

NO GREAT CHANGES IN BATTLE LINES EXCEPT SLIGHT ADVANCE OF THE FRENCH

SIXTY CIRCASSIAN TROOPS ACCOMPLISH RAID ON CITY

Raiders Storm Town, Sabred Sentries and Rush Through Cafe's and Restaurants, Kill German Officers Who Were Dining There and Escape Alive.

SUBMARINES UNDAMAGED

Terror of The Sea Believed to Have Been Responsible for Sinking of Three Cruisers—Returns to Port Apparently Undamaged

BULLETIN
Paris, Sept. 23.—A Petrograd correspondent of the Lepetit Journal wires: "Sixty Circassian troops have just accomplished a daring raid into Tchenstovskov which was occupied by Germans."

"The raiders stormed the town, sabred all the sentries, swept through the cafes and restaurants, killing many of the German officers dining there and then retired with derisive cheers."

BULLETIN
Paris, Sept. 23.—An official communication issued tonight says there has been no change on the battle front since the issuance of the afternoon report.

BULLETIN
New York, Sept. 23.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador tonight denied authenticity of the Washington interview attributed to Baron Von Schoen in which the possibility of a war between the United States and Japan was dwelt upon.

BULLETIN
London, Sept. 23.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says the German submarine "U-9" has returned to port undamaged. According to Berlin reports the "U-9" alone was responsible for the sinking of three British cruisers in the North Sea Tuesday.

BULLETIN
London, Sept. 23.—A Central News dispatch from Paris says a German cruiser and two torpedo boats have been sunk by a Russian Cruiser in the Baltic.

(Special to the Press.)

London, Sept. 23.—The swift and silent destruction of three big cruisers which cost $12,000,000 has brought home the risks of modern naval warfare. Unseen, the enemy crept upon the Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy and one after another the cruisers keeled and sank. The whole affair was over in 20 minutes.

The survivors, who were brought to Dutch and British ports, declare there were three German submarines in the attacking force; some say five and that the cruiser Cressy or Lowestoft, accounted for two of them. The admiralty, however, does not confirm the statement that any German craft was destroyed and it is possible none was even seen.

Neither the navy nor the nation, as their feeling is voiced in newspapers, is dismayed, and the call on the admiralty is for more aggressive action.

The British public finds some compensation for these losses in the statement of the admiralty last night that the command of the sea had resulted in the maintenance of ocean traffic by 4,000 merchantmen with a loss of only 12 by capture since the beginning of the war.

The battle of the entrenched armies in France is progressing with great losses and apparently without and decisive gain by either side. The question military men here are discussing is whether the Germans have definitely assumed the defensive on their west or whether the German general staff regards the retirement from Paris as a temporary reverse to be followed by an attempt at retrieving lost ground between Peronne and St. Quentin.

The forces under Con Kluck, commander of the German right wing, evacuated Peronne Friday, since which time desperate fighting has taken place for possession of the town. The British are reported to be repelling the German attacks with great cost to both sides.

No change in the last two or three days in the battle lines along the main front has been noted. The latest reports from the British army under General French describe the general features of the fighting up to September 18 without geographic details. The estimates of casualties of the allies during the battle of the Aisne, which will be the historic name of the present conflict, is not published yet.

London, Sept. 23.—A correspondent under the date of Sunday, from an unnamed place telegraphs that the German right has been turned between Peronne and St. Quentin. He also tells of the arrival of wounded who bring stories that there are nine miles of dead in the trenches between the two towns.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The French embassy announces: "The German left wing in Lorraine has crossed the French border and re-occupied Romeve, Nomeny and Dilm."

Describing the engagement on the right bank of the river Oise, the embassy is advised that the Germans were forced back.

"The enemy then directed a movement toward St. Baussant and Limey. In Serbia the telegram states a battle has been in progress for a week in the region of Krupanj."

London, Sept. 23.—A Petrograd dispatch says the Russian troops in eastern Prussia are falling back in perfect order taking with them their stores and wounded. What they are unable to take they are destroying.

Paris, Sept. 23.—On an official statement the French headquarters declares: "After severe fighting we have advanced on the German western wing. We also have repulsed the German attacks on the eastern wing."

Berlin, Sept. 23.—The German admiralty reports the destruction yesterday, of three British cruisers in the North sea, accomplished by the German submarine, U-9, singlehanded.

TREASURY SECRETARY SLAPS NATIONAL BANKS

(Special to the Press.)
Washington, Sept. 23.—Secretary of Treasury McAdoo today threatened a severe discipline for national banks which may hoard money, refuse reasonable accommodations or charge excessive rates of interest. He declared that he would withdraw government deposits from such banks. He said there was no necessity for hoarding money. A daily list of the banks maintaining excessive reserves will be published by the treasury department in order that the public may know the banks which are keeping money out of circulation.

HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE TO REPORT ON TWO BILLS

(Special to the Press.)
Washington, Sept. 23.—The House Rules committee today decided to report the rule for the war tax bill limiting the debate to seven hours and another rule for the bill providing for the government ownership of vessels limiting the debate to eight hours. The first bill will come up tomorrow and probably be passed Friday. It is expected the government ownership vessels bill will come up about next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker have returned to their home at the Chemical Plant Location after a visit of several weeks in Tennessee and Alabama. Mr. and Mrs. N. Edoin and Mrs. Ironidine of Montreal, Quebec, are in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edoin on Wells, Ave.

VILLA BREAKS

BULLETIN
Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 23.—A general mobilization of all troops in Northern Mexico loyal to Carranza is under way at Monterey according to reports current in Matamoros opposite Brownsville tonight.

BULLETIN
Mexico City, Sept. 23.—Manuel Bonilla Minister of communications in the cabinet of President Madero and a number of other persons were arrested yesterday and incarcerated in a penitentiary. No reasons for arrests were given.

(Special to the Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 23.—General Francisco Villa has split with the Provisional President Carranza and is in an open revolt against the first chief according to reports from various points on the border. Confirmation of the report was received by the military commander at Nuevo Laredo tonight in an official telegram from Mexico City announcing that Carranza had issued a manifesto in which it was stated that Villa had disavowed Carranza as "First Chief" of the constitutionalists and that the breach between the two factions was permanent. Villa is rushing troops south from Chihuahua. Their destination is believed to be Zacatecas, where ten thousand men of the constitutionalist army are reported to have appeared suddenly on Tuesday night and fortified the town after having cut all railroad and telegraph lines to the northward.

Villa has seized all the coal between Juarez and Torreon and has ordered the annulment of all train service until the movement of his troops is accomplished.

(Special to the Press.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—General Villa has defied the Provisional President Carranza and has set up an independent Government in Mexico. Both leaders have thrown their armies into the field and there is every indication that a battle will be fought probably at Zacatecas within a few hours. Carranza has suspended all railway communication between Torreon and Aguas Calientes and Villa has seized the northern railways.

Villa has announced that he will participate in the convention of generals and governors scheduled for Oct. 1, in Mexico City at which a provisional President was to be designated.

The Carranza headquarters says that Villa is holding General Obregon as a prisoner.

COUPLE TO TAKE VOWS HERE TODAY

At St. Anne's church at 7.30 o'clock this morning Miss Anna Villemure will become the bride of Mr. Arthur Harvey. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Cora Villemure while Mr. Thomas Powers will serve as groomsmen. A number of friends and relatives will witness the ceremony of this morning and following the service members of the wedding party will go to the home of the bride where an elaborate wedding breakfast will be served. At 11 o'clock the couple will leave for a short honeymoon trip.

The bride is popular with a large circle of friends in the city while the groom numbers his friends by the score. He is employed as bookkeeper for the Michigan Tanning & Extract Company and is second lieutenant of Company A, St. Patrick's Boys Brigade.

One of the most beautiful gifts received by the couple was that sent by members of Company A.

BOYS ARE ARRESTED AT LEXINGTON FOR MICH. ROBBERY

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 23.—Dewey Walker and Howard Pirtle, 18 and 16 respectively of Flint, Mich., were arrested here today charged with robbing a store at Flint. They had a suit case filled with clothing and automatic pistols. They will be taken back to Flint tomorrow.

