DISCOVERS THAT GLASGOW HAD 'AD'

Lansing, March 29.—"By thunder! I do not intend to discharge Mr. Cunningham and permit myself to serve as character assassin just because two or three people in Michigan demand it."

With this exclamatory statement, Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris concluded an interview in the executive office Friday forenoon in which he made it plain that not only Railway Commissioner Charles S. Cunningham would be investigated, but Cassius L. Glasgow of Nashville, the republican member of the commission is jointly subject to the gubernatorial probe.

Already the governor has interviewed witnesses who make the unequivocal statement that Mr. Glasgow himself had agreed to an interview affecting the Pere Marquette which to all intents and purposes was similar in effect to the advertised interview of Mr. Cunningham, which has created such a furore. The governor is deeply interested in this branch of his investigation since his probe already has disclosed that Commissioner Glasgow was present and at least acceded to the Symonds resolution in the house which concentrated the attack upon his associate on the commission.

C. S. McElwain, advertising writer for the Lansing paper, has given his statement, and will make, it is said, an affidavit that he obtained Mr. Glasgow's interview stating the Pere Marquette should have an increased passenger fare rate; that he read the interview over the telephone and had it indorsed and suggested going to Mr. Glasgow's office for his signature. He says Glasgow told him the signature was unnecessary that his word was sufficient. In this he is supported by the statement of other witnesses and Governor Ferris leaves late Friday for Detroit where he will meet receiver Paul H. King and take his statement, which is said to corroborate the Lansing advertising man's statement in practically every particular.

In compliance with the joint resolution that passed the house and senate Thursday afternoon, Speaker Smith and Lieutenant Governor Dickinson today appointed the committee to investigate reports of a "slush fund" in connection with the railroad lobby here.

Senator Alton T. Roberts, of Marquette who offered the resolution, in the senate has been named as chairman of the senate committee. The others named by Lieutenant Governor Dickinson are Senator Damon of Mt. Pleasant, Murtha of Detroit, Plank of Cass, and Woodworth, of Huron. Representative William H. Moore of Lenawee is chairman of the house committee and the others named by Speaker Smith are Representatives Evans of Branch, Martin of Shiawassee and Kooyers of Ottawa. The resolution calls for a report from the committee by April 1, and it is the intention of the investigators to begin work at once.

Representatives Wiley and Symonds whose statements and interviews prompted Representative Petermann and Senator Roberts, to introduce the resolution calling for an interview, are not at all pleased at the turn in affairs and they declare that the sole purpose of the resolution is to discredit them in the eyes of their colleagues.

The house refused to be diverted from its purpose to establish for all time whether corrupt practices have been the vogue on the part of the railway leaders by the amendment of Representative Charles Symonds broadening the resolution to take in practically every phase of the railway issue. This amendment was offered after both Representatives Symonds and Wiley had unequivocally denied even suggesting corrupt practices, "slush funds" or improper methods and after Wiley in a speech to the house disclaimed responsibility for the interview, credited to him in the Grand Rapids morning paper.

Representative Symonds of Menominee followed the Calumet representative. He said it was probably well known that the members referred to in the article and resolution were Representative Wiley and himself. He said he was not given to veiled statements; that when he had anything to say there was no need to question his meaning. He then said: "At no place, no time, under no circumstances have charges, intimated or insinuated the railways were using a 'slush

"What I say, I stand for."

Representative Wiley spoke next on the resolution and to a question of personal privilege. He said: "Direct reference was made to me in the Grand Rapids Herald. I was quoted in that paper as referred to a 'slush fund.' I want to say to this house that I never made such a suggestion; never used the term; never intimated anything of the sort; never believed it and do not believe it now."

GIVES UP HOME AT THE U. O. M.

Ann Arbor, March 29.—At yesterday's session of the board of regents of the university, the students' Christian association, by consent of the donors of the Helen Newberry residence, consented that building to be the university. It will be operated as a residence hall for university women. The residence is the gift of Truman and J. S. Newberry, and Mrs. Henry B. Joy, all of Detroit, children of the late Mrs. Helen N. Newberry. The control, government and operation of the residence will be vested in a board of governors.

The Michigan State board of examiners in optometry asked the regents for a two year course in their profession. No action was taken. A request received from the Polish National Alliance that a professorship in Polish be established, was not acted upon.

The commencement dinner, a feature of commencement days for 25 years, will be discontinued. In its place will come the university luncheon to alumni on Wednesday noon of commencement week. The board ruled that any student who failed to pay his health service bill should be denied credit for work till it is paid.

