakening to find breakers sweeping clear across the beach to the sound, and rolling high up on the mainland, two miles beyond.

A trolley car kept at the beach in case of emergency, took about 25 early risers across the sound on the trolley by which it is reached, and four other cars responded from the city to a telephone message and brought others across while the waves swept the trestle.

Those left at the beach were afraid to cross the trestle, which gave way immediately after the last car reached the mainland.

The storm increased in fury until noon, when the rescue work was begun by a number of anxious ones. They sent surf boats across the channel at great risk, bringing first the women and children, and later the men, the last of the number being brought over at five o'clock in the afternoon. Sheriff Frank H. Steadman was among those caught at the beach, and at once swore in a number of deputies, who closed the harbors and patrolled the beach to prevent looting of the places there.

The report will be submitted to the federation convention at Minneapolis in November.

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS.

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Cured by Cuticura.

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, six boxes of Ointment and two bottles of Resolvent. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago. The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at night after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable. W. M. Chibbestor, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

From the State Capital

Information and Gossip Furnished by Special Correspondent at Lansing.

Lansing.—Commenting upon the effort being put forth by the department of public instruction to secure a better compliance with the school laws of the state, Deputy Superintendent W. H. French said that out of the $10,000,000 expended for the support of the public school system of the state $1,000,000 is frittered away annually. Asked in what manner the losses to the districts are sustained, Mr. French replied: "In many ways. I will specify a few. We have discovered that many district treasurers give no bonds, and sometimes there are defalcations. Recently a district treasurer up north who had given no bond disappeared with $750 in school funds. There are probably other instances not known to this department. Again, district treasurers treat public moneys as their own. They loan it or deposit it in banks and pocket the interest. This money belongs to the schools. Sometimes school district officers allow themselves salaries. In most cases this is unlawful. The school laws do not provide for the payment of salaries. If any are paid they must be voted at the annual school meeting, and may not be paid by order of the board out of funds on hand at the end of the year, as is frequently done. The purpose of the department in requiring school officers to give sworn answers to certain questions asked as a condition preliminary to the allotment of the primary school money is to detect violations of the school laws and compel their observance so that the primary school moneys will be faithfully devoted to the purpose for which they were appropriated."

State Crop Report.

The wheat yield in Michigan is now estimated at 12 bushels per acre. The state crop report says that considerable threshing has been done and the crop is not yielding as well as expected. The grain is badly shrunken and light in weight. The quality is estimated at 77 per cent. What is true of wheat is in a measure true of oats. The yield is below the average and the quality below the standard. The estimated yield is 29 bushels. Rye is estimated to yield 14 bushels. The weather during August was remarkably favorable for corn and there are good prospects for an abundant yield. In the southern counties, where most of the crop is raised, the per cent. of condition is 95. Beans have been somewhat affected by drought and blight, but promise a fair crop, quite a large acreage having been harvested in good condition. The crop promises 56 per cent. Peas are estimated to yield 18 bushels per acre. The prospect for potatoes in the southern and central counties is quite favorable, although somewhat affected by blight and lack of moisture. In the northern counties the crop has been seriously injured by the long continued drought. The condition of the crop is, in the state and central counties 52, in the southern counties 87, and in the northern counties 75. The condition of cloverseed is estimated at 75 per cent. Live stock is generally in good condition, but owing to poor pastures in some localities caused by excessive drought, farmers are feeding cattle and horses.

School District Troubles.

From replies received from school directors by the department of public instruction, it seems that the steps being taken to protect the districts against the loss of primary school money were timely. "I am able to estimate," said Deputy Superintendent French, "that only one-half the district treasurers have sufficient bonds; the other half are either insufficient or are lacking altogether. The law requires that district treasurers shall give bonds in double the amount that is to come into their hands during the year. On account of the large apportionment of primary school money bonds must be increased to twice and in some cases three times the ordinary amount. This must be attended to before the primary fund can be safely distributed."

In the judgment of the department of public instruction surety company bonds should be given by school district treasurers.

Lansing is Prosperous.

From reports made to the state banking department by the two national and one state banks at Lansing it appears that the financial institutions of this city are in exceptionally good condition. The total footings of the three banks, one of which has been organized only about four months, is $4,230,450.64. The deposits aggregate $2,131,901.78, which is at the rate of $70 per capita on the basis of 30,000 population.

Democratic Campaign Begun.

Charles H. Kimmie, Democratic candidate for governor, began his campaign. He spoke at Mason September 12 and at Port Huron on the 13th. He is due at a number of small fairs.

Railroad and Other Taxes.

