Statisticians tell us the war is to cost $80,000,000,000; probably marked down from $80,000,000,000.89.

Roosevelt and Taft act as pallbearers at a funeral—and its hard to tell which of the three is the dearest.

That this war is to cost eighty billion dollars don't even fease us. After gobs of money get above $9,000 the figures all sound alike to us.

Press dispatches say Paris is to banish the tango but at that the benefits derived from the war are not commensurate with the price France is paying.

If the editor of the city's weekly publication and his tool are able to continue hoodwinking the people, Escanaba will soon be issuing bonds to pay the expense of special elections.

Life on the Escanaba city council is just one darned thing after another. You are sure of being recalled if you disobey the law and some will try to have you recalled if you do live up to the statutes.

That Chicago man who went to San Francisco and then called up on the telephone and proposed to a girl will probably go to Honk Kong to call up and ask if he can stay down town for an evening with the boys.

A man shouldn't throw out his chest and get all swelled up on him self when some woman tells him he isn't like other men—until he knows what sort of other men she has in mind.

A lot of those "drys" displayed their insincerity in the way they rushed to cover when the "wets" insisted that if prohibition was to be submitted to a vote of the people, it must be real prohibition.

The secret is out. Aid. Ed. refused to vote in the council on the proposition to bond the city for constructing long needed sanitary sewers so he would be in position to try and invalidate the issue and prevent the work going forward if any but he were elected mayor.

Alger county is in the "wet" column by two votes. Now the busi-

WOODMEN MEET UNEXPECTEDLY

Muskegon, Mich., April 16.—Completely surprising the Battle Creek delegation, Sault Ste. Marie's delegates to the tenth Biennial State convention of the Woodmen of the World this morning landed the 1917 convention for their city at the business meeting this morning. The vote was close and Battle Creek was second with Bay City another unexpected candidate, third.

Carrying out the plan as announced in the Chronicle yesterday afternoon, John Asman of Port Huron, Mich., was chosen as Head Consul of the Michigan Jurisdiction. The uniform rank degree team of Muskegon camp No. 161, last night won the $150 prize offered by the sovereign camp of the lodge to the team that put the work on in a manner that was creditable to the sovereign officers present. The sovereign officers expressed pleasure at the manner in which the ritual was exemplified by the Muskegon lodge and highly praised the drill team.

Nicholas Michels, a member of Muskegon camp, which is acting as host to the convention, was honored this morning by being chosen as Head Sentry of the Michigan Jurisdiction. The election of officers which was held this morning was postponed from yesterday afternoon; as originally scheduled, because of the auto-ride around the city. This kept the delegates from the convention hall until it was too late in the afternoon to hold the meeting.

The officers who were elected this morning are as follows: Past Junior Head Consul, George J. Laundy of Sault Ste Marie; Head Consul, John Asman of Port Huron, Mich.; Head Advisor, George Peterson, of Escanaba Mich.; Head Banker, Charles Moros of Mt. Clemens; Head Clerk, Thomas Taylor of Battle Creek; Head Escort, W. A. Clauson of Benton Harbor; Head Watchman, George L. Horning of Detroit; Head Sentry, Nicholas Michels of Muskegon. The managers for the state are Gustav Markey, Detroit; T. Saviska, Detroit; R. Kreuger, Port Huron; F. S. Minno, Ontonagon, and W. H. Skeman, Wyandotte.

Two Muskegon women were signally honored this morning at the election of officers of the Woodmen Circle when Mrs. Fred Jones was made grand outer guard and Mrs. Green, grand inner sentinal.

Mrs. J. T. McHale of Mount Clemens was made grand guardian, while Mrs. Anna McDonagh of Detroit was elected supreme delegate to the supreme convention to be held in St. Paul, Minnesota.

KELLOGG CORN FLAKES MUST NOT BE SOLD AT SET PRICE, SAYS COURT

Detroit, Mich., April 17.—In a decision filed here today, the United States court of appeals finds in favor of the government in the suit to restrain the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flakes company from fixing the resale price for its product. The government attacked the selling plan of the company, stating that it fixed the price at which its product should be sold from the manufacturer to the jobber, from the jobber to the wholesaler, from the wholesaler to the retailer and from the retailer to the customer.

KILLED WHEN MACHINE CRASHES INTO FENCE

Marinette, Wis., April 17.—Waiter Vanitfelt of Wauwata, the nephew of Edward Vanitfelt of Marinette, was almost instantly killed on Wednesday afternoon when his automobile crashed into a fence while traveling at forty miles an hour. Vanitfelt, who was 29 years old, died on the way to the hospital.

