

ITALY IS PREPARED

PARLIAMENT WILL RECONVENE TODAY AND ADOPT WAR RESOLUTIONS

(Special to The Press.) Rome, May 19.—Tomorrow the eyes of the world will be turned on Rome upon the reconvening of Parliament. The cabinet's decision has been definitely taken, and Parliament will sanction it. The proceedings will be simple and according to precedent. As in the last war with Austria, the government will introduce a bill consisting of one article in which will be embodied all requirements for the prosecution of war. Austria has made one last attempt to prevent war, submitting new concessions. They were turned down by a unanimous vote of the cabinet.

Lieutenant General Count Cadorné, Chief of the Italian Staff, has arrived with his staff on the Austrian border. Although the trains have been waiting to take them to the border since Monday, Ambassadors von Buelow and De Macchio are still here, although the former's baggage and servants have left. It is believed the Ambassadors will depart after Parliament convenes tomorrow.

Of the 508 deputies, it is believed more than 50 oppose war. Each was presented with a "greenbook" of all negotiations. Martial law was declared over all railroads.

(Special to The Press.) Paris, May 19.—The weather condition continues to be very bad and the fog extremely opaque. No action was fought during the day anywhere on the front. Tuesday night the Germans tried an attack against Lepretre woods, which was stopped.

(Special to The Press.) Petrograd, May 19.—The fighting is proceeding furiously along the entire front. The main object of the Austro-Germans appeared to be in the Przemyel region.

(Special to The Press.) Berlin, May 19.—Western front—On the eastern bank of the canal, north of Ypres, the fighting developed in our favor. South of Neuve Chapelle, the English prepared an attack with heavy artillery, but were repulsed. On the Lorete heights we took the trenches.

Eastern front—The further enemy forces, yesterday, were brought up to the sector of Shagery-Fruenburg. North and south of Niemen the fighting continues.

(Special to The Press.) Amsterdam, May 19.—A telegram from Berne says that the Austro-Hungarian and German consuls, in general, left Rome with the consuls.

(Special to The Press.) New York, May 19.—The Cunard line gave out the following cablegram: There is absolutely no foundation for the report that the Transylvania was chased by a submarine or any attempt made to torpedo her."

(Special to The Press.) Athens, May 19.—Seven British ships participated in the latest bombardment of Smyrna. The action commenced Sunday morning and lasted, with one interruption, until Monday afternoon. The Allies fired over 500 shells.

(Special to The Press.) Washington, May 19.—Ambassador Gerard notified the State Department that the German note would not be ready for at least a week. It probably will be ten days, therefore, before the note is made public in Washington, though Berlin may publish it before reaching here. News of the sinking of the British ship, Drumcrue' of Carden by a German submarine and the unfavorable comments of the German press on the United States' note, caused a pessimistic feeling here. Germany may suggest to the United States that the United States make an investigation of the manifests of passenger ships which have sailed from American ports since the commencement of the war carrying munitions for the Allies. Under the United States laws it is unlawful for passenger ships to carry any munitions except small arms. There is a division among officials on whether to send a note to Great Britain or not. The note is yet unprepared. Some officials urge one dealing with the British violations of the International law.

THOUGHT BON AMI WENT TO BOTTOM

Considerable apprehension was developed at various Green Bay ports early in the week over the safety of the steamer Bon Ami. A report was circulated that the steamer had been sunk in the terrific gale on Sunday night. The vessel, however, remained at Sturgeon Bay throughout the gale and when it had subsided came to this port.

RIGGS BANK CAUTERIZED

(Special to The Press.) Washington, May 19.—Samuel Untermeyer, special counsel for Comptroller John Skelton Williams and Secretary of Treasury William MacAdoo, cauterized the banking methods of the Riggs Bank in arguing for a motion to dismiss its case against its clients. He characterized the Riggs's methods as "Lawless and defiant" and charged the officials with "Persistent and consistent violation of the National banking laws." He castigated the officers for their connection with the so-called promotion and stock exchange schemes.

DEPERE WILL ADOPT PLAN

As the result of a visit to this city when a committee of businessmen from DePere inspected the central delivery system in use here, the merchants of that city are to inaugurate the central delivery plan on June 1. A DePere correspondent says:

A meeting of the merchants who are interested in the delivery system was held at the city hall last evening and preparations made to inaugurate the cooperative delivery system in this city on a sixty-day trial, commencing June 1. John McHugh, former manager of Little Suamico creamery company, a DePere boy, was elected to manage the system. He will assume his duties on the 20th of this month and will have everything ready for operation by June 1. It will be necessary for him to arrange routes and a schedule when these routes will be covered. The equipments of the above named merchants will be gathered together and will be used from the central distributing station. Five deliveries will be made each day. It will be the aim of the members of such system to seek the cooperation of the public and thereby benefit their customers by giving the best possible service.

The committee which had charge of the organization work thus far is composed of Messrs. C. P. Jackson, James H. Lee and Max L. France.

