JUDSON BACKS MAJORITY ON STREET POLICY

Utilities Fund Policy Is Storm Center of City Council Meeting.

Mayor T. M. Judson went considerably out of his way last night to prove that he was prepared to "ride" with a majority of the council members, when he had it in his power to rescind action taken at a former meeting...

Question of Policy.

Councilman Hanrahan argued strongly that the previous action was proper and the matter of taking a certain percentage of the earnings of the utilities annually to pay general city expenses, to the end that city taxes might be reduced, should be adopted as a definite and permanent policy.

After a prolonged discussion Councilman Cotton announced that if Mayor Judson would assure him that sufficient additional property could be placed on the tax roll to produce the amount of money needed for street repair work, he would vote to rescind his former action...

When a vote was called Cotton and Rose voted their approval and while Councilman Hanrahan and Burns voted in opposition Mayor Judson had it in his power to vote in the affirmative and carry his point.

Budget Ordered Printed. The budget presented by Manager Harris, calling for a levy of $123,174, or $542.18 less than a year ago, was received by the council, ordered printed as provided in the charter and the date for the public hearing was fixed for Wednesday evening, May 2.

Members of the council last night adopted a resolution proposed by the Trades & Labor Council and the Progressive Voters' League, expressing the opinion of the council that when future supervisors are named by that body, they should be selected from sections of the city not now represented in the council.

Because of the fact that the council must fix all utility rates on June 1, for the entire ensuing year, a proposal that had been prepared by Manager Harris for submission last night, calling for a reduction in the net lighting rate to 6 cents a kilowatt hour for the first 500 kilowatts and 4 cents net for all current consumed over 500 kilowatt hours, was held in abeyance and will be included in the June 1 schedule of rates.

Want Tenth Street Paved. Petitions signed by over 75 per cent of the property owners on Tenth street south were filed with the council last night asking for the construction of a bituminous macadam pavement on that street from Ludington street to Lake Shore Drive.

Members of the city council were commended in a communication received last night from the Escanaba Woman's Club for action taken in including in the budget provision for the employment of a full time city nurse and a communication from the Rotary club requesting that steps be taken to insure the cleaning of the sidewalks of the city during next winter was referred to the manager with authority to assure that club that the matter will be given attention.

Riley Investigating. Until the legality of such a special assessment is established it will remain doubtful whether provision can be made in the budget for spreading an assessment to cover the cost of removing snow from Ludington street next winter.

IMMIGRATION MAY BE LIVE ISSUE IN 1924

Immigration contains the ingredients of a great political struggle and Judge Gary's speech is the forerunner of what will be heard when United States chamber of commerce discusses the immigration problem at its annual meeting in New York three weeks from today.

Newton Moore, Old Railway Man, Dies. Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Newton Moore, a veteran Chicago & Northwestern engineer, at Stephenson. Mr. Moore, before his retirement, was traveling engineer on the Peninsula division. He had been on the retired list for a number of years.

Gladstone Pythians Are Visitors Here. Twelve Gladstone men were initiated into the rank of page by the Escanaba Knights of Pythias degree team here last night. About 50 Gladstone Pythians were present at the meeting. The meeting was followed by a lunch and smoker.

Slump in Market Excites Germany. Berlin, April 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Today's spectacular slump in the mark temporarily overshadowed interest in the Reichstag debate on Baron Von Rosenberg's speech, and while financial experts assert that the mark for a long time had been due for another drop, "on general principles" political circles professed to see in the sudden rise of the dollar the first harbinger of an early resumption of reparations conversations.

Bargains in the Classified ads. Riley is investigating the matter and will submit his report before the budget is up for final adoption.

In answer to a question from Councilman Rose, Manager Harris announced last night that provision is made in the budget for building crossings at the street intersections on North Stephen-avenue, completing that improvement.

At the suggestion of Councilman Rose, the city manager will determine the cost of constructing an outlet for the Hartstark avenue storm water sewer to the bay shore and reconstructing a nearby street.

WILL SPEED UP PAPER MACHINES AT GROOS PLANT

New Apparatus Increases Daily output at Least 15 Percent

By the installation of suction touche rolls and the addition of a belt system between the steam rolls in the paper machines at the plant of the Escanaba Paper Company at Groos, the daily output of the mill is to be increased by at least 15 per cent.

The suction touche roll replaces a jacketed roll at a point in the machine where the paper, in process of formation, passes from the screens to the first cylinder. The new apparatus draws the water from the sheet as it passes, making possible a considerable speeding up of the machine.

The order also made plans to take care of a member who is ill at St. Francis hospital. This is the only order for women which pays a hospital benefit to its members.

Prizes for ladies and gentlemen will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

Every one is cordially invited.

