

HUN RATIONS INCREASED

NONPARTISANS OF NORTHWEST ARE DIVIDED

First Split in Ranks of Townley Party Comes in North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., March 15.—For the first time in the four years it has had the whip in hand in this state, the Nonpartisan League is divided upon matters of legislation.

Today, four league endorsed and elected state officials threw down the gauntlet to the leaders of the movement and declared themselves opposed to certain of the important League laws enacted by the state legislature.

Attorney General William Langer condemns and urges the repeal of the educational bill, centering all control of educational facilities in the hands of a board appointed by the governor and he condemns the "printing" bill by which every class of official and legal printing would be centered into newspapers picked by the administration board.

State Treasurer Olson and Secretary of State Hall joined the attorney general. State Auditor Krositzky besides opposing these bills, assails the judicial reorganizing bill providing for three new state judges and he also attacks the industrial program laws regarding expenditure of public money without an audit by state officers who are charged with financial responsibility in all other state matters.

Urgo Repeal of Laws. The officers urge repeal of the laws they condemn in the forthcoming referendum election for which the people have petitioned.

State banks and industrial commissions may be abolished. Instead of spending $5,000,000 on flour mills and terminal elevators, the independent voters ask only $2,000,000.

To those who have followed the Nonpartisan League movement from its beginning, and especially the opponents of the organization, the announcement of the split today has a deep significance.

Every man endorsed by the Nonpartisan League for nomination or election, must sign a pledge that he will support without exception, all legislation that has been stamped with the approval of the League's heads. In the face of this pledge, the quarter officials have seen fit to break with their party machine.

Has Stood Like Wall. In the four years of the League's ascendancy in North Dakota, beginning with the election of Lynn J. Frazier, the "Farmer Governor" and a complete state ticket, with the lower house of the legislature, the organization has stood like a stone wall in the face of the most violent opposition.

The enemies of Townley, president and founder of the League, and the program of state ownership he and his disciples have attempted to "put across" have expected a blow up at any time but the "We'll Stick" motto of the organized farmers seemed to have been well chosen.

Ten States Interested. The break at the state house today was the occasion for considerable surprise, nevertheless and results will be eagerly watched in the eight or ten other states where the Nonpartisan have obtained a foothold.

Senator McCormick Assails Censorship

Washington, March 15.—The censorship of news between the United States and Europe is a crime, declared Senator Medill McCormick, of Illinois, in a statement issued here today.

"It has been imposed only in a partial attempt to deceive the people of Europe as to the opinion of the American people and as to the attitude of senators regarding the proposed constitution for a league of nations," Senator McCormick declared.

New School Chief Comes to Escanaba With Great Record

ESCANABA'S new superintendent of schools—W. E. Olds—was born on a farm near Flint, Mich., September 22, 1884. He graduated from the Flint high school in 1903 and from September of that year to June 1905, he taught a district school near his home.

In the fall of 1905 he entered the State Normal College at Ypsilanti, graduating in 1907 as president and valedictorian of a class of more than 400 students. He was a leader in student activities and a member of the college debating team for two years.

Enters State University. In the autumn following his graduation from the Normal college, he became superintendent of schools at Wolverine where he remained until 1908, resigning to become superintendent of the schools at Central Lake. Here he spent five years, going to Elk Rapids as head of the city schools in 1913, a position he held until 1915 when he became a student in the University of Michigan.

Mr. Olds had previously attended four summer sessions at the "U." In June 1916, he completed his course and graduated with an A. B. degree. At the present time he lacks but a few hours' work or having his M. A. degree from Michigan.

College Faculty Member.

In 1916, he became superintendent of schools at Marshall. Last summer he was a member of the Summer school faculty of the Michigan State Normal college, teaching psychology and he had been placed on the faculty for the coming summer but he expects to resign in order to come to Escanaba as early a date as possible.

Offered Department Chair.

He was recently offered a very fine permanent position as head of the Department of Secondary Education in the Bowling Green Normal college at Bowling Green, Ohio. This offer, he refused because he enjoys the work which falls to a superintendent of schools.

There are two "young Olds"—a boy of seven and a girl, aged two.

Yankee Troopers Watching Border

El Paso, Tex., March 15.—American cavalry are closely watching the movement of Villistas just across the border from Hachita, N. M., who captured Buck Spencer, Choctaw Indian, foreman of an American owned ranch in Mexico.

Superintendent R. C. Moorehead, of the Warren estate, Three Oaks, Mich., owner of the cattle ranch, is reported to be ready to pay $5,000 demanded by the bandits for release of Spencer and ten Mexican employees, also held captive. Twice before Spencer had been liberated by payment of ransoms.

The cavalry patrols are also on the lookout to prevent smuggling of ammunition to Villistas while they are near the border.

Announce Platform

Taxpayers Party Tells Public Its Aims in Directing the Affairs of Escanaba for a Bigger and Better City—Comes Out for City Manager Form Here.

THE complete platform of the Taxpayers party, upon which is founded a movement for a bigger and better Escanaba and for a more economical administration of the city's affairs, was announced last night.

The platform follows:

To the men and women of Escanaba: We, the representatives of the Taxpayers party of the city of Escanaba, in convention assembled, mindful of the responsibility imposed by the many municipal problems which this city faces, believe in fostering that unity of purpose and municipal spirit which shall bring to the solution of these problems our best thought, guided by unselfish motives, to the end that the interests of the many shall be preferred to those of the few, and our municipal government kept on a plane and up to a standard commensurate with the city's population and importance.

Congratulate Women. The women of this city, having shown themselves entitled to the ballot through their able and tireless efforts during the recent stressful period, are congratulated upon having by appropriate legislation and vote of the people obtained equal suffrage and are hereby welcomed into the political life of our community.

We gratefully acknowledge the deep obligation we owe to our fighting men. We revere the memory of those who have paid the great sacrifice. We follow with solicitude those who are far away in paths of duty, and delight to honor those who, having performed distinguished and honorable service, are now returning home.

1. We favor a city manager form of government, and believe that the will of the people as already expressed by the ballot in this regard should govern, and that a special election should be promptly called by the city administration for the election of commissioners to frame a charter providing for this form of city government.

2. We stand committed to secure to the people of our city a careful, efficient and economical administration of the city's affairs.

3. The finances of this city are in a deplorable condition, and we denounce the extravagant methods that have been employed in the past.

Tax Reductions. 4. Taxes on all property have become almost confiscatory, especially to home owners, and we denounce the reckless expenditure of public funds.

5. The streets and alleys should be greatly improved, and better cleaned and lighted, and the parks and sidewalks extended; and we denounce the giving of street contracts and afterwards changing them at will, with increased cost to the people.

6. Public health must have the most careful conservation, and we favor vigorous preventative measures, especially a greatly improved garbage system.

7. The public utilities should be economically and efficiently managed to furnish pure water, gas, and electric light to all the people at lowest possible rates, and we denounce the use of these utilities as a political football to get a job or an office for anybody.

8. This city should be made a better place in which to live and in which to make a living and to own a home, for all the people, and we denounce the effort made on the part of certain politicians to promote themselves in office by stirring up factional prejudice and class hatred.

Efficiency in Office. 9. No man is entitled to receive or hold public office except on the basis of ability to render service to the people, and we denounce the use of machine politics to keep any party in office without reference to fitness or to interests of the people.

