

DISORDERS ON INCREASE

LENINE FRONT WIDENS, LATE REPORTS SHOW

Resume of Situation Gives Increasing Foothold to Menace.

Copenhagen, March 25.—The last 24 hours brought an ominous widening of what may be called the "Bolshevist front." Hungary's conversion to the Lenin doctrine and system appears to have been the spark setting ablaze the long smouldering powder barrels in the world.

All Spain is virtually under martial law, Madrid reports. It has been an open secret for months that Alfonso's kingdom is fertile ground for the seed of the Red gospel.

Egypt Also Affected. From far off Australia comes disturbing report. Sydney dispatches tell of riots where mobs, under the clubs of policemen, cried: "This will start a revolution."

In Egypt nearly all railway traffic has been suspended because of the Bolshevist movement, reported growing at a moment when it was believed crushed. Disquieting rumors are filtering through from India.

Serbia is in the grip of a far flung Bolshevist propaganda which may at any time fling that martyr kingdom with the Russo-Hungarian Reds.

Austria Is On Verge. Austria, according to Vienna dispatches, is on the verge of Leninism, despite the Centraj Soviets' repudiation yesterday. Food continues the last straw to keep the former empire from succumbing to Bolshevist propaganda.

Dalmatia is revealed in latest dispatches as in the grip of Red agitation. A similar situation prevails in Bohemia.

Germany's leaders are saying "I told you so," and are bending might and main to exploit the Red menace to her fullest advantage, flirting with Lenin and threatening the Paris conference.

Strikes on Increase. There is an increased restlessness throughout the land. Strikes and demonstrations are reported from various big cities. The Spartacists seem to make the best of it.

Now comes from London, the sensational "news" credited to the Daily Express that Lenin may be asked to send representatives to the Paris conference.

At Budapest the situation is generally calm. Faint hope raised early in the day by reports to a Berlin paper that the Hungarian masses were by no means unanimously for Bolshevism was dispelled later in the day by news showing the Reds are in full control. They are enforcing law and order, however.

Death to Robbers. The death sentence has been extended to robbery and plunder. Only "workers and guards" may drink liquor. All other who touch the cup that cheers are heavily punished.

Americans in Budapest are safe, according to latest dispatches. The French mission, however, has been interned. As in Russia, discrimination appears to be exercised in favor of Americans by the Hungarian Soviet.

Two British monitors have reached Budapest on the Danube but nothing is known as to what they have been able to accomplish.

Woodmen of World Face Crisis Now

Chicago, March 25.—Payment of death claims arising from influenza and pneumonia has so depleted the exchequer of the Modern Woodman of the World that a financial crisis has developed. This was brought out today at the first session of a special convention called by the organization to formulate remedial plans.

"In October, 1918," said A. R. Talbot, head counsel, "there was in the general fund $10,000,000 in securities. At present, after deducting all liabilities there will be $640,000."

"Sixty-five per cent of the death claims since October have been from deaths caused by influenza or pneumonia. We had to sell a large part of the securities to pay claims. War claims, as compared with those from influenza and pneumonia, were insignificant. The contract obligation to the 1,000,000 members of the organization is $1,600,000."

More than 465 delegates, from every part of the country, are attending the convention.

LABOR DEMAND FALLS A LITTLE

Slight Reduction for Week Is Noted in Report of Large Cities.

Washington, March 25.—There are 373,038 unemployed in the United States. This is but a reduction of 1,792 over last week, according to the report made public tonight by the United States employment service.

Cleveland with 60,000; Detroit, 22,500; and Buffalo, 30,000 are the three cities reporting the greatest number out of work.

Decrease Is Expected. Labor reports in the middle west by industries indicate an expected decrease of 5,818 employees in 140 concerns and an expected increase of 6,493 in 1,039 concerns.

The labor surplus in the middle west is apparently 127,000, which is practically the same as last week.

Some cities in Indiana report a surplus of 8,400. They are Indianapolis, 4,000; Evansville, 1,250; Fort Wayne, 400; Gary, 600; Hammond 500; South Bend, 400, and Terre Haute, 300.

Ohio Has Surplus. Seven cities in Ohio report a surplus of 2,400 proportioned as follows: Dayton, 8,000; Cincinnati, 3,065; Akron, 3,000; Toledo 7,500; Columbus, 3,000, and Youngstown, 9,000. Three cities in Michigan report surpluses of 24100 proportioned as indicated: Detroit, 22,500; Grand Rapids, 500, and Port Huron, 2,500.

While considerable surplus is known to exist in Illinois particularly Chicago, Joliet and Peoria, no estimate as to the number is forthcoming. Rock Island and Springfield report an equality of labor supply and demand.

Milwaukee Total Grows. Milwaukee reports a surplus of 25,700, an increase of 1,300 for the week. Superior reports the same as last week, a surplus of 875.

NEW YORK'S OWN YANKEES RETURN

New York, March 25.—Today's will live in New York's history as the "Victory parade" of the 27th division greatest spectacle the city has ever seen.

The 27th division, composed of New York's own sons, came, saw, conquered—aye, and were conquered, for to a degree probably never before known in America this was the people's day.

Roughly estimated at between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 souls, the crowd displayed unmistakable signs of an exultation of spirit seldom displayed as the people welcomed the bronzed heroes.

SOVEREIGNTY IS IMPAIRED, SAYS MISSOURI SOLON

Reed Asserts Present Form of League Is Dangerous to Government.

Kansas City, Mo., March 25.—Attacking the league of nations plan as now advocated, United States Senator James A. Reed, in an address in Convention hall here tonight, declared that the sovereignty of the United States is impaired if we adopt the present league. Senator Reed said, in part:

"I believe that once the American people understand what it involves in the so-called league of nations, as now proposed, they will reject it by an almost overwhelming vote.

People Don't Understand. "For the most part the people have been led to believe that the league means but little more than that the various nations shall assemble around a council table and sign an agreement to thereafter keep the peace and this will be the end of war. If that was a fact, every person in the world would give it enthusiastic endorsement. But that is not the kind of contract now in the process of making."

"The present league is not a mere agreement among the nations to keep the peace, coupled with an agreement of disarmament. It is a contract which impairs the sovereignty of the United States. No nation can claim to be a 'sovereign nation' unless it has the full right and power to assert and defend itself. This includes the right to create armies and navies as it may deem necessary."

"The league of nations covenant takes this power away from the United States and confers it upon five foreigners. Once we have accepted the decision of the council we can never thereafter without violating our contract and risking a war with the entire world increase the size of our army and navy."

Lenroot Favors League. Milwaukee, Wis., March 25.—United States Senator Irvin L. Lenroot, who arrived in Milwaukee today, in commenting on the league of nations, said:

"I am for a league of nations and hope the present covenant may be so amended as to safeguard American rights and interests and make its ratification possible by the senate."

"A league of nations to prevent war would be welcomed by everybody. But a league whose constitution has no guarantee against war and which surrenders American rights and American sovereignty and contains obligations that would be difficult to fulfill is a very different matter."