Members of the council last night fixed the week of May 7 to May 12 as "Clean Up Week" in Escanaba.

New trans-Europe airplane service will link Belgrade with Paris, Budapest, Vienna, Bucharest and Constantinople.

GREEN BAY MAN MEETS DEATH IN ACCIDENT HERE

Frank E. Ruel, St. Paul Conductor, Killed at Danforth Ore Yards

Falling from a moving train of ore cars in the yards of the St. Paul road, near the Danforth crossing, shortly before noon yesterday, Frank E. Ruel, of Green Bay, a conductor, fell under the wheels of the train and received injuries that resulted in his death within a few minutes.

The body of the unfortunate young man, who was a brother of Mrs. Thomas Carney of this city, was taken to the Allo Funeral Home, where it was prepared for burial and will probably be taken to Chicago today.

Details Are Unknown. Exactly how the accident occurred will probably never be known. A string of ore cars was being switched in the company's ore yards and a few minutes before the accident occurred, fellow members of the crew saw him riding the train, sitting on the end of a car, as the train moved forward. No one saw Ruel fall from the train, but when members of the crew looked again, he was not in sight. The train was stopped and when members of the crew reached a point near the crossing they found the mutilated body of the unfortunate man under the train. One leg had been mangled at the ankle and his head was badly crushed. He was still breathing and a hurried call was sent for a physician and an ambulance. Before the physician or the ambulance could reach the place, he had passed away.

On First Trip Here. Each winter for a number of years Mr. Ruel was employed at the general offices of the St. Paul railway company in Chicago, coming north each summer and serving as a brakeman in the service of the company. But a week ago he left his post in Chicago to take up his summer work and it was on his first trip of the season into Escanaba yesterday that the tragic accident occurred.

The unfortunate young man was reared in Green Bay where he is widely known and where he has a host of friends. His parents now reside in Chicago, his only relatives in this district being his sisters, Mrs. Carney of this city and Mrs. R. Parmeter of Green Bay.

He was a member of the Elks, Knights of Columbus and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

HARMON THINKS WATERWAY PLAN TO BE REALIZED
New York Chamber of Commerce Will Endorse Project.

Leo C. Harmon, of Manistique, one of the directors of the Lakes to the Ocean Waterway Commission, is confident that the success of the big movement is now assured. In speaking of this great project he expressed the opinion that its inception was near realization. He stated that within a short time the New York Chamber of Commerce was expected to endorse the project and this would remove the last obstacle to the big undertaking so fraught with benefits to every lake port.

He thought that work on it might begin before the year was over. Cities on the lakes are already planning ahead to reap the benefits of the waterway which will make ports on Lake Michigan practical ports of entry for ocean traffic. It will mean a great deal to Escanaba and no doubt as soon as public announcement of the success of the project is made, local Chambers of Commerce will start work on making ready for the increased traffic that the ocean waterway will bring.

A PROCLAMATION.

For more than half a century our people have been accustomed to observe in appropriate ways a day proclaimed as Arbor Day. This year we are asked also to name the week which begins on April 29th Tree Planting Week. The purpose of these observances is, of course, to call attention not only to the economic value of our forests, once the pride of the commonwealth though now sadly depleted, and to the need of reforestation, but to encourage the individual planting of trees, shade trees, fruit trees, nut trees.

We need a comprehensive, workable forestry program, and our State Department of Conservation is intelligently and steadily working toward that goal.

It is fitting too, since birds and trees are intimately associated in our minds, that Bird Day should be combined with Arbor Day.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Michigan, I do hereby designate Friday, May 4th, 1923, to be set apart as Arbor and Bird Day, and I urge it upon the people of Michigan in general and the teachers of our schools in particular that suitable Arbor and Bird Day programs be arranged for that day.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.

ALEX J. GROESBECK, Governor.
CHARLES J. DELAND, Secretary of State.

MAGNESITE CO. BREAKS GROUND FOR NEW BLDG.

Big Structure to Be Erected at 518-20 Stephenson Avenue.

Ground was broken yesterday for the construction of the new plant of the Universal Magnesite Products Company, at 518-20 Stephenson avenue. The new building will be located immediately south of the offices and will be 40 by 140 feet in dimensions. It will be of frame and stucco construction and every effort will be made to complete the frame portion of the building within the next 30 days.

Plans Are Complete. The building will be constructed according to plans especially designed for the use of the company in the manufacture and distribution of magnesite products.

The front of the building will be occupied by the offices of the company, back of which will be constructed bins for the storage of raw materials and space for the mixing machinery, while the finished products will be stored in bags in the rear of the building. A spur track will be constructed by the Escanaba & Lake Superior Railway Company along the north side of the building, allowing the unloading of raw materials directly from the cars to the bins and the loading of finished products into cars for shipment.

