STATE SENATE PASSES EXCESS FARE MEASURE

Substitute May Alter Bill on Corporations Introduced by Lemire.

Lansing, Mich., March 28.—Final solution of the disposition of the Michigan railway commission and the control and regulation of public utilities, including dock companies, seems to be under way and has the approval of all parties interested with the exception of the western Michigan railroad interests.

A bill has been prepared and submitted to the private corporations committee of the house and the state affairs committee of the senate which, if approved, will be reported as a substitute for the Lemire bill in the senate and the Dafoe bill in the house.

Still Have Three Members.

Reorganization of the present railroad commission, to be known as a public utilities commission, and cutting short the terms of the present commissioners would result in passage of the proposed new measure. The commission would still number three members, to hold their offices for four years, and receive $5,000 a year each.

By their refusal to give the appropriation bill for the state food and drug department immediate effect nine members of the senate have created a situation which could result in hampering the work of that department in the enforcement of the food, drug and liquor laws.

Lack But Two Votes.

The bill was passed by a vote of 20 to 10, but it requires 22 votes, or two-thirds of the senators-elect, to give a bill immediate effect. With this later provision the bill would not become effective until 90 days after the close of the legislative session, which will probably extend the date to the first or middle of August.

The fiscal year is up June 30, and after that time until the money from the appropriation bill becomes effective, 30 or 45 days later, the food and drug department would have no money on which to operate.

Pass Excess Fare Bill.

The bill by Senator William W. Smith, allowing railroads to collect 70 cents excess fare from all persons failing to buy tickets before boarding trains, was passed in the senate by a vote of 21 to 8 after some brief discussion by the opposition.

A free text book law was among the two new bills proposed in the house. This came from Representative Samuel E. Crawford, of Ypsilanti. It proposes that boards of education shall purchase books and loan them to the pupils. Texts are to be paid for from a tax levy.

Australian Copper Mines Closed Down

Melbourne, March 28.—Several Australian copper mines have been shut down because of lack of, overseas markets and accumulation of war stocks of the metal at home. Thousands of workers have been thrown out of employment by the shutdown. The condition, however, is regarded as merely transitory.

Fear of Death Was Cause of Flight

Geneva, March 28.—The flight of Emperor Karl and Ex-Empress Vika, of Austria, to Wazig, Switzerland, was prompted by fear of assassination, it is learned. The couple fled after bandits had attacked their castle at Edkartssturm.

WEATHER

SATURDAY, MARCH 29.

Forecast: Saturday probably fair, rising temperature.

Highest yesterday, 33 degrees.

Lowest yesterday, 17 degrees.

GOVERNOR Sleeper who is calling upon the people of Michigan to vote for the Highway Amendment, April 7, in the interests of a bigger and better state and to assure the commonwealth of its share of federal aid.

ROBBERS MAKE $60,000 HAUL

Six Men Enter Detroit Bank and Lock Patrons in Big Vault.

Detroit, Mich., March 28.—A branch of the Commonwealth Federal bank at Fourth street and Military avenue was robbed of more than $60,000 shortly after noon today by six young automobile bandits.

Entering the bank in single file, four of the bandits approached the cashier's cage and ordered C. H. Mooney, manager of the institution, and Paul Malling, his assistant, to throw up their hands. The other two highway men advanced upon the customers being served in the bank and, covering them with revolvers, herded them into the bank vault. Then followed a systematic search of the premises.

Meantime several patrons entered and were calmly taken charge of by the robbers. They were shoved into a small lavatory until that place, too, was crowded to capacity. Eight persons who entered after the lavatory had been filled were made to stand in a corner of the room with hands raised and their faces to the wall.

After gathering all the available currency and security, they walked carelessly out of the building, not even thinking it necessary to back out.

Organized Pursuit Started.

Unmolested, they stepped into a waiting touring car and sped away, going west. An organized pursuit was immediately started and nearby towns notified of the robbery, but early tonight no trace of them had been found.

FIVE HUN SUBS ON WAY ACROSS

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Five surrendered German submarines, manned by American crews, will sail for the United States tomorrow, Vice Admiral Sims notified the navy department this afternoon. They are being brought here for Victory loan features, and to permit a study to be made of their construction.

Because of adverse weather conditions and the fact that the Americans are unfamiliar to a certain extent with their workings, it is not expected that they will arrive much before the last of April. They will be accompanied by the submarine tender Bushnell.

One of the submarines is the U-117, one of the largest of ocean mine layers, which drew the mines off the American coast last summer.

VOLUNTEERS TO BE SOUGHT FOR DUTY OVERSEAS

Recruiting for the Regular Army Also to be Opened in Short Time.

Washington, March 28.—A call for 50,000 volunteers for overseas duty, to relieve members of the American expeditionary forces, has been prepared by the war department, and will be issued probably tonight. Enlistments will be for a term of three years and the war department officials expressed the belief that many men still in the service will take advantage of the trip overseas.

Washington, March 28.—The war department announced today that recruiting for the regular military establishment will be resumed within a short time. Enlistments will be for one year. There will be no limit to the number of men who may be recruited.

Full details of the recruiting program are to be made public by General March, chief of staff, tomorrow. It is stated that General Pershing already has been authorized to accept enlistments among the men of the expeditionary forces and that recruiting is going on among the divisions in France.

Replace Drafted Men.

The men secured for the army under the recruiting system will be used first of all to replace any of the drafted men or national guard units whose return from abroad might be otherwise delayed. The selective service law requires that drafted men be released from the service not later than four months from the day when peace is formally proclaimed.

Rushing Their Return.

The department is bending every effort to accelerate the return of these forces, but should it be found impossible to relieve their units from service within the specified time, the newly enlisted men may be used to take their places.

The army staff bill which called at the last congress provided for a standing army of 500,000 men. Despite the defeat of this bill, the department has decided to go ahead with the recruiting under general laws now existing.

Life Term Given Negro Race Rioter

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., March 28.—Leroy N. Bundy, a negro dentist, was found guilty in the circuit court at Waterloo, Ill., this afternoon, on a charge of conspiracy to murder in connection with the East St. Louis race riot in July, 1917, and sentenced to life imprisonment in penitentiary. He was technically convicted of killing two detectives.

In the riot two white detectives lost their lives and a number of negroes were killed. The trial of Bundy developed that negroes of East St. Louis, mostly employes of the stock yards, had armed themselves several days before the riot started for the purpose of killing the whites.

Ten negroes charged with participating in the riot were convicted several months ago and are serving terms in the penitentiary. Bundy was not tried with the others, having fled to Ohio where he fought extradition.

100,000 Miners In Wales Go On Strike

London, March 28.—Ignoring the advice of their leaders, more than 100,000 miners in South Wales and nearby districts have gone on strike, according to advices received by the Pall Mall Gazette.