It is noteworthy that the amount of money received from the railroads this year for the taxes of 1905 corresponds almost exactly to the amount of the state tax levy for the present year. The railroads have paid taxes this year on the assessment for 1905 amounting to $3,374,616 and the amount of the state tax to be levied in December is $3,383,785. There is a difference of less than $10,000 between the two amounts, and it is likely that when the railroad taxes are all in, a few of the smaller roads not having made settlement the difference will be very slight. The condition with reference to the state and railroad taxes is likely to prove encouraging to those who favor the separation of state and local taxation. The advocates of the proposed system have always argued that the state might be supported by specific taxes from railroad and other corporations without imposing any state tax upon the people. The fact that the railroad taxes are this year sufficient to meet state expenses strengthens their argument.

Satisfying School Enrollment.

The school enrollment in Lansing is nearing the 3,000 mark, and doubtless will exceed it shortly, as it was reported to the board of education by Superintendent Sterling to be 2,984. This is an increase of 114 over the first week of school and an increase of 93 over the number reported September 11 of last year. That the board has not overestimated the need of school facilities on the South side in the erection of the Moore park school, is shown by the fact that the enrollment at that building is 120, and in the South street school 109.

New Corporations.

The following corporations filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state: Bellaire Cooperative Creamery company, Bellaire, $5,000; Detroit Coalite Fuel company, Detroit, $300,000; Walton Cranberry company, Walton, Wis., $20,000; Slatery Timber company, Ashland, Wis., $100,000; Keystone Type Foundry, Philadelphia, $20,000; Grandview Amusement company, Watervliet, $10,000; H. M. Stevenson company, Buffalo and Escanaba, $15,000.

Inquiry Into School Affairs.

Before the large apportionment of school money is made in November, Superintendent of Public Instruction Kelley will conduct an inquiry as to affairs of each district. For this purpose blanks have been sent to school boards on which many questions are asked as to whether the school laws are being complied with. Satisfactory conditions must be shown before the superintendent will apportion the school money.

Detroit Gets Headquarters.

Detroit will be the headquarters of the Republican state central committee after all, those who favored Lansing changing their minds after the subject had been discussed at the meeting of the committee, which was held in Detroit. Chairman Dickena nominated D. E. Alward, of Clare, for secretary, and Paul F. Itagley, of Detroit, for treasurer, both being unanimously confirmed.

To Be Submitted to Voters.

Grand Rapids voters will have an opportunity at the November election to pass upon the plan of abolishing partisan tickets, in municipal affairs. The charter provides that this question shall be submitted upon the filing of a sufficiently signed petition with the city clerk. Twenty petitions are in circulation and more than 2,000 signatures have already been secured.

Governor Names Accountants.

Under the new law providing for the licensing of public accountants, Gov. Warner has made ten appointments: John J. Jerome, William D. Gridley, Arthur S. Guerin, Charles D. Fleming, Fred Wixson and John H. Clegg, of Detroit; Durand W. Springer, of Ann Arbor, and Will A. Voss, Joseph Horner and George A. Horner, of Grand Rapids.

County Normal Schools Increase.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Kelley states that there are now 32 normal schools in Michigan, seven having been instituted this season. These are in Saginaw, Ottawa, Allegan, Van Buren, Branch, Leno and Lapeer counties. These schools are being attended by from 15 to 50 students each.

Asks State Banks' Reports.

Banking Commissioner Moore has issued a call for reports of state banks as to their condition at the close of business Tuesday, September 4.

Taxes in Michigan.

An analysis of taxes paid in Michigan shows that only a small proportion of the sum total is handled by the state officers. The purpose for which taxes were raised during the year are as follows: State, $3,871,080.34; county, $3,523,900.36; township, $842,754.81; school, $6,796,752.65; highway, $3,714,094.81; county road, $285,963.80; drain, $367,367.83; city, $7,127,672.11; village, $348,428.87; special, $2,873.11; rejected, $21,310.17. The largest item in the list is that of city taxes, while school taxes come second.

PENINSULAR HAPPENINGS

NIGHT OPERATOR ARMSTRONG SLUGGED WHILE AT HIS WORK.

THE MISCREANT ESCAPED

Crime Similar to That at Gallen—Attempt to Wreck a Train at the Same Time.

Another Operator Assaulted.

The assault upon H. L. Armstrong, Michigan Central night operator at Wards, who was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head by an unknown man while working at his key, is connected, it is suspected, with the finding of a cold chisel placed in the track just west of Wards in such a manner that it would wreck a train. The discovery was made by a section boss.

Armstrong was found by a freight train crew at 9:40 Tuesday night. He was unconscious and leaning over his desk. No weapon could be found in the office, but it is believed the blow was dealt with a slung shot. Seventy-five cents which was in his pocket was missing.

