More and more we are convinced that if you give a fool enough rope he will hang himself.

City officials are right in their contention that the danger of street accidents can never be averted until walkers as well as drivers begin to show some consideration for each other.

When the Anti-Saloon League framed the prohibition amendment, they cunningly framed a measure that they believed would fool the people and still let them hold their jobs. No one ever yet successfully accused a dry of overlooking the pay check end of his argument.

All wrong, as usual Aunty. The paid dry speakers are merely the paid tools of a lot of fanatical, long haired men and, short haired women who are seeking to impose their will on the people. They have no constructive policy; they merely seek to tear down the wet speakers merely represent the defense that a legitimate industry is forced to provide against a creed that has no limit to its fanaticism. We have the dry speakers, with their expansive collection plate, with year in and year out. And we will have them with us just as long as some of the people insist on being fooled.

CAN'T BLAME CANADIANS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Newspaper reports of Canada's intense interest in the American presidential election comes as no surprise to Ex-President Taft who, in an authorized interview today said: "Newspaper reports show Canadian business men and manufacturers are greatly interested in the American presidential campaign and that the Canadians are President Wilson will be re-elected in order that there may be no chance in the Underwood tariff.

"I don't blame them. Were I a Canadian manufacturer I would hate to see Mr. Hughes and a republican congress elected. I would feel just as the newspapers say the Canadians feel about the matter. Our election is almost as vitally interesting to Canada as to our own country. With a republican president in the White House and a republican majority in congress, Canadian business men know that the immense trade that they have built up in the United States at the expense of American manufacturers and American workmen, will be taken from them and returned to the Americans, where it was previous to the enactment of the Underwood tariff. They know that the $300,000,000 worth of Canadian products sold in the United States this year will not be duplicated next year, but that this immense business will go to Americans instead. I don't blame the Canadian manufacturers for betraying the greatest interest in our election. The very existence of their vast trade with America rests on the outcome of our campaign. "During my administration the American congress offered Canada the benefit of our great buying capacity in return for access to the Canadian markets. We called it the Reciprocity Act. But Canada voted it down, overwhelmingly. Canadian business men did not want to have to compete with American manufacturers on even terms. They chose rather to have each country barricaded against the other—choose to see a tariff wall maintained by each country. Then the Underwood tariff was enacted. We threw down our tariff wall and opened wide our market to the competition of the world. Canadian business men, through the Underwood tariff, secured even more from America than they would have gained under the Reciprocity Act—And they gave absolutely nothing in return. "Here are some figures, compiled at Ottawa, which show why the business men of Canada are watching our campaign with such great anxiety. In 1912 the year before the Underwood tariff was enacted, Canada sent into American products to the value of $105,000,000. In 1913 the second year of the Underwood tariff, the exports to us were worth $215,000,000 and in 1914, these exports had increased to $300,000,000. Next year they expect to sell us $500,000,000 worth of their products.

NORTHWESTERN TO WIRE RETURNS

Those contemplating trips on election day will not have to remain at home to get the election returns. The Chicago & Northwestern Ry. has arranged to supply the patrons of its limited trains with a complete telegraphic news service on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, whereby return will be flashed to the trains enroute as fast as the results are released by the press wires. Under this arrangement travelers will be kept in immediate touch with the election returns.

GAME VIOLATOR PAID BIG FINE

Charged with killing deer out of season George Boyd, a woodsman employed at a jobber's camp six miles south of Hardwood, was arrested by Deputy States Game Warden Herman Leisner and Joseph Kell and when taken before a justice of the peace at Foster City, was sentenced to pay a fine and costs amounting to $54.50. Complaints were received by the wardens that deer were being killed by men at the jobbers camp near Hardwood and they made an investigation that resulted in the arrest of Boyd. When taken before a justice at Foster City he admitted the offense and was promptly fined. A deer carcass, found in Boyd's possession, was ordered confiscated and was sent to the Menominee county almshouse.

BUNDLE DAY IS POSTPONED

Because of the fact that the basement of the Carnegie library will be in use on Tuesday of next week as a ward voting place, Bundle Day, planned by members of the charity committee of the Escanaba Woman's club scheduled for that day has been postponed until Friday, Nov. 10.

