

GERMANS SAID TO BE DEMORALIZED AFTER TERRIBLE FIGHT OF TWO DAYS

SPAIN PREPARING FOR COMING CONFLICT

Rivers Run Red With Blood of German and Allies Soldiers as Mighty Battles Continue ---Kaiser's Men Said to be Repulsed and Retiring under heavy fire.

BULLETIN
London, April 27.—The Allies have resumed the offensive at three of the most bitterly contested points of the western battle front, North and east of Arras, at Les Eparges and in Alsace. Two of the four villages lost to the Germans in the initial drive through the Allied line in north Ypres are retaken. In addition the recapture of Lisserne is again confirmed by Berlin, the French have retaken Het Sas and the British have launched a terrific offensive against St. Julien. The offense of the Germans Hartmannswellerkopf is caused by Kaiser Wilhelm's visit to Alsace. He and the Empress entered Strassburg Sunday by a local commander. The French have recaptured the Hartmannswellerkopf town. But the losses were tremendous, as it is announced at a dinner of commanders who ordered the famous Hartmannswellerkopf summit taken. The French merely retired nearby and have already recaptured Hill No. 60, a valuable asset to the British. The Germans have quit bombardment. The allied aviators are active in bombarding six towns.

London, April 27.—Medical evidence shows that Canadian soldiers lost their lives in the recent fighting, not of bullet wounds, but of poisoning gases used by the Germans, meaning a warfare contrary to the Hague. The war office has issued an appeal for respirators for the troops protection against the gases.

BULLETIN
(By Dr. E. J. Dillon, International News Service, London Daily Telegraph)
Rome, April 27.—The Partisans of neutrality are jubilant today over the course taken by the negotiations since Friday which presages a favorable, according to the Italian press, according to the Italian press, according to the Italian press. They admit that neutrality will practically mean the revival of the triple alliance. Their beliefs are not wholly groundless. The interchange of views was uninterruptedly between Austria and Italy today. The Pope has taken a great hand and his sympathy is with France and Belgium but he is working to save Austria.

Menominee, Mich., April 27.—Menominee and Marinette baseball fans and business men gathered at the Menominee Commercial Club headquarters here tonight to discuss the baseball situation for the Twins for the coming summer. It will be necessary for each town to raise about $1500 and it was said at the meeting of tonight that Marinette had already raised $1000 of that amount while Menominee had not yet attained so high a figure. There seems to be little doubt among local fans but that the money can be raised and that the Twins will have a team this season. Another meeting will be held at an early date.

BULLETIN
New York, April 27.—Spain is preparing for war. A special commission has opened headquarters here to buy 25,000,000 cartridges, automobile trucks and aeroplanes. The bank of Spain has given an unlimited credit. The secret plans were obtained by the International News Service from a merchant, who has had charge of the confidential negotiations. Consul Salas said: "Yes, we are buying war supplies. We are preparing for war. It is wise to be ready."

The ladies of the Congregational church of Garden met at the home of Mrs. Theo. Hazen last Thursday. As this was the last time the president, Mrs. Columbus, would be present, the meeting was made a social affair. The ladies presented her with a set of silver spoons in appreciation of her loyalty and earnest work. Mrs. Comfort then read an original poem entitled, "On Bidding our President Adieu." Dainty refreshments were served. The Misses Winter and Filkins of Rapid River and Gladstone assisted the hostess.

On Belgium Frontier, April 27.—There were terrible losses by the Germans in a great effort to smash the Allied line, which was thrown away. The remnants of the German force which passed the Yser possessions at Lisserne were almost annihilated. There are no Germans on the left bank of the canal. The fight is more terrible than in autumn when the canal ran red. Along the section line east and west of St. Julien towards Gravenstafel, the British thundered in to the German trenches a murderous hail. They threatened the rear of the German line. The offensive has definitely passed to the Allies whom will undertake the biggest offensive yet.

WOMAN IS CALLED AFTER LONG ILLNESS
After a long illness Mrs. Sarah Witt passed away yesterday shortly before noon at the family home at 1316 Ludington street. Mrs. Witt was 61 years of age at the time of her death and had been a long sufferer. She is survived by her husband and two children. The funeral will be held at Thursday afternoon at the home with Rev. Hoard, pastor of the First Methodist church officiating. Interment will take place at Lakewood. The woman was widely known in the city and her death comes as a subject of much sorrow for all who knew and associated with her during her lifetime.

(Special to The Press.)
Appleton, Wis., April 27.—George Arnold, Escanaba, and Louis P. Gross, son of Dr. J. O. Gross, Escanaba, attended an inter-fraternity dinner party given Friday evening by the members of the fraternities at Lawrence College, where they are students. One course of the dinner was served at each of the four fraternity houses, the evening's festivities terminating with a "songfest" and other informal entertainment. About eighty men were present. CRYSTAL FALLS IS RETRENCHING

Of changes that have been found necessary in the city of Crystal Falls through the cutting off of funds formerly derived from liquor licenses the Diamond Drill of that city says:

Mayor Robert Munns made several changes immediately upon taking hold of the city office. The garbage wagon, which had commenced operation the first of April, was laid off. The second night poundmaster told to suspend operations until the council met. Mr. Mounds went through the city hall and arranged a change in the fire department whereby the department will consist of two paid men, one to be on duty day and night alternately each week, one man staying at home nights.

Two volunteer firemen will sleep in the fire department quarters for which a small compensation will be allowed. The young men who stop there are Elmer Carlson and Alex Leonard. The clerk was let go out of the electric light and water department and it is probable that several other changes will be made. In an interview with a representative of The Diamond Drill, Mayor Munns stated that he is opposed to the city carrying a stock of electrical appliances and fixtures; that lamps and the material for wiring houses is all he would be in favor of carrying, allowing the merchants of the city to furnish the other material. The matter of finance has not been broached yet but something will have to be carried throughout the summer in addition to the city officials and the fire department.

