

PREPARING FOR A WAR TO THE END

GERMAN PEOPLE ARE DETERMINED TO CARRY WAR TO THE END - LARGE CIVILIAN FORCE TO BE ORGANIZED - SORRY TO LOSE VON JAGOW.

(Special to the Press.) Berlin, Nov. 29.—In an interview with the I. N. S. correspondent, William Hale, the German chancellor, Bethmann Hollweg, announced that the German people were determined to carry out the war to the end as is the intention of the civilian forces, as evidenced by the fact that the mobilization on such a tremendous scale that it has never before been thought of, is being put into effect tomorrow, on the sixtieth birthday anniversary of the chancellor. He said that the British were making misleading statements about his sincere statement concerning peace, a peace world wide and continuous. He made it plain that the German diplomats were sorry to lose the services of von Jagow and that Bethmann would follow that former foreign minister's policies. He said in part: "Again and again we declared our willingness to enter into peace. Our expressions have not been responded to. In some quarters they have been represented as dictated by weakness and fear. Surely the events of the past year sufficiently demonstrate that we did not a year ago speak out of weakness or fear."

HOLD SERVICE THIS MORNING

Thanksgiving services will be conducted at the Swedish Methodist Episcopal church at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Rev. Louis Johnson, pastor of the church, will deliver a sermon appropriate to the occasion. In the evening at the church parlors the women of the congregation will hold a sale and will serve refreshments.

SORROWING PEOPLE ATTEND FUNERAL

A number of sorrowing people yesterday afternoon attended the funeral of Frederick Olson at the undertaking rooms of J. A. Allo. The service was conducted at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. J. Carlson pastor of the Swedish Mission church, officiating. Following the service the body was escorted to its final resting place in Lakeview cemetery. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Escanaba lodge of Moose and a number of the members of that lodge were present. A number of beautiful floral pieces covered the casket when it was escorted to the cemetery, send by organizations, relatives and friends.

MANY TO SEE GAME TODAY

A number of Escanaba football fans will go to the Twin Cities today to witness the annual football game between Marinette and Menominee. The intense rivalry between the two cities and the fact that Marinette is conceded for the first time in a number of years, to have an even chance for a victory in the annual Turkey Day game, more than usual interest is centered in the battle of today. A number of Escanaba people will make the trip in autos while others will travel by train returning to the city on Friday morning.

GERARD HAS CONFERENCE

(Special to the Press.) Washington, Nov. 29.—James W. Gerard, the United States ambassador to Germany had a conference with President Wilson today. He stated that he could not say what the conference was, but that it ought to be obvious to anyone. He will sail for Germany next Tuesday.

8 STANDARD SCHOOLS HERE

Frost of the Escanaba Board of Education, and C. U. Welbert, county commissioner of schools. Eight standard rural schools have been designated in Delta county by the state department of public instruction as deserving of the standard nameplate and which will be attached to each of the buildings within a few days.

In addition to the Wells school others that are to receive the standard nameplates are: Temple school, district No. 2, Ford River township. South Ford River school, district No. 3, Ford River township. Foglund school, district No. 6, Ford River township. Two schools in Garden village, district No. 1, Garden township. Giving Thanks

The season is at hand when all hearts are filled with gratitude and when we all cease our labors; to offer our thanks to God and receive His Blessing. We should all be deeply grateful, because of the fact that our country is at peace with the world.

Today it can be honestly said that America is the only country that is in reality at peace with all nations. Our commerce is thriving our industries prospering, our citizens all engaged in occupations, while health and independence are blessing the civilization of the United States.

We should be thankful for the peace and prosperity we have enjoyed; thankful that our parents, sons, brothers, and sweethearts are still with us. We should be thankful that we have enough, even at such high prices, and a little to spare of life's necessities. We should be thankful that we can, in a small measure, alleviate the suffering of our sisters and brothers across the sea.

For our own personal blessing we should give thanks; for the prosperity that has been ours; for the freedom of thought and action and the many advantages we enjoy. I am deeply grateful for the courtesy extended through the press for the privilege and opportunity to express my sincere thanks.

Let us all give thanks and be happy that we are able to enjoy God's greatest gift to humanity—Health, Happiness and Prosperity. We do not need wealth to enjoy real happiness; what we need is friends, the human touch, the warm, sincere handclasp, words of cheer; charitable and kindly acts and a pleasant smile, showing a clear conscience, the value of which can not be measured in dollars and cents.

B. J. MACKILLICAN, Mayor.

Let Us Be Thankful

On this Thanksgiving Day a resolve to make Escanaba of the future measure up fully to our hopes of today would be most fitting.

We of Escanaba hold it in our power to make possible the realization of what have been but dreams of the past.

Our municipality's growth in the future will depend on the loyalty and the measure of effort by her citizens.

Let us offer thanks on this Thanksgiving Day that Escanaba holds a hidden, latent power, stored up through years of natural growth, that when brought into use will not be denied, but will force Escanaba to progress in the future as she has in the past.

On this Thanksgiving Day let us offer thanks for the natural advantages that have been bestowed upon Escanaba, serving as a sterling foundation for the battle to progress that is before us.

On this Thanksgiving Day, let us give thanks that Escanaba is peopled by a serious minded citizenry, whose aims are high and who are to join in a spontaneous co-operative movement for the advancement of the good of their city.

