REVENUE BILL WAITS RETURN OF PRESIDENT

Senate Adopts Conference Report Without Taking Record Vote.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The conference report on the revenue bill was adopted by the senate this afternoon without a record vote. On the viva voce vote three or four voices were heard to register "No," among them being Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, who offered a substitute bill at the time the present bill passed the senate, and Senator Townsend, of Michigan.

The bill will be held in Washington to be signed by the president upon his return from Europe.

Bill is Record One.

Designed to raise more than $6,000,000,000 in revenue to meet the war expenses of the government this year and $4,000,000,000 next year, it is a record bill for this and all other countries.

Adopted by the house last Saturday, the conference report was called up in the senate Tuesday and has been under discussion three days during which many of its features were criticized by Republicans who also took advantage of the opportunity offered to criticize the administration for the heavy expenditures.

Majority Favored Action.

While not everything in the bill was satisfactory to any one member of the senate, as was the case in the house, the disposition of the very great majority was to accept the conference report so that the bill might become a law, rather than have no revenue legislation at this session and allow the old law to continue in effect.

Under the old law, Chairman Kitchin, of the ways and means committee, estimated that war profiteers would escape payment of $1,700,000,000 in taxes that they will have to pay under the new law.

Under Pressure Since May.

The revenue legislation enacted with the adoption of the conference report by the senate has engaged the attention of taxing experts of congress and the treasury department since May of last year when President Wilson, in an address to the joint session of congress, advised that body that the war expenditures of the government for a year would not be less than $24,000,000,000 and recommended that not less than one third of that amount be raised by taxation.

No Fear of Redism, E. M. Hurley Reports

Washington, Feb. 13.—Bolshevism holds no peril to the United States or Great Britain, France or Belgium.

That was the opinion given today by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board and a member of the international labor legislation committee of the peace conference.

Mr. Hurley, as a member of the committee, has been studying closely labor conditions abroad for the past two months.

Julius Kahn Favors Universal Training

Washington, Feb. 13.—Representative Julius Kahn, of California, ranking Republican of the military affairs committee, made a strong plea for universal military training, during the debate on the army appropriation bill in the house today.

He urged the adoption of such a policy for the United States, not only for its military value, but for civic reasons and the benefits to be derived in improving the physical strength of our young manhood.

Corn Crawls Upward on Chicago Market

Chicago, Feb. 13.—The corn market was active today and values advanced from 5 to 8 cents a bushel.

Knotty Problems Confronted—This is Real Stickler

Slim Pickins hasn't got a thing on Abner Bangs when it comes to solving this one.

Here's the latest problem encountered by a man in a strictly woman's realm, so to speak.

If mother and daughter come into the city hall to register and both have the same given names and neither has an initial, how are you going to designate who is who?

Should the city clerk register the mother as "Caroline Smith, Sr.," and the daughter as "Caroline Smith, Jr.," or should he call a session of the attorneys of the city for a decision on the issue?

Enter City Attorney H. R. Dotsch.

We await the decision.

BLIZZARD GRIPS NORTHWEST AND CRIPPLES WIRES

Chicago, Feb. 13.—The west and northwest is in the grip of a blizzard, which is sweeping eastward. A fifty-mile gale has been sweeping Kansas and Nebraska, crippling wire service and tying up the railroads.

The blizzard extends as far south as Central Oklahoma. Tulsa tonight reported a sixty-five mile an hour gale with heavy snow.

Telephone and telegraph traffic between the Chicago and the Pacific coast is demoralized tonight. Railway traffic from points west of Omaha and Kansas City also suffered much delay.

Telephone lines both north and south of Escanaba were out of order last night, due to the storm raging in the north, and it was with difficulty that a connection could be made to Chicago to get the Morning Press wire service.

For a period of about five minutes electric lights in the city were dimmed. Candles were resorted to in most business establishments that were open.

Telephone operators hurriedly put three lanterns into operation and worked by kerosene light until the electric lights were restored to use.

Escanaba had a touch of a real "blizzard" weather yesterday, beginning in the afternoon and continuing until nearly midnight. The damp snow, carried on a cutting wind made the night the most disagreeable of the winter.

At 1 o'clock this morning it was still drifting and the wind had not gone down. The fall was several inches.

Indiana Abolishes German in Schools

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—The Indiana house of representatives by unanimous vote this afternoon passed two bills relating to German language in the schools.

One was a senate bill to repeal the provision of the 1896 law, which provides for compulsory teaching of German on petition, and to read that "the elementary schools of the state shall be taught in the English language only."

The other bill provides: "That all instruction in the subjects prescribed by law or by the state board of education in the elementary schools of the state, which are subject to the provision of the state school attendance law, shall be conducted in the English language."

Miners in England Reject Late Offer

London, Feb. 13.—Unanimous rejection by the miners federation of the government terms of a daily increase of one shilling and consideration by a strong committee including representatives of the miners of demand for a six hour day, and internationalization of mines, are believed tonight to constitute the prelude to a national miners' strike. The labor horizon is again clouded and the menace of an industrial upheaval is not yet over.

GERMANY MUST ACCEPT TERMS FOR RENEWAL

New Conditions Amount to an Ultimatum and Must be Agreed to.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The new armistice terms agreed on by the supreme war council must be accepted by Germany without quibbling.