ROOSEVELT AROUSED

(By James J. Montague)
Syracuse, N. Y., April 27.—William M. Ivins, raked the record of Col. Roosevelt as a president today. Ivins secured an admission from Roosevelt that while President he never instructed the attorney general to prosecute the United States Steel Corporation or the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. "I did," the Colonel exploded, when asked if he ordered the prosecution of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford railroad. Roosevelt gets his fighting spirit up in recalling his letters assailing Barnes "of all the bosses in the United States, there are none fitter than Barnes."

CATHOLIC CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Members of the Catholic Woman's Club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Stolk at 322 Hale street when a musical and literary program was carried out much to the enjoyment of those in attendance. Following the close of the program refreshments were served by the hostess.

FIGHT FANS INCREASING

Indications last night were that Escanaba would send far over a hundred people in her delegation to the Clabby-Chip bout at Marinette tonight aboard the special train which leaves the Chicago and Northwestern station at 5:30 o'clock promptly. The train will depart promptly at the hour designated and those who do not arrive at the station before that time will be left behind. No time will be lost in making the run to Marinette as the train has been chartered by Escanaba people alone and no stops will be made enroute. Lewis Stangby, who is, by the way a strong supporter of Chip, in the big battle, last night stated that he still had a number of seats which he was holding for the Escanaba delegation. Though the big combat, between Jimmy Clabby and George Chip is attracting an immense amount of attention and considerable money is changing hands on the big battle the preliminaries will be of a high standard and of a first class order. The Dory-Farmer battle is the choice of the two, but the Halligan-White encounter will be no child play. The two preliminaries are made up from the best of the notables in the fight game in the Twin Cities and that is saying a whole lot. Marinette and Menominee probably have more real prize fighters than any other two towns of the same population in the country. The biggest share of them are young men and comers. Following the battle at the Marinette Armory the Escanaba Elks will be guests of the Marinette Elks at their temple.

ZAPATA RUSHING 10,000 MEN TO AID

(Special to The Press.)
El Paso, April 27.—Villa telegraphed the International News Service that Zapata is sending 10,000 men close in the rear of Obregon's Irapuato army. They already have cut Obregon's railway and wire Vera Cruz communications.

COURT IS NEAR END

JURY DISMISSED AND CIVIL ACTIONS HOLD ATTENTION OF COURT. ARE HOTLY CONTESTED

The April jurors were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge Flannigan and the greater share of them had returned to their homes in different portions of the county last night. The dismissal of the jury leaves only a few non-jury civil actions to be heard before Judge Flannigan before the formal closing of court in Delta county. The action of Hans Abramson and others versus Selma Carlson and others occupied the attention of the court yesterday afternoon. In this case Abramson is suing for an injunction to restrain Carlson from operating a blacksmith shop within eight feet of the Abramson residence. Atty. Cuddy is appearing for Carlson while Atty. A. H. Ryall assisted by James Frost, is representing Abramson. On Thursday morning at 9 o'clock all who have been convicted at this term of court will appear for sentence. This will wind up the business of the court for this term.

LOCAL PASTOR IS OFFICER

Rev. C. A. Lund, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of this city, will act as a member of the board of trustees of the Superior conference of the Swedish Lutheran church, to provide for the formal incorporation of that organization. Mr. Lund also will act as a member of the conference board of charities. Other members of the board are Gust Eriksson, Iron Mountain and John Carlson of Marquette. The annual meeting of the Superior conference has closed at Gladstone after a most successful session. One of the important matters determined upon was the establishment of a home for the aged and a receiving home for orphans and dependent children of members of Swedish Lutheran congregations. The matter of finding locations for these institutions will be in charge of the board of charities of which Mr. Lund is a member. The officers of the conference district elected for the ensuing term are: President, R. A. Fant of Iron Mountain; vice president, Rev. G. A. Ackerman of Bessemer; secretary, A. G. Silversten of Rhineland, Wis.; treasurer, A. J. Hasselblad of Ishpeming.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR CRYSTAL FALLS WOMAN

The Misses Ethel and Winnifred Finley entertained at their home at 410 South Elmore last evening at three tables of Auction Bridge, honorary to Mrs. J. F. Corcoran of Crystal Falls who is visiting at the Finley home. Following the card games refreshments were served by the hostess.

FAIR PARTY BIG SUCCESS

A similar event of greater magnitude than that which was staged on the second floor of the Fair store last night, has never before been attempted or arranged in the entire peninsula. Over 500 Escanaba people in which were included the employees of the Fair Savings Bank Department store and their friends last evening gathered to take part in the first event of its kind ever arranged in the north country. The front half of the second floor had been cleared of all furniture and fixtures and the floor waxed for dancing. To the rear of the dancing floor were the card tables where those who did not dance were entertained. Four prizes were awarded to the card players. In the center and at the side of the immense room were the refreshment and lunch tables from which guests were served. Promptly at 9 o'clock the Olmsted orchestra opened its program of excellent musical numbers and from that time until after midnight dancing was the first and foremost entertainment. The special numbers rendered by the orchestra brought rounds of applause from the appreciative dancers. The Fair Efficiency Club which arranged and staged the function of last evening, truly did themselves proud. They left nothing undone to make the evening pleasant for every person in attendance. From the time that the guests entered the building they were royally entertained by the members of the club. As a first event of its kind ever arranged the party required a great amount of hard work and those who made a success of it last night are deserving of great praise. Their efforts should indeed be appreciated by those who were in attendance.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED

PHYSICAL INSTRUCTOR OF LOCAL SCHOOL OUTLINES PROGRAM FOR ANNUAL FIELD DAY PROGRAM

Final plans have been practically completed for the annual Field Day program which is to be staged at the South Park grounds on June 4. The physical instructor in the local schools who has the program in charge has been working in conjunction with the teachers during the past several weeks and with Supt. F. E. King has announced the program in full which is given below. The feature of the annual Field Day events this year will be similar in nature to that of last year in that it will be called the "Grand Review" but the drills will be considerably different and more beautiful. It will be remembered that the event of last year was the most stupendous of like nature ever arranged in the peninsula and that it is to be repeated with even more children in action will be received with general satisfaction. From this time forth all teachers of public school will be putting forth their best efforts that the Field day of June 4 will be a success from every angle. The following is the program of events that will be given at South Park on June 4: Grand Review—Grades 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8; Grades VIII vs. IX—Pole Vault; Running Broad Jump; 75 yd. LEGISLATURE IS ON LAST LAP

Lansing, April 27.—The legislature has entered upon the last week of its biennial grind and by holding two and possibly three sessions each day, the leaders figure that they will be able to clear up all the work that has been laid out. Owing to the clause in the constitution requiring that a bill must be printed and filed five days in either house before it can be placed on final passage, no House bills that were not passed this week can be considered in the Senate, and no Senate bills that are not already printed and on the desks of the members can be taken up in the House.

