

"A Hungry Man's Lament"

A man stood on the corner of the busy city street. There was dust upon his clothing and mud was on his feet. He stood there softly sobbing; a tear was in his eye. His sorrow drew the notice of a kindly passerby.

"Tell me why you're grieving—why your eyes are red and wet. Have you lost your wife and family; lost your way or lost a bet? Don't be afraid to tell me and I'll be your friend in need. For I know by how you're sobbing you need a friend indeed."

Up spoke the grieving stranger: "Here's my tale of woe—I haven't had a REAL meal since fifteen months ago. I have a little lunch room just a few steps down the street where the food is of the finest and the place so clean and neat.

"No cloths are on the tables for there are no tables there; There's just a marble counter with stools instead of chairs. There's no kitchen—hidden cooking; you see all you have to eat. The cook, the food and service, is a trio you can't beat."

"Well, then, why are you crying? Why not go there and eat?" "I did," said the grieving stranger, "but I couldn't get a seat. The place is always crowded and I can't get in the door. So he leaned against the lamp-post to sob a little more.

Just thirty miles he'd come that day to get a slice of stake, With potatoes and with coffee and a piece of home-made cake. His anguish was so pointed and his grief so sharply keen, That the passerby said, "Tell me, what place it is you mean."

"It's a little place called 'Wilson's'—a short step down the way." Said the grieving stranger and his manner changed to gay. "But I don't care if I stand here another week to get The meal for which I'm waiting—and you bet, I'll get it yet." 14

SAM GOMPERS CAN'T DELIVER LABOR VOTE

Detroit, Nov. 2.—Recent developments within labor circles here make it certain that Samuel Gompers will not be able to deliver the vote of organized labor to President Wilson, in spite of his endorsement of the latter. Within the last few days many well known labor leaders that will support and vote for Charles E. Hughes and that the members of their unions will do likewise.

Some of the labor leaders and members of the unions have frankly confessed recently to Republicans that they were averted towards President Wilson when the Adamson law was passed through congress, but that they are now convinced that the bill is a "gold brick" for union labor, and in view of this they are now more steadfast than ever in the support of the Republican party.

The laboring men have been considerably stirred, too, by a speech made here recently by John L. Richards, former vice-president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, steel and tin workers, in which Mr. Richards charged that Samuel Gompers sent out a letter endorsing President Wilson without authority of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor.

"I tell you that Sam Gompers is insincere," declared Mr. Richards, "and, further, that he has not the backing of the Federation when he tries to deliver organized labor to the Democratic party."

Gompers has always been a Democrat, although he has not been so bold in using his position until this time. When he sent out that letter calling on all union men to support President Wilson he acted without consulting the executive committee of the Federation, and only today Frank Morrison, secretary of the Federation in a statement given out in Pittsburgh, declared that the action of Sam Gompers was not the official action of the Federation.

"Organized labor will not be delivered. It reserves the right to think and vote for itself and a majority of the members of unions in this country will vote the Republican ticket because they know that only under Republican administrations do we have prosperity that is permanent. Our present prosperity is founded on the blood of the thousands who are dying in Europe and the end of the war will see a return to the conditions that existed under Democratic free trade in 1914."

"I'll give you an example that I know of. The old tariff on tin plate was 45 per cent and this enabled the American tin mills to supply all the tin plate used in this country. The Underwood bill reduced the duty to 15 per cent and the Standard Oil company then bought its tin plate in Wales and had it laid down in this country for less than it could be made here. Why was this possible? Because of the low wages paid in Wales. What was the result? American mills had to shut down and thousands of men were thrown out of work."

"Those are the conditions you will return to if the Democratic party is allowed to remain in power. Vote for Hughes and make sure that you won't be in a bread line after the war."

$180,000 WORTH OF NEW DIMES COINED

New ten-cent pieces which have been coined recently at the Philadelphia mint in large numbers, have been placed in circulation and probably will reach Escanaba within a few days. About $180,000 worth of the new dimes have been sent to banks and trust companies. In the western states they will be distributed simultaneously from the Denver mint. The inverse side of the new dime shows a head of "Liberty" in profile, while the obverse side shows a bundle of rods in the center and the protruding battle axe, symbols of unity. Surrounding the central design is an olive wreath, denoting peace.

CAN'T CRUSH GER. SAYS PRO-ALLY

Berne, Nov. 2.—The editor of the "Ticino Gazette," a Swiss paper which has supported the cause of the Allies since the beginning of the war, recently went to Germany to study the military and economic conditions there. On his return he writes:

"The French and English claims that the favorable reports about the German harvest were colored to deceive the world are unfounded. I have convinced myself that the crops are plentiful throughout the empire."

"The wheat harvested will last at least a year and the quantity of barley and oats on hand is larger than after the harvest of the first year of the war. The potato crop seems to be below the average, but there is abundance of sugar beets and fodder of all kinds for the cattle."

