

SENATOR REED OPENS FIRE ON WORLD LEAGUE

"No League of Nations Years Ago and No Need Now," He Says.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The league of nations plan has written across its first case the word "dishonor," declared Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, in a scathing arraignment of the league's proposals in the senate today.

He declared the statement that the league is necessary to keep the United States out of foreign wars to be a "monstrous falsehood."

He showed how in the country's existence there had been more than 50 great wars in Europe and the United States had no part in a single one of them.

No Need Here Now.

"There was no league of nations then," he declared, "and there is no need for one now."

On the contrary, Senator Reed says, the league will force the United States to participate in every war which may embroil the nations of Europe.

"The strong plea in his speech was that the United States should follow the teachings of Washington, Jefferson and Monroe and keep out of any entangling alliances with European nations."

First Democratic Attack.

It was the first attack upon the league proposals by a member of the democratic side, and for that reason attracted more than ordinary attention.

Almost every member of the senate present and two score members of the house occupied seats or stood about the chamber. The galleries were filled to overflowing, hundreds being turned away.

The impression upon the speech made upon the audience may be judged by the remarkable demonstration of applause at its close. Applause, spontaneous and deafening, marked the reception, even senators applauded. Vice President Marshall, who sat in the chair, made no attempt to stop the demonstration.

In beginning of the speech Senator Reed departed from his usual custom of doing without notes. The league executive council, he explained, would be composed of three monarchies and two republics, and France's indebtedness to England would render her completely at the command of England every question of dispute.

LIBERIA IS REACHING OUT

Tribes of That Country, It Is Said, Are Accepting the Teachings of the Missionaries.

Pienyogo Gbe Wolo, a Liberian of the Kru tribe, who graduated from Columbia University, says:

There never has been a scientific census of Liberia, but the population is estimated at from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000, and not more than 15,000 are Americo-Liberians, the descendants of liberated slaves. The remainder belong to tribes which speak four different languages and offer only nominal submission to the government. The Kru elect their kings by the selection of the most available man of the royal house. In the Jarroway tribe the king is an absolute monarch for the reign of six years, and is then put to death. Other tribes also follow different customs.

The tribes do not acknowledge the government of Monrovia, because they feel that it does not protect them. By treaty the United States government is required to help the Americo-Liberians against the tribes, and in 1912 this country helped put down a rebellion of the Kru.

The constitution of Liberia has a literacy test, which has heretofore excluded most of the natives from voting, as the central government is unable to undertake their education. The Gibras are being taught by Episcopal missionaries, and the Fullings, who are Mohammedans, are also gaining the franchise. The Kru are very ambitious and are also catching up. There are more than 50 Liberians of the native tribes studying in the United States.

informed, although Chief Tolan is inclined towards the belief that Smith had little or no part in the slugging and robbing of Radmonovich and that Gangsted failed to receive his share. Radmonovich was unable to identify Smith as one of the men who attacked him.

With the confession of Sullivan confronting them, the others are expected to also admit their part in the affair. At any rate, Chief Tolan and the department have established their guilt pretty thoroughly and there seems to be little doubt that the matter is due to go over to circuit court in April.

Records Had. The records of Michael Sullivan and Gangsted are not of the best, especially in the past two or three months. Sullivan was sent to the county jail recently for assault, in default of payment of a fine assessed by Judge Gasser and Gangsted, a short time ago, faced a charge of non-support brought by his wife.

Washington Greatest American

London, Feb. 22.—"The greatest man ever born on the western hemisphere," was the characterization of George Washington today by United States Ambassador John W. Davis, at a celebration of Washington's anniversary by the English Speaking Union.

Health Improvement in Brazil.

The famous saying "Brazil is a vast hospital" is in a safe way to be being outlawed. Yellow fever is stamped out and the government has made an immense appropriation for supplying quinine to the entire community. To these achievements must be added the labors of the Oswaldo Cruz Institute in the realm of scientific prevention of communicable diseases of all kinds.—Brazil-Medico.

Cheerfulness Wins.