The operator was brought to Ypsilanti on a passenger train and in the hospital at midnight recovered consciousness.

"All I know is that I was sitting at my key working when some one whom I did not even hear approach me dealt me a terrible blow on the head. The next thing I knew I was in bed in the hospital. I saw no one around the station in the evening."

David Gordon, aged about 16, who says he recently worked in the Hotel Cadillac, Detroit, was arrested on suspicion. He declares he was beating his way from Detroit to Three Rivers and was put off the train at Wards at 5 p. m.

The motive of the assault is declared by the officers to be robbery. The first report was that the operator was not robbed and that nothing was disturbed in the little depot. Armstrong is certain that he had some money in his trousers pocket when he was assaulted. When he regained consciousness he had none.

No tickets are sold in the station and no money is kept there. It is simply a point where trains stop for water and receive orders. Armstrong lived on the Harris farm near the station. He came from Grand Rapids, with his wife a few months ago.

The point where the chisel was found in the track was a lonely spot between here and Wards, near the upper bridge.

The crime bears some resemblance to the murder of Operator Dynes at Gallen. The suspect now under arrest is not believed to be guilty.

A Mystery Cleared Up.

Charles Esterbrook, the much murdered man, who was reported killed by an Indian near West Branch, has turned up alive and well, arriving in Saginaw Wednesday. He says he has been on a two months' tour of the northern counties selling horses.

"At the time of my reported murder I was 200 miles north of West Branch, most of the time away from a railroad, and I didn't see the newspapers. The first I heard about being dead was in a little town in Iosco county."

Esterbrook declares positively that he did not start the rumor himself, although he thinks he knows who did, and that the purpose was to injure him in some way. He says he had no trouble with an Indian; in fact, did not see one on his trip.

Saginaw's Great Drought.

Rains partially broke one of the worst droughts Saginaw county has suffered in years. Pasture fields have been discarded long ago and farmers have been feeding their stock from silos. The excessive heat has ripened everything prematurely. "October" potatoes are already on the market and late fruits are all a month early. Dairy butter is not to be had, while eggs are at December prices. The ground has been so hard that farmers could not plow for fall wheat sowing. These same conditions prevail for 150 miles north, the drought covering probably 17,000 square miles. Produce men say that the damage to farm products has exceeded $1,000,000 in the "dry" belt.

Seventeen Injured.

Car No. 517 of the Detroit, Monroe & Toledo Short line ran into an open switch and crashed into a gravel car Tuesday evening a short distance south of the viaduct crossing of the Michigan Central and Wash roads in Ecorse and half a mile south of the River Rouge.

Motorman Augustus Menzel, after putting on the air, jumped, and was so seriously injured that he is not expected to survive.

Of the 16 others who were hurt, it is believed all will recover. The injured were cared for at Detroit, Monroe and Toledo.

That she was compelled to go to school, a drive of five miles from her home, each morning, for the purpose of fitting herself for teaching school, when her ruling ambition in life was to study music, is the reason given by 17-year-old Ella Sullivan, who ran away from her home near Emmett last week, for her sudden departure.

Peter Carreto is taking a census of Italians in the upper peninsula for the Italian government.

A boulder weighing several hundred pounds was discovered on the Grand Trunk track at Flint Wednesday night, probably placed there to wreck a train.

With the largest enrollment for many years, all the dormitory rooms filled and outside rooms at a premium on the first day, the future looks good for Hillsdale college.

Calvin Carr, of Flint, who attempted to kill his mother because she refused to give him his pension papers, was adjudged insane in the probate court and committed to the Pontiac asylum.

SPIRITS VENGEFUL.

Weird Story About Louise Gardner's Reason For Suicide.

The inquest over Louise Gardner, who committed suicide in Jackson by taking carbolic acid, brought out the fact that haunting spirits had made a tramp out of her. She was born in Booneville, Ind., where the galaxy of spirits first asserted themselves and drove her away.

First in one town and then another she worked, fleeing some by night and some by day in a vain hope to escape their nagging. From Ohio she came to Detroit, where her spirits manifested themselves to such an extent that she fled in terror to Canada. From a small town in Canada she was sent back to Detroit, where she found her spirits waiting for her at the dock. Then she fled to Jackson. She complained that her spirits traveled along the rails ahead of the engine which pulled the train to Jackson and met her at the depot when she alighted. Finally in despair of ever escaping them, she committed suicide.

This story was gained from the girl herself by Police Lieutenant Crowcomb, on request of Gus Gardner, of Booneville, Ind., who made the request in a letter, saying he was her cousin. The jury said she was insane.

Living, But Legally Dead.