Let us be thankful on this Thanksgiving Day that Escanaba's measure of success achieved in the past is but a jot compared to that which the future holds.

Let our prayers of thanksgiving be poured forth today for our benefits of the past, but with eyes set to the future, resolve to make our achievements of the next twelve months a record that will cause us to be doubly thankful on next Thanksgiving Day.

GREAT CROWD AT FUNERAL

One of the largest funerals ever to mark the burial of a child in this city was recorded yesterday when the body of Cleo Dupont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dupont was laid to rest. The funeral was conducted at St. Anne's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Jacques officiating. Interment was at St. Anne's cemetery. Seventy students of the eighth grade at St. Joseph's school and all of the pupils at St. Anne school attended the funeral service at the church in a body and during the service the children sang three numbers, lending an unusually impressive feature to the ceremony. The church was filled to its greatest capacity showing well the esteem in which the lad had been held and the general sympathy that had been aroused for members of his family.

GUARDSMEN HOLD HOPES

SINGING OF PROTOCOL BETWEEN MEXICAN AND U. S. GOVERNMENTS ACCEPTED AS INDICATION THAT STATE TROOPS ON BORDER WILL BE MOVED SOON.

(Special to the Press.)

Camp Cotton, Nov. 24.—The dispatch from Atlantic City tonight, which says a tentative agreement has been reached in the Mexican-United States conference with regard to the withdrawal of the U. S. troops in Mexico, is believed by soldiers here to forecast the return of militiamen to their home stations in the near future. The agreement it carried out will see Pershing's troops withdrawn in 40 days Mexican and U. S. soldiers to patrol their respective sides of the border.

The fact that Pershing's withdrawal from Mexico will bring between 14,000 and 16,000 regular army soldiers back to the United States border, is the reason for the belief that the men here from various states will go home soon. Just now, the militiamen are for the greater part doing the patrol duties.

Camp Cotton soldiers looked for real action last night when a large number of infantrymen and two batteries of artillery were hurriedly assembled just a block from camp, and later dispatched in the direction of the pass near Mount Franklin. General Bell this morning issued a statement to the effect that it was merely a trial maneuver in which he wanted to ascertain how soon the men could get ready for action.

Michigan men continue to make a good showing here, both in point of soldier duties and in their action on the streets in the business center of the town. Ninety per cent of the sabbing and shafting fracas here are blamed to the southern soldiers. The Georgia and Carolina troopers have a tendency to "fly off the handle" too often, and the result is that a number of them have mixed with Mexicans and civilians, to their sorrow.

The 33rd Michigan regiment of which one battalion is largely Upper Peninsula men has yet to go on border patrol. The 33d continues to excel in guard duty and much of the training that was mapped out for other regiments here has been cut off the 33d's schedule. But, the men are getting weary of camp life with its inactivity and are now desirous of going home. It's a safe bet that 99 out of every 100 men here from the north are anxious to get back to their home towns as soon as a train will bring them back.

The 33d Michigan football team, with a number of U. P. men in the lineup will play the 31st Michigan squad tomorrow afternoon on the Camp Cotton gridiron. The 33d so far is 100 per cent in the army football league which was recently organized here. Some of the West Point stars of 1915 are to be seen in action here every Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Follo received formal notification yesterday of his appointment as deputy grand chancellor for the order of Knights of Pythias in the upper peninsula. In the discharge of the duties of the position Mr. Follo will be required to visit all of the lodges of the order in the peninsula and conduct an examination of the officers, as prescribed by the grand lodge officers. The honor is the first of its kind that has been conferred upon Mr. Follo, who for years has been an enthusiastic Pythian and is one that is appreciated by Mr. Follo's many friends.

ALLIES TO BACK DOWN

(Special to the Press.) Washington, Nov. 29.—A summary of the American press comment criticizing the allies action in the Tarnow ski case has been cabled to the Paris foreign office. It is believed that the allies will back down from their position.

HOLIDAY RUSH IS LAUNCHED

Although no formal openings have yet been held to launch the sale of Christmas goods, all of the Escanaba stores report the beginning of Christmas buying. At nearly all of the stores the Christmas stocks have been displayed but the launching of the holiday openings has been deferred until after Thanksgiving. After the Fair store already the display windows have been given a touch of the Christmas spirit and after today all of the stores will show Christmas goods to the exclusion of all others.

Realizing that stocks now in the stores cannot be replenished, because of the unusual conditions that prevail, patrons are doing their Christmas shopping in volume earlier than ever before. Many appear to realize that by shopping now they are able to gain selections from complete lines, and if they wait until later only the tag ends will remain. This condition is true in practically every line for merchants have no assurance that any line can be replenished should it be sold out.

In Christmas novelties, particularly in the toy departments, there is no scarcity for the American manufacturers have come forward to supply the stocks that formerly were secured from Europe. War toys are offered in great abundance and promise to be immensely popular.

The great scarcity is in dolls. Excepting those held over from former seasons there is not a kid baby doll to be purchased in the United States today.

Where is Escanaba?

The population of Delta county has increased rapidly in ten years.

The total value of our farm products has increased 300 per cent in five years. The census each year shows a more rapid increase.

Every new settler is an added asset to Escanaba. He buys from Escanaba's business men; he supplies the city with fresh products from the farm; he creates a market which contributes hundreds of dollars yearly to the city. He increases the value of his farm and makes the county's property valuation become greater every year and makes the distribution of taxes broader.

