

FIRST AMERICANS LANDED IN ITALY

URGE ALL TO JOIN IN THE OBSERVANCE

Fourth of July Committee Desires to Make Day Record Breaking Patriotic Celebration Here.

PARADE WILL FEATURE

The invitation to join in the Fourth of July observance here is a blanket one. It excludes no one. All are urged to help Escanaba and Delta county once more evidence their patriotism by lining up to be counted on this big day.

The day will be unique in many ways. It will be an old time celebration with the noise left out and the patriotism injected in double doses.

It is planned to make the parade a feature. With the Escanaba Military band, St. Joseph's Drum corps, Company F, the Eagle Drill team, the War Garden brigade and dozens of other societies and civic organizations in line, followed by a long line of automobiles bearing the Red Cross workers and the Juniors, it should be one of the greatest patriotic processions ever arranged in this section. It was announced last night that the students of all of the grade schools, St. Anne's, St. Joseph's and the high school will have well filled units in line.

Arrangements for a speaker have not been completed but the committee will have an interesting announcement along that line Monday.

Drills by Company F, and the boys from the Great Lakes who are coming home for the affair by special permission of the government training school authorities will be added attractions.

Lansing Rebukes Mexican Gover't

Washington, June 29.—The government of Mexico was sharply criticized by the state department today for permitting the circulation of propaganda, alleging inconsistencies in President Wilson's address to the Mexican editors. The purpose of the communication was to counteract the efforts of German agents who have realized the scope of Carranza's authority. It is the aim of the United States at the present time, to watch closely all events south of the Rio Grande and strictly sustain the rights of all Americans in that country.

Four Men Will Leave On Tuesday

Four Delta county men will leave on Tuesday night for Vancouver, Wash., where they will enter the spruce production service. Those who will leave for the western cantonment are Aldige Geroux and William Clairmont, of Escanaba; Romeo Blanchette, Wells, and Eugene Pracy, Friday Spur. The men will leave over the Soo Line on Tuesday night and will arrive at Vancouver on Friday morning.

Escanaba Girl To Be Red Cross Nurse

Miss Doris Fillion of this city, who completed a course of three years' training to become a trained nurse, being graduated last winter from a Chicago hospital, has been accepted for enlistment as a Red Cross nurse. She is to report at Camp Devens on August 1, for a two months course of training in army work before going to France.

Rock Red Cross Dance Is Success

A Red Cross dancing party arranged through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kirby of Rock on Friday evening, netted $51.15. The entire net proceeds of the affair were yesterday turned over to the officers of the Delta county chapter.

The party was largely attended by residents in the vicinity of Rock and the amount realized through the undertaking for the Red Cross far exceeded the expectations of the promoters of the affair.

Hotel Men Are Given List Of 'Beef Meals'

Food Administration Fixes Times for Serving Beef.

A schedule of meals when beef may be served was issued by the state food authorities yesterday, through County Administrator B. P. Pattison. Since the "four-a-week" beef ruling went into effect, the hotel, restaurant and boarding house keepers have been permitted to use their own pleasure as to days for serving beef so long as it was not served more often than the ruling permitted.

The new order also places hamburger in the beef class, both for lunch counters and eating houses. There was, it was said, some misunderstanding about this in one or two parts of the county.

The penalty for failure to observe the ruling is the same as for any other violation of the food regulations—cancellation of the violator's rights to serve the product in question.

Following is the schedule of meals at which beef may be served. Monday, noonday meal, roast beef. Wednesday and Saturday noonday meals, boiled beef or beef hash.

Thursday, noonday meal, steaks, including hamburger.

BAND CONCERT TODAY.

The Escanaba Military band will give one of its popular Sunday concerts in Ludington park this afternoon. These concerts have proven a big drawing card this summer, for people from all parts of this section of the Upper Peninsula and another big gathering is expected to be on hand this afternoon.

Resume Efforts For Tri-County T. B. Sanitarium

Delta Board to Resume Negotiations for Tri-County Institution.

