COOLIDGE TO EXPRESS VIEW ON WET ISSUE

SCHEDULED TO TALK AT GOVERNORS' MEETING.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright, 1923, by The Escanaba Press)

Washington, Oct. 9.—Governors of the several states who have been invited to confer with the federal government on the subject of law enforcement will be told what is wanted by the Washington administration and virtually no time will be given for the airing of the views of the respective governors.

The announcement that the entire body of governors would come to the national capitol and would be here for a few hours on the afternoon of Saturday, October 20th, occasioned much surprise owing to the brief period allowed for such an important conference but on investigation it develops that the federal authorities decided they wanted to do all the talking and wished particularly to avoid a repetition of what occurred in the first prohibition conference when one or two of the governors took the limelight and carried on a discussion of the merits of prohibition itself. Politically there is no better opportunity for a man on either the wet or dry side of the controversy to get publicity than at a governors' conference on the prohibition question itself.

Wants Cooperation. President Coolidge has let it be known that he wants the federal government's plans for cooperation with the states to be fully explained and that the object of the conference is to get the fullest cooperation in law enforcement. He has broadened the conference from its original program which was to have been devoted to prohibition alone. Now Mr. Coolidge wants all questions of law enforcement brought to the attention of the governors.

As if they were not satisfied with the amount of time and emphasis given to prohibition the "dry" side will stage a citizenship conference at Washington in the days immediately preceding the governors' visit to Washington. Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania is to preside and there are enough political subtleties in this occasion to excite already a good deal of gossip. Mr. Pinchot is a potential candidate for the presidency or vice presidency—his friends say they are aiming for first place only. Mr. Coolidge hasn't taken as pronounced a stand on prohibition as has Governor Pinchot. Nor has the chief executive made himself 100 per cent dry to the satisfaction of the Anti Saloon League as did the late President Harding, who at Denver appealed to the people of America to cease drinking intoxicants and even to give up stocks of liquor they had lawfully acquired. This was generally regarded as about the most effective appeal that had come from the White House since the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead law were adopted.

There are those in the "dry" camp who believe President Coolidge would gladly have evaded the question of a governors' conference on prohibition if he could have gracefully done so. He found out, however, that President Harding had pledged himself to call such a conference. Mr. Coolidge did consider for a time a plan whereby the governors would not be asked to come to Washington but their views solicited and the federal government's plans explained by an exchange of memoranda. This, however, was abandoned and the brief program of a few hours in Washington substituted. Originally Mr. Harding planned a conference that would have extended over several days.

At "Dry" Trial. Mr. Coolidge will, of course, speak at both the citizenship conference and the governors' meeting. He will have an opportunity to advocate law enforcement in as general or as specific terms as he likes. So far as the drys are concerned he will be on trial. Will he go as far in the advocacy of prohibition as does Governor Pinchot? This will be his opportunity to remove all doubts for be it known, Mr. Coolidge was at one time an attorney for brewing interests in Northampton, Massachusetts, in the days when the local option fight was at its height. Since that time his veto message of a beer bill passed by the Massachusetts legislature won the commendation of the Anti Saloon League. Mr. Coolidge comes from a state in which the wet and dry question is not all one-sided and there are those in his own following who wish he would simply come out for law enforcement and let it go at that. They do not want him to become committed to a program of no mod-

Man Held As The "Wolverine" Has A Clean Record

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 9.—A telegram was received today by Sheriff Aron Johnson from the chief of the Hagerstown, Maryland, police, in which it was stated that M. M. Capps, being held under suspicion by the Opelika, Alabama, police as "The Wolverine" who robbed the Republic State bank Sept. 19, had been in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for more than a year and that he was in that company's employ when the Republic bank was robbed. Capps told the sheriff of Lee County, who arrested him, that he was a former employe of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. When he was apprehended he had a certified check for more than $3000 on a Hagerstown bank.

WALTON READY TO RESIGN JOB

GOVERNOR WANTS ANTI-KLAN BILL PASSED FIRST.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press)—Gov. J. C. Walton tonight offered to resign, to prove his good faith in Oklahoma if the legislature at its forthcoming special session will enact an anti-Klan law which he will submit to the lawmakers. Replying to opponents of the administration whose battle cry has been: "We want neither Klan nor kins", the executive issued a statement addressed to people of Oklahoma: "When this bill becomes a law it will be the end of the Klan and I will resign the office of governor immediately thereupon. In this way the people will be protected from the Klan and peace and harmony can be restored."

Would Prevent Masking. Briefly, the governor's bill prohibits the use of the mask by secret organizations in Oklahoma and provides that all such orders shall file a complete membership list with regularly appointed civil authorities. If his plan is not accepted, Gov. Walton declares he will decide further how "we must proceed to protect ourselves from this organization which has practical control of the judicial and police powers of the principal cities of the state. McBee For Speaker. Rep. W. D. McBee of Stephens County, active in the impeachment proceedings against Gov. Walton, unanimously has been chosen speaker of the 9th legislature which will convene Thursday. It was announced at legislative headquarters here tonight. The announcement said that while the caucus has not yet been held, the major part of the house members who signed the original call for the investigation of the official conduct of the executive are as one in their choice of Rep. McBee as presiding officer.

Ford Company Buys Out Swedish Plant

Detroit, Oct. 9.—The Ford Motor company has purchased the holdings of the Johansson Guage company of Sweden with an American branch at Poughkeepsie, New York. It was learned today at the company offices here. The Johansson company manufactured precision instruments. Further than to confirm the purchase officials refused to discuss or tell what plan the company may have in connection with the plant.

Danish Prince Arrives In U. S.

New York, Oct. 9.—Prince Viggo, the "farmer prince" of Denmark and a cousin of King Christian, arrived today on the liner, Esthonia. Women aboard the ship said he was a wonderful dancer and most democratic. The prince will leave tonight for Canada. The important point in the proposal is that it still stands, he declared. He said President Coolidge's assertion in Washington today that it was up to any foreign nation interested in the Hughes proposal to show indication of interest to the United States, was in reality a new offer of the proposal. It is not too late, he asserted.

WORLD SERIES OPENS TODAY; FANS ARE WILD

EXPECT TO BREAK ATTENDANCE AND RECEIPT RECORDS.

New York, Oct. 9.—Salient points to World Series of 1923: Teams: New York Giants, of the National League; New York Yankees of the American League. Games: Championship to go to team winning four contests out of seven. Place of Games: First game in Yankee stadium, second in Polo Grounds; alternating each day till six games have been played. Place of seventh to be decided by flip of a coin. Time: 2:00 o'clock eastern standard time. Empires: Evans and National American League; Hart and O'Day for National League.

New York, Oct. 9.—A house divided against itself! Gotham opposing itself gathered tonight in battling order on the eve of the annual American institution—the World Baseball championship—for which the New York Giants and Yankees, will start the 1923 struggle tomorrow. Records for attendance and receipts at a single game are expected to be shattered when the series opens tomorrow at the Yankee stadium, home of the American League champions, the biggest and costliest ball park in the country. It was predicted the capacity of 70,000 would be taxed and the receipts will be close to $200,000. With the games alternating between the Yankee stadium and the Polo Grounds, which ranks next in size, there are indications that all world series turnstile records may be broken.

McGraw Determined. The Giants, who have gained baseball premier honors for the past two years at the expense of metropolitan rivals, enter the title battle under the indomitable leadership of John McGraw, determined to establish a record of three straight triumphs. The Giants, aided by Babe Ruth, star of stars, and after winning the third straight pennant by record margins is equally determined to turn the table and wipe out the string of reverses of 1921 and 1922. Dope is Interesting. The experts and the dope, that nebulous quantity which has acquired a pretty steady habit of going wrong, played safe tonight by viewing the forthcoming struggle as a "toss up."

There were, of course, those adherents of the Yankees who declared that the supposed superior twirling strength of the American League champions plus improved morale and all around ability of Ruth would be deciding factors. And backers of the Giants, recalling the fighting spirit that carried them to victory in eight games in the 1921 series and their unexpected upset last fall when they routed the Yankees with four triumphs and one tie game, were just as confident that the McGraw men had the requisite punch, courage and skill to make it three straight.

LLOYD GEORGE STILL STRONG FOR U. S. PLAN

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press)—David Lloyd George, Great Britain's war time premier, became the guest of the Canadian government today when he arrived in Ottawa from Montreal. On board his special train enroute to the capital, Mr. Lloyd George reiterated to newspaper correspondents his declaration that Secretary of State Hughes' proposal, made nearly a year ago, for an international commission to determine Germany's ability to pay reparations was the most practical solution of the problem he had seen. The important point in the proposal is that it still stands, he declared. He said President Coolidge's assertion in Washington today that it was up to any foreign nation interested in the Hughes proposal to show indication of interest to the United States, was in reality a new offer of the proposal. It is not too late, he asserted.

KLUX VICTIM TELLS STORY TO THE JURY

Claims Sheriff Turned Him Over to Klansmen.

Amarillo, Texas, Oct. 9.—Sheriff Lefe Whitaker of Potter county took E. T. McDonald to a lonely spot out in the country and then turned him over to a band of masked and armed men. McDonald, recent victim of whipping, testified in the trial of D. W. Stanford charged by the indictment with whitecapping. The trial was called in the Potter county district court. The indictment against Stanford in connection with the abduction and whipping of McDonald, a member of a Fort Worth and Denver railroad bridge crew in July, is the first of several against federal men in the same matter to go to trial. Stanford is charged with alleged assault with a weapon and with aggravated assault in the same case. Five other men, including Sheriff Whitaker, and County Attorney Henry Ford, were indicted in connection with the flogging of McDonald and their trial probably will follow Stanford's.

FORD PLAN TO SHARE PROFIT IS APPROVED

Washington, Oct. 9.—A plan for profit sharing adopted by Henry Ford for the benefit of employees of his railroad, the Detroit, Toledo and Ironport was approved today by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The corporation was authorized to issue $1,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness, to be distributed among employees, according to the terms of the profit sharing scheme, and to bear a varying interest charge depending upon profit of the Railroad. The plan is said to be similar to that now in operation in other Ford enterprises. Betterment of service and increases in efficiencies on railroad lines, the board application said, was the consideration involved in the issuance.

