

GENERAL FRED GRANT DIES VERY SUDDENLY

New York, Friday, April 12.—"Grant is dead."

That was the news flashed from the apartment of Major General Frederick Dent Grant, at the Hotel Buckingham, in this city, shortly after 12 o'clock this morning. It sent a shock through the city such as that which startled the whole country upon the death of his father twenty-seven years ago.

The news was far more sudden than in the case of the father. It came less than an hour after the first alarm had been sounded that General Grant was even seriously ill. The alarm itself had come before it had been generally learned that General Grant was even in the city, as his presence here had been kept a secret.

"Get us a physician, quick, the general is dying."

This telephone message, received at the desk of the Buckingham at 11:30 o'clock last night, was the first news. A bellboy was dispatched to the office of Dr. Abbey, nearby, but the physician was not at home. Mrs. Grant was notified and, chafing at the delay, she cried back hysterically, "Get an ambulance, get anybody."

The alarm was sent to police headquarters, from which an ambulance was dispatched. Calls were put in at random for physicians, and within a few minutes two had responded. When the ambulance arrived, within four minutes of the alarm, it was said that General Grant probably was dying. He was in too dangerous a condition to be moved and the ambulance drove away.

At midnight the general died. In the half hour previous the alarm over his condition, had aroused all the newspaper officers, in most of which the reports were regarded with caution. In view of the fact that General Grant's presence here was not known. Many newspapermen were on the scene in a few minutes, however, but as none was allowed to go to the apartment the exact state of affairs was a matter of doubt until an end was put to all when the hotel clerk was heard to repeat over the telephone, "Grant is dead?"

The first-hand information as to the cause of death was choking, but later it was stated that the cause was heart failure, following diabetes and attending digestive disturbances. The following statement was made at 1 o'clock by General Grant's attending physicians, Drs. Abbey and Bench: "General Frederick D. Grant died suddenly of heart failure, without premonition, at the Buckingham Hotel, at midnight, April 11, after retiring at 11 o'clock apparently in better condition than for several weeks."

"The general had returned from his recent trip much improved and looking remarkably well and vigorous. His condition since his return had given no special anxiety to his physicians, who had been with him during the afternoon and congratulated him on his good health. He expressed himself as feeling rejoiced at his renewed strength."

"General Grant had been suffering from diabetes and the attendant digestive disturbances, which seemed, however, to be under perfect control. This sudden fatal termination came as a great surprise. His wife and nurse were with him at the time and the physicians who were called at once found that the heart had stopped instantly."

Mrs. Grant and a nurse were alone with the general when he died, there having been no premonition of his sudden critical ailment. The general had been removed to the hotel yesterday morning from St. Luke's hospital where, unknown to the public generally, he had been taken, for treatment. Previous announcements at Governor's Island, the headquarters of the Eastern division of the army, had been made repeatedly to the effect that the leave of absence which had been granted to General Grant was not on account of a serious illness, but only for rest, and it was said that he was in the South.

HONORS ARE DIVIDED IN NEW ENGLAND

Montpelier, Vt., April 12.—Of the eight Vermont delegates to the Republican convention at Chicago, two district delegates will go instructed for four delegates at large are unpledged, although the state convention today endorsed President Taft's administration and all four delegates expressed a personal desire for his renomination.

Two of the delegates were chosen without question and the other two after spirited contests between the Taft and Roosevelt forces, in which the Taft majorities were fifty-four and fifty-three, respectively. Bangor, Me., April 12.—The candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt will be supported by Maine's twelve delegates in the Republican national convention. Ten were chosen at the Republican state conventions held this afternoon and tonight. The other two were elected a week ago in the First district. Instructions were not formally given in the case of the Fourth district delegates, but all those chosen were named on ballots headed "Roosevelt delegates." The Roosevelt leaders had a good working majority in the state convention, the votes for delegates at large being 739 to 497.