Fred Dewey left for Chicago Tuesday evening, having visited in the city at the home of Mrs. N. Jaeger.

WILL ORGANIZE UNIFORM RANK

A special meeting of the Escanaba lodge of Knights of Pythias will be held on Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the Uniformed rank of the order in this city. Chancellor Commander Charles Folio has received all of the necessary documents for the institution of the Uniformed Rank chapter here and marked interest has been aroused among the members in the project. The list of names enrolled on Friday evening will be forwarded to Maj. Gen. W. H. Loomis, of Grand Rapids and later he will come here to formally institute the organization.

BIG CUT IS INDICATED

TOTAL MOVEMENT OF ORE TO SEPT. 1 OF THIS YEAR BUT 21,000,000 TONS. LIGHT TOTAL IS PROSPECT

Up to Sept. 1, but 21,000,000 tons of ore had been moved from upper lake ports this season, compared with over 32,000,000 tons shipped last season up to Sept. 1. The indications now are that not to exceed 35,000,000 tons will be moved during the entire season of navigation and it is possible that the season's total may not go above the 30,000,000 ton mark. The total movement of ore last season was approximately 50,000,000 tons.

The movement will be one of the lightest in a decade. In 1908 only 26,000,000 tons went east. In 1911, only 33,000,000 tons were shipped, and in 1905, but 34,500,000 tons went forward. Since 1907, with the exception of 1911, there have been shipped yearly from 42,500,000 to 50,000,000 tons, the latter figure being that of last year, the largest on record. The following table shows comparative figures of the shipments to Sept. 1 this year and last

Martin Swanson left last evening for the North Western University at Evanston, Ill., where he will resume his studies in the Medical Department.

POSITION IS CLEAR

Mayor O. P. Chatfield yesterday issued a statement in regard to the saloon closing question which follows. The Mayor stated to the Press last night that he is backed up in his fight by two thirds of the saloon owners of the county and those opposing him will be closely watched and dealt with according to the provisions of the saloon laws of the state.

Mayor Chatfield's announcement follows: "There has been complaints made to me in reference to two saloons. The complainants told me that they had direct evidence against these two places. I wish to again call the attention of all interested, to this matter once more. I have twenty-five saloon men with me in this fight. They want to close their places at 11 p. m. week days and from 11 p. m. Saturday to 6 a. m. Monday which is in accordance with my orders. Any saloon that is open contrary to law is taking undue advantage of his competitors. In order to make it a square deal for all any person or persons violating my order will be forewarned to revoke their license. Now gentlemen it is up to you. I shall do my duty as I see it."

Signed, O. P. CHATFIELD, Mayor.

MAPLE RIDGE MEN ARE SENTENCED TO COUNTY JAIL

Tony Coltutus and Tony Berch, both of Maple Ridge, were yesterday arraigned in Justice McEwen's court, the former on a drunk charge and the latter on an assault and battery charge. Both were sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Card party and luncheon given by the M. B. A. at the Odd Fellows hall tonight. Everybody is welcome. 267-11.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gunkel left last evening for a visit with relatives at Milwaukee, and Irma, Wis.

Miss Gertrude Jaeger, R. N., left for Chicago having been in the city to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Catherine Jaeger to Fred Dewey.

RAILROAD IS CO-OPERATING

COL. C. W. MOTT, PENINSULA DEVELOPMENT BUREAU, HAS ARTICLE IN MILWAUKEE PAPER, DESCRIBING BOOSTING WORK FOR CLOVERLAND

By C. W. Mott, Secretary-Manager Upper Peninsula Development Bureau of Michigan.

During the past few years and that portion of the year 1914 we have passed through there has been an unusual amount of agitation and discontentment among all classes of people.

The commercial, manufacturing and transportation enterprises have been asking what is the matter.

The work of the political reformer has exceeded his value, for this class of people have produced a feeling of unrest and discontentment.

There is an uncertainty of knowledge of what is going to happen tomorrow.

The influence of the professional reformer has secured and produced an unlimited number of state and government commissions which seek to control and operate many lines of business.

The membership of these commissions is largely composed of men who seek such office for their own political and personal advancement, they are given the power by law to control many lines of business which they have little knowledge of.

What would be the result if the Elgin Watch Company was controlled by a political commission which had the power to control the prices, sales and production of its watches? And if this commission was composed of political reformers who had no knowledge or information on the watch subject that institution would be in the same condition or position that the railroads of the United States are today.

STEPHENSON'S HAD AN EXCITING TIME

After an exciting experience when their yacht, the Stephia, went aground on Whaleback reef, off Washington Island, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stephenson returned to their home here yesterday. The Menominee Herald Leader says:

The pleasure yacht, Stephia, owned by Grant Stephenson of Escanaba, went aground on the Whaleback reef north of Washington Island last night at 8 o'clock, and it was necessary for Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stephenson and son Thomas, to put ashore for Cedar River. The yacht was pulled off late this afternoon. The damage has not yet been estimated.

The Stephenson family reached the Menominee harbor yesterday afternoon in the yacht from Fish Creek where Mrs. Stephenson was spending the summer. At 6 o'clock they started for Wells, Mich., and two hours later the boat went aground on the reef north of Washington Island.

Fearing to remain on the yacht all night while the heavy seas pounded her the Stephensons as well as the crew went ashore in the gasoline life boat which is carried by the Stephia.

This afternoon the Tug Satisfaction succeeded in pulling the pleasure yacht from the reef and she was towed to Cedar River where the extent of her damage will be learned. The Stephia is an ocean going pleasure yacht built along lines similar to the Bonita, Senator Stephenson's yacht, and is manned by six sailors.

LOCAL OFFICERS RETURN FROM TRIP TO MARQUETTE

Prosecutor T. E. Strom, Chief of Police Andrew Iverson and Motor Cop Joseph Carney, returned to their homes in the city on Tuesday evening after going to Marquette to testify in the bribery case of Doc Wing, who was arrested here some time ago. The local men did not testify however, as Wing pleaded guilty upon his appearance.

While in Marquette, however, the local officials visited the Northern State Prison.

Card party and luncheon given by the M. B. A. at the Odd Fellows hall tonight. Everybody is welcome. 267-11.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gunkel left last evening for a visit with relatives at Milwaukee, and Irma, Wis. Miss Gertrude Jaeger, R. N., left for Chicago having been in the city to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Catherine Jaeger to Fred Dewey.

TWO KEEPERS ARE ARRESTED

Because of the fact that they were open after hours, Frank Paquin and Louis Anderson, local saloon keepers were arrested on Tuesday night by Officer Hugh Eearly. Yesterday morning the two men were arraigned in Justice Emil Glaser's court and their examination was set for next Monday morning.

Mayor Chatfield has stated that he will insist that the saloon laws be obeyed to the letter and with the assistance of three quarters of the saloon keepers will endeavor to secure evidence to convict.

RESULTS ARE NOW SHOWN

UPPER PENINSULA DEVELOPMENT BUREAU HAS DEMONSTRATED ITS WORK TO THE PEOPLE

Col. C. W. Mott, manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, spent yesterday in Escanaba.

Through the efforts of Col. Mott for the development Bureau, Cloverland has secured more publicity in the past three years than in the previous 20 year period.

An article that is published in another portion of this issue, was printed in all of the editions of the Evening Wisconsin of Milwaukee on Saturday and Monday, with the accompanying cuts, giving wide publicity to the work that is being accomplished in this district.

To have secured such advantageous advertising of the advantages actually possessed by this district even ten years ago would have been impossible.

In the past three years Col. Mott has secured for the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau the publication of articles in newspapers of high standing in every section of the country, on Cloverland that have broken down the ancient prejudice against this district and have resulted in an unprecedented immigration to the peninsula. The very fact that favorable advertising is now being secured in the outside press, where formerly unfavorable reports were published, is magnificent evidence of the value of the bureau to this district. It is an organization that should receive the support and hearty co-operation of every citizen of Cloverland.

