

READE IS RE-ELECTED

ESCANABAN NAMED TREASURER OF UPPER PENINSULA DEVELOPMENT BUREAU FOR FOURTH TERM

H. W. Reade, of this city, re-elected as treasurer of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau for the fourth consecutive year, will return to Escanaba today after attending the annual meeting of the Clover-land boosters association at Houghton. The meeting of Thursday was attended by over 200 delegates from all parts of the peninsula and the meeting demonstrated that there is no diminution in enthusiasm and interest for promoting best interests of this great district.

The officers of the bureau chosen for the coming year are as follows: President—George W. McCormick, Menominee.

Vice Presidents—Thornton A. Green, Ontonagon; Alton T. Roberts, Marquette.

Treasurer—H. W. Reade, Escanaba. Secretary—C. W. Mott, Menominee.

Munising was suggested as the place for the meeting of 1916. The decision was left with the executive committee.

On the suggestion of the executive committee, the bureau adopted a new plan of electing officers. The by-laws previously prescribed that the officers be elected from among the executive committee. But this resulted in cutting down the number of active heads and often deprived some good, active worker in a county from taking the share he would like to take. As a result the committee suggested that it be composed in the future of one member from each county and that the officers be elected separately. This plan has been adopted. The officers will be ex-officio members of the committee.

Addresses were delivered during the afternoon by Rev. Father Barth of Escanaba, J. M. Longyear of Marquette, G. W. McCormick of Menominee, A. E. Petermann of Calumet and W. W. Walker of the D. S. S. & A.

The morning session was brief. It was called by order at 12 o'clock by President Green. Rev. William Reid Cross, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, Houghton, offered an invocation praying for divine guidance to the Development bureau and divine approval of its efforts.

The justly famed Imperial quartet, Messrs. Fred King, first tenor; Martin Melvin, second tenor; Will Hall, baritone, and George Ross, bass, offered a selection.

John W. Black, president of the Copper Country Commercial club, extended, on behalf of Houghton and the copper country, a welcome to the delegates, to which President Green made a response.

Will Hall sang a solo and the meeting adjourned till 1:30 o'clock, after the appointment of the usual committees on nomination and resolution.

A feature of the meeting in the afternoon was the announcement by J. M. Longyear of Marquette of a new plan of selling land to settlers. It is intended by Mr. Longyear and his associates, who are among the largest owners of upper peninsula lands, to lend money for improvements and to allow their farms by small payments running over a period of twenty-one years if necessary.

A timely resolution adopted at the suggestion of the executive committee was one to appoint a committee of the bureau to interview the board of supervisors of Baraga county, in the hope of having the trunk line road between the iron and copper countries put into practicable condition. It was represented to the committee that the road is not in good condition, in spite of recent reports to the contrary. The committee was appointed.

SITUATION SAID TO BE INTOLERABLE

(Special to The Press.) Washington, July 2.—The State department officials admitted today that the Mexico conditions are regarded "intolerable" and its for the president now to decide what action shall ensue. The statement made the president intensely interested. Officials assert every effort will be made to prevent a Huerta revolution.

You don't have to wait for a chance at Paris and Quebec. Five chairs

TO TAKE PART IN EXCURSION

A number of Escanaba pleasure seekers will take part in the excursion aboard the steamer Saugatuck to Marinette and Menominee on Sunday. The excursion is arranged under the auspices of the Young Men's club of this city and marked interest in the outing has been awakened. The boat will leave the Stephenson dock at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday morning.

GREAT DAY IS PLANNED

Leaving no effort undone to make their big Fourth of July picnic at South park on Monday a big success. A variety of amusements will be offered at the park during the afternoon, including dancing in the pavilion. In the evening also a dancing program will be carried out. Music for both the afternoon and evening will be furnished by the Escanaba Military Band orchestra.

NEW NOTE IS PREPARED

(Special to The Press.) Washington, July 2.—The State Department tonight was still without an official report on the circumstances of the sinking of the Armenian by the German submarine U-38, with a loss of about 21 American lives. A cablegram from Ambassador Page was received but it was not decipherable and was sent back for correction. Meantime the officials of the state department sought to learn whether German submarines are advised of the sailing of vessels, particularly British, from American ports, by a quiet inquiry instigated.

(Special to The Press.) Washington, July 2.—The final draft of the note to Great Britain on the rights of the United States commerce is about completed. It will be forwarded after Germany's reply to the last United States note is received. The feature of the note will be the denial of England's right, as announced by Lord Crewe, to cease diplomatic negotiations with the United States hereafter on cases of detention and appropriation of cargoes. Since the last there has been frequent reports from German sources that vessels attacked in North sea have, in some cases, flown an American flag. The note will restate briefly the objections of the United States to this. It is believed that the new note will shift the diplomatic tension from Germany to Great Britain.