UNITED States shipping board's commission at the peace conference. Mr. Robinson is in charge in Paris of American marine affairs and substitutes Edward N. Hurley on the international labor board. He is in charge of the furnishing of ships for revitalizing Europe, providing transportation for the return of Yankee troops abroad and is in charge of communication and building up of American cable service.

AIR MAIL MEN HIT BY STORM

Tremendous Gale Suspends Service Along East Seaboard.

Washington, March 28.—The high wind raised hob with the United States mail fliers along the North Atlantic coast today. Between Washington and New York the gale blew at a rate of from 40 to 65 miles an hour, but the United States fliers were not afraid to match their wits against it. Only one of the four fliers, however, came out winner.

Runs Into Blizzard.

John N. Miller, formerly a navy aviator, took up his machine in a snowstorm over Philadelphia, and in an hour and a half's journey reached Long Island. When he got to his point of landing he ran into a blizzard and could not see 50 feet in any direction. But he had a sense of his whereabouts and made a successful landing at Great Neck, L. I., about eight miles from the station at Delmont Park.

Aviator Biffle tried to get his J-8 into the air at Washington for the flight to Philadelphia, but the freakish wind bore down heavily. In a later attempt he got up 50 feet, but could force his plane no higher, though his engine was developing 150 horsepower.

Flew Only 50 Miles.

Aviator Mike Eversole tried to relay mail from Delaware into Philadelphia, but after flying for about three hours, bucking the wild wind from the west, he ran out of gasoline and landed at Newcastle, Del., only 50 miles from his starting place.

Over 20,000 Jews Slain In Ukraine

LONDON, March 28.—More than 20,000 Jews were killed or injured in the recent pogrom in the Ukraine, according to reports received by the Zionist organization here.

At Pashernobyl many young Jewish girls, members of prominent families, were assembled in the street and publicly dishonored. Scores of the leading business and professional men of the town were drawn.

Between Kless and Bachmetsch not a single town was spared from the holocaust and utter ruins by the "Death marches" led by the

PASSPORTS ARE TO BE GRANTED IN A FEW DAYS

Irish Delegation Picked at Recent Meeting to Sail on Wednesday.

Washington, March 28.—Ireland's claims to self-determination will be presented to the peace conference at Paris by a committee representing the Irish race in America, which will sail for France from New York next Wednesday on the liner Tourain.

As members of this committee are four of the most distinguished Irish Americans here. They are: Frank T. Walsh, of New York, chairman; Edward F. Dunn, of Chicago; Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia; Patrick Lee, of New York, secretary.

Apply for Passports.

Chairman Walsh and Mr. Ryan called at the state department yesterday and made formal application for passports for the noted party. This afternoon they were officially notified that the passports requested would be issued to the committee not later than next Monday.

In stating the object of the committee in desiring to visit France, Chairman Walsh made the following explanation in the application form:

Explains Their Object.

"To obtain for the delegates selected by the people of Ireland a hearing at the peace conference, and to place before the conference if the hearing is given the case of Ireland, her insistence upon her right to self-determination; and to international recognition of government established by her people."

The committee was selected by the recent Irish race convention in Philadelphia, which was attended by more than 5,000 delegates representing every state in the union.

Given Out Friday.

The names of the committee were made public tonight by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Cohalan, of New York, who was chairman of the convention.

"America Trump Card."

London, March 28.—"America is our trump card," declared H. Boland, member of parliament, secretary and chief organizer of the Sinn Fein, in an interview with the Post Dublin correspondent.

"Our organization is world wide. The Irish in America are behind us. America holds a very strong hand. If the league of nations does not materialize England's commercial rival will be America. The latter is coming out of the war stronger than any power."

"Hold Balance of Power."

"The British foreign policy seems to aim at an English speaking union with America. We have for the last 40 years blocked that alliance because the Irish hold the balance of power politically in America and until we have justice we will continue to harass Anglo-Saxon relations."

"We are endeavoring to cause Britain as much trouble as possible. We have implicit confidence in America's declaration that the war was fought for the freedom of nations, large and small, and if Premier Lloyd George is to grant self-determination to the Akaris in Central Africa, we in Ireland may surely be granted the same right."

Based on 1782 Act.

"Sinn Fein is an old, old idea of Irish independence which goes back to 1172. We base our right to independence on the declaration of the act of 1782 that Ireland is competent to make laws for the

FRENCH FEAR HUN REFUSAL

Papers Think it Possible Germany Will Reject Peace Terms.

Paris, March 28.—Apprehension that Germany will not sign the peace treaty as now being formulated is growing daily. There is more talk of war in the French press than there is of peace. The names of Marshal Foch and General Mangin figure as prominently today as they did a year ago.

Will Germany play the ruse of "Bolshevism"? She may cross her arms and say, "We will not sign your treaty, do your worst," which could mean that the Allies would have to occupy the whole of Germany and turn the country as a referee runs the estate of a bankrupt for the benefit of the creditors.

Want Stable Government.

The Allies in that event would become responsible for feeding all civil life until the next harvest.

The entire powers would rather find a stable German government with which they can sign peace than a government at all. None of the three nations cherishes the prospect of using a national army to police the whole of Germany.

Another possibility is that Germany may throw a Bolshevik fit, from which the mouth and shout, "I am the Bolshevik—you can't make me sign anything, and if you don't look out I will infect your people with the virus."

Germany "Cock Sure."

The third possibility is the resumption of warfare, which would begin with Germany forcibly resisting Allied measures such as the landing of Polish troops or refusal to recognize the new Polish frontier. While such threats are hardly taken seriously, there are accumulating indications that Germany feels sure the Allies are not in a position to "start anything."

TURN THE TIME AHEAD TONIGHT

Sunday morning the time steps sixty minutes forward and the United States begins its daylight conservation once again. Change the watch tonight. It will cut your sleep an hour but you'll get it back tomorrow. Churches—everything—will begin on the new schedule.

PALMER FEARS BOLSHEVISM IF ALIENS LET GO

Asserts Drastic Laws Must Be Enacted Before Peace Comes.

Washington, March 28.—Only enactment of drastic laws can stamp out radical teachings and the spread of Bolshevism in the United States, Attorney General Palmer said today.

Under legislation of this character he predicted by the next congress, he said, the country will be free to breathe with the "Red peril."

He made this statement in announcing that the department of justice intends to release 500 alien prisoners now in detention camps.

Must Free Aliens.

"Unless legislation is passed it will become necessary immediately on the termination of peace to set free all alien enemies in confinement. This would mean a great epidemic, pest and enemy agents now held in detention camps to preach the doctrine of the overthrow of the government," said Mr. Palmer.

He stated that it was his intention to renew at the next session of congress the request made to the last congress by Attorney General Gregory and Secretary Wilson for laws to provide the machinery for the fullest investigation of suspects and for power to deport the most dangerous of the alien enemies.

