

SIMMONS LAUNCHES RIVAL TO KLUX

PEACE REIGNS WITHIN RANKS OF G. O. PARTY

WORLD COURT WILL NOT DISRUPT HARMONY.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

Washington, June 5.—If one is to accept surface impressions as fact, there is a violent row inside the republican party which may thwart the renomination of President Harding.

But surface impressions are inaccurate. Chairman John T. Adams of the republican national committee has not broken with President Harding. Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee, has not indicated his intention of resigning this summer. And so far as Mr. Harding is concerned he has not indicated to anyone that he is dissatisfied with the course of Chairman Adams or that he wants the resignation of either Mr. Adams or Mr. Upham.

So much for the facts. But it would be camouflaging the truth to say all is well in the ranks of the republican party. All isn't well. And that's why Chairman Adams is busy. His object is not to promote or intensify the discord that already exists but to cure it or at least quiet the noise of controversy. Unfortunately the democratic national committee isn't letting the opportunity go to poke fun at the republicans and prevent them from getting together.

Adams Plan Simple.

The Adams plan is a simple one. He sees the republican party divided over President Harding's proposal for a world court. He is for Harding 100 per cent and fears that a divided party means a troublesome convention. Taking his cue from the President's New York speech in which he conceded that he had no idea of making the world court a paramount issue, Mr. Adams has started out to preserve harmony by making the world court a secondary matter. All republicans can agree on that kind of strategy a lot faster than on the world court itself.

Mr. Adams reasons that the essential need of the hour is a united party, else Mr. Harding's chances of renomination to say nothing of the final campaign itself are adversely affected. The way out which he suggests is to put domestic issues in front. His strategy thus far has encountered no disapproval from the White House, in fact his relations there are as cordial as ever. Mr. Harding is being urged to soft pedal the world court idea on his western trip. Thus far it is understood he has planned only one speech on the subject. The effort to quiet him on that subject has been indirect but apparently successful though the advocates of harmony would be even better satisfied if he forgot about it altogether.

Not Burning Issue.

Here is their line of thought: The world court is not a burning question. No economic problems hang in the balance as a result of it, no harm will be done by delay. America has no lawsuits before the world court, the expenses of the court are being paid by the participating nations and are trivial indeed in amount, and, finally, the election of Judges by the League of Nations council and assembly has been accomplished without the aid of America in the past and there may not be vacancies or elections for eight or nine years. So why bother about it now and wreck the chances of Mr. Harding's election?

In all sincerity, the friends of Mr. Harding, including Chairman Adams, take that viewpoint. They have no objection to a resumption of the controversy after the 1924 election, for instance, as a delay of a year or so will give better opportunity for study of the whole question.

Democrats Keep Talking.

All would be serene if the democrats could be persuaded to adopt the strategy of the republican national committee. But democratic headquarters is not a bit more considerate of Mr. Harding and Mr. Adams' troubles than was republican headquarters when Woodrow Wilson was wrestling with a million and one embarrassing situations.

The strategy of the republican national committee may succeed for a few months, until congress convenes but then the democrats in the senate will see to it naturally that the world court proposal is not sidetracked but kept in a primary instead of a secondary place. If they succeed in forcing Mr. Harding to an acknowledgment of indefinite delay they will make political capital out of it and charge him with

BY MILTON BRONNER

LONDON, June 5.—There's a royal row in the palace. Says King George, looking worried: "I tell you, Mary, that poor child isn't getting enough to eat! You don't feed him enough."

Says Princess Mary: "Just like a grandpa! Of course he's fed enough. No, I simply won't wake him up in the middle of the night to feed him. That's mid-Victorian!"

That's the row. Mother and grandpa can't agree on meal times for Baby George Henry Hubert Lascelles.

The conversation given here isn't absolutely verbatim. But they've said approximately that, gossip has it.

The king thinks a baby ought to be fed regularly every three hours, awake or asleep. His own children were, he argues, and he'd like to know why his grandson shouldn't be fed every three hours.

Modern nursery custom laughs at that. Princess Mary points out—nowadays a baby is left at night as long as six or seven hours if he is sleeping.

Young Master Lascelles is not a bottle baby. His mother is raising him like any other youngster, and she hasn't a bit of patience with grandfatherly notions.

Queen Mary, meanwhile, is a most delicate grandma. She doesn't share the king's anxieties at all, but sides with her daughter in the row over the baby's feeding times.

So it's two to one against the king and the upshot is that Princess Mary is bossing George Henry Hubert's nursery. She has a nurse to wait on the baby, and a nursery-maid to wait on the nurse.

She herself picked out the furniture for the nursery. The articles are plain and simple, painted in gay tints and decorated with bright colored designs. She has decreed that unnecessary luxury and tiresome ceremonials be dispensed with. Royal pomp is under the ban.

By her order his is called "Master Lascelles"—not "His Highness." And she feeds him when she pleases—no matter what the king says.

HARDING MAPS OUT ITINERARY

Fourteen Addresses Will Be Made by President on Trip West.

Washington, June 5.—President Harding will make fourteen addresses enroute to the Pacific coast on his Alaskan trip, and will speak in five coast cities after returning from Alaska, according to an official announcement of the executive itinerary made public late today at the white house. Final details of the itinerary with respect to addresses were worked out today by the president in conference with Walter F. Brown, chairman of the commission on reorganization of government departments and an advisor of the executive.

Brown Advance Agent. Mr. Brown left Washington tonight to confer with local committees on details of the president's visit to each of the 19 cities.

The itinerary for the visit of the presidential party to Alaska has been only tentatively worked out as the trip will largely be dependent upon the president's desires on reaching the territory and also upon transportation facilities. The itinerary announced at the white house, however, shows that the executive will spend about two weeks in Alaska.