Old Quarters Too Small. When the company was organized a few weeks ago a portion of the warehouse of the Upper Peninsula Produce Company was leased, but quarters secured there were found to be insufficient for the needs of the company, making a new building necessary. The company will set up its machinery temporarily in the original quarters and will fill orders from that location until the new building is finished.

JOHN GARRITY GETS VACATION

Mr. Garrity will be accompanied by Mrs. Garrity and they will visit with relatives and friends at Fond du Lac and Milwaukee. Mr. Garrity's health in recent weeks has shown the effect of the rigorous winter he has experienced and yesterday he was ordered into the office of City Manager Harris, where he was commanded to take a two weeks' vacation, with pay.

Council and Commissioners to tender Dinner to Guest

All plans have been completed for the complimentary dinner to be tendered by Prof. Charles T. Crane, of the University of Michigan, by members of the Escanaba city council and the city charter commission, at the Delta hotel on Friday evening. Dinner Planned. At a recent joint meeting of the council and the charter commission it was suggested that the members of the two bodies should take some action to show Prof. Crane their appreciation of the service he rendered this city. The city's visitor will arrive in Escanaba on Friday morning and will spend a considerable part of the day in going over affairs of the city with City Manager Fred R. Harris and City Comptroller C. W. Ham. It is possible that he may also go to Gladstone for a portion of the day and spend some time in going over Gladstone's new charter.

Golfers Over 50 Form New Society

Chicago, April 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Tentative plans were made today for the formation of a national golf association for players more than 50 years old, and recommendations were made for a meeting to be held in Chicago within a couple of weeks to formulate plans for the organization. It was suggested that the body be known as "The Senior Golf Association," and that state bodies be created so that there eventually would be 48 regional organizations, which would hold annual tournaments, the champions of these tournaments would then meet in a national championship.

Double-A Circuit Begins Play Today

Chicago, Ill., April 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Facing the brightest prospects in its 21 years of unbroken campaigning the American Association will open its season tomorrow with Columbus playing Toledo, Louisville at Indianapolis, Minneapolis at Milwaukee and St. Paul at Kansas City.

"We are looking forward to the greatest season in the history of the organization," President Hickey said tonight. "Last season there was not a club in the circuit that failed to make money. Six clubs finished with a comfortable margin of profits."

Potatoes have been fetching so low a price in Lancashire, England, recently that growers have been giving them away.

CAPPON ENDING GREAT CAREER

Michigan Star Has Closed College Athletic Career.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 18.—Franklin Cappon, University of Michigan star, has closed his college athletic career. Thus passes from out the calcium glare one of the most illustrious as well as popular athletes who ever attended the Wolverine school.

"Cappon" as he is known around the campus, was a two-sport man, confining his activities to football and basketball. In the former, he was an exceptionally versatile player, having been used at end, tackle and in the backfield. In fact it seemed that whenever Yost was in need of a good grinder for a certain position, Cappon was generally the chap selected to fill the post.

Gate Record Is Broken by Yankee Crowd

New York, April 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Babe Ruth came back into his own today. When the mighty home run slugger cracked his first home run of the season far into the bleachers of the massive new Yankee stadium, 74,200 fans—the largest throng that ever attended a baseball game—rose to accord him a thunderous ovation.

Ruth's circuit clout, clinching victory for the American League champions in their opening game with the Boston Red Sox added the one touch needed to complete the most picturesque drama in diamond annals.

Cardinals Even Up Cincinnati Series

FIVE GRINDERS IN OPERATION

Water began running in the Escanaba river in a decided increased volume yesterday morning, allowing the placing in commission of five pulp grinders at the pulp mill of the Escanaba Paper Company, and opening hope that additional grinders may be placed in commission today.

The amount of water drawn through all of the dams on the Escanaba river was considerably increased yesterday morning and at intervals through the day reports were received at the company's offices that the water was continuing to rise in spite of the increased amount passing through the dams.

NOTED SPEAKER COMES FRIDAY

The last number of the Escanaba Community Educational Bureau will be held in the high school auditorium Friday night. The speaker will be President James A. Burns of Oneida Institute, Kentucky. The name given to this man in all parts of the United States is "Burns of the Mountains." Burns is rugged, homesly, virile, sincere. He reminds one instinctively of Lincoln in his personality. Simple, unaffected, a master of chaste English, his words intensify the comparison with the beloved rail-splitter. Beyond a doubt Burns of the Mountains is the most unique character on the lyceum platform today. He has a great story to tell.