STARTS FIGHT AGAINST FLIES
The anti-fly crusade has been launched for the season of 1912. Many in this city have interested themselves in giving the sentiment against the fly an early start, because flies have already begun to make their appearance. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure and the way to do is to keep the flies out. And in order to keep them out, people should put screens on the windows early, before the flies have a chance to get in to the houses, stores, offices and other centers where human beings are gathered.

"Not only has it been established that the fly carries dangerous germs, but it is naturally filthy and dirty. Its principal breeding place is in manure piles, in garbage pails and in filth of one kind or another. It is born in filth, breeds in filth and carries filth. It carries the bacilli of typhoid, tuberculosis and intestinal diseases. The only safe way to guard against the fly is to keep the insect out of the house by screening the doors and windows. It has only been within the last few years that the real danger of flies and other insects has been appreciated.

"Much has been said about impure milk and milk carrying disease germs. Did you ever stop to consider that most of the impure milk is rendered so by the filthy fly? If we would only protect our milk from flies, half that battle would be won. Fly season is at hand and an early campaign in order. Many states and cities have adopted rigid regulations tending to prevent the breeding of flies and the health departments are enforcing them carefully. This city ought to do the same.

"Several states, and not a few cities have laws and ordinances requiring screen doors and windows to be placed in all stores, restaurants and other places where food stuffs and drinkables are sold or prepared. The people can do much good by refusing to buy from dealers who do not make every effort to prevent the entrance of flies to their establishments.

"Special care should be exercised around barns and outbuildings and all refuse of a decaying character should either be disposed of or covered with lime or kerosene oil. All food whether in the house or exposed for sale, should be screened if where flies can reach it. All garbage receptacles should have tight covers and the cans cleaned or sprinkled with oil or lime.

"Here is the most important admonition—all stable refuse should be kept in a vault or pit and either screened or sprinkled with lime, oil or other cheap preparation that is reliable in preventing the hatching of flies. If there is a fly nuisance in your neighborhood write at once to or call upon, the city health department and insist that definite action be taken."

Why He Was Lame.
"What made you so lame?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling and he insisted on telling me about his stomach troubles."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by Farrell & Lohmiller and Groos Drug Store.

BAIL PROVIDED FOR DEFENDER

If the supreme court grants John F. Dietz a new trial, the noted Cameron Dam defender will be immediately released on bail. This was decided upon at a consultation of Attorneys McKenna, Malone and Naber, at the office of the former yesterday. Mrs. Dietz had planned to attend but was unable to be present owing to illness in the family. All arrangements have been completed for the furnishing of the necessary bonds, and Dietz will be delivered into the custody of the Sawyer county sheriff within twenty-four hours from the time the decision, if favorable, is rendered and should be at liberty within the expiration of a similar period.

The absence of Attorney McKenna in Europe will have no bearing on the case as the second trial of Dietz could not possibly be taken up until long after his return in the latter part of August. There is, to be sure, a session of the Sawyer county court in June, but neither the defense nor the state could well be prepared to take up the matter at that time, and an adjournment is certain. There is also a strong probability that a change of venue will be sought from Sawyer county, and it will take some weeks if not months to secure the proper affidavits.

