

TORRENTS OF LAVA BURY TOWNS

LASKER PARTY ON LEVIATHAN STIRS UP WAR

POLITICAL WRANGLE MAY FIGURE IN ELECTION.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright, 1923, by The Escanaba Press) Washington, June 19.—The trial trip of the Leviathan which begins today is a political as well as a nautical event.

The row between the democratic national committee and the United States Shipping Board over what has been termed "a million dollar joy ride" is the first controversy under government operation of ships which has developed a political quarrel, and if it results in a congressional investigation or is made the subject of continued political discussion, the chances are that the whole course of the American Merchant Marine in the future will be vitally affected.

The big point in the controversy is whether the shipping board is to be permitted to do things with government money as private lines do with their own funds. Trial trips are taken by all big liners. Guests are invited and free. It's a part of the good will and advertising campaigns of all shipping companies. But it isn't usual for the government to give away anything free, except goods so there has been a great deal of criticism about the "junk" and even though the shipping board insists the total cost of guests will be only thirteen thousand dollars instead of a million dollars, still the fact that any one gets something gratis is brought into question.

Needs Advertising. What some of the shipping board people now are beginning to fear is that a sentiment may be built up which will influence congress in its appropriations for the shipping board in the future. If objection is made to the expenditure of $13,000 for invited guests as an indirect advertising stunt, objection might be made to the million dollars spent annually by the United States Shipping Board in paid advertising in newspapers and magazines. All the shipping lines are owned by private concerns and it is estimated, about three or four million dollars a year in advertising and the shipping board here feels it must advertise if it wishes to compete for passenger travel.

Arguments On Both Sides. Briefly, the arguments for and against the trial trip of the Leviathan are these:

First, it is unnecessary because a trip has been taken from Newport News to Boston. The answer of the shipping board to this is that the ship would not be operated at full power until after she had had certain repairs made in dry dock and that the experts from the start—nearly two years ago—have planned a trial trip.

Second, that if guests had to be taken the Shipping Board might have taken some of the wounded soldiers. To this the board makes answer that it is not preparing the Leviathan for hospital service and does not feel it should undertake the care and responsibility of the sick men when the trial trip itself will be a series of fire drills, life boat drills, and mechanical speed tests. The object of the trip is to break in the crew and stewards for service on a regular north Atlantic voyage and that training would not be secured in attending convalescent soldiers.

Third, the months of May and June have been lost by delays when money might have been made for the government in the tourist trade. The answer made by the shipping board is that the contractors who reconditioned the vessel couldn't get it finished by June 19 and that the shipping board was unable to get a berth for the Leviathan in Southampton earlier than July 11 so that the first sailing date from America was July 4.

Private Concerns Do It. But the arguments between the political committee and the shipping board involve technical facts and even if the shipping board were proved right in its contention this would not erase the impression that a joyride is being undertaken. The trouble is the government hasn't done this sort of thing even though private concerns have always done it. The Leviathan itself when it was known as the Vaterland, arrived from Germany on her first trial trip with hundreds of newspapermen and business men riding free. As for the partisan feeling in the matter, the democratic nation-

Preus Nominated for Senatorship by Gopher G. O. P.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 19.—Pluralities of Gov. J. A. O. Preus and Magnus Johnson, Republican and Farmer-Labor nominees for United States Senator as a result of yesterday's primaries, continued to increase tonight as belated returns came in.

Preus' lead over Oscar Hallam, his nearest opponent, had reached 26,000 when 2,948 of the state's 3,520 precincts had reported. Johnson continued to gain over Dr. L. A. Fritsche on the Farmer-Labor ballot and in 2,336 precincts Johnson had 43,431 votes as compared to Fritsche's 30,908. On the Democratic ballot, State Senator James A. Carley had 6,204 votes in 2,258 precincts as against Cary's 2,135.

The Republican votes stood: Preus 54,702; Hallam 26,864; Schall 24,509; Anderson 14,717; Powers 13,346.

RETAIL STORES PLAN BIG WEEK

Thousands of Invitations Are Sent Out by Merchants.

Merchants of Escanaba, cooperating in bargain offers and in advertising, are completing plans for a "Greater Escanaba Week" sales.

Thousands of invitations are being sent by the Chamber of Commerce retailers' committee to the people of the surrounding territory and everything possible is done to make the visits of out-of-town shoppers pleasant as well as profitable, it is being done.

Best Trading Center. "Trade in Escanaba, your nearest shopping center and your best one," is the slogan adopted for "Greater Escanaba Week," and the special prices offered in all lines of merchandise are certain to prove once more that no matter what the shopper is looking for, it can be purchased in Escanaba at a price as low or lower as that anywhere in the country.

RUM BLOCKADE AT DETROIT ON

Detroit, June 19.—The rum blockade announced by A. C. Yellowley, chief of the federal prohibition agents yesterday went into effect at Escanaba today. Four motor boats heavily armed began patrolling on the Detroit river in the region of Ecorse, characterized by Mr. Yellowley as "the wettest spot on the river" and the place at which the largest amount of illicit liquor is said to be landed from Canada.

Additional motor boats will be put into patrol service as soon as they can be obtained, James R. Davis, prohibition director for Michigan, announced. Mr. Davis said he would put as many as 200 men on duty along the river if it was found necessary.

BUCKET SHOP MEN SENTENCED

New York, June 19.—Edward M. Fuller and William McGee, confessed bucket shop operators, today were sentenced to serve from one and a quarter to four years in Sing Sing prison for their offense. United States Attorney Hayward indicated that they might be old men before they get a chance to begin serving the terms, which, with time off for good behavior, would amount to eleven months.

Fuller and McGee, jailed by federal court order for contempt in failing to turn over to the receivers in bankruptcy records of their firm, might clear themselves in the eyes of the federal authorities before they can leave Ludlow Street jail to start serving their Sing Sing terms. Mr. Hayward declared. And the only way they can purge themselves, he added, is to yield up the records, with their possible evidence leading to a bucket shop ring, or at least to disclose the workings of this supposed ring and say who its members are.

Pythian Convention Opens Here Today

COSTS OF DOPE CAUSE VICTIMS TO STEAL, KILL

Ring Within Ring Is Rule with Poor Addict of Narcotics.