"The aftermath of a deadly Kentucky feud—an awkward young mountaineer sitting on a stump on dad's 'clearing'. The family had just returned from the burial of one of their 'kin,'—the victim of a sniper on the other side of the ravine. It was the same old story of blood, and the young man's heart cried out for he knew it was only a question of time until the folks across the ravine would be putting away one of their 'kin-folk' to even up the never-even score. Suddenly there came to the young man the realization that in this thing called education, of which he and his folk knew so little—lay the secret of peace among God's people of the Hills. And so without friends or funds he set about to build Oneida Institute. And with that indomitable will he accomplished what he set out to do. Today Oneida is a monument to the dream and vision of President Jas. A. Burns, known far and wide as 'Burns of the Mountains.'"

So it was that President James A. Burns received his inspiration to build Oneida Institute, famous school of the Kentucky mountain country. And in so doing he stamped out once and for all the bitter feuds that had waged back and forth for half a century.

His simple story of events which led to his turning from feudism to constructive thinking about the future, and of the results attending his experiment in fighting feudism with education, is one of the most thrilling recitals of achievement in the annals of the platform.

All people holding Lyceum tickets will be admitted to the lecture. Burns of the Mountains fills many dates for conventions and institutions for all types of people throughout the United States. He always makes good. You are missing a treat if you miss Burns of the Mountains.

Child-wives in Calcutta are estimated at 18,256. Of these, 14,000 are between ten and fifteen years of age.

Cubs Beat Pirates in Second, 7 to 2

Chicago, April 18.—Doehler weakened in the eighth inning and Chicago pounded out six hits, including two doubles and a triple, breaking a tie score and defeating Pittsburgh, 7 to 2, in the second game of the series. Johnny Kelleher of Chicago knocked the ball into the newly erected left bleachers for a home run, the first to be made in the new park.

Score: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh 000 000 200—2 5 2
Chicago — 001 010 055—7 11 1
Batteries: Doehler and Gooch; Alexander and Hartnett.

INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS WILL AID COMMUNITY

Merchants, Employes and Their Customers Profit Alike, Says Banded.

The confident belief that Ben R. Vardaman and Pryor Irwin, business counselors, who will come to Escanaba Monday to open a five-day Merchant's Institute, will "awaken a keener interest in business and raise the standards of efficiency and service," is expressed in a letter from O. I. Banded, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, to members of that organization.

"The specific objects of the congress," Mr. Banded's letter explains, "are to help the business interests of the city to (1) meet outside competition more effectively and get more of the trade that rightfully belongs to this territory; (2) help employes render better service to customers; (3) help the city in general to appreciate the value of cooperative effort."

Noon and Night. Mr. Banded's letter continues: "The business congress will continue for a period of five days. A personal analysis is made of the local conditions to find what is being done well in the field of merchandising and what things of importance are being omitted. The program consists of four day-long lectures for department heads and managers, and five evening lectures for store help, together with personal conferences with merchants and proprietors in their places of business during a portion of the day."

"The congress is specific in its character and application. There are no set programs or formal discussions. The two men who will conduct this congress are business experts of the highest possible character, men who have been in the game for twenty-five years. They do not come to tell business people how to run their affairs. Their conferences and discussions are suggestive. They have investigated towns and cities of every size and kind. They bring to us and our co-workers the ideas that are usable under our conditions."

Day of Cooperation. "The unanimous action taken at the general meeting of retailers held some months ago was taken following an explanation of the nature of such a congress by J. W. Griest, of Chicago. The men who have been selected to conduct the one which we want to have are Pryor Irwin and Ben R. Vardaman, counselors and retail investigators. Space does not permit of giving you scores of testimonials from cities the size of Escanaba, in which such affairs have been conducted by these men. Some of them have had such congresses for three and four consecutive years. Some have had two during the same year.

"In this day of cooperative effort, competition is coming more and more to be between community and community rather than man and man. In as much as individual prosperity is wrapped up in community prosperity, the Chamber of Commerce feels that the promotion of such a congress is entirely within its province."

RUEL'S DEATH ACCIDENTAL, JURORS FIND

A jury impaneled by Coroner G. C. Bartley to investigate the cause of the death of Francis E. Ruel, railway conductor, killed yesterday at the "pole yard" crossing of the Northwestern and E. & L. S., returned a verdict of "accidental death" last night. No blame for the accident was fixed, it was announced.

A number of witnesses, most of them railway employes, were examined by Prosecuting Attorney George Carr and Sheriff Joseph Carney's report of his investigation of the tragedy also was received.

Jurors were Stephen Brault, Henry Brault, Cornelius Gallagher, Earl Bourdelais, Morris Call and Edward McCauley.