10. We favor vigilance in the execution of municipal contracts, and care in the manner in which such contracts are carried out, and believe in safeguarding at all times the rights and interests of the people of the city.

11. Our city in common with all others is in the midst of a great readjustment period, and we believe in the improvement of social and labor conditions so that better and higher standards of living may result.

12. To all those men and women who have faith in the future of Escanaba, and who wish to see it grow commercially, industrially and socially, and become a better place in which to live, for yourselves and for your families, we request and urge your assistance and votes at the coming city election.

M. J. RYAN, Chairman.
W. J. CLARK, Secretary.

$1,000 FINE IS IMPOSED UPON BOOZE TOTERS

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 15.—One thousand dollars fine, or an alternative of serving three months in the county jail, was the sentence passed today by Federal Judge Sessions in United States district court in the case of George E. Rogers and Peter J. Vos for camouflaging a shipment of liquor into dry Michigan in violation of the Webb-Kenyon law.

Both Rogers and Vos are prominent business men of Grand Rapids and were indicted several weeks ago. At a previous hearing they pleaded not guilty, but at today's hearing they changed their minds and paid.

Court Martial Is Again Criticized

Washington, March 15.—Taking issue with Secretary Baker's recent defense of the army court martial system, Representative Royal G. Johnson, of South Dakota, today renewed his fight for justice and fair play for the enlisted men and further criticized the war department for the demotion of General Ansell because of his exposure of the court martial scandal.

Mr. Johnson said he disliked to reopen the controversy, "but an issue involving the lives and rights of men is at stake, and it will never be settled until it is settled right."

TROTSKY HAS CHARMED LIFE

London, March 15.—Another attempt to assassinate Leon Trotsky, Russian Bolshevik war minister, failed Sunday, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail.

Several shots were fired, one of which punctured Trotsky's hat, but he was not injured. One member of his staff was killed and another wounded.

The shots, it is reported, were fired by a Bolshevik soldier.

De Valera to Help in the Celebration

Cork, Ireland, March 15.—Prof. De Valera, president of the Irish republic, and recently escaped from prison, has arrived in New York and will participate in the St. Patrick's day parade, according to a number of Sinn Feiners here.

ENEMY TO PAY FOR FOOD SENT IN BY ALLIES

Conditions Imposed by the Associated Powers Are Accepted.

Paris, March 15. The cure for the Bolshevik disease in Germany was handed to the German delegates by the Allies at Brussels today. It is an increase in the German rations, assured until August, when the German crops will be available, and was recommended and prescribed by the American peace delegates.

Some impetus was given to the restoration of German industries by the lifting of some restrictions on the export of coal, dye stuffs, timber and a few other products.

German Gold to Pay. German gold will pay for the new arrangement. The German delegates asked that the United States assume the financial burden in advancing money, but this was refused.

That the blockade is to be lifted to a considerable extent immediately, placing Germany in a position, under certain restrictions, to resume world trade, was the statement made here today by Herbert Hoover, interallied food commissioner, who has just returned from the conference in Belgium.

Surrender Merchant Fleet. The conditions imposed by the Allies in return for the food concessions were accepted in total by the Germans. They provide generally for the surrender of German merchant vessels in payment, and that, according to Brussels advice, first loads will be less than capacity. Alterations, however, are expected to be made in American ports.

The latter figure most possibly is incorrect, as German figures have placed the tonnage of ships to be surrendered at approximately 2,000,000 tons.

Estimate 2,000,000 Tons. London, March 15.—Estimates of the tonnage surrendered by Germany as part payment of the food to be supplied by the Allies conflict in reports received here. The vessels, both passenger and cargo, have an aggregate tonnage of 2,000,000, according to one report, while another places it as high as 3,500,000.

Imperator to America. London, March 15.—The giant German steamship Imperator will follow the Vaterland (Leviathan) into the hands of the United States, according to information here. The big ship is said to be among nine great passenger vessels allotted to America under the Brussels agreement of today.

The passenger ships given the United States will be able to carry 35,000 troops to the United States from Europe each trip.

"Daylight" Order Is Sent to Railroaders

Washington, March 15.—Instructions for the setting forward of railroad blocks and timepieces on March 20 were issued by the railroad administration tonight. The order is effective at 2 a. m., March 20.

The instructions are based on a report of the committee of transportation of the American Railway Association.

Extradition Must Be Legal—Dutch

London, March 15.—If Kaiser Wilhelm is extradited from Holland he must be taken legally.

That is the Dutch government's position, according to the minister of justice, who made a statement in the chamber of deputies today.

The minister declared he recognized no right outside of law, according to a dispatch from The Hague.

Count Who Will Be Head of Germany's Peace Delegation

It is now virtually agreed by the Allied representatives that the German envoys will not be admitted to the plenary session of the peace conference, but will deal only with the committee at Versailles.

ARRAIGN DAVIES ON BANKRUPTCY COURT CHARGES

Former Chairman of Federal Trade Commission Must Give Up Fees.

Chicago, March 15.—Joseph E. Davies, former chairman of the federal trade commission, has been invited by Judge Kenneth M. Landis to appear in the federal court here Monday and tell what he knows of affairs of the Consumers Packing Company. The company is under investigation in bankruptcy court. Among charges brought against the concern is that its officers traded stock for Liberty bonds, held for the most part by persons in moderate circumstances, knowing the company was sound.

Asks Revocation of License. Judge Landis today directed a telegram be sent to the Secretary of State at Illinois, notifying him the company is in bankruptcy and that its license under the blue sky law should be revoked. Similar telegrams were also ordered sent to the secretaries of state of Missouri, Ohio, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

The notice to Mr. Davies to appear in court carried with it request for return of $7,500 which, it is alleged, he received from the company.

Must Return His Fees. "The court will grant Mr. Davies the right to return the $7,500 which he received from the company under misapprehension," said Judge Landis.

Edward J. Ager, former secretary and one of the six bound over to the federal grand jury by Judge Landis, told the court of Mr. Davies' connection with the company.

"Just what did you expect Mr. Davies to do for you?" the judge asked Ager.

"Who Suggested Fee?" "To go before the capital issues committee and obtain a license permitting us to sell $100,000 worth of stock," Ager replied.

"Who suggested the fee?" "Mr. Davies did. He asked $15,000 at first, and we later agreed on $7,500, which we paid him in advance."

"And did Mr. Davies get you the license?" was the judge's next question.

"No, he didn't."

Can't Do It Now. "Well perhaps Mr. Davies is still trying to get it for you," Judge Landis suggested.

"He couldn't very well," answered Ager.

The capital issues committee went out of business the first of the year.

The judge ordered a telegram be sent to former Judge Moses Brozman, of New York, informing him the court granted him leave to return $3,500 which he was said to have received from the company for legal services. Another telegram was sent David I. Frank, former wealthy Chicago promoter, now in business in New York, to appear in court Monday.

Prohibition's Foes Form Association

New York, March 15.—The association opposed to national prohibition, none of whose organizers has any interest direct or indirect, in the liquor business, has opened national headquarters here and will incorporate next week.

Arrangements have been completed for the establishment of branches in 29 states. Applications to the number of 800,000 were tonight reported received for membership in the association, the membership fee of which is $1 and the dues $1 a year.