Members of the legislative committee of the Delta county board of supervisors, it was announced yesterday, are to resume their efforts to secure the establishment of a tri-county tuberculosis sanitarium. Negotiations are to be reopened at once with the officials of Menominee and Dickinson counties in an effort to induce those counties to join Delta in the erection of a sanitarium where tuberculous patients from the three counties may be cared for.

The examination of registered men in this and other counties is resulting in many cases of tuberculosis being discovered and the need for a sanitarium for their treatment is becoming greater with each month.

That similar need has been recognized in Wisconsin is reflected in the following Madison dispatch.

Sanatorium treatment for the state's young men rejected from cantonments for tuberculosis was strongly recommended by the health officers of the United States and Canada, who met at Washington early this month. Wisconsin is already in the midst of a concerted movement for more sanatorium facilities, efforts being directed towards establishment of more county institutions for the treatment of the tubercular.

A tri-county sanitarium is about to be erected on the shore of Lake Superior by Ashland, Bayfield and Iron counties. Jefferson county this month appropriated $50,000 for a sanitarium of its own. Dane county supervisors took a similar proposal under advisement.

The importance of the problem is seen from the report that 434 Wisconsin soldiers have been sent home from cantonments because afflicted with tuberculosis.

With all the state sanatoria crowded to capacity and with a long waiting list, the solution is seen in the establishment of more county sanatoria. A number of counties have had sanatoria for some years. These are in most cases large and well equipped, and are filling a long felt need of a suitable place where a tubercular person may receive proper care which is necessary for his recovery. What is held equally important, however, is the removal of the patient from the home in order to prevent the infection of other members of the family.

Until every county has facilities of this kind either through a sanatoria of its own or in joint association with neighboring counties this disease will continue to take its toll of victims, and to menace the lives of others, medical authorities declare. The Washington conference recommended the sanitarium as the best place for the patient with tuberculosis.

ESCANABAN WRITES OF HIS FIGHT

Harry St. Louis Tells Mother of Battle When Wounds Were Received That Put Him in Hospital.

NOW CONVALESCING

How he was wounded in the history making battle at the Marne on June 7 and something of the great work the Red Cross is doing for American soldiers abroad is graphically told by Harry St. Louis, Escanaba, in a letter received yesterday morning by his mother. It follows.

France June 11, 1918.

Dear Mother: Am now in the fourth hospital since being wounded. My stay in Paris was short but I got a glimpse of the place and it most certainly is a beautiful city.

We are now 150 miles from Paris in a big hospital and I never hope to see a finer one. Everyone is so kind and good to us that it does not seem that we are only common soldiers.

White bread, custard, real coffee and even a nice big Victoria help to make us feel happy. I am not seriously wounded and am getting along fine. In fact, I expect and hope to be back on the line within two or three weeks.

A piece of shrapnel went through the neck I was carrying and then through me as far as my shoulder blade. While lying behind some brush a machine gun bullet zipped through my shoulder and came out, leaving a clean hole. I was forced to lie there facing the sun for about four hours with bullets flying all around and expecting every minute to get another. My gunner on the machine gun fell in the open about ten yards from me. Every few minutes a machine gun would sweep the gully and he was riddled with bullets.

Our company of 255 men went into the charge at 5 o'clock in the evening and the number killed and wounded the next morning was 201, so you can see my getting hit wasn't an accident.

We won and more than covered our losses in dead and wounded Germans. We were the first American soldiers to go over the top in a bayonet charge and it was against German picked troops, Bavarians, Saxons and Prussian guards. Three divisions to our one.

Every allied paper over here is giving us good write-ups. I saw much but did not see it all as I went down at the foot of the hill when the Germans were located. I tried to go farther mother but my arm was paralyzed so that I could not even carry my rifle. We went through the tortures of hell waiting for the sun to go down so that we could get back to the first aid station. We went back under fire and another fellow who could walk and I dragged in a comrade with a broken leg.

One pitiable incident, a friend of mine, much like Joe in age looks and disposition, got across the field swept by enemy fire without a scratch. A shell landed behind him and gave him shell-shock which is a form of temporary insanity due to nerves giving way.