MARCH EXPECTS NO DELAY OVER TROOPS SAILING

St. Louis, March 25.—Secretary of War Baker and General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, returning to Washington after an inspection of Western cantonments, reached here today and were asked if the Hungarian situation would delay return of American overseas forces. Secretary Baker was noncommittal, explaining he does not know anything about the situation. General March gave it as his opinion that there would be no delay because of the fresh trouble.

"We plan to have 915,000 soldiers home by July 1," he said.

It Wasn't Walter in Jail; It Was George

Walter Depew is a law abiding citizen and he wasn't up in court on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

George Depew wasn't law abiding and he paid a fine.

The police got the names mixed up, so did the Morning Press.

Sorry, Walter.

Bolshevism Menaces As Peace Waits

Paris, March 25.—It was exactly a year ago yesterday that the Allies, facing disaster, instituted unified military command. Today the situation is hardly less critical than it was in those dark days when the German super drive was at its height.

With every passing day allied moral prestige passes. The supremacy which the gallantry of our soldiers won is slipping through the diplomats' hands like sand. Lost time cannot be recovered. Opportunity allowed to slip past is gone.

Without Like Success. Like a modern Joshua, the peace congress is telling the turbulent Eastern nationality to stand still, but it has not had the success accredited to Joshua.

Today Germany is engaged in an offensive as dangerous as that which overwhelmed the British army a year ago. She is using Bolshevism as a battering ram.

Meantime, the gentlemen at Quai d'Orsay spend their time without deciding, playing local politics and revealing things on paper without first assuring themselves of the possibilities of realization of the decrees.

Hesitate Too Long. The chief trouble with the peace makers has been and is that they hesitated about taking action until actual events get beyond them.

What the allies need today even more than they did a year ago is a single command. It is either Foch or Wilson.

There is plenty of dynamite lying around throughout Europe and it needs but a spark to set it off.

Instead of rebuilding the world house the peace congress may soon run out with a fire hose and try to save the remnants of the old structure.

Wilson Is Blamed. However, the task remains that the public at large blame President Wilson for the delay, while his partisans say he is the only man to set off the menacing conflict.

WOMEN OF CITY TURN IN "KNITS"

THE first knitted articles for Belgian women and children have been turned in at the Red Cross headquarters. Mrs. E. Peety, 309 Sarah street, completed the first shawl and Mrs. J. St. Louis made the first sweater.

Mrs. M. Rowells, Mrs. C. Louis and Mrs. J. E. Fillion finished the first stockings.

Knitters are needed, is the report at the headquarters. More interest is being shown but Escanaba will be far from completing its quota if the women of the city do not respond more readily.

"The work is just as important as the Red Cross knitting a year ago," said a Red Cross worker yesterday. "We had no trouble finding knitters then and we should have no trouble completing our quota now."

SIBERIAN ARMY OF JAPS SMALL

Washington, March 25.—The strength of Japan's Siberian force is 54,000 troops, state department officials revealed this afternoon, following the publication of foreign dispatches stating that the number had been reduced to 100,000 by the withdrawal of 50,000. The number originally was 72,000, it was stated, withdrawals amounting to 18,000.

The Japanese were continuing to lessen the strength of this force, officials added, stating further that the number of men sent in originally was by agreement with the Allies and associated powers.

Body of American Is Found in Coahuila

Washington March 25.—The body of Oscar Wallace, an American citizen, has been found near Progreso, Coahuila, Mexico, according to information reaching the state department late this afternoon from Monterrey. Wallace was murdered by Mexican bandits.

LIBERTY BOND HOLDERS RUSH TO COURTROOM

Developments in Chicago's Stock Sales Cause of Much Alarm.

Chicago, March 25.—Disclosures in the Consumers' Packing Company investigation before Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, in the federal court, caused scores of men and women who had exchanged Liberty bonds for stocks in commercial and industrial concerns to file complaints with the attorney general of Illinois today. Officers of companies complained of were directed by State's Attorney Brundage to appear and answer charges.

Assets of the companies involved, it is said are insufficient to fulfill alluring promises of large dividends held out to investors.

Will Sue Salesmen. Judge Landis, in the federal court, today issued an order directing the receiver of the Consumers' Packing Company to enter suit against every stock salesman and agent of the company for recovery of commissions and fees. Some salesmen had received as much as $5,000.

After ordering the suit Judge Landis pressed John M. Kantor, and Edward Ader, two accused promoters, for more of the money they are supposed to have obtained from the company. Kantor admitted having $1,000 in Liberty bonds which he would surrender, but refuses to give up an automobile which he uses. The machine is valued at more than $2,000.

"Need It In Business?" "I need it in my business," he told the court.

"Very well," said Judge Landis, "but you might just as well use a Ford."

Judge Landis is trying to recover a total of some $800,000 which was collected by the company. Much of the amount was from small Liberty bond holders, who were giving stock in exchange.

Wilson Opposed To Internal Commands

Washington, March 25.—That President Wilson opposes inserting into the constitution of the league of nations any declaration that would be construed as meaning that the league would have jurisdiction over internal matters, is the belief of Senator Tiltman, Nevada, expressed in a telegram this afternoon to Senator Pfeifer of California.

McIntosh Is Named New Federal Member

Washington, March 25.—The recess appointment of Calvin S. McIntosh, of Spencer, Ind., to succeed Charles A. Breathous, resigned, as member of the federal board for vocational education, was received at the executive office of the White House from President Wilson this afternoon.

POPE PLANS FOR UNITING CHURCH FOLK TO CAUSE

London, March 25.—Reports, apparently justified, now prevail in Rome that the Vatican is favorably disposed toward a scheme for the calling of a pan-Christian congress as a prelude to the union of all Christian churches, according to advices from the Italian capital to the Daily News today.

The scheme for a pan-Christian congress, it is stated, originated in America.

American non-Catholic bishops are expected to visit Rome soon for a conference with the Pope. The prevailing impression in Vatican quarters is that the union could easily be brought about if representatives of Oriental Protestants and other non-Catholic churches agree to participate in an ecumenical council convened by the Pope.

BULLETINS

Amsterdam, March 25.—Red Guards are marching toward Roumania, according to advices reaching the Central News from Budapest today.

Sydney Has Outbreak. Sydney, Australia, March 25. The first serious Bolshevist outbreak in Australia occurred at Brisbane today, when a Red flag procession was stopped by the police, resulting in a street battle. The police clubbed the demonstrators unmercifully. Cries of "This will start a revolution!" filled the air. Australian soldiers later raided the Bolshevistic headquarters.

Budapest Is Wavering? Copenhagen, March 25.—A panic has seized the population of Budapest and many who embraced Bolshevism in the first stages of excitement last Friday now seem to be wavering, according to a Berlin newspaper. The paper adds that Hungary at large has not wholeheartedly subscribed to the Soviet principles, and it is doubtful at this moment whether it can be properly called a Bolshevistic republic.