"As a result of the good harvest the number of hogs has increased several millions since July and the fat and meat question steadily becomes less acute. Eggs, like butter and all other fats, still remain scarce, but Bulgaria and Turkey are sending enormous quantities."

"The distribution of foodstuffs is organized perfectly and the missing articles, like tea and coffee, have been replaced by substitutes. Nobody complains of the high food prices, because all wages have increased correspondingly."

"German industry is in excellent condition. Factories are working day and night. There is plenty of coal and iron and the scarcity of nickel, rubber and other articles is not felt very much, because German science has found substitutes."

"The fact that the largest part of the war expenses always flows back into the pockets of the people has created a favorable situation for Germany. The empire is far better off than the Allied countries, which have to get much of their food supplies and war materials from the neutral countries at an enormous cost. The war

The Winter Months Are Particularly Hard On Your

STORAGE BATTERY

You burn lights longer hours. Your motor starts with greater difficulty and therefore, draws considerably harder on the battery. You do not drive as much during daylight hours as you do during the summer.

Remember, you cannot take out of your battery more than you put in.

has impoverished Europe, but Germany has suffered least in this respect and will never break down economically.

"In different theatres of war the situation also remains favorable to the Germans. Their lines in the East and West are unbroken and in their campaign against Roumania they are successfully repeating the sledge hammer tactics they used last year against Serbia. In Galacia they have stopped the costly Russian offensive completely and in Macedonia they and their Bulgarian allies hold the British, French, Serbian, Russian and Italian armies in check."

"The hope of the allies to wear Germany out through continuous attacks on all fronts cannot be realized unless they are willing to sacrifice millions of men. They are far more liable to become exhausted than the Germans, who are able to husband their reserves by keeping themselves on the defensive as long as they desire."

"Much as we may desire a victory for the Allies we cannot close our eyes to the fact that the realization of this wish seems almost impossible. As things stand today the crushing of Germany cannot be accomplished."

"The war has become a useless, senseless slaughter. It is the duty of the neutral nations to intervene and end the struggle by mediation, if heroic self-sacrificing France is not to bleed to death."

$62,000,000 in Wages Lost to Workers
$30,000,000 in Property Confiscated
$1,964,000 in Revenues Destroyed

Prohibition Means Hypocrisy, Blind Tigers, Law-Breakers and Crime

PROHIBITION, THE KIND PROPOSED FOR MICHIGAN WOULD MEAN:

Train Loads of Intoxicants Coming Into Michigan from Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York States

Michigan Would Obtain Intoxicants,—Michigan Would Pay for Them—Blind Tigers Would Sell Them—Bootleggers Would Handle Intoxicants Illegally, and—

Millions of Dollars Would be Spent Outside the Confines of the State

The Dry Amendment Does Not Prohibit the Shipping or Receiving of Intoxicating Liquors

The Dry Amendment viciously provides for the Confiscation of property valued at $30,000,000 and the throwing of 50,000 jobless men into the labor market.

50,000 Jobless Men Means a Reduction of Your Wages
50,000 Men Will Be "Job Seekers" instead of Wage Earners

RED SOX SOLD FOR $675,000

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Harry R. Frazee of New York and Hugh Ward of Philadelphia, well known in the theatrical world, have bought the Boston Red Sox, the world's champion baseball club of 1915 and 1916. They now own the grounds at Fenway park, the franchise and the players and they paid a price of $675,000. The deal was closed last night. Mr. Frazee is the owner of a theater in Chicago and one in New York and is interested in many theatrical enterprises throughout the country. He is only 38 years old, and nearly twenty years ago when a mere youth was manager of the Perota baseball club in the old Western league. He always has been a great lover of the game, an intimate friend of the late Frank G. Salee, formerly manager of the Chicago Cubs, and has tried to buy several clubs in the last three years, among others the Boston Braves the Red Sox and the New York Giants Mr. Frazee lives in New York city. Hugh Ward is a native of Philadelphia and a theatrical man. He is perhaps two years older than Mr. Frazee. It was Mr. Ward who first interested Frazee in the purchase of the Red Sox. This was after witnessing the Red Sox defeat Brooklyn four out of five games in the clash for the diamond championship of the world. For a remarkable showing in landing the American league pennant. The former owner, Joseph P. Lannin of Boston and Garden City, L. I., has said several times in the last two years that he was willing to sell out if he could get his price, and when Frazee and Ward sent him word a week ago that they would like to discuss a possible purchase of the club he soon learned that the prospective purchasers were responsible. He says also that they are perfectly satisfactory to the American league.