WOMAN OFFERS GOOD SUGGESTIONS

Mrs. Scott Durand's letter to the Waukegan Sun will furnish food for reflection to the Delta county farmer, railroad man and every voter who believes in a government for the people, by the people with all the political corrupt frills left off.
Mrs. Durand is a very wealthy woman, she owns what is known as the Great Tree Farm at Lake Bluff, Lake county, Illinois. She imports the best high bred cattle from all over the world, going abroad and selecting them herself. Her interest in the Waukegan county farm is her constant concern, and when questions of vital importance comes up the farmers know by her decision and by her influence that she is their friend.
Although very wealthy and influential she does not lord it over others and try to make conditions for the less fortunate farmers so they can not live. Every farmer will rally to the standard for the best man for president.
Not since the Civil war has our United States had such issues of importance presented to it as at the present time. The seriousness of the situation can not be overestimated, even from an optimistic standpoint. It is not a question of the Republican or the Democrat—it is one of simple right and wrong—the people versus special privilege and corrupt political machinery.
The farmer constitutes the backbone of our republic, and it is essential today that the farmer acquaint himself with the present political situation, in order to act quickly and forcibly, as it was in 1776 or 1861, when the plow was laid aside and arms taken up in defense of principle.
The farmer cannot afford to remain in ignorance of these political questions, for they involve his every success and prosperity.
A new president is to be elected in November—will that president be the choice of the majority of the people of these United States, or will he be an appointee of the political bosses?
It is not only absurd, it is outrageous, that the people of this republic have not the choice between the party nominees and no voice in the selection of these nominees.
Let every farmer and every farmer's wife read in the March number of Hunsey's Magazine, the article: "Catching up with Roosevelt," particularly noting the achievements of the Roosevelt administration. Then let them carefully remember that the present president has utterly failed to fulfill the pledges which he made in the last national campaign and which were made in his behalf in the Republican platform of 1908.
Farmers—do you know that one of President Taft's first acts was to confer with Senator Aldrich, and even with Cannon himself then throw his influence in favor of the re-election of the "stand-pat czar," as speaker?
Now where did Mr. Taft, in his first message, recommend downward revision of the tariff, which he had led the people to believe he would do in their behalf. But wool lobbyists, lobbyists for cotton manufacturers, and silk manufacturers, rubber men and steel men, it is quoted, thronged the secret hearings of the tariff caucus in Senator Aldrich's committee room with Taft firmly affixing—small wonder then that the infamous tariff bill was not vetoed by the president, and it was through this very act that the nation at large lost all faith in Mr. Taft, which he has never been able to regain. The president's defense of Twaney and his Winona speech, declaring the bill to be the best tariff bill ever passed, added insult to injury, which the people have never forgiven him for.
Do not forget that at the behest of Aldrich, Mr. Taft repudiated the income tax, to which he had committed himself in the campaign. Remember the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy which culminated in the discovery that President Taft had ordered the Attorney-General to antedate his opinion in the Glavis case, so as to make it appear that it had been written weeks before Mr. Wickersham actually wrote it. Does such an act entitle a man to a second term as president?
Do not forget how the railroad bill, as it came from the hands of the railroad president and the office of the attorney-general, was with the sanction of the president.
President Taft, has either through weakness, ignorance or intention, allied himself with the most dangerous element in our political and business world. It is interesting to follow the line of demarcation, as it weaves in and out from the president to Wall street—to representatives of special privilege—to the political bosses, or men eager for the spoils of the battle. It is interesting, when devious of disposing of a bad appointee to see that one cozily cared for as vice-president of one of the Morgah banks in New York, as in the case of Charles D. Norton, when he was relieved by the president after his faux pas in that remarkable letter to an Iowa congressman, saying in effect that inasmuch as the people had endorsed the progressives, Mr. Taft would give them back the patronage.