Martial Law in Spain. Washington, March 25.—Martial law was declared in Barcelona, Spain, yesterday afternoon, according to advices received by the state department late this afternoon. This action was taken as a result of a general strike which occurred when 40 men were arrested for refusing to return to work. Industries closed down, public utilities suspended, banks closed and transportation lines ceased running. The advices say the government military authorities are in control of the situation.

Cairo Has Outbreak. Cairo, Egypt, March 23 (delayed).—Political disturbances in Egypt continue. Nearly all railroad traffic has had to be suspended. Armed mobs have been burning railway stations and tearing up tracks.

Ten thousand students took part in a demonstration here, shouting "Viva Wilson!" "Viva Egypt!" The revolt appears spreading all over Egypt.

CHANDLER CITED SAME DAY AS FALK

Copies of the citations accompanying the award of the Croix de Guerre to many 32nd division men have been published in general order. The highest citation—the Army citation—was won by Capt. Oscar Falk, deceased, former commander of Co. L, and singularly enough, it was for bravery under fire while wounded that Corporal Isaac Chandler also was cited on the same day as was Capt. Falk, under whom he served for more than 15 months before going overseas, getting a singular decoration.

The citation for Captain Falk follows:

"Although ill, he resumed his functions as second in command when his battalion entered into action. During the combat of the Bois des Jombiers, near Clerges, 31st of July, 1918, he was mortally wounded by a shell."

The citation for Corporal Chandler follows:

"Despite serious wounds received near Clerges, 31st of July, 1918, he showed most heroic courage by refusing to have his wounds dressed and continued to carry messages to the commander of the battalion."

Dr. Barth to Give Lecture This P. M.

Rev. Dr. F. X. Barth, pastor of St. Patrick's church will give another of his lectures on "Women in Science" under the auspices of the Escanaba Woman's Club, at the Delta hotel this afternoon. Club members may invite a friend, if it is announced. There will be no admission charge.

FEAR YANKEES ARE INTERNED BY HUNGARIANS

Part of Hoover's Commission Either in Hungary or at Trieste.

London, March 25.—How many Americans, if any, suffered "disarmament" by the new Hungarian Bolshevist government is unknown at the headquarters of Admiral Sims. A dispatch late this evening from Vienna says the allied mission at Budapest, "including its American members," were interned by the Hungarian Soviet authorities. Official confirmation of this is still outstanding.

May Be at Trieste. So far as it is known, Col. J. W. McIntosh and Gregory, detached for service on Herbert C. Hoover's grain corporation board with 25 army and navy officers, are believed to be either in Hungary or at the food base of Trieste, supervising the American food delivery under Commander Tence at the American naval establishment at Trieste.

Whatever food commissions may be in Hungary are controlled from Paris. Naval headquarters here in London only execute Mr. Hoover's command for escort of food ships and the supervision of the unloading and forwarding of goods from the sea-ports into the interior.

Could Organize Relief. In case of necessity, it was said at the naval headquarters today, Commander Tence could organize a relief expedition from the forces in the Adriatic, where eight destroyers, six submarine chasers and the cruiser Olympia are stationed.

Admiral M. Bristol, commanding the American food works at Constantinople, supervising the feeding of Roumania, would co-operate if necessity should arise.

Food Shipments Held. United States Ambassador Davis said tonight that as far as he knows there are no diplomatic representatives or missions in Hungary. At American Red Cross headquarters similar information was given.

There are now, according to Capt. B. A. Long, in charge of division operations at Admiral Sims' headquarters, 50,000 tons of food destined for Hungary waiting transportation at Trieste. But this food will not be sent into Hungary as long as the Soviet government holds sway.

LENNE'S SEED SOWN IN SPAIN?

State Department Officials Get Only Meager Report of the Situation.

Washington, March 25.—Meager dispatches have been received by the state department telling of the revolutionary movement in Spain. Officials of the department were unable tonight to say whether it is part of the Bolshevik uprising now sweeping over various nations of Europe or whether it partakes more of the character of "syndicalism," or the radical movement of labor against capital.

At the Spanish embassy no word from the government had been received and officials of the embassy declined to make any comments or attempt any analysis of the situation.

Center at Barcelona. The center of the disturbance, according to state department advices, is in Barcelona, where martial law was declared a few days ago as the result of a general strike. The government mobilized all labor, placing it under control of the military forces in order to curb any further attempt at disturbances.

Following the declaration of martial law, 40 men were arrested for refusing to obey the orders of the authorities and return to work. As a result of these arrests the strikers demanded that the 40 men be set free and this the authorities refused to do.

Street Cars Are Halted. The trouble then spread throughout the city and stores were compelled to close, public utilities shut down and street railway lines ceased to operate.

The news that the government had decided to suspend all constitutional guarantees is construed by officials of the state department as a move by the military authorities to crush with a stern hand the disturbing element and restore order throughout the city of Barcelona.

"It is very exciting," said Mabel Norman speaking of her experiences in making 'Sts Hopkins.' To have to fight a dozen men in a country grocery store and have one of them get so excited that he lands a sturdy blow on the tip of one's nose."

Pathe now has three serials in the course of production—Pearl White in "In Secret," Ruth Roland in a new one yet unnamed, and Anne Luther and Charles Hutchison in "The Great Gamble."

Alice Brady was asked how she kept up the studio work during the day and the theatre at night. "I don't know," she said. "For one thing I don't think about it—just go ahead. I'm rarely tired physically. Some times there are long waits when something goes wrong at the studio, and then, being about 99 per cent human, I get mentally tired and become irritable."

Barrymore Picture Finished. "The Test of Honor," John Barrymore's new Paramount picture, has been completed. The cast includes Marcia Manon and Constance Binney, one of the Binney sisters. "The Test of Honor" is adapted from "The Malfactor" by E. Phillips Oppenheim. It is planned to release the picture early in April.

Edwin Stevens, who will make his debut in pictures in a Rex Beach subject, will be remembered for his successes with Lillian Russell at the Casino in New York.

What's in a Name? James, Bob and Billie were playing with a box of animal crackers. James "put in his thumb and pulled out a rhinoceros cookie. "Ah," he shouted, "look, Bob and Billie, at my rhinoceros." Bob is older, he is the big boy of the family. "Tain't a rhinoceros, Jimmie, it's a rhinostridge!" "No, sreee," said Billie, "it's a rhinostrous!"

The Lobster. Unlike most other marine animals, the lobster is not truly migratory in its habits. It remains on about the same ground, it is believed, from year to year, coming into shallower water in spring and returning to the less accessible depths in autumn.

Ishpeming Mich.—With the New York Stock Exchange closed, other markets were inclined to be dull to-day. The outstanding feature in to-day's news comments, is the more favorable developments in the copper metal market. Copper shares were generally higher and it is expected they will start to discount the turn of the metal. With the curtailment a production, it looks now as if consumption for the month of March will be greater than production. We do not believe that we are anywhere near the end of the upward movement in the New York list, and believe that such stocks as Westinghouse, Midvale, U. S. Steel, United States Rubber, etc., should be bought. Tomorrow, inspiration directors meet for dividend action and it is generally believed, the dividend will be reduced to $1.50 or $1.

