PLANS FOR INDUSTRIAL EXEMPTION

General Crowder Tells How Boards Will Decide Man's Claim That He Is In Essential Employment.

MUST SHOW NECESSITY

Washington, Sept. 9.—Complete rules for determining whether any registrant is engaged in an industry, occupation or trade essential to the government, were announced by General Crowder today.

These will also determine absolutely the right of all workers who register on September 13 to deferred classes. The new regulations were made necessary by an amendment to the new selective draft act, which changed the wording from "persons engaged in any industry including agriculture" to "persons engaged in any industry, occupation or employment including agriculture." The change was made after the questionnaires were printed and partly circulated.

GERMAN FOOD POOR

How American infantry advanced so rapidly that they were beyond the reach of their supply train; how he and a companion were thrown 40 feet by the explosion of a big shell and how he had met other Escanabans in a base hospital at Vichy, Alliers, is most thrillingly told by Rosa Witze in a letter to relatives here.

Witze was engaged in blocking the German offensive in July, which was changed to a great allied drive later in the month. So rapidly did the Yanks cover the ground in their pursuit of the fleeing Huns, he says, that they found themselves without food because the supply trucks were unable to keep up.

The word "necessary" as applied to any industry, occupation or employment including agriculture, shall be taken to imply that the interruption of its work or the loss of its products would be a detriment and a loss to the effective working and maintenance of the national interests and the military forces.

Line Closely Drawn.

A particular industry, occupation or employment shall be found "necessary" the ruling states only when it is shown that it contributes substantially to the maintenance of the military establishment, or the essential operating military forces or the national interests during the emergency in the case of agriculture, it must be shown that the farm on which the registrant is employed is producing considerably more food than that necessary for those residing on the place.

As applied to the individual registrant, the word "necessary" has been taken to mean that:

- 1.—The registrant is actively engaged in the same capacity recited in the rules that govern deferred classes and is competent in that capacity.
2.—That the removal of the registrant from that position would mean an immediate substantial material loss and detriment to the effective working of the industry, occupation or employment.

That the available supply of persons trained in that capacity is such that the registrant cannot be replaced without loss to the industry.

Other Problems. In determining essentiality, General Crowder advises that these points be kept in mind:

- 1.—The nature of the claimants' status, training and experience and qualifications for the job.
2.—The actual conditions resulting from the removal of the claimant.

Will Consolidate Mail and Telegraph

New York, Sept. 9.—The early consolidation of mail and telegraph service was foreseen today when it became known that Postmaster General Barleson is conducting a general survey between local postmasters and representatives of the wire companies.

BOSTON WINS FOURTH GAME OF THE SERIES

Douglas Teases One Into Stand Which Permits Schang to Scamper Across With Winning Run.

PLAYERS' SHARE TINY

Boston, Mass., Sept. 9.—Phil Douglas on his last go-round, just naturally pegged the Red Sox the old ball game by a score of 3 to 2. It was in the eighth spasm and spasm is the only name, common or proper, that it may be called.

With the tie counted, Phil collected a roller from Hooper and slammed the pill so far past first base that Schang was able to register the winning tally from second, whither he had gone on a single and a passed ball, before a hand was out.

This combat makes the series three games to one, for the Bostonians.

The attendance today was 22,163. The receipts were $28,292. The players get $15,277.63 of this; the clubs $3,692.86 each and the national commission, $2,329.90.

This will make the amount for each player on the winning club approximately $900 for the series, while the losing players will get but about $550 the smallest amounts in the history of the world's championship contests.

The box score of the fourth game follows:

Table with columns for Boston and Chicago players and their statistics (AB, R, H, PO, A, E).

Washington, Sept. 9.—Secretary of War Baker and Assistant Secretary of War John D. Ryan, director of the Air Service have arrived in France. The purpose of their visit is said to be the study of aircraft problems to enable America to take her proper place in the warfare of the air. The trip across was made on one of the regular army transports.

Michigan Congressman Makes Strong Speech

Washington, Sept. 9.—That the government has planned to pay the taxes of the capitalist of the Hog Island shipyard, including the profits and income taxes, was the charge of Representative Fordney of Michigan today in a speech on the revenue bill. The speaker stated that the corporation is to be exempt from taxes during the term of the contract.

Italian Government Files Prohi Protest

Washington, Sept. 9.—The Italian government has filed with the state department a protest to one section of the new prohibition bill. As the bill now stands, imports of wine are to be cut off at passage, while domestic manufacturers may continue to manufacture wines until May 1. The Italian ambassador asked that Italian winemakers be permitted to market their product in this country until May 1, for unless they are so permitted, he said, the law will be ruinous to them. No time is given them to dispose of their stocks, and to readjust their business conditions.

Thirty-Five Die on the Torpedoed Mt. Vernon

Washington, Sept. 9.—Thirty-five members of the crew of the Mount Vernon, returning troop transport torpedoed last Thursday, lost their lives in the explosion. The ship returned to port under her own steam. Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois who had visited Great Britain and the western front, was among the survivors. He will return to America too late to vote in the Democratic primaries where he will be a candidate for renomination next Wednesday.

BIG FAIR TO OPEN TODAY; FINE LINE UP

Racing Programs and Live Stock Exhibits Will Feature at the Northern State Exposition.

GOVERNMENT ASSISTS

Today marks the opening of the greatest, most complete and most interesting fair the upper peninsula has ever seen.

The weather man promises fair weather—although cooler—and there is no doubt that the exposition will be witnessed by thousands.

