Wisconsin Senate Votes Suffrage

Madison, Feb. 12.—Final passage was given in the upper house of the Wisconsin legislature today to the bill granting women the right of suffrage in presidential elections. The bill passed the house last week, 80 to 8 and was concurred in by the senate after a forenoon of debate, 27 to 4.

Over 300 bills were offered in the legislature today and a late session was held tonight to offer additional measures. The chances for a short session have gone glimmering.

Efforts of Senator Klein to attach an amendment to the Roosevelt status bill so that a statue of Lincoln would also be erected in Milwaukee, were ruled out of order.

Lincoln day was observed by the senate.

Opposition Voiced to Standing Army

Washington, Feb. 12.—General debate on the army appropriation bill today revealed widespread opposition to any action leading to a policy maintaining a large standing army. The appropriation clauses involve the expenditure of $1,117,290,000 and the holding in 1920 of 28,579 officers and 509,909 enlisted men. General debate will be continued tomorrow and it is hoped that the bill may be passed by the end of the week.

WILSON READY TO MAKE TRIP BACK TO U. S.

Paris, Feb. 12.—The first definite word of a renewal of accord between the associated powers reached the outside today when it was stated that the armistice would be renewed.

The agreement indicates that harmony has been restored between the French and American plenipotentiaries and augers well for the future understanding between these two nations whose interests have clashed so many times in the past few weeks.

Pleasant Departure. It indicates also that President Wilson's departure from France will be more pleasant than the American commission a few weeks ago had hoped that it could be.

The first communique gives no details but those will be coming in a few days.

The president is now trying to get away from Paris on Saturday night as he does not like traveling on Sunday.

Many Presents With Him. When he arrives in the United States the president's baggage will resemble that of a prima donna. Numerous trunks and a collection of boxes made by carpenters at the Murat residence have already reached the 30 mark.

In these the president and his wife are bringing back home the souvenirs and gifts which they have received in Europe.

Heavyweight Fight at Grant? No Sir!

CONFLICT OF IDEAS COMES TO THE TABLE

Realists and Idealists in Clash at Paris Over World League.

Paris, Feb. 12.—The predicted conflict between the realistic ideas of the peace conference, represented in Premier Clemenceau and the idealism of President Wilson, is now fully developed.

Typical of the commentary in the opposition press is a cartoon tonight, showing the amusement of Clemenceau while watching Wilson speak, the caption being:

"What is he talking about?" French Give Up Idea. Hitherto, Clemenceau has accepted numerous ideas that were very much opposed to his own. Publicity of the progress of the conference; the method of procedure; treatment of Russia; the disposition of the colonial problems, were some of them and there were many others.

But when it comes to discussing peace terms with Germany he cannot yield. He demands security for France and reparation and damages.

French Back Premier. The renewal of the armistice involves both. French opinion overwhelmingly favors "putting screws to Germany" while the idealists favor a course of moral suasion instead.

Wilson's departure from Paris is believed seriously near. At the conclusion of the meeting tomorrow it will be known whether his efforts to establish a League of Nations have been crowned with success.

Desire Driving Bargain. The French people want to drive the best bargain possible and this may account for the French opposition at the conference to minor features of the society of nations—opposition which may prove embarrassing to the president.

The latest communique in characteristic uninformative style makes no mention of the clash or the delay to the adoption of the conference report on the draft of the league's framework, but these will probably be made public after Wilson's departure.

Tax Return Ruling Modified by Roper

SOLONS WOULD LIMIT BUYING OF NEWS SPACE

Michigan Legislature May Cut Down Limit On Election Money

Lansing, Feb. 12.—Barring all newspaper and other political advertising by certain candidates for public office in Michigan except in a pamphlet to be issued by the secretary of state and the fixing of a maximum and minimum amount which all candidates could expend, would be the effect of two bills introduced in the senate today by Senator Herbert J. Laker of Cheboygan.

May Be Amended. Senator Baker explained that some changes may be desirable in the bills but they have been offered as a basis on which to work out such legislation. One of the bills amends the present law with the new provision:

Candidates for either house in the legislature may not spend a sum greater than the salary for the two year term.