The accident occurred near the Sturgeon river bridge at Loretta. The young man was driving at a high rate of speed and when he returned out for another car, he lost control of the machine and crashed into a fence. As the car struck, one of the heavy cedar fence posts was snapped off and hurled thru the wind shield. It struck the young man in the stomach and knocked him into the rear seat of the car. He was picked up unconscious, and died in a few minutes.

Edward Vanitfel with his son, Edward, Jr., left today for Wauwata, where they will attend the funeral services.

POWERS MEN WANTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Menominee, Mich., April 17.—A story told between sobs by sixteen year old Bertha Hardwig, of Powers, concerning a midnight automobile ride with two men who accomplished her seduction, has resulted in the issuance of warrants for Milton Kell, a well known storekeeper and livery proprietor of Powers, and Arthur LeBouef, his former chauffeur both men charged with statutory rape.

The alleged crime was committed on October 18, 1914, when the Hardwig girl was but fifteen years old. Fearful of census, she had concealed the episode from her parents till only a few days ago, when she told them a pitiful story of how the two men lured her to her downfall.

From Powers it is reported that Kell, who was in the village till late ly, has disappeared. The warrant for his arrest is in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Thomas McKinnis. Yeo Sheriff Thomas McGinnis. LeBouef is said to have been working in Green Bay and Sheriff Bauer, of Menominee County and Herman Hardwig, uncle of the girl in the case, left Green Bay to look for the alleged criminal.

JESS WILLARD SUES UNIVERSAL FILM CO.

New York, April 17.—Champion Jess Willard has filed a suit in the supreme court for $100,000 damages and an accounting from the Universal Film company.

The company states that on January last, Willard signed an agreement with the defendant to appear in the film "Jess Willard in the Heart Punch," for which he said he was to received 25 per cent of all sums received by the film company from the sale or rental of the films, and was to have a weekly accounting.

The complaint alleges that in violation of the agreement and in order to defeat his rights, the defendant has made sales of the films to concerns affiliated with it at fictitious prices, disproportionate to the value of the films.

CHIROPRACTORS NOT TO GET RECOGNITION

Lansing, April 17.—Senator Hofma, chairman of the public health committee of the senate announced yesterday that Representative Palmer's bill providing for the appointment of a state board to regulate the license chiropactors will not be reported out and it is not considered likely that any attempt will be made to take the bill from the committee, the Palmer bill is said to be officially killed.

Although the Palmer bill passed the house with less than a dozen dissenting votes, it has encountered real opposition in the senate.

Physicians and osteopaths have put up a fight against its passage as it is claimed that the Palmer bill removes the chiropactors from the control of the state board of registration in medicine.

STR. M'KEE OPENS NAVIGATION SEASON

Sault Ste. Marie, April 17.—With the arrival of the Canadian freighter, J. A. McKee at the Canadian Soo this morning and the departure of the steamer Palika, down-bound, laden with steel rails from the Algoma Steel company's dock, navigation was formally opened. It is reported that the steamer Frater Taylor and the Franz are on their way up-bound, but they had not passed DeTour this morning.

The McKee apparently had no trouble in making the passage thru the ice in Mud lake. The vessel came up light and easily crushed her way through the ice field. The only place that gave any difficulty at all was in the vicinity of Lime Island.

A message from Captain Nelson at Whitefish last night stated that the steamer Lakeport had passed the point, having no trouble in getting through Whitefish bay. Captain Nelson said there were only a few small ice fields in the bay and no ice to be seen in the lake.

Just five days ahead of last year's time of arrival, the steamer McKee of the Algoma Central Steamship line steamed up the river this morning upbound from Port Stanley, where she had been in winter quarters.

As soon as his boat had passed the Lighthouse Captain H. C. Wingrove began to receive the honors of the port, the first salute being given by the Soo Brewing company of the Michigan Soo, which the captain answered by blowing for the locks. Quickly the salute was taken up by the boat made its way up to the canal. This is the second time that the McKee has been the first boat to arrive.

At 9:30 the Palika, which has been lying at the company's dock all winter loosed her moorings and proceeded on her first trip downbound loaded with rails for Chicago. The next boat to arrive in the Soo will be the Taylor which has been in winter quarters at Port McNichol and is now on her way up to the Soo. The Franz, which has been lying at Collingwood all winter as stated above, is on her first trip up the lakes. The large demand for Algoma steel rails will keep these boats very busy all through the navigation season.

