COOLIDGE ON INSIDE TRACK IN G.O.P. RACE

SEEMS LIKELY FLAG BEARER FOR 1924 CAMPAIGN.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright, 1923, by The Escanaba Press) Washington, Sept. 15.—President Coolidge's first month in the White House has been so full of surprises that those who thought the republican race in 1924 would be a free-for-all must defer judgment...

HE IS CANDID.

The president's relations with the press have been full of candor. He has been explicit and informative in his semi-weekly talks with the correspondents. He has been keenly alert in his conferences with public officials in digging into intricate problems.

NATURALLY ONE MAY CREDIT MR. COOLIDGE WITH A HUMAN AMBITION TO SUCCEED HIMSELF.

While eschewing politics itself, the new president has shown every disposition to make friends and to retain the friends president Harding had. Few men could have been as meticulous about preserving the Harding circle.

DIVORCING MR. COOLIDGE FROM ANY INTENTIONAL THOUGHT OF THE EFFECT OF SUCH A POLICY ON HIS OWN POLITICAL FORTUNES.

It is a fact the best way for the president to inherit Mr. Harding's political strength with the republican party is to act loyally toward the Harding appointees. At the moment it would appear that he has not only won their sincere cooperation in administrative affairs but their political influence.

RICKARD ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR RETURN MATCH.

New York, Sept. 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo have not settled their title stew, despite the world champion's victory last night at the Polo Grounds, in a swirling, cyclonic drama, unparalleled in ring history.

Would Match Will.

Megawhile, Rickard added, he is ready to match Firpo and Harry Willis, New Orleans negro, who has been clamoring for a title match with Dempsey for more than a year.

Wants Long Training.

"I will want at least three months of training before I fight any one," said Luis Firpo today, as he sat with a few friends while a throng of 2,000 massed themselves around the outside of the building, blocking traffic for blocks in their eagerness to get a glimpse of the Argentinean.

Fought With Lane Arm.

Pirpo, it was revealed today by Promoter Tex Rickard, fought Dempsey with a handicap of an injured left arm that had bothered him to such an extent three weeks before, that he wanted to postpone the bout.

EUROPEAN WAR THREAT MENACE

BABSON SAYS GREAT CONFLICT WOULD WRECK BUSINESS.

BY ROGER W. BABSON. (Copyright, 1923, by The Escanaba Press) Willsley Hills, Mass., Sept. 15.—"What would a new European war do to business?" The question was put to Roger W. Babson as he was reading a mass of telegrams and cables coming in from all parts of the world, asking what effect another European war would have on business.

"It seems inconceivable that Europe will permit herself to get entangled in another war at this time," he replied. "Yet conditions are far more favorable for a conflict today than they were in 1914. Moreover, the wisest students of international affairs have been predicting for some time that another war is sure to come and that it will again begin in the Balkans."

EUROPEAN WAR THREAT MENACE TO THE STATES

do not want her securities except at a great discount. Can she send us goods with which to pay for our own goods? She can do this during times of peace, but can she do it during a time of war? This is the great question, and only the future can answer it. If Europe cannot send us goods to pay for war supplies, then she cannot send in goods to compete with our own factories. This would at least relieve some of the foreign competitive pressure which threatens us today. This specialty applies to the wheat growers of the United States. Another European war could send the price of wheat up to two or three dollars a bushel. Needs Religion.
"Whatever Europe really needs," concluded Mr. Babson, "is some honest to goodness religion! We shall see no real and lasting prosperity until Europe gets headed in the right direction. Some real religion will lead to a real League of Nations; and when such real religion is evident, Europe will find all parties in this country ready to help form such a League. Europe today is a hotbed of jealousy, selfishness and political intrigue. Only as the hearts of both the people and the leaders of Europe are softened will the tangle be straightened out. It may take another war with all its gruesomeness and suffering to bring Europe to her knees. We all hope it will not; but in addition to hoping, let us pray—not only for Europe but for ourselves—that we may be honest and unselfish, remembering that we have responsibilities as well as opportunities and that no country can permanently prosper through the misfortune of another."
The Babson chart shows general business at ten per cent below normal—no change from last week.

WHEN IS HOME BREW NOT REAL BOOZE? CONGRESSMAN MAKES IT TO FIND OUT

CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILIP HILL AND HIS WINE PRESS.

Baltimore, Sept. 15.—Congressman John Philip Hill, of Maryland, is busy making home brew. And when it's ready, he plans to give Congress a drink. For he's going to fill a few jugs and blow the House.
Members of the judiciary committee will be the first invited to taste the stuff. If there's anything left, other congressmen may get a chance. And there will probably be a real kick to the home-made wine out of Congressman Hill's cellar.
The Volstead act? Congressman Hill isn't bothering his head much about laws. He's more interested in recipes for mixing grape juice, sugar and water.
All is in a state of ferment—most of it in crocks and jars in the cellar of Hill's old Colonial home. Just what the outcome will be, no one is quite certain. But most everybody is hopeful—everybody except the federal collector of internal revenue and the federal prohibition director of the state. They say they aren't concerned yet. But Washington officials are watching Hill's work with interest.
It's the congressman's purpose, to test the conflicting dry regulations on making wine at home. He wants to find out how alcoholic a householder can allow his grape juice to become before Uncle Sam steps in and arrests him. Does this lawmaker expect to become a lawbreaker?
"I don't know," he says, "but I'll soon find out."
When the fermentation is over, Hill expects to let the judiciary committee of the House sip his wine, to help them decide on a uniform regulation covering home brew.
There are 48 crocks and a huge All Baha jar in Hill's experiment. Half of the crocks contain no sugar. But he hopes to prove their contents will turn alcoholic without it, showing that nature, unaided, could make a criminal out of a householder by doing things to innocent grape juice.
It was hard work getting the big experiment under way. The congressman had to stay up until 2 o'clock in the morning stemming the grapes. Then he had to make a wine press of two bed slats bound at one end by leather thongs.
But once the great operation began and the grape juice began to flow, all thoughts of the troubled preparations vanished. The congressman's eyes glowed with anticipation.
And as he worked on, George Washington and William Jennings Bryan looked down upon him. Their pictures hang in frames above the rows of jars. And suspended on convenient books above the big cellar fireplace are plenty of large glass mugs.

NAME JOHNSON "GENTLEMAN" OF BIG LEAGUES

Umpires, Managers, Players All Agreed on That Point.