The president's judgement in appointments has been worse than unfortunate. Take Charles R. Crane an ambassador to China. An ill-advised choice—but worse taste, in an absolutely inexcusable manner of recalling Mr. Crane. Look again at the almost fatal error he was about to make in the successor to Chief Justice Harlan. The president has acknowledged himself only a lawyer, and a poor president. He has thoroughly demonstrated the latter.
The various departments of the government show serious lack of oversight on the part of the president. As a farmer well knows, the success of a farm in the production of the crops and the raising of the stock depends upon the man at the helm. Of what importance, then, that a president, at the head of this great republic be a man strong in his convictions—sound in judgement, keen in perception, and with his eye and hand ever upon each spoke of the great wheel of the government machinery.
The farmers should be particularly concerned in the deplorable state of the department of agriculture. It is a disgrace to the nation, and Secretary Wilson should have been relieved long ago by the president. Mr. Taft has utterly ignored the welfare of the farmers in every way, and in his urgent plea and stubborn fight for Canadian reciprocity, snapped his fingers at the American farmer in behalf of the manufacturers.
The president's insane remark: "I love judges and I love courts—they are my ideals on earth, that typify that we shall meet afterward in heaven under a just God" reminds one of the old-time hymn, "I want to be an angel, and with the angels stand."
Taft has fought popular control of the courts, consistently refusing to sign the Arizona statehood bill until the recall of judges was eliminated from the state constitution. On the judicial recall Mr. Roosevelt proposes a check upon the present unlimited and final power of the courts of last resort to declare laws unconstitutional. He would recall the judges. He would recall the decision.
Farmers, buy Colliers for February 24th, and read the article by Carl Snyder on "Justice vs. Technicality," and decide whether Taft or Roosevelt has shown the greater wisdom.
Taft's appointment of the new commerce court, which in 18 of its 24 cases sustained the railroads or granted injunctions against the Interstate commerce commission, is to be greatly censured. Look at the personal of the court, with men like former Commissioner Knapp and Judge Archbold as its guiding spirits.
To sum up the achievements of ex-President Roosevelt and the fiasco of the present administration, can the farmer or any one afford to permit the political bosses, in spite of the wishes of the people of these United States, to again place President Taft as the Republican nominee?
It is the duty of every honest and fair minded man or woman to urge that the presidential preference primaries be given the people and do not be persuaded to demand that the people's choice be the only choice. Arrange mass meetings and public speaking. Put every pressure to bear that this privilege be given the people in common justice and honesty. In the present campaign it is of greater importance than the election of the nominee.
But should this right be denied the people and Taft again made the Republican nominee, and should the Democrats be fortunate enough or wise enough to elect Governor Wilson as their choice, then forget party lines and elect Wilson—a man second only to Roosevelt in his desire that "Government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from this earth."
It Mrs. Scott Durand.

BOSTON MARKETS

The local market was more quiet today but we consider it only temporary halt. Some liquidation came in but it was mostly in small lots and prices for the most part held well. Granby was again active and strong and closed close to the top. There was little doing in Copper Range today and the buyers of yesterday were evidently disposed to let it sag in order to pick it up more cheaply. North Butte opened strong but gradually faded towards the close. Politics are again becoming an important factor in the primaries in Philadelphia tomorrow caused more or less selling in N. Y. and a consequent reaction. Copper exports will be very heavy this month and the surplus show a very material reduction in the next producers report.

NEW YORK MARKETS

The selling today was rather more vigorous than for some time, owing to the mixed complexion of politics, the reports of damage in the winter wheat belt and the delay in adjusting labor difficulties. We have been quite friendly to the buying side of the market, but within the last few days have noticed a hesitancy on the part of influential interests who are not entirely pleased with the cotton and wheat crop outlook as it is generally realized that progress and extension of enterprise during the year will depend in great part on agricultural output. Of course the present decline in the stock market seems natural when the extent of the recent advances is measured and doubtless the reaction would have occurred regardless of the consideration which are now recalled as having disturbed pessimistic sentiment.

BRAIN OF SCIENTIST FOUND VERY SMALL

Philadelphia, April 12.—Experts at the Wistar Institute of Anatomy have just completed the examination of the brain of Dr. John H. Musser, a noted diagnostician, who died here recently. They found that Dr. Musser's brain weighed less than that of a well-developed child. It was twenty ounces lighter than the brain of Daniel Webster and twenty-four ounces lighter than that of James Pisk, the New York gambler who was murdered a few years ago. Scientists explained this unusual state of affairs by saying that Dr. Musser developed along broadening out in all lines, and therefore, not fully developing all parts of the brain. The convulsions showed that he exercised portions of it to a wonderful extent.

NO QUARANTINE FOR SMALL POX

Salt Lake City, April 12.—The state board of health has issued an order to discontinue the quarantine against small pox. The flag has been put up on houses where the patients are under treatment, but the inmates may move about as freely as if the disease was whooping cough. This extreme reaction from the "shot gun" quarantine of former years is in line with the conclusions reached by national medical organizations. Numerous bodies of physicians have recommended small pox quarantines be raised, but Utah is one of the first, if not the first state, to make the experiment.