IMPROVEMENTS IN IRON INDUSTRY

Of the general improvement in the iron trade shown in the past week an exchange says:

A remarkable improvement has been noted in the iron market during the last two weeks, and as a result much optimism exists. Plants are now estimated to be operating on a basis of 70 per cent capacity, taking the country over. Recent activity in the United States Steel stock has been accepted as a barometer of trade conditions, so that its sensational advance is taken to show that the big interests now think it is time to get under the market.

Referring to a recent advance in pig iron and the market in general, the Iron Age says:

"The pig iron output of March is clear corroboration of the reports of recent weeks as to the higher rate of steel works operations. Since Jan. 1 the net gain in furnaces in blast has been forty-four and the yearly rate, which on Jan. 1 was 16,000,000 tons, had mounted to the astonishing figure of 26,000,000 tons on April 1. The increase in three months was thus 44 per cent practically all of its in steel-making pig iron.

Ferris Retained G. O. P. TRUSTEES

Lansing.—Governor Ferris announced today that James McNaughton of Calumet and William Kelly of Vulcan, will be reappointed to the board of control of the Michigan College of Mines. McNaughton and Kelly are Republicans. Since the passage of the bill transferring the state game warden's department to the public domain commission, strong pressure has been brought to bear on Ferris to replace the two men with Democrats. The reappointment of Mr. Kelly means that he will continue as a member of the public domain commission.

Governor Ferris is receiving applications for appointment to the state board of health to fill the vacancy by the death of Dr. Thomas Koon, of Grand Rapids. Dr. Thomas O'Keefe of East Grand Rapids is a candidate endorsed by Senator John Paul of Grand Rapids.

SON OF PARTY HEAD MARRIED

Owosso—Braving parental displeasures, Charles N. Hoffman, 19, son of C. F. Hoffman, chairman of the Progressive state central committee, married Mary O'Donnell, a chorus girl several years his senior last week.

Details were revealed today. Hoffman met the girl when she came with the Wand Musical company to an Owosso vaudeville house. There were automobile rides in which another girl of the chorus and another socially prominent Owosso boy joined.

Elope to Lansing.
The culmination of the romance was an elopement to Lansing for a double wedding, but the other boys' father had a detective meet the inter-urban car.

A short time afterward O'Donnell took the girl to Jackson where they were married by Justice of the Peace Claude L. Tarbox. Hoffman's parents are said to be emphatic in their disapproval.

Mrs. Hoffman returned to Owosso, for what she said she was glad was her last appearance in vaudeville and proudly exhibited her marriage certificate.

Sen Tells of Romance.
Jackson—Charles N. Hoffman, son of the chairman of the National Progressive state central committee, and his bride, who was Miss Mary O'Donnell are living here. The young husband who braved his parents' displeasure by taking a wife from the footlights told the story of his romance last evening. He first met Miss O'Donnell a year ago, and after she returned to her home in Columbus he corresponded with her, he said.

VENDETTA

From the World Famous Novel by Marie Corelli
IN FIVE PARTS

"Vendetta" is a natural masterpiece. Every tense, dramatic moment, (as when Romani awakens in his own coffin) has been given the touch of the artist. Not a shade of over-acting, not a tableau held an inch too long! In the expression of subtle emotion "Vendetta" will delight the psychologist.

BURIED AS DEAD in His Own Family Tomb, returning to life to find his wife and dearest friend unfaithful; discovering vast riches in that self-same tomb left by a pirate, generations dead; using this mighty wealth to satisfy a horrible revenge—these, in brief, are the central thoughts of a story that shames mere fiction in its terrible reality.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE DELFT

"Potash and Perlmutter"
Direct from their second year's stay at the Coban theater, New York City, "Abe" Potash and "Mawruss" Perlmutter come to the Delft theater today with the latest designs in cloaks, suits and laughs "Abe and "Mawruss" are the lovable partners about whom Montague Glass wrote such delightful stories in The Saturday Evening Post. He made them famous and they made him famous but Manager A. H. Woods added to the fame of all when he put "Abe" and "Mawruss" on the stage. Since then the partners have been working over-time.

The firm name is "Potash and Perlmutter"; they've got a designer named Goldman who has a head like Andrew Carnegie and a shape like Lilian Russell; a rascally lawyer named Feldman—and incidentally they have hearts of gold.

