

SAXON SOCIALISTS TO FORM NEW PARTY

SITUATION IS REACHING AN ACUTE STAGE BERLIN THOUGHT CONDITIONS WERE IMPROVING.

Bonn, Germany, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The separatist movement is spreading to the right bank of the Rhine, as the right bank colors are flying over five different towns, it was announced today.

In addition to Wiesbaden, the separatists now hold the Rahn at Ehrenbreitstein, König winter, Beul and Vallendar, as three other towns on the right bank of the river. It is intended they say to extend the government to Essen and other Rahn towns as soon as Düsseldorf is taken and the republican machinery there is running smoothly.

SAXON SOCIALISTS ACT. Dresden, Saxony, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The socialist parliamentary party has decided to form a socialist minority government. Dr. Feilich, who prior to the setting up of the proposed socialist-communist government, was minister of education, has announced his intention to undertake the formation of such a cabinet. The democrats have agreed to support a socialist government, which would command an adequate majority in the diet.

It is expected that Dr. Feilich will present the names of his ministers shortly.

BERLIN OPTIMISTIC. Berlin, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The general political situation with respect to the Saxon conflict is viewed tonight in official quarters as having shown marked improvement. The United Socialists, who yesterday threatened to secede from Chancellor Stresemann's coalition government, have deferred a decision on the party's attitude toward the central government procedure in Saxony until tomorrow.

The attitude of the radicals explained on the ground that the party, as such, is in neither a strategic nor financial position to offer strong opposition and also because its withdrawal from the present coalition under the present circumstances would constitute pronounced concession to the communists in Saxony and elsewhere.

Will Use Tact. Any line of action the socialists may adopt for the purpose of administering rebuke to the central government, it is asserted, will be dictated by tactical considerations and solely for the purpose of conserving the party's prestige with its followers.

Reports from Dresden indicate that Dr. Heinze, the Reich commissioner in Saxony, is successful in re-establishing a parliamentary regime there to succeed the deposed Zeigner ministry as the Saxon socialists have definitely jettisoned further intentions of allying themselves with the communists. Berlin officials also view the collapse of the general strike movement throughout Saxony as an auspicious omen.

BRITISH WILL AGREE TO SHIP LIQUOR SEARCH

London, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—It is expected that the imperial conference tomorrow or Thursday will adopt all the resolutions of the experts' committee, the chairman of which is Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, which has been studying the proposals of Charles E. Hughes, the American secretary of state for search and seizure of contraband liquor outside American territorial waters.

Yellow Cab Stock Breaks Violently

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Yellow Cab issues on the Chicago stock exchange suffered a shrinkage of $8,450,000 in value today. There were wide breaks in both the Yellow Cab Manufacturing Company stock and the Chicago Yellow Cab Company stock, carrying the prices of both issues down sharply.

Former Football Star Passes Away. Cape Girardeau, Mo., Oct. 30.—C. W. Hockenberger, 38, son of the lumber man of Rochester, N. Y., and former all-American football player, died here today from peritonitis.

MYSTERY VEILS DISAPPEARANCE OF GLADSTONIAN

Police Baffled by Puzzling Case of Mrs. Donkerwolke.

Gladstone, Oct. 30.—(Special)—Police authorities yesterday were devoting all their efforts to an attempt to solve the mystery of the disappearance sometime between 9 o'clock Monday night and 2 o'clock Wednesday morning of Mrs. Benjamin Donkerwolke, 1392 Superior Avenue.

Continued search of the city and its outskirts by the police, the distracted husband, volunteers and the Boy Scouts who were called out at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, had failed, up to a late hour, to reveal any trace of the missing woman.

Search is Futile. A search was immediately started and continued throughout the day, but up to a late hour, no clue as to the whereabouts of the woman had been found.

No Hat or Coat. The woman, who is small and dark complexioned, was evidently dressed in a brown skirt, a dark red sweater and a pair of slippers. These articles of clothing were missing. She wore no hat or coat, in spite of the intense cold. Money, which was in the house, and could easily be obtained, was untouched.

PAVING BIDS REJECTED BY STATE BODY

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—An answer to the questions of whether the state will permit the consolidation of a stretch of asphalt pavement to compare its quality and maintenance with concrete was deferred again today.

Former Pastor Is Under Indictment

Denver Colo., Oct. 30.—Indictments were returned against the Reverend Walter A. Grace, former pastor of a Roman Catholic church in Arvada; John Walsh, his brother-in-law; E. H. McClelland, former federal prohibition director for Colorado, and Ben Englander, former federal prohibition agent, by a federal grand jury which made its report to Judge J. Foster Symes here tonight.

ALMA BOY DIES FROM INJURIES IN PLANT

Alma, Mich., Oct. 30.—George Geiskins, 34 years old, died at a hospital here tonight as the result of injuries received earlier in the day while working in the pulp drying department of the Alma Plant of the Michigan Sugar company. Geiskins lived near Superior.

Andrew Bonar Law, Former War Premier Of Great Britain, Dies

London, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Andrew Bonar Law, who was one of the strong wartime statesmen of Great Britain and its only prime minister of colonial birth, died at his London home at three o'clock this morning.

Only a little more than a year ago he reluctantly accepted the highest political office in the empire, telling his supporters that he would long bear the strain of the duties and promising to give up the work when he was no longer equal to the burden.

Like General Grant and the German Emperor, Frederick III, the late prime minister died from cancer of the throat. There was a parallel between his last ten days and those of Frederick III in that both came into brief power with the sentence of death pronounced upon them.

PINCHOT TALKS OUT IN MEETING

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—Governor Pinchot in a letter tonight to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon characterized as a "defense of things as they are" the secretary's reply to the governor's letter Sunday criticizing the federal prohibition enforcement system.

Governor Pinchot's letter tonight followed by only a few hours the receipt of Secretary Mellon's answer to one Mr. Pinchot sent the secretary Sunday night. In his first letter, the governor charged what he termed "the breakdown" of the federal enforcement to the federal permit system and declared the state government was handicapped by failure of the federal government to use all its powers.

Heilmann Will Not Be Traded To Philadelphia

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—Harry Heilmann, hard hitting right fielder of the Detroit Tigers, will not be traded to the Philadelphia Athletics or any other team, Frank J. Navin said today in commenting upon reports from Philadelphia that the home run slugger would be used in a trade designed to strengthen both clubs.

Mexico City, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—One deputy was killed when rioting broke out in the chamber of deputies late today when the Guerreroista and Callista factions clashed in the lobby. Guillermo Estina, a supporter of Francisco De la Huerta, former secretary of the treasury, was killed.

Boys Administer Government For A Day In "Cincy"

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 30.—Civic responsibility weighed heavily on a score of school boys who today took over for one day, the highest offices of the city and county. It was a feature of the fifth day of Boys' Week, the purpose being to stir up interest among the youth of Cincinnati in the civic affairs of the city and their county.

AMERICA COULD REVIVE EUROPE

Washington, Oct. 30.—The United States government maintains an attitude of distinct hopefulness that the reparations problem in Europe is going to be settled this time. And this feeling prevails notwithstanding the apparently discouraging statements from Premier Poincare who insists the commission of experts should be appointed have no power to reduce Germany's indebtedness.

JOHN HAYSHAMMOND FOR "DOLLAR DIPLOMACY"

New York, Oct. 30.—If the United States would embark wholeheartedly on a policy of "dollar diplomacy," the future would be brighter for all the 1,700,000,000 inhabitants of the earth, John Hays Hammond, chairman of the Federal Coal Commission and internationally known developer of the resources of backward nations told the American Management Association at tonight's session of its annual convention.

His proposal covered in fourteen points, started with a suggestion that an international high court of equity set to rule on controversies arising through "dollar diplomacy" with its decisions published through out the world, to constitute a powerful deterrent to dishonest practices.