(Special to The Press.) Windsor, Vermont, July 2.—The German reply to the second Lusitania note will reach Washington about July 8, according to word reaching President Wilson from the capitol today. As a result of this information the President is planning his departure from Windsor in time enough to confer with Lansing in consideration of it.

NEWLY WEDS ARE HOSTS AT PARTY

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Skaug of Stonington gathered at the home of the newly wedded couple on Thursday evening and were very pleasantly entertained. Mr. Skaug was married to Miss Laura Johnson of the same village about three weeks ago, and they have just returned from their honeymoon trip to the Exposition at San Francisco and their friends planned a reception in their honor. Mr. Skaug is a member of the firm of Skaug Bros. of Stonington acting as general manager and the many friends of the couple gathered at this event offered their congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. William Hill and children of Iron River have arrived in the city on a visit with the former's sister.

KAISER'S ARMY IS REPULSED

DECLARED AT PARIS THAT FEARFUL ATTACK OF GERMANS IS CHECKED

(Special to The Press.) Petrograd, July 2.—Since the evacuation of Lemberg the Austro-German advance has proceeded at the rate of about five miles daily. On the surface of Germany's continued progress is not pleasant but now its evident that the Russians deliberately adopted Fabian tactics and will withdraw further, rather than imperil the integrity of the forces. With every step of retreat the Russian situation becomes more favorable.

(Special to The Press.) London, July 2.—A dispatch tonight from Athens states that British submarine has sunk a Turkish transport laden with troops in the sea of Marmora.

(Special to The Press.) London, July 2.—Following up their gains north west of Le Four De Paris, the German army of the Crown Prince today attempted another attack, which Paris claims, was repulsed. Commanding two German divisions, of about eighty thousand men, the Crown Prince adopted in Argonne, the tactics of General Mackensen in the east. Concentrating all artillery and heavy infantry into a short front, three miles long, he smashed forward 300 yards into the French positions. There, however, Paris claims the battering rams were stopped.

(Special to The Press.) Christiansa, July 2.—A naval battle between Russian and Germany ships has been fought off the island of Gothland south and east of Stockholm, lasting throughout last night and this morning. While evidence that it was sanguinary no details were received beyond fragmentary information from residents of the island.

(Special to The Press.) London, July 2.—Six successive lines of Turkish trenches have been swept by French troops cooperating with the Australian and New Zealand forces on Gallipoli. Thousands of Turk bodies litter the ground where the French, charging with bayonets, stormed line after line. These gains put the allies in god position to storm Achi Baba, Gibraltar of Gallipoli.

STEAL FLOWERS GIVEN LECTURE

Three women were last night caught taking flowers from a residence on Michigan avenue and were allowed to go after they had received a lecture from one of the patrolmen.

The practice has become a nuisance in the city during the past two months and special watches were last night placed by Chief Tolan to protect the owners of choice flower beds and any violator will be arrested and made an example.

STORE NOT OPEN FOR BIG MONDAY

Announcement was made by the management of the Fair Savings Bank store yesterday that the store will be closed for the entire day on Monday. No department of the store will be opened for business on the holiday and no goods will be delivered from the establishment. Patrons of the firm are urged to place their orders early today and the final delivery from the store until Tuesday morning will be made at 8:45 o'clock tonight.

ADDRESS IS ELOQUENT

Rev. Father Barth, pastor of St. Patrick's church of this city, delivered one of the stirring addresses that marked the annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau at Houghton on Thursday.

Of the address by the local pastor the Mining Gazette of Houghton said: "The afternoon session was devoted principally to listening to addresses. In an interlude the Imperial quartet sang 'Annie Laurie.' Otherwise oratory was the order of the day."

Rev. Father Francis X. Barth, pastor of St. Patrick's church of Escanaba, was the first speaker. His subject was "The Progress of Clover-land" but he chose to speak of progress in the abstract. In rounded periods and polished sentences he discussed the dominant note of the century's ideals and getting down to the concrete he pleaded with the members of the development bureau not to lower their ideals. He quoted the great seal of Michigan which advises those who would seek a fair peninsula to look about them, and extolled the beauties of the upper peninsula, his birthplace and his home.

He advised those who are asking settlers to come to the peninsula to practice no deception, not to work for personal gain alone not to give the new settler cause to curse the man who sold the land. He advised the bureau not to be too sanguine in looking for immediate results but, with confidence in God and in the principles of Christianity they could be sure of the eventual success of their plan.

