The Sage foundation has a large fund which is used in social and philanthropic work throughout the country.

GAS CONNECTION WAS MADE QUICKLY

But three hours were required for the work of connecting the city gas holder with the mains on Sunday and gas service in the city was shut for a considerably less time than had been anticipated. The main leading from the new holder was connected up with the distributing service and when the holder is fully completed it may be placed in commission without delay or further interruption of the service.

STRIKES ARE A DETRIMENT

HEAD OF BUILDING TRADES DEPARTMENT OF FEDERATION OF LABOR SAYS WALKOUTS HURT ORGANIZATION.

(Special to the Press.) Baltimore, Md., Nov. 27.—Thomas Williams of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor was greeted here with wild applause when in an address before the convention he declared that strikes were a detriment to the rank and file of the labor organizations. Declaring the fact that local bodies would declare a strike and that the larger bodies were always called in to assist after the mischief had been done he said: "Come to us before the strike is called and we may be able to peaceably settle the controversy."

The big fight of the convention promises to come over the election of the president of this body.

ILLNESS WAS VERY BRIEF

After being critically ill for but a few hours Clifford Dupont, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dupont, passed away on Sunday evening at a local hospital from peritonitis. The lad was suffering from a cold and did not attend school on Friday. On Saturday he was about the home and his condition appeared to be unchanged. On Sunday morning his condition suddenly grew serious and he was removed from the home to the hospital. A consultation of physicians was held and everything possible was accomplished in a desperate effort to save the promising young life, but the effort was in vain and at 9:15 o'clock on Sunday evening he passed away.

The body was prepared for burial at the undertaking rooms of J. A. Allo and was then moved to the home of the parents, at 1010 Ayer street. Funeral services will be conducted over the body at St. Anne's church at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Interment will be at St. Anne's cemetery.

The lad was a student in the ninth grade at St. Joseph's school and was considered one of the brightest members of his class. He was immensely popular with his classmates and in the community about the Dupont home was a favorite with all of the families. His death has come as a terrible shock not only to his parents but to all residents in that portion of the city. Besides his parents the lad is survived by two brothers and five sisters, who are: Mrs. H. Brasseur, Mrs. Patrick Newitt, the Misses Irene and Adele Dupont of this city; Mrs. Joseph Weber of Manistique and Adelaide Dupont of Detroit.

Mrs. Brunelle will leave this morning for a visit in Detroit. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Bernard Bernard who has been visiting in the city.

RAPID RIVER GIRL IS DEAD

CHICAGO NEWSPAPERS REPORT THAT MISS INA HILSTROM FORMERLY OF UPPER BAY CITY TOOK LIFE BY POISONING FOLLOWING A QUARREL.

Carl Hilstrom of Rapids River, left last night for Chicago to assume charge of the body of his sister, Ina Holstrom formerly of Rapids River, who according to Chicago newspapers committed suicide by poisoning, on Saturday night. The young woman was found unconscious lying in an alley, after it is claimed she had taken a quantity of poison. She was given water by those who found her and physicians assert that had water not been given to her the life might have been saved.

Miss Hilstrom is the daughter of Andrew Hilstrom of Rapids River and has a number of relatives in the upper bay town. She left Rapids River three years ago and had been employed in Chicago.

A Chicago newspaper yesterday said: Water, administered in mistaken solicitude for a supposed fainting girl may have contributed to the death of Ina Holstrom, 751 East Forty-first street, who swallowed poison Saturday night after she had quarreled, the police say, with a sweetheart.

The girl was found unconscious in an alley at the rear of 640 Bowen avenue. Persons who found her gave her water, according to the police who say it aided rather than retarded the effects of the poison. She died soon after.

Detective Sergeant Patrick Brown says he learned that she had quarreled with Frank Baumbach, also a roomer at 751 East Forty-first street. Baumbach denied it.

Relatives of the girl are coming from Rapid River, Mich., to take charge of the body.

TO READJUST POSTAL RATES

Washington, Nov. 27.—The ways are now being geared for the launching of the movement for the readjustment of postal rates in the next session of Congress. This problem was to have been taken up in the last session but had to be deferred on account of the consideration required by railway mail pay. Since this has been disposed of the committee are prepared to take up the matter of placing the various postal rates on a more equitable basis.

A zone system of rates for second class matter is being prominently urged to take the place of the present flat rate which was adopted nearly forty years ago. The present rate has for some time been regarded as a discrimination against the newspapers in favor of the great national magazines. Like the parcel post the proposed zone rates would be based on the length of the haul.