MEXICAN REVOLUTIONISTS GIVE OUT A STATEMENT SCORING MADERO LITTERLY

New York, April 12.—Three special commissioners from General Orozco, leader of the Mexican revolutionists, who arrived here last week to present to the American people the revolutionists' side of the present trouble in their country, in a long statement given out tonight bitterly assailed the administration of President Madero and declare that his tactics in the government of Mexico are slowly wrecking the nation.
Madero is charged with violating every oath he made to the men that helped him overthrow the reign of Diaz. He is charged with misuse of government funds, with making it impossible to walk the highways of Mexico in safety and with not protecting the interests of foreign business and the people of his own country.

PACKERS HEARING

Trenton, N. ATTEMPT TO BURN CHURCH FRUSTRATED

Menominee, Mich., April 12.—An attempt to burn St. Paul's Catholic church at Negaunee at 8 o'clock last night was frustrated only by the timely arrival of the janitor, who discovered four men, one of them masked, in the act of leaving the chapel in the basement of the edifice, and by the prompt action of two women who, seeing the church steps aflame, extinguished the blaze with a couple of pails of water.

Janitor Peter Thiebault was going to the rear of the church, after having attended to the fires in the residence of Rev. Fr. Bucholtz, the pastor, to ascertain if the chapel doors were locked when he encountered four men one of them wearing a mask, leaving the steps leading to the chapel entrance. The men became frightened at the approach of the janitor and fled. Each carried a large bottle, which presumably contained kerosene oil.

Thiebault ran to inform the police and during his absence, the supposition is, the men returned and sprinkled the contents of the bottles on the steps, then ignited it with a match.

Miss Mary Maloney, who lives directly opposite the church, saw the blaze and ran into the street, crying "fire." Her cries attracted Mrs. Napoleon Marchetti, and together they extinguished the flames with a couple of pails of water. Miss Maloney claims that two of the men went through her yard. She declares they were foreigners from their conversation, and says that one of the men, in passing, mentioned the name "Nadeau." Policeman Nadeau some months ago shot and killed a Finlander and the supposition is that friends of the man were endeavoring to revenge his death by firing the church, knowing that Nadeau was a Catholic. Father Bucholtz is at a loss to understand the reason of the deed.

Chief of Police Jackson has not seen any tramps or suspicious looking characters about the city of late.

Two policemen guarded the church all of last night but there were no further developments. There was little damage.

GOVERNOR OSBORN ISSUES STATEMENT

Lansing, Mich., April 12.—In a statement tonight, Governor Osborn, who expresses deep satisfaction over the result of the primary election in Illinois, declares that Roosevelt would have won a sweeping victory in this state, had not the people of Michigan to express their sentiment by its failure to enact an immediate-effect presidential primary.

Governor Osborn says that the Michigan sugar trust conspired with the Taft forces to swing this state in favor of the president, and he declares that C. B. Warren, of the Michigan Sugar company, claims to have a promise from the chief executive of the United States that he will veto the sugar tariff bill, as a reward for the activities of the trust.

The Governor says that President Taft was formerly opposed to Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, but that he is now for him, as Lorimer has promised to exert his influence in the Republican national convention.

"President Taft is for Vice President Sherman too, and Sherman is equally as impossible as Lorimer," says the governor.

Mr. Osborn declares that these methods are not Mr. Taft's methods, but are the means employed by the men in whose hands the governor claims the president is mere patty.

MEANS NOMINATION FOR "TEDDY", HE SAYS

Washington, April 12.—Senator Dixon manager of the Roosevelt campaign committee, made the following statement tonight:

"Illinois Republicans have declared for Roosevelt as their nominee for president by more than one hundred thousand majority.

