TREASURY SECRETARY TALKS TO BIG CROWD IN CARNEGIE HALL, NEW YORK. MAKES RINGING SPEECH Money As Necessary to War as Men He Points Out—Many Permanent Improvements Made

New York, Sept. 24.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo addressed a large gathering members of the Liberty Loan organization here tonight in Carnegie Hall. He said in part: "The Fourth Liberty Loan is the greatest yet attempted. Six billion dollars is a colossal sum in itself; a sum so great that it is difficult for the human mind to measure it or compute its weight if thrown into the battle fields of France."

New York's quota is $1,200,000,000 or 30 per cent of the entire. Loan. You have the privilege and the opportunity of gloriously serving in this work. It is no less an essential part of the war operation than fighting at the front, although it brings no comparative amount of sacrifice and danger.

"While no one thing will win the war, certain things are basic to the war and therefore are of outstanding importance. The treasury department of the United States is basic to the war. There is no activity of the government in the engineering of the war work and few private enterprises engaged in war work which do not transmit their demands, sooner or later to the treasury department. These come, usually in the form of demands for money. The treasury must be, at all times, prepared to meet these demands."

"Unless it can answer every call, the war machinery must be slowed down, the vital prosperity of the people impaired and the fighting powers of the armies may be greatly reduced with serious possibilities of disaster. WE CAN'T LICK THE KAISER WITHOUT IT" "The treasury department of the United States asks the American people to subscribe to the Fourth Liberty Loan, six billion dollars. This money is needed to carry on the war. We cannot lick the kaiser without it. We cannot restore peace and liberty and democracy without it. MUCH OF MONEY WILL BE OF VALUE

"The huge amounts expended in this war are not wholly destructively spent. Great sums are being invested in constructive work of immense value. We are building a merchant marine. It will be the largest and most efficient in the world. Our commerce after the war will be benefitted by these and the investment will be one of inestimable value to the American people."

"The loans to allied governments are backed by the obligations of great nations. They will be paid. Out of the thirteen billions of dollars appropriated by Congress during the fiscal year to end June 30, 1919, it is probable that eight billions to nine billions will represent loans to allied governments and expenditures for ships, shipyards, docks and other improvements which will be salvaged to the people."

"The bonds will bear four and one-half per cent interest and will mature in October, 1938, unless the government exercises its right to take them up on or after October 15, 1932."

"Who should buy bonds?" "Everyone—laboring men and women—salaried men and women and people of small means and large means should buy Liberty Bonds."

"Wages and salaries are larger than ever before. Those who spend all that they earn are doing a grievous injury to their country. SAVINGS WILL INCREASE IN COMING YEARS

"Every dollar invested will be worth much more when peace comes. Every provident man and woman in the United States may find their savings worth twice as much after war as now."

"We must redouble our efforts to impress upon all, that it is the essence of patriotic duty to buy bonds and keep them to the utmost limit of their ability."

Each Township Has Its Liberty Loan Committee

Every township in Delta county will have a Fourth Liberty Loan canvassing committee of its own, consisting of a chairman and from 5 to 10 members, according to the size of the district to be covered. BOARDS HOLD UP DEFINITE DRAFT DATE

Not All Districts Have Reported the Assignment of Serial Numbers to Men of Draft Ages. QUEER MISTAKES MADE

Washington, Sept. 24.—Final determination of the date of the draft lottery is being delayed by the failure of some local boards to notify the office of the provost marshal general's office that serial numbers have been assigned to all.

General Crowder sent telegrams to all local boards last night and again tonight demanding that this work be completed at once and the lists filed with the adjutant general of the state. Peculiar Angle.

One southern board, it was said, had tangled the system terribly. It divided its cards into groups of 18 year olds, 19 and 20, 32 to 36 and 37 to 45. It then assigned serial numbers, beginning with one in each group. Consequently there were four holders of each number in the district. When General Crowder was advised of this he immediately ordered that the whole district be renumbered. The cards were all shuffled and new numbers arranged.