ESCANABAN IS AT FRONT

Marvin Burnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burnham of this city, who recently joined the Sixth Battalion of the Second Brigade of Canadian Volunteers, sailed on Tuesday with his company for the European war field in France. The young man was working in the Canadian wheat fields when the war broke out in Europe and he at once enlisted. With Canada's contribution of soldiers, numbering 40,000 men he was started on Tuesday for the war zone. On the eve of his departure he wrote to his parents here of his action and they will now have a personal interest in the outcome of the terrible conflict.

MANY PEOPLE VISIT FAIR STORE SHOW

Delightful in the extreme was the regular fall opening at the Fair store yesterday. Early in the afternoon the crowds began to throng the store and before much time had passed the women's departments of the store were filled to the over flowing with Escanaba women eager to see the latest in fads and fall creations.

To the Press last night, Mark Train, manager of the Suit and Cloak department of the Fair store stated that the biggest demand this fall would be for broadcloths made up in the 45 and 51 inch styles. Last night the show rooms and the display parlors of the store were filled with patrons of the store, trying on the coats, suits and dresses. Although little effort was made to make sales yesterday, the women of Escanaba last night possessed a real idea of what will be worn by women this fall and winter.

LAD FORGER IS ARRESTED

LAD FORGER BOY OF 21, TAKEN BY DEPUTY SHERIFF AFTER HE HAD PASSED SEVERAL CHECKS

After he had forged three checks and passed them upon local firms yesterday afternoon Earl C. Sanders was arrested by Deputy Sheriff George Curran after a brief chase near the Northwestern station last evening as he was about to leave the city aboard a passenger train.

At 5 o'clock as Sheriff Curran was passing the First National Bank one of the officials called to him and told the county official of the forged checks that had been turned into the bank by the E. C. Wickert Feed Company. The official at once secured a description of the man passing the check and then sent four deputies in all directions in the city that the forger might not escape. Shortly after 6 o'clock the lad was taken by Deputy Sheriff Curran only after a chase in which it was necessary for the officer

SITUATION REALIZED

The following statement was issued yesterday by the Delta County Hotel Liquor Dealers Association: Through the county the people are coming to a realization of what Prohibition for this county would mean. The confiscation of a million dollars worth of property; the emptying of over 250 buildings now paying good rentals and the cutting off of $60,000 now received from the sale of liquor license, has down to the property owners that a condition would be created by prohibition would be unbearable. A great majority of the people are primarily fair in their inclinations and the fact that prohibition would absolutely confiscate one million dollars worth of property without any remuneration what-so-ever to the owners of that property, has appealed to the fair-minded as unjust and untenable.

In the city of Escanaba alone, were the money received from the sale of liquor licenses set aside for six years the entire indebtedness of the city would be paid off, as an evidence of what a legalized business is doing for this community.

Circulators of local option petitions are finding it increasingly hard to secure signers as the people come to a realization of what the signing of a local option petition may lead to.

Daily many who have already signed the petitions and who now have realized their errors, are sending in their withdrawal cards and it is now a serious question as to whether a sufficient number of names will be secured to submit the question in this county.

Is Prohibition Christian or Mohammedan?

In Deuteronomy, 14th chapter, 26 verse, God says: "And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink."

In taking His position on the drink question, God became specific and made His meaning perfectly clear. If God permits us to spend our money "for wine or strong drink" who has the right to forbid?

You cannot find within the lids of the Bible a single passage rightly interpreted that supports the principle of prohibition. If you could find a passage showing that it was wrong to spend money for strong drink—morally wrong to use liquor—criminal to supply the demand, it would place God and the Bible on both sides of the question, and absolutely destroy the respect of mankind for God, for Christ, and for the Bible.

However, prohibitionists have a bible that supports their contention, and which is worshipped by millions of people. On page 129 this bible states:

"O true believers, surely wine is an abomination of the works of Satan." This is the Mohammedan Bible the Koran. Mohammed was a prohibitionist. Prohibition is a cardinal doctrine of the Mohammedan religion. Notwithstanding this, the Turks from the most criminal, poverty-ridden nation on this earth.

The Christian Bible is again Prohibition. The Koran is for it. Take your choice. Does your minister preach Christianity or Mohammedanism? Signed: The Delta County Hotel and Liquor Dealers' Association.

IN THE FRONT RANKS.

There is a story from Paris, frequently repeated, about the utilization of the Apaches.

These desperate and bloody criminals of the slums have been herded into the army. They are, of course, subject to military service just as are the useful member of society. There is no escape for them.

And France is said to have found one good thing in war by placing these degenerate and undesirable beings where they will have the best chance of getting killed. Except under most extraordinary provocation, France is too humane to use the guillotine. She would like to herd herself into the front ranks of the regiments and compelling them to die for their country in order that better men may have a chance for life, is a different matter. It appeals to the French sense of justice; for, whether the story is true or not, it is relished by the French narrators of it.

Logically and ethically, the arrangement is unassailable. The Apache, as a member of society in time of peace, is not merely useless. He contributes nothing to the general good, but takes something from the body politic—namely, a living to which he is not entitled. If, in time of war, he can be made to pay for what he has taken, there is no wrong.

DUMDUMS.

Germany and France have both been officially charged with using dum-dum bullets. Both have denied the charge. Both are probably sincere and honest in the denial. And yet dum-dums are probably being used by both sides.

The more humane bullets may easily be transformed into dum-dums by the individual soldier in a vengeful mood. All that is required is the cutting of little nicks, which can be done with a jack-knife. The utmost vigilance on the part of the officers could not prevent such clandestine operation.

The private soldier going to battle under such strain as that which is now felt in Europe is not likely to have human thoughts of his adversaries. He wishes to inflict the maximum amount of damage. If a little work with a jack-knife will increase his chances of killing someone the jack-knife is almost certain to be used. Meanwhile it is ridiculous to charge that either France or Germany is supplying soldiers with ready-made dum-dums.

The most exclusive newspaper in the world has a circulation of 2. It is printed for the czar and his secretary. The advertising rates must be reckoned "not on the quantity but the quality of the circulation."

It comes out that Australia fired the first shot in the war between England and Germany. However, that wasn't the shot that precipitated the conflict—England never heard of it till yesterday.

With the opposition to Tammany split half a dozen ways the big sachem is sleeping soundly of nights and is wishing everyone success in the work of dividing the vote.

Gen. Benjamin Hill is the name of the latest Mexican revolutionist. Villa has gone after him, and even his un-dixian label is not likely to save him.

Gen. Coxy is reported as declaring that the national banking system is all wrong. Yet, if reports be true, it has saved the general fairly well.

Now that Mrs. Bryan has endorsed suffrage, will the congressional union's hostility to the party in power be assuaged?

And how will the Russians change the dachshund's honored name, if they catch him without a white flag?

None of the war poets has as yet attempted to rhyme Przemysl with domicile, or with anything else.

Our honored guests, the Belgians, were sure of a soothing welcome.

WAR

(Continued from page one.) Harwich, Eng., Sept. 23.—It is computed here that seven hundred men from the British cruisers Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue were saved. Thirty uninjured officers, survivors of the three sunken warships, arrived here tonight. They had been rescued from the water. Eighty other survivors were landed at Parkstone quay, three miles west of Harwich.

Amsterdam, Sept. 23.—The correspondent of the Handelsblad interviewed at Ymuiden, Holland, one of the survivors of the battle between the German submarines and the British cruisers in the North sea.

"We were navigating with the cruisers in the North sea in beautiful weather," the survivor is reported as saying. "This morning at 6 o'clock the Aboukir was hit in several places and disappeared within five minutes.

"The other men-of-war thought the Aboukir had struck a mine, as no hostile ships could be seen. They lowered their boats. A few minutes later the Hogue was hit and sank. In a short time the Cressy also was torpedoed and sank at about 8 o'clock."

London, Sept. 23.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Spreewald has been captured by the British cruiser Berwick in the North Atlantic ocean, according to an announcement by the admiralty tonight. It was stated also that two colliers had been captured. The Spreewald was fitted out as an armed cruiser.