By BILLY EVANS
Washington. — Baseball fans have a keen interest in the big stars of the game.
After every contest in which some of the leading lights appear, there's always a big following outside the dressing room door to get a closeup of the favorites.
What kind of a fellow is So and So? That is a common question asked about the famous men of the diamond.
Perhaps no player in the game has had a more spectacular career than Walter Johnson. Coming to the American League an unknown rookie pitcher, inside of a month he was the sensation of the circuit.
Until the coming of the lively ball most of the glamor of the diamond centered around the pitcher. He was the big hero.
But the lively ball and Babe Ruth have changed things. The slugger is the hero of today in baseball. The player with the healthy wallop in his bat gets the loud applause.
Johnson is Big Favorite.
What kind of a fellow is Walter Johnson?
That question has been asked me hundreds of times after Walter would perform some brilliant pitching feat.
"No finer fellow ever graced the major leagues."
In one short sentence that sums up the feeling of every player and umpire in the big show.
"They don't make 'em any better," is the way I have heard scores of players size up Johnson, in discussing the great pitcher.
During his long career in the majors Johnson always has won and lost on his merits. Never Charges of sale rest against Mrs. Cretons and her daughter, and that of manufacture and possession against Mr. Cretons, according to the officers.

Peter had his still located in the basement of his chicken coop, entrance being gained through a trap door in the henhouse floor. Peter's place was also a very well kept and efficiently equipped oasis.
Anderson Place Raided.
Fred Anderson's saloon was visited by another group, no liquor being found. A charge of sale has been filed against the proprietor. The Anderson raid attracted a large and apparently disgruntled crowd, who met the officers with a torrent of verbal abuse as they came out of the place. One member of the mob, Joseph Trudeau, was arrested by Carney and LeClair as he addressed some particularly choice epithets their way. He was locked up in the Gladstone police station and will be charged with disorderly conduct.
The final Gladstone raid was on the home of Mrs. E. Hart, a boarding house in the "home brew" section of Gladstone. No liquor was found, but charges of sale are on the books against the proprietress.
The two remaining stills were taken at the home of John Campbell in the Danforth settlement. Two 20-gallon stills and five barrels of mash were found in the basement of his home.
No arrests were made last night, except in the case of Trudeau. Arrest warrants for all persons visited will probably be issued within the next few days.
The raid was one of the biggest ever made in the bounty, and the results highly satisfactory, in the opinion of the opinion of the federal force.

"None," replied the official egg-purveyor. "Me tella you why no gottum. Chicken he changum pants. He no layum now."

JAY WALKERS RISK LIVES AT THE CORNERS

Traffic Violations Are Pointed Out to Public.

BY ADRIENNE TOUSIGNANT.
Standing on a street corner one evening recently and watching the traffic cop directing the people at the intersection of Ludington and Chazotte streets, no less than seven persons crossed the street from the northeast corner to the southwest corner without paying the least attention to the efforts of the officer to prevent them from crossing in that manner. Several persons started to cross that way and noticing the officer walked to the opposite corner and around as should be done.

It seems that some people either do not heed the warnings given them by the city officers who are trying to do their utmost to prevent accidents or else these people never read the papers in which street crossing rules are printed.

Practice Kindness.
If you have some old folks in your neighborhood who cannot read English or who get no papers at all in their home (and there are a number of homes in this city where a paper is never read) it is your duty to take your paper and go to this neighbor. Make a friendly call and tell them what the traffic rules are.

Many old persons are seen crossing the street at any angle and drivers of cars or other vehicles are unable to stop in time to prevent accidents. Many persons cross the street anywhere in the block, some times starting from behind a car which is parked near a sidewalk, and if an auto comes along about the time that the pedestrian gets to the middle of the street they make terrible eyes at the drivers who are also surprised to see them in the middle of the street seemingly to have fallen from the skies.

Help The Blind.
We often see a blind person standing on a street corner with ears alert to guide himself, by the sound of approaching cars or vehicles and from ten to fifteen persons looking on wondering if the blind person will get safely across. Once in a while, some thoughtful soul will walk out of their way and help the blind one across but as this is so seldom done, the onlookers stand with wide open mouths looking on.

Suppose your own father or mother were blind and lived in a distant city or town and some one helped them across a busy thoroughfare and by so doing, avoided an accident to the old person, would you not thank that person from the very depths of your heart? Of course, you would, for you love your parents and so does the man or woman whose parents are earning their living in an honest way which necessitates their going from their homes and crossing dangerous roads.

If you see any old person whether they are blind or not trying to get across although it may delay you a few seconds in your work, help them across, you may be old and feeble some day and will gladly accept the strong arm of some kind person who sees your predicament.

Stop Jay Walkers.
Our boy scouts do these things for they are taught to do all in their power to help traffic conditions every where but the boys are not always on the streets, they have their school hours, their recreational time, etc., and it is up to each and every one of us to do these little things and help to make the streets a safe place to cross.

By following traffic rules and to do these little things and help things along. Drivers of vehicles usually slow down at corners and intersections of streets and many accidents can be avoided and perhaps lives may be saved.

There are a number of reckless drivers who will drive like mad everywhere and at any time, but if one is careful and observes the traffic rules, these drivers will be taken care of, should they happen to strike any pedestrian who does not "Jay walk" the streets.

Pasting Funnies.
Another rule which apparently is not enforced anywhere, is the lack of respect that is shown

SPEAKING OF ALTITUDE RECORDS

when a funeral cortege passed down the street. Some individuals deliberately cross between the cars or carriages. Some people are superstitious about passing through the funeral cortege but others only lack manners, and if some people could see themselves as they break through the line of march of an organization on parade or forming an honor guard as a mark of respect to a deceased member of the order, they would soon stop breaking through the ranks.

THE STORY OF DANGER ON STATE FERRY

Ignace Man Writes Press of Actual Conditions.

In refutation of wild and unfounded stories circulated about the state as to the operation of the state-owned ferry between the Ignace and Mackinaw, C. C.
by, of St. Ignace has written the following letter to the Daily Press:

"St. Ignace, Mich.,
Sept. 15.
Editor Escanaba Press,
Escanaba, Mich.
Dear Sir,
"A great deal of speculation regarding the state-owned automobile ferry has gone the rounds of this and neighboring communities. Stories, so varied in both fundamentals and details as to under their direct contradictions each other, have filled the air.
For this reason it is intended to set forth the facts and circumstances of the actual operation as observed by one on the ground.
"Last spring when Old Sol was beginning to make his appearance more regularly and the big ferry was being reduced to mere patches of white in shady places a great number of automobiles of various sizes and numerous designs were being built and destroyed about the shores of the local stores during the long evening hours. Those gifted with a combination of oratorical ability and considerable imagination had pictured to the less fortunate listeners a steel boat of mammoth proportions and colorful appearance, gliding into a stream of automobiles of considerable wheelbase into the arms of St. Ignace amid strains of appropriate music and the triumph of a gala day. It was to be a turning point in the social business activity and it should be received with great organization.
"Then a bomb exploded—the state officials had purchased a boat. Ridiculous! Indignation was freely expressed. The state again filled the air with triumph and the new boat was to be a total failure.
The state stood by in silent expectancy—they would await the appearance of the boat.
"Finally it came—the steamer Ariel. She puffed her way up the bay to the landing, docked and began making ready for business. She came unheralded;
there was no ovation, no brass band, no pennants nor flying colors. A few alterations were made at the wharf and when her load was aboard she slid quietly away to Mackinaw City and shortly returned with another load. Since that first trip, August 2, the little steamer has rendered to the traveling public a service which could hardly be imagined at the moment she made her first landing here.
"Moves Many Cars.
"By the present time the ferry has transported upwards of ten thousand cars across the aits. She has made six round trips daily, carrying from eighteen to twenty cars each way. On occasions a trip or two were delayed owing to a strong west wind making a safe landing at the temporary wharf at Mackinaw City an uncertainty.
"It seems that this fact was taxed to advantage of by some one whose motive is not clearly understood; some rather crudely and reached the ridiculous stage when an account pictured the coming "foundering into the water." This resulted in a big increase in business for the Ariel and it is regretted that the author of such a book, while trying to belittle the efforts of the ferry to perform the service for which she is intended evidently was not present at the wharf about the time that transportation was being refused owing to the gale.
If he could have seen the lineup of cars and the congestion caused by the travelers through their determination to await transportation on the Ariel; if he, or she, could have heard the tourists pleading with the captain and assuring him that they would assume their own risk, he may have been more modest in his degree of criticism. The truth of the matter lay in the good judgment of the captain and his knowledge of the difficulty to be encountered in making a safe landing at the temporary site at Mackinaw City.
"Shows Fine Profit.
"During August $15,000.00
were collected for transportation on the Ariel. Of this $6,000.00 covered the expenses, leaving $9,000.00 profit for the month.
In other words the investment paid for itself in 30 days. It is doubted that any other investment of its kind in the history of the Great Lakes can show such earnings in so short a time. Even taking into consideration the fact that during the fall season the boat should fail to collect a cent for two months it would still be a self-sustaining proposition.
"There is truth in the reported inadequacy of the service, however. The Ariel is too small for the business and it is not uncommon to see fifty or sixty cars awaiting transportation.
But this is a matter which will undoubtedly be taken care of by the Highway Department in due time. The Ariel, it is said, is merely a try-out. In the minds of the non-explosives it has been ample for experimental purposes.
The little steamer has done remarkably well. The captains have had to work out a schedule, a landing, a system of handling cars in a limited space and attend to many other details which naturally accompany such an experiment. These officers and their crews have served the public in a highly commendable manner.
The traveler knows when he is well treated and is not slow in acknowledging his experiences.

"At any rate the proof of the pudding is in the eating—up to date the Ariel has been a huge success.
"Yours very truly,
"C. C. Ebey."

SOLONS STAGE WINNING RALLY

Athletics Take Three Out of Four From Browns.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Washington staged one of the biggest rallies of the season today, scoring seven runs in the ninth inning and beating Detroit, 9 to 8, to break even on the series.

Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia... 000 003 41x—8 12 1 Washington 000 000 207—9 8 3 Batteries: Johnson, Whitehill, H. B. ...

MACKMEN DISAPPOINTED. Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Connie Mack was frustrated in his endeavor to make it four wins in a row when the St. Louis Browns won the second game of the double header, 3 to 2.

YANKS WIN FROM SOX. New York, Sept. 15.—The New York Yankees won their fourth victory of the last five games played with the Chicago White Sox, winning 10 to 4 here today.

BOSTON TAKES SERIES. Boston, Sept. 15.—Boston cleaned up the three-game series with Cleveland by winning, 11 to 6, today.

YOST HAS 11 "M" MEN LEFT Michigan Mentor Calls Out Record Football Crew.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 15.—Of the 21 letter men last year on the University of Michigan football team, ten were missing when the 1923 squad started practice Saturday.

Captain Paul Goebel and the late Bernard Kirk, Michigan's two star ends in 1922, Jackson Koefer, one of the best backs ever developed at Michigan, Franklin C. Cappon, one of Michigan's greatest fullbacks, Douglas F. Roby, 185 pound halfback and Robert T. Knoode, who ably filled Kipke's place in the Michigan-Illinois game last year when Kipke was on the sick list, are lost to the squad this year as are William J. Van Orden, S. M. Garfield, R. F. Rosatti and George Dunleavy, who played in the Ohio State-Michigan game last fall.

Realizing the difficulty of securing men to take the places of those lost, Fielding H. Yost, veteran coach, has invited the largest squad in the history of Michigan to return for early practice. Michigan, facing one of the hardest schedules that a Wolverine team ever attempted, will be represented this year by a team largely chosen from these men, 55 in all, and many of the places vacated by the ten absent letter men will have to be filled with green material that has never proven its worth under fire.

Just how near Coach Yost and his group of assistants will come to turning out a winning team cannot be known until October 6th, the opening game with Case school. The most immediate problem will be the finding of two ends and a capable fullback and half back and after the first few days of fundamentals, the candidates for those positions will be tried out.

Large Coaching Staff. Michigan will this year have the largest staff of football coaches in its history and most of them have already reported for duty.

JACKET ACCESSORY. Small capes or jackets accompany many of the smartest gowns, usually lined with the material of the frock.

WRIST BANDS. Velvet bands with small monograms in gold or silver are seen about the wrists of many of the smartest women.

Taking proper care of a beautiful complexion leaves no time for cleaning up the house.

GARDNER LEADS IN QUALIFYING ROUNDS BY ONE

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Robert Gardner of Chicago, twice title holder, today led the medal scoring in the first 72 holes of the qualifying round for the National Golf Championship at Blossmoor with a par 74, while Bobby Jones of Atlanta, national open champion and Chick Evans of Chicago, twice amateur and once open winner, tied for second place with a 75.

Only one stroke behind, Albert Seelke of Chicago, and James Manion of St. Louis, tied for fourth with 76, while Rudolf Kesper of South City, George Von Eler, Salt Lake City, Francis Blossom and Dave Herron of Chicago had 77 for the 6,704 yard links which proved so difficult that all but a score of the players took 80 or more.

Boxing Show At Iron Mountain Is Big Success. Iron Mountain, Sept. 15.—Among the attendants at last night's boxing show were many Escanaba people.

Buck Perkins of Kenosha shaded Jack Kinney of Iron Mountain in six fast rounds, and Magliore LaBelle outpointed Frank Moe in 12 most interesting rounds.

Legion Gridders To Hold Light Practice. Waino Thompson, captain of the Escanaba Legion football team issued a call last night for all members of the squad to report at Ludington Park at 11 o'clock for practice.

POCKETS. Pockets are shown in short fur coats of the jacquette type. Casual takes first place in these short models which are from 26 to 30 inches long.