NEW HOME FOR BEARS FINISHED

Work was practically finished last night on the new home for the city's cub bears at Ludington park. Today the animals will be transferred from the city hall to their permanent home in the park, where they will be the center of interest for children of the city. The cage, which is constructed of steel bars, is connected with a small cave where the bears may obtain shelter. In the center of the pit is erected a portion of the trunk of a tree where the bears may exercise and on limbs at the summit will doze in the sun.

MARINETTE IS STRENGTHENED

QUEEN CITY AGGREGATION COMES HERE TODAY WITH CRACK PLAYERS IN THE LINE-UP

Escanaba and Marinette will pry off the lid to the local Fourth of July baseball series at South Park this afternoon, in the opener of what promises to prove the most interesting games of the season to be staged on the home grounds.

The Marinette team, which two weeks ago divided a week-end bill with the local Independents, will come to Escanaba this morning loaded to the guards with extra players. Krasnicky, a left hander, who will be remembered as the star of Twin City team of the Wisconsin Illinois league last season and who humbled Escanaba local league team with ease in a post season game, will go to the firing line for the visitors today. Johnson, of Crystal Falls, a crack infielder and known on the range as one of the heaviest hitters ever to don a uniform in that territory, will hold down the short field job. With those notable additions to the team that two weeks ago drove the locals to the limit to win one game of a series of two, a baseball program of unusual standard is on the boards for Escanaba fans for the next three days.

Escanaba will send the same crack lineup of players into the game that have been putting up a sensational article of baseball for the past several weeks. The old machine was reported by Manager Schram last night to be working without a wheeze and with an ordinary break in the luck the locals believe they will be able to take the measure of Marinette, in spite of the strengthened lineup to be offered by the visitors.

DIDN'T HAVE TIME TO EAT BREAKFAST

(Special to The Press.) New York, July 2.—How Harry K. Thaw hurled a beer bottle through his cell window and howled out in rage when ordered deported from Canada, was laid before Justice Hendrick's in court today. Frank M. McFadden and Harry Groux who served the deportation notice on Thaw in the early morning of September 8, 1913, at the Coatlock jail, who were called by the state, described these occurrences. Thaw laughed all the while the testimony was being given. Stanchfield grilled the witnesses, bringing out the fact that the order of deportation was served on Thaw without notification to his counsel and that Thaw was not given a chance to eat breakfast.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE SUNDAY MORNING

A patriotic service of unusual interest will be held at St. Stephen's church at 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning. Rev. W. J. Datsog, rector, will deliver a sermon significant of the day, taking for his subject Citizenship. The church will be appropriately decorated and a special musical program will be rendered by the choir.

BARK RIVER CELEBRATES

Great plans have been made for a big Fourth of July celebration at Bark River on Monday. The Bark River brass band and the Norway Military Band have been engaged to furnish the musical program for the morning, afternoon and evening. A varied program of games and sports will be carried out in the afternoon and the village promises a live moment for every hour of the day to all who attend.

In the evening a grand fireworks display has been arranged and following that feature a big dancing party will be held, with music furnished by the Norway band orchestra.

POLICE RAID LOCAL RESORT

Officers of the local police department raided an alleged resort of ill-fame at 509 Market street and arrested three women and two men who were locked up at the police station. The raid was made by Officers Early, Brunell and Curran at about 10 o'clock after the former patrolmen had made an investigation of the premises during the earlier portion of the evening. The officer watched the place from the railroad yards across the street and finally a pair of men approached and entered the house. He at once turned in a call to the police station, and two additional officers came at once. Two were stationed at the rear of the house while Officer Early demanded admittance at the front door. When the woman mistress of the house discovered that it was an officer who was knocking she fled to the back door, hoping to escape under cover of darkness, but as she opened the door she was seized by the two officials stationed there.

Entering the house the officers placed two additional women and two men under arrest. One man claimed Lathrop as his address while the other refused to give his name or address.

The raid of the Market street resort last night marks the culmination and the carrying out of the orders issued a few days ago by Pros. Atty. Rushton and the City Administration. Other resort that have operated here have been closed and the keepers and inmates required to leave the state.

Efforts on the part of friends to furnish bail for the freedom of those arrested last night proved futile and Pros. Atty. Rushton issued strict orders in a communication to the police station that no bond of any kind would be allowed and that all were to be locked up until sometime today or Tuesday when they will receive a hearing before a local justice.

