

BERLIN CHAOS INCREASES

SOVIET LEADERS NOT PRO-HUN AT HEART-ROBINS

Witness Intimate With the Bolshevik Says Allies Spoiled Chance.

Washington, March 6.—In a recital which thrilled and fascinated his audience, Col. Raymond Robins, of Chicago, who was in Russia for the American Red Cross, gave the Overman subcommittee of the senate today his impression of the Bolshevik movement and some inside facts concerning the reason for its rise in power.

It was a tale that might have come from the pen of a eunuch or moulded under the masterful hand of a Maupassant. It revealed secrets of the ambassadorial trials in Petrograd; it told why the treaty of Brest-Litovsk was ratified when neither Lenin nor Trotsky wanted it; it explained why the allied powers intervened with troops in Siberia.

Tells of His Defiance.

Running through it all was the story of Col. Robins' intimate association with Trotsky and Lenin; his defiance of their power and his efforts to hold Russia in line as an enemy of Germany after the Bolsheviks had gained the ascendancy.

Standing out from the great mass of information in this remarkable statement—the first public statement Col. Robins has made since his return from Russia—were these assertions of fact.

1. The Brest-Litovsk treaty would not be passed and ratified by the Lenin-Trotsky government if the United States and England had made any response to the appeals made to the American ambassador, the British High commissioners, Col. Robins and others for economic relief to the Soviet government.

2. Lenin and Trotsky were not conscientiously German agents; they were surrounded by anarchists who were in Germany's pay and to whom are chargeable most of the crimes committed in the name of the Soviets.

3. If the monarchy had not fallen the czar would have instituted a separate peace with Germany in 30 days.

4. While English and American officials in Petrograd were working with the Bolshevik leaders to keep them in the war against Germany, France was demanding intervention to protect the vast sums of money which had been loaned by French bankers to the Russian autocracy.

5. The intervention in Siberia was a bad move and merely served to stir up the centuries old enmity against the Japanese whom they distrusted and despised.

Testifies for Eight Hours.

Col. Robins was before the committee for more than eight hours. Except for a rest of one hour for lunch, he talked from 10:30 in the morning until nearly 9 o'clock. During all that time he reeled off his facts with the ease of a lightning express, passing the best efforts of the stenographers to keep up with him.

The members of the committee present were Senators Overman, Nelson and Sterling. Others who heard him were Senator Johnson, of California, who sponsored the resolution in the senate for the return of the American soldiers in Russia; Senator Norris, of Nebraska, and Senator Franco, of Maryland. The committee room was packed with listeners of whom a large majority were women.

Theory "Morally Wrong"

Col. Robins began his statement by repudiating the suggestion that he endorsed the Bolshevik movement or that he had ever favored formal recognition of the government of Lenin and Trotsky by the government of the United States. He declared that the whole theory of the Bolshevik government is "economically impossible and morally wrong."

He made no defense of the acts of violence which have been committed by the Red Guard in various parts of Russia.

The thing which Col. Robins declared that he did stand for was the

Ansell Is Reduced In Late Order

Washington, March 6.—The reduction of Brigadier General S. T. Ansell to his regular army rank of lieutenant colonel was announced this morning by Secretary Baker.

General Ansell held his rank of general during the war emergency and acting judge advocate general while General Enoch Crowder, judge advocate general, was working on the draft.

Ansell Attacked System.

Recently there has been a bitter controversy in congress as to the harshness of many court martial sentences, and General Ansell attacked bitterly the whole system and demanded reforms. It had been reported in congress that General Ansell for the boldness of his attack would be "demoted."

Secretary Baker replied that aside from any controversies the war department had the right to make use of the services of its officers where it saw fit and to carry out the law as to reductions without outside suggestions.

Kroger Is Successor.

Secretary Baker announced that he had selected General Edward A. Kroger, now in Cuba, to assume the duties of judge advocate general during the absence of General Crowder, who is going to Cuba to advise its government on certain election law reforms.

Berger and Arnold Held, Indictments

Madison, Wis., March 6.—Victor L. Berger and State Senator L. A. Arnold were arrested today on indictments for espionage brought in the LaCrosse federal court. They were arraigned before Judge Sanborn and released on $5,000 bail pending trial.

The men are charged with circulating materials tending to impair the fighting strength of the army. The document complained of is Berger's platform in his campaign for United States senator in 1918.

Senator Arnold is indicted for circulating the same material as his pledge of faith to Socialism.

The indictments were returned by the federal grand jury at LaCrosse, Nov. 30, last, and their trial was set for the term of federal court to be held at Eau Claire beginning March 10.

Underlying Strength In Stocks Shows Up

New York, March 6.—The underlying strength of the stock market was demonstrated today when in one session the average prices of railroad and industrial shares made up practically all of the recession recorded the last week. Short covering accelerated the upward movement in the afternoon, with the final quotations were around the best of the day and in the case of specialties at new high levels for this movement.

Irish Plan Session To Pick Delegates

New York, March 6.—The committee which last Tuesday night asked President Wilson to present Ireland's claims at the peace conference is to meet here tomorrow to consider sending a delegation direct to the peace council in Paris.

England to Release Irish Held in Jails

London, March 6.—The British government has decided to release the Irish political prisoners, Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law announced in the house of commons today.

BILL CHECKING PAROCHIALS IS HANDED REVISE

House Passes Constabulary Measure on the Third Reading.

Lansing, Mich., March 6.—By a vote of 19 to 22 the Weissart bill, making the Michigan constabulary a permanent organization, passed the house on third reading today. Future attempts were made by opponents of the bill to amend it and it went through just as it was reported out by the ways and means committee.

Its passage by the senate next week is predicted by a canvass by supporters of the measure, which shows a majority. Governor Sleeper who urged its adoption in his inaugural message, will sign it as soon as it reaches the executive office.

Amend School Measure.

In the face of possible defeat the Condon educational bill, which would have given the state superintendent of public instruction "general supervision of general instruction" in private and parochial as well as public schools, was amended by the senate in committee of the whole by striking out "private and parochial," thus leaving that provision as contained in the present law applying only to public schools.

Opponents of the original measure based their objections on the ground that the phrase "general supervision" was too indefinite and might mean the opening of an avenue to more specific restrictions on private and parochial schools later on. A poll of the senate disclosed that about 20 senators would vote to kill the measure unless the objectionable part of it was removed.

No Religious Interference.

The amendments remaining in the bill require that all general instruction be given in the English language and that but one fifth of the school day may be devoted to teaching foreign languages. It is specifically provided that the bill shall not interfere with the religious instructions given in private and parochial schools.

