According to reports from Menominee, Mayor Lloyd, the Good Town's fighting mayor, has fought himself in to a $45,000 damage suit.

For the benefit of those who have any doubts over the matter, it is hereby announced that Escanaba will not have a league baseball team next season.

There's no use in lying down and squealing like a stuck pig. Let's face the music and make Escanaba a bigger and a better town, for the benefit of those who would like to see Cloverland's metropolis take the skids.

FOOD CONSERVATION ABROAD.

The Britons are to follow the Germans in having food conservation on a national scale, and the French and Russians probable will follow suit.

There is a rapid upward movement of food prices to prevent famine are obviously in the line of measures for material defense in countries at war.

In France there is apparently urgent need for saving coal and light as well as provisions! In Russia the government may seize all the food in the nation and become its distributor at any time.

WOMEN ARE FAILURES AS POLL CLERKS.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Women are failures as judges and clerks at election according to Assistant Corporation Counsel Ayers, who is now untangling the mix ups in the tally sheets and poll books here.

Jack Stephens of Milwaukee is visiting with relatives in Escanaba and Wells.

MAN VOTED FOR 21 PRESIDENTS

Flint, Mich., Nov. 17.—Claiming the honor of having voted for more presidents of the United States than any other man in the country, Enos M. Miller, 95 years old, the oldest man in Genesee county, smiled today when he read the same claims of a Chicago man who had voted 18 times.

"I was quite a man when that boy started voting," said Miller. "I've voted for 21 presidents in the 89 years I've been voting."

Miller's record of suffrage is singular. He started with the Whigs when but 15 years old.

"Any-body that looked like a man could vote then," he said.

"It took several hours ride through the woods from Millerville, now Swartz Creek, along an Indian path to reach Flushing, where I voted first. Long pants and a week-old bear convinced the inspectors that I was able to join the Whigs with my father and brother. Since then with the one exception when I deviated to support Lewis Cass, of Michigan, for the presidency, I have always voted it straight Republican," he said.

About the most "disgusted" man in the country today is Enos Miller. "I thought I was getting pretty old when Grover Cleveland was elected to the presidency on the Democratic ticket," Miller said, see another Republican in office. It worked so well that when Woodrow Wilson squeezed through four years ago, I again decided to wait him out and see Republicanism restored to its own. And now to think that they've voted him back for four more years and I'm already 95 now!"

Miller was about the most active campaigner in Genesee before the election as the results from his district will show. He was pulling hard for Hughes, regardless of his advanced age.

"But I'll show 'em," he said. "I'll see Republicanism back in its own. If I have to live a century to do it, I'm going to take good care of myself to spite 'em, and nothing will please me better than to help put Hughes in when I'm a hundred."

Enos M. Miller came to Michigan when he was 14 years old and with his father and brothers cleared a farm in the western section of Genesee county. The settlement became known as Millersville. Later the same family cleared the first road to Flint, now Miller's road, when this city had less than 100 population. He is proud of Flint's growth and also of his record in the support of the Republican party.

At 95, Miller is hale and hearty and says the results of the recent election have done more than anything else to make him resolve to reach the century mark.

LANSING WILL NOT BE PRESIDENT FOR DAY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—There will be no lapse in the service of President Wilson because of the fact that March 4 falls on Sunday, according to a opinion reached at the state department. It became known that on account of reports that a lapse would occur and that Secretary Lansing would be acting president on March 4, a form letter explaining the law has been prepared in answer to inquiries.

WAUKEGAN FARMERS KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 17.—A fast Chicago & Northwestern passenger train hit an automobile, killing two occupants and proceeding without the crew being aware of the accident. The dead are Edward Edwards and John Humphries, both farmers.

DULUTH STAGES A BOLD ROBBERY

Duluth, Nov. 17.—Leveling a rifle at the head of the cashier and threatening to shoot unless the money in the place were turned over to him, an unknown man who entered the Oliver State bank at Oliver, Wis., across St. Louis river from the Duluth steel plant about 10 o'clock this morning, robbed the establishment of about $30 and escaped before a general alarm to the police department of Duluth and Superior could be turned in.

W. C. Blackburn, president of the bank, was the only occupant of the place when the daring burglary was performed. About 10 o'clock he noticed a man coming down the road and carrying a rifle, but he paid no attention to him, thinking that he was merely a hunter. A few minutes later the door creaked and Mr. Blackburn was looking into the barrel of a rifle.

The president was taken by surprise and he was unable to reach for the revolver that he kept in his "cage". A gruff threat aroused him from his astonishment and he handed over three bags of small change that he had at the time.

BOSTON COPPERS

Table with copper prices: Adventure, Ahmeek, Allouez, Anacoda, Arizona Commercial, Butte & Superior, Calumet & Arizona, Calumet & Hecla, Centennial, Chino, Copper Range, East Butte, Franklin, Grenne, Granby, Hancock, Isle Royal, Inspiration, LaSalle, Lake, Mass, Michigan, Miami, Mohawk, North Butte, Nevada Consolidated, North Lake, Old Colony, Old Dominion, Osceola, Quincy, Ray Con, Shattuck, Superior, Trinity, Farnmarack, Utah Consolidated, Utah Copper, Victoria, Winona, Wolverine, Algoma, Bohemia, Butte & London, Copper Mines, Davis Daly, Denn, Houghton, Keweenaw, New Baltic, Onondaga, Opeco, Superior & Boston, South Lake, United Verde.