RAPID RIVER HAS A FINE THEATER

H. E. Pfeiffer, of Rapid River, has practically completed one of the most attractive picture houses to be found in a town of the size of Rapid River, in the northwest. Work on the building has been in progress for some time and will be ready for opening to the public within a few days. The theater will be electrically lighted throughout. To generate the current for the lights Mr. Pfeiffer has installed a 25 horse power gasoline engine and in addition to the theater the owner of the plant has contracted to light the streets of the town and various business places. Y. H. Needham of the Electric shop of this has been busy for the past week installing the lighting plant and doing the wiring work at the theater building.

William Boppy has accepted a position at the Perria and Glorke barber shop. Stanley Glerks is the owner of a Studebaker car.

TO ENFORCE ORDINANCE

ESCANABA'S FULL TIME HEALTH OFFICER LAUNCHES BATTLE FOR CLEANER CITY

Dr. A. J. Carlson, Escanaba's full time health commission, yesterday made the first move toward a betterment of health conditions in this city when he gave formal notice that he will enforce the provisions of a city health statute, passed by the council several years ago, but never enforced. The ordinance provides a penalty for property owners who allowed refuse, manure or rubbish of any kind to remain in alleys adjacent to their property.

Violators of the ordinance are given until July 15 to comply with the provisions and after that date arrests under the city statute will be made. It is said that a great many people of the city are not making use of the garbage collection service but are allowing garbage and rubbish to collect in the alleys and about their premises. Unsanitary, disease breeding piles of refuse are to be found about many barns in the city and under the terms of the ordinance, this unsatisfactory condition must be removed.

Following is the ordinance that Dr. Carlson will insist on being observed by all citizens of Escanaba for the good of the general health of the city: An Ordinance Relative to the Collection and Disposition of Garbage and Other Refuse, and to Provide Penalties for the Violation Thereof.

The City of Escanaba Ordains:

Section 7. It shall be unlawful for any person residing within the platted portion of the city of Escanaba, as the same is now platted, or as may hereafter be platted, to deposit, throw or place any offal, dead animal, manure, swill, garbage, putrid or unwholesome or decayed meat or vegetables, or any tin cans, crockery, glassware, bottles, wire or rubbish, whether offensive or not in any lane, street, alley or public place in said city within said platted portion, keep or maintain any of the things hereinbefore in this section enumerated, upon private premises, unless the same shall be in closed in proper covered receptacles. Nothing herein contained however, shall prevent the placing of ashes produced from the domestic use of coal, of wood, upon the alleys of the city during the domestic use of coal or wood, upon the alleys of the city during the period from November first to May first in each year, if such ashes be so placed immediately adjacent to the property of the person so placing the same, and in a manure rnot to interfere with the free use of, and passage through said alley, all such ashes shall however, be removed at the expense of the person placing the same on or before the first of May in each year.

Sec. 8. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than Five ($5.00) dollars, nor more than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the city jail of the county of Delta, for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court before whom a conviction may be had.

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation, to permit any manure to remain on their premises or elsewhere for a longer time than one week during the months of May, June, July, August, September and October.

YOUNG PEOPLE ELECT OFFICERS

The Young People's Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church last night held a meeting at which time the annual election of officers was carried out. Say, now it's all over with, does anyone remember who Champ Clark's daughter married?

The weather man has been on his good behavior now for a week, so a caption of most any old kind can be expected any day soon.

Cleveland boosters gathered in Houghton on Thursday and put the stamp of universal approval on an organization that has done more for the upper peninsula of Michigan in three years than had before been accomplished in a quarter of a century.

Now it develops that the steamship Armenian, sunk by a German submarine was engaged in duty for the British admiralty and a score of more Americans, who lost their lives when the boat went down, but paid the price for their foolhardiness. The United States has no quarrel with Germany when she sinks a vessel engaged as an actual aid to the warring allies, even though it may develop that citizens of this country were foolish enough to risk their lives in such an enterprise.

The North Michigan Water company, peculiarly, came in for the reception of a lot of bouquets during Escanaba's Good Health Week. But those bouquets will be entirely buried in the cabbage heads thrown by a discontented people if the complaints as to the company's new service price boosting policy is continued. The water company is deserving of a square deal but in serving what is pronounced to be pure water to the people the company is but doing its duty to its patrons. And neither can the corporation hide behind the compliments of platform lecturers to boost service prices to be fore unheard of levels.

WHAT THEY COULD DO WITH IT. The financial energy that governments put forth in time of war is marvelous. France is spending at the rate of $5,000,000 a year on the war and England is spending at the rate of perhaps a billion more. Other countries are spending in proportion.

If these enormous sums were devoted to the world's development, instead of to destruction, the face of the earth would be transformed in a decade. Great canals could be dug, wonderful irrigation works might be erected to water millions of acres of barren lands, and millions of acres could be drained and made fruitful. Cross-continent railroads through undeveloped portions of Africa and South America could be made with a fraction of this war stream of gold. These industries would in turn produce a new flow of wealth and new billions of earnings would come from these new projects.

