

CLEMENCEAU IS SINKING

TREASURERS TO KEEP ELECTION FUND, IS BILL

New Campaign Measure to Prevent Recurrence of Senate Tangle.

Lansing, Feb. 21.—Candidates for public office in Michigan will not be able to swear, as did Truman H. Newberry, United States senator elect on the face of the returns, that they did not know anything about expenses of their campaign, if a bill which was presented in the house today by Representative Warner, of Ionia, becomes a law.

The measure provides that all campaign money must be put in the state treasury if for a state office, and in the county treasury, if a city or county office. The treasurer and the candidate must both render an accounting of expenditures.

Prevent Free Spending. The measure is designed to prevent just such situations as were created by Newberry's managers, who admit spending $176,000 for his nomination. The bill has "teeth" in it and it is expected there will be a loud demand for painless extraction.

Another method of preventing the same men running on more than one ticket at a primary election, as Henry Ford did in Michigan last fall, is contained in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Warner, chairman of the elections committee.

Must be a "Believer." The bill provides that no candidate shall have his name on the ballot unless he has sworn that he is a member of and a believer in the principles of the party.

The Warner measure also would put on the statute books features of the old enrollment law of Michigan and change the date of the fall primaries from Aug. 1 to the first week in September.

That the Holland-Kappler eight-hour bill is a "cleverly concealed" piece of legislation to increase wages, was the chief argument produced against that measure by representatives of employers before the house committee at a public hearing today.

Pass Automobile Bill. The house finally passed the Hicks bill providing that when autoists meet at the intersection of roads the one on the right shall have the right of way. This measure had previously passed the senate.

Law Aimed at Notaries. Swearing to falsehoods about material facts in any kind of affidavits made before a notary public or other officer having authority to administer oaths will be punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for not exceeding five years, if a bill introduced by Senator George M. Condon, of Detroit, is adopted.

Over a Million Spent. A conservative estimate places the value of liquor carried openly across the border during the last three days at $1,500,000. An official estimate made today placed the number of people traveling over steam and electric lines between Toledo and Detroit Thursday at 15,800. Automobiles were estimated at an average of 75 an hour, both day and night, that made the 120-mile round trip.

NO DELIVERY OF MAIL BY THE CARRIERS HERE TODAY

There will be no delivery of mail today by the postoffice carriers who will observe Washington's birthday anniversary. It was announced yesterday by Postmaster John O'Meara. The general delivery window will be open for transients from 10 to 11 o'clock in the forenoon and from 6 to 7 o'clock in the evening.

Birthday Washington Anniversary to be Observed Today; Schools Held Programs

While there will be no general observance of the birthday anniversary of George Washington, all banking institutions in the city will be closed

Practically all schools, both public and parochial, held programs Friday afternoon in memory of the first president of the United States. Because the holiday falls on Saturday, there was no dismissal of classes from the school rooms for a full or half-day holiday.

STATE POLICE FIGHT RUNNERS

Blanketing Injunctions Are Used to Check Traffic in Liquor.

Detroit, Feb. 21.—Armed with a blanketing injunction the state constabulary waged more drastic law than ever on the rum runners, and 350 mounted police are now patrolling the southern border of the state in an effort to turn back smugglers from Ohio and Illinois.

The injunction, according to Attorney General Groesbeck, was in the nature of a ruse procedure designed to fit the emergency created by the overthrow of the search and seizure act by the supreme court Tuesday.

Copies of the notices were posted at various points along the border and persons who violate them will be arrested for contempt of court and their liquor confiscated.

Those who refuse to abide by the injunction have no choice but to abandon their liquor before crossing the line.

In spite of the activities of federal agents in Detroit and the police in Detroit, thirty Detroiters today continued their pilgrimage to the Ohio cities. News of arrests in Ohio seemed not to affect the whiskey runners, although the Toledo town bars were not so congested as they were Tuesday.

Over a Million Spent. A conservative estimate places the value of liquor carried openly across the border during the last three days at $1,500,000. An official estimate made today placed the number of people traveling over steam and electric lines between Toledo and Detroit Thursday at 15,800. Automobiles were estimated at an average of 75 an hour, both day and night, that made the 120-mile round trip.

Morrison Charges Strong Conspiracy

Washington, Feb. 21.—Interests inimicable to organized labor are making the strongest kind of effort to destroy the efficiency of the department of labor, Frank L. Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, charged in a statement today.

THREE CAUGHT IN ROBBERY OF BIG SUM HERE

Rhineland Sheriff Grabs Three Men But One of Them Escapes.

Three young men are held and the apprehension of a fourth is momentarily expected in the robbery and stinging fracas here late Wednesday night when Milos S. Radmonovich, proprietor of a pool room on Stephenson avenue, was knocked down and robbed of a roll of money which he claims to have been a total of $650. Harold Gangsted was apprehended before the police Friday and arraigned before Judge C. D. McEwen, who fixed bail at $500. The bail was not secured. His case was continued until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, Feb. 24. Couldn't Identify Him.