CLABBY AND CHIP ARE SUSPENDED BY COMISH

Jimmy Clabby and George Chip, middleweight fighters, who staged the boxing contest at Marinette last month and then went east, where they were participants in another boxing match, have been suspended for a month by the New York state boxing commission, according to newspaper stories. The commission charges the fighters did not do their best in a scheduled ten round bout in Gotham, which was stopped in the eighth round and declared "no contest" by Referee Roche. The men were paid their money and prohibited from boxing in the state of New York for one month.

P. R. Legg of Gladstone spent yesterday in Escanaba. great change in the English administrative government, for its evident that under the present methods the war office cannot organize and mobilize a nation to its full nor secure the requisite supply of munitions rapidly enough. Upon Lord Kitchener has been the burden super-napoleon which he cannot stand. He has had the mobilization of the army and the supply of munitions both to look after. There is only one man who can organize the industrial forces of the nation for the production of ammunition—Lloyd George. He may head the new department—"Minister for Munitions." Kitchener is known to have an ambition to be Viceroy of India. Still (the old office of Commander in Chief may be revived for him.

AUDIENCE CAPTIVATED

Fritz Kreisler, in the opinion of many, the world's greatest violinist and certainly, in the opinion of Escanaba people, the greatest living, today, thoroughly charmed an immense audience at the Delft theater here last night. Music lovers from this city and cities and towns of the surrounding district combined last night to pay tribute to the art of one whose ability is world recognized. And it was a musical evening that will long be remembered and cherished by all of those who were fortunate enough to share it.

No less pleasing than the playing of the great violinist were the group of vocal numbers presented by Miss Tucker of Marquette. She is possessed of a truly beautiful voice and her numbers thoroughly completed, by giving variety, to be a never-to-be-forgotten program.

In assisting with the program Miss Tucker sang for her first number "Mein Glaubiges Herze" by Bach. In this number she really gave vent to the greater degree of her talent. She sang in a pure tone and a direct style which are so delectable in the Bach numbers. Immediately following she sang two songs by F. Morris Class "To You Dear Heart" and "Why Does Azure Deck the Sky." In these numbers the sweetness of the voice of the singer was more plainly exemplified. In the final number of her program Miss Tucker sang "Come to the Garden Love" and so persistent was the applause of the big audience that she was compelled to sing "Birth of Morn" by Francis Leoni. No greater tribute can be paid to Miss Tucker than in the words of Carl Lamson, the accompanist. He said: "I have never before played for a singer who was possessed of so much rhythm (Continued on page six.)"

CHOCOLATE SOLDIER IS BIG CROWD

A particularly strong attraction is the Chocolate Soldier, the presentation at the Peterson opera house this evening. The company is made up of 26 people and two special cars are used for them to travel. The play itself is one of known merit and presented as it is by one of the highest class companies ever to travel through the district, should draw a capacity audience of local theater goers.

BATTLE CREEK MAN IS ACQUITTED

(Special to The Press.) Marshall, Mich., May 19.—Walter Casser of Battle Creek, who was shot and killed by Forest M. Metcalf, his father-in-law on Dec. 1, was acquitted of manslaughter in the circuit court tonight. The jury was out two hours.

TWO BOATS LEAVE PORT

The Colonels and Turner steamed out of the local ore docks with load-cargoes of ore bound for lower lake ports. The ore movement has been very dull this season and the Northwestern docks have been receiving very small orders. The local officials contemplate that the ore business will be slack until June when things will pick up.

FRUIT LOSS IS GREAT

(Special to The Press.) St. Joseph, Mich., May 19.—It is conservatively estimated that the early morning frost today caused a loss of $250,000 to the fruit interests in this region. Grapes and strawberries were hardest hit and in some territory north and east of Benton Harbor, over a half the crop was wiped out. Trees, fruit and vineyards in the strip along Lake Michigan were undamaged.

TAG DAY IS ARRANGED

The annual "Tag Day" of the Women's Relief Corps of Escanaba, will be observed on Wednesday, May 26. Through the undertaking it is hoped by members of the corps to raise a sufficient fund to provide for a proper observance of Memorial day in this city. The Tag Days arranged by the corps in the past have been uniformly successful and every effort is being made by the members this year to allow the event to measure up to similar undertakings of the past. The cause is a most worthy one and all patriotic people will generously support it.

FACULTY WILL AGAIN APPEAR

The Faculty and Sophomores will look up at the South Park battling grounds today to decide leadership of the Interclass league. These two gangs have carried away the bacon once and as yet have not been forced to bow. Davidson is slated to be on the hill for the Faculty and has the whip all oiled up for the occasion. Hodgskin will do the hurling for the Sophs and will be backed up by the High school $100,000 infield.

Alfred Carlson is spending a few days with friends in Calumet.