When in the cover of the wood he threw away his rifle, helmet gasmask and belt and started back across the field. A machine gun mowed him down before he had gone ten yards. He laid there yelling "mother" for three hours before he finally died. Another fellow got shellshock from the shell that got me. Every time a shell would explode he would, with no apparent effort, jump two feet off the ground, while lying on his back. It was terrible but wonderful.

Those who were not wounded never stopped a second but our third wave swept over the German lines and put them on the run. I was in the first waves going over. A French general a hero of the Somme, Verdun and Marne said that in itself of no much military importance was the beginning of the end. The Germans were led to believe we were yellow and some of the French had their doubts because the first of us went over after thirteen months in the war. We who were wounded went to Paris in trucks and in every village got a rousing welcome from the people.

Facing death out there in No Man's Land with men can never be adequately described. One must live through it. The biggest coward could not fall when he saw the many acts of heroism and self-sacrifice going on about him. Wounded officers who gave

The Casualties

Washington, June 29.—Forty-two casualties in the American expeditionary forces were announced today by the war department, divided as follows:

- Killed in action 5
Died of Wounds 12
Other Causes 2
Severely wounded 14
Missing 7

Forty-four marine casualties were announced today as follows:

- Killed in action 24
Died of wounds 11
Severely wounded 8
Missing in action 1

Among those who died from wounds in the army list were Private Henry Heesen, Brookfield, Wis.; Adam Mistacki, Pulaski, Wis.; Otis Traynor, Flint, Mich.; Michael Wilman, Ashland, Wis.

In the marine corps list: Killed in action was Private Ralph L. Roeshig, Detroit, Mich. Severely wounded, Hiram B. Schuler Milwaukee.

BILL GIVES WILSON MORE AUTHORITY

Appropriation Measure Passes Senate Yesterday Without Dissenting Vote—Many Amendments.

Washington, June 29.—Carrying appropriations of more than twelve billions of dollars for the prosecution of the war and conferring on the president many new powers, including authority to raise an army of any size that may be necessary to successfully prosecute the war, the senate today passed the army appropriation bill. There was no dissenting vote. During the last day of its consideration dozens of amendments were proposed. Some of them were of importance, some of minor character. Most of the were accepted without objections. Others were defeated by vote and still others were thrown out by points or order.

An important addition to the bill was a measure authorizing President Wilson to raise a Russian legion in the United States to be composed of friendly aliens of that nationality. As this was introduced it was intended to offer service to the members of the organization only in Russia but the clause limiting the field of service was ordered stricken out. An amendment authorizing the recruiting of a Slavic legion had been passed earlier in the week.

Another amendment to the bill provides for the recruiting of soldiers from the citizens of other countries particularly the South American republics, for overseas service. This is considered the paving of the way for the active participation of these countries in the war.

Their lives to help the suffering private, every man did his little to help the next. When we got to the town where our battalion dressing station was located the Germans were shelling that with high explosives and gas shells. Men lying there already gasping in death were forced to don gas masks.

Sufficient praise can never be given to almost every individual in the Red Cross. The sacrifice they made for us and their tireless efforts to make us comfortable, will never be forgotten by the men. The nurses who were working day and night gave up their beds and rooms to the wounded.

Mother, we are going to win. A million of us can chase the Crown Prince away across the Rhine and we are going to do it. A German is too yellow to look a bayonet in the face. Open warfare is our game and not the Huns, and Mother, your boy will be back on the job with no time wasted. Mther, I am a better soldier and a better man for having gone through it. Am enjoying life here for the place is indeed wonderful.

With much love to yourself, father and the rest of the family, and my friends I am,

Your son, HARRY.

DRIVE WILL BE KEPT UP TILL JULY 8

No Let Up Before That Time on Districts That Have Failed to Subscribe Their Full Quota.

REPORTS ARE BRIGHTER

By direction of the state committee the drive for the sale of War Savings Stamps will continue throughout the state until July 8. This will enable solicitors and committeemen to complete their work and in many cases to raise the quotas that were assigned. Compared with the results obtained in other upper peninsula counties, none of which have as yet reported their quotas raised, Delta county ranks among the first on figures already available and with the continuation of the work during the closing week, it is expected that the total subscribed will be considerably increased.

