JAPS ARE TRYING TO SALVAGE SHIP

Washington, April 21.—Commander Noble Irwin, of the cruiser New Orleans reported to the navy department today that he had investigated the Japanese naval activity in Turtle bay, lower California, and found no indications of other than salvage work on the stranded cruiser Asama. The commander's report was sent by wireless to Admiral Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, who telegraphed it to Secretary Daniels, as follows:

"The Asama still aground in St. Bartholomew bay. Only other vessels present one repair ship and two colliers. No indications of other than salvaging work."

Secretary Daniels had called on Admiral Howard for a special report, in view of press dispatches telling of the assembling of a squadron of foreign warships in Turtle bay, of a large camp established by the Japanese ashore, and of mines laid in the harbor. The Asama has been aground in the secluded Mexican haven since December, and the report indicated that the presence of other ships aiding in getting her afloat was being made the excuse for the establishment of a permanent base of operations.

The Japanese embassy issued a statement declaring the operation was solely for salvage purposes and denied that there was any intention of establishing a naval base, and later General Cantu, military governor of Lower California, telegraphed the Villa authorities that the Japanese activities were limited to salvaging the Asama.

Yesterday Admiral Howard sent orders by wireless to the New Orleans, which had left San Diego, Calif., on Friday for Mazatlan, Mex., directing commander Irwin to stop at Turtle bay, exchange the usual visit of courtesy and report on what was taking place there.

JAM'S SPORT COLUMN

Frank "Dreamy" Scanlon made his debut in the A. A. corral when he smoked them over for seven spasms against the Cleveland Spiders only to be nosed out by a count of 5 to 3. Boss Hayden jerked Dreams in the eighth when a pinch hitter was sent up to put the game on ice. While Dreams was on the hill the best Cleveland gang could do was to nick him for six clouts.

Sisler, U. of M. mound artist of par excellence is the greatest collegian performer in baseball circles. On Monday he mounted the mound in the seventh and breezed 9 Notre Damites besides winning the fray by macing out a triple with a maize and blue runner on the path. Sisler is being closely watched by big league ivory hunters and will be most likely seen in a Pittsburg unie.

The most famous Englishwoman "soldier" was Dr. James Barry, who joined the medical corps in 1813 and served at Waterloo and in Crimea. In 1858, after many promotions, she became inspector general, and it was not until many years later that the fact that she was a woman was discovered.

WILLIE RITCHIE A MOVIE ACTOR

Pittsburgh, April 21.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion boxer, will become a movie actor after his days in the prize ring are over. Willie has confessed that he will first regain the championship he lost to Freddie Welsh and then go into filmland. In fact Willie has signed a contract to be the "hero" in a photoplay.

"I don't think I was cut out for a clown, but I know I can do what anybody tells me and I figure after a little experience I will be come quite proficient as a movie actor. The name I have made for myself will help me no doubt to secure a good job, but I hope to show that I am capable of holding up my end. At any rate I intend to quit the ring," said Ritchie.

The former title holder, who is considered by many critics to be the best man at his weight in the world, is enthusiastic over his new job. "It goes something like this," said Willie. "I go to work in a factory, a poor young fellow, you see, and at once proceed to fall in love with a beautiful but poor girl. We become engaged, but in the meantime something unforeseen bobs up and it requires much money to fix things around so the knot can be tied. Then comes my chance. While walking home with my 'movie sweetheart' she is insulted by a ban of ruffians. I pick out the toughest chap, who, by the way, is a prize fighter, and clean him up. Shortly after I am persuaded to enter the ring, where I make my fortune. So you see I am a real hero and all."

THORPE, UNABLE TO HIT CURVE, IS ON GIANT'S BENCH AGAIN

New York, April 21.—It looks as though Jim Thorpe, McGraw's Indian outfielder, had been retired to the bench for the remainder of the season. Murray was in right field in the Giant lineup announced today and McGraw is said to be taking great pains in developing young Mr. Robertson, recruit fielder. Thorpe's inability to hit a curve ball is said to be the fault that made him a bench-warmer once more.

POINDEXTER IS A REPUBLICAN

Spokane.—The sole progressive in the United States senate, Miles A. Poindexter, of Washington announced here Saturday that he would seek re-election on the republican ticket. He took his seat as a progressive April 17, 1911 and his term will expire March 3, 1917.

Senator Poindexter arrived at his home here today and after a day's consultation with friends issued a statement which read in part:

"I will be a candidate for the republican nomination for senator. As the nomination is to be by primary, the people will have full opportunity to decide all questions connected with my candidacy. The record of the last legislature is a likely reminder that if we are to hold and 'consolidate' to use a war phrase, the ground gained in the recent years, the division of progressives must cease.

"There will be a concerted and a vigorous movement by republicans throughout the country to nominate a progressive on the republican ticket for president of the United States when united the party is progressive; both in this state and in the nation. Neither the Aberdeen convention in this state in 1912 nor the Chicago convention of that year represented a political coup d'etat by force and Machiavellian methods with swarms of armed policemen on the door and

THE FIGHT

In 5 ACTS BY HAYARD VEILLER AUTHOR OF "WITHIN THE LAW"

Its a fight by a woman against the corruption that permeates the city of which she wants to be Mayor. Jane Thomas is rich; lovely; young; and she owns a bank. Moreover she is ambitious to "clean up things" when she becomes mayor—that's the way of women—they are so earnest; so thorough; and so impracticable.

Jane Thomas' candidacy "raised Hell" amongst the crooked politicians and vice merchants of the city. So they sought to compromise her in public esteem by inveigling her to a road house of questionable character and surreptitiously photographing her in the company of a man! The scheme failed because a girl I protegee of hers warned Jane and took her place. Then they tried to ruin Jane's bank by a manufactured run upon it, and failed again. Finally, Vance, a dance hall keeper, when Jane called upon him to demand the release of a girl who had been decoyed into that den of infamy, locked her in a room and threatened her life. But she was rescued and Vance was killed. Jane was elected Mayor and she saved her hand and heart to the man, a Doctor, who had been faithful to her in her "fight."