Otto Smith, the second man to be arrested here, was taken on a "John Doe" warrant. The complaining witness was unable to identify Smith as one of the gang who knocked him down and robbed him. Smith, however, was held to trial and his bail also was fixed at $500, which he could not furnish.

The other arrests occurred at Rhineland, Wis., where the sheriff took Robert Sullivan, Michael Sullivan and Erwin Metlevier off a St. Paul-bound train. Michael Sullivan broke away and at a late hour last night was at large. It was expected, however, that St. Paul police would effect his arrest.

Iverson To Be Sent. Undersheriff Andrew Iverson probably will leave some time today for Rhineland to bring Sullivan and Metlevier back to this city for trial. Had the Western Union Telegraph company delivered a telegram to Thomas McGinnis, deputy sheriff at Powers, a distance of 22 miles, late Thursday afternoon the three men caught at Rhineland would have been apprehended before they got started on the road to Hermansville, it developed late Friday afternoon.

McGinnis wrote to Police Chief John J. Tolan, informing the police authority here that he did not receive the wire message until Friday afternoon. According to Tolan, it was sent out about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Saw Men at Powers. McGinnis informed the chief that he saw all three men at Powers and that later they were seen to leave for Hermansville. It is from there that they boarded a train for the Rhineland district, it is believed.

Informed of the robbery late Wednesday night the Morning Press, without any suggestion on the part of the police officers, withheld from publication any mention of the robbery, with a view to giving the authorities every opportunity to catch the men before the matter was given publicity. By noon Thursday, however, the story of the robbery has gained wide circulation and it was no longer deemed feasible to withhold it from publication.

"Do just what you like about it," the Morning Press representative was told by Chief Tolan regarding the publication of the story. And publishing a paper to serve the public, the Morning Press first informed the public of the robbery.

Allied Troops Defeat Enemy in the North

London, Feb. 21.—American and allied troops in northern Russia have gained notable successes, the war office announced today. They have reached Rogoz on the Marman railroad. Their own casualties were very slight, while the Bolshevik forces lost 50 killed and 80 prisoners. Much material and rolling stock and a considerable number of rifles and machine guns were captured. The fighting took place in very cold weather.

Haughty Dr. Taylor Reports the Huns Insult Yankees—Crime Rampant.

Paris, Feb. 21.—"The plan of the big five," is to make peace with Germany first. That done, they will turn to Bulgaria, who must accept without delay the terms given.

The Germans, of course, must be made to realize that Germany lost the war and must pay in full for the injuries wrought on Belgium and Northern France. Dr. Alonzo A. Taylor, American special representative, who investigated the present conditions in Germany and the temper of the German people, has reached Paris and these are some of the interesting facts which he reported.

Yankies Are Insulted. American soldiers first were received cordially but are now being insulted by women in public places.

German officers no longer salute their own former officers, but salute American officers. So many German officers have applied for commands in the American army that a circular letter has been prepared by the Americans which says the application is not granted, for three reasons:

- 1. The war is not over. 2. The applicant must be naturalized. 3. The American army has never been defeated and does not want to be offered by an army that has.

The morale of the Germans has sunk so low that university men say there is no hope in the present generation. Plays in degeneracy occupy the stage.

Crimes Are Rampant. Dr. Taylor saw a woman knocked down on a principal street before the eyes of hundreds of pedestrians, none of whom interfered.

Crimes of all kinds are rampant. The answer of the police is that men cannot be trained for crime for years and are expected to act as good citizens on their return.

Nearly 300,000 men are but of work in Berlin. The same proportion applies to other places. The men do not want to work because they cannot make as much money as the government allows them without work.

The government is afraid to stop these allowances. Although the heads of the new government are ruling all the old regime experts are retained.

Bernstorff Is in Charge. Johan Heinrich von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, is in charge of American affairs at the foreign office.

None of the purposes of the revolution started by Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg have been attained but two, namely the unhorsing of the royal family and the check of militarism.

Germany is willing to compensate in money for the damage she has done. She is unwilling, however, to give up Alsace Lorraine. She is also unwilling to cede Danzig to the Poles or, in fact, any territory, saying that it would be a violation of President Wilson's principles.

CUPID'S DART FAILS TO HIT ROYAL TARGET

Paris, Feb. 21.—Cold water again has been thrown on the royal romance between the Prince of Wales and the Italian princess, Yolande.

The obstacle is a religious one. The heir to the British throne is allowed to marry only a Protestant. The Italian king's daughter is a Catholic. It is recalled that Queen Helena, princess Yolande's mother, forswore the Greek Orthodox religion to become Italy's queen.

She is reported to be inclined to allow the princess to become a Protestant but her mother-in-law opposes such a step, supported by the rest of the family.