Oklahoma Bandit Traced to Hills

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 9.—Ed. Lockhart, noted bank robber, who escaped from Oklahoma authorities in a spectacular jail delivery at Jay, Oklahoma, Sunday night, was seen by members of a searching party in the hills of Cherokee County, Oklahoma, late today, according to reports received here tonight. Several shots were fired at him, it was said, but it was believed all were ineffective. Lockhart disappeared in a hill retreat and his trail was lost. Lockhart, arrested last week by Delaware county authorities, was released from jail at Jay, Oklahoma, by five armed confederates.

MAKING FRANTIC EFFORTS TO SAVE FLORIDA DYKES

Moorehaven, Fla., Oct. 9.—A frantic effort was being made tonight to rebuild the dykes surrounding the city and save them from further disaster following a sudden flood late this afternoon, which tore down the levees at least at five places. Water is from one to six feet deep in the country. Almost all two-story buildings are filled with persons who have come in from farms in boats and many are leaving the town. Waves from Lake Okchobee were still washing high and farmers were attempting to reach the city late tonight. A small canal bank was crowded with refugees, the bank affording the only dry spot. A careful investigation showed no loss of life. Only a shift in the wind can check the rising water, for not only was this dyke ruined but the dyke extending to Levison, 20 miles from here, has crumbled away in several places and the flood has become far-reaching.

SENDS WORD TO BELGIUM AND FRANCE TODAY

LATTER INDICATE ADHERENCE TO ORIGINAL POLICY.

Berlin, Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press)—The German government has instructed its representatives at Paris and Brussels officially to ask the French and Belgian governments whether they are ready to enter negotiations with the German government for resumption of work in the occupied territory. It is stated that only when replies are received will the government define its attitude toward the German industrial demand.

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Paris, Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press)—The French government thus far is unaware officially of the communication which the German representatives in Brussels and Paris are reported to have been instructed to make, giving notice to the allies that the German government is ready for negotiations with an object of bringing about an early revival of economic life in the Ruhr. The charge d'affaires in Brussels is understood to have delivered the message to the Belgian government and the action of Premier Poincare is thought to account for failure of receiving the communication as yet here.

Alleged Gunman Gives Blood To Save Companion

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 9.—Jesse Bunker, alias Mercy, alleged gunman and holdup man was back in his cell at police headquarters tonight, after giving a pint of his blood in a vain effort to save the life of a fellow prisoner, John Szwecowski, who was wounded in a revolver fight with detectives Saturday night. Bunker was one of the four captured a week ago when detectives surprised them in an attempted hold up of a saloon. According to police he had confessed participating in more than 200 holdups in Detroit and has been identified as one of the "Albendale Inn" bandits who in their flight from the inn, shot to death a motor policeman at Monroe, Mich.

Mrs. Harding To Go To Capital

Washington, Oct. 9.—Friends of Mrs. Florence Kling Harding have been informed that she has decided to spend the coming winter in Washington, but is still undetermined as to where she will make her future home.

Small Mississippi Town Is Fire Swept

Miss Point, Miss., Oct. 9.—Fanned by a 20-mile gale, a disastrous fire swept Miss Point today leaving in its wake the ruins of 11 buildings. The loss was estimated at $30,000. Apparatus from nearby coast towns responded.

Porter Dale Is Republican Choice

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 9.—Porter Dale, who recently resigned as congressman from the Second District, was nominated for United States senator by Republicans in today's primary. His vote was larger than combined vote of his opponents. Fascisti Plot Is Found In Roumania Bucharest, Oct. 9.—The Roumanian government announced today the discovery of a Fascist plot to assassinate the premier and five government ministers. There have been many arrests in this connection. The rapidly with which the chameleon strikes with its tongue at a flying insect is such that the tongue cannot be detected with the naked eye.

WOMAN SLAYER DECLARES SHE DID A SERVICE

Affecting Scene When Husband Greets Her in Jail.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The Rev. Nicholas Strutynsky of Ramey, Pa., husband of Mrs. Emily Strutynsky, who Sunday morning shot and killed the Rev. Basil Stetson in the Sacristy of St. Michael the Archangel church here, visited his wife in the county jail today. With him was Mrs. Strutynsky's brother. Shows Little Emotion. The aged Ukrainian priest broke into tears as he faced his wife who stood behind the bars. Mrs. Strutynsky showed little emotion. The three conversed in their native tongue for about an hour. The brother, acting as spokesman, said the Rev. Strutynsky had cautioned his wife against doing injury to herself. "She told us," he said, "that she is ready to die now. She does not believe that there is anything wrong in what she did. She did a service. Her husband and I feel the same way."

Explains Embezzlement Charge.

The Rev. Strutynsky was questioned by police and the assistant state's attorney after his arrival here today. He was asked particularly about the indictment returned against him several months ago when he was a minister here, in which he was charged with embezzlement of funds of a building and loan association conducted in connection with the church. He explained that he was paying this money back at the rate of $100 a month. He said he knew little about business matters and when the poor and needy came to him, he gave them the money from the fund.

REPETITION OF HOLOCAUST OF 1896 WHEN TOWN WAS BURNED FOUGHT BRAVELY BY POPULA

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 9.—The first fatality as a result of forest fires, which raged virtually unabated in the Michigan copper country today, occurred when Mildred Koivu, 23, wandered with other children from her home near to a small thicket about 1,000 feet away, and burned to death.

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 9.—Menaced by a raging forest fire, Ontonagon, Mich., on the south shore of Lake Superior, 150 miles from a town of 1500 population, is threatened with destruction, according to a telephone message to the Associated Press from C. D. H. editor of the Ontonagon Herald. Ontonagon, a lumbering town, was completely destroyed by forest fires in 1896. The town fire department, after sprinkling outer buildings with water, have taken up their post on the outskirts. The town is reinforcing the firemen. According to Mr. Riley, the editor of a forest fire which has covered approximately 60 square miles within seven miles of Ontonagon.

A. F. OF L. WON'T BECOME PARTY

RESOLUTION IS VOTED DOWN BY BIG MAJORITY.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press)—After a debate in which the Soviet government of Russia was attacked and defended, the convention of the American Federation of Labor, in session here this evening, rejected a resolution proposing that the Federation urge the government of the United States to take steps leading to restoration of trade relations with Russia and eventual recognition of the Russian government. No Political Party. The Federation also went on record today against launching into the political field, through the formation of a separate labor party. The convention, by a vote of 25,066 yeas against 1835 noes (1618 not voting), approved a report of the congressional committee which recommended rejection of four resolutions closing the participation in politics as an independent party. Action on political resolutions followed the most spirited debate the convention has seen. Advocates of political activity by organized labor, presented their plea and they were answered by officers of the Federation and delegates on the floor. Matthew Woll, vice president of the Federation, and secretary of the resolutions committee, pleaded for rejection of the political resolution, arguing that labor should not place its destiny in the hands of a political party, but should rather depend on stability of the trade union movement. He expressed the fear that the introduction of the political question into the labor realm would destroy the economic power of organized labor.

HUNDREDS ENDANGERED

Superior, Minn., Oct. 9.—Forest fires extending from Superior to the Michigan boundary threaten thousands of people by a west wind the flames might have claimed one life, destroyed a number of homes, closed highways to traffic, placed the lives of hundreds of Northern Wisconsin settlers in jeopardy. Douglas, Ashland, Bayfield and Ironwood counties were threatened with fires. Breathing in four counties was a constant torture, the heat pall of an obscuring the sun's rays at day. Lumber companies already suffered losses amounting to thousands of dollars as the fires are raging in districts which are covered with timber. Near Kinball, in Ironwood county, there have been considerable losses in the burning of railroad ties and other lumber. Flames Block Highway. Highway No. 110, between Ironwood and Hurley, has become impassable due to flames and smoke. The flames, it was reported, leapt across the road intervals, breaking through the walls and breaking twelve windows. Professor H. L. Parr was explaining to students who had gathered around, the method of studying the action of steam in cylinders of a compressed air engine. The tank set below the floor level with planking over it burst suddenly and hurled the planks upward. One person was slightly hurt by flying wood and metal and several suffered shock.

50 Students In Terrific Blast

New York, Oct. 9.—Fifty Columbia University students narrowly escaped injury today when a compressed air tank in the basement of Havermeyer Hall exploded, scattering pieces through the walls and breaking twelve windows. Professor H. L. Parr was explaining to students who had gathered around, the method of studying the action of steam in cylinders of a compressed air engine. The tank set below the floor level with planking over it burst suddenly and hurled the planks upward. One person was slightly hurt by flying wood and metal and several suffered shock.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, TOO

Mary Mullen was declared the most beautiful red-haired girl at the Syracuse (N. Y.) State Fair in a contest for redheads only. For winning she gets a weeks vacation free at a big hotel in New York with a chaperone.

TITLES

A buck private who had strayed from the fold—the fold of his encampment—decided that he would spend his last handful of jack in a blaze of glory before surrendering to the M. P.'s. Accordingly, he went to a big hotel, picked up the pen and was preparing to sign the register when he saw inscribed on the lines above:

"Rev. James Morgan, A. M., Ph. D., D. D."
"Gen. Morton Butterby-Miggs, K.C.B., O.B.E."
Sighing heavily, the buck wrote: "Pvt. Jim Harnish, A.W.O.L., probably S.O.L."

THAT WAS DIFFERENT. O'Halloran rushed up to a cotage, shouting: "Lend me a spade!" "What for?" asked the owner of the cabin. "To dig my friend out of the bog," replied O'Halloran. "He's just fallen in and he's up to his ankles!"

PERFECTLY FAMILIAR WORD. The ex-doughboy had secured a position in a garage and was whistling away at his work when the boss entered. "Hey, you, look here," stormed the latter. "You've put a low tension magnet in that car when this order calls for a high tension one. You don't know anything about tension."

SAYS WHICH? Mrs. Blimp: "I'm afraid that my daughter's vacation is proving detrimental to her spelling." Mrs. Dupp: "Do tell!" "On a postal I received this morning she writes: 'Dear Mother: Heir out here wonderful. Worth millions.'"

BOY'S WILL IS THE WIND'S WILL. Lloyd Barrett, 8-year-old Washington, D. C., boy—born in Massachusetts, is said to have been claimed by American and foreign artists as the "perfect type" of American boyhood.