The total number of German vessels, which, according to latest reports have been captured by British vessels at sea or by British port authorities is ninety-two. Seventy British vessels were held in German ports at the commencement of hostilities, and since then twelve British sea-going vessels out of the four thousand carrying on over-sea trade have been captured or sunk at sea.

London, Sept. 23.—The German steamer Professor Woermann, of the Woermann line, with three hundred German reservist on board, has been taken captive and brought into Sierra Leon, on the west coast of Africa, according to information which has reached London.

Petrograd, via London, Sept. 23.—Russian troops have occupied the fortified Austrian position of Jaroslau, according to an official announcement made here today. The Russian flag is now flying over the town.

Jaroslau is an important railroad center. A bridge near the town crosses the San and commands the passage of that river. The town is seventeen miles north-northwest of Przemysl and 1 son the railroad line between Lemberg and Cracow.

London, Sept. 23.—The Russians have followed up their successes in Galicia, where a third great battle is now being started, by capturing the important fortress of Jaroslau, on the river San, just north of Przemysl, which the forces of Emperor Nicholas are surrounding.

Jaroslau commands the passage of the San river, and its possession will greatly assist the Russians in their operations against Przemysl, where a strong Austro-German force is prepared to offer stubborn resistance in the hope of at least detaining the Russian armies which are needed to take the offensive against Germany.

The Servians report another victory over the Austrians, who thus far have suffered severely on all sides. This engagement occurred near Kroupani, on the Drina, where the Austrians attempted to engage the Servians, but were driven back. This attack accounts for the Servian evacuation of Semlin, as the troops were needed to stem the Austrian offensive movement.

There is a rumor that Essad Pasha, the former Albanian minister of war, as a result of an agreement with the Servian government will lead an Albanian army into Herzegovina by way of Cattaro.

London, Sept. 23.—The Rome correspondent of the Star says the Servian and Montenegrin troops have occupied Sarajevo, which was abandoned by the Austrians, after an overwhelming defeat.

Sarajevo is the capital of Bosnia. It is a fortified town of some twenty-seven thousand inhabitants. It manufactures copper, brass and iron-ware, copper goods and tobacco. It was here that Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austrian throne, and his wife were assassinated shortly before Austria declared war on Servia.

Nish, Servia, Sept. 23.—Prince George of Servia has again been wounded, this time while leading the charge of a Servian battalion. A rifle bullet penetrated the trunk of his body. It is the opinion his life is not in danger. Prince George was first wounded at Belgrade; that was the early part of August.

London, Sept. 23.—Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, has approved Chancellor Lloyd-George's proposal for the formation of a Welsh army corps. Plans are now being prepared for recruiting throughout Wales.

London, Sept. 23.—The official press bureau tonight issued a casualty list, under date of Sept. 17, which shows twenty-eight officers killed, forty-two wounded and fourteen missing. Three officers previously reported as missing have returned to their commands. Of other ranks, 130 wounded and 202 missing are reported.

Ottawa, Sept. 23.—More than two hundred guns will be placed at the disposal of the British forces by the Canadian authorities, according to an announcement today by Premier Borden. In addition, the Canadian expeditionary force will carry seventy field guns and many machine guns as its own equipment. The expedition, comprising 21,200 men, will be dispatched immediately. It was announced tonight.

London, Sept. 23.—Telegraphing from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Central News says it is reported there that General Stelmets of the German artillery, was killed in France, Sept. 15.

The correspondent says that reports from Liege declare that the Germans have brought the fortresses into such condition that they again may be used for defense.

Paris, Sept. 23.—Wounded soldiers who are commencing to arrive here from the region of Craonne describe the battle there Sunday and Monday as having been deadly to the German troops, which, they say were sacrificed by their officers without apparent reason.

Though pushed back with great slaughter, some of the wounded say, the Germans returned again and again, only to be mowed down by the French. One entire regiment, it was declared, was wiped out, and when the French took possession of the field they found a thousand dead left by the Germans.

Trenches that had been carefully prepared for resisting the allies' advance were filled with bodies. A superior officer among the wounded estimates the German losses in this engagement alone at seven thousand.

London, Sept. 23.—The Daily Mail's correspondent reports that the German right has been turned between Peronne and St. Quentin. He says that during all Sunday night wounded have been arriving at an unnamed place. They report there are nine miles of dead in trenches between those two towns.

London, Sept. 23.—General Louis Botha, premier and minister of agriculture of the Union of South Africa, will take supreme command of the British operations against German Southwest Africa.

Nairobi, B. E. A., via London, Sept. 23.—A British force, the strength of which is not known, attacked a fort twenty miles from the border in the Voi district Sept. 19. After an hour's sharp fighting, the Germans retired, leaving eight dead.

"And this," said the alleged old soldier, posturing a long-suffering editor who was an old soldier, "is where Arabs were massed in front of us. Here"—pointing to another place on a dirty post-map—"is where our division was drawn up in sarabs. We deployed in this direction, and our left wing was attacked by the enemy on this knoll. Just at this point I was wounded on the left shoulder, and a hundred yards further on I got my right arm shattered by a piece of one of our own shells, and—" "But," interrupted the bored editor, "where did you get your brains blown out?"—London Times.

These commissions have the power to fix the price of the service rendered by the railroad company's without providing any revenue to pay the fixed charges or cost of the same.

No private business would submit to the actions of a political commission, supported by laws created by political influence, without an uprising or riot.

While the railroads are public utilities, they have, up to date, been paid for by the money of private individuals. Widows and orphans hold stock and have invested their means in the creation of railroads, which are proven public necessities, and these widows and orphans should receive, without political dictation, a reasonable interest on the money they have invested in railroad enterprises.

The Chicago & NorthWestern Railway has been exceedingly fortunate under the many years of leadership of Mr. Marvin Hughitt, and has always born a reputation of fairness and honesty, and while its actions are sometimes conservative, they have al-

& NorthWestern Railway, and a liberal amount of commercial fertilizer was purchased and applied to the land. The care and culture of the potatoes has been under the supervision of the Roadmaster, and the service has been rendered by the section men, and the result is that they are five beautiful patches of potatoes, all grown on different varieties of soil.

The most conspicuous of these patches is that at Sands, which is located in a barren, sandy, Jackpine county, which many agricultural experts have declared to be of little value as a crop producing soil. This Sands patch has exceeded all the others in appearance so far. Each of these thousand hills of potatoes will exceed in quantity and quality the yield that can be grown on land that has been worked for many years in other states.

The patch at Daggett is on a soil that is largely muck land and with the advantage of drainage this soil produces cabbage, cauliflower, Spanish onions and potatoes of quality, also rye and other cereals.

The crops of potatoes at the different stations far exceeds many of the adjacent potato fields that have ways been reasonable and just towards many different manufacturing and commercial enterprises located on its line who were unable to succeed without help. It has always taken a heart and honest interest in the success and upbuilding of the country which it traverses.

It has done many things to promote and cultivate lines of perfection among those who are engaged and interested in agriculture.

As an example, Cloverland, which is the fifteen counties of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, has not been born a reputation as being a good agricultural country. It has been advertised as a mining and lumbering country, and the public thought but little of the value of the soil as a crop producer. After satisfactory tests and the cultivation of many acres of land, both in general farming and in beef raising and dairying, it has proven itself to be of great value. There are many favorable conditions, such as being close to market, having a good soil, an abundance of spring water, a good climate, also having unusually favorable transportation facilities both by rail and by water.

Its soil has proven to be more successful in the production of fruit, grasses, potatoes, sugar beets and cereals than almost any location in the middle western states, and exceptionally favorable conditions exist which makes this an ideal location for dairying and beef raising.

Now in order to establish this information with the public and wash away prejudice that has been established and even supported by those who seemed to have an opportunity for investigation which they did not take advantage of, many different lines of co-operation in carrying and establishing facts of the merit of this country are being rendered in many ways through the influence of many people.

As an example of perfect co-operation between the farmers of Cloverland and the Traffic Department of the Chicago & NorthWestern Railway, aided by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, the Chicago & NorthWestern Railway has paid all the expenses in establishing five potato patches, consisting of a thousand hills in each patch, located on their right-of-way near the following stations: Daggett in Menominee County, Maple Ridge and Lathrop in Delta County, and Sands and Negaunee in Marquette County.