MACHINE DAMAGED IS BROUGHT HERE

At the plant of the Raymond Log Loader Company here, a big loader recently damaged by fire through the carelessness of the operator, at Wausaukee, is being given extensive repairs. Of the accident that resulted in the damage to the big machine the Wausaukee Independent says: The Peshtigo Lumber Co.'s gasoline loader was destroyed by fire at the company's logging camp at Taylor Rapids on the Wisconsin Northwestern railway Wednesday morning. There is nothing left of the big machine except the iron and steel, and it is not known just how much of this material can be used again as water was thrown upon the machine when it was afire, rendering many, if not all, of the parts worthless. The log loader was mounted on a flat car, for convenience in moving from place to place, and was enclosed in a cab made of lumber. One of the men started a fire in the cab in the morning and returned to the camp a few minutes later the cab was a mass of flames and beyond hope of saving. The log loader was valued at about $3,500. The wreckage will be shipped to Escanaba, Mich., where the machine was manufactured, for repairs. The flat car on which the loader was mounted was only slightly damaged.

MANY VISITORS AT HOSPITAL

Hundreds of local people on Sunday visited and inspected the new St. Francis hospital, following which the new structure was closed for public inspection. From this time forth all patients for the St. Francis hospital will be placed in the new building and the old building will be allowed to gradually empty itself of patients. A direct passageway has been constructed between the old and the new building so that the nurses will give the ill of both buildings attention without great inconvenience. There was an almost constant stream of visitors at the hospital Sunday and in every instance there was satisfaction. The new building is now ready for business and it remains only for the public to get sick to try out

According to all accounts from Syracuse, the Roosevelt-Barnes crowd of republicans who governed the state of New York for many years in perfect amity must have been a tough lot—New York World.

It is fair to Barnes to remember that he never pretended to be better than the game, and there is no evidence that he ever thought the game was wrong. The colonel has sometimes found it expedient to pose as a person of finer fiber—also part of the game, perhaps.

Year's ago even the late Tom Platt remarked: "They call me a 'practical politician,' but in that respect I take my hat off to Roosevelt."

The profound practicalness of the colonel's practicality will develop more and more as this suit goes on. What chance had a mere local adept like Bob LaFollette against the peer of Platt and Hanna, and great fat fryer of 1904!

DR. KELLOGG SAYS STATE IS STINGY

Battle Creek—Dr. J. H. Kellogg of this city, whose gift of $1,000 shamed the legislature into considering the health needs of the state, declares that Michigan is the most bighearted civilized community in the world in safeguarding public health.

The legislature of Pennsylvania appropriates 30 cents per capita each year for the state board of health, the legislature of Michigan will appropriate but one per cent per capita for the same purpose, and will thus annual sacrifice thousands of lives for the sake of a reputation of being economical," he said today.

"If the legislature would appropriate $100,000 for health work, thousands of lives could be saved yearly. Grand Rapids appropriated money for the safeguarding of public health, and the death rate in Grand Rapids is lower than that in the rural districts."

SLAYING OF M'MANUS DESCRIBED BY WIDOW

Chicago, April 27.—Five weeks on the way, and for some mysterious reason held up by the machinery of the department of state, a letter reached Chicago from the widow of John B. McManus, the American rancher murdered by Zapatistas in Mexico. The letter was written to Miss Elizabeth McManus, 4950 Prairie avenue, sister of the American who died in defense of his home.

On the envelope was stamped in red ink: "Received Through Department of State in Diplomatic Pouch."

Written three days after the tragedy, it contains sharp criticism of the Washington government for its Mexican policy. A reminder of the rebukes addressed to Secretary Bryan recently by Miss McManus and by Very Rev. Dr. Kelley, president of the Catholic Church Extension society, is contained in the following passage from the widow's description of the funeral:

"Because of the conditions we were unable to have church services, and he was buried with only services at the grave. The American priest, Father Luckie, officiated, but because of his disguise you would not have recognized his calling. He was bearded, and untanned, wore an ordinary suit, had a black scarf tied about his neck, and wore a funny little English cap. The American men came in a body."

"I cannot understand why the letter has been so long reaching me," said Miss McManus. "I have heard no more. I don't know what may have happened since."

The letter from the widow was as follows: "Apartado 707, Saturday, March 13, 1915.

"As you know, perhaps, I was not living at the house at the time of the occurrences, but had taken the children to a place of greater safety some six weeks ago. We had all begged John to either come with us or move the stock farther into the city, but he scoffed at the idea, saying that he was capable of protecting himself and his property, and I am just beginning to realize the hell he had lived there to do it. Because I was so worried for his safety, he had not told me of the numerous times he had been shot at and searched, or how often he had had to face, alone, the dangers of the present anarchical conditions in Mexico. It is hard to imagine a case of greater courage and bravery, or a more wanton murder than his.

"Thursday morning, upon finding Obregon had abandoned the city without one guaranty, I rushed to the telephone, got John and he told me that the Zapatistas had passed the house on their way into the city, but so far had entered quietly and that everything was all right. I went into breakfast, but had only been there about ten minutes when the servant rushed in saying that the Zapatistas were attacking the house. I ran for the phone, but communications had been cut off, so Mr. Fuller, a friend of ours living in the same house where the family is, went immediately for help, while I called up everyone I knew who could give immediate assistance, beginning with the Brazilian legation.

