AMONG THE THEATRES

"THE DELFT."
Turning the searchlight upon the frailties of the human kind and exposing to its rays the pitfalls of society, while at the same time pointing out the pathway to happiness and the triumph of true love, is the mission of Henry W. Savages marvelous production of the dramatic spectacle, "Every woman," which will be disclosed at the Delft on next Saturday evening.

It was fashioned after the ancient morality play, "Everywoman," but its interesting embellishments in bringing it up to date with the resourceful adjuncts of modern stagecraft, lights, color, costumes and scenery, have combined to add to add to its effectiveness.

"Everywoman" virtually means every woman. It is a chapter that might have been taken from the life of every woman. With keen penetration into the foibles of the sex, Walter Browne, the author, has laid bare a portrait while deftly analyzing woman's life. The lesson he has taught is a strong one. No sermon could be more impressive than this exquisitely mounted and acted play which drives home the great truth of right living. From the moment the curtains are parted upon the first act the interest is cumulative and absorbing. The lines are beautiful and there is not a weak or meaningless sentence in the book. A strong and masterful purpose is observed in every spoken word and the dominating note everywhere apparent is the high incentive which inspired the author to write it.

Nearly all the lines of "Everywoman" are spoken to music. The score is lofty and ambitious and was composed by one of the big men in American music, Dr. George Whitefield Chadwick, dean of the New England Conservatory of Music, of Boston. To properly interpret the score an entire symphony orchestra is carried by the organization from city to city. Henry W. Savage is proud of this production and rightfully so. In dignity and beauty and massiveness it has never been approached in the whole history of the American stage.

MACK TO DISPOSE OF TWO STARS

Philadelphia, Pa., June 30.—On the heels of the news of the disposal of Pitcher Bob Shawkey by the Philadelphia Athletics to the New York Americans came a report today that Shortstop Jack Barry of the former world's championship is on the market. Barry has not played in a game since June 19 because of an injury. Whether the Philadelphia club intends to dispose of Barry could not be learned. Manager Connie Mack is in Washington and other club officials here disclaimed any knowledge of the intentions of the manager.

It was also reported that it is the intention of Mack to get rid of his high-salaried men with the possible exception of Stuffy McInnis, first baseman and Amos Strunk, an outfielder, and one or two others. Mack is building up a new team of young players. Within the last few weeks he has added several young pitchers and two or three infielders to his string of players.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Obtainable everywhere.

CHARLEY WHITE IN SHAPE FOR BOUT

New York, June 30.—Looking fit to fight at a few hours' notice, Charley White, the Chicago lightweight, continued his training at Rye Beach today for his ten-round go with Freddie Welsh at the Brighton Beach A. C. Saturday night. White boxed with trainers, and he had so much force to his blows that they were all badly winded at the finish.

Interest in this bout hinges on the possibility that White will plant his deadly left hook on the vital spot some time during the engagement, despite the champion's safety first arrangements.

Welsh has given out that he means to take the aggressive from the start and hold it all through in order to prove that he is not merely a defensive boxer. No doubt he will do just that, if he means that crowding into close quarters is taking the aggressive

INSURANCE CO. TO SALVAGE LUMBER

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 30.—The Aetna Insurance company of Hartford, Connecticut, has taken steps to recover some of the lumber that was lost by boats that were wrecked in the storms last fall. About forty-five men were obtained from the Soo through a local employment agency, to do this work.

There is in the neighborhood of three million feet of lumber that was lost and the insurance company will attempt to salvage the most of it. The lumber is scattered along the north western shore of Lake Michigan, near St. Ignace.

After this is cleared up the company expects to gather up some of the lumber that was lost near Whitefish Point, last fall. There were three boats of the Hines Lumber company that were wrecked in that vicinity last fall.

FEDERAL PRISONERS MAY BE GIVEN WORK

Washington, June 30.—Attorney General Gregory arrived in Washington today after an absence of several days, most of which he spent inside the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga. He inspected the prison from the roof to the lowest cells, paid midnight visits to the inmates, watched them at recreation at work, at their meals and at rest during a quiet Sunday. As a result of his visit Mr. Gregory said today he hoped to find a way in which federal prisoners may be put at work that will allow the government to give a small part of what they earn to their families. Labor of this sort would be only for the government and along such lines as would not bring the prison-made goods into the open market.