Marshal Foch is understood to have departed for Treves late today to communicate the new conditions to the German armistice commission. He will tell the Germans that a supplementary list of military and naval terms will be completed in three or four weeks and will then be presented. They, too, must be signed without any attempt at bargaining, or the advance of the allied armies in to Germany will be resumed where they left off.

House Represents Wilson.

It will be made unmistakably plain to Germany that the time for haggling over the terms is past. The supplementary terms will be drawn up during President Wilson's absence. Col. House will sit in the president's place when they are framed and voted on.

The understanding of the French press is that the new conditions virtually amount to an ultimatum and that they include a clause for prohibiting a German offensive against the Poles.

The draft of terms is said to be a British compromise between the French and American viewpoint.

Nervousness is Waning.

Paris, Feb. 13.—Public nervousness over the possibility of the resumption of active fighting, which the cancellation of soldiers' leaves had foreshadowed, has diminished owing to reports inspiring confidence that Germany cannot now dream of renewal of warfare.

Nevertheless, the French opinion strongly favors exacting a pledge from Germany that she will obey the terms in letter and spirit. At the conference, discussion whereon the possibilities of the exercise of force, is diminishing daily.

Wilson Says He'll Return.

Paris, Feb. 13.—From President Wilson's own lips has at last come public announcement that he proposes to return to France to take a hand in the final shaping of the league of nations. Moreover, "sometimes" after his return he is confident there may be celebrated the completion of the league, "at any rate up to a certain very far advanced stage."

The president said so in a speech to a delegation of the French society for a league of nations last night, which was not made public until this evening.

Mr. Wilson refuted the idea that he is a dreamer, more interested in principles than in practice.

"Principles do not need any debate," he said. "But the difficulty is putting them into practice."

He pointed to the fact that the league of nations, now almost an accomplished fact, was some five years ago considered an impractical dream.

Small Percentage of Crooks in Army

New York, Feb. 13.—The percentage of criminals in the American army was exceedingly small; most of our trouble was caused by neutrals who had settled in the largest cities of France." This statement was made by Capt. Bernard J. Flood who has just returned from France. He has been for 18 months chief of the division of criminal investigation of the American expeditionary force, and possesses exact knowledge of conditions.

Crowder Will be the Army Judge Advocate

Washington, Feb. 13.—The senate today confirmed the nomination of Major General Crowder to be army judge advocate general for another term of four years.

REGISTRATIONS SOAR AS WOMEN RUSH AT CLOSE

Despite the "closed season" Wednesday for registration of women, the feminine sex staged a strong comeback Thursday and brought the total number of registrations from 1,622 on Tuesday to 1,321 when City Clerk Carl E. Anderson closed his office at 9 o'clock last night. Two more days, today and tomorrow, remain for the women to register.

Register After Primaries.

After the spring primaries, March 5, the women will be given another opportunity to register until the spring election is staged. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday when there were indications the city clerk's office would be "swamped" by women who are hurrying to insure their rights to vote.

The sixth ward now holds the lead in the number of registrations with a total of 301. The fifth one has dropped to third place, having 228 registrations to date. In the fourth ward, however, the women have registered to bring the total of 284.

Registration by Wards.

The registration by wards follows:

First	46
Second	171
Third	156
Fourth	284
Fifth	228
Sixth	301
Seventh	129
Total	1321

BUSINESS WILL DECIDE POLICY OF SHIP BOARD

Washington, Feb. 13.—American business, finance and industry will be asked to decide whether or not the American mercantile marine shall be operated by the government or shall be sold to individuals.

Hurley Resumes Work.

Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board, returned to his desk today after two months at the peace conference, and declared that a definite policy with regard to the disposal of the merchant fleet built by the government would be decided upon within 30 days.

The policy is to be determined not by the shipping board so much as by individuals themselves in order to sound the sentiment of the nations on the best way to handle the situation in which ships worth $4,000,000,000 and the entire international carrying trade of the nation are bound up.

Send Out Questionnaires.

Mr. Hurley is preparing a direct questionnaire to every chamber of commerce, banking interest, shipping interest, import and export business in the country.

His plan was put before President Wilson in Paris, with his approval.

French War Ship Ashore in Snows

Paris, Feb. 13.—The French dreadnaught Morabean has been driven ashore at Sebastopol, the big Black Sea port, in a snow storm. At last accounts it seemed doubtful whether the big warship would be saved from utter destruction.

I. W. W. Suspect is Arrested; Released

Following complaints made by North Escanaba residents, August Dietsch, woodsman, was arrested by police authorities here yesterday as an I. W. W. suspect. An investigation however, proved that suspicions were unwarranted. Dietsch is a German enemy alien who has been in this country about seven years. He said he was born in Alsace of French and German parents. After a warning by Police Chief John J. Toian that any seditious remarks would result in his rearrest, Dietsch was released.

King Ferdinand Hurt In Attack At Palace

Copenhagen, Feb. 13.—An anti-crown revolution has broken out in Roumania and is spreading swiftly, according to Bucharest dispatches by way of Budapest and Vienna today.

King Ferdinand was wounded, how seriously is not stated, when the car in which he and his family attempted to escape from Bucharest to Jassy was stoned. Crowds of rebels surrounded the machine, stopped it and forced the royal party to return to Bucharest palace, which was subsequently attacked.