DECLINE COMES AS PHYSICIANS AWAIT RESULTS

Clemenceau's Condition is Pronounced Critical Late in Day

Paris, Feb. 21.—Premier Clemenceau's condition late this evening, is critical although throughout the day he seemed to be on the road to a speedy recovery. At this calling his physicians are in consultation.

"Nothing can be said now," is the answer they gave to the query of correspondents. There is danger of embolism developing it is said, which is the obstruction of an artery or vein by a blood clot, the complication which caused Roosevelt's death.

New Awaiting Developments. Early this morning the premier's secretary, George Mandel, said: "The Premier is doing as well as could possibly be expected but I shall not be easy in my mind for 48 hours. After that time he will be out of danger."

This coincides with Andre Tardieu's statement: "If he does not die before Sunday his chances for recovery are excellent."

The decline in the patient's condition set in suddenly this afternoon. The report that his state was critical was in sharp contrast with optimistic assertions from the doctors in the morning and at noon the optimism has reached its high water mark.

Permitted a Conference. "General state very good," said the physician's bulletin at that time, and it was added that the patient's condition had, indeed, improved to such a degree that the doctors had permitted him to hold a conference in the sick room this afternoon with the supreme council of ministers.

Clemenceau has picked up remarkably over night and the doctors thought he would be able to resume his duties Monday. He himself was sure of this. His wonderful vital spirit has not relaxed in the slightest.

In fact, his insistence to be "up and doing things," and his refusal to remain in bed has begun to give the physicians worry, for while his vitality saw him through the first day of the struggle, the critical stage has now set in and is the paramount need.

All day M. Clemenceau was in excellent humor. He joked and read the newspapers, being amused over the fact that they contained scarcely anything else than bulletins, items and long articles about him. He insists upon talking and the doctors consider unwise, as it strains his punctured lung.

M. Tardieu told correspondents last night that only the outer tissues had been pierced by the would-be assassin's bullet.

His wonderful courage continues to be the patient's greatest asset.

DOCTOR KILLED IN HOTEL; HIS SLAYER SOUGHT

Kansas City, Feb. 21.—Mystery surrounds the murder here today of Dr. Thomas R. Dickson, of Ramona, Okla., whose mutilated body with a blood-stained pillow at the mouth, was found by a maid in a hotel room shortly before noon.

The circumstances surrounding the murder have not been cleared after an all day investigation. Robbery, however, is believed by the police to have been the motive.

Dr. Dickson, accompanied by a man unknown to hotel employees, registered last night and the two left the hotel. The physician returned at 11 o'clock and went to his room.

The body when found was clad only in under clothing and lay beside the unoccupied bed. There were deep gashes about the head and marks of a club or sand bag. The dead man's pocket book had been rifled.

He leaves a wife and nine children.

Blockade Is Check Rein On Soldiers

The Communiqué

Paris, Feb. 21.—"In what form should Germany pay for food?" is the question delaying the taking over of some of the finest liners of the German merchant marine for homeward transportation of American troops.

This was explained tonight in one of the fullest communiqués issued here since the opening of the peace conference. Briefly the obstacle is that Germany has offered the allies no medium of payment for food. German paper money is of little or no value outside Germany. The gold offered is insufficient ($700,000,000). She cannot pay with wares because of the blockade, nor would France consent to German goods being allocated as "currency."

The communiqué issued on the subject by the Creel bureau follows: "Unfortunately the exit of the channel of Hamburg was blocked during the war and the German liner impregnable cannot be brought out until the channel is dredged."

"The agreement provides for equal division. The sailing of ships is held up, however, by food and financial complications of the armistice terms."

Depends on Food Supply. "The Germans raised the point at a recent meeting at Toves that the delivery of ships to the Allies was dependent upon the delivery of food to Germany."

"Marshal Foch agreed to have the food question settled by the commission sitting here. But the commission finds that the food question is dependent upon the German financial situation and Germany's ability to pay for food."

"They are ready to pay but the Allies are not willing to accept vast sums of depreciated paper currency which Germany issued during the war. This has raised the whole financial question."

Gold Is Insufficient. "The German delegates at Toves furnished a detailed statement showing their resources. It shows the total German gold amount equivalent to $700,000,000, which is insufficient to satisfy the various allied demands and, if taken, might cause financial prostration."

"On the other hand, the Allies are unwilling to accept German paper marks as they are not accepted in large amounts outside of Germany, and the Allies are unable to use them for purchase inside Germany since the blockade prevents trade and exchange of purchase goods."

Endanger French Industry. "That also objects to taking German goods in payment, as that would endanger French industry and labor."

"The financial obstacles are retarding the food settlement and that, in turn, is retarding the delivery of the ships for taking home the troops through no actual allotment of the emperor and other vessels have been made."

