waiting removal to a hospital. Oh, you can't begin to hate the Huns properly until you have seen these maimed and torn little bodies, ruthlessly mangled hundreds of miles from the battle front...

Among other things Mr. Colby will tell of the gigantic work now going on under the direction of the food administration in the great drive against hunger—a drive fully as important as that along the battle lines.

Woman's work in the war will occupy a big place in the war conference. More and more as American progresses into actual war participation, the women are being called upon.

They are even helping out on the nation's finances, and Mrs. D. D. Ashbaugh, of Detroit, Michigan Women's Liberty Loan chairman, will tell of what has been done and what more is expected of Michigan women in the realm of finance.

Dr. Caroline Bartlett Crane, of Kalamazoo, chairman of the Michigan division, Women's Committee, Council of National Defense, will bring a message and an appeal—Upper Peninsula women will be asked to do still more and make still more and more sacrifices.

THINK HUNS STRIKE NEXT FOR THE SEA

Belgian Report Indicates Renewal of Big Drive Striking for Dunkirk and Calais—Admit American Gain.

TRY TO HIT HAIG

London, June 8.—Tonight's Belgian official report says the Germans are making great use of gas shells in the region of Nieuport (Nieuport is the town near which the western front rests on the North Sea.)

A German attack in that sector would mean an attempt to drive to Dunkirk and Calais along the Littoral, at the same time threatening Haig's Ypres army with entanglement from the north. Such a movement would logically be accompanied by a renewal of the offensive south of Ypres, with the objective of cutting behind the British Flanders army, from the south as well.

London, June 8.—Tonight's report from Field Marshal Haig is as follows: "In trench raids south of Arras, casualties were inflicted on the enemy."

"Early this morning the French in minor operations east of Dikebusch, (Flanders) took 47 prisoners. Advance Admitted.

Berlin via London, June 8.—Recapture by French, Americans and British regiments of the ground northeast of Chateau Thierry (Where the American Marines are fighting) is admitted by today's war office report.

The text of the statement follows: "Army group of Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria: There is intermittent artillery activity. Tells of Attack.

Army group of German Crown Prince: "Enemy attacks northwest of Chateau Thierry and counter attacks to recover the lost lines on the Ardre (southwest of Rheims) resulted in unimportant gains for the enemy."

"Attacks by French, American and British regiments broke down with heavy losses. "In the remainder of the front the situation is unchanged."

Berlin, via London, June 8.—"There is no change in the situation," says tonight's war office statement.

Table with 2 columns: Casualty Type, Count. Killed in action: 30, Died of wounds: 10, Died of disease: 6, From airplane accident: 4, From other accidents: 4, Severely wounded: 35, Wounded, degree unknown: 17.

Among those killed in action are Private Martin Erickson, Arcadia, Wis., Private Jack Humphrey, Waterloo, Wis., Private Valer Yun Kunpulismen, Detroit.

Among those died of wounds: James Papibeau, Saginaw, Mich. Among those who died of accidents and other causes: Raymond H. Leighton, Ensign, Mich.

Among the severely wounded: Harold Erickson, Ironwood, Mich., Private Orine Ernest Ross, Delavan, Wis.

CONVOYS FOR ALL VESSELS IS THE PLAN

Washington, June 8.—Naval convoys for coastwise shipping are being established by the war department. It was learned tonight.

Indications were given at the department that the convoy system for the coastwise vessels, will be continued until the end of the war or at least until all danger of further subraids on this side of the Atlantic is removed.

Taking in conjunction with the unconfirmed reports from neutral countries that the German high seas fleet is preparing for a major stroke against all commerce generally, the information gives an indication of the steady extension of the program of defense being brought into operation against further raids.

"The vigilance of the navy department," declares Secretary Daniels this afternoon, "will be maintained as long as there is a submarine unaccounted for."

A report today that enemy sea raiders had been reported off the coast of Florida, proved on investigation, to be without foundation.

Company To Get Revenge For Defeats

Blocked at every turn in their endeavor to intimidate the people of Escanaba through the institution of a multiplicity of legal actions, the North Michigan Water company has adopted a new plan for forcing the people of this city to purchase their antiquated plant.

Announcement was made yesterday that beginning on July 1 water rates will be advanced 25 per cent.

The advance of 25 per cent is to become effective in spite of the fact that the water rates here are already exorbitantly high and in spite of the fact that the people of this city have for years been paying higher water rates than any city of equal size in this district.

The advance is to become effective in spite of the published announcement by the water company's own organ in this city that the corporation made $30,000 last year through the operation of the plant.

The water company has been blocked in its effort to frighten the people of Escanaba into buying their property.

It is now proposed to force the sale of the antiquated plant through the unwarranted raising of already exorbitant water rates.

It is possible that the move may force the people of Escanaba to the definite conclusion that they do not now and never will want the water company's property at any price.

The water company is determined to exact its pound of flesh. The people are privileged to adopt the same course.

Call Some Farmers. Indicating that the temporary detourment created to cause one man who are engaged as farmers, is likely to be short lived, is a paragraph in the bulletin instructing the boards that where regular Class One men are exhausted the board will proceed to fill its quota by calling "such farmers as in the board's judgment, can best be spared."