The story of "Potash and Perlmutter" revolves about the efforts of the two partners to save their new book-keeper Boris Andrie from the clutches of the Russian government. They really know little about Boris except that as a bookkeeper he is a great musician and they quarrel incessantly about him but when there is danger that the young man is to be sent back to Russia and perhaps a Siberian prison risk their ever cent to save him. For a time it looks as though the partners may have to lose everything through their Quixotic ideas and Potash is going to lose besides a desirable son-in-law—when everything turns out happily. Cupid has been busy too, with "Mawruss" and the ending is double happy. There are tears as well as laughter in "Potash and Perlmutter" but for the most part they are tears of joy. A splendid company of New York favorites will be seen here.

must be given to the scenes showing a massacre by the Indians. In these there are convincing close-ups, impressive "far-aways," splendidly focused and offering a mountainous background for the courageous yet doomed emigrants for whom the great West is a fatal one. The story was filmed in it to Wheat, the Garden of the Gods supplying the biggest number of locations.

Throughout the picture the "ordinary" is avoided in every instance, and splendid photography is as much a part of it as are the bold, natural settings, the humble little home made by Phil Silsbee, his wife and the orphan Jack Trail, in the shadow of the eagle's nest, the homely little shack which afforded the comforts of a home to the independent Suze, the treacherous descent of a rock cliff by warring Indians and the other details, both big and small, which go toward making "The Eagle's Nest" the different film that it is.

SURGEON RESIGN PARDON BOARD JOB

Lansing, April 17.—Dr. Carl B. Brucker, former prison surgeon at the Ionia Reformatory and taken from that place to serve as member of the board of pardons and paroles by Governor Ferris, has handled his resignation to the governor.

Dr. Brucker's administration on the board has met with the approval of the chief executive who saw in the young reformatory surgeon just the material for practical work on the pardon board. Dr. Brucker's home was in Lansing and since his return here as a member of the board his private practice had grown rapidly and he finds it requires so much of his time as to make it impossible for him to give the attention to the work of the pardon board that responsible office should have.

Famous Triplet Dead AT AGE OF 70 YEARS

HUERTA DENIES HAND IN CRIME

New York, April 16.—Vehemently asserting that he had nothing to do with the death of Francisco Madero, General Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, issued a lengthy signed statement tonight setting forth what he termed his side of the Mexican question. General Huerta declared that he knew who was responsible for Madero's death, but that he was keeping it as a "professional secret."

General Huerta's statement reviewed the history of the Madero revolution, his own accession to the provisional presidency and concluded with the assertion that "my country cannot be conquered." Sixteen millions of men, women and children would have to be killed before Mexico would submit to an invader, he asserted.

"The heads of the Washington administration," he declared, "had not been fair to Mexico, had been misled by false statements; and if they had been in Mexico for thirty days, 'they would have changed their theoretical erroneous ideas.' Had it not been for the embargo on the exportation of arms from this country General Huerta indicated that his army would have prevailed over those opposed to it."

Reiterating the assertion which he made when he left Mexico last year, he declared he resigned from his position only because he hoped to bring peace to his country. He pointed out that in the eight months elapsed since that date the situation in Mexico has become "too sad for me to analyze deeply."

"Anarchy is too soft a word to call it," he said. Mexico would eventually be saved by a Mexican. Who that would be he did not know.

General Huerta in his statement said:

"Nobody can name a single foreigner, from any government any loss of life or interests. I make special mention of the American colony as thousands of United States citizens residing in Mexico then are at present in these United States of America. I have always had and have probed, a great admiration and respect for the American people. I must say periodicals and public opinion in the United States were, for the last few years diverted from the right path on the Mexican question. I have always tried to be fair in my judgment. My Indian, honest blood boils when I think of the unfortunate condition existing in my poor country and when I think that good, clean press like the American are led by false and artificial tricks to defend a cause which is nothing more than one of cantalism and anarchy."

"But, never mind, I have hopes, My Mexico is young. My Mexico has plenty of life in it. My country cannot be conquered. We have sixteen millions of men, women and children, it would require sixteen millions of invaders, one for each man, woman and child, to conquer my Mexico, and when my sixteen million brothers and sisters are killed off then a devastated country would be the prize of the conqueror, to the shame of civilization and to the shame of the conqueror."

