INJUSTICE IS POINTED OUT

RICHARD HOYLER, GENERAL MANAGER OF RICHTER BREWING COMPANY SAYS DRYS WOULD CLOSE LOCAL PLANT TO AID WISCONSIN BREWERS.

That the adoption of the prohibition amendment would have the local effect of closing down and practically confiscating the plants of the Richter Brewing company and the Escanaba Brewing company to the great enhancement of demand for the products of the Milwaukee brewers, eagerly waiting to receive the business is the statement of Richard Hoyle, the general manager of the Richter Brewing Co.

"There is an inherent injustice in the confiscation of properties built up with the sanction of the law and with implied promise that the investment would not be discriminated against."

"For it is a condition not a theory that prohibition under our present laws is, as has been said by various speakers, not really the issue, for there can be no prohibition as long as each individual is free to secure liquor in interstate traffic—to say nothing of illegal sales. The issue is one of distribution. Where our business is concerned it is a question of whether we shall distribute our product or the demand we have been meeting shall be met by the Wisconsin brewers, to enhance their profits while we face practical confiscation of our plant.

"This is a condition that our friends should keep clearly in mind in viewing the prohibition amendment. In its local application where our plant is concerned, it proposes to make unproductive a considerable investment, the upgrowth of many years' effort. And to what purpose? That the consumption of beer in the territory we have served shall cease? Not at all. That the business we have had shall be turned over to the Wisconsin breweries and be carried on by them through the medium of interstate commerce. There is here not only a great injustice to us, but there is also certainty that the aim of the amendment in as far as it is aimed to prevent the distribution and consumption of beer will be defeated.

"The plant of the Richter Brewing company is a development from small beginnings. We stated our business here in 1900 with the implied insurance that our savings, thus invested, would be protected. We have added to our plant from year to year and but a short time ago completed our office building, one of the finest structures of its kind in Escanaba today. With the growth of the business I have seen the town grow to the present city of 15,000 and in the interval we have been not unmindful of our duty to help in its material improvement. Many of the business men can testify to this.

STRAW VOTE WAS TAKEN

Hughes—Forty. Wilson—twenty-one.

That was the result of a straw vote taken at the banquet of the Michigan State Potato Growers association at the New Ladington hotel last night.

HUGHES LEADS IN MICHIGAN

(Special to the Press.)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—According to the count of the straw vote being taken in 8,000 Rexall stores of the United States, at noon today President Wilson was leading Hughes in both the popular vote and in the vote by states in Michigan the vote shows Hughes to have a large margin of the strength.

The popular vote at noon today was as follows: Hughes, 287,010; Wilson, 289,907.

The electoral vote is indicated as follows: Hughes, 223; Wilson, 208. In the state of Michigan the popular vote in the presidency is as follows: Hughes, 10,971; Wilson, 8,787.

The above straw vote is being taken daily in the Rexall stores of the United States, the store of that name in Escanaba being Ellsworth's drug store.

A PIONEER IS CALLED

Hugh Bagley, a pioneer farmer of Wilson passed away at his home at Wilson yesterday. Mr. Bagley was born at Henison, Bruce county, Canada, 65 years ago. He came to Wilson the year of 1876 and three years later returned to Canada where he was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca Moyle of Standon, Canada. He returned to Wilson and since that time has resided in that village.

He was highly respected and greatly esteemed by all who knew him, and enjoyed the acquaintance of a host of friends who will be grieved to learn of his death.

He is survived by his wife, and five sons and five daughter. The surviving sons are Albert G. of Powers, Frederick of Stephenson, Walter F. Arthur and Roy of Wilson. The daughters are Mrs. Ed. Hicks of Bark River, Gertrude and Edith of Wilson, Marion G. of LaBranche and Andriana of Menominee.

The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Poyser of Crystal Falls on Saturday at 2 p. m. at Wilson and interment in the family lot at Wilson.

GREAT GAME IS CERTAIN

The biggest game of the football season in Escanaba will be staged at South Park tomorrow afternoon when the Marinette Highs will battle with the locals in a game that will demonstrate the real caliber of the orange and blacks.

The Marinette High school team this season has not lost a single game, a week ago winning from the strong West Green Bay Highs. The visitors will come to Escanaba tomorrow primed to give the locals a terrific drubbing.

On paper the record of the locals is equal to that of Marinette, Escanaba having yet to be defeated this season, but it is admitted that the caliber of the teams played by Escanaba has not been equal to that of the teams beaten by Marinette.

The coaches have been working this week with the locals as never before and the orange and black is believed to be primed to give the visitors the surprise of their lives.

The game should attract the biggest crowd of football fans ever to attend a game in this city. The advance sale of tickets has been disappointingly small in view of the importance of the game and the people of Escanaba should at this time demonstrate their loyalty by their presence on the side lines.

Mrs. Mary Foster, who has been the guest of friends in this city for the past week, returned Thursday evening to her home in Watermeet.

Destroys Without Recompense

Prohibition would destroy all regulatory laws and yet would permit liquor to be shipped into Michigan from any point outside of the state, without restriction or regulation.

Prohibition would increase the taxes of every property owner in Delta County from $43 a thousand to $71 a thousand.

Prohibition would destroy without compensation $100,000,000 worth of property used in a legitimate industry in the state today.

Prohibition would stagnate business and discourage the investment of capital a fact that has been proven in every state which it has been tried.

Prohibition would lessen the demand for labor and throw directly out of employment 50,000 wage earners in the state who would be forced to seek other employment at cut rate.

Prohibition would increase the cost law enforcement on the taxpayers, as by the experience of Iron County, a sister county of Cloverland, where it has cost $14,000 more to enforce the law during the dry regime, then for a similar period under the licensed saloon. In addition to being forced to spend $14,000 more for law enforcement the taxpayers of Iron County were deprived of $28,000 formerly received from the licensed saloon.

Prohibition does not pretend to prohibit. It encourages the misuse of intoxicants. It confiscates property. It throws honest wage earners out of employment.

Prohibition is not a fit rule for the people of Michigan.

CLAIM LINER FOLLOWED SCHOOLCRAFT COUNTY WINS HIGH HONORS DEUTSCHLAND TAKES MAIL? SECRETARY LANSING SAYS U. S. WOULD NOT COMMIT UNEQUAL ACT BY ALLOWING SUBMARINE TO BECOME MAIL CARRIER—PERMISSION AWAITED.

(Special to the Press.)

New York, Nov. 2.—The American liner Philadelphia was pursued by a submarine while nearing the United States coast on its last trip, it was learned today. The identity of the submarine boat is a mystery, as Captain Koenig of the Deutschland, declares he saw no liner at the time and place mentioned.

The periscope of the submarine was sighted at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon about 70 miles west of Nantucket, between Fire Island and Nantucket. For half an hour it followed the Philadelphia, which is identified by a large American flag on its sides. Then it disappeared.

George W. Rowell, Jr., secretary and manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, is in the city to attend the potato congress.

Mrs. Charles McCauley of Wells has returned from Evanston, where she visited with her daughter, Miss Eva McCauley.

ASK ENGLAND TO HOLD GOLD

(Special to the Press.)

New York, Nov. 2.—American bankers for the first time in history have asked Britain to refrain from sending more gold here. The request is understood, was conveyed through Morgan & Co., but could not be confirmed.

It is understood that the request was based on the belief that further importations would cause raised prices and lead bankers to become lenient in extending credits.

Mrs. R. E. Hodson, Sr., of Chicago is visiting with relatives and friends in the city.

SCHOOLCRAFT COUNTY WINS HIGH HONORS

(Special to the Press.)

Awards of judges at third annual Michigan potato show now in progress at Coliseum, announced yesterday.

Schoolcraft county carried off the chief honors of the third annual Michigan State potato show now in progress at the Coliseum, according to the decision rendered by the judges yesterday. One lower peninsula county broke into the winning column at the show, Newaygo county carrying off second honors and with Marquette third and Iron fourth. The two sweepstake prizes were carried off by Newaygo county growers.

STOP FORD

(Special to the Press.)