About 4,000 Are Held.

There are now in the army internment camps approximately 4,000 persons, most of whom are men. Of this number 2,000 are merchant seamen, with the exception of 48 members of the sanitary personnel from the Tsing tau. The remaining 2,000 are persons interned by order of the attorney general as dangerous alien enemies.

The attorney general made public today a statement setting forth the department of justice's relations to the alien enemies now interned. The prisoners are divided into three groups:

To Parole 600 Persons.

1. The department of justice has directed the release on parole of about 600 persons classified as "belonging to the harmless class of dangerous alien enemies." This group consists chiefly of persons who were interned because of repeated violations of parole or other regulations and are no longer regarded as a menace to the public safety.

Many Are I. W. W.'s.

About 200 of this number are processed members of the I. W. W. or anarchistic organizations and their cases will be referred to the secretary

NEWBERRY MAN SAYS STOP 'EM

LESS than 24 hours after Neil Buckley, representative of Henry Ford in the transfer of ballots at the city hall here, had completed his work the following telegram was received Friday morning by City Clerk Carl E. Anderson:

"Do not allow any transfer of ballots until Mr. McGregor, our representative, arrives April 4."

The message was signed by J. O. Martin, attorney for Truman H. Newberry, who did not give any reason why he did not desire the transfer to be made. However, inasmuch as an Escanaba representative of Mr. Newberry witnessed the procedure of transferring the ballots, it is not believed any complications will result even though the transfer was made.

WILL BE NO SMALL STATE

Czecho-Slovakia Could at Once Take Rank as Eighth World Power, Asserts Writer.

We are told the Czecho-Slovak state will be a small one, and as a result its existence will be precarious, assuming the world shall remain in anything like its present condition of international disorganization. Charles Pergler writes in Asia Magazine. In the first place, as modern states go, the new state will not be a small one, having a population of about 12,000,000, and the area of the new state will be about 50,000 English square miles. When we recollect that Belgium has 11,373 square miles, it is seen at a glance that the new state can hardly be classed as small. Moreover, the belief in the necessity of large states, rife in certain circles of economic and political theorists, and largely based upon certain teachings of Karl Marx, is one of the superstitions that periodically appear, in order to be abandoned upon a sober second thought.

The theory that small states and nations cannot succeed is not borne out by history. Even prior to the war there were in Europe 27 states, and the great majority of these were small. There were only six of the so-called great powers: Russia, Germany, Austria-Hungary, England, France and Italy. Portugal, Denmark, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Belgium, Norway, Serbia, Greece, Holland, Sweden, Montenegro and Turkey are all, or were, smaller than the state we are attempting to describe. The latter will hold in Europe the eighth place, only England, Poland, France, Italy, Spain and Russia being larger.

FIGHTERS GOT THEIR "EATS"

How American Soldiers at the Front Were Supplied by the Commissary With Food.

The service of supply of the American army receives a lion's share of praise for our victory. Needs of men in the trenches and on the fighting line were well cared for. Hot meals were served to them to an extent unprecedented in any other war. Under barrage fire and gas attacks, however, hot food could not be carried forward. To meet this difficulty sealed containers were provided, each holding sufficient food for 25 men for a day. These containers were absolutely air tight to prevent poisoning of food by gas. They contained a dry, hard corn bread, corned beef, corned beef hash, roast beef, salmon, sardines, salt, sugar and coffee soluble in cold water, together with the necessary can openers. Each container weighed 107 pounds and was cleverly camouflaged for its trip to the firing line. An emergency ration similar to the "iron ration" of the British army was provided for the Americans. This was the ration they carried over the top and used only in dire extremity. It consists of ground meat and wheat pressed into a cake, and a block of sweet chocolate. The cake can be eaten dry or stirred into cold water. One cake boiled four minutes in three pints of water, makes a nourishing soup, in one pint of water an acceptable porridge. The S. O. S. relied upon its mighty accumulation of foods from America for everything except fresh vegetables. It was almost independent in this respect, however, for 10,000,000 pounds of dehydrated vegetables were contracted for in the United States.—Thomas F. Logan in Leslie's.

Praise "Stars and Stripes"

Newspaper men, magazine men, literary and, in fact, everyone in America interested in catching the spirit of the Yank invasion of Europe, should by all means read copies of that great voice of the American expeditionary forces, the Stars and Stripes. Letters from pals and relatives paint little intimate tableaux of the extraordinary life of the Yankees in France, but a few copies of the Stars and Stripes can rear an atmosphere which hundreds of excellent letters could not begin to comprise. The editors, by their work, show that they are regular fellows. They have the viewpoint of the back private, as well as that of the gray-haired executive with the silver stars on the shoulders.—The Quill.

Wiping Out Wild Beasts.

One of the efforts of the state government of Arizona and the federal government in their campaign for the eradication of predatory animals, which cause large losses in range stock, is the employment of skilled hunters. Thirteen are now in the employ of the state and federal governments. Other men are exterminating rodents which destroy ranges. One of the hunters within two months has killed 11 mountain lions. Another killed 55 coyotes within a month.

No "Can't" in Banking.

The vice president of a big San Francisco bank remarked recently that they had run their business without any bank after the fire of 1906, without any money before the issue of clearing-house certificates in 1907 and without any men in the war-time influenza epidemic of 1918, offering further proof, if proof be needed, of the resourcefulness of bankers.—Pacific Banker.

of labor with a view of securing their deportation if the evidence warrants such action.

2. The residue of the 900 dangerous alien enemies contains a large number of convicted criminals. Spies and enemy agents, too, in the view of the attorney general, ought not to be permitted under any circumstances to remain in this country after the declaration of peace.

Must Throttle Sedition.

"Anyone who is counting upon being able to advocate sedition in this country with impunity after the expiration of the espionage act will be sadly mistaken," said Attorney General Palmer. "I am not yet ready to say whether I shall urge the re-enactment of the espionage act or some other form of legislation. But the department of justice will do its utmost to bring about the passage of a law to deal with the situation. The seditious work of the I. W. W. and Bolsheviki will be throttled."

Ask to Be Repatriated.

Of the interned seamen approximately 800 have made application asking that they be repatriated to Germany. Of the dangerous alien enemies approximately 500 have made similar applications.

It was stated at the war department today that the arrangements will be quickly perfected in the near future for the repatriation of these two groups.

SUB-SEA TRAINS, DOVER TO PARIS

British Isles and France to Be Connected Within Three Years.

London, March 28.—One of the world's greatest engineering feats—the building of a $1,000,000,000 tunnel under the sea between England and France—will be an accomplished fact within three years, Sir Arthur Fell, member of parliament, chairman of the house of commerce channel-tunnel committee, said in an interview today.