This is one of a series of articles dealing with the dope traffic, written by Fred V. Williams, a San Francisco newspaper writer, who for several months mingled with some of the world's most notorious drug users.

BE FRED V. WILLIAMS NEA Service Writer.

The price of dope? Before it takes its price in lives dope strips the purse. That's why prison officials the nation over report that drug victims are their best patrons. To get the "stuff" they will rob and kill.

I remember a certain corner where peddlers and addicts met. A little girl, innocent of the part she played, was used as a signal. The fact that this child passed a certain point meant that the road was clear, that the peddlers were coming and no police were in sight.

Within an instant a motley crew began to appear; some in rags and tatters; some well dressed; some twitching; some affecting calm—all feverishly awaiting the arrival of the peddler. It was all done in an instant. Swiftly money had changed for tiny bundles and the salesman had disappeared. So skilled they were at this method of exchange that only the careful watcher could note the passing of money.

And the price: An average of $500 an ounce for cocaine or morphine that was manufactured for about $2.50. The unfortunate users buy from $3 to $5 worth at a time, except in the case of the wealthy addicts who can keep supplies on hand.

Crime Is Caused. To get the money for these little bundles half the crimes in America are committed; more than half in many places.

It is estimated that it costs an addict at least $6 a day to stay "on the junk." Only a very small percentage of users can earn this much a day. They are driven to robbery, burglary, every sort of crime.

Peddlers like "Red Raven" are either "middlemen" or "retailers." There are any number of degrees of dope traders and each makes fat profit. From the smuggler it passes into the hands of those who can buy in goodly quantities; then to the peddler who takes it in ounce parcels, reducing it to "bundles" for the victims.

MAN ARRESTED AS "GIRL" WHO SHOT TESMER

IDENTIFICATION BY WIDOW SAID TO BE POSITIVE.

Chicago, June 19.—Fred Thompson, who for several hours following his arrest today as the "smiling" woman bandit who shot and killed Richard Tesmer during a holdup, had police officials stumped as to whether he was a man or woman, tonight was declared to be a man after a medical examination.

Thompson, posing as the wife of Frank Carrick, was arrested in the Carrick apartments, dressed to fit the part of Carrick's wife, which role he is said to have filled for 14 years, was later taken before Tesmer's widow and there was identified as the woman who shot her husband.

Dressed as Woman. At the request of Mrs. Tesmer, Thompson, still dressed in his female attire was ordered to say a few words and then smile. Mrs. Tesmer, police say, cried that Thompson was the one who shot her husband, and that his smile was identical with the one that was on the face of the woman bandit as she pulled the trigger the night of the holdup.

Thompson, his "husband" and another man and woman were found in the Carrick apartment when police raided it. "Mrs. Carrick, played his part so well that police were in a quandry until Dr. Clara Schappel, a city physician, examined "Mrs. Carrick and ordered that the prisoner be sent to a headquarters for male prisoners and not confined in women's quarters, as previously had been ordered.

Find Male Attire. When arrested Mrs. Carrick wore hobbled auburn hair, a black beaded dress, black silk pumps, and black silk hose. In searching the apartment, several wigs, a loaded revolver and numerous photographs of Mrs. Carrick in both male and female attire were found.

Tesmer was shot as he stepped from his automobile when retiring at night with his wife to their home. Two bandits, one a woman, stopped them at they were about to enter the garage.

BUELL CLINGS TO CONFESSION

New York, June 19.—Ernest Buell, German war veteran, ended eight hours on the witness stand this afternoon, still clinging to his story that he had fired the J. I. Aircraft corporation plant at Central Park, Long Island, last February, at the bidding of John L. Larsen, famous airplane inventor and builder, so that Larsen might collect $150,000 insurance.

STAMBOULISKY BODY MISSING

London, June 19.—A special dispatch to the Times from Slavovitz, Bulgaria, dated June 18 and sent by way of Sofia, says no trace has been found of the body of former Premier Stamboulisky, who was shot and killed last week, and that it is probable friends carried it away and buried it secretly.

The dispatch adds that Stamboulisky's villa was completely pillaged by peasants in a treasure hunt. Daily fresh discoveries were being made of Bulgarian and foreign paper money and, undoubtedly, according to the correspondent, Stamboulisky, in true peasant fashion, had hoarded an enormous sum.

The Sofia correspondent of the Times says the entire country is quiet and that the coup d'etat with its immediate consequences, may be considered as ended.

"Graph" Records Earthquake Shocks

Washington, June 19.—Earth tremors were recorded from 5:52 p. m. to 6:52 p. m. today from Georgetown Seismograph. The intensity reaching a maximum from 6:11 to 6:14. The center of disturbance, according to Fr. Tondorf, in charge of the observatory, appeared to be in central or South America. He said the tremors were "rather severe."

QUIET FOURTH DECIDED UPON FOR ESCANABA

Fireworks Display Will Close Observance of Holiday.

The Fourth of July will be observed quietly in Escanaba. Decision to confine the Chamber of Commerce's participation in the day's activities to a giant display of fireworks at night, was reached by the Fourth of July committee of the chamber, after it had been determined that attractions of various sorts which Secretary Bandeen had been trying to secure, would not be available.

Attractions Disappoint. Mr. Bandeen had been attempting for weeks to book one of the country's biggest circuses for the day. Unfortunately, all of them will be in other sections of the country during the first week of July. An airplane thriller, tentatively contracted for, cancelled and there were other disappointments.

Members of the committee pointed out yesterday that while it would have been possible to go ahead with previous plans, it would not have been possible to stage an extensive or as successful a celebration as was held here in 1922 and rather than cut down on the quality of the attraction, it was decided to confine the affair to the baseball game, the dances and picnics that will be arranged, and to the fireworks display which will be an elaborate spectacle.

Plenty of Entertainment. The chamber has sufficient money in its Fourth of July fund, left over from last year, to finance the fireworks end of the celebration without solicitation. There will be plenty of attractions in the city, however, to entertain all who spend the holiday here.

With the Pythian convention this week, the merchants sales week next week, the Walter L. Maine circus due to appear here late in July and several other big events in the offering, Escanaba will have a busy summer, without an Independence Day celebration.

TROTZKY ASKS MORE "METAL"

Moscow, June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—An attack on England, hint of a Russo-French rapprochement and a place for "more metal in our national character" marked an address by Leon Trotsky, Soviet war minister today before the All-Russian congress of Metal Workers.

