SENATOR URGES RETENTION OF MONROE POLICY

Dodge-Lowell Debate Keeps Crowds in Boston in An Uproar.

Boston, March 19.—United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge aroused the wild enthusiasm of an audience that packed Symphony hall tonight at the debate upon the league of nations with President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard university, when he declared that the United States must maintain the Monroe doctrine in any league of nations and must write into that covenant a clause which will prevent a flood of Japanese, Chinese and Hindu immigration into this country.

Senator Lodge made frequent reference to former President Taft and quoted from Taft's speeches in support of his arguments that the present draft of the league of nations is "porous and loosely drawn" and must be redrafted.

Speaks of Roosevelt. Senator Lodge declared emphatically in favor of a league of nations. His argument was based upon the looseness of the document in its construction.

At the opening of the speech he spoke with deepest feeling for the late former President Theodore Roosevelt and said his course in regard to the league of nations was based greatly upon his frequent conferences with Mr. Roosevelt before his death and that his course in the senate had been in line with Mr. Roosevelt's position.

"Greatest Man in World." As Senator Lodge finished a man on the platform enclosure shouted: "Three cheers for Senator Lodge; he is the greatest man in the world."

There was wild cheering and Senator Lodge laughed.

Then Governor Coolidge stepped forward and introduced President Lowell. Harvard's president spoke very rapidly. The crowd cheered and applauded when President Lowell declared at the outset that Senator Lodge "does not tell us where he stands on this whole matter."

The only interruption in Senator Lodge's address came near the close, when he was discussing mandatories. The senator asked how many mothers, fathers and sweethearts stood ready to have their sons and sweethearts guarantee the political integrity of the world.

Then—Change Their Minds. "Are you ready," he shouted, "to send the hope of your family on that errand?"

"Yes," was shouted by a voice in the far end of the hall. The shout was taken up. But in a moment there were cries of "No." It seemed as if a majority of the vast audience had joined in the shouting.

Senator Lodge paused with his hand upraised and nodded his head in approval.

Later President Lowell, taking up the covenant of the proposed league of nations, brought cheers from tier on tier of men and women when he declared that he agreed with Senator Lodge that the present covenant is very loosely drawn. He said he felt it more keenly than the senator and he favored its acceptance with some amendments, while the senator did not.

Shoe Workers Out For Shorter Week

Chicago, March 19.—More than 2,000 shoe workers employed in ten of Chicago's largest shoe manufacturing plants went on strike today following failure on the part of representatives of the United States department of labor to settle differences between the workers and manufacturers over a 44-hour working week.

The strikers are members of the United Shoe Workers of North America. The strike became effective at 2 o'clock this afternoon and almost immediately the ten big plants were practically idle and thousands of men were unemployed.

LUXURIES! TAX DISH O' CREAM

According to the best memories of five Escanaba stores dealing in ice cream and soft drinks, the Hoyler Baking company, Hoyler & Bauer, Candyland, the Boston store, and the Delta hotel cafeteria, there are five favorite dishes of cream—Hoyler's Delight, marshmallow fruit, Candyland special, butter scotch marshmallow and cherry strawberry. And they're gonna cost more.

Tastes in soft drinks are not so varied. But root beer and cocoa are in popular demand.

No Beer Now, You Know. There has been a larger sale of soft drinks and cream since the town went dry, in the opinion of the dealers. However, it is difficult to make the comparison of the amount of business done this year with that of last.

"Climatic conditions this year," said one proprietor yesterday, "are in favor of the dealer in cream and soft drinks."

No rise in prices is contemplated at this time with the exception of 10 per cent tax to be levied. Your dish of cream will cost seventeen, twenty-two or twenty-eight cents, just like a ticket to the movies, after the first of May.

"We give 'em something." When asked if anyone ever asked for a dish that he couldn't fix up, one dealer replied with emphasis:

"Not by a darn sight. We give them something."

Further inquiry, however, revealed the fact that farmers almost invariably call for blueberries on their cream and there is one case in the city for an order for marshmallow soda.

Lent affected business Ash Wednesday and the Thursday following. "But now, said a waitress yesterday, "you'd never know it was here."

SOLDIERS ASK 6-HOUR WORK DAY AT ONCE

Chicago, March 19.—Returned and discharged soldiers at a meeting here today organized a council of soldiers, sailors and marines and adopted resolutions calling upon President Wilson and members of congress to take immediate steps to relieve present unemployment. A committee was named to petition for a charter in the American Federation of Labor.

Secret service agents who attended the meeting left before the close and a detail of police was not needed.