Returns Uncharted. Details of the return by way of the Panama Canal and Porto Rico likewise remain in a tentative state, although it has been announced that the president will sail from San Diego on the shipping Board's Steamer President Harrison. Only a day or two will be spent in the canal zone.

Denver, Colo., June 5.—For the "creating of international, social and industrial good will" and the advancement of social research, the A. C. Foster Building, and two adjoining structures, said to be valued at $1,500,000, have been donated to the University of Denver by James H. Causey, Denver investment banker and former partner of Governor William E. Sweet, officials of the University announced tonight.

NEW SHOALS IN PATH OF PEACE PARLEY LOOMS

TURKISH ATTITUDE AGAIN CHECKS OPTIMISM.

Lausanne, June 5.—The near east conference is again in troubled waters, with each side waiting for the other to give way on unsettled problems, and no immediate solution of the crisis is in sight.

The conference is virtually at a standstill, each delegation waiting for instructions from its home government which might enable the plenipotentiaries to break the deadlock.

Ismet Pasha, summoned a Turkish correspondent tonight and informed him that the Turkish delegation had said its last word on concessions and that the Ottoman debt and peace depended on the reply of the allies. He complained that he could get no definite answer from the allies as to when Constantinople would be evacuated, although he had been given to understand that it would be as soon as Angora ratifies the Lausanne treaty.

Concessions Block Way. Ismet said he promised the Angora government not to sign a treaty which would annihilate Turkish resources, and unless the allies made some arrangement whereby Turkey was not obliged to pay the interest on the debt in settling, the treaty would be crippled.

As for foreign concessions, Ismet was convinced that the negotiations of these would be successfully terminated by Angora, but in any case he was not empowered to include them in the Lausanne treaty, as the allies wished.

Heat Strikes Many Down. Clear skies greeted the shrifters, but long before the parade had ended, the intense heat and great humidity made for much discomfort for both the marchers and the thousands who passed the sidewalks and "circus" seats along the two miles of the pageant route. Heat prostrations were frequent and ambulances and temporary first aid stations were kept busy. More than 50 persons, including shrifters were taken to hospitals, while estimates were that equally as many were given first aid at the street stations. Those, taken to the hospitals were reported tonight to be out of danger.

INJURED GIRL IS IMPROVING

Marquette, June 5.—Miss Ruth Gustafson, of Nahma, who is in St. Luke's hospital in a critical condition from injuries, received in an auto accident Saturday night, was improved today. Her attending physician said tonight that she was resting easily.

HIP FRACTURED.

Parents and relatives of the injured girl, who returned from Marquette on Tuesday, reported that slight improvement in her condition was shown. The right hip is fractured in three places, and there are internal injuries of an extent not yet determined, they reported. Those who returned from Marquette Tuesday included the injured girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gustafson, her brother Theodore Gustafson of Chicago; John Brophy, J. P. Cameron, Dr. Ferris Summerville, Mrs. Fred G. Forbes and Miss Calla Remington all of Nahma.

"Padlock" Order Closes Popular New York Cafe

New York, June 5.—Federal prohibition forces today disclosed part of their future policy of controlling illicit liquor traffic without the aid of the Mullan-Gage state enforcement act, when they closed, by court order, a popular Broadway cafe, the Knickerbocker Grill, for six months under the padlock section of the Volstead act.

At the same time police commissioners, sheriffs and state troopers in various sections were notified by Palmer Canfield, state prohibition director, that they still were responsible for the enforcement of the federal laws in regard to prohibition.

Discussing the effects of the decision of closing the Knickerbocker Grill, United States District Attorney Hayward said that the padlock provision of the Volstead law appeared to be the most effective remedy for the government has against the public drinking places. He asserted that similar charges now pending against other places in the white lights district would be proceeded with as promptly as possible.

Miners Buried by Cavein, Rescued

Dicknell, Ind., June 5.—Joe Bernard, Frank Maberto, and James Bertillo, the three miners entombed by the cave in of a coal mine shaft, near here, Saturday, were rescued at 11:30 o'clock tonight after having been imprisoned for more than 79 hours.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY WATCHES SHRINE PARADE

Harding and Pershing Sit on Balcony, Reviewing "Nobles".

Washington, June 5.—President Harding had a prominent part today in the festivities incident to the opening of here of the 49th annual convention of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. He reviewed a parade of 20,000 nobles, the feature event of the day; delivered an address on fraternalism at the first session of the imperial council and attended tonight a banquet given for Imperial Potentate James S. McCandless, of Honolulu.

With Mrs. Harding and General Pershing, the executive, who is a noble of Aladin Temple of Columbus, O., remained for three and a half hours in his box in the reviewing stand in front of the white house as the long lines of nobles passed through "The Garden of Allah" on their march over the "Burning Sands" of Pennsylvania Ave. Mr. Harding wore a white suit and red fez, but Gen. Pershing, also a noble, was in the uniform of his rank as general of the armies.

There was more than color to the pageant, however, a hundred-odd bands and drum corps and chanting clubs furnishing a continuous flow of music—stirring marches, oriental airs and the latest jazz. Smartly drilled patrols executed intricate formations all along the line of march, especially in the "Garden of Allah" where the spectators included besides the President and Mrs. Harding, members of the cabinet, the imperial potentate and his divan, ranking army and navy officers and foreign diplomats.

Heat Strikes Many Down. Clear skies greeted the shrifters, but long before the parade had ended, the intense heat and great humidity made for much discomfort for both the marchers and the thousands who passed the sidewalks and "circus" seats along the two miles of the pageant route. Heat prostrations were frequent and ambulances and temporary first aid stations were kept busy. More than 50 persons, including shrifters were taken to hospitals, while estimates were that equally as many were given first aid at the street stations. Those, taken to the hospitals were reported tonight to be out of danger.