The postal committees have been besieged by petitions bearing millions of names and several hundred thousand letters from individuals urging a readjustment of postal rates with a view of making possible one cent letter postage. A survey of the situation indicates that sufficient changes will be made in the various rates to permit the granting of a one cent rate on local letters in the next session of Congress.

Chairman Moon of the House of Postal Committee today said: "I think that the Committee will take up his second-class matter at the next session and present it to a conclusion at once. While I cannot speak for the Committee, this is my desire in the matter. I do not know what kind of a bill will pass, whether it will have a zone feature attached to it or not. This view has been presented frequently in years past, and sometimes received favorable and sometimes not. As to what shape the legislation will be in I am not able to say, but I am sure that the Committee will give it the best possible shape in the public interest."

Senator Townsend, of Michigan, prominent member of the Senate Postal Committee could not be reached today but it is generally understood that he is in favor of remodeling the postal laws so as to place the rates of postage on a more equitable basis. He is understood to have stated recently that if such a readjustment were made it would be possible to reduce letter postage even below one cent per ounce.

Congressman Frank D. Scott, of Michigan, says "The Post office Department was created to offer the very best possible service to the public at a minimum cost and is not supposed to produce any more revenue than is actually needed to pay the running expenses. Legislation needed to create a 1 cent rate on drop letters should be passed without further delay; it will cost the government no money and it will act as a much needed stimulant to business. With every reduction in the latter rate here has immediately followed a tremendous increase in the volume of mail thereby taking care of any possible loss in revenue."

A. Nemrutt and E. O. Anderson have returned from a hunting trip at Lathrop, both filling their licenses. Rev. Guy V. Hoard, Attorney J. C. Baker and E. W. Doak have returned from a successful hunting trip at Woodlawn.

(Special to the Press.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—A private dispatch received tonight says "Pacho Villa is in full possession of Chihuahua City and is moving his army north to attack Juarez. El Paso, Tex., Nov. 27.—Conflicting reports are reaching here tonight and it is impossible to tell to whom the success is going in the battle for Chihuahua City. One report indicated that General Murguia had dispatched a body of troops to Chihuahua to engage Villa's rear.

Another is that Villa is still "King Bee" around the capital city. Telegraphic communication between Chihuahua and Juarez is still broken off and the meagre statements that are received by different forms of communication do not seem to be authentic.

THE GOOD JUDGE HEARS A MERCHANT TELL ABOUT W-B CUT

JUST A LITTLE CHEW OF W-B CUT SATISFIES ITS RICH TOBACCO, SO IF YOU TAKE A BIG CHEW, OR GRIND ON IT MUCH, YOU MAY THINK IT'S TOO STRONG

I WANT TO GET AWAY FROM THE BIG CHEW HABIT.

MR. MERCHANT, YOUR CUSTOMERS WILL APPRECIATE YOUR TELLING THEM ABOUT W-B CUT TOBACCO.

YOU naturally take to the broad minded merchant who has your interest at heart. Many of them have taken up W-B CUT Chewing themselves and are glad to show you why you should use the little chew. The common sense of rich tobacco chuck full of satisfaction—shredded and lightly salted, so you get all the tobacco satisfaction—is making friends all around.

POLICE REFUSE TO LET MAN DIE

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 27.—Gerhart Bosch did not lie in a coffin eight hours in the window of the saloons of Joseph Januszewski, 964 Chicago avenue, on Sunday. There was no music, sermon procession, flowers or other ceremony.

Why? Police.

Following the announcement Bosch was to pay his unique election wager by "lying in state" from 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon until midnight in a coffin in the saloon window, Januszewski found he had overlooked one of the important essentials to the successful carrying out of the plan—police permission.

"There will be no funeral," said the police.

"There will be no funeral," affirmed Januszewski.

And there wasn't.

Bosch will not forfeit $50 to Adam Leda, because Bosch waged Hughes would win. Leda released him from the obligation when Bosch declared he would carry out his "dead" agreement.

But Bosch is loser $5 in the transaction, the amount he was to receive from Januszewski for "lying in state."

THEATRES

THE DELFT.

Lillian Gish, in "Diana of the Follies," together with a Triangle comedy make up the offering of today at the Delft. "Diana of the Follies" is a psychological theme based on the theory that an individual cannot rise above early environments. A millionaire philosopher and students falls in love with a musical comedy prima-donna. He tries to give her every social advantage but after their marriage his wife finds social life beginning to pall on her and she goes back to her old-time friends of the stage. After the child dies the only link existing between them is broken asunder and they both agree that their marriage has been a failure.