Points Out Danger. Raymond Williams, a barber and discharged soldier, was chairman. Addressing the meeting, he pointed out the danger of serious disturbances throughout the country unless unemployed discharged soldiers are given work.

"I was talking to a marine today," said Williams, "and he told me he had been looking for a job three weeks without any luck, and that when his money was gone he was going out with a gun and get more. We mustn't have anything like that, boys," continued Williams. "We have made a splendid reputation for ourselves and we must not lose it. The only thing to be done is to organize, show the people we need work and so prevent trouble."

Ask Six-Hour Day. A resolution asking a six-hour day as a means of providing work for all was adopted.

Another meeting for Friday was planned, when it is expected every unemployed soldier and sailor in the city will attend. To attract attention of municipal authorities a parade and demonstration was planned.

NAVY RUSHING PLANS TO FLY ACROSS OCEAN

Flight May Be Attempted About May 15; Details Kept Secret.

Washington, March 19.—Aviation experts of the navy department are working under rush orders on the plan by which it is hoped to win for the United States the honor of making the first flight by aeroplane across the Atlantic ocean. To make the flight in 35 or 36 hours is the aim of the department.

More than 50 men under the direction of Capt. J. H. Powers, the most expert of the navy fliers, are making the arrangements for the flight.

No Personnel Chosen. It is hoped that the start will be made some time in the early summer, perhaps about May 15. The aviators and the personnel for the trip have not been selected. It is also hoped that the successful flight may be made before a French or British plane has been able to cross the ocean.

Franklin E. Roosevelt, acting secretary of navy, made this statement today:

"We are working day and night on the trans-Atlantic flight, and if we are beaten on it we can't help it."

Capt. Powers in Charge. Captain Powers, who has direct charge of the plans, has as his immediate assistant Capt. N. E. Irwin, who, it is understood, is in New York today, finishing up some of the plans.

Captain Powers was summoned here by Secretary of the Navy Daniels about six weeks ago and given full charge of the preparations. He has gathered around him a great many aviators and one of these is Lieut. Commander Bellinger, who was ordered here yesterday from Norfolk.

Must Be Kept Secret. According to the navy department, there is no warrant for the statement that Commander Bellinger will be on the plot of the expedition or will be on the seaplane at all in making the flight. His duty will be to co-ordinate the plans.

The navy department says that exploitation of the scheme is hurtful and that of necessity what is being done is to be done in secret.

Must Have a League, Says British General

New York, March 19.—"The one thing that Great Britain fought for was to make war impossible; I think there is some hope of achieving that idea through the league of nations, and no hope of achieving it in any other way."

Major General Sir Frederick E. Maurice, director of military operations on the imperial staff of Great Britain from 1915 to 1918, so declared himself today upon arriving from Halifax.

HERE'S PROOF OF VALUE RECEIVED

"The sale now in progress is by a long odds the most successful in the history of our store. Our business for the first day of the sale, on Tuesday, broke all records for a single day in the history of this business," was the statement made yesterday by O. W. Gustafson, manager of the North Star Clothing Company's store. The North Star Clothing Company's sale was advertised exclusively in The Press.

The success achieved in the sale offers illuminating proof of the effectiveness of Morning Press advertising.

It also offers conclusive proof that good money is merely thrown away by some merchants who insist upon supplementing their advertising with advertisements in other papers.

Ask Japan to Explain Reprisals

Physician Wanted in East For Murder is Taken Into Custody.

Washington, March 19.—Through the state department today the United States made formal request to the Japanese government for information regarding the attacks on American women in Korea reported to have been committed by Japanese soldiers. According to such report, a reign of terror has been instituted to crush the revolution aiming to free Korea from Japanese domination.

Acts of reprisal are said to have been directed against American missionaries who are accused by the Japanese of being behind the revolutionary propaganda.

Many of these missionaries are reported to have been beaten and stoned by Jap soldiers and civilians. The state department has asked for full information preliminary to a formal demand for safety for Americans, if the reports are found to be true.

LOWER PRICE ON STEEL AND IRON EFFECTIVE SOON

Washington, March 19.—Lower prices for steel and iron are to rule in the United States during the coming year. The schedule will be fixed by agreement among the magnates of those industries who are gathered here for a general conference with the newly created industrial board of the department of commerce.

The initial meeting was held today, when 17 men, representing 90 per cent of the steel industries of the United States, of a combined wealth approximately $4,500,000,000, met in executive session with the board in the council of national defense building.

From all external evidences, optimism was the dominant note and there was complete absence of discord.