Patriotism, in force or otherwise, as a pre-requisite for voters and compelling every man to be fully naturalized if he wants to vote after Jan. 1, 1924, are the requirements of two measures introduced by Senator Harvey A. Penney, of Saginaw.

The taking of a solemn fealty oath before any man can register for the purpose of voting would be exacted by one of these measures.

Swear to His Loyalty.

When a voter appeared for registration he would have to first swear or affirm that he will "support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Michigan and defend them against enemies, either foreign or domestic." After taking this oath he would be permitted to register if otherwise qualified. Senator Penney explains that this forcefully would remind every voter of his duties as a citizen and he thinks it would produce some good effects.

Loses Four Fingers In Plant Accident

His hand caught in a punching press at the Escanaba Manufacturing company plant Thursday morning, Edwin Henry, 16 years old, of South Norris street, suffered injuries necessitating the amputation of four fingers. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock. He was rushed to the Laing hospital, where he was given medical attention.

America Warns Italy To Let Food Through

Washington, March 6.—Unless Italy halts delaying the movement of food supplies and release cargoes to the Czechoslovak and Yugo-Slavic states the flow of American foodstuffs to Italy will be stopped, according to a warning sent to Rome today by the United States.

KNUTSEN IS MADE HEAD OF DEALERS

In the business meeting which followed the banquet at the Delta hotel last night the Cloverland Automotive Dealers' Association came into being.

The following officers were elected:

President, John H. Knutsen, Escanaba.
First Vice President, Nels Johnson, Manistique.
Secretary, George G. Geniesse, Escanaba.
Treasurer, E. J. Kingsford, Iron Mountain.

A constitution and a code of by-laws were formally adopted. Membership fee for active dealers was placed at $5 per month. For hotel men, jobbers and retailers of automobile supplies, who will be admitted as associate members, the fee will be graduated.

Paris Papers Warm Toward Wilson Plan

Paris, March 6.—When President Wilson returns to France he will find a new era of good feeling awaiting him, and consequently the workings of the peace conference are likely to progress faster.

Mr. Wilson's New York address, which today's papers reproduced in full, has helped materially to produce a new attitude. Whereas before the president's first visit only the radical press prepared to receive him with acclaim, the conservative organs now speak kindly of his ideas, and this is true particularly of papers representing the government's views.

The French now feel they understand Mr. Wilson better than he understands them. Talking things over and digesting new ideas has helped to promote a better understanding.

GIRL SLEEPS FOR 55 HOURS

Kansas City, March 6.—Miss Adelaide O'Dowd, 18, has slept for 55 hours without waking. Physicians tonight are unable to tell when she will regain consciousness. The young woman's heart beats are normal, her temperature is usual, and there is nothing alarming about her respiration.

Americans In Attack; Injure One

Berlin, March 6.—Richard Henry Little, Chicago newspaper correspondent, was slightly injured when a mob attacked a taxicab in which several Americans were riding through Alexanderplatz.

In addition to Mr. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hecht also of Chicago, were in the cab. Mrs. Hecht, in telling the story after, said the cab had been held up twice by armed Spartacans, who evidently thought the occupants were government officials.

Several guns were fired at the cab and some of them found their mark, but luckily no one was hurt.

Went as "Y" Workers.

Chicago, March 6.—Richard Henry Little, Chicago newspaperman mentioned in the Berlin dispatch today, went to Europe to engage in Y. M. C. A. work. Ben Hecht is a correspondent for a Chicago newspaper, and Mrs. Ben Hecht, before her marriage, Miss Marie Armstrong, was at one time a member of the staff of the Chicago Evening American.

Renew Street Fighting.

Berlin, March 6.—Street fighting between the Reds and the government troops was renewed today and a fierce battle surged back and forth through Alexanderplatz. After the Red Guard and the revolutionary sailors had captured a number of government tanks, the government forces agreed to negotiate.

The Spartacans demanded possession of police headquarters and fighting was in progress for several hours.

Medical Supply Exhausted.

All of the ambulance supply was exhausted, so heavy was the drain upon their use. Red Cross workers picked up wounded in the streets. Crowds dodged into doorways to escape the bullets.

Berlin is a veritable mad house with the crowds in nasty mood. Threats are made to even worse trouble. A truck load of food on its way to the hotel Adlon for the United States military commission was held up and looted by a mob in the streets.

Berlin, March 6.—Newspaper composers went on strike last night and no papers appeared today.

A portion of the republic's militia and the volunteer marine guard have deserted Ebert and gone over to the Spartacans. The Reds attempted to storm the police headquarters, but were defeated. Many of both factions were killed in the fighting.

Scheidemann Acts Late.

London, March 6.—Philip Scheidemann's concession in supporting the socialization of the mines and other industries is regarded as coming too late, telegraphs the Berlin correspondent of the Daily News. President Ebert favors Chancellor Scheidemann's resignation and the retirement of the whole cabinet. This is expected to come tomorrow.

The situation is more critical because marines and fusiliers have joined the Spartacans. There were artillery and machine gun battles today, the correspondent adds.

Nevada Prepares to Stage Willard Bout?

Denver, Col., March 6.—Will the Willard-Dempsey championship fight be staged in Nevada? Western fight fans are asking the question tonight following action of the Nevada legislature today in passing the 25-round boxing bill over the governor's veto. They regarded as possible that Rene will be the scene of another big fight.

Commons Votes for Conscription Bill

London, March 6.—Despite vehement opposition from the laborites and liberals, the house of commons late today passed the bill confining conscription. The vote was 111 to 111.

AUTO DEALERS 'BLAZE TRAIL' FOR TOURISTS

Successful Organization of Automobile Men Closes With Banquet.

"Blazing the trail to big things" one of the speakers at the banquet and business meeting of the upper peninsula automobile men at the Delta hotel last night, called the movement the group of men who gathered there have undertaken.

If "well begun is half done," the trail is more than half blazed because the Cloverland Automotive Dealers' association not only became a working, functioning force but it was sent off with every part hitting properly and plenty of fuel in the tank to carry it anywhere.

No Variety Lacking.

It was a pepful, helpful, inspiring evening, not lacking in variety. There was music by regular musicians, speaking by regular speakers, tips by real tippers, food for the appetite and food for thought.

More than 150 firms interested in automobiles, accessories in particular, and Cloverland in general, were represented at the tables.