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 2.—Alleging that such reckless money expenditures jeopardizes the stockholders' interests, John F. and Horace Dodge, secured a temporary injunction this afternoon restraining Henry Ford from using the Ford Motor company assets to extend the business instead of declaring dividends for the stockholders. The injunction was issued by Circuit Judge Mandell.

DEUTSCHLAND TAKES MAIL?

(Special to the Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Secretary Lansing said today that Britain has never declared a legal German blockade and the United States would not be assisting Germany to evade the "blockade" if American mails were delivered by the Deutschland on her return voyage.

At the German embassy it was said arrangements have been made for this service. The permission of the postal department is all that is needed now.

The German embassy is awaiting the receipt of documents from Captain Koenig before acting on alleged neutral acts by American vessels when the Deutschland left the United States on her former trip.

Mrs. Philip Rothenbach and daughter, Phyllis, have returned to their home at Fond du Lac after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lied.

NO DECISION IMMEDIATELY

(Special to the Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—According to Secretary Lansing the Marina election will not be reached before election. The United States holds that vessels have a right to arm defensively and no conclusion was ever reached with Germany upholding differently. It is said each armed ship case is treated individually on account of the difficult yin determining its defensive or offensive armament. It was admitted that in German's submarine warfare promise to the United States the question of gun carrying was debatable.

TO STAGE BIG RALLY

Hon. Emmet H. Hicks, former attorney general of Wisconsin and one of the most eloquent speakers in the northwest engaged in advocating the cause of Republicanism in the present campaign, will address a mass meeting at the city hall on Saturday evening. Attorney Hicks has been induced to come to Escanaba for the closing address of the active campaign after a persistent effort made by Chairman O. P. Chatfield of the Republican county committee. He was booked to close his campaign in his home state but through the influence of Mr. Chatfield he was induced to cancel one Wisconsin engagement that he might come to this city. The ability of Mr. Hicks as an orator and the intense interest that is now centered in the campaign is certain to attract a monster audience to the city hall on Saturday evening.

FARMERS DAY BIG SUCCESS

A host of Delta county farmers yesterday brought their produce to Escanaba and disposed of all of their offerings in record time, at the improvised market place, on North Mary street.

Every farmer who brought a load of produce to the city yesterday found buyers flocked about his wagon almost before he was able to become located for the sale. Every wagon was cleaned out in record time much to the delight of the agriculturists who have been accustomed to dispose of their wares by weary trudging from house to house.

Potatoes sold on the market yesterday for as high as $1.35 a bushel while the average price of strictly fresh eggs was 50 cents. All other produce was disposed of at regular market prices.

The farmers at the market place were treated to a free luncheon at the Fair store and during the serving of the luncheon a victrola program was provided by G. J. Dailey head of the Victrola department at the Schrader Music House.

All of the farmers in the city yesterday were unanimous in their desire for another market day being planned and it is likely that their wishes will be complied with.

DEMAND REMOVAL OF SENATOR LODGE

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 2.—A demand for Senator Lodge's removal from the senate foreign relations committee was made by former Attorney General Hogan, in a speech at Bellaire. "A man willing to attack the president is not fit to serve," he said.

Bears False Witness

That Muckraker Baldwin, supposed Christian but ultra bigot, manager of characters; deceitful foe of United Labor and paid dry agitator, does not hesitate to stoop to the giving of false oath, in a desperate effort to win strength to the hypocritical cause that he serves from the ranks of union labor whom he has repeatedly castigated, is shown by the statement of John H. McCarthy.

Mr. McCarthy states that at the office of the Delta Title, Land & Loan Co., in his presence, Muckraker Baldwin said: "The railroad men are the most shiftless and lazy workers in the country and Wilson made the biggest blunder of his life when he put through the eight hour law." One of those in Muckraker Baldwin's audience said: "Don't you think that statement would hurt your subscription?" And the man who had there shown his true attitude toward Union Labor retorted: "I don't care whether it does or not. I mean what I say."

Now realizing that the revelation made by him of his real attitude against Union Labor must again be shielded that the dry cause not through his own words be again delivered a terrific jolt, he has not hesitated to make a false oath, that he did not utter sentiment attributed to him.

Mr. McCarthy was present when the statement was made. His ability to hear is of the best. And he has absolutely no incentive to make a false statement as to what he heard.

ADDRESS WAS EDUCATIONAL

HON. SIDNEY STOREY OF KENTUCKY DELIVERED HIGHLY INTELLIGENT APPEAL AGAINST FANATICAL PROHIBITION AT STRAND THEATRE LAST NIGHT.

One of the most intellectual and forceful addresses ever to mark a campaign of any kind in Delta county was that given by Hon. Sidney Storey, of Kentucky at the Strand theatre last night on Temperance, Sanity and Justice. Mr. Storey illuminated the question that is faced by the people of Michigan today, in a manner that could not but most favorably impress all in the audience. It was such an address that could not but leave a lasting impression upon all who were privileged to hear it.

One of his most telling points of the address was that dealt by the speaker when he asserted that any question which pretends to mix matters of religion and politics must be crushed for the preservation of the union. He asserted that intemperance was an ill that experience had proven could never be cured by law and that the cure lies only in the home and the church. He asserted that the radical prohibitionists of the present day are making a desperate effort to offer their creed in the guise of a religion and as such deserved rebuke.

He asserted that when the framers of the Declaration of Independence wrote that immortal document that had in view the continued separation of matter of the church and state and that those who today are seeking to circumvent the will of those men, are unloyal to their nation.

The speaker told of his extensive travels through foreign lands and outlined the momentous problems that this nation faces today. He asserted that instead of seeking to solve these greatest problems many people of the nation are playing upon the emotions of the populace to draw their attention from really great matters to such trivial things as prohibition and the other issues that are being advocated in this day.

He told of his extensive travels thru both the old and the new worlds and showed the fine attributes of the German people, the French, the English and their wonderful accomplishments through the application of themselves to the greater problems to the exclusion of reforms that must be solved by the individual and not by the state.

He asserted that the reference by fanatical prohibitionists to the prohibition that maintain in India as an example of what their creed may accomplish, is an insult to the American citizen who permits himself to be compared with the low caste Hindoo. Mr. Storey closely held the attention of his audience throughout the address marking it as one of the most interesting efforts of the campaign.

Miss Lucy Shields of Alpena, Mich., returned Thursday evening to her home in that city, following a three days' visit with Escanaba friends. There will be a regular meeting of Justice Temple Pythian Sisters Friday, Nov. 3d at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. hall.

Every resident of Escanaba who wants to vote on Tuesday, must register either today or tomorrow.

In the present heated discussion of national affairs, wet and dry amendments, home rule, fraternal amendments, etc., it is well to remember that Michigan is interested in securing for itself a real business administration, to take the place of present slipshod, antiquated methods, and Albert E. Sleeper the Republican candidate for governor, stands on a platform the first principle of which is Business with a big "B".

Straw votes show how the country would go if it depended solely on the individuals who take part in them. But the way the country will go depends upon the voters who cast their ballots at the regularly authorized election. That will be held on Tuesday next, and its result will open the eyes of some of the fellows who have been setting high value on the showings made by straw votes.

PRES. WILSON HAS DENIAL

Long Branch, N. J., Nov. 1.—President Wilson characterized as "untrue" the statement made by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts to the effect that the president had seriously considered adding a weakening postscript to his "strict accountability" note.

The president telegraphed to Walter Lippmann, of New York, editor of the New Republic, replying to a message from Mr. Lippmann regarding Senator Lodge's statement. The president's telegram follows:

"In reply to your telegram let me say that the statement made by Senator Lodge is untrue. No postscript or amendment to the Lusitania note was ever written or contemplated by me except such changes that I myself inserted, which strengthened and emphasized the protest. It was suggested after the note was ready for transmission that an intimation be conveyed to the German government that a proposal for arbitration would be acceptable and one member of the cabinet spoke to me about it, but it was never discussed in cabinet meeting and no threat of any resignation was ever made, for the very good reason that I rejected the suggestion, after giving it such consideration as I thought every proposal deserved which touched on so grave a matter.