Chicago—Merit Oil Corporation will declare initial dividend shortly, according to present plans of directors. The company's position has been considerably strengthened as a result of recent financing through sale of 240,000 shares of stock, greater part of which was taken by Midwest Refining Co.

Little Home Helps.

WITH broiled steak, Bearnaise sauce is a delicious accompaniment.

Onions, if boiled in pure soft water, are tasteless. Use hard water salted.

Long chewing of food helps the appetite to be satisfied with smaller amounts.

A layer cake may be spread with jelly and sprinkled with puffed rice and prepared coconut.

The six absolute necessities for health are cereals, fresh vegetables, fruits, sugar, fats and milk.

Save rice water to make hasty pudding with, and cook the pudding all day in the fireless cooker.

When paraffin is taken off the top of jelly, etc., it should be melted at once to free it from the fruit.

As soon as macaroni has been drained and blanched by throwing it into cold water, it should be mixed with a little butter to keep it from sticking together.

Soap and water will take the paint from woodwork. You can easily remove finger marks by rubbing them with a piece of clean flannel dipped into kerosene.

Linon collars which have been discarded make excellent bandages to use for cuts, burns and bruises. Soak them in water until soft, cut off the stitching, then dry and make into rolls ready for any emergency.

Put a little baking soda into the pot where the spinach is cooking, and you will find that it will retain its green color.

When meat soup is ordered for a convalescent, prepare it the day before and skim off the fat.

To prevent jellies and preserves from molding, place a spoonful of lime in the pantry, where they are kept.

To prevent bamboo furniture or matings from turning yellow wash with salt water.

You will find that your irons won't stick if your prepare your hot starch with soapy water. This also gives a nice shine to the linens.

When ironing collars place a small round cake tin in the oven and put the collars in as soon as they are ironed; this keeps them in a round shape, and they also stiffen through being in a warm place.

Bolled custard is smoother if only the yolks of the eggs are used.

When the linoleum begins to wear paint the surface with good floor paint, allowing a longer time to dry than in case of wooden boards, and it will look nearly as good as new.

The water with which pie crust is mixed should be iced.

Gelatin should always be first soaked in cold water.

Long Branch, N. J., March 25.—The reports from Chicago that the Willard-Dempsey fight of July 4 will be nothing but a "moving picture stunt, are false. It is going to be a championship fight."

"RAY'S FRIEND"

By ELGIE EATON.

One, two, three, chimed the clock on the mantel.

"You'd better hustle along there, Lou," called her mother, "or you'll miss that swell movie you've been talking about."

"Yes, mother, I'm most ready," answered Lou, putting the last pin in her hair.

"Now see that you come home right after the show. I don't want to have to entertain that friend brother Ray's bringing home for the week-end to-night. Besides, I think he would like your company best. Young folks generally like young folks," warned her mother as Lou was leaving.

"Movies aren't as interesting as they might be," thought Lou, as she walked leisurely down the street. For the past six months not much of anything had really been interesting to her. She found more pleasure in knitting socks for soldiers than she did in doing anything else. But today she thought she would venture out to the pictures.

She met several boys and girls as she walked along, all radiant and happy. She finally reached the theater. An observer might have thought her eager to see the play, for there was a gleam about her eyes, but Lou's longing look was not for the play that was supposed to be so interesting. Her thoughts were far away. She was thinking of her sister Mae's home cottage, where she had spent the spring and summer days doing the work for Mae until she got better. How pleasant it had all been! But how lonely she was now.

Doctor B., "Bill," as Mae's husband used to call him, occupied her thoughts; he had seemed young the first time she met him. He certainly had made her stay at Mae's a pleasant one. How kind and gentle he had been to her sister, she thought. Try as hard as possible, she couldn't get interested in the play. Her thoughts would always drift back to by-gone days; the pleasant rides she had had with Doctor B. the scenery and the lunches they would take. How he had seemed to enjoy the dainties she would prepare and give her more than due praise, she thought. Lou would think of all these things with a sense of happiness. But how sad she seemed to make her when she would recall the day when he had called at Mae's and told them he was leaving for camp in the morning. He, too, seemed sad as he told them of his departure. But he had just bid her good-by in a friendly way. Just as he had bid the others good-by.

"Why have I been so lonesome since my return home?" Lou would ask herself. Was her lonesomeness due to him? At first she would think it was due to the change. There was just her mother at home now, and it wasn't as though things were lively. She thought; but as she walked home this day she finally came to the conclusion that there was just one answer to her question: She had fallen in love with Doctor B.

"It's all right to feel lonesome when I'm at home and everything is dull. But when it comes to this (and she thought of how she had spent the afternoon thinking of him, instead of enjoying the pictures) there is only one reason for it, and there's no use avoiding it. But it makes me feel blue. It's just to be my secret, not his and mine, as I wish it could be."

She suddenly thought of her mother's warning to come right home. She looked at her watch. It was past her regular dining hour. "Goodness!" she exclaimed, "I must be walking terribly slow. Guess I'd better move along. I've got to change my dress, I suppose. Ray's friend might be a bore for all I know. Oh! I do wish he wasn't bringing him home this time, but I must be there and help make things pleasant or he will never forgive me."

She finally reached home. Her mother met her at the door. "Now be quick and change your dress, dearie. Ray has come and supper is waiting."

"What's that faint voice?" thought Lou, as she changed her dress and listened to the boys talking and laughing. She looked thoughtful for a second—but no, it couldn't be—the laughter again reached her ears. She hurried downstairs, determined to be in doubt no longer.

"Why, Ray!" she exclaimed, going into the parlor. "This is Doctor B.—I met him at Mae's, and—"

"I know, Sis," interrupted Ray. "We thought we'd plan a little surprise for you."

"This certainly is a pleasant surprise," said Lou, with joy, as she shook hands with Dr. B.

During the meal they talked of old times and of what had happened since they had last seen each other.

"Now," said Lou's mother, "I'm going to do the work and, Lou, you can entertain Dr. B. while Ray goes calling on me."

"What do you let me know you were coming," Dr. B. asked Lou when she was alone.

"Thank you, Lou," said Dr. B., avoiding her question.

"I guess you'll be always," said Lou, almost in a whisper, while that longing look disappeared, and now she knew her secret was also shared with Dr. B.

Meat Cause Of Kidney Trouble

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Itches.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that most forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is hot you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get your ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. And has been used for generations to flush and cleanse the urinary system, also to neutralize the uric acid, so it no longer irritates, thus ending the

HELP YANKS OF OTHER ARMIES

Disabled Americans in the Foreign Legions to Get Help Here.

Washington, March 25.—By a curious twist of the law an alien who has served in the armies of the United States and has been so badly injured that he is entitled to compensation from the war risk insurance bureau is entitled to the free vocational retraining furnished by the government of the United States. A citizen of the United States who has served in the armies of the allies, fighting for the same cause, is not entitled under the law to receive this retraining at the hands of his own government.

Afford Them a Living.