The overwhelming repudiation of Taft by the Republicans of Illinois ends the Taft campaign for a renomination. Whenever a legitimate primary expression has been held the Republican voters have utterly repudiated Taft.

"In North Dakota, Taft received 1,516 votes out of a total of 817, seven thousand. In Wisconsin, the Republicans repudiated his claim for renomination by over one hundred thousand.

"Certainly, no Republican leader can longer doubt that an attempt to force Taft's nomination, under these circumstances would be suicide for the Republican party. Roosevelt will be nominated at Chicago and will be triumphantly elected in November.

The news of the heavy vote Clark polled in Illinois was conveyed to the speaker by telephone.

"That's the best news I've heard since the last baby was born," said the speaker, in an emphatic tone.

Later this statement by speaker Clark was given out at his campaign headquarters. "It goes without saying that I am delighted with the news from Illinois. I would be either more or less than human if I did not feel good over the splendid victory which my friends achieved. I have now something over 130 delegates. Of course these cannot nominate the candidate, but they constitute a fine start in that direction. I am profoundly grateful to the Democrats of Illinois and hope that those in other states will go and do likewise.

An inquest was held before Justice Jackson, and the report of the jury was to the effect that Woldeman came to his death by having been struck on the head with some dull instrument. No arrest has been made yet.

KEITH OF THE BORDER A TALE OF THE PLAINS By RANDALL PADDISH

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1919)

SYNOPSIS.

Jack Keith, a Virginian, now a border planter, is looking for roaming war parties of savages. He sees a wagon team at full gallop pursued by men on ponies.

"I did, Christie, you bet I did," broke in the delighted doctor, every nerve tingling. "I'd cleaned out that whole gang if you'd only said so."

"It isn't the gray hairs I mind, either," he admitted hesitatingly, "but I'm too darned bald-headed. Oh, I ain't so old, for I was only thirty-five when the war broke out. I was so thin then I could hardly cast a shadow."

"You Know What I Mean—That I Love You."

"He—he interested me," admitted the girl, hesitatingly, her eyes darkening with sudden anger. "He lied and I believed him—I would have believed any one who came with such a story."

any of those duffers. "Can you tell me that, Christie?" She lifted her eyes to his face, her lips parted. "I can answer anything you ask."

He drew his breath sharply, his round face rosy. "Then you have got to listen to me, for I'm dead in earnest. I'm an old, rough, bald-headed fool that don't know much about women—I never thought before I'd ever want to—but you can bet on one thing, I'm square."

"You are the one for me, Christie. Could you—you could you care for such a duffer as I am?" Her lips were smiling and so were her eyes, but it was a pleading smile.

do you imagine he ever got her to go with him? She isn't that sort of a girl." She shook her head, shivering a little. "He must have mistaken her for me—perhaps has not even yet discovered his mistake. But what it all means, or how he gained her consent to go with him, I cannot conceive."

"Wherever they may have gone I shall follow. I am going now, dear, and when I come back you'll be glad to see me?"

"Wild Strawberries. Strawberries have improved very much in favor since the fifteenth century. Until then the only strawberries eaten were wild strawberries of a kind which would never find a market nowadays."

Raising Lions in Dublin. The unique enterprise of raising lions for the trade is one practiced by the Zoological Garden in Dublin, where several hundred lions have been raised since the first experiments were made."

A True Son of the South. A statue was unveiled at Seacrest to Clovis Hugues, poet and deputy, says the Paris correspondent of the London Standard. Clovis Hugues was a typical son of the south, and like all Marseillais he believed that the Paris boulevards would be a very fair imitation of the Cannabiere if there were only a bit of sea at the end of the street.

Growth of Atlantic City. Atlantic City was incorporated in 1854, the year when the first passenger train was run from the Delaware river to the Atlantic ocean. At that time the village consisted of half a dozen families which had increased to a population of 1,043, in 1870, according to the United States census.

"WILD BILL" DONOVAN MADE ATKINS QUAKE

EVERS LAUDS TY COBB

Pitcher Donovan of Detroit.