The association, as revealed in its certificate of incorporation, is opposed to all forms of public prohibition. It is no less vehement in the exclusion of the public from the use of beer and light wines than to brandy and whiskey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Houston left today night for a visit to the Pacific coast.

Five Killed In Wake Of Big Cyclone

Tulsa, Okla., March 15.—Death and destruction of property followed in the wake of a cyclone that swept through Oklahoma tonight.

Wire communication is badly crippled and details are not available.

Five lives were lost at Porter, a town of 800 population near Muskogee, when the storm struck that place.

Half the buildings in the business place were destroyed. Several persons were injured.

The storm extended into Texas. It is reported late tonight, considerable property damage resulted. No death have so far been reported in that state.

Chicago, March 15.—A series of storms are sweeping the country from the Great Lakes region south to Texas. No damage has resulted in this section.

Bliss Durand Wins 250-Mile Road Race

Los Angeles, Cal., March 15.—Bliss Durand, driving Chevrolet Special No. 1, went in the lead at the start of today's Santa Monica road race, staying in front all the way, and won the 250-mile speed classic with ease. He made the distance in three hours, four minutes and 45 seconds, an average of 61 miles an hour.

Eddie Hearne finished second, Levee third and Eddie Patten fourth.

By a coincident, the winners finished in the order of their numbers one, two, three and four.

FINDS PICTURE OF HIS SON

Edward Smith, 611 South Saratoga street was reading the Press yesterday morning.

He turned to page five where he found a picture of a group of American soldiers entering a theatre they had renamed the "Uncle Sam" instead of the "Hohenzollern."

A face attracted his attention. He looked more closely. There wasn't any doubt about it.

There, near the curb in front of the show shop, was his son, Earl Smith.

"Almost as good as a letter from the boy," is the way he describes the little incident.

ROOT TO TEST CONSTITUTION

Contents That "Dry" Law in Effect Soon Is Not Legal One.

New York, March 15.—The wartime prohibition act's constitutionality is to be tested in an action started today by the stockholders against the James Everard breweries in federal court. Joseph Everard, the complainant, asked for a restraining order against the suspension by the defendant of its manufacturing activities on May 1 and its sale on July 1.

Ellis Root, chief counsel for the complainant, represents an unconstitutional emergency prohibition clause of the agricultural bill, contending that as the armistice has been signed and hostilities ceased the designated object of the measure, safeguarding the national security and defense, was unnecessary and hence the act is not an emergency measure.

The president's proclamation of the armistice, it was contended, marks the termination of the necessity of prohibition as the means of conserving the nation's strain to maintain the country's man power to carry on the war.

Coppers Heavy and Rails Have Bad Day

New York, March 15.—Today's short session in the stock market was a repetition of the previous day, specialties being the feature, with several new high records in which stocks which have a small floating supply and in which speculatives are active. The copper stocks continued heavy and the rails were friendless. Steel shares were under pressure. Steel common losing half a point. More than 500,000,000 shares were traded in.

NINETEEN INDICTED.

Detroit.—Nineteen alleged booze runners were indicted by federal court here, following arrest made by the state police, assisted by authorities here. They are charged with bringing liquor from Ohio into Michigan.

ASKS OFFICIAL A HARD ONE

"Hello! How long are you going to be in the office," said a voice over the phone wire to County Clerk Albert Pepin yesterday afternoon.

"That's pretty hard to tell," replied Pepin. "I expect to be a candidate again but elections are uncertain."

"Try to hold off an election for five minutes and I'll be there," replied the voice. "I'm on my way now."

DOUBT RIOT WAS SERIOUS AFFAIR

Navy Officials Are Inclined to Believe Outbreak Exaggerated.

Washington, March 15.—The clash between American Marines and Japanese at Tien Tsin, according to officials here, was either a very serious affair or else the report grossly exaggerated the facts. They say there can be no middle ground.

The navy takes the stand there must be exaggeration as it is inconceivable that 200 Marines had leave of absence at one time to go from Peking to Tien Tsin.

Some Marines There.

There are 278 American Marines and the 15th regiment of infantry in service in China under the international agreement that the way from the sea to Peking shall always be kept open.

It is not thought that 200 Marines could have left Peking for Tien Tsin except under orders, and if there had been such orders the American minister at Peking would have so stated in his brief announcement of the incident received yesterday.

Jingo Press Started It

If there has been an exhibition of bad blood between the Americans and Japanese at Tien Tsin officials here think it unfortunate as showing how far the Anti-Americans of the so-called Jingo press of Japan can create unpleasant situations.

The navy department had no report today on the outbreak at Tien Tsin, but one was momentarily expected from Col. Hane of the Marines from whom General Barnett, commandant of the Marine corps, had requested a detailed report.

Probably Settle It.

If the occurrences at Tien Tsin were without international meaning it is very likely that the state department and the Japanese foreign office can settle the trouble without friction. If, however, there was an attack on two American citizens without justification, Japan will be called on to make honorable amends.

LEAGUE PLAN A PART OF PEACE?

Wilson Is Reported to Have Said Covenant to Be in Treaty.

Washington, March 15.—Conflicting reports from Paris as to whether or not the league of nations covenant is to be an integral part of the treaty of peace aroused much comment here today. The reports indicate a direct issue between President Wilson and the French representatives of whom Andre Tardieu, recent high commissioner to the United States, is spokesman.

Wilson Says It Will.

The president is quoted as having stated "the plenary council has positively decided that the league of nations is to be part of the peace treaty."

Senators who are fighting the league of nations proposal declared that if the president's statement is true that the league plans will be beaten. If it comes before the senate as a part of the treaty there are enough votes pledged to strike the league clause out before the treaty is ratified.

Peace Is First Step.

The position of the senators who are against adoption of the league's constitution has been stated over and over again in all parts of the "round robin" resolution which 39 senators have signed and over 60 have agreed to accept. This position is that the important thing at this time is to "make peace and bring the boys home from Europe."

Blue Serge Skirt Keeps Menominee Girl Out of War

Detroit, March 15.—Some day this week the Menominee, Mich., newspapers doubtless will print: "Miss Nina McNaughton, our Red Cross nurse, is home for a rest after not going to war."

Tough luck and tough serge—that's what will put the "not" in that news item.

If She Had Known—Oh! Miss McNaughton, pretty enough to start a war of her own, was in Detroit Wednesday night and explained why she is going home without service stripes. Her story, though tragic, is funny in the telling. She tells it like this:

"Our unit was at Hoboken, ready to sail, and we girls were allowed a day's shopping in New York. We were through and came out of a shop and ran for a street car to take us back. The other girls made it, but my skirt caught on a hydrant and held me. I pulled, but it wouldn't weaken. If I had known that that stout skirt and horrid hydrant were holding me on this side of the Atlantic either the hydrant or—or—or something would have given way.

Bill is Silver Lining.

"Anyway, I got back to quarters an hour late, the other girls were on

FRENCH WORRIED OVER DEBT THE COUNTRY FACES

Paris, March 15.—How is France to meet her financial obligations? The war cost is over $37,000,000,000, while the public debt before the war was $6,000,000,000.