There were thousands of citizens of the United States, filled with a loyalty and a high sense of justice, who realized, long before their government realized the fact, that the liberty of the world was hanging in the balance in Europe. They rushed into the Canadian, the British and the French armies. They were among the bravest of the brave. Many of them have never come back, and never will come back. Many of them have returned with broken health, wounded, maimed and unable to make a living on account of the injuries they received and under the law they can neither receive compensation from the United States government nor the education which would enable them to utilize their remaining capabilities so as to afford them a living and prevent them becoming charges either upon the charity or compassion of the several communities.

Law is Very Plain.

The law is very plain upon this subject. The free retraining, the support at $65 a month, and allowance to dependents and placement in a position after qualifying, administered by the Federal Board for Vocational Education, is confined to members of the United States army, navy and marine corps. Doubtless, a subsequent amendment to the law will pass Congress, but in the meanwhile the Federal Board has managed to obtain a "gift fund" which Congress authorized it to maintain for emergency and other cases, and the Board is now able to give these Americans who were in readiness "first to fight" the same benefit which those of the regular establishments may receive by law.

The Federal Board is now endeavoring to locate all such disabled men who have sustained injuries in the armies of our allies and are thereby unable to resume their former occupations, or to pursue successfully new occupations. Upon proof of their service and injuries and necessity for vocational retraining the Federal Board is prepared to give this to them as fully and completely as to any soldier of the United States army. The Federal Board will appreciate being placed in touch with any such men on their families, and if relief is needed it will be immediate and generous, preliminary to starting upon the course of education and retraining. The address of the Federal Board for Vocational Educational is Washington, D. C.

Forgot What He Wanted.

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now, I know! What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their names, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substitution is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

With Service Men

Flat Rock Soldier May Return Soon

In a letter to a friend at Flat Rock, Pvt. Euclide Lancoeur, of the military police, one of the first Delta county men to leave, tells something of the after-war life overseas. Lancoeur is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lancoeur. His letter, dated February 16, says in part:

Dear Friend: I have made an application for a transfer to a new regiment and I think it will be granted. It is, I will have a better chance to go home right away.

Luck has been with me all the time I have been in France. I haven't seen any hardship, at all, excepting the time I was a courier and I was satisfied even then because I was seeing all of France. But otherwise I have always been in some city or other with good quarters and good eats.

Sees Much Country.

At present, we are in a town about the size of Gladstone, about five minutes walk from church. Our room is located over a barber shop and has electric lights and all conveniences. It is impossible to tell you about all I have seen in France or even a small part of it but I don't think there are many Americans over here who have seen more.

My first trip, out was in August when I took three prisoners to Leon. From there I went to La Chateau where I left them. My second trip was to St. Albans where I got two more prisoners and took them to Tonal, where there was plenty of fighting. I was about a kilometer behind the lines. I took the two to Trèves.

May Go To Coblenz.

Then I was put on duty with the French civilian police for a month. After that I went back to the old work and saw Versailles, Bordeaux, St. Nazaire and Nancy, Monte Carlo and some others. I may be sent to Coblenz on another trip any time. I'll tell you all about it when I get back.

Your friend,
EUCLIDE LANCOEUR.

A. N. Lee Back From Service in Canada

A. N. Lee, who had served four years with the Canadian cavalry, is in the city for a visit with old friends. Previous to his enlistment in 1914, Lee was employed at the Fair Savings Bank. He was given an honorable discharge on March 20.

Lee went to Canada shortly after the outbreak of the European war and enlisted with the cavalry, hoping to see some of the big events that were going on in Europe. However, he never left the Dominion and for four years he has been rounding up slack-ers and doing other police work on this side, his regiment cooperating with the Royal Northwest Mounted police. Part of the time was spent in guarding German aliens in a detention camp.

He will probably remain in the city for several days.

George Christensen Arrives in New York

Mrs. George Christensen received word yesterday that her son, Fred Christensen arrived in New York March 24, on the transport Manchuria. He has been with the American forces overseas for the last ten months, a member of the Thirty-ninth Engineers. It is probable that he will be sent to Camp Custer and be given his discharge there.

Three Men Accepted By Naval Recruiter

Six men applied for enlistment in the navy department and three were accepted by W. E. Strasburg, naval recruiting officer, on his visit to this city. Because the policy of the navy in recruiting is to withhold names of men accepted for enlistment until their final examination is taken,

Strasburg did not give out the names of the men he accepted.

The naval recruiter will return to this city in two weeks—April 8—again being established at the post office where he will examine applicants for enlistment.

Because there is an abundance of labor, Strasburg reports the recruiting has been at a livelier pace than previously.

IS YOUR BLOOD STARVING FOR WANT OF IRON?

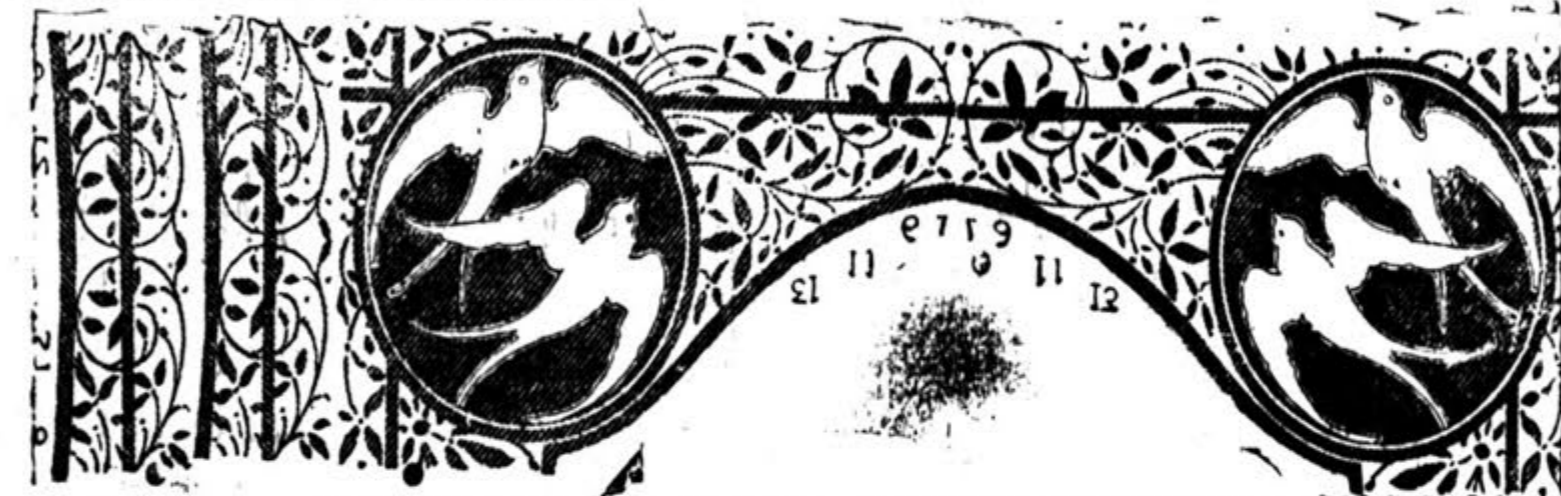

Iron Is Red Blood Food—It Helps to Put Strength and Energy into the Veins of Men and Women. Why Nuxated Iron so Quickly Builds Up Weak, Nervous, Run-down People.