LABOR SERVICE APPROPRIATION DISCONTINUED

Washington, Feb. 21.—The United States employment service, the official bulletin, the president's national defense fund of $50,000,000 and several other governmental agencies created during the war, are discontinued in the 1920 civil appropriations bill reported out today by the house committee on appropriations. A minority report attacking the committees action in discontinuing the employment service is expected to precipitate a bitter fight when the bill is taken up by the house, probably tomorrow.

WEATHER SATURDAY, FEB. 22, 1919.

BORAH PLEADS FOR REJECTION OF THE LEAGUE

Rejection of Papers of Washington to Clinch His Argument.

Washington, Feb. 21. Whether the United States is to discard all the policies of Washington and Monroe and surrender control of its destiny to the powers of Europe is the sole question involved in the league of nations program, Senator Borah told the senate today in a powerful speech against the league of nations plan.

Declaring that the proposal is the most radical departure ever suggested to the American nation, Senator Borah demanded that a referendum vote of the people of the United States be taken before any steps toward making the plan effective are accepted.

"Tear Down the Wall." The Idaho senator showed by statements issued by Lloyd George and by European statesmen that the Monroe doctrine would be absolutely destroyed by the league of nations program. He questioned whether the American people are willing to embark upon such a policy. He declared that the proposition meant the tearing down of the wall of isolation built up by the policies of Washington and Monroe and entering upon a policy of internationalism.

Senator Borah also laid his respects to former President Taft, who is the chief spokesman for the league next to President Wilson himself. He characterized many of Taft's statements as "misleading" and said he was not treating the American people fairly in telling them that the Monroe doctrine would not be rendered innocuous by the league program.

Gives Parable on Taft. He recited a parable of the farmer, "America," and the statesman, "William Howard," in which the farmer was advised by "William Howard" to join his farm to others and surrender the independence which had made his prosperous and self-sustaining. The parable greatly amused the senate.

The speech was one of the most dignified and scholarly which the senate has heard since the league of nations question was first mentioned. One of the strongest features was that it was not partisan; there was no mention of President Wilson and no suggestion of criticism of his policies.

Aside from the caustic reference to former President Taft, the entire speech was a presentation of the questions from the standpoint of pure Americanism as contrasted with the theory of internationalism.

Hitcock Interrupts. With great effect Senator Borah read portions of Washington's farewell address and various letters written by Washington in which the policy of avoidance of entanglements with European affairs was emphasized.

He had the attention of practically all the members of the senate and a full attendance in the galleries. He spoke without interruption except at one time when Senator Hitcock disagreed with his interpretation of the league of nations constitution in the matter of territorial integrity.

KURT EISNER ASSASSINATED BY NOBLEMAN

Amsterdam, Feb. 21.—Kurt Eisner, Socialist premier of Bavaria, was shot and killed in Munich today. He was assassinated by Lieut. Count Auer Valler, who was later shot and wounded by a guard.

After the shooting of Eisner, Minister of the Interior Auer was shot and, according to dispatches received here, two or three other persons were shot. Auer is seriously wounded. A deputy was killed.

Copenhagen, Feb. 21.—No further details were received here tonight of the Munich reports that Dr. Kurt Eisner, premier of Bavaria, had been killed by an assassin. Dispatches, which are without official confirmation, are believed to be authentic.

RED FLAG MUST BE ABOLISHED NEW BILLS SAY

Senator New and Representative Osborn Back the Measure.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The Republican Publicity association has given out the following statement concerning the bills now pending in Congress to prohibit the displaying of the red flag:

The last known letter written by Col. Roosevelt was devoted to the denunciation of divided loyalty to American institutions and the symbol of that divided loyalty—the red flag. It was a message he wrote to be read at a public meeting of the American Defense society, held in New York, and on Sunday night, January 5th, the message was read. It was early in the morning of the same night, within a few hours after the reading of the message, that Col. Roosevelt passed away.

Striking Sentences One of the striking sentences in that message was:

"We have room for but one flag, the American flag; and this excludes the red flag which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization, just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile."

With this sentiment, all true Americans agree. It was especially proper that at the time Col. Roosevelt gave this message to his fellow citizens, two bills were before Congress to declare the display of the red flag in this country to be unlawful and to provide the penalties for its display or exhibition.

Republicans Do It.

One of these bills was introduced in the Senate early in December by Senator Harry S. New, Republican, of Indiana, and the other was introduced in the House of Representative Henry G. Osborn, Republican, of California. Both of the bills would make it a criminal offense to display or exhibit a red flag or a red banner at any meeting, gathering or party held for the purpose of political, governmental, social or religious discussion, and fix a penalty of not more than $5,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than five years or both.

Americanism vs. Bolshevism.

The patriotic sentiment of the country will come to the support of a measure which prohibits the flaunting of the symbolism of Bolshevism and anarchy, and particularly its display alongside of the Stars and Stripes. Although both bills were introduced in simple time to permit of favorable action upon them by the Democratic committees to which they were referred, these committees have not taken any action in the matter. That the next Congress, which will be Republican will enact into law the substance of these bills is considered to be a foregone conclusion.