No candidate shall be restricted to less than $200 and no candidate may expend an amount to exceed $2,000. The regulation applies to all candidates and the rule is the same for primary election expenses.

Stops Advertising. The other bill introduced by Senator Baker is new in its scope and character. The feature of it is that which relates to advertising as applied to the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, member of congress and United States senator.

Candidates for the nominations for such offices cannot advertise or use any printed matter, except a pamphlet issued by the secretary of state.

To License Engineers. Registration and licensing all civil engineers engaged in public work is provided in a bill introduced by Senator Connelly of Spring Lake. The measure puts them on the same footing with architects. Rep. George Brown presented it in the house.

With 51 votes in its favor the O'Brien bill to lengthen the term of the insurance commissioner from two to four years was passed by the house.

Amending the registration laws so that any one can register for voting by simply sending an affidavit to the township or city clerk, is the proposal of Senator Bayard G. Davis which passed the house unanimously.

Unavailing efforts made by Rep. Lynn J. Lewis of Van Buren county to kill the proposed tax amendment of ten cents per hundredweight on all motor vehicles except trucks were unavailing today while the bill was being considered by the committee on the whole.

Passage of the Waisaert bill making the state constabulary into a permanent body to be known as the Michigan State police became likely when the farmers club of the legislature voted unanimously to support the measure.

WITNESS SHOWS I. W. W. LEAGUE WITH TROTSKY

Methodist Preacher Tells of Experiences in City of Petrograd.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Important evidence developed in today's hearing in the Overman investigation of Bolsheviki propaganda in this country.

It was: 1. Leaders of the movement in Russia appropriated $200,000 to carry on an international propaganda, the United States being one of the countries in which a part of the money was to be spent.

2. The movement in Russia would have failed from the very beginning if it had not been for the help received from Americans who followed Trotsky from New York to Russia at his solicitation. A large majority of the Bolsheviki communists in Russia are former Americans.

3. The pamphlets and songs issued by the I. W. W. in this country are similar in tone and doctrine to those put out by the Bolsheviki in Russia.

Witness is Preacher. The committee regards this as important as it came nearer to showing direct connection between the Russian Bolsheviki and the American radicals than anything heretofore presented.

The witness from whom this was obtained was the Rev. Dr. Simmons, a Methodist preacher who for several years has been in charge of the church at Petrograd. He was in Russia during the last days of the czar's reign and during Kerensky's rule as well as the present Bolsheviki regime. He left Petrograd in October after the Bolsheviki issued a decree ordering all Americans not in sympathy with them to leave the city.

Life is Threatened. Dr. Simmons gave a graphic description of his life in Petrograd during the Red rule, portions of his statements being intensely dramatic.

He told how on several occasions his house had been broken into by the Red Guard and how pistols had been placed against his breast and his life threatened. Upon such occasions he saved himself only by calling comrades and proving himself to be an American.

Committee Interested. The committee was deeply interested and impressed by the sincerity of Dr. Simmons' statement when he told how he disguised himself as a Russian workman, attending a meeting of the council to get "inside information" about their doctrines and plans. He found, he said, that most of the rank and file "didn't know their elbow from their knee," and they accepted blindly all that their leaders told them.

TWICE WOUNDED, SAM COPLAN IS BACK IN CITY

Shrapnel raining down on the Americans as the desperate Huns tried to stave off defeat, caused most injuries to Americans overseas, according to Samuel Coplan, Escanaba war hero who returned yesterday for a furlough visit here before going to Camp Custer where he will be under the care of a physician for several weeks.

Coplan has one of the most singular war records of any Delta county men. Twice he received wounds from shrapnel and both times he recovered without being incapacitated to any great degree.

First Wounds at Solissons. In was on July 18 that Coplan was first wounded. Shrapnel struck him in the right arm. So serious was the wound that he had to remain in the hospital for a period of seven weeks. The warrior received the wounds at Solissons, shortly after he played his part in the capture of Cantigny.