Thousands of men and women are impairing their constitutions, laying themselves open to illness and literally losing their grip on health, simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron. Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of the virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable.

Iron is absolutely essential to enable your blood to transform the food you eat into muscular tissue and brain. It is through iron in the red coloring matter of the blood that life-sustaining oxygen enters the body. Without iron there is no strength, vitality and endurance to combat obstacles or withstand severe strains. Contrary to general opinion, lack of iron in the blood does not necessarily mean you do not have enough blood, but it means your blood is not of the right kind. To help make strong, healthy, red-blooded people there is nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. No matter what other tonics or iron remedies you have used without success, if you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have increased their strength and endurance in two weeks' time while taking iron in the proper form. Nuxated Iron is now being used by over three million people annually, and the manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

TAXPAYERS MUST ACT.

At no time in the history of Escanaba has it been more vitally necessary for the people of this city to unite in an effort for the upbuilding and advancement of their home city. Other nearby towns are moving ahead, getting new industries and gathering impetus for even greater growth.

One of the first questions asked by the heads of a concern seeking a new location is, "What is your city tax rate?" Escanaba's answer to that question has scared away many good concerns that for a time considered this city as a location.

The deplorable conditions that exist in Escanaba's finances today from the viewpoint of the taxpayer are best reflected. In 1915 the city's total valuation was $4,362,225 and the city tax rate per thousand was $15.50. Today the total assessed valuation of the city is $7,970,000 and the city tax rate per thousand is $14. In other words, the assessed valuation of the city's property has been nearly doubled while the tax rate has been reduced by $1.50 per thousand. In other words, nearly twice as much money is being spent to conduct the affairs of the city now than before the valuation of city property was increased. The result is a burden that neither the small home owner nor the large property holder, already here, can stand.

The Taxpayers party is pledged to eliminate extravagant methods and waste of the taxpayers' money by the initiation of a commission manager form of government, which will give the people an effective, efficient local government at a cost within reason. The Taxpayers party is also pledged to immediately place in effect a vigorous retrenchment policy that will bring relief to the taxpayers, until a modern and efficient form of government has been installed.

GIVE TO RED CROSS.

Everyone who has a pair of old shoes gathering dust in the closet or a dress or suit which hasn't been worn for weeks, or a new outfit of spring clothes to replace the garments of winter, or a pile of underwear with holes in it or worn in spots—the kind that is on "its last legs"—or anyone who has little boys or girls who "grow so fast that they never get a chance to wear their clothes out"—the Delta County Chapter of the American Red Cross calls you into service to run an errand.

Take your old clothes or your shoes or your underwear or the things your children didn't get a chance to wear out, carry them down to the Red Cross headquarters and let them be drafted into service to cover the underfed, underdressed bodies of the refugees overseas. There is very little, if any, material sacrifice involved. It merely means a little time, a little effort. And the good that will result is inconceivable to the well-fed, well-dressed American public.

The plea for old clothes is one which touches the heart of every person in this country. It cannot help but do so when the things which we will never use again—the discard, the worthless—can be the means of saving the lives of people who have already suffered hardships which baffle the comprehension.

The vital thing now is to crystallize that feeling, that sympathy, into the actual gathering up of the clothes and taking them to Red Cross headquarters.

This is the errand that the American Red Cross assigns to everyone who has a pair of old shoes, or a dress or suit, or underwear with holes in it, or children's outgrown dresses. The need for these garments in Europe is very great indeed. Thousands upon thousands of refugees are in rags.

A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY

We have won the war. We have yet to win peace. We never get anything worth while unless we earn it and pay for it. We now have the chance of earning peace by paying for it. Think of it—a chance of earning a peace that is going to last, one that will benefit us, our children and our children's children. And how? By sacrificing a little and loaning the results of our sacrifices on the best security in the world, at a fine rate of interest.

Look the facts squarely in the eyes. A year ago it didn't seem possible that we would have a chance to buy our last Liberty bonds on April 21, 1919. It looked as though we would be then only well started in pouring out our blood and treasure. Now the war is over, and we don't even have to pay for it.

All we have to do now is to pay for peace—pay for it by depriving ourselves of a few luxuries and investing our savings in an enterprise that will lay broad and deep the foundations of a lasting prosperity.

Looking back to the dark days when Germany seemed so far from beaten and when every day meant danger and destruction, it is easy to recall the

If that day their sons were to be sent to the firing front. There were many Ninth district mothers who would have thought no financial sacrifice would be too great if the war could have ended in 1918—as it did end. Peace then seemed to be so wonderful a thing—and so priceless.

Now we can have that priceless thing by loaning our money to pay for it. The dollars we lend will go for the boys who are in France and in camps, will go for their wages and their comfort.

They are needed to pay for the guns, the aeroplanes, the ships which were obtained over night and which spelled doom for the boche.

Are you fit to live in peace? If you are, you will gladly, thankfully pay your share by subscribing to the limit for the Victory Liberty Loan.

COLLEGES AS CATCH-ALLS.

From teaching the art of war the colleges are returning to the piping arts of peace with a rapidity that shows great facility in demobilization. Columbia, for example, has a new course in motion picture photography for summer students.

Certainly the colleges are getting as close to the heart of American progress as the most enthusiastic advocate of "practical" education could desire. Does any student desire instruction in writing vers libre or painting cubist pictures, or in the principles of Soviet government or parlor Bolshevism? Apparently the desire has only to be expressed to be satisfied under the flexible and adaptable curriculum of the modern college.—New York World.

DEAR SLIM:—You remember, perchance, the wheeze of ancient vintage about the great lapse of time between the throes of a certain ruminant with a dorsal hump? What a wonderful city for camels this would be. The city water, the experts tell us, is on the hammer and if we get a dring of anything else, once in the country's five-day period, we think we are living in a harem or a Swiss Lodge.

CLOVERLAND and WISCONSIN

HOUGHTON—A plan to perpetuate in years to come, the memory of the men who crossed the seas to battle the Hun, has been outlined by J. C. Gannon of Marquette, formerly of Houghton, in a recent letter to Senator Frank H. Vandenberg of Marquette. The plan is proposed in conjunction with the campaign for good roads, and would, if approved and taken up by each state, result in a perpetual monument to the various fighting units which fought in the world war.

Mr. Gannon proposes, briefly, to designate every trunk line and highway in the country with the name and fighting insignia of the corresponding state through which the road may pass. In his letter to Senator Vandenberg, Mr. Gannon suggests that the movement begin with the state of Michigan, and that the main trunk lines be named for the divisions in which this state is particularly interested. He further suggests that the same system of designation of roads be applied by other states to their main lines, and that, for instance, where the "Road of the 32nd" (Michigan) entered Wisconsin, it should be given the name of a Wisconsin division, and so on throughout the country, thus forming a link of division names and insignias which would stand forever as a monument to the fighting men in every section of the country.