"If an ultimatum is presented to us," he exclaimed, referring to the recent British notes, "let us create a detachment of airplanes. If a coup d'etat occurs in Bulgaria, let us build another detachment of airplanes and if there is a coup d'etat in Persia, build more planes."

"The iron in our will must be transferred to the iron wings of airplanes; then we can say, looking high above our squadrons, 'this is a coup d'etat in Persia'—and so on. If we transform the criminality of the bourgeoisie into airplanes, then perhaps we shall be able some day to bring an end to their 'seminality.'" M. Trotsky, said England and Italy, had, according to information at hand, assisted in the coup d'etat in Bulgaria and British had aided in the nationalist overthrow in Persia.

Harding Prepares to Start Long Trip

Washington, June 19.—President Harding will leave Washington shortly after noon tomorrow on the longest trip of his administration—a trip that will take him across the continent, to Alaska, into Canada, along the Pacific coast, to the Panama Canal zone, and to Porto Rico and will keep him away from the capital for at least two months. The vast territory of Alaska, never before visited by a president, is Mr. Harding's goal. Long before he was even mentioned for the presidency, he came under "the spell of the Yukon" and since entering the white house he has had the dream of being able to visit the territory and study at first hand the problems which have arisen there in so great a number.

Honduras will have a presidential election. Watch the Press for news of killed and wounded.

SHIP DOCTORS MAY PRESCRIBE INTOXICANTS

SURGEON GENERAL'S ORDERS ARE MADE PUBLIC.

Washington, June 19.—Ship doctors on foreign vessels entering American territorial waters will be permitted while there under instructions sent to port authorities by the treasury, to regulate the issuance of medicinal liquor to their craft.

The department's public health officials are to give full consideration to the professional opinion of the ship's doctors, "thus enabling them to carry out measures which they believe to be necessary to preserve the health of the personnel under their care."

Beverages Banned. The text of the letter sent yesterday by Secretary Mellon to the public health service, instructing its personnel at various ports to comply fully with foreign laws relating to medicinal liquor allowances aboard ships of their nationals, was revealed in the instructions, distributed to medicinal officers in the service by Surgeon General Cummings.

Agreement was general that the instructions have opened the door for ship physicians to include whatever liquors ordinarily are provided as crew rations in the category of "medicinal" requirements. There was no denial of this interpretation from any source, but treasury officials made it known that beverage liquor shall remain under prohibition by the supreme court decision barring it from American waters.

Home Law Governs. The surgeon general said he had been instructed by Secretary Mellon as follows:

"You will advise the officers of the U. S. Public Health Service at the alienist ports that when the officers or authorities of any foreign merchant vessel within the territorial waters of the United States make application for the privilege of using liquors for medicinal purposes under the provisions of treasury decision 2484 and the laws of the country of the home ports of such vessel shall prescribe a given quantity of liquor for medicinal purposes, such quantities shall be allowed by the public health officer in charge."

SAVE LIQUOR, AGENTS TOLD

New Orleans, La., June 19.—Federal prohibition enforcement officers who destroyed imported or bottled liquor in raids face prosecution on charges of destruction of government property, United States District Attorney Louis Burns declared here tonight.

The district attorney explained that all liquors suitable for medicinal or scientific purposes should be confiscated and not destroyed until an order by the court. The government, he added, sells liquor to druggists, physicians, and laboratories after it has been tested by chemists and its destruction is a loss of revenue.

Mr. Burns' statement was issued when his attention was called to the destruction of 1,800 quarts of fine wines and liquor in a raid by federal agents here Saturday, of which some were said to have been pre-Volstead stock.

T. P. A. Opposes Rail Ownership

MYSTIC STAFF SEIZED

London, June 19.—Learnt that the people of Linguaglossa were carrying in procession the staff of Saint Egidio which is supposed to have miraculous power of stopping the advance of lava, the people of Cantigine marched to Linguaglossa, according to a dispatch to the Central News and forcibly seized the staff, tending to use it to save the town. The struggle of the staff was so alarming that military forces were called out but in the meantime a bishop arrived and took possession of staff.

Several women well known English society, including at least two ladies of title, are among their depleted incomes running public houses.

MT. ETNA POUR FORTH STREAM OF ROCK, ASHES

INHABITANTS LEAVE HOMES; FLEE FOR SAFETY.

Catania, Italy, June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—The great lava torrent from Mount Etna, bearing in its flow great masses of earth and volcanic stone, is advancing inexorably and has already reached the houses of the outskirts of the town of Linguaglossa. Green fields, orange groves and vineyards have been swallowed up, and for miles around the atmosphere is suffocating with volcanic smoke and a rain of black smoke and ashes which is covering the lovely countryside like a pall.

Several of the small houses in Linguaglossa have been shaken down by the frequent earth shocks, and the one smiling little town which until the last it was thought might be spared, is directly in the line of the lava and doubtless doomed to destruction.

The molten stream traveling about 40 yards an hour, and therefore, unless some miracle happens, Linguaglossa will go under during the night. Confronting it is a lava flow 800 yards wide and nearly 30 feet deep.

Relief Workers Busy. Smaller torrents of lava, diverted from the central stream threatened the villages of Randazzo and Bronte, from which many tourists made the ascent of Mount Etna, and other nearby towns.

The work of clearing threatened town is being carried out with the greatest energy and admirable organization. Discipline is necessary to induce the terrified inhabitants to abandon their beloved homes but their removal is carried out with sympathy and kindness. Airplanes are being used for the first time to watch the progress of the eruptions and special signalling stations have been established at various strategic points, giving confidence to the people in the fact that they are being protected. Special units of the Red Cross with all supplies, have been dispatched to care for the homeless wanderers and provide food and shelter for them.

Inhabitants Move Slowly. The exodus of the inhabitants began soon after the first eruption and a steady line has been slowly traveling in the direction of safety for the past two days. When they started from the homes—the people were loaded with household treasures, but gradually along the road they have been abandoned. Mothers carrying their children are crowded upon little hand carts among the fugitives and innumerable cases of stalwart peasants carry on their shoulders aged relatives unable to walk who otherwise would have been obliged to remain awaiting death in their abandoned home.