RATE IS UPHELD

Local railway officials and employees are pleased over the decision of the interstate commerce commission denying the appeal of iron mining companies operating on the Michigan ranges for a ruling against a five cent increase in the ore haulage rate made effective in the spring of 1913. The appeal has been before the commission the past two years, and in 1913 several hearings were held at which the mining interests put in their case. While the railroads assumed from the long delay in handing down the decision that it would be favorable to them, there has been an element of uncertainty in the situation that they are well pleased to have removed.

In March, 1913, the railroads filed new tariffs proposing to fix up the rate on ore from Marquette range mines to Marquette at thirty cents and the rate to Escanaba and Ashland at forty-five cents, the rates previously in effect having been twenty-five and forty cents, respectively. As soon as the rates became effective, the mining companies appealed. The roads involved were the South Shore and the L. S. & I. shipping to Marquette, the Northwestern and the St. Paul, shipping to Escanaba, and the Soo Line, shipping to Ashland.

In the two year interval since the protest was made the railroads have been charging for ore haulage under the new tariff. If the mining companies had established their contentions to the satisfaction of the commerce commission they would have been entitled to considerable refunds.

JUNIORS TRIM THE FRESHIES

The Juniors took a jolt out of the conquering Freshmen ball tossers yesterday by making them biting their dust and take the count 5-2. The fray was a pitching duel with Germaine and Johnson sawing it off. Germaine, who was on the mound for the Juniors breezed through in great fashion holding the Freshie welders to three measly blows. The contest was the best fray battled out this year and it looks as if the Interclass league will be a hair breath finish. Johnson, Christensen and Johnson served at the battery for the Freshmen, while Germaine and Wkyer formed the battery for the Juniors.

OPERATION ON LOCAL LAD IS SUCCESSFUL

The many friends of Joseph Sturgeon will be glad to know that his operation has been successful and is mending along nicely. Mr. Sturgeon was operated on by the famous Mayo brothers of Rochester, Minn.

MOTOR CAR OWNERS BEWARE OF POLICE

Autoists beware. The police department is out after the hide of every auto or motorcycle owner of the city who hasn't procured his license or who hasn't got head and tail lights on their machines. The police station was crowded yesterday with motor car owners who are eager to get their licenses and escape arrest. It would be well to buy that license before taking the car out again.

DON'T WANT CENT VERDICT

(Special to The Press.) Syracuse, N. Y., May 19.—Theodore Roosevelt heard Counsel John M. Bowers, place the name of Roosevelt beside those of Washington and Lincoln in his last appeal to the jury in the $50,000 libel suit. Tomorrow J. Barnes, will finish the arguments. Bowers, just before closing with Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, said: "No six cent verdict—No compromising verdict of any kind—we want you to return a verdict of No cause of action."

DIXON IS CENTER OF OPERATION

Dixon is to be the future headquarters for the woods operations of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company. The headquarters for that department of the company's work was for a number of years located at Rumley. William J. Robarge, formerly of this city, has been conducting a general store at Dixon for the past several years and the latest move of the mining company will materially improve his business. Mr. Robarge was recently appointed postmaster of the village. Of the plans of the Cleveland Cliffs Company, an exchange says:

Within a short time the headquarters of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company's wood cutting operations, will be shifted from Rumley to Dixon, Alger county. The center of the operations will be at Forest Lake, half a mile distant from Dixon, where a latterly substantial settlement has been built up. The company has already erected twelve tenement houses, a school and a school house.

Dixon is to have a postoffice, and William J. Robarge was appointed recently to the office of postmaster. At Dixon, the Cleveland Cliffs has a central warehouse, a barn, repair shop, clubhouse and five bungalows which will be maintained as usual. The hydro-electric plant which furnishes current for the operation of the paper mill at Munising also is at Dixon.

LOCALS ARE HARD AT WORK

Mgr. Schram will have his batch of berth seekers out for their initial work-out at South Park today. Some of the old gang have been working out for the past two weeks and have taken off sufficient avirdepos to jump in at the sound of the bell. Fred Olmsted, who guarded the keystone sack for many campaigns, will be field captain and anchor at the old job. Stelney Aronson is caporing around the far corner sack in old time form and punishing the bulb in great fashion. Ernie Bourke, the good old vet is there with a big mitt in the left garden with old time pep and spear-jing them on all sides. Garland, Lantz, Murray and Duke Campbell have donned the old spines and are working like Trojans.

BOARD OF REVIEW REQUESTS WAIT

Members of the board of review have requested the public to wait a few days before calling for information in regard to their taxes. The board is now in session, going over the rolls and do not expect to complete their tasks before Monday and it is urged that no requests for information be made until Monday or Tuesday of next week.

ESCANABAN WAS IN WAR

MARVIN BURNHAM OF THIS CITY RETURNS HOME AFTER UNDERGOING HORRORS OF EUROPE'S GREATER WAR

After serving in Cavalry A. Squadron of the Canadian army since August 21, 1914, after becoming a husband under Europe's motto "bread before you die," after watching the bombardment of Ypres, in France and after seeing and undergoing war, in all of its bitter horrors, Marvin Burnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burnham of South Park, returned to his home in this city, Tuesday evening having been discharged because of illness.