THE STRAND.

"The Heart of the Hills" (a sacred ruby revered by the seditionists of India) is the storm center about which revolves the rapid action of Edison's five reel photodrama of that name which will be offered at the Strand theatre today. As produced by Thomas A. Edison photoplayers for release through the Kleine-Edison-Selig-Essanay Service, this fascinating story, it is said, abounds in tense situations of romance and tragedy and builds up smoothly to a powerful climax.

The photoplay is based on David Whitelaw's splendid novel, "The Girl From the East" and none of the features that made this a "best seller" has been lost in the translation into film. It is safe to say that anyone who follows the trail of the mystic, missing ruby through these five exciting reels will agree with Manager Hines that in booking "The Heart of the Hills" he has given one more example of his constant effort to provide his patrons with the best the film world has to offer.

Mabel Trunnelle and Conway Tearle are the featured players in "The Heart of the Hills," and are ably supported by Robert Conness Bigelow Cooper, Herbert Prior, Marie LaCorio and other of an unusually strong cast.

Point of View.

They were gazing on a busy corner of the great city. "What a hard time men have running around trying to make a little money," remarked the pessimist. "Yes," rejoined the optimist, "but look what a good time women have running around trying to spend it."

ESCANABA PEOPLE GET INSTANT ACTION

Those who have used it in Escanaba are astonished at the INSTANT action of a simple buckthorn bark, glycerine etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE constipation sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. A. Ellsworth, Druggist, 701 Ludington.

Ishpeming, Mich., Nov. 27.—The opening this morning was higher but the break of over 50 a bushel in wheat on stocks rumors caused selling of stocks, it being argued that the grain markets will be the first ones to reflect actual peace negotiations. One guess as to how much there is to the peace rumors is as good as another. However, so far no reports have been published which would indicate any base for the rumors. The break in grains is by no means displeasing for it automatically is reflected in the country's economics or cost of living. The Coppers sold off in sympathy with the balance of the New York market, notwithstanding it was reported copper (spot) sold at 36 1-2 cents today and electrolytic copper in London advanced 3 pounds sterling. The market may be two-sided for a day or two but we certainly believe that stocks should be bought on the declines and the tendency of prices is higher. We understand that Iron Cap encountered an important sulphide ore body in shaft sinking. Jerome Victor reports Galena in crosscut and a decided change in formation. Superior & Boston's shaft is nearing the 1400 foot level. Inspiration is constructing two new units to their mill which will give them an increased production and will turn out 170,000-000 pounds per year and likewise materially reduce costs.—J. A. MASTER OF BOGUS MONEY, FACES TERM

Washington, Nov. 24.—His career ended at twenty-nine, H. R. Wilken today faces a penitentiary sentence of anywhere up to fifteen years when he is tried at San Francisco for counterfeiting. But, while he may drop out for a time, he will have left behind him a lot of visiting cards—in the form of the most nearly perfect counterfeit $1, $5 and $10 bills ever shovelled across a counter in payment for a small purchase, according to the secret service.

Wilken was arrested at Santa Cruz, Cal., by secret service men, who claim a subsequent trip to San Francisco where he is held for trial. When he landed in jail secret service men from Chief Flynn down to the newest operative, heaved long, deep sighs of relief.

Wilken is a young man. Where he started the police do not know. The first time the secret service ever heard of him was when particularly excellent counterfeit bills began coming to the treasury from banks all over the country. The chase for their manufacturer started. It led the secret service throughout the country several times and ended in Santa Fe.

For some years Wilken fitted gayly about from town to town, the service says, leaving in his trail all sorts of counterfeit bills. The first charged to him were $1 bills, made of two sheets of paper pasted together, with the familiar strands of silk between them. Lots of bills were found and many worthy citizens who tried to use them found their way into police stations to undergo questioning. But there never was a trace of the owner.

While Wilken's greatest masterpiece was a $10 federal reserve note, warnings regarding which were distributed by the secret service a few weeks before his arrest, there were a lot more bills attributed to him which are preserved by the secret service as works of art.

The secret service is authority for this story about one of them. A Birmingham, N. Y., bank one day several years ago received a $1 bill about which there was some question—apparently after it had been accepted as genuine. No other bill of the series being in the bank, a runner was sent to a neighborhood bank for a sample. He brought it back. It compared exactly with the questioned bill. Then some one investigated bill No. 2. It was also counterfeit.