GAS ATTACKS FAIL TO STOP THE YANKEES

Early Morning Advance By American Marines Gains Much Important Ground On Marne Front.

GERMANS FALL BACK

With the American Army at the dawn, June 8. A short burst of bombardment from the French artillery preceded the American attack at 8 o'clock Friday night.

The suddenness and violence of the attack stunned him. The Americans found evidence of the deadliness of their fire on Thursday in the sight of hundreds of newly dug German graves, each surmounted by a steel helmet, with the date of the soldier's death. A score of machine guns were captured in addition to a number of prisoners.

At midnight the enemy began trenching the field with gas, but our marines merely donned their gas masks and poured a deadly machine gun fire into the ranks of the enemy advancing in counter attack.

At the same time the French field guns swept the field of battle. The enemy also was forced to wear gas masks by the advance through their own gas works.

The counter attack was completely smashed. At 8 o'clock in the morning the Germans again attacked. They used no gas this time but put down a smoke screen, containing a new kind of fumes causing vomiting.

At a hour later the marines went into assault again and progressed beyond Torcy. The marines charged through the wounded and dead Germans left on the field in the futile enemy attacks and penetrated nearly half a mile at certain places carrying their machine guns with them and organizing the positions immediately after.

The marines shortly afternoon were in the outskirts of Torcy and occupied the woods between that village and Deleau. Meanwhile the French on their left were progressing toward (deleted by censor).

The Marne battlefield is entirely different from where the marines are frantically fighting, southeast of Verdun, here being no organized defense positions, but merely hastily dug, shallow pits for the machine gunners. There is practically no barbed wire there and no concrete, steel reinforced trenches. The advance line is generally merely connected up with a series of machine gun strong points.

American observers flying with French observers report tremendous activity behind the German lines, with traffic moving toward the rear equaling that moving to the front.

It is believed that the Crown Prince realizes he is stopped at the Marne and his troops are being shifted for the next blow.

Meanwhile more and more German guns are coming into action in the Marne sector, indicating the enemy is preparing to hold his positions won there while making the drive elsewhere.

There is no camouflage on either side in this region so that observation is easy.

Shell Toss Sector. With the American Army in France June 8.—The Germans heavily shelled our Toul sector at 8 o'clock this morning, but this was not followed by infantry action.

The heavy artillery continued throughout the day. There was little aerial action while it continued in the Lunaville sector.

Americans Saved Day. With the American Army at Marne June 8.—The day before the American marine "bucked" the German offensive at the Marne the enemy had gained 10 kilometers (6 1-4 miles). With the first blow the Americans stopped the German onrush and threw them back 4 kilometers (2 1-2 miles). The Germans had almost reached Meaux, 27 miles northwest of Paris.

In 1914 the Germans were headed the same way when they were stopped. Our soldiers of the sea prevented the enemy from taking the direct railway communicating line with Paris.

Showers Likely For City Today

Showers are predicted for Escanaba today by Observer H. H. Spindler. Of general weather conditions Observer Spindler issued the following statement:

The crest of the northwestern anticyclone has advanced to the lower Lake region and Ohio valley causing cooler weather in the eastern states with frost occurring in the east portion of northern Michigan. Pressure is moderately low over the northwestern Canadian border and temperatures have risen considerably throughout the northwestern portion of the country. Within the last 24 hours showers continued in scattered portions of the Plains states, Minnesota, Tennessee and along the Atlantic coast.

The low pressure conditions to the northwestward will probably cause showers in this locality on Sunday. It will be warmer tonight.

Americans Receive Brutal Treatment in Enemy Camps

With the American Army in France—a Russian prisoner who recently returned from Germany has made a statement at Moscow which is now available here to the effect that he saw American prisoners of war in a camp at Tuschel, West Prussia, and that they asked him to let it be known that they were being treated brutally. The prisoners said they were hungry and penniless.

All Clothes Removed. When the Americans arrived at the camp according to this account the Germans removed all their clothes. They were particularly anxious to have the Americans' shoes. They told the prisoners they should not wear expensive clothing and shoes while working and that their property would be taken care of until their return to America. The Russian said, however, that every one knows what that means. A consul, the Russian was not sure whether he was a Swiss or a Spaniard, visited the camp. Complaint was made to him by the Americans and their clothes were returned, but as the consul seldom visited the camp, the Germans had opportunity to practice many injustices.

Insulted by Germans. The Russian said that eight Americans who were captured several months ago, reached the camp at midday and being very hungry, asked for bread. They were told bread was distributed only in the morning. They were placed in a hut with Russians after being forced to stand in a square where Germans were given an opportunity to insult them. The huts in which the Americans are living, the Russian said, are damp, cold and unfit for habitation. Some of the Americans became ill. Two of them were in a hospital, had an opportunity there to talk with the Russian and it was through them that he had obtained information on which his statement is based.