CARDS DIVIDE WITH THE PHILS

Dodgers and Pirates Split a Double Header; Cubs and Braves Win.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—St. Louis divided a twin bill with Philadelphia today, losing the first, 2 to 0, and taking the second, 6 to 0.

DIVIDE DOUBLE HEADER. Pittsburgh, Sept. 15.—Pittsburgh and Brooklyn divided a double header, the Pirates winning the first, 4 to 1, and the Dodgers the second, 13 to 2.

CUBS NOSE OUT GIANTS. Chicago, Sept. 15.—Chicago cut New York's lead in the pennant race to four games today by nosing out the world champions, 3 to 2, in the two game series held at Pittsburgh and Brooklyn divided honors and Cincinnati won from Boston.

BRAVES STAGE RALLY. Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—The Braves pulled off a dangerous rally in the eighth inning today, scoring five runs off Rube Benton but could not quite overcome the lead of the locals, the score ending 7 to 5.

EMBROIDERED PUMPS. Embroidered pumps are quite the rage, frequently the embroidery is done in the most vivid shades.

DILLON MAKES A GREAT HIT

Stambo Loses at Gladstone

So great an attraction did Arthur Dillon, the lone pacer owned by Joseph Beauchamp of Escanaba, prove at the Marquette county fair, that the horse was held in Marquette for a fourth exhibition at the county fair grounds yesterday, although the fair formally closed on Friday night.

MUNISING DROPS OPENER, 7 TO 0. A long end run by Wehrle, followed by a line plunge from punt formation, with Steinmetz carrying the ball, gave St. Joseph's High School the victory over Munising High in the first local game of the football season, played at the South Park Grounds yesterday afternoon.

Tennis Finals Are Played Saturday. Knocking all the predictions of High School sport circles to the four winds, Willard Rockburg, of Wells, Freshman at Escanaba High school, won the Orange and Black Literary Society tennis championship by defeating Walter Kristiansen, Junior, 6-3 and 6-1.

STAMBO LOSES AT GLADSTONE

Gordon's Men Settle Down After First Frame, Win 24-12.

Gladstone, Mich., Sept. 15.—(Special)—Outplaying their husky opponents in every department of the game after the first few nervous plays, the Gladstone high school football team took the eleven representing Stambaugh High into camp by a score of 24 to 12, on the Gladstone field this afternoon.

Gladstone Nervous. Stage fright almost spelled defeat for Gladstone in the first quarter, when the Stambaugh squad shoved over two touchdowns in the first eight minutes of play. They failed to kick goal, and the Gladstone team settled down to real play, scoring once for 6 points just before the close of the quarter.

Gladstone Mixes Plays. Murdock, Feeney and Murphy scored all of Gladstone's points. Nobody kicked a goal after a touchdown in the entire game. Stambaugh tried but one pass and failed to complete that. Gladstone used everything they had.

With the teams evenly matched in weight, the game in general was a see-saw affair, with the Saints showing the best defensive work and a decided edge in attack. St. Joseph's tally came in the second frame after they had hammered the Munising line half the length of the field.

Blind Man's Buff

EVEN in this age of enlightenment some folks spend their money blindly. They buy with their eyes shut. They grope in the dark as truly as if their eyes were bandaged.

And all the time a powerful light is being thrown on the very things they need and want!

Advertising is a beacon to guide you in buying. It shows you what to buy—where to buy—and when to buy. At the same time, it protects you against fraud and inferiority.

Merchants and manufacturers who advertise deliberately focus thousands of eyes upon their wares. Their values must be honest and their prices right, or they could not advertise successfully.

Don't play blind man's buff with the elusive dollar. Spend a few minutes each day running through the advertisements in this paper. Then buy the products that have proved up in the light of advertising.

MORE GOOD LUCK FOR PATRONS OF ESCANABA FAIR

Three Wonderful Free Outdoor Acts Booked At Last Minute.

The Flying Millers, The Laroche Troupe and Eller's Animal circus will appear as the free attractions at the first day of the Northern Michigan State Fair. Without question this will be the greatest assemblage of athletes ever assembled at a Delta county fair for the free acts.

Year by year it has been the aim and the ambition of the management to make the free acts more attractive. More money has been spent. More care has been devoted to the selection of talent and each year the open-air attractions are becoming more and more popular.

Plenty of Thrills.
The three acts mentioned will give thrills instead of the usual passive complimentary applause. In each and every act men and women risk their lives in doing what they seem to be a very matter of fact turn, but which involves all that makes for the highest type of athlete.

The Flying Millers are conceded the undisputed championship of the air, performing double, triple and twisting somersaults in intricate and awe-inspiring feats that set a new standard in sensationalism. They carry elaborate special apparatus for their performances. The Laroche Troupe consists of five marvelous wire artists in a succession of thrills, and they never fail to arouse a tumult of wondering, applause.

Eller's animal circus is a happy family of dumb actors showing in their clever feats, the best evidence of animal alertness impelled by reasoning faculties. Monkeys, dogs and goats, in this act furnish delightfully entertaining and refreshing comedy combined in this hodge podge of skill and fun. Young and old will get a good laugh out of this number.

EXPLAINED.
Grandmother had come to visit her son, the pastor, and Mary, her 5-year-old granddaughter, was entertaining her with the story of a wonderful dog.

Mary—And the dog flew and flew away up into the sky.

Grandmother (reprovingly)—Now, Mary, tell it right; you know a dog can't fly.

Mary (triumphantly)—Oh, yes, grandmother, that dog could fly; it was a bird dog.—St. Louis, Christian Evangelist.

UNDER OBLIGATION.
They had both been discharged from the service for many months and had been in civilian clothes long enough to become used to the flappy sensation about the calves. So Vet A became alarmed over his companion's sanity when he observed his snap into it and hand a passing-by civilian an old-style highball.
"Whatever salutin', that bimbo for?" he demanded.
"He saved my life once," answered Vet B.
"Well, that's all right, then, but how come?"
"He was a medico in our outfit. I was gonna gick off, an' they sent for him. Well, he didn't show up."

Kates Bay Pioneer, Aged 98, Claimed As Oldest Resident Of Entire Garden Peninsula

Garden, Mich., Sept. 15.—The honor of being known as the oldest resident of the Garden peninsula, if not of the entire county, is claimed for Ferdinand Roberts of Kates Bay, who, although little more than a century old, still does his daily work on the farm which he himself has cleared from the virgin forest.

FERDINAND ROBERTS.

Mr. Roberts was born in Quebec, Canada, Nov. 19, 1825, while the memories of the war of 1812 were still fresh and the momentous battle of the Constitution and the Guerriere in the Gulf of St. Lawrence was still food for conversation in tavern and home.