One of Wilken's bills—a counterfeit of the "Buffalo" $5 treasury note—is regarded by many experts as one of the best—or worst—counterfeits ever "put over." One official who discussed it after Wilken's arrest asked that a warning be sent out for banks to watch for specimens of it, which it is feared, will be "floaters"—exceptionally well made counterfeits that circulate long after the maker has been arrested—going around through the country—until they wear out. These bills are declared to be in nearly every large city in the country. As to paper and engraving, they match almost perfectly a genuine bill—and amateurs have been unable to detect them even when told they are counterfeit. But one defeat resulted in its discovery. In the headress of the Indian there are a number of tiny feathers in the case of genuine bills. In the counterfeit these are missing, and there is a white space. But few persons have stopped to examine it, fewer still have noticed the lack of feathers, and still fewer have known by their absence that the bill is counterfeit. It has been accepted, as have other bills, at banks as genuine—and they probably will continue to be accepted.

Banks now are watching for Wilken's last alleged bill, the $10 federal reserve. That is another bill said to be one of the best out.

Wilken was caught after years of search, during which it is declared he circulated counterfeit bills of the face value of over $100,000. And if he hadn't stayed at the little town of Santa Cruz, where persons who spend one type of bill are easily found he might not have been arrested. In larger cities the bills always had been discovered days or weeks after they had been dumped on the town.

It is believed by many that Wilken has the secret of making the "distinctive" paper used by the government for its notes. Some of his bills are believed to have been raised from smaller ones, but many of them, almost impossible to detect, bear the appearance of having been made from "distinctive paper of unauthorized manufacture." Such bills are expensive to make; but as in the case of many counterfeit gold coins, sometimes worth $3.50 where $5 is the represented value there is a margin of "profit."

Wilken himself, from his photograph is highly artistic. He looks like an Italian, with big dark eyes, and exceptionally high and broad forehead, a small black mustache over a small mouth, and dark features. Altogether he bears a really good resemblance to portraits of Poe. If the secret service stories are accurate, he drove, after his own fashion, almost as good as a pen.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

You must have noticed that the first thing said about the car, in ordinary conversation is almost always a direct reference to the quality.

The average owner is not merely satisfied, but almost extravagantly enthusiastic.

The economy of the car, its quality, the remarkable things it does when called upon are comments you hear whenever the the car is discussed.

Concentrating on one car simplifies the problem of production and leaves the Dodge Brothers free to devote themselves to a continuous process of improvement.

That is why Dodge Brothers, in their first year, manufactured and marketed a volume of cars which ranked them among the first five producers in the world.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage is unusually high.

The price of the Touring Car or Roadster, complete is $785 (L.A.B. Detroit).

WOULD USE SCHOOL GYM

Open the gymnasium evenings is the clamor heard from the young men who are employed in the walks of industry in this city. The young men share in belief that inasmuch as the city boasts of no recreation center the gym's doors should be thrown open to those who are not afforded the opportunity of keeping fit during the winter months. They assert that this plan is endorsed in all cities where an effort is being made to better the environment of the boy. Furthermore the gym is not a delicate toy where damage might loom up as a negative obstacle, and in the consideration of expense of this proposition, it appears, off hand, to be minimum. A petition is being circulated with the hope of convincing the school board that this scheme would promote the betterment of the physical, environment and social conditions in Escanaba.

NIGHT SCHOOL WILL ATTRACT

Marked interest is already being evidenced by many adults who will be enrolled in the night school classes at the Jefferson building beginning on Monday evening, Dec. 4. Every indication is now given that the enrollment in the night school will exceed last year's record when the experiment was first tried. Two instructors have already been engaged to assume charge of the night classes and it is possible that it will be necessary to engage additional teachers.

REPUBLICAN DEFICIT AMOUNTS TO $21,144

New York, Nov. 25.—A deficit of $21,144 in the funds to meet the expenses of the Republican campaign was announced here by Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., treasurer for the Republican national committee. Mr. Bliss said that no definite plans have yet been formulated for wiping out of the deficit but in reply to a question said it would not be done by apportioning it among the state committees as he Democratic committee plans to liquidate its $300,000 shortage.

The Republican deficiency he said was too small to require such measures. He thought it possible it might be met by a loan or by "sustaining memberships" but said that no steps had been taken toward this end.

The treasurer's report gave total receipts for the Republican campaign at $2,420,421, contributed by 43,205 persons. The total disbursements were $2,441,565.