This ground was prepared, cultivated and ploughed by the section men at these respective stations. The seed was purchased by the Chicago

Moses and the Commandments.

A simple cross marks the spot which investigators of Sinai have decided is the place where Moses read out to the children of Israel the laws of God. The mountain itself must stand for the monument. Rus Safsaf, the elevation on which the cross stands, is wild, barren and rocky. About three hundred yards from the base of the mountain there runs across the plain a low, semi-circular mound which forms a kind of natural theater; while farther distant, on either side of the plain, the slopes of the enclosing mountains would afford seats to an almost unlimited number of spectators. Not far off there is an extensive recess which was probably used as a camping ground. No spot on the whole peninsula is so well supplied with water and pasturage.—Strand Magazine.

Surprise for Miss LaFave. Miss Edith LaFave was the victim of a very pleasant surprise, when a number of her friends invaded her home last evening, and held her to celebrate the anniversary of her birth. The evening was passed in playing games, and music was furnished, following refreshments were served. Miss LaFave received many beautiful and useful gifts from those present.

WOMEN EAGER TO FILL SOLDIERS' JOBS

London, Sept. 23.—Remarkable testimony to the eagerness with which women want to fill the places of men who have been called away from England to fight for their country is given by the Women's Emergency Corps, which, under leadership of the Duchess of Marlborough, has compiled a register of upwards of 15,000 names of women who desire to be of service.

"How diverse the jobs they seek," says Mrs. Flora Annie Steel, in writing of the work of the Women's Emergency Corps, "may be guessed by the entries of over 100 interpreters—none of whom speak less than four languages, and some of them eleven—of more than 200 expert horsewomen ready at a few hours notice to serve at home or abroad, and who are quite capable of managing or working in remount camps. Many of these having shot and camped all over the world, are eminently suited for rough work. Then there are 150 expert motorcyclists eager for patrol or despatch work, and endless stalwart young women for such jobs as omnibus conducting, milk delivering gardening and the farm work that is generally done by lads of nineteen or twenty.

"Of course, behind and beyond these more or less freak volunteers comes the great army of nurses, domestic workers, clerical agents, and the numberless well educated intelligent women who are fully capable of shop and general business work. Naturally enough, qualified doctors, nurses and dispensers are drafted out as soon as they come in. Cooks and domestic servants follow suit; but every day's register points to the fact that we have here a mighty agent for the national good.

Will Meet Men's Obligations.

"And so the Women's Emergency Corps feels itself justified in making an offer to the war office, the government and country at large—namely that they are prepared to find a paid substitute for any man who enlists; such substitute to guarantee to leave the job on the man's return and to take over the man's belongings as a personal charge; that is to say, while not blinding himself to give pecuniary assistance, she will see to it that allowances are duly paid, that relief in special circumstances is given, and generally, so far as in her lies, stand as a friend between the man's dependents and the cold world.

This is a big offer, it is one which naturally, will require adjustment to each individual case; but it is one which holds enormous advantages, enormous possibilities."

Miss Esther Hendricks has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Poy Meat Market at Gladstone. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roland and daughter have returned from a visit at Milwaukee.

Miss Margaret Hendricks visited with her sister at Gladstone last evening. Mrs. E. Deacon of Ingalls is the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Collins.

Miss Genevieve Carroll of Marinette arrived in the city last evening.

BRITONS SEND THANKS TO PRESIDENT WILSON

London, Sept. 23.—Thanks of the British National Peace council has been sent to President Woodrow Wilson for his efforts in behalf of peace. The letter is as follows: "The President of the United States of America, the White House, D. C. Sir: I am directed by this council representing forty-two British organizations, to express to you the profound thanks with which it noted your suggestion of mediation and good offices under the terms of The Hague convention, made to the powers engaged in the present terrible war in Europe.

"The National Peace council is well aware that at the present moment such mediation will not be accepted by any of the belligerent nations, but it looks with confidence to the United States linked as it is to every nation in Europe, to avail itself of the first suitable offer which if it lead to the re-establishment of peace, will deservedly and undoubtedly earn for you, sir, and your country the gratitude and the affection of millions of suffering men and women.

"I am, sir with deepest respect, on behalf of the council, your obedient servant, "Secretary."

DRUG PRICES ON THE INCREASE

New York, Sept. 23.—The people of the United States are already paying a heavy tax in the higher prices for drugs and medicines. Since the beginning of the European conflict the prices of some of the popular remedies have advanced as much as 300 per cent.

South Belgium, Germany and France grow many plants possessing medicinal virtues, and Germany, with her established research laboratories, has led in obtaining the derivatives and utilizing by-products.

Derivatives from belladonna leaves are cited as among the drugs that have been soaring in price. One article, formerly selling at $45 an ounce, now commands $180 and another has advanced from $20 to $120. Crude opium has gone up 33 per cent and 100 per cent has been added to the cost of gum camphor from Formosa.

Glycerine, produced in the manufacture of soap and used in explosives, is 40 per cent higher as a result of the war. Ichthyol, a dried fish product, is off the market entirely. Salvarsan, an arsenical preparation selling at $3.50 before the war, is now quoted at $10.

A patented preparation selling in Canada at 25 cents, under a label "Not for exportation to the United States," commands $1 here, and a mineral oil, from Russia, is up 300 per cent.

All brittle goods are higher. England, France and Germany produce 50 per cent of all the brushes, and of the remainder, 50 per cent comes from Japan. Caustic potash, for soap making, is quoted at 23c a pound, against 37-8 wholesale while Europe was at peace. France has led in developing perfumes and toilet articles, as Germany has in chemicals, and the dainty extracts, such as still are available, are bringing fabulous prices.

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all our friends and neighbors who so kindly aided us during the time of the death of our infant son. We wish to thank all who sent floral offerings. Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanson, 1109 Hartnett Ave.

SAYS GERMANS PLAN TO DESTROY LONDON

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 23.—A. C. Graenzlein, coach of the German Olympic team, who has just returned to America, believes that Germany will dispatch the city by means of a secret explosive.

"I believe that ultimately we will lose in this greatest of wars," declared Mr. Graenzlein, "for the simple reason that the odds of all kinds are too great against us. But before Germany realizes that her land and sea forces are utterly defeated I fully expect to awaken some morning to learn that London has been almost blotted from the map. I know that it is Germany's intention to strike two terrible blows, one at Paris and one at London. I believe a fleet of Zeppelins could sail to London in a night and create such havoc as would rock the world.

"Germany is especially equipped for such warfare, for she holds the secret of the most powerful explosive in the world, halamite, which has been referred to in news dispatches recently as a new and wonderful explosive. The chief property of this is that its explosive force extends in all directions, instead of merely downward or upward, as in the case with most other known explosives."

PASTOR QUILTS; KISS IS CAUSE?

Aurora, Ill.—Did the Rev. Iro Karkness, a former University of Chicago student and pastor of the Wasco Baptist church, kiss a Wasco girl goodnight?

Did the girl tell an intimate friend in strict confidence?

How did the secret get out? These are the questions of the day in Wasco. They have annoyed and vexed the pastor. He will remain but three more Sundays in his pulpit. Next month he will enter the employ of a five and ten cent store at Quincy.

Deacons Deny It. Deacons of the church deny any kissing episode had a bearing on the Rev. Mr. Karkness' resignation. They further declare the Rev. Mr. Karkness decided to leave the ministry and go into business at Quincy because it seemed it promised more.

The Rev. Mr. Karkness is tall and broad shouldered, rather good looking, although of stern bearing. He has been going with a delightfully pretty and vivacious Wasco girl.

Son of a Clergyman. He is the son of a clergyman and has eight or nine brothers, most of them pastors.

Floyd Borgland, a member of the church, said Mr. Karkness might have kissed the girl, but that it was all right if he had.

"She is a classy girl," he said. There is nothing to the kissing story, however. We all like Mr. Karkness. He did fine work here and we do not want him to go. He has been offered a position at Quincy which he considers too good to refuse, and has resigned. The resignation was not accepted by the deacons, but Karkness insisted on leaving."