The growth of Escanaba is intimately related to the development of agriculture in the surrounding country.

The Commercial Club of Escanaba has already taken a start in the development movement.

It will help your business. If you are not a member, you have not done your part. Put YOUR shoulder to the wheel.

RUMANIAN ARMY STILL RETREATING

VON FALKENHAYN'S FORCES CAPTURE PITECTI WHILE VON MACKENSEN'S ARMIES ARE BUT 20 MILES FROM CAPITAL - RUSS CAPTURE 700 PRISONERS.

(Special to the Press.)

London, Nov. 29.—The disorderly retreat of the Rumanian armies toward Bucharest continues, the civil population of hundreds of towns with the defeated troops in a wild flight according to dispatches from several sources tonight. The latest official statement from Berlin issued at the end of the day announces the capture of Pitecti a town north of Bucharest by the army of General von Falkenhayn. The statement adds that Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army is advancing from the south and is now within 20 miles of the Rumanian capital, and is directing its movements to correspond with those of Von Falkenhayn. Meanwhile the Russian armies in Southern Carpathians have struck a strong blow in a mighty effort to divert the tremendous pressure which the Teuton armies are bringing to bear on Rumania. Petrograd reports the capture of several ridges together with more than 700 prisoners.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to publicly express my thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy rendered during the illness and at the time of the death of my brother, Frederick Olson. The aid and sympathy of all at this time were sincerely appreciated and to all I will ever be grateful. (Signed) JOHN OLSON.

GREAT CROWD IS CERTAIN

A host of Escanaba people will attend the first annual ball arranged by members of the Musicians' Union of Escanaba at the Coliseum on Friday night. The musical program for the ball will be furnished by an orchestra of 24 pieces, making up an organization that will include all of the leading musicians in the city. The big orchestra has arranged a program of unusual excellence for the evening and the widespread interest centered in the affair indicates the attendance of a crowd of patrons that will tax the capacity of the big hall.

Some Chicago houses, to supply the demand, have sent agents through this district in an effort to buy up kid body dolls from stores that held them over from former seasons but that movement was only partially successful, as the merchants appreciate the value of their property and prefer to look after the wants of their own patrons.

A PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

With a program of cards at the club rooms and a dancing party at the Moose hall, the evening was made a busy one as well as an enjoyable one for members of the order and their families. A luncheon was served at a late hour concluding one of the most enjoyable functions ever arranged by the Knights of Columbus in this city.

SEASON WILL CLOSE TODAY

The annual deer hunting season for the state of Michigan for the current year, will close with the setting of the sun tonight.

Tomorrow it will be illegal for any hunter to kill a deer no matter how untarnished may be his license tag and no matter how great may be his desire to put it to use. But hunters who have legally killed deer during the regular season closing today, are given 48 hours from midnight tonight to get their kill from the woods to the nearest shipping station. All deer presented for shipment within that time limit will be passed by the wardens and officers but no deer can be accepted for shipment after the close of the following 48 hour period.

THEATRES

THE DELFT.

"Come in my dear, and meet your future husband." If you were a little girl suddenly taken out of school and your father thus summoned you into his library, wouldn't your knees fairly creak with fright and wouldn't you feel like turning and running as fast as you could? And if the man to whom you were introduced as your future husband leered at you in a terrifying way wouldn't you wish that some good fairy would show you the way to escape from this man?

That is the situation which confronts "Little Lady Eileen" in the Famous Players production in which iridescent Marguerite Clark is being starred on the Paramount program at the Delft. But Eileen who is a slip of an Irish lassie, believes implicitly in fairies and though she is terrified at George Churchill and hates him instinctively, she hopes in the bottom of her heart that the fairies will come to her rescue before it is too late. When she was in school she continually harassed the principal by reading fairy stories instead of studying her lessons and her highly imaginative mind received as facts the delightful tales which she read.

And Eileen's faith in the fairies is vindicated! For they do more than rescue her from George—they take her to her true love, just as she has always believed they would. Of course everybody else in the story laughs at fairies and does not believe that there are such things in the world. But everything turns out just as Eileen thought it would if the fairies decided to help her, so there is no use trying to tell her that there are no fairies. Even her lover good-naturedly scoffs at Eileen's theory and aggravates her a little because he cannot see the elf when she points them out to him—but it is the only fault which she can find with Stanley Churchill. Stanley is the older brother of George and when Eileen's father loses all his money it is discovered that if Eileen marries Stanley Churchill they will come into a great fortune. George learns of the will first and, believing that Eileen has never seen his brother, he goes to Castle Kavanagh and claims her as his bride.

Though Eileen is sick at heart and

M'GREGOR GIVEN COMPLETE PARDON

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 29.—Gov. Ferris gave Dr. Robert McGregor, who is serving a life sentence in Jackson prison for murder, a complete pardon today. The act came after a conference between Gov. Ferris and Judge Watson Beach, who presided at the trial when McGregor, was found guilty. The pardon was also urged by Warden Simpson of Jackson prison, where he is confined and where he has been acting as special trustee for some time.

REFUSE MINISTER SAFE CONDUCT

London, Nov. 29.—The foreign office has sent Ambassador Page a note definitely refusing to grant a safe conduct to Count Adam Tarnowski Von Parnow, the new Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Another controversy between the American government and the entente allies is in prospect as a result of the refusal of the British government to grant a safe conduct to Count Tarnowski, the newly appointed Austro-Hungarian Ambassador to the United States.