U. S. TREASURY NEARLY EMPTY! MADDOO SAYS FALSE Washington, Nov. 2.—"Since congress adjourned expenditures have exceeded receipts more than $1,000,000 daily. On election day the United States treasury will be empty and the country facing a daily deficit of more than $1,000,000," said the National Republican congressional committee in a statement issued today. "The statement is too false to deceive and too foolish for notice—simply campaign misrepresentation," said Secretary McAdoo, a short time later.

AMMENDMENT TO BE KILLED

Michigan voters will have the responsibility put upon the mon November 7 to vote "No" on the proposed fraternal constitutional amendment. This amendment is about as pernicious a bit of conniving as has ever come before the voters of Michigan. The idea is to amend the law so that members of fraternal societies may have the right to organize, without the medium of the lodge system in the state will be destroyed and the fraternal protection now given to widows and orphans will be a thing of the past. The passing of this amendment would enable a wild cat insurance to masquerade as a fraternal society without giving the policy-holder the right of representative membership through the lodge system. Without the lodge system there is no representation on the rights of the members are practically all.

It would be well right here for every voter to stop and consider what local lodges do for their communities. Many a man and woman will tell you that their best education came through the social and business atmosphere of the lodge room. Every lodge, no matter under what name it is known, is pledged to deeds of fraternity and helpfulness. There are approximately about 340,000 fraternalists in Michigan representing as many homes, who will be affected should this amendment carry. What is more, the burdens which fraternal societies have so long willingly carried for the welfare of sick and distressed members or their homes would become a burden for the state.

This constitutional amendment undertakes to legislate for both the society and the state and takes away power or unpopular, favorable or unfavorable, nothing can be done with it. Members of these societies lose their power to vote on their own laws. Fraternal societies lose their power to vote on their own laws. Fraternal societies should keep within themselves the power to make and amend their own laws to be representative and to fifth needs peculiar to each one. The adoption of this amendment will flood the state with cheap and unsound insurance under the guise of fraternity, and will greatly increase the expense of the real fraternal societies doing business in the state.

Another feature of this not light to be considered is the fact that these strictly business corporations, without one vestige of fraternity in their make-up, will under the mantle of fraternity be exempt from taxation. They will be carrying on a business for which their members receive no accounting and the state will receive no taxes therefrom under these conditions. The passing of this amendment would have its two-fold effect, it would cheat the state and the very people whose homes need what fraternal societies are doing for them.

Voters of Michigan are urged to wake up and stamp out this enemy of their interests by voting "No" against the amendment.

ESCANABA PEOPLE GET INVITATION

Escanaba rooters who will accompany the Escanaba High school football team to Menominee next Saturday have been invited to be the guests of the Bachelor club of Menominee, at an informal dancing party on Saturday night. The following letter has been received by an Escanaba man:

Most likely a great number of football fans from your city will accompany the team to this city to witness the big Escanaba-Menominee football game. We will make special preparations, therefore, and extend an invitation to you and all the Escanaba rooters to make our club rooms your headquarters for that day.

We have arranged to give a private dancing party that evening at Gosling's dancing studio; dancing to begin at 8:30 o'clock and continue until 12. All ladies will be admitted free of charge as is customary at High school reception, and the gentlemen will be charged 50 cents. After the dance we will entertain the people from your city until train time, which is 2:45 a. m.

We kindly ask you to advertise this and also insert this article in your leading newspapers. Also be sure to let the young ladies know as they can all come to the party in groups and we will have partners for all of them. We have enough members in the club who will be able to take care of about twenty-five of the fair sex, but bring down all you can—the more the merrier.

Hoping the Escanaba team will be well represented at the coming game, and hoping to have you all with us on Saturday, November 11th, 1916; we remain, Cordially yours,
THE BACHELOR CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Erickson left last evening for Milwaukee, where they visit friends for a few days.

ELKS WILL GET ELECTION RETURN

Members of the entertainment committee of the Escanaba lodge of Elks are making elaborate plans for the program of election night, when complete election return will be received at the Elks temple.

In addition to receiving and reading the returns a varied program of musical numbers will be carried out. The event is being arranged for members of the order and their friends to whom invitations have already been extended.

MARINETTE WON BATTLE

The artist made a beautiful place kick from the 30 yard line for three points.

The second quarter was uneventful with both teams showing a world of fight.

In the third quarter by a succession of end runs Marquette carried the ball within striking distance of Escanaba's goal and then by a brilliant forward pass put the ball over the line for a touchdown. The attempt to kick goal failed.

The final touchdown came in the final quarter when Medley made a brilliant run through a broken field and was only successfully tackled as he was planting the ball over the line. The effort to kick out failed and the score of 15 to 9 was established.

The play for the remainder of the game was in the center of the field.