It is still possible that the drawing may be held on or before September 28, if all local boards report the completion of their work.

General Crowder has issued new manuals to the legal advisory boards, covering some of the important problems presented in the answering of the questionnaires.

All of the people of Masonville township are interested in making the fair of this year the biggest success in the history of the township fair organization. It is expected that great numbers of people of Escanaba and from other points in the county will be in attendance at each day's program.

SENATE FLIES FOREIGN FLAG FIRST TIME

French Statesman In Brilliant Gift-Speech Brings Encouragement to the Nation's Lawmakers.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Ambassador Jusserand, speaking with the voice of the people of France before the United States Senate today, assured the American people that the French people will use every ounce of power at their command to bring about a decision over which the enemy who can understand nothing but force.

The speech of the ambassador, who never speaks but with authority, was the most encouraging and promising that has been heard in Washington since the beginning of the war. It showed the absolute hopelessness of the Germans to again take the offensive and he predicted that the time is not far distant when the democratic states of the world will be forever free from the menace of militarism.

Presented Vases. Jusserand, on behalf of his government, presented two silver vases the product of a government factory, to the Senate. Rules were swept aside so that all the members could be present to accept the gift and for the first time in history, the flag of another nation—the tri-color of France—was seen behind the desk of the vice president.

"We are now at the grandest period of the war," said the ambassador. "The fight against militarism is being fought for the last time; after this we shall be free from deeds of horror and deeds of plunder."

Vice President Marshall accepted the vases and made a touching and telling reply to Jusserand's speech.

Letters Show German Morale Is Weakening

London, Sept. 24.—Germany is weakening. Her army is dispirited. Famine and disease are ravaging the empire. Civilians are being brought face to face with the true state of affairs regarding the outcome of the war. A remarkable first-hand picture of conditions in German and on the west front is made public today in the publication of 200 letters taken by the French and British from German dead and German prisoners. Nearly all the letters were written prior to August 15—the opening of the allied successes—and convey a wide range of topics of discontent. They include information concerning the manpower losses, economic conditions, food situation, the morale of the troops and much other material of interest to the entente and allied nations.

PRILETIS ENTERED BY THE FRENCH

GREAT BULGARIAN BASE IS NOW IN HANDS OF ALLIES WITH MUCH WAR MATERIAL. BEGIN AN INVASION

London, Sept. 24.—The invasion of Bulgaria has begun. Already the French cavalry has advanced from Monastir to Prilet, entering that great strategic base in force and sweeping onward. Large numbers of prisoners have been taken and great quantities of material have fallen into the hands of the allies. In the storehouses were found food, gasoline, automobiles and airplanes, abandoned by the fleeing Bulgarians. In their haste, the night Paris communiques states.

Meanwhile the two great Bulgarian armies, which comprise the greater portion of the man power of King Ferdinand's kingdom are threatened with encirclement and annihilation. With them is the 11th German division sent to the Macedonian front to help their receding allies. The Serbians, who had taken more than 15,000 prisoners and 140 guns today crossed the Vardar on a front of nine miles. They captured more than half of the Gradsko-Prilet road and the Bulgarians are retreating along the Dobruja-Ishtik highway, which, however, is within the grasp of the Serb cavalry.

The drive began yesterday by the Gravelo-British forces towards Lake Doiran is continuing at full speed. They have gone 16 miles along the Vardar, reaching a point within three miles of the lake and including the city of Doiran. Hundred stores have fallen into the hands of the Serbians in addition to 100 guns counted so far. The Italians on the left advanced 10 miles yesterday Rome announced.