May Be Four Tunnels.
"It will be a big job, if not bigger than Goethals' marvelous Panama canal undertaking, and," he said, "I hope we'll carry it off with the same success as your great Yankee engineer achieved."

"I think there will be four tunnels under the channel within ten years, and possibly more later on, with one for motor traffic only, so that we will be able to motor to Paris."

Trains Direct to Paris.
"Trains could be run through a tunnel direct from London to Paris in less than six hours," said Sir Arthur. "And these could, if required, travel at intervals of five or ten minutes."

"As soon as they can pass under the channel the express trains will be able to traverse France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Germany, Austria and Turkey as far as Constantinople without any difficulty or change of gauge."

Anonymous Letter Read in "Nun" Case

Traverse City, Mich., March 27.—Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Stanislaw Lypchinski, held on a second warrant charging murder in connection with the disappearance from the Isadore Polish convent eleven years ago of Sister Mary Johns, was opened today at Leland.

The first warrant on which Mrs. Lypchinski was taken was dismissed on a technicality.

Father Bienawski, who employed Mrs. Lypchinski as housekeeper in the Isadore parish at the time the nun disappeared, and Mrs. Jacob Piles, daughter of the defendant, testified briefly this afternoon.

An anonymous letter, dated Chicago, September, 1907, and addressed to the sister superior of the convent, which declared Sister Mary was neither killed nor abducted, but tired of seclusion and fled, was introduced as testimony.

GIRL SHOT BY SOLDIER DIES

Youth Held to Circuit Court Without Bail on Charge of Murder.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 28.—Robert Warner, of Jackson, today was taken before Justice Thomas to answer to a charge of killing Irma Casler, who died last night in the university hospital. A few hours before Warner shot her five times while they were together in a little country schoolhouse near Saline.

Warner waived examination. His case was set for the May term of the circuit court, and he was remanded to jail without bail. He was recently released from the army. He is 19 years old. On the left sleeve of his uniform he wears a silver star, denoting volunteer enlistment. He stood at "attention" as the charge was made against him.

Father Breaks Down.
Hiram Warner came from Jackson today to see his son. The father broke down and cried; the son showed no emotion.

Jealousy caused Warner to kill Miss Casler, who was only 19 years old, an orphan, and who taught the country school where the tragedy was enacted. The shooting for which young Warner is held occurred in the schoolhouse where Miss Casler was teacher at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

Had Sweetheart Overseas.
According to statements of Mrs. Jacob Luckhardt, with whom Miss Casler made her home, the girl had a sweetheart in France. Warner had known her and admired her since childhood and they had been almost inseparable until Warner went to Camp Custer last May.

Since Warner's discharge from the service, Mrs. Luckhardt said, he had been a frequent caller at the home where the girl lived. Miss Casler tried to discourage his attentions and he became quarrelsome.

Annoyed the Teacher.
Learning that he was annoying the girl, the Luckhardts asked the sheriff to arrest him for refusal to pay for a night's lodging, thinking this would keep him from visiting the house again. Before the sheriff left the office, however, he was notified that Miss Casler had been shot.

Hoyler Establishment Is Given New Finish

Redecorating the interior of the Hoyler Baking company was finished yesterday and the grill room has been thoroughly cleaned and placed in order. In the decorating a color scheme of blue and gold was carried out on the walls. The ceiling has been repainted white. Artificial poppies of scarlet and yellow have been used to advantage with the white woodwork and the grill room presents a splendid appearance.

City Juice Will Be Off Awhile Sunday

Supd. L. D. Goddard of the city's utilities announces that the electric current will be off Sunday from 12:15 to 3:15, while a transformer in the substitution is being moved.

STORM SWEEPS EASTERN COAST

New York, March 28.—Today's storm, arising after the calendar winter had passed and reaching far more severity than any storm experienced during the unusually mild winter, extended along practically the entire Atlantic seaboard, from the American boundary line at the north almost to Florida.

Epstate districts and various parts of New England, where more snow fell than here, were in the throes of a blizzard throughout the day and it had shown no signs of abatement tonight. Shipping was delayed, both incoming and outgoing.

SOUTH BRANCH—The Republicans of Rose township have nominated three women, Lydia Rice, Ada Armstrong and Luella D. Aberton, for constables.

FRED STONE FLASHES THROUGH THIS GREAT PICTURE

YES, FLASHES is the word. He takes some of the biggest risks you ever saw like oiling lightning—does a stunt on the roof of a building that makes your heart count one-two-three too fast for comfort, beats up a lot of actors who had dared to don the German uniform; picks up a little girl from under the flying hoofs of a horse—and through it all does not bat an eye-lash. ITALY'S CLAIMS.

Anti-Italy propagandists have been attempting for some time to create a spirit of antagonism for Italy among the other nations and especially among the entente powers.

Americans have been noted for fair play. And this one characteristic and trait is now being appealed to by Jugo-Slavia sets up claims as a kind of counter claim for those made by Italy.

Italy fought well in the war. Except in two short campaigns, during which she was all but exhausted, she utilized her military forces with success.

It seems to be a fault of modern people that they try too much upon similarities. To the casual reader there is no distinction between the Czech-Slovaks and Jugo-Slovaks.

LOOK TO ESCANABA'S GOOD

Never was there a more unusual campaign in the history of Escanaba than that in which the voters of this city will participate on April 7.

It is not to be mere men for which the electors of this city are to vote this spring, it is for a principle they cast their ballots—the principle of a square deal for us and its taxpayers.

You are going to lose an hour's sleep tomorrow night, but you will get it back next fall—merely by an hour's time on which you will collect interest at the rate you make it.

Senator Hitchcock has challenged Senator Jones to a series of debates on the League of Nations.

That airplanes are tuning up for the big fight, and that war will spring, "My Bonnie Flies Over the NOW!

"He checked his brains at Hoboken on the way over," is an A. E. F. commonplace. But right now there are thousands of men in the A. E. F. who are wondering what kind of a load of mental luggage they will be carrying when they get back home ready to step into the old job or find a new and better one.

If the Army school system does nothing more than jolt into the A. E. F.'s imagination the idea that the future will not take care of itself, the Army schools will be worth while.

The point is that every man in the A. E. F. ought to hold a conference with himself and sign his own peace terms—decide what he is going to do when he discards the uniform, then spend the rest of the time in France in preparing to do it well—Stars and Stripes.

Nearly time to sharpen up the rake and shine up the hoe.

President Wilson denies that the league plan is holding up peace. He falls, however, to point out the exact cause of delay.

A man 70 years old living in Detroit applied for a marriage license yesterday. Spring is surely here.

Now the Germans say they are going to try the Kaiser. There's this consolation—the man who started the war can't be treated any better in Berlin than he is in Holland and there's a chance—just a chance—that he'll get something of what he deserves.