"They sent a machine out the minute they got my call, with flags and protests, but even then they arrived too late. It was only about three-quarters of an hour from the first telephone message until I got another from the house saying that John had been killed."

UTILIZING THE BACK YARD

Ingenuity Must Be Displayed in Laying Out the Small Space That is Available.

The problem of combining some semblance of design with the uses to which the average city back yard is put is a difficult one. Take a trip on the elevated in summer and consider the acres of waste land and the countless wasted opportunities in those sad, hot, dusty back yards. Think of the tons of delicious vegetables they might have raised, the lovely flowers.

Gracious! let's not think of it any more—let's get out our seed catalogues and pencil and paper and plan to have our back yard an oasis this summer.

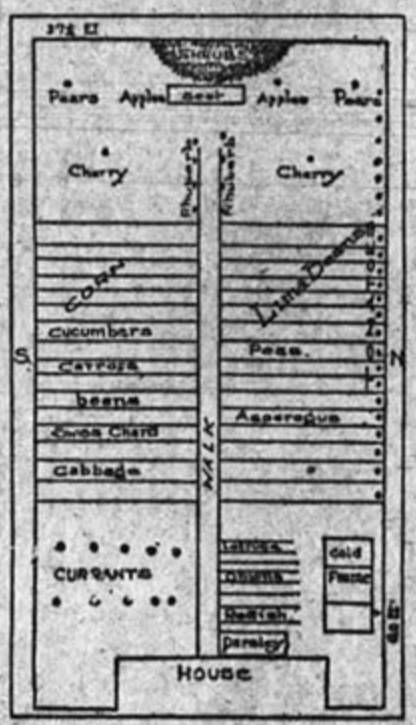

Here are suggestions for the planting of very small yards. The design shows a garden 25x60 feet of lawn, shrubs and flowers, the whole completely hidden from the street by the heavy planting in the northwest corner.

The yard is 37 1/2 x 60 feet and has a small cold frame at right.

In the cold frame can be raised the twenty-four tomato plants that later go against the north fence, the earliest crops of lettuce, radishes and onions and the first planting of sweet corn and cucumbers.

The six dwarf fruit trees, the clump of shrubs at the end of the grass walk and the bench make an attractive outlook from the back porch.

A delightful flower and vegetable garden can be achieved in a planting space 20x60 feet by dividing them with a pergola. Suppose there is a long walk down the middle of the yard. It will seem less long because of the little rustic pergola dividing flower from vegetable garden.

Grass surrounded by flowers and shrubs would be employed to make the little flower garden in front of the pergola restful and beautiful—an outdoor room of great charm.

The pergola itself should have grape vines trained over it.

Behind it would come the biggest outdoor workshop imaginable, the vegetable garden.

At the right an asparagus bed—if the bed is properly cultivated and fertilized. Peppers, eggplant or cauliflower can be grown between the rows of asparagus.

Against the fence would be two rows of tomatoes (even in a small garden one must grow many of them, they are so satisfactory), lettuce, radishes and onions, six hills of rhubarb and the cold frame.

At the left, Swiss chard, beans, three hills of cucumbers, and sweet corn—a quarter of the garden in sweet corn, the most delicious vegetable in the garden.

Protecting Trees on Highways. A movement for a law prohibiting the nailing of advertising signs on trees on the public roads of Rhode Island, inaugurated by the National Highways Protective society, is deserving of encouragement. Trees are valuable property. Nails and spikes driven into their trunks invite decay, and the signs, besides being offensive to the eyes, afford refuge for insect pests. The state law proposed has the merit of protecting the trees from injury and of making the roads more attractive. In five states laws against this kind of outdoor advertising are in force, and it is stated that the restrictions meet with general approval.—Providence Journal.

Plants 56 Miles of Roses. Fifty-six miles of roses were added to the beauties of Portland, Ore., with the planting recently of 100,000 bushes. They have been purchased as a result of the campaign started by the city beautiful committee of the Rose Festival association, the purpose being to make the city more than usually attractive in preparation for the coming of visitors on their way to and from the exposition at San Francisco.

Many roses worth one dollar were sold by the committee through the cooperation of florists at 12 1/2 cents each. The bushes sold are large enough to bloom in time for the rose festival next June.

WOMEN IN SWEATSHOPS MAKE $40 ANNUALLY

Paris, April 26.—Some extraordinary statements regarding sweatshop wages in this country were brought out in the senate Friday during the debate on a bill to fix a minimum wage throughout France by boards created by the government. Jean Morel said that between 900,000 and 1,000,000 women in France are now enduring insupportable servitude and receiving wages barely sufficient to maintain life.

M. Morel, Henry Cheron and Edouard Heriot stated that 27 per cent of the workers at home on household linen goods make from 2 1-10 cents to four cents per hour by intense industry. In some provincial centers, pay for such work is one cent per hour.

In Paris 14 per cent of the women working on under garments make a maximum of $40 yearly. Makers of artificial flowers employing much taste and manual dexterity are able to make in the best season from 80 cents to a dollar per day, but more than 50 per cent never are able to get beyond 30 or 40 cents. In the provinces women working on underwear and ready made clothing are able to make only 10 to 12 cents a day, in most cases, and rarely as much as 20 cents.

PIONEER MENOMINEE BUSINESS MAN DIES

Menominee, Mich., April 27.—One of Menominee's prominent pioneer business men succumbed this morning, Ferdinand C. Nowack dying at the family home, on Main street at 3 o'clock of gangrene.

Mr. Nowack was born in Prussia in 1846. He came to America with his parents in 1855, locating in Milwaukee. In 1869 he came to Menominee. For a few years he was employed by the Kirby-Carpenter company and forty years ago he engaged in the ice business, being the first to start the business of dealing in ice on the river.