The Bulgarians are in a panic. Hundreds are deserting. German officers are trying to end this condition by ordering wholesale executions. Of one regiment, 500 men were shot down yesterday. It is reported. ALLENBY'S MEN KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK

In Palestine General Allenby's army is pursuing the remnants of the Turkish forces, reaching Haifa and Acre on the Mediterranean sea. At the edge of the Syrian desert, east of Varden, the Turks are being driven towards Karmat on the Hedjaz railway. Their retreat appears to be taking them to Es Salt, 15 miles northwest of Amman. That General Allenby's successes in Palestine, with his ranks depleted through the transfer of men to the west front, is one of the great achievements of the war is the opinion of military critics here. Military observers see the demise of Turkish power in Europe at an early date and the British are expected to recover the Balkan fields in a short time.

FRENCH TAKE THREE MORE VILLAGES

Paris, Sept. 24.—Three more villages were captured by the French in the St. Quentin vicinity, the night communique shows. French and British troops have occupied Francely and Selency, about two miles northwest of St. Quentin and Vallon, 2 1/2 miles southwest of that great Hindenburg bastion. In the face of stubborn resistance the French pushed their lines up to the west edge of Gissecourt, 2 1/2 miles south of St. Quentin. They took 50 prisoners here, making a total of 1,300 for the day. In Champaign, the night communique shows that the Germans succeeded in gaining a foothold in the French trenches but a French counter attack reestablished the lines and took the German occupants prisoners.

181,000 TEUTONS TAKEN SINCE AUGUST 28.

At the British Front, Sept. 24.—Since the beginning of the V. front offensive on August 28, the Allies have captured 181,000 prisoners and 1,300 guns. It was announced at headquarters tonight. The summary of the statement follows: British, 82,500 prisoners and 85 guns. French captured 33,000 prisoners and 650 guns. American captured 15,000 prisoners and 400 guns.

DELEGATION TO STAND BY O. B. FULLER

Delta County Sends Solid Delegation to Republican State Convention at Grand Rapids.

PREVENT SECRET PLAN

Delta county will have a complete delegation on the floor of the Republican state convention at Grand Rapids on Thursday, to stand staunchly for the nomination of Hon. O. B. Fuller of this city, as auditor general. Judge Judd Yelland, R. E. MacLean, C. Kirkpatrick and Atty. H. E. Hirsch, left for the convention city last night. This morning A. J. Young, C. C. Vogel, W. J. Shultz, of Escanaba, C. A. Clark, Cladstone, J. R. McClellan, Rapid River, and J. B. Frech, of Park River, will leave for Grand Rapids.

While the press of the state has been interested in the candidacy of J. W. Okuman of Detroit, opposing Mr. Fuller for the nomination of auditor general, every county in the lower peninsula will send solid delegations available to Mr. Fuller to prevent any plan that may be made to nominate a convention for the Detroit candidate.

The position that has been taken by the press of the state in support of the candidacy of Mr. Fuller is well set out in the following editorial paragraph from the Houghton Mining Gazette:

"Why Milton Okuman of Detroit or anybody should want to be auditor general is not clear. The state today has need for common sense in all state offices. While it can stand for mediocrity in some offices, we want competence in the auditor general's office. Mr. Fuller is the man to fill the office to a point of high fidelity of which he and the state are proud. As long as he wants to lay in the office the best interests of the state can be served by keeping him there. Let it alone time for Mr. Okuman to stop being mentioned for political office, anyway."

The department appeals to bicyclists especially, to stay off the walks. If this request is not observed, prosecution will follow, Chief Tolson states.

Whose Fight?

THREE MILLION MEN — half of them in France—many more in training.

But is this all their fight?

It takes ten men at work to keep one fighting man at the front.

It takes millions of dollars just to keep this army fed. It costs thousands of dollars every time one battery of big guns lays down a barrage.

Is it any wonder then, that the United States is spending at the rate of fifty millions of dollars a day in war and war plans? And with that grand total as the interest on a far vaster principal, which must support this colossal cost or all this task will have been in vain, whose fight do you think this is?

The man's in the trench? The fellow's on the supply-train? The chap's on the gunner's deck?