Village priests, bearing crucifixes or the statue of the patron saint, accompanied the procession and encouraged the parishioners. The murmured chants prayers rises above the rumblings of the eruption and the patter of falling stones and clenders; the stricken people seem in dumb despair, hard conscious of whether they are going, invoking the saint and quivering tremulously, "what have we done to be visited with this awful scourge?"

Searchers Cease Dragging Bay for Young Man's Body

Coincident with the report on Monday that searching parties had given up their week old quest for the body of Lorenz Welch, Green Bay log scaler who disappeared from a tug last Tuesday while working in the vicinity of Stonington, there came information which has raised a question as to whether the young man met his death by drowning, as had been the original surmise.

This information is contained in one of the sworn statements taken from a member of the crew of the tug, "Butterfield" which was working nearby at the time Welch was supposed to have fallen from the smaller tug, "Lillian."

According to statements of members of the smaller tug's crew, Welch was aboard at the time they tied up to the boom to begin the work of unloading the deck load of pulpwood. However, according to the statement from one of the Butterfield's crew, a body was seen to fall from the deck of the Lillian and a white cap was seen floating about in the wake of the tug at least a quarter mile from where the tug finally tied up.

This is met with the reply from members of the Lillian's crew that the object seen going overboard was an old automobile tire which was hung by a rope at the water line to act as a fender between the hull and the boom. This does not explain the white object which the other person claimed to have seen bobbing about in the wake of the tug, nor does it completely eliminate the variance in time which has been noted.

Was Good Swimmer. Welch was known as an exceptionally good swimmer. This would tend to discount the theory of accidental drowning, unless he had fallen overboard and struck his head on a log or some other object which would render him insensible. Suicide theories are dismissed on the ground that the young man was always in excellent health and spirits, with, apparently, not a care in the world.

There remains the possibility of foul play, although no friction between the missing man and the other members of the crew had been noted. Nothing can be determined in this until the body is recovered. Unless it is found soon, its condition will be such that a post mortem examination would show little. Any bruises or marks which are found could as well be caused by contact with the bottom of the bay as by any other means. A feeling is expressed in some quarters that evidences of a

Henry is a product of the Cleveland sandlots. He is really a protégé of Manager Lee Fohl of the Browns. Fohl lives in Cleveland and plucked him from the corner lots.

Salary differences, that caused friction between Henry and club officials, is given as reason for his failure to get a chance with the Browns.

BLANKS GIANTS IN FIRST GAME

Failed to Get Chance in American; Makes Good with Brooklyn.

Major league phenoms do not sprout on the bench or in the minors.

For example, there is Francis Joseph Henry, a youthful southpaw, plucked by the St. Louis Browns in the fall of the 1921 season.

As he had lacked major league experience, he was turned over to the Mobile club of the Southern Association for seasoning, and although he established the remarkable record of winning 19 games and losing but four, he sat on the Browns' bench again during the spring of 1923.

New League Marvel.
 Today Henry is regarded as the new southpaw phenom in the National League.

His transfer from the American League resulted in an exchange when the Browns, desiring for a first baseman to fill George Sisler's shoes, accepted Fred Schleibner from the Superbas and gave Henry, a rookie, as the price.

Henry was introduced to the National League via the Giants. He made his debut against Hugh McQuillan, and came home with a 3-0 victory, allowing five hits.

When the Browns put in their claim for Schleibner on the waiver request filed by the Superbas, this proposition was met with a bid for Henry by the Dodgers.

No Hesitation.
 The Browns did not hesitate. They had Henry on their bench, had not used him all spring and felt that they were giving away a canceled postage stamp and obtaining a Liberty Bond in return.

But the shrewd Wilbert Robinson had some information on the Judge Flannigan Is "Graduate" At U. of M. Tuesday

Judge Richard C. Flannigan, member of the University of Michigan law class of 1878, received his degree of "Bachelor of Law" at the seventy-ninth annual Commencement held at the University on Tuesday.

Judge Flannigan attended the university for a short time, but failed to complete his course. The degree he received on Tuesday was the one he would have received at graduation, had he completed his course.

The degree was awarded by Judge, forty five years after he had left the school, in recognition of his enviable record both as a lawyer and as a member of the bench.

WHAT ARTIST SAW AT GIBBONS' CAMP

STORM KEEPS JACK INDOORS

Champion Foregoes Roadwork; Gibbons Increases His Boxing.

Great Falls, Mont., June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—A heavy rainstorm of all day duration forced Jack Dempsey, who already is suffering from a slight cold, to work out today in the old dance pavilion, converted into an indoor gymnasium at his camp, and to forego his usual run over the hills. The champion indulged in a workout equivalent to ten rounds, boxing six rounds with a trio of sparring partners before running back through the rain to his living quarters for ten minutes of calisthenics and a brisk rub-down.

GIBBONS GOES FIFTEEN.
Shelby, Mont., June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—While Shelby was shivering in another chilly downpour that lasted throughout the day Tom Gibbons this afternoon indulged in the most strenuous workout he has ever had since he began training for his title bout here with Jack Dempsey July 4. Kid Herman entered the challenger in a furious three rounds that completed the workout which was equivalent to 15 rounds after Gibbons had skipped rope, gone through three rounds of shadow boxing and clashed with two other sparring partners.

YANKEES HAVE PENNANT PUNCH

Evans Gives Reasons for Their Leadership of League.

BY BILLY EVANS.
Getting the breaks wins ball games. Good clubs always seem to get the breaks.

That in a sense is true. Yet looking from another angle, it must be admitted that winning ball clubs make many of the breaks that come their way and decide ball games.

During the recent trip of the New York Americans through the west, the Yankees made a remarkable record by winning 12 of the 13 games played on the trip. To meet with such success it was absolutely necessary that the Yankees get the breaks.

Yankees Win Series.
Since the Yanks have returned east, everywhere you hear stories about how lucky the American League chumps were to win a number of the games on the western invasion. Possibly so, but to win ball games you must make the most runs. You must have the punch to make the most of the opportunities offered.

I upmired the series that the New York club played in St. Louis. Meetings between the Browns and the Yanks always produce plenty of action. The series recently played was no exception. It abounded in thrills.

New York won the entire four games. Two of the games went to the Yankees because the Browns were clearly outplayed. The other two games were won by New York because Huggins' men got the breaks and packed the punch to make the most of them.