The young man has almost fully recovered from rheumatism from which he was suffering and when interviewed yesterday, seemed rugged and healthy, apparently none the worse for a winter of bitter cold, spent back of the English lines in France. On August 21, of last year, young Burnham was accepted at the Canadian recruiting station at Estavan, Sask. From here he was transferred to Quebec where with the 23,000 other Canadians, he was trained until Oct. 14, when in 33 transports, they started for the scene of activities. Fourteen days later they landed at Plymouth, England where this, the first contingent of Canadian troops, remained a few days before being sent to Salisbury Plains where they were placed in training. Here young Burnham was placed in A. Squadron of the Cavalry division of the Canadian army and here they were reviewed for the first of the many times, by Lord Kitchener.

Thirteen hundred of the Canadian troops were given horses and trained for cavalry work and the local lad was among them. It was while Burnham was stationed here that the request was passed out by the British government that all soldiers marry before going to war in view of increasing the population by the birth of children and in the belief that many of the Canadians who married would return to England at the close of the war and make that country their home. In Burnham's case he met and married an Irish girl, the ceremony being performed free of charge for all soldiers. "Indeed, Burnham says, "there were marriages being performed on all sides." That London girls were married off by the wholesale. For two months the local lad lived with his girl wife and they were entirely happy and contented, he says. In time he expects to bring his "war wife" to this country or he will return himself. In many cases however, the husbands will either be killed in the war or will return to Canada and forget their wife of a few months and perhaps a child that has come to repopulate Europe.

From Salisbury Plains Burnham, with the Canadian troopers, went to Tidworth and from there to Canterbury. Here they were again reviewed by the war Lord of England. Burnham speaks of Kitchener in the highest of terms and says that all soldiers have the utmost confidence in his views upon all things pertaining to war.

On March 30 the Canadian cavalry was transported to Calais and then dispatched a distance of over 20 miles to the English line. Here Burnham saw the bombardment of Ypres, the most sensational and destructive bombardment ever to occur in any war. (Continued on page six.)

PAY NEARLY HALF STATE EXPENSE

Washington, May 19.—Of $300,000,000 collected annually for purely state purposes in the Southern and Southwestern states railroad, banking and insurance companies especially, pay forty per cent—about $20,000,000 and of that sum, railroads pay almost half. Those and other extensive statistical details of taxation in the section named were disclosed today in the final portion of a report by the old Bureau of Corporations submitted to President Wilson. Other portions on taxation in other sections of the country have been published previously. Today's report covers Virginia, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. All the reports have emphasized the lack of uniformity in taxing corporations in various states and between classes of corporations in the same

Ald. Ed. and his chief henchman are now taking turns at attending the sessions of the council. One man always could carry out a set plan of action better than two.

As Gov. Ferris has expressed himself as unalterably opposed to legalized boxing in the state, his attention is respectfully directed to a match, law or no law, to be pulled off at the Soo late in the present month.

With renewed French-British activity in the west and a resumption of the Russian advance in the east it appears that the Kaiser has little time just now to trouble with such trifles as a note of protest from the United States.

North Escanaba always was unlucky. Now a threatened war with Germany comes along to delay the selling of city bonds for the construction of the long awaited sewerage sewer.

vice for that part of the city. It's to cost Roosevelt and Barnes $60,000 to have a $50,000 libel suit tried at Syracuse, but each got a million dollars' worth of advertising by the court route and that was the principal object sought.

Ambassador Gerard has cabled, his government to proceed cautiously in handling the U. S. note. Evidently first hand information as to the state of Uncle Sam's temper has impressed the German ambassador that his brothers across the pond may be laboring under a number of misapprehensions.

Evidence accumulates that the captain of it submarine that sank the Lusitania was determined to make the horror all that he intended it to be. It is now testified that at least three ships were warned by the submarine not to go to the assistance of the Lusitania under penalty of being themselves attacked.

UNSWEERING LOYALTY.

In a time of national anxiety the hearts of all our people draw closer to each other. We remember that our cause is one, that the good of each is the good of all. So it has been in the crisis that is upon us now. There has been a strengthening of the ties that bind us; there has been a reaffirmation of our loyalty to our fellow citizens of German birth or blood, whose sympathies are most affected, whose hearts are most wrung. Some perhaps many, who have not put themselves in the place of these fellow citizens have failed to understand their love for their fatherland, have doubted, not knowing what attitude this might mean toward America. They have not realized that this love of country, so strong in the German nature, is one of the great sources of America's strength, that these men who still love, and nobly love, the land of their birth or of their fathers and who sympathize deeply with her cause, yet spoke no empty words when they gave their allegiance to America, but are ready to yield the full measure of their loyalty.