No, it is yours!

It is your fight, Mr. Banker—yours, Mr. Manufacturer—yours, Mr. Merchant—yours, Mr. Mechanic—yours, Mr. Worker—yours, Mr. Farmer. This fight is yours, all of you who are left behind, as much or even more than it is the man's in the trench.

For that man, though three million strong, cannot raise a hand in the cause of democracy, he cannot even raise a hand in self-defense, except for you.

He is potent only as you are potent. He can fight only as you will fight. The difference is only this: his fight is expressed in nerve and ammunition, yours in work and dollars.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is the world's biggest drive back of the lines. It is the test of the financial reserves of this entire country of ours. It will gauge the power that you intend to put back of the fighting men in France for the next half year or more to come.

In fact it will show the value you place on the heritage of liberty, which three million men have taken up arms to defend for you to-day.

Take care when you sign that subscription blank for Liberty Bonds that the amount you set squares as nearly as it can with all your heart acknowledges this heritage to be worth to you.

The Piffle Hook By Slim Pickens

THERE'S A REASON. He's a blockhead in math and a bone-head in history. His chemistry grades are a crime. To him Sociology's depths are a mystery. And merely good fillers of time. But out on the campus he shines like twin beacons. The co-eds all smile as they pass. And even the grim visaged faculty weakens.

IN FOOTBALL HE'S HEAD OF HIS CLASS. AN HONEST MAN. Somebody took a package of Camel cigarettes from a drawer of Slim's desk yesterday. He—or she—left fifteen cents in place of it. If Old Man Diogenes expects to refill his lantern and begin another still hunt—but why say more?

IN GOD WE TRUST. Cash registers. Night Watchmen. "Danger, Hands Off Revolvers. Check Writing Machines. Auditors. Safe Deposit Vaults. "Look Out for the Cars." Detectives. Burglar alarms. "No Smoking, Dangerous."

OLD VERSE REVAMPED. I stood on the bridge at midnight. And looked at the sleeping town; I stood, because upon that bridge, There's no place to sit down.

YES, YES, GO ON, WE ARE MORE THAN INTERESTED.

Dear Slim—I none in your column yesterday that "Tim" was told that in order to reach a certain office, he must "take the stairs up." You may be interested to know that in order to reach South Park, one must "take a Charlotte Street car."

Dear Slim—Tim's step experience reminds me of the man I heard yesterday, who was sure because the telephone girl refused to "give him the State Savings Bank."

IN WHICH MR. BANGS SENDS US SOME FREE VERY FREE VERSE.

Dear Mister—I have promised you I would write you some more poetry, but I have been so very busy cleaning out the well that I ain't had time and my wife is too poor a speller to copy them off wright but I have so some verses you can put into the Piffle Hook column.

They are wrote by a girl that goes to a woman's female Sema Nairy to Detroit that was out here to visit this summer and she spent most of her time writing and she called it Free Verse which I guess she means that anybody is free to guess at the meaning of it and she called this one the "Battle of the Visions" and if you can explain it to me I'll be much obliged and when I get done cleaning out my well I will write you some more poetry. This Sema Nairy woman's name was Gwendalen something and this "Battle of the Visions" she wrote beneath unto attached with a pin. Whence come the dark o'er hanging clouds of nothingness.

That chase each other through the eyes of gems? Come they from nowhere, bound to oblivion.

Or from that undiscovered isle where poets sleep? Whirling, swirling, out of the past into the future.

Madly they fly, streaked with purple, crimson. Violet and green—fiercely beautiful. Oh they cannot—will not dare not. Come this way. I wonder why?

WELL, YES, IN A WAY, AND THEN AGAIN, NO.

Dear Slim—Is the shoe trust, a soul less corporation? PRINT.

WE'D PRINT HIS PICTURE IN THE PIFFLE HOOK IF WE KNEW WHO HE IS.