In one game Van Gilder gave a masterly exhibition of pitching. He really deserved a shut-out but was beaten, 4 to 1. Here is the how.

Leonard Signs to Meet Lew Tendler

New York, June 19.—(By the Associated Press)—Benny Leonard of New York, lightweight champion of the world, will defend his title in a 15-round match with Lew Tendler, Philadelphia southpaw, at the Yankee stadium on the night of July 23. The boys, together with their managers, late today signed contracts for the bout with the newly organized Cromwell Athletic Club, which has obtained ring privileges at the American League park.

It was the consensus of the veterans of other days that the pitching end of the game had slipped more than any other department, yet no one was able to advance a logical reason, other than that the abolition of freak pitching had cut into the effectiveness of a great many twirlers who had come to depend almost entirely on such a style.

great pitching staff, constitute a barrier that is hard to overcome. The Yankees are getting the breaks. Winning ball clubs always do. But don't overlook the fact that the Yankees are making many of the breaks and are able to take advantage of the opportunities offered.

UPBAYS HANG HOPE ON KUHN

Giant Twirler Adds Much Power to Gladstone's Ball Club.

Gladstone's baseball team with Kuhn, their inter hurler who is best known to upper peninsula fans under the name of Peters, on the firing line, should give the Escanaba club some lively competition at South Park Thursday afternoon.

Gladstone's weakness earlier in the year was in the pitching department. Fans in the upbay city believe that this condition has been remedied by the return of Peters to the aggregation and they are coming to Escanaba prepared to back their nine to the limit.

Escanaba, however, is taking a different view of the situation. Admitting that Kuhn is a pitcher of unusual ability, they do not concede that he is unbeatable, and are confident that the locals can solve his delivery sufficiently to annex a winning collection of runs.

Either Schwartz or Krasnick will pitch for Escanaba. Both are in good condition. The game will be the first mid-week battle of the year and coming on a retail grocer's and meat men's half holiday during a big convention, it ought to draw a sizeable gate.

BATTERY MEN LEADING ESKY TEAM HITTERS

Eddie Schwartz, pitcher, is still leading the Escanaba baseball team with the willow. In five games Schwartz has hit safely 7 times in 19 trips to the plate "Whitey" Moberg, Schwartz' battery mate, is second on the list with an average of .355. Credit for the most hits goes to Manager Jack Perrin who has connected safely 12 times in 35 times at bat.

The averages follow:
Schwartz .519 4 7 .368
Moberg .8 21 12 11 .355
Olmstead .7 20 6 7 .350

BILL EVANS SAYS

It is the wish of every major league manager to inject as much batting strength as possible into his lineup.

The American League boasts of two unusual youngsters in Riggs Stephenson of Cleveland and Dick Reichle of Boston. Stephenson is a right-handed hitter, while Reichle swears 'em from the port side. Stephenson came to the American League three years ago. Reichle joined Boston in the fall of last year.

Unquestionably Stephenson and Reichle are the hardest hitting youngsters to break into the majors in years. Strangely enough, both of them are collegians, Stephenson coming direct from the University of Alabama, while Reichle learned the rudiments of baseball at Illinois. Prior to his coming to Boston he had a brief minor league career.

Despite the fact that these two youngsters are capable of batting well over .300, neither has as yet been able to win a regular berth. Stephenson has had a whirl at every infield position on the Cleveland club and has also done a bit of outfielding. His fielding has retarded his chances to break into the lineup regularly. Perhaps some day Stephenson will find his place and his club will get the benefit of his great batting ability.

Reichle, the Boston Red Sox recruit, is in much the same boat as Stephenson. When he joined the Boston club he hit almost entirely to left field. He soon was taught the tricks of pulling a ball pitched on the inside down the right field line. Now Reichle can hit hard to any field, quite an accomplishment for a left-handed batter. There is really no way to play the big fellow. He hits them according to where they are pitched.

Reichle is an outfielder. Apparently his ability to hit is a natural gift. Before he can take full advantage of that gift, however, he must acquire the art of fielding. The knack of judging and timing a fly ball and the handling of ground hits are yet to be learned. If Reichle masters the art of fielding as soon as he learned the tricks of batting, Boston is soon going to have a very valuable youngster in the regular lineup.

Reichle has plenty of confidence in himself. He is sure that it is only a matter of time until it will be impossible to keep him out of the daily batting order. Manager Chance is working with him every day, and like Reichle, feels that the recruit will soon overcome his fielding faults. Until such a time the youngsters will confine his activities to pinch hitting, at which he has already made good with a vengeance, and to getting into the game at odd times when Chance needs hitting, regardless of any other drawbacks.

"In the old days every club had at least four high-class pitchers. Some had five and six. However, every club had four star twirlers of almost equal ability. That meant that a batsman faced high-class pitching every day. My observation of the modern game is that few clubs have as many as four star pitchers. Most of them have only two. That means that on certain days, with the stars out of the way, the opposing batters face only ordinary pitching. There you have the real reason for the slugging tactics of today."

WILSON LEADS MANISTIQUE TEAM AT BAT

Manistique, June 19.—(Special)—Manistique's swat artists are awaiting the pill with unusual vehemence so far this season, and the batting averages released today for the first five contests presage trouble for opposing pitchers who have to meet the local maulers. Of the following averages, six are clouting .300 or over, with every indication that they will continue their present stride.

During several fanning bees I talked over this feature of play with fellows like Larry Lajoie, Jimmy Collins, Bill Bradley, Jimmy Archer, Kip Selbach, Cy Young and many others. Some of the players who discussed the angle of increased hitting, in which home runs predominated, were great batters in their day, others were star pitchers. Such a discussion made it possible to air the increased hitting subject from the angle of batting and pitching.

Noronic Grounds Sunday. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 19.—Although the 400 members of the Detroit Board of Commerce... Sault (their steamer the Noronic) they had a good view of the widely heralded Soothing Soo, while the ship was held fast on the south shore of the river opposite the Country Club for one hour.

The Noronic grounded on the shore just below coast guard station number 3, but after an hour's struggle, managed to work herself off without the assistance of tugs.

The voyagers were returning from a lake trip to Houghton, where they royally were entertained by the board of commerce of the Copper City.

Heavy Movements Sunday. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—Traffic through the St. Mary's Falls canal Sunday was the greatest recorded at the canal office this season. There were 112 boats locked east and west bound. Sixty-four boats passed here going to eastern ports, and 48 vessels went into Lake Superior.