Angora Cabinet Is Approved By Grand Assembly

Constantinople, Oct. 30.—The grand national assembly at Angora has approved the new cabinet headed by Ismet Pasha. The chief posts are filled as follows: Premier and foreign minister—Ismet Pasha; Minister of interior—Ferid Bey; National defense—Kiazim Pasha; Chief of general staff—Marshal Fovai Pasha; Minister of finance—Hassan Fehmi Bey.

Bank Examiners Named By Dawes

Washington, Oct. 30.—Comptroller Dawes of the currency tonight announced the appointment of Owen T. Reeves, vice president of the Corn Exchange National Bank, Chicago, as chief examiner for the second reserve district with headquarters in New York and Edwin F. Rorebeck, formerly attached to the comptroller's office here, as chief examiner for the fifth reserve district with headquarters here. Mr. Reeves succeeds D. C. Borden who has resigned, and Mr. Rorebeck takes over the duties of W. J. Schechter, who has been transferred to the Detroit district.

Community Fund Drive In Detroit Going Smoothly

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—With approximately $350,000 in pledges from individual donors of $500 or more recorded at the headquarters of the Community Fund, and optimistic reports from six different division chairmen coming in, the indications are that at the end of the day the drive with the grand total of pledges will have reached the three quarter million mark.

GERMAN DEBT PROBLEM NEAR ITS END NOW

U. S. GOVERNMENT IN DISTINCTLY HOPEFUL ATTITUDE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright, 1923, by The Escanaba Press) Washington, Oct. 30.—The United States government maintains an attitude of distinct hopefulness that the reparations problem in Europe is going to be settled this time.

To understand the meaning of the French premier's speeches and the optimism that prevails here, however, it is necessary to realize the position of M. Poincare in French politics. To admit at this time that he had agreed to the appointment of a commission to reduce Germany's payments would be to commit political suicide. His cabinet would be overthrown instantly.

But the facts of the situation as pointed out and emphasized by government officials here are obvious in their significance. Would a commission of experts determine the capacity of Germany to pay and then make no recommendations as to how the financial stability of Europe could be accomplished. Up to this time France has been unwilling to permit an estimate to be made by an international commission as to what Germany could pay. That much is now obtained by the new parity. Once it is determined, world opinion would be expected to take care of any attitude assumed by the French which in the face of absolute data as to German capacity insisted on the impossible.

It is true the French need not accept the advice of the commission of experts and Premier Poincare is right in declaring that the German obligations can not be modified, except by the consent of France and the unanimous agreement of the allied and associated powers. But that is not the important fact of the moment as viewed here. There will be time enough to discuss the recommendations of a committee of experts when that committee has completed its work. One step at a time is the slogan of the optimists in the government. And it is appreciated, of course, that no government is bound to accept the advice of the new commission. Secretary Hughes in his note to Great Britain, in fact in his New Haven speech specifically urged that the commission of experts have only advisory powers.

Establish Loan Basis. When the commission determines Germany's capacity to pay it will at the same time suggest a plan as to how Germany can begin to pay. That means a basis for an international loan. If in the face of its recommendations, France still takes the position that the experts are wrong and that Germany can pay more than has been fixed and that France will not consent to any suggestion, the deadlock which has been going on for more than a year will continue but with this important difference: the world will know where to place the responsibility for what happens thereafter in Central Europe. The French accepted the British-American plan for a commission of advisors experts largely because world opinion would not approve of their rejection. The hope of the future is based on the idea that as the area of controversy is narrowed and facts are found there will be less ground for French refusal to join with her former allies and associates in the economic reconstruction of Europe. That's why speeches and comments that on the surface appear to show that France can't be changed her position are not taken at their face value.

CORSE TELLS OF PULLING WIRES

Business in Forbes Case Discloses "Inside Dope"

Washington, Oct. 30.—Congress influence was brought to bear to block a plan of the Veterans Bureau to abandon the tuberculosis hospital at Exton Springs, Mo., the senate investigating committee was told today by E. J. Morse, prominent in the politics in Missouri manager in that state of the presidential campaign for the president nomination in 1920. Morse recently sold the plant to the government for $115,100. The property consisted of the Homestead and ten adjacent acres and was leased to the government under an agreement. It has been charged before commission was refused by Ewing LaPorte, then secretary of the treasury, the last day of the Wilson administration despite recommendation from the public health service that the place was not suitable for hospital. Further adverse reports were made by medical evidence showed, and in 1922, the veterans' bureau began pulling wires. Morse testified that when he notified of this decision he conferred with senators and representatives, who protested to the treasury. He said he saw fifteen doctors and that one of them, Dr. J. B. Bursum, Republican, New Mexico, took the matter to the senate. Later the sale was consummated. Morse was questioned today for more than two hours and near the end of his testimony he appeared to be on the verge of a physical collapse with a result that the committee rested for fifteen minutes at the time he was being asked by Senator Reed, Republican, Missouri, chairman, questions prepared by counsel for Charles Forbes, former director of the bureau and relating to conference with Forbes. The witness testified that Forbes has appeared "very belligerent" against the Excelsior Springs project, but denied that he had had any altercation with Forbes. He denied also that he had been ordered out of Forbes' office here, but said he had been compelled to leave for many hours outside of the city without ever getting opportunity to see Forbes.

WIFE BELIEVE VONYO SLAIN BY THUGS

Detroit, Oct. 30.—Belief that Vonyo, whose body was found last night on the Washburn street tracks, was murdered the outlaws had that a short time previously had robbed a Port street saloon of $5,000, was expressed today by James Burgess. Burgess based his belief on information that between the time of the holdup, which Vonyo witnessed, and the time when the body was found there had been a train passing over the section of track where the body was found. Vonyo was a relative of John McPhee, proprietor of the saloon which was robbed Monday afternoon of $5,000. A short time after the robbery, Vonyo was shot and killed when hurrying home to tell neighbors of the holdup. Burgess now believed that Vonyo was aware of the holdup, left the saloon to summon aid, was shot by one of the outlaws and his body thrown on the tracks to die. Burgess said that he recognized one of the gunmen who shot Vonyo. The body, examination at the morgue revealed, was not injured as it would have been if shot by a train. The only other injury was a small and painful wound in the forehead.

Prohibitionists in Forbes Case Discloses "Inside Dope"

(Continued from Page One) $500. Seldom have there been jail sentences, he points out. He attributed the failure of the few attempts that have been made by his officers to close up the liquor selling places as nuisance, to insufficient assistance at his command. Dougherty will remain here until the new campaign to enforce prohibition is fully under way and Smith and Sessions will stay indefinitely. It will be at least a week and possibly two before many of these "padlock" cases can be taken into court. Dougherty and Voorhels pointed out, but Smith and Sessions and Walling will be at work tomorrow in preparing to start actions. The attorney generals brought word that the state administrative board had approved the governor's action in pledging to the federal enforcement officers in this district that whatever men and money they needed for a more vigorous drive against international border and leaks from breweries would be provided by the state. No specific appropriation was made, however. FIGHTING SOFT DRINKS. Lansing, Mich., Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Robert D. Wardell, Michigan secretary of the National Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, asserted today that he will turn evidence showing that virtually all soft drinks contain alcohol in violation of the state law, over to the Michigan Anti-Saloon League. Mr. Wardell had a conference with Governor Groesbeck, in which he pointed out that the state law prohibits "any" alcohol in beverages. He contended that many beverages which comply with the federal one-half of one per cent limit are in violation of the state act. Ginger ale, he asserted, contains from 37 to 35 per cent of alcohol, cider which has been in a barrel an hour contains two per cent, bottled grape juice contains alcohol. State Law Rigid. "Every farmer who drives a barrel of cider five miles from the mill to his home could be arrested for violation of the law," Mr. Wardell stated. He exhibited a ruling made in 1921 by Merlin Wiley, then attorney general, which specifically held that under the Michigan law there must be "no" alcohol. The ruling declared that the federal law has nothing to do with the enforcement of the Michigan law, which absolutely prohibits any alcohol. The governor advised Mr. Wardell to make complaints to the attorney general regarding the soft drink beverages he mentioned. Instead, Mr. Wardell said he would turn the evidence over to the Anti-Saloon League and request it to make the complaints. The N. A. A. P. A., according to Mr. Wardell, will not object if the state spends its last dollar and uses its last man to enforce the liquor laws. "We want 100 per cent enforcement, and ultimately a modification of the law to permit beer without the return of the saloon. A state beverage commission, composed of one representative from each congressional district, could be named to supervise the issuance of permits to consumers and manufacturers, deliveries to be made to those holding permits direct from the breweries." The Michigan Anti-Saloon League today endorsed the "dry" program outlined at the conference between Governor Groesbeck and federal and Wayne county officials in Detroit Monday.