Apparently recovered sufficiently to again assist the Americans in making history overseas, Coplan went back to the Verdun front on Sept. 16, just two months after he was first wounded.

Coplan "got his" the second time on Oct. 21. This wound also was from shrapnel, but the second time he was struck in the right hip. He was "picked off" about 12 o'clock noon and lay for two hours on the battlefield before he was picked up by the medical corps stretcher bearers. The Americans were so far advanced that it took considerable time for the ambulance men to reach them.

Owes Life to Bell. Coplan owes his life to the cartridge belt he wore when struck the second time, he says. The cartridge belt he wore hung a trifle low on the right side. The flying shrapnel struck the belt, staying off what might have caused injuries to result in his death.

The Escanaba man was sent from the debarcation hospital to Camp Custer. He expects to be released from service soon.

ESTIMATE TOLL OF INFLUENZA OVER 300,000

Influenza has caused more deaths in this country during the past few months than the losses in deaths during 19 months of war. That was revealed today by figures made public showing the extent of the scourge and its companion, pneumonia, in the United States.

In 46 Big Cities. The figures, compiled by the Public Health Service, disclose that in 46 cities alone there were 125,552 deaths from September to January. The figures do not consider any camps or rural sections of the country or any of the smaller towns at all.

It is estimated that complete totals of the ravages would disclose 250,000 to 300,000 deaths in the September-January period.

Frisco Suffers Most. New York led the cities in the number of deaths with a total of 27,322. In point of percentage, San Francisco had the most, reporting a death rate of 28.8 per 1,000 population.

Gold Shortage is Said to be Passed

Washington, Feb. 12.—The great war gold reserve needs are passed and there is no necessity for further stimulation of the production of gold. This was the statement made today by a special committee appointed by Former Secretary McAdoo before the signing of the armistice, to investigate the gold mining industry.

Three False Alarms in Less Than Hour

UNITED STATES WILL GET SHIP LOAD OF I. W. W.

Connection Shown Between Sinn Fein Movement and the Americans.

Kansas City, Feb. 12.—Warren Long, United States Commissioner of Emigration announced today that he is working on plans for the deportation of all I. W. W. in Leavenworth prison who cannot establish citizenship or five years' residence in the United States. Most of these men are from Chicago.

Fifty of them start on their trip to Ellis Island tomorrow.

London, Feb. 12.—The British government has traced an I. W. W. revolutionary fund of $50,000 for use in Ireland directly back to Kelly's saloon on State street in Chicago, Ill., and has discovered a complete I. W. W. system of communication from Boston, Chicago and New York to Dublin and Belfast with a close connection between the American I. W. W. between the Sinn Fein at Belfast and the strikers at Glasgow.

As a result of raids on London I. W. W. headquarters and seizure of lists of names of the complete English organization, 229 members of the I. W. W. were arrested and are awaiting deportation to the United States.

Kelly is German. It was learned that Kelly, the Chicago saloon keeper is a German who assumed the Irish name and headed the famous "Kelly gang" in the robbery of freight shipments to France some time ago.

Collections for the I. W. W. work in England and Ireland are said to have been progressing in his saloon for the past three years.

Soldier Spots Several. A former soldier in the United States Coast artillery who has just returned from Ireland says that in Cork and Dublin he recognized many I. W. W., whom he had known in the Lynn and Boston strikes. Among the literature seized at I. W. W. headquarters were proclamations to the foreign affairs committee protesting against the deportation of persons to Russia under compulsion.

Another, dated July 11, 1916, is addressed to Herbert Samuel, secretary of home affairs, in which a protest is voiced against conscription.

Further revelations against I. W. W. complicity and the Sinn Fein and other strike and revolutionary movements are expected today.

Plan Series of Raids. Chicago, Feb. 12.—A part of a plan to raid the United States of Bolshevism and the I. W. W. was disclosed today when federal agents started raids on headquarters of the latter organization. Twenty-nine carriers of the "red card" have been arrested.