Coming and Going. Arrived: Cornelius, Mariposa, Wickwire, Jr., Theo. H. Wickwire. Cleared: (All).

Thirty Watermelons Stolen from Boxcar

Report was made to the police yesterday morning of the theft of thirty ripe watermelons from a car spotted at the Gimble-Robinson warehouse Monday night. The car had been partially unloaded on Monday and the door fastened with a heavy padlock. This lock had been forced open with a heavy bar or some similar object. Police incline to the theory that the job was the work of a gang of young lads who have been giving a little trouble on the north side of town during the past few weeks. Arrests are expected soon.

Each pay day that gets by without something put in the bank, plunges them deeper and deeper into debt to themselves. And it's only good luck that keeps them from burdensome debt to others.

SPEAKERS LAUD ACTIVITIES OF CLUB MEMBERS

Civic Club Addressed by Judge Fead and Mil- waukee Attorney.

"Our interests lie hand in hand with yours," declared Attorney Ricks of Milwaukee, commenting on the Manistique Civic Club on Schoolcraft county land holdings of Marquette University, whom he represents.

The University owns thousands of acres in the northern part of the county, and are at the present time engaged in a survey to determine what the land is best fitted for. When completed, the survey will be a complete economic summary of the land's assets.

Mr. Ricks was in the city on legal matters for the University, and came as a guest to the Civic Club luncheon at the invitation of J. J. Herbert, local attorney.

In the course of his short talk to the club men, the Milwaukee lawyer also mentioned the Manistique to Shingleton road, and gave assurance that all efforts of local men to improve the road would receive the hearty co-operation of the University.

Judge Louis H. Fead and Court Reporter John A. France were also guests at the Monday dinner, and Judge Fead was asked to give a short talk.

Praise for Cooperation.

The judges lauded the work of the Manistique club in co-operating with the city council on civic problems, and praised the club in general for their optimism. Such clubs, he said, could do much for the welfare of the city.

Referring to the coming Curtis tri-county picnic, the judge reported that he had represented Manistique at a recent directors' meeting, and that plans had been made for a bigger affair than ever this year, when residents of Schoolcraft, Luce and Mackinac counties gather at a get-together picnic.

Injured Workman Improving Slowly

Bert Borkony, who recently sustained internal injuries when pinned between two barges laden with ore while at work at the local plant of the Charcoal Iron Company, is reported as resting easily at the hospital. It was first thought that the injuries were serious but upon investigation, only minor bruises were revealed. He will probably return to work within two weeks.

CITY BRIEFS

Miss Edith Dreydahl arrived in the city Monday from Marquette to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dreydahl. She has been attending the Northern State Normal the past year.

Mrs. Henry Gauthier of Garden, who recently submitted to an operation at the local hospital is reported as improving nicely.

Some real bargains in used cars at the Manistique Garage company used car sale, June 19 to 28.

ADJOURN COURT MONDAY AFTER SHORT SESSION

Four criminal and three civil cases get action during day.

Four criminal cases faced Judge Fead Monday at the opening session of circuit court. Only one case was disposed of, the remainder being transferred to the next term of court. The present session adjourned late Monday afternoon and will be continued June 27, at 10 a. m.

In the case of the people vs. Hardy Olmstead for violation of the liquor laws, the defendant pleaded guilty and was placed on probation until the January term of court. The sentence of Chas. Anderson, arraigned on the same charge, was deferred until the next term. Oscar S. Boyce pleaded guilty to charges of desertion and his case will be up likewise at the next session for the court's consideration.

Felix Brassier arraigned on a similar count, pleaded not guilty and his trial will be enacted before Judge Fead in September.

In the suit pending between Robert Rubin and A. J. Smith, a motion for a new trial was granted. The motion to set aside and dismiss the case of the Western Coal company vs. the City Fuel company was denied. A. M. Chesborough was appointed receiver of the Manistique Handle company in place of Elmer Ekdahl, resigned.

Curwood Play Has Natural Setting

The mystery of a man found strangled fifth of twisted strand of woman's hair is the motive of "The Valley of Silent Men," a Cosmopolitan picturization of the story by James Oliver Curwood.

Frank Borzage, the celebrated director of Cosmopolitan Productions, went with his entire company to the Canadian Rockies, where he filmed James Oliver Curwood's famous story, "The Valley of Silent Men," amid the scenes which the author described so vividly in his novel.

Unless studio reports and the evidence of many beautiful photographs taken on location are misleading, Mr. Borzage has not only "Nature Illustrated" Mr. Curwood's thrilling romance of the Great White North, but has scored another Cosmopolitan success, comparable with his "Homesquear."

Work Progresses On "Big 4th" Program

Matters relative to Manistique's Independence Day celebration were discussed in a general way at a convocation held in the city hall Monday evening. Because of the small number of chairmen of the various committees in attendance, it was deemed necessary to hold another meeting the latter part of this week when members of all the committees are urged to be present. Active solicitation for funds were begun yesterday by the committee on finance, and the drive is expected to be completed this week.

Lakesides Lose To West Side Canucks

Lakeside's amateur sandloters suffered their first reverse of the present baseball season when they were taken into camp by the West Side "Canucks" at the later's grounds Monday afternoon. The score at the cessation of hostilities stood 9-0. Anderson, the West Side moundsman proved to be an enigma for the opposition, and held them at his mercy the entire nine frames. Both clubs are dicker for a return contest and it is probable that a tilt will be arranged soon.

Lumber Yard worker Breaks Collar Bone

Dave Robare, an employe at the Brown Lumber company suffered a broken collar bone Monday while at work in his capacity around the plant. He was given treatment immediately at the local hospital and allowed to go home for recuperation. Because of the advanced age of Robare, it is very probable that he will be detained from work for a considerable length of time.

Lower Grades Join In Athletic Meet

In an effort to stimulate athletic fervor among the younger folks of the city, Coach Johnson of the local high school has outlined a program of track events to be staged at the fair grounds Thursday. Ribbons designating different honors will be awarded to the various winners. Much interest in the coming events has already been evinced and all indications point to a successful meet. The meet is opened and restricted to children below the eighth grade. The program follows:

Class A—100 yard dash, running high jump, running broad jump, shot put, discus throw.
Class B—75 yard dash, running high jump, running broad jump, discus throw.
Class C—50 yard dash, running high jump, running broad jump.