After adding all resources she finds an immediate deficit of $4,000,000,000 and after doubling the anti-war budget for the coming year which means double taxes, she cannot escape a shortage of $1,500,000,000 without counting the repairs to war damages which, it is supposed, Germany must pay for.

It is evident that France needs guarantee which not only will make Germany pay damages, but which will enable France to reduce her military expenses; in other words, such frontier and such guarantees against the enemy which will allow demobilization and a substantial reduction of armament.

It is natural that the idea of a pool of war expenses among the powers find many adherents. Meantime the slogan "Germany must pay first" reverberates through the country.

WILSON ANXIOUS TO HURRY PEACE

Wants Terms Settled With Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria.

Paris, March 15.—This morning President Wilson handled a mass of correspondence and went to the Crillon at noon. Here he conferred with the American delegation.

This afternoon the president attended the session of the supreme war council and was given additional information of the council's work during his absence, especially as regards all terms affecting Germany.

President Wilson, it is understood, is most anxious to take up not only the German terms, but also peace with Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, which, it is said, should be framed in the next three or four days.

Later in the morning the president issued his statement denying that the American delegation ever had considered the proposition of separating the league of nations from the peace treaty.

Col. House replaced President Wilson at the meeting of the supreme war council this afternoon, the change being decided upon at the last moment. President Wilson decided to concentrate his attention on a mass of documents which had accumulated during his absence. It was understood President Wilson did not consider the afternoon meeting vital.

Atlanta, Ga., March 15.—Surrender of the railway clerks' strike seemed to be in sight tonight. Ted J. Forrester, national president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, has arrived here and is making every effort to reach an agreement with the railroad director through the efforts of Mayor Key.

Million and a Half Men Out of Army

Washington, March 15.—The total discharges of officers and men from the army, to date, are 1,490,386, of whom 83,774 were officers and 1,406,612 enlisted and drafted men.

Of the officers discharged, 36,822 have accepted commissions in the reserve corps.

Orders issued call for the demobilization of 1,678,500. This figure shows that more than one half of the whole army for the war is out or soon to go out. Of the total given, 1,305,000 are in the United States and 373,500 are overseas men.

Keep on boiling the city water until further notice, was the warning issued yesterday by Dr. A. S. Curison, city health officer, after making numerous tests of the condition of the water here. Since March 10 the water has not been good, according to the health officer, and he advises all people to take precautions by boiling it.

BILL TO STOP AUTO THIEVES

Abstract of Title Measure to Make Sale of Stolen Car Difficult.

Lansing, March 15.—Automobile stealing will become mighty dangerous, if the "Automobile Abstract of Title" bill now before the Committee of State Affairs of the Michigan senate becomes a law, according to prominent police officials in all parts of the country.

Concerning the measure, W. D. Redmond, chairman of the committee has the following to say:

"There is just one way to effectively stop for all time the established business of stealing automobiles. Make it impossible for the thief to dispose of the stolen car. A thief steals to sell a car—not to use it for his pleasure. Deprive him of a market and you reduce theft. This is the idea and plan conceived by the Automobile Abstract and Title Bill. The sale of an automobile often involves as much money as a sale of real estate. The abstract of title is always an important consideration in the transfer of real estate.

"Why shouldn't it be just as important in the transfer of an automobile? Give All Facts.

"Land abstracts give the history of titles to property and its location. Automobile abstracts will give the history of titles to the automobile and its description. The abstract system will make it impossible to disguise the car, alter and change the original car numbers without detection, and this, you know, is now being done every day in the disposing of stolen automobiles. Certain precautions have been taken in perfecting our system so that it is absolutely impossible for the thief to forge an abstract or evade the provisions of our plan in any way. "I will cite a few facts which I claim that the Automobile Abstract and Title bill will do.

"It is a guarantee and proof of title with the automobile and upon demand. Has Many Uses.

"It will prevent anyone from selling or purchasing a stolen car.

"It will be a protection and important in obtaining loans and loaning money on automobiles by the banks at 5 per cent with a guarantee.

"The abstract provides for mortgages, changes in style of body, repairs and replacement of parts.

"It will prevent many court suits that do otherwise follow sales transactions and it will eventually be demanded in and by the courts.

"It will be an aid to the insurance companies and prevent the automobile thief or dishonest policyholder from making fraudulent claims.

"It will reduce the theft hazard for the insurance companies, thus reducing insurance rates.

"It will be an aid to the states license bureaus and will add an additional revenue to the state of Michigan of nearly one half million dollars.

The Complete Plan.

"The plan is as follows:

"Under our plan the abstract will be issued in book form to the owner and used for the life of the car. There is provided in the abstract bills of sale in consecutive order and attached to each bill of sale is a duplicate in the same consecutive manner. Upon the purchase of a new automobile from the manufacturer's distributor or upon the purchase of used or second-hand automobiles from an owner the bill of sale will be made out by a notary public with seal and sworn to before him. The notary will then detach the duplicate bill of sale which will be forwarded to the Secretary of State. The purchaser of the automobile will then be mailed his guarantee of title which is to be attached to the abstract by the purchaser. The transfer fee for each and every transfer shall not exceed two dollars; of this amount the notary shall deduct his fee, which will not exceed fifty cents. The abstract system will apply to all makes and types of motor vehicles excepting tractors and tractor engines.

Forget What He Wanted.

From the Republican, Mt. Gilliam, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know! What is it you are looking for?" he inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of consumers.

"At What Hour Do You Want to Die?" German Medic Asks

NEW YORK—A weird story of awakening on an operating table to have a surgeon ask him at what time he wished to die was related by Private Wilfred Hocking of Lake Linden, Mich., who landed here from the hospital ship Mercy. He had his right leg and arm fractured and regained consciousness in a German hospital.

"At what time do you want to be killed?" he said the German surgeon inquired, adding, "That is what your officers tell you we do to you, isn't it?"

Hocking was transferred to an Austrian hospital and describes one exciting experience.

"A party of German soldiers who seemed to be drunk opened fire on us," he said, "but a few days later I had the joy of seeing the whole German army beating it for Berlin in the maddest confusion you can imagine."

Stellar Southpaw of Aggies Coming

East Lansing, Mich., March 15.—Baseball upward bound this season. Baseball hopes of the Aggies took another upward bound this week when Coach C. L. Brewer received word that Paul Donnelly, stellar southpaw of last year's varsity will be back in East Lansing in time for spring practice.

Donnelly was the prize moundsman on the team last year, sharing the twirling job with Mills throughout the season. Both men have been in the navy and their absence threatened to leave a big hole in the line-up this spring. Donnelly's return alters prospects for the better.

Coach Brewer now has seven letter men ready for service. Stan Johnson and F. G. Mallard, varsity catchers; Donnelly, on the mound; Ward Andrews and "Big John" Hammers on first and third, and I. G. Enider and J. Doscher in the outfield will be in uniform.

A score of men who have made high school baseball history in past years, are in the line as contenders for the remaining positions.

Changes Being Made at the Fair Store

A complete transformation is being carried out on the second floor at the Fair Savings Bank store, to provide one of the most attractive and modern women's ready to wear and millinery departments in the northwest. The ceiling of the entire floor has been paneled in mahogany and against a cream background a decidedly attractive effect is wrought. The new lighting system for the floor is being installed and will be completed within a week. The entire stock of ready to wear garments in the future will be carried in dust proof closets that already are in place, with new dressing rooms provided for patrons and all of the appointments to be found in a metropolitan store will be offered.