The answer to this doubt has been swift and sure. All over this country, in their press, in the words of those who have reached high station, in the letters and voices of private citizens, these men of German birth or blood have given assurance of their patriotism. Those who understood, who strove a little to put themselves in the place of their fellow men, never doubted. Today no one may doubt. Evidence has been abundant, but we cannot forbear to note another instance, the strong, clear letter of H. A. Kersting, a prominent member of the American Neutrality league to The St. Louis Republic. We want to quote just two of Mr. Kersting's sentences. He writes:

"As to the position of Americans of German descent regarding the Lusitania affair, we have nothing to say because President Wilson is our spokesman." No one has said, no one will say a better thing than that. It is the answer, of the American people of whatever blood or birth, with one voice speaking its loyalty.

And again: "We are for America against Germany, against England, against the world." It took a great heart to write those words. Only a true heart will understand their full pathos and the cost of that devotion so nobly expressed.

DERNBURG ASKS SAFE CONDUCT FROM ENGLAND

Washington, May 19.—Dr. Dernburg the unofficial mouthpiece of the German government in this country, desires to return to Europe armed with a British safe conduct for his voyage. It is very much of an open question whether he will get it.

At the doctor's request, Ambassador von Bernsdorff took up the matter with the state department informally last week. He indicated that Dr. Dernburg would like to have the United States government use its good offices to secure for him a safe conduct for the sea voyage from the British embassy.

The supposition seems to have been that the state department would be willing enough to do anything in its power to speed the German unofficial spokesman on his way. The state department, however, has not shown any activity about taking steps to secure for Dr. Dernburg a British safe conduct. It is stated that the department certainly will not make the request until it has learned what attitude the British government would take toward such a request.

THE GOOD JUDGE ATTENDS THE OLD SOLDIERS' REUNION. JUDGE, EVERY OLD SOLDIER IS JUST AS FULL OF PATRIOTISM TODAY AS EVER, BUT THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW GIVES US SUCH SATISFACTION THAT... WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN WERE GREAT PRESIDENTS... EVERY MAN NEEDS FRIENDS AND CAN MAKE THEM BY PASSING NEWS OF SATISFACTION... WE WANT YOU TO BE OUR GUEST OF HONOR.

WAR or peace, men are the same about their tobacco. When they find the Real Tobacco Chew they want to sing out "By golly I've struck it." Just leave it to a good soldier to share his find with a comrade. A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting. THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW IS NOW CUT TWO WAYS!! W-B CUT IS LONG SHRED. RIGHT-CUT IS SHORT SHRED. Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An aroma of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste. ### PANAMA'S CITIZENS SUFFER FROM WORMS

Panama, May 19.—The cabled report that sixty per cent of the population had been affected with the hookworm disease by Dr. L. W. Hackett, of the International Health Commission of the Rockefeller Foundation, is interesting in other respects. The report indicates that of the adult population 67 per cent are affected while of the children, practically 70 per cent have the disease in a more or less pronounced degree. The report of Dr. Hackett is the result of more than seven months investigation in all parts of the country. Ten thousand adults came under direct examination. "Routine examination of the blood," says the report, "showed that a large majority of persons living in the interior of the republic are directly anemic, the average blood being only 59 per cent of normal, indicating a dangerous degree of lowered resistance. Since the parasite affects the children, most heavily, stunting their bodies and minds and causing them to fall an easy prey to other diseases, the figures reveal an alarming condition existing among the rising generation. This state of physical debility is due to the complete absence of all sanitary equipment and regulation in both school houses and dwellings in the interior."

TO RISK NECK IN AUTO GRAND

Indianapolis—Caleb Bragg, the real millionaire of the automobile racing game, with 12 millions in cash, had cash to his credit, has signed to pilot Frank Galvin's Peugeot in the next Indianapolis 500-mile race. Galvin being held up as the result of injuries just received when his car overturned in practice recently. Bragg is one of the most famous drivers in the game, having won the 1910 Grand Prize and numerous other contents. Why he should want to drive a racing car, in view of his tremendous wealth, is a mystery to many, but he does it for the love of the game. As Ralph De Palma puts it, however: "If I had as much money as that chap, I'd wrap myself up in wool and never step off the sidewalk, instead of fooling around with a race car."

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE PETERSON

Brightest and best of all light operas that have filled the American and European continents with their tuneful echoes since the days of Gilbert and Sullivan in "The Chocolate Soldier," the well known work of Oscar Straus, leader of Vienna's musical circles, who has contrived to embody the spirit of the romantic comedy-satire, "Arms and the Man," of George Bernard Shaw in melodies that are yet on the lips of millions.

Still on the pinnacle of its popularity under the finished presentation of the Whitney Opera Company, "The Chocolate Soldier" is marching into town to be reviewed by the theatergoers of this city at The Peterson tonight.