NEW ANGLE IN MCPHEE CASE

Sandusky, Mich., Oct. 30.—In the trial of William John McPhee, accused of the murder in connection with the death of his wife and burning of their home, the defendant will take the stand tomorrow, to conclude the case for the defense, his attorneys announced. A new angle of the defense was introduced today when testimony was brought in to show that the body of Mrs. Esther McPhee, found charred and dismembered in the ruins of her home at Melvin, was broken by the hooks of a ladder used in dragging it from the embers. Jock Haacke, called to the stand last week by the prosecution was called for re-cross examination by the defense. Haacke swore that the hooks on the ladder used to drag the body from the fire were turned downward during several of the attempts and that the body was hauled by this method a distance of two feet. Explains Fractures. This is the first time in the trial that the defense has brought out the fact that the hooks on the ladder were turned downward and might have caused the fractures of Mrs. McPhee's arms and legs before the body came clear of the pile of debris heaped over it. Dr. C. G. Robertson, Sandusky physician, took the stand to show that it is possible for fire to cause fractures. Dr. Robertson's testimony was opposed to that of the three physicians present at the inquest held in July. He swore it was a natural thing for breaks to occur in fire when the heat is intense enough. He testified further that the action of water on the heated bones would easily cause them to sever from the body. SMALL FIRE CALLS OUT THE DEPARTMENT The fire department was called out last night by a fire in a shed at 305 North Eighteenth street. The shed, which has been used as a summer kitchen, was badly burned, as the fire had quite a start before the fire department was called. They only want to divide Germany into three parts and were thought she was drawn and quartered.

RUM RUNNING LAUNCH GONE

Mysterious Detroit Case Is Being Probed.

Detroit, Oct. 30.—A rum running launch which was seized by the sheriff of Macomb county at Willmarsh Cut, in the Clinton river, near Mt. Clemens, last July, and later found operating again in Lake St. Clair by federal authorities, was the objective of investigation today by Harry H. Jackson, director of public safety, who is delving into the charges against Charles P. Campau, former director of the Detroit office who resigned under fire. The launch, known as the Emma S, was captured by Sheriff George T. Smith, with 155 cases of beer. There was nobody aboard the craft when the seizure was made and deputy sheriffs were assigned to watch the craft during the night. No one showed up and the next day, Sheriff Smith said, he telephoned the Lansing office of the department and advised them of the seizure. In Wrong Pew. "A girl answered my call to the state police," Smith said, "and told me the state department of public safety was not interested; that I should advise the federal authorities. I then called the federal prohibition authorities at Detroit and they promised to send out for the boat and cargo. A few minutes later, a man who said he was Charlie Campau, called up from Detroit and said: 'We want the boat. I told him he couldn't have it, that the federal authorities were sending after it.'" A few hours later Sheriff Smith said, federal authorities and Campau both came after the boat. A discussion followed, the sheriff reported, which resulted in the boat and cargo being turned over to Campau. Got No Receipt. "On July 9, Campau came out with Lieutenant Boetcher, his assistant," Sheriff Smith continued, "and threw a tow line to the cruiser and towed her out of the cut. I asked for a receipt for the boat and cargo but he told me he was too busy and had no time to remove the beer and count the cases," Sheriff Smith said. He said he had never received a receipt for the boat or cargo. The federal authorities came upon the launch on August 25 in Lake St. Clair. They boarded it and found 190 cartons of beer and 10 cases of ale which they confiscated. Two men were arrested while several others escaped in a boat which accompanied the launch. They are awaiting the action of the federal grand jury.

TESTIMONY FAVORS DEFENDANT HUSBAND OF BURNED WOMAN

Sandusky, Mich., Oct. 30.—In the trial of William John McPhee, accused of the murder in connection with the death of his wife and burning of their home, the defendant will take the stand tomorrow, to conclude the case for the defense, his attorneys announced. BONAR LAW DIES IN BRAVE FIGHT

Belief that the withdrawal of Dr. Heitze as promised, and curtailment of the federal military occupancy there, will make it possible for conditions to assume a normal aspect at an early date.

(Continued from Page One) believe that the withdrawal of Dr. Heitze as promised, and curtailment of the federal military occupancy there, will make it possible for conditions to assume a normal aspect at an early date. Bavarian Reply Delayed. The situation with respect to Bavaria is less clarified as Premier von Knilling has not yet replied officially to Chancellor Stresemann's request that the federal military authority be restored complete. Political circles cite the refusal of the labor federation to come to the rescue of the ultra-reds in connection with efforts to proclaim a general strike in Saxony and throughout Germany in order to frustrate the Berlin government's attempt to establish a lawful government in Saxony. The fact that the chancellor is making headway with his reform measures has also served as a deterrent to socialist antagonism in the present critical situation, and if the party thus far has declined to assume a hostile attitude it is due to the moderate leaders who have been persuading their wavering following that the government must be spared parliamentary opposition because of the problems confronting it at home and abroad. Fear For Coalition. In certain quarters it was believed that the coalition government would find difficulty saving itself in the serious crisis, but conditions began to shape themselves more satisfactorily during the early hours of the evening. Some of the leading socialists severely criticized the government's action towards Saxony. Vorwarts remarks that events in Dresden, where Reichwehr troops have taken control of public buildings and Dr. Karl Heinze, commissioner of the Reichs, has informed the diet that it is his mission to form a new cabinet to replace the deposed ministry under Dr. Zeigler, strengthen the impression that the forces at work are acting pro-constitutionally with an obvious intention. 19 ARRESTED IN OHIO RIOTS Steubenville, Ohio, Oct. 30.—Affidavits charging nineteen men with rioting and inciting to riot and six persons with illegal voting were filed in justice of the peace Roes Stone's court late today by Lee Van Tilburg, attorney for the Steubenville Ku Klux Klan. Shortly afterward claims for damages totalling $6,000 were filed for two persons injured in the rioting. It was announced at Justice Stone's office that the warrants would be served tonight. Van Tilburg declared that between fifty and 100 more affidavits would be filed. The alleged rioting occurred on the night of August 16, when an anti-klan demonstration was staged here. Illegal voting is alleged to have been done at the August primary when the Klan candidate for Mayor was defeated. The claims for damages were filed with the Jefferson county commissioners. One, that of Darwin Gibson, former druggist and alleged Klan member, who was shot during the anti-klan disorders, is for $5,000. The other, for $1,000, is in behalf of I. B. Blyholder, insurance agent of Massillon, Ohio, who was assaulted when, it is believed he was taken for a Klanman. Action by the commissioners was deferred. The woods where hunting never fails are rarely touched by easy trails.