The people of Escanaba want to get this fact firmly fixed in their minds—they are not going to vote for mere men at the election of this spring—they are going to vote for a principle. And that principle is vital to the future of Escanaba.

THE PIFFLE HOOK

By SLIM PICKENS.

MIL. BANGS HAS A PLAN.

DEAR SLIM:—I have just thought of a way that I and you can make some money Slim and I am setting bear writing you a letter to tell you about it and when you read it and full fill all the instructions you can write to me and let me know how you come out hey Slim?

You see Slim I am one of the best orators that ever addressed an audience in a politics campaign, and both sides in Esk, is going to need some campaign oratory and I could just as well do it as not if I got paid for it especially and if you make the dates for me and see that I am properly introduced to the crowds then I will give you a commission aint that fair enough Slim?

It would not half to be advertised as a politics speech and you could print my picture in the paper and say that Abner Bangs the Noted Sage of Mysery Bay would deliver a lecture and resite some of his own pomes at a certain place and then when the people come to hear me by the thousands wick they wood, I would lecturer to them for a few min. and then resite some of my pomes and then I could talk politics to them and they wood half to stay because they had already paid in their money to get in the hall in the 1st place, hey Slim?

Mebay Slim you wood not have to advertise it wick side I was on if you did not want to. We could let them come and find out for them selfs.

And mebay I could give a debate. I could talk for 30 min. for one side and then have 30 min. more to answer any arguments and then have a rebuttal of the second arguments and so on until me or the crowd one got tired and that way we could get a drag down from both parties, aint that a good idear.

I half got one lecturer in particulars wick I think is very good Slim and it wood make a hit over there because it has got so much of the philosophy of naturs life in it. It is again racial suicides and the name of it is The Economical Advantages of Being One of a Large Family Slim and it traces the history of big families from the time of the opening of civilization to the year 1966 when Connie Mack will retire as manager of Philidelphy.

In this lecture I show plainly that 2 can live as cheaper as 1 and I tell how. And the basic principal of the whole thing is right in line with the Taxpayers platform as bigger families means the constant increase in size and activities of Esk, hey Slim? In this lecturer I also resite some very butifal vers librwich the school teacher which boards at our house says is as easy to understand as Almy Lowell, but I aint never been able to find out who Almy Lowell is mebay you could tell me.

Some of my other subjects I half got is: Who Won the War, by Abner Bangs. The League of Nations and Me, by Abner Bangs. Road Pounding Issue wick was published in the Piffle Hook by Abner Bangs. What I know about Raising Ducks wick is considerable by Abner Bangs.

An Extra Good Lecture
The lecturer on the League of Nations is specialty fine. It is through in its treatment Slim and it brings out some new idears that even Wilson never thought of I bet you. One fase of it is about self determination for Palestine and it brings out this point—Who is going to run the grocery stores in the republic of Palestine when all the inhabitants is experts in the cloak and suet business.

In the course of preparation I half got one about prohibition which I am bitterly opposed to Slim and in the lecturer wick lasts about 4 hrs. I tell part of the reasons. But I will write you more fully on that later.

And now Slim youf go out and you see Al Pepin and Bill Lang and see if they do not want me to come over and speak for their sides in this election campaign. I will come for $50 and costs and if they both vote to half me come I can be just as good a non-partisan one night as I will be taxpayer the next and anyhow that is how everybody else is—they are all going to vote for you when you hear them talk.

And when you get the contracts closed, see if you can collect the money in advance and you send me all expect a 50 cent commission so that if something happens I can't come I won't be out nothing and be sure and let me know the date.

Sincerely and truly,
ABNER BANGS.

MARQUETTE—Following the bowling games of tonight the participants in the Upper Peninsula bowling tourney will be tendered a banquet in the Elk's dining room.

The banquet will be held immediately after the copper-iron country match which will be held in the evening. At this time cash prizes to the winners of the matches will be awarded.

Man Sick With Sleeping Illness is Improving.

CALUMET—John Resman of Lake Linden, who has been ill at his home for the past three weeks of the so-called sleeping sickness, is improving, all indications to attending physicians, and according to good results. There will be no paralysis, but it will be months before he will recover, it is expected, because of the fact that a very essential function of the brain may be destroyed.

Isbemping Cops Say "Booze" Toted Freely.

ISHPEMING—Booze "toting" is become a favorite outdoor and indoor pastime in the upper peninsula. But, despite the fact that police officials make the claim that whisky is more plentiful than it has been at any time since the state went dry on May 1, of last year, drunkenness is apparently decreasing.

Sawmill is Burned; Dell Shipyards Stock.

KEWANEE—Last Sunday morning at 4 o'clock the Hessel mill in the town of Montpelier was completely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $1,500, the same being covered by insurance. This mill was built by Charles Baldwin some 50 years ago, although of late years it was owned and operated by Martin and Julius Hessel. Expectations are that they may rebuild.

A meeting in regard to the ship yard project will be held in the court house Saturday evening for the further discussion of the shipyards. Promoters are now here and it is understood stock already aggregating $40,000 has been disposed of to Milwaukee parties. Engineer Daly of Milwaukee will be here in the course of a few days; to do some surveying.

Marinette Civil War Veteran is Dead.

MARINETTE—Samuel Wells, aged 74, civil war veteran and a former prominent resident of Marinette, died at the home of his son in Duluth. He served during the Civil war with the Eighth Wisconsin battery, over which "Old Abe," the famous war eagle, flew in battle. Just before his death the late Mr. Wells saluted the stars and stripes, which were pinned to a screen near the foot of his bed.

Oh, Min! Clubs of Ashland Get Boozed!

ASHLAND—A great deal of "bootlegging" has been exposed here through the recent work of two detectives engaged by the city. The recent delivery of ten barrels of beer to prominent club members has caused some excitement.

CLOSEUPS and FADEOUTS

by Imogene

Norma Talmadge's next picture, following the "Probation Wife" will be a Russian story, Pedro de Cordoba Escamillo of "Carmen" with Geraldine Farrar, will play the part of Prince Mikhail who falls in love with Norma. Others in the cast are Marguerite Clayton, Matilda Brundage, Stuart Holmes, Charles Gerard, Marc McDermott and Harry Sothorn.

Charlie Chaplin has definitely decided that his next release under the First National will be "Sunshine." The picture shows the picturesque rural life of the average New England village community. Chaplin's satire on the farm hand is said to be some of his best work.

Second Ray-Fair Picture. Albert Ray and Elinor Fair have started their second picture, "Words and Music," from the scenario by Charles Kenyon.

Irene Bordoni, star of "Sleeping Partners," the stage production, will make her debut in pictures, in the S-L film "Virtuous Men," starring E. K. Lincoln.