The railroads of the United States are said to be worth some $20,000,000, yet they could all be purchased with a comparatively small part of the money wasted in this war. Countless enterprises for the world's development will now have to be deferred because the great countries of Europe will have to devote all their resources to clearing away the war ruins and paying debts incurred. The world will be set back decades because the wealth will have been wasted. The financial losses of the war, however, are not so deplorable as the destruction of the best manhood of Europe. The world's progress is being arrested by the wasting of life and wealth.

AN ECHO OF FRANK CASE.

Atlanta, Ga., July 2.—The Fulton county grand jury today returned indictments charging riot against twenty-six men arrested by the militia last Saturday in the vicinity of former Governor Slaton's home. The offense charged is a misdemeanor under the Georgia law, punishable by imprisonment not exceeding one year or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both.

WAR

London, July 2.—The northward drive of the Austro-German armies from Galicia into Poland is daily becoming more formidable and England is puzzled as to whether they proposed to make their main effort in this direction, instead of maintaining a concentrated offensive to the eastward, to force the Russians out of the south-east tip of Galicia.

Whatever the ultimate object is, the fighting along the Gullia Lipa has not been abated and this afternoon Berlin official communication not only reports progress in this sector, but farther north in and around Lemberg as well as along what now has become the northern front between the Vistula and Bug rivers. The Austro-German forces on this front are estimated at two million men and their progress has been rapid. They have crossed the forest fringing the Tanew river and not far from the Zamosc fortress, twenty-five miles north of the Galician frontier. Only a hundred miles to the north is the great Russian base, Brest-Litovsk, linked with Warsaw by important railways, and lying about due east of the Polish capital.

The development of the Galician campaign has created a situation entirely unexpected by the allies. A few months ago the Russians were at the Carpathian passes and during the spring months there were confident predictions both in England and France that Hungary would soon be overrun. The British press has been optimistic for weeks that the Russians would turn and make a stand, but it now frankly concedes that the new invasion of Russia is serious. The papers, however, place faith in Russia's munitions campaign.

A German attack by water on Windau, in Courland, on the Baltic, just south of Gulf of Riga, was repulsed by the Russians, their official statement says. Five cruisers and many torpedo boats participated in the attack and an attempt is declared to have been made to land troops. One of the torpedo boats was blown up before the fleet retired.

The Arras sector maintains its reputation as the storm center of the western front, but despite the fact that the losses are piling up daily, neither side has been able to deliver decisive blow.

A dispatch tonight from Athens says that the allies have taken the Turkish stronghold of Kiritlia, on the Gallipoli peninsula, to the western edge of which General Ian Hamilton's report of yesterday carried his forces; but there is no confirmation. Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons this afternoon that the British losses in killed, wounded and missing in the land and naval operations against the Dardanelles aggregated 38,635 officers and men up to May 31.

London, July 2.—The British press representative in the Dardanelles sends a dispatch by way of Alexandria, dated from the latter place Friday, in which he describes the battle of Achi Baba. This began with an allied advance on June 4, and the correspondent says, still continues. "The force drawn up against the allies," he says, "is the flower of the Turkish army, which, notwithstanding casualties that must already amount to seventy thousand, is fighting valiantly and desperately realizing that when the bastion of Achi Baba falls, the occupation of the Kilit-Bahr plateau becomes a mere question of time and when Kilit-Bahr falls, the doom of Constantinople is at hand."

The correspondent tells of the British attempt against the Turkish lines on June 21, when the Turkish casualties reached a total of seven thousand and the fighting lasted from dawn to dark on the longest day of the year. The result was some gains for the allies.

"In one trench there was a temporary shortage of ammunition," says the chronicler, "but the troops fought with stones, sticks and fists. At the end of the day some 600 yards of Turkish trenches had been taken."

"The officers who have been in France say that as a fighting unit one Turk is worth two Germans."

Vinna, July 2.—The official communication issued tonight by the war office says: "The total booty taken during June by the allied troops during the fighting in the northeast comprises 521 officers and 194,000 men, ninety-three guns, 364 machine guns, 78 cannons, and one hundred military railroad carriages."

Traveling Man's Experience.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me for four a. m. to six p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

4,000 LODGES

JOIN MOVE

A state-wide child welfare movement which interests 350,000 fraternal members and which is calculated to give to Michigan the best children in the nation will be inaugurated at a conference to be held July 15, in the Hotel Statler, Detroit.

Gov. Ferris and leaders in various lines in the juvenile uplift movement will be present and a program outlined whereby through members of the Michigan Fraternal congress and other societies, the work can be carried into every country and hamlet in the state.