Set of Chessmen in Big Special Trunk

Milwaukee, March 15.—Chessmen which range from 2 to 3 1/4 feet high, made of aluminum, collapsible and packed in a special trunk, have been given to the library of the University of Wisconsin. A Milwaukee man now dead, designed them for use in public contests, with a view to increasing popular interest in the game.

Famous Giant Dies at Home in Ohio

Medina, Ohio, March 15.—Captain Martin Van Buren Bates, seventy-four, world famous as a giant, died at his home at Seville recently. Bates was seven feet four inches tall and weighed 300 pounds. He was married twice, his first wife being more than eight feet in height. Bates formerly toured with a circus.

The Cast for the Rex Beach picture, 'The Crimson Gardenia' now being filmed at Goldwyn, is headed by Owen Moore and Hedda Nova.

Eat Less Meat If Back Hurts

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, particularly backward, and misery in the kidney regions, rheumatic twinges, severe headache, acid stomach, constipation, uric acid fever, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts, your kidneys aren't acting right, or bladder bothers you, get about four carats of Jad Salts from any good pharmacist, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water or before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. The famous salts found from the great springs and lemon juice combine with uric acid, and has been used for generations to flush charged kidneys, stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates the ending bladder gland.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone, makes a delightful effervescent beverage, water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

WHICH ATTITUDE SHALL WE TAKE?

Peace came with great suddenness. Thirty days before the end it did not appear to the world at large that the war could be won for another six months or possibly a year. Everybody expected it to go well into the year 1919.

Had the war continued another year, or even six months, it would have cost the people of the United States billions of dollars more than it did cost. Worse than this, it would have cost thousands of lives and maimed men more than it did cost.

For the sudden and early ending of the war we have a great deal to be thankful. That is self-evident. We do not have to be told that we are thankful for the human lives spared.

What we do need to be reminded of at this time is that the bills of the war are not yet all paid, and that we must pay them. What we further need to be reminded of is that the bills we must meet are light in comparison with what they would have been had the war continued.

If the question had been put to the American people Nov. 1 last: Will you pay an extra ten billion dollars to have this war over and completely won within eleven days, where is the voice that would have raised against the proposal?

Or shall we look back upon what has occurred with intelligent understanding and appreciation? And shall we prove the quality of our citizenship by demonstrating this understanding and appreciation?

By paying our income taxes, whether personal or corporate, cheerfully and gladly. By subscribing to the Fifth Liberty Loan fully and enthusiastically, realizing that it is in reality protecting us from additional taxation which would be necessary without recourse to this bond issue.

Shall we complain about what we HAVE to do, or shall we discharge that DUTY in the spirit of pleasure that should be a privilege with us?

MAKE IT EASIER.

Of the First Loan, the Ninth District took $75,926,250
Of the Second Loan, the Ninth District too...132,942,350
Of the Third Loan, the Ninth District too...180,920,450
Of the Fourth Loan, the Ninth District too...242,046,050

The Ninth District's bank resources have increased practically $400,000,000 since April, 1917.
Our savings have increased from $73.88 per capita in 1914 to $136.88 per capita in 1918 and are still in the war isn't over.

The boys are not home.
The job isn't finished.
Therefore, there should be no let-up or let-down. On the other hand, world peace is assured.

By our bravery and our extensive preparations we saved at least a hundred thousand American lives. Is that unshed blood worth the price?
We can see the end of our tremendous expenditures. They have already begun to shrink almost as rapidly as they increased.

The fifth undoubtedly will be the last Liberty loan. Therefore, don't let this idea that it is going to be harder to sell the Victory Liberty Loan spread. It isn't right. It isn't patriotic, it isn't true. Let's just tighten up our belt, turn the corners of our mouths up instead of down and set the "thought waves" of thankful optimism working for us and for the "Victorious Fifth."

We're not quitters. We are going to take our share of the Victory Liberty Loan with less fuss and less prodding than were required for the Fourth. Let's start thinking and talking along that line and make it easier.

the Philippines, Manchuria, Siberia, China ports, Singapore and many other places. In all these places Japan's fair name is being trampled under foot by these women. It is really a shame for this country to allow this disgraceful trade to be carried on abroad.

Is the government powerless to stop it? We do not think so. We have a very efficient police system and if half the energy shown by our police in searching out and watching persons considered to be imbued with so-called dangerous thoughts were directed toward the control of conscienceless brutes who live on the shame of those poor girls they could certainly put an end to their nefarious activity.

In this connection, we must also hold ladies of the upper classes responsible for the national shame. They owe it to society as well as to their unfortunate sisters to bestir themselves on their behalf for their rescue and urge and, if need be, compel the government to do away with the evil once for all.—From the Seoul Press (Japanese.)

UP TO TAXPAYERS.

The campaign into which Escanaba is now entering should be one of the cleanest cut affairs in the history of the city. The big question is: Shall political consideration continue to dominate city affairs, to the detriment of the interests of the taxpayers, or shall politics be tabooed and business made the keynote of the city administration, for the benefit of the taxpayers?

Malcontents of the Democratic and Republican parties are organizing a new party. They're perfectly welcome.

The teeth are back in Michigan's prohibition law. And it's said the legislature's dentists did a fine piece of work.

It is estimated that one pound of nitrogen properly applied to the soil will increase the yield of wheat by at least one-third.

THE PIFFLE HOOK

By SLIM PICKENS.

A HUSBAND and wife are opposing each other for the presidency of a lower peninsula village. There, ah, there, one may find the acme of breakfast table repartee.

Cesar was warned to beware of the Ides of March. The roothsayer, having studied Michigan weather, knew that anything might happen in that month.

TERRIFICALLY INEXPENSIVE.
DEAR SLIM—Every time I board a street car, I can't help but feel thankful that the Traction Company still has something which may be bought for a nickel.

A large number of feminine straw voters are going to vote as Dad votes. If they can discover how Dad is going to vote, they'll deserve credit for a full day's work.

The oftener we compare Michigan's team of United States senators with the pairs from other states, the gladder we are that we live in Michigan.

It seems that the taxpayers of Escanaba are expecting to, at least, exercise the principle of self-determination.

NO, LITTLE ONE, THAT WON'T WORK; WE KNOW; WE'VE TRIED IT.
DEAR SLIM: I used to own one umbrella. When a rain came up while I was at the office, the umbrella was always at home; when a rain came up while I was at home the umbrella was always at the office.

The Cuban authorities are becoming aroused over Jack Johnson's statement that the Havana fight was faked.

Jack stand's to lose any way he takes it. To come to the United States to fight means a prison sentence for him; the Cubans aren't going to permit him to fight in Cuba any more and he doesn't dare start anything in Mexico, because he "done left" his razor to home.

"There is nothing new under the sun," but it will be had to make a grade school geography student believe it when he has to buckle down and learn to bound, "Suabia, Jugo-Slavia, Tathonia, Slovenia, etc. etc. etc."

The legislature, At Lansing assembled, Has put the teeth, Back into the dry Law, And once again, Booze totting, Becomes A hazardous, Business.

Isaac Stephenson's Widow Asks Change in Will.