GERMAN CATHOLICS PROTEST TO POPE REGARDING CHARGES

Rome, June 30.—Cardinal von Hartmann, archbishop of Cologne, and Cardinal von Bettinger, archbishop of Munich, addressed the pope, strongly protesting against a publication in Paris under the title of War and Catholicism, relating to alleged German atrocities, chiefly against the church.

The cardinals deny such atrocities ever occurred and declare Cardinal Mercier was never imprisoned, as asserted in the article. They said: "If the French and Belgian clergy continue such a campaign they will force the German Catholic clergy to resort to reprisals, giving the world an unedifying spectacle of Christian brotherhood."

PENINSULA ORE TO THE COAST

Of the possibility that iron ore from this district may this season go to the Atlantic seaboard steel centers an exchange says:

Lake Superior ore will reach the Atlantic steel manufacturers this year. A Philadelphia dispatch to the Daily Iron Trade says that an Eastern Pennsylvania steel company has just closed for a block of Lake Superior ore.

The coast situation has become so acute that freighting ore from Cuba is a serious problem and the company that purchased Lake Superior ore cannot increase its receipts of uban ore. The seller of the ore was a steel manufacturing company with mines of its own.

There has been some inquiry from the coast for Lake Superior ore at various times, but the cost of railroad transportation has prevented much use being made of Lake Superior ores along the Atlantic coast. This year the lack of ships and the very high freights that are being paid for ocean transportation more than equalize the railroad freight and the Lake Superior mines are likely to do a fair business in the extreme East.

STRENGTHEN SOX

Detroit, June 30.—That Charley Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, has made an offer of a large amount of cash along with three or four ball players for Ray Chapman, star infielder of the Cleveland team, was the news spread around the Cleveland camp here last night. It was said that the Chicago magnate was ready to give $15,000 in money besides Players Blackburne, Quinan and two others, one a pitcher and one a catcher, if President Somers will give Ray Chapman in return.

Comiskey wants Chapman to play third base, a position he played before he became a major leaguer, and the report is that Manager Rowland of the White Sox thinks the addition of Chapman to the Sox team would make it the strongest team in the country today.

Rowland held several secret conferences with President Somers of the Cleveland club last week and on Friday, an open date in the schedule, he slipped off to Chicago without letting anyone know of his departure. While there he consulted with Comiskey, but returned to Cleveland and said no news had developed from his flying trip.

CRISIS IMPENDS FOR ISRAEL

Charlevoix, Mich., June 30.—"A crisis impends for Israel," said Rabbi M. P. Gries, Cleveland, president of Central Conference of American Rabbis, speaking at its twenty-sixth convention. "The fate of one-half the Jews of the world is trembling in the balance. The 1,000,000 Jews of eastern Europe are buffeted from persecutor to oppressor. Is it the beginning of a new epoch in Jewish history? The war of nations and the conflict of races will affect permanently the lives of the whole Jewish people everywhere.

"Millions of Jews, always in want and in wretchedness, now experience cruelty intensified. Hundreds of thousands are sacrificing their lives for their flag, of their country, yes, even for the flag of the oppressor and no promise of freedom is clearly spoken.

"Again thousands of Jews have been compelled to take up the staff of the wanderer, expelled from their homes and native villages.

"In the face of world-wide misery we discover ourselves unprepared and unorganized." We are never ready though Jews are ever in distress and have not yet escaped the yoke of the world's cruelty, oppression and persecution.

"Our duty is to send relief and yet more relief and it will not be enough. "What is our ethical duty? If two men be fighting and are at death-grips, do we question about neutrality or ethics? We stop the fight. We do not supply nourishment for strength nor weapons for destruction! If nations are battling and are grappling unto death, what is our ethical duty? Humanity outweighs 'neutrality.' Humanity demands that we stop the fight and do not supply food to sustain the combatants, nor ammunition to continue.

"The warring nations have broken the laws of mankind—not one nation, but all the nations. All are outlaws against the human race. If we are sincere in our desire to stop the war, let us not enrich ourselves by the blood of our fellow creature and by the grim harvest of death. In the years to come it will be repulsive to the nobler American spirit that we rejoiced to make fortunes out of the misfortune of our brother men and sister nations."