The board accepted a valuable gift in a collection of bound volumes of medical journals from Dr. H. D. London, of Bay City; and $1,000 from Dr. Henry Cradle of Chicago, the income from which is to be used for patients in the children's ward of the university hospital.

BRITISH LEARN COST OF MILE OF GROUND

London, March 29.—The British public is not deceived by lack of definite reports as to British losses in the Neuve Chapelle fight in France. The official announcement that the British had taken 1,800 prisoners and the official estimate that the Germans must have lost 18,000 men in the terrific bombardment prepared the public for heavy loss on the British side. Rumor ran that the total loss, to gain about a mile of territory, was in the neighborhood of 13,000 men. Since it takes so many men to win a mile of French soil from the Germans, the British public is perfectly aware what the cost will be before the invaders are driven out of France and Belgium.

The recruiting advertisements point out that the Germans, being at Ostend are already nearer London than Manchester is; some of the daily papers are editorially preaching conscription and there is an urgent call for more nurses and hospital facilities. London feels that the anticipated spring campaign in all its grimness has begun.

BULLET-IN-BRAIN BOY IN NEED OF SECRETARY

Kenosha, Wis., March 29.—Stephen Stec, 10, who carried a bullet in his brain, has returned to school, but he is in need of a private secretary to care for his voluminous correspondence. Letters come from all over this country and Canada, commenting upon his remarkable experience. He was shot by his little brother while they were at play with a forbidden revolver. Although he suffered great pain, he agreed not to tell his parents, fearing that the little brother would be spanked. A doctor and X-ray machine revealed the secret. Many letters come from medical men, who desire to learn more of the strange case of this boy, whose brain cavity has apparently recovered.

MAN ENDS HIS ENDLESS VOYAGE

New York, March 29.—Nathan Cohen, who as an insane person traveled more than 32,000 miles on a $45 ticket because neither this country, from which he was deported nor Brazil from where he immigrated, would accept him, has ended his travels. He was to have started back to Brazil aboard the steamer Vasari today, but friends took him off the vessel, five minutes before she sailed.

They presented a stay to the order of deportation which was secured at Washington. The Hebrew Shelter and Immigration society of America found that Cohen became insane after his entrance to this country as a result of a series of business troubles. This fact was communicated to the immigration officials and the stay was granted.

HUNGRY! TRY NICE PINE BARK TARTS OR BANANA PEEL.

Berlin, March 30.—Dr. Hans Friedenthal, inventor of the new process for converting straw into food, both for human beings and animals, has now, according to Corwaerts, made the announcement that all non-poisonous substances, including skins, peels, ings, and the bark of trees, may be converted into wholesome eating matter for man if thoroughly dis-integrated and properly treated.

BROTHERHOOD FIGHT IS BEING WATCHED

Escanaba members of the Modern Brotherhood of America are watching with interest the fight of the so-called insurgents of their organization to oust the regulars from the control of the supreme lodge and the litigation in the courts of Iowa is being closely followed.

A meeting of the insurgents will be held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 1, when a decision will probably be made to place the matter of ousting the present officials before the national convention in St. Louis, in August.

Louis Carjos, recording secretary of the insurgents' organization, issues following circular to the camps of Michigan:

"Members, we must keep up the fight and the agitation so as to have every member fully informed as to what has been going on and so that they will be able to vote intelligently at that convention. The writer has an conviction that all that is needed to be done to take the affairs of the Modern Brotherhood of America out of the hands of the men who now have control of it, is to have the members fully advised of what these parties have been doing, because we know to a certainty that if this is done, the convention will be controlled by the Insurgents and a new set of officers elected and new rates will be fixed with the full approval of the members. Now, we know this to be true, because wherever the members of a lodge have learned the facts in regard to this whole matter, they are enthusiastic insurgents. All that is needed, from the members, is to have the members well educated before the meeting at St. Louis. By reason of the law's delays which are most unjust, we may be denied access to the books, papers and vouchers and list of members of the association until the convention is held in August; but we have that confidence in the sense of justice and right possessed by our members to firmly believe if the officers of the association shall, until that time, keep the members from an examination of the books, papers and vouchers of the association, that they will have a hard time making suitable excuses for failing to do so, when they come to the supreme convention in August.

next sixty days and bids for the match will be received until April 25, at which time the principles will meet, name the club and post $1,000 for weight and appearances. The weight will be 145 pounds at 3 o'clock.