Incomplete returns indicate that neither in this city or in Gladstone has the quota been reached although it is believed that the sales by the end of the year will amount to the full amount expected. A meeting of the ward lieutenants and sergeants will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the city hall to discuss plans for renewing the drive during the coming week.

Word was received today from Kolman Casper, chairman of the drive in Garden township that the total subscriptions pledged from that township had reached $17,000, being nearly $4,000 over the quota. Of that amount $16,655 was pledged from the Garden district and $465 from the McCaferty camps district. The result came as the result of an active canvass to which the people responded with a fine spirit.

Incomplete returns from Nahma indicate that that township has also done splendidly, over $16,000 being already reported on a quota of $21,000.

Maple Ridge and Baldwin township, have both reported pledges amounting at present to $8,000 in each township, with some returns yet to be heard from.

Fairbanks township has already $2,900 pledged. A special effort will be made to secure members to the $1,000 limit club. There are at present 40 or 50 who have signed for that amount and it is believed that the number can be increased to 100.

Missing Man Is Found To Be A Navy Deserter

Whitney Man Who Disappeared In April Located In Woods.

Joe Martin, whose disappearance in April caused such a fever in this section of the Upper Peninsula, when he vanished while on a furlough from the Great Lakes Naval training station, was located last week by the authorities in the woods near Forest City.

Martin had a large sum of money when he left Whitney. Repeated attempts were made to find him, but all were unsuccessful. Many believed him to be dead.

He was taken back to the Great Lakes authorities, according to reports received from Menominee last night.

Walls Of Iowa Store Collapse

Sioux City, Ia., June 29.—After five hours of supreme effort following the collapse of the walls of the Oscar Huff wholesale and retail drug store today, six bodies have been recovered. As many more bodies are known to be buried under the tons of rubbish and a score or more are missing since the accident. Twenty of the victims are in the hospitals where it is thought several of them will die from their injuries.

The store was an old brick structure, and was filled with customers at the time of the crash. The floors were being lowered to street level and the missing support was the cause of the collapse.

Food Dealers Meet Here To Talk Profits

Regulations of Food Administration Also to be Discussed.

This afternoon at 2:30 in the city hall, 150 dealers of food products from all parts of Delta county will meet to discuss the sales restrictions and organize a committee to fix all future food prices in this locality.

The gathering has been called by County Administrator B. P. Pattison at the request of the state authorities and is expected to result in the straightening out of a number of minor kinks in the interpretation of some of the regulations governing the sale of food stuffs. Responses from numerous localities yesterday indicated that a great majority of those interested would be in attendance.

The sugar certificate matter has been one of the troublesome items to straighten out as have some of the other rules limiting the use of this product. These things will be explained at this meeting.

Also a board will be appointed to establish "fair price" lists for the county, these lists to be revised and published each week. The dealers will elect representatives beside the administrator but the meat and grocery wholesalers and retailers will be represented and the consumers will be given a voice.

This plan has been highly successful in most sections where it has been tried, so much so, in fact that each county in Michigan will be organized in the same way. The city of Minneapolis, especially, has found the maximum price fixing order an excellent one.

Kept Receipts For Cash Sent Over 17 Years

David Moan Promises to Send Money To His Family.

Forced to leave all of his money except carfare to Minneapolis, in the hands of his aged wife, who is slowly dying with cancer and an invalid daughter, David Moan, aged 60, departed yesterday for the Minnesota city after convincing Judge C. D. McEwen that he would do all in his power to care for his family in the future. Moan was arrested late Friday night on a warrant issued by the police which stated that they were in possession of a large sum of money which he had hidden in his pockets. Not being able to furnish bail for an appearance at the hearing he spent the night in jail and was arraigned yesterday morning.

From a traveling bag he brought with him to the hearing, Moan produced receipts, express and postoffice money order totaling $2,000 which he had sent to the family over a period of 17 years, from California, Texas and other points west. He had not lived with the family during that time, he said, and had kept a complete record of all remittances to protect himself in case of dispute.