"Never mind, Mexico will be saved by a Mexican. By a strong Mexican. Not by a bandit. Not by men that kill for the sake of money or of dastardly passion, but by a Mexican who will act as a surgeon, who will cure the sores, who will amputate the dead parts of the national body. And then Mexico in a short time will revive and will be the paradise on earth it deserves to be."

"Where is the man? Who is the man? When will the man appear? I do not know."

WAR

London, April 17.—Although a thaw in the Carpathians has turned the roads into mud and districts are inundated by swollen streams, the fighting continues. The Russians report that they have taken further heights in the mountain ranges, and repulsed attacks in the vicinity of Rostoki and also in the direction of the Stru, where the Austro-Germans were attempting an outanking movement. The Austrians make similar claims and disclose the fact that the Russians have been attacking also in southeast Poland and western Galicia apparently with a view to preventing the Austrians from sending any more reinforcements into the Carpathians.

Berlin, by Wireless to Sayville, L. I. April 17.—The Over-Seas News agency today gave out the following:

"Reports from Austrian headquarters describe the four-weeks' battle in the Carpathian mountains as the most gigantic in the history of the world, 3,500,000 men participating. This battle reached a climax several days ago. The Russian offensive was halted and repulsed with the most appalling losses. Each day a large number of trains conveyed the wounded to the interior of Russia. On some days as many as six hundred of these trains were used. The field hospitals are overcrowded with wounded and sick and thousands succumb without adequate medical attention. Captured Russian officers describe conditions as terrible and unbearable."

Berlin, via London, April 17.—Eugene Lennhoff, correspondent in the Carpathians for the Zeitung Am Mittag, estimates that the Russian losses in killed, wounded, sick and prisoners in the attempt to force away through the passes is at least half a million. In this connection Herr Lennhoff says:

"The strength of Russia's proud Carpathian army is broken, without coming any nearer the goal for which the Russian leaders cast everything into the balance. Its losses are prodigious. Bodies lie in heaps before our lines."

The correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger describes the Carpathian operations as the greatest in history. He says that fully two million men, altogether, have been engaged in this conflict. The battle, he continues, has taken a heavy toll from the Russian nobility.

Vienna, April 17.—The official Fremdenblatt declares that all reports of an alleged intention on the part of Austria to conclude a separate peace with Russia, are devoid of foundation.

London, April 17.—The British India troops have inflicted another defeat on the Turks in the vicinity of Shaiba, Besopotamia, although at a considerable loss to themselves, their casualties being about seven hundred. This announcement was made by the India office in an official report issued tonight. The statement adds that the Turks, who number fifteen thousand, were compelled to retire nineteen miles. The Turkish losses are not given.

London, April 17.—Telegraphing from Sofia, under date of Thursday the "Times" correspondent says:

"A Russian fleet has bombarded Kara Burun, which lies inside the Tebatalja line on the Black sea, about fifteen miles north of Midia."

INVESTIGATORS WON'T PROBE COPPER STRIKE

Chicago, April 17.—The majority of teachers of sociology in schools and colleges are unfit, for the reason that their knowledge comes through books rather than practical experience, according to testimony given before the United States commission on industrial relations by Professor J. C. Kennedy, teacher of economics at the University of Chicago, and last week elected an alderman on the Socialist ticket. Before coming to Chicago the witness was a teacher at Cornell and identified himself as a practical sociologist by stating that he made a social survey of the packing industry in 1910-1911 for the University of Chicago settlement. Unskilled labor at the yards, at the beginning, was English and German, but now is largely Slavonic, he said. The workers receive an average of $10 to $12 a week when steadily employed, which most of them he said, are not. The low wages carry 1 aether train unsanitary housing conditions, child labor and a high mortality rate. Of the deaths in the stockyards district, he said thirty per cent. were due to tuberculosis.

It was announced that no inquiry into the 1913 strike of the Michigan copper miners would be made at this hearing. It had been planned to give William J. MacDonald, former congress from the twelfth Michigan district, an opportunity to make a statement on the strike and since James MacNoughton, general manager of the Calumet & Hecla, was passing through Chicago, he had been invited to appear also. Today, however, Mr. MacDonald telegraphed that he could not be present and the announcement followed.

KING GAINING HOUSE FRIENDS

Lansing, Mich., April 17.—Through an eleventh hour agreement between Chairman James Henry of the house railway committee and Representative Symonds and Wiley, chief opponents of the railway rate increase bill, the battle on that big issue will be deferred until next Tuesday when it comes up on the order of third reading.