EARL DENIED MARITAL WRIT

New York, June 5.—The Earl of Northesk and Jessica Brown, former chorus girl, who yesterday were denied a marriage license here, spent today rushing from the office of one legal authority to another trying to discover where was the best place to get married. They reached no decision.

The Earl, who seems quite cheerful, announced today they would get married "somewhere, somehow." Jessica, who was reported to be annoyed over the delay, denied herself to reporters. Friends indicated they might seek a license in New Jersey or Connecticut.

A license was denied on the grounds that Jessica divorced from her first husband in Chicago was not recognized in this state.

'Equal Rights' Gains Oversea, Leader Says

New York, June 5.—The woman's movement is the one movement in the world not calling names or mobilizing armies, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, suffragist leader, who recently returned from a six months' trip abroad, declared today before the League of Women Voters.

"I came back with the conviction that women's suffrage is as firmly planted in Europe as in the United States," she said.

Chicago Heat Wave Claims One Victim

Chicago, June 5.—Although today's heat maximum did not reach the 89 mark recorded yesterday, one death was traced directly to the heat, three persons were overcome and 16 bitten by dogs when the mercury climbed to 88 and then tumbled rapidly when a wind, rain and thunder storm late in the afternoon brought relief to all sections of the city.

INVESTIGATION INTO WRECK OF TRAIN PLANNED

SHRINE SPECIAL GOES IN DITCH, FOUR DEAD.

Durant, Mich., June 5.—An investigation by the Michigan public utilities commission into the wreck of the Knight Templar special on the Grand Trunk railway, near here today, in which four were killed and 27 others injured, will be asked by county authorities, it was learned tonight.

A spreading rail is believed to have caused the derailment of the special, bound from Grand Rapids to Flint and carrying 200 delegates to the state convention.

Crew All Shriners. The dead are: Frank Pearson, engineer, 40; Durant; H. J. Weldon, Ionia; Joseph Parker, fireman, 35; Durant, and J. Jay Fanning, 45, news tender, of Grand Rapids.

Parker, a long time employe of the railroad, was fireman for the day only, having been made a member of the crew so that the train would be entirely manned by members of the order.

Several of the injured were reported in a serious condition at local and Flint hospitals tonight, although the only person believed dangerously hurt is W. H. McSweeney, commander of the Ionia commandery, whose skull is fractured.

Engine Tips Over. The train is said to have been traveling 40 miles an hour at the time of the accident. The engine went over on its side and plowed into the ground. The steel baggage car snapped its couplings, one end of the car burying itself into the bank and the other telescoping the wooden passenger coach behind it. Fanning and Nelson were in the passenger's coach as were most of the injured.

RAILROAD ASKS FOR WAGE CUT

Chicago, June 5.—Only once since the Kansas City-Mexico & Orient railroad began operation, has any "black ink" shown on its books, and unless relief from conditions that now confront the road is forthcoming, suspension of operation will be an inevitable result, representatives of the carrier told the United States railroad labor board today in support of a petition for reduction of wages for all classes of employes.

Reduction of employes wages alone will not be sufficient to guarantee operation of the property, W. T. Kemper, receiver, asserted, but said the road grants the carrier's request, a return to rates here of pay in effect prior to May 1, 1920.

Should other reliefs in prospect materialize, the road will be able to continue and eventually become financially sound, he said.

Ten Year Terms for Oil Fraud Promoters

Fort Worth, Texas, June 5.—The government won its first victory in its drive against alleged fraudulent oil promoters tonight, when Charles Sherman and H. H. Schwarz were sentenced to seven years in the federal penitentiary and pay fines of $15,000 each and "General Robert A. Lee" was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $5,000. The sentences and fines were imposed on the defendants by Federal Judge Benjamin Bledsoe after the jury had returned a verdict of guilty against all three defendants tonight.

This Is Terrible, Let's Investigate!

Washington, June 5.—The ranks of America's millionaire taxpayers continue to grow thinner, according to statistics of income for 1921, made public tonight by the internal revenue bureau, which show that of the $662,176 firms and individuals filing returns for 1921, only 21 had incomes exceeding $1,000,000. This represents a decrease of 12 from the number receiving $1,000,000 incomes in 1920 and compares with 65 in 1919, 67 in 1918, 141 in 1917 and 206 in 1916, the highest since the income tax laws became operative.

GOPHER SENATE FIGHT CLOSING

SUPREME COURT TO RULE FINALLY IN CASE TODAY.

St. Paul, Minn., June 5.—Minnesota's senatorial election tangle probably will be straightened out tomorrow when the state supreme court will file its order in the case.

After hearing arguments on the motion to dismiss the supreme court's writ of prohibition, directed at Ramsey county district judges, the supreme court recessed late today until 9:30 tomorrow morning.

It was expected the court's decision on the motion to quash the writ of prohibition would be filed late today, but after the judges had conferred, Chief Justice Calvin L. Brown said the court's order would not be filed until tomorrow.

Frank E. McAllister, St. Paul attorney, who brought the proceedings originally in the Ramsey district court, argued for dismissal of the writ.

Representing the state Ernest C. Carman of the attorney general's office urged that the writ be sustained.

Should a permanent restraining order be issued, against the special primary and election, to fill the seat of the late Senator Knute Nelson, the way will be left open for Gov. Preus to resign and be appointed to the senate.

TOKIO CABINET TO MEET JOFFE.