Practical work, not theory, is the keynote of this movement, whose results are expected to be far-reaching and successful.

The idea was suggested to the Fraternal congress recently when the fraudulent system of collecting money for individuals on pretext of devoting it to children was exposed and the need of better safeguards around child welfare charity pointed out.

Concerted action quickly appealed to the thousands of members of fraternal societies as an avenue to their purpose of doing good. Dr. William A. Wilson, superintendent of the Florence Crittenton home, was sought and his observations and advice spurred on those interested.

It is planned to bring together into one gigantic working unit all the forces now engaged in child welfare.

Henceforth, the various organizations have supplied themselves individually and according to Dr. Wilson, in two-thirds of the counties of Michigan absolutely no organization exists to take up the work. With the various lodges enlisted—there are 4,000 represented in the Michigan congress—this difficulty will be done away with.

Representatives of the various children's aid organizations as well as fraternal delegates are expected to attend the conference here. Experts will make addresses and a definite practical program of endeavor outlined. Senator William E. Brown of Lapeer is president of the congress and one of the leaders is Grant Slocum, head of the Michigan Gleaners, who number 60,000.

"Work among subnormal children must begin in the country," said Dr. Wilson. "Now they come to the city in absolute ignorance. We don't come in contact with them until they reach the juvenile court. We must get busy many years earlier, and in some cases the pre-natal period is preferred."

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE DELFT.

A picture program at the Delft today will be dispensed with because of the appearance of "Everywoman" here tonight. This show with its big train of properties will arrive here this morning at 11 o'clock from the north and upon arriving in the city the 150 people will go immediately to local hotels.

It will require a total of 37 men to prepare the theater for the show this evening and the same number will be used in shifting the scenes when the gigantic production is shown.

THE DELFT.

For today Manager Hines is offering the splendid picture "The Dancer." It is shown in three complete parts and should attract a big audience to this house at both afternoon and evening shows. The comedy is "The Lady Doctor of Grizzly Gulch."

ALLIES LOSSES

TOTAL 5,000,000

Berlin, July 2.—More than 5,000,000 soldiers of the countries at war with Germany, it is estimated, have been killed, wounded or captured. These figures, from papers or magazines published in foreign countries, are presented to show that Italy's entry into the war cannot hope to offset, numerically, the losses of her present allies.

The French estimates are taken in part from Italian papers.

Russia is shown to have been the heaviest loser, with more than 3,000,000 men, it is estimated. The figures are obtained in the following fashion. There are more than 1,000,000 Russian prisoners of war in Germany at present, according to the German general staff. The London Times as long ago as January placed the Russian dead and wounded at 1,300,000. Since then there have come into the Masurian lakes battle and the Carpathian victories, with Russian losses estimated by "allied" papers even at 650,000 men at least.

In Germany there are over 300,000 French prisoners of war, in addition to which the French losses are known to have been huge. The Italian paper Corriere Della Sera, estimates that the French army has lost half its strength.

Crufters or Fried Cakes

Never Greasy
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Everyone likes fried cakes or crufters. Here's a very superior recipe. Follow directions closely—success is certain.

Sift together, three times, the flour, K.C. baking powder, mace and salt. Add the sugar, butter and milk to the beaten eggs and stir into the dry ingredients to make a stiff dough. Knead slightly; then cut with fried cake cutter. Drop into a deep kettle filled with hot fat; drain on soft paper or colander and roll in powdered sugar.

To fry fat at smoking point, turn crufters several times while frying to insure all parts being equally light and thoroughly cooked.
By all means, send for the K.C. Cook's Book—it's free and it contains 90 just such appetizing recipes. Send the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans to the Joseph E. DeWitt Co., Chicago, and

It is reported that June copper sales were 200,000,000 pounds as per contracts closed, breaking all previous records. The market may be quiet today but the time to buy is on these quiet days and not when stocks have advanced four or five points.

BOSTON MARKETS

Aside from the strength in the Zinc stocks there was little interest in the market. There was only a nominal market in Copper shares and only a limited amount of transactions. The break in St. Paul had a disconcerting effect upon sentiment. Predictions are general however, for a better market next week.