Atlantic Is Crossed By Man's Voice

LONDON, March 19.—The human voice traversed the Atlantic at 7 o'clock this morning.

After many months of preliminary experiments in long distance telephony a Marconi engineer sat in a wireless hut at Clifton, Ireland at that hour, lifted the receiver, and called "Glace Bay."

Instantaneously the answer came: "Glace Bay talking."

From that moment on continuously Clifton communicated with Nova Scotia, the voicing carrying strong and clear all day.

Is Complete Success. There were no sentimental speeches, but the technical engineers talked about improvements of the system which thus carried their voices across the Atlantic as readily as between New York and Hoboken.

"Our experiment was a complete success," Manager Bradford of the Marconi Company told Universal Service tonight.

"Transmission was absolutely instantaneous and voices were as clear as your's over the telephone to me. After the first messages had been exchanged conditions were so perfect that our engineers continued discussions all day, saving the delay of writing their comments and recommendations regarding improvements. I am sorry I am unable to give a detailed account of it now."

Told at Dinner. London first heard the news when Godfrey Iles, managing director of Marconi, made the simple announcement at a dinner at the American chamber of commerce.

London first heard the news when Godfrey Iles, managing director of Marconi, made the simple announcement at a dinner at the American chamber of commerce.

"Today we made experimental tests of wireless telephony between Ireland and Nova Scotia. They were completely successful. I look forward to the time in the near future when you gentlemen can talk to your home offices as easily as with any London address."

For some unexplained reason, beyond confirming the report, Mr. Iles subsequently refused to give supplementary details and imposed the seal of silence upon every Marconi official.

Will Withhold Details. "Call it the English habit of reticence, if you will," he said to Universal Service. "But we don't care to beat the drum about this thing. Perhaps a fuller statement will be forthcoming in our own good time."

FAVORS FEDERAL STATUTE TO PUT ALCOHOL LIMIT

Washington, March 19.—Representative A. J. Volstad, of Minnesota, chairman of the house committee favors a federal statute to limit the quantity of alcohol in beverages to one-half of one per cent.

He made this statement today when asked what action would be taken on the announcement made by the brewers that they expected to continue the manufacture of beer containing 2-3-4 per cent alcohol.

Why he will be guided partly by the other members of the committee, Mr. Volstad said that he proposes to introduce a bill fixing the limit at one half of one per cent. He believes a majority of the committee will stand with him on that point.

He believes it is possible for a man to become intoxicated from drinking one per cent beer. But, of course, he would have to drink a whole lot of it, the chairman added.

Wisconsin May Have Minimum Wage Law

Madison, March 19.—Wisconsin may have a minimum law for men. The upper house of the legislature today advanced the Wilton bill, giving the industrial commission power to fix a minimum wage for men. An existing law already gives that power to the commission regarding wages for women. By the terms of the bill, the commission may grant pensions to persons incapacitated from earning a standard wage. After the bill has been favorably advanced, Senator Burke moved for a reconsideration and the matter was held up until Thursday.

RETURN ROADS, PROPOSAL NOW BEING FRAMED

Wisconsin Legislators Now Preparing Bill On Railroads.

Washington, March 19.—Return of the railroads to their private owners about July 1, 1920, will be proposed in a bill now being prepared by Representative John J. Esch, of Wisconsin, the new chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

Mr. Esch said today he thought it would be possible to enact the legislation and send it to the president for approval before the end of the year. It would become operative, under the provisions he will urge, within six months after the president signs it.

Contains Fundamentals.
The bill introduced by Mr. Esch in the next congress will be used as a basis around which the new legislation will be written. It contains the fundamentals of the railroad problem which would be considered in reaching a satisfactory solution Mr. Esch believes.

"We certainly should preserve whatever advantages that have been developed under federal control," he said. "Among these advantages are the requirements for interchange of equipment, joint use of terminals and combined operations of certain lines, wherein it would result in benefits to the public."

More Severity, He Says.
Federal regulation of railroads, in some respects, continued Mr. Esch, should be much more severe than before the war. In other respects, however, he believes government supervision should be more liberal, in the interests of efficient service.

To illustrate, he said, they should be relieved of the restrictions of the anti-trust laws, in order that they might combine under regulations and with the permission of the interstate commerce commission. It is also likely, Mr. Esch stated, that a solution of the wire lines problem will be sought in the same legislation.

THREE BIGGEST LEADERS REACH NEW AGREEMENT

Paris, March 19.—Everything indicates that the great triumvirate—Wilson, Lloyd George, and Clemenceau—came to a cordial agreement at their conference yesterday on the essential features of the peace treaty.