New Cheeseactory Installed in City.

MARINETTE—The city of Marinette is to number among its industries a cheese factory which will be running within a few days. The machinery is now being installed in the plant of the Peshigo Dairy on Main street, in the Nadeau block.

Wilson Stole His Auto.

Will Rogers, along with the Senate has a complaint against President Wilson. It isn't the League of Nations, though, merely that President Wilson stole Will's act. Here is the way the Follies' and movie star puts it.

At The Strand.

Have you ever been to Hawaii and felt the exotic spell of the tropic days and nights, the languorous beauty of the heavy perfumes, the dulcet sweetness of the native music of ukelele and guitar?

Accident at Buckeye; Narrow Escape.

GLADSTONE—Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock an accident occurred at the Buckeye which luckily did not prove fatal. As it happens in many cases, it all came about so quickly that it was not really known just what did take place.

At The Delft.

One of the cleverest of the many clever Metro plays in which Viola Dana has appeared on the screen will be the attraction today at the Delft theatre. This is the romantic comedy drama, "The Gold Cure," a play of five acts.

At The Delft.

At The Delft.

"In this picture of the story by Bret Harte, Miss Pickford is more the Mary of other days. No great amount of histrionic ability is required for the successful perpetration of the role of 'M'Liss,' a wild, untutored warm hearted child of the mountains, but it does permit her to put an gallop about with her curls flying—and that's the way the world first knew and loved 'Little Mary.'"

At The Delft.

"Behold her now as the harum sacrum daughter of a dissipated old chap, living in a rude cabin on the outskirts of Red Gulch, California. She has only one friend, Yuba Bill the stage driver, but he's a loyal one and backs the madcap up when the rest of the world threatens to be too much for her. It's Yuba Bill who brings her first doll to her and Yuba Bill who drives to town the new schoolmaster, destined to be, after a matter of time and vicissitudes, the lover of 'M'Liss.'"

CLOSEUPS and FADEOUTS

At the Delft Monday and Tuesday

Did you know that Harrison Fisher considers Olive Thomas the most beautiful girl in America? He is qualified to judge you will admit even if you do not agree with him.

One way to form an impression of "Boots", Dorothy Gish's latest picture, before it shows here, is to imagine a real fight between a combination of the Little Disturber and Battling Jane, meaning Dorothy, and a Bolshevik. Dorothy Gish is as good a fighter in "Boots" as Geraldine Farrar was in "Carmen."

Two statements of interest made by Samuel Goldwyn at the Brady dinner are: "The star is the cause of more trouble in this business than are all other troubles combined. Ninety-five per cent of the people in this industry are not entitled to what they are getting."

Viola Dana wears her father's trousers in "The Gold Cure" her picture which is showing here today. Followers of Viola know that she can wear trousers, and that she is charming in them.

Laemmle in California. Carl Laemmle, president of Universal, is in Los Angeles looking over affairs of Universal studios. He has taken a residence in Hollywood and is spending his time showing his two children Southern California and movie studios.

Accident at Buckeye; Narrow Escape. GLADSTONE—Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock an accident occurred at the Buckeye which luckily did not prove fatal.

At The Delft. One of the cleverest of the many clever Metro plays in which Viola Dana has appeared on the screen will be the attraction today at the Delft theatre.

At The Delft. The following is in part what Mae Tinee says of "M'Liss," starring Mary Pickford which is coming to the Delft theatre Monday and Tuesday:

At The Delft. "In this picture of the story by Bret Harte, Miss Pickford is more the Mary of other days. No great amount of histrionic ability is required for the successful perpetration of the role of 'M'Liss,' a wild, untutored warm hearted child of the mountains, but it does permit her to put an gallop about with her curls flying—and that's the way the world first knew and loved 'Little Mary.'"

At The Delft. "Behold her now as the harum sacrum daughter of a dissipated old chap, living in a rude cabin on the outskirts of Red Gulch, California. She has only one friend, Yuba Bill the stage driver, but he's a loyal one and backs the madcap up when the rest of the world threatens to be too much for her. It's Yuba Bill who brings her first doll to her and Yuba Bill who drives to town the new schoolmaster, destined to be, after a matter of time and vicissitudes, the lover of 'M'Liss.'"

Frills and Furbelows

WHEN a woman wants to look "paintable," which is the artists' word for picturesque, she wears black velvet. No texture holds such charm of color in its weave as velvet. It drapes into exquisite folds, softens every line of the body and enhances every contour of the face. A beautiful complexion finds its most effective foil in velvet. Black is the most popular choice of the picturesque velvet gowns which are seen on the most strikingly dressed women. Next in favor comes brown—with a running to red and occasionally golden—or of velvet. Kolinsky trimmings are very much used. The golden hair

Just Jests

Her Reason.
Jill—No, I could never love a sailor. I don't suppose you will come in again for years.

Jack—Why, we'll be back quite soon.
Jill—I don't mean in the harbor. I mean into fashion.—Judge.

Isn't It Awful?
"What is the matter now?" asked her mother.

"Matter enough. I should say. Ever since we poor girls were making enough on war work to buy a lot of clothes we have had to wear overalls."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Lessons of War.
"So you're saving up to buy an airship? You're quite an ambitious little boy."

"Yes, sir; I want to fly over Jim-Mack's back yard and drop bricks on him."—The Airman.

Dangerous Neglect.
"The fair defendant seems confident of being acquitted."

"I am afraid she is over-confident."

"Yes?"
"So far she hasn't even taken the trouble to smile at the jury."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Garden Dangers.
Bobby was enjoying the roses in grandmother's garden. All went well until he chanced to poke his wee freckled nose deep into the heart of a blossom which sheltered a great buzzing bee. With a howl of terror, Bobby fled to his grandmother's skirts. When his sobs were quieted he explained:

"They are very wild roses in your garden, grandmother. One of them st-r-rowled at me deftly."—Woman's Home Companion.

He'd Got Religion.
"Parson," exclaimed Ephraim, "I've got 'ligion—'ligion, I tells you!"

"That's fine, brother! You are going to lay aside all sin?"

"Yes, sah."
"You're going to church?"

"Yes, sah-ree."
"You are going to care for the widows?"

"Ah, yes, sah."
"You are going to pay your debts?"

"Sah? Dat ain't 'ligion; dat's business."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

EXHUME FAMOUS CHURCH GLASS

Stained Window of Abbey to Be Dug Up and Replaced in Cathedral.

London, March 15.—The famous stained glass windows of Westminster Abbey and St. Margaret's, which were taken down and buried in the crypt of the abbey after the first German raid on London, are about to be reinstated in their former positions. Only the most valuable of the windows were removed, the work of its member being too lengthy and too costly for all to be taken to a place of safety. Each bit of glass had to be carefully taken out, numbered, and stored away—a delicate and tedious task, but comparatively easy beside of replacement.

Gift of Spanish King.
The most historically interesting window thus preserved is the east window from St. Margaret's, famous for the beauty of the glass and the extraordinary story connected with it. It was originally intended for the chapel of Henry VII, in Westminster Abbey, being the gift of Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain to that king on the occasion of the betrothal of his eldest son, Arthur, to their daughter, Katherine of Arragon. Made in Flanders, it was unfinished by 1509, when Henry VII died, and it never found its way to the abbey on account of a remarkable chain of events.