It is understood that raids will be continued until 200 Chicago suspects have been apprehended.

Federal agents say that Chicago, the hatching place of I. W. W. plots and strikes in America and even now European agitation.

"Must Alter System." Washington, Feb. 12.—"It is fashionable to talk about the extermination and the principles and the existence of the Bolsheviki or of the I. W. W. and kindred associations but there are none the less a factor to be reckoned with and they cannot be abolished by repressive legislation. They will never be disposed of unless there is an honest, intelligent, sympathetic effort to remove the cause that brought them into existence. Their existence in itself is in the eyes of those condemning their methods, disagreeing with their propaganda and denouncing their beliefs, an indictment of the social system which brought them into being."

This declaration was made today by A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors.

SHERIFF GETS HIS TIP HERE; NEEDED MONEY

Jensen and Delong, Runaways from Marquette, Are Recaptured.

Because he has a remarkable memory for faces, Sheriff D. T. Mattison of Rhinelander, Wis., who was a visitor in Escanaba last Sunday, was able to return two escaped prisoners to the state prison at Marquette and incidentally collect two healthy rewards for his trouble.

One Delta Convict.

The men returned were Walter Jensen, sentenced to serve an indeterminate period for a burglary committed in Delta county and his pal, James Delong. Both were trusties in the prison lumber yard at Marquette on Jan. 17, when they decided to walk away and the whole north state has been looking for them since that time. Jensen once figured in a jail delivery here.

But that is another story that needs no retelling. The capture is the thing.

Tip From O'Dess.

Sheriff Mattison was in Delta county last Sunday looking after some other matters of business. While at the county jail, Sheriff O'Dess casually mentioned the escape of the Marquette "birds" and gave Mr. Mattison a picture card of the pair.

"I guess I'll get them," he said. "I need that reward money."

By some strange circumstance, he evidently located them in his home halliwick for the next day the state prison received a request to send a man to Rhinelander to return them to Michigan.

Identification Clinched.

However, the officers had been on the trail of Jensen and Delong for several days. They knew the general direction the men were taking and at the prison it was considered as surprising that they succeeded in getting as far away as Rhinelander. The identification was clinched by the photos and descriptions sent out from Marquette.

Not the least interesting feature of the entire incident is the fact that both Jensen and Delong would have been paroled within a few weeks. Their sentences were from "one to fourteen" and their records would have entitled them to conditional liberty after the first twelve months. Now they will probably stay for a much longer period.

American Tourists Visit Verdun Ruins

Verdun, France, Feb. 11.—Scores of American tourists have visited Verdun recently, most of them spending part of a day looking over the ruins of the "city that was," and passing on to some other nearby town for the night. Many of these sightseers have been individuals and delegations who came over in some connection with President Wilson's trip.

Book Tells How Hun Navy Had a Chance

London, Feb. 12.—Viscount Jellicoe's book on the naval operation of the war was published today. Among other things it settles the disputes and speculations concerning the death of Lord Kitchener, shows that the German navy was superior in strength to the British in many ways and outlines the chances that the Germans might have had if they had attempted to raid the British naval bases and coast.

MISS GAUFIN'S FASHION VIEWS IN HER LETTER

For evening wear elaborate models are shown in which much lace is used in the shape of deep Chantilly flouncings. Metal brocade is used both as material and trimmings and jet and spangles are popular as well as metal beads and crystal embroideries.

Some gowns of ankle length have short detached trains. The colors are bright, Japanese blue, serpentine, cotton, quadrille and jade green and emerald.

Novelty Silks Popular.

Novelty silks for skirts still retain their popularity. The materials used are block tricolette, pollette, satin striped Fan-ta-si, baronette satin, embroidered georgette and flowered silks.

Navy blue serge is the leading shade for wool skirts. On all models embroidery and tucks are seen to a great extent. A number of the latest skirts are fastened in back.

Large plaids are still very good for skirts especially in the plaited models. The suit skirts are very long and narrow. The most popular are shown in the barrel effect with the fullness at the hips.