Wondrous is the strength of cheerfulness, altogether past calculations its powers of endurance. Efforts, to be permanently useful, must be uniformly joyous—a spirit of sunshine—graceful from every gladness—beautiful because bright.

Paris, Feb. 22.—The French people, who do not lack experience in the matter of revolutions, predict almost unanimously that Germany is entering a reign of terror.

LABOR MEN TO GREET WILSON WITH PROTEST

Arrangements Complete for Tremendous Ovation for Presidential Party.

Boston, Feb. 22.—A protest to President Wilson against national prohibition will be made Monday upon his arrival here from the peace conference. A delegation of members of the Boston labor unions will be allowed to meet the president and state their protest against the unemployment that will follow the enforcement of national prohibition laws.

The announcement followed a two-hour conference between Secretary Tumulty and Mayor Peters of Boston, concerning the plans of the president's reception. Secretary Tumulty put in a very strong protest against the president's visit from Washington and went into conference with John W. Goughlin, Democratic national committeeman from this state. No announcement was made of the result of the meeting.

All arrangements have been completed for a tremendous ovation to the president upon his arrival here aboard the George Washington. The liner is steaming to port in rough weather and a wireless tonight when she was less than 1,000 miles off shore stated that she was due to arrive in the lower harbor Monday morning.

Wilson to Leave Early.

It was announced that the president would speak in Mechanics Hall at 2:30 p. m., instead of 4:30 p. m., and that he would leave for Washington by special train at 4:30, instead of 6:20.

President's Party May Arrive Sunday

Boston, Feb. 22.—Indications tonight were that the steamer George Washington, bringing President Wilson and his party from the peace conference, would come to anchor in Boston harbor Sunday night. Tonight, the ship was only 500 miles from this port and making good headway.

Writer Makes An Amazing Claim About United States.

HURT WELLES RITCHIE
Feb. 22.—Britain has not yet recovered from its amazement at the "dry" Constitution. Whenever an Englishman over the table the latter is sure to the bone dry phenomenon the ways and wherefores Now comes a Mr. Ignatius who must have been to Amer-some time or other—he has a book, "America's Day"— the English people just opened and what it all the Gloomy Picture.
Phayre paints a very
of the horny monster and drugs which every attempt at prohibi-States and he makes the charge that "American soldiers undoubtedly vice of drug taking here This a few days after brought out by the Carlton inquest.
strong drink," says the "Now, does any rea-for a moment believe in the streets and ask bootlegging, about 'blind cities and moonshine Appalachians, with a of revenue men constant-in petty (but very bloody) ware against the underworld of illegal liquor.

"Merely Underground."
"There is not a State from Maine to California, or from Florida to Oregon where surreptitious intoxicants cannot be obtained."
"The traffic is merely driven under ground and this is very bad for the social and moral health of the community. The bootblack, the grocer, the drug store and the sweet shop (English for candy store, you know), all these and others dabble in the forbidden trade."
After telling how in New Orleans a negro passed him the wink and sold him a watermelon containing a flask of bad whiskey—though why watermelons should be loaded in the original home of the silver gin size the noted author does not state—Mr. Phayre reviews the sales of "fixed" patent medicines such as make Lo, the poor Indian get visions of a Happy Hunting Ground permanently.
Then this interesting statement:
Many "Hop Heads"
"Nation-wide prohibition was mainly brought about, not by the Anti-Saloon league or vulgar violence, but by the great employers like the Pennsylvania Railroad and the huge trusts like the United States Steel." Will the executive committee of the Anti Saloon league, please write?
Here is the "kicker" in Mr. Phayre's exposition:
"Now for my last card! No nation on earth is so afflicted with drug and dope addiction as this "bone dry" continent of America. Police Commissioner Arthur Woods, of New York, himself told me that the metropolis alone contained over 200,- 000 addicts. Fortunes are made peddling cocaine."
"Three thousand pounds worth of the awful stuff was seized at a corner chemist's (A story strangely overlooked by all New York city editors).
Scores of thousands of recruits were rejected from America's conscript army as hopeless dope takers. 'King Drink' is r. 'dethroned at all in the Land of Liberty; he has only 'escaped to the cave' like hunted David.
Millions console themselves with every known drug!"