SOME CHANGES IN TRAIN TIME ARE PROPOSED

Traffic inspectors from the passenger department of the North Western road have been working at Powers during the past week making detailed counts of the number of passenger carried through that point by the morning and evening trains. The object of the count, it was said yesterday, is to determine the feasibility of shifting the schedule on Train 214, leaving Escanaba at 7:05 a. m., and Number 113, arriving here at 8:15 p. m., in order to eliminate trains Number 10 and 11, which serve as a connecting train with the Chicago-Iron River-Ashland train at Powers. Number 10 leaves Escanaba at 6:40 a. m. The company, it was said, would like to shift the later train, Number 214, at 7:05, to somewhere near the schedule of 214. Similarly, it is desired to slow up 113, arriving here at 8:15 p. m., at the same time speeding up the schedule on Train 122 from the west, so that 113 could take passengers from the Iron River-Chicago train to Escanaba, Number 122 proceeding on its sweet little course to Chicago.

Bark River to Add Ten Sections of Neighbor, Ford River

Bark River township was given permission to annex ten sections of land now a part of Ford River township, when the county board yesterday approved a report of a special committee composed of Supervisors Bruce of Bark River, Kasten of Ford River and Cameron of Nahma, appointed to consider the matter. Ford River township is willing to permit the annexation, the committee reported, provided Ford River will pay to Bark River, the proportion of the bonded indebtedness represented by the ten sections. This Bark River agreed to do. The change in boundaries was then authorized by the county board without a dissenting vote.

24 Delta County Folks Indicted By Federal Jury

Local police officers returning from Marquette last night, after attending the opening sessions of the federal court, brought the information that 24 Delta county indictments had been returned, most of them against Gladstone Hour offenders. It was stated, approximately 52 cases from Delta county were to be presented to this term of the federal court.

Kenney, Holm, Are Renamed by Board

Reappointment of J. H. Kenney of Schaffer as county school examiner, and of J. P. Holm of Gladstone as one of the county poor commissioners, was announced yesterday by the Delta county board of supervisors. The reappointments were made without opposition. THE SAVAGE BEAST. The silence was torn to shreds as shriek after shriek resounded from the kitchen. Murder was undoubtedly being done. The master of the house dropped his paper, seized a poker and flung open the door. Norah, the two-hundred-pound cook, was standing on a chair, her skirts high, held at bay by a tiny mouse. "Why, Norah," said the master in relief. "You're not afraid of that little thing, are you?" "Oh—h—h, sir," she sobbed hysterically, "but he were a-waving his whiskers so ferocious-like."

BOY'S WILL IS THE WIND'S WILL

Some lucky youngster is to be awarded this Mulvihill trophy in the model plane contest during the big international air meet at St. Louis, Oct. 1, 2, 3. Even now juvenile entrants are testing out their rubber-band propelled engines for the grand off.

TOM SIMS SAYS

We say a Portland (Ore.) man caught with three wedding rings could be freed as punishment. Salida (Calif.) choir had a picnic, which may have sounded more like a few heated arguments. Men don't work hard these days. Took 30 masked bandits to loot one Bristol (Pa.) warehouse. Near Pine Bluff, Wyo., 41 freight cars were blown off the track by wind resembling a politician. Fort Worth (Texas) bookkeepers fought over their totals, which was a regular fiscal fight. Bricklayer shot a man in Birmingham, Ala. Man may have asked if he was a layman. Cougar seen near Ferndale, Wash., got away. He was as wild as a world's series pitcher. Statistics show the United States eats 15,000,000 bananas daily, in spite of that song. Earthquakes are caused by ocean bottom convulsions which may be caused by booting overboard. Stop, look and listen is merely a railroad warning, but should be our national slogan. "Franco Feels Trouble"—headline. Well, who doesn't.

SOCIAL

State Officer Here. Mrs. Ida P. Scott, state deputy of the Ladies of the Macabees, was a guest of the Escanaba Hive last night. An interesting meeting was held. Party Great Success. Tuesday evening's card party given at St. Joseph's hall under the auspices of the Holy Name society of the church was one of the greatest social and financial successes held by any church organization in many years. More than $60 persons attended. Fifty-five tables of "500" were occupied and 12 tables of bridge were played, while more than 300 young people were entertained in the auditorium on the third floor, where many persons were compelled to stand by reason of all the chairs and tables being occupied. It was a decided success from every standpoint. The high bridge honors were won by Wilfred Belanger and Mrs. Edward Murphy. Prizes in the "500" contest were won by the following ladies and gentlemen: First, Mrs. Joseph Gleich; second, Mrs. George Morin; consolation, Mrs. Joseph Charlebois, Jr. First, Edward Venette; second, Ray Edworth; consolation, Michael O'Donnell. The entire program was carried out by the men, who served lunch consisting of doughnuts and coffee. More than 3200 doughnuts were served. They were baked by Joseph Gleich. Following the entertainment a most successful poultry sale was conducted. The affair is regarded as one of the high lights in the social history of the Holy Name Society.

Popular Hotel Man Admitted To Local Hospital

Harry J. Rottman, widely known by the traveling public, because of his many years experience as a hotel man in Chicago and other large cities, came to this city a few days ago accompanied by his wife, who was formerly Miss Jennie Tolan of this city, to visit with relatives. Shortly after reaching the city Mr. Rottman was taken ill and was removed to St. Francis hospital. His condition, although serious, is not considered critical. For many years Mr. Rottman was manager of the Congress Hotel at Chicago and last autumn was transferred to Fond du Lac, Wis., where he took charge of the large new hotel, "The Retlaw". His many friends in this city will be grieved to hear of his illness and are hoping for a speedy recovery.

CUTTING IT FINE. "Is Eb Rufeon economical?" inquired a visitor at Hickson's of a native concerning the town banker. "Waal," replied the citizen reflectively, "I s'pose ye might say so. When he writes a letter he don't dot his 's's' so as not to waste ink, an' when he goes to the city he takes the last seat in the last car on the train, so as he won't have to pay his fare so s'ob, an' that way saves that much interest on his money. No, ye couldn't exactly call Eb a spendthrift."

Family Dolls to Develop Minds of Children

MISS ROBINSON AND HER TILlicum TOTS.

Seattle, Wash.—Miss Harriet M. Robinson, former kindergarten teacher of Chicago and this city, recently got a new idea for the development of her young wards. All her capital was that original idea—and faith in her undertaking. So, instead of seeking financial aid outside, Miss Robinson started her own factory in the breakfast nook of her home. Now the idea has developed into the bank account class, the factory has expanded into a regular building, and her faith has brought its own reward in the pleasure of accomplishment. The idea was the manufacture of little wooden dolls to help develop, through the play instinct, the plastic minds of kindergarten toddlers into right thoughts of community life and the responsibilities of later years. They're Popular. "Tillicum Tots" she called these dolls and as such they have been adopted in kindergartens throughout the country. Educators quickly accepted her idea as a new and worthy method in training the youngsters. At present the "Tots" are on exhibition by the Bureau of Education at Washington, D. C., and at Columbia and Chicago universities. The "Tillicum Tots" are made to stand the wear and tear of the busy work in babyland schools. At present there are four families of Tillicums, representing the professional man, the business man, the farmer and the Indian. Father and Johnny Tillicum are spittably painted in the modest clothing to which they are accustomed while mamma and Susie Tillicum not only have the coat of paint as the foundation of proper feminine dress, but gingham and aprons and bonnets and frills as well. Miss Robinson is now adding the postman, the policeman, the drum major, the Mother Goose Tillicums and the Pilgrim Fathers and Mothers to her collection of "Tots" as further aids in primary education. Constructive Education. In each box of Tillicums sent out are included sheets of patterns for hats, caps, aprons, dresses and other necessary and useful garments, with full directions for making them. The "Tillicum Families," according to Miss Robinson, furnish the child with an incentive for constructive play activities.

CITY COUNCIL WILL COMMENCE TOUR THURSDAY

Members of the city council, now engaged in a meeting of the Delta county board where they are sitting as supervisors, will begin, Thursday morning, a tour of inspection of the municipal utilities, the streets and alleys and a number of local improvements, completed, under construction or proposed. The council has urged citizens who desire to talk with the council about any matters of city business in the various localities in the city, to ask the city manager for an appointment so that the visits desired may be made on the first morning of the tour. No one could be found, yesterday, who would predict the probable length of time to be required for the completion of the inspection tour.

"MAIN STREET" DELIGHTS FANS

Delft Management Complimented Upon Its Success.

"Main Street" opened Monday at the Delft theatre for a three-day run. It is a decided success, a picture with a punch, the picture of the year one could say without exaggeration. Whether it was the masterly acting of Florence Vidor and Monte Blue, and the all-star cast, or the exceptional direction of Harry Beaumont, or the sheer strength of Sinclair Lewis' story, is hard to say. But can be said is that these elements—all combine into the making of a picture that one will have to go far to equal.

So finely did Florence Vidor interpret the role of the unhappy Carol Kennicott that it is difficult to try to visualize any other actress in this role. Another player could not have given it the many nuances of feeling, the fine characterization, the thousand and one touches that make the role live vividly. Carol Kennicott is a decided creation.

The story, very briefly, is of Carol Kennicott, brought to Gopher Prairie by her husband, the worthy Doctor Kennicott. She rebels against what she considers the narrowness and lack of culture in the small town; she wants to revolutionize it in a short time. But the inhabitants are easy-going and phlegmatic; they don't like being shaken out of their old ways. The climax is fascinatingly worked-out.

FIREMEN MAKE SPEEDY RUN ON "TEST" ALARM

It required just 2 minutes and 54 seconds after the receipt of the alarm for the first avenue fire department to cover the distance from the station to the water plant, lay 200 yards of hose and start a stream of water. The run was a test arranged by City Manager Fred R. Harris, in conjunction with preparations for the observance of Fire Prevention week in Escanaba. The distance from the station to the end of the line of hose is something more than 12 blocks. The call was sent entirely unexpected to the firemen and the speed with which the department responded and made its connection, was surprising, even to Chief Arvid Johnson and city officials.

FALL COLORS FOR

Fashion has mixed her colors to suit the season. All the rays of browns is shown—full browns that are nearly black, deep golden browns, red browns, dead-leaf browns. All the yellow shades that harmonize—gold, orange and many others—are used to trim and lighten these darker colors. Green is unusually popular for the season—petrol or bottle green especially. Emerald green and corallian red are both in favor for trimming. A shade just appearing is royal purple, which has been shown at several of the openings in Paris and in imports displayed in New York. It is shown in combination with black, which is also much worn.