The proposed mill has caused more comment in ring circles during the last two years than nearly all other battles combined, and unless one or the other repudiate the articles they agreed to yesterday, the superiority of either Gibbons or McFarland in the boxing line will be settled.

The match was made, or rather thrashed out, following an all-afternoon session at Mike Gibbons' room in the Morrison before a number of newspapermen. Gibbons took care of his own interests and Emil Thiry acted for McFarland. Getting together was no little stunt, and for a time it looked as though two pounds difference in weight would prevent the battle.

MINOR LEAGUES HAVE HARD TIME

Rockford, Ill., March 29.—Baseball affairs in Wisconsin and northern Illinois were never so muddled as they are at the present time. With two leagues, the Three-I and the Bi-State pulling at Rockford's costales, the northern Wisconsin cities, unable to get together on the proposed new league, and the Bi-State organization far from an actuality, it is a toss up what is going to happen in minor league circles in this vicinity.

Two league meetings are slated for next week and they are expected to do much to clarify the situation. The Bi-State will meet at Chicago Monday, and the Three-I will assemble in Davenport, Ia., on Tuesday.

Racine announces positively that it will not be connected with the proposed northern league and will have a team in the Bi-State or nowhere. That city will be represented at the meeting in Chicago Monday. Madison has succeeded in clearing up considerable of the old indebtedness the club has labored for several years and is facing the 1915 season with renewed vigor. Aurora, Streeter and Ottawa will have representatives at the Chicago meeting as well as Racine and Aurora, and it is hoped to interest Elgin to take a berth in a six-club league, providing Rockford falls down.

Northern Wisconsin baseball men find it practically impossible to piece together a league of towns in that locality. Appleton and Wausau are not being considered, leaving Oshkosh, Green Bay, Marinette-Menominee and Escanaba as the nucleus of a league. Charles F. Moll, owner of the Twin City franchise, has been attempting to get Rockford and Racine into line with these four towns for a six-club league, but a circuit that stretched from Rockford to Escanaba is deemed too unwieldy by the southern cities.

Rockford has been assured Springfield's franchise in the Three-I league providing this city puts up its $500 guarantee at the Davenport meeting next Tuesday, and it seems very probable that this plan will be carried out. It will either be Three-I league ball for Rockford or none, says officials of the local club, despite the fact that President Parsons of the Bi-State has served notice on the Rockford association that his organization has been granted first claim on Rockford territory by the minor league association.

DATE OF BOUT IS CHANGED TO MONDAY

Havana, March 29.—Havana was engrossed today in discussion of the big fight to be staged here Monday, April 5 when Jack Johnson will defend his title as heavyweight champion against Jess Willard.

There were countless rumors, and reports following a midnight conference of all those concerned in the fight and then came the announcement of the postponement of the battle to Monday, Sunday having been set for the fight originally. The postponement was due to the great pressure brought to bear by people who said to hold the fight April 4 would be to desecrate Easter Sunday.

There was a surprising sentiment in Cuba against the holding of the fight on Easter despite the fact that the first day of the week is a general holiday on the island. Objection also was raised by influential persons in the United States. It is understood that the promoter's books tonight showed sales and reservations for the fight amounting to $55,000 and that these are increasing steadily.

Why Our Coffees Are Better

This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it as by the old method.

This is the reason why a pound of Our Fresh Roasted Coffee cut in this mill, will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground the old way. The Lover of good coffee finds here a richness of flavor never found in coffee ground in the ordinary way at any price.

PROHIBITION BILL IS RULED CONSTITUTIONAL

Lansing, Mich., March 26.—Senator Straight's bill providing for the submission of statewide prohibition has been declared by the attorney general's department to be constitutional and according to Senator Straight the bill will receive consideration by the senate committee on liquor affairs this week.

It is understood that the bill will be reported out by the senate committee on liquor affairs at an early date, but neither the republicans nor democratic leaders of the legislature welcome with any degree of enthusiasm the prospect of a statewide prohibition fight during a year when there is a presidential campaign in progress.

Senator Straight has been approached with a proposition to stage the statewide prohibition fight at the spring election of 1917, but the author of the bill is of the opinion that the question should be submitted when there will be a representative vote at the polls and he prefers the November election in 1916.

BET THAT WAR WILL END WITHIN 4 MONTHS

Following the publication of cable dispatches in which Sir John French, commander of the British forces in France, predicted to a correspondent of the Associated Press an early ending of the war. Wall street began to bet on the date when peace would be restored.