Scouts Prepare For New Leaders

Committees in charge of local scout organizations are actively engaged these days in mustering up the youthful elements of the city, so that a regular camp can be presented when Bayard Schumaker, scout executive from Lebanon, Indiana, comes to the city about June 25 to assume charge here. The committee on leadership report meeting with good success in obtaining scout masters, and it is thought that the entire personnel will be established when Mr. Schumaker arrives in the city. A meeting of the entire council will be held then. Applications for membership are now in the possession of Dr. Meade, and any youths between the ages of 12 to 18 who contemplate enlistment may obtain information and application blanks from him.

Upper Classmen in Reunion on Friday

The scholastic and athletic rivalry that has existed throughout the year among the Juniors and Seniors of the local high school has terminated in a warm friendship just as the Senior class is about to make its ingress from it Alma Mater. And now we find the impetuous undergraduates attempting to dissuade the rancor that has prevailed throughout the year by "dining and winning" their older schoolmates at a general get-together Friday afternoon. The festivities will be conducted at Chesborough's Landing and will include a round of pleasure in the afternoon. In the evening, all will assemble at Fitch's pavilion for dancing, thus concluding and effecting a reconciliation among Juniors and Seniors.

K. C. Card Party Is Complete Success

The K. C. Hall stirred with unusual activity Monday evening when a large crowd assembled there for social entertainment, provided by the Catholic Order of Foresters. Cards and dancing were the principal events of the evening and they were hilariously participated in by those in attendance. Gorscho's orchestra furnished their music for the evening and continued their melodious strains until midnight. At cards, Miss Anna Dupont placed first, Mrs. Golden receiving consolatory honors. Among the gentlemen, Mr. Dan McCaulley netted first honors, William Bebeau accepting consolation.

Change in Schedule Will Delay Mail

A change in the C. & N. W. train schedule, by which train No. 217 from Chicago arrives in Escanaba at 2:15 in the afternoon instead of 1:55 as formerly, has delayed the afternoon delivery of mail in Gladstone one hour as the mail is no longer placed on the two o'clock street car as formerly. The local carriers wait for the four o'clock car and make the late delivery in the city. This will probably have to be discontinued after the summer months.

Magical Beautifiers For Women

Women everywhere are trying all kinds of beautifiers, only to find that their effects are transitory. The first requisite of beauty is health. Without it the steps, eyes are lusterless, dark circles appear beneath them, the complexion becomes sallow, and almost invariably the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to women. There is a very inexpensive remedy for this condition in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly fifty years has been relieving women from some of the worst forms of female ills. Why not let it restore you to health and beauty and the joys of living?—Adv.

ANOTHER M. A. C. STAR ADDED TO LOCAL LINEUP

Johnson Will Make First Appearance in Game Thursday.

Another M. A. C. star has been added to the Gladstone lineup and he will appear against Escanaba in the game to be played there Thursday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. He is W. E. Johnson, pitcher and first baseman, who with "Bubs" Kuhn formed the pitching staff that won thirteen out of seventeen games for the Michigan Aggies this year.

Johnson may stay with the locals for the rest of the year but this has not been definitely decided. He was the leading batsman for the college team.

Kuhn will do the pitching for the locals against Escanaba, and local fans, confident of getting a game against Escanaba will go there in large numbers to see the game. Kuhn allowed Marquette 33 hits last Sunday but he was effective in the pitcher, striking out 11 batsmen. He won against Escanaba last year and at the rate he has been pitching should have no trouble in turning in Thursday's game for the locals.

Gladstone fans will also be glad to welcome Ed Feeney back at short stop. He also played great ball for M. A. C. this year and the local fans are very proud of him as he is a home player who has made good.

Games have been scheduled between the two teams for Labor Day. It was announced yesterday by Manager John Mathy.

TWO SPEEDERS PAY FINE AND COURT COSTS

Two violators of the traffic regulations taken into custody by Officer Jerry LeClair paid fines in justice court Monday and Tuesday.

Gladstone members of the Pythian Sisters are also planning to attend several sessions of the convention, the Sisters to meet at the Knights of Pythias' hall in the First National Bank building of Escanaba.

Children's Clinic
Largely Attended;
Complete Success

The children's clinic which was held at the Franklin school building Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Franklin school Parent-Teachers' Association was a success from every standpoint.

Children of pre-school age were examined, weighed and measured and between 25 and 30 little ones were cared for during the clinic, which was in charge of Miss Flora Bowman, school nurse, and Drs. Snyder, Moll and Walsh. Drs. Defnet and Carlson, who were to take part in the clinic, were unable to attend, owing to pressing engagements elsewhere.

The P. T. A. was represented by Mrs. Moll, president; Mrs. B. Young, secretary; Mrs. B. Semer, Mrs. Engel, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. J. H. King, Mrs. R. Schwartz, Mrs. H. Mink, Mrs. E. C. Royce, Mrs. G. Mashek.

Several cases of enlarged tonsils were found, also defective eyesight and some poor teeth. A few little ones were found to be underweight, but all records had not been checked up to a week last night and a more complete report will be published later.

The baby is not a plaything; it is a great responsibility and its general health depends on the parents or guardians. The best tonics are fresh air, sunshine and a cheerful disposition. Good food and properly prepared food is essential to the general health of the little ones.

A THOUGHT

Let him that stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.—Eph. 4:28.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.

As the engagement of little Jackie Coogan in "Oliver Twist" draws near its close at the Delft Theater, the impression gains strength that this is one of the biggest and most notable picture products yet created for the screen.

Not only in the "size" of the production, but in its "intimacy," is art value being recognized; not only does it appeal to the youngsters, but to the matured as well.

It seems to be as nearly perfect as a picture play can be, an entertainment for everybody. Even the pedant and library bookworm, for whom the theater usually exerts but the slightest influence, is concerned with "Oliver Twist" to see in what manner the literary spirit of Charles Dickens is set forth upon the screen and by what processes of elimination the narrative as composed by the immortal novelist have been applied to the limits of a screen presentation.