FIRE DESTROYS FAMOUS TRACK

Beverly Hills, Calif., Oct. 30.—The Beverly Hills speedway, midway between Los Angeles and Santa Monica and scene of national automobile races, was damaged by fire today when flames destroyed more than one-eighth of a mile of the wooden saucer track. The track will be reconstructed immediately and be in shape for the annual Thanksgiving races, it was announced by A. M. Young, secretary of the speedway association. The fire spread to the track from a blaze started by weed burners. TOM SIMS SAYS News from Paris. American singer arrested. But he was charged with theft, not with singing. SHEFLIN HAS A "ROTTEN DAY"

Coat Stolen While He's Being Sentenced.

Detroit, Oct. 30.—While John C. Sheflin, former manager of the Bay City Motor Club and editor of the Bay City Motor News was pleading with Judge Charles C. Simons for clemency after being convicted of sending obscene letters through the mails, a young man went to the rail on which Sheflin had hung his coat, folded the garment up, neatly, laid it over his arm and walked out of the court. Sheflin was so absorbed in his plea that he did not notice the theft until after he had been sentenced to 13 months in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. "Take your coat with you," said Deputy Marshal George Beamer as he led the prisoner out. Sheflin looked around the court but the coat was gone. Yes, He Needs No Coat. "You won't need it down in Georgia," drawled a spectator. Sheflin looked angered but said nothing. He seemed more affected by the loss of the coat than by the stiff sentence. On his way to the cells he told about losing a valuable diamond while being brought from Pasadena, Calif., for trial. Sheflin ran a tire shop there, when arrested. The complainant, Harry Morris, was brought from Helena, Mont., to testify. He said that Sheflin had written to him a series of letters accusing Mrs. Morris of immoral conduct. There were nine letters spread over three years. Several of them were of such a nature the judge refused to allow them to be read in court. It took the jury only seven minutes to find Sheflin guilty. The judge asked him if he had been examined as to his sanity, but the defendant insisted that he was perfectly sane.

SITUATION IS REACHING AN ACUTE STAGE

Belief that the withdrawal of Dr. Heitze as promised, and curtailment of the federal military occupancy there, will make it possible for conditions to assume a normal aspect at an early date.

(Continued from Page One) believe that the withdrawal of Dr. Heitze as promised, and curtailment of the federal military occupancy there, will make it possible for conditions to assume a normal aspect at an early date. Bavarian Reply Delayed. The situation with respect to Bavaria is less clarified as Premier von Knilling has not yet replied officially to Chancellor Stresemann's request that the federal military authority be restored complete. Political circles cite the refusal of the labor federation to come to the rescue of the ultra-reds in connection with efforts to proclaim a general strike in Saxony and throughout Germany in order to frustrate the Berlin government's attempt to establish a lawful government in Saxony. The fact that the chancellor is making headway with his reform measures has also served as a deterrent to socialist antagonism in the present critical situation, and if the party thus far has declined to assume a hostile attitude it is due to the moderate leaders who have been persuading their wavering following that the government must be spared parliamentary opposition because of the problems confronting it at home and abroad. Fear For Coalition. In certain quarters it was believed that the coalition government would find difficulty saving itself in the serious crisis, but conditions began to shape themselves more satisfactorily during the early hours of the evening. Some of the leading socialists severely criticized the government's action towards Saxony. Vorwarts remarks that events in Dresden, where Reichwehr troops have taken control of public buildings and Dr. Karl Heinze, commissioner of the Reichs, has informed the diet that it is his mission to form a new cabinet to replace the deposed ministry under Dr. Zeigler, strengthen the impression that the forces at work are acting pro-constitutionally with an obvious intention.

TRY TO UNRAVEL GERMAN TANGLE
Britain Wants U. S. Chairman of Reparations Quiz.
London, Oct. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Europe is to make another effort to unravel the everlasting reparations tangle. The British government today decided to accept the French premier's reservations and the British charge d'affaires at Washington was instructed by cable tonight to inform Secretary Hughes of the decision of the powers to enter a conference of experts such as Mr. Hughes suggested in his reply to Foreign Secretary Curson's plea for American participation. Hope For Early Start. It all goes well this commission of inquiry will be started before the overseas premiers leave London and it is hoped that in spite of France's severe restrictions, it may lead to a larger plenary conference on the whole European situation, at Washington or elsewhere, in which the powerful neutrals, nations like the United States, may make their voices heard. Sir John Bradbury, the British reparations delegate whose opinion on France's terms for the experts' conference was sought, informed the British government today that while some of the conditions would sharply limit the scope of the conference he felt that Great Britain could not take the responsibility of uttering a peremptory note to Europe and risk the loss of America's participation. Want U. S. Chairman. There is a strong desire among British government officials that the experts' commission shall have an American chairman, whose neutrality and disinterestedness they feel would insure a greater measure of impartiality and justice in the commission's decisions. They would welcome as the American member, it is

WITNESSES IN STOKES CASE GO
New York, Oct. 30.—Attorneys and process servers continued this afternoon their search for three witnesses wanted for further cross examination in the re-trial of the divorce suit of W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy hotel owner, against Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes. Supreme Court Justice Mahoney instructed counsel for both sides to help bring the witnesses into court Thursday, after the trial was recessed over this afternoon and tomorrow because of the death of a juror's father. Edgar T. Wallace, principal co-respondent and defense witness, was wanted for further questioning by Max D. Steuer, counsel for Mr. Stokes, and Agricola Byers and Mrs. Nell Rose Miller, negro witnesses for Mr. Stokes, were sought by Samuel Untermeyer, attorney for Mrs. Stokes. Mr. Untermeyer complained one of his process servers was thrown out of a house and injured in his search for Miss Byers. Mrs. Emma Elwood Miller, mother of Mrs. Stokes, had the stand all morning. While she became somewhat confused on dates and wasn't sure of the year of her daughter's birth, Mrs. Miller's story of Mrs. Stokes' early life formed a detailed denial of testimony of several witnesses for Mr. Stokes. She was expected to resume the stand Thursday.

Hallowe'en Masquerade. Characters from the Press cover page will mingle with masqueraders of all types at the Coliseum rink Thursday night—the annual masquerade party at the amusement institution.

Special cash prizes are being offered by the Daily Press for the two best impersonations—male and female—of any of the folks which supply good cheer to the readers of this paper. Jiggs and Maggie, Salesman Sam, Marshal Otey Walker, Millie, Guzz, Freckles—there's a long list of them—are expected to be represented.

The two special prizes are in addition to twelve other prizes being offered by the Coliseum management.

Juvenile Party. The Misses Margaret and Mellicent Malloy entertained four teen girl friends at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Malloy, 821 So. 14th street Monday afternoon. The usual Hallowe'en games were played followed by a supper at six o'clock. The prizes were won by Rose Mary Powers, Elizabeth Halgoter and Betty Ames.

Her guests departed for their homes at seven thirty. All reported having had a pleasant time.

Hallowe'en Party. Miss Mildred Erickson entertained a number of friends at her home 1215 Seventh Ave. So. Monday evening at a Hallowe'en party. Games appropriate for the Hallowe'en season were played followed by a delicious lunch. All voted Miss Erickson a very fine hostess.

Entertains for Guest. Miss Esther Palmer, 1210 Third Ave. south, entertained Monday evening complimentary to her guest Miss Ann Collins of Tower, Minn. Games and cards were played after which dainty refreshments were served. Every one enjoyed the party immensely.

Brigades Meet. Company B. Boys Brigade and Company E. Girls Brigade held very interesting meetings at St. Patrick's hall Monday evening. Both were largely attended. Plans were discussed for a musical program and a reception to be given for the members of the parish in the near future. The complete plans will be formulated at next Monday evening's meeting when all members are urged to be present.

Charlebois-Myrsten Nuptials. St. Anne's church was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony Tuesday morning at eight o'clock when Miss Norma Charlebois daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Charlebois, of 405 So. 15th street of Woodlawn and S. B. Myrsten were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques was the celebrant at the nuptial high mass and also performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Anderson of Mashek, Mich., a close friend, while Edward Charlebois, a brother of the bride was best man. The bride and bride's maid were attired in dark blue coat dresses of serge with hats and other accessories of corresponding color. They wore corsages of roses and valley lilies.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents who also celebrated their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary at the same time and a large number of relatives and friends were entertained.