Unless something unexpected develops, the terms will be ready for the signature by the end of the month.

Some of the French editors still fulminate against the idea of making a final treaty with the Germans forthwith. They insist that "according to Hoyle" a definite armistice should come first, then preliminary peace and next the final treaty. Well informed organs, however, are generally agreed that only one document will be submitted to the Germans for their signatures, after which peace will be an accomplished fact.

MARKET REPORT

Chicago, March 19.—The following quotations on farm produce were in effect today:

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Charles Lalonde.

Mrs. Charles Lalonde died at an Escanaba hospital yesterday morning after an illness of but a few days. Heart trouble, from which she had suffered for many years, was the cause.

After a long residence in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Lalonde moved to Pennsylvania three years ago. Last week they arrived in Escanaba to spend the summer. Soon after they reached the city Mrs. Lalonde was taken ill and removed to a hospital, where her condition grew steadily weaker.

Mrs. Lalonde was born in Pennsylvania in 1863 and came to this state with her parents early in life. Besides her husband, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Henry Louvre, of her native state, and a brother, Scott Yates, of Luther, Mich.

The funeral will be held in St. Joseph's church, but the time will not be fixed until word is received from relatives who are expected to attend the services.

Charles Bellstrom.

Charles Bellstrom, 60 years of age and an old resident of this city, died at an Escanaba hospital yesterday morning after a brief illness. A native of Sweden, Mr. Bellstrom came to his community when a young man and for many years was a timber cruiser with a reputation for accuracy and thoroughness second to none in the north. Later he established the Escanaba Vulcanizing Co. and had built up a large business.

Deceased had no relatives here. A brother, Peter, resides at Negaunee, and another, Dan, at Salem, Ore., and another, Nels, at Galesburg, Ill.

The body was taken to the Alto undertaking parlors where it will be held until relatives arrive and arrange for the funeral services.

Mr. Bellstrom had a wide acquaintance in this section of the state.

William Bellstrom of Negaunee arrived in the city last night. John C. Jordan of Galesburg left that city last night. Funeral arrangements will not be completed until they arrive, but it is probable that the body will be taken to Negaunee for burial.

Biehler Funeral.

The funeral services for John Biehler of Flat Rock will probably not be held until Tuesday of next week, as the arrival of two sons, Bert and Harry, of Alberta, will be awaited.

Louis Lapresse.

Louis Lapresse, 36 years old, of Gladstone, died at a hospital here yesterday. The body was taken to Gladstone, where funeral services will be held in All Saints' church, Rev. Fr. Lennett officiating, Friday morning. Burial will take place in the Gladstone cemetery.

Railroads May Now Contribute Money

Washington, March 19.—The railroad administration's famous "Order 14," prohibiting railroad companies from contributing to the joint expenses incurred by municipalities and unnecessary public works, was ordered rescinded this afternoon.

Unwise Giving.

It is a very easy thing to toss a copper to a beggar on the street; it is generally an easier thing than not to do it. Yet love is just as often in the withholding. We purchase relief from the sympathetic feelings roused by the spectacle of misery, at a copper's cost. It is too cheap—too cheap for us, and often too dear for the beggar. If we really loved him we would either do more for him, or less—Henry Drummond.

FIGHTING 32ND

Stars and Stripes Own Tale of Part Michigan Men Played in War.

The "Stars and Stripes," official newspaper of the American Expeditionary Forces, in a recent issue prints a graphic history of the achievement of the 32nd Division, composed of Michigan and Wisconsin National Guard units.

How the "Fighting Thirty-Second" carved its way to the Orce heights and thence to the Vesle in the face of the most terrific opposition and with frightful losses, is told in a gripping manner. The battle at Juvigny, where the "crazy Artillery fire" of the Americans dazed and terrorized the enemy, is also described in detail.

Of particular interest to Escanaba and Delta county is the work of the 120th Infantry, of which Company L of Menominee was a part.

The division which deployed on the ground vacated by the 3rd, directly under the guns of one of the strongest positions that the Germans possessed between the Marne and the Vesle, and was charged with the duty of immediately attacking and conquering that position, was more strictly a new division than any other of those from the United States which had thus far taken part in the counter-offensive.