At the hearing he agreed to turn over $105 in notes and other paper and $20 in cash and promised to contribute regularly to the family's support in the future. He was allowed to go to Minneapolis yesterday, where he said that he expected to find work as quickly as possible.

Although the condition of the family is pitiable, the authorities were convinced that Moan's intentions were good and that he will fulfill his promises.

WILL OPEN REPAIR SHOP

Lawrence Peplin, well known Escanaba young man, will open a repair shop for automobiles at 820 Ludington street in the near future. The building is being remodeled and until it is ready, Mr. Peplin will carry on his work at his father's place, 300 Charlotte. Mr. Peplin has had eight years' experience in the repair business and is well fitted for the work.

FIRST YANK ARRIVE ON ITALY SHORE

Vanguard of Army to be Sent to Aid of Latin Kingdom Consists of Special Service Men.

FIGHTERS TO FOLLOW

Washington, June 29.—Arrival of the vanguard of the American forces to be sent to Italy announced today by Chief of Staff General March, was the outstanding military event of the last twenty-four hours from an American standpoint. This vanguard consists mainly of sanitary units and special organizations. Fighting troops are reported on the way to Italy.

Both in the Italian theatre and on the western front, the days activities were confined to local attacks, raiding operations and gun duels. Thursday night the Germans made two desperate attempts to retake from the French the positions west of Solsona but heavy loss to the attackers was the only result of their action.

To the southwest or Rheims, the Germans attempted to take out their spite on the Italians for the defeat of their Austrian brothers on the Piave but their move again failed. After a short hammering the Crown Prince's troops launched a Krupp fire against the Roman line and their attempt carried them a short distance within the Italian positions but the Latins rallied and regained all that had been lost.

The German war office admitted today that the British in Flanders yesterday succeeded in penetrating the Bavarian Crown Prince's line and they likewise admit the loss of 400 prisoners. The Vienna war office says that heavy artillery duels are in progress all along the whole Italian front. The Berlin war office claims that 19 Allied planes were shot down by the Germans on the west front yesterday. The statement says that the French were repulsed in an attack on Ambly and the British failed in an action against Berquin.

Kuehlmann Remains. Amsterdam, June 29.—German newspapers received here quote "Germania" the official capitalist organ of Berlin and mouthpiece of von Hertling, as saying that it is now certain that Dr. von Kuehlmann will retain his post as foreign minister. The junkers, the report says, did not succeed in their efforts to force his retirement. Instead, a new pact has been formed between the Kaiser and Kuehlmann, the latter being retained to work for peace.

The Koelien Zeitung reports that the general strike in Budapest has been ended unconditionally, says Amsterdam tonight. Newspapers are now appearing once more and the paper learns that a new suffrage reform bill for Hungary, more liberal than will be introduced into the Hungarian that to be found in Germany itself, parliament next week.

British King Lauds Women

London, June 29.—Predicting the ultimate victory of the allies and lauding woman's part in the war as one of the greatest factors in the history of the conflict, King George welcomed 3,000 members of the English Women's National auxiliary to the celebration of his silver wedding.

"The great sacrifices the women have made upon the battlefields among the wounded and dying, in the munition plants and other vital interests, with God's help, has not been made in vain," said the king.

The king was dressed in a military uniform. The queen wore a pale blue gown and Princess Mary was becomingly dressed in a navy blue uniform and a military hat.

New Russia is reported to have a new emperor. Can't seem to keep away from that emperor habit—but at that most any kind of government would be better than dished out by the Bolsheviks.

Escanaba is planning a sane, sensible Fourth of July demonstration. It is to be a celebration in no sense of that word. Rather it is to be a stirring patriotic demonstration, reflecting the deepest possible meaning that can be attached to that word.

All reports indicate that had the War Savings Stamp Campaign closed on Friday night as planned, this and other counties of Michigan would have been forced to report subscriptions far below their quotas.

At the end of the third week of June, the United States shipyards had launched 924,000 tons of shipping since January 1. This week, it is promised, the figure will have become a million.

Mrs. Burns' Letter

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood, and people should know what to do in like circumstances:

I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it."