See Woman is Re-elected From Election Board.

SOO—A controversy in the sixth precinct over the appointment of Mrs. LeBlanc as a member of the election board resulted in action by the Soo commission rescinding its former appointments. Mrs. LeBlanc was removed from the board and the following all-men board was appointed: J. A. Trout, William M. Snell and James A. Ballentine. At the meeting of the commissioners not one word was voiced of what the charges against Mrs. LeBlanc were. The motion that the commission rescind its former appointments in the sixth precinct was made by Commissioner Larmonth and was carried without discussion. Mr. Ballentine was then appointed to take the place made vacant by the removal of Mrs. LeBlanc.

Postmaster's Home at Oconto is Burned.

OCONTO—The home of Postmaster Badour was partially destroyed by fire Friday morning. The fire was discovered about 8:30 in the structure which had just been remodeled and which is located on the corner of Jones and Washington streets.

It had made considerable headway before the fire department could get control of the conflagration. A large portion of the roof was burned off and the furnishings badly soaked with the flood of water used in fighting the blaze. The firemen saved most of the furniture with the assistance of neighbors and moved it into St. Mary's vicarage recently vacated by Rev. Fr. Curtis.

Riveting Crews Walk Out; Want More Pay.

MANITOWOC—Fifty riveting crews consisting of three men to a crew, walked out at the yard of the Manitowoc Ship Building company on a demand for an adjustment on piece work. It is said that unless their demand is met a general strike will be called. The men are asking a higher rate of pay because of the fact that the new boats, which will be built here to be off burner, necessitate more careful driving while at work and a larger rivet. The walk-out so far affects about 300 men. It is believed the trouble will soon be settled.

Expect Boat Traffic To Open April 10.

TORCH LAKE—April 10 is the tentative date set for the arrival of the first freighter in Torch Lake waters this spring. The freighter will stop here on her way down the lakes from Duluth to take copper.

Superintendent Boyd, of the Calumet & Hecla coal docks, has not yet been advised as to the probable date of arrival of the first boat. This, however, is no cause for worry as there is more coal on hand here this spring than in any number of years. The exceptionally mild winter and the fact that the plants are not operating full blast have combined to make it an easy season on the coal pile.

Conditions here Mr. Boyd says he has been informed are little different from other lake ports. It is reported there is more coal at the head of the lakes than in several years while a larger than normal supply of ore is said to be on the docks of lower lake ports. While weather conditions will undoubtedly permit an early opening of navigation there is no good reason at this time to expect less will be a hurry to open the season.

Saturday, when Superintendent William L. Connor, of the Republic schools, was the defendant in a suit brought by Arvid Maki, father of Rudolph Maki, a twelve-year-old student in one of the Republic schools whom the superintendent was charged with injuring when he laid him across his knee and gave him a spanking a few weeks ago for misbehavior.

The case has been the town talk at Republic and several, in addition to fourteen witnesses, came down to take in the proceedings. The court room was filled to capacity as a number of Ishpeming people were attracted by the case. Mr. Connor called for and was granted a jury trial. The jury was made up of Otto Eger, John T. Burke, Joseph Gill, Henry Watters, Charles Olson and William Whale. Thomas Clancy defended Mr. Connor and A. W. Jurma was attorney for young Maki.

Practical Recipes.

Queen Pudding.

Pour a quart of hot milk over a pint of bread crumbs. While the milk is warm add to it a piece of butter about the size of a large hen's egg and the grated rind of a lemon. Beat up the yolks of four eggs with a tumbler of sugar, and when the bread is thoroughly saturated with the milk pour in on the yolk. Put this batter into a pan and let it remain in the oven until stiff. (If the oven is too hot or not hot enough it will be watery.) Take it out of the oven and spread a layer of jelly or preserves of some kind over the top. On the top of this spread the whites of four eggs, beaten till stiff, with four tablespoons of sugar and the juice of the lemon. Put back into the oven and let it bake until the top is pretty brown.

Frosted Lemon Pie.

Molten a tablespoon of corn starch with a little cold water and pour on boiling water sufficient to thicken it; while hot put into this a cup of sugar, so as to melt it; add the beaten yolks of two eggs and the grated rind with the juice of a lemon. This will make one large pie. Bake with a bottom crust. Beat the whites of the eggs to a froth and add two tablespoons of sugar. When the pie is done spread this frosting over it and return it to the oven.

Chile Con Carne.

Chop either cold roast beef or raw beef, into small squares; two large onions; cover with water and cook tender; when cooked, add one-half can of tomatoes, boil five minutes. Blend one tablespoon (level) ground chili, one tablespoon flour, in water; pour over meat and let boil a few minutes. Add small piece of butter; pepper and salt to taste.

For a 'Bad Cold.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has stood the test of time and can be depended upon.

CLOSEUPS and FADEOUTS

by Imogene

W. T. aCretion, of "Florodora" fame, has an important role in "The Hacing Strain," the Mae Marsh picture showing here this week.

Jack Mower, Mae Allison's new leading man in "The Island of Intrigue," is an expert swimmer and he has several chances to make use of his ability in the picture.

Mary's Famous Callers. Some famous men who have visited Los Angeles to watch Mary Pickford work recently are: Colonel Raymond Leonce Leonal, French war hero; Frank Spearman, American author; Father Francis Charles Nelson, Camp Lewis; and Father de la Fresnate, of Paris.

AT THE DELFT.

How Puck, the little dancer in a cheap music-hall in London, meets Merryon on leave from service in India on the night of the fire which separates her from her husband who has beaten her for financial attentions from another man; how the safety curtain shuts off her escape and her life, until Merryon leaps to her aid, is endangered; how she reads of Vulcan's death in the papers and consents to a marriage with Merryon with whom she goes to India; how she realizes that the reports of Vulcan's death may be false since her own name had been listed erroneously; how Vulcan, who is alive, comes to claim her and rather than ruin the man she loves, Puck returns to him. Just as he is dying of the plague; and finally how Puck is released from him and free to return to the man she loves, all go to make up the thrilling incidents in Norma Talmadge's latest Select picture, "The Safety Curtain," which will be shown at the Delft theatre today and Thursday.

AT THE STRAND.

Not all the highly dramatic battles are fought on the battle fields. The struggle of man to control himself and make the best of himself is always an inspiring theme for an author and in "The Sheriff's Son," Charles Ray's new Paramount picture which will be shown at the Strand theatre today and Thursday, William McLeod Raine has created a wonderful story with an extraordinary leading character.

He takes a lad who has inherited a great fear from his mother, and shows by an admirably constructed story, how he fought down the fear and won back his self respect and manhood.

ELKS TAKE HAND IN HELPING MEN

Many Men Ineligible for Vocational Training May Have It Now.

Washington, March 25.—Disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who are held to be worthy cases, but which for one technicality or another have been declared "non-compensable" by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, now have a chance for retraining, according to a statement today by the Federal Board for Vocational Education, which has charge of this work.