Haan in Command.
The 32nd Division, of which Maj. Gen. William G. Haan was in command, consisted of the 63rd Infantry Brigade (from Michigan) under Brig. Gen. William D. Conner, containing the 125th and 126th Infantry and the 120th Machine Gun Battalion; the 64th Infantry Brigade (Wisconsin) under Brig. Gen. Edwin B. Winans, containing the 127th and 128th Infantry and the 121st Machine Gun Battalion; the 57th Field Artillery Brigade under Brig. Gen. G. LeRoy, containing the 118th, 120th and 121st Field Artillery Regiments (South Dakota); the 107th Engineer Regiment, and divisional troops.

The division had arrived in France early in March and been designated as the Replacement Division of the First United States Army Corps. In this capacity it continued to act, sending about half of its partly trained infantry personnel to other organizations, until April 15, when the imperative need of more troops at the front caused the 32nd to be made a "temporary combat division" and sent, after a training course of four weeks, to a quiet sector in Alsace where for a time in June it held a front of 27 kilometers.

Sent to Relieve 3rd.
But it had experienced no heavy fighting whatever when, on July 19, it was hastily withdrawn from the Alsace sector and sent by train to the west of Soissons and then, by truck to relieve the 3rd Division in front of Clerges. That under such circumstances the work of its tactical and staff units should have been so well conceived, so smooth and so uniformly successful as to render its difficult and hard-fought operations almost models of their kind, was one of the best proofs possible, if proof were still needed, of the rapid adaptability of Americans, given the proper instruction, to the most exacting requirements of modern warfare.

The advance regiment of the division, the 127th Infantry, was looking down on the tangled woods of Clerges and Grimettes as the sun came up on the morning of July 30. The command of the sector did not pass to Gen. Haan until 11 a. m. With the 64th Brigade in front, he had his troops advancing three and one-half hours later, after a preparatory fire of 30 minutes by the divisional artillery, to attack, with the 28th United States Division, the machine gun nests in the Bois de Grimettes which by flanking fire were holding up the progress of the latter part on the left.

Clerges is Taken.
Under the lash of German shells and bullets the men probably did not feel just as they had upon the drill ground, but "Instructions for the Offensive Combat of Small Units" had told them precisely how such woods should be taken and they took them in precisely that way, while ahead of them moved a nicely adjusted barrage laid down by batteries, many of which had learned how to do it while acting as instruction batteries at various artillery schools of the A. E. F.

Immediately after they had traversed the woods, the enemy attacked their right flank vigorously from the Bois de Clerges. But there was also a method prescribed for dealing with such attacks. Two companies were echeloned back on the right and promptly throwing the Germans out, pursued them into the Bois des Clerges while the 28th Division proceeded northeast to Clerges village and, finding it evacuated by the Germans but full of gas, took up a line on the high ground just outside of it.

Enemy Attacks Plank.
The enemy may have heard that in front of them was a division of new troops to whom night attacks are supposed to be especially disconcerting; at any rate they tried one about 10 o'clock, dashing out of the great Bois Meniers to sweep the handful of Americans from the Bois de Clerges. The Americans, however, met them with the bayonet, and after half an hour of wolfish hand-to-hand combat under the trees it was the Germans who fled back northeastward, leaving a large proportion of their numbers dead on the ground.

While this was going on through the night in the right of the sector, the 63rd Infantry Brigade, in consequence of the progressive narrowing of the front and squeezing out of divisions, was relieving the 28th Division on the left, thus extending the front of the 32nd Division across nearly four kilometers. Ahead of it lay now, to the right, Clerges and the creek valley in which it lies and, to the left, the long, open slopes of the Orce valley reaching up to the small wood of Les Jomblets, on Hill 212, a spur of Hill 220.

Across Open Slopes.
By the fire from this wood the right of the 42nd United States Division was being held up and severely punished in Sergi, about a kilometer to the west. Consequently by order of the 38th (French) Corps, another methodical artillery preparation began at 1:30 p. m. and at 2 o'clock the 62nd Brigade proceeded northward across two kilometers of open, sloping ground and drove the enemy out of the Bois de Jomblets, with the 42nd Division, now able to leave Sergi behind, well up on the line.

DON'T OVERSTOCK CATTLE INDUSTRY IS HIS WARNING

Dallas, Tex., March 19.—That the cattle industry of Europe has not been seriously impaired by the war and that American cattle raisers should guard against overstocking their herds, believing that Europe will furnish an outlet for the excess production, was the statement made today by George M. Comsel, chief of the animal husbandry division of the U. S. department of agriculture, speaking before a gathering of western cattlemen here.

Overstocking, he warned, would result disastrously to cattle raisers. At the meeting cattlemen made it plain they opposed the Hoover "light carcass" ruling, providing a minimum weight for cattle for slaughter. They declared the ruling had cost cattlemen thousands of dollars.