According to printed menu, it included:

- Lake Michigan Cocktail
- Crank Case Oil
- Taper Pins
- Castellated Nuts
- Sheet Packing
- Transmission Assembly
- Differential Grease
- Cup Grease
- Tool Box
- Cooling System
- Nuts and Washers
- Gasoline
- Spark Plugs

One of the big features of the dinner was a flyer into community singing, led by O. V. Thatcher, of Milwaukee, and the enthusiasm began to reach the bubbling over point when H. F. Robinson, one of the speakers, arose and proposed a rising vote of thanks to J. H. Knutsen of the Delta County Automotive Dealers association, whose work and pep and energy had more the gathering a success. The vote was given and the diners harmonized on "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" while Mr. Knutsen yelled for order and demanded to be heard.

Admits He Has "Pep."

"I'm not much of a speaker," he shouted, "but I'll admit I've got a lot of pep!"

The crowd howled its assent. When the efficiency of the "cooling system" had been demonstrated; when the tanks were filled with "gas" and the "spark plugs" were sparking properly, things began to move rapidly towards the goal set for the meeting—a permanent organization.

Mr. Knutsen introduced George G. Geniesse in behalf of the Delta men who welcomed the visitors. He told how Delta's hundred per cent association had been established in a few weeks and of the things it has already accomplished.

"Dealers in the other counties can do the same," he said. "It's up to you."

Mr. Knutsen then turned the steering wheel over to Mr. Thatcher, who officiated as toastmaster.

Thatcher akes Chair.

Mr. Thatcher explained how he had always hoped for some sort of organization to promote the auto interests of the upper peninsula. At the Milwaukee show he succeeded in getting a number of Cloverland dealers together. That was the beginning of the movement which resulted in last night's meeting.

Henry A. Perry of Menominee, field man for Cloverland Magazine was then introduced, with the explanation that he was a "pinch hitter" for Roger W. Andrews who had not been able to attend.

Pinch hitters usually strike out, Perry didn't. He walloped home a track record in his speech and in his arguments in favor of the proposed...

 "Co-operate and Get It."
 The upper peninsula pays one-third of the taxes of the state of Michigan, he said. "There is to be a bond issue, we hope, of $50,000,000 for roadbuilding. One-third of that should belong to us. By co-operative effort we can get it. The other organizations of Cleveland will welcome this new force in that cause."
 "Rough Gold," was the topic of J. L. Doolin, secretary and manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau and selected. He offered the assistance of the bureau in any way such aid could be used and expressed the hope that the new organization would soon be working shoulder to shoulder with the others.
 "Use that word 'Cleveland,'" he advised. "It is known all over the country and its meaning is far reaching. Use it in your advertising, in your correspondence and in your conversation."
 He Cites Real Figures.
 More than $700,000,000 is spent each year in the United States by tourists, he said. Every day California alone gets $1,000,000 in tourists' money. The sum spent annually by visitors to the Berkshires Hills in New England is greater than the total value of the annual gold output of Alaska. Colorado gets $17,000,000 from tourists every year.
 Much of the additional $400,000,000 formerly spent by Americans touring Europe will be spent in "Seeing America First," he said, and he asked:
 "How much of it are we going to get?"
 He sketched many of the things that will require effort and many more things that require only publicity—"letting the world know they are here." Among the latter was the wonderful climate, the magnificent scenery, fishing and camping possibilities. He advised an intensive advertising campaign, better service and uniform charges by garage men.
 "Rain" Goodman Completes It.
 Mr. Thatcher next introduced B. J. Goodman, of Lake Linden, king of Cleveland's entertainers, who kept the crowd roaring for half an hour with a long line of stories and impersonations. Goodman was at his best, and that means mighty good.

His contribution to the program was one of the evening's features.
 W. R. Smith, of the Delta Hardware company, responded to a request for a talk and his effort was a ringing appeal for the successful completion of the organization.
 W. H. Frieze, of Menominee, proved another forceful speaker. Then Mr. Thatcher introduced W. W. Rowland—"Brownie," route expert for the Milwaukee Journal, who spoke on "Signs."
 "Wisconsin roads are the best marked of any in the middle west," said the speaker, "although I will admit that they are not the best roads. Up here you have the roads. All you need is the signs."
 Offered Good Suggestions.
 He told why road markers are vital to the comfort of tourists and offered some suggestions for co-operating with Wisconsin.
 "Wisconsin is interested in getting tourists to Cleveland," he said, "because we know down there we will get them either going or coming. You have roads and scenery equal to California's. By marking your roads you will be equipped for a great tourist business."
 At this time Mr. Thatcher showed a design for a Cleveland Automotive Dealers' Seal, which he suggested could be used to good advantage by the dealers and for the benefit of the traveler as well.
 The speaking program was closed with a splendid talk, "It Pays to Advertise," by H. P. Robinson, of the Milwaukee Journal.
 "It pays to advertise," said Mr. Robinson. "If it didn't, you fellows wouldn't be here."
 Cleveland Has It All.
 Cleveland, he said, has climate, scenery, roads, grazers, farmers—everything in the way of merchandise that the tourist is interested in. He made a number of suggestions as to the proper methods of telling the world of tourists about these things.
 The business meeting followed the banquet.

Income Head Locates Loophole in Measure
 Washington, March 6.—A loophole whereby families of large incomes may avoid higher rates of taxation by declaring their incomes separately was discovered in the new revenue law today. Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper issued a ruling which gives to husbands and wives having separate incomes the advantage of the lower rate, as follows:
 "In figuring up their income taxes this year a husband and wife who have incomes from separate sources may each apply the lower rate, namely, 6 per cent, to the first $4,000 of income subject to normal tax. The high rate of 12 per cent applies to the balance, in each case.
 "The net income of husband and wife has always been considered separately when figuring the surtax. Under the new revenue law the normal tax rate, as well as the surtax rate, are applicable separately to the net income of each individual."
 The Name Rose.
 The name "rose" varies only slightly among different nations. The Romans called it rosa—a form adhered to in Italian, Portuguese, Spanish and Russian. In Polish it is roza; in Dutch, roos; in Swedish, ros, and in French, German and Danish, rose.

Great Sacrifice of France for America
 France has put 6 million of her 36 million population into the trenches and has poured out her life's blood for America and democracy. In addition we owe her a large debt of gratitude for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments which her peasants discovered and successfully used. The ingredients are now imported and sold by Geo. H. Mayr, leading Chicago chemist, under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Marvellous results are said to have been achieved by it here. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Michigan Sire Wins Prize in Scotland
 Chicago, March 6.—Word has just been received at the office of the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association that a Michigan Aberdeen-Angus bull had the honor of siring the champion at the famous Perth spring show and sale in Scotland, and later sold for 2,100 guineas, or over $10,000.
 This bull, Edgar of Dalmeny, was imported by W. E. Scripps, a Detroit business man, for use on his purebred herd near Orion, Mich., and was the only animal of the breed imported to this country last year.
 Not only was this Michigan purebred bull sire of the champion but three of his sons sold at an average of 822 pounds 10 shillings, or over $5,000 a head, and they were only yearlings at that.