Report Cabinet is Tottering.

Shouts of "Down With the Monarchy! Long live the Republic and Revolutionary Proletariats," are resounding in the streets of the Roumanian capital. The cabinet is reported tottering.

Bolshevist propaganda had a hand in the uprising, according to some dispatches.

Morale of Army is Shaky.

The food shortage is critical and the whole country is in a state of unprecedented disorder. Government troops prevented the execution of the rebel threats to assassinate King Ferdinand but the morale of the Roumanian army is described as shaky.

SMOKED, GETS 20-YEAR TERM

Injustice to "Rookie" at Cantonment Told in Inquiry.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The story of how a young man, only 25 days in the military service of the country was sentenced to from 20 to 30 years imprisonment for a comparatively slight infraction of military law, was related to the senate military affairs committee today by Brigadier General S. T. Ansell, acting judge advocate general.

The committee began hearings on Senator Chamberlain's bill to revise the military laws and change courts martial customs.

Smoked in the Kitchen.

The sample of military justice referred to followed a reprimand administered to a soldier in one of the cantonments for smoking a cigarette while on "kitchen police" duty.

The man was new in the service, and doubtless unfamiliar with military customs, regulations and requirements, General Ansell thought.

When the reprimand, administered by a second lieutenant who probably was also new, was followed by a demand that the man turn over his cigarette to the lieutenant, he refused, with what General Ansell characterized as "raucous language" and was placed under military arrest.

Charges Were Preferred.

Charges of disobedience and disrespect to an officer were preferred against him, and a court martial found him guilty and he was sentenced to 20 or 30 years. The findings were approved by the commanding officer, the authority convening the court.

When Senator New, of Indiana, suggested that the lieutenant in question should, in view of the inexperience of the offender, have cautioned him and helped him to understand the requirements of military law and customs, Senator Thomas said sharply:

"Any man but a damned fool would have done so."

Called It "Un-American"

Senator Thomas added that any system that would permit such a thing to happen was not only "un-American and unthinkable, but would make Bolshevists of every relative the man had."

He added also that he could now begin to understand why it was so difficult to keep the regular army complement full in peace time.

Another instance cited by General Ansell was the case of several non-

WITNESS SAYS COUNTRY FULL OF BOLSHEVIKS

Russian Leaders Threaten to "Stage Same Show" in United States

Washington, Feb. 13.—Dissatisfaction of workmen and peasants with the present Bolshevik rule in Russia is almost certain to lead to the overthrow of the government and establishment of a new and more democratic form of government, according to witnesses who were heard by the Overman subcommittee today.

The witnesses described the peasants and workmen as thoroughly disgusted with the present government and as certain to welcome a change. Lenin and Trotsky were quoted in denial of the characterization of the Soviet government as "democratic" there appellation for it being an "autocracy of the Proletariats."

"Men on Stand."

Those who testified were Ralph Dennis of Evanston, Ill., Robert S. Leonard of St. Paul, Minn., and R. M. Story of Urbana, Ill. All were Y. M. C. A. workers in various parts of Russia up to last September.

Dennis said there were undoubtedly only reason why the peasants and workmen do not rise in rebellion against the Soviets is that they are ignorant of politics and do not know how to get together. He expressed the belief that if some strong influence were set at work in Russia, either from the outside or from the intelligent men who oppose Bolshevik rule, a real democracy might be formed out of the existing chaotic element.

Industry at Standstill.

Statements issued by Lenin and Trotsky to the effect that factories are all running and that industry is flourishing were emphatically denied by the witness. He said industry was at a standstill and that the peasants are living off their savings. There is food in abundance, he said, but transportation and distribution are practically impossible.

Dennis said there were undoubtedly persons in the United States who were helping to spread Bolshevik propaganda. He declared there is a strong organization "reaching from New York to San Francisco" to carry on this work.

"Full Same Show Here."

"When I left Petrograd," Dennis said, "some of the leading Bolsheviks said that in about ten years they were coming over to America to 'pull off the same show here.'"

A mass meeting held in the Coliseum in Chicago, at which Victor Berger and others spoke, was mentioned by Dennis as a Bolshevik meeting. Leonard told of similar meetings held two weeks ago in Minneapolis at which Alexander Grigorovich, who had been a delegate to the Soviet congress in New York, delivered a tirade against capitalism and praised the Bolsheviks.

Says 300 Officers Shot.

Leonard described his experiences in Moscow and other cities in Russia and told of his arrest and imprisonment on the charge of being Bolshevik. He said scores of persons, including many former officers of the Russian army, were taken out of the jails and shot without trial. Three hundred officers in one detachment were shot down, he said.

Britain to Probe Nationalization.

London, Feb. 13.—The British government is perfectly willing to inquire into the question of nationalization, Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law stated in the house of commons late today. The statement was made in reply to a speech by J. H. Thomas, who demanded the nationalization of railways, mines and land, and the removal of profiteering as the "only salvation of the labor unrest."

The chancellor also promised measures for the suppression of profiteering.

Midwinter Puts Tubers on Skids

Grand Rapids, Minn.—The potato market is demoralized according to potato men in the local market when asked as to the condition of the market. Purchases made early last month at fair prices in the anticipation that the weather would tighten up and the market rise, went good for a few days. The Chicago and other markets anticipating like weather and market conditions.