Use Ashes For Street Foundation

Escanaba's winter collection of ashes, now piled high in alleys throughout the city, will be utilized by Manager Harris in preparing a foundation for a proposed driveway along the north shore, through property owned by Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, connecting Ludington street and Lake Shore Drive. Ashes left in alleys in all sections of the city will be collected in city trucks and hauled to the site of the proposed drive way, where extensive filling work must be carried out before the proposed street can be opened.

FLANNIGAN IS MADE TRUSTEE

O. W. Flannigan, principal of the Webster school, was last night named as a member of the board of trustees of the Carnegie public library, by the city council to succeed Guy H. Ramsey. The resignation of Mr. Ramsey received at a former meeting, was accepted by the council last night and the city manager was instructed to write a letter to Mr. Ramsey expressing the council's appreciation of the service he rendered the library during his term as a trustee.

Wedding ring was adopted by the Anglo-Saxons about the year 860.

MARKET REPORTS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, April 18.—Prices of stocks continued their rise to higher ground in today's more active market with the railroad shares giving the best exhibition of strength. International buying also has been an important factor in the recent advance. Sales 964,000 shares.

The Piffle Hook

SLIVER suggests that The Hook offer prizes for the best contributions received during the remainder of the current fiscal period. The suggestion is a good one and after a series of conferences with the purchasing department, the following premium list, subject to change without notice, has been drafted:

For the Best Whooee—One slightly used smoked wener, suitable for framing.

For the Best Quairtain—One nickel-plated hair ribbon.

For the Best Verse. (any length)—One 1919 street car transfer.

For the Best Pun—Execution at sunrise.

For the Best Miscellaneous Outburst—One hand made pomogranite seed.

Sir—If you were asking me, I'll confess, my most cherished ambition has been to try to catch a toy balloon dropped from the top of the Washington monument.

Sir—Answering your question, I've always wanted to try to climb the face of the cliff opposite the village of Fayette.

Sir—My nuttiest ambition? To attend the wedding of the Alfre-dale Pup and Merry Ann.

—L. J. B.

This Thing Promises to Go Deep, as the Well Driller Naively Remarkd

"Jazz" according to Irving Berlin, "is a musical pandemonium accompanied by the musical construction of harmonic discords used in ascending progression." The word "musical," we believe, could have been omitted at least once.

"What are the requisites of a dramatic critic?" asks a chapter title in a pigmy tome we started to read last night. We haven't perused the chapter in question but off hand, as 'twere, we can name two—vocabulary and dispepsia.

Sir—Is there room in the Hook for what I considered a first grade and reasonably snappy whooee? "Do you want a high ball?" I asked a friend the other night. "Sure," quoth he, "but don't put very much in it." "Much what?" I wanted to know. "Set-zer, of course," sezze.

—SAHARA

Otherwise the Whooee and the Highball Would Have Been "Extra Dry."

A HUMANITARIAN BILL.

It will be difficult for laymen to conceive why the railroads of Michigan should oppose a bill now before the legislature requiring railroad companies of the state to equip their locomotives during the winter months, with rear cab curtains, for the protection of engineers and firemen. Many railroads of the state have voluntarily provided such protection for their enginemen and that part of the general public, at least, which appreciates the hardships and the actual suffering months in an open cab, are subjected, will view the bill as a purely humanitarian measure that should be promptly passed and enforced.

The action of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce in endorsing the bill will meet with the general approval of the people of Escanaba.

A PROUD RECORD.

President Harding administration has been so constructive in its plans and so successful in its execution that the Republican party has no greater asset than its record of accomplishment. While there should never have been any doubt about Mr. Harding's renomination, if he retains his health, yet the recent announcement that he will be a candidate, apparently with his approval, should serve a beneficial purpose in removing that subject from discussion. The Republican party, on the one hand, could not fall to offer him the nomination, and he, recognizing his duty as a citizen and as a Republican once highly honored by his party, could not refuse it.

Under the leadership of Mr. Harding the Republicans can go into the campaign of 1924 with no excuses, explanations or apologies but with pride in the achievements of a Republican Congress and a Republican President. During the first two years of the Harding Administration the public debt has been reduced; Federal taxes have been cut; prosperity has been restored to American industry; unemployment has been eliminated; agriculture has been rescued from the depths of depression; our international standing has been regained; the British debt has been funded; a beginning has been made in the limitation of armaments; menacing disputes in the Orient have been settled; the tendency towards paternalism has been checked; the "America First" protective tariff system has been restored; the Federal Reserve Board has been strengthened in public confidence; a hundred thousand needless government employees have been taken off the payrolls; the railroad system of the country has been restored to efficiency under private management; provision has been made for adequate care for disabled veterans; the affairs of the government have been placed on a business basis under the Budget Bureau; harmonious cooperation has been established between Congress and the Executive departments, and the Socialistic element has been disconnected from its close association with high offices of government. The record is one of which not only Republicans in particular but Americans in general may well be proud.