"It was inconsistent with the purpose of the note. The public is in possession of everything that was said to the German government.

(Signed) Woodrow Wilson."

Fitchburg, Mass., Oct. 31.—Senator Lodge, in a campaign speech here read a letter from John Temple Lloyd Jeffries, of Boston, in which the writer stated that Henry Breckinridge, former assistant secretary of war had several times made to him remarks similar to those attributed to him by Dr. Charles H. Bailey of Tufts college, concerning the alleged elimination, by President Wilson, or a weakening postscript from the "strict accountability" note to Germany.

A letter from Dr. Bailey regarding a conversation he had with Mr. Beckinridge on the subject was read by Mr. Lodge at a public meeting Saturday night, and the senator in his address said he was presented the letter from Mr. Jeffries as additional information.

"Mr. Beckinridge has sent one or two telegrams in which he refers to Dr. Bailey and myself in a very angry manner, which is not important," said Senator Lodge.

"But he characterizes his own conversation which Dr. Bailey reported as 'back stairs gossip.' He does himself a great injustice by this, because he was a member of the Wilson administration and a most excellent assistant secretary of war. He denies that there was any threat of a resignation by Mr. Garrison or others but he entirely fails to deny the essential point which was that the postscript was written and that he and Mr. Garrison saw it. Mr. Garrison saw it. Mr. Garrison said in Washington: 'It am not being interviewed on any subject. I have not any statement of any kind to make.' So that he also refused to deny the existence of the postscript which he certainly would have done if it had been a mere fabrication by Dr. Bailey. Dr. Bailey, is a gentleman of the highest character, standing and veracity. I have no doubt that he stated the conversation in substance with absolute truth."

San Mateo, Cal., Oct. 31.—When Henry Breckinridge who arrived here from Del Monte was informed that President Wilson had termed untrue the statement made by Senator Lodge regarding the Lusitania note he said: "Since the president has denied Senator Lodge's statement, I shall have nothing more to say about it."

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 31.—William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, denied that there was any truth in the story that the postscript had been written to the Lusitania note advising the German government that the strong language of the note should not be taken seriously and that later the postscript was withdrawn.

"I take it for granted," Mr. Bryan said, "that the president will deal with the matter as he deems wise, if indeed any attention need be paid it after Mr. Breckinridge's denial."

Mr. Bryan would make no further comment except to call attention to the fact that his resignation was not tendered at the time of the first Lusitania note, to which the alleged postscript was attached was written, but at the time the second note was written, which was nearly a month later.

SAFETY AT CROSSINGS IS AIM OF CAMPAIGN

To reduce grade crossing accidents some of the railroads in the northwest have started an extensive campaign under the caption, "A word of caution to motorists" circulars have been sent to all secretaries of state in the northwest, with the request that they be given out with new license plates.

"With the number of automobiles coming into use rapidly increasing it cannot be too strongly emphasized caution should be observed by drivers when approaching grade crossings," "Daily reports show accidents that could have been averted had the driver of the motor car stopped, looked and listened before attempting to cross ahead of an approaching train."

"Government statistics show the number of persons killed and injured in the United States at grade crossings to be as follows: During 1914 1,147 persons were killed, 2,935 injured and during 1915 997 persons were killed, 2,398 injured. The reduction in casualties during 1915, as compared with the previous year, are due to warning notices posted by railway companies and automobile clubs, who are endeavoring to provide effective means for eliminating the hazard as much as possible.

"But the real measures of avoiding such accidents are to be found in the care observed by individual drivers themselves; Let your slogan be—stop, Look, Listen.

"Drivers owe this to themselves and to the passengers riding in their automobiles. They hold as great a responsibility toward their families and friends as do the engineers of rapidly moving passenger trains to the patrons whose destinies they are charged with. All the signs, notices, bells, whistles, gates and flagmen hired to protect the public are of no avail unless they can have the co-operation of the motorists.

"Observations have been made to record the care shown by automobile drivers and in 35,000 instances the following results were noted: 53 per cent looked neither way before passing over a grade crossing; 8 per cent looked one way only, and 174 motor car drivers (about half of 1 per cent) actually stopped their machines before proceeding to pass over the crossing. These figures show that few men of undoubted intelligence display the necessary caution that may save their lives, limbs and property, by simply waiting a moment or two to allow the train to pass.

"Trains have no choice of routes; they must run on the rails and their patrons require that they be on time, if possible. On the contrary, motor car drivers can choose their own routes and the occupants of such machines usually are not pressed for time.

"If automobile drivers would make it a habit to associate the sight of a grade crossing and its advance notices with the sight of a traffic policeman and control their machines accordingly, grade crossing accidents would cease. No man is immune to the accidents at grade crossings which are so frequent with the constantly growing use of the automobile.

"Trains moving at speeds from 25 to 40 miles an hour, can, under ordinary conditions, stop in about 1,900 feet. Motor cars running at the same speed can be stopped in about thirty feet. The train often weighs as much as 3,000 tons while the automobile's weight rarely exceeds two tons. It can be readily seen, therefore, that the greater weight, once under way, is much harder to stop. Every motorist should himself adopt a policy of carefulness that will render him immune from such collisions."

REGULATIONS LIMIT HUNTERS TO 1 DEER

The following is a compact set of rules governing the hunting of deer and game birds.

All persons over seventeen years of age must secure from the state game, fish and forest fire commissioners, county clerk or deputy, a license to hunt—no matter whether person is hunting in or outside of his own county.

Trappers must have a license for taking fur bearing animals.

Beaver. A special license must be secured to take beaver.

Automobiles and power boats. Hunting partridge or water fowl from automobiles or power boats prohibited.

Spring shooting. Spring shooting of ducks and other water fowl unlawful. This law now conforms to federal regulations.

Rabbits, hares and partridge. Season now open same time—October first it is unlawful for any person to be found hunting any game before this date.

Dogs. For the information of those desiring to hunt birds with dogs during the deer hunting season the department rules that bird dogs can be used during the deer hunting season and had in possession in the woods, hunting camp, logging camp or club house, providing that such dogs do not attempt to hunt, pursue or kill deer. The owner of the dog assumes this risk and deputies will be instructed during the deer season to kill on sight any dog found hunting, pursuing or following upon the track of a deer. It will be lawful to train dogs for hunting birds fifteen days prior to the opening of the season, provided that no firearms are in possession of person training them.

One deer. Lawful to hunt or take only one deer.

Deer must be tagged with metal self-locking seal immediately after being killed. These seals will be furnished by county clerks with license. License tags attached to deer at shipping station, in presence of shipping agent. Metal self-locking seal should be attached through gambel, or to antlers in permanent manner.

Head light. Unlawful to have in possession at any time.

Non-residents. May ship one deer out of the state when license tag and seal is attached thereto, provided that permit printed on back of license coupon is cancelled by agent at initial billing point.

Sufferer From Indigestion Relieved.

"Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for several years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells right away," writes Mrs. Thomas Casey, Geneva, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Ishpeming, Mich., Nov. 2.—Record prices were again scored today and the New York Copper shares were the lead ers. Utah Copper sold to $110, Chino at $83 7-8 and Ray Consolidated $39.50. These are the highest prices ever recorded for these shares. Steel Common made a new high record but closed with a fractional loss as did practically all the Steel issues. Granby and Anaconda were very active at higher prices while the Boston Ishpeming and Isle Royale gave a good account of themselves. The sensational rise in Green Monster to 6 7-8 was the feature of the Jerome stocks. This advance in Green Monster indicates the continued interest in Jerome district shares and we believe there are going to be several more sensational advances in the shares shortly. There was a further advance in Metal today and producers are now asking 23 1-2 cents. The political situation is not nearly the market factor that many expected it would be. Quite a number have been holding off from buying stocks figuring that as election approaches they would be able to pick up some cheap stock but instead markets have been steadily advancing—J. A. ## IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Advances in pig iron during the past two years have been very slow compared with the upward movement in quotations on nearly all finished products, but during the last few weeks the marking up of pig iron quotations has proceeded steadily, until now very high quotations are prevailing throughout the country and still further advances are expected. Finished materials also are being advanced, but price considerations are not paramount. The announcement by the steel corporation of a quotation of 3.25c on plates, an advance of 33 per cent as compared with last week, has attracted very little attention, although in ordinary times it would be an announcement of considerable importance. Today the principal concern of buyers is to get their orders placed at any price and to hasten deliveries.