He later engaged in the coal and cement business, the firm being known as the F. C. Nowack Co.

In 1873 Mr. Nowack was married and was the father of ten children. Mrs. Nowack died many years ago and later Mr. Nowack was married a second time. His widow and the following children survive: Walter, Edward, Paul, Menominee, Robert of Chicago; Mrs. Fred French, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Frank Smith, St. Paul. Three sisters also survive, being Mrs. Charles Nimmer of Milwaukee; Mrs. Gadois and Miss Ida Nowack of Menominee.

The decedent was a member of the Turner Verein, Sons of Herman and Past Regent of the Royal Arcanum. He served as overseer of highways of Menominee township; was a supervisor of the county and served as alderman of the Seventh ward for many terms.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence. The Turners will have charge and the Rev. A. W. Bill will officiate. Interment will be made in Riverside. Robert Nowack of Chicago and Mrs. Nimmer of Milwaukee are expected today to attend their father's funeral.

"Mike's" friends will bury him. "Red Mike" outlived his time, but his optimism or his hearty nature in the old days of Detroit, the Considines flourished, when when emen gambled, he had money. "pickers" replaced the silk-hatted and lean years came to "Red Mike" "square" gambler and man of word. Charity replaced opened prosperity.

JEALOUSY CAUSE OF SLAYING AFFRAY

Muskegon, April 26.—Jealousy led Mrs. Albert Steele, self-confessed murderer of her 11-year-old step-daughter, Evelina, to commit the crime, declares the father of the child.

The man who will have charge of his funeral, Undertaker James Hayes, was a man with whom he often jested about death, being willing to gamble that he would live the longest.

They saw that he did not want. They found him suffering and sent him to St. Mary's hospital. They will see that he has a decent burial.

After an autopsy had shown Thursday afternoon that the girl was not in a delicate condition as the mother claimed, and that no illegal operation had been attempted, as she asserted in her original confession, Mrs. Steele was again cross questioned and finally admitted that she had murdered the girl. She had blindfolded the child bound her hands, and forced her tongue from her mouth and poured poison down her throat, she said. The poison was procured two weeks ago with several other drugs from a local dispensary.

"Then I held her in my arms until she died. I next pulled up two boards in the woodshed floor and buried the body," said Mrs. Steele. "At 3:30 o'clock Thursday morning I became afraid the body would be found so I dug up the body and placed it in the alley."

A charge of first degree murder has been placed against Mrs. Steele by Prosecuting Attorney Galpin.

Evelina was last seen alive Wednesday morning. The father, believing she was visiting an aunt, did not miss her until 9 o'clock at night. Then after a search, when it developed that Evelina had not been at her aunt's, the police were notified.

FREDERICK W. SEWARD DIES AT EIGHTY-FIVE

Montrose, N. Y. April 26.—Frederick W. Seward, assistant secretary of state in the cabinets of President Lincoln, Johnson and Hayes, and son of the Civil war secretary of state, William H. Seward, died here today in his eighty-fifth year.

Mr. Seward was the messenger sent from Washington to Philadelphia to warn President Lincoln that his life was in danger if he followed his itinerary through Baltimore. Four years later he was at his father's bedside when Payne, one of J. Wilke's Booth's accomplices, pretending to be a messenger with medicine for Secretary and beat Frederick Seward into the sick room, Payne slashed Secretary Seward many times with a knife. Both Seward recovered. Later Payne was captured and executed with others involved in the plot.

Frederick W. Seward was born in Auburn and was closely associated with his distinguished father in all of the latter's public activities. He was one of the earliest leaders of the Republican party.

The funeral services will be held in Auburn and burial will be in the Seward family plot in Fort Hill.

WOMENS PEACE MEETING HELD AT THE HAGUE

The Hague, April 26.—Difficulties on all sides have been encountered even before the opening of the meeting of the International Women's congress, which is scheduled to gather here this week to discuss peace. The steamer Noordam, which was due yesterday with the American delegates, has not arrived, although it is expected momentarily. The German authorities have refused to grant permits to the chief German delegates, and the British delegation after having been cut by the British government to one-sixth the original number, have been unable to cross the channel, owing to lack of shipping facilities.

The Swiss delegates telegraphed today: "We have been prevented from coming." They gave no explanation but it is assumed that Germany has declined to allow them to pass. The French women from the outset have declined to participate.

FINANCIAL FEAT OF CUDAHY IS RECALLED

Chicago, April 26.—John Cudahy, one of the founders of the Chicago packing industry and millionaire board of trade operator, died at midnight. He was ill four years and was aged seventy-one. Cudahy won the admiration of business and financial leaders, when, in 1893, he lost a fortune estimated at $3,000,000, was plunged into debt for $1,500,000 and in five years had repaid every obligation. Besides he amassed another fortune.

The failure of the Cudahy company in 1893 was regarded as one of the greatest disasters ever experienced on the board of trade. Within two hours after he failed six other concerns collapsed. The Cudahy failure was the result of the panic and an attempt to corner the pork and lard market.

SAY THEY NEED ARTIFICIAL LIMBS

New York, April 26.—An appeal from France for artificial limbs has been received by the war relief clearing house for France and her allies, whose executive offices are in New York. The appeal states that the subject is giving great concern to the American relief clearing house of Paris.

It is declared in the appeal that the time has arrived when artificial limbs may be adjusted to those who suffered amputation in the early months

JOHN L. GIVES JESS A FEW POINTS

With the coming of a white heavyweight champion, John L. Sullivan has been unable to withhold his delight. Advice to Willard has been coupled with his expression of joy, and out of a long statement presented to the public print by the ex-champ the following bits of admonition to Jess Willard have been gleaned:

Not to get a swell head;
Remain the same good fellow he appears to have been before;
Retain dignity without letting brow expand.

Don't hit the high places.
When gang comes around and he is invited to have a drink, he wants to say "No" most decidedly.
Should meet challengers.
Public likes champions who fight and not pose.
A fancy boxer who gets licked is not so much in demand as a boxer less fancy who wins.
Will make big mistake if he boxes negroes.