Tokio, Japan, June 5.—The cabinet at a session this afternoon decided to submit to A. A. Joffe, the envoy of Russia, who is now in Japan, conditions upon which the imperial government is willing to resume negotiations with the Soviet.

A. A. Joffe, the Russian envoy, arrived in Japan last January offering to visit the Japanese hot springs for his health. It was subsequently announced that he had come at the personal invitation of Viscount Goto, at that time mayor of Tokio. Heretofore Joffe's presence in Japan has never been formally acknowledged by the Japanese government.

Viscount Goto, however, received the Soviet envoy and a number of conferences were held. Later Goto resigned his official position as head of the Tokio government for the purpose, he announced, of working for closer relations between Russia and Japan.

Whipping Boss Trial Is Continued Again

Lake City, Fla., June 5.—The continuance in the case of the state of Florida versus Walter Higginbotham, convict whipping boss, on a charge of first degree murder, was granted for 20 days, late today, by Judge M. A. McMullen.

Higginbotham was scheduled for trial here today on a charge of murder growing out of the death of Martin Tabert of North Dakota.

The grant of a 20 day continuance came after Judge McMullen overruled a motion by the defense seeking a continuance for from 60 to 90 days on the ground of a missing witness.

Female Bandit Kills Victim Who Resists

Chicago, June 5.—Richard C. Tesmer, an insurance adjuster, was shot and killed by a woman bandit when he resisted the efforts of the woman and a male companion to hold him up as Mrs. Tesmer and her husband alighted from the automobile and started to enter their home.

A man and woman, both armed, stepped from the shadow and ordered Tesmer to put up his hands. He started to resist and the woman fired, then leaped in Tesmer's machine with her companion and fled.

KLUX INTERNAL WARFARE ENDS IN NEW ORDER

'KNIGHTS KAMELIA' ANNOUNCED BY EMPEROR.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—Establishment of the Order, Knights Kameia, as the "primary order of knighthood" with a government "separate and distinct from the government now controlling the affairs of the Ku Klux Klan" was proclaimed tonight by William Joseph Simmons in the exercise of the authority vested in him only as emperor of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Inc.

Everything that I have striven to build during the years gone by is in peril of being subverted to personal, political and worldly ends," Emperor Simmons said in a statement. "To save the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from spoliation and destruction I have determined to establish Knights Kameia and thereby give the klanmen of the Invisible Empire at least the opportunity to transfer to this primary order of knighthood and establish themselves upon the foundation as laid in the beginning."

Referring to the action of the Imperial Kloneium in leaving out "the Kameia," among the women's organization authorized to become affiliated with the klan under the title of "Women of the Ku Klux Klan," Emperor Simmons stated:

"This action on the part of the Imperial Kloneium in repudiating by explicit designation, the Kameia, and by adopting other numerous organizations of women, was not only in violation of contracts between H. W. Evans and myself, but was also in violation of a decree entered in the superior court of Fulton county, Ga., and further still, was in violation of the original charter which defines that male members only can be admitted to the order."

New Leadership.

The establishment of the "Primary Order, Knights Kameia," means, the statement declared, "that the members now on probation in the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are under the administration of the imperial wizard and the Imperial Kloneium, while the order Knights Kameia will be under my control and direction, with such men as I may designate as members of my cabinet. The Order Knights Kameia will be absolutely free to inaugurate its policy."

"I am compelled to promulgate the Knights Kameia because of the resistance that has been among probationary klanmen throughout the country. There has been no way open to advancement—no progress has been made—no construction work has been done."

DOUBLE MERIT

Cardinal Bellarmino, Italian priest and controversialist, whose body was removed recently from the Church of the Gesù in Rome, where it had been buried for more than 300 years, for interment in the church of St. Paulinus, had the double merit of the Court of Rome of supporting her temporal power and of strenuously opposing the reformers, and for a number of years no eminent divine among reformers failed to make Bellarmino's arguments a particular object of refutation.

SKELTONS TO HIS RIGHT AND LEFT, BUT AFTER 52 YEARS HE LIKES 'EM

Bone-Dry Half a Century!

BY HARRY B. HUNT. NEA Service Writer.

Washington, June 5.—"Bone-dry," to Joseph W. Schollick, doesn't signify strict enforcement of the Volstead act.

Neither does "boner" signify a faux pas. The first, in his vocabulary, denotes a state of perfection in no wise allied to prohibition.

For 52 years Schollick has lived among bones—preparing skeletons and skeletal specimens for anatomical and scientific exhibits.

"Must Be Bone-Dry." In this time he has handled the skeletons of virtually every known bird, beast, fish and reptile, from the hair-spring-sized bones of shad and humming-birds to the saw-log structure of a 70-ton whale.

"Patience, perseverance and a strong stomach." These Schollick says are the chief requirements for an osteologist.

"It takes about two years properly to prepare the skeleton of a whale," he explains. "For animals of the deer and bear size, from six months to a year. The big problem in preparing a bone for indefinite preservation is to get it clean and bone-dry. Not only must every bit of animal matter be removed from the exterior, but all the moisture and oil in the bone tissue and in the marrow must be eliminated.

He Remembers This One. Few chemicals are used in preparing bones for preservation, for while they assist in quick cleaning they are injurious to the bone structure itself.

"Well—" he said reminiscently, his nostrils twitching a trifle at the memory—"the skeleton of a skunk that has been in the rotting vat a month can't be altogether forgotten. Still, I guess my whole experience topped 'em all.

"We'd had the head-bones of a big sulphur-bottom whale in a rotting vat for about six months and wanted to get them out for scraping. They were pretty heavy, so we put a plank across the vat to stand on as we hoisted them out. I was on this plank, hoisting away on a big jaw-bone.