Is a Sacrilege.

"In introducing the bill prohibiting the display of the red flag," said Senator New, "I believe that I am reflecting the desire and sentiment of the overwhelming majority of the American people. All genuine Americans realize that there is not room in this country for two flags, and the sooner we go on record in favor of the display of the American flag and only the American flag, the better it will be for the nation.

The red flag movement in this country is nothing less than sacrilege upon the sacred memory of our boys who have given their all on the battlefields of France. If the war has taught us anything, it should have taught us to appreciate and value our American citizenship, and the man who raises any other flag than the American flag, in my opinion, is nothing less than a traitor to his country.

No Place for Legal Technicalities.

"I am told that there may be some question of the constitutionality of such a law as I propose. It seems to me, however, that if we can legislate regarding the display of the American flag, we can also legislate as to what flags shall be displayed with the American flag, and by the same token we can legislate as to what flags shall not be displayed with it. Laws and regulations concerning the displays of the American flag have always been regarded as valid, and my bill simply places further restrictions around the American flag which we love so well and which stands as the emblem of our government."

WALL STREET'S BUYING STREAK STILL GOES ON

New York, Feb. 21.—Notwithstanding considerable realizing, the stock market maintained its upward trend today and closed in the midst of a burst of strength that was impressive. The buying movement, which gained fresh impetus in the late trading following a slight easing off earlier in the day, continued up to the close when finals were near the best of the day and in some instances, a new high level for this movement.

The volume of transaction was large and included many issues which appeared on the face for the first time in weeks. The appearance of substantial buying orders in the last hours in the most active issues led to the expectation that the strength will continue to prevail at least during the earlier sessions on Monday.

The market will be closed tomorrow because of Washington's birthday.

"Friendly Enemies" Booked for Delft; Has Strong Cast

One of the most talked of plays in the country, "Friendly Enemies" is coming to the Delft theatre on the night of Feb. 28. An announcement that the booking has been completed was made yesterday by Manager L. J. Jacobs, of the Delft, simultaneously announcing that the play is not a motion picture.

American All the Way.

Here is a play that is really American, that deals for the first time with a purely American problem, that arouses the best and highest emotion, that is first of all entertaining and decidedly amusing and that is big and clean in every way.

Seldom, if ever, in the history of the American stage has a President of the United States taken occasion to publicly endorse a theatrical entertainment, but this is exactly what occurred at the National theatre in Washington, upon the first presentation upon any stage of "Friendly Enemies."

Has a Strong Cast.

A. H. Woods is sending to this city a cast of unusual distinction containing the names of several very prominent players and the local presentation will without doubt be the event of the season, as its fame has already preceded it to this city.

Caruso Booked for Ann Arbor Concert

Enrico Caruso, the distinguished Italian Tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will make his Ann Arbor debut Monday evening, March 3, when he will be heard in a miscellaneous program of arias and patriotic songs.

During the many years that Mr. Caruso has been the leading star of the Metropolitan Opera Company, he has seldom appeared in concert. In fact, during the last ten years he has been heard in concert in the West and Middle West not more than eight or ten times.

Last fall when arrangements were perfected for a brief tour, Ann Arbor was fortunate in being able to secure one of his four appearances. Owing to the state-wide ban on public gatherings because of the influenza epidemic, it was necessary to give up the concert at that time.

Through the efforts of his managers, and himself, the Metropolitan Opera company was induced to deviate from its rigid regulations of many years and to permit him to fill this date during the opera season March 3rd, making a special trip to Ann Arbor for the purpose.

Wells Man Returns from Foreign Soil

Sergt. Chester Smith of Wells, member of Company L and one of the first of the upper peninsula men in the 32nd division to fall in action, has returned to the city from Camp Merritt, where he was discharged from the service. He had been in the United States for several weeks.

After leaving Escanaba for Texas, Smith was transferred to another outfit. Following his injuries early in the summer, he spent several months in a British hospital and later was returned to duty at General Pershing's headquarters.

Ill in Hospital at Camp Custer

Sergt. Louis Trotter of this city, who has been expected to arrive at home daily for the past two weeks, is ill with acute tonsillitis in the army hospital at Camp Custer, a letter received from relatives states.

Sergt. Trotter left Camp Sheridan at Montgomery, Ala., a short time ago for Battle Creek to be mustered out. Enroute a cinder lodged in one of his eyes. This made a minor operation necessary. When the injury to the "optic" had healed, he was attacked with the throat trouble.

He expects to be able to leave camp in a twabld days.

This Soldier Gains Total of 43 Pounds

The following interesting letter was written to a West Ford River resident by Moses Derouin, Jr., now serving with the American force stationed in Luxemburg:

Ehlange, Luxemburg, Jan. 12, 1919.