Factional Storm for Republicans Brews
 Washington, March 6.—The first definite rumblings of a republican factional storm brewing for the next house were heard today. Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, son-in-law of the late Colonel Roosevelt, issued a statement assailing the committee on committees now working out the Republican organization.
 Mr. Longworth was one of the leading supporters of Representative Gillett for speaker. He is one of the few Gillett men on the committee on committees.
 If he carries out his intention to take the fight into the caucus, republican harmony and solidarity will be seriously jeopardized.
 NOTICE!
 The annual caucus for the township of Bark River will be held at the township hall on Saturday March 15, 1919, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of nominating township officers for the ensuing year.
 Signed: ALEX WILSON, Township Clerk. 1603-64-4t.

Wilson Unconcerned Over Problems Here
 ABOARD THE UNITED STATES SHIP GEORGE WASHINGTON, March 6.—President Wilson's second voyage to Europe has been uneventful so far. Weather conditions are excellent and the ship is maintaining her schedule strictly.
 The president slept late this morning. He is unconcerned over the clamor in America at the failure of a great mass of important legislation to pass before congress adjourned. He believes the people can easily discern where the responsibility lies.
 Mr. Wilson expects the cabinet to take the necessary measures to meet emergencies arising from the failure of the deficiency bill. He expects to make every possible effort to hurry the peace work and return to America at the earliest possible moment.
 He is being kept fully in touch with Paris and Washington by wireless. All plans for visits elsewhere have been cancelled pending completion of the peace conference.

Cook Clings to His Story of Slaying
 Chicago, March 6.—J. Norman Cook, alleged slayer of "Billy" Bradway, will probably know his fate tomorrow. Cook underwent cross examination today, after which arguments of the prosecution and defense were made and the case was ready for the jury.
 Cook held to his story that he had tried to prevent Bradway from paying attention to Norma Cook, his 18-year old daughter; that he had no intention of killing him, but that when they met Bradway attacked him and he was forced to fight for his life.
 The state's attorney in his closing arguments did not demand the extreme penalty but urged "punishment fitting the crime and deserving of the criminal."

THE CHILD'S VOICE.
 All children should be encouraged to sing, for the voice is God given, a priceless instrument that needs no trick for its use. And it is beautiful in childhood, before wrong and careless speaking and singing have made their inroads of injury.
 We should do all in our power to encourage this sweetness of voice—by suggesting a moderate degree of tone in speaking and singing, by example more than precept. Children imitate so quickly. Mother's quiet voice or teacher's well modulated one is sure to have effect.

William Follo Gets Report in Earliest

HARBOR HAS 16 INCHES OF ICE

Escanaba Most Favored in Ice Situation, Report Indicates.

The harbor at Escanaba has ice 16 inches in thickness, with snow covering it from six to eight inches, according to the ice report of the lakes issued by the weather bureau. A few open lanes of water which formed during the past two weeks have been frozen over.

The reports from the regular and display stations of the weather bureau and meteorological service of Canada indicate that there is less ice in all lakes this winter. In Superior there is a small field along the south side of Minnesota Point which extends about eight miles along the Wisconsin shore, and also a small field off Portage Canal and some slush ice from Point Sable east to Whitefish Point. Whitefish bay has no ice. In St. Marys river the ice is reported 16.5 inches in thickness.

Green Bay Is Open.
In Green Bay the ice is reported 16 inches in thickness at Escanaba with open water at Green Bay. In Michigan there are no fields reported except some slush ice in the extreme southwest portion and at the Straits, where the ice fields are light and broken and drifting with the winds. In Huron there are small fields of slush ice reported over the northern portion, but none over the southern portion.

In Lake St. Clair the ice fields are broken up and the lake is practically open. Detroit river is open to Lake Erie. There are no fields reported in Erie or Ontario.

In comparison with the 11 years' average there is 10 inches less ice at Duluth, 3 inches at Sault Ste. Marie, 8 inches at the Straits, and 7 inches less at Escanaba. There is less ice in all lakes this year than reported last year at this period.

Report for Lake Michigan.

Following is the report compiled for Lake Michigan ports:
Escanaba: Harbor ice 16 inches in thickness, with a snow cover of from 6 to 8 inches deep. A few open lanes of water which formed during the past two weeks have again frozen over.

Green Bay: Harbor ice 1 to 2 inches in thickness; open water extends from the city front out into the bay.

There was a much better tone in the market today, due to reinsurance statements in regard to the railroad situation. President Willard of the B. & O. credited as stating that he believes extensions and improvements will be carried out by administration, despite failure of congress to pass the railroad bill. There were several good gains made in the New York list. Steel common advanced 2 1/4 points and Mexican Petroleum 6 points. The Porphyry companies announced the following dividends today: Chino 25 cents; Utah $1.50; Ray 50 cents and Nevada Cons. 37 1/2 cents. These dividends are all payable March 31st to stock of record March 14th. Last quarter Chino declared $1. Utah $2.50, Ray 75 cents and Nevada Cons 75 cents. Notwithstanding the cuts, these issues advanced today. Utah opened at 67 1/2 sold up to 69 3/4 after dividend announced. Inspiration also acted strong today, selling up to 45 3/8 after early low sales of 43 1/2. One New York house was advising the purchase of Utah Copper and American Smelters.

Escanaba Expects Menominee to Win Game There Tonight

Escanaba hasn't got a ghost of a chance to defeat the Menominee high school basketball outfit tonight in the contest at Menominee, unless there's a general shooting fracas in Menominee before 8 p. m. and four or five of the players are crippled so badly they can't get on the floor.

Christie Is Laid Up.

So think fans, at least, who know the condition of the Escanaba team. Christie, the mainstay of the organization here, is laid up with a bad case of blood poisoning in an arm. That has knocked Christie out of the game.

Incidentally, it cripples the entire Escanaba unit. The greater part of the players were coached with a view to centering Christie in the fracas. And in view of the fact that Menominee has a strong outfit and won handily here, the game looks dubious for Escanaba.

Seven Men on Trip.

Coach Gus Sonnenberg will take the following men to Menominee today:

Gessner and Quinn, forwards; Buell, Cotton and Brotherton, center; Gleich and Londo, guards.

LET'S FINISH MARCH PLEADS

Shortening War Responsible for Expenditure Big Sums of Money.