K. E. VOGHT IS TREASURER OF SHERIDAN ROAD

Whiteshield Elected President at Green Bay Meeting

Directors of the Greater Sheridan Road, Inc., met at the Beaumont hotel in Green Bay Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers and outlining financial and association activity programs for the coming year.

The officers elected were: Dr. C. F. Whiteshield, Powers, president; Ray Smith, Milwaukee, vice president; George C. Burke, Hancock, secretary and K. E. Voght, Escanaba, treasurer.

Financing of the organization's work will be provided mainly through a membership campaign which will be carried on through the entire length of the road, from Keweenaw Point to St. Louis. Instead of going to garage men and other concerns along the road and holding each up for a $25 or $50 membership fee, the association plans to set the tax at only $2 and to line up practically every business man in every benefiting town as a member.

"Tourist traffic through the upper peninsula brought more than three million dollars to business men in Cloverland last year," Mr. Voght said Tuesday night. "There is no reason why every business man in every town along the route should not come into the association, as indications point to a tourist business this year which will almost double last year's record and the association is going to play a big part in getting the tourists to come this way."

Ditch Blasting Demonstrations Staged Tuesday

Ditching demonstrations were Tuesday's dish in the program of land clearing education which the Michigan Agricultural College is carrying on in the Upper Peninsula with the cooperation of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau.

Eighty rods of ditch were blown out with straight "Nitro" powder at the L. A. Erickson farm at South Ford River. The work was done in "shots" of about eight or ten rods each, this size being the best for practical work.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT
"Where the Pavement Ends," will conclude its engagement at the Delft theatre today. It has been warmly received by large crowds. It will be followed by "Our Leading Citizen," a story written by Thomas Meighan by George Ade, the distinguished Indiana humorist. It is Mr. Ade's first work especially for the screen.

Although the author was unable to remain at the studio throughout the filming of the story, he kept in constant touch with the star and Director Alfred Green.

During his California visit, Mr. Ade conferred with the casting director in the selection of the cast which includes Lois Wilson, Theodore Roberts, William P. Carleton, Guy Oliver and others.

As the result of this intimate association of the author and the various production elements, "Our Leading Citizen" is a faithful reproduction of the story exactly as Mr. Ade wrote and intended it to be played. It boasts of a number of original subtitles by the author that are of the calibre that gained him his present place in the front rank of American men of letters. Lois Wilson is leading woman.

AT THE STRAND.

The scientist dies and wills the mine and a half interest in the mine and tells him that his daughter in China is to own the other shares.

This incident starts a series of thrilling adventures which carry the rancher across the Pacific to Hong Kong and back again to the Arizona mine. Claire Adams plays the leading feminine role. The others in the cast are: Donald McDonald, Hector Sarno, Geo.

Program Tuesday At Lake Shore Park Wonderful

Five hundred pupils from every grade in the Escanaba Public School system took part Tuesday afternoon at Ludington park in large crowd was present and the physical education work which is being carried on at the schools.

The demonstration was in charge of Miss Florence Ladd and Alvin E. Loucks, directors of physical education work in the grades and the high school. A large crowd were present and the program was declared one of the finest ever witnessed here.

The dances and drills by the first five grades were very well rendered, the little ones all playing their parts without a hitch. The sixth and seventh grades were grouped in a very fine calisthenic drill which was carried out in perfect poise. The large number of pupils in this drill are a credit to the teachers who instructed them in their parts.

To handle such a large number of persons at one time and with such perfect rhythm of motion is very difficult and Miss Ladd, who is instructor of physical training in the public schools, is deserving of much credit for the time and patience which it must have required for this drill as well as for the other numbers on the program. The eight grade girls also took part in a pretty drill which was done with perfect ease on the part of every performer.

Dances Draw Comment.

The children from the open air and oral deaf schools of the city caused many pleasing comments from the vast audience when they took part in a prettily danced "The Highland Schottische." The graceful movements of this group of children were a marvel to all who witnessed the dance and the perfect time which they kept to the music which was furnished by a victrola was beyond improvement. What has been accomplished in these two departments of our local schools can not be described, one has to attend such an entertainment or visit this section of the school to fully appreciate the work. The joys of the eighth grade brought much applause by their pyramid building. The human pyramids were so quickly and gracefully

Lightning Hits School Building During Storm

"Dead" oil is damaging thousands of cars every day. Maybe it's damaging yours. You think not, of course. You wouldn't have it if you knew. But most oils do become dead before you know it.

SUNOCO THE DISTILLED OIL

The New Improved

AVERY

Announcing The New Avery 15 H. P. Tractor

Here is the new Avery 15 h. p. Tractor—the Avery Company's answer to the demand for an enclosed gear, anti-friction bearing, wheel tractor for doing both draw-bar and belt work on the average size farm. Pulls three to four 14-inch plows, drives a 24-inch thresher.

This new Avery embodies many principles that are important fundamentally, namely: lightness in weight per draw-bar horse-power; shortness in length and narrowness in width; ease of handling; unusual accessibility; reserve power to draw on in emergencies; and, lastly, extreme strength to stand up day after day to last for many years.

The Avery 15 h. p. Tractor has many exclusive features. It is the only tractor with both a two-bearing belt transmission and a two-gear-contact draw-bar transmission.

The belt pulley is mounted direct on the crankshaft which in turn is mounted on only two bearings, both of which are ball-bearings. All of the power of the motor possible is thus delivered to the belt.

In traction work more of the power developed by the motor is delivered to the draw-bar on account of less gear contacts. Only two shafts are used—counter-shaft and rear axle. There are only two gear contacts used in delivering the power of the motor to the draw-bar when traveling either in high or low speed. All gears are cut steel spur gears, heat treated, and run in oil—all operate on frictionless ball bearings.