TOWN TOPICS

What Folks Are Saying in Regard to Some Matters of Public Interest

It's some job on a "mailless day."
So think the clerks at the postoffice.
Because Saturday was a national holiday and there was no delivery of mail throughout the city by the postoffice carriers, people gained the impression that they could go to the postoffice and call for their mail.
But they couldn't.
The mail carriers had not sorted the mail. In fact, the carriers work so blamed hard when they do work that they generally keep away from the postoffice when they are not scheduled to be on the job.
As a result, many people called at the postoffice Saturday to get mail that wasn't sorted by the carriers.
And they were disappointed.

Lint As Superintendent Is Gaining In Favor

P. A. Lint as the next superintendent of the Escanaba schools is gaining in popularity. Most people who have been broached on the matter think it will be an excellent move to procure his services, and many more who have not been broached have voiced their opinions voluntarily.
Mr. Lint had a splendid record during his stay here, but as principal of the High school his authority was not wide enough to give him an opportunity to show what he knows about the school system here.
With F. E. King resigned and leaving next summer for a new berth, it is a good time now to get in communication with Mr. Lint at his station overseas with a view to getting his services here, think citizens.

Congressman Erred In Killing Clause

The action of the congressional committee in knocking off the appropriation needed to maintain the United States Employment Service for another year, will not meet the approval of the majority of men who have been in touch with the work of this department, it became apparent in conversations heard yesterday in various quarters about the city.

The partisan opposition to the measure, coupled with the enmity of some Democratic members of the committee who are opposed to the Department of Labor's refusal to consider politics in appointing men to Employment Service jobs, is undoubtedly responsible for the committee's action, in fact this situation is apparent that it seems to be the sole solution.
The Employment Service has been conducted strictly along non-partisan lines. In Michigan, the State director and nearly all of his aides together with the majority of the district examiners are members of the non-administration party.
"I don't care whether the men in this department are Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists or Mug-wumps," said a representative of the Department of Labor not long ago to a Morning Press representative, "as long as he is able to deliver the goods."

The public in general little realize the tremendous work the Service has accomplished. In Escanaba alone, the office has placed several hundreds of jobless men in the past two months alone and more than 100 returned soldiers have been found berths.
Those familiar with this work would consider it nothing short of a national calamity to demobilize the department now and are sincerely hoping that the committee's report will not be accepted when the House considers the bill.

"Every agency which will play a part in the reduction of unemployment in the next year will be needed and badly," said one man in discussing the matter yesterday.

Interest in Road Bond Issues is Gaining

Interest in the proposed state and county highway building programs to be made possible, if the electors see fit, by the authorizing of the issuing bonds, seems to be gaining at a slow rate and in the opinion of a great many well informed observers, the bond issue partisans are adding to their enrollment lists daily.

When the proposals were first announced there seemed to be considerable opposition to the plan. The fact that extensive public work during the next year may prevent a nation-wide wave of unemployment, together with the knowledge that the $50,000,000 requested by the state and the $200,000 requested in the county are not fixed sums for expenditure but limits to the cost, played no small part in the change of attitude, it is stated.

Fortunately, the campaign is being waged along sane, sensible lines and unsavory features which so often characterize the "bond issue election" have remained almost entirely in the back ground.

A Flax "Hurry-Up."

A machine has been invented by a Scotchman that prepares flax for manufacture within a few hours after it has been pulled from the ground instead of taking days, or even weeks, as usual.

Demonstrations at Red Cross Quarters Brought to an End

The demonstrations at the Red Cross rooms by Miss Helen Arma, Michigan Aggies extension bureau worker, and Miss Sylvia Richardson, home economics specialist of this county, came to a successful conclusion Saturday afternoon. The attendance was larger than the previous day, despite the inclement weather conditions which is believed to have kept many women in their homes.