LeFave-Trenkle Nuptials. St. Joseph's church was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock when Miss Margie LeFave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis LeFave, 418 So. 15th street, was united in marriage to Mr. William Trenkle of Dubuque, Iowa. Rev. Fr. Bertrand O. F. M. performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The attendants were, Miss Olive LeFave, a sister of the bride and John Manning a close friend. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party motored to Ford River where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at Peteron's Tea Room.

The bride was attired in a coat dress of navy blue with grey astrachan trimmings and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride's maid also wore a coat dress of blue, the trimmings being of squirrel with henna hat. She carried butterfly roses.

The bride was born and reared in this city and was a student of St. Joseph's school. For the past few years she has been employed at the Manning-Peterson Shoe Store in this city. It was while she spent a year at the home of an aunt at Dubuque that the romance had its inception, which ended in the happy marriage of yesterday. Last week Mr. Trenkle came to this city for a visit, plans were formulated for the marriage and happy couple left on the ten fifty train amid showers of rice and good wishes. Mr. Trenkle is secretary of the Trengle Sausage Co., of Dubuque, Iowa and like his bride numbers his friends by the score. After a honeymoon spent in Milwaukee and Chicago they will be at home at 2452 Broadway Dubuque, Iowa.

Mrs. Fredrickson's Party. Mrs. R. F. Fredrickson entertained at her home, 315 South 13th street, Tuesday afternoon. Five Hundred was played. The price was won by Mrs. Elmer Bixt and Mrs. John Greis won the consolation prize. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing, and I could barely do my housework and washing I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAEBECK, 944 28th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

TITLES

A buck private who had strayed from the fold—the fold of his encampment—decided that he would spend his last handful of jack in a blaze of glory before surrendering to the M. P.'s. Accordingly, he went to a big hotel, picked up the pen and was preparing to sign the register when he saw inscribed on the lines above:

"Rev. James Morgan, A. M., Ph. D., D. D."

"Gen. Morton Butterby-Miggs, K.C.B., O.B.E."

Sighing heavily, the buck wrote:

"Up to his ankles!" replied the other. "Then you don't need a spade. I'll lend you a rope."

"Begorrah, but a rope's no good," replied the would-be rescuer. "He couldn't catch hold of it!"

"Why not?"

"For several reasons," replied O'Halloran; "but the chief one is that he went in head first."

SOME CHANGES IN TRAIN TIME ARE PROPOSED

Traffic inspectors from the passenger department of the North Western road have been working at Powers during the past week making detailed counts of the number of passenger carried through that point by the morning and evening trains. The object of the count, it was said yesterday, is to determine the feasibility of shifting the schedule on Train 214, leaving Escanaba at 7:05 a. m., and Number 113, arriving here at 8:15 p. m., in order to eliminate trains Number 10 and 11, which serve as a connecting train with the Chicago-Iron River Ashland train at Powers. Number 10 leaves Escanaba at 6:40 a. m. The company, it was said, would like to shift the later train, Number 214, at 7:05, to somewhere near the schedule of 214. Similarly, it is desired to slow up 113, arriving here at 8:15 p. m., at the same time speeding up the schedule on Train 122 from the west, so that 113 could take passengers from the Iron River-Chicago train to Escanaba, Number 122 proceeding on its sweet little course to Chicago.

Bark River to Add Ten Sections of Neighbor, Ford River

Bark River township was given permission to annex ten sections of land now a part of Ford River township, when the county board yesterday approved a report of a special committee composed of Supervisors Bruce of Bark River, Kasten of Ford River and Cameron of Nahma, appointed to consider the matter. Ford River township is willing to permit the annexation, the committee reported, provided Ford River will pay to Bark River, the proportion of the bonded indebtedness represented by the $30,000 assessed valuation of the ten sections. This Bark River agreed to do. The change in boundaries was then authorized by the county board without a dissenting vote.

24 Delta County Folks Indicted By Federal Jury

Local police officers returning from Marquette last night, after attending the opening sessions of the federal court, brought the information that 24 Delta county indictments had been returned, most of them against Gladstone liquor offenders, it was stated. Approximately 52 cases from Delta county were to be presented to this term of the federal court.

Kennedy, Holm, Are Renamed by Board

Holm of Gladstone as one of the county poor commissioners, was announced yesterday by the Delta county board of supervisors. The reappointments were made without opposition. THE SAVAGE BEAST. The silence was torn to shreds as shriek after shriek resounded from the kitchen. Murder was undoubtedly being done. The master of the house dropped his paper, seized a poker and fung open the door. Norah, the two-hundred-pound cook, was standing on a chair, her skirts high, held at bay by a tiny mouse. "Why, Norah," said the master in relief. "You're not afraid of that little thing, are you?" "Oh—h—h, sir," she sobbed hysterically, "but he were a-waving his whiskers so ferocious-like."

Party Great Success. Tuesday evening's card party given at St. Joseph's hall under the auspices of the Holy Name society of the church was one of the greatest social and financial successes held by any church organization in many years. More than 800 persons attended.

Fifty-five tables of "500" were occupied and 12 tables of bridge were played, while more than 300 young people were entertained in the auditorium on the third floor, where many persons were compelled to stand by reason of all the chairs and tables being occupied. It was a decided success from every standpoint.

The high bridge honors were won by Wilfred Belanger and Mrs. Edward Murphy.

Prizes in the "500" contest were won by the following ladies and gentlemen:

First, Mrs. Joseph Gleich; second, Mrs. George Morin; consolation, Mrs. Joseph Charlebois, Jr.

First, Edward Venette; second, Ray Brotherton; consolation, Michael O'Donnell.

The entire program was carried out by the men, who served lunch consisting of doughnuts and coffee. More than 3200 doughnuts were served. They were baked by Joseph Gleich.

Following the entertainment a most successful poultry sale was conducted. The affair is regarded as one of the high lights in the social history of the Holy Name Society.

FIREMEN MAKE SPEEDY RUN ON "TEST" ALARM

It required just 2 minutes and 54 seconds after the receipt of the alarm for the first avenue fire department to cover the distance from the station to the water plant, lay 200 yards of hose and start a stream of water. The run was a test arranged by City Manager Fred R. Harris, in conjunction with preparations for the observance of Fire Prevention week in Escanaba. The distance from the station to the end of the line of hose is something more than 12 blocks. The call was sent entirely unexpected to the firemen and the speed with which the department responded and made its connection, was surprising, even to Chief Arvid Johnson and city officials.

FALL COLORS FOR

Fashion has mixed her colors to suit the season. All the range of browns is shown—dull browns that are nearly black, deep golden browns, red browns, dead-leaf browns. All the yellow shades that harmonize—gold, orange and many others—are used to trim and lighten these darker colors.

Green is unusually popular for the season—petrole or bottle green especially. Emerald green and cornelian red are both in favor for trimming.

A shade just appearing is royal purple, which has been shown at several of the openings in Paris and in imports displayed in New York. It is shown in combination with black, which is also much worn.

LeFave-Trenkle Nuptials.

St. Joseph's church was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock when Miss Margie LeFave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis LeFave, 418 So. 15th street, was united in marriage to Mr. William Trenkle of Dubuque, Iowa.

Rev. Fr. Bertrand O. P. M. performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The attendants were, Miss Olive LeFave, a sister of the bride and John Manning a close friend. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party motored to Ford River where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at Peter's Tea Room.

The bride was attired in a coat dress of navy blue with grey astrachan trimmings and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride's maid also wore a coat dress of blue, the trimmings being of squirrel with henna hat. She carried butterfly roses.

The bride was born and reared in this city and was a student of St. Joseph's school. For the past few years she has been employed at the Manning-Peterson Shoe Store in this city. It was while she spent a year at the home of an aunt at Dubuque that the romance had its inception, which ended in the happy marriage of yesterday. Last week Mr. Trenkle came to this city for a visit, plans were formulated for the marriage and happy couple left on the ten fifty train amid showers of rice and good wishes. Mr. Trenkle is secretary of the Trenkle Sausage Co., of Dubuque, Iowa and like his bride numbers his friends by the score. After a honeymoon spent in Milwaukee and Chicago they will be at home at 2452 Broadway Dubuque, Iowa.

Mrs. Fredrickson's Party.

Mrs. R. F. Fredrickson entertained at her home, 315 South 13th street, Tuesday afternoon. Five Hundred was played. The prize was won by Mrs. Elmer Blitt and Mrs. John Greis won the consolation prize. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAJCHEK, 944 28th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

Judge tells this one: A lumberjack with a broken leg was taken to a hospital for treatment. After the leg had been set, the nurse asked him how the accident occurred. He replied:

"You see, ma'am, it was this way: I was skyhooking for the Potlatch Lumber company and I had only one ground mole. He sent up a big blue butt and she was a heavy one. I saw her yaw and yelled to him to give her a St. Croix, instead of which he threw a sag into her and that gunned her, and that broke my leg."

"Yes," the nurse replied, "but I don't exactly understand." "Neither do I," replied the lumberjack. "That darn fool must have been crazy."

"Does a man ever get to old to play golf?" asks an anxious correspondent of the distinguished Doc Evans. Apparently not, at least a number of Escanaba Rotarians are still attempting the game.

Our opponent knows considerably more about the game than we do. His luncheon club associates have talked more about it in his presence. Kivanians do not talk golf, they merely play it.

NOTING a musical program on which was listed, "Impromptu in A Flat," the other minor chord on the opposite side of the table declares that some things which happen in cottages aren't rehearsed.

SIR—The window club was discussing the brokerage business. "Which kind, stock or pawn?" asked the club humorist. "I don't know," replied the silent bystander. "I missed the first of it. I'm not very well posted on such stuff." The humorist nodded sympathetically. "That's the way with me," he rejoined. "A WIFE'S STORY"

BY JANE PHELPS.

JOAN IN GETTING BEYOND CONTROL.

Chapter XXXII. I was uneasy for a few days after Paul's outburst, his declaration that he must have more money, then dismissed it as one of his temperamental vagaries. Surely now that we were so comfortable he would do nothing foolish. He was older now, would look at things in a more reasonable light.

At this time I became very anxious about Joan. She was almost entirely beyond control. Not that I thought she did anything wrong, but she insisted upon going where she would, tea dances and the like. She was tall, well-developed, and would pass for a year or two older than she was. Her girl friends were all older than she, and I thought them a bad influence for her.