But the continued mild weather of January pulled the bottom out of the market and today the local dealers are paying 75 to 85 cents a hundred, with but very little stuff moving. One dealer stated that he saw no chance for the market to brace up again, and that aside from special stock in comparatively small lots, there would be no more good prices paid for potatoes this season.

This view of the market is as the reporter finds conditions, and it is given for what it is worth.

BOWLING

Minus Taylor who has been knocking the pins over at a rapid rate in the Green Bay tournament, the Phillies won just the same Wednesday at the Delft alleys, taking three games from Uncle Joe Urwan's crowd of Browns.

No sensational scores were made, however, and Moersch's mark of 193 in the opening game was the strongest. He also made the best average score of any individual on either team. Urwan's bowling was considerably below average.

The score follows:

Phillies.
A. Carlson	156	177

Taylor is Going Good.

If Earl Taylor goes into the singles in the Wisconsin state bowling tournament events at Green Bay this week, he is likely to come away with one of the best marks of the meet. At least, such is indicated in his bowling there already.

Taylor left Escanaba Sunday night to bowl with the Green Bay Nash company. In a game Tuesday he scored a total of 838 pins, the highest mark on his team, leading his team mates in total pins by more than 100. The closest man to that mark was J. Reeke, who scored but $95.

In the first game Taylor apparently didn't get the lay of the land very well and registered 178, considerable below his average here. In the second game, however, he hit a stride for 255 and came back in the third with 205 pins.

When the Princess stands before the famous Coronation altar, which will be buried with flowers, she will promise only "to love and honor" her husband.

TRADERS WITH LITTLE FAITH PAY DEARLY

New York, Feb. 13.—Traders with no faith in the United States paid dearly for their lack of patriotism today when they were compelled to cover short contracts at materially higher prices.

The upward swing in the market was due to a slight panic of fear that went through the professional ranks. Buying was urgent and in large volume. It eased off before the close of the day with the result that the market fell back about a point from its high level.

The close, however, was strong with material net gains in nearly all issues.

Levi Olive Returns to Gladstone Home

German propaganda circulated last summer in an attempt to instill the belief that Levi Olive of Gladstone had lost both legs and was otherwise mutilated, crippled and disabled for life. It was shown to be falsehood of the most malignant type when the soldier returned home in prime physical condition.

At Chateau Thierry.

Olive was a member of Co. K, 125th Infantry, 32nd Division. He was wounded in his left foot and left hand and suffered from the effects of poison gas on July 31, while in action with the fighting Michigan-Wisconsin guardsmen.

He enlisted as a member of Company L, during that organization's stay in Escanaba, but at Waco, Tex., he was transferred to K Company in the same regiment—the 136th.

Saw Much Service.

Overseas he saw all of the severe action on the Lorraine front early in the year and was actively engaged at the Marne until flying shrapnel sent him to the hospital.

He returned home on January 29.

SMOKED, GETS 20-YEAR TERM

Injustice to "Rookie" at Cantonment Told in Inquiry.

Their commander found them absent and ordered them to report for drill. Replying on the military regulation that a noncommissioned officer shall perform no duty when in arrest, they refused.

Charged With Mutiny.

A charge of mutinous conduct was then lodged against them and they were given sentences of from three to eight years imprisonment and dishonorable discharge. The department reviewed the case, said General Ansell but could do nothing legally to modify the sentences.

General Ansell read a memorandum submitted to him by the Secretary of War in November, 1917, urging that the department make arrangements to subject courts martial to legal procedure and to legal review by the judge advocate's department.

At that time he warned that such injustices might be expected. Nevertheless, he said, in answer to demand from the committee, General Crowder, his superior officer, and other high military authorities, persuaded the secretary of war that to adopt his view would "turn the administration of military justice over to lawyers and break down discipline in the army."

Not Based On Injustice.

General Ansell said he believed no permanent discipline in a democratic army like that organized under the selective draft law could be based on injustice.

He also criticized the administration for absence of law, officers to exercise the function of judge, and said that many of the injustices done were due to the fact that there was no independent law officer at the trial competent to bring out facts essential to determine the existence of guilt or the nature of it.

The judge advocate under the present system is simply prosecutor.

Baker To Be Witness.

Provost Marshal General Crowder, who is also judge advocate general, was expected to be first to appear before the committee in his bearing, but it is now understood that he will be the last to be heard. General Ansell will be recalled either tomorrow afternoon or on Saturday, when the next hearing will be conducted.

It is expected Secretary of War Baker will be a witness before the end of the hearing.

Sage Tea Dandy To Darken Hair

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Joe Lindquist is Officer in Navy

I. Schram, former upper peninsula baseball magnate, yesterday received an interesting letter from Joseph B. Lindquist, first-sacker for Escanaba in the palmy days of the game here and, the idol of this section of the upper peninsula. Lindquist's three and four base circuits, which came at startlingly frequent intervals, registered his name indelibly among the batsmen of the upstate. He says:

Dear Friend:—

No doubt you will be framing your thoughts together for some time before being able to guess who this Philadelphia person really is. I might as well introduce myself immediately—no other than Crooked-Armed Lindquist, your rotten first-sacker and would-be seeker of German helmets.

Got No Trophies.

No, I cannot say I am returning from the war with any trophies but I can say that I have gained much experience during the past two years. Maybe I can even tell my grandchildren all about the great naval battles I did not take part in and in which I did not have the pleasure of being one of the participants.