Fort Dodge, Ia., March 19.—United States Senator Kenyon announced today he plans to leave this country April 5 for Russia, where he intends spending three months studying Bolshevism. He intimated he would first visit Paris for peace conference information and then go on to Archangel.

The only thing that would prevent him from making the trip, it is said, would be a call for an extra session of congress before midseason.

Independents Meet Ishpeming Tonight

Escanaba's independents will clash with the Ishpeming "Y" basket ball quintet tonight at the High school gymnasium in what should prove one of the best games of the season here. Both teams have good records, the Independents defeating the High school organization here on several occasions with ease. The Ishpeming "Y" quintet has a strong reputation and expects to maintain it.

Some Relic, This Boy Fetches Along

The Delta County War Relief Association has been presented with another relic, a rusty gun that has the appearance of having gone through several wars. This is how it happened.

Yesterday afternoon a small boy walked in with the gun under his arm. "Here," he said, "you can have it."

The supervisors explained that they had no use for the gun and advised him to take it to the junk man and get a little spending money.

"New," he replied, "you can have it. It ain't no good and I don't want it."

"But what will we do with it?" he was asked.

"Oh, you can put it in the window," and the little fellow shoved the gun in a corner and walked out.

Firm Undertone in Irregular Market

New York, March 19.—Because the financial world was discussing all during today's session the possibilities of steel price fixing at Washington, the stock market was irregular. It had a firm undertone, however, and in several departments there was distinct vitality shown, notably in minerals, chemicals and electric stocks. Oil stocks were reactionary, but for purely technical reasons.

REAL GREETING FOR PRESIDENT

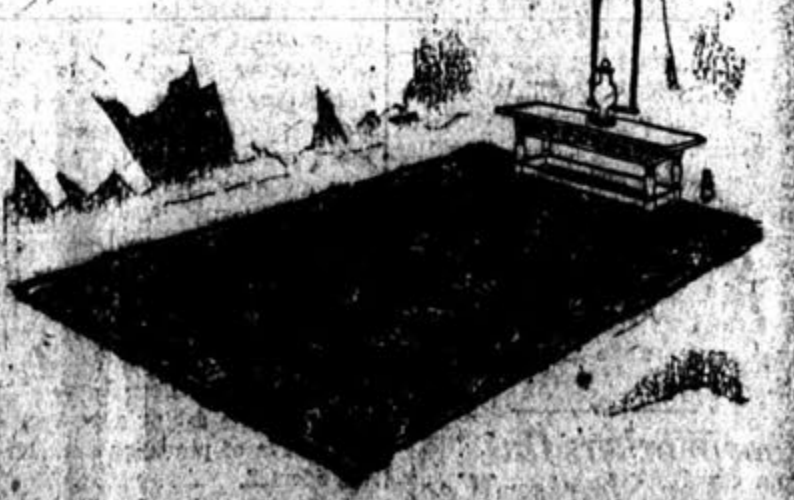

When an Erie is democratic enough to become a president he deserves some sort of recognition, think members of the Delta Hardware Company's office force.

Accordingly they got busy at the noon hour yesterday and when Fred J. Harjo, newly elected president of the Delta county district of the Cleveland Automotive Dealers' Association, returned to his office about two o'clock he found his desk and chair splendidly draped in flags, flowers and surrounded by three earnest wish-bows of red velvet.

AMERICANISM IS THEIR PRELUDE

Emigrants From Italy to Get Advance Lessons in Our Ways, Is Plan.

Naples, March 2, (By Mail)—Emigrants from Italy are soon to be given a prelude to their Americanization course before embarking for America. Converting their present property at Naples into living quarters for the American-bound voyagers, the Methodist church workers aim to create a temporary home for these fortune seekers before sailing from Naples.

It will be the purpose of this institution to teach the emigrants a few phrases of English, treat those suffering from minor diseases so they may meet the entrance requirements in the United States and above all, provide them with letters to persons or firms in America who will give the newcomers help in their new life.

Part of Big Plan. This project is part of the tentative program for Italy of the Methodist Centenary movement to raise $120,000 in furtherance of educational, philanthropic and religious work throughout the world. On arrival of the emigrants in America, arrangements will be made by the Board of Home Mission for persons to meet them with the view of offering whatever assistance possible to give them a fair chance in their adopted country.

Over four-fifths of the Italians who emigrate to America are from Southern Italy and Sicily, a majority of them coming from the rural districts. Nearly all the emigrants from Southern Italy sail from Naples.