Wilson R. Mawrer, mourned for dead in Marcellus for 20 years, after he had suddenly disappeared, and legally declared so in the probate court, when his name on the estate was settled the past summer, has come back to life through his arrest at Mishawaka, Ind.

His mother died last spring, and when the estate, consisting of a few hundred dollars, was brought into court to be settled, every effort was made to find Mawrer, the only missing heir.

His arrest in Indiana was caused, it is alleged, by making love to women, winning their confidence and then leaving with their money. He was a young man when he left there and little is known of his career.

TO TEST FABRICS.

SOME VALUABLE THINGS FOR THE SHOPPER TO KNOW.

How to Detect the Difference in the Quality of Linen—Finding a Cotton and Linen Mixture.

Fineness of the threads in the weave denote the quality of linen and the greater the number to the square inch the better the sheeting and the napery.

Between the real grades it is more difficult to tell which is the better, and then a small magnifying glass such as all linen clerks carry should be asked for by the shopper, and the one who is interested can count the threads herself and determine which is the better.

Threads pulled from the edge of a piece of linen may fray, while those taken from cotton snap when pulled in two. An old-time test is to wet the finger, place it under a piece of linen and watch the surface get damp.

If the moisture does not appear, you may be perfectly sure that the goods is cotton, for it does not absorb water as linen does.

Another test for linen is to ravel one thread of the warp and another of the woof and burn them. If one is cotton it will be charred immediately, while it will take the linen a trifle longer to be destroyed.

There is less chance of being mistaken in buying silk than in purchasing linens and an all-silk piece can be told immediately by the touch. There is quite a little difference to be considered in judging certain silks, for some are more valuable on account of their heavy qualities, while others are costly on account of their sheen.

Spencers that are being sold so extensively this season cost more when they are thick and heavy than when of lighter grade.

With lousine the softer and finer the quality the more expensive. The softer taffeta is the better, as a rule, especially when it has a high sheen or lustre. It also has an unmistakable swish that stamps it as good as soon as heard. Materials in which the threads running both ways are silk, are springy and to the touch are full of life, while those with half silk and cotton are not so elastic.

A lighted match touched to the threads will show at once whether one is of cotton, for if it is it will roll up in smoke before the silken one has fairly started to burn.

The same test applied to wool will show quite as quickly whether there are any cotton threads, for they will burn rapidly and leave the woolen or worsted ones burning slowly, and making a black charred ash that has an unmistakable odor of burning wool. A piece of all wool is very soft to the touch, while one of half wool or cotton has a very hard surface, and worsted is quite rough when rubbed.

A test that never fails on woolsens is made with muriatic or nitric acid. A piece of all wool dipped in either of these powerful chemicals turns it to a reddish yellow color. While if there are cotton threads they are destroyed, leaving the piece with nothing but the yellow warp or woof.

For Babies on Sleeping Cars.

When traveling with a baby in a sleeping car, says Glad Housekeeping, insure a good night's rest for yourself and the baby, not to mention your fellow travelers, by putting him to sleep in a little hammock which is to be found in the berth.

This procedure is practicable for all infants under one year of age, and is the only absolutely safe sleeping place for them.

Provide yourself in advance with a piece of cotton rope two feet in length. With this one end of the hammock is to be made fast to the lower end of the chair or table, by which the upper berth is suspended; the other end of the hammock is left on the hook from which it usually hangs.

The hammock is thus suspended diagonally across the berth; now put in two pillows end to end. These

Whether or not the Michigan Central railroad subscribed anything to assist in the election of Governor Warner to years ago is a question that is being discussed in democratic campaign circles. It will be remembered that the Michigan Central railroad, according to the democratic campaign statements of two years ago, was to be greatly benefited by the election of the republican state candidates. In

Throat Coughs

A tickling in the throat; hoarseness at times; deep breath irritates it;—these are features of a throat cough. They're very deceptive and a cough mixture won't cure them. You want something that will heal the inflamed membranes, enrich the blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion is just such a remedy. It has wonderful healing and nourishing power. Removes the cause of the cough and the whole system is given new strength and vigor.

stead or being benefited, however the attorney of the Michigan Central has declared that Governor Warner had greatly wronged that road. Its state tax burden has been greatly increased; reductions of rates of fare on its state travel lines have been compelled, and a new suit has been started by the state for six million dollars back taxes which will be collected if possible. If the Michigan Central-railroad paid anything to bring into existence a state administration that has been so merciless in its enforcement of just requirements it is not strange that it should regard itself as having been greatly wronged.