A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at high noon and a supper at six, covers being laid for forty-five guests at both meals.

The home was artistically decorated in ground pine, ferns and cut flowers and both couples received many pretty gifts. The young couple left in the evening for a wedding trip to Milwaukee, Chicago and other points in Illinois, after which they will make their home at 405 So. 15th street.

Mr. Myrsten has been employed as track foreman for the E. & M. S. Ry Co., until recently when he took charge of his father's farm at Woodlawn.

The bride of yesterday is very popular with the younger set and had been employed as a saleslady at the McLellan store until some time ago when she resigned to spend the summer at the family's summer home at Woodlawn.

Farewell Party. A farewell party was given Monday evening, Oct. 29th for Miss Lucy Gascon at the home of her parents, 217 So. 10th St. A very pleasant evening was spent, games, music and other social diversions formed the program followed by a lunch. Miss Gascon leaves Friday for Chicago where she has accepted a position.

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses have been issued at the court house to the following: Carl F. Holmquist and Katherine Kiser of Trenary; Harry Gustafson of Ensign and Edith H. Stratton of Stonington; Dennis B. King of Danforth and Pearl Gerou of Perkins; Gabriel Hayblom and Mattie Baptist of Escanaba.

Ladies' Aid Swedish Methodist. The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Methodist church will hold their monthly social at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. Mrs. F. O. Beek and Miss Ellen Gunderson will be the hostesses. The public is cordially invited.

AUTO MORTGAGE CASE ON TRIAL

Summing Up Arguments of Counsel Will Be Heard Today.

Arguments in the action of the First National Bank of Escanaba against Joseph Sturgeon, Gladstone newspaper man, in which the bank seeks to recover an automobile on which the bank held a chattel mortgage and which Mr. Sturgeon purchased from L. F. Pepin, a former dealer in automobiles here, will be concluded in circuit court this morning.

Decision on a motion by A. H. Ryal, of the bank's counsel, to direct a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, was reserved by Judge Driscoll after lengthy arguments by Mr. Ryal and Attorney G. W. Jackson, for the defense. The court announced at 4:30 p. m. that he would permit certain questions of fact to go to the jury and the attorneys requested more time to prepare their arguments to the jury. Judge Driscoll granted them until this morning, and ordered another case commenced in the meantime.

First of Chain. The case is the first of a number of similar claims the bank is said to hold against persons who purchased cars from the Pepin stock. The whereabouts of Mr. Pepin, at the present time, are unknown.

Members of the jury, which was completed yesterday, are: William Rushford, John Stratton, John C. Young, William Peterson, Edward Tappenden, William McNally, William Smith, Henry Seymour, Peter Larson, Andrew Barbeau, Antoine Beauchamp and Joseph Schaffer.

Jay Walkers Asked to Change Habits

Police yesterday, continuing their campaign against jay walking, stopped more than 50 persons who were seen crossing the streets in the middle of various blocks and asked them to cross only at the corners.

While no city ordinance covers this particular practice, officials believe that jay walking is an "offense against public safety" and are asking the cooperation of citizens in doing away with the habit before an ordinance, permitting the arrest of jay walkers, can be passed. The "unofficial" campaign will be continued.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT. A new juvenile actor, handsome enough to contest the laurels of the long established favorites, is introduced by the Goldwyn company in "Three Wise Fools" which appears at the Delft theatre the last times today. William Haines, selected one year ago by casting director Robert B. McIntyre from thousands of applicants in New York and who has since been playing small parts and receiving training in cinema technique, has his first big chance as Gordon, the nephew, in the King Vidor screen production of Austin Strong's popular play.

As the juvenile lead, working with such actors as Claude Gillingwater, William H. Crane, and Alec Francis, Mr. Haines has a great opportunity, of which he takes full advantage. It happens that the girl in the play is Eleanor Boardman, who came out from New York at the same time and under the same conditions and who has fully justified Mr. McIntyre's judgment in leading roles with Mabel Ballin in "Vanity Fair" and in "Souls for Sale." Young Haines is a Virginian by birth, and was educated at the Staunton Military Academy, where he was much interested in the college theatricals. He later lived in Richmond and in New York City where he continued dramatic work as a diversion until the opportunity came to enter pictures as an artistic ward of the Goldwyn Company.

AT THE STRAND.

Charles Jones, appearing today at the Strand theatre in "Skid Proof," his latest William Fox production, is one of the few actors of the screen, who, in working at his profession, simultaneously works at all of the other occupations he was engaged in prior to taking up the latter work. Born in Vincennes, Indiana, and educated at Indianapolis, he has been a world-renowned trick horse, back rider for circuses. He has been a cowpuncher, an aviator and an automobile mechanic. In "Skid Proof," as in most of his former productions, each of these professions contribute toward his scope of action.

Oldest Twin In America Dies At Pensacola, Fla.

Mrs. Maria Sensiba, of Pensacola, Fla., who made her home in this city until one year ago passed away at the home of her son in the Florida city at the age of 92 years. Her twin brother, David Wiltzie, died last September at the home of his son, George Wiltzie, at Pine Ridge, Mich. They were the oldest twins in America. They were born at London, Canada, May 23, 1831, and had made their home in the vicinity of Green Bay, Wis., ever since childhood when they came to the United States with their parents. Mrs. Sensiba formerly lived at 602 First avenue south, and up to the last year of her life, read and sewed without the aid of glasses.

SWAT SPEEDERS ON NEW STREET

Motorbike Officer Will Guard 10th Street from Scorchers.

The first step to curb speeding on the new Tenth street pavement, was taken by the police yesterday afternoon when a warrant was issued for Lawrence Paquin, driver of an automobile which struck and slightly injured Carl Bunno, aged 10, of 305 South 16th St. The boy was watching the paving crew when Paquin's automobile came down the wrong side of the half-completed pavement. The boy was knocked down and somewhat bruised. Mr. Paquin took the youngster to the hospital where he was examined and discharged. The warrant charges Paquin with speeding.

Not a Race Track. The Tenth street pavement was completed about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the entire street will be opened for traffic this morning. Chief of Police John J. Tolan will assign a motorcycle officer for patrol work on the street "until autotists get over the idea that the thoroughfare was built for a race track." The ordinance, now in effect, limits the speed of motor vehicles on 10th street to ten miles an hour, the old limit having never been altered when the new ordinance was drafted.

Extra Police Will Watch Hallowe'eners

Twenty extra police officers, working in plain clothes, will be placed on the job tonight and tomorrow night to prevent Hallowe'en lawlessness. It was announced at police headquarters yesterday. Vandals and disorderly conduct will be vigorously prosecuted, the chief announced.

The Interstate Commerce Commission in its investigation of anthracite coal rates is to conduct a public hearing today at Montpelier, Vt.

Good Health Secret Of Beauty

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to her sex, which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expressions, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude, headaches, and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, the most successful remedy known to overcome woman's ills and restore health and beauty. Adv.

WHAT IS DEMOCRAT?

The Democratic national committee announces it is collecting a "1924 Victory Fund."

Victory for what and for whom?

Every time during the last 18 months a radical bearing the label of some third party has been successful in his quest for office.

Chairman Hull, of the Democratic national committee, has promptly come forward with the statement that the radical's election was a great Democratic victory.

As a result of such victories, the Democratic organization practically out of business in great many Western and Northern states.

Is this for the election of more third party candidates committed to radical principles that the "victory fund" is to be collected and expended?

Is the 1924 "victory fund" of the Democratic committee to be used in behalf of our getting into the league of nations or in behalf of our staying out?

Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, says the Democratic party must drop the league of nations issue if it would succeed.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, agrees with Senator Walsh. Needless to say, Senator Reed, of Missouri, is also of that mind.