Republicans will record their endorsement in the next National Convention and the voters of the country will register their approval in the next national election.

THE TARIFF AS A CAMPAIGN ISSUE.

In the Washington Post, dated February 26, 1923, there appeared a very clear and convincing editorial headed "The Tariff as an Issue," which is reproduced here-with:

"Strategists of the Democratic party say that the tariff will be an issue in the next presidential election. If so, it will be an issue against that party. For nearly two years the nation has been under protective tariff—temporary and permanent—and for nearly two years its progress toward prosperity has been markedly accelerated. That its recovery from the economic depression of the preceding Democratic administration is largely attributable to the stimulative and nourishing benefits of the tariff is proved by the facts of the case. That the protective tariff has failed to produce any of the bad effects prophesied by its partisan opponents is clearly apparent.

"The American people can see the helpful working of the tariff schedules for themselves, and to put them in issue would be to propose a choice between a method of promoting prosperity that has proved successful and its rejection for the benefit of a party that was so largely responsible for the late depression. With such a choice before the American voters the overwhelming majority can be counted on to support the protective tariff."

By all means make the tariff five years ago today the first important American engagement in the World War occurred at Selchopy.

"A PURITAN WIFE"

BY JANE PHELPS

DICK BREAKS HIS LEG.
 Chapter 23.

As Ann kept no house-servant she was naturally more or less confined because of little Jack. Grace frequently took advantage of this, and would walk over, then insist upon Dick taking her home in the flyover. Ann hated these moonlight rides, taken while she sat at home with the sleeping baby, but made no remonstrance. It was only polite for Dick to take a guest home, and had that guest been anyone but Grace Edmunds, or had Grace been different, she would have thought it quite the proper thing to do.

She worried a little too for fear of an accident. Grace often insisted upon driving and she was a reckless, fast driver. She boasted she never had had an accident, although she laughingly told of being arrested in San Francisco, not once but several times. To Ann it seemed a kind of disgrace, but Grace made a joke of it, describing her visits to court, her fines, and soon, saying her father had no sense of humor because he found fault at having to pay her fines.

There were no speed laws in the open country where travel after dark was almost nil, and she often spoke of how she made the old flyover go. Ann had spoken of her fear of an accident to Dick, and he had laughed, telling her there was no danger.

Then one night they started off in a hilarious mood. It was a glorious white night and Ann said:

"You won't be gone long, Dick. I'll sit on the porch and wait for you." The two miles each way was quickly covered as a rule. Fin-Grace remained so late Dick usually came directly back, not stopping to chat with Ned.

It was nearly time for his return, and Ann kept her eyes on the road the flyover had to travel on. But the time dragged along and he did not come. She walked to the edge of the road, just as it came into view, slowly, not as Dick usually came.

As it drew near she saw Grace at the wheel. A premonition made her call out:

"What is it, Grace? Anything the matter?"

"Matter enough," Grace answered as she turned into the driveway, "we had a spill!"

"Dick! Is Dick hurt?" Ann rushed to the car. Dick was half lying, half sitting, his face white as death, although he tried to smile reassuringly at Ann, as he said:

"Leg's broke I guess, Ann. Do you think you two girls can get me into the house?"

"We will!" Ann answered, and although he groaned with the pain, they finally succeeded in getting him on to the couch.

"Telephone the doctor!" Ann ordered Grace, asking no questions, but making Dick as comfortable as possible.

"The whiskey, Ann—" his white lips muttered, and she ran to the closet and poured him a drink, not even wondering if she were doing right, frightened by his paleness, his suffering.

The doctor was at home, would soon be there. He lived five miles away but told them what to do until he came.

Ann busied herself following his instructions while Grace looked on, saying how much worse it might have been and so on. Finally impatiently told her to keep

The Forgotten Law
Opens at Delft Today;
Isben Play at Strand.

"The Forgotten Law," described as a screen drama of unusual power, will open a three-day stay at the Delft theatre today. It follows a highly successful engagement of "Hearts Affaire," the Michigan lumber story, which closed last night.

The title, "The Forgotten Law," refers to an ancient law, carried by the statutes of many states in this country, which enabled a father to will away his child from his own mother, to provide for upbringing in whatever manner he himself desired. The cruel separation between mother and child brought about through the operation of this thirteenth law is shown in all its possibilities in this motion picture. A bitter quarrel, caused by the father himself, has a sudden culmination in the man's untimely death. Unknown to his wife, the erring man has provided that his child be educated at the home of his brother, to whom he owes nothing but evil in his innocent wife. Presentation concludes evidence successively unites the separated family, and the surviving brother learns that he has been wrong in his execution of his brother's will.