A few lines to let you know I am in perfect health and wishing that you are the same. How is the weather up in Michigan? I suppose there's plenty of snow and good cold weather. Out here we had a little snow last night, but not to amount to anything. I believe they don't get much in Luxemburg. I hope not, for I don't want to see any snow before I get back home. I have not seen snow since I left Michigan.

Letters Are Few.

It's very curious with me here, which I can't understand. I don't get a letter once a month, while in France I generally would receive eight to twelve letters every week. I have written to you and other friends as well, but it seems all in vain. I believe I will cut out writing altogether and let them know I am coming home when I get home. That will take a while also, for the Fifth Division is booked for overseas service and I don't expect to get back to the States for a least two more years. Some one has to do it.

I believe my old "Boss" I used to work for will get tired waiting for me but there will be lots of boys waiting for me as I can do most anything if the old job is gone.

He gains 43 Pounds.

I want to have at least two or three months' vacation when I get back so I can get around and see everyone I know. I don't think I'll have a hard time doing that for I won't know very many when I do get back, or they won't know me.

TROMBLEY NEWS

Several young people from this vicinity attended a dance at Rock Friday. All report a good time.

Harry Hall was a business caller in Escanaba last Thursday and Friday.

Several young people from Rock were callers at Charles Larson's camp Sunday.

Trombley was well represented at the card party in Rock Sunday.

John Kusardi was in Escanaba Tuesday.

Nester Mattily and Allard Tyndal were Escanaba business callers Wednesday.

Charles Leuzie arrived at home today. Mr. Leuzie recently returned from overseas. He was wounded twice but has fully recovered.

Dreadful Cough Cured.

A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olson, of Maryville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy Jean caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."

rather, I am afraid, for I am rather changed now. I am not the same person I used to be, tall and slim, but now to the opposite, I am short, fat and chubby. I only weighed 141 lbs when I enlisted; now I weigh 184 pounds.

There are very nice girls in Luxemburg, in this part, at least, and they sure do like their chocolate.

But you know very well yourself the American girls have them skinned by a mile and America for mine. The man who said "See America First" was right. The Old Glory shall never fall; instead it shall rise forever. So believe me it will be a grand old day when we land in the New York Harbor.

Good bye, with best wishes and regards to all.

CHARLES COX HERE.

Charles Cox, of the steamer Ranko, is here on ten-day furlough to visit his brother, Ted Cox of North Mary street.

BEECH GROVE GRANGE FIRST THRIFT CLUB

The honor of being the first organization in the county to report to the county committee, the organization of a Thrift club, goes to the Beech Grove Grange in Ford River township. At a meeting held Thursday night, the Beech Grove began co-operating with Uncle Sam's treasury department in the year's campaign for the Ben Franklin brand of saving.

Others Are Busy.

George F. McEwen, county chairman stated yesterday that scores of other industrial, commercial and social organizations are now forming their clubs and that a number of them have probably completed the preliminary work, but have not reported their progress to the county headquarters. Particularly keen is the interest at the Northwestern shops where Mr. McEwen held a conference Thursday afternoon with representatives of the various workers' organization. It is predicted that the men there will establish a record in purchases of stamps before the year is over.

Meeting on Sunday.

Next Sunday Mr. McEwen and C. E. Lewis will speak at a Grange meeting at Ford River Switch, where another club will probably be formed.

The formation of the Thrift clubs in the schools is practically complete and here, also, top-notch results are expected during the year.

Reports from all sections indicate that the government's sales plans is to be met with the heartiest cooperation.

Scandia Store Has Annual Election

fair" and even questioned her morals. This was denied by Senator Overman, who finally got from Miss Bryant a statement that her chief complaint was that the committee had not called persons "who knew all about Russia."

Overman Rebukes Her.

"We have tried to show you every courtesy," said Senator Overman, "and you are trying to make yourself out a martyr."

In reply to questions as to the "nationalization of women" decrees Russia issued, Miss Bryant asserted that the Bolshevik were not so puritanical along these lines as the Americans. The witness said that she did not believe the decrees were issued by the Bolshevik.

"Women are more free in Russia than in any country I have ever seen, and this is a mighty healthy place for a suffragist to go," she said.

Cold Wave Strikes City and Up-State

Escanaba and the upper peninsula are in the grip of a cold wave. After a long struggle, the mercury yesterday succeeded in reaching zero, but it sank steadily afterward and indications are that tomorrow will be another bitterly cold day. The lowest point reached in the 24-hour period ending at 9 o'clock last night was 16 below zero. From the Morning Press, Feb. 21, 1918.

However, Feb. 21, a year later—the thermometer started in the morning and by noon was over the freezing mark.

Quite a difference, isn't it?

That Terrible Headache

Do you have periodic attacks of headache accompanied by sickness of the stomach or vomiting, a sallow skin and dull eyes? Getting Rid of Colds

The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on.

THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

To make Escanaba a better place and a more pleasant place to live, should be the first aim of all whose interests are centered here and who expect to always remain in Escanaba.