So are other Democratic senators and leaders of considerable consequence and influence within their party.

On the other hand, ex-Secretary of War Baker states that the Democratic party must commit itself to the league of nations and renew the fight of 1920.

In this he is heartily supported by the Wilson element in the party, easily the strongest single faction of warring Democracy, and by such congressmen as Hamilton Holt and John H. Clarke, formerly of the United States Supreme Court.

For which of these factions is the "victory fund" to be collected? Those who are asked to subscribe ought to know in advance for what they are paying their money.

Does the "victory fund" mean the same to Governor Al Smith, Governor Sizer, of New Jersey, and Senator Edwards, of New Jersey, all dripping wet, as it does to William J. Bryan, and Bryan's dry faction?

The Democratic national committee's publicity has a great deal to do with the repeal of the protective tariff in event the Democrats are successful.

If the "victory fund" is used for that purpose, then what becomes of the Democrats as Senators Keating, of Wyoming; Broussard, of Louisiana; and Randall, of Louisiana, all of whom voted not only for the schedules in the Foreney-McCumber bill but voted for the bill itself?

And what becomes of such Democratic senators as Asst. Sec. of Arizona, and Jones, of New Mexico, who voted for practically all the protective schedules in the bill that affect any interest of their respective communities?

Does the "victory fund" being collected by the Democratic party have the same significance to Mr. McAdeu in relation to railroad legislation and management, as it does to Senator Underwood, or the New York Times and Baltimore Sun, outstanding Democratic publications of the Atlantic seaboard?

Is the conception which Senator Glass of Virginia, entertains of our financial system to prevail if the Democratic "victory fund" lives up to its name, or the conception of Senator Hefner, of Alabama, to be endorsed?

Does Senator Shields, of Tennessee, entertain the same idea of what constitutes a Democratic victory as former President Wilson, who only a few days ago named Senator Shields as being worthy of public office at the hands of the Democratic party?

The solicitation of a Democratic 1924 victory fund naturally raises the question—What is Democracy?

HAS DONE NO HARM.
 The recent widespread agitation relative to the enforcement of the Volstead act, apparently doing no harm. Criticism has been forthcoming from several prominent angles. Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania has made

NEVER HAVE WE followed the ponies closely, even in white overalls, but we confess that we are beginning to feel ourselves slipping as the Latonia Stakes approaches. The horses themselves intrigue us very little. It is the ownership of My Own which induces the palpitation.

Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson for years has been one of our favorite Americans. We hope his bellicose broncho wins. Even if it does, the race will be only half ideal. To make it perfect, My Own's chief rival should be the property of Brig. Gen. Charles E. Sawyer and both of these suddenly gold braided medicine men should don orange-purple pea green caps and blouses, white duck pants, patent leather boots and things and ride the animals themselves. There's a race we'd see if it cost us twenty-five cents!

AS WE GRASP IT, the state conservation department doesn't care how many upper peninsula wolverines lose their lives, just so they aren't killed by anyone except payroll trappers.

some very pertinent remarks. The governors' conference followed by the address by President Coolidge on the subject of enforcement served to crystallize sentiment.

As a result, reports from Washington say that when Congress convenes in December, it will be requested by President Coolidge for a larger appropriation with which to bring about liquor law enforcement. Heretofore, these requests have never been honored by the full amounts asked.

And this despite the fact that the enforcement division of the government is self supporting.

It goes to show, largely, that if the people of the United States want the liquor laws enforced, they will be enforced. No matter what the people want, they can have it if it is within reason.

The voters are all powerful, if they only knew and were interested enough to make their wishes known.

"A WIFE'S STORY"

BY JANE PHELPS.

IS PAUL A COMMON BOOT-LEGGER? Chapter LV.

I started to follow Joan, fearful she had overheard Clem's cruel speech, but just then Madge and Clem arose, Madge making some laughing remark about finding the rest of the party.

A quick revulsion seized me. They must not know I had heard them talk of Joan, of Paul—not then anyway. I must first know if Joan had heard. I could not follow her without being seen, so I turned and went swiftly into the house, my cheeks burning with indignation, my heart heavy with pity for my beautiful, self-willed daughter.

Paul, my husband, a bootlegger.

The scorn in young Clem Sanders' voice rang in my ears. It was not to be true, Paul was so fastidious, so above belief or doing anything common—and this—the lowest of all trades, cheating and defying the government, breaking its laws, selling poison for gain. I would not could not believe it. It had been but a boy's way of making one girl sure he had no interest in another. But try as I would, I could not quite make myself believe. A thousand incidents came to my mind; harrowing me. Paul's determination to build a dock, the ships so often seen off the shore, the rockets, which more than once I had seen flare up, and recalled that when they had been seen Paul invariably took his nocturnal strolls; the rough, common-looking men who had visited him, and our growing independence. Paul's possession of others filled with incidents that seemed proof that Clem Sanders might be right.

I recalled Dave Logan's visit the night he and Paul seemed to be disagreeing, my husband's remark, that it "might be dangerous, but that there was big money in it." Was Dave trying to urge him not to bootleg? He also had said perhaps I knew how Paul was caring for us—and that I condoned it. I felt as if I should go mad, and as the clock struck two, went to my room, I would try to forget in sleep.

I thought I heard a sound from the bed, and wondered if Joan were awake. I bent over her, but she seemed to be sleeping, and pressing a light kiss on her hair I threw myself on the couch, and almost immediately fell asleep, exhausted with my emotions.

According to instructions the maid called me early, and all was busy confusion until our young guests had departed. Joan had been very gay through breakfast had called her goodbyes and her invitation to come again in so hearty a manner I was positive she knew nothing of Clem's cruel speech to Madge Dearing. And that she grew quiet, drooped, once they were out of sight did not worry me. It was only the natural reaction after her strenuous days of entertaining. Most of the day she spent by herself either on the water, or sitting in the summer house, while I prayed for and yet dreaded, Paul's return.

Tomorrow—suspicions that will not be denied.

"Womenfolks is funny critters," Old Hank mused. "Take Mrs. Lucindy Potts, now. Last year she shot her husband because he went away for three days 'bout tellin' where he was, an' then she cried for three weeks because her poor husband was dead, an' she'd never be able to find out where he'd been."

HEAVY SELLING OF OIL SHARES

Reactionary Tone Follows Reduction in Crude Prices.

New York, Oct. 30.—Heavy selling of the oil shares, based on further reduction in mid-continent crude oil prices, imparted a reactionary tone to today's stock market. Speculation by the dealers was influenced also by the relatively high renewal rate for call money, lower refined sugar prices and the cut in the national enameling dividend from $6 to $4 annually.

Declaration of an extra dividend of a quarter of 1 per cent on the common stock of the United States Steel Corporation proved to be one of Wall Street's most carefully guarded secrets. The announcement was made after the market closed, the stock showing a net loss of 1-1/8 at 86 3-8, on the final quotations.

Wall Street also was cheered by the report that Great Britain had accepted France's terms for a conference of experts to consider Germany's capacity to pay. Foreign exchanges held steady, demand being quoted around $4.48 1/2, French francs around 5.87c and Italian lire around 4.50c. German marks fell back to one cent a billion.

Leading Industrials Firm. Mixed price changes took place when the market opened with most of the leading industrials displaying a firm tone. The cut in prices announced by the Magnolia Petroleum Company was ignored for a time but before noon the selling orders in the oil group increased and losses in the low priced shares ran from 1 to 2 1/2 points with Marland and Producers and Refiners sagging to new low levels for the year.

National Enameling dropped 2 5-8 points in direct reflection of the reduced dividend. American Woolen was in supply on reports that the recent cut in woolen prices failed to stimulate any great amount of new business. Dupont, in which a pool is reported to be operating, slipped back 3 5-8 points. Stewart Warner had a perpendicular drop of nearly four points just before the close.