Betty Howe, who will be remembered for her work in "To Hell with the Kaiser," and with Elsie Ferguson in "The Lie" has an important part in the supporting cast of Leah Baird in the initial Four Star Picture, "As a Man Thinks." Miss Howe will have the role originally interpreted by Gail Kain in the stage production.

Ben Alexander Has Part. "The White Heather," Maurice Tourneur's first California production is finished. There are no stars in the picture, simply a well balanced selection of players to fit the story. Ben Alexander, the little fellow in "Hearts of the World" has a part.

"Thou Shalt Not" is the next Fox effort starring Evelyn Nesbit. It has the same sort of a sounding title her former pictures have but since there are ten "Thou Shalt Nots" it will probably attract the curious.

Three Briggs Comedies. Three Briggs one reel comedies, made from the Briggs cartoons are ready for distribution. The first is "The Days of Real Sport" with a sub-title, "New Folks in Town." The second is "When a Feller Needs a Friend" and the third is "Skinny is Surprised."

"What Am I Bid" is a title of the new Mae Marsh picture. It is a six-reeler. Ethel Clayton arrived at New York this week from Hollywood, Calif., where she has just finished "Impulses" for Paramount. Miss Clayton will take a three months' rest before resuming her work.

At The Delft. Separated by a mortgage is the plight of a pair of lovers throughout the greater part of Mae Marsh's newest Goldwyn picture, "The Racing Strain," which shows at the Delft theatre today. Southern Pride is a filly owned by Colonel Cameron, father of Lucille (Mae Marsh), but to the sorrow of a belle of the South and her handsome sweetheart the words hold sinister significance. They represent the revulsion of feeling that comes over Lucille when she finds that Gregory Haines, the man of her heart, is the owner of the mortgage.

Haines, an army lieutenant, returns to Kentucky to recuperate from wounds suffered on the battlefield in France.

At The Strand. Ethel Clayton, the talented, beautiful and versatile Paramount star, will be seen in "The Mystery Girl," at the Strand theatre today. Marjion Fairfax adapted the picture from one of George Barr McCutcheon's latest and most popular novels—"Green Fanny." George Barr McCutcheon has the reputation of never writing a dry story. His imagination is vivid and he puts a great deal of originality into his books, coupled with a whimsical and fantastic humor, and a genius for invention that renders them entirely different from the average best seller.

Little Home Helps.

Do not use soap on gilt chin. A few drops of lemon juice make cake frosting very white.

Salt in the oven under baking tin will prevent scorching on the bottom. To prevent cheese from moulding wrap in a cloth wrung out in vinegar then roll in paper.

One teaspoonful of ammonia to a teacup of water, applied with a cloth will clean silver perfectly. Candied peel can be shredded far more quickly with scissors than with a knife.

Cream that is just turning sour will whip well if mixed with a little sugar, and will not taste any different from sweet cream.

Put a lump of camphor in the case with the silverware when packing it away for the summer. It will save it from discoloring.

Mud stains may be removed from tan leather boots and shoes by rubbing them with slices of raw potatoes. When dry, polish with cream or paste in the usual way.

Practical Recipes.

Endive Salad.

This should be nicely blanchered or crisp, and is the most wholesome of all salads. Take two, cut away the root, remove the dark green leaves and pick off all the rest, wash and drain well, add a few chives. Dress with mayonnaise dressing.

Orange Cookies.

Cream 1/2 cup butter, add 1 cup sugar, grated rind of 1 orange, 1 egg 1/4 cup orange juice, 2 cups flour and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Roll out, cut dust with granulated sugar, and bake. These should be eaten at once as they soon dry.

Forgot What He Wanted. From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now, I know! 'What is it you are looking for,' we enquired. 'My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and not let them substitute, customers' loss faith in stores where substitution is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

HERE'S READING OF BOND ISSUE

Few People Understand What Issues Are and Don't Know Ballot.

The proposed state road bonding issue is an amendment to section 10 of article X of the constitution authorizing the state to borrow money to be used for highway purposes and to issue bonds. Few of the persons in attendance at the citizen classes at the city hall and elsewhere in the city were familiar with the road bonding issue when they read it. To many it is not clear. The state bonding issue reads:

"Section 10. The state may contract debts to meet deficits in revenue, but such debts shall not in the aggregate at any time exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars. The state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state or aid the United States in time of war. The money so raised shall be applied to the purposes for which it is raised or to the payment of the debts contracted. The state may borrow not to exceed fifty million dollars for the improvement of highways and pledge its credit, and issue bonds therefor on such terms as shall be provided by law."

If Back Hurts Begin On Salts

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

ARMY PLANE TO BOOST THE U. P.

A regular army aviator in a real battle plane will be one of the unique methods of carrying the tidings that Cloverland is the greatest grazing spot in the world for sheep and cattle men. Lieut. Wallace A. Rowell, publicity man for the Upper Peninsula Development bureau, has just returned from the South, where he was an instructor in an army aviation camp.

The machine was purchased through the interest of a number of Marquette business men in the project. It is a Canadian-Curtis plane, equipped with a Peerless 80-horsepower "DMS" motor, and is expected to arrive in Marquette within a few weeks.

Lieut. Rowell expects to stage exhibition flights at numerous fairs where the publicity will be beneficial to the work of the bureau and is confident that the plan will be the means of landing a heap of worth while booster stuff.

Push Fight on Out Malady in Michigan

East Lansing, Mich., March 28.—The fight against smut of oats, a disease which in seasons past has collected heavy toll of the Michigan farmer, will be pushed this spring on a state-wide scale. It is announced from the department of plant pathology at Michigan Agricultural college. Through county agricultural agents a message will be addressed to farmers this spring recommending the more general treatment of seed oats with formaldehyde.

"In untreated fields of oats 6.52 per cent of the oat crop was destroyed by smut last season," declared Dr. G. H. Coons, of M. A. C. "This represents a loss of something like 2,000,000 bushels."

"On fields where the seed oats had been treated before planting smut was almost entirely absent."

Information on how to treat seed oats effectively and economically is being supplied to farmers on request by county agricultural agents, and by the experiment station of M. A. C. in East Lansing.

Iron Trade Review

Cleveland, Ohio, March 27.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Considerable encouragement is being derived from the initial response of buyers to the reduced prices in iron and steel. While the market scarcely has squared itself to the new basis and secondary price adjustments still are running their course, an enlarged tonnage in finished material is being released to the mills. At the same time it remains to be shown just what part of this business represents the requirements held back in recent weeks by the announcement of the government's stabilizing plan and what part actually is stimulated new enterprise. Structural steel supplies the clearest example of reawakening activity, as various projects which have been dormant and some new undertakings are being brought out for figures.

Stabilizing Plan.