Erect Large Orphanage. In addition to the temporary emigrants' home, the creation in Naples of a new building with large grounds for the Cast Matera or orphanage of fifty children at the present time, and the construction of a new Methodist church in this picturesque city is planned. The European deputation of the Methodist Centenary movement when in Rome was given an audience with King Victor Emmanuel, a reception at the American embassy and a flight in a dirigible over the Eternal City.

One of the results of the deputation's visit to Rome was the adoption of proposals to open an evangelical hospital for charity, and pay patients, in the Via Garibaldi.

No Hospital There Now. The property, owned by the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions, was turned over to a committee of the Italian government for the period of the war. At present there is not one Protestant evangelical hospital in all Italy.

While in Rome the deputation planted the American and Italian flags side by side on the heights of Monte Mario as a part of the service marking the location of the new Methodist Episcopal college in Rome which will be the greatest single centenary undertaking in Italy.

Farmers Organize Into Many Clubs

East Lansing, Mich., March 19.—Something of the vast scale upon which farmers are being marshalled for the work of improving agricultural conditions within the state, is disclosed in the annual report issued by Dr. Eben Mumford of M. A. C., state leader of county agricultural agents. The report tells of the results obtained within the last year in the direction of assisting production and in solving the problems of distribution.

"During the year," the report sets forth, "35 farm loan associations were formed to assist farmers in obtaining credit; 11 pure seed, and 22 potato growers associations were launched to encourage the planting of improved varieties of grains and potatoes; two cow testing associations were started to help dairymen; 15 community breeders associations were started to help dairymen; 16 community breeders associations were formed to promote the improvement of livestock; five milk producers associations were formed to assist the farmers of Michigan in obtaining better markets and more equitable prices for their produce."

New York, March 19.—Kenyon Cos, noted for his paintings and works of art, died in this city from pneumonia. He was born in Warren, O., and was 88 years of age. He painted decorations for many public buildings in the United States, including the library of congress. In 1916 he won the medal of honor from the Architectural League for paintings.

BOWLING

The Reds copped two of three games from the Red Sox Tuesday night at the Delft club. The failure of any of the Reds to score higher than 159 in the final game caused them to lose a chance for a clean sweep. No 200 scores were made, but Moreau registered 198 in the second game. The scores:

Make Plans to Entertain Glass

Minneapolis, March 19.—The eyes of the entire nation will be on Minneapolis the night of March 30, when Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass will officially open the Victory Liberty Loan campaign with a speech at the Better Business convention.

As the successor of William G. McAdoo in the treasury portfolio, Mr. Glass has been the object of more interest than any other cabinet official. For this reason, financial men and the country generally, are anxious to hear the keynote speech of the Victory Loan campaign from the lips of the man most competent to discuss it.

Famous Bank Robber Leaves State Prison

McAlester, Okla., March 19.—Free once more, Harry Starr, the most noted and successful bank robber that ever terrorized a deputy sheriff in the southwest, left the state prison here today for Oklahoma City. He was given a pardon Saturday by Governor Robertson after having served four years of a 25 year sentence for bank robberies.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation; if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 418 E. Marcellus Avenue, Manssquam, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least save the misery.

Resolved, That there shall be raised the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for the purpose of constructing and surfacing the county road of Delta county, said sum to be expended by the Board of Road Commissioners of the County of Delta as in its discretion shall seem best for the purpose intended, and that the said sum of money be raised through the issue of the bonds of the said County of Delta for said purpose and that the proposition of raising said sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) by bonding the County of Delta for the purpose of constructing and rebuilding roads in the county road system of said county, said bonds to be of the denomination of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each or less multiples and to be dated on Sept. 1, 1919, and to become payable as follows: Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) on Sept. 1, 1920, and fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) on Sept. 1 of each succeeding year thereafter, until the full sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) with interest thereon, shall be paid, and said bonds to bear interest at the rate of five per centum (5 per cent) per annum, and not to exceed said rate, be submitted to the electors of the County of Delta at the April election to be held in said county on the 7th day of April, 1919, and that notice thereof be published for at least four successive weeks previous to the time of such submission and voting, in the Escanaba Morning Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in the County of Delta, and that the Sheriff of said County of Delta be and is hereby instructed and directed to post copies of said notice in at least five (5) conspicuous places in each of the different townships, wards and voting precincts of the said County of Delta, after service upon him by the clerk of this board, of a true copy of this resolution, which said notices shall be posted at least four (4) weeks previous to the time of such submission and voting; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of Election Commissioners of said County of Delta be and they are hereby authorized and directed to prepare and furnish ballots containing the following words after the squares:

For the issue of Delta County road system improvement bonds in the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to construct, rebuild and surface county roads— YES ()

For the issue of Delta County road system improvement bonds in the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to construct, rebuild and surface county roads— NO ()

Many Old Timers Will Show up in Tournament It is Predicted.