MINNEAPOLIS—General Peyton C. March, chief of staff of the American army, in a telegram to A. R. Rogers, chairman of the Ninth District War Loan organization, tells why it is necessary that the Victory Liberty Loan be a success. His telegram, based on the latest official casualty figures from the belligerent countries, reads:

"America shuddered last autumn at the official announcement that 60,000 of our boys had fallen in battle. The nation bowed its head at the inevitable and awaited with horror the coming of the spring campaign which would crush Germany, but with a terrible toll of American manhood.

Shortened the War.

"But the spring offensive never came. This government spent money like water in a gallant attempt to end the struggle and save as many American lives as possible. The money cost was terrific, but it brought peace six months ahead of schedule.

"By shortening the war six months it is estimated that at least 100,000 young Americans were spared horrible deaths on the battle field—young Americans who are now returning from France as fast as transports can carry them.

Our Loss Smallest.

"Terrible as was the cost in lives for the United States, it was infinitesimal in comparison with the other powers. Of all the allies engaged in the theater of war, our losses were smallest.

"In killed and died of wounds, Russia lost 1,700,000; France, 1,385,000; Great Britain, 706,700; Italy, 460,000; Belgium, 102,000; Roumania, 55,000, and Montenegro, 55,000.

Loan of Thankfulness.

"The coming Victory Loan will be a loan of thankfulness and gratitude. It will be an opportunity for all America to pay up the war debts we contracted that the lives of our boys might be saved."

According to General March's figures, compiled with great care, the total losses of the Allies in killed alone were 4,604,000. Of this number 50,000 were Americans. The latest official figures from Germany place the dead of the central empires at 2,750,000, divided as follows: Germany, 1,600,000; Austria, 800,000; Turkey, 250,000, and Bulgaria, 100,000.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express my appreciation to the many North Western men who so kindly gave me a splendid gift on the occasion of my severing connections with the North Western to retire on the pension list. I am indeed grateful for their kindness, one that will share my thoughts the remainder of my life.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

spoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on any empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a tea-

Having but a hand full of zero temperature—not enough to distribute generally—nature picked out Escanaba yesterday morning and dropped a touch of weather that sent the mercury in the instrument Fahrenheit inverted, down to three below the little red line. It was one of four days of the winter when the thermometer went below zero.

Winnipeg was the nearest point having zero weather. Duluth and St. Paul were well above it.

There was but little wind and the freakish temperature was noticed by very few.

600 Quarts "Throat Oil" Was His Load

Monroe—Frank Volght, who gave his address as 20 Ontario street, Detroit, was arrested here by state troopers, who found 300 quarts of whiskey in his automobile. He refused to stop on command, according to Serks, McGuire and DeKraaker, who made the arrest, but was stopped by a log placed in the road. When he stopped his car suddenly, another car immediately behind him was forced to stop. The driver fled, but the troopers got 300 more quarts of whiskey from this car. Volght is held in jail, pending arraignment here before the United States Commissioner.

Court Holds Clause On War Is Valid One

Washington—While not passing directly on the constitutionality of the Espionage Act the Supreme Court held that the so-called enlistment section is not an interference with the right of free speech.

"When a nation is at war," the court held, "many things that might be said in time of peace are such a hindrance to its effort that their utterance will not be endured so long as men fight and no court could regard them as protected by any constitutional right."

The opinion was rendered in sustaining convictions of Charles T. Schneck and Elizabeth Baer, of Philadelphia, who were charged with attempting to interfere with Army enlistments by sending through the mails to men of draft ages circulars discussing subjects relative to the war.

War Savings Club Work Progressing

Reports returned from the Minneapolis War Savings Stamp district headquarters indicate that Delta county will be well covered with Thrift clubs in a very short time.

Since the clubs, after the organization, report to the district officers rather than the heads of the county organization, it is impossible for Chairman George F. McEwen to tell how many clubs have been completed until the information is returned from the Minnesota city.

The work is going along splendidly however, he states, and there is no doubt that the year's work in Delta county will be a successful one if the present rate is maintained.

Resume Registration Here Until March 22

With the period for the spring primary passed, all men and women of the city who have failed to register will be permitted to do so until March 22, inclusive. After March 22 there will be a general registration day in each of the seven wards—Saturday, April 5, just before the spring elections. Indications are there will be but few men and women registered between now and the election period, as a great majority of them have registered.

DAYLIGHT SAVING.

The failure of the last minute effort to repeal the daylight saving act will please the vast majority of people. The innovation of setting the clocks ahead one hour last summer won favor throughout the country, the results more than justifying congressional action in providing the extra hour of daylight.

Daylight saving added much to the pleasures of life and congress did well to heed the wishes and welfare of the vast majority instead of bowing to the will of a few of the farmers who allege that they have trouble with their help. If 7 o'clock is too late an hour for rising under the daylight saving schedule make it 6 o'clock. The cows pay no attention to the law, but that can easily be arranged.

It is estimated that fifteen million people did more or less gardening last year and found the earlier closing hours a great advantage. Other millions enjoyed longer evening in all parts of the country.

The announcement that the nation's clock will again be advanced an hour from the last Sunday in March to the last Sunday in October will be welcomed—Calumet News.

GREAT LAKES-OCEAN ROUTE.

An old-fashioned sectional issue is raised by the question whether Great Lakes freight shall seek the ocean through the St. Lawrence or the Hudson. The Northeast has a selfish interest in developing the latter route, while the Northwest dreams of seeing Duluth, Chicago, Toledo and Cleveland great American ports of departure for steamers sailing direct for Europe, it is essentially a question for engineering and navigation experts, and the Senate does well in ordering investigation. The Shipping Board is reported to have planned a medium sized, standardized cargo carrier which could pass directly from the lakes to the lower St. Lawrence. For some years there has been a fourteen-foot channel with not a little commerce, and the practicable enlargement would cost, it is claimed, but $35,000,000. Superintendent Lewis Nixon's objections have weight as those of a ship architect, and he asserts that no profitable trade could be carried through the narrow, crooked channels of the upper St. Lawrence, where speed could hardly be faster than a man's walk.

Arguments based on the difficulty of international arrangements are rightfully occupying a secondary place. It is more probable that it would mean concord than discord with Canada, as Senator Williams says; and Mr. Nixon's fear of foreign warships sneaking up the St. Lawrence will intimidate but few—New York Evening Post.

THE PEOPLE CAN IF THEY WILL.