At the time of the arrival of "The Chocolate Soldier" on these shores several seasons ago, the American light operatic field was so overrun with weeds in the shape of tenth-rate musical shows furnished with shabby music and paltry plots, that the flower of Viennese opera might have been expected to droop and wither before audiences that were flatly prejudiced against anything in an operatic guise. A less courageous manager might have hesitated. But Mr. Whitney has unbowed confidence in the merits of "The Chocolate Soldier" and the discernment of the American public. The result more than justified his venture. New York's most conservative and skeptical critics sided with each other in doing honor to the lyric fertility of Straus' genius. The night before the first American performance of "The Chocolate Soldier," comic opera was regarded as a dead issue. The morning after, every lay and professional devotee of the theater, saw the dawn of a new era for light opera on the horizon. Mr. Whitney and "The Chocolate Soldier" had won the battle. The opportunities for a manager to distinguish himself in presenting the strange foreign beauties of Bulgarian landscapes and interiors to a New York audience are unlimited, and in staging "The Chocolate Soldier," Mr. Whitney is conceded to have a new high-water mark for richness and faithfulness of scenic equipment. The company is an excellent one, comprising many well known artists, including the famous Whitney Opera Comique Orchestra of selected musicians under the direction of May Fichander.

Clara Kimball Young in "Hearts in Exile"

That truth is stranger than fiction will be acknowledged by all who see this remarkable story of Russian life unfolded on the screen. Russia has produced probably more idealists, more people would and have sacrificed themselves for the highest principles than all the other countries of the world. It seems incredible that a woman of the highest character, sweet, lovable and self sacrificing could be brought face to face with a situation whereby she is confronted with two husbands, to each of which she has been legitimately married. This situation which bears some resemblance to the story of Enoch Arden is but one of many thrilling situations which abound in the picture. The far reaching power of police officialism, the love of two men for a high-souled woman, cruelties and privations suffered by political and other prisoners who are condemned to exile in Siberia, life in convict stations, Cossack fights, and a real wolf chase, are incidents which are depicted with startling realism and conviction.

"Hearts in Exile" is a novel by John Oxenham founded on fact and the picturized version made especially for Clara Kimball Young has given her a wonderful story. In the part of Hope Ivanovna she has found a role for which she is uniquely fitted and her characterization of this lovable Russian girl is so remarkably appealing that she will undoubtedly win the greatest success of her career as a picture star. ### HORTON AND KEARNEY RELIEVED OF SUIT

Lansing, Mich., May 19.—State Tax Commissioners Kearney and Horton have been relieved of the task of making a fight in the supreme court for the raise in salary recently obtained by their resigning and being reappointed the next day.

Auditor General O. P. Fuller held back the boost on the ground that it would be unconstitutional to allow the raise because of the fact that the increase was made while the members of the tax commission were in office. The case of Barrus vs. Engel, appealed from a Wayne county court, is said to be parallel in its essentials to the Horton-Kearney controversy. Barrus was made a member of the Detroit civil service commission, but when he joined the board no salary went with the job. Later a salary was fixed at $2,500. The question at once arose as to the legality of raising the salary of a public official while in office. The Wayne court ruled that the salary should not be paid Barrus. An appeal was then taken to the supreme court.

TRANSYLVANIA TRAILO ESCAPES SUBMARINES

London, May 19.—The Cunard line steamer Transylvania, which arrived at Glasgow Monday from New York, encountered a submarine off the north west coast of Ireland at about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, according to the statement of passengers who arrived in London today.

They say the submarine appeared at a distance estimated variously at 400 to 800 yards away. The periscope and part of the conning tower were in sight for several minutes. The Transylvania's captain immediately turned the ship and steered a zigzag course until danger was past.

Some of the passengers declare that the submarine discharged a torpedo at the Transylvania and that they saw a stream of foam marking the course of the projectile. This is disputed by others, who say such statement are imaginative.

HONUS WAGNER DEMON OF ALL

It's sad, but true! Honus Wagner is standing on the brink and it now appears that only a slight shove will push him over. His 41 years have conquered him and the greatest career in baseball is nearing the end. Wagner has been a wonderful player, possibly the greatest athlete who ever engaged in the national pastime. Here are some of the things he has done:

- Batted in the .300 class for seventeen consecutive seasons.
- Led the National league in batting for eight seasons.
- Led in total number of hits two seasons.
- Led in total number of runs scored one season. Tied for that honor another year.
- Led in total number of two-base hits for six seasons.
- Led in total number of stolen bases for five seasons.
- Led in fielding at the shortstop position for two seasons.
- In the seventeen years he batted more than 300, he played in 2,282 games, made 2,971 hits, stole 659 bases, and scored 1,552 runs. Last season he hoisted the hitting total well over the 3,000 mark.
- Napoleon Lajoie has a chance to tie the batting record for total number of years in the aristocracy of baseball. He has batted more than 300 sixteen years. It looks as if he might make the grade again this year, and he may even raise the total.
- Of the younger men, the following are conceded a chance to excel Wagner's wonderful career:
- Ty Cobb, who has batted in the .300 class for nine consecutive seasons, with a general average of .372.
- Eddie Collins, of Chicago White Sox, in the .300 class for six consecutive seasons, with a general average of .345.
- Tris Speaker, Boston Red Sox, in the .300 class for six consecutive seasons; general average, .343.
- Joe Jackson, Cleveland, in the .300 class for five consecutive seasons; general average, .330.
- "Stuffy" McInnis, Athletics, in the .300 class for five consecutive seasons; general average, .318.
- Jake Daubert, Brooklyn in the .300 class for four consecutive seasons general average .323.