The new Avery 15 h. p. Tractor has a four-cylinder horizontal Avery Motor with such advanced features as renewable inner cylinder walls, gasifiers for burning kerosene and ball bearings on the crankshaft. All working parts, gears and motor enclosed.

This new Avery is the result of years of work on the part of the Avery Company, devoting themselves exclusively to building of power machinery, and it marks one of the greatest steps in advance in a wheel tractor that has been made since the beginning of the tractor industry.

It will pay you to investigate this new Avery before buying any other tractor. Come in and let us tell you more about it.

P. T. A. Council
Elect Officers At Monday Session

The Council of the Parent Teachers' Association held their regular meeting at the school year Monday afternoon at the Franklin school building at which time much business was taken up. Reports from the various delegates were given, each delegate relating what had interested her the most at the convention which was held at the 800 last week.

At this meeting the council took the final steps toward becoming affiliated with the National Council of P. T. A. and arrangements were made to continue the work which has been carried on by the association. They formulated plans to hold an experimental clinic at the Franklin school for children of pre-school age. Considerable agitation has been noticed here and in other places about having this as a general clinic but the plans of the council are to have it as an experiment and then follow up the little children during the year and watch the results. If there is a betterment of health the work will be carried on more extensively. This work will be done by the school nurse, city nurse, health officer and the mothers.

The Council also plans to take charge of a meeting for the reception of parents of the 8th grade pupils and four other meetings during the year for that purpose.

The work accomplished by the P. T. A. during the short time that they have been organized is worthy of mention. They have made great strides towards the betterment of conditions in the schools and the co-operation of parents or guardians with the teachers has been most encouraging.

The election of officers for the ensuing year followed. Mrs. Eugene Royce, president, was re-elected unanimously; Mrs. Barbara Semer, first vice president; Mrs. George Harvey, second vice president; Mrs. Wm. Olds, recording secretary; Mrs. T. G. Byrns, corresponding secretary and treasurer.

TOO GENEROUS
Save Indians From Donating Belongings at Dances.

MISS EDITH M. DABB

By Marion Hale.

New York.—"Protect the Indian from his generosity!"

Miss Edith M. Dabb, head of the work of the national board of the Y. W. C. A. on the Indian reservations, and who has lived among Indians for over 20 years, says that the tendency of the red man to give away everything he owns during the progress of certain tribal dances is one of the greatest bars to his advancement.

"The appeal sent to all Indians by Charles H. Burke, commissioner of Indian affairs, from Washington, asks them to refrain from all dances and pow-wows that mean neglect of crops or live stock in their absence," she says, "and in this same appeal he points out the injustice to their families of the 'give away' feature prevalent at so many dances.

"This 'give away' feature has very serious consequences when it involves the wives and daughters of the participants. When it involves live stock, farming implements or teams, and Indian often returns home unable to farm or so seriously handicapped by his losses that his chances at a livelihood are gone.

Misunderstood. "Indian dances are often misunderstood in the east," she continues. "Originally Indian dances were ceremonial in nature and largely connected with religious observances. The dances as now danced for spectators have little of their original significance.

"Indians are naturally reserved and shrink at being stared at. Their original dances done with all the beauty of religious fervor are almost invariably done in secret.

"Among the Zuni and the Pueblo, dances are of two kinds—those open to the public and those done in private. It is only those of the secret dances, that result in orgies and all-night camps, and the commercialized dance, that tempts the Indian away from a livelihood for his family, that Commissioner Burke had in mind when sending his appeal.

Degenerating. "The white man's influence has had its part in making many of these dances degenerate. Boys and girls of the tribes who go back to the reservations from government and mission schools regard these dances as the greatest factor retarding the development of their people.

"Often these dances are planned so they will offer immediate and forceful temptations to these young people. Recently a number of returned students united to fight their influence."

Miss Dabb is among those who collaborated with G. E. Lindquist in the preparation of "The Red Man of the United States." Assisting her in her work are three college trained women of the Sac-and-Fox, Sioux and Cherokee tribes who work among girls of their own race.

Periscoping

Escanaba had its first real rain of the season yesterday and the storm water sewer system functioned with its usual efficiency, 100 percent.

"One hundred percent", with Escanaba's storm sewers, however, don't mean a great deal. The pipes carry off their full volume of water as fast as the grade line and the laws of gravitation will let them, but that isn't very fast.

The usual lakes formed at every street corner. They varied in width from five feet to twenty five and from one or two inches deep to more than a foot. They extended in many cases to the alleys on the side streets and along the whole block front on Ludington street.

Pedestrians detoured around the lagoons or clambered over automobiles and trucks to gain the crossings. "Cross Crossings Cautiously" would have been an admirable slogan to hang on the lamp posts. Jaywalking was the only means of getting anywhere.

The condition is not one of recent years, at least, the same thing has happened with every sizable rain. Escanaba has built streets and sewers and schools and bought fire trucks, garbage wagons and street lamps in the meantime, but never a move to make the streets safe for other than ducks and mud turtles on rainy days.

If the solution lies in the building of more or larger storm water sewers, the thing should be given equal prominence with street paving or any other project in the city's improvement campaign. Certainly the comfort and convenience of pedestrians should be one of the things first given attention.

Meanwhile, instead of uselessly assailing the precept city administration for the omissions of past regimes, Escanaba merchants

Kellogg's Bran is Guaranteed to give relief BECAUSE IT IS ALL BRAN

Relief from constipation, whether it be mild or chronic, will follow the regular, every-day eating of Kellogg's Bran. We have thousands of letters from former sufferers who tell us that this natural "bulk-action" of this wonderful cereal product has given relief they have not known for years. We guarantee that Kellogg's Bran will free the system from constipation because it is ALL BRAN—not a wimpy cereal in which bran is added. If constipation is to be permanently relieved, you must eat ALL BRAN—that's why your physician will recommend Kellogg's for constipation.