Miss Arma again demonstrated how stains can be removed from clothing, how to run an old clothing to be serviceable once more, how to dye cloth properly, and gave numerous other good demonstrations of value to the average housewife.

It is probable that similar demonstrations will be carried on later in the season, with a slight variation from the program of Friday and Saturday.

School children under the direction of Miss Avis Edgerton again rendered a program of feature dancing.

Military Pigeons Wearing Gas Masks

London, Feb. 22.—A detachment of military air force pigeons have been on exhibition with a carnival for raising funds to help repatriated war prisoners. One of the birds had a record of 150 successful patrol flights with messages. Among the exhibits were tiny gas masks worn by the pigeons on occasions.

Cut Open Suitcase of Woman at Depot

Charging that someone cut open her suitcase, evidently for the purpose of trying to find out whether she had any liquor in the suitcase, Mrs. Anna Joseph, 300 Campbell street, Sault Ste. Marie, filed complaint with the police yesterday.
Mrs. Joseph was accompanying her blind husband from Rochester, Minn., and was waiting in the railroad station here when it occurred, she asserted.

The person or persons who cut open the suitcase didn't stop to make any inquiries, but slashed the side of the suitcase. Nothing was taken she reported.

Bath Almost Fatal to Spokane Woman

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 22.—Mrs.
Alba White was found in a dead faint in a bathtub with her nose and mouth barely above the water. Rushed to the emergency hospital, it was found that her body was nearly parboiled, and in places the skin was blistered. The fainting attack is thought to have been caused by her using the water too hot.

$1 Reward for Safe Return of $28,000

Covington, Ky., Feb. 22.—A Covington street car conductor has $28,- 000, but only for a minute. Now he has $1 reward for his honest.

The conductor found a satchel containing the currency on his car and took it to the office. Just as he entered a man arrived breathlessly and identified the valise containing the money. As he left the owner handed the conductor the "reward."

Electricity Current Cut Off at Noon Hour

If you plan to use electricity in your home between 12:15 and 1:15 o'clock today, change your plans. The current will be shut off during that period to permit Capt. D. L. Goddard and his assistants to make a number of needed repairs. In order to give all churches the benefit of current it was decided to wait until 12:15. It is not probable, however, that an entire hour will be consumed in making the changes, Capt. Goddard announced.

If Back Hurts Begin On Salts

Flash your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorder come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in uric so no longer cause irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Kaufman Furnishes Bond, Liquor Charge

Louis Kaufman arrived from Marquette last night to give bond for his appearance in federal court on a charge of violating the federal liquor statute. Kaufman was arrested under a state warrant and later it was changed to a federal warrant, says his attorney. He was charged with having liquor in his possession. His attorney yesterday made this statement regarding Kaufman's case: "The Webb Kenyon amendment provides that anyone who brings liquor from a wet into a dry state with intent to violate the law of the dry state is guilty of a misdemeanor. If the decision of the supreme court of Michigan, which is to the effect that merely possessing liquor in the state is innocence, then bringing it in with no other intent than to possess it is no violation of the federal law. Unless it is proved he intended to sell or furnish liquor to anyone, I do not think he can be held."

Woman's Club Needs Funds for Its Work

A meeting of the charity committee of the Escanaba Woman's Club will be held at the public library next Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of arranging details for a movement to raise funds with which to continue the work of the organization among the needy persons of the city. Miss Martha Greene, chairman of the committee, announces that demands on the available stock of clothing gathered for distribution by the club workers, has been so heavy recently that the supply is practically exhausted. The committee, she says, will arrange to call for any garments in any part of the city, if the owners will signify her that they may be taken for this charitable work.

Took Time to Prepare Work.

The more one reads of the great war the more one must appreciate the fact that Victor Hugo's immortal description of the battle of Waterloo was not written until 1801, or 46 years after it happened, and time had been given for the dust to settle. It was 37 years after Waterloo that Tennyson wrote "Fury the Great Duke With an Empire's Lamentation."