FORMER INSPECTOR MAY SUCCEED CHIEF HEALY

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Nicholas Hunt, a former police inspector, and temporary chief of detectives, after the conviction of Capt. Halpin, is mentioned as a probable successor to Chief of Police Healey. A report was widely circulated that Mayor Thompson and State's Attorney Hoyle had patched up their differences and that the mayor would allow Mr. Hoyle to select a successor to Chief Healey, who is now under indictment. The same report was that Mr. Hoyle would select Mr. Hunt. "I have heard reports that I was to be made chief of police," said Mr. Hunt, "but that's all I know about it."

BREAKS A RIB PLAYING POOL

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—A man breaks a rib playing Kelley pool.
Ribs have been broken in various ways since the time of Adam, but probably the first one that was ever broken in a Kelley pool game was broken Friday night.
Patrick Harrington, boss grain trimmer, had the fifteen ball in a game at M. C. Conway's, 106 Ferry street. It was the last one on the table and "Paddy" knew that it was his game ball and that if he knocked it, it meant the pot.
The ball was in a bad position for a straight shot and in order to make it safely, the bridge would have to be used. However, Paddy scorned the bridge, and to reach it with his cue had to stretch across the corner of the table.
He made the ball into the corner pocket and collected the money on the game. Everything seemed well for time, but before the next game state Mr. Harrington complained of a pain in his side. Examination this morning revealed the fact that the fourth rib on the right side was crushed.
Mr. Harrington complained of pain in his side. Examination this morning revealed the fact that the fourth rib on the right side was crushed.
Mr. Harrington was unable to work this morning and while the injury comparatively slight, he will probably not be normal for a week. He had just finished a hard day loading the steamer Belgium at the elevator of the U. S. Grain company, in the Kinnickinnic basin. Mr. Harrington made his of his injury this morning, but he said he wouldn't forswear Kelley as a result.
Sufferer From Indigestion, Relief
"Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for seven years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells 'far away,' writes Mrs. Thomas Coo Geneva, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere."
Mrs. T. J. Riley and mother had arrived from Bangor, Maine. At Bangor Mrs. Riley is expected to reach Esanaba this morning after serving football coach for Amherst col for the past season.

FARMERS TO GO IN FOR SHEEP RAISING

Iron River, Mich., Nov. 27.—Iron county farmers are going to experiment with sheep raising. County Agriculturist Hoopingarner has succeeded in financing a car load of sheep to be let out to farmers on a 50-50 basis. That is, the farmers are to receive half the wool and half the lambs for caring for the sheep. The title to the original sheep remains in the hands of the men who finance the enterprise.

County Agriculturist Hoopingarner already has the entire car load of sheep placed, or at least has a sufficient number of farmer listed who are willing to enter into the experiment. It is the intention of the county agriculturist to divide the sheep into small bands, 15 to 20 preferable although some farmers want to take 50, and a farmer near Amasa offered to take the car load on the 50-50 basis.

"We propose buying a western range type of sheep," said Mr. Hoopingarner, "believing they would be more suitable to the needs of Iron county farmers, as they will clear cut-over land and at the same time produce wool and lambs. There will be from 200 to 250 in the car load. It is our intention to give these sheep the widest distribution possible throughout the county. We want the largest number of farmers interested in this venture. No farmer will be permitted to have a lion's share, nor more than he is able to properly take care of."

"There is a great future for the sheep industry in Iron county. It has been demonstrated that sheep do well here. The cut-over land affords excellent sheep pasture and while the sheep are grazing they also are clearing the land. It is an established custom in parts of some of the western states to do preliminary clearing with sheep. The same system could be carried out to advantage in Iron county."

"So far as profits are concerned there is a good margin for both purchaser and care taker under our plan. Half the proceeds from these sheep are good returns to the purchaser, and half the proceeds are good returns to the farmer caring for them, as he has been out nothing except a little work and feed. In short, it is the old plan of doing things 'on the shares.'"

The car load of sheep will likely arrive within the next two or three weeks and will be immediately distributed among the farmers listed to take allotments. The purpose in getting the sheep now is to have the advantage of the lambing season in the spring, and also give the farmers the experience of taking care of sheep in the winter as sheep will take care of themselves in the summer. Each farmer will then know what sheep mean on his farm and will be in a better position to decide whether he wants to make sheep raising a part of his farm industry.

The distribution of the sheep will be under supervision of the Iron County Agricultural Board and County Agriculturist Hoopingarner, and Mr. Hoopingarner will keep an accurate tabulation of the car and products of the shipment.