I enlisted in the navy away back in June-1917 as architect for the Great Lakes naval training station. The naval station grew so very fond of me that I was detached in November-1917. On a very cold and raw day very late in that same November I was a regular officer aboard the USS Minneapolis.

I was aboard this ship four months during which time I could not find any German submarines although we visited their playgrounds on two occasions.

To Radio Service.

In March I was made communication officer in the naval radio work at Philadelphia. During the summer just passed I really had some very interesting experiences as the German subs called on us and came right up into the mouth of the Delaware river. All orders given to our section bases at Cape May, Lewis and Atlantic City were originated at the commandants' offices in Philadelphia and thence transmitted from our office.

Like Waiting for Cloths.

This part of the work was very exciting, something similar to three on bases and two and three on the batter. I have often thought of Escanaba and my many good friends there. I am always in Escanaba around June, July and August. I have often wondered during some of my nice warm rides on the bridge during January on the old Atlantic if I could hit one or two between the outfielders. When I happen to think that seven years have elapsed since then—well you can't hold the clock back.

"Feeling the Public"

At present I am doing my very best to obtain my release from the service contemplating going back to Chicago and getting into business again.

I am very anxious to know all about you and the many happenings that have since occurred. I shall be greatly interested.

How about Charlie Gagnon? Does he still blame me for spilling the ink? What about Dreamy Scanlon? Is he still fooling the public?

Kindest regards to all my friends, especially the sail boat, etc.

Your as ever,
JOSEPH B. LINDQUIST,
City Club,
Philadelphia.

Emerson Harvey Back from Overseas Duty

Emerson Harvey, who recently arrived in New York from overseas service with the American troops, has received his formal discharge and has returned to his home here. Mr. Harvey saw active service for several months in France.

Another Attempt to Find Missing Man

Mrs. Adeline Roberts, 816 Wells avenue, who has been unable to get any information concerning her son, Lawrence, since the official word that he was wounded in action on July 18 at Chateau Thierry, has again asked County Clerk Pepln to take the matter up once more with the war department.

Previous to July, Roberts wrote regularly. Since, no word whatever has been received. The Red Cross bureau has been unable to determine the reason for the extended silence.

Mrs. Roberts has three other sons in the service.

Crosby Discharged; Reside in Illinois

Sergt. John Crosby, of Chicago, has been honorably discharged from military service at Camp Grant. Sergt. Crosby and wife will make their home in Belvidere, Ill. Mrs. Crosby formerly was Miss Stella Vilette.

JAEGERS RETURNS.

Wendell Jaegers has returned home to Wells, having been mustered out of the service at Camp Custer.

FIGURES SHOW DELTA LEADER IN ROAD WORK

Has Received $254,000 in Rewards—More Than State Taxes.

In the period from 1905 to 1919, Delta county received a total of $254,153.71 from the state of Michigan as rewards for highway work. Of this sum, $214,262.87 was in state rewards on roads. The remaining $42,890.84 was in bridges built by the state.

Leader in State.
These figures on file at the office of R. P. Mason, county highway engineer, show that the position held by Delta county not only is among the leaders of the entire state but far and away ahead of the remaining counties of the upper peninsula.

Of the 83 counties in Michigan only six have received more money than Delta and these are all larger and richer counties in the lower section of the state.

In the peninsula, only two counties have received any where nearly as much as half as much. These are Houghton, receiving $159,215 and Iron getting $154,220.

More Than Paid In.
Total rewards paid all fifteen upper peninsula counties amount to $1,379,785 of which Delta received 18.4 per cent or nearly one fifth.

In the same period that Delta received the above large sum in rewards, she paid in state road taxes $34,306.92. That means that the state paid back to the county, $219,746.79 more than Delta paid the state for road taxes.

As a contrast to this, Wayne county in the same length of time paid $1,611,945.65 in road taxes and received back but $456,556.31, or about a fourth as much as went into the state fund from that county.

More Roads Needed.
It should be evident from the foregoing that Delta has been among the foremost in road building and in fact she has more miles of good roads than most counties. However, Delta is so situated that it takes more roads to reach all sections of the county.

Of the total of 200 miles in the county road system, 70 miles is macadam and some 25 miles more is hard surface, requiring considerable work however to put them in the durable class.

Has Six Routes In.
"Delta county being the hub of the upper peninsula with roads radiating in every direction, she must necessarily have more mileage than any other county," Mr. Mason says. "The other counties have in general, one main route either north or south or east and west and in some cases, both."

"Delta has main roads classed as inter-county leading out in six directions, from south around by west, northwest, north and east."

"When the trunk lines are all completed, all good roads will lead to Escanaba," Mr. Mason points out.

Auto Mechanics in Demand; Disabled Soldiers Training

Washington, Feb. 13.—One of the most popular occupations for which disabled soldiers are being trained by federal board for vocational education is that of auto mechanics, and those who take and finish the course have no difficulty in finding steady employment at remunerative wages. There are many opportunities in the motor industry; the calls for competent men greatly exceed the supply, and probably will continue to exceed the number of available men for some years at least.