PSEUDO DEITZ FALLS ON NEW YORK STAIRS

New York, May 19.—The man calling himself Leslie E. Deitz, who was taken to a hospital suffering from a fractured skull as he was on the eve of realizing his purported ambition to present a petition bearing 3,000,000 names to President Wilson, requesting a pardon for John Deitz, "hero of Cameron dam," now serving a term in a Wisconsin prison for killing a deputy sheriff, probably will recover.

The man spent all his money to get to New York in an effort to reach the president during his review of the fleet. Overcome by hunger and exhaustion, he fell down a stone stairway and sustained injuries which at first were thought to be fatal.

Just received 40 head of heavy draft work and driving horses. Hesses sale stable. 1917-126-ft.

SUPT. SCRIBNER DIES SUDDENLY

Ishpeming, Mich., May 19.—F. E. Scribner superintendent of the Ishpeming school system, died suddenly from heart disease shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning, a few minutes after he reached the grammar school building on First street. He went to the school to discuss a business matter with the principal, running lightly on the steps, he entered the hall and began to stagger. Two children in the hall saw him as he grasped the stair post. His appearance alarmed them and they cried out to a teacher, who immediately came to his assistance. Mr. Scribner was unable to speak. Other teachers came quickly and the stricken man was carried into the principal's office where he died at 9:30. Mrs. Scribner and Dr. V. H. Vandevanter arrived before he passed away but Mr. Scribner did not regain consciousness which he lost when the attack came.

MCGRAW PAID KAUFFS $1,500 FINE, REPORT.

New York, May 19.—It leaked out here today that President Gilmore of the Federal League fined Benny Kauff $1,500 for his double slip-dop, Brooklyn to New York to Brooklyn, two weeks ago. Along with this was the 10-day suspension he served with no pay.

It is reported, however, that John McGraw manager, who induced the Federal star to desert his mates, paid the fine which was the stiffest ever handed a player in or out of baseball.

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES, SHOULD BE THIS MAN'S PLEA.

Detroit, Mich., May 19.—A Detroit judge will soon be called upon to decide a delicate question. In the midst of a recent game of baseball, with the score tied, the bags loaded, and two men out, Tyrus Cobb came to bat.

"Kill 'em kid," shouted Joseph Stevenson, an enthusiastic fan of this city. "Knock the hide off her."

Some one touched him on his arm. He discovered his wife had appeared when least expected.

"Strike one," yelled the umpire, and then "Strike two."

Here is where Stevenson hurled some uncomplimentary remarks at the umpire, and "Strike three, yer out," followed.

Joseph turned in his seat, and his wife alleges, with the cry of "Strike three" in his ears, he struck her right before the fans and that she also went "out" for a few moments.

Therefore she has filed a petition for divorce on the grounds of cruelty. The judge will be called upon to decide whether it was justifiable assault.

"KIG" COLE MAY NEVER PITCH AGAIN ACCORDING TO WORD OF PHYSICIANS.

Detroit, Mich., May 19.—Pitcher "Kig" Cole of the Yankees formerly of the Chicago Cubs, has been ordered by physicians to his home in Bay City following an operation for tumor. He may never pitch again.

as Miss Tucker and at every juncture she knew exactly where she stood and I did too.

Kreisler's program was in three groups, the first one being made up of two numbers that were the heaviest of his selections. These were a Vivaldi concerto and the "Devil's Trill," by Tartini, which latter composition was offered as an exposition of the artist's technique as much as anything else.

The second and third groups were more melodious, selections calculated to appeal to the finer musical sentiments, rather than to the admiration that might be evoked by simple dexterity.

In the second group the "Biclienne et Rigadoun" of Francoeur was the most appreciated by the audience.

In the third group Kreisler offered three of his own compositions and one of these, Caprice Vlenois," struck the high point of his music and his art in last evening at least.

The sincere appreciation shown by his audience of last night led the great violinist to respond on a number of occasions to vigorous encores. In that respect he was most prodigal and even at the conclusion of the program, when the auditorium of the theater veritably rocked with applause he again appeared and again was recalled to present as the final number, Humoresque, by Dvorak, familiar to all lovers of violin music and provided a most fitting close to an evening without precedent with music lovers of Escanaba.

HOT OFF THE BAT BY J. A. MORAN

Beware the Red Sox Carrigans crew have been upsetting all advanced dope on the race. The way the Bostonians have been galloping on the eastern rampage looks as though the scribes should postpone picking May pennants.