A fine cast of film favorites is in this Max Graf production, including Milton Sills, Jack Mulvihill and Cleo Ridgely.

Nastimova Pleases.
From the days when Nastimova thrilled the New York public with her portrayal of Henrik Isben's characters, the picture world awaited the day when the distinguished Russian star would present an Isben play on the screen. That play, "A Doll's House," is to be seen at the Strand again today.

"A Doll's House" is a picture with a human appeal, inasmuch as it deals with the topic of universal discussion, that of Feminism, and when first staged on the stage aroused a wide controversy. The play defends a married woman's right to preserve her own individuality. The old conservative world raised their hands in horror at this idea, for it represented or rather conveyed but one thought to them, namely, the crumbling of marriage as an institution. Nastimova's excellent interpretation of Nora, the disillusioned little wife, in her screen version of this classic, continues her triumphant march in the hearts of the lovers of Isben, in the role she made famous on the speaking stage.

CLEAN KIDNEYS
BY DRINKING
LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts.

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. Adv.

Mr. Bureau, Sr., has left here in Garden and will make permanent home with her Jas. Clement and family. Mr. Bureau will move right the old Bureau residence vacated by her.

Garden Motor Company place here was designated as the official tourist information bureau. Their property is on the right hand side of the road coming into town at the foot of the Church Hill, and just on the other side of the village creek and will be readily located by information seekers. They will be assured always of courteous treatment and will be able to rely on the information they receive. The residents of Garden generally, will cooperate in every way possible in extending this welcome and to our summer visitors.

Captain Dan Seavey of Escanaba, writes that a car load of cement has been received in that city. As soon as the weather permits this will be shipped over to Garden Bluff and building operations on a somewhat large scale will be commenced at a not very distant date.

We have been asked by a Fairbanks' reader to give publicity to the following: At the Fairbanks' township election on April 2, 59 voters went to the polls and voted. Thirty of these placed the slips over the name printed on the ballot for treasurer and one placed the slip over the name for clerk. Twenty-eight voted the ticket as printed. There was only one ticket in the field and one slip candidate so that the intention of the voters could not be mistaken, but the township board declared that the regular candidate was elected because five voters had neglected to cross in front of the slip. The roads were in such bad condition that it was not possible for many of the citizens to get to the voting place. Some way should be made so that all could have a chance to vote.

The following also has been forwarded us for publication: Notices had been sent to the newly elected township officers by the Fairbanks Township Clerk that qualification day would be held on Saturday, April 7. Owing to the severe storm and the almost impassable condition of the roads the justices of the peace

The Delta county board of supervisors, cooperating with the Michigan Agricultural College and the U. S. College Dept. of Agriculture, have arranged for a series of meetings to be held through the county in order to encourage the production of alfalfa in the interests of the dairying industry. The meetings will be held by experts from the state college who are recognized as authorities in their respective lines. We believe that these sessions will be attended by every progressive farmer in these townships. The meeting in Garden will be held at the Rufus Spaulding farm and in the Fairbanks township on the John Watchorn farm.

Efforts are being made to organize a cow testing association for Delta county. Those who have already had experience with such modern methods of dairying are most enthusiastic about the increased profits accruing. It is to be hoped that local farmers will fall in line with other up-to-the-minute dairymen in the state. No doubt this new phase of the industry will be discussed at the aforementioned meetings to be held at Garden and Fairbanks on May 3.

COOK WITH GAS WEEK April 16-21

Gas— A Labor Saver

The day is over when it is necessary for the housewife to be nervous and fagged out when her day's work is done. There are too many modern and economical methods to lighten her household duties. She can accomplish her work quickly and easily and be free to enjoy the rest of the day as she pleases.

GAS is one of the greatest labor savers of the day. A turn of a valve and you have a fire. Your heat is steady and requires no watching—you can put your meal on the range and go about your work. No time spent in building a fire and waiting for the stove to warm up—no fuels to carry—no ashes to dispose of.

Much of the housewife's time is spent in cleaning. GAS is absolutely clean and therefore is one of the greatest factors in lightening the housework. Your kitchen can be just as orderly and cheerful as your parlor. You will enjoy to work in it and it will tempt you to hunt up the cook book and try new dishes. You will have more time to spend in making your house a real home and you will always be cheerful and happy when your work is done.

PLAN 'BIBLE' FOR SCHOOL MARMS OF MICHIGAN

Committee to Submit Draft of Ethics Code to Association.

Michigan school teachers will have a code of ethics that will be the 'bible' of the teaching profession in this state, if the plan of the Michigan State Teachers' association is followed. A committee some time ago was appointed to draft a tentative code and it is ready for submission to the teachers. The code has the following rules:

A teacher should actively affiliate with professional organizations of teachers.