In every country engaged in this war, even to China and Japan and far Siam, there are men who have become enormously, stupendously rich out of this war. When, therefore, you ask from whence comes the support which nerves individuals to attempt deliberately to kill Mr. Wilson's efforts to stop all war and, of course, to stop all private manufacture of the munitions and instruments of war, you have the answer. If Mr. Wilson's efforts bore fruit, as they have seemed likely to do, then money making out of war would become a thing of the past. But the one place on this earth where Mr. Wilson's efforts could be nullified, the war profiteers of France, England and the rest of the world having tried and failed, is the United States Senate. There is a heavy movement in the United States Senate to nullify. The one power which can compel the United States Senate to desist is the American people. Will they exercise their power? The people can do it if they will.

SUPPLIES TO VLADIVOSTOK.

A Red Cross train carrying more than 10,000 comfort bags for American soldiers along the Trans-Siberian and Ussuri railways has been sent from Vladivostok. Each soldier will receive two bags, one packed by the Red Cross in Vladivostok and one which arrived recently from the United States by transport. The combined comforts include candy, tooth paste, tooth brush, cigarettes, chewing gum, comb, pencil, shaving stick and cigarette lighter, beside a "housewife" with a variety of utilities for mending. The train was in charge of Director S. T. Short of the department of military relief.

There was probably more gasoline burned into the auto stove league here yesterday than ever before in a given time in a Cloverland city. Auto fanning bees were the style of the convention and the way some of them burned up the roads—in words—was simply scandalous.

The Balkans are now able to sit up again and develop a small war cloud, but they find some difficulty in having the world take it seriously.

The American people gave $400,000,000 to the Red Cross. Americans in France gave more.

A Cleveland woman wants the men to do the cooking. Picture her husband wiping the bitter tears out of his eyes with the corner of his apron because she has just told him they are not "like father used to make."

Congress has decided there is not time enough to put into force war time prohibition which becomes effective July 1. A lot of fellows will let that go for their reason for celebrating the Fourth.

President Wilson says Premier Venizelos was the greatest man around the peace table. Maybe it is a good thing there was not another Greek there. We have had tugs of war enough for a while.

It has been discovered in running down the movements of a rich man charged with bigamy that one of his names was Waterbury and that generally he was fast.

Having announced that he does not intend to run for a third term, President Wilson probably finds himself still staunchly supported by William Jennings Bryan.

It is amazing how much work a Congress can do when the death rattle is in its throat and prospective mourners are at the florist ordering wreaths.

Nurses in a Chicago struck when they discovered mice in their beds. We'll wager it was no walk-out. As long as we have Mexico there the United States will always be bordering on something.

With such an example as the last three months have set, March ought to behave herself.

We can hope, anyhow, that this kind of winter will result in fewer spring poems.

The state constabulary seems a fixity, much to the disgust of the bootleggers.

To make every man's dollar paid in city taxes, buy to the limit of its value the benefits it is supposed to secure is the real basis of the Tax-Payers party campaign this spring.

The 24-page issue of The Press yesterday was the largest regular daily edition of any newspaper ever published in Delta county and it was but the forerunner of other big things for the good of Escanaba contemplated by the Press for the immediate future.

There's one thing about banquets these days—your head is a lot smaller the morning after, than it used to be following similar occasions in the wet days of the past.

Interesting Map of Work Of 32nd Division.

MARQUETTE—A large and interesting map in the ed Cross window, for which the Red Cross is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Drake, of East Hewitt avenue, is attracting much attention. The map was received recently by Mr. and Mrs. Drake, from their son, Rollin, who is now stationed at Rengsdorf, on the Rhine, in the topographical department, to which he has been transferred from the 107th Engineers, with which he enlisted.

Large Scale Chart.

The map, which shows northern France and southern Germany on a largest scale, sows the exact progress of the 32nd Division, from its arrival in France, up to date, emphasizing particularly the march of the Army of Occupation from the battle front, as it was on November 11, to the points in Germany where the various companies of the division are now located.

Progress Marked.

The last battle front is clearly outlined in red yarn. The progress of the 32nd is shown in pink color, while by means of arrows and printing, the daily progress is marked. Being of the 107th Engineers, Rollin has particularly marked their victorious course.

It preserves their incidents and the radiant optimism that teaches the joy of living.

No character in fiction in many years has so crippled the affections of the public as Pollyanna Whittier, who is depicted in her radiant youth. There is so much sorrow in the world's affairs just now that the joyous optimism of his glad-hearted play is hailed with enthusiasm by playgoers who have been surfeited with morbidity.

Klaw & Erlanger and George C. Tyler, bring here a cast of unusual excellence. Claire Morereau will play the title role, and will be supported by Gordon Johnstone, John Webster, Fanoh Campbell, Katherine Rober, Helen Weatherby, George Lindsay, Master Thomas Deely and others.

"Pollyanna" has enjoyed the appreciation of great audiences in the larger cities of the eastern sections of this country, and now ranks as one of the permanent successes of the dramatic stage.

Little Home Helps.

DIAMOND-SHAPED pockets are unusual.

Salt in whitewash makes it stick. The best color for nursery walls is soft blue.

Opiums must be kept in a cool, dark place.

Apples stuffed with raisins and chopped nuts, then baked, are delicious.

Instead of grating cheese for some dishes that are to be baked, slice thin and save time.

To restore color to dried beans, add a pinch of soda and a teaspoonful of salt to their boiling water.

Use paper to wipe out your sink and spider before washing it. It prevents patches of grease getting into the pipes, which makes so much trouble.

When you want to starch a few things and have more starch than you need, do not throw the starch away, but drain the water off and let it harden. It will form a cake and can be broken in pieces and used again.

Practical Recipes.

French Gingersnaps.

One-half pound sugar, one-half pound butter, one-half pound flour, one pint molasses, two heaping teaspoons ginger, one tablespoon cinnamon, one teaspoon ground cloves, one teaspoon soda. Mix in order given, roll thin, and bake quickly.

Deviled Eggs.

Boil until hard six eggs. When cool shell and divide in half. Remove the yolks carefully, so as not to break the whites; mix them with the same quantity of deviled ham. Refill the whites. Dish in a nest of lettuce leaves, garnish with beet cut into fancy shapes.

Baked in Peppers.

Parboil green peppers of the sweet variety after cutting them in half and removing the seeds, which are often hot. In ten minutes drain them, dip quickly into cold water and drain. Then mix salmon with an equal amount of breadcrumbs, moisten well with melted butter and a little cream. Put in a baking dish, buttered, pour in a very little water and cook until the peppers are soft and the fish is brown.