Use Military Braid.

Small collars, one inch high standing band effects defining neck lines are shown on all imported suits. Colorless neck lines are also seen on the fine suits.

A feature of suit models are shown in basque effects. The box in the leader, Cape backs and semi fitted suits will also be popular.

The waist coats, which accompany the tailored suits are made of colored lawns trimmed with buttons of the same shade. Tricolette is very good for waist coats in high colors. Alma Gaufin, Hotel McAlpin, New York City.

Practically the same organization, which so efficiently handled the other drives under Mr. McEwen's direction, is at work for the 1919 cause.

No Registrations at City Hall—Holiday

There was no record broken in registration at the city hall.

And it wasn't the fault of the city clerk; neither was it the fault of the women.

Because Wednesday, Lincoln's birthday anniversary, was a legal holiday, the city clerk and his assistant were restricted by law from registering any women. A number of them called, but they were advised to return another day.

To accommodate women who desire to register tonight, City Clerk Carl Anderson will be at the city hall from 7 until 9 o'clock, including today but three days remain to register. The registrations are scheduled to close Feb. 5, Saturday.

I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."

BOWLING

The high individual scores for the award to be given Saturday night are held by Joe Hirn, with 268, Al Laps, with 256, and Bert LaLonde, 256.

Blake's Reds have the highest score for any single game by the league teams, leading with 929 for a total.

The Cardinals and Dodgers battled Tuesday night in a league match, Driscoll's crew coming out of the cellar with two wins against one of the Dodgers. The score follows:

Cardinals.
Clements	170	199
Swan	140	156
Belanger	150	174
Corcoran	138	165
Driscoll	141	189
	739	883
Dodgers.
Larson	154	148
Christensen	126	96
Edwards	189	168
Winchester	187	178
Johnson	164	197
	820	787

Christensen's mark of 96 was one of the lowest to be made by a league player throughout the entire season. He couldn't get the ball anywhere near the groove.

Marquette—O. Manes was chosen as president; A. F. Sheldon, vice-president, and C. J. McCauley, secretary, at the meeting of bowlers at the Elk's alleys to prepare for the U. P. Bowling Tournament here next month. The committee will work out plans for the tournament.

A match game, which followed the election, resulted in the defeat of the High Flyers by the Northern Lights, with a close score.

R. F. Birchard, "Doc" Van Idertine and F. J. Jenks were named a committee on prizes for the tournament.

Local Shoe Men Buy Store at Hancock

The Manning-Peterson Shoe company of this city has purchased the store of the Ehler Shoe company at Hancock and Taylor Peterson, of the local firm, will go to Hancock about Feb. 20 to reside permanently and assume charge of the Hancock store.

A Branch Planned.
Mr. Peterson will retain his full interest in the Manning-Peterson Shoe company of this city and will conduct the Hancock store as a branch of the Escanaba business.

The store purchased at Hancock has been established for 25 years and members of the local firm, through Mr. Peterson, will seek to give Hancock and that section of the Copper Country a modern, exclusive shoe store. The store at Hancock will be conducted along lines similar to those that have enabled the firm to build up in this city a patronage second to no store in this section.

The three members of the firm are aggressive, wide-awake young business men, all of whom know the shoe business thoroughly and the present is their first move in the branching out of their business.

Wide Experience.

Mr. Peterson, who is to assume charge of the Hancock store is a graduate of Scholl's Orthopedic Training school where he received technical instructions in fitting arch supports and in the art of perfect shoe fitting. He is recognized as one of Escanaba's most capable young business men and will take to the Hancock store thorough knowledge of the shoe business, gained both in years of actual experience and in technical training.

Mr. Peterson is a former president of the Escanaba Retail Business Men's association and has a host of friends who will sincerely regret his determination to leave Escanaba.

The officers of the Manning-Peterson Shoe company are Mr. Peterson, John Manning and G. H. Sullivan. The latter is now in the city on a furlough and expects soon to receive his final discharge after a year of military service.

FALSE FIRE ALARM.