Recalls Marriages.
Prince Arthur had predeceased his father after a brief married life of four months and nineteen days, and the crown, therefore, passed to Henry VIII, who, shortly after succeeding to the throne, married his brother's widow. This alone made the window an inappropriate reminder of the fact which, for the moment, Henry desired to forget, for in the left and right bottom lights were the figures of Arthur and Katherine.

Still less appropriate did it become when Henry began to tire of Katherine and desired to divorce her. It was accordingly sent to the Abbey Church of Waltham, where it remained until the dissolution of the monastery, when it was set up in a private chapel at New Hall, Wiltshire.

Buried Once Before.
This property was soon afterward purchased, curiously enough, by Sir Thomas Boleyn, father of Anne Boleyn, who became the wife of Henry after his desertion of Katherine. The property—and the window—subsequently passed into the hands of Villiers, Duke of Buckingham, whose son sold it to General Monk.

The latter is said to have buried the window to preserve it from the mistaken zeal of Puritanism during the Civil War. At the restoration of the monarchy the window was replaced in the same chapel, which in the course of time, became ruinous.

Restored to Church.
It was then taken down and sold for another private chapel of Copthall, near Epping. The proprietor of the latter in 1758 offered it for $2,000 to the church wardens at St. Margaret's, who were able to purchase it out of a grant from Parliament in aid of the restoration of the church. Thus, after 250 years, the beautiful window found a home within 200 yards of its intended haven.

Cake of Yeast Has Lot of Rise to It

Cat Cay, Bahama Islands March 15.—Captain Robert Strong globe trotter, lives on this tiny island fifty miles across the Gulf Stream from Miami, Fla. Recently the officers of an aviation coast patrol squadron stopped here for a chat and were invited to lunch by the captain's wife.

The talk drifted to homemade bread. A young aviator remarked he would do anything to get some. Mrs. Strong volunteered to bake a supply, only to discover there was no yeast.

The aviator, not to be cheated, started off in his plane, and in an hour and a half returned with a three-cent cake of yeast. This was probably the most expensive as well as the most rapidly transported cake of yeast on record. Incidentally, that cake of yeast certainly did rise.

Cadet Training to Make Men Stronger

London, March 15.—Owing to the large percentage of medical rejections of candidates for the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, the Government will establish a system of cadet training, which will aim at producing physical, mental and moral, rather than military fitness. Conscription will be limited to seventy hours yearly.

OBSERVANCE ST. PATRICK'S DAY HERE

THE HARP OF GOLD

(By Minna Irving.)

When Erin's sons to battle went
Their king was grieved to find
The gray-haired minstrel and his pipes
Alas! were left behind.
Then from a dark and rocky glen
Before his warriors bold,
Appeared a maiden robed in green,
Who bore a harp of gold.

On every long and weary march
O'er bog and mountainside
And every field where rose and fell
The battle's crimson tide,
Still ever fluttered in the van
Her mantle's emerald fold,
As leading on to victory
She played the harp of gold.

Back to his castle came the king,
He brought a fair young queen,
The sweet musician still arrayed
In robes of emerald green.
'And if you doubt the ancient tale,
In Erin's flag behold
The minstrel maiden's cloak of green,
And harp of shining gold.

British Girls Want Special Licenses

London, March 15.—Since the armistice there has been a constantly increasing boom in marriages. "We were busy before the armistice, but during the last two months our registry work has trebled," said a high clerical dignitary of the City of London.

A large proportion of the bridegrooms are Australian and Canadian. Cases were mentioned of couples arriving—some at late hours of the night—with the fixed intention of being married on the spot, and no questions asked.

Scarcely any seem to have heard of licenses or banns, the prevailing notion being that soldiers and sailors are exempt from all formality. On being informed of the various kinds of licenses necessary for hurried marriages one soldier thought a £2 ($10) license with a fifteen-day day parish residence would do and referred the matter to his would-be bride.

The girl turned to the cleric. "If Jack doesn't think I'm worth a £30 ($150) special, I guess it's no go." Some of the overseas troops are keen to be married in St. Paul's and are disappointed when told that the law forbids except when told that the law forbids except through process costing at least £40 ($200).

An astonishing number elect to purchase special licenses costing £30 "I believe some of those Dominion men do it for sheer love of startling a dignitary of the English Church," said a churchman.

Bad Taste in Your Mouth.
When you have a bad taste in your mouth you may know that your digestion is faulty. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will usually correct the disorder. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. You will find this to be one of the best medicines you have ever become acquainted with.

Practical Recipes.

Veal Loaf and Tomato Sauce.
GRIND one and one-half pounds of veal and one-fourth pound of pork together. Season with pepper and salt, adding one egg, three tablespoons of milk and one cup of cracker crumbs. Place half the prepared meat in roaster, lay two hard boiled eggs end to end on top; then add remainder of meat, pouring one-half cup of water around it. Bake until brown. Sauce for meat: Strain one pint of tomatoes. Season with salt, pepper and butter. Thicken with one tablespoon of flour, wet with a little milk.

Salmon Salad.
Salmon salad is delicious and can be made in several ways. One is to mince the salmon fine and mix it with mayonnaise dressing, and then to serve it in white lettuce leaves with a teaspoonful of mayonnaise on top of each mound and a couple of capers in that. Another is to mix the salmon, broken into large pieces, with French dressing and serve it on lettuce. Still another method is to use equal parts of salmon, in flakes, and minced celery heart with mayonnaise or French dressing on lettuce.

Cream Toast.
Heat one pint of milk, stir into it one large tablespoonful flour, wet with a little cold milk, add one large teaspoonful butter and one cup of cream if you have it; place on the back of the stove to keep it hot; then toast nicely some bread, dip into the cream, put into a dish, and when you have sufficient toast, pour the cream over it and serve.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR ST. PATRICK DAY OBSERVANCE

Preparations for the St. Patrick's Day observance by the congregation of the St. Patrick church are complete. Impressive services at the church by the Rev. Dr. F. X. Barth will mark the opening of the observance. A solemn High Mass will be conducted at 8 o'clock in the morning with the Rev. Father Geers, Bark River, celebrant; Rev. Father Jeynet, Flat Rock, deacon; Rev. Father Feldhaus, St. Patrick's, sub-deacon.

To Attend in Body.
Hibernian societies of the city will attend mass in a body and will receive Holy Communion. There will also be a general parish Communion.

The Rev. Dr. Barth has prepared an excellent sermon on "Ireland's Clear Title to National Independence." A splendidly arranged program will be given at the Strand theatre, performances scheduled for 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Special Picture Booked.
In addition to folk dances and musical selections, the feature picture, "The Little Runaway" will be thrown on the screen. It has been booked especially for this occasion. The scenes of action in this picture are both in an Irish village and a wealthy American house. The program to be rendered follows:

Throwing Wine in General's Face Is Big Joke to Bill

Berne, March 15.—In the Welt-buene Johannes Fischer reveals interesting facts regarding the sycophantic courtiers of William II.

While watching the yacht races at the Kiel in 1901, the Kaiser had to sign some papers.

To an admiral standing near the Kaiser remarked: "Tirpitz is a bore with his documents. I should prefer a glass of champagne." The admiral rushed headlong to fetch some.