The plans were all made for the fight when the bill was up before the committee of the whole this afternoon but it was agreed by all concerned that the bill might better go through committee of the whole without amendment and be placed on third reading where record votes could be had on the various phases of the measure and the battle fought in the last ditch.

Unless some of the opponents of the measure interfere with the armistice declared by both sides, there will be no discussion and no amendments proposed this afternoon and the bill will be passed by the committee of the whole to the order of third reading. It will be Tuesday before the measure would be ready for consideration on third reading and that is the day now set for the final test of strength.

Events of the last 24 hours have thrown a little more favorable light on the case of the railways, but the men in the house of representatives who usually are found on the winning side persist in the assertion that there are 55 votes against any railway passenger rate increase bill.

On the eve of the session of the house which will decide the issue for the present session the success or failure of the passenger rate proposal hinges on some 15 or 20 doubtful votes out of the 99 on the house side. That operating receiver Paul H. King scored a big advantage Wednesday night, when he appeared with Grant Slocum of the Gleanders before the Farmers' club of thirty odd members of the house none attempts to deny Mr. King's expression of willingness to stand for an investigation if the read was only given immediate aid already is reflected in the determination of Chairman James Henry of the house railway committee to propose an amendment granting the increase proposed in the bill for a period of two years or until an investigation by the state had determined whether the Pere Marquette and the other railways benefited were entitled to the increase.

This sentiment expressed by Mr. King removed the active opposition of the Gleanders and Mr. Slocum agreed to call off the flood of telegrams coming to the house members in condemnation of the bill as a result of the assurance that King would welcome an investigation. There have been numerous changes of individual sentiment in the house during the last two days. Recruits for both sides have been accepted.

The result of the two year compromise with conditional investigation has been to make the division in the house even more equal and more firmly establish the convention that two or three votes will decide whether the railways have even conditional relief.

Representative A. E. Petermann, probably the best legislative authority, the most logical speaker and one of the most popular members of the th house, will handle the case for the railways. Against him will be Representatives Wiley of the Soo; Symonds of Menominee, McMillan of Charlevoix, Hinkley of Petoskey and several others.

MISSING CLERK LIVED HIGH ON $75

Kalamazoo—Although his salary was only $75 a month Harry Irvine municipal court clerk, who is missing lived as though he had an income of $75 a day. Irvine kept two big high powered automobiles and left the city in one of them after he had learned that auditors were at work on the books.

Not only did he keep two automobiles, but he lived in a fine home in Kalamazoo and maintained a big summer place at Gull Lake, where he spent each summer with his family. Whenever anything was ever said about his personal affairs Irvine always explained that he had a big income from real estate business he did after hours.

Since his disappearance officers have learned that not only are his court accounts short several thousand dollars, but that there are nearly two dozen men in Kalamazoo from whom he has secured $200 or $300 each at various times.

Cook, Minn., will be with us next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. All are welcome to attend these services.

T. S. COLE TALKS ON COPPER AND BUSINESS

Thomas F. Cole, who has just returned from a business and pleasure trip to the East and Southeast, covering four and a half months, condemns "tariff tinkering" by both Democrats and Republicans, says the Duluth Herald. He says that, while the demand for copper plate is rapidly increasing, the producers are holding their mines and mills in check in order that they may not overdo it.

ATTEMPT TO KILL ABSENT VOTE BILL Lansing, April 16. An attempt to kill the Warner bill which enacts in law the will expressed by the people in amending the legislation to provide a means by which electors who are absent from their homes on election day may still vote was for a moment successful in the house. Indeed while the bill was in committee of the whole a motion to refer it back to the committee succeeded by a vote of 25 to 32 but when Mr. Warner demanded a roll call on the report of the committee only 25 voted to stand by the former action while 40 voted against it so the bill goes to the order of third reading.

R. L. Johnson is Surprised
R. L. Johnson, chemist at the plant of the Stephenson Charcoal and Iron Company, was delightfully surprised while at work in his laboratory at the plant last evening by a large number of his friends of this city.

The members of the party went to the Chemical Plant Location in automobiles, timing their arrival such that they were able to witness the furnace blast.

Before departing those who surprised Mr. Johnson, brought forth refreshments, which were served, bringing the affair to a close.