ATTACK DARDANELLES BY SEA AND LAND

London, April 27.—The attack on the Dardanelles has been resumed. All that is known of the attack is contained in a brief report issued by the war office and admiralty this evening which simply says that in spite of serious opposition troops have been successfully landed at various points on the Gallipoli peninsula and that their advance continues.

The attack is being made by the land, the sea and the air. The allied armies are playing an important part in the operations, in locating positions and dropping bombs on the Turkish guns and trenches, and directing the fire from the warships, which are covering the landing of the troops.

The Russians are doing their share by making a demonstration against the forts at the Black sea entrance of the Bosphorus.

HYPNOTISM IS USED ON BRITISH SOLDIERS SUFFERING FROM SHOCK.

London, April 27.—Hypnotism is being tried with some good results in the treatment of soldiers who have broken down under the shock and the strain of the battlefield.

The patient is seated in a chair and is brought under hypnosis in the ordinary way. He is told to clear his mind of all other thoughts and to concentrate on the single subject of his cure. If, as often happens, his vision is affected by "shell shock" he is told quietly and firmly that the defect has been cured and that he can once again see clearly. In some cases a single sitting is enough, in others the treatment is repeated many times.

PEACE PACT AGREED UPON BY RIVALS

New York, April 27.—The Morning Telegraph says:

Despite the fact that many of the big league magnates who met out in Chicago last week for what was supposed to have been a peace conference denied the existence of any talk that might lead to a truce between organized baseball and the Federal league, it is stated on high authority that a peace agreement between representatives of the warring factions was reported. The agreement was signed by the magnates of the American league, headed presumably by Ban Johnson, and President Gilmore of the Federals. The National league did not enter into the agreement but it is practically an assured thing that they will do so within the next few weeks.

The terms of peace provide for a hands-off policy by both leagues the remainder of the season and probably largely accounts for the return of Shortstop Reed by the Brookfields to the Phillies on Saturday. There will be a complete reorganization next year, in which many radical changes are promised. The Feds and the two Class AA leagues will be welded into two leagues, it is likely, and it would not surprise many of the baseball experts to see at least one change in the makeup of the National or the American circuit.

The action of the National league magnates has been under contemplation for some time back and negotiations have been started again and again to effect a reconciliation with the Feds, only to have them fall through every time because of some point of disagreement. The minor leagues, however, have protested vigorously against the continuance of the war, as the brunt of the suffering has fallen upon them, and at least one of the important Class AA organizations is said to be on the verge of discontinuing business because of the havoc the Gilmores have wrought in the matter of opposition.

MANY BRITISH COMMING TO U. S.

Washington, April 27.—If the war in Europe continues long enough the British will regain their ascendancy over the peoples of other nationality in the United States. Since the war more immigrants have come from the British Isles than from any other land. In the years preceding the war Italy furnished more than did the British Isles, and so did Poland.

The explanation given by the bureau of immigration is that transportation from England is less hampered than from any other country. Germans are coming in small number and the same is true of the various races making up the Austro-Hungarian empire. Russia is losing comparatively few to the United States.

With immigration reduced, as a whole, to about one-third its ante-bellum proportions, the British are coming in the usual numbers—if not more so.

For the eight months following the outbreak of the war the total number of English, Irish, Scotch and Welsh immigrants received was 83,516. On this basis this year's total would be about 124,000. The total for the year ending with June, 1914, was 108,019. German immigrants total for the eight months of the war period, 23,348. French immigration to America has been light for many years. The 11,793 arriving thus far in the year is about the normal number.

IS PROUD OF THE U. S. NAVY

Washington, D. C., April 27.—The navy of the United States is "larger, better equipped and in better condition" than at any previous time, "and the fleet is becoming more efficient with every passing month."

This assertion is made by Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, in a letter to President Harry A. Garfield of Williams College, made public Sunday. It is in reply to a request for an authoritative statement concerning the present status of the navy equipment of the United States. Without naming them the secretary pay his respects to George Harvey, editor of the North American Review, and other critics by saying that "certain persons ignorant of their ignorance and for selfish, partisan reasons have busied themselves with misrepresenting the true conditions of the navy." He insists that the last two years have been epoch-making in the navy.

ALLIES FIRST TO USE TERRIBLE GAS BOMBS.

London, April 27.—One of the developments of the world war, in apparent conflict with the previous international law, is the use of gas bombs that poison the atmosphere in the neighborhood of where they explode. It appears that the allies were first to thus bring chemistry to their aid, and now the Germans have made the weapon much more deadly, as shown by the Canadians' experience near Ypres.

French military writers are discussing whether the allies ought not to.

MANY SEEK PRINCE JOACHIM'S HAND IN MARRIAGE

London, April 27.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says:

"Prince Joachim, the German emperor's youngest son, is still at Field Marshal von Hindenburg's headquarters, where he has received several hundred proposals of marriage during the last few months. Most of the letters were signed by names prominent in the aristocracy."

Have Faith in Laughter.

It is an excellent thing to believe in the religion of laughter. And the strictest religionists in the world devoutly believe in laughter. The pilgrims at Mecca consider it such an essential part of their devotion that they call upon the Prophet to deliver them from sad faces.

RADICAL BILL WILL FAIL TO APPROVE

Lansing, Mich., April 26.—Tonight the legislature entered on the last week of its biennial grind and by holding two and possibly three sessions each day, the leaders figure that they will be able to clear up all the work that has been laid out.

Owing to the clause in the constitution requiring that a bill must be printed and filed five days in either house before it can be placed on final passage, no house bills that were not passed this week can be considered in the senate and no senate bills that are not printed and on the desks of the members today can be taken up in the house.

It is now a certainty that no radical liquor legislation will be enacted at this session and the election code will not be changed to any great extent. The house, the conservative branch of the forty-eighth legislature, persistently has refused to pass many of the so-called progressive measures sent over by the senate and many bills of vital importance introduced in the house have not been given favorable consideration.