Governor Warner publicly declared a few days ago that he is quite willing to defend the policy of the present administration in the matter of its support of the state's educational institutions. As a matter of fact the increase in the cost of the University and Agricultural college and the State Normal schools has not equaled the proportion of their growth in number of students and in the advanced character of the work they are providing. Their cost to Michigan is far less than the provision made by other states for educational institutions that return much less than this state receives in direct value for its investments. Governor Warner made it quite plain that he had very little sympathy with any effort to make political capital through attacks on Michigan's educational institutions.

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Earache, Backache, Stomach ache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are an excellent remedy for overcoming headache, neuralgia and distressing pains of all sorts. I have used them for the past seven years in this capacity with the best of results.

Twenty Minutes
Time Enough?

To Cure the Worst Headache From Any Cause—New Reduction Method.

Most headaches and pains yield instantly to the new Reduction Method—Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure. The cause for these pains is congestion—a rushing of blood to the nerve centers—which distends the veins to nearly the bursting point. Swollen and enlarged these veins and capillaries exert an irritating pressure on the myriads of nerve branches and fibers. Then, there's a pain, and finally that excruciating, agonizing throbbing which makes the patient unable to do anything. This new Reduction Method—Dr. Shoop's—restores the blood, distributes the throbbing throbs, and if rest is to the patient, it brings a permanent cure from all irritation—the pains and throbbing cease. Their cause has been removed. You are now free from the throbbing throbs, and you may enjoy the life which brings a permanent cure because it relieves the congestion. It must embody the Reduction Method. Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure is promptly and perfectly suited to all forms of Headache and absolutely positive in every temperament. NERVOUS DEBILITY

OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure you, and make a man of you. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all impurities, poisons and acids, that the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, dizziness, and debility disappear, the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the mental, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains are cut off, the more vital fluids from the system; the various organs become natural and healthy. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us personally and free of charge. They are weak and taking too long of your hard-earned dollars. WE WILL CURE YOU OR NO PAY. NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience: "I was afflicted with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay in bed in a state of prostration and weakness, and could not do any work or study. I imagined everybody who looked at me, was laughing at me. My back ached, had pain in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, and in the morning, when I awoke, my fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loss, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the legs set in and the doctor told me I was paralysed. I took all kinds of medicine and tried many first-class physicians, were an electric belt for three months, went to St. Clements for BEFORE TREATMENT, but received little benefit. While AFTER TREATMENT, Mr. Summers was induced to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had not all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and sexually. I have sold them many systems and will continue to do so. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. We treat and cure: VARIOUS FORMS OF NERVOUS DEBILITY, BLENDING DISORDERS, URINARY COMPLAINTS, KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. If unable to call write for a Question Blank for Home Treatment.

PEACE TERMS REJECTED BY INSURGENT LEADERS

Rebels Frankly Admit They Are Not Satisfied With Conditions Laid Down by Government Officials at Havana.

Havana.—The prospect of establishing peace in Cuba without American intervention looks almost hopeless. The rebel leaders everywhere are displaying surliness and frankly say they can not accept the peace terms offered by the government. The passive attitude of the government, under the threat of American annexation, has greatly strengthened the military position of the insurgents. Annexation by America is more than ever the cry of the commercial interests of Havana.

At a meeting of rebel leaders held in the town hall of Havana it was decided after a number of violent speeches had been delivered not to accept the peace propositions of the government.

A member of the cabinet who declines to have his name used said that he saw no possible way for peace with intervention only remedy.

"Too many cooks are spoiling the broth," said the cabinet members. "Everybody who wants to is getting passes and going out to visit the insurgents. In my opinion there will be no peace until the Americans intervene."

All accounts agree that there easily are 3,000 insurgents a few miles south-east of Havana and rumors are in circulation that they will enter the city leaders, who hitherto have had every reason for anticipating arrest, are circulating openly in Havana again and even conferring with members of the government with regard to peace, and that such insurgents in the field as have been consulted, while they express themselves as agreeable to settling matters peaceably, at the same time assume an independent attitude which can not be said to bode particularly well for a prompt settlement of existing difficulties.

In the meanwhile Cienfuegos is in a state of siege, communication by telegraph being severed not only in the direction of Havana, but to Santiago as well. It is known that Cienfuegos had not been attacked up to midnight Sunday, but what has transpired since that time is not known here.

British Interests Suffering.
The announcement from Washington that American vessels of war will protect British, as well as American interests is taken as applying especially to Cienfuegos, where the English-owned Cuban Central railroad has been obliged to suspend operations and has suffered considerable damage to its property. The Western railroad, also a British enterprise, is not suffering special damage except in the vicinity of Havana.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 15.—President Roosevelt Friday night addressed demands their presence there illustrates the alarm with which the government views the situation in Cuba. It was for the purpose of preparing to meet the worst that President Roosevelt, who has been keeping his hand at the helm in the Cuban matter, called Secretary of War Taft from his vacation, and summoned Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte and Acting Secretary of State Bacon to Oyster Bay for a conference.