Then She Wiggled Him.
Wife (with newspaper)—It says here that men grow bald because of the intense activity of their brains.
Hub—Exactly. And women have no whiskers because of the intense activity of their chins.

Thanksgiving Is At Hand

EDITORIAL

Many kinds of Jelly Fish are phosphorescent at night and because of this peculiarity are called "The Lamps of the Sea." When moving slowly along through the water they present a wonderfully beautiful appearance.

The lamps of this store are kept burning at all times when necessary, so that the customer can have a clear vision of everything. No darkness can penetrate here. The rays of light shine out clearly over everything. Among them is the "Lamp of Cheerfulness" which, we think, points the way to Wisdom. It is all-powerful in dispelling the darkness of doubt. Then there is the "Lamp of Energy" and another called the "Lamp of Industry" and among them all none are ever permitted to go out. We see to it that they are kept burning brightly all the time. The welcome light stimulates us here to keep ahead and move along steadily toward the goal called "Success."

And we have lots to be thankful for—more than we really can tell. We would indeed be ungrateful if we were not thankful for the many bounties that have been bestowed upon us in the past. We, personally, are thankful for your patronage; thankful—very thankful—to be able to offer you value at a lower price than the excessive cost of all things warrant. We wish you a bountiful and extremely happy Thanksgiving and offer you the following to help make it so.

EVER HAMMER WEDS; MAY QUIT RING GAME.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Ever Hammer, llected to a frazzle by Joe Welling in Racine Tuesday night, has deserted the prize ring for the kitchen.

Two months ago, following a defeat at the hands of Johnny Dundee in Kansas City Hammer told his manager he was going to visit an uncle at Macon, Mo., and rest up. The uncle turned out to be a "marrying parson" who counted out the "Bristling Blond Battler" in favor of Miss Edythe Whistler and of Bucklin, Mo., a childhood sweetheart.

The ceremony to prove that two can live as cheaply as one, was performed in Macon, Mo.

Hammer kept his marriage a secret until yesterday, when a friend of Kid Howard's tipped him off that a door of an apartment at 517 West Lockwood avenue read "Mr. and Mrs. Hammer."

FOREIGN POWERS FAVOR LEAGUE

New York, Nov. 27.—Messages of good-will from the chancelleries of three of Europe's warring powers were read at a dinner given here by the League to Enforce Peace. The purpose of the banquet was to consider a program for a permanent league of nations at the close of the great conflict.

Approval of the principle proposed was given by Aristide Briand premier of France, Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg of German's secretary of state for foreign affairs.

Premier Briand's message said: "In basing your effort on the fundamental principles of respect for the rights and wishes of the various peoples of the world, you are certain of being on common ground with the countries who in the present conflict are giving their blood and their resources, without counting the cost, to save the independence of the nations"

From Viscount Grey, the following message was received.

"I think public utterances must have already made it clear that I sincerely desire to see a league of nations formed and made effective to secure future peace of the world after this war is over."

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg sent as his message extracts from a speech he delivered on Nov. 9 before the committee on ways and means of the German reichstag, which follows:

"We have never concealed our doubts with regard to the question whether peace could be permanently guaranteed by such international organizations as arbitration courts."

"Germany will honestly co-operate in the examination of every endeavor to find a practical solution of the question and will co-laborate to make its realization possible."

County Clerk A. J. Pepin, Aid. Joseph F. Pryal, Officer Elmer Swanson, Edward Stratton, James O'Donnell, John Conolly, Wilfred LaFond, Albert Nelson, Mark Hansen and Henry Gunter have returned from a hunting trip at Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gagnor returned last evening from a hunting trip at Kates, bringing down a big buck.

Miss Elanore Trudell, returned to her home Monday following a three days' visit with friends and relatives in Manistique.

Miss Florence Lusardi of Defiance, left for Oline, Iowa, to resume her duties as teacher after a visit of ten days at her home.