BUSINESS CONDITIONS GOOD IN MICHIGAN

Washington, Sept. 23.—Business conditions in the country are good, firms are planning extensive advertising campaigns and there is no foundation for the criticisms of calamity howlers according to telegrams read into the Congressional Record by Congressman Francis of Ohio. A Chicago firm sent telegrams inquiring about business conditions to many leading business men of the country including a number in Michigan. Replies were universally optimistic.

J. L. Hamilton, president of the Alabastine Co., Grand Rapids, said: "Europe's calamity is America's opportunity. We are due to witness, and can be instrumental in securing the greatest era of prosperity known in the country's history. Liberal financing, universal optimism, more money in advertising and we will arrive."

Bissel Carpet Sweeper Co., Grand Rapids, Michigan: "We consider the outlook for fall and holiday business very good and beyond this believe this country is approaching an era of prosperity greater than ever before."

Must Double Capacity. C. W. Nash, Buick Motor Co., Flint, Michigan: "War or no war, there will be 40,000 Buick automobiles built in the 1915 season. We are going to manufacture 40,000 cars because we expect to dispose of that number. The cars we had planned to ship abroad will be sold in this country."

O. E. Sovereign, North American Construction Co., Bay City: "Our Aladdin mills have been running full force twenty hours a day for five months. Orders booked now necessitate doubling our capacity for 1915."

SEEMS $10,000 FOR BREACH OF PROMISE
Detroit Engine Works: "The best proof of our belief in trade conditions is that our advertising campaign is larger than ever before."
W. R. Wooden, Nichols & Sheppard Co., Battle Creek: "The conservative lines followed by business generally for the last three years makes present conditions sound."

Fred Warner, Oakland Motor Co., Pontiac: "Our connections throughout the country report constantly improving business conditions. We believe the next twelve months will show great prosperity."

Oconto, Wis.—Legal proceedings were instituted in the circuit court of Oconto county, against Albert Copeland, by Miss Jane Hunter of Chicago, to recover $10,000 damages, for an alleged breach of promise.

Mr. Copeland, resided in Chicago, prior to making his home in this city. While there he became acquainted with Miss Hunter, and is alleged in the complaint agreed to marry her at a certain date. For some unknown reason she says, Mr. Copeland, left Chicago, without marrying her or making any definite arrangements for the wedding, much to her chagrin.

For this alleged breach, she is seeking $10,000 as a heart balm, for being deprived of the Salutory "Mrs." and the joys and bliss of married life. Miss Hunter is living at Chicago, with her mother. The action will be tried at the November term of court in this city.

SURVIVOR TELLS OF SEA DISASTER

Astoria, Ore.—Further details of the sinking of the steam schooner Francis H. Leggett, with a loss of nearly eighty lives, were given on Sunday by Alexander Farrell, one of the only two survivors. Farrell described the shipwreck as follows:

"Almost immediately after leaving Grays harbor on Wednesday morning we ran into heavy weather, which increased in violence until Friday morning when it was blowing a terrific gale. The steamer labored incessantly and could make almost no headway. Little alarm was felt, however, as the captain and crew told us the steamer would weather the gale. There was not any panic.

Vessel Springs Leak. "Shortly after noon on Friday the crew began to jettison the deck load and most of the passengers were driven below to keep them out of harm's way. Suddenly a terrific sea tore open a hatch, the water poured in torrents and the vessel lurched to one side and capsized.

All this occurred within a few minutes, but in the meantime the crew launched two boats, one containing two women and four men and the other with four women and their husbands on board. It was at that moment that the only excitement occurred. As the second boat was being prepared, some men rushed for it, but Capt. Jensen made them stand back, saying he would shoot the first man who stepped aboard until all the women were cared for. The effort was useless, however, for as soon as the small boats struck the water they capsized and all in them were lost. Cling to Floating Tie.

"I was standing near the bridge when the steamer went over. I went down with the suction, how far I can not say, but it was a long way, and as I came to the surface I saw the vessel's bow stick out of the water and then gradually sink. Fortunately I was able to grab a floating tie and I clung to it, drifting about and chilled to the bone because of the ice cold water. Probably thirty people were in sight when I first came to the surface, hanging to pieces of wreckage, but they succumbed one by one until there were only five of us left.

"One of these was the wireless operator and the other three besides myself were women. The latter kept afloat until nearly dark when they too disappeared. It must have been 3:30 in the afternoon when the Leggett turned turtle and it was 1 o'clock Saturday morning before I was picked up."

Farrell said the wireless operator clung to a rail till a tie was tossed to him by a wave. Realizing the situation the man let go and sank. Over, half the passengers were in their state-room when the Leggett turned over, Farrell said, and they went down with the ship.

The Francis H. Leggett was a steamer of 1,606 gross tons. It was commanded by Capt. Charles Moro, one of the best known skippers on the coast, and was under charter to Charles R. McCormick & Co.

Personality and Character. "Yes, there is a difference between 'personality' and 'character.' Personality is the larger thing, and includes character. By personality is meant the mysterious entity going to make up one's being, or nature. It is equivalent to self-consciousness or individualized being. Character, on the other hand, strictly defined, means the attributes of the individual—as the 'character' for intelligence, judgment, moral rectitude and so forth. In a word, personality is more metaphysical, character more ethical.

N. W. LIMITED TRAIN HITS HERD OF COWS

Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 23.—While traveling at a fair rate of speed at 2 o'clock this morning the Northwestern limited train, No. 112, due from the north in Green Bay at 3:35 o'clock a. m., ran into a large herd of cows four miles south of Bowler, Wis., derailing the engine and baggage car and slightly scalding Engineer Holl and Fireman Taude.

The remainder of the train kept the track.

The right of way was blocked by the derailed equipment and the rest of the train was hauled back to Eland Junction, from where it was detoured via Clintonville and Shawano, passing through Green Bay at 10:05 this morning six and one-half hours late.

Local road officials said that little damage was suffered by the derailed engine and baggage car and announced that Hull and Taude have been moved to their homes in Antigo.

OLDEST MASON IN STATE LIES AT THE AGE OF 94

He had been a councilman of Alma many years and for 16 years had served as justice of the peace.

THREE MORE NATIONS NOW READY TO FIGHT?

Washington, Sept. 23.—Italy has decided to join the world war on the side of the allies at the moment deemed opportune for striking a decisive blow and in preparation for this movement is rapidly mobilizing its arm, according to official dispatches from Europe received here.

In official quarters it is also announced that Turkish officials are in Berlin negotiating terms upon which the Ottoman empire will throw its support to German and Austria.

Dispatches from Roumania say that country has given an official report to Turkey, which indicates that it is likely to get into the fight on the side of the triple entente.

The dispatches describe mobilization of the Italian army as going forward at a rapid rate. Paris reports Italy already has more than a million men under arms. The best of these troops are in camps and barracks in the Lombardy and Venetian provinces.

Italy has been drifting in the direction of war for several weeks and there is little doubt in official circles here that it is on the point of attacking Austria. All reports from the peninsula describe the war sentiment of the Italian populace mounting higher and higher.

The reply Roumania has given Turkey is supposed here to be the conclusion of the efforts made by the porte to induce King Charles to declare war on Russia.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Ortole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. On ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy.

Friends Expected Her to Die.

"I sincerely believe my life was saved in the Fall of 1910 by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Agnes Booth, Tonawanda, N. Y. "I was taken with diarrhoea followed by an attack of acute indigestion. Power of the pen fails to portray the agonies I endured. My friends expected me to die as I had been unable to get relief for so long a time. This remedy went directly to the seat of the trouble cured me in a few hours' time." For sale by all dealers.

ARE CONTRACT JUMPERS JINXED?

Baseball players are naturally superstitious, and some of the men in the organized game do not hesitate to say that a player who jumps to the Feds is jinxed.

They base this assertion on the ill-fortune that has followed some of the conspicuous tossers who leaped to the outlaws last winter and spring.

Take Joe Tinker, the original jumper. A month ago he had to leave the game owing to injuries and won't be able to play again this season. Tinker, who batted .317 in the National league in 1913, must have been back, for when he was obliged to quit the Chieft's batting percentage was only .242.