Lenten Season This Year More Costly than of Past

The cost of piously conforming, this Lent, with some show of gastronomic comfort, to the regulations regarding fasting that go into effect Wednesday with the inauguration of the 40-day penitential sabbath of the Christian world, will make Lent in even the moderately well filled purse. Lobster and other sea food dainties that formerly were popular articles of diet in the lenten season are now almost prohibitive in price except for the very rich. The last time any man who is not a plutocrat had the courage to inquire about the price of lobster, it was a dollar a pound—enough to make the green lobster blush without the application of boiling water. Other sea foods have risen in proportion.

Regulations Issued. The Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, D. D., the Catholic bishop of Detroit, has issued the regulations that will govern the fasting of the 300,000 Catholic faithful of Detroit during the lenten season, beginning Wednesday. All who have completed their twenty-first year and have not yet reached their sixtieth year, are unless legitimately dispensed, obliged to observe all the days of Lent, Sunday excepted, as fasting days. On Holy Saturday and on the day of the Resurrection, the fast is relaxed.

REGISTRATION NOTICE!

To the qualified electors of the City of Escanaba. Notice is hereby given that the Boards of registration of the City of Escanaba, Michigan, will be in session on Saturday, April 5, A. D. 1919, at the following places to wit: First Ward—City Building on First Avenue North (Escanaba Avenue) and Fourth Street (Royce Avenue). Second Ward—Carnegie Public Library Building, corner First Avenue South (Wells Avenue) and Seventh Street (Campbell Street). Third Ward—City Hall Building, corner Eleventh Street (Mary Street) and First Avenue South (Wells Avenue). Fourth Ward—City Building, corner Tenth Street (Charlotte Street) and Fourth Avenue South (Jacob Street). Fifth Ward—City Building, on grounds of Washington School Annex, First Avenue North (Escanaba Avenue). Sixth Ward—City Building in 600 Block on Fourteenth Street (Sarah Street). Seventh Ward—Fire Station Number Three on Hartnett Avenue.

Registration for the General and Annual City Election to be held in the City of Escanaba on Monday, April 7th, 1919. The registration will be held for completing the lists of the qualified voters of the city.

Women Electors. The names of all qualified women electors, not already appearing on the registration list, will be registered, provided application is made in conformity with the within provisions.

Registration of Absentees by Oath. If any person whose name is not registered shall offer and claim the right to vote at any election, and shall, under oath, state that he is a resident of such precinct and has resided in the ward twenty days next preceding such election, designating particularly the place of his residence, and that he possesses the other qualification of an elector under the constitution; and that, owing to the sickness or bodily infirmity of himself or of some member of his family or owing to his absence from the city on public business or his own business, and without intent to avoid or delay his registration, he was unable to make application for registration on the last day provided by law for the registering of electors preceding such election, then the name of such person shall be registered, and he shall then be permitted to vote at such election.

Provision in Case of Removal to Another Precinct. Any registered and qualified voter who has removed from one election precinct of a ward to another precinct of the same ward shall have the right, on any day previous to election day, on application to the city clerk, to have his name transferred from the registration book of the precinct from which he has removed to the registration book of the precinct in which he has moved. Such elector shall have the right to have such transfer made on election day by obtaining from the city clerk a certificate of transfer.

Workers Excluded. By special indult of Aug. 3, 1887, it is allowed to take, in the morning, a small piece of bread only with a cup of coffee, tea or chocolate. The collation may be taken at noon and the dinner in the evening, when the principal meal cannot be taken at noon. The sick, the infirm and the convalescent and those engaged in hard labor are exempted from the precept of fasting.

By dispensation of the pope, the use of flesh meats is allowed on all days except Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday and Saturday of Ember week, and Holy Saturday before noon. The regulations issued by Bishop Gallagher further set forth that "in virtue of the power granted by the Holy See in 1919, authorizing the bishops to dispense the laboring classes from the law of abstinence for a period of 10 years on condition that the indult be annually announced and granted for a year at a time, we hereby grant such dispensation from Ash Wednesday, 1919, to Ash Wednesday, 1920."

The following conditions are made: That the faculty does not extend to the Fridays of the year, to Ash Wednesday, Holy Saturday before noon or the eve of Christmas; that on fasting days the permission of eating flesh meat cannot be used except at the one meal; that if the breadwinner of the family is entitled to the privilege granted to the laboring classes, then also the other members of the family may make use of the concession; that on days on which this concession is availed of, the faithful should perform some other penitential work.

Men serving in the army and navy, except when on furlough, are allowed by papal indult to eat meat on all days of the year except Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the forenoon of Holy Saturday, the Vigil of Christmas, and the Assumption.

Forgot What He Needed. From the Republican, Mt. Gira, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully and he said: "Now I know!"

"What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks paged over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy."

The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

Notice! Is hereby given that in conformity with Act 125, Public Acts of 1917, I, the undersigned city clerk, will, upon any day except Sunday and a legal holiday or the day of any regular or special election or official primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said city, not already registered who may apply to me personally for such registration, except that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the third Saturday before any general or special election, or official primary election and the day of such election.

All electors not already registered and intending to vote at said election, can make personal application to me on or before the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1919.

Notice is further hereby given, that I will be at the city clerk's office in said city on Saturday, March 15th, and March 22nd, 1919, from 8 o'clock a. m., until 8 o'clock p. m. on each day for the purpose of reviewing the registration and registering such of the qualified electors in said city as shall appear and apply therefor.

The name of no person but an actual resident of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election shall be entered in the registration book.

Women Electors—Important Notice. All women who possess the qualifications of male electors will be entitled to registration provided they make proper application to the city clerk, within the time limit above designated. All registration of women prior to Dec. 5, 1918, is null and void.

CARL E. ANERSON, City Clerk. Dated March 1, 1919.

Fourth Volunteer of County Is Discharged

After more than 18 months' service overseas, Arthur Fontaine, fourth Delta county volunteer since the outbreak of war, has been discharged from the service.

Fontaine has a singular war record. He served on several fronts, going over with the first troops from this country, but escaped without "a scratch."

He is a brother of Mrs. Agnes Shoodle, Mrs. Ted Cox, Miss Eva Fontaine and Frank Fontaine. He will remain here for several days.

Testimonials Given In Little Pamphlet

A pamphlet of "Greetings New Year's Day 1919," with a number of splendid testimonials of the good work of the second army corps in the final stages of the fighting overseas, is the coveted souvenir in the hands of Attorney N. C. Spencer.

The pamphlet contains special orders from Generals Bullard, Muir and Pershing, in addition to several from French officers, commending the men for their defeat of the Boche.

Especially interesting are the two following commendations, short, but to the point:

"Congratulations your division on the way in which they are bagging the Boche. It is fine."

"BULLARD."

"Another big bag of Boche. I again congratulate the 28th division. You surely know how to do it."

"BULLARD."