Following the sale of a very large tonnage of pig iron, including 20,000 tons in the Pittsburgh district, in the last ten days, some Virginia furnaces withdrew from the market for the first half of next year and advanced their quotations to $19.50 for No. 2 for last half and a day or two later, retired entirely from the market. Other Virginia makers advanced to $20 and $20.50, furnace, in eastern territory and also in the south and in fact, in nearly all parts of the country conditions are feverish. Some of the highest quotations heard undoubtedly are nominal and are made by sellers who do not wish to take on additional orders, but sales are being made at higher prices than have been made for many years. This is illustrated by the sale of basic at $25, valley and No. 2 foundry at $23, valley.

The taking over of the properties of the Wharton Steel Co., Wharton, N. J., which have been active for a number of years by J. L. Replogle and associates and the announcement that options on a tract of 500 acres on the Delaware river, near Claymont, Del., have been closed and that a new steel works will be erected by W. P. Worth and associates are indications of much greater activity in steel making in eastern territory, as is also the awarding of contracts for important extension Steel corporation for its Sparrows Point, Md., plant.

The production of steel has proceeded at a record-breaking rate, but mills have so many orders on hand that few sales are being made. Large tonnages of shell steel discards from the Pittsburgh district are being offered in eastern territory.

Both furnace and foundry grades of coke have been selling at more than $8, Conneville for prompt delivery, but the furnace price seems to have receded to $7. Prices for future delivery are more reasonable and one furnace has made a contract for 10,000 tons per month for delivery thru-out next year at $3.75. Car and labor shortages are largely responsible for the extraordinary prices of coke.

The taking of bids by the government on battleships and destroyers indicates that contracts will be awarded to several ship building concerns, and as the companies now feel that they can figure more actively on the merchant ship building which they will be able to do, they are sending in a volume of inquiries for plates. One Pacific coast yard has asked for 23,000 tons, another Pacific coast yard for 15,000 tons, a New York company for 7,000 tons, a Cramp yard for 7,000 tons and a Montreal merchant 10,000 tons. Inquiry for export also is heavy and one received at Cleveland is for 50,000 tons of various kinds of plates. Some mills are, however, giving good delivery on universal plates at $5.00, while delivery on sheared plates extends for from eight to ten months, at not less than 4 cents.

More Malapropety. "Yes," said Mrs. Twickenbury, "they were very careful about that infectious membranous croup. They had anecdotes hanging up all over the house."

"A Hungry Man's Lament"

A man stood on the corner of the busy city street, There was dust upon his clothing and mud was on his feet. He stood there softly sobbing; a tear was in his eye. His sorrow drew the notice of a kindly passerby.

"Tell me why you're grieving—why your eyes are red and wet. Have you lost your wife and family; lost your way or lost a bet? Don't be afraid to tell me and I'll be your friend in need, For I know by how you're sobbing you need a friend indeed."

Up spoke the grieving stranger: "Here's my tale of woe—I haven't had a REAL meal since fifteen months ago. I know a little lunch room just a few steps down the street Where the food is of the finest and the place so clean and neat.

"No cloths are on the tables for there are no tables there; There's just a marble counter with stools instead of chairs. There's no kitchen-hidden cooking; you see all you have to eat; The cook, the food and service, is a trio you can't beat."

"Well, then, why are you crying? Why not go there and eat?" "I did," said the grieving stranger, "but I couldn't get a seat. The place is always crowded and I can't get in the door. So he leaned against the lamp-post to sob a little more.

Just thirty miles he'd come that day to get a slice of stake, With potatoes and with coffee and a piece of home-made cake. His anguish was so potent and his grief so sharply keen, That the passerby said, "Tell me, what place it is you mean."

"It's a little place called 'Wilson's'—a short step down the way." Said the grieving stranger, "but I couldn't get a seat." "But I don't care if I stand here another week to get The meal for which I'm waiting—and you bet, I'll get it yet."

SAYS GROCERYMEN IN CONSPIRACY

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 1.—Wholesale grocery men are in a conspiracy to fix food prices and boycott the restaurants who oppose, is the charge of I. M. Laughlin, a restaurant man here. He asserts the boycott was instigated by retail grocery men to force the restaurants to buy through them. He cites instances of a boycott and a combine on prices.

SHOW FACTS WERE NOT PRESENTED

The Press has received the following letter from W. D. Killpatrick of Detroit concerning a telegraphic news item that recently appeared in the Press:

October 27, 1916.

Editor, The Press, Escanaba, Mich.

Dear Sir:

In your issue of the 19th appears an article headed "X-Scientists Held for Child's Death," in which it is stated that parents in Little Rock, Ark., had refused to permit a physician to attend a child suffering with lockjaw from which it eventually died. The statement was made that the parents of the child were Christian Scientists. You will undoubtedly be glad to know that this item was based on misinformation and that investigation shows that the parents of the child were not Christian Scientists. It develops that these people were of a sect called the "Holy Rollers" and that instead of not calling a doctor, as the item claimed, the child was attended by three physicians, two of whom performed an operation on the child and administered an injection of serum into the patient as a supposed remedy for tetanus or lockjaw; probably every possible medical attention was given the child.

Christian Scientists will appreciate the publication of these facts in your paper. Yours truly,
W. D. KILLPATRICK.

COLLEGE FOR HOBOES TO OPEN IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The first term of the college for hoboies, which is sponsored by James Eads Howe, St. Louis "millionaire hobo," will open here next week. Eventually $30,000 will be spent toward an endowment fund. For the winter $1,500 is available and a building now is being sought.

The term hobo is to be discarded in favor of "migratory unskilled laborers" and the college is planned to give a sort of postgraduate course to the college of hard knocks.

Sanitation and moral values, organization of the wanderers, vagrancy laws and the rudiments of economics are to comprise the curriculum.

EIGHT HOUR LAW SCORED

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 2.—Gov. Emanuel L. Philip of Wisconsin, himself a former railroad man, in discussing the Adamson eight hour law in detail said:

"A passenger engineer running between points 120 miles apart, using a locomotive of less than 50,000 on its drivers, and consuming four hours and forty minutes receives for the first 100 miles, according to his engine rating, $4.40 and in addition 20-100 of $4.47, or 88 cents, making his earnings for the four hours and forty minutes $5.28.

"Under the Adamson law, having worked less than the eight hour standard work day, he would receive but the standard day's wage, which is $4.40 that is, he will earn 88 cents less for the same trip, covering the same distance and the same time, after Jan. 1, under the Adamson law than he is now earning under his schedule with the railway company.

"A passenger engineer running between points 150 miles apart, using a locomotive of more than 50,000 pounds on its drivers, and less than 100,000, and consuming five hours and fifty minutes, receives for the first 100 miles, according to his engine rating, $4.55, and in addition 50-100 of $4.55 or $2.27, making his earnings for the five hours and fifty minutes $6.82.

"Under the Adamson law, having worked less than the eight hour standard work day, he would receive but the standard day's wage, which is $4.55 that is, he will earn $2.27 less for the same trip, covering the same distance and the same time, after Jan. 1 under the Adamson law than he is now earning under his schedule with the railway company.

"A passenger engineer running between points 190 miles apart, using a locomotive having more than 100,000 pounds and less than 140,000 pounds on its drivers and consuming six hours and thirty minutes, receives for the first hundred miles, according to his engine rating $4.70, and in addition 90 per cent of $4.70, or $4.23, making his earnings for the six hours and thirty minutes $8.93.

"Under the Adamson law, having worked less than the eight hour standard work day, he would receive but the standard day's wage, which is $4.70 that is, he will earn $4.23 less for the same trip, covering the same distance and the same time, after Jan. 1, under the Adamson law than he is now earning under his schedule with the railway company.