Closeups and Fadeouts By Imogene

Anna Q. Nilsson is fond of almonds and here is how a clever director made use of the fact. Miss Nilsson didn't have room enough in her dressing room to be comfortable so she built a bungalow across the street from the studio, where she makes up. Consequently when they wanted her for a scene she couldn't be found. Director Doris was in despair until he remembered the almonds. He filled his pockets with them and now when he sees Miss Nilsson starting for her bungalow he asks her if she doesn't want some almonds. She always does and by the time she has eaten them, they are ready to start the screen again.

Having completed "The Strange Woman," Gladys Brockwell, Fox star, has begun a new play at Hollywood.

"Love's Pilgrimage." It was written by J. Grubb Alexander and Bennett Cole and it has a gypsy setting.

Louise Huff begins her fourth picture for World next Monday at Fox Lee when the "Crook of Dreams" will be put in work. Miss Huff will be directed by Oscar Apfel and Frank Mayo is her leading man.

What is believed to be one of the greatest storm scenes ever filmed is one of the spectacles in "The Brazen Beauty" Bluebird's release for September 9. Priscilla Dean is the star.

Tom Walsh, director at the Ince studios, has compiled a curious list of names from the employment books. For example, we find that Harry Wonders, William Creeps, Charles Sings, James Robbs, William Stabbs, Anna Betts, and Alice Gambles. Only one is Sober, and only two, they are brothers, Drinkwater. "One of our experts is William Kill," says Walsh, "and his father is an undertaker." After all, what's in a name?

AT THE STRAND. How Jane and Katherine Lee put an army of suitors to flight and married their aunt to the man of their choice, is the story told in "We Should Worry," the William Fox picture which will be shown at the Strand today.

Not only do the children exhibit the brand of wholesome comedy that has made them famous all over the world, but there is a splendid romance woven throughout the dramatic story of the picture. Jane and Katherine are the wards of a beautiful young girl who is much sought after for her beauty and fortune. The little imps have chosen the suitor whom they consider most worthy of her and make determined attempts to put the others out of the running by making life miserable for them every time they appear. The minister, banker, hotel-keeper and other Jasons in quest of the golden fleece of the girl's fortune are vanquished when a new man appears in the field and threatens to set all their work at naught.

One of the best casts ever seen in photoplay supports the juvenile luminaries in "We Should Worry!" It is a play for everybody; the kind of a photoplay to which you can bring the whole family.

Tomorrow and Friday Irene Castle will be shown in "The Girl from Bohemia," a charming story of Greenwich village.

AT THE DELFT. The infinite variety of Mae Marsh has often been commented upon. The appealing Goldwyn star delights in greeting her admirers as a different girl in her successive photoplays. This is simply borne out in her newest Goldwyn production "All Woman," which will be shown at the Delft theatre today and Thursday. In this vehicle Miss Marsh appears in a part stronger than is usually associated with her delicate, elusive personality. She is Susan Sweeney, a New York factory girl, who inherits a hotel in an Odiondack town.

She is urged by Austin Strong, a young lawyer and politician of the town, to abandon it and be content with the meagre profits. This Susan will not do. There are many children in the neighborhood, ignorant and neglected, and the girl determines to stay and "mother" them and rehabilitate the place.

Strong's sister and her fiance elope and seek lodging for the night in Susan's hotel, intending to be married next day. Susan urges them to reconsider and they to return home, though not before they have registered as man and wife.

At this point Dick and Strong's sister come forward and confess. The townspeople are acquainted with the facts and elect Strong. He pleads for Susan's forgiveness and she, loving him from the first, can deny him nothing.

The Kaiser Wants You to Spend

Make That Old Suit Do For a While Yet

THIS is addressed to you, Mr. American Citizen. It is also addressed to your family. It is up to you whether the war is won or lost. Some will tell you that ships will win the war. Some will tell you that food will do it. Some will tell you that coal is the thing that is going to save the day. But it is neither of these, nor is it all of them taken together, although each and every one of them will contribute its bit to the cause of Democracy. There is only one factor in the struggle that counts---YOU.