The man who owns but a home has just as great an interest in making Escanaba a bigger and a better town as the man who has extensive manufacturing or other business interests.

Escanaba is lacking in many things that the city needs merely because the cost of the city government necessities has been so heavy that additional burdens could not be borne by the taxpayers to carry out improvements that were not absolutely imperative.

The greater portion of Escanaba's streets are in a deplorable condition; the city's street lighting system is antiquated and inadequate; public buildings need repairs and refurbishing.

It is matters such as these that have been forced to wait. Their absence allows the people to have but scant respect for their own city and in the eyes of visitors who come here, we are slipping.

To remedy conditions a revision downward of the cost of the city's governmental necessities is the first essential, for the good of Escanaba and its people.

It is to achieve this first condition that the Tax Payers party has been organized for the campaign of this spring.

NOT A BOND ISSUE

There appears to be a general misunderstanding of the proposed good roads constitutional amendment to be voted on at the spring election on April 7. It is not, as many have come to believe, a $50,000,000 bond issue, but merely a proposition to amend the constitution so that the people themselves, through their representatives in the Legislature, may use the credit of the state to construct good roads and have the use of them while they and the generations to follow pay the bill.

The adoption of the amendment is necessary if the machinery is to be put in motion to provide a complete and permanent system of highways touching every country. It is, in effect, only an enabling act to obtain badly needed roads, the cost of which would be spread over future years. There is no intention, in the event the amendment is endorsed, to take proceedings to bond the state for fifty millions and to spread the same immediately upon the taxable property of the state.

By voting "yes" on the proposed amendment the people of Michigan will give the Legislature the power and authority to issue road bonds only as necessity may require.

Our main line roads must be built first. The federal government has and will distribute to the various states a large amount of money on the basis of what is called, 50-50. The government will give to Michigan a million or ten million or whatever amount it may be, conditioned, however, that Michigan shall put up a like amount. In other words, the government pays one-half and Michigan and the local communities will pay the remaining one-half. If, however, the state neglects or refuses to come across with its share of the money, the government will distribute the same to the states more progressive, and who are willing to match the government for every dollar it is possible to so receive.

It would seem not only unpatriotic but a most senseless thing for us as citizens to turn down a proposition of so much importance. The government realizes the necessity of building up the highways of the country over which are carried more than ninety per cent of the products of toil.

If the constitutional amendment is carried and becomes a part of the state's organic law, the Legislature have the right and constitutional authority to probate and pay for the issuance of bonds in such an amount as they see fit, on as to them shall seem wise and necessary. It was necessary to place a limit because no authority to go. Illinois has

try. These men had taken out their first naturalization papers and revoked their declarations in order to escape military service. It is right that they should pay the penalty of this course by forever forfeiting the privileges of American citizenship.

We have recently deported a number of I. W. W. agitators, who at heart were nothing more nor less than destructionists, recognizing no government and no obligations except their own will. We hope that act is the beginning of a national policy which will become permanent, and that this country will proceed to weed out its anarchists, bolsheviks and destructionists, and refuse to longer give them shelter.

If we will ship this riff-raff from our shores and will bar from citizenship aliens who have forfeited all right to become Americans, it will not be many years until citizenship in this republic will be a thing so prized that every man who comes here will be prepared to accept its responsibilities and obligations without a word. We shall be making Americans for America and America for Americans and that is our supreme national concern.

That sentence of 20 years imprisonment for Victor Berger and his red associates imposed by Judge Landis on Thursday, may be counted as the greatest victory for the upholding of the spirit of true Americanism than anything happening of recent years. Berger's conviction means that America is for Americans. It means that obstructionists and bolsheviks must seek other climes to ply their trades.

By the way, wonder what ever became of Bill Bryan's Commoner? The close of the war gives one time to think about a lot of non-essential things.

The sooner we get busy and correct whatever it is that makes the ex-emperor of Austria want to come to America, the better for America.

Peanut politics and the peanut town are synonymous.

THE FABLE OF THE BUDDING MUSICIAN AND THE HICK TOWN DOPESTERS.

ONCE UPON A TIME in a sleepy little relic of a prosperous village, there dwelt a young man who desired to become a master fiddle operator.

While the rest of the kids played mibs and hop-skotch and dug bait, he stayed indoors to practice chromatics.

His solo at the high school commencement was knuckle-boasted to an encore and the visiting spell-binder from the state brain-shining center who gave the outstanding spiel, complimented it energetically.

After the affair was over, the diploma unwound from the purple and gold ribbon and framed and the presents checked against the invitations, several offers were extended to the juvenile albertspaulding.

One was a job as delivery boy for the Spivens grocery. Another was a place as assistant soda jerker in the Pink Front drug store. The directors of the Bingo Hollow school told him if he would attend summer normal he could have $40 a month for pouring information into the chilled steel conks of the future electors of that district.