Chain Stores and Shippings, which have been strong lately, yielded with the rest of the list. Woolworth dropping 5 1/2 points, Marine preferred 1-1-8, and American International Corporation 1 1/2.

Some Rails Lower. A moderate inquiry developed in the early part of the session for some of the low priced rails, but this died down before the close. New low records for the year were established by Illinois Central common and preferred, Chicago & Northwestern preferred, Union Pacific preferred and Louisville and Nashville.

Call money opened at five per cent, eased off to 4 1/2 and thence to four where it closed. Time money was dull and easier, brokers bidding 4 1/2 for 30 and 60 day funds and bankers holding out for five.

FINANCIAL.
Total stock sales $79,800 shares.
29 industrials averaged $5.82, net loss $7.
High 1923, 166.35; low $5.74.
20 railroads averaged $9.31, net loss 21.
High 1923, 104.91; low 79.53.

CHICAGO GRAIN.
Chicago, Oct. 30.—Although wheat averaged a little lower in price today, eastern buying brought about rallies. Imports of Canadian wheat had some bearish influence, but sellers were cautious on account of possibility of government action which might give an advantage to bulls. The close was unsteady at 1-3/8 net decline to 1-3/8 at 1/2 advance, with December 1.66 7/8 at 1/8 and May 1.18 1/2. Corn finished unchanged to 4 1-8 lower; oats 1-1/8 at 1/4, and provisions unchanged to 20c higher.

Reports were current that fully 500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been brought into Duluth during the last week, presumably for Minneapolis mills and that additional imports were in prospect. Selling in Chicago, however, lacked volume, and it generally became apparent that temporarily the east was supporting values whenever setbacks in price seemed likely to become important.

Official announcement that 19,000,000 bushels of United States wheat and four bushels had been exported during the four weeks ending October 27 attracted considerable notice.

Seasonable readjustments of corn prices on an old crop to a new crop basis led to a drop of as much as 10c a bushel in the value of old corn. New crop deliveries held steady owing to unfavorable weather. Oats sagged a little with corn. Upturn in the price of hogs gave strength to the provision market.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK.
Chicago, Oct. 30.—Cattle, receipts 12,000; good to choice grade and four bests steady $10.00; mixed steers and heifers $11.00; common fat cows very dull; bulk $6.00 at 4.50; bulls strong; bulk $10.00 at 8.00; vealers 10c higher; bull to packers 6.00 at 10.00.

Hogs, receipts 29,000; strong to 10c higher; bulk good and choice $10 to $10.50; mixed $9.00 at 7.50; top $10.75. Sheep, receipts 14,000; killing lambs strong; sheep steady; feeding lambs strong to 10c higher; bulk fat natives and fed westerns $12.00 at 11.50; top $12.45; bulk fat ewes $4.50 at 6.00; top feeding lambs $11.85.

CHICAGO BUTTER.
Chicago, Oct. 30.—The butter market has become very firm and further advances were registered because stocks were nearly cleaned today.

Fresh butters $2 score 65c.

EXTRA STEEL DIVIDEND.

New York, Oct. 30.—Directors of the United States Steel Corporation today declared an extra dividend of a quarter of 1 per cent on the common stock in addition to the regular quarterly dividends of 1 1/4 on the common and 1 3-4 on the preferred which jointly amount to $12,555,700. This was the first extra distribution since March 29, 1919, when an extra dividend of 1 per cent was declared.

The announcement came after the market closed and proved that it was a complete surprise to Wall Street was furnished by the action of United States Steel common in today's market. It opened at 57 1/2, slipped off with the rest of the list, declining to 56 3-8 for a net loss of 1 1-8 on the day. The day's transactions totaled about 10,000 shares.

The report of the corporation for the third quarter ending showed total earnings of $47,683,450 as compared with $47,858,181 in the preceding quarter and $27,468,329 for the corresponding quarter last year. Net income totaled $33,925,911 as against $34,823,884 in the preceding quarter and $18,297,394 in the third quarter of 1922.

HARRIS TALKS TO LIONS CLUB

Tells Organization Something of Next Year's Paving Plans.

Escanaba is ten years behind in street paving work. Fred R. Harris, city manager, told members of the Escanaba Lions' club at their regular weekly luncheon meeting yesterday at the Delta hotel.

Mr. Harris said he believed that good pavements constituted the most attractive advertisement a city can offer its visitors, and that the administration expected to push improvement work in Escanaba as rapidly as possible.

Experts have been retained to give their opinions on the best type of paving materials for local use; a city planner who is recognized as one of the most efficient men in his work in the United States has been retained to study the situation and tell the administration what streets when paved will provide the greatest good to the largest number of people in the city, Mr. Harris said. As a consequence, the program recommended by these experts will be carried out. Paving work next summer will not be inflated by petition.

Other Numbers.
Mrs. George Casey sang a group of songs at the meeting and Lawrence Hartwig and Gunnar Back, high school students, discussed the need of athletics in the schools and the necessity of providing adequate facilities for them. The program was one of the most interesting the club has had in some time.

Paid Fancy Prices

"I paid an international authority on diseases of the stomach $1,500 and he didn't do me five cents' worth of good. I have been to various spas in Europe, as well as this country and have spent fully $30,000 fruitlessly in search of a cure for my stomach trouble. Naturally I lost faith in any remedy for my case. My wife's brother had taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and praised it so highly that I tried it and am now entirely rid of that trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere. Adv.

Fratern Column

Pythian Party.
The Pythian Sisters will hold their regular business meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp in order to have more time for the Hard Time Party which will be held immediately after the meeting.

The members may attend in their costumes. All Sisters' husbands whether they belong to the Pythian Sisters or not, are cordially invited to attend this hard time party. Some of the most antique costumes have been taken from their hiding places to be used for this occasion. A lunch will be served after the dancing program and a good time is assured.

WINNINGER TO ARRIVE MONDAY

Famous Comedian and Clever Company Returning to Delft.

Frank Winninger, and his famous Frank Winninger Comedy Company will open a week's engagement at the Delft theatre next Monday night, with "Two Blocks Away," an offering which will give Mr. Winninger exceptional opportunities to exercise his full natural ability as a fun maker.

In the Winninger company this year are several folks—particularly Billy Jay Brown—who are well known to Escanaba theatre goers, and a number of new ones. According to newspaper reviews of the company's work, the organization is the strongest Mr. Winninger ever has brought up this way.

The plays to be presented include "The Old Firm," "Running Wild," "The Mysterious Voice," "Bosom Friends," "The Village President," and "Tillie a Menonite Maid."

Mr. Winninger is without doubt the peerless leader of all stock company players who visit this territory and he will be welcomed back to the Delft for his annual sojourn, by capacity crowds.

A THOUGHT

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.—Rom. 12:15.

The National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, the oldest trade association in the United States, will open its annual autumn convention in Boston today.

Last Jury Trial Of Term Commences

The last jury trial in the present term of district court got under way at 4:30 o'clock last night. Other members of the panel were excused by Judge Driscoll at 5 o'clock.

The final case is an appeal brought by John N. Hoff of New York City, against Gust Giese and Louis Crestani, who formerly were engaged in the potato business in Gladstone. It is alleged by Mr. Hoff that the Giese purchased 12 tons of wood from him during the war and that their contract with him remains uncompleted.

The case will be completed in court this morning.

A Constructive Force

FROM the day when its first refinery was opened, it has been the earnest endeavor of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to be a constructive force in the industrial life of the nation.

With all modesty we say—frankly, sincerely, and with profound conviction—that this organization has been such a force.

When this Company was organized, only a few products were taken from crude oil. Today, hundreds of products—useful, convenient, imperatively needed by the public at large—are taken from this single base.

This industrial husbandry, redounding to the material benefit of mankind, is eloquent in demonstrating the kind of work which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been doing year after year.