Care of Farm Tractors.
Another development or specialized branch of this training is that of the operation, care and repair of farm tractors and farm machinery generally. This is affording boys who have been raised on the farms a chance to become specialists in a line which is steadily growing, for all indications are that the age of machinery and labor saving appliances on the farms is right at hand. Tractor operators are in good demand, especially on the large prairie wheat farms of the northwest.

Anxious To Correspond.
The federal board for vocational education at Washington is anxious to correspond with any disabled soldiers or sailors or members of the families of such men. Even if he has gone out in civil life and attempted to make his living without special training, and finds his handicaps too much for him, he is still entitled to this special training by the government, absolutely free and is given a support fund of $65 per month while he is in training, with the practical certainty of a position being ready for him when he has finished his course and is competent to take on the work and a first class salary.

Caproni Building Giant Aeroplane; Fly to the States

Rome—Gianni Caproni has almost finished the gigantic airship in which he intends to fly from Italy to America. It is a colossal tri-plane equipped with five motors of 3,000 horse power each, and a large cabin furnished with everything to make the voyage comfortable for several passengers who can be accommodated. Caproni will call his new plane the White Eagle. The name is linked to a strange prophecy published here in 1916, which is attributed to an English monk of the seventeenth century.

Typifies the Eagle.
The prophecy asserted that in the twentieth century there would be a great world war, started by the diabolical cleverness of an Emperor of the country of Martin Luther in alliance with another Emperor, both bearing on their military uniforms and on their national scutcheons two black eagles. It added that civilization would defeat and throw out the barbarians, whose empires would be divided into 22 states.

It is inferred that the White Eagle is intended to typify the American bird.

The poet W. Lewis has made the event the subject of a poem which has been set to music. The whole was presented with a beautiful allegorical design to President Wilson when he was in Milan. It was as a result of his admiration for the poem and the design so artistically suggestive that Caproni decided on the name of White Eagle for his new and gigantic plane.

Route of Columbus.
It is asserted that the aviators who will make the trip intended to follow the route of Columbus across the sea. They will fly from Italy to Cadiz, thence to the Azores and from Azores to the American coast alighting in the neighborhood of Washington.

CORRECTIONS IN CASUALTY LISTS MADE

Central Records Office is Kept Busy Chasing All Sorts of Clues.

The Central Records Office of the A. E. F. at Bourges is busy bringing back to life soldiers officially—but erroneously—reported killed or missing in action.

Mistakes, many of them excusable, were made during the period of hostilities in reporting and classifying casualties and transmitting them to the States. Between one and two per cent of the cases of "killed" or "missing in action" casualties are open to suspicion, and now a score or more officers and several hundred enlisted men are devoting their efforts to ascertaining whether or not certain soldiers are dead or living and, in either case, to determine the whereabouts of their bodies or persons.

Dead Long Enough.
"I have been dead long enough," a certain captain remarked casually the other day as he walked into the offices of the Casualty Department at the Central Record's office. "I want to live officially." In the records he was "dead." This, it was explained, was due to an incorrect casualty report.

Errors in the transmission of names to the States, mistakes in reporting casualties, assumptions that a man is dead are but a few of the factors which create work for the men straightening out the casualties.

When the barest suspicion that a man reported dead may still be alive comes into this department, a thorough search is made for him, even though his whereabouts or movements may not be on record.

Letter Goes Home Late.
Take the case of an Infantry private. His company advanced and one of his comrades reported that he had fallen before reaching the enemy lines. Before the report was received the wounded soldier was evacuated into a French hospital, where no report was made of his presence. Then he was transferred to an American hospital, where the first report of his casualty was made.

While at the latter hospital he died. Four days before he died an auxiliary war worker visited him and consented to write home and tell his folks he was "getting along splendidly." The worker delayed writing for two weeks. In the meantime the death was reported and cabled to the States. Upon the receipt of a letter dated later than the date on which the soldier died, his family requested information.

Then Work Begins.
When such requests are forwarded to Bourges the work of the Casualty Department begins. Clues and suggestions are worked upon until some conclusive information is obtained—either that the man is dead, in which case the location of his organization is obtained.

Some clues are run down in a day, others take two or three days, others weeks, but something definite is always achieved. It may mean interviewing half a company of Infantry. It may mean keeping the wires of long-distance telephones singing for days.—Stars and Stripes.

Getting Rid of Colds.
The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on.

Dreadful Cough Cured.
A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olson, of Maryville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy Jean caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."

THEY CANNOT UNDERSTAND. Count Johann Bernstorff will not be a member of the German Peace Commission in Paris.

Anything else, a compromise in which a Bernstorff would play a prominent part, would by all means have been disastrous to the new Germany.

It will not be fully believed that Germany has shed her skin, that she has purged herself and become converted until she has relentlessly relegated to permanent oblivion the men who led her astray.

With what false conceptions of America Germany and German-Austria still deceive themselves about the true situation is proven by a notice taken from the "Wiener Arbeiterzeitung," according to which the "Vienna Bulletin," a publication which is intended for the English and the American press, announces that "in Viennese liberal (?) circles it is intended to induce German-Americans who play an important role in political life, to hold lectures in Vienna about the republican form of government, republican institutions, etc."

A COMEDY OF GERMAN SELF-DECEPTION.

The outbursts among the Germans against President Wilson because he has declined to act as special advocate for them at the peace conference, and has disappointed their expectations has a decidedly humorous side.