"These comparisons could be continued indefinitely, as they are typical of actual running conditions which prevail on the western lines and for that matter on eastern lines.

"It will be observed that the Adamson law reduces the wages of engineers and firemen in the passenger service. While it will result in increased earnings to some of the engineers and firemen engaged in slow freight service, it results in an absolute loss of earnings on the part of the engineers and firemen engaged in passenger and fast freight service. This loss of earnings is brought about by the fact that the Adamson so-called eight hour law excludes mileage in reckoning compensation. You will look in vain for anything in the four sections of this law that will warrant any railway employe claiming from his employer that after Jan. 1 he shall be paid according to the miles that he runs on a given trip. The railways will tell their employes as they are obliged to tell them, that under section 4 of the law they can only reckon on their compensation on a time basis.

MEXICANS EXECUTE CITIZEN OF U. S.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 1.—Jose Diaz, said to be a naturalized American citizen, was executed at Parral on Oct. 3 at the order of Gen. Luis Herrera, the Caranza commandant, according to a statement on Tuesday of Mrs. Margarita Diaz, his wife.

Mrs. Diaz said she accompanied her husband to whom she had recently been married to Parral to visit his relatives there. Her story is that he was arrested the afternoon of his arrival and put to death that night on the charge of being a legalista, despite his plea for delay in order to prove his American citizenship.

District court records here show that a Mexican named Jose Diaz received full citizenship papers in 1912. El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Government agents here received an unconfirmed report Tuesday night from Chihuahua City that a train carrying Gen. Fortunato Maycotte the Caranza commandant, and his command, had been captured by Villa bandits in Bachinaba pass, south of Chihuahua City. Gen. Maycotte was proceeding south to intercept Villa in the vicinity of Santa Rosalia.

PARISH PRIEST GIVEN FINAL PRESENTATION

Members of a cast of Escanaba people with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Golden, last night at Gladstone appeared in the final presentation of "The Parish Priest." The play, as twice most successfully produced in this city, was given a highly pleasing interpretation before a large Gladstone audience last night. All of the members of the cast acquitted themselves admirably with their parts and were rewarded with hearty and repeated applause.

DRY SEATTLE SURE FLOATS

Indicating the actual conditions that maintain in supposedly dry Seattle, Wash., today, is a statement that appears in the Seattle Star, under date of Oct. 26, of this year. That the sale of liquor has been in no way impeded in Seattle by the dry regime and that blind pigs are to be found throughout the city, with many being deliberately protected by the prosecuting attorney's office, is shown in statements made by R. S. Belf and W. B. Fuxum, two special investigators of the prosecutors office.

Their statement as to conditions that prevail in Seattle today follow:

"We were instructed to get the information regarding the landlady at 719 Dearborn st., selling liquor. We got said information and the party was not arrested. There were places all around said place that we could have gotten information about, but we were instructed by the prosecuting attorney's office not to bother anyone in that vicinity, except the above named place.

"An automobile drove up to 703 Dearborn st. on one evening while we were investigating 719 Dearborn and unloaded one demijohn of liquor and two cases of beer. We reported this to Lunding and he told us to leave this place alone.

"On Third ave., near the postoffice, we were stopped by two girls who asked us to go to their room. We said, 'How are chances to get a drink?' They replied, 'You can get all you want.' We did not go to their room, but asked them for their address. They told us to come up to Hadden Hall Courts, on Third avenue. We reported this to Lunding and he gave us instructions to let this place alone.

"We were in a pool hall on Pifer street and asked a young fellow where we could get some liquor. He said, 'Come with me and I can get you all you want.' He took us to the Arcade Hotel, on Second ave., where we bought one pint of liquor from the hotel manager. We turned it over to Lunding's office and were instructed not to bother this place.

"We received information that the New Richelieu Hotel, on Third avenue, was selling liquor. Lunding gave us instruction to get this information on the hotel. We obtained 3 or 4 bottles of beer at this place and turned it over to Lunding's office, but there was no prosecution in this case. We spent about three days getting the information on this hotel. The cost of getting this place was about $30.00.

"When we would return for information in regard to the places, Lunding's chief investigator would tell us, 'I cannot give you any instructions until I have consulted Mr. Lunding.' He said, 'I have to get my instructions from him and then tell you what to do, and want you to understand, not to go any place unless we tell you to.'

"There is a place on Sixth avenue south where a woman has three girls working for her and she sells liquor. I reported this place to Lunding's office, but he would not let us bother this place.

"In regard to the drug stores, Lunding's office would pick out certain ones for us to work upon, and told us to get a certain place, no matter what it cost. We would put in on an average of one hour per day on one place when we could have worked five or six places a day. Where we would spend a week or ten days getting one place, we could have gotten four or five places in the same time.

"We have turned in information on several places upon which Lunding's office did not take any action. We received instructions to let the places alone that were selling liquor.

GIVES CHAMPAGNE DINNER TO DIVIDE "TIP"

London, Oct. 31.—A young British subaltern a few weeks ago called upon one of the men in his platoon, gave him a letter to send off at the local postoffice, and presented him with an apple as a tip.

The private called together, three of his friends and invited them to a champagne dinner. The piece de resistance of the evening was an apple divided into four sections. The host's name is well known as that of one of the wealthiest men in England, and the ingenious "sub" has not yet heard the last of his "tip."

TODAY IS SPUD DAY

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 2.—To-morrow is Potato Day in Cloverland. It is the time when Upper Peninsula folks pay respects to the tuber for its remarkable growth here.

Housewives interested in the menu published for Potato Day may find the following recipes of help. All have been tested by Miss Justin, Specialist in charge of Home Economics, Upper Peninsula.

POTATO PANCAKES—Grate eight large potatoes in a porcelain bowl; add four eggs not beaten; 1 cup flour, 1-2c. milk and 1 tsp. baking powder. Stir together lightly, taking care not to beat the eggs too much. Fry the same as ordinary griddle, but longer, to cook thoroughly.

POTATOES ANNA—Cut very thin slices across the largest potatoes. Lay the slices in flat layers on a small plate; spread fresh butter freely over the potatoes, then add another layer, and so on until the potatoes are about 4 inches high. Bake until the potatoes are tender (about one-half hour in a quick oven.)

GERMAN WAR BREAD—2 1-6 kg. rye flour, 25 grams yeast 1 kg. potatoes, 1-2 liter water, 100 grams bread dough, salt, caraway seeds.

A sponge is made the evening before by stirring together the dough, the yeast, the water and part of the rye flour. It is then covered and put into a warm place to rise over night. The next morning the rest of the flour and the warm potatoes, which have been put through a ricer, are added, and the dough is kneaded about half an hour. Then two loaves are formed, which are covered and put away to rise until cracks appear on the surface. The bread is then put into the oven and baked one hour in a moderate oven.

MOIST CHOCOLATE CAKE—1-3 c. butter, 1-2 c. sugar, 2 eggs, 1-2c. sugar, 1-2c. hot mashed potato, 1 oz. chocolate melted, 1-4c. sweet milk, 1 3-4 t. baking powder, 1-2 t. cinnamon, 1-2 t. mace or nutmeg, 1-4 t. clove, 1-2c. walnut meats (chopped fine) 1 c. sifted flour. Cream the butter and beat in first half cup of sugar; beat the yolks of eggs, beat in second half cup of sugar. Beat the two mixtures together; add the potato and chocolate. Add spices and baking powder to flour. Add milk and flour alternately. Fold in egg whites. Bake in a sheet or layers.

We did not go to their room, but asked them for their address. They told us to come up to Hadden Hall Courts, on Third avenue. We reported this to Lunding and he gave us instructions to let this place alone.

"We were in a pool hall on Pifer street and asked a young fellow where we could get some liquor. He said, 'Come with me and I can get you all you want.' He took us to the Arcade Hotel, on Second ave., where we bought one pint of liquor from the hotel manager. We turned it over to Lunding's office and were instructed not to bother this place.