The Wolverines need a little elxir. The Maize and Blue diamond bunch have not been scalping the U's as the Wolverines of old did. At present the gang is hitting the pellet for an average of .125. Deducing the mighty wedding of the Sisler bat the Mich-ganders would hang up an average of .94.

Jack Coombs sure is pulling a come back stunt. The old Iron Man of the Athletics was thought about ready to cash in his checks but surprised old Cornelius and his now got his third straight victory stored away for the Brooklyn Dogders.

Yesterday was a big day for Cobb and Jackson when they landed the pill to the far corners in order to bolster up their averages. Jackson was tried out as a first sack guardian and came across with three wallops off the Red Sox pitchers. As for the Peach he carried out the watchful waiting policy and three free tickets. It is safety to assert that Cobb will pass Fournier for the batting laurels by the end of the week.

Dreammy Scanlon has been ordered from Milwaukee where the Colonels are battling with the Brewers, to make room for pitchers Danford and Reynolds. Frank was going in A-1 fashion in the A. A. Corral and it seems to be tough luck if he draws a blue envelope. The A. A. has a 16 player limit this year and has met with dissatisfaction with all the clubs in the wheel many a promising recruit being turned adrift.

The name Lehr has failed to appear in the Buffalo box score.

The Giants climbed into seventh place yesterday by beating up the Clubs. McGraw had a mortgage on cellar position for a long period handed rights over to the Clincy Reds.

Mr. Burnham described the city and the two weeks that he spent before Ypres as follows: "I was stationed back of the English line with the 1300 other members of the Canadian Cavalry. It was to be our business to cover the retreat of the English line should it be necessary. As no retreat occurred we had little to do but watch the progress of the bombardment of the ancient city of Ypres and the daily battles between the English and Germans. The weather was intensely cold, bitter cold, most of the time. We lived entirely out of doors and we simply had to become hardened to the cold or die. During the winter 2000 men died at this point from spinal meningitis, the physicians being unable to cope with the disease. They are at loss to know from where it comes but hope that the death rate will decrease with the coming of spring and warmer weather.

"I cannot explain the terrible horrors of that I have seen of the great European conflict. It is inexplicable. Hundreds were brought back in to our camp after the smoke had cleared away from each battle, some with arms gone, some with both legs shot off, some with one or both eyes gone and still others with such terrible body wounds that they could not live and died there in our camp. Because of the intense cold the suffering of the wounded was made greater. Though the Royal Army Medical Corps was constantly back of the lines to pick up the wounded, in many cases their assistance was of no avail. Many men were wounded during the progress of a battle an don the frozen ground, died before medical attention could be given them.

"The ancient city of Ypres is worthless today. All of its famous paintings, all of its ancient works of art are gone or destroyed. One can no longer see buildings standing in Ypres and nothing but ruination meets the eye of the observer. It is desolation itself. There are no homes there are no stores, there are no public buildings—the mighty shrapnel has done its work.

"After two weeks of service I became ill with what the physicians called rheumatism and received my discharge and was invalided back to Halifax. I remained there a few days then went to Montreal and Moose-jaw from where I came home.

"Are you going back?" Burnham was asked. "I may," he said "in the course of a few months, to see my wife."

"How did you get away alive with those truant shells bursting over and about you," he was asked. "I don't know, but I'm here."

SMALL AS WELL AS LARGE ACCOUNTS INVITED

JAILS AND PRISONS WILL BE ABOLISHED

Washington, May 19.—Clarence S. Darrow told the Industrial Relations Commission that he believed the day not far distant when jails and prisons will be abolished and hospitals will take their places.

"I do not mean that some people won't be confined," said he, "but they will be treated for their social ills and not punished. Punishment is barbarism, and the people generally are beginning to realize it. Some day we will try to wipe out the causes of crime and doctor criminals instead of abusing and misjudging them. Most folks believe themselves innocent no matter what they do.

"I believe Rockefeller and the Standard Oil have a most evil social influence, but Rockefeller thinks he is as innocent as any one, and justifies himself unto himself. Everybody thinks himself innocent."
Resistance of military order and constituted authority if that authority is abusive Darrow urged, was justifiable arguing that liberty always has been maintained by bloodshed. He urged the public ownership of lands, mines, forests and railroad, as the first steps toward the ideal social community.

"There is no final remedy for unrest, except the grave," declared Darrow.

Educational Limitations.

A small boy asked his father the meaning of equinox, and received this answer: "What in the world do you go to school for? Don't you study mythology? An equinox is a mythical animal, half horse, half ox. The name is derived from the Latin 'equine,' horse and 'ox.' Dear me, they teach you absolutely nothing that is useful nowadays!"—Acheson Globe.

Years Are a Measure of your business progress and earning capacity.

One young man of our acquaintance started a Savings Account here three years ago. The first year he banked and saved but twenty-two dollars.

The next year he saved over sixty. This last year, with a better paying position, he saved two hundred. He has solved the problem of independence with his bank-book.

If the years to come are to measure real success for you—YOU MUST SAVE YOUR MONEY. Open a Savings Account.