According to the law passed by Congress, only the cases decided as "compensable" by the War Risk Insurance bureau are eligible or entitled to the free vocational retraining with $65 per month support fund, allowance for dependents, and placement in a job, if the course be for a wage earning occupation.

No Restrictions. By means of the fund of $150,000 placed by the Elks at the disposal of the Federal Board, worthy cases can now be awarded training without reference to the technicalities which hedge about the expenditure of government funds.

There are no restrictions whatever upon the use of the Elks' fund, and it is to be employed in any or all such cases as the Board may deem worthy. Congress provided that the Board might maintain a "gift fund" and receive donations, anticipating that just such emergencies might arise. The wisdom of doing so is made manifest in the opening of the door of hope to men where technicalities had closed it to them.

Canadians Eligible. Another announcement concerning the Elks' gift and vocational training which will be of interest to Delta county men who served with the allied forces was made this week. It follows:

Washington, March 25.—Americans who served in the armies of our allies and were disabled thereby, and who, under the rehabilitation law of the United States government are at present debarred from receiving vocational retraining, may now receive the same reeducation and placement as the disabled soldiers, sailors and marines of the United States government.

More than twenty thousand young Americans enlisted in the Canadian, French and English armies, and many of them sustained injuries which have permanently disabled them, and until now they have not been able to receive the benefits of the federal rehabilitation law. They are enabled to do so now on account of the fund of $150,000 advanced by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks to the Federal Board for Vocational Education, which is the agent in charge through which the government accomplishes the reeducation of these disabled men.

Now Searching for Men. In addition, men of the United States forces who were injured by accident, or otherwise, while in the service previous to October 6, 1917, will also be cared for under this arrangement, and the Federal Board for Vocational Education at Washington is now endeavoring to locate men of both of these classes in need of retraining in order to make them efficient for civil life again and will welcome information leading to this end.

Leury in Chicago to Buy Spring Samples

Kratze Cloak and Suit Opening Today

Preparations for the cloak and suit opening at the Kratze store were completed last night and indications are that it will be one of the big fashion events of the season. There is a large assortment of all lines on display at the store and they are shown in an attractive manner.

Dispensing Smiles Among Soldiers Is Job of This Fellow

London, March 25.—Dispensing laughs and smiles with their tonic effect on the invalided American soldiers in Camp Hospital No. 34 at Woodley Romsey is the "Official Sunshiner" of the fighting forces from the United States.

In six months he shed sunshine into the lives of equivalent to nearly 90,000 invalided boys, met personally 100,000 others, gave out writing material in sixteen hospitals for 10,000 letters home and wrote comforting epistles to more than 300 mothers of men incapacitated for correspondence. In all he worked in sixteen hospitals in the United Kingdom, leaving a wake of smiles. He is William Jeffrey of Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, fifty years "young" and a Y. M. C. A. worker. His methods often have been slapstick but, in stage parlance, he gets the laughs. Blues flew at his approach. If an invalided soldier can stand a hearty laugh, Mr. Jeffrey "handed him one" if the boys were strong for only a smile, it was there; if a comforting word for a lad "going west" was requisite, the "Official Sunshiner" was tenderness itself.

Frimodig Starts His Freshmen Candidates

East Lansing, March 25.—The official call for All-Fresh baseball practice at the Michigan Agricultural college has been set for March 31, the opening day of the spring term.

Coach Lyman Frimodig has had several of his prospective batterymen working out with the "varsity squad" during the past week. Many recruits who starred in interscholastic circles during the last couple of years are on the Aggie list and will report on the opening of the spring term for tryouts.

The coach believes he can develop a squad that will give M. I. A. A. and interscholastic rivals fast competition. The first game for the All-Fresh is scheduled for April 22 with the Lansing high school. The first out-of-town squad to be met will be Albion, which comes to East Lansing, May 1.

Brilliant Array of Stars, Annual Fete

Dr. Stanley has just announced the complete list of artists and attractions for the next May Festival at Ann Arbor, May 14, 15, 16, 17. The Festival will be in the nature of a Victory Festival commemorating the gallant work of the noble American boys who have served their country so well.

An exceptionally attractive list of soloists has been engaged, including leading artists from the Metropolitan and Chicago opera companies, as well as other distinguished musicians. The University Choral Union, under Dr. Stanley, will offer Gounod's "Faust," Hadley's "Ode to Music" and a work written especially for the Festival by Dr. Stanley, entitled "Fair Land of Freedom." The Chicago Symphony Orchestra of 70 members under the direction of Frederick Stock will take part in all concerts, except the organ recital and will contribute many sparkling orchestral selections.

The artists who will appear are as follows: Rosa Ponselle, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Anna Fitzlu, Prima donna of the Chicago Opera Company and Lois M. Johnston, sopranos; Louise Homer, Metropolitan Opera Company, Merle Alcock, and Minerva Komenarski, contraltos; Fernando Carpi, Chicago and Metropolitan Opera companies, and Arthur Hackett, tenors; Emilio de Gogorza and Robert R. Dieterle, baritones; Andra de Securoia, Metropolitan Opera Company and Gustaf Holmquist, basses; Ossip Gabrilowitch, pianist; and Charles M. Courboin, Belgian Organist.

ARGENTINE WOMAN HAS PUT MATERNITY PLANK IN HER PLATFORM; TO AID YOUNG

Buenos Ayres—Senora Julietta Renshaw, a physician and the first woman candidate for Congress in Argentina, says the state must support maternity as a duty and as charity. She promises if elected to strive for Government recognition of maternity.

The House of Representatives has passed a bill to pension all public service employees who will give 5 per cent of their wages to the fund, while employers will deposit an amount equal to 8 per cent of their payroll, being permitted to raise prices to make up this amount.

When this fund is insufficient to pay the claims the Government will provide the difference. The measure now goes to the Senate.

AUSTRALIA TO PROVIDE FOR EX-SOLDIER; MORE THAN TWO MILLIONS TO BE USED

Melbourne, Australia—The Commonwealth Government is to provide $2,500,000 for use by local governing bodies throughout Australia on work which will give immediate employment to returned soldiers.

Premier Holman of New South Wales in a speech at Sydney today, said the Government of his province intends to find employment for 80,000 soldiers, that there will be legislation compelling employers to reinstate returned soldiers, that 8,000 soldiers will be settled on farm land and that the remainder will be employed on public works.

To Darken Hair Apply Sage Tea

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Willis Has Message; "Dry" But Not Dry

Frank B. Willis, former governor of Ohio and a national speaker for the Anti-Saloon League of America, delivered an interesting lecture, "America Victorious—Its Task Supreme," at the Swedish Lutheran church last night. He was heard with deep interest by a large crowd.

Mr. Willis outlined the plans of the organization for taking the fight against alcohol to other countries of the world, now that the battle has been won in America. He spoke of the necessity of enforcing the provisions of the constitutional amendment in the United States and devoted a portion of his time to an analysis of the so called "wine and beer" amendment to be voted upon in Michigan.

The meeting was followed by a banquet in the speaker's honor at the Delta hotel.