Lanshing, Mich., Nov. 29.—Market certainly acted very strong today for in the face of all the bear news, that was circulated yesterday. Prices advanced from a fraction to 1 and 2 points today. The copper and rails are especially strong. Reading made a gain of two points today. In the Coppers Ray Consolidated Inspiration, Calumet and Arizona, Copper Range North Butte and East Butte were some of the features. We hear good reports on Davis Daly, Rock Island in the lower priced rails was the feature an advanced 4 points. The lowering of call money rates today created a favorable sentiment and it looks as if a readjustment has about run its course. In the precious metal issues, the strength in silver was reflected, Bar Silver being quoted today 74 1-2 in New York. Tonopah Belmont declared the regular quarterly dividend of 12 1-2 cents. No markets tomorrow, on account of Thanksgiving.—J. A. Minnear & Co.

New York Nov. 29.—The military camps on the Mexican border are still filled to capacity, notwithstanding the return of large numbers of National Guardsmen to their homes. Troops mustered out or sent back to their state mobilization camps have been replaced almost man for man by other military units which have not seen border service. There has been no diminution in volume or importance of the work of the Army Young Men's Christian Association. Its centers, with their big buildings, have become part and parcel of the life of every camp.

STRICT LIQUOR LAW IS SOUGHT

Liquor laws relating to drug stores will be rigidly enforced when prohibition goes into effect in Michigan.

Laws of the most stringent kind will be recommended to the legislature by the Michigan State Pharmaceutical association and if adopted the members of the association will see to the strict enforcement of the law.

This was one of the principal matters discussed at a meeting of the legislative committee of the association in Grand Rapids Friday.

D. D. Alton, of Fremont, chairman of the committee, was instructed to make a draft of the recommendations and to make them as strict as words would permit. Particular attention was to be paid to the sale of liquor on anything, but a physician's prescription. This draft will be submitted at another meeting of the committee.

"We will see that the laws are enforced," said C. H. Jongejan, of Grand Rapids, president of the state association. "We will pattern our legislation along the lines that now prevail in local option states and counties, but we will make them more strict and will see that they are enforced to the letter."

WON'T STAND FOR REACTIONARIES

Washington, Nov. 28.—Interesting details continue to reach Washington in regard to the election. From the State of Washington comes a letter containing the following:

"The carrying of this state for Wilson was a protest against the whole reactionary crowd out here. Of course it was a tribute to the Wilson administration, but we did a stunt here in repudiating a lot of objectionable legislative acts that stand alone in the achievements of popular government in this state. We took seven legislative acts passed by the legislature, which went rotten during the party splitup, and caused them all to be suspended and referred to the people. The Republican party came along in convention and endorsed the legislation and recommended the adoption of the statutes which the people referred. When the voting time came, Miles Polindexter repudiated the platform and said he was against the measures one and all. The candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, who was more or progressive, refused to repudiate the platform. The result of the election was a triumph for Polindexter and a defeat for the Republican nominee for governor and a repudiation of the rotten measures by an overwhelming vote. The importance of the victory cannot be estimated except by one who knows the scope of the repudiated legislative acts. They attacked our direct primary law and attempted to restore the caucus-conventions to power. They would have crippled our initiative, referendum and recall and practically destroyed these measures as instruments of popular government. They attempted to prohibit those who did not pay taxes from voting on bond issues. They attacked in other ways our public utilities. They were all defeated. We are tickled to death over the result."

Washington, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, widely known woman suffragist and welfare worker, died in a hospital here shortly before midnight last night after an illness of ten weeks. She was twenty-eight years old.

Mrs. Boissevain was stricken suddenly while addressing an audience in this city during the recent political campaign and fainted on the platform. She was removed to the hospital and her husband and parents rushed from New York to join her here. Her sister Vida Milholland, was with her when she was stricken and had been in constant attendance since that time.

Mrs. Boissevain's illness was diagnosed as aplastic anemia and blood transfusion was resorted to in attempts to improve her condition. Her sister twice gave blood for this purpose and on four other occasions friends submitted to the ordeal, in hope that benefit would result. After each transfusion temporary improvement was followed by a relapse. A few days ago the physicians said there was practically no hope for Mrs. Boissevain, but thereafter she rallied and it was thought she might recover. Late yesterday she began to sink. Her husband, Eugene Boissevain, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Milholland of New York, and her sister were present when she died.

Arrangements have been completed to send her body home to New York for burial. Many messages of sympathy were received today by members of the family from friends, prominent workers in the woman suffrage cause and other associates of Mrs. Boissevain in her different fields of activity.

FAMOUS "SUFF" PASSES AWAY

GOV. FERRIS WILL PARDON MCGREGOR

Bad Axe, Mich., Nov. 28.—Governor Ferris, after a conference here with Judge Watson Beach, declared that unless he receives more information than he now possesses, he will parole Dr. Robert A. MacGregor, who is serving a life term in Jackson prison after being convicted of the murder of Cyril Sparring of Uby.

It was Judge Beach's court that Dr. MacGregor was sentenced and Gov. Ferris, came here to get information he said he had been unable to obtain otherwise. The governor said after the conference that it had not revealed much. The governor said, however, that he had learned enough here to justify him in paroling the prisoner unless further evidence develops.