BEGIN WORK ON NEW HOSPITAL

Garden Cancer Institution Will Have Fine New Home.

Garden, Oct. 8.—Excavations for the new cancer hospital are just about completed and the actual work of building will be commenced as soon as the necessary materials are on the ground which is expected any day.

The location is considered to be the best in town. Situated at the top of the Church Hill overlooking the village and the bay, opposite the site of the Catholic church and front adjoining the Congregational church, it is protected from the north and northwest winds and also the noise of the village.

The building will have a frontage of 106 feet and will extend back a distance of 34 feet. From the front the building will present the appearance of a one story building while from the rear it will appear as a two story. Provision is made for another story as the need will arise. The general dining room and kitchen will be in the basement. The construction will be of building tile, even in the various partitions so that the fire risk will be reduced to a minimum.

Modern Conveniences.

A steam heating plant will furnish heat and a modern laundry will be installed. There will be beds to accommodate eighteen patients. Every bedroom will be furnished with lavatory, and hot and cold soft water. An air pressure system will force the water through the building. A number of drinking fountains will be placed at convenient points and sprayers will keep the lawns around the place fresh and clean. An up-to-date electric light plant will be placed in service. There will be six fully equipped bath rooms and an efficient sewage system. At the front entrance will be the private office and also a spacious rest room, or waiting room. Across the south end will be a porch, measuring thirty-four feet by ten and overlooking the village and the bay. The exterior will be made attractive with well kept lawns dotted with shrubs and flowers. The roof of the building will be crushed slated asphalt shingle and cottage tile.

Ready By Christmas.

Joseph Kadow has been given the contract for the mason work. Several bids have been received for the carpenter work. This contract will be given at an early date. The Ekstrom Lumber Co. of Manistique are furnishing lumber, etc.

Vilas Gray of Cooks is drilling a well for the water supply. The work is progressing very

PAPYRUS LANDS AMID ROYAL SPLendor

Even first-class passengers do not receive quite the attention obtained by Papyrus, great English three-year-old, when the English derby winner came to this country on the Aquitania. Note the plain guards. Note the police. Note the reverent attitude of the gentleman leading the horse. Papyrus will on October 12 meet the best American horse at three years in a $100,000 race at Belmont Park. Incidentally prices to watch the race range from $1.50 to $22. Photo taken when Papyrus arrived at New York.

satisfactorily at present and it is hoped to have the hospital ready for occupancy around Christmas. The complete working plans have been drawn up and arranged by Edward La Motte, son of Dr. Ed La Motte.

Garden people, as well as a large number of outsiders are watching the development with unusual interest. Situated right at the entrance of the town and in a commanding position, the new hospital will undoubtedly prove an asset to the place such as Garden people have scarcely yet dared to hope.

Patients Discharged.

The following patients have been discharged from the local cancer hospital after having taken treatment at that institution. Mr. Sanderson of Pickford, Louis Johnson of Flat Rock, Mrs. Bremner of Manitowish, Wis., Mrs. Estabrook of Menominee and Mrs. Bahilly of Michigan. Mrs. Colta and Mrs. Antoine Rushford both of Rapid River are registered as new patients recently arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht of St. Ignace stopped over here on their way from Rochester, Minn., where the former had been to consult with the Mayo brothers. Mr. Albrecht will remain and take treatment at the Garden institution.

Mr. Frenn, of Escanaba, consulted with Dr. LaMotte during the week. It is expected that he will return for treatment.

had been leisurely smoking his pipe of comfort as he plodded along. Darkness overtook him and since he could no longer see the smoke from his pipe he concluded that he was not deriving enough pleasure from the weed to warrant continuance of the burning. Accordingly he put the whole thing in his pocket "smoke and all." He had not travelled far when he thought he saw a light approaching him. He turned hither and yon, afore and aft, fully expecting to see an automobile bursting upon him. His surprise was beyond bounds when he failed to see the car. Our friend was about to give it up as a mysterious phenomenon when a flame shot up right under his nasal organ. Down went his can of kerosene, quickly followed by the leaves of bread. Some lively dancing ensued and in a short time the fire was extinguished but not before a bad breach was made in one side of the coat. It pays to remember that: "Where there's smoke, there's fire."

Other Items.

Harry Lamkey of Milwaukee was over here to attend the funeral of his mother, the late Mrs. Paul Lamkey. He was accompanied by Delbert Winters, a brother of the deceased. A number of relatives were present also from Rapid River and Escanaba.

Edward LaMotte and wife, Walter Stellwagen and wife, the Misses Wicklund and Martin and Asa Tatrov motored out to the Boudreau homestead on Friday night and spent the evening with Napoleon Boudreau, Sr., wife and a party who are taking a vacation there. A very pleasant evening was reported.

Bert Healy left here on Saturday afternoon for L'Anse where he expects to be employed during the coming winter.

Vilas Gray made a business trip to Escanaba on Saturday afternoon. Ed. J. Purtil and Wm. Kohlman made a business trip to Manistique on Friday afternoon.

Ossie Hazen, wife and little son, with Gladys Eckert motored to Brimley on Sunday and spent a short visit with Arthur Olmsted and family. Mr. Olmsted was a former resident of Garden.

Dr. Edward La Motte reports that a sly fox is paying regular visits to his chicken coops. The animal is responsible for a large number of his flock.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of The Escanaba Daily Press, published Daily Except Monday at Escanaba, Michigan, for Oct. 1, 1923.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Delta.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared John P. Norton, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the General Manager of the Escanaba Daily Press and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., of the above publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing-editor, and business manager are:

Publisher, Escanaba Morning Press Co., Escanaba, Mich.
Editor, John P. Norton, Escanaba, Mich.
Managing Editor, John P. Norton, Escanaba, Mich.
Business Manager, W. H. Holreth, Escanaba, Mich.

2. That the owners are: M. K. Bissell, Escanaba, Mich.; J. C. Kirkpatrick Estate, Escanaba, Mich.; William Bonitas, Escanaba, Mich.; M. Perron, Escanaba, Mich.; Judah Yelland, Escanaba, Mich.; John P. Norton, Escanaba, Mich.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholders or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above, is 5210.

The most stupendous motion picture ever offered theatre goers in this day and generation is the one which has recently been filmed and will be shown Thursday afternoon at 2:30 and at 7:30 in the evening at St. Joseph's Auditorium. The title is "Christopher Columbus and the Discovery of America."

Thursday, Oct. 11, being Columbus Day, nothing could be more fitting than a picture showing Columbus in the most gripping, thrilling human story of the world's greatest adventure. The picture is an inspiration for every true American. Ralph Gervey's great picture, the first of the great Crusader dramas, finds a response in every heart, touches a chord in every breast. It has a message for every one, high or low, rich or poor, Protestant or Catholic, Jew or Gentile. It has an inspiration for every one.

When we take the life story and achievements of these world builders and assemble the high points of their careers into a motion picture we have a drama of human interest and intensity far above anything the great world has ever dreamed—for truth is ways stranger than fiction.

Gorgeous costumes are shown great pageantry in the scene of the Court of Sorville, Queen Isabella is seen pleading for Columbus and many other beautiful productions of the great story.

The local Council, Knights Columbus, will attend the show the evening at 7:30, meeting in their club rooms. After the show the Knights with wives and friends will adjourn to the rooms on the first floor where lunch will be served and a program will be given.

The public is heartily welcomed to see this great picture.

The Well-Managed Home

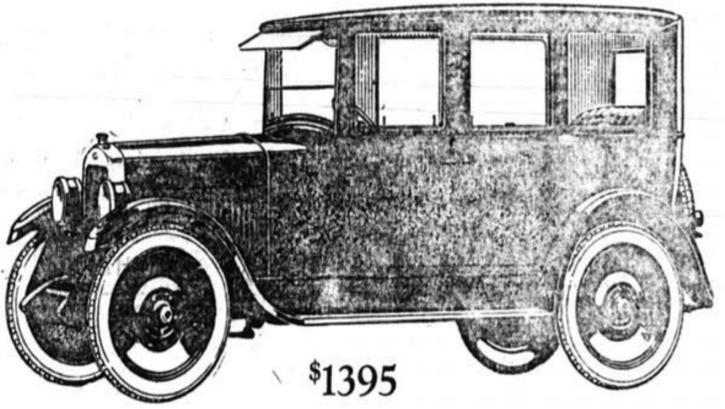

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions that make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household—every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare—should make a practice of reading the advertisements. They are daily lessons in economy.

OLD MEMORIES REVIVED WHEN VISITORS COME

Wife of Early Day Pastor Here to See Old Friends.

With the arrival in Manistique of Mrs. Frederick K. Fowler and her husband, old residents recalled happenings of 1856, when Mrs. Fowler's husband, the late Dr. Fowler, was pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city.

Mrs. Fowler is enroute to her home in California, following a visit in the east for several months, and will stop for a time at Manistique, where she is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Middlebrook.

Came Before Railways.
The Fowlers' arrival in Manistique dates back to May, 1856, though Dr. Fowler had been here two months previously to look over the field. His trip was made by a sleigh, riding 60 miles from the west, and stopping overnight at a lumber camp.

It was not until about a year and a half later that railroad service was established to Manistique, and at that time this city had neither a water system or electric light plant. The first high school building was a double house on Houghton avenue, in front of Middlebrook's store, and the central school consisted of an upright and one wing. These two buildings made up the Manistique school system, which employed eight teachers.

Made Hosts of Friends.
When Dr. Barrow arrived here to take charge of his little parish, the Barrow house was used as a parsonage, and the present parsonage was not built until 1870.

Seven children were born to Dr. and Mrs. Fowler, of which but three are living. One son, Monroe, died in 1918, the same year his father died. The elder son, Harry, was drowned at Olman soon after the family moved from Manistique.

Dr. Fowler was pastor of the first Baptist church here for five and one-half years, and the family made a host of friends during their residence in this city.

Council Given
Assessment Roll
On Cement Walks

Manistique's special assessment roll, covering cement walk construction recently completed, was reported to the city council at their regular meeting last night. The roll covers construction of sidewalks on streets owned by Edwar J. Robinson, Daniel C. Witter, J. J. Thos, and Francis Bizzard, amounting to $482. The special assessment will be reviewed by the council on October 22.