Must Understand Contracts. A clear understanding of the law of contracts is incumbent upon a teacher. Since a teacher should scrupulously keep what ever agreement is made, he should refuse to sign a contract unjust and humiliating in form.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to resign unless his contract provides for release on giving proper notice.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to sign a yearly contract to teach for a wage that is not sufficient to cover living expenses for twelve months.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to underbid, knowingly, a rival in order to obtain a position. It is expected that a teacher will write a rumor of vacancy before filing an application. In a graded school an application should be filed with the superintendent.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to interfere in any way in matters of discipline between another teacher and pupil.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to bear tales to the administration about another teacher. However, it should be considered as unprofessional not to report to the administration matters that involve the best interests and wellbeing of the school.

Loyalty to Superiors.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to remain in a system and not to co-operate with the administration of the system. Those in authority should be given the benefit of the doubt in matters of policy.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to tutor pupils of his own classes for remuneration, except by special permission of the school authorities.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to absent himself from school or to call in or allow the use of a substitute, except for serious illness or for other grave reasons.

It is unprofessional for a teacher to measure his duties or responsibilities to the pupils, to the school, or to the community, in terms of financial rewards.

Since teachers rightly are regarded as examples to pupils, a teacher should so conduct himself that no just reproach may be brought against him. Where a teacher's conscience is not concerned, a teacher should stand ready to make personal sacrifice, because of the prejudice of a community.

It is unprofessional for teachers to criticize predecessors in the presence of pupils or patrons. Such procedure tends to injure the school and to weaken the confidence in which the work of teachers is held by the public.

Teachers should be ready at all times to assist one another by giving information, counsel and advice, as teachers can perform without detriment to themselves or their work. Such reasonable services should be regarded as a professional duty for which remuneration beyond actual expenses should not be accepted.

Avoid Community Disputes. No teacher should become involved in any disputes or fractional differences indigenous to the community in which he is working.

It is unprofessional for any

MRS. EARLS TELLS WOMEN

How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Olean, N. Y.—"Every month my blood would go to my head and I would have such a headache, nose-bleed, backache and pains that I could not do my work. At night I could not get my rest and nothing seemed to do me any good. I read some of your testimonials about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, so I decided to try it. I had only taken two bottles when I began to be better, and my back did not hurt me nor my head ache. I felt like a new woman. The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine and I will always recommend it."—Mrs. A. D. EARLS, 630 N. 5th St., Olean, N. Y.

Mrs. Kelsey Adds Her Testimony
Copenhagen, N. Y.—"I read your advertisement in the papers and my husband induced me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to get relief from pains and weakness. I was so weak that I could not walk at times. Now I can do my house-work and help my husband out doors, too. I am willing for you to publish this letter."—Mrs. HERBERT KELSEY, R.F.D., Copenhagen, N. teacher to arouse or to seek to arouse among fellow teachers a spirit of antagonism toward another teacher, a principal, or the superintendent.

It is unprofessional for any teacher to recommend to any school board another teacher for a definite position unless the position has been officially, legally and conclusively declared vacant.

ST. PAUL PLACES ORE ON DOCKS

Two train loads of ore have been placed on the St. Paul docks, preparatory to being dumped into the dock pockets as soon as weather conditions are favorable. A crew of men is now engaged at that company's docks in steaming out the ice and snow lodged in the pockets and when that work has progressed for a few days, dumping operations will be started.

It is confidently expected that ore will be dumped into both the St. Paul and Northwestern docks at this port within the next week.

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES.

1775—Battle of Lexington, the first engagement of the American Revolution.

1784—The first proposition to exclude slavery from the Northwest Territory was defeated in Congress.

1850—United States and Great Britain signed the Hulse-Clayton treaty, for a joint occupancy of the proposed joint canal through Central America.

1856—Peace was proclaimed between England and Russia.

1861—Governor Morton summoned the Indiana legislature for its first war session.

1917—First American shot fired in the World War, the naval crew of the merchantman Mongolia directing it against a German submarine.

1921—The funeral of the former German Empress took place at Potsdam.

Within another ten years gas will no longer be necessary for domestic purposes, says an expert; electricity will supersede it.

ILLUSION SHOW IS BOOKED FOR WEEK AT DELFT

Mysterious Smith, a magician and illusionist of considerable renown, and his company of deceptions will open a six-day engagement at the Delft theatre Monday.

Smith, who specializes in illusions and escapes, will be assisted by "Mme Olga," a telepathist whose work has been received favorably in other Upper Peninsula cities visited by the organization. The show is said to specialize in spiritualistic effects and the larger illusions in which women assistants are caused to disappear and reappear mysteriously. A cartload of baggage is carried.