YOU count just as much as the boys at the front. You have to make yourself count by practicing the closest economy. Take, for instance, the matter of clothing. We all know that clothing is necessary to civilized man. But during these war days it is not necessary to expend the amount of money for them as in the past. Think what it would mean if every man, woman and child in the United States today should buy heavily of clothing. It would mean depriving necessary war industries of much-needed labor.

BATTLEFRONT indications are that the war is to come to an end within the next year---when our boys get into full stride "over there!" Now, we can win this war for the side of Justice as easily as not. Providing, of course, we do just one thing, practice economy. Therefore, we say to you Mr. American Citizen, don't buy unnecessary clothing this year. Send your old garments to a first class cleaning and dyeing establishment and put the difference between the cost of furnishing up old clothing and the cost of new into

German Troops Despondent Over Their Situation

Letters Found on Prisoners Show Few Soldiers Fear Americans.

With the American Army on the Lorraine front, Sept. 20—Fear lost the Americans would advance and overwhelm them, bitter complaint at bad food, and general despondency at the prospects of the war, are the keynote of letters written home by German soldiers and found on their persons when they were captured.

A certain American division which took more than its quota of prisoners has made an exhaustive examination of these letters and found that the morale, even of the men in the Tenth German regiment—conceded to be the best opposing the Americans—is decidedly low.

Looks bad for Germany.

"It looks very bad for our dear Germany," writes one soldier to his wife. "Who knows whether the Americans will break through? This morning we again were on the alert and thought the Americans were going to attack but nothing has happened yet."

"We few fellows cannot hold up this superior might and must all go helplessly into captivity," says another, "and of course most of the prisoners are murdered, but then we have to be satisfied with our fate whatever happens."

Another German, however, evidently did not fear murder, which, obviously had been proclaimed as the lot of German soldiers falling into American hands, for he had written:

"Expect Turbulent Days.

"According to all appearances we are approaching turbulent days. We constantly are on the alert and are afraid the Americans are going to attack. They are said to have assembled an enormous number of tanks and troops. In that case we are lost, for everything in our front line is mixed up. I am firmly convinced that I could not be worse off over there."

Another soldier wrote that he felt worse than a dog. He declares that even dogs have kennels to sleep in while he must lie in the open, in the rain and mud.

"What," he asks, "have we done that the whole world has designs on our lives? If the Americans attack we will be in Metz (be retreating) in two days."

"The men are so embittered that they have no interest in anything and they only want the war to end no matter how. We are only slaves of the government."

Five Prisoners Captured.

Five prisoners were captured by the Americans southeast of the village of Woel today. They belonged to the Fourteenth Storm battalion and all agreed that even these crack troops are discouraged by the Franco-American north of the Marne and around St. Mihiel.

These units were rushed into the front lines after the Franco-American attack had begun last Thursday. The men said that Germany is hard pressed for men. The particular battalion had been in training near Briey.

A night patrol of Americans captured the Germans without firing a shot. The Germans were sleeping when the Americans crept up around them and captured them. They said that the majority of the men in their company had been withdrawn from this region when the Americans began their concentration a few days ago. The low morale of the German army was the reason that the resistance encountered by the Americans was not stronger, the prisoners declared.

Socialists are Discouraged.

One prisoner, a Socialist, said the civilians in Germany are discouraged with the way the war is going and look on the struggle as a depression in all parts of Germany as the result of the recent successes of the British, French and Americans, he said.

"Germans everywhere are at last realizing the fact that the Americans are good fighters," he continued. "They appreciate the fact that the American successes are encouraging to the allies and discouraging to the German soldiers."

He said that the German troops estimated the American equal to the Germans as they were in 1914.

STURGEON BAY ACTIVE.