Will Hasten Peace.
Washington.—The president's decision to send Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon to Cuba was not unexpected, although official and diplomatic circles recognize in it a move calculated to hasten the solution of the problem.

The real object of Secretary Taft's mission to Cuba, of course, cannot be explained by anyone in Washington. In official circles, however, the belief is expressed that President Roosevelt desires to secure from absolutely dependable sources information that will establish clearly the fact that President Palma either does or does not in his administration represent a majority of Cuban people.

Duties of Emissaries.
It is believed that it will be for Secretary Taft and Acting Secretary Bacon to determine for themselves whether, in their opinion, the best interests of the island are represented by the revolutionary forces or whether, in the interest of order and public weal and the future welfare of Cuba, the Palma government should be sustained. Of course, this is merely the expression of belief in Washington.

While it is not the purpose of the United States government, for the present at least, to do anything which could actually be construed as intervening in Cuba, it is nevertheless regarded as a fact that the action of the government in sending a force of marines to Havana will be used by the Palma partisans to impress the insurgents with the belief that President Palma has both the moral and physical support of the United States.

To Protect American Interests.
The statement is emphasized by officials here that the landing of marines from United States warships will be merely for the purpose of affording protection to American lives and property when it becomes apparent, as it did to Commander Colwell of the cruiser Denver, that the Cuban government is unable to afford the required protection. While such admission is a confession of weakness on the part of the Cuban government, it will nevertheless, doubtless have the effect at least of deferring an attack upon Havana.

PINO GUERRA.

(Principal Leader of Insurrectionist Forces.)

To Observe Neutrality.
The entire incident, it is pointed out, was in keeping with the president's determination to preserve strict neutrality, and it is the purpose to do no more than protect American interests and afford an asylum to officials of the Palma government if requested to do so, until the Cuban congress, which assembled to-day, asks for American intervention.

It will then be time to meet that issue, but for the present the purpose of an American armed force in Cuban waters is to afford to American interests that degree of safety which the Cuban government seems unable to give.

THE NEW RADIUM SILKS. They Are of the Most Exquisite Tones and Fine Texture.

Radium silk has finally "arrived." Somewhat slow have we been to take up this soft, exquisitely toned material which has had such vogue in Paris for the last few months. The best gowned among our women have already learned the charm for dainty, dressy costumes, but the fall and winter promises for it a regular furor.

Surely, there are few fabrics that can better stand popular favor. There is a delicacy, luster and wonderful color to the radium silks that make them peculiarly satisfying to a refined taste.

Akin to the best foulards and the liberty gauzes is it, with the best qualities of both. Heavier and finer weaves than the latter, it has all its graceful clingingness, with greater durability, while the softness and simple patterns of the former are enhanced by a high sheen, caused by being woven of organzine so fine that the single thread is barely visible.

But the chief beauty of the radium silks is their opalescent coloring, so indescribably lovely. A pink will have the soft blush of the heart of a shell; the tint of the sky shining through a fleeting cloud on a sunny day is seen in the blues, while the lavenders, greens, yellows, even the darker colors, have all the soft undertone that gives them a beautiful iridescent effect.

With all its softness of texture, this silk does not wrinkle easily. This peculiarly adapts it for the elaborate gowns for afternoon and evening wear, for which it is chiefly, indeed, one might say, exclusively, used.

For ordinary everyday purposes the radium silk, lovely as it is, would scarcely prove satisfactory, even in the darker tones; but, made up over a material that takes the strain—a taffeta, for instance—it is very desirable. It cleans as well as crepe de chine, and may even be washed, with great care, in a pure soapuds. This latter process, however, is not advised, as the material is apt to pull with rubbing.

Whatever the lasting qualities of this silk—after all, that is largely dependent on the wearer herself—its beauty is undeniable. Whether in the exquisite pastel tints for evening, shell or rose pink, maize, blue or turquoise, faint pinkish lavenders, sea green or champagne or in the deeper toned dove and silver grays, French and navy blue, a bright dark heliotrope, soft yellow, browns and tans, or warm, rich olive—a shade, by the way, that promises to be very good this fall—the plain radium silks have a charm of coloring rarely seen.

SEEN IN THE SHOPS.

A white leather bag with handle across the top and mounted in brass trimmings.

A beautiful set of crystal tumblers, quite high, were decorated nearly the full length with fern leaves cut quite deep.