Even money was offered that hostilities would cease within four months from date, and odds of 8 to 6 were asked that negotiations would be on by June 30. Plenty of even money was in evidence that the fighting would be ended by September 1.

Bettors based their wagers on the fact that Germany's supply of ammunition would fall in the next few months because of the government's liability to import nitrates and copper, the latter principally owing to the blockade established by the Allies.

LOOKS GOOD FOR TEAM

High school baseball aspirants will indulge in their initial work, out this evening when the battery men will begin lobbing them over in the gym. The 1915 aggregation will be one of the strongest nines that ever represented the orange and black. Six vets of the 1914 bunting clinchers will be on hand while the green material looms up strong. Out door work will begin as the weather permits and it will not be long before the "rah rah" lads will be rambling on the green. It is circulated that the Pros. are also going to have a squad on the diamond. Among the instructors who indulge in the national pastime are Hutto, Davidson, Doak, Lint and Willerton. Among the candidates who are out for berths on the school nine are: Baldwin, O'Meara, Germaine, Dwyer, Rushton, Cooney, Moran, Hodgkins, Bradner, McKittrick, Lambert, Brotherton, Whiston, O'Brien and Mueller.

COSTS THE GERMANS $105,000 A DAY

Berlin, March 30.—How to take care of the hordes of prisoners of war captured by the German armies—food alone costs for each man 60 (15 cents) a day—is an increasing problem with which the authorities are wrestling. It is estimated that the list of prisoners, including those captured in Field Marshal von Hindenburg's latest victory in East Prussia, now exceeds 700,000 men. This involves an expense for the mere feeding of the captives of about $105,000 a day. In every available way the men are being put to work—on farms, on the roads, in iron works and coal mines, and in clearing and reclaiming vast areas of marsh and moor land, principally in the eastern part of the empire. Experience thus far has convinced the Germans that the Russians are far more available for this manual labor than the English or the French, none of the latter of whom lend themselves easily to the hard work to which the Russian peasants seemed accustomed. One of the most important pieces of work on which the Russians are being employed in very large numbers is the reclamation of nearly 7,000 hectares of unfruitful, waste land along the Leba river from Lauenburg to the Soba Sea, adjacent to the Bay of Danzig. Plans to accomplish this date back as far as the time of Frederick the Great, but up to the present have never progressed further than the partial straightening of the river bed. At the time of the outbreak of war some 60 hectares had been reclaimed by a force of 300 men, who stopped work when the fighting started. Already 3,000 Russians, in two camps, are at work draining the land and instituting improvements that include irrigation, plowing and planting of meadows. Through these prisoners and others who will be added to the ranks it is expected that the work so long delayed will be finished in record time. Thousands of the soldiers captured in the recent Hindenburg victory were put at work at once, clearing the roads of snow and mud, and, so great was the number employed that within a short time the highways were passable everywhere in the rear of the German army. The German authorities likewise are rapidly making coal miners out of the Russian prisoners, and by this means are restoring the mines in upper Silesia, Posen and other districts to their normal productivity. The prisoners also are being utilized in iron works and stone quarries. They are only put to work in such places, however, where they do not compete with free labor.

There are already a large number of prisoners in the lignite mines near Bitterfeld, and thousands are at work constructing new chausses, principally in the east. Others are busy on road repair work. In the west of Germany where the French and English prisoners are in predominance various plans are under way already for using the men in agricultural pursuits so that crops may be planted, cared for and harvested at the earliest possible time.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Swedish Methodist church will meet in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Andrew Wicking will act as hostess.

SUNDAY CAN STILL CIRCLE THE BASES.

Philadelphia, March 30.—Billy Sunday, erstwhile champion base-runner of the National league and present day champion devil chaser, hit the old trail yesterday. Billy has not been on a ball field professionally for 24 years. Accompanied by Uncle Ben Shibe today, the evangelist peeped in at the Athletic's park. With Uncle Ben performing the pitching stunt, Billy cracked the first offering far into deep center. He then started to spring. Sunday made the circuit of the bases in 16 seconds.

16 COUNTIES TO VOTE ON LIQUOR

Lansing, March 29.—"Wet" and "dry" fights in 16 counties of Michigan, involving 405 saloons and three breweries, a property investment of approximately $1,395,000 and an estimated annual revenue, based on government reports of $4,050,000 from the saloons alone, are expected to furnish a large part of the thrills at the coming spring election. Twelve of the counties involved in the scrap are "wet" four are "dry". Prior to the period of drought, the four counties which the anti-saloon forces are attempting to hold in line, containing 175 saloons and one brewery.