The council also approved the purchase of a new hardwood floor for the Manistique fire department meeting hall, the flooring to be purchased by the city and put down by the firemen.

A petition from E. O. Brant for beverage shop license was approved Monday night. Reports of the chief of police and justice of the peace were read, showing that a total of $70 in fines had been collected for violations of the city ordinance during the past month. Board for prisoners in the city lock-up amounted to $9.50.

Plan Festivities
For Wedding Today

Preparation has been made for extensive festivities to celebrate the nuptials of Peter Rodica and Mary Dragush, who are to be married at St. Francis today. Both of the principals have been employed at Manistique for some time, and are well known here.

Many invitations have been issued for the reception which follows the wedding today, a feature of which will be the auctioning of pieces of wedding cake, following the old-Austrian custom.

River Hunters Use
Motor on Row Boat

Three Manistique men enjoyed two-day river hunting trip in motor-equipped row boat early this week.

The party was made up of William Debut, J. R. Nelson and West Knuth. The greater part of the trip was made by water, sailing down the river, and hunting in branches and sloughs.

Don't Know His Brother

"My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which he said described his case perfectly. The first dose of it gave him great relief and in a month he was good as ever." It is simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere. Adv.

Local People To Attend Funeral In
Ishpeming on Wed.

Several Manistique people plan to motor to Ishpeming tomorrow, where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. Stanley Carleton, wife of the manual training instructor here, who died at the home of her parents in Ishpeming.

Among those who will attend the funeral are: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Attwood, Mrs. Angus McLeod and Mrs. Chas. Riley.

Engagement Of Manistique Girl Is Announced

Under the caption "Cupid Captures Menasha Pitcher," Mrs. Helen Fieberitz of Manistique received a newspaper clipping this week announcing the engagement of her daughter, Kathryn, to Harry Rush, manager and pitcher of the Menasha (Wis.) baseball team this season.

Miss Fieberitz has many friends and acquaintances in Manistique, where she resided previously to accepting a position with the Banta Publishing company of Menasha. At the present time, she is in a Menasha hospital, convalescing from a recent operation for appendicitis. She is expected to arrive with her mother as soon as she leaves the hospital.

Miss Fieberitz' fiance, Mr. Rush, is widely known in Neenah, Menasha and vicinity, both through his connection with the baseball team and the Badger Bowling alleys at Neenah and Menasha, of which he is the proprietor. He is also an aviator of some repute. Following the announcement of his engagement, a Menasha newspaper made the following comment:

"Cupid has done what 'Buster' Braun has been unable to do. Announcement is made today of the engagement of Miss Katherine Fieberitz and Harry Rush, Mr. Rush is the Menasha baseball manager and Miss Fieberitz has held a position with the George Banta Publishing company here for several years. PARTICIPANTS IN AUTO CRASH PAY HEAVY FINE

Pleas of Guilty to Driving While Intoxicated Are Entered.

Arraigned in justice court Monday, two of the participants in Sunday evening's auto collision at Gulliver pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace W. A. McKinney, and paid fines for drunkenness and driving a car while intoxicated.

Robert Labadie, driver of the Dodge machine that wrecked a Ford sedan belonging to Gerald Minzie of this city, entered a plea of guilty on the charge of driving an auto while in an intoxicated condition. He paid a fine and costs amounting to $70, and in addition will be required to stand the costs of repairing damage done to Minzie's car in the crash. The greater part of the fine money was advanced by a Manistique business man. Ell Labadie, occupant of the third car, which was also ditched by Labadie, admitted drunkenness on the night in question, and was assessed a $15 fine by the judge.

Ben Heider, driver of the third car, admitted drunkenness while he had driven his machine while in an intoxicated condition and his plea before the judge was not guilty. The date for his examination has been set for Thursday of this week.

ETERNAL FLAME GIVES NORMA A GREAT PART

On Monday, Manistique movie fans saw Constance Talmadge at the Gero Theater. Tonight, another Talmadge will be seen in a somewhat different type of picture: Norma Talmadge in "The Eternal Flame."

"The Eternal Flame," is an adaptation of Balzac's "La Duchesse de Guis," which after months spent searching for a suitable story was decided upon as a fitting one for the versatile young star with its background of pomp and magnificence. Therefore, she depicts the complex character of that noble court beauty and coquette, La Duchesse de Langeais.

Those who have studied Miss Talmadge's work and followed her steady growth as an actress of great emotional powers are looking forward with keen interest to this latest part she is enacting for they are assured she will give a finished and flawless artistry to a role that will set graciously on her young shoulders.

For Norma Talmadge undeniably mixes beauty and personality with brains.

PREVENTION IS WATCHWORD IN CITY THIS WEEK

Fire Chief Raddant Issues Warning to Gladstone Residents.

JUST A MINUTE!
"By the time you reach the last line property worth $223 will have been destroyed by fire somewhere in the United States.

Minute after minute, day after day, on the average, this appalling pace keeps up to a grand yearly total of $485,000,000,000.

That, at least, was the record in 1921. What the showing will be this year and in years to come, depends in large measure on you.

Ninety per cent of all fires are preventable, for they are due to carelessness.

Take a look in your cellar, your attic, that closet; clean out the rubbish—the old stuff stored away because maybe some day you will find use for it. Many fires about the house are born in trash piles.

While insurance marks the difference between protection and destitution, every American home has treasured possessions whose worth cannot be computed in terms of money and can never be replaced.

A minute's thought now may save the patient accumulation of a life time from the ravages of fire.

After all, it is chiefly a matter for the citizens of each city to protect their property and families from fire hazards.

Fire Chief Active.
The above were the words of Fire Chief Raddant, given as a warning to the people of Gladstone, as a part of this city's observance of Fire Prevention Week.

At noon yesterday, the city's fire trucks were driven through the down town streets, bearing signs in glaring words, carrying a word of caution concerning the danger of fires, to the people of this city. Each noon throughout the remainder of the week, the same program will be carried out by Chief Raddant, with new signs prepared for each day's parade.

Each day of the week, through the newspapers Chief Raddant will sound a note of warning to the people, in the hope that Gladstone's fire losses for the coming year may be materially reduced.

CONDUCTS CLASS IN CITIZENSHIP

Rev. Isak Skoog, pastor of the Swedish Mission church of Gladstone, has organized a class in citizenship for unnaturalized residents of Gladstone that already had achieved a considerable membership. The class meets each Monday evening at the church where those who are preparing to pass the United States naturalization requirements are taught the English language and facts concerning the constitution of the country and civil government. In the past, no concerted effort has been made to provide such a service for unaturalized residents of Gladstone and the service being rendered by Rev. Skoog to those of Swedish extraction is a most valuable one.

CITY RUNNING UNDER BUDGET

According to facts submitted to members of the city commission by City Manager C. W. Ham on Monday night, unless some unforeseen emergency develops, all of the affairs of the city of Gladstone will be conducted through the current year on a budget approximately $5,000 or $5,000 less than was anticipated when the budget was fixed. The facts submitted to the commissioners proved most pleasing, as it is believed that the present is the first time in the history of Gladstone that a city budget has not been exceeded.

REV. SWENSON TO GIVE ADDRESS

Rev. George Swenson, a Swedish orator of marked ability, will deliver an address at the Swedish Mission church tonight at 8 o'clock. Rev. Swenson formerly conducted a children's home in Sweden and also has served as pastor of churches in this country for several years. It is said that he has a particular message to be delivered to the people of Gladstone and it is hoped that a large audience will greet the visitor.

Guild To Meet This Afternoon

Members of the Trinity Episcopal Guild will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church basement. A program of work has been prepared for the afternoon and at the conclusion of the program a pot luck luncheon will be served. Officers of the Guild have urged that all of the members make a special effort to be present.

Norton Unloads More Fords Here

H. J. Norton, of the local Ford agency, yesterday unloaded a carload of seven Ford cars and an additional car, which brought in five Ford tractors.

DELEGATION TO MARQUETTE FOR FEDERAL COURT

Gladstone Contingent to Answer To Charges

Gladstone's contingent of alleged moonshiners and bootleggers, caught in federal net recently hoisted here, will go to Marquette tomorrow morning to answer the charges against them in the United States district court. Chief of Police, Erick Lindahl and other witnesses in the raids that were conducted here, left for Marquette yesterday morning to present their evidence before the federal grand jury and tomorrow the defendants who are involved will go to the Lake Superior City to face the charges preferred against them.

DeBuck Still Missing.
With the exception of Peter DeBuck, who it is charged has fled from this territory, all of those against whom warrants were secured following the raids here, will be in Marquette when their cases are called tomorrow. All efforts by both city, county and federal officers to find any trace of the whereabouts of DeBuck have proven futile and he is little hope now held by the officers that he will appear at Marquette. If he should appear an additional warrant, charging him with manufacturing moonshine, will be served against him, as the result of a second raid made on his property here.

Approximately 30 Gladstone people are involved in the cases originating in this city and it is understood that all of the defendants from this city will be accompanied to Marquette by attorneys and in each case an effort will be made to disprove the charges that have been made against them.

INVESTIGATE COST OF MORE GRAVEL STREETS

As the result of action taken by members of the city commission on Monday night, City Manager C. W. Ham will investigate the cost of building clay gravel pavements on a number of thoroughfares that are now almost impassable sand courses.

The streets under consideration are as follows: Minnesota from Fifth to Sixth streets; Fifth street, from Wisconsin to Delta; Dakota, from Twelfth to Fourteenth; Fourteenth, from Michigan to Dakota; Sixteenth, from Minnesota to Railroad; Twelfth street, from Wisconsin to Dakota and Michigan, between Fourteenth and Sixteenth.

The placing of clay gravel on those streets, would connect up stretches ranging from standard to passable pavements and would prove a tremendous boon to traffic in all section of the city.

All of the streets that may receive treatment this fall, remain today as they were when the city of Gladstone was laid out. All are sand rutted and at times wholly impassable for any kind of traffic.

City Manager Ham has been instructed by the commission to secure the best possible price on the quality and quantity of gravel that is desired and if the cost is not considered prohibitive, the work will be undertaken and rushed to completion this fall.