YOUNG LADY IS ASSAULT VICTIM

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 31.—Miss Nora Albrecht, maid at the home of Edward Davis, 1401 Elizabeth avenue, was the victim of a vicious assault late Saturday night. An unknown man grabbed her and threw her down twice, bumped her head on the sidewalk, tried to choke her and robbed her of her pocket book and watch. When pursued by two young men, who came to the rescue, owing to the girl's screams for help, the midnight assailant dropped the watch and pocketbook but retained part of the money in the pocketbook. The men who chased him stated that he pulled a revolver on them. Miss Albrecht is unable to identify her assailant but states that he looks like a man she had seen hanging around the Lincoln school late at night. The attempted robber and assault has not been reported to the police. It is not likely any arrests will be made as the guilty party is not known. Miss Albrecht, although nearly prostrated Saturday night by her terrible experiences has recovered from the shock of the affair. The entire neighborhood was aroused by her heart rending cries and the incident created great excitement. It is the second hold-up of that kind which has occurred this year. Miss Albrecht was on her way home from a party in Menominee. She told the young man, who escorted her to this city that she could get home alone as she wanted him to make the last car to Menominee. When she approached the vicinity of Colfax and Elizabeth, the strong man, a fellow of about middle height, approached her from behind and grabbed her. She screamed for help and he threw her down on the walk. She managed to get on her feet again but again he threw her down, choking her. He took her watch and pocketbook and when two men approached he fled. He was pursued and got away in the dark, but not before he had an opportunity to draw a revolver and point it at his pursuers. Mrs. Chas. D. Butler is spending the week with friends in Crystal Falls.

KANSAS AND PROHIBITION CRIME

Prohibition's advocates would make one believe that Kansas is almost entirely free from crime, and that prohibition should be credited for that happy condition.

Reports of state officials and the 1910 U. S. Census figures on prisoners, murders and other serious crimes in the various states prove the contrary.

According to the Census figures, Kansas had 1,537 prisoners in its penitentiaries (exclusive of Leavenworth) on Jan. 1, 1910, 192 persons held for murder, and 1,114 for other serious crimes.

According to the same figures—
Kansas had a greater total of prisoners than 25 states.
Kansas had a greater total of murders than 24 states.
Kansas had a greater total of prisoners for other grave crimes than 32 states.

Kansas had a greater ratio of prisoners than 31 states.
Kansas had a greater ratio of murders than 33 states.

Each of seven states with double or triple Kansas' population had half its total of prisoners, murderers and other grave offenders.

In comparison with Michigan, Kansas with 35% LESS population had TEN per cent MORE prisoners, TWENTY-FIVE per cent MORE murders and THIRTY per cent MORE of other serious crimes in ratio to population than Michigan.

What reports of state officers show concerning crime in Kansas:

- "State penitentiary cost the state $194,014.14 for 1914."—State auditor, page 36.
- "State penitentiary cost the state $217,827.12 for 1914."—Warden's report, page 26.
- There were 81 life and hang prisoners in state penitentiary end of 1914.—Board of Correction, page 23.
- "Death by violence in only 28 states investigated, Kansas is higher than in 20 licensed states."—Census Bulletin, No. 112, page 77-1911.
- "Homicide rate in Kansas is higher than in 24 states."—Census Bulletin, No. 112, page 77.
- "To and including June, 1914, 1,921 prisoners were paroled—22 per cent broke their parole and were returned to prison."—F. E. Snyder, parole officer, page 36.
- Over 1,300 cases mentioned in attorney general's report, most of them of a criminal nature.—Pages 49 to 72.
- "Out of 909 prisoners confined in state penitentiary, 38 were not native born."—Warden's report, page 21.
- "18,853 finger prints, Bertillon cards and negatives on hand, June 30, 1914."—Warden's report, page 22.
- "In the state reformatory there are 43 for rape, exposing child, white slavery, assault, bigamy."—Superintendent's report, page 45.
- "There are 40 dangerous criminal inmates in the state penitentiary on account of no room in insane hospital."—Board of Correction, page 41.
- "During 1914, 209 boys were paroled from the Industrial Reformatory."—Board of Correction, page 50.
- "Topeka Industrial School for Boys—276 boys received in 1914, there are accommodations for only 250."—Superintendent's Report, page 57.
- "109 prisoners escaped in 1914 from state penitentiaries for lack of guards."—Board of Correction, page 11.