At the age of 18 years he moved to Copper Harbor, Ontario, remaining there three years. He later moved to Brown County, Wis., and two years later came to Garden Bay and since then has made this district his home. He was married in 1853 to Miss Mary A. La Plante of Brown County, Wis. She died about fifty years ago, and about four years later he married Mrs. Adelaide La Bate, formerly Mrs. Adelaide Truckey, of Garden Bay.

He was the father of five sons and five daughters. Of the entire family only three survive. They are his sons Jacob, of Kates Bay; George, of Cooks; and Frank, of Canada. Ferdinand Roberts came of a line noted for their longevity. His father was near one hundred years when he died and his grandfather, born in France, was 104 at the time of his passing.

Saw County's Growth.
Mr. Roberts holds, through his long residence here, what might be termed a "birds eye view" of the development and history of the Garden peninsula practically from the time when the first settlers began heaving their homes out of the wilderness. During recent years he has taken a keen delight in recounting his varied experiences, and the tale, when placed together in all its chapters, constitutes a remarkable epic of adventure, history and human interest.

As Mr. Roberts tells it, the early days were no less characterized by the spirit of the wanderer than the present rubber era. The methods of getting around would have been slower, but this left the advantage that the traveler had more time to look around and observe what was going on. The events of seventy or eighty years ago are as firmly fixed in Mr. Roberts' memory as are the happenings of a decade ago with the modern generation.

Many Occupations.
It is only natural to suppose that in a life that has already covered nearly a century, a wide variety of experiences, scenes and occupations would be found. Mr. Roberts does not disappoint in this regard. For many years he earned a living by lake fishing. Later he satisfied his desire to see more and more of the lakes by shipping as cook on many of the sailing vessels and steamers plying the inland seas.

Still later he came back to dry land again, cooking in lumber camps and serving for a number of years as one unit of a relay carrying mail between Green Bay and Escanaba and Marquette. This was years before the first railroad was put through to these towns. He later carried mail between Fayette and Manistique, a trip which today is accomplished in an hour or two but which at that time was a journey fraught with hazard, by reason of the lack of roads and the necessity of following a dim trail through the heavy forests. As a sideline to this activity he frequently guided travelers and hunting parties through the trackless territory which to him was an open book.

Sold Religious Books.
Finally feeling the weight of years, he left his woods and lakes to take up an occupation which would scarcely be expected of a man whose life had been cast in scenes of lively action—that of selling religious books and pamphlets. More and more of his time from then on was spent in clearing and farming the tract of land which he had homesteaded, until late years found him firmly settled in a routine of agrarian pursuits.

He is still in good health, works every day about the farm, and while the spring is gone from his step and his hearing somewhat impaired, his mind functions as quickly and accurately as in his prime. He attributes his longevity to an active life in the open, plenty of work, plenty of good food and temperate habits of living. He is a member of the Garden Catholic church and is honored as the oldest member of the congregation. His many friends in this district wish him and his wife many more years of health and prosperity.

1924 Model Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car

$995

The Price of This Car Is Misleading

Some buyers take it for granted that cars which sell at about the same prices are equal in value. This is distinctly not the case. To buy on this basis would be an injustice to yourself.

You can pay several hundred dollars more than the Light-Six price and get a car that represents no greater, if as great, intrinsic value as the Studebaker Light-Six.

Or you can pay about the same price as the Light-Six, or less, and get a car that is high-priced when compared with the Light-Six because it does not represent as much for the money invested.

And in the Light-Six you enjoy all the advantages of smooth, flexible, dependable, six-cylinder performance.

You get a beautiful, substantial, well-built, roomy and comfortable car. The practical absence of vibration in the Light-Six is a notable achievement. It is due largely to the fact that the Light-Six crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces. This is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars within hundreds of dollars of the Light-Six price.

Stop in and see the 1924 Model Light-Six. Test it for yourself—drive it and make your comparisons. Driving is believing.

After seventy-one years of service the name Studebaker enjoys confidence and respect more than ever.

MAX RECEIPTS NET $23,000 FOR ONE DAY

Treasurer's Office Kept Open Until Late Saturday Night.

As the last day for paying city taxes without penalty approached, Manistique residents made a dash for the city hall, and the treasurer, Mrs. Myrtle Kiefer, had a larger volume of business than ever before. Collections amounting to more than $23,000 were reported for Friday by Mrs. Kiefer.

To accommodate the late comers who sought to escape the penalty levy that will be attached to all collections next week, the treasurer arranged to keep her office open until late Saturday night, and tax payments were received as long as customers appeared.

Indications were that the total tax night would not equal that of Friday, which included the payment from one large Manistique concern.

55 Couples Come To Opening "Hop"

About 55 couples were in attendance at the alumni dancing party given at the high school gymnasium Friday evening. The affair was a success in every way, and served as an opening event for the season of social events at the gymnasium.

Music was furnished by Hamill's Fox-trot Four, of this city. Doctors and nurses who conducted examinations at the free health clinic here last week left Saturday enroute to Manistique, where their next clinic will be held.

5 MORE GAMES WILL COMPLETE BASEBALL YEAR

Manistique Team Plays Last Game September 30.

Manistique still has five hard games of baseball to play before September 30, when they will close up the season that either makes or breaks them as upper peninsula baseball champions. Four of these contests will be played in Manistique.

The first five is to be staged at the fair grounds this afternoon, and with good "Indian Summer" weather is expected to be one of the best drawing cards of the season.

The fourth game of the season, the Foughton Copper Sox have gained an enviable reputation for themselves in the Copper Country, and the scheduled game with Manistique has received much publicity in this vicinity.

Today's game disposed of, the locals will then turn their attention to Manistique, who has been defeated three times by Manistique, each of them hard games, and one of them going two extra innings for a score of 2 to 0.

During the Schoolcraft county fair, the Algerites come over for two more games. They will have some men imported for the occasion, and will attempt to take all three of the series, thus tying with the Schoolcrafters.

The 1923 baseball season will close with a game played in Manistique on the last day of September. Manistique's opponent will be Negaunee, an upper peninsula team that has never played the locals before.

After that, the Manistique American Legion baseball team will disband, and the Legion football team will take the boards alone.

Local Officers Enforce Newest Highway Ruling

Under the provisions of the new highway trunk line regulation, traffic on Deer, Elk and part of Maple street has the right of way, these three streets making up highway M-12 as it passes through the city.

Local officers have been enforcing this trunk line right-of-way law since it came out, and where violations have occurred, have showed drivers where they were in error.

Through tourists seem to be familiar with the ruling, and have given little trouble. It is the local driver from the side street that often disregards the regulation here, authorities say.

In many cases these drivers turn onto M-12 in front of through cars without a thought regarding the right-of-way question.