"We received information that the New Richelieu Hotel, on Third avenue, was selling liquor. Lunding gave us instruction to get this information on the hotel. We obtained 3 or 4 bottles of beer at this place and turned it over to Lunding's office, but there was no prosecution in this case. We spent about three days getting the information on this hotel. The cost of getting this place was about $30.00.

"When we would return for information in regard to the places, Lunding's chief investigator would tell us, 'I cannot give you any instructions until I have consulted Mr. Lunding.' He said, 'I have to get my instructions from him and then tell you what to do, and want you to understand, not to go any place unless we tell you to.'

"There is a place on Sixth avenue south where a woman has three girls working for her and she sells liquor. I reported this place to Lunding's office, but he would not let us bother this place.

"In regard to the drug stores, Lunding's office would pick out certain ones for us to work upon, and told us to get a certain place, no matter what it cost. We would put in on an average of one hour per day on one place when we could have worked five or six places a day. Where we would spend a week or ten days getting one place, we could have gotten four or five places in the same time.

"We have turned in information on several places upon which Lunding's office did not take any action. We received instructions to let the places alone that were selling liquor.

Daily Talk by Dwight G. F. Warner, Campaign Manager Home Rule League

Speaking of Corkscrews—and Crookedness—

More CROOKED than any CORKSCREW is the FAKE claim of the Professed Prohibitionists that the LEGISLATURE could make laws to regulate the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan IF the proposed prohibition amendment should be adopted.

The Legislature would be bound by the express terms of the Constitutional amendment which LIMITS Legislative action to the regulation of the making and selling of liquor in MICHIGAN for medicinal, chemical, mechanical and sacramental purposes.

The amendment does not contain any reference to the regulation of the shipping of liquor into Michigan and this fact bars any enactment of the sort by the Legislature.

NOW after making it IMPOSSIBLE for the LEGISLATURE to do anything to PROTECT Michigan from being FLOODED FOREVER with UNLIMITED quantities of Liquor without REGULATION; without RESTRICTION; and without CONTROL, they come forward and try to SHIFT the responsibility onto some future body of HELPLESS lawmakers.

The attempt of the Professed Prohibitionists to SHIRK the responsibility—not only for REFUSING to try to STOP the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan but also for tying the hands of future LEGISLATURES—is nothing more nor less than an ATTEMPT to DECEIVE the HONEST prohibitionists who have DECLINED to be CAJOLED into supporting a so-called prohibition amendment that was DELIBERATELY so drawn that it would make real prohibition IMPOSSIBLE FOREVER—or until the WRETCHED FAKE should be erased from the ORGANIC law of Michigan.

BUT let us SUPPOSE that the LEGISLATURE could do what is IMPOSSIBLE—let us SUPPOSE that the LAWMAKERS could frame a VALID law to STOP or even to REGULATE the SHIPPING of Liquor into Michigan IF the proposed prohibition amendment should be adopted—

How could LAWMAKERS—elected by PROFESSED prohibitionists be expected to do what the PROFESSED prohibitionists were AFRAID to do?

It would have been easy enough to provide in the proposed prohibition amendment that the Legislature should pass laws to STOP the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan.

It would have been easy to provide in the proposed prohibition amendment that the LEGISLATURE should pass laws to LIMIT or to REGULATE the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan—

BUT the framers of the proposed prohibition amendment were AFRAID to put into the proposed prohibition amendment a clause that would Stop, or limit, or control the shipping of liquor to Professed prohibitionists in Michigan.

On the eve of the Election the Professed prohibitionists are BEGGING for the SUPPORT of HONEST prohibitionists in the face of the following SHABBY record—

FIRST—They drew up a proposed prohibition amendment that was so worded that it would FLOOD Michigan with SHIPPED liquor FOREVER.

SECOND—They were AFRAID to tell why they REFUSED to try to stop the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan.

THIRD—They tried to make it appear that the proposed prohibition amendment was necessary in order to make LABOR sober—when Michigan has the most TEMPERATE, SKILLFUL, INDUSTRIOUS and EFFICIENT WAGE-EARNERS in the WORLD.

FOURTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the proposed prohibition amendment would SAVE the BOY from temptation when as a matter of fact the proposed prohibition amendment would WIPE OUT the law that says that liquor SHALL NOT be SOLD to BOYS.

FIFTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the proposed prohibition amendment would IMPROVE the condition of the WORKINGMEN—whereas it would throw out of employment fifty-thousand WAGE-EARNERS and deprive of a means of livelihood the 200,000 women and children dependent on them for CLOTHING, FOOD and SHELTER.

SIXTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the proposed prohibition amendment was INTENDED to BENEFIT the MERCHANTS when in fact the adoption of the proposed prohibition amendment would DEPRIVE these MERCHANTS of the PATRONAGE of fifty-thousand wage-earners NOW BUYING for themselves and for their FAMILIES.

SEVENTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the proposed prohibition amendment would be helpful to RELIGION, whereas it has been demonstrated that even the mere AGITATION for prohibition has substituted WARD POLITICS for the WORD of GOD.

EIGHTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the proposed prohibition amendment would be of BENEFIT to CAPITAL when in fact it would JEOPARDIZE ALL capital by setting the precedent of DESTRUCTION of PROPERTY by BALLOT at any time a majority desires to CONFISCATE—without compensation—on the plea that such CONFISCATION is for the GOOD of the PEOPLE.

NINTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the fight is merely a campaign against the SALOONS when as a matter of fact the proposed prohibition amendment would destroy over $20,000,000 worth of property involved directly and indirectly in the MAKING of liquor in Michigan.

TENTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that the adoption of the proposed prohibition amendment would do away with all violations of law in connection with the sale of liquor in Michigan, whereas in fact the adoption of the proposed prohibition amendment would DESTROY all of the REGULATORY laws now governing the sale of liquor in Michigan—Would drive out of business every LAW-ABIDING man now engaged in the liquor business in this State and, in addition to keeping in the liquor business all of those who now violate the laws, would induce HORDES of LOW-DOWN and LAWLESS characters to ENGAGE in BOOT-LEGGING HORRIBLE CONCOCTIONS shipped into Michigan to be sold in place of the LIQUORS now dispensed in this State under the supervision of our most excellent PURE FOOD LAWS—which PURE FOOD LAWS would be wholly inoperative in relation to liquors SOLD in OTHER States for SHIPMENT into Michigan.

ELEVENTH—They tried to make it APPEAR that alcoholic beverages are DEBASING POISONS, even when used in MODERATION, whereas the proposed prohibition amendment expressly provides for the making and selling of ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS in Michigan to be used for MEDICINAL and SACRAMENTAL purposes—for the good of both BODY and SOUL.

TWELFTH—They have tried to make it APPEAR that the adoption of the proposed amendment would help the FARMERS, whereas in fact the measure would make it UNLAWFUL for any Michigan FARMER to make CIDER from his APPLES or WINE from his GRAPES even for use in the home.

THIRTEENTH—They have tried to make it APPEAR that the interstate commerce laws would make INVALID a State law against the shipping of liquor into this State, whereas in fact the 1916 American Prohibition Year Book says that the WEBB-KENYON law gives the STATE SOLE JURISDICTION over the SHIPPING of liquor. MOREOVER the WEBB-KENYON law says that liquor SHALL NOT be shipped into any State with the INTENTION OF VIOLATING the LAW of such State.

FOURTEENTH—And NOW they come with the fake claim that "the Legislature will have AMPLE TIME in which to frame the necessary laws governing importation."

"AMPLE TIME"—is Right—Considering the fact that the proposed prohibition amendment would POSTPONE FOREVER any legislation that would STOP, LIMIT, REGULATE or CONTROL the SHIPPING of liquor into Michigan from everywhere on earth.

Is it any WONDER that the PROFESSED prohibitionists have ABANDONED all HOPE for the adoption of the so-called prohibition amendment and are making a DESPAIRING plea for the retention of the county unit law?