Neurohr Writes to Richards, Perkins

France, Dec. 3, 1918.

Joseph Richards, Perkins, Mich.

Dear Pal Joe:

It has been some time since I wrote to you so I thought I would write you a few lines tonight. I am feeling fine at present and hope this letter finds you the same.

Well, Joe, don't expect it will take very long before I get back home again and we can have a few good old times again. I have had a few good times over here but I have often thought if I only had you with me I surely would have enjoyed them more than I did.

Some Unbelievable Tales.

Well, Joe, while I am writing this letter I am thinking of the few miles I have traveled in the last year.

SOVIET LEADERS NOT PRO-HUN AT HEART-ROBINS

Witness Intimate With the Bolshevik Says Allies Spoiled Chance.

tension by the United States of help to the Bolshevist government—that is, help of an economic nature. The taking over of the control of the transportation system, particularly the Trans-Siberian railroad, was recommended as was also the supplying of machinery and raw material.

Peasants Would See Light. If such help could be given, Col. Robins said, the Bolshevik movement itself would fall because the peasants will realize that cooperation with established governments will help them more than violence against every government on earth.

The story of how the Brest-Litovsk treaty came to be ratified when Lenin and Trotsky both were against it was intensely interesting to the committee members. It showed that urgent appeals from officials who were on the ground were ignored by the home government and that Lenin was compelled to support the ratification of the treaty after all hope of receiving support from England and the United States had been abandoned.

Col. Robins said that Trotsky first pointed out to him the advantages which would come from co-operation between the United States and the Soviet government. He said:

Shown Map of Front. Trotsky showed me a map which indicated the position of the big guns along the eastern front. He said that if the Brest-Litovsk conference failed the Germans would come in and take possession of these guns and turn them against the Allies on the western front.

"He suggested that if the United States were to come in and take control of the transportation system, it could secure the guns and keep them from falling into Germany's hands. The guns and the ammunition had been manufactured in England to be used by the Allies against the Germans."

I said that Trotsky's proposition looked like a good thing and I did what I could to take the matter up, but nothing came of it and Germany did get those guns and ammunition made in England to serve the Allies and used them in the March drive to shoot down American boys on the western front.

Order Was Rescinded. "Shortly after this the American government, having been apparently aroused by the fact that I had been in consultation with Trotsky, sent out an order that I should no longer co-operate with the Soviet government. The American ambassador believed in me—at least I hope he did; anyway, he requested his government to withdraw that order and it was done, and I was instructed to continue in co-operation with them."

Had Planned "Right" Peace. "When the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk were first begun there was a perfect understanding between Lenin and Trotsky for a democratic peace, that is, a peace without indemnity, without annexations, and with the right of self-determination. Later when the Allies had refused to have anything to do with that suggestion, negotiations were begun with the central powers alone and Germany accepted for such a democratic peace."

"But after the first meeting at Brest-Litovsk, when the Soviet representatives went back, the real German terms were disclosed; they were just the opposite. In other words, the Soviet faction was betrayed by the Germans into accepting the negotiations for peace and then the terms had been changed."

"Denounced at Meetings." "Lenine and Trotsky were both violently against acceptance of the terms. They denounced them in big meetings held in Petrograd. Trotsky's statement with reference to the German proposal was: 'Germany is trying to carve its way with the sword over the bodies of European nations.' At this point Lenine and Trotsky separated."

"Trotsky believed he could beat the Germans and was in favor of going back to Brest, rejecting the terms and defying Germany to fight; he wanted to tell the German representatives that the Soviet had been deceived and would not accept the terms."

"Lenine, however, believed it was too late and said there was nothing to do but accept the obnoxious terms. Trotsky went back to Brest and

Sport Skirts for Spring and Summer

(C) Underwood & Underwood.

Combined with square medallions of real Venise, Irish heading is used in a collarless blouse of mesh Georgette, laid in an oblong design, back and front, with two rows of beading separated by an inset of tucked Georgette. The medallions are placed at the corners. A similar trimming runs up to the elbow in the somewhat full sleeve, headed with a medallion, caught at the wrist with a narrow, tight band.

Irish heading is novelly used in another number, with narrow black velvet ribbon run through it. It finishes the round neck and the sleeves, the ribbon gathering them slightly and tying in a jaunty bow.

Ruffles make their appearance on a conservative model, made with the finest imaginable knife-pleating. These finish the back, fastening collar and cuffs, which drop over the wrist. The body is made of alternating box pleats and insertions of flit running lengthwise.

Another successful number using flit has tightly fitted cuffs which fasten with a close series of small pearl buttons and embroidered loops. A point flare cuff falls below this, with a band of flit inserted and touches of hand embroidery. This same idea is carried out in the two-piece collar in short, bib effect front.

Attractive Beading. Beads are used to good advantage in a slipover number. A sunburst design of white beads and embroidery combined decorates the center front and the collar. Fullness is given this waist by the use of French unstitched pleats at the extreme sides.

Plafner Blouses also are worthy of note here. Hand drawn work distinguishes one model of heavy ecru Georgette. It is used lavishly on roll collar, vestee and turn back cuffs, hemstitching outlining the wide hem.

Two Good Tailleurs. Of heavy quality crepe de chine are made two chic tailored numbers. One has a bosom front of alternating box pleats and bands of pintucking, the latter bordering the collar.

The second one has straight fronts with a wide group of narrow jacks running the length. Around the collar run smaller groups which cross in a fine network at the hanging corners.

The Spanish Influence. The Spanish influence is seen in fringe and manner of draping a block tricolette cape lined with old blue satin. The waistline is drawn in somewhat by an exaggerated end of the shawl collar encircling to fasten at the right side front.

Angora collars are shown on the Bonbonette capes and fur on other tricolettes, some of which are printed.

Among these are models made up of straight panels attached to produce a full garment of novel line.

Peau de-peche in combination with tricolette is also developed into models which feature many types of yokes to hold the fullnesses.

denounced the German delegation and then took the first train back to Petrograd. As soon as he had left, the Germans did not wait for expiration of the truce, but began to advance. The Red Guard tried to resist, but in front of them were the remnants of the old Russian army, rotten to the core, and they deserted, forcing the Red Guards into a retreat.

"There is one thing that can be said of the Red Guards, no matter what else is charged against them—they do know how to die. They made a gallant resistance, but it was of no use."

"Lenine then took supreme command. Trotsky sulked. Lenine sent a new commission to Brest with orders to sign the treaty. It is said they did not even look at the document and were forced to sign at the point of a bayonet. Lenine ordered the capital removed to Moscow and directed the all-Russian Soviet government to convene there."