ESCANABA, MICH., JUNE, 1st, 1918

To Water Consumers:-

As a result of constantly increasing cost of fuel, labor, taxes and other items of operating expenses, this company finds itself forced to put in effect

Since July, 1917, the cost of coal has risen from $3.50 per ton to $7.15 per ton and the quality has diminished so that it is necessary to use about 40% higher tonnage. For the year ending May 31st, 1918, our fuel bill was nearly $5,000.00 over the corresponding period in 1917.

The recent increase of freight rates on all railroads will also add a large amount to the cost of coal so that our fuel bill for the next year will probably be at least $7,000.00 ABOVE NORMAL.

This Company has also increased the wages of all of its employees during the last year in order that they might meet the increased cost of living which has affected everyone.

The company is the second or third largest taxpayer in the city and since 1915 its taxes have greatly increased. IN 1915 ITS TAXES AMOUNTED TO $5,800.00, IN 1917 THEY RAISED TO $7,400.00 and this year they will doubtless be still higher. The company will probably pay for taxes this year as much or more than the city pays the company for furnishing fire protection to several million dollars worth of property as well as water for sprinkling the streets, maintaining the parks and supplying the schools and public buildings.

The result of all this is that the total operating expense for the year 1918 will be greatly in excess of similar expenses in 1917, while the company's income will be no larger.

The only way to meet this additional expense is by raising the rates charged for the services rendered by the company and since the Courts have decided that the Company no longer has any franchise relationship with the City, there is no other method for the Company to pursue.

THIS INCREASE OF RATES WILL APPLY TO HYDRANT RENTALS AND ALL PRIVATE CONSUMERS AND WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE JULY 1ST, 1918, AND BILLS WILL BE RENDERED ACCORDINGLY.

Gladstone Man Must Find Work

Walter Holm of Gladstone was warned yesterday that he must either go to work or to jail following the dismissal of the hearing at which he was charged with bringing liquor into the state of Michigan. He promised he would find employment at once.

Holm was arrested a short time ago in company with Walter Tupper, who is now awaiting the action of the grand jury on his case. He explained that he had not brought the bottle into the state for the reason that it was broken in his pocket and he threw the pieces out of the train window. The liquor saturated his clothing and although most of it went home with him, it was not in drinkable form, Judge Huber held.

Holm, who is but 17 years of age, promised faithfully that he would go job hunting and was released. County Prosecutor Strom conducted the examination.

SPAULDING PLANS FOR BIG CROWD

Thousands of people from all parts of the state will witness in Powers-Spaulding, one of the most patriotic and inspiring Flag Day demonstrations ever held in the upper peninsula on June 14th.

Every street in the twin villages will be decorated for this occasion and every business place and home will display the stars and stripes.

Among the visitors here on that day will be Governor A. E. Sleeper and some of the most prominent men in the state, and never before in the history of this state have such elaborate plans been made for an event of this kind which is given under the auspices of the Powers-Spaulding Commercial club. The committee in charge of arrangements have arranged a program which will be interesting to men, women and children.

The first contingent to reach here Friday morning will be the Menominee military company and the Daggert Patriotic band. They will have a special coach on the early train. The governor and his party including his military staff and state officers will come from Escanaba at 7:50. Attached to the governor's train will be the special coaches for the Escanaba and Rapid River military companies and the Escanaba drum corps. The Iron River company of the state troops will arrive in autos at 9 o'clock and will report direct to Major Schwellenbach at Spaulding.

The governor and his party will be at the Hotel Pontanna all forenoon where he will receive those who call to meet him. He is particularly anxious to meet the farmers of Menominee county.

At 9:30 a. m. the band and the battalion of state troops will march to the baseball grounds at Spaulding where the forenoon will be devoted to battalion drills, guard mount and inspection. The drill will be in charge of Major Henry Schwellenbach and the inspection will be held by Colonel John P. Peterman of Calumet. At 12 o'clock the soldiers will be dismissed for dinner and at 1 o'clock will again assemble at Spaulding and, headed by the band will march to Powers to report to the governor.

The mothers of soldiers, who will ride in the parade, are to be at the school house at 1 o'clock, where autos will be waiting. These cars will join the troops on their way to Powers where they will be assigned a place in the parade.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the parade will leave the Hotel Pontanna and will march directly to the school house grounds where the exercises will be held. The parade will be led by Marshal of the day Captain E. L. Marsh, commanding the state constabulary, assisted by twelve mounted men of his command, followed by the Daggert Patriotic band, the battalion of state troops, the governor and the speakers, in autos the governor's staff and state officials in autos the reception committee and the mothers of soldiers, in autos.

Escanaban Sees Big Boat Slide

William Hatton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hatton, of this city, employed at the Mare Island navy yard at San Francisco was present at the launching of the world's largest destroyer, which was launched at the yards there 17 days after the keel was laid.

A letter to his parents here says: Last night at 8:30 we launched the world's record Liberty destroyer. She was on the way just seventeen days from the time her keel was laid until she was ready to slide into the water and she was about seventy per cent complete.

They had a movie man to take pictures of her so if you should see any thing in the movies about her you will know that I helped build her and was aboard when she went overboard.

We expect to launch the boat that I am working on now on the Fourth of July. That is the way we are doing our bit and then loaning the government the money to buy the material. I will close now, with love to all