Although it was expected that Senator Paul's bill creating a state athletic commission to control and regulate boxing contests in Michigan would be considered by the house in committee of the whole Friday afternoon, no action was taken on this measure because a number of representatives interested in the bill had gone home for the week-end adjournment. The teachers' pension bill was also passed for the day and will be taken up at the Monday night session.

AUSTRIANS USE EXPLOSIVE BULLET

London, April 26.—Official documents discovered at Przemysl, says a Petrograd dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Co., reveal that the sudden cessation by the Austrians of the use of explosive bullets following the threat of the Russian commander that every Austrian captured carrying such bullets would be shot, was due to an order issued to ammunition depots at Przemysl that in future such cartridges must not be issued except upon a signed order from the general staff. In spite of this, however, the dispatch says, The Austrians continue to use ammunition of this nature. As an example it is stated that on April 18, on a front of forty versts (about twenty-seven miles), in the Plijeva-Nida region, they fired explosive bullets exclusively.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

Hauling Produce More Expensive Here Than in European Countries—Total Haulage Expense.

"American farmers have begun to figure the matter of roads a little differently than in former years," says President Claude S. Briggs of the Briggs-Detroit company of Detroit. "When the good-roads movement was in its infancy they used to ask themselves 'How much will good roads cost me?' Thanks to the intelligent propaganda of the daily and farm papers as well as other agencies farmers are now asking themselves 'How much are bad roads costing me?'"

"According to government experts the cost of hauling a ton of farm produce a mile varies from seventeen cents in localities where fairly hard gravel roads exist to thirty-five cents a ton in parts of the country where the roads are in poor condition. On the other hand, in those European countries where hard roads prevail the cost is as low as nine cents a ton a mile. The department of agriculture has estimated that the total haulage expense to American farmers for a year is approximately $500,000,000. And every dollar of this sum comes from the farmer's pocket, for he is the one great producer who cannot add the haulage expense to his wares, for the prices he gets are on a delivered basis.

"I believe that if every farmer would take pencil and paper and figure the amount in tons of the produce and stock he markets in a year, multiply it by the number of miles he must haul it to market, multiply the total by 25, which is about the average hauling cost a ton a mile, and then consider that he could save nearly half of this amount every year if he had concrete or other hard roads all the way to his market, he would become an earnest good-roads worker.

"And this actual dollars and cents saving doesn't take into consideration the many advantages of good roads in bringing neighbors closer together, in making it easier and pleasanter to get to church, school, entertainments, etc.

"With wider interest in better roads must come a more efficient system of road building and maintenance. This is work for experienced and competent highway engineers, just as much as building a railroad is the work of highly-trained specialists. It is no plaything for politicians."

SLOW IN TAKING ADVANTAGE

Certain Loss Due to Bad Roads Made Apparent When Sledding is Good During Winter.

The heavy snows and excellent sledding serve to emphasize what might be accomplished if good roads prevailed all over the country. Farmers can take their bobs and put on twice as heavy loads as is possible at other times. It is not argued, of course, that with roads as smooth as a dance hall floor the teams could pull on wheeled vehicles the loads they do now on bobs. But there is a certain loss due to bad roads that is made all the more apparent by the ease with which transportation is made when the sledding is good, says South Bend Tribune. And to think that for all these years nature has been showing us the advantage of good roads and we have been so slow to take the hint! It should make us ashamed of our blindness and stupidity.

GERMAN NATIONS SONG DOESN'T INDICATE HOPE

New York—"As a teacher of the German language and a member for several years of the New England German Language association, I protest against the absolute unfounded allegation that the German national song, Deutschland, Deutschland, Ueber Alles, contains even the slightest indication of German hopes for world conquest," says Dr. Karl O. Gertling of the Aetherland.

"In this song Germany is characterized exactly as it might be by a teacher of geography within the sober walls of a class room.

Love of German Soil.
"Love of the country as it is—defined explicitly by her boundaries, and with not a shadow of a reference to anything outside—love of this country, of German soil, and all it means—is the entire and sole essence of this much-suspected national hymn.

"While the supreme value of the life of others may be in pursuit of happiness in this world, to Germans the supreme value of life is supposed to be pursuit of duty first to the cause of their country. From its safety alone may eventually evolve the chance to pursue happiness also.

"Ueber Alles" means that there is nothing more previous in this world than loyalty to one's country. "Ueber Alles" means above everything and involves a valuation in terms of comparison. "Alles" is a neuter, it can never stand for "Alle Welt," or "Alle anderen Volker," nor is it permissible to translate "in der Welt" as "above or over" all the rest of the world.

"Any other interpretation either shows how little the German language is understood in this country or else it indicates a willful misinterpretation, and I challenge any teacher of the German language in this country to prove that this translation is not adequate.

"The most fanatic German hopes merely for the completion of a Germany which comprehends that which he may claim as German; he abhors that which is not German. To subjugate the U. S. A. in the form of conquest, which is the latest scare employed by the yellow press, cannot ever be the aim of a German patriot. May this press, however, be warned gently of a real surprise which is coming of another conquest bound to come as sure as fate.

GIRL SOLDIER PROMOTED IN RUSSIAN ARMY.

Petrograd, April 27.—Army orders contain news of the promotion of a young woman, Alexandria Lagerov, to a lieutenantancy. With sixteen other girls, belonging to families of Don Cossacks, she has been fighting alongside male relatives since the beginning of the war. Eight of them have been killed. Lieut. Lagerov was made a prisoner, but she killed her guards, escaped and led a reconnoitering party which captured eighteen Uhlans.

HANDLING THE CASH

By LAWRENCE ALFRED CLAY.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

They had been married six months—George Curtis and Kitty Cline. All had gone well, when one afternoon Kitty's Aunt Prue came visiting. She hadn't seen the young wife since her marriage and, after drawing a long breath and getting a good toe hold, she said: "And now I want to ask about George:

"Is he a kind and loving husband?"

"Why, Aunt Prue, George is just the best man in this world!" was the enthusiastic reply.