SAY WILSON EARNS HONOR

The following communication has been received by the Press:

To the Editor:
Ellen Key, the Scandinavian publicist and author says: "That there can be no peace until all the belligerents are lying on the ground with their tongues out." and Mr. John D. Barry one of the Henry Ford peace envoys who recently came to Detroit from Germany says there are many people in Europe who agree with Mr. Key. However, he father says "The Germans are looking hopefully toward President Wilson as mediator. As that a mediator has to do is to persuade the belligerents to speak to each other and to get together for discussion."

In spite of the venomous abuse of Roosevelt and Hughes and the sinister influences behind them that have tried to plunge us into war, President Wilson has saved us from that horror. He has not only kept us out of war, prevented a panic and permitted us to pick the fruits of peace and prosperity, he has gained the confidence and respect of the warring nations. If in November, our people show him the confidence by re-electing him President, it will as Mr. Barry says "give our country immense moral prestige and make the American influence count strongly in the peace of the future."

On the other hand, supposing Hughes who at Milwaukee permitted the Germans to believe that he would raise the British blockade—is elected president in November, he will have Roosevelt like an iron band around a tree, riveted about his neck. Such a result would destroy our influence and prestige as a nation and mean war with one or the other of the belligerents, perhaps with both.

With Wilson our future is safe and sure, he has earned a re-election. Democratic County Committee.

SELL POTATOES EXHIBITED HERE

The Escanaba Commercial club will sell all of the potatoes entered for prizes at the Michigan Potato Exhibit now in progress at the Coliseum. The potatoes become the property of the club as soon as the prizes have been awarded and with the close of the exhibit the spuds will be held to the highest bidder. The Commercial club through Secretary H. L. Clemons, is now receiving bids for the potatoes in the different varieties and grades as they are being shown.

GOV. FERRIS DOES NOT FORGET PROMISE

Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris of Michigan yesterday demonstrated to Mayor B. J. Mackillecan that he does not forget a promise. During the governor's recent visit to this city his attention was called to the case of Erick Holmberg, an aged farmer, who has been on parole from the Marquette prison for some time after serving a portion of a sentence for assault. Gov. Ferris made a careful investigation of the case and became convinced that Holmberg had been sufficiently punished for his act and Mayor Mackillecan was informed yesterday that the governor has issued a complete pardon to Holmberg.

TAFT WINS OVER BIG AUDIENCE IN LANSING

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—Silencing a heckler while a crowd cheered and cheered again, former President William Howard Taft tonight interjected into the presidential campaign here more real enthusiasm than has ever been displayed in Lansing.

Picking up a crowd which, in a large proportion had roundly hissed Henry R. Patengill, former Progressive candidate for governor, for some of his references to President Wilson, Mr. Taft slowly but surely got the audience back into good humor and finally as he denounced the Adamson bill, he had them upon their feet yelling frantically and giving cheer after cheer.

Not since the days of the 1896 campaign for the presidency between McKinley and Bryan has there been such a meeting as the one tonight. Even the oldest inhabitants could not recall anything that touched it for interest and enthusiasm. The Prudden auditorium, including standing room, holds 3,300 people. There was not an inch of available space when the meeting began. Before this entrance to the hall, however, Mr. Taft, from an automobile addressed a crowd in Walnut street to close to 3,000 who could not get inside the building.

A Slight Matter.

"I don't see you at Miss Golder's receptions any more, old man."
"No, she and I had a little difference of opinion."
"Nothing serious, I hope."
"Oh, no; only I thought I was the man she ought to marry and she thought I wasn't, that's all."

SAY PRES. WILSON DESERVES SUPPORT

The following communication was received by the Press yesterday from F. A. Eastwood:

To the Editor:
"I am for Mr. Wilson because I am an American who loves that self-respecting, unconquerable spirit which does not strike until necessary, and then strikes effectively. His policies are clear, sound, sane and courageous throughout. When his record is carefully studied, in the light of unbiased devotion to the future of the Republic I do not believe there is a Progressive who believed in the platform of 1912 who can today repudiate his administration."

"It is also clear to me that the Republican party under Hughes is a split party, with its machinery in full control of the reactionaries. It is utterly incapable of the substantial agreement in its own councils, which is so essential to constructive performance."

"As our imports have varied but slightly since 1912, the increase in our exports must include everything that we have gained from the expansion of our foreign trade. The increase in our favorable balance for the past two years of war is $2,130,000,000. This is manifestly in excess of our entire gain from the war.

"We are prospering not under war, but in spite of war under Wilson and it seems to me that every clear headed business man, capable of conducting his own business affairs, can readily see that such is true. It would be a calamity to change leaders at this time, and I do not believe the voters of the United States are going to do it."

Schoolcraft County Wins

Although a greater interest was exhibited yesterday by Escanaba and Delta county people in the magnificent exhibit arranged at the Coliseum, the interest shown has not come up to the expectations of the promoters of the big undertaking.

The exhibit will continue through today and it is hoped that many who have not yet availed themselves of the opportunity to see the exhibits, will do so today. The admission is free and the show is one worth seeing. The program carried out yesterday morning, afternoon and evening were met with interest for women and men. Talks by recognized authorities on topics of growing, marketing and disease prevention and control marked the session yesterday for the men. Yesterday afternoon and again last night practical demonstrations in home economics were given under the direction of Miss Margaret Justin, head of the home economics department of the Michigan Agricultural College in the upper peninsula. The demonstrations were most interesting but the number of women attracted was disappointing.

The prize awards announced yesterday by the judges follow:

THE DELFT.
June Caprice in "The Ragged Princess" is the premier Fox offering at the Delft theatre today, with Billie Burke in Gloria's Romance. The story of "The Ragged Princess" is an interesting one.

Alice Jones runs away from the great black orphanage she had learned to call her home. She finds a pair of overalls and a wide brimmed hat in a barn, and she dresses up as a man. Then she hires out to a farmer. At the farm she meets Harry Deigan, and falls in love with him. When her employer learns that she is a girl he is enraged and Alice is forced to run away once more. Then she is adopted by a rich man in the city. His name is Tom Deigan, and he is Harry's half brother. Later, when Harry comes to the city, he discovers that the property his brother claims really belongs to Alice, through an old claim; and she confronts Tom with the truth. Alice gets property and Harry.

WAR CAUSES SPUD MEN AT PROSPERITY POTATO FEED

WILLIAM H. TAFT.
Stuebville, O., Nov. 2.—W. H. Taft attacked free trade tariff, the Adamson law, war prosperity, and the foreign policy of the Wilson administration in an address here last night at a large crowd that enthusiastically received the former president. In discussing the Adamson law, Mr. Taft said the real demand of the railway organizations was for an increase in wages and not an eight-hour day, and that the Adamson bill was compliance with the demand under "threat."
"What we want now is a competent man to get us out of Mexican mess, Mr. Wilson was an enemy to child labor," said Taft.
Mr. Taft followed the assertion that Mr. Wilson was an enemy to child labor laws, preparedness and the tariff commission before elected with the remark that "he has been so snatched about the he is now wabbling toward protective tariff."

ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE.
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 2.—Albert J. Beveridge, former United States senator from Indiana, speaking in behalf of the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes told an audience here that "our so-called prosperity today is sectional." Wherever the war has directly reached the sources of production, he declared, business is good. Elsewhere business is bad.
"To make prosperity genuine, steady and national," he said, "we must have a tariff that will protect all parts of the country."
Mr. Beveridge assailed the administration's foreign policy and death at length with the Mexican situation. "The desertion of American rights on the ocean are but a weak repetition of their abandonment in Mexico," he said.
He attacked the claim that Wilson had kept the United States out of war and concluded with an appeal for the election of Charles E. Hughes.

TROOPS EAT MEXICO RAW

ROOSEVELT SCORES WILSON TALK AT PHILADELPHIA AND DECLARES NATIONAL GUARDS ARE BEING USED FOR PARTISAN ADVANTAGE.
(Special to the Press.)
Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—Welcomed by a crowd of 5,000 people ex-President Roosevelt tonight took the president's Buffalo address as his text saying, "I want to register a protest against the misuse of the militia and the diplomatic service for partisan advantage."
Mr. Roosevelt said there is enough troops on the border to "eat Mexico raw" but they are not doing anything. He scored the president for not avenging the lives lost on the Lusk and said the United States is at war with Mexico but President Wilson is "at peace with somebody."