IMPORTANT EVENT IN METHODISM

Cincinnati, Nov. 25.—A "red letter" day in American Methodist Episcopal circles is being celebrated in Cincinnati by the dedication by church officials and employees of a new six-story, ferro-concrete modern home for the Methodist Book Concern. The exercises were participated in by representatives of all departments of the Concern and general church life, the oldest active employee, Wm. Voemer, the House carpenter, with 55 years of service, and Bishop Earl S. Cranston, until May last the senior active bishop of the church, Publishing Agent here from 1884 to 1896, exemplifying the range of participants. The formal presentation of the building was made by Mr. Edward E. Shipley, a prominent insurance man, a member of the Book Committee of twenty-five ministers and laymen, a board of active directors, who direct this great church interest without compensation. A feature of the program was the singing of a chorus of seventy employees from all departments of the plant, trained and led by an employee, Mr. Oscar Schansen. During the exercises two American flags were presented by the employees to Dr. John H. Race, Publishing Agent resident at Cincinnati, one to fly over the building, the other to stand beside the pulpit in the chapel. Luncheon and inspection of the new building followed the formal program. Inter-department celebrations were held by the employees, and the formal opening of the chapel for "Preachers Meetings" was observed throughout Monday. The Methodist Book Concern carries over $1,000,000 insurance of the lives of its employees made out to beneficiaries named by the insured.

The Methodist Book Concern was founded August 17, 1789, at 43 Fourth Street, Philadelphia, on a capital of $600, by John Dickens, when Methodism had but 58,000 members. For his services Mr. Dickens was allowed annually $200 for dwelling house and book-room, $80 for a boy, $53.33 for firewood, $333 to clothe and feed himself, his wife and children—the magnificent sum of $666.33 in all. In 1804 the business was moved to New York, where it began business in one room on Gold Street. The first official Methodist Church paper, the Christian Advocate, now in its ninety-first year, was started in 1826. The Methodist Book Room in Cincinnati was started by the Rev. Martin Reuter in a room 15x20 feet, at Elm and Fifth Streets. Not even a boy was provided as helper here. It is on such a foundation that the great business of serving the constituency of Methodism with weekly Advocates, Sunday-school publications, and Christian literature was established. At the present time the Methodist Book Concern has, in addition to its main Houses at New York and Cincinnati, depositories at Chicago, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Kansas City (Missouri), Detroit, and Boston, the real estate value of which is nearly $2,000,000. And its profits, distributed to the aged and retired ministers of the church, for the past four years, were over $1,000,000.00. Methodism through its Book Concern has furnished a literature of substantial and permanent value, symmetrical and well balanced, a literature for the people. It has thus rendered great service to completeness of church organization and work, has aided in giving uniformity to the tone, spirit, policy, and teaching of the church, has made possible the great modern advance in the newer methods and material of modern Sunday-school teaching.

ISHPEMING MEN WIN 2 SERIES

Members of the Ishpeming bowling team took two series of games from Escanaba bowling squads on Sunday. After being trimmed at the Delft club alleys on Saturday, the visiting pin toppers on Sunday downed a five man team at the Olmsted-Scanlon alleys by a margin of 38 pins in three games and at the Delft club took a three game series by 54 pins:

In the games at the Olmsted alleys Taylor rolled remarkable scores in two of his games. In the first game he hung up five straight strikes and in the sixth frame attempted to use a strange ball with the result that he blew the frame. He took his usual gait in the next frame and registered six straight strikes, for a score of 263. His average for the three games was 215.

FEW MOTOR CARS STORED FOR WINTER

The "stored for the winter" tag on motor cars will be less in evidence throughout the country this year than ever before according to Geo. MacKilloan, Dodge Bros. dealer in this city. There are several reasons, he says. One is the unparalleled business activity now in prospect, which will require incessant use of the automobile for business men. Another is the growing impression that the motor car made these days is good enough in any weather. Still another, and perhaps more important is the development of winter cars to the point where cost no longer conflicts with comfort. In other words, the time has arrived when the average motor car owner will not hesitate between shivering through the winter in an open conveyance, or investing in a year-around comfort by buying a winter car. The motorist has come to regard it as an actual economy. Tucked away in the warmth of an enclosed car on his way to the office he no longer finds it necessary to devote the first half hour of his workin time to "warming up." As one has put it: "I find wholesome pleasure even in defying the blustery winds; it puts me in a good mood for the morning."

Due to conditions such as these, as well as the situation afforded by the heavy sales of last year, Dodge Brothers' dealers are preparing for an exceptional demand. They are now in a position to supply snug winter cars both of the touring and roadster type. Slight alteration in style used last year make it even more desirable both from the standpoint of taste and comfort. The interior is handsomely upholstered in grey and both the roadster and touring car are fitted with a dome light of a pleasant glow. Doors fit tightly, but open easily and rattling is minimized by exactness of construction. One of the most attractive features of the Dodge Brothers' winter car is the fact that the winter top may be removed without difficulty thereby affording an ideal conveyance for use the year around. Also by purchasing a winter top, with which the local dealer is now supplied any owner of a Dodge Brothers' touring car or roadster may easily convert his last summer's automobile into a dignified, comfortable closed car ready to cope with the worst of weather.