The contention of the prosecution at the trial of Dr. MacGregor was that the Sparring boy had been poisoned. His mother, however, insisted his death resulted from an illness that had caused the death of several other members of the family.

Governor Ferris, while here, was the guest of Governor-Elect Sleeper, and they returned together to Lansing.

LOOK FOR CHANCE TO SURRENDER

Toerzburg, Transylvania, Nov. 28.—Prisoners of war being not unwilling to please their captors, their statements must be taken with a large pinch of salt. Though there be no officer of the enemy present, the prisoners do not become known to the powers into whose hands the fortune of war has placed him.

The Associated Press correspondent was able to interview here today two score Roumanian officers and men who had fallen into captivity near Rucar, some twenty miles south of here. No Central Power officer was within ear-shot.

One of the first men questioned was a Roumanian Jew, a man of some education and standing. He had served as a private. Unblushingly he said that he had looked for a chance to surrender. Questioned why, the man almost flew into a rage. He could not see why a Jew should fight for a government which in times of peace gave him no vote and no part in the affairs of his country. He hoped that the Central troops would get to Bucharest in a few days and hang them all, especially Bratnau and Take Jonecu who had so needlessly involved the country in war. Six other Jews were a little timid in their expression but seemed to heartily agree with their spokesman.

Captured officers are non-interviewable, as a rule. The code, as well as tact, forbids that they be questioned, but one of them, a tall handsome fellow of about twenty-five, gave as his opinion that the war was "une sale affaire"—a dirty business.

CAR GOES INTO DITCH; 3 HURT

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 28.—Three men were injured, one of them perhaps fatally, and an automobile was demolished when a machine owned and driven by C. W. Davis of Oconto on the State road. The injured: C. W. Davis, 52 years old, skull fractured bruised and injured internally, in hospital at Oconto and may die.

Charles Morris, 46 years old, bruised but injuries not critical. Edward Livingston 39 years old, severe cuts and bruises, but condition not dangerous.

Davis, who is the owner of a livery and sale stable at Oconto was taking the other two men to Little River. The icy road was the cause of the accident the car going into an eight-foot ditch as the driver attempted to turn out to pass a team of horses.

Davis was blown through the windshield, and was pinned under the front of the machine as the car landed, receiving a fractured skull, severe cuts and internal injuries. The right side of his body was severely bruised. Livingston received severe cuts from the windshield glass. Morris was thrown through the top of the car but escaped with slight bruises.

A doctor was summoned at once and the three men were rushed to a hospital. Davis' condition was critical early this morning. The other two men will recover.

SAY ROUMANIA WAS UNPREPARED

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Roumanian officers taken prisoner are quoted by war correspondents as having declared that the Roumanian disasters were due to Roumanian unreadiness. Disappointment was expressed that they had not been supplied by the entente with sufficient cannon or machine guns or with other military material.

The correspondent says the prisoners described conditions on the front with the Roumanians as chaotic, with an indescribable confusion of units and no proper method of seeing to the carrying out of order.

FEAR OUTBREAK OF HOOF DISEASE

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Facing the possibility of a renewed outbreak of the hoof and mouth disease, livestock men here awaited with some anxiety today the outcome of the federal diagnosis of suspected herds in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

Dr. S. E. Bennett, head of the bureau of animal industry in Chicago, with Dr. F. C. Day, federal veterinarian, and Dr. F. S. Mather, an expert in stock plagues, left here Monday night to investigate suspected cattle in the Kansas City yards.

Results of the inoculation tests, however, will not be known for several days and it is expected that the Kansas City quarantine will remain effective until then.

Meanwhile authorities here announce that the precautionary measure taken by Dr. O. D. Dyson, state veterinarian of Illinois prohibiting the shipment to the stock yards of Chicago and East St. Louis except for immediate slaughter, of any cattle, horses, swine or sheep from Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska, will not be rescinded until all possible danger of infection is believed past.

Officials of the Chicago Union Stock Yards and Transit company asserted also that their embargo order against live stock from all points west of the Missouri river will be effective as long as it seems necessary as a precautionary measure.

"Whether there is a new outbreak will not be known until the government inspectors have completed their examination and reported," said O. T. Henkle, general manager. "Our biggest business shipment of cattle for immediate slaughter will continue. The embargo is upon 'feeders' which, because of lightness of weight are sent to pasture from this market."

My arm would soon come around, but I would not listen to him and made good my threat, but the next day while I was sitting in the grandstand, a well known baseball writer of Memphis begged me to see a certain physician, who had successfully treated athletes for ailments similar to mine.

"I did not like to attend the scribe and agreed, but at the time felt it would be useless, for I figured that the old soup bone was about through.

"Now comes the funny part—the Memphis physician took my case and after an examination told me he could help me—said that there was no muscle or ligament out of place, but that a certain germ had gotten busy and that if he could get rid of the germs all would be lovely.

"Do you know his treatment proved to be the right thing, for in two weeks I was pitching ball again and the old soreness had disappeared.

"I wish to goodness I had seen this man when the trouble first appeared, for had I done so I believe I would still be in the major leagues."

CURE COMES TOO LATE TO SAVE SALARY

Did you ever hear of a pitcher dropping out of the big show because he had a sore arm?

Did you ever hear of a twirler making frantic efforts to come back and seeking every possible remedy, consulting specialists and resorting to every known scientific treatment only to find that he had been slipped a bum steer, has been barking up the wrong tree as it were?