NEW ORDINANCE IS PROPOSED

The necessary machinery to allow the city of Gladstone to assess against property the cost of necessary sidewalk repairs and for cleaning up unsanitary alleys and lots in any section of the city, is provided in an ordinance that was submitted to the commission for a first reading on Monday night. The city charter carries provisions for the establishment of machinery such as is offered in the new ordinance and it is to comply with the charter that the action is taken at this time. The new ordinance will provide the method in which notices directing property owners to repair sidewalks or to clean up unsanitary lots or alleys, shall be prepared and served, thus making it possible for city officials to cope with situations that have proved most baffling in the past.

SOX BACKSTOP FAVORS YANKS

World's Greatest Catcher Gives Reasons for His Choice.

Final of Schalk Series. BY RAY SCHALK. World's Greatest Catcher. Who will win the world series? There are a lot of people who would like to know the correct answer to that question. Will the Giants for the third time in succession triumph over the Yankees despite the opinion of the baseball experts to the contrary? It is my very humble opinion that the Yankees are due to turn the tables on the Giants. I pick the Yankees to win, although I wouldn't be at all surprised if it took them the limit of seven games to turn the trick.

Law of Averages. With two clubs so evenly matched as the Giants and the Yankees, I feel that the law of averages will eventually assert itself. On two occasions the Giants have captured the world series, McGraw's club has played the best ball and gotten the breaks. I look for the Yankees to be a different ball club this year, one that will surprise the Giants with its new spirit.

The Yankees of 1923 are a different ball club from that of the past two years. Individual play has been shunted aside for team work. The ill feeling that seemed to exist among the stars in other years has been entirely eliminated. A fine spirit pervades the entire club, harmony seems to reign supreme, and the word of Miller Huggins is accepted as the law without the slightest murmur.

The "I am bigger than the manager" idea appears to have entirely disappeared from the ranks of the Yankees. That is going to be a big factor in reversing the success the Giants have enjoyed during the past two years.

In favoring the Yankees to win, I am banking on Babe Ruth to come through. In the two previous seasons Ruth has been a handicap rather than a help to the American League entry. In each series the pitching staff of the Giants has stopped Ruth. Instead of being the big threat of the Yankees offense, Ruth has been practically helpless at the bat. During the season the Yankees are a much stronger club when Ruth is hitting. Unquestionably his absolute failure at the bat hurt the morale of the club in the series.

Ruth to Improve. In the coming series Ruth cannot be worse than he was in the two previous events. However, I look for Ruth to deliver this year. He is a far different player than the Ruth of 1921 and 1922. He is playing baseball, not merely swinging for home runs. With Ruth in there hitting and fielding in top form the Yankees are far more formidable. I am hoping Ruth to be a great asset this year rather than a liability.

I look for Southpaw Herb Pennock to be a most troublesome pitcher for the Giants to solve. Pennock may prove to be the man who will swing the margin of victory to the Yankees. Pitchers who can slow up like Sam Jones and Waite Hoyt are the type of right handed bats that both the Giants. Fast ball pitching as supplied by Shawkey and Bush is a style rather favored by the Giants, according to my observations. Bush's fork ball is his best asset against the Giants.

Southpaw Jack Bentley is the only newcomer in the ranks of the Giants who stands out as a barrier to the Yankees' chances to win.

How It Sums Up. Bentley has a good curve ball and an excellent change of pace. Southpaws of that style always bother the Yankees. The veteran Sherrod Smith of the Cleveland team is a good example of what a steady southpaw can do with the Yankees. For the last two months of the race Smith has had little or no success against any club other than the Yankees.

Aside from Bentley and McQuinn, the rest of the staff of the Giants should not prove overly troublesome for the Yankees. Superior pitching, the thought that Ruth is due to deliver, the decided improvement in the play of Second Baseman Ward, and the fine spirit that now prevails in the Yankee lineup, are my reasons for believing that 1923 is an American League year.

FOUR NOTRE DAME STARS

BROWN CROWLEY (UPPER) MAYL (LOWER) MILLER

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 9.—Gipp Mohardt—Castner? During the last three years of football campaigning Notre Dame has always presented one of the big stars of the game as the pivot point of its team. Gipp, Mohardt and Castner were grouped in advance. Opponents learned to prepare for the Notre Dame star.

This year the Irish squad faces its greatest season. Army, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Purdue, Nebraska, Butler and Carnegie Tech will be faced on consecutive Saturdays.

The "I am bigger than the manager" idea appears to have entirely disappeared from the ranks of the Yankees. That is going to be a big factor in reversing the success the Giants have enjoyed during the past two years.

In favoring the Yankees to win, I am banking on Babe Ruth to come through. In the two previous seasons Ruth has been a handicap rather than a help to the American League entry.

I look for Southpaw Herb Pennock to be a most troublesome pitcher for the Giants to solve. Pennock may prove to be the man who will swing the margin of victory to the Yankees.

How It Sums Up. Bentley has a good curve ball and an excellent change of pace. Southpaws of that style always bother the Yankees.

Bergman and Houser are working out at the left half, which Gipp and Mohardt made famous. Layden stepped into Castner's place at fullback when the latter was hurt last season.

Crowley is the man of the quarter, most fragrant with possibilities. In the early season games of last year's campaign he gave promise of being one of the big flashes of the season.

His work retarded as teams began to lay for him, but against Nebraska and Carnegie Tech he performed with his old-time brilliancy. He kicks and passes well.

Layden is a smooth man with a run, kick or pass. Bergman is a good runner, good passer, but a poor kicker. Houser is a new man who has not yet been tried under fire.

Nor are all the star prospects located in the backfield. In Captain Brown Notre-Dame has one of the finest guards in the land. Mayl, end, is a star of great value both on the defense and offense.

Rip Miller, of the famous Miller family of footballers, has few superiors in the west as a tackle.

Notre Dame's first big game comes with the strong Army eleven at Ebbets' Field, Brooklyn, October 13. It will not only be the most important game of the day but one of the most important of the year.

The Cadets will put a strong team on the field. Equipped with a veteran line and one of the most formidable backfields in the history of the institution the West Pointers will be hard to down.

The addition of Tiny Hewitt, former Pittsburgh battering ram, assures the Army one of the finest ball carriers since the colorful days of Elmer Olliphant.

Notre Dame hasn't been tripped up by the Army for a number of years, though the boys were held to a scoreless tie a year ago.

Back of the entire Giant team is John McGraw, a man without a peer at directing a ball club or driving his players on to victory.

His hand was plainly visible in the last two series with the Yankees and I think it will be evident again this fall, spurring his men on.

Individually Babe Ruth is, I believe, the greatest player who will appear in the series. Ruth has had a wonderful season in all departments of the game.

RIXEY FAVORS GIANTS TO WIN

Cincinnati Pitcher Thinks Series Will Go Six Games.

BY EPPA RIXEY. Pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds. To start with, I pick the Giants to beat the Yankees in the 1923 world series and thus win their third straight world championship from their home town American League rivals.

I do not think the Giants again will win the series in straight games as they did last year because the Yankees have a better pitching staff, or rather are getting better pitching than last year, and also have profited by their experience of 1922.

They also will enter the series fresher than the Giants who will have little time to recuperate from their hard penitential fight. Will Go Six Games.

This year's series, I believe, will last at least six games. On the face of things the Yankees have better pitching than the Giants.

But the Giant pitchers don't run to form, especially if their form appears weak. John McGraw's pitchers have a way of rising to the emergency and delivering the goods in a pinch. So has his whole ball club.

That's the main reason why I pick them to retain their championship. Behind his pitching staff McGraw has a team that is great offensively and defensively. Individually his team is strong. Collectively it is stronger because the Giants have perfected their team work to the highest degree.

Have Strong Substitutes. They also are strong in their substitutes as was proved when Baneroff and Groh were disabled. They can, if necessary, take the field with a regular or two missing and still present a championship team. This may be true of the Yankees, also, but I doubt it.

The Giants have shown me this season there is no type of pitching against which they are weak. They may be stopped for a day, but they will come back and make up for it the next day.

Who's This Camp Guy? "Bullet" of All-American Says

Morgantown, W. Va.—Errett Rodgers of All-American fame, picturesquely known as "Bullet" Rodgers, is back at West Virginia assisting Dr. Spears, head coach of the Mountaineers.

Rodgers is regarded by many as the greatest line plunger since the days of Coy of Yale. They tell a good story on the "Bullet."

When West Virginia beat Princeton 25 to 0 in 1913, Rodgers through the "Bullet's" savage line plugging, Walter Camp, dean of football critics, went out on the field to congratulate the hero of the day.

"I want to tell you, young man," said Camp, "that you played one of the most magnificent games I ever saw."

Rodgers has a brusque way about him and merely growled his thanks. Later in the locker room Rodgers complained about the practice of allowing spectators to rush out on the field.

"Why, you big goof," remonstrated one of his teammates, "that was Walter Camp trying to talk to you."

"Camp?" repeated Rodgers. "What class was he in anyhow?"

Tells Firpo He Must Toughen Up His Tummy. New York, Oct. 9.—What the estimable Senor Firpo would do in a return bout with Jack Dempsey, the Dictator of Cauliflowerville, is a matter of speculation.

Firpo's virtues are well known. He can hit with all the muscular force of an infuriated miscal mule, and he is as game as the citizen who ate the first oyster. Firpo's deficiencies are also no secret. He is no ring general, is unskilled in the finer points of boxing, knows nothing whatever about in-fighting, is weak in the legs, and lacks a rugged stomach.

BAVARIA WOULD BE MONARCHY

Favors Return More Strongly Than Other German States.

Washington—Of all the German states, Bavaria has favored most strongly a return to monarchy ever since the revolution which overthrew the kaiser and established republicanism in the Fatherland at the World War's end.

The state did, indeed, have its own individual revolution. It disposed the Bavarian royal house, the Wittelsbachs, and subscribed to republicanism. However, Crown Prince Rupprecht, who had taken a particularly prominent part in the war as a German commander, was still very popular.

All along there has been much talk of restoring the throne, with Rupprecht as ruler, and many have even spoken of him as a candidate for kaiser of all Germany, as head of a new imperial dynasty.

Hitler Heads Coup. Not only do the Bavarians especially, among Germans, seem monarchistic in their preferences, but the Bavarian royalist movement has been more energetically promoted than in any other part of Germany, through the efforts of Adolf Hitler, the German Mussolini—though Mussolini denies there's any resemblance between himself and Hitler.

Hitler, very curiously, considering the prominent part he has taken in German politics is not by birth a German, but comes from just across the frontier—an Austrian.