Calls Workout Of The Legion Football Squad

A workout of the Manistique Legion football squad has been called for this morning at 9:30 at the fair grounds.

The outlook is good for a successful season here in football, according to the local manager. Teams from various parts of the peninsula have written for games and the schedule is soon to be announced.

Some new men are reported for work at the practice this morning in addition to the fourteen on the field last Sunday. Everett Cookson, member of previous Manistique teams, who recently returned from the west, will probably be added to the team in time for the first game, it was indicated yesterday.

NOT IN HIS WAY.
Brown was making a visit to a girl who lived in the country, and they were walking through the fields when they noticed a cow and a calf rubbing noses in a bovine love. He spoke up: "The sight of that makes me want to do the same thing. 'Go ahead,' she replied, 'it's father's cow.'"—Boston Transcript.

PLAN SPECIAL MUSICAL TREAT AT CIVIC CLUB

"We're going to have an extra special musical treat at Monday's meeting of the Manistique Civic Club," said Dr. H. L. Mead, chairman of the committee that is perfecting arrangements for entertainment at the regular Monday club luncheon.

The nature of the musical treat would not be revealed, the committee preferring to keep it as a surprise, but the committee man promises that it will please every member of the club.

Monday is also the first day of the "Every member bring a member" campaign for attendance recently inaugurated by the organization. At last week's meeting every member present pledged himself to bring another member to the luncheon Monday. If this is carried out, it will mean the doubling of the attendance.

Coupled with the special musical entertainment, this week's meeting is expected to show attendance as one of the most successful of the season.

Rains and Cold Stop Road Work

Rain and cold weather delayed resurfacing work on Schoolcraft county roads last week, so that projects expected to be completed are still under way.

Good progress has been made on the Hiawatha road, however, and the section completed there is now in the best of condition. A double treatment of the binding material holds the rock chips firmly in place, and makes a fine smooth surface for traffic.

The road workers noted an unusual occurrence one day last week, when work was stopped here on account of a rain that continued through much of the day. At Cooks, there was no rain at all, and farmers continued with their harvesting. Had they known of the fair weather at Cooks, the road workers would have been able to proceed with their maintenance job there.

Masons Quit Job; Finish Coal Shed

Masons who have been engaged in building the walls of a new addition to the gymnasium building at Manistique high school completed their work yesterday.

The addition is adjacent to the furnace room, and is to serve as a storage room for the coal supply for the large high school heating plant. Formerly, the fuel was stored in the open, an arrangement that caused some inconvenience to the janitors during the winter months. The new coal shed will also admit of a larger stock of coal being kept on hand.

Pythians Will Hear Reports on Tuesday

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will resume their regular schedule of meetings at Manistique this week, after the summer vacation, the sisters of Ossawana Temple meeting Monday night, and the Knights on Tuesday evening.

The ladies will listen to a report of the Grand Lodge proceedings given by Mrs. Irma Waters, who went as a delegate to the Mt. Clemens convention from this city.

Herbert Hamill went as a delegate of the K. P. to Mt. Clemens, and will give his report on Tuesday evening, at the first meeting of the Knights.

Army of Hunters Marches on Ducks

Sloughs, marshes and swamp lands of Schoolcraft county will be the Mecca of hunters this morning, who go in search of wild duck, taking advantage of the first day of the duck season which opened at sunset this morning.

For some reason, the wild water fowl are scarce in the larger lakes of the county, and it is only in the sloughs and marshy ponds that the ducks are found in numbers. Few of the hunters expected to exceed the bag limit today.

CITY BRIEFS

Miss Agnes Erickson left last week for St. Peter, Minn., where she is attending Gustavus Adolphus College.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christensen expect to move this week to Hunt Spur.

By special request, Mrs. Christine Atwell Felker of Toronto, Can., will sing at the morning service of the Methodist church, held in the K. P. hall. Mrs. Felker formerly toured with the Kenny-Wilson entertainers.

Hamill's orchestra of this city furnished music for a dance at Biensly last night.

BRAULT is ready to take those children's pictures before it gets too cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dishneau of Chicago were guests last week at home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mueller.

BEADING ON FROCKS
Beading is used extensively on the evening frocks for the coming season, and is expected to be the coming trend with embroidery.

Miss Elvira Ohman will resume her position at the office of Attorney G. Raymond Emson Monday, after a week's vacation.

BUCKEYE ENDS SEASON WITH HIGH AVERAGE

Fans Will See Last Game of Year with Negaunee City Team Today.

If the Buckeye team defeats Negaunee in the game at the Gladstone ball park this afternoon, and the many followers of the team are looking to them to take it, the team will have an average of .800 for the 20 games played during the year. But even if the game should be lost, the Buckeyes will still have a percentage of .750, a season average seldom attained by any aggregation.

Fifteen games have been won to date and only four have been lost. Three of the games were lost early in the season before the team was organized as it is now and the only other game lost in the last two months was to the Gladstone Legion team in a game the middle of July. Many fans believed the Buckeye team stronger than the first team at that time and this point was never settled to the satisfaction of the followers of the second team, despite the fact that the one game was lost.

The Negaunee city team which comes here today has already dropped its games to the locals, both of them on Labor Day. In winning these two games, the Buckeyes increased their prestige as Negaunee was regarded as having considerable strength, several of the players having been with Negaunee during the days of the upper peninsula league, when that city set the pace for the rest of the cities making up the schedule.

Home Team.
The showing of the Buckeye team is gratifying to the fans of the city, and this same showing is what has created sentiment here for the maintaining of a home team next year.

There should be a large crowd out to the game this afternoon as it is the last of the season.

FIRE CHIEF WARNS AGAINST CHIMNEY FIRES

Fire Chief Alfred W. Raddant issued a request yesterday asking that householders have their chimneys cleaned and inspected at this time. A chimney cleaner will be available during the next several days and orders for his services may be left at the fire station.

"Not only should chimneys be inspected and cleaned at this time," declared Chief Raddant, "but householders should also inspect their stove pipes and see if all joints are tight. Cold and windy weather is on the way and a spark from a burning out chimney may set your house afire and cause a loss to yourself and neighbors."

"It's much better to play safe and now is the time to take the necessary precautions."

WELFARE CLUB DRIVES MEETS WITH SUCCESS

Although no tabulation of figures will be ready until the first of the week, indications late yesterday were that the tag day fund drive conducted yesterday for the Gladstone Child's Welfare club, met with a most generous response.

Miss Mildred Montgomery visited at Escanaba yesterday.

Miss Luella Dabney, who teaches at Chandler, is spending the week end at her home here.

Donald Campbell has resigned his position at the State Savings bank and will leave today for Alma, Mich., where he will enter Alma college.

Miss Margie Murray, who teaches school at Cornell, is home.