Glenn Liebhardt of Cleveland, one of the regulars when Larry Lajoie managed the club in 1909, is the twirler to whom we refer in the foregoing.

When Liebhardt quit he thought that a muscle had been torn out of place in his salary whip, or that he had possibly caught a cold and it had lodged in the shoulder.

His arm was so lame he couldn't take off his hat and then came a hasty exit to the minors and a small fortune spent in seeking relief from various specialists.

From the American association to the Southern association went Liebhardt. He was able to pitch just good enough to get by, because he had a head on his shoulders, and knew how to pitch.

"In 1913 I was with the Memphis club, and during the flag end of the season," said Liebhardt, "I became so disgusted with my work that I decided to quit. I turned in my uniform and told the manager of our club, who was a very decent fellow and a good friend of mine, that I was drawing money under false pretenses. He urged me to stay, telling me that

The feature of Chesterfields is that they begin where other cigarettes leave off.

In other words, besides pleasing the taste, Chesterfields go further—they satisfy! Just like a long drink of cold water satisfies when you're thirsty.

And yet, Chesterfields are MILD!

It's Chesterfields or nothing if you want this new cigarette delight, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the biggest discovery in cigarette blending in 20 years.

PASTOR ADVOCATES WHIPPING POST

Detroit, Nov. 29.—To correct those who violate the sanctities of marriage and who cannot be appealed to thru a moral sense, Dr. W. H. Wray Boyle, pastor of the Woodward avenue Presbyterian church, advocated the whipping post, in the second sermon of the series on "The Safeguards of the Modern Home." Dr. Boyle spoke to an

LOSSES POST AT LA CROSSE

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 29.—Chaplain George R. Longbrake of the Third Wisconsin National guard regiment, has lost his position as pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church of this city because of his long service on the border. When he returns from Fort Sheridan, Ill., where he now is with other members of the guard, awaiting mustering out, he will probably have to find a new pastorate. When the mobilization order called him he resigned and the church council finally accepted his resignation in October.

serve equipment ready for use at a moment's notice is sufficient for 6,000 men. Evacuation hospitals are entirely under canvas and are intended for use along an extended line of communication. The base hospitals now in service are located at Fort Sam Houston, Fort Bliss, Brownsville, Eagle Pass and Nogales. Serving as feeders for these institutions are the camp hospitals located at the following points; Laredo, 120 beds; Del Rio, 75 beds, Marfa, 150 beds; Deming, 180 beds; Douglas, 300 beds; Llano Grande, 200 beds; McAllen, 150 beds, and Fort Clark, 150 beds. Last July when state troops began arriving at the border the only army establishments for the care of sick were the post hospitals at Fort Sam Houston and Fort Bliss and much smaller places at Laredo and a few other border points. Practically the entire system of base and camp hospitals has been built since the call on the National Guard was made. As a result of the scientific methods adopted by the medical corps and the steps taken to insure absolute sanitation in border camps, the big command of regulars and militia has set a new health record. From May 1 to October 21, there were only 75 deaths from disease in the force of more than 150,000 and of this small number only 21 deaths were due to infectious maladies. Typhoid fever was formerly the worst scourge of camp, but it has no place among the troops along the Mexican border. From May 1 to October 15 only 21 cases of typhoid developed and no deaths resulted from the disease. All of these cases were among the National Guard organizations, where in some instances the men were not inoculated with typhus serum until after regiments had come to the border. There was not a single case among the 42,000 troops of the regular army engaged in patrol duty and stationed in Mexico with General Pershing's command. In Spanish-American war days—over a period of eight months in 1898, among 147,000 regulars and volunteers, the typhoid epidemic reached the enormous total of 21,000 cases and there were 2,192 deaths from disease.

TEX RICKARD VISIT WILLARD

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Tex Rickard, world's greatest promoter, met Jess Willard, world's greatest heavy weight but there is a word of secrecy surrounding the conference that followed. The meeting took place at the Annex, but Rickard refused to say as much as hint as to the nature of his business here or why he talked with Willard. However, another confab, is scheduled at 11 o'clock this morning, after which Rickard says he will have some thing to say to the boxing world. Whether it's Jess' consent to meet Fred Fulton, Carl Morris or even Frank Moran, that Rickard is after, is a matter of guesswork. Then again it may be that Rickard spent his time and money coming here to pass the time with the world's champion and feel his muscles so he can go back to Forty-second street and tell the native how it feels to hold conversation with the biggest mitt artist in captivity. It is all a speculation and one guess is as good as another. Even Rickard's closest friends are not in on the why's and wherefores of his visit. He would not talk Willard under any conditions last night, not even admitting that he was going to stage a boxing match in which Jess would be one of the principals. Passing on to the other half of the combination, Willard, he closed up like a steamed clam when asked about the Rickard business, referred all callers to Tex and gave a perfect imitation of a phinx. Interviewing fighters and promoters these days is getting to be a tougher job than borrowing money from a bank president. Be that as it may, Rickard wants to get Willard's consent to go ahead with the details of a heavy weight match in New York in the near future. Jess does not want to do battle until spring whereas Tex is anxious to run the affairs with the next two months. Whether he can swing Jess into line remains to be seen, for neither Jones talkative manager, nor Curley, silent manager, could bring Willard over to their way of thinking. The lamb that will be led to slaughter, Jess' opponent in the battle in the making, will not be selected until the champion has affixed his name to a set of articles. DIET SQUAD GETS HEAVY ON 40-CENT-A-DAY MEALS. Chicago, Nov. 29.—Whether the laughter and good fellowship at the dining table of the Chicago diet squad is responsible in any measure for the increasing weight of its members was a problem being studied today by the sponsors for the test which plans to prove that it is possible to live well on 40 cents a day. The twelve dieters—six men and six women—were today thirty and one-fourth pounds heavier than when they started. The greatest gainer was William Merker, who acquired four and three-quarter pounds during the week. Mrs. Tessie Pett, the only member of the squad to lose weight, tipped the scale at 141 1-4 pounds, a loss of three-quarters of a pound.