Addison Brennan has been a prize package of misfortune all year. Although Tinker counted on Brennan being one of his mainstays, the jumping Phil contracted rheumatism last spring and has been virtually useless all season. Brennan has pitched only six games this year and he lost four of them.

Under the circumstances President Baker, is not worrying because Brennan's jumping saved him from having an invalid on his hands.

Kirkpatrick, the infielder who left the Dodgers for Baltimore, broke his leg just before the season started. Only a short time ago was he able to get in the game, and then his leg couldn't stand infield work. He has been playing in left field.

Tom Seaton, did great work for Brooklyn, but had paid the penalty for overtaxing his arm. He has strained his shoulder so severely that he won't be able to throw a ball for the rest of the season. Doubt is even expressed that he will ever be able to pitch again.

Russell Ford, who preferred the Buffeds to the Yanks, because Manager Chance liked to see him in the box at least once in 10 days, is another prominent jumper who has been out of the game recently, because of a bad arm. Dan Murphy, captain of 1913 Athletics, has played in only a handful of games.

Other jumpers who have been forsts in the new league, although able to play, are Catcher Rariden, late of Boston, Simon of Pittsburgh; Willett, late of Detroit; Groom of Washington; Camnitz, late of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia; Hridwell late of Chicago; Zelder, late of the Yanks, and several others. F. Otto Knabe is batting .225 for Baltimore while Doolan is whaling them out at .249 clip, but both of these two former Phils are fielding in sensational style.

All this would justify the assertion that a major leaguer who jumped to the Feds is jinxed.

BOOM RING GAME AROUND CHICAGO

Chicago—While Milwaukee's opening boxing show last Friday night, in which Joe Mandot and Ad. Wolgast were the principal actors, wasn't a huge success financially it served the purpose for which it was meant. Enough fans appeared to presage larger crowds at future contests and the promoters of the Brewery city, Tommy Andrews and Frank Mulken already have lines out angling for the best miller obtainable.

The activity in a box way, however, isn't confined to Milwaukee, for word is received from Racine and Kenosha that shows with star talent are to be pulled off in these towns shortly. In Racine the McCue Athletic club has been recognized and announcement is made by the promoters that they intend to offer cards attractive enough to draw a good attendance of Chicago fans. The McCue club was a failure last year, but those behind the club are of the opinion that it will be successful this time.

At Kenosha the Badger Athletic club of which George Tully is the leading spirit, has entered the field.

WORLD SERIES TO START OCTOBER 8

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Play in the world's championship this fall may start on October 8, one day after the American and National league seasons are brought to a close. This is according to President B. B. Johnson of the Junior circuit and national commission member, who yesterday said there was no truth in the reports that October 10 had been decided in the reports as the day for starting the big show.

"It is our aim to start and finish the series as early as possible," said Johnson yesterday. "I believe we can arrange to play the first game on Thursday, October 8. There is no reason why a day should intervene between the close of the season and the inaugural of the fall games."

In the event of the Braves and Athletics being contenders for the big title two games will be played consecutively in each city instead of alternating each day, as was the case between New York and Philadelphia. The place for the opening will be settled by the flip of the coin.

Johnson has sent a notice to each club calling attention to the fact that diamond strife in the American league prohibits the use of the "emery ball" or the "sandpaper ball." Ray Keating of the Yankees recently used the "emery ball" with dead effect against the Mackmen and shortly afterward Joe Wood resorted to a similar mode of attack against the same foe.

THE MAKING OF PITCHER JAMES

Bill James, the Boston National pitcher, who was with Seattle in 1912, would have been released from the Seattle club by Jack Barry had it not been for Tealey Raymond. The boy was high strung, nervous and apt to be wild, and Jack kept jerking him out every time he walked a man or two until Bill was rapidly losing confidence in himself.

Tealey finally appealed to Jack, and said, "Let him stick in there one game even if they make a hundred runs off him, just to show you have confidence in him." Jack did so, and the boy pulled out a victory. But it was not until Raymond succeeded Barry as manager that James showed his real class, for he liked Tealey and worked his head off for him.

The secretary of state has issued articles of incorporation at $1,000.

According to the latest information from Milwaukee, Charley White may get a chance to perform there next month. The boy the promoters are trying to land as White's opponent is Leach Cross, the New York dentist-battler, and if plans go through the bout will be staged on Oct. 12. Whether the White-Cross bout will cause a cancellation of the Wolgast-Murphy contest which Promoters Mulken has announced for Oct. 9, remains to be seen, but it is not likely that the two shows will be staked on dates so close together.

TO BAR CHAMPS FROM GETTING AUTO PRIZES

Hughy Jennings is not a believer in the Biblical saying: "To him that hath shall be given." Hughy believes the conditions attending the award of the Chalmers auto to the most valuable players in the two big leagues should be amended so that the members of the pennant-winning teams be barred from consideration.

Each of the members of the pennant winners," says Jennings, "gets anywhere from $3,000 to $4,000 as his share of the world's series receipts and I don't think it right that one of them should also be given an automobile. A championship player has the advantage of having other champions working along with him. The fact that he is surrounded by players of great skill and ability causes him to acquire greater confidence and pile up a greater batting average than he would were he with a team down in the second division where the team spirit would be lacking."

CHIEF BENDER OLD RELIABLE

While warming up for the world's series, Charles Albert Bender is compiling a record for effectiveness that seems to have been lost sight of in the hurrahing attending the wild rush of the Braves in the National league. Bender leads the pitchers in the American league with a record of 15 victories in 18 games and since May 26 he was not defeated until Sept. 12.

Fearing that too much publicity might ten to draw Bender's attention from the work in hand, "Connie" Mack has not said a word about the "Chippewa's" attack on the record of 19 straight triumphs established by "Rube" Marquard two years ago.

The chief had a string of 13 straight and in his fourteenth seemed destined to be returned a leader when Washington pounded out six runs off his twirling in the sixth inning of the second game of a double header on Labor day, but his old ally, "Eddie" Plank, went to the rescue and held tight while the Athletics were grinding out victory by 8 to 7 by a belated batting spree.

Bender and Mack seem to agree concerning record making. Bender is much more concerned about being able to appear at best in the October classic than he is in rushing through any string of victories that will displace the Giants' left-hander in the record books. In 24 games the "Chief" has taken part in this season the hits by opponents have run into double figures on only four occasions and twice Bender was on the winning side despite the free hitting of opponents. John McGraw and George Stallings have both heard that Bender will be ready in October.

LEACH TO JUMP CUBS IF REFUSED $21,000 FOR 3 YEARS

New York, Sept. 23.—Tommy Leach says that he will go to the Federal league after the season closes if President C. H. Thomas does not accept his terms of $21,000 for three years. He has given Thomas until tomorrow to decide. Leach says he has an offer of $30,000 from the Federals and will accept it if the Chicago club does not want him. Thomas indicated that Leach is welcome to go to the Federals if he can get $30,000 as he considers the price demanded by him too big and looks upon it in the light of a holdup.

LISTEN TO THIS YARN; HETTY GREEN A MAGNATE

New York, Sept. 23.—Here is the latest—Hetty Green has bought the Chicago Cubs. Neither President Tener, Secretary Heydler of the National league nor President Thomas of the Cubs knows anything about it but the story was circulated by one of the party traveling with the Cincinnati team. He says he was instrumental in arranging the terms of the sale which included the entire property of Chicago's west side ball park as well as the franchise. Mrs. Green expects to profit from her venture, he says. She is not "in baseball" for the love of it.

SON IS INJURED; WANTS TO FIGHT

Berlin—The wound of Prince Joachim the youngest son of Emperor William, is healing rapidly despite the tearing effect of a shrapnel ball through the thigh. The empress and the surgeons are having considerable trouble in keeping the patient quiet in bed. He insists he ought to be able to rejoin his command in a fort night. The prince treats the wounds as a trifle. He smilingly greeted an old palace servant whom he had known since childhood with the remark: "Am I not a lucky dog?"