Dr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and two children left Saturday on a motor trip to Houghton.

Ewald A. Erickson was in Escanaba yesterday on business.

Herbert Rosenblum will leave this evening for Ann Arbor where he will resume his studies at the University of Michigan. Mr. Rosenblum has been spending the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenblum.

Charles Skoog will leave today for Chicago to resume his studies at the North Park college after spending the summer vacation with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Sak Skoog.

Mrs. Joseph Medill, who has been confined to her home, Wisconsin avenue, with illness, is reported to be recovering.

Miss Irene Gogarn will leave next week for Kalamazoo to resume her studies at the normal school after spending the summer months at her home here.

Theodore Corbett will leave in a few days for Minneapolis where he is a student at the University of Minnesota, after spending the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Corbett.

Colensos Leave on Extended Trip

Mrs. Rev. H. W. Colenso was to leave this morning for the Soo where she will visit with her parents for a few days. On Monday morning, Mrs. Colenso will meet Rev. Colenso, of Trout Lake, and together they will proceed to Detroit where they will attend the Detroit conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which will be in session there throughout the week. Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Bushong were elected to attend the laymen M. E. conference but they will probably be unable to attend as Mr. Bushong is away from the city on business.

Rev. Wyman Will Speak Wednesday

A special service will be held by members of the Swedish Lutheran congregation Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the church. The Rev. Fred W. Wyman, foreign mission field secretary, will speak.

"FABIOLA" TO HAVE SHOWING HERE MONDAY

Italian Story of Early Christians Told in Film.

"Fabiola," the famous Italian film of the story of Rome, which in book form has charmed and inspired millions, will be shown Monday at the Lyric theatre as a benefit for All Saints' Catholic church.

"Fabiola," produced in Italy with most of its scenes taken in Rome and its surroundings, tells a story of the days when the imperial city was tottering to its fall, shaken to its foundation by the unseen but powerful current of Christian defiance against the worship of earthly kings.

In this atmosphere Fabiola, the daughter of a wealthy pagan patrician lived. Before her eyes passed scenes which stirred her from a passive selfish existence to the realization of the tremendous vital power of this new faith. She saw the faith of the Teacher of Nazareth triumph over the treachery, hate and greed of the world which she had known and believed unshakable.

The powerful dramatic action of these scenes has a mightier appeal than any words can have. To the spectator who feels the excitement of the mob scene the breathless suspense of the pursuit of Agnes, the rescue of the boy Pancratius by the mighty Quadratus, is revealed the stress of these times. To the spectator is also shown better even than the classic pages of the book as shown him, the high valor of those great-souled men and women, who kept alive the flame of Christianity in those fourth-century days.

Tickets for the show are now on sale and indications are that a record crowd will attend the Lyric Monday.

PERSONALS

The efficiency and swiftness with which the Salvation Army works, as shown by their response to requests for aid in the recent Japanese disaster, is given as another reason why generous support should be given the drive which will be made in Gladstone and vicinity to raise $1,500, beginning September 25.

Without hesitation, the General of the Army wired a large sum of money to be used to relieve the suffering while the machinery of the Army was set moving in every country to raise $10,000,000.

This is a typical case and shows the efficiency of this organization. While its work in smaller communities might not be so conspicuous, still, the same efficiency is shown in the service rendered to the people and the same faithfulness and spirit of sacrifice prompting the army during the war is manifested in its activities in every day.

For this reason it is hoped that the people of Gladstone will be to the occasion and give the best workers the support they need to carry on their activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lancaster left last night for Minneapolis where they will visit for several days.

Miss Mildred Montgomery visited at Escanaba yesterday.

Miss Luella Dabney, who teaches at Chandler, is spending the week end at her home here.

Donald Campbell has resigned his position at the State Savings bank and will leave today for Alma, Mich., where he will enter Alma college.

Miss Margie Murray, who teaches school at Cornell, is home.

Dr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and two children left Saturday on a motor trip to Houghton.

Will Make Home In California

Arthur Skoglund left last night on the first part of a trip to California where he plans to make his future home. Mr. Skoglund has numerous friends in Gladstone who, while they regret his departure, wish him every success in the new location.

FIRST DRUNKEN WOMAN DRIVER HERE ARRESTED

Owner of Big Car Ar- raigned in Court; Pays $75 and Costs.

Gladstone had to deal with its first drunken woman driver Friday evening when she was arrested and Saturday morning, when she appeared in justice court to give an account of herself.

The woman, who gave her name as Mrs. Estell Wrigley of Chicago, was taken into custody at 9:30 o'clock Friday evening by Officer Jerry LeClair, after she had shown signs of being in a fair way to wreck any number of cars parked along Delta avenue.

She had reached a rather incoherent stage of intoxication and went along willingly enough, but a stay in jail had its sobering effect and she had lost some of her apparent cheerfulness when she was arraigned before Justice Phil Hopy at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

After some little argument she entered a plea of guilty. She was fined $75 and costs, which she promptly paid.

Well Dressed.
The woman was well dressed and drove a large enclosed car with an Illinois license plate.

This is the first case on record in Gladstone of a woman driver being arrested while intoxicated.

MY FIRST DOLLAR

GLENN W. JACKSON.
City Attorney Glenn W. Jackson, in company with most Gladstone men, earned his first dollar, with a particular emphasis on the earned part of it.

"I was only seven years old when I made my first dollar, working for a farmer near Napoleon, O.," Attorney Jackson said, "I drove a team of horses operating a drag saw around the circle, as the system of furnishing power required in those days, for twenty cents a day."

"That meant walking around in a circle, driving those horses, from 7 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night. Yes, I was young, but all that was needed was someone to drive the horses around, stop them when the log was cut through and start them when a new log was in the saw ready to be cut, and I was well able to do that."

"At that, I had to wait six weeks for my pay. I didn't get it, until I had about made up my mind I wasn't going to have it and I tell you I was a heart-broken youngster."

"I haven't the slightest idea of what I did with it," Mr. Jackson concluded. "I know one thing, I didn't put it in the bank."

HAVE HOPES FOR RECOVERY OF BUTCH CHILD

The condition of Nicky, small son of Mrs. Mary Butch, in whose family two deaths have occurred from diphtheria, was reported on Saturday to show improvement and considerable hope is being held for his recovery.

Nicky, the fourth member of the family to be stricken with the disease, became ill after death had taken his two sisters, Mary and Flora, and the child's condition was said to be serious.

The services of Miss Gladys Baker, trained nurse of Chicago, who was secured by the Welfare club after a search for a nurse seemed about to prove fruitless and who unselfishly gave up a part of her vacation to take charge of the case, are credited with the excellent medical care, among other factors, with the saving of the child's life.

NOTICE

Now is the time to have your chimneys cleaned and inspected. Leave your order for chimney cleaning at the fire station and he will be sent to your address. Help us make Gladstone a fireless city.