Question: Where are they going to take those Reds when they deport them from the United States? Makes no difference—the middle of the ocean would be as good a place as any.

This unanimity of newspaper opinion on political matters in Escanaba this spring will at least be disappointing to the newspaper squib writers of the peninsula.

Shades of Olie Moses and Omara, it's sure a far cry from Delta county's old political convention system to women on the Republican county committee.

Contrary to general opinion the newspapers of the state are not greatly interested in bills introduced in the legislature prohibiting candidates for governor, congress and United States senate, from advertising.

Just Jests

"Papa," said small Edward, "why is it you say a long prayer, and I say a short prayer?"

"Because you are not old enough to learn a long prayer, Edward," he replied.

"Oh," said the little fellow, "I thought it was 'cause I wasn't big enough to be as wicked as you are."

"What is the plural of 'man' Charles?" asked the teacher of a small pupil.

"Men," answered Charles.

"Correct," said the teacher. "And what is the plural for child?"

"Twins," was the logical but unexpected reply.

Little Mark, aged five, had been imparting to the minister, the information that his father had a new set of teeth.

"Indeed!" said the good man, patronizingly. "And what is he going to do with the old ones?"

"Oh," replied little Mark, "I spose mamma will cut them down and make me wear them."

After a certain concert a well known German cantatrice asked a gentleman to whom she had been introduced how he liked her duet.

"You sang charmingly, madam. But why did you select such a horrid piece of music?"

"Sir, that was written by my late husband."

"Ah, yes, of course, I did not mean—But why did you select such a cow to sing with you?"

"Ach, Himmel, that is my present husband!"

A Home For a Cave.

Sir George Cave, the British home secretary, tells the following yarn regarding a namesake of his—Cave Browne-Cave, who came into prominence some years ago as the "cow-boy baronet."

A certain Mr. Home, addressing one of the American Cave-Browne-Caves, casually dropped two-thirds of the name, and was promptly reprimanded with the remark:

"I say, old chap, don't call me Cave; my name is Cave-Browne-Cave." Mr. Home apologized, but did not forget. And a little later, when Mr. Cave-Browne-Cave began a remark with, "I say, Home"—the other said:

"Don't call me Home, old chap—I prefer to be called Home-Sweet-Home."—London Tit-Bits.

PRESS COMMENT

The people who think the modern farmer is an Uncle Reuben, should see him whisking around the corners after dark, driving his automobile over to Good Roads meeting at the nearest county center.

It is hard to tell which is more pathetic, Germany's sob stuff or her effort to appear ferocious again.

We have become so accustomed to war sacrifices in the last two fiscal years that all we mean when we say we are going to get a new suit is that we are going to send the old one to the cleaners again.

Germany is commencing to quibble over compliance with some of the armistice requirements.

America appreciates the compliment, but if it is all the same to the allies, some nation nearer the scene of trouble should be appointed Turkey's guardian.

WOMAN'S PARTY FATAL MOVE IN STATE, CLAIMS

Wayne County Head States Effect Would Split Up Results.

DETROIT—"Formation of a woman's voting party would be disastrous to Michigan," Mrs. Myron B. Vorce, president of the Wayne County Equal Suffrage League, declared in reply to the activities of the Women's Campaign League under the leadership of Mrs. Alexander Macdonald.

"The conservative suffragist believed and worked for the ballot to cooperate with men and not to establish competition on sex lines. Mrs. Vorce said. "It is true Michigan needs her women, as for example, the institutions now under investigation in the state demonstrate. Nothing could more emphatically prove the loss to the state's best welfare in woman's political silence than these flagrant examples.

Must Co-operate.
"But the way to accomplish the desired effect is for men and women to work together and establish decent conditions. As for the organization of a separate voting party nothing would so delight the corrupt politicians in all parties. In such a case woman's vote would prove a negligible quantity.

"Effective use of woman's vote is to enter the great parties, take an active interest in their platforms and gradually work toward the elimination of undesirable conditions. In this way the vote will surely count," Mrs. Vorce continued.

Non-Partisan Exists.
"A non-partisan body of women composed of individuals of different party affiliations and backing a legislative program pertaining especially to measures affecting the welfare of women and children, now exists and is daily answering many problems that arise in the city and state.

"Co-operating with the state association the Wayne County Equal Suffrage League has adopted a definite legislative program which is as follows:

"That women ask for the enforcement of existing laws, including the Red Light injunction and abatement law; co-guardianship of children; that the age of consent be raised from 16 to 21 years; a minimum wage for women; the establishment of an industrial welfare commission to consider such questions as the regulations of hours of labor for women, wages and conditions surrounding the employment of women; appointment of women on all state boards having jurisdiction over women and children; appointment of two women welfare advisers under direction of the State Board of Charities and Corrections; legitimizing the status of children born out of wedlock, and a eugenic law forbidding the marriage of physically or mentally unfit persons such as epileptics, insane, feeble-minded, advanced tuberculosis, and those suffering from social diseases.

"Let us hope that the women of Michigan will profit by the mistake made by women of England and New York and not rush pell-mell to gain political offices immediately upon being enfranchised," the suffrage leader said.

Semester Exams Are Started at School

Tackle Ishpeming at Gym Here Tonight

Escanaba's High school basketball aggregation is ready to open fire against the Ishpeming High tonight at the gymnasium here in what should prove a strong game, despite the apparent confidence of the Ishpeming squad that the Escanabans haven't got a ghost of a show.