As the opening date of the Upper Peninsula Basketball tournament at Marquette draws near, fans throughout the district are beginning to speculate on the relative merits of the several teams participating and are predicting the chances of each team, respectively, for carrying off the honors.

Much of this speculation is based entirely on the showing made at the tournaments in recent years and the records attained by each this year.

Esly Hard to Figure. In this connection it may be stated that Escanaba high, scheduled to begin its part in the tournament Friday afternoon with Gwin as its opponent, has played so erratically all year, that it is impossible to tell what the lads are likely to do in the big meet.

To assist local fans in their predictions, a composite list of all the players is furnished which doubtless includes a number of the old timers who have made the sport famous in high school circles the past two or three seasons.

Airplanes Will Fly Over Ninth District

Minneapolis, March 19.—Squadrons of aeroplanes in battle formations will fly all over the Ninth district during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign that opens April 21, Chairman A. R. Rogers of the Ninth District War Loan Organization announced today.

The plans that he unfolded include the most elaborate aeronautical program ever attempted in America and will result in the coming to the north-west of men who carried the fight to Fritz in the clouds over French battlefields.

Famous Aces Pilots.

As a starter, the War Department will send to this district a squadron of American and German planes, the latter captured during the war. Famous aces will fly the machines and they will simulate actual aerial fighting in all the cities they visit.

In conjunction with the "Flying Circus," the Ninth District has a comprehensive program of its own that embraces the use of all famous flyers of this district. In each state, will be selected the men who have made the best records on the other side and they will be asked to drive the battle planes that will be sent here.

Twenty-three of the overseas men have volunteered their services to date and they have promised to get enough more men to fly all the planes the Victory Liberty Loan Committee can secure.

Ready to Finish Job.

"The example of these young men is the most stimulating feature of the campaign," said Chairman Rogers today. "Instead of coming home and resting on their laurels they are eager and anxious to do all in their power to 'finish the job' right. Those of us think we have done all we could by buying bonds, and want to quit now, had better think of these young chaps who risked their lives and killed the enemies of their countries. After all they have done, they are ready now to start all over again.

Legislature Gives Voters a Guarantee

Not more than $5,000,000 per year in state road bonds for the next two years, will be issued if the voters approve the issue at the April election. This is the promise made by the state legislature in a joint resolution adopted recently.

It answers flatly and conclusively, all the statements to the effect that if the bond proposition carries, $5,000,000 in bonds will be floated at one time.

F. F. Rogers, state highway commissioner stated that not more than $10,000,000 could be expended economically in the state in the next two years in addition to the $7,000,000 which will be received from the federal government if the state raises money to match Uncle Sam "dollar for dollar."

The legislature's resolution limiting the amount to $5,000,000 for each of the two years, makes it absolutely certain that this sum will be the limit of bonds floated.

Escanaba Champion Ice Port on Lake

Escanaba holds the ice record for Lake Michigan, the weekly government report shows. This city's harbor held 17 inches on Monday. In comparison with the 11-year average, this is six inches less than generally found at this season and last year at this time the report showed 23 inches to 38 inches here.

The report for Lake Michigan is as follows:

Gladstone: Harbor ice 14 inches in thickness; some open water showing.

Escanaba: Harbor ice 17 inches in thickness; a stretch of open water about three-quarters of a mile long and a half mile wide is again apparent along the Stonington shore just at the entrance of Little Bay, otherwise the ice appears to hold firm.

Menominee: The ice in the bay is 12 inches in thickness.

Green Bay: The river is clear of ice; the ice in the bay extends beyond vision.

Sturgeon Bay: Harbor ice about 6 inches in thickness; it is weakening between the city and Green Bay; car ferries could reach Menominee; gasoline fish boats have again opened passage between the city and canal.

Note: No ice is reported in Lake Michigan along the west shore from Keweenaw south to Chicago nor along the east shore from Michigan City to Northport.

Harbor Springs: Open water in the bay; in the harbor the ice remains but is thawing rapidly with the rain.

Mackinaw: The east gale of the 13th opened the Straits and only a small amount of drift ice was visible on the 16th; nothing to hinder navigation; expects steamer through the Straits on the 17th, the earliest opening since 1876 when the Straits were not frozen over.