That Frank Lloyd, in making the adaptation, has employed the rarest judgment and keenest sympathies is unanimously agreed by Delft patrons; that the production is all that was claimed for it is likewise agreed and that little Jackie Coogan, the bright star of a brilliant aggregation of players, is at the very apex of his matured yet youthful art is overwhelmingly conceded.

Lon Chaney, Gladys Brockwell, George Seigmann, Lionel Belmore, Edouard Trebaol, Joan Standing, James H. Marcus, Aggie Herring, Carl Stockdale and Eddie Boland are but few of the many distinguished players to give Jackie ideal support in his first "superproduction" for Associated First National Pictures, Inc.

AT THE STRAND.

If you want to renew your youth, or if you are young and want to see a realistic story of human life unfolded before your eyes, then you will receive the full measure of your desire in the first series of Film Guild productions, "Second Fiddle," which comes to the Strand theater today.

This is a gripping and entertaining drama of intense human interest. It deals with that age-old problem, the eternal triangle, in the persons of two young men and a girl. The story is by Frank Tuttle and was directed under his personal supervision, which is a guarantee in itself of its excellence.

Herbert Bradley, the pride of Spell's River, comes home from college, where he has been sent at the expense of his parents and his younger brother, Jim, who works in the garage. Herbert lords it over Jim and the folks, and with the aid of a tight-fitting suit and many social graces and accomplishments proceeds to discredit Jim with the girl he loves and win her for himself. Jim's sense of inferiority causes him to slip in the background, and apparently Herbert has things his own way. The plot unfolds a series of suspenseful and dramatic events. How Jim finally asserts himself and wins the girl of his heart makes an intense and gripping climax.

Jim is portrayed by the imitable Glenn Hunter. Mary Astor plays the role of the dainty and lovable Polly Crawford. Townsend Martin is convincing as Herbert. Other notable members of the cast are William Nally, Leslie Stowe, Mary Foy,

Quick Quaker

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

The quickest cooking oats in the world

These are small thin flakes which are partly cooked. But the quality and flavor are identical with regular Quaker Oats.

Regular Quaker

The kind you have always used

Your grocer has both styles—take your choice. The coupon is good for a package of either, Quaker Oats now comes in two styles—the Quick and the Regular.

Quick Quaker Oats—perfected by our experts—is the quickest cooking oats in the world. It cooks to perfection in from 3 to 5 minutes. It cooks as well as an hour would cook it. Experts certify to that.

So Quick Quaker is almost ready to eat. It is ready before the coffee.

Both flaked from queen grains
Both have that extra flavor

Quaker Oats stands supreme among oat foods the world over. Millions of oat lovers send overseas to get it. Nowhere on earth do people find an oat dish that compares.

The reason lies in flavor. Quaker is flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. A bushel of choice oats yields but ten pounds of these delicious flakes.

Quick Quaker is made from the same queen oats. But the grains are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked—roasted and steamed 90 minutes.

So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

The kind that children love

Quaker Oats is made to foster the love of oats. The oat is supreme food. As a food for growth and as vim-food nothing can take its place.

Oats yield 1810 calories of nutriment per pound, while round steak yields 890. Oats supply 16 needed elements in a balanced form. They are rich in minerals which growing children need. So the oat forms almost a complete food—nearly the ideal food!

Every mother wants to make this dish inviting, and we make these luscious flakes to aid her. Yet they cost no extra price. Quaker Oats, in either style, costs but one-half cent per dish.

New Service
Fitted
To New Possibilities

WE move swiftly in America—change is the order of the day—industrial economics are changing—labor relationships are changing. The size of the oil business is changing and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) keeping step with progress, is changing its methods of doing business, to meet the new conditions as they arise.

We invent, and improve, and learn, and go ahead.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) developed the Burton Process to increase the recovery of gasoline to meet the demand caused by the increasing number of automotive machines. It improved merchandising methods until its distribution and marketing systems are the standard of efficiency for the industry.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) developed new methods of handling its business. Many of these are applied to administration inside the organization,—as for instance, the Industrial Relations Plan, the Annuity Plan, and the Stock Purchasing Plan, all of which have resulted in bringing the Company and its employees closer together.

Other methods have expanded the Company's activities in new directions,—as for instance, in the development of a chain of service stations located at convenient points throughout the ten Middle Western states where the motorist may secure his requirements of fuel and oil in such quantities as he may need.

This is but one of the many improvements which the Company has adopted to better the service which it is rendering the people of the Middle West.

All these methods tend to hold down prices. This is recognized in a recent article in Petroleum Age which says, "No other product or power of like value, obtained at such expense and under such hazardous conditions, is furnished the people at such reasonable prices at all points of the country, as oil and its products."

In the petroleum industry the real problem of the hour is service. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is continually fitting new service to new possibilities and adapting its established service to meet new conditions. This policy makes for prosperous business, without which no nation can hope for general prosperity.

As the demand for petroleum products increases, it will be found that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has put itself, by progressive development of new possibilities, in a position to give a service commensurate with the increasing demand.

Skipper of Pittsburg's Toonerville Trolley Minds Babies!

SHOWING THE TWO-MULE POWER LINE AND ITS "SKIPPER," F. B. CAMPBELL (AT LEFT).

By NEA Service.
Pittsburg.—They call him "motorman."
But "Skipper" F. B. Campbell, general factotum on Pittsburg's "Toonerville Trolley," never handles a controller.
He does pull a mean pair of lines, though.
And he never has to worry about the trolley coming off. There isn't any on his car.
For his power is furnished by mules. It's the last of its line in Pennsylvania.
The car traverses a South Side street 10 hours a day. Campbell has been its driver and conductor for years.
He knows everybody along the line. And everybody knows him, especially the women folks and kiddies.
Often he's called upon to do his passengers' marketing. And sometimes he minds the babies, too!
He wouldn't trade his run for the best in town, he says.

A LA RUSSE.
The cub reporter had been sent to get his first interview—one with a famous Russian dancer—who had just arrived on the S. S. Hypocrite. After he had gained entrance to the star's dressing room he began, pronouncing his words slowly and carefully:
"What—can—you—tell—me—of—your—early—career—in—Russia—and—your—first—impressions—of—this—country?"
"Oh, jot down any old thing, kid," replied the celebrated danseuse. "I'm tired out to-night and want to get back to the old dump in Three Rivers, Michigan."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK
When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once.
Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.
Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready to use preparation because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.