Constipation creates toxic conditions which poison the blood and every organ of the body. It slows you down mentally and physically, and creates sick headaches, nausea, bad breath, pimples—finally, in many cases leading to Bright's disease, diabetes and other dreaded illnesses. You can fight constipation with Kellogg's Bran regularly if you want health!

You'll say Kellogg's Bran is really delicious—it has a nut-like flavor that appeals to the most fastidious appetites. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled on hot cereals or cooked with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoons of bran for each person. Be certain to eat at least two tablespoons each day; so much with each meal in chronic cases. Kellogg's is delicious made into muffins, macaroons, raisin bread, griddle cakes. Recipes in every package. Kellogg's Bran is served by leading hotels, clubs and restaurants in last vital packages. It is sold by grocers.

Monopoly? No!

MONOPOLY is abhorrent to the minds of the American people and will not be tolerated by them.

Monopoly means arbitrary control; it means curtailing opportunities for the individual and such curtailment strikes at the root of American institutions.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is American to the core. It has no desire to achieve a monopoly, believing that, because of its carefully worked out plan of organization, its admitted efficiency in every department and its carefully trained, hard-working, loyal body of employees, it has no need for arbitrary control to meet any competitive condition which may arise.

The detailed service, the insistence upon quality, and the consistently fair price at which its products are sold, insure the Company its fair share of the business in ten Middle Western States where it is organized for service.

No organization can acquire a monopoly in the oil business. The source of supply of raw material is too scattered and its value is too great for any one company to get an effective control. Without such control monopoly is impossible.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the largest single factor in the oil business of the Middle West. Yet, the principal source of its crude oil supply is in the hands of others.

Its competitors have twice as many service stations as it has, and about an equal number of bulk stations, while their combined refining capacity is more than five times that of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

To indicate the futility of attempting to monopolize the oil industry it is only necessary to quote the following paragraphs from the New York Journal of Commerce.

During 1921 there were organized 936 new oil companies, with a total capitalization of $1,255,675,000 and During 1922, 784 new oil companies were organized with a capitalization of $1,639,693,000.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is growing as the need for its products and service grows. It is ambitious, not to secure a monopoly of the oil business, but, to maintain a steady, healthy growth, by rendering the greatest service possible to thirty million people in the Middle West.

Tools of His Trade

Common law recognizes and upholds the right of a workman to his tools—his basic means of survival and maintenance.

The tools of business enterprise are no less essential. It must have and use certain instrumentalities to get business, to do business and to hold business.

Having them, it grows and brings forth fruit, provided the tools are intelligently directed.

Deprived of them, it becomes stunted, withers, and eventually dies, no amount of intelligence can save it, lacking means of application.

The prime concern of any business is to get orders. It must have and use personal solicitors and advertising—the twin tools of salesmanship.

And when a business is ordered by its bank to curtail or stop the use of these productive forces—either or both—that business is being deprived of its tools.

Give business the right to progress!

A Rajah in one of the northwest provinces of India is the possessor of an extraordinary beaded. The beads are constructed of malacca, the remainder being manufactured of solid gold. The golden headpiece is brilliantly set with no fewer than 700 gems of all kinds, and the dazzling effect as the light falls on this scintillating array of thickly studded jewels is said to be almost beyond expression. As the bead is valued at something like $350,000 it is guarded, day and night.

ONLY TWO RECORDS REMAIN BETWEEN TYRUS COBB AND ABSOLUTE BASEBALL SUPREMACY

BOTH HELD BY WAGNER - TOTAL NUMBER OF HITS AND -

TOTAL NUMBER OF BASES

BY BILLY EVANS.

Two records alone remain between Cobb and absolute supremacy in baseball. Those two records are held by Honus Wagner. The great Wagner of other days still holds the lead in total number of hits, and also has the edge in total number of bases.

Wagner's total number of hits, 3430, cover 21 years of major league campaigning. At the opening of the season, Cobb had 3266 hits to his credit. In order to top Wagner's record, the Detroit leader must make 165 hits during the 1923 campaign. Unless illness or injury puts him out of the running, he will put Wagner's base-hit record into the discard before the close of the present season.

Wagner's total number of bases for his 3430 hits amounts to 4881. It would be asking too much to have Cobb top that feat this year, but it is certain to be beaten by Cobb before he closes his major attained about all the glory there is in the record books.

RUTH PLAYING FINE BASEBALL

Evans Thinks He Is Having Most Valuable Season.

BY BILLY EVANS.

"If Babe Ruth doesn't hit his quota of home runs in 1923 the Yankees are going to be decidedly up against it."

That was the belief expressed by many of the baseball experts prior to the opening of the season. To a majority, the hope of the Yankees depended almost entirely on Ruth's slugging.

Cobb has played more games than any other player in the history of the American League. He has gone through more campaigns—18. He leads in the number of hits, total bases and extra base hits.

His lifetime batting average is .372, far in excess of any player who has worked 10 years or more in the majors. He has batted .400 or better in three seasons, equalling Jesse Burkett's record. He has batted .300 or better for 17 consecutive seasons.

Wagner has turned the same trick. Cobb will pass it this year. He has made 200 or more hits in each of eight seasons, equalling Willie Keeler's mark.

It is a rather interesting fact that Cobb broke the greatest number of runs record by his number individual effort. A home run of Pitches Charley Robertson of Chicago on May 24, made his 17424, run scored during the 1919 season, but it is certain to be beaten by Cobb before he closes his major attained about all the glory there is in the record books.