An officer who was with Prince Joachim when he was wounded tells of the incident.

Rides a Mile Under Fire.
 "It was during the hottest part of the battle," he says, shortly before the Russian resistance was broken, that the prince, who was with the staff as information officer, was dispatched to the firing line to learn how the situation stood. He rode off with Adj. Capt. von Tahizahn and had to traverse the distance, almost a mile under a heavy hail of shell and occasional volleys.

"He came through safely and stood talking with the officers when sharp-burst in their vicinity. The prince and the adjutant were both hit, the latter receiving contusions on the leg, but the shot not penetrating.

Dangerous Trip to Bear.
 "An emergency bandage checked the bleeding, but it was a long and dangerous task, to get him back to the first bandaging station about a mile to the rear, under fire."

"Prince Joachim, who was already recommended for the Iron Cross for bravery before Namur, received the decoration shortly before he was wounded. The prince, who has many friends in America, conveyed through his adjutant his thanks for assurances of American sympathy and interest."

The officer who told the story said the prince during the brief progress of the war before he was wounded, already had gained the admiration and respect of his fellow officers and his men for his pluck and daring.

ASKS FOR CASH TO FACE CHARGE

Chicago, Ill.—For attempting to use the mails with intent to defraud, Allan H. Thompson is now languishing in jail, and his fiancée, Elsie Ladwig, Manitowoc, Wis., has suffered a shock to her confidence in the trustworthiness of mankind.

Allan and Elsie were engaged to be married, and Allan, who was employed on the Goodrich steamer Alabama, regularly sent a portion of his wages to his sweetheart. About $100 had been accumulated in this way, when Allan lost his job.

Realizing that he would not be financially able to assume the duties of family head, Allan cast about for means to extricate himself. The result was that Elsie received a letter bearing the signature of a friend of Allan, stating that the latter had died from the result of injuries, and requesting her to forward the money in her care to pay funeral expenses.

Elsie doubted the genuineness of the appeal for money and placed the letter in the hands of the postmaster. Chicago postal inspectors, after an investigation, arrested the "corpse" as he was looking for a job at the Chicago river docks.

The "corpse" confessed, and was held for a hearing before federal authorities next Friday. Meanwhile Elsie will be interrogated as to the matter.

FIND SON DEAD IN AUTO CRASH

Flint, Mich.—While on his way to Clio for a farewell visit with his grandfather before returning to his studies at the Detroit college of law Charles Mann, Jr., son of Charles H. Mann, wealthy real estates dealer, was instantly killed when his automobile turned turtle four miles north of Mount Morris this afternoon. Mann was accompanied by Bert Oleavy, of Flint. Oleavy was thrown clear of the car and not hurt.

Mann's parents had been visiting in Mount Morris and started on a drive to Clio when they came upon a crowd at the scene of the accident and were told of the death of their son and only child.

"The accident occurred when Mann tried to pass another machine and skidded into the ditch. Mann was a graduate of Notre Dame, and took a preparatory course at the university of Michigan. He would have entered his second year in the Detroit law college tomorrow. He was 21 years old. Mann was well known and a universal favorite in Flint among the younger set. He had narrowly escaped the same fate in auto accidents twice before near Flint.

THE AUTHOR KNOWS WHAT'S WHAT

NOBODY wants to put a big, bulgy wad of tobacco in his cheek. All around you, men are using "Right-Cut"—the Real Tobacco Chew. And telling their friends about it, of course—just like you'd tell your friends about a thing that brings so much comfort. "Right-Cut" is pure, rich, full-bodied tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary mangled tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and dyes. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut".

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

to pull his gun on the fleeing lad. Immediately after he was handcuffed the man made a complete confession in which he told of having passed a check on the Stegath Lumber Company, The E. C. Wickert Feed Company and a restaurant near the North-Western station. All checks were signed by Harry Davis.

To the Press last night the lad told the following story showing of the time in his life when he had come to the turning point; a place where he could choose two courses and his present predicament shows the course which he believed to be the easiest. Twenty-one years ago he was born in a little town in Pennsylvania called Charleroi. There he lived happily with his parents. There he attended the graded schools and is a graduate of the high school of the Douglas Business College there. In 1911 his mother, the best friend he ever had, died and he was left, with a younger brother and an uncaring father. His brother got into trouble and was sent to a reform school and because his father insisted upon marrying another woman before his mother had been dead three months, the Earl Sanders fused to take his brother from a reform school, he went to the town and took his brother away. Together they started their life of aimless roving. They sought work at most anything and finally landed in Marquette last July practically penniless. Unable to secure work the elder lad became desperate and although his brother pleaded with him not to commit the act, he went to a Marquette bank, secured some counter checks and for several days both lived high upon the results of the elder lads labor. Their enjoyment was only until the officers came and arrested them. The elder shouldered all the blame and before Judge Flannigan secured a two years suspended sentence while the younger brother was sent to the home of his father at Toledo.

On Tuesday night the lad came to Escanaba. Yesterday morning he spent his time getting his bearings about the city and at noon went into the First National Bank, secured several counter checks and started his check forging campaign. At each place he made a purchase leaving a number where the goods were to be delivered. The officers were notified and within an hour had arrested him. Thus ended his criminal career in Escanaba. That justice will be meted out to him when he appears before Judge Flannigan for a second time for a similar offense is practically certain.

The lad, slightly past 21, is really good to look upon. He deprecates the publicity given him by Marquette papers declaring that the accounts were untrue. In his cell at the jail last night he seemed unmindful that a long term of years in a states prison is staring him in the face. Jauntily pacing back and forth in his cell smoking a cigarette, the lad asked that the name of his brother not be mentioned but other than that displayed no sentimental feeling. He was in jail for the first time in his life at Marquette but seems not to care of the dark future before him.

"Nobody ever gave me a present before tonight when the officer put the bracelets on me, but that didn't last long as he soon took them off after he landed me inside here," said the lad as the Press representative left the cell.

Greatest Song Writer. The immortal quartet of song writers are Goethe, Heine, Burns and Beranger. Of the four Burns is by far the most popular. Goethe was at heart an "Olympian," and in all things a critic; Heine was in his deepest soul a pessimist and cynic; Beranger, while much more human, was a little bit too critical; while Burns, democratic the core and of immense sympathy, threw himself into a common human life of the world with a whole heart and wrote the songs that will live and be loved while humanity endures.

The great style event of the Autumn season, first in importance, first in fashion authority, and of very particular interest to every woman within the territorial radius of Escanaba's big store.

A Festival Of Correct Autumn Fashions

Opened yesterday to the largest number of eager seekers after late correct fashion knowledge it has ever been our good fortune to assemble in our second floor show room, and every visitor has acknowledged that our collection of new Fall Styles in Millinery and Garments is the most complete in every way shown north of big metropolitan cities. It is more than a mere collection of new merchandise.

It is the unfolding of the TRUE styles of a new season—a comprehensive exposition made under our buyers keen study of past months and through attending the New York style show-meeting in conference at first hand with many of New York's foremost designers who personally trace the style development of the European style originators.

Thus the footsteps of hundreds and hundreds of feminine style seekers commenced to lead to our second floor display room from its opening hour to learn those vital details of the new fashions, a correct knowledge of which will ensure success and perfect satisfaction in the millinery and garments of your choice.

The new figure silhouettes, both equally desirable—one, outlining the figure, and the other having straight lines to below the waist—have a great many splendid interpretations in this festival.

The various suit-coats, mostly 45 inch lengths—flare at the bottom, Basque and Redingote effect—the long set-in sleeves, the long tunic skirts, some pleated and some circular. The new coats in a wonderful variety of new styles and fabrics.

In the Millinery section as usual is the inexhaustible style source of thousands—for initiative in showing the newest and most characteristic styles first and many exclusively. Black velvet and dark colors are equally favored—shapes as well as trimmings, true in every respect to the new fashion type.

Give me the young man with $50 in the bank—in any bank—money he has earned and saved himself, and I will show you a young man who is started on the road to success. I cannot impress on employers too strongly the wisdom of encouraging their employes to economize, to save, to start a bank account.—R. W. SEARS.