THOMPSONITES PLAY NEXT ONE AT MARQUETTE

Coach Glenn Thompson's high school football team will play its first out-of-town game of the season next Saturday at Marquette.

Starting with a green team, with virtually none of the 1923 regulars returning to school except Captain Beaudin, the Queen City aggregation has been developing rapidly and are expected to show some strong opposition against the Orange & Black eleven.

Marquette's style of play is expected to be much the same as that of the locals met in the Gladstone game, with sweeping end runs and forward passes predominating.

Thompson's men came through the Gladstone game in good shape and are going at a fast clip this week in preparation for the Marquette invasion.

Aley, the husky tackle who was ineligible last week, will be back in the game Saturday, it was announced.

Football Coaches Stay in Spotlight for Many Seasons

Chicago—They hang around a long time, these football coaches. Some of the greatest in the game have been at it for more than a score of years.

Johnny Heisman, who moved over to Washington and Jefferson this year, is beginning his thirty-first year as a coach.

Lon Starg has been the God of Football at Chicago for about 30 years.

Fielding H. Yost of "Hurricane" fame has been preaching the pigskin gospel for 25 years and is still an outstanding figure in his line.

Pop Warner of Pittsburgh was a veteran coach when he was teaching the old Carlisle Indian squads years ago, and none of the youngsters can teach him anything today.

Dan McGugin at Vanderbilt is no part of a flapper himself, and Mike Donahue at Louisiana State has had that distinguished gray-haired look for a number of years.

LEGION TEAM TO PLAY AT MANISTIQUE

Coach Ben Pattison of the Escanaba American Legion football team, last night began preparing his squad for their meeting with Manistique in the Schoolcraft county seat next Sunday.

Joe Turner, who was not in Sunday's battle, will return to the lineup this week, probably playing a backfield position.

There were no injuries Sunday and the gang is "rearing to go" against the Schoolcrafters, who against the fans here a great collection of thrills last year in the scrap which Escanaba won by means of two long place kicks.

Both teams are virtually the same as last year.

COUNTY BOARD FRAMES BUDGET

Conduct of County Business to Cost About Same As Last Year.

It will cost Delta county $222,353.50 to carry on its business for the 15-month period, beginning Oct. 1, 1923, and ending Dec. 31, 1924, the finance committee of the county board estimated in its annual budget, approved yesterday afternoon. Heretofore appropriations in the budget have been on a 12-month basis, beginning with Oct. 1.

Estimates of members placed the amount necessary to complete this year's work at about $12,000, which, if deducted from the $217,000, leaves $205,000 or approximately the amount that was required to "carry on" in the last 12 months. The new arrangement will bring the county's fiscal year to a starting and stopping place identical with the calendar year.

Total Tax Figures.
The budget includes a few increases in appropriations, and decreases in some others, while one or two items have been dropped altogether and other new items added.

Among the additions recommended by the committee was a $5,000 item to finance the county's share of the federal-state-county campaign for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis. The highway appropriation has been increased slightly, and the sanitarium tax has been decreased.

Delta county will pay a total of $398,681.61 next year, the figures show. This is distributed as follows:

County tax	$222,535.50
Highway tax	82,986.18
Agricultural Society	1,659.72
State	60,878.24
Sanitarium	30,622.47

The highway commission this year estimated that a 5 mill tax on the present valuation of about $17,000,000 would be required for its work. Last year the highway tax was a 3.5 mill levy on a valuation of about $21,000,000.

E. J. Noreus of Gladstone, speaking for the commission, told the board that the state owes Delta county more than $50,000, for maintenance work and state rewards, all of which probably will be paid eventually. No state rewards were paid during the last year because of the shortage of highway cash at Lansing.

Bureau Gets $1,000.
The Upper Peninsula Development bureau asked the county for $1,500 this year, the sum which Delta had always invested in the bureau's work until last year when the amount was reduced to $500. There was a spirited debate on the question. Supervisor Bushong offered a resolution fixing the appropriation at $1,500 this year, and moved its adoption. Supervisor Bruce moved to amend the resolution to provide $1,000. Mr. Bruce's amendment was carried by a vote of 13 to 12 and the resolution was then accepted by the board without a dissenting vote.

A sum of $500 was given to the committee on buildings and grounds for the purpose of procuring an appraisal of the county's property, and the same committee got another $400 to pay for beautifying the court house and grounds.

The board adjourned at 6 o'clock until 2 o'clock this afternoon to enable the finance and taxation committees to make their annual tax report.

DELTA TO SWAT CATTLE "T. B."

Appropriation Approved in Annual Budget Report.

Appropriation of $5,000, thru which Delta county will become a party in the triangular federal-state-county plan for ridding the country of bovine tuberculosis, was voted yesterday afternoon by the board of supervisors, when the annual budget report of the finance committee was adopted.

Under the plan, all dairy cattle in the county will be tested at regular intervals, the three agencies sharing the expense. Cattle found to be tubercular will be killed and the owner partially compensated for the loss.

The proposition had previously been explained to the agriculture committee of the board by a representative of the federal government, and the committee had recommended favorable action on a resolution, asking the adoption of the plan. The resolution was referred to the board's finance committee and included in the annual budget report, adopted last night.

Anderson and Buick In Iceberg Photo In National Magazine

Escanabans who read the National Geographic Magazine were deeply interested in a picture in the October number, showing the iceberg which formed on the south shore two years ago, a photo of which was made by Robb, the local photographer.

Standing beside the iceberg is E. O. Anderson, of the Escanaba Motor Company, and the Buick car in which Mr. Robb was taken out to take pictures of the giant mass of snow and ice. Mr. Robb and Mr. Anderson explained last night that the car was placed in front of the "berg" merely to show the immensity of the mass, by comparison.

The picture is clear and distinct and no one who looks closely could fail to recognize Mr. Anderson as the man in the picture.

Mothers' Pension List Increased

Extension of the state mothers' pension law provisions to assist women whose husbands are confined in state correctional institutions and hospitals, or are afflicted with tuberculosis, coupled with the numerous enforced absences of heads of families who have served jail sentences as a result of convictions under the Volstead act, was greatly increased the number of pensioners in Delta county. Probate Judge Judd Yelland told the board of supervisors. Judge Yelland gave each of the members of the board a list of the mothers in each township who are now receiving pensions and asked them to check up the eligibility of the beneficiaries of the law.

Wolf Bounty of $10 Will Be Paid by County, Board Votes

Delta county will pay $10 bounty on each wolf killed in the county during the next six months, the board of supervisors voted yesterday. The legislative committee, to whom the wolf bounty question had been referred, recommended the bounty in the form of a resolution which was accepted with but one dissenting vote—that of Supervisor Jacobs of Escanaba. Provisions for the marking of the scalps on which bounties are paid, and affidavits that the animals were killed in the county, were included in the committee's report, which was submitted by Supervisor W. J. Miller, chairman.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE STRAND.
Harry Carey has immortalized the great romantic pioneer figure of the west in his velle F. B. O. drama, "Desert Driven," which will open at the Strand theatre today.

Perhaps no figure in American history has the romantic following that the westerner has. In "Desert Driven," is told a realistic story of a man being railroaded to prison on a false charge, his escape from the toils, his meeting with the one woman and the final reckoning with his enemies. This great photodrama literally teems with action and thrills.

The shriek of the siren, the signal denoting the escape of a prisoner, the play of the great searchlights, the rapid movements of the human bloodhounds within the prison walls are all realistically shown.

AT THE DELFT.
Overalls, as a fashion, were discarded some time ago. But they came back again, for a short time recently. The current Agnes Ayres' Paramount starring vehicle "Racing Hearts," which comes to the Delft theatre Thursday is a story laid in and about an automobile manufactory and race track. Surrounded by grease and oil, those taking part in the making of the production found it impossible to go through a day without acquiring at least one large grease spot. Therefore, overalls were adopted as the official dress. Everybody, from Director Paul Powell, Miss Ayres and the cast, wore overalls. As a result, the Agnes Ayres company was dubbed the "Overall Troupe" by the studio employees.

JURY ACQUITS
THREE HUNTERS OF GAME CHARGE
William Call, Charles Call, Sr., and Charles Call, Jr., were acquitted of charges of violating the game laws, by a jury in Judge C. D. McEwen's court yesterday. The men had been arrested by deputy game wardens, when a bag containing four dead partridges was picked up near the spot where the defendants were hunting.

It was alleged by the warden that the bag was the property of the Calls who dropped it when they saw him approaching.

The defendants disclaimed all knowledge of the ownership of the bag or who killed the birds it contained.

Funeral services for Alfred DeLell, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver DeLell of North Shore, were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at St. Joseph's church. Rev. Fr. Bertrand officiated at the services. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

ESTELLE MARIE JACOBSON.
Funeral services for Estelle Marie Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Jacobson were held at eight o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church. Rev. Fr. J. Mockler officiated. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery.

MALCOLM McDUGAL.
Word was received in this city that Malcolm McDugal, aged 58, had died Monday at Iron Mountain, Mich. Mr. McDugal is a former resident of Northland and was known to many persons in that vicinity. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and one son.

The body will be taken to this city by auto Thursday, arriving at the Alto Funeral Home about one o'clock in the afternoon; where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the local Masonic Lodge. He was also a member of Sandy Camp Modern Woodmen of America of this city. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery at the side of his son who was buried there a few years ago.

MRS. PIERCE LACOMB.
The body of Mrs. Pierce Lacombe was removed from the Alto Funeral Home to the family residence, 529 South 11th street, Tuesday morning where it will lie in state until Thursday morning when funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock at St. Anne's church. Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques will be the celebrant at the Requiem High Mass.

The members of St. Anne's Court, W. C. O. F., will meet at St. Anne's hall at 8:30 o'clock to attend the services in a body. Burial will be in St. Anne's cemetery in the family lot.

Unusually pathetic is the passing away of this noble woman, who not only reared her own family but had six grand children for whom she was caring since the death of her daughter two years ago. The children range in age from two and one-half to sixteen years.

The sympathy of the entire community goes to the family in their loss.

EMBROIDERED GLOVES.
Gauntlet gloves are quite apt to have embroidery of a contrasting color on the inside of the cuff which turns back to reveal it.

FUR BELTS.
Fur bands are a most popular style of belt this season. They are seen on straight-line evening frocks that avoid any other type of adornment.