The fire department answered a false fire alarm at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. Box 27 was pulled. More false alarms have been answered in calls from Box 27 than any other alarm box on the circuit.

30 SECONDS OF WOMAN'S TIME

That Is Just About How Long It Takes For Milady to Register

Isn't it worth 30 seconds to you? But a few days remain for the women of Delta county to register with the town clerks to give them the privilege of casting a vote for the first time in the history of the state. Have you registered? Are you going to help forge the future of the state, of your town, of Delta county?

February 15th Last Day. February 15th is the final day for you to register. It's your patriotic duty to register. You should not fail to register. Do it now—immediately.

Every woman should take part in deciding: Who will run for city, town and county offices.

Whether the state shall spend $50,000,000 in good roads, the larger portion of which will go into wages for soldiers who are out of work.

Whether the Light Wine and Beer Amendment shall be voted down or passed.

And there are many other things. It takes approximately 30 seconds to register for six consecutive elections without registering again. In that time you can register to entitle you to vote. You will be able to take a hand in declaring public issues. Don't fail to take advantage of it. If you don't register, you'll lose your vote.

"Have Your Little Say." If you live in Escanaba, go to the city hall.

If you reside in the county, go to your township clerk. But by all means don't deprive yourself of the privilege to be one who "has a little say in county and state affairs."

Going? Hurry!

ST. CLAIR—John Sofa, of Marine City, employe of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co., here, was taken suddenly ill and died as he was carried into a doctor's office.

DON'T DISCARD GARMENT, SAYS DELTA'S AGENT

While there is no longer urgent need to conserve wool and cotton for the use of the government as a war service, there is much need that textiles be wisely bought, kept in good repair, and skillfully remodeled in order to systematically save money and invest in government bonds; and thusly our thrift, to help the countries to return to normal conditions.

Do not discard a garment to the rag bag if it can be used by anyone for clothing. Pass it on to any reliable charitable organization which takes care of such work.

There are many ways of economizing when buying new clothing. Exercise economy in your choice of materials and patterns.

Materials having an up and down, a right or left, a wrong and right side, or a nap, require more yards for a garment than a plain material. And often the plain material or pattern will make the more artistic and suitable gown.

The present styles allow the use of combinations of designs and material, and the addition of a little new material may make a very satisfactory garment.

Absence of Breeze Sets New Record

More records were broken yesterday at the local weather observatory. The sheet which records the velocity of the wind brought it to light.

Between midnight and 6 a. m. yesterday a total of seven miles of wind was recorded, an average velocity of but 1.2 miles per hour. There was a dead calm between 6 a. m. and 7 a. m. and the wind in succeeding six hour period to noon had an average of but 1.3.

PLUCK OF THIS FELLOW GREAT; LONG'S PATIENT

Caduceus Carries Article on Brave Fighter—Has Long's Photo.

Late copies of "The Caduceus," published by the base hospital at Camp Greene, N. C., carry photographs of Capt. H. W. Long, physician of this city, engaged in the care of wounded men returned from overseas. Capt. Long was commissioned last summer, and after a course at Harvard university in special work, was assigned to the base hospital at Camp Greene.

One of His Boys.
The grit of one patient under the care of Dr. Long is told in the following article in the magazine:

Nothing could be more typical of American grit and perseverance than the struggle for life made by Private Fritz Nielsen, now a patient in War Camp, in the fighting about Chateau-Thierry.

Nielsen, who hails from Winboro, La., originally entered the service with the 167th infantry at Camp Beauregard, La., and was later transported to Camp Pike, Ark. From there he was sent to a port of embarkation and sailed to France. Shortly after his arrival there he was transferred again, this time to the 30th Infantry of the third division. He estimates that six or seven American divisions were in reserve near Chateau-Thierry early in July when he came to the front.

Barrage Falling Short.
After spending a week of comparative idleness in the front lines, where there were no trenches but the men dug-in individually, they were stationed near the bank of the Soisson river. The division was preparing to advance and the allied barrage began to whistle over head, when the most dreaded calamity of the modern fighter occurred: the barrage was falling short.