Everything Ready. After months of the most strenuous sort of work in all departments, the officials announced last night that all is complete.

The racing program will include the best and fastest string of horses ever competing here.

The live stock department contains exhibits from the best herds in upper Michigan. There is a display of farm animals that is worth miles of travel.

The state and federal governments have co-operated in every possible way and both have furnished special exhibits in several lines. The food conservation and canning work by local girls as well as an outside expert will be of especial interest to housewives as will the other displays from the state capital.

Many Attractions. The entertainment side has not been neglected. Various well known riding devices will amuse the children—small and grown-up—while there are plenty of other attractions to kill any otherwise "blank" moments.

Indications were yesterday that the vegetable exhibit will be an eye-opener. It is a record-breaker not only in size but in quality and every locality in this section of the states is represented. Proof of the ability of Escanaba's home gardeners is plainly evidenced in their department.

Band to Parade. J. A. Allo, entertainment superintendent, has arranged for a most novel feature Thursday. The Escanaba Military band, which will be on the job constantly, will visit all the registration booths in the city Thursday morning, using the National Grocer company truck as a band wagon.

Number of prisoners were taken.

FRENCH JOIN MOVE AGAINST NERVE CENTER

Foch Completely Outguesses Ludendorff and Brings Humbert's Forces from Oise to the Battle.

NOW ON THREE SIDES

London, Sept. 9.—The battle of St. Quentin, now in full swing, seems destined to be short. The brilliant stroke of generalship by General Foch, which completely outwitted Ludendorff has set the Germans at the mercy of the allied forces. As a result, the great central bulwark of the Hindenburg defense line will—in all probability—fall within the next 24 hours.

Shortly before midnight tonight, the French war office statement shows General Humbert's French army landing in a semi-circle around St. Quentin as follows:

Left (at TAON) 20,000 men; Less than five miles southwest of Estrelliers; exactly five miles south west at Raoupy; four miles south at Esmeley le Grande.

All three places are in French hands.

BRITISH ARE CLOSING IN FROM NORTH

Less than two mile north of F. Foch, the British face St. Quentin, five miles west. It was west of St. Quentin and north of Cattail that Ludendorff was planning his chief defense.

French let him think so. But Sunday night, while world was watching the British and while Ludendorff was organizing his northern defenses, the moment and told Humbert to go. Humbert went.

Astride the Somme, his men their way, irresistibly with speed.

Again the plans of Ludendorff upset. Instead of a frontal attack, the British, against which he had to stand and "show those British a few things," a swift flanker's assault not only threatened to take the German nerve center from behind, but to cave in the line where he had expected to stand.

ADVANCE AGAIN IN WOODEN REGION

London, Sept. 9.—The British today gained the high ground between Piziere and Havrincourt wood. General Haig announced in his night bulletin. The old British line on the ridge, Gouzeaucourt, is again in British hands and Quzeaucourt wood has been captured. The statement says. The British also advanced their line in the eastern part of Havrincourt wood.

A number of prisoners were taken.

Save on Wheat

It sure started in like a typical county fair week. Have a heart, Mr. Weather Man.

It that Hindenburg line can't hold the allies, there's no line made by man that will hold—and Hindy's line is being pumped full of more holes every day.

Every man in the United States owes a lot of duties to his nation but the biggest duty of those between the ages of 18 to 45, inclusive, who are not already registered is to enroll for military service with Uncle Sam on Thursday.

ment by making it necessary to handle all conversions at the last moment and may result in many cases in the loss of the privilege of conversion altogether.

Holders of coupon bonds are strongly advised to exchange them for registered bonds in order to protect themselves against the risk of loss, theft, and destruction of their bonds.

A PATRIOTIC ADVERTISER.
The following is copied from an advertisement of sale of farm lands in an Iowa paper:
"Nothing (but Liberty Bonds) can beat an investment in a good farm."

LOANS TO OUR ALLIES.
An additional credit of $400,000,000 was made by the United States Treasury to Great Britain on August 30. This brings the total of credits to Great Britain to $3,725,000,000.

OUR SAVINGS SAFE UNLESS GERMAN WINS.

There seems to have been a very insidious propaganda carried on, obviously by secret agents of Germany, to the effect that savings banks deposits are to be confiscated.

CONVERSION OF LIBERTY BONDS.
The privilege of conversion which arose in consequence of the issue of a per cent bonds of the Third Liberty Loan will expire on November 9 next and under existing law can not be extended or renewed.

The United States instead of confiscating or endangering the savings and other property of its people is defending them and theirs with all the irresistible might of this invincible Republic.

Delta County Boy Dies In East Camp

News of the death of Otto Neurohr, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Neurohr of Beaver, was received there on Saturday of last week. Otto's illness at Portsmouth, Va., in a navy hospital was reported in a telegram on Thursday and the parents left at once for Portsmouth. The later telegram arrived at Beaver but a few hours after their departure. Pneumonia was the cause of his death.

The body will be brought home for burial. The funeral services will probably be held Thursday morning in the Perkins Catholic church of which the deceased was a member. Arrangements will not be completed, however, until the party arrives.

Otto was 23 years of age. He enlisted in June and after a short period of training at Great Lakes, was sent east. His letters home, received a few days before his death, reported he was in good health.

He is survived by his father and mother, four sisters and three brothers. One of the latter, Chester, was in France since March. Deceased was a popular and energetic young man, greatly liked and respected in his home community.

Meeting Postponed.

The regular meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church was to have been held tonight has been postponed until Tuesday, Sept. 17.