A very handsome driving whip had handle of clouded ivory tipped on the end with gold.

An antiseptic drinking cup, folded so close one can carry it in the pocket.

Instead of the ordinary leather box for coat hangers, there are suede ones which form a bag the size of the hanger and will pack much more easily.

An attractive invalid tray was of mahogany with silver railing and handles at each end. There was a hot-water plate heater and separate silver plate. A covered silver bowl, a silver egg cup stand with pepper and salt; a tete-a-tete set of pottery overlaid with silver.

A small horseshoe-shaped pin set around the top with a row of amethysts and a row of small diamonds all around; at the bottom a gold bow-knot set with tiny diamonds.

A heart-shaped brooch, consisting of a large opal surrounded by a row of diamonds.

A white belt of sheer linen lawn laid in folds near either edge and dots, the large ones in the center, embroidered with a large oval nickel buckle. It launders finely.

A champagne-colored kid belt lined with silk and ornamented with a design in cut steel. The buckle was of metal covered with kid studded with steel nail heads.

Apples a la Reine.

Boil a cup of rice and steam tender and light. While boiling peel and core six tart apples. Put in a buttered pan in the oven, sprinkle with sugar; add a little water, and bake until a delicate crispy brown. When the rice is done turn into a shallow glass dish, carefully lift out the apples and arrange on the rice, and set aside to chill. When quite cold pour over them a sauce of whipped cream flavored and sweetened.

"Hercules" Bobb Up Everywhere.

There is an unusual amount of hercules braid apparent in the trimmings of costumes of all materials, including silk, mousseline, voile, nets, woolen goods and velvet, and the newest idea is its introduction as a border for parasols. The latter are further trimmed with soutache braid, and sometimes insets of lace or embroidery are also used in connection with the braid.

Women and men are not natural enemies, they are not set over against one another in opposing camps. On the contrary, their interests meet and mingle, and such a thing as conflict and antagonism based on the score of sex is supremely absurd.

Yet we constantly hear the assertion made that women should not enter certain professional vocations, lest their presence should crowd out men who have secured the right of way, and by tradition and training are established in their callings. The same objection has been urged times without number against women in business, the feeling being that there is an unfairness to men in the ease and facility with which women slip into positions hitherto filled by their fathers and brothers.

As everybody knows, there are lines of work peculiarly adapted to woman's quick wit, quick sympathy and mental culture. Very few men choose teaching as a profession. Thousands of women turn to the education of the young as their proper sphere. Our public schools enlist an army of splendidly endowed and fully equipped young women who fulfill every requirement from the high school to the kindergarten, throughout all grades including not only the most difficult and abstruse scientific and intellectual studies, but as well the domestic and manual training that are now insisted upon as necessary.

Here and there one finds a man or two engaged in special work and the superintendent and principals are usually men, but this is not because women have crowded men out, but because men have never monopolized this avenue. They have not sought nor cared for it. Very unfairly, whenever they do enter this particular field, they ask and receive larger salaries than women for precisely the same work. Where a woman thankfully accepts from $800 to $1,200 a year for her services as principal of a school, a man doing perhaps less work receives from $1,500 to $1,800 as an annual salary. It might perhaps be thought, and it may be partially true, that the possibility of getting good work for less money here acts as a factor in the employment of women rather than of men, but the truth is that the average man prefers to put his talents to almost any other use than that of teaching. He is not sufficiently patient, sufficiently unselfish, and sufficiently fond of children to do this day by day task of guiding the next generation in the way it should go. There is no reason to regret the numerical superiority of women as leaders in the schoolroom.

Women certainly have not perceptibly crowded men in the professions of law and medicine, and a woman in the pulpit is a novelty and so exceptional that she is usually explained or accounted for by some special pleading. Thus far, the woman lawyer has not appeared as counsel for great corporations, nor does she reap the magnificent harvest of gold and fame accruing to the successful lawyer of the other sex. Admitted to the bar in many states, she generally confines her practice within narrow limits and often finds her peculiar work in a sort of ethical and humanitarian lance-breaking for the poor and oppressed who are defrauded of their rights. The woman lawyer has not as yet been taken so seriously anywhere that she is a competitor to be feared or reckoned with by brother lawyers.

As for the woman doctor, it remains to be seen what the next 20 years may show in her case. She is at present a favorite in many towns and in large cities she is consulted on equal terms by medical men and has an increasing vogue as a specialist in diseases of women and children. Her returns when she is successful are large, and in hospital work particularly among women and children, she has widening opportunities. There is, however, this reservation, many people declare that they would never trust a woman to perform a surgical operation on themselves or on anyone dear to them. In the field of foreign missions, the woman doctor daily performs surgical operations of the utmost difficulty and delicacy and in large percentage her treatment is successful.