DAILY LETTER

There was a better demand for the sopors during the first hour and prices generally were higher, but as the day advanced, market became very dull and prices receded somewhat. The reply from Germany is expected any day now, the general opinion is that it will be out by Tuesday next at least. Reports from the Steel trade, reflect continue improvement, and the steel shares have been acting very strong in our markets of late. It is stated that Butte and Superior has in its treasury $1,700,000 after paying the regular and extra dividend on June 30th. This is equivalent to about $6.50 per share. Besides this, Butte and Superior has a net inventory of material and concentrates amounting to $1,500,000 making their total quick assets about $3,200,000. It

SUPREME COURT IS CATCHING UP

Washington, July 2.—Adjournment of the Supreme court for the summer months marks the completion of twenty-five years operation of the present judicial system, instituted by the Everts law of 1890. This law created the nine circuit courts of appeals, which virtually became a sort of sub-supreme court to relieve the highest tribunal of the great pressure of cases which were congesting its docket and contributing to the law's delays. At the opening of the new system the supreme court was three years behind in its work, and much more time elapsed before cases were decided. Three years passed between the time a case was docketed there and the time it was presented, complete, to the justices for decision. Today, the Supreme court is only one year behind in its work. During the 25 years, 10,766 cases have been filed there—an average of 429 a year more than one for every day. During that time the court has disposed of 11,419 which included 1,200 waiting when the new system went into effect. But for the latter the court now would be abreast of its work. During the court year just ended, 528 cases were filed and 539 were disposed of and the docket now contains 225 the smallest number during the last six years. Only three years in the court's history saw more cases disposed of. They were 1890, 1912 and 1913

NEW YORK PRESS GIVES OPINION

New York, July 1.—Morning papers here, in commenting on the sinking of the Armenian, show a disposition to defer judgment until the status of the ship is definitely established. Following are various expressions:

The Times—It is most devoutly to be hoped that the Imperial German government is in a position to assure our government without delay that the act of the German submarine U-35 in torpedoing the British steamer Armenian with American on board was without orders or sanction from responsible authority and that it is not to be considered as a part of the present war policy of the German government. The destruction of the lives of American citizens in this manner is an act most ill-timed and deplorable, coming as it does a few days before the expected delivery of the German reply to our latest firm protests against these lawless methods of warfare.

The World—Steamers serving as transports or loaded with horses, munitions or other contraband of war are no more exempt from destruction than war vessels, provided the crews are given opportunity to leave the ships. The von Tirpitz policy of naval war has wholly ignored this condition imposed by international law and has made of the pretext of necessity an excuse to cover needless sacrifice of non-combatants' lives.

The Tribune—The Armenian was a British vessel carrying a cargo of mules from Newport News to England. Come American citizens were employed to look after the animals, and if they were not on a vessel chartered by the British government and thus acquiring the character of a transport, they were entitled to the same protection from our government as the American passengers on the Lusitania were. Mules are contraband of war. But the Lusitania also carried contraband.

The Herald—The sinking of the Armenian is another evidence of Germany's disregard of the rules of civilized warfare and contempt for the United States, contention. It is true that the Armenian was a transport for mules chartered by the British government, and was, therefore, carrying contraband of war. The Americans who were lost were mostly negroes, employed to care for the mules during the voyage. They were American citizens and the

WORRIES LEAD BRIDE TO DEATH

Boston.—Edmund T. Dana, assistant professor at the University of Minnesota, and grandson of Henry W. Longfellow, Saturday returned from Nantucket, where his wife, Jesse Halliday Dana, killed herself.

In a remarkable statement he gave as her reason her conviction that her health would not permit her to rear a perfect baby.

At the time of their marriage by a unique ritual of their own writing, she was known as the "Perfect Bride." She had discussed killing herself for eight months, he said and he had endeavored in vain to dissuade her, but she had insisted that she would be a life-long burden to her husband and offspring.

Professor Dana had been criticised because of the lack of emotion he had shown at her funeral. Immediately after the body was discovered in the surf, six hours after Mrs. Dana had gone bathing, he called two undertakers and the body was taken in farm wagon to a cemetery. Nobody but Dana and two undertakers witnessed the burial.

Today, however, he was visibly perturbed, but endeavored to maintain the calmness that the unique Socialistic creeds taught.

His explanation on his wife's action follows:

"Why did Mrs. Dana desire to end her life? Well, that is a long story, and I can give only a most inadequate explanation here. In the first place one can't understand it at all unless one realizes that for Mrs. Dana bringing up a child was a religion. She had the strongest sense of duty in regard to the making of a human life.

"The babe must be brought up not merely well enough, but in the best possible way. She felt a great moral responsibility that the character, the happiness and the efficiency of a human individual were in her hands. For years before her son was born she had set her heart in doing the thing just right. This was the keystone of her life after we were engaged.

"After her son was born last July for some inexplicable reason she lost faith in her ideas on diet and began to eat more than usual, eating between meals, and, from a sense of duty, when she wasn't really hungry.

For this and other reasons she became run down and began to worry, which is fatal. She was really too high strung to make a perfect mother, but she would have made a splendid mother, if she could have become used to the responsibility.