FINE HOSPITAL SERVICE FOR U. S. BORDER TROOPS San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 29.—Within the last five months the most complete medical organization known to the United States army has been developed to care for the 150,000 state and regular troops stationed at border points and in Mexico. The system includes five base hospitals, located at strategic points in the long stretch of border territory; eight camp hospitals at other points where troops are stationed a cantonment hospital at Columbus, N. M., to serve the force of duty in Mexico, and 26 ambulance companies and 41 field hospitals distributed among the troops in the field. The base and camp hospitals afford accommodation for a total of 4,600 patients and have medical and surgical facilities, equal to the finest hospitals. Not more than half the beds have been occupied at any one time since the nation's militia strength was called into the federal service, but the room is available in case of need. Back of this array is the potential organization. A hospital train of ten Pullman cars, with a capacity of 250 patients, has been placed in use to transport patients from the camp to the base hospitals and from base hospitals to general military hospitals in various parts of the country, should a campaign in Mexico be undertaken. These larger institutions are the Walter Reed hospital at Washington, D. C., the General Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., and the Letfmann hospital at San Francisco. About 1,200 beds are vacant in the three hospitals at the present time. In addition, a number of army posts have been selected for transformation into general hospitals in case of emergency. This list includes Fort McPherson, at Atlanta; Fort Oglethorpe, also in Georgia; Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, and other army stations where barracks are available for hospital purposes. The medical corps has complete equipment in storage for twenty evacuation hospitals and two base hospitals. An evacuation hospital takes care of 500 patients and a base hospital accommodates 500, so the total re-

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Tex Rickard, world's greatest promoter, met Jess Willard, world's greatest heavy weight but there is a word of secrecy surrounding the conference that followed. The meeting took place at the Annex, but Rickard refused to say as much as hint as to the nature of his business here or why he talked with Willard. However, another confab, is scheduled at 11 o'clock this morning, after which Rickard says he will have some thing to say to the boxing world. Whether it's Jess' consent to meet Fred Fulton, Carl Morris or even Frank Moran, that Rickard is after, is a matter of guesswork. Then again it may be that Rickard spent his time and money coming here to pass the time with the world's champion and feel his muscles so he can go back to Forty-second street and tell the native how it feels to hold conversation with the biggest mitt artist in captivity. It is all a speculation and one guess is as good as another. Even Rickard's closest friends are not in on the why's and wherefores of his visit. He would not talk Willard under any conditions last night, not even admitting that he was going to stage a boxing match in which Jess would be one of the principals. Passing on to the other half of the combination, Willard, he closed up like a steamed clam when asked about the Rickard business, referred all callers to Tex and gave a perfect imitation of a phinx. Interviewing fighters and promoters these days is getting to be a tougher job than borrowing money from a bank president. Be that as it may, Rickard wants to get Willard's consent to go ahead with the details of a heavy weight match in New York in the near future. Jess does not want to do battle until spring whereas Tex is anxious to run the affairs with the next two months. Whether he can swing Jess into line remains to be seen, for neither Jones talkative manager, nor Curley, silent manager, could bring Willard over to their way of thinking. The lamb that will be led to slaughter, Jess' opponent in the battle in the making, will not be selected until the champion has affixed his name to a set of articles. DIET SQUAD GETS HEAVY ON 40-CENT-A-DAY MEALS. Chicago, Nov. 29.—Whether the laughter and good fellowship at the dining table of the Chicago diet squad is responsible in any measure for the increasing weight of its members was a problem being studied today by the sponsors for the test which plans to prove that it is possible to live well on 40 cents a day. The twelve dieters—six men and six women—were today thirty and one-fourth pounds heavier than when they started. The greatest gainer was William Merker, who acquired four and three-quarter pounds during the week. Mrs. Tessie Pett, the only member of the squad to lose weight, tipped the scale at 141 1-4 pounds, a loss of three-quarters of a pound.

GIVING THANKS!

We are thankful for the peace and prosperity that has been this nation's. We are thankful that our sons, brothers and sweethearts are still with us. We are thankful that we have enough and to spare of life's necessities; and we are thankful that we can, in a small measure, alleviate the suffering of our sisters and brothers across the sea.

For our own personal blessings we give thanks; for the measure of prosperity that has been ours; for freedom of thought and action; for the many advantages that we enjoy.

Our business has shown a decided progress and growth during the past year; and we are thankful that, though there has been a shortage of various materials, we have been able to serve our patrons with dependable merchandise of known worth.

BALL PLAYERS SLOW TO SIGN

New York, Nov. 29.—The latest developments in the threatened strike of baseball players is causing major-league magnates no end of concern, regardless of their efforts to deny it.

