BONUS PIE IS TEMPTING TO VOTE SEEKERS

CONGRESS ADMIRES PLUMS BUT FEARS COOLIDGE IRE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copflight) 1923, by The Escanaba Press)

Washington, Dec. 8 .- Many members of Congress are seeking the advice of President Coolidge on the question of a bonus for the 'able-bodied ex-service men.

There are a few, of course, who voted for the measure last time who say they will not vote against the president this time but the principal problem is that of the member of Congress who wants to stand by the president and at the same time win re-election. Feat of the American Legion's activity in the primaries and in the elections has been at the bottom of it all. One member of Congress said to the late President Harding in a discussion of the bonus: "That's all very true, Mr. President, but you don't vote in my district.

Mr. Coolidge, however, is in a way Mr. Harding. In the campaign, many members of Congress expect to be running on the same ticket with Mr. Coolidge. They to profit by his political strength. Some members will be asking for letters of endorsement leader of the party.

Seeking Advice. It is not unnatural therefore for the perplexed members to go to the White House now for adsaid they would not finally com-Some of them have frankly mit themselves to a vote on the bonus until Mr. Coolidge has had an opportunity to discuss the matter with them. There is a good the bonus question and there is much uncertainty as to just what are the facts concerning the cost

John R. Quinn, national commander of the American Legion, has issued a statement, for instance, criticizing Mr. Coolidge's attitude on the bonus. Mr. Quinn says the bonus "according to treasury department figures" will cost only eighty or ninety millions the first year whereas the treasury admits a surplus of $310,000,000. His idea is that subtracting eighty or ninety millions there is still left a surplus about $220,000,000 or more on which a program of tax revision can be based.

The Treasury View.

But at the treasury they take an altogether different view of the eighty million is a minimum estimate and that the cost might run nuch higher and that the effect on business conditions would be such if a bonus were passed that the present rate of receipts which made the $310,000,000 surplus would be adversely affected as the business of the country would be depressed by the total addition of the entire cost of the bonus to the public debt. In other words, the treasury view is that if a bonus payment were to be aide for one year it would not have a serious effect but that the total cost of the bonus, estimated. by the experts to run ultimately to four or five billion dollars. must be taken into account. Once is not for one year but for a peri- out of the race Cleveland would od of years.

What Is Cost?

With this difference of opinion as to the fundamental facts involved it would not be surprising investigation of its own of the exact cost of a bonus and the effect on the government finances. The president is expected to deal with this subject in a special message on government budget but if that proves inconclusive, the stablishment of the facts will be of paramount importance to every member of Congress. In the senfor instance, there are a numof men who do not take the president's objections to a bonus seriously because they say the treasury can stand it. Until this phase of the controversy is settled, the committments by individual members one way or the other on the bonus issue will hardly be final.

A Christmas Message

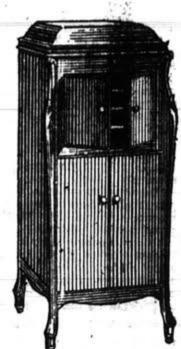

From The

World's Greatest Artists

To every lover of beautiful music the great artists whose names appear below send their warm Christmas Greetings. They cannot be with you on Christmas Day, but they can visit you through the Victrola-their "other self". Their song, their art, their laughter can help to make your day happier and remain throughout the year to cheer and entertain you.

Many music-lovers are just now considering the purchase of an instrument for Christmas. They are urged and advised by these artists to buy the Victrola. These artists make Victrola Records exclusively because they believe them to be the most faithful and the most beautiful in the world. They believe that the Victrola with its pure, exquisite tone is the only true and adequate instrument for reproducing their art.

State Worker Spends Day Here with Woman's Club.

Delta county, in 1922 had 144 cases of tuberculosis of which 16 resulted fatally. There were cases for every 215 people in the county, and one of each 2,000 inhabitants of the county died of the white plague during the 12 months.

These figures were brought to the city yesterday by Miss Marie Kiernan of Lansing, a member of the state board of health, who came here in the interest of the annual Christmas Red Cross seal sales. America last year there were 963,000 cases and 107,000 deaths from tuberculosis, Miss Kiernan said. Michigan had 38,cases and 2,654 deaths. Women's club workers, in charge of the stamp sales campaign, reported yesterday that their efforts were meeting with success. Numerous requests for the seals from persons who had been missed by the sales squads, were neceived. Other men, who had been sent supplies of the stamps, have been calling the committee and asking for more.

Must Be no Let up. Miss Kiernan expressed her pleasure at the results the committee is attaining, and voiced her belief that the Delta county sales campaign would exceed expectations. Mrs. C. M. Frost. chairman of the committee, however, emphasized that the campaign is not yet complete, and that while the outlook is very opmistic, it will be necessary for workers to continue their efforts if the desired record is establish-

JAMES T. JONES CHAIRMAN OF MEMORIAL DRIV

AMY BOLGER,

Ask Community Organizations to Cooperate in Harding Campaign.

With the appointment James T. Jones as community chairman of the Gladstone Memorial association, first steps toward Gladstone's part in the raising of a fund to erect a suitable memorial in commemoration of the late president, Warren G. Harding.

The appointment was received Saturday morning from C. Malloch, of Escanaba, county chairman, who, in outlining the plan for Harding Memorial week, December 9 to 16, with today as To Coolidge's Dog Harding Memorial Sunday, suggested that the community chairman serve as Special Gifts chairdents is "Scotty," a registered man for the community and with white collie gog, and half broth- six other leading and represener to the collie recently present tative citizens serve as a member of the local committee.

PROCEEDS OF BAZAAR MAKE FINE SHOWING

A check-up of reports on the bazaar and supper held Wednesday and Thursday at All Saints' Catholic church show that the proceeds of the affair, clear of all expenses, amount to $1,233.18 a remarkably fine showing.

Although a complete report on the second ward booth is not yet ready, proceeds of the supper and other booths have been announced as follows: Supper-$240.90. First Ward BoothN$171.10.

Third Ward Booth-$225.25. Fourth Ward Booth-$97.05. Girls' Booth-$112.63. To these amounts in the report were added funds from other attractions, bringing the total well over $1,200.

The proceeds of the bazaar form another indication of the success of the affair and show the un- time. tiring energy of the workers in charge.

PAYMENT OF TAXES WILL BEGIN MONDA

Rate for December Assessment Will Be $75.84 Per $1,000.

Payment of Gladstone's second share of its tax assessment, which will include the state, county, school, county roads and tuberculosis taxes, will begin Monday at the city hall. The collection period for the winter assessment extended from Monday, December 16 to January.

Receipts for taxes have been made out my the city office workers, and will be ready for the property owner when he enters the office. This plan, followed during the city tax collection in means of eliminating confusion and a considerable aid in caring for a number of people at one time without any confusion.

The December tax rate will be one of the highest ever paid in Gladstone, this however, due to an unusual situation resulting from the vote of the tax payers to meet as many of notes on the school debt as possible and this save the taxpayers interest money and repetition of the high