To escape death from the shells of their own artillery his company, Company C of the 30th, was obliged to fall back to the shelter of a railroad embankment to await the adjustment of the artillery fire. They had abandoned provisions and supplies on the river bank until their shortly expected return when suddenly the Germans rushed over the river catching our men as in a trap in the railroad cut.

Were Greatly Outnumbered.
The fighting began fast and furious for the Yanks were fighting for their lives. The closeness of the encounter saved them from machine gun fire but they were outnumbered three to one. They fought on and on until only eight remained alive and not a man wounded.

Nielsen received an explosive rifle ball in the left leg above the knee, fracturing the bone. There he lay amongst the dead and dying barely alive in a veritable charnel house. This was early on Monday morning, July 15. He had no rations and no water but the call of life was strong. In a semi-conscious state he crawled about over the dead bodies gaining sustenance from the emergency rations of the slaughtered Germans. Canned meat, stale bread and a sort of hard tack was his food when he could find any and an occasional sip of water from the rain-filled shell-holes and the hot leaky canteens of the insect-infested dead his only drink. For six never-ending days he survived amidst conditions that a dog could not endure, with the pain and fever of his broken leg and the heat of the boiling sun adding to his misery. Dragged on Hands and Knees.

Toward the close of the sixth day having dragged himself a distance of more than a mile with the aid of his hands alone, torn, bleeding and almost out of his head he reached others of his organization who saw that he received the proper attention. Nielsen was carried to the first aid station and from there to the field hospital, where he learned of the seven others who survived. Later he was taken to Base Hospital 31, where gas masks were issued to the patients to protect them from gas bombs dropped by the Hun airplanes. Even the nurses made rounds with faces concealed by the ugly appearing gas protectors. After being bombed twice there the hospital was abandoned and Nielsen moved to Base No. 24, where he remained four months. Later he was transferred to Bordeaux and on Christmas day sailed on an American hospital for the dear old U. S. A.

Perrin Brothers Are Moving to New Stand
Perrin Brothers are moving their barber shop equipment from the present location to the building formerly occupied by Harry Tillart. The new quarters have been remodeled to suit the needs of a barbershop.

Telephone Hearing to be Held February 19
A hearing on the pending increase of telephone rates in the state of Michigan will be heard at Lansing next Wednesday, Feb. 19. It is probable that a number of upper peninsula cities will be represented at the session.

Getting Rid of Colds.
The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on.

32ND DIVISION'S LOSSES HEAVIEST DURING FIGHTING

The reputation of the famous Thirty-Second Division, of Michigan and Wisconsin national guardsmen, for hard fighting and heavy casualties, is proved by comparative figures of Divisions in a United States Bulletin received here.

125 Is Big Loser.
The 12th regiment alone, the figures show, lost 459 men killed in action, 131 died of wounds, 197 missing in action, and not a man taken prisoner—a total of 787, making practically one-third of the original strength of the regiment. The total is higher than those of the 126, 127, and 188 regiments, the other infantry units of the Thirty-Second.

Machine gun battalions of the Division showed 43 killed in action, 29 died of wounds, 22 missing in action, none prisoners and a total loss of 94 men.

Total Losses.
The total losses of the Thirty-Second reached 3,213 while in the entire Division only 43 men were taken prisoners—all in the 127th regiment. Comparison of the total Divisional losses with other Divisions shows vividly the losses of the Thirty-Second:

Thirty-Second	3,213
First Division (regulars)	5,248
Second (with marines)	2,965
Third	3,618
Fourth	3,890
Fourth	2,986
Twenty-Eighth	3,890
42nd (Rainbow)	2,950
Seventy-Seventh	2,692
Seventy-Ninth	2,389

Only the heaviest losers are listed in the comparison here. The Eighty-Fifth, with some members on their way home and others still fighting in Russia, was not included in the official lists.

An alert embarkation official, catching the words, insisted that every man be searched again before boarding the transport. Results of the inquiry have been kept secret.