Ishpeming, Mich., Nov. 17.—Today practically every copper issue on the list responded to the enormous demand for this kind of security. More copper metal sales were reported and this further stimulated the present heavy buying of copper stocks. Many issues today scored two and three point gains and it is hard to pick the features. However, Kennecott and North Mutte were the two issues that were strong favorites. Some of the other which came in for a good share of attention were Allouez, Ahmeek, Calumet & Arizona, Chino, Ray Consolidated, Granby and Inspiration. Calumet and Hecla declared a $25 dividend, an increase of $5.00. The dividend will be payable Dec. 20th to stock of record Dec. 2d. While the coppers were boiling the New York list advanced moderately and the grain market reacted somewhat.—J. A. Minner & Co.

INDICATIONS POINT TO ANOTHER NEW SUB.

New London, Conn., Nov. 17.—Eighty negro stevedores from Baltimore who loaded the cargo of the German submarine Deutschland last week, have been ordered to return here on Jan. 5, it was learned Wednesday night. While officials of the Eastern Forwarding company declined to offer any explanation of the order the belief prevails that another German submarine may be expected about that time or that the Deutschland may make another trip here.

ALLEGES MINERS ARE ABUSED Labor Leader Complains They Are Subjected to Ill Treatment in Hardin County, Illinois.

Labor conditions paralleling those which led to war in the Colorado canyon, exist in Hardin county, Illinois, one of the two counties in the state without a railroad, James Lord, president of the mining department of the American Federation of Labor, declared in a statement issued just before leaving for Illinois. "The miners," said Lord, "are all native white. Wages, hours and conditions of labor have always been and are now the lowest on the American continent for this class of work. The miners have been denied any civil rights of which the company disapproved. Victims of personal injury have met with threats and intimidation. Men were compelled to work Sundays and holidays. A real system of peonage established years ago has been continued."

The erection of air washers in the ventilation system of a million-dollar school building at Pittsburgh was the cause of an order issued for a general strike in the Pittsburgh district of the Sheet Metal Workers' union. The work, which involves an expenditure of only $300, was given by the contractors to nonunion steamfitters, but union metal workers declared, the work should be done by them. No question of wages or hours was involved. Representatives of the building department of the American Federation of Labor were sent to Pittsburgh to bring peace between the unions. Other important building projects held up by the dispute includes the three-million-dollar city-county administration building.

With the end of a truce that had lasted 12 days, resumption of the strike of Pacific coast longshoremen, called June 1, was started from San Diego to Seattle. The Waterfront Employers' union announced that it intended to put 250 nonunion men to work on various vessels in the port, using armed guards to protect them. The question of a closed or open shop is the point on which employers and employees split in their negotiations for definite settlement of differences. All demands regarding increased wages and improved working conditions were temporarily granted by the employers June 10, pending arbitration.

BOOK NOTES FROM LIBRARY

The Library is exhibiting a long list of books for music lovers, written by some of the foremost musicians and music critics in this country and abroad. Books written by Lavignac, Kobbe, Krehbiel, Huneker, Finck, Rolland, Schauflier, Henderson, and Gilman mean many delightful hours both to musicians who perform and those who listen only.

Among the newer names on this list is that of Romain Rolland. Romain Rolland made a name for himself in the world of literature when he wrote "Jean Christophe"; his "Musicians of Today" has introduced him to the American public as a keen and appreciative musical critic. This collection of papers is of absorbing interest and of "quite unusual value"—written in the delightful literary style when "Jean Christophe" leads us to expect.

Those who have read any of James Huneker's stimulating criticism, whether of music or art or literature, will begin his "Chopin; the Man and His Music" with joyous anticipation. He is gay, ironic, charming, sarcastic, mischievous, sententious, but "his critical tact is well-nigh infallible," as Lawrence Gilman says. Robert Haven Schauflier, in his "Musical Amateur" has presented us to a music lover whom he calls the "creative listener"—holding that "the true listener plays almost as real and vital a part in the baking of music as the composer or performer." Every "creative listener" will find much pleasure in this little book.

Henry Finck is one of America's best-known and most authoritative music critics. His essay on Chopin shows thorough appreciation and insight. He expresses his own opinions regardless of what the world at large may think on the subject, and those opinions are worthy of attention. He says: "Although I have the most exalted notions of Wagner's grandeur and importance, I do not hesitate to say that in his own sphere Chopin is quite as original and as been almost as revolutionary and epoch-making as Wagner."

Here is a list of some of the books on musical subjects to be found in the Public Library. They may be borrowed.

- Success in Music and How it is Won, by Finck. Music Dramas of Richard Wagner, by Lavignac. Standard Operas, by Upton. How to Appreciate Music, by Kobbe. How to Listen to Music, by Krehbiel. Standard Concert Repertory, by Upton. The Musical Amateur, by Schauflier. Grove's Dictionary of Music. Standard Concert Guide, by Upton. American History and Cyclopedia of Music. Chopin, and other Musical Essays, by Finck. French Music in the Nineteenth Century, by Hervey.

FIVE REASONS WHY
THE
Morning Press

Stands Pre-eminent among The Newspapers of Delta County And The Section of Cloverland Served by It

1. It offers to its readers the news when it is news.
2. It offers more local and district news than any other newspaper in this section.
3. It offers the world's news in concise, interesting essentials.
4. Its news columns are guarded against matter unfit to be read in the home.
5. And finally and primarily because its publishers believe implicitly in the future of Escanaba and Cloverland and accept as a bounden duty the service of giving publicity, in season and out of season to Escanaba and Cloverland's multitudinous advantages.

These are the reasons why