When the youth rejected all of these glowing opportunities, many dire Wah-let-kas were unloosed.

And when he boarded a rattler one day, with his beloved violin under his arm and a canvas telescope full of clothes-bumping against his off knee, the countryside was awakened to outspoken ominous forbodings of great disaster.

Six years later the tank-stop shook off some of the dust and decided to stage a chautauqua. When the weekly Squall announced the program, illustrated with boiler-plate, the bazaar of the former resident was lamped—two columns, seven. The attached press agent prattle states that he would positively play at each and every concert on the third day's program.

That day finally rolled around. The 9:20 train rolled in at 10:17, bearing our hero.

In the afternoon, he played his best for his old neighbors and friends and they applauded generously. After it was all over, Philander Etniget, owner of the "Pink Front" shook hands with the homecomer and by way of said:

"I've got so you can fiddle purty good but if you rheumatism in your fingers, you'll wish you on that job at my place."

"Shellproof Mack" to Lecture Here

"Shellproof Mack," an American "Tommy" who with his Canadian comrades saw some of the most sanguinary fighting of the whole war, long before the United States was a principal in the struggle, will lecture at the First Methodist church here next Monday night.

"Mack" was in the hospital three times with seven wounds and wrecked the predictions of a number of army surgeons by recovering after they were positive that he could never regain his health.

The lecture here will be in charge of the men's club of the Methodist Sunday School.

Meat Cause Of Kidney Trouble

Take Salts to flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and make a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

INVESTIGATION OF INDUSTRIAL POSERS STARTS

Senate Committee Making Survey of Labor Problems of Nation.

Washington, D. C.—The dearth of sober, substantial work on the problems of reconstruction is so general among the departments of Washington, that wherever any exception to the rule exists, it is very notable. One of these exceptions is in the field of labor.

Many Problems Discussed. The Senate committee on education and labor is holding extensive hearings in connection with various humanitarian problems directly affecting the workers of the country, preliminary to making recommendations of a concrete character that will greatly assist in getting the labor world adjusted to the new peace conditions and also to checkmating the unrest and discontent which now exists and which unless allayed by proper legislation, may gravitate toward Bolshevism. It is of special significance that this investigation is the result of and in accordance with a resolution introduced by Senator Kenyon, Republican, of Iowa.

Scope of Resolution. This resolution provides for an investigation of the following questions: 1. The establishment of a national tribunal to adjust differences between employers and workmen and to improve industrial conditions. 2. The development of the United States employment service into a national labor exchange. 3. The regularization of employment. 4. The prevention of unemployment by a necessary program of public works. 5. The promotion of better living conditions and the administrative control of the housing projects of the government started during the war. 6. The extension of the soldiers and sailors' insurance act to cover the civilian population. 7. The feasibility of a national insurance law against non-employment, old age, disability, sickness and accident.

Minimum Wage Law. A national minimum wage law. Vocational education for all persons in the United States disabled by injury or sickness. In so far as legislative action is concerned, this is easily the most important measure having to do with labor during the reconstruction period, which has yet been proposed.

DEMONSTRATION WILL CONTINUE THIS AFTERNOON

The last of the two demonstrations in how to remake clothes will be held at the Red Cross rooms this afternoon under the direction of Miss Sylvia Richardson and Miss Helen Arms, economic specialists. A crowd at least three as large as that of Friday afternoon when 65 women attended the demonstration, is expected at the Red Cross headquarters today.

Remodel Old Clothes. In addition to an entertainment by school children under the direction of Miss Avis Edgerton, scheduled to commence at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Arms will demonstrate how to remodel clothes, the cleaning and dyeing of clothes, and the proper method of pressing clothes.

Probably one of the most interesting features to be taken up today by Miss Arms will be the removal of stains. She will demonstrate how table linens, apparently ruined by stains, can be saved for further use and put into first class condition by the application of cleaning methods.

The exhibition of garments at the Red Cross rooms is an interesting one and has garments entirely remade by housewives of this city. No Admission Charged. Because there was an erroneous report circulated Friday to the effect that an admission fee is charged at the demonstration, a number of women who had planned to go did not attend. It was emphatically denied by both Miss Arms and Miss Richardson that a fee is charged.

"It is hard for some people to comprehend that this is state work," said Miss Richardson, "and that we are paid to work for and with the people of the county to assist them in things too numerous to mention. We want a large crowd today and will show the housewives things that will be of interest to all who attend. The demonstration is such a varied one that it cannot keep but be of assistance to all."

Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 21.—Almost the entire business district of Blanco, a mining town south of here, was destroyed by fire this evening. The blaze started in a department store.

Lint is Advocated for Superintendent
A number of citizens yesterday openly advocated that the school board be requested to procure the services of P. A. Lint, former principal of the High school but now serving as a "Y" war worker in France, as the successor to F. E. King, recently resigned. No definite steps have been taken thus far, but it is believed the school board will consider the matter.