Mickey Walker to Box Shade July 4

New York, June 5.—Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, has signed contracts to meet Dave Shade, Eddie Sheddin and Pect Lazo, it was announced tonight.

Walker will get $50,000 for the three fights, it was said. He will meet Shade in Newark, N. J., on July 4, according to the promoters. The bouts with Sheddin and Lazo will be held subsequent to the fight with Shade. The date and places have not been set.

The fifteenth annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition opens today at Portland, Ore., to continue until the end of the week.

Wagner is the only player close to Cobb in lifetime averages. Third in ranking is Larry Lajoie. Cobb and Wagner have a wide margin on the great Larry. This trio easily leads the remainder of the field.

George Sisler is the only man who has threatened Cobb's list of achievements since the Georgian started his super-career. The trouble that Sisler recently suffered to his eyes appears to have destroyed any chance the St. Louis star had of equaling Cobb's feats.

Last year, Sisler in batting safely in 41 consecutive games, topped Cobb's record in that respect by a single contest. Cobb was mighty proud of that performance and hated to see it broken.

There is little left for Cobb to conquer in a baseball way. When he has topped the two records still held by Wagner he will reign supreme in all departments. Cobb should accomplish both feats by the close of the 1924 campaign.

12 ESKY MEN IN BIG MEET

Fielding Yost Will Be Referee at Menominee Event.

Escanaba high school will enter the second annual upper peninsula track meet at Menominee on Friday with a team of twelve picked athletes, most of whom helped to give the local high school an easy win over Manistique in the dual track meet two weeks ago.

Entries in each event will be limited to two men from each school, according to the present plan. Cutting of this number to one man may be necessary, according to Coach Loucks of the Escanaba squad, if the entries continue to pour in as they have been during the past week.

Preliminaries in the 100 and 22 yard dashes and in the 120 high and 220 low hurdle events will probably be run off Friday afternoon. Most of Saturday morning will be devoted to preliminaries in other events and semi-finals in all, the afternoon being left open for the finals.

Escanaba's entrants, with the events in which they will attempt to qualify, are as follows: Tolan—440 dash, half-mile run, high jump, broad jump and mile relay.

McGuire—100 and 220 dashes and mile relay.
Bray—100 and 220 dashes and mile relay.
Savard—100 and 220 dashes and mile relay.

Christensen—Javelin, shot put, discus, high jump and 120 yard high hurdles.
Erickson—220 yard low hurdles and discus.
Pintler—220 low hurdles and 120 high hurdles.
Powers—440 dash.
Smith—Half mile and mile relays.

Saunders—Mile run.
Baker—Pole vault.
Bergman—Pole vault.
McGuire, Tolan, Christensen, Smith, Pintler and the relay men are looked upon as the best point taking prospects for Escanaba.

AGGIE HEAVER SETS RECORD FOR COUNTRY

East Lansing.—Probably one of the greatest pitching records established by any college pitcher in the country this season, is the one made by Bernard Kuhn, captain of the Michigan Aggie baseball squad.

To make this record, Kuhn has had to work against most of the strong teams met by the East Lansing squad, for he has been the pitching ace in Coach Walker's deck.

In 39 innings pitched by Kuhn he registered 59 strikeouts and allowed only 13 hits. In the same game he maintained a batting average of .364, and half of his hits were for extra bases.

The teams against which he worked to establish this record are Notre Dame, St. Viator, Valparaiso, Hope and Albion. The first three of these are considered among the strongest combinations in the Middle West.

Notre Dame reached him for only three safeties, while 14 men were being struck out. Valparaiso came to East Lansing after having defeated every team it had met, and was turned back by Kuhn, who allowed seven hits and struck out 15 men.

The big pitcher was deprived of a no-hit, no-run game in the Albion fray, when a batted ball was kicked by the runner without the umpire's seeing it, and an infield hit had to be scored. This was the only hit of the game.

Every man deserves a living wage except a great many of those getting two or three.

ANNEKE JANS' CLAIM.
Though the New York State Court of Appeals outlawed the Anneke Jans tract in New York City as long ago as 1856, and again in 1881, the claim still persists in the minds of some of Mrs. Jans' thousands of descendants.

The various litigations attacking the Trinity Church title were all based on technical irregularities in grants of conveyances, such as the absence of a seal to a signature, or on allegations that the grantors themselves had no title. The defense has been adverse possession and the statute of limitation.

The streets laid out by Trinity Church Corporation in the Jans tract were named after leading men in the church—Vesey, after the Rev. William Vesey, the rector; Barclay, after the Rev. Mr. Barclay, who succeeded Vesey as rector; Murray, after a distinguished lawyer and officer of the church; Warren, after Sir Peter Warren, commander of the British naval forces at that station, who married Miss Delaney, of New York City; Chambers, after John Chambers, a lawyer, born in New York, and a leader in civil and church affairs.

Local Lions Hear Father Daniel In Excellent Address Escanaba Lions were fortunate in having as the principal feature of their Tuesday noon luncheon program an address by the Rev. Fr. Daniel, O. F. M., of St. Joseph's church. His address on "Lionism", with special reference to the interpretation of the club's ideals and aims, was one of the finest of its sort ever given here, in the opinion of those who attended. "The emblem of your club, the Lion, characterizes power, courage and pride," the speaker said, "and so Lionism emphasizes power when used in defense of justice, courage when utilized in support of honor and virtue and pride as an element of character made notable because of worthy achievement. "Lions, the name of your club, portrays the principles of Lionism most beautifully. 'Lions' commences with an 'L', and that means 'Loyalty to God'. There can be no true loyalty to man un-