The magnates have sent out feelers to get the sentiment in fraternity circles and what they have learned has not been particularly soothing.

Only 12 per cent of the major league players have signed contracts for 1916. This is unprecedented at this time of year.

The other 88 per cent will not sign until they are advised to do so by officers of the fraternity.

Players have consistently refused to discuss their attitude. They will not talk to newspapermen or club owners. David Fultz, president of the fraternity has declared he will tie up both major and minor leagues unless players' demands are granted.

It is known, however, that players plan concerted action to prevent magnates from cutting salaries produced by wartime contracts during the Federal league tangle.

If players refuse to bind themselves up with contracts the big league season cannot start on schedule next year. Whether magnates will permit such a condition is a question.

They must decide whether they can afford to wait better than the players whether they can afford to lose the interest on money tied up in their expensive plants and whether this interest would counterbalance the difference in salaries they want to pay and that which the players will demand.

The strike question also devolves on the request of the fraternity to the National commission and the National Association of Minor League clubs, which the latter turned down, and which probably will not receive any better fate at the hands of the former.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our sincerest thanks to our many kind neighbors and friends for their acts of sympathy and kindness during the illness and at the time of the death of our beloved husband and father. To all who sent flowers and in many ways endeavored to make our burden less heavy to bear we will ever be thankful.

DECLARES UNWILLING MOTHER SLAVE

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—Emma Goldman, the anarchist author and lecturer, made a plea for birth control before an audience of several hundred persons in the Auditorium Monday evening.

Among the interested spectators were well known suffragists, many well dressed men and women who came in automobiles and members of the police department.

After pointing out that women who have led any new movement have been assailed, Miss Goldman declared that there is no such thing as free motherhood and that until women can decide intelligently for herself when she is to become a mother there will be no such thing as emancipation.

"Do you know," said Miss Goldman, "that in no state is there a law which will give a woman a divorce because she does not want to become the mother of a child of her husband? If the law and morality compel a woman to become a mother there is no such thing as free motherhood! If a woman must bring into the world a diseased, hated child that she did not want, there is no free motherhood. You boast of your eugenics law, but that only deals with the situation before marriage; it does not prevent a man from ruining a woman some time after.

"Forced motherhood has made woman an economic and mental dependent. She is forced to remain with the man she loathes. And here I wish to say that there is no difference in selling for a dollar outside of marriage than selling for $50,000 within the marriage bonds.

"A woman becoming the mother of twelve children loses her social value. Her strength is gone. She hasn't ability to do anything else. She is as dependent as the black slave was dependent upon his white master.

Man is a little better off. He can quit his job and go to another master. If wages are not high enough he can organize and threaten a strike; threaten a railroad strike that will throw fear into the heart of the system. But the woman is a chattel slave. She must go on bringing sickly, hated children into the world.

"There is a reason why some should oppose birth control; there must be 2,000,000 young wage slaves in this country to enrich others. I say America is doomed because it is getting rich from child labor.

USE ORE CARS TO RELIEVE SHORTAGE

Washington, Nov. 29.—Railroads of the northwest have agreed to aid the campaign for relief of the country-wide car shortage by putting about 6,500 of their ore cars in the coal carrying service. This was announced by the American Railway association conference committee on car efficiency.

The ore cars will be used on the Chicago & Northwestern and the Soo lines and their immediate connections releasing a large number of regular coal cars now in this territory for general commercial use.

During the day the committee announced that all roads having on their lines more box cars than they themselves own had been ordered to move the excess, loaded or empty, toward lines which have fewer cars than they own. Within the past week orders for their return to their owners of coal and fruit cars have been issued.

MANY AMERICANS HELD IN TURKEY

Washington, Nov. 28.—Word that the Turkish government has rescinded its previous agreement to allow several hundred American to leave the Turkish empire via Jaffa reached the state department from Ambassador Hikus, at Constantinople. The ambassador was informed that the Americans can not be permitted to depart because of military necessity and that the officials who made the previous agreement spoke without authority.

Diplomacy seems to have been exhausted in the situation and it is not known what action may be taken in an effort to bring Turkey to terms. The practical interment of the Americans is a source of anxiety to their friends and indignation to the government. It is said to be an unprecedented situation which will require most delicate handling.

The exact number of persons affected cannot be learned, owing to the fact that direct communication with shore is not permitted.

The American cruiser Des Moines, now at Alexandria is due shortly at Jaffa, where, after unloading Red Cross supplies, she had been expected to take on the refugees. It is understood now, however, that officers from the vessel will not even be allowed to land to investigate conditions.

Miss Nydio Rejeweber returned last evening to her home in Power following a week's visit with friends in the city.

The Reasons for the Club

- To provide a way for those of moderate and even small means to bank their money.
- To teach "the saving habit" to those who have never learned it.
- It makes your pennies, nickles and dimes, often foolishly spent grow into dollars; dollars grow into a fortune.
- Start your fortune today.
- To give you a Bank connection and show you how our Bank can be of service to you.

For Old and Young

The sensible thing for all parents to do is to join our Christmas Banking Club and also put every member of their family into it. This will teach them the value of money and how to bank and HAVE MONEY. Maybe this little start you give them now may some day set them up in business or buy them a home.

How often have you wished that your parents had taught you early the value of banking your money. You would be well-off today. Don't make the same mistake with YOUR children.