No announcement was made Thursday night by Coach Sonnenberg regarding a change in the lineup, but it is not altogether unlikely that he will make eleventh hour rearrangement of the lineup. The Escanaba players know they will tackle some speed demons on the floor, as Ishpeming has four of last season's men, and the last season saw the Ishpeming gang take the championship of the peninsula.

Contrary to the belief among students here, there will be no dance tonight after the game. Announcement to this effect was made last night by the management.

32nd Mourns Death of Col. Westnedge

Rengsdorf, Germany.—(By mail) —News of the death of Col. Joseph B. Westnedge, of Kalamazoo, which has just filtered back to the 32nd division, has brought universal expressions of regret. The 126th infantry, which he commanded through its campaigns in France, is in gloom and the veterans who followed "Fighting Joe" in the days when the regiment was making fame for itself can not be consoled.

"Fighting Joe" was perhaps the best-known officer in the division. Certainly he was one of the most popular personally and one of the most admired as a soldier. In his own regiment he was adored as the ideal type of leader. One can not talk to a member of the 126th infantry very long without hearing something about Col. Westnedge's feats.

Kessler is Called One of "Hard Lucks"

New York—In France 16 months without a chance to fight the Germans was the "hard luck" of Capt. T. F. Kessler, of Escanaba, Mich. Capt. Kessler was in charge of artillery ammunition in the ordnance corps and made an enviable record, despite his failure to get to the fighting front.

No More Discharges to Soldiers in U. S.

New York—No further discharges will be granted soldiers now in service in the United States, Col. J. R. McAndrews announced here. Col. McAndrews is a member of the Army General Staff. Overseas troops only will be discharged, he said, 160,000 returning in February and 200,000 in March.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Why is man and woman, half the time feeling nervous, despondent, worried, some day headaches, dull and astringent, some days really incapacitated by illness.
If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddied complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a tablespoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their tums at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

300 State Convicts to be Moved; Some Going to Marquette

MARQUETTE—A telegram was received at the Marquette prison from Governor Sleeper that failed to arouse any great enthusiasm.

It related that there is need to move 300 convicts from the Jackson prison and asked how many of the 300 could be taken care of in Marquette.

It was answered with word that the Marquette prison already had thirty-seven more inmates than there is cell capacity for, also by the statement that the warden, Mr. Russell, would be in Lansing early in the week, and would take the matter up in detail with the governor.

While there is no definite information on that point here, it is surmised that the decision to move 300 convicts from the Jackson prison is due to the destruction by fire in the institution last Friday night of the building that housed the plant operated by the Michigan Seating company with convict labor. The loss was $400,000 as the plant was a large one. It is assumed that it employed about the number of men it is desired to transfer from the Jackson prison because there is no work for them there.

Requirements to Get Citizenship Tighten

Prospective citizens should attend night school, said F. W. Manthey, of St. Paul, naturalization examiner, to a Morning Press representative.

He declares that the government has purchased text books for their use and that the school system of the whole country is co-operating with the hope of making all applicants eligible. The night school is the only means by which illiterate applicants can make themselves qualify for their citizenship papers.

Applicants will also be asked what part they played in helping America win the war. Such questions have been put to the enduring the past two years but now the draft records will be brought into use.

It is apparent that aliens who escaped service because they were allons will be denied citizenship. The bureau has already ruled that men who have been placed in Class 5 owing to their alienage will be denied citizenship.

F. E. KING WILL CONCLUDE WORK AUGUST FIRST

After nearly a decade of service as superintendent of schools here, F. E. King will leave Escanaba at the close of the school year to take up his duties as head of the school system in one of the larger cities in Illinois. Mr. King's resignation was accepted by the board of education at a meeting this week. It will be effective August 1.

The offer from Illinois was received several weeks ago and he had given the matter considerable thought. In addition to the financial inducements of the new position, it will take him nearer to other members of his family, a material factor in his acceptance of the offer. Mr. King's successor here will probably be named at an early meeting of the board.

A. Tracey and Leonard Clapp of Marinette are spending a few days here on business.

Frank Scanlan Won't Run for Supervisor

France Gives Aid to America

The pouring out of French blood and the enormous financial sacrifices are not the only aid France has given America. We are indebted to the French peasants for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments which has not only been marvelously successful over there, but has been equally so over here. The ingredients are imported and put up for sale in this country by Geo. H. Mayr, for many years a leading Chicago chemist. Under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

If Lincoln Lived Today

Again would he speak those now famous words:

"With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in."

This is the spirit which America has taken across the seas to the battle-field and to the conferences around the peace table.

As evidenced by Lincoln's words and deeds, it saved America in the days after the Civil War.

This same spirit in triumph will save the shattered world today.

Petition Offered; Too Late to File

The petition of Mrs. Nellie A. Hall to have her name placed on the primary election ballot as a candidate for the Escanaba mayoralty nomination was presented yesterday to City Clerk Carl E. Anderson for filing. The petitioners were told that the time for filing expired at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and it would not be legal to place Mrs. Hall's name on the ballot.

Due to the misinterpretation of the attorney general's ruling, it had been understood that no signatures could be secured after 4 o'clock and that there was no "dead line" for filing the document.