To the very vital questions whether the government itself will accept the new prices for its large needs, especially for those of the railroad administration and the fleet corporation, indications point to a favorable answer. A cooperating committee, representing the different governmental departments, which is working with the industrial board, has recommended the adoption of the new prices by the various purchasing officers of the government. This is seen as a hopeful sign that the stabilizing plan will have the endorsement and support of all branches of the government. However, the financial position of the railroad administration casts some doubt on what the latter can do in the way of early purchases for locomotives, deferred bids on 20,000 tons of steel for battle and fuel ship construction now to be received by the navy April 1 will furnish one of the first opportunities to test out government acceptance of the new prices.

Reduction Severe.

Merchant producers are inclined to feel that the 3 1/2% reduction in pig iron was more severe proportionately than in finished or semi-finished steel in view of the low scrap market. The effect of the lower price on higher cost plants already is being shown. One eastern Pennsylvania merchant maker is considering putting out three stacks. One Alabama furnace is going out. A Cleveland stack has been linked. Merchant pig iron producers met in general meeting at Pittsburgh Wednesday to discuss their problems. Additional price reductions following those announced from Washington include $7 on shafting, $8 on spikes, $12

ART GOODS ARE GREAT DISPLA

Although the Fair store opened drew a big crowd yesterday that surprised by the attractive appearance of the remodelled departments, the source of interest to the average man proved to be the new art department, which takes up the annex to main floor. Manager Thiel of the department and Miss Priestler, who has been engaged throughout the day showing patrons the splendid display of art goods.

Because a special shipment of goods failed to arrive in time for opening of the art department, Thiel was disappointed in not being able to show some additional attractive articles.

So hard had John Roller, win trimmer and decorator for the art department during the period of remodeling that he was given instruction remain away from the store for several days and rest up. It was his work that arranged much of the rating in the store.

Buy New Clothes; Help Save Lives! Consul Tells Why

Old clothes have found their day and spring purchases need not be censured as an extreme extravagance this year, since every cast-off garment and piece of worn wearing apparel will find a welcome from the American Red Cross, which is collecting clothing for the helpless refugees of Allied countries.

Nearly every American has found a sympathetic interest in the peoples of at least one of the war-torn countries. The new campaign inaugurated by the American Red Cross offers an opportunity for help impartially to all allied nationalities, those existing before the war and those newly created.

One of the countries sending an urgent appeal to the United States, and which will be relieved by the Red Cross campaigns, is Roumania, a country in which even the upper classes, always accustomed to luxuries of life, are suffering with the poorer people for lack of the essentials of decent living.

"Women and children of once wealthy families," said T. Tilston Wells, the Roumanian consul in New York, "are in tatters. Some people are proud if they possess one garment only."

"Roumania before the war had a population of 7,000,000. The greater part of this population, of which 700,000 were lost in battle, has been driven into about one-third of their former territory. The people have been nearly isolated for a year, and are now without food, clothing and shelter. Starvation and disease have taken thousands of victims."

A call has come to Dr. Wells direct from Queen Marie of Roumania, telling of the needs of her people. Undertakings especially are wanted and about 3,000,000 chemises for women and children are needed. Other things, too, are wanted. An old dress, warm woolen stockings that you do not want or worn, a winter overcoat of which you have tired, sweaters whose color has faded—all are essential and will be put to good use. Even bed-linen and linens are needed, for many of the families have been routed out of their homes and have watched the Turks and Bulgars raze their homes with the entire household contents.

FARM MECHANICS ARE IN DEMAND

Washington, March 28.—Inquiries continue to pour into the offices of the Federal Board for Vocational Education relative to the "farm mechanics" course evolved as a brand new occupation for disabled men of the army, navy and marine corps who are so badly disabled as to require vocational retraining at the hands of the Board. Farm owners in many different sections have instantly recognized the practicability of the course and voice the need for men trained along the lines indicated.

The labor shortage has caused many a farm owner to realize that he must get out of the rut and substitute machinery for time honored methods, but his own lack of knowledge concerning the upkeep and operation of farm tractors, motor trucks, automobiles, gas engines, electrical machinery, and the like has been the principal barrier. The difficulty of obtaining competent help has been an equal obstacle.

That the Federal Board has started training disabled soldiers in this new trade of "farm mechanics" has been glad news to many farm owners, long time victims of incompetent, untrained labor, who, nevertheless, have been steadily increasing their wage demands while not improving the service rendered.

Want Modern Farms. As a result of trained men, able to operate machinery which will all but eliminate the average farm laborer, farm owners are hopeful and display great interest in putting their places on a modern basis, equipped with modern saving machinery.

Last of Meetings of Week at Bark River. The last of the farmers' meetings planned for this week by B. P. Pattison, county agricultural agent, was held last night at Bark River. Several excellent talks with regard to soil fertility and prospects for dairying in this country were given by Mr. Pattison and associate agricultural workers.

Arizona Publisher Coming to the U. P.

Marquette, Mich., March 28.—Frank M. King, Tucson, Arizona, and M. S. Plummer, Florence, Arizona, will arrive in Cloverland during April with 2000 head of Arizona steers. They have made arrangements to place these cattle on one entire section of cut-over land in Schoolcraft county.

Mr. King is publisher and editor of the Arizona Cattleman and is one of the best known cattlemen of the southwest.

He recently visited Cloverland and pronounced this country to be an ideal grazing section. He became so enthusiastic that he decided to send his partner, Mr. Plummer, with several carloads of steers here for grazing purposes.

Mr. King announced that this was only a vanguard of 150 southwest cattlemen who were going to come to Cloverland during the spring of 1919.

MANY CASES OF PLAGUE FOUND

Washington, March 28.—Out of 7,710 cases of discharged disabled men from army, navy and marine corps whose cases have been passed upon by the War Risk Insurance Bureau, and who therefore are eligible for free vocational retraining by the Federal Board for Vocational Education, 2,791, or 36.2 per cent have tuberculosis, or lung complaints. The Federal Board today stated it is informed that first and last, there will be between 30,000 and 40,000 tuberculosis cases. Not all of them will require vocational retraining, but the number expected is large.

Require Close Watch. These cases will be handled on a separate basis from the rest of the injured and disabled men, and will require arresting of the disease and complete restoration to health. This is the primary consideration, and training will be only such during this period as to furnish enough occupation to keep the patient busy, contented, and hopeful.

Adopt Canadian System. Canada has been very successful in dealing with her tuberculosis army men, and the Canadian system will, in many particulars, be followed by the Federal Board with men of the United States forces. The old idea that a man recovered from tuberculosis should do nothing but rest of doors work is exploded, and, according to the Federal Board, there is a great variety of indoor occupations he can follow with perfect safety, provided his living and working conditions are proper.

Bad Taste in Your Mouth. When you have a bad taste in your mouth you may know that your digestion is faulty. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will usually correct the disorder. "WEB OF GOLD"

By IDA W. GOULD.