This Company always has been a leader. The advanced work it has done in research, discovery, technical application, development and manufacturing, has added much to the wealth of the world.

Hundreds of industries have improved their manufacturing processes and largely increased their productiveness because of the advanced work this Company has done—and such improvement has enabled the manufacturer to sell his products at a lower price than would have been possible otherwise.

Because of the Company's advanced thinking, planning and preparation the price of petroleum products generally has been kept within reasonable bounds in the face of a demand which is unprecedented in history.

Every factor in this great organization is carefully attuned to the constructive ideals of conservation, equity, fairness and justice, which in turn have operated in a comprehensive way to the distinct and material advantage of the thirty million people living in the Middle Western States.

PITCHING AGES FLOPPED HARD

Hoyt and Watson, Opening Game Selections, Disappointed.

BY BILLY EVANS. The uncertainty of baseball pitching ages flopped hard.

Prior to the start of the series if there was one pitcher that Miller Huggins banked on more than any other member of his staff, it was Walter Hoyt.

Just what the rival managers thought of Watson and Hoyt can be gleaned from the fact that the pair were the pitching selections for the opening game.

The first game in a world series is considered all-important, a much heated edge. Both pitchers warmed up well.

Worked Only Few Innings. The next inning saw the exit of Hoyt from the game and the series.

Thus before the finish of the first game, the two pitchers on whom the managers had banked to win the opener had been removed from the game.

APPRECIATION. I wished to show her that chivalry lingers; She is a charmer both steady and fair; I pressed my lips to her nicotine fingers; I with much courtesy brought her a chair.

I fetched a glass with a heart thrilling tinkle; I felt the touch of her cool finger lips; As she took the glass with eyes all a-twinkle; And laughingly lifted it to her lips.

I was attentive—there's no denying; Chivalry gets 'em; they take it—but While I was thinking thus, I heard her sighing; "Please tell me, Gladys; is that guy a nut?"—Edgar Daniel Kramer.

GIANT CROWD FOR CARNIVAL

Hundreds to Participate in Affair at High School Tonight.

Brass bands—flags and colored lights—fun—thrills—laughter—joy—Hallowe'en carnival.

Hundreds of merry makers will participate. The high school carnival, staged at the school tonight for the purpose of raising funds for the proposed athletic field will be one of the most gorgeous, pretentious and thoroughly entertaining affairs of its kind ever staged in this region.

Nearly a half-hundred shows and other attractions will be offered to the patrons, all of them for the price of $1. and more than 5,000 tickets have been sold in advance. Holders of these tickets, plus those which will be sold at the door, will make the crowd one of the largest students ever have entertained.

Every familiar device and arrangement known to the carnival business will be available to the celebrators. From the fish pond to the chute the chutes, nothing has been overlooked. It will be "some party."

Doors Open at 7 O'clock. The doors of the gymnasium will be opened at 7 o'clock. From that hour until 10 o'clock, the carnival spirit will rule.

The carnival will close with a big vaudeville show, to be staged in the school auditorium by the Orange & Black Society, in which the best talent of the school will present an elaborate program.

For those who do not want to purchase the "blanket" tickets, admitting them to all the shows, there will be single admission tickets to each of the attractions.

The event will be the climax of the campaign the students are conducting to finance the purchase of an athletic field for the use of the school, and it will be one of the biggest events, not only of the school calendar, but of the entire winter entertainment season.

If we could see the value of health in a pile of gold before our eyes, its worth would then be understood.

WORLD COURT OR WORLD WAR!

Civilization Is Tottering, Will Fall Without U. S. Aid, Says Bishop.

There must be an international court of justice, substituting the orderly judicial methods, justice and right for destruction and wholesale murder, with America participating in it, or within a few years there will be another great world war, with America in it, the Rt. Rev. Robert L. Harris, D. D., bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Marquette, told 150 men of St. Stephen's church at a dinner, given in his honor, in the Masonic club rooms last night.

There is No Peace. The bishop, who has just returned from Europe where he spent several months in an intimate study of conditions, told his audience that although America was the deciding factor in the winning of the war for the cause of humanity, America has done nothing to win peace for humanity, and he added, "there is no peace."

Unless America decides, quickly, to do her full share in the rebuilding of the foundations of civilization, he declared, our present civilization will crumble, as the other civilizations which preceded it, have crumbled.

No Isolation Possible. "When houses on all sides of yours is afire, and the sparks are falling on your roof," said Bishop Harris, "you do not go into your home and shut the door and say, 'This is no concern of ours.' Those who tell us that we must maintain our 'splendid isolation,' beware of foreign entanglements and alliances are in effect, urging us to go into our house and lock the doors while everything else burns."

"There is one way—and only one—to combat the forces of destruction that threaten to destroy the civilized world," he said. "That is by building up the Church of the Living God," he declared.

"Europe needs a new faith in God and in the brotherhood of man. This must come from America and we can not give it unless we have it ourselves."

Sabbath Desecration. "Fifty percent of the business men of America are practicing pagans every Sunday, and fifty percent of the children of America have no religious training. One family out of every eight in America is wrecked by divorce."

"You men who are shooting partridges and playing golf on Sunday are the best friends the Bolshevik and the enemy of government and morality and order has in this country. You are, by your example, helping him to teach the children of this country that there is no God, no hereafter and consequently no reason for right living and right thinking."

Return to Church. "Unless America returns to a steadfast faith and devotion and submission to Jesus Christ, civilization cannot survive." Arch Deacon Southworth, dean of the Cathedral of Marquette, also was a speaker on the program. Wilbur Lafeen presided.

The announcement of the hour for the services will be made in Saturday's issue of this paper.

Mrs. Charles Jerner of Chicago, a sister of Mrs. Peterson arrived Monday to attend the funeral.

NEW EVIDENCE IN KLAN CASE

Mer Rouge Matter to Come Up Next Monday.

New Orleans, Oct. 30.—The two mutilated bodies found in Lake La Fourche last December and identified as those of Watt Daniel and T. P. Richard of Mer Rouge, who were kidnapped by hooded men near Bastrop four months earlier, could not have been in the water more than 45 hours, if that long, Dr. Charles W. Duval, the pathologist who conducted the autopsies told the Times-Picayune tonight, according to a story that newspaper will publish tomorrow. Members of the Morehouse Parish Ku Klux Klan, at whose door Governor John M. Parker and others have laid the kidnapping and alleged murder of the men repeatedly have charged the bodies were not those of Daniel and Richard but that they were "planted" in the lake a short time before their discovery in order to fasten the crime upon the Klan, Captain J. K. Skipwith, exalted cyclops of the Morehouse Klan, has declared upon several occasions that the bodies came from a medical school in St. Louis.

Dr. John A. Lanford, pathologist of Tulane University, who assisted Dr. Duval in performing the autopsies, was quoted by the newspaper as corroborating the statement of Dr. Duval. Both, however, said there was no doubt in their opinion that the bodies were those of Daniel and Richard.

Frank Wurth Buys First Deer Permit Big Dancing Party At Terrace Oct. 31. The first deer license of the 1923 season to be issued in Delta county, has been granted to Frank Wurth of this city. Mr. Wurth's application was followed closely by a dozen others. The season opens November 10. What is expected to be one of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the entire season is being prepared for Wednesday evening Oct. 31, at Terrace Gardens which will be beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The big affair has been billed in all parts of the county and it is indicated that attendants from all parts of the county will be present. Because of the carnival at the high school the same evening, it has been arranged to extend the time for dancing to later than the usual hour in order to give persons attending the carnival an opportunity to also attend the biggest dancing party of the year at beautiful Terrace Gardens. NOTICE. There will be a meeting of the ladies of St. Patrick's parish tonight at 8 o'clock in the basement of the church to complete arrangements for a bazaar. Press Want Ads Get Results.