Funds To Be Used Drill Team Plans For War Purposes For A Big Event

To dispel an impression that has gained some credence the Delta County War Relief association yesterday issued a public announcement that the funds recently donated to the Salvation Army is to be devoted exclusively in France and no part of the fund is to be used for the support of the organization locally.

Following is a letter received by the Press last night:

The local Salvation Army captain advises us that there is an evident misunderstanding on the part of the public, and requests that we correct it through the papers. The money which we recently donated to the Salvation Army was for war purposes in France, and had nothing to do with the local branch.

Our association endeavors to regulate gifts in our county for purely war purposes, and consequently no one should decline to support the church in her enterprises according to their ability, giving as a reason that they are supporting our association.

We feel that the work of the Salvation Army in our community has a very large place and they should receive the cordial support of their friends. We might add that the Captain of the Salvation Army in this city is a member of the War Relief association paying into it regularly. Delta Co. War Relief Ass'n. T. M. Judson, President.

THEATRES

AT THE DELFT.
 "The Claim" the Metro all star Series picture, starring Edith Storey which is the screen attraction at the Delft theatre today, gives the talented star much opportunity to show her wonderful versatility as an actress. Monday and Tuesday the Delft will offer Geraldine Farrar, noted singer and grand opera star, who has forsaken the stage for the silent drama. The story deals with the love affair of Tezca, daughter of Montezuma, and Alvarado, a soldier in the invading army of Cortez, during the Spanish conquest of Mexico.

AT THE STRAND.
 The man who does not know and love O. Henry and his stories has missed much that is worth while in the realms of literature and when he wrote "An American Live Wire" this gifted author little knew that he was furnishing Earle Williams, Vitagraph star, with one of the best vehicles he has had in many months. It is a splendid offering and Mr. Williams in the part of Geddie, is at his best.

The Joy of Living.
 To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

JOE I. PERROW.

Wise Men Are Buying Next Year's Clothing NOW!

If you don't look ahead and buy clothes now with the next year in mind, you are sure to pay heavily for your lack of foresight.

Wool is rapidly becoming the scarcest of commodities. While the total amount of wool consumed by the millions of soldiers is only a little greater than they would consume in civil life, these millions of men are wearing out wool clothes ten times as fast as they did before they became soldiers. And the wool supply has not increased.

The fact that the country has so far been consuming fabrics largely produced two and even three years ago is not generally known. High prices have slackened demand somewhat and made this reserve last until now. But it soon will be gone.

Of course the burden of high prices and lowered quality will fall upon the improvident who neglect, and upon those of limited income who are unable to buy ahead, even though they realize the wisdom of it.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

T. J. RILEY.

Petitions were placed in the mail yesterday to be circulated throughout Delta county on behalf of T. J. Riley, candidate for Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket at the August primary election.

Attorney T. J. Riley has been a leading member of the Delta County Bar for a number of years. He served Delta county as assistant prosecuting attorney during the years 1912 and 1916, handling successfully many of the important criminal cases. He also served the City of Escanaba as city attorney during 1914 and was elected mayor of Escanaba in 1911 without opposition. He is at present on the board of supervisors, representing the Fourth ward.

For the past two years he has been engaged as a special counsel for the city in its litigation with the Water Company, and is at the present time engaged in representing the city's interests.

He will, if elected, make an efficient officer for Delta county and will not doubt approve with vigor, the prosecution of all violators.

He has a wide acquaintance throughout Delta county, having been a member of the Delta county bar since 1908.

OUR BIRTHRIGHT

On July 4th, 1776, a very human document, the Declaration of Independence, was signed and sealed.

It declared for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. For 143 years it has endured as a priceless heritage from our forefathers.

Today the benefits which it bestows upon us and our children are in jeopardy.

Today we are united as one man to defend our birthright if need be with the last drop of American blood and the last American dollar.

One Hundred Million Strong

The million men or two million men or three million men we send to the front can not win the war.

Only the united efforts of one hundred million Americans can save America--can protect our homes and our liberties--your beds and your liberty.

Don't sit back and criticize. If you can't fight help some other way.

Apathy and disinterestedness are aids to the enemy.