Harry Davis isn't worried any more about the Detroit club than about six others which have pennant aspirations, says Tom Terrell of the Cleveland Leader.

There will be some reasons for fire between the Tigers and the Naps this year. The reasons are twofold—Davis and Livingston. The Tigers love the Athletics like the ordinary creature loves a snake.

CAPT. DOYLE IS BRIGHT STAR

Second Baseman of New York Giants Was "Discovered" While Playing in Kitty League.

Frank Belt, who recently resigned the management of the Keokuk club of the Central association, and announced he had retired from baseball after 22 years of service in the game, was responsible for Capt. Larry Doyle of the National league champions becoming one of baseball's bright stars. Doyle branched out as a professional at Mattoon in the Kitty league in 1905.

Tiger Outfielder Is Superior to Frank Chance.

Wonderful Record of "Georgia Peach" on Detroit American Team Has Been Sensation of the Baseball World.

Loyalty to his own club and his own league should be a leading characteristic of every ball player, and I think I have always been loyal to mine, writes John J. Evers of the Cubs in the March issue of the Baseball Magazine.

I am not alone in this high opinion of Ty Cobb's work. This view of mine, I believe, is shared by practically every other member of the National league. There are good players there—many of them—some of extraordinary ability.

Cobb's marvelous showing as a batter is alone enough to insure his reputation for all time. Add to this, however, his uncanny ability as a base runner—an ability in which he stands unequalled, his record-breaking feats as a run getter, his all-around brilliancy as a fielder, his quickness, dash and execution of daring feats almost instantaneously, and they place him a little above and beyond the rank of any other player in the game today. Cobb is still a young man. He has but reached the age when the average big league player is beginning to get a reputation.

The Chalmers commission, composed of leading critics of the game, gave Cobb their unanimous vote—an honor which could not have been granted to any other individual now on the diamond.

ABE BUSY AT HIS OLD GAME

San Francisco, April 12.—Abe Attell may have "gone back" as a pugilist but there are other lines of industry wherein he shines as brilliantly as ever. After the successive defeats the little featherweight sustained at the hands of Johnny Kilbans and Harlem Tommy Murphy, it was stated that Abe had dropped his last cent betting on himself in these fights.

HAGEL WIL NOT RETURN

Con Hagel, who played a fast game at short for the Ishpeming league base team last season, has decided to play elsewhere this season. MORGAN LETS SENATORS DOWN TO ONE HIT

Philadelphia Pa., Apr. 12.—Morgan by only a single bingle was prevented from pitching a no hit game against Washington today when the last season's champs won from the Senators 3 to 1. BUCK O'BRIEN WINS FOR BOSTON SPEED BOYS

New York Apr. 12.—Buck O'Brien, late of the Denver Western League team, proved a veritable question mark for the locals today allowing Boston to take its second straight game from the Yanks 5 to 2. Russell Ford essayed to defend the honor of the locals in an uphill battle but was eluded for 10 hits in the session.

WHITE SOX DOWN BROWNS IN SECOND STRAIGHT GAME

The list includes the following veterans: Wells and Goethe, pitchers; Erickson, catcher; Mollwitz, Bauman, Claffey, Wallace, infielders; Smith and Persch, outfielders.

WOMAN IN HAIR STAIN SUIT

Probably no case of more interest will be taken up at the present term of the United States District court in Milwaukee than that of Mrs. M. L. Bowman against the Remington Drug company of Fond du Lac, and Howard E. Nichols doing business as the Walnutta Drug company, St. Louis.

The suit revolves about a bottle of hair stain which Mrs. Bowman says she purchased in the Remington drug store. The purchase was on March 31, 1908, while Mrs. Bowman was traveling through Wisconsin from their New York home.

Several steps were taken in the case and on Jan. 6, 1909, a notice of appearance was filed by the defendants attorneys. Later, on Jan. 28, a demurrer was filed by the Remington company alleging the facts did not show a cause for a suit.