MICHIGAN LAW LIKE GEORGIA'S

While the prohibitionists are gloating and chanting over their victories in some States and ignoring their defeats in other states, let us try to find the answer to this question: "What is it all about?" There must be some excuse for a vast destruction of lawful property; some excuse for throwing scores of thousands of wage-earners out of employment; some excuse for destroying immense local, state and national revenues—but surely that excuse, whatever it may be, is not public hatred for beer or for whisky, or for what the vintner sells. Let us consider the case of Michigan where in the name of "temperance" the people voted to prohibit the making and selling of beer and other liquors in that State. Does this mean that the people of Michigan have turned against spirituous, vinous and malt liquors; that the cocktail has become distasteful; that the beer stein is no more than a mural decoration and that the win-bottle is to be forgotten in its dusty cobwebs? Well, not exactly. If we take the word of the spokesman for the "temperance" forces in Detroit, his word as published being as follows: "To be specific, Michigan will have the same law that Georgia has, for instance."

Now, then, what sort of a law has Georgia and to what extent does it abolish liquor? I have just received from Claude C. Mason, Clerk of the Court of Ordinary of Atlanta, Ga., an official copy of the packages of liquor received monthly in Atlanta under the prohibition law that "limits" liquor shipments to four times as much whisky; three and one-half times as much beer and twenty-four times as much wine as is consumed per capita on the average by the people of the Nation as a whole. Georgia adopted prohibition in 1908 but it was not until last spring that the attempt was made to limit shipments. The new law puzzled the Georgians at first, but they are adjusting themselves rapidly to the changed conditions, judging from the increase in the number of registered shipments as shown by the following table:

May	7741
June	20065
July	27678
August	30124
September	31789
October	45373

In connection with these figures Mr. Mason says that whisky shipments approximate 90 per cent of the packages registered and that the shipments average two quarts. On the October basis the people of Atlanta are receiving 81,000 quarts of whisky a month, or $72,000 quarts a year, and the shipments are increasing by leaps and bounds and by gulps and gurgles. Wherefore it would seem that the prohibitionists of Michigan intend that the demand for liquor shall be recognized and supplied and that the prohibition movement shall not be construed as an attack on drink, but rather as an attack on the Michigan industries producing and selling wine, beer, whisky and cider. What then was so objectionable about the liquor business in Michigan that a majority of voters should decide to destroy brewery, hotel and collateral property valued at $20,000,000; to throw 50,000 wage-earners out of employment and to menace civil and religious liberty. To exchange the stein of beer for the case of beer and the glass of whisky for the jug of whisky is surely not of sufficient "temperance" value to warrant such running amuck at the polling booth? Wouldn't it be a good idea to step aside and get a better perspective of the situation? Wouldn't it be wise to find out just what the people want in regard to the making, distributing and selling of liquor? Isn't it a settled fact that the people intend to use wine, beer and whisky; that the people do not object to the mere making of liquors; that the people do not object to the mere distributing and selling of these beverages? If these are settled facts why not make them the basis for constructive, reasonable legislation rather than ignore them and continue to play havoc with private property, public morals and approved governmental principles? Is it possible that we Americans are so crude and crass that we must go on to the bitter end of the prohibition programme knowing all the while that what we really need is to provide for lawfully supplying in a satisfactory manner the demand of the people for the products of the very distilleries and breweries that are being razed to the ground in ill-guided protest against phases easily modified or eliminated? Just suppose that the prohibition programme shall be carried out to the "end of the rainbow"—even Nationwide prohibition? Suppose that thirty-six States shall say that they had and the other twelve shall outlaw the manufacture of liquor for "sales"; the transportation of liquor for "sale"; the importation of liquor for "sale"? Well, it would mean the destruction of hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of property and investments—but it would not make unlawful the manufacturing, transporting and importing of wine, cider, beer and whiskey for personal use. It would allow every farmer to establish a distillery and permit every home to operate a kitchen bar. Who is so foolish as to believe that Nationwide prohibition, so-called, would create anything but a Nationwide necessity for a solution of the liquor problem? Then why not solve it now? Why not do away with the objectionable features of the liquor business and retain the features that are necessary in furnishing the products that practically everybody insists that we shall have? Yours very truly,

T. M. GILMORE,
President National Model License League.