"Try this man on the phone, for his full name, will you?"

The young woman took the receiver and informed the man at the other end of the line that the business firm of S— & Co. requested his full name. She explained that the information was necessary, as the firm would soon publish a list of beneficiaries, etc.

"A— B— D—; get it?" "Please spell the middle name."

"B—." "Thanks; please give me the date of your birth."

A ghost of a satirical laugh emanated from the receiver. "Why, I'll have to look it up, madam. It's on the spoon given by a foud Aunt, and I've misplaced them both. Sorry, Goodby."

Rapidly turning the pages of "Who's Who in America," she found "D—, A— B—; b. M—; author of "The Web of Gold."

Annoyances encompassed D— that day. The office boy went to a game. His stenographer went home early. The ice man forgot to fill the ice box. So the author of the best seller closed his office early and sought diversion at a cafe.

Some days later he decided to revisit M—. It was five years since his last visit to the rambling old house embowered in trees. It was under new management, and an impulse seized D— to assume the name of Adam B. L—.

His name was quite fresh in the minds of novel readers, so, as he had gone there to recuperate, he felt quite justified in practicing the small deception. The village was so far inland that the chances of detection were slight.

He abandoned himself the next week to outdoor life, fishing, tramping through woods filled with pines where he laid himself on the fragrant earth and dreamt of plots and schemes for his next good seller.

At table he met an elderly lady, engaged to chaperon a group of young ladies. She had come in advance to arrange for their stay. On the day of their expected arrival Mr. A. B. L— purposely absented himself, tramping six miles to a nearby mountain, where, at the only house, he ate gladly the food offered him. Pushing on to the mountain's top, he found himself in the direct path of a terrible storm.

He resumed the descent, slipping and stumbling. By the time he had covered the six miles to the village he was aware that it was long past mid-day. L— saw to his dismay that a group of girls blocked his entrance at the front porch. Before he could decide whether to march boldly past them, a vibrant voice called: "Go round the back way, man; the landlord will give you something to eat."

He knew he must look bedraggled, but he did not like to think he resembled the genus tramp. He heard their laughter as he hurried to the side door and escaped up the back stairs.

The elderly chaperon was on hand to introduce him. After several days' association the little party dropped easily into the habit of after-dinner discussions. One evening the talk was of books.

Miss B—, the same young lady who weeks before had interrogated D—, seemed to be the most active in discussing books.

In vain the author racked his memory for a suggestion as to why her voice reminded him of another voice. "Mr. L—, tell us what you think of 'The Web of Gold.'"

"I have reason to think highly of the book, and I know it has proved a small gold mine to the writer."

"Really? Then you know him?" chorused the others.

"He is my best friend. I spend more time with him than with any other man."

"Has he red hair and does he wear red ties?" "No; nor rings on his toes," said D—, dryly. "Why?"

"Because I asked him (for the insurance people) to tell us when he was born. He evaded me with the silliest answer. 'I'm on a spoon,' said he, 'but I can't find it just now.'"

"I think he affects oddity," said the elderly lady. "Drop 'The Web of Gold' and come in for a game of bridge, everybody."

Our author returned from a tramp one afternoon and discovered Miss B— alone, reading "The Web of Gold."

"The same book, Miss B—? You must discover a fresh charm. May I ask what it is?" "This is one. Shall I read it?" "Please."

"A truly lovely sentiment," said the girl, coloring under the man's steady gaze. "But I'll wager the author never fell in love with a pink-and-white beauty."

"Contrariwise, he has," replied D—. "But he has never felt sure until now that he might tell her so."

"You mean—" stammered Miss B—, dropping the book and half rising. "That you are the girl I love, and I am the man (without red hair) who wrote that book."

A little later, as they strolled in to join the others, D— said: "Tell me, I'm going to make a speech for that spoon; and as for the book, it has brought me you, a treasure greater than the net profits of 'The Web of Gold.'"

SHELLS GO OFF AND INJURE 15

Six Loading Sheds Wrecked at Proving Grounds; Loss $50,000.

Washington, March 28.—Fifteen workmen were injured today in an explosion which wrecked six loading sheds at the Aberdeen proving grounds.

The explosion took place about 12:15 o'clock in a shed where the 240 M.M. shells were loaded. At the time of the explosion most of the workmen were at dinner. There were only three or four men in the shed, a temporary structure.

It is believed that 125 of the shells exploded. They were for use in trench mortars and were loaded with TNT.

About ten minutes later a second explosion occurred in a nearby shed, being caused, it is believed, by a fire starting from sparks from the first explosion. In the second explosion five sheds were blown to bits. The total damage will amount to at least $50,000.

Four British Peers Lose Their Titles

London, March 28.—Announcement was made today of the removal from the British peerage of the names of Leopold, Duke of Albany; Frederick Augustus, Duke of Cumberland; Ernest Augustus, Duke of Brunswick; and Henry, Viscount of Teaffe.

The four peers were accused of having borne arms against Great Britain and her allies during the war. The charges were investigated by a special committee of the privy council appointed by the king last November.

Old Rivers and New.

Henry praised to me lately the manners of an old-established, calm, well-behaved river, as perfectly distinguished from those of a new river. A new river is a torrent; an old one slow and steadily supplied. What happens in any part of the old river relates to what befalls in every other part of it. "The fall of compensations, resources and reserve funds," Emerson's Journal.

Public Virtue.

That patriotism which, catching its inspiration from on high, and leaving all lesser, groveling, personal interests and feelings, animates and prompts to deeds of self-sacrifice, of valor, of devotion, of that public virtue; that is the noblest, the sublimest of all public virtues—Clay.

RETAIL CLERKS ELECT LEADERS

In a well attended, enthusiastic meeting at the city hall last night the retail clerks of the city reorganized their union and elected officers for the ensuing year.

The clerks' "local" has been inactive for several months, largely because of the enlistment of officers and leaders in the army and navy. Conditions at the present time, however, indicate that there will be considerable activity in the organization.

The following officers were named: President, Charles Carlson; corresponding financial secretary-treasurer, Mabel Bowers; recording secretary, Flor Beauchamp; first vice-president, Robert Norship; second vice-president, Carl Norval; guide, Melvin Druding; guardian, Evelyn Gaynor.

Delegates to the Trade and Labor council, George Kjalber, Carl Norval, Harry Pearson.

Petrarch and Laura. Petrarch's romance with Laura is one of the curiosities of literature. He first saw her on Good Friday, April 3, 1274. Whether or not his devotion to her, which inspired all his love poetry and set a standard for ages to come, was inspired by any passion of the heart is firmly disputed. In fact many believe that Petrarch and Laura never met. That she appeared to him, however, as the perfect woman no one can deny after reading his impassioned lines.—Christian Science Monitor.