PLAN TO REBUILD L'ANSE CHURCH

Houghton, Mich., Apr. 12.—Plans by which it is proposed to raise several hundred dollars to assist in rebuilding the Catholic church at L'Anse have been prepared. It is proposed to conduct a big fair in the town hall. The church was destroyed by fire last January, only the stone walls of the edifice being left standing.

ANOTHER ALLEN KINSMAN JAILED

Hillsville, Va., Apr. 12.—Reuben Edwards, another kinsman of Sidna Allen, the fugitive, was arrested yesterday, charged with aiding the outlaws to elude capture. He was locked up here with Jordan Edwards, a second cousin, who was taken into custody on the same charge two days ago. He is seventeen years old.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendonia, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough" he writes "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. FEW CHANGES IN LAW

ment against the protection of steel head trout in certain sections of this state for the reason that they are other species of trout. The Michigan Fish Commission is making a thorough investigation concerning the Rainbow and Steel head trout, which are found in some of the streams of this state during the early spring months which will furnish valuable information upon which the next legislature can base their action concerning any legislation they may deem advisable in regard to this species of fish. It seems to me that all people should be willing to abide by the law as it now stands and aid this department to enforce the same until such time as the matter may be disposed of by the legislature of this state after a thorough investigation, and hearing of all persons interested.

vor to create this kind of a sentiment in your locality and ask the cooperation of all good citizens in this regard.
"The legislature at this special session having refused to permit the destruction of these fish puts the responsibility of the enforcement of the present law up to this department.
"I trust you will exercise good judgement in endeavoring to enforce this law, making it your object to prevent violations rather than trying to secure cases and convictions. If persons persist in violating the same after being warned, and especially where Rainbow trout are being taken it will be your duty to make prosecutions. It is hoped this will not be necessary in many cases.
"I also desire to call your attention to the fact that the inland lakes and streams of this state will soon be open and there will undoubtedly be many cases of violation relative to spearing and netting fish in the same.
"Therefore, I trust you will endeavor to create this kind of a sentiment in your locality and ask the cooperation of all good citizens in this regard.

ing to prevent violations of this kind and where arrests are made to see that persons are properly punished.
"Wishing you success in your work along these lines, I remain,
Yours, respectfully,
WILLIAM R. OATES,
State Game, Fish and Forestry Warden."

YOUR MONEY IS SECURE IN OUR BANK

A banker in Ohio is responsible for the statement, that if all the money taken out of his community by smooth strangers and "Get-Rich-Quick" schemes had remained at home, it would pike every road in the county.

TWO BRING IN SETTLERS

home will increase the value of the land of the northwestern states by approximately $2,812,000,000.
It has been estimated that about 2,000,000 immigrants have settled in the northwestern states in the last ten years, and the figures given are based on the theory that as many more will arrive in the next ten years.
It has been computed that the immigrant who will arrive in this country next month will, in the next ten years, increase the value of farm lands in the northwest by $16,478,000. It is estimated that every immigrant is worth to the county about $1,406, or about $3,515 for each small family.
According to the figures compiled by the Northwestern Development League, the immigrants who arrived during the last ten years have opened up 114,000 new farms and increased the improved acreage of the northwest by about 23,000,000 acres. This increase in settlers means the extension of transportation facilities and every mile of new track adds at least $19,000 to the assessed valuation of farm lands. The figures show that during the last ten years the value of farm lands in Minnesota has increased from an average $21.31 an acre to $36.87, or $15.51. In North Dakota the valuation per acre has increased from $11.15 to $25.69 and in Montana from $4.45 to $16.74.
With the work that the Upper Peninsula Development bureau is doing, it is certain that the proportion of new settlers locating in this region will increase from now on, and it is anticipated that the year 1912 will be a record breaker in the number of home seekers taking up lands in this part of the state.

Why He Was Late.
"What made you so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling and he insisted on telling me about his stomach troubles."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by Farrell & Lohmiller and Gross Drug Store.