MINERS TELL OF 'REDS' PARTY BIRTH IN U. S.

Claim Communists Have a Membership of a Million.

New York, Sept. 15.—A description purporting to show that the Communist Party of America was founded amid dramatic secrecy atop a mountain in the Catskills 25 months ago, and has mushroomed over the United States and Canada, is contained in the first of a series of articles made public today by the United Mine Workers of America, charging a movement to bring America under the banner of the Moscow communists.

At first, the article asserted, the party was an "underground" organization, functioning in secrecy. Today, according to the miners, it has a membership, direct and auxiliary, of 1,000,000, with interlocking delegates binding it to 45 national organizations and 200 locals, and working in the open.

Prior to May, 1921, the Communist International was represented as having become so impotent through federal prosecution and deportation of members that formation of an "underground" society was determined upon.

And so, having chosen one of the most historically primitive spots in the East as a setting, "70 Communist leaders, representing the two factions of the Communist party and the United Communist party, gathered in the ancient hotel on the top of Overlook Mountain on the morning of May 15, 1921, to compose their differences and unite in a single group, to be known as the Communist Party of America," said the article.

Threats Made.
"This assembly was not only at the command of Lenin and Zinoviev of the Communist International, but it was accompanied with the threat that if the factional differences were not put aside and a united front presented for favoring the labor unions of the United States, no more money would be forthcoming from Moscow for financing the revolutionary movement in this country. Up to that time Moscow had contributed money to both of these factions, but had decided that their hostility to each other was neutralizing the results of their work."

A personal emissary of Lenin and Zinoviev was alleged to have dominated the session.

"Silent and taciturn, this emissary met the 70 delegates near Kingston, N. Y.," the narrative continued. "They were conveyed to the foot of Overlook Mountain in automobiles. Guards saluted them along the roads. For more than two weeks there guards had been stationed in the vicinity of Fort Montgomery, Tannersville, Saugheries and Kingston. Trains arriving at these towns were observed by sentinels. A guard remained behind the delegates to watch the village marshal in Woodstock. Other guards were scattered around the countryside as farm hands. There were guards also in the Grand Central Station at New York."

When the party reached the hotel, military discipline was alleged to have been inaugurated. Delegates were forbidden to write letters or take notes. Twice a day everyone was searched. An "out-of-bounds" was established and as night approached "guards could be seen signalling each other with flashlights from the mountain tops that all was well."

Birth of Party.
Thus, according to the article, was born the Communist Party of America, and "the Central Executive Committee of the new party was chosen from among the prime leaders of the Communist organizations throughout the country." These committee members were alleged to have had places on the central executive committee of the workers party when it later was founded.

"Mass action by the workers; seizure of labor unions and converting them into militant enterprises; boring from within the American Federation of Labor, and, in particular, the United Mine Workers of America," was the platform adopted, declares the article.

"The extreme radicals are promoting the revolutionary movement and a dozen intermediate degrees of 'liberal' radicals and 'parlor pinks' are cooperating with them intimately and closely, so that the contrast is complete, from end to end of the scale," the article charged, referring to organizations alleged to be allied with the Communists. "There is no gap or breaking point."

"A larger volume of pernicious ultra-radical activity is centered around Los Angeles than any other city in the United States with the exception of the metropolitan district of New York. Revolutionary radicalism is profitable around Los Angeles because it is made so by the wealthy 'intellectuals' there who are dabbling in it."

"Pernicious and revolutionary propaganda distributed among the coal miners in the strike of 1922 and intended to arouse them to violence and 'mass action' was, in a number of instances, turned out by so-called popular authors and novelists in Los Angeles who are receiving from $600 to $800 a month from the 'intellectual pinks' of that vicinity for doing that sort of thing."

AMUSEMENTS

"FABIOLA."

The remarkable realism of the great photoplay "Fabiola" which comes to St. Joseph's Auditorium today, Sunday, September 16, is due in large part to the wonderful acting of all characters who entered enthusiastically and wholeheartedly into the various parts to which they were assigned. The story of "Fabiola" is one of great nobility and inspiring faith; in the days when Imperial Rome was tottering to its fall, shaken by the powerful current of Christian defiance against the worship of earthly kings, there lived Fabiola, the daughter of a wealthy pagan patrician. Before her eyes pass scenes which stir her from passive, selfish existence to a realization of the tremendous, vital power of this new faith. She saw the faith of the Teacher of Nazareth triumph over the hate and greed of the world.

The powerful dramatic action of this photoplay has a mightier appeal than any words can have. Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago recommended this play heartily to the people of that city, saying: "This is the first time I have publicly pronounced any photoplay. I can promise all who view it an interesting and instructive evening." Rev. M. M. Bennett, the President of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Chicago says: "Fabiola" has my highest approval and I feel grateful to you for producing such a wonderful picture which is nothing short of being a miracle. The production is truly marvelous. I am truly impressed and feel that every Christian in Chicago ought to see it." Another minister, Rev. Frederick Gratiot, rector of the Church of Our Savior, says: "I wish every Christian of whatever name might see this vivid and accurate reproduction of the Christian life of those early centuries."

This wonderful masterpiece will be shown at St. Joseph's Auditorium this afternoon at 2:30 p. m., and two performances will be given tonight at 7 p. m., and again at 9 p. m.

This costly and masterful photoplay, according to a great dramatic critic, Mae Tinee of the Chicago Tribune, is one of the best photoplays of the year.

AT THE DELFT

Marked development in the perfection of motion pictures, which originated when Maubridge at Stanford University called in the aid of twenty cameras to register the movements of a horse, is aptly illustrated in the steeplechase scenes of Thomas H. Ince's latest racing comedy production, "The Hottentot," which comes to the Delft theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The scenes are among the most sensational ever filmed and show the heights to which motion picture photography has advanced since its incipient stage. When Maubridge conceived the idea of filming movement, he took twenty individual pictures of a horse, each catching a fraction of the animal's progress as it moved before the battery of cameras.

The steeplechase was "shot" from every conceivable angle, beneath the ground, from airplanes, beside the course and in racing automobiles that followed the horses in their mad plunge.

Maubridge made unprecedented strides in photography when he succeeded in reproducing the simple movements of a horse; Thomas H. Ince in "The Hottentot," has developed to its highest point of perfection, in a thrilling and dramatic fashion, the movement of horses in their most dexterous feats.

NOT PICTURESQUE.

"So you are really a cowboy from Arizona!" exclaimed the romantic maiden. "Why, you look just like anybody else. You are not a bit picturesque."

"I'm sorry," replied the cowboy, "but you see I have very little opportunity to study up the fiction in the magazines or go to the moving picture shows."—Philadelphia Record.