FIRE DAMAGES BUILDING

The building owned by John Smer and occupied by the Carl Johnson Hardware at 913 Ludington street was badly damaged last night when a fire that developed to considerable proportions before discovered by passersby at 12:30 o'clock. Two companies of the fire department immediately responded to a call and by working desperately at the source of the flames were able to quench them before they had spread sufficiently to damage, to any great extent, the stock of the store.

Just how the flames started will perhaps never be known. The rear workrooms were considerably damaged by the flames and the front windows of the building were badly damaged from gas explosions.

Both building and stock were insured.

The fire of last night was the fourth call of the fire department during the day. All other calls were of a minor nature with little or no damage.

The Power of Nickles and Dimes

To many people a nickel or a dime seems too small a coin to deserve much attention and these small amounts are spent carelessly an heedlessly without a thought to their real power.

During the year 1913 the Woolworth Stores, which deal entirely in 5 and 10 cent articles received these coins to the value of $66,228,072.

This enormous total indicates the tremendous importance of small sums. Add every one that you can possibly spare to your Savings Account—they will build up your balance in a surprising manner.

DRAKE RELAY IS STAGED

(Special to The Press.)
Des Moines, April 17.—A summary of the sixth annual Drake relay meet here today shows six broken records in twelve events, some by wide margins, and the time in a seventh lowered but it will not stand as a record the team being disqualified.

The only teams in the university section to win a place in more than one event were Chicago, North Western, Missouri, Minnesota. Purdue took one honor, first in the two mile race; Wisconsin took the same in the four mile. In the four mile University, the first six teams finishing all lowered the old record of 18:36 2-5. Wisconsin was first, Michigan second, and Chicago third. The Wisconsin team, consisting of Schardt, Merrill, Hedges and Harney, ran the event in the remarkable time of 18:04 2-5. Wisconsin led during the first, second and third shifts, but in the fourth, Carroll of Michigan forged ahead only to be nosed out in the finish by Harney of Wisconsin.

Four hundred and twelve athletes participated in the meet.

You see it first in the Press.

MEN ARE WELL MATCHED

(By "The Battler.")
Marinette, Wis., April 17.—Calling your attention to two young men who earn their livelihood by the use of their fists. George Chip of Pennsylvania, who is reputed to have punch enough to cause any living middleweight to do a Rip Van Winkle, and Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind. about whom one of the best things to be said is that he never knows when he is licked.

No matter which way you twist this combination of brawn and stamina it looks like a real fight. Clabby and Chip meet before the Vernon Athletic Club of Marinette on the 23rd and are scheduled to go 10 rounds.

Cutting this Queensbury proposition up into small bits and looking the pieces over carefully, we have on hand the following facts.

The weight 158 ringside favors Clabby as that is his natural weight or even lighter. Chip's best fighting weight is 162 before entering the ring.

So much for this fact. Now comes the problems in this connection. Nat-weakened through the taking off of so much weight. Will the Pennsylvania Sluggo be affected to such an extent that he will be unable to go the full rounds with Clabby who is a veritable demon over this thirty minute route. Hook your own answer.

Fact number two. Speaking from a scientific stand point Clabby stands out a full length in front of his rough rival. Jimmy is an excellent boxer who feints, side-steps, jabs and upper-cuts like a real master, on the other hand Chip knows but one style the old Battling Nelson fashion of boring in on general result basis.

The problem pinned to this detail, reads something like this. Can Chip working in the earlier rounds weaken his man, while he is strong so that he can either beat him to the floor or call about the intervention of the referee.

There is no question but Clabby is the more defensive puncher of the two, but Chip can send a fight crowd home with one well delivered blow to the right address. Clabby requires one assault after another with countless wallops to the head and body before he can wear an opponent to the finishing stage.

When it comes to gameness it is a blind man's choice. Bothier hearts have been tried in numerous rings about the country. They have been honestly beaten but always left the ring with a clean score for courage.

I've tried to screen a perfect fighting picture of the two principals in this fight. Hold both lads at arm length and do your own figuring. If you miss the mark say nothing. If you guess right stick out your chest and say: "I told you so." Last weeks opinion placed Clabby as the favorite but when Chip climbs through the ropes he will be well backed.

Simple, When You Know How

Saving money, like any other undertaking, becomes a simple, ordinary action—if you know how.

Earning money does not teach saving. The best savers are often those who earn only a few dollars a week. Those who earn more often are unable to save at all.

But having a Savings Account teaches how to save—it teaches because it helps—and it is the Safe Way To Save.