Wilhelm drank half the glass, then went out on to the bridge, beneath which were General von Hahnke and the officers of his suite.

"Hahnke," he shouted, "you should like some champagne," and as the general turned his face upwards Wilhelm poured the remainder over him. "Majesty is too gracious," was General Hahnke's manly retort to this insult.

Wilhelm returned in boisterously good humor to the cabin and demanded caviar sandwiches.

Wilhelm removed the butter and the caviar from one, and, emerging once, more on the bridge, shouted: "Hahnke, you would like some caviar sandwiches."

As General Hahnke looked up Wilhelm threw the remnant of bread in his face.

German Factories Make Iron Crosses

Cologne, March 15.—Iron Crosses are now being manufactured by Germans for the British Army, and they sell readily at nine shillings each. Bookshops, cigar shops, and jewelers carry them as a side line.

It is difficult to understand the mentality of a shopkeeper—himself wearing the ribbon of the Iron Cross which he earned as a soldier fighting against the British during the March offensive—who sells the decoration over the counter with a bland smile.

British trade is the thing. Window signs in English invite attention to their wares. Such articles of military equipment as can be procured are offered at astonishingly low prices.

Try This for Sour Stomach.
Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly. Eat but little meat and none at all for supper. If you are still troubled with sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets before going to bed.

New Shoe Store to Be Opened Shortly

The O'Leary & Geniesse company is the name of a newly formed company, organized by E. F. O'Leary and Frank J. Geniesse, who on May 1 will open a shoe store at 909 Ludington street. Both members of the new firm are widely known in this city and throughout this section of the peninsula and both are to give their exclusive attention to the new business they will open.

Mr. Geniesse is one of Escanaba's most experienced shoe salesmen, having been engaged in selling shoes to the retail trade in Escanaba for a period of 22 years. For eleven years he served as salesman for C. R. Williams and for 11 years he was engaged as manager of the shoe department at the Fair store.

Mr. O'Leary for 16 years was a member of the Cleary Brothers company in this city and as city and district salesman. For the past several months Mr. O'Leary has been in charge of the Railway Cooperative company's office.

The company has purchased the building at 909 Ludington, which is to be completely remodeled to meet the requirements of the new owners.

The firm will deal exclusively in shoes and plan to open one of the finest stores of its kind in the north-west.

Sisters Brides, But No Names Changed

New Castle, Pa., March 15.—When Deputy Prothonotary A. S. Love issued two marriage licenses, two sisters became brides, but neither lost her maiden name.

The name of all four contracting parties is Byler. Two of them, Fannie R. Byler and Bena R. Byler, are sisters. The former married Eli M. Byler and the latter John D. Byler. No relationship existed between the girls and the men.

No Cases Here of "Sleeping Sickness"

Escanaba has no cases of the so-called "sleeping sickness." At least, none have been called to the attention of Dr. A. J. Carlson, city health officer.
Escanaba relatives of an Oshkosh man were notified yesterday that he had been asleep since Monday, a victim of the strange malady. He was awakened at one time but lapsed back into a state of coma shortly afterward.
Several cases of the strange sickness were reported at Marinette and one case was called to the attention of the physicians at Calumet. So far, they are the only known cases in Northern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan.

"Off Ag'in, On Ag'in, Gone"—Draft Board

"Original registration cards will be arranged in alphabetical order with-out regard to date of registration. In other words the black, red and blue registration cards will appear mixed, according to their alphabetical relationship.
Which is to say:
"Deal 'em over."
Those were the instructions received by members of the Delta county draft board yesterday. And they were in direct conflict with a preceding order which insisted that the cards be filed with reference to the date of registration.
"Will you finish the job by March thirty-first?" Mr. Peppin was asked. "It doesn't look possible at the present time," he replied, "but we are going to try. We may be able to make it unless there is another change in the regulations."

Arthur Brunelle Sends Hun Money

"The days slip by slowly" for us during the "Watch on the Rhine" but we have not lost hope of returning to the states sometime," writes Sergeant Arthur J. Brunelle of the Fifth Marines, who is now with his division at Dalczeroth, Germany.
Brunelle saw service at Chateau Thierry, Belleau Wood, Raimens, The Marne, Vaux, St. Mihiel, Somme-Py and in the Argonne Forest.
Playing Football.
The letter, to his father, Sergeant Brunelle of the Escanaba police department is filled with interesting observations concerning his experiences.
The boys are playing football, he says, and enjoying it although the ground is frozen and the snow is two inches deep. "But it's pretty tame compared to dodging bullets," he says, "and I make change in terms of dollars and cents."
Has Old Dollar Bill.
"But I have an American dollar bill, and he hopes that the weather will soon be warm enough for baseball.
The Y. M. C. A. he says has brought in a number of school text books and many of the soldiers are attending regimental school classes.
"Everything in the line of money, Dutch paper," he says and he is afraid many of them will forget how ill," says Brunelle, "which has one all through the scrap and I expect to keep it. It is some souvenir to me."
The letter relates how delighted the author was to get a large bundle of letters from home, dated all the way from June to December.
He enclosed some German paper money and a long army order which gives the complete record of the second Division, which is second to none in the Expeditionary Forces, the document asserts.

CITATION FOR CAPTAIN FALK

Definite Assurance Given That Commander Was Given Cross.

Definite assurance that Capt. Oscar Falk, formerly commander of Co. L, was awarded a posthumous citation by the French government—a Croix de Guerre—is contained in a letter received in Marinette from a national guard officer of that city who served with the 32nd division. Capt. Falk died like a hero, refusing to go back to the first aid station for medical attention because his organization was ready to go into battle. A short time later he was struck by a shell and died.

The Marinette officer writes: "Officers of the 125th and 126th regiments have nothing but words of praise and admiration for Capt. Falk. He is remembered for his ardor and enthusiasm, despite the fact that he was not a young man for such trying work, difficult from a mental as well as physical point of view."

The citation, which is French, is as follows: "With the approbation of the commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Forces, the commander-in-chief of the French armies of the north and northeast, being cognizant of the brave deeds on the field of battle of the following soldiers, awards them the Croix de Guerre and cites them in order as follows: "Captain Oscar Falk, 125th Infantry regiment.

"Although ill, he resumed his functions as second in command when his battalion entered into action. During the combat of the Bois des Jamblets, near Clerges, 31st of July, 1918, he was mortally wounded by a shell."

Daniel West held to Circuit Court. Daniel West, who until a few days ago was the proprietor of the Home cafe on Ludington street, now known as the American cafe, was bound over to the next term of circuit court when he was arraigned Saturday afternoon before Police Judge C. D. McEwen. In default of $300 bail, he was remanded to the county jail to await trial.

"THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE" Established 1871 Nationalized 1887. The Expanding Dollar. The dollar you earn today will buy only about half of what it would be in 1914. Today you have spend $1.00 to get the things $1.00 would buy four years ago. But the dollar has shrunk about as far as it can. Authorities assert that the day of declining prices is at hand. This means that those who are prudent enough to economize and add to their surplus today will get more for their money than those who spend today when prices are high. This bank invites the accounts of those who reason along this line. Here they will find a service particularly fitted to their needs. The First National Bank, ESCANABA, MICH.