- "Banner Year for Murder. Arrests in Topeka Equal One-Twentieth of Population. 2,140 Are Arrested. Every Kind of Crime was Included in the Category of This Prohibition State."—Topeka Daily State Journal, Jan. 2, 1916.
- "Epidemic of Immorality Among Topeka's Smallest Daughters. Lassies Tempt Men."—Topeka Daily Capital.
- "Dry Topeka's Courts Busy. 428 Criminal Cases. Insanity Increases. Big Jump in Criminal Actions in Topeka."—Topeka Daily State Journal.
- "One noticeable thing about the criminal docket of Judge A. W. Dana, for the September term, is that 46 of the joint cases are against women. 46 women are charged with selling liquor."—Topeka State Journal, August 29, 1916.
- "126 Criminal Cases Were Pending in Leavenworth County Criminal Court."—Attorney General's report, pages 61-63.
- "Topeka, Kansas, one arrest for every 64 inhabitants—Cincinnati, Ohio, one for every 267."—Bureau of Census, 1910.
- "It must be confessed that a large percentage of those incarcerated here came by the liquor and dope route."—Chaplain's report, page 39.

Not prohibition, but Home Rule, giving each city, village and township the right to decide the liquor question for itself—to vote "wet" or "dry" as it deems best—Home Rule, which will settle the liquor question not only for the whole state but for each political unit in it, is what Michigan needs.

Vote "YES" for HOME RULE—TRUE RULE, vote "NO" against state-wide prohibition, November 7.

Eight Hour Law Scored

This law upon the statute books, and inasmuch as no one has so far attempted to make an issue of its repeal, it would seem that it is a closed incident, except as we may discuss the effect of it upon the people in general and the railway employees affected by it in particular.

"In discussing this measure I wish it understood that as an ex-railroad man, with much sympathy for the men with whom I used to be associated, I am very glad to have any benefit come to them that is within reason that can be secured.

"I also recognize the fact that the eight hour rate is coming, and that in time it will be observed by factories generally. I question, however, that it can be applied to the train service except as a standard for pay.

"It was generally understood, when the Adamson bill was passed, that the trainmen had secured a great victory, it was advertised to mean an advance in wages, which would apply to all men engaged in the train service. It seems, however, upon the close analysis of the law, that so far as at least part of the trainmen are concerned it is pretty much of a gold brick."

Potato Men Gather Here

of the show that the quality of exhibits gathered at the Coliseum here, far exceed the bulk of the exhibits at the Cloverland show at Marquette last year.

In addition to individual exhibits from every county of the upper peninsula and many of the lower peninsula counties, county exhibits have been arranged by several of the Cloverland counties. Included in the counties having collective exhibits are: Schoolcraft, Ontonagon, Menominee, Marsuette, Iron, Dickinson and Newaygo.

In addition there is an extensive exhibit of potatoes grown by the boys potato clubs of the state and in that exhibit are some of the finest potatoes shown this year.

At the morning session of the potato growers' yesterday a hearty address of welcome was delivered by Mayor B. J. Mackilligan and the response was given by the president of the association, E. C. Lindemann, leader of Boys' and Girls' Club Work for the Michigan Agricultural College, delivered an address on the work of his department to a large number of boys and girls from the Escanaba schools.

At the afternoon session with H. R. Blanford, of Newaygo presiding, L. R. Walker of Marquette delivered an address on the Standardization of the Potato Crop. R. G. Today interesting programs will be carried out this morning, afternoon and evening and it is hoped that large numbers of Escanaba and Delta county people will be in attendance.

Announcement was made yesterday that Rev. Tuleur of Marquette, will deliver an address at the Salvation Army hall on Ludington street, at 8 o'clock this evening. The general public is invited to be present.