"How much salary does he get?"

"Twenty-five per week."

"And how much do you save per week?"

"Save? Why, we haven't saved anything as yet."

"Then it's wuss than I thought far—far wuss. Who handles the money?"

"Why, George does, of course."

"That's it—that's it! He handles the money and does what he pleases with it. It is no wonder."

"But doesn't the husband always save the money?"

"He does where the wife is an idiot. Lord alive, child, any wife is five times as capable of handling the house money as the husband. We never should have been worth a hundred dollars if I hadn't taken the money matter into my own hands."

When the subject was changed the wife found herself thinking it would be very nice to handle the money, but was almost sure the husband would not consent, but he came home with a surprise for her. It happened he had heard that Aunt Prue was at the house that afternoon, and knowing her ideas on finance he suspected.

"Kitty, I've been thinking things over today."

"What things?"

"Don't you think you could make my salary go further than I do?"

"Yes, I do, but—"

"Then I'll turn it over to you for the next three months."

"You are so good, George."

"You can run the house and everything."

"Why, I surely thought you would object."

"But you see I don't. I have saved $50 in the last six months, though I was keeping it secret. I guess, however, you can beat my record and not try very hard."

"I shall surprise you, dearest."

She surprised him all right. As there were only two of them, he had been buying porterhouse steak. For dinner they now had a round, and seeing that she was a tenderfoot the butcher had charged her the same price. The grocer weighed her sugar and butter short, and there was a skimping of potatoes. In two weeks, however, the wife had managed to save $14, and then Aunt Prue came again.

"You don't want to put your money in the bank," said the old lady. "You send for one of those second-hand sewing machines that are advertised as good as new. You can surely save thirty-five dollars."

"I will."

"A man called at the house yesterday with stock in a silver mine to sell. It is a stock to be sold only to ministers and widows, but after some coaxing, and after promising never to tell, he let me have fifty dollars' worth of stock for $15. It will pay dividends of 50 per cent.

"But I'll buy the stock for you now, and in two weeks you can pay me for it. Never miss a good thing if you can help it. I would not say anything to George about it if I were you."

During the last month of the three the husband looked so starved and anxious that the wife expected to hear him say any day that he must turn to barks and roots to get enough to fill up on, but he carried the thing through like a patriot.

"Well, the twelve weeks are up," said the husband one evening.

"And I think I can show you that I am a bit of a financier," was the proud reply.

The sewing machine had been brought over that afternoon, and the husband was led into its presence.

"How much?"

"Only fifteen dollars."

"I know of three second-hand machines here in town that you can buy at five dollars each, but never mind that."

"Here is some silver stock that Aunt Prue bought for me."

"Then she ought to give you your money back, for that swindle was exposed years ago."

"Oh, George, have I been swindled?"

"Most surely, but what else?"

"I bought two seashore lots."

"I heard you had and looked them up. They are on the edge of a big New Jersey swamp."

"And—and—"

"Did you buy half of Lake Erie for a melon patch?"

"Not quite. I only bought some stock in a Peruvian gold mine."

"I see. Now we will figure up what you have saved in your twelve weeks."

"Don't, George—don't!" she sobbed.

"But, you see—"

"If you won't, you may call Aunt Prue an idiot."

"As I was going to say—"

"And you may handle the house money to the last day of your life!"

And George grinned and kissed her, and Aunt Prue hadn't been in the house since.

LOW WATER IN LAKES MAY CAUSE A DECREASE

Detroit, Mich., April 26.--Low water may cause a decrease of our million tons in the ore carrying capacity of Great Lake steamers this season. William Livingston, president of the Lake Carriers' Association, said tonight the water is lower than for several years and seems to be falling rather than increasing in depth. "We have been loading our boats on the basis of a 19-foot draft," Mr. Livingston said. "It is almost certain we shall have to reduce this to eighteen and a half feet. Each inch of draft makes a difference of 175 tons in a cargo of ore. If all our vessels are forced to carry the lighted loads, it means a loss of upward of four million tons in our ore shipments for the year."

CARLSON WAS NOT PASSED BY COUNCIL

Through an error the name of Alfred Carlson was included in the list of retail liquor dealers whose applications for licenses were approved by the council on Monday evening. Carlson was one of the applicants for a license considered by the council but his name was not reported out with the list of those accepted by the council and his name was inadvertently included in that list.

UNCLE JOE GANNON IS DANCING ARTIST

San Francisco, April 27.--Congressman Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, tonight kept a promise he made five years ago, by dancing a waltz in the New York state building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. The former speaker is a member of a congressional party en route to the Hawaiian Islands. The promise was given at the time San Francisco and New Orleans were fighting for the possession of the exposition. Mr. Cannon, then speaker of the house, declared that if San Francisco should be selected he would visit the grounds and participate in a Virginia reel. Tonight, after a banquet given in honor of the congressional party, "Uncle Joe" was reminded of his promise (which he fulfilled at once. Owing to a slightly bruised knee a waltz was substituted for the more strenuous "hoe down." Congressman Cannon will celebrate his seventy-ninth birthday anniversary May 7.

NEWS PAPER MEN FACED EXECUTION

Washington, April 27.--Secretary Bryan today instructed Consul Sullivan to investigate a complaint that Philip McCleary, an American newspaper correspondent in Mexico, had been sentenced to be shot for sending out uncensored dispatches. Friends of McCleary appealed to the state department in his behalf, giving the first information received here concerning the man's arrest. Officials accepted as authentic the press dispatch from El Paso tonight stating that McCleary was released soon after his arrest and was at Vera Cruz.

SWINDLERS GET RICH ON FAKE CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS IN PARIS.

Paris, April 27.--Inquiry by the judicial authorities of Paris have revealed, saying the Matin, that out of 147 charitable organizations formed since the war, seventy-five are swindlers. Thirty-five of them are reported to be conducted by men released from prison before or after mobilization. Two of these "philanthropists" were destitute when the war began, and now they have handsome town and country residences.