A contract for nine tugs to be built for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, was granted the Leathen D. Smith Shipbuilding company of Sturgeon Bay by the United States Emergency Shipbuilding Corporation.

This is the second contract received by this firm and demonstrates the efficiency and rapidity of this growing concern.

Work on the enlarging of the yards has commenced and the dock is being made 25 feet larger. This will greatly increase the output of tugs, as the yards heretofore used were too small for the business of the concern.

The contracts recently awarded involve a sum exceeding a million and a half dollars, and indications point to additional contracts in the near future.

MIDDLE INLET MAN KILLED.

John Svec, 57 years old, a farmer living southeast of Waukesha in the town of Middle Inlet, met an instant death Monday evening when a shot gun which he was handling was discharged into his face, the top of his head being blown off.

Whether the death of Mr. Svec was suicidal or accidental will perhaps never be known. He had been in failing health during the last few years and some of the neighbors believe he ended his life while despondent. Members of his family, however, incline toward the belief that his death was accidental.

PENINSULA TO GET 5 PER CENT

A load will be lifted from the mind of Copper Country people who have been worried as to the coal situation through a letter received by the Gazette from Congressman W. Frank James. He has been given assurance that the upper peninsula will receive from 5 to 20 per cent of its 1918 hard coal tonnage.

Representative James had received a number of complaints from his constituents in the upper peninsula regarding the amount of hard coal allotted the district. He visited the anthracite division of the United States Fuel administration and was told by A. S. Leary that the allotment to upper peninsula points had not yet been completed. The letter from Mr. James was written last Wednesday.

"The fuel administrator realizes that conditions in the upper peninsula are the same as in Minnesota, to which 9 per cent of the coal used in 1916 has been allotted, whereas the general average in Michigan is but 7 per cent," writes Representative James.

Director Leary told me the administration expected to remedy this matter soon and that the upper peninsula will be provided with approximately 85 to 90 per cent of its 1918 tonnage.

DETROIT PAYS LIBERTY TRIBUTE TO MEN OVERSEAS

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 23—It is anticipated that in many of the cities of Michigan will be adopted the beautiful sentiment and tribute to the men in service in France which has been put into practice here.

At 4:30 each afternoon a bugler mounts the steps of the Detroit city hall and blows " taps." He is known, that 4:30 here is 9:30 in France, the hour when the bugle calls the American soldier to his cot.

The ceremony is one that attracts much attention.

GERMAN BOYS REVOLT AT SERVICE: ARE SHOT DOWN

Amsterdam, Sept. 20—A large number of German recruits, mostly of eighteen years of age, refused to enter the front at Aix La Chapelle according to Les Nouvelles, which says the soldiers were ordered to fire upon the mutineers, of whom eight were killed and many wounded. The remainder of the revolting recruits were then driven into the train like cattle.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicines for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, but is also pleasant to take, which is important when a medicine must be given to young children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use for many years and has met with much favor wherever its good qualities have become known. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement.

Wm. Scruby, Chillicothe, Mo., writes: "I have raised three children, have always used Chamberlain's for coughs, colds and croup. It is pleasant to take. Both adults and children like it. My wife and I have always felt safe from croup with it in the house." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic.

Amsterdam, Sept. 20—A large number of German recruits, mostly of eighteen years of age, refused to enter the front at Aix La Chapelle according to Les Nouvelles, which says the soldiers were ordered to fire upon the mutineers, of whom eight were killed and many wounded. The remainder of the revolting recruits were then driven into the train like cattle.

Church Windows Broken By Boys

The police are looking for the boys who have been throwing stones at ornamental church windows, and it is likely to go hard with any who may be found guilty of this sort of rowdiness. Several of the stained glass windows in the Swedish church at Wells and Sarah streets were broken this week. A short time ago there was a similar depredation at St. Patrick's.

No mercy will be shown to boys found loitering in the alleys and throwing stones in the direction of any building, the department says.