Oriental customs do not suffer women to be treated by men, and therefore this woman doctor in the far east has the field to herself. Here at home, while she is more and more trusted, yet there is no immediate danger that she will crowd the men out. We may continue to send our sons to medical colleges, quite sure that when they have served the long preliminary apprenticeship exacted by the state, they will not find women debarring them from treating any number of well-paying patients. The fact is that even when most successful, the woman doctor in America is only picking up the crumbs that fall from the man doctor's table. She has the entree to the woman's wards of insane asylums and to the post as physician in woman's colleges, in babies' hospitals, and so on. But she does not crowd men out, nor, to do her justice, has she the faintest wish to do so.

Of course, there are indoor occupations which are the province of woman, and at certain counters of the department stores they are found to be in their element. But they are never at the counters where large bales of goods are lifted and handled, they do not sell cloth and silk, nor serve in the departments of rugs, carpets and floor coverings.

One would expect women to crowd men out in book stores, because books are delightful to handle and women are the largest number of readers and possibly of buyers in this line. Yet one seldom finds women employed to an alarming extent in book shops. Almost always men serve in the capacity of clerks behind book counters. The exception is only in department stores.

On the whole, since women are not likely to become appreciable antagonists in the occupations that demand original investigation, executive ability and great physical strength, it does not seem that there is any reason to dread their entrance in the business world. They bring to it a finer conscience, an element of integrity and a moral atmosphere that are worth much to those whom they meet. In the last analysis, the world is better because women contribute to it something, in its larger scope and interest of what they have always given to the home. The modern world is complex. We shall never return to the old simplicities. We need a great deal more money than we once did. We cannot get on in these days of quick travel and swift communication with the old slow method of the stage coach and the sailing vessel.

The work to be done is multiplied a thousandfold and everybody must take a hand. The situation resolves itself into one of convenience. If each fits into the right place, in the right temper, there will be no irritation and no excuse for a lazy man to complain that an industrious woman has crowded him out. Brains and conscience will solve our problems.

MODEL FOR DRESSY WAIST.

Made of Soft Silk and Trimmed With Dainty Lace Ruffles.

Soft silk is used for this pretty waist. It forms a sort of bolero gathered at the top to a yoke trimmed with little lace ruffles, which apparently continue over the tops of the sleeves. It is bordered with a drapery of the silk, which is also trimmed with the lace ruffles.

The guimpe is of Irish lace, bordered with a shaped band of the silk, which is ornamented with motifs of ecru lace, in which are mingled threads of gold, and edged with the lace ruffles.

The wide corselet is ornamented with gold buttons, bordered with narrow ribbon, and slashed open over Irish lace. The cravat is also of ribbon.

The puffed sleeves are finished at the elbow with bands of the material, trimmed with the ribbon and edged with lace.

peaceably if they are not molested, but that they will fight if they meet with resistance. All visitors to insurgents' camps in Havana province return with this impression, but it is believed no attempt will be made against Havana until the arrival of Pino Guerra's force, which now is variously reported to be from 29 to 49 miles distant.

The general impression is that the presence in Havana harbor of the American cruiser Denver will not act as a deterrent to such a movement, the auxiliary cruiser Dixie having gone to Cienfuegos and the cruiser Des Moines having gone to bring to Cuba Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon.

The only results thus far of President Palma's order for the suspension of hostilities have been that liberal to the Cuban people what practically is an ultimatum.

He declared that a permanent peace must at once be announced in the island or else the United States will intervene by armed force under the authority of the Platt amendment.

This was its obvious and clear cut intent of a letter diplomatically addressed to Senator Quesada, the Cuban minister, who is now in Lisbon, but which, the president in the body of the letter states, really is intended for the Cuban government and the Cuban people. In accordance with this specific purpose the president says has directed the letter's "immediate publication."

President Roosevelt declares in this letter that the present Cuban government, by its own acts and admissions has proven itself incapable of maintaining order throughout the island. It has failed to protect the lives and property either of its own citizens or foreign residents of the islands.

This condition of anarchy, the president insists, must end. The present civil war must cease and arrangements be made for an immediate and permanent peace.

Taft Goes to Havana.
In order that arrangements for such peace may be made the president is sending Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon to Havana. It will be their duty to see that the necessary arrangements are carried out.

To meet any unexpected crisis that may arise before peace can be restored President Roosevelt has arranged for the immediate dispatch to Havana of six cruisers and 2,000 marines. Most of them, it is expected, will be in Havana by Monday or Tuesday.

The decision to have a force of 2,000 fighting men ready to set foot on Cuban soil at any time the situation