13 VIOLATORS WERE PINCHED

Thirteen violators of Escanaba's traffic ordinance were arrested by the police last night. The violators were picked up by the officers for exceeding the speed limits for failure to have tail lights turned on; for failure to turn at the corners and for infractions of various other provisions of the traffic rules.
No arrests were made during the daylight hours yesterday either in the city or on the county roads, the drivers evidently profiting by the experience of 16 others who were caught on Wednesday.

GERMANS WIN IN THE EAST

London, Nov. 2.—A twenty-five mile advance across the mountains from Kronstadt, is indicated in tonight's Petrograd official reporting the repulse of Teuton attacks at Cholola. Von Falkenhayn is now reported a few miles from Campolung. Berlin says 200 prisoners were taken in the latest advance. Dobruja is quiet.
London, Nov. 2.—The Teuton Gallian front troops yesterday won Russian positions north and south of Witoniez on the west bank of the Stockod, taking over 1,500 prisoners.

Potatoes for potato folks at a potato banquet for Michigan State Potato Growers—in other words—potatoes, tapers, "Murphies," "spuds" et cetera formed the chief food and topic at the New Ludington hotel last night.
Sixty-one persons attended the banquet given to the potato folk who are in Escanaba attending the show and convention which is now being held at the Coliseum. It took no more than one guess to prove that the chef knew who he was going to serve and if any of the readers are still in doubt they might reach a hasty conclusion by looking over the following bill-a-fare:
Cream of Potatoes
Indian Relish
Potatoes aux Cubes
Sliced Tomatoes
Queen Olives
Bakel Lake Superior Trout au Gratin
Potatoes a la Saratoga
Browned Sweet Potatoes
Fried Young Chicken potatoes supreme
Green Peas in Potato case
Cleveland Potato Salad en mayonnaise
Pineapple ice cream
assorted cake
Water Crackers
Coffee
And now, what do you think of that?
Some persons asserted that the relish, pickles, tomatoes, ice cream, cake, crackers and coffee felt so ashamed of themselves that they just naturally took on potato aspects and as a result everything was potato.
Anyway it was mighty good and the banqueters asserted that they would not worry a bit if they were alone on some mysterious island with only "potatoes to eat. Some of them proved that, it is said—by leaving the banquet table and returning to the Coliseum where they looked at and thought of nothing but potatoes for two hours and then returned to their rooms, went to bed and dreamed that they owned a million bushels of potatoes which were being sold at $2 per bushel.
But the banquet was a winner. Every body had plenty to eat and heard lots of good advice. The Delta county folk especially heard a few things which may result in the county's hiring a county agricultural agent in order to make the most of possibilities here.
"I am heartily ashamed that Delta county has no county exhibit," said G. T. Werline, the toastmaster. "We need one and I hope that those from Delta county will assist me in urging the matter at the very next meeting of the county board. We should be proud, however, of Cloverland's wonderful showing at the exhibit. It only goes to prove that we are in the best place on the map."
Margaret Justin, home economics department extension worker for the Michigan Agricultural college, spoke briefly before leaving for the Coliseum where she spoke before the women on potato cooking. H. L. Clemons, secretary of the Escanaba Commercial club also gave a brief talk.
C. W. Wald, secretary of the Michigan Potato Growers association, spoke for the standardization of potatoes and told of the wonderful improvements made during the late years along that line. E. S. Stack, of Charlevoix, representing a commercial fertilizer house, told of the values of his products for the tubers. B. J. MacKilloan, mayor of Escanaba, greeted the visitors.
J. G. Millward, secretary of the Wisconsin Potato Growers association complimented Cloverland on its wonderful products and said that the potato were some of the finest he had ever seen. He said that he had seen enough of Cloverland to think that it was a fine region for the growth of the tuber and urged that more intensive work be done. Dorr D. Buell, of Elmira, one of the two Lower Michigan exhibitors to attend the state show, also spoke.

OBJECTIONS ARE HEARD

The hearing of objections to assessments levied by the state tax commission to property in the city of Escanaba was begun at the court house yesterday and will be continued through the day. All property in the city of Escanaba has been given a boost over the figures fixed by the board of review and a number of objectors were heard yesterday. In some cases reductions were made and in others the objections were taken under consideration, with decisions to be rendered later.
Today will be the last opportunity that the people of Escanaba will have to make objections to assessments and it is expected that many will appear before the commissioners today.

CLAIM VILLA TAKES PARRAL

El Paso, Nov. 2.—Parral, in the center of the famous Parral mining district, 110 miles south of Chihuahua City, has been captured by Villa troops according to reports current here.
Officials of the Alvarado Mining & Milling company, which firm has large interests in Parral, declared they had no information of the reported capture.

MAKE PROTEST AGAINST TERM

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—It was intimated at the state department today that the government has protested to France against the use of the term "American aviation corps" It was said the practice may prejudice France's enemies against the United States.

VOTERS MUST VISIT POLLS

All voters in the city of Escanaba must register either today or tomorrow if they desire to participate in the election of next Tuesday. The registration boards will be in session at the various voting places of each ward from 8 o'clock this morning until 8 o'clock tonight and every voter is required under the law to register either today or tomorrow.

NEWLY WEDS ARE BACK FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sauter who were married at St. Joseph's church in this city on Tuesday morning have returned from a wedding trip to Marinette and Green Bay. The bride was formerly Miss Veronica Fosterling of Lathrop. The groom is employed by the Standard Oil company in this city and his bride will soon go to Gladstone to make their permanent home.

COMMISSION ADJOURNED

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 2.—After nine weeks of futile talk the Mexican peace commission adjourned today until after election. The delegates admitted they are still deadlocked.
Secretary Lane, head of the American delegation said they will reconvene here Nov. 10th. The Mexicans say they will renew their demand for the American troops withdrawal.

SOCIAL EVENTS

AUXILIARY TO MEET.
The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's church will meet in the church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Dunning will act as hostess.

PARTY ENJOYED.
One of the most enjoyable events of the year at Fairport was the party given in honor of Frank Devet's 39th birthday anniversary.
The large net shed was decorated for the occasion in masses of evergreens festooned in yellow and black with a number of jock 'a lanterns and candles peeping forth from various places. The evening was spent very pleasantly in dancing, music being furnished by Messrs. Alvin and Edwin Gray. Late in the evening dainty refreshments were served by Misses Ida Lang, Leon Pizzalla, Freida and Imogene Devet. After this the guests were entertained by Wesley Gray who sang a number of songs most fitting for the occasion. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. Devet many years of happiness and declaring him to be a most delightful host.

FRIENDS ENTERTAINED.
Mrs. J. Alfred Graham delightfully entertained a large company of friends at a costume party at her home, North Norris street, on Wednesday night. During the evening an enjoyable program of music and games was carried out, following which refreshments were served.

A VERY PRETTY WEDDING.
Miss Mabelle Finch of Escanaba and Mr. Nick Kovick of Escanaba were married on Wednesday, Nov. 1, in the city of Gladstone. Both are well known in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Britz of Lathrop served as witnesses. An elaborate dinner was served at the bride's home.

SOCIETY TO MEET.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish M. E. church will meet this afternoon at the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock. One of the women of the society will act as hostess. Everyone is welcome.

Injustice Is Pointed Out
An incident occurred under the law, and with an implied promise that the investment and re-investment in the property was safe. And now comes this threat of confiscation. Can any person point to the justice of it?
"Our local public should appreciate our relation to this question. They should understand clearly, and bear in mind, that not prohibition, but distribution is involved, and that what is proposed as far as we are concerned is to take our business spot to exterminate it, but only to turn much the larger share of it over to the Milwaukee brewers, from whom we took it, to the advantage of the local community, where we have spent the money that we have earned."
J. F. Kitchen of Hermansville, motored to this city Thursday on a business mission.