GOPHERS GET JOLT

Illinois, was again the star. He scored both Ohio's touchdowns. His second touchdown in the last quarter was made after he ran 80 yards through the team. A fumble of a kick out after their second touchdown beat the Baggers.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Chicago celebrated a startling discovery by thumping the hollermakers 16 to 7. For once this fall the Maroons looked worthy of their name, but nevertheless they would have had a little trouble on their hands if the Hoosiers had not been a bit weak in the pinches.

Purdue jumped away in the first quarter and scored 7 points while the Maroons were able to get only 6, on the strength of a long run by Pershing. The hollermakers held that advantage until the third period, when the Maroons uncorked a series of plays that were unorthodox. Those tactics soon resulted in a touchdown and the last points were registered in the period when Jack Agar booted a goal from the 30 yard mark.

WILSON LEADS IN BIG POLL

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—President Woodrow Wilson continues to lead Charles E. Hughes for the presidency in the nationwide straw vote, taken at 8,000 Retail stores of the United States, according to the count taken at noon today.

The popular vote stands: Hughes 322,341; Wilson, 448,728.

The electoral vote stands Hughes, 236; Wilson, 295.

The popular vote in the state of Michigan is as follows: Hughes, 12,800; Wilson, 9,818.

SAYS HE ALSO TOOK A VOTE

The following communication was received by the Press last night: Editor of the Press:

Will you kindly grant me a little space to deal with straw votes. The American people like a clean sport. They admire a man who is absolutely honest in his convictions no matter where the chips may fly. But Escanaba is burdened with an individual who ever since his boyhood days has been playing the middle against both ends. Up and down Ludington street he poses as the editor of a newspaper. He takes all the credit for anything that appears in the columns of his paper that happens to strike the fancy of the public, but when an article appears in his paper that does not appeal to the public, he denies any knowledge of it.

The straw vote that he took up and down Ludington street Saturday morning on the two great questions, only opens up what is inside of this individual which he has been in the past trying to keep on the surface. Down in his heart for many moons, for revenue only, he has been politically dry and he has openly stated that he is personally wet. We all know that politically he is a Republican.

I have it from absolutely reliable authority that he went into a back room with his straw vote ballot box and then cast the necessary votes to make the article that appeared in his Saturday publication. To pay any attention to anything he might say would fit one for Newberry. But as this is a time when people are curious to get beforehand information and to show that this straw vote taken by this 50-50 editor is not authentic, I have covered the same territory myself and was careful not to procure more than 220 ballots which I personally cast myself along the same line as the editor of the Mirror, but I did not go into any backroom to do it, nor was I discovered by any individual and the result of my straw vote was as follows, Wilson 219; Hughes, 1; wet, 220; dry, none.

CHEER SLEEPER IN COUNTY TOUR

Hillsdale, Mich., Nov. 3.—Albert E. Sleeper, Republican candidate for governor made a partial tour of Hillsdale county today, reaching Pittsford, Osseo, Reading, Bankers, North Adams, Jonesville and Litchfield.

He was accompanied by a party of about 40 including the county candidates. He was introduced by Attorney Victor J. Hawkins of Jonesville.

Sleeper emphasized the economy in state administration, "not such as to cripple charitable institutions but such as involved good judgment in appropriation for them." He urged the budget system of taxation, he repeated his announcement that as the Republican party had taken no stand on state-wide prohibition, he felt bound to adopt the same policy, but if elected governor and if the prohibitory amendment carried, he said, he would use every effort to secure its thorough enforcement and the adoption of such measures as would "make Michigan dry, not only in name, but in fact."

TELLS LAUNDRESS "OLD GLODY" ONE FLAG THAT DOES NOT NEED STARCH

London, Nov. 2.—"Madam, dat's one old flag dat doan' need any starch in it," said George Washington, a colored messenger to Consul General Skinner, at the American consulate in this city. The assurance was directed to a woman who does the laundry work for the consulate. An American flag with pint stars in it hung, for a time, in front of the consulate. The laundress had washed it and the colors had run during the boiling process. When Geo. Washington expostulated, the laundress admitted that she had boiled the flag and had intended starching it. The consulate has made a requisition upon the state department for new flags. Because of the London soot and fog it is necessary to use about six flag a year.

HIGH COURT GETS RESERVE MEASURE

Washington, Nov. 4.—Constitutionality of the federal reserve act, insofar as it permits national banks to act as executors, administrators, trustees and registrars of stocks and bonds, was placed before the supreme court for decision. It comes up on an appeal filed by the First National bank of Bay City, Mich., from a decree of the Michigan supreme court prohibiting the bank from exercising such functions.

The Michigan court's ruling was made Sept. 26, in a suit brought by trust companies of Detroit and Grand Rapids who alleged that the federal law operated to encroach upon their business by placing them in competition with national banks. The court held that the laws of Michigan prohibited national banks from acting in the capacity mentioned and that congress exceeded its constitutional authority in giving such powers.