She worried more and more at Minneapolis until finally we decided that she must have a rest. So we went to New York and left the babe with relatives.

"Mrs. Dana went to several sanitariums in an effort to get rest, but she found that she worried very much more when the babe was away from her, because she believed that no one else could really take proper care of it. She felt that she had made a terrible mistake just for the selfish desire for personal comfort and that she had proved to be unfaithful to her trust.

"She underwent a continual mental torture of remorse for having as she considered, bungled her great work by allowing herself to become ill. Her ideas on this point were enormously exaggerated on account of her mental depression. She also felt (as most people feel when run down nervously) that she would never get well.

"Hence she believed that she would never be able to take care of the baby properly, nor be anything but a handicap to her husband in his life work. And so she thought that it was her duty to kill herself.

"Her artistic sense made her feel that a thing ought to be perfect or not at all. Feeling that her life as a mother, the most important thing in the world, had not been perfect, she was absolutely heartbroken and felt the only thing to do was to end her life."

BOTTLED WET GOODS POPULAR IN ENGLAND.

London, July 2.—The new drink restrictions seem to have caused people to lay in private stock instead of really decreasing the sale of beer, wines and liquors. To get around the early closing hours, people buy less in the saloon and more bottled goods, while the business of the saloon has fallen, the bottled goods merchant never did so well. Strict watch is kept on the sale of alcohol by the druggists, who have kept a stock-book open for the inspection of visiting revenue officers.

TEUTONS LOSE MILLIONS IN TRADE

Berlin, July 2.—German business circles are not particularly concerned about the war with Italy, trade with that country having already fallen off sharply before it threw its fortunes with the Entente powers. In 1913 German's imports from Italy amounted to $75,000,000, and its exports there to $93,000,000 but the recent volume of the trade movement was much less than these figures. Italy has been taking, since the war began, more of German iron and steel than previously, but the German market and those of Scandinavian countries are now keeping the iron works so busy that the cessation of Italian orders is not expected to influence the existing upward tendency of prices.

Besides these goods Germany's exports to Italy distribute themselves over a great variety of wares, very few of which exceeded $1,000,000 in value; coal amounted to $3,500,000, and woolen goods and leather each to nearly $3,000,000. Under imports, raw silk alone represented more than one third of the whole with $26,000,000; raw hemp reached $3,000,000, and almonds nearly as much, but all other articles were shipped in smaller values.

It had been hoped when the war began that Italy would prove very important to Germany as an alternative trade route with the United States and other over-seas countries, in addition to Holland and the Scandinavia countries; but these hopes have not been realized to any great extent.

Some months ago it was reported, for example, that hundreds of thousands of bales of American cotton were lying at Genoa, but very little of it found its way into Germany. It was claimed by the Italian authorities that their railways were not able to move it, but it is suspected in Germany that they did not wish to move it. Oranges, however, have been coming into Germany in the usual amounts; and as Germany has hitherto obtained by far the largest part of its supplies from Spain, it seems probable that these shipments have latterly been by way of Italy.

WAR DEVELOPS ARTILLERY EAR

Berlin, July 2.—The war has developed what might be termed an "artillery ear" especially among the soldiers in this branch of the service, which enables them to judge accurately what kind of a shell is being fired at them and whether or not it is aimed at their battery or at some other spot. Many lives have been saved by this gradually developed oral alertness.

The artillerist, explains an officer, who has been in the field for months is able almost instinctively to tell whether a shell is headed for his battery or not. The men have learned to pay not the slightest attention to a shot that gives off the peculiar sound indicating that it is aimed at some other battery or position.

Because of the confusing noise of the artillerist's own battery, the squad tending it usually is divided into two groups, one of which listens for the shells of the opponents and gives the warning to dive for the shelters back of the guns. The men learn to talk with pauses between each word, listening in the meantime for the tell-tale whistle of the dangerous shell.

Only in the case of the small field cannon, fired at a range of, say 2,000 yards, is it impossible to hear the shell in time to dive into the security of the sheltering "understand." Those shells have reached their mark about as soon as the sound of their discharge.

The 12-centimeter flat-trajectory guns on the other hand gives just enough warning so that the men can make one dive. There isn't one fraction of a second to be wasted, but by quick action the artillerist can save himself.

The big howitzers, however, give nearly half a minute's warning. As the o'er puts it, one can hear the shells from these guns, and still cut off a slice of wurst and take a swallow from one's "field bottle" before seeking shelter. The shelter in this case must be a genuine shelter, consisting of about three lays of heavy wood, and two yards of earth and stone. Else the shelter and artillerists are gone.
