DEMOCRATS TO INSERT PLANK ON THE LEAGUE

CANDIDATE WILL BE FORCED TO BOOST ENTRANCE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press.) Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The death of Woodrow Wilson will have one important effect on the political situation of 1924. It will mean the certain inclusion in the Democratic national platform of a plank declaring for American membership in the league of nations.

Conditions Change. Four years ago the Wilson stamp was a liability. One of the first signs of disapproval of James M. Cox's acts after his nomination came from these Democrats who thought he should not have waived Wilson or embraced the league of nations idea even though he made it clear he favored reservations. One of the objections entered at San Francisco against the candidacy of William Gibbs McAdoo was that he would inherit all opposition to Wilson. The "son-in-law" argument did impress many delegates.

McAdoo In Oil. At the moment the former secretary of the treasury during the war and also director-general of the railroads, may prove an asset to the McAdoo campaign.

Nicky Arnstein Wanted Again In Racing Swindle

(By The Associated Press.) Youngstown, O., Feb. 7.—Warrants charging Nicky Arnstein and Charles Drucker, central figures in the $5,000,000 bond theft investigation in New York four years ago, and three others with obtaining $48,300 under false pretenses, were issued here today.

The warrants issued on a petition of M. W. Kashmerick of Boswell, Pa., charge that the money was obtained in a wire tapping swindle in Youngstown, in July, 1922. Police are investigating another wire tapping scheme here the same year in which a Hoboken, N. J., man was said to have lost $50,000, in an attempt to connect Arnstein and Drucker.

Arrested and Dismissed. New York, Feb. 7.—Nicky Arnstein, who figured prominently in the $5,000,000 bond theft investigation in 1920 and against whom a warrant charging that he obtained money under false pretenses was issued today in Youngstown, appeared in night court tonight to answer a disorderly conduct complaint made by a policeman. He was discharged.

The arrest, it was said, was the outcome of an argument between the policeman and Mrs. Arnstein, known on the stage as Fanny Brice, over the parking of the latter's motor car. Arnstein gave his name as Jules W. Arnold.

STEEL COMPANY THINKS SUIT IS WITHOUT MERIT

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Feb. 7.—Officials of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, commenting today on the suit brought by six minority stockholders of the Cambria Steel Company to set aside Bethlehem's purchase last March of the Cambria's properties, declared liquidation of Cambria's affairs had been completed and that holders of all, except about two one-thousandths of its stock, had surrendered their shares and received their part of the purchase price.

Plaintiffs in the suit, they said, held only 125 shares of the total par value of $6,250. Counsel for the Bethlehem corporation, it was declared, examined the complaint and reported to the directors that the suit was without merit.

HUGHES PAYS TRIBUTE TO GREAT DEAD

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—Tribute to the leadership of Woodrow Wilson in the cause of peace and his labors in connection with relations between nations of the western hemisphere, was paid by Secretary Hughes today in an address, as chairman, at the monthly meeting of the governing board of the Pan-American Union. The secretary expressed the appreciation of the United States government of condolences extended on behalf of the Latin-American republics on the death of the former president.

On motion of Ambassador DeAlencar, of Brazil, the board adopted a resolution expressing their sense of loss at the death of Mr. Wilson and directing that expression of sympathy be forwarded to Mrs. Wilson.

ORDERS PROBE OF GAS PRICE

PRESIDENT IN SISTS ON THOROUGH SIFT BEING MADE.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—The department of justice will immediately set in motion its machinery to go to the bottom of charges by Governor McMaster of South Dakota, that "allied interests of the Standard Oil," had cornered the crude oil supply and enhanced gasoline prices. The department action has been taken upon instructions from President Coolidge to whom was directed to day a telegram from the South Dakota governor setting forth his charges and also a similar message from Governor Bryan of Nebraska.

Explains Prices. Shortly after the announcement that the president had ordered an inquiry into the gasoline and crude oil situation, former Representative Campbell of Kansas, speaking at the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, submitted to the executive statement giving reasons for fluctuation of prices.

What Congress Did Yesterday

(By The Associated Press.) A tax revision bill was reported to the house ways and means committee.

The senate oil committee abandoned its purpose to examine Albert B. Fall.

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, delivered a prepared address attacking the Sinclair and Doheny oil lease. Secretaries Denby and Mellon and Albert B. Fall.

Senate adopted the Walsh resolution looking to annulment of Standard Oil leases in the Elkhills, California, naval reserve, and renewed authorization under which the oil committee is acting.

E. L. Doheny wrote the senate oil committee that Wm. G. McAdoo's law firm received only $150,000 from him instead of $250,000 and that the payments were in no way connected with cases now before the committee.

The state department announced the arrangements had been made for the withdrawal of the marine legion guard at Managua, Nicaragua after next January.

President Coolidge directed the department of justice and the federal trade commission to investigate charges of Governor McMasters of South Dakota, that the crude oil market has been cornered.

Charges of duplication of federal securities were contained in exhibits filed in the District of Columbia supreme court by Charles B. Brewer, department of justice attorney, and the charges were denied by Secretary Mellon.

LLOYD GEORGE DENIES SECRET WILSON-CLEMENCEAU COMPACT

Says Publication Of Documents Will Tell Story.

(By The Associated Press.) London, Feb. 7.—Mr. Lloyd George, through the Daily Chronicle, has issued the following statement concerning the interview printed in the New York World on the alleged secret Rhineland agreement between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau at the Paris peace conference:

"I did not give the interview referred to and was more than surprised when my attention was called to it by telephone messages. I cannot accept the views attributed to me as accurately setting out the facts of what happened at a critical moment in the peace conference. As to those facts the official statement issued by the French foreign office is substantially correct."

No "Secret" Compact. Then, alluding to how he was called to London at the time in question, Mr. Lloyd George proceeds: "I have found on my return to Paris that during my absence an agreement had been arrived at between Mr. Wilson and M. Clemenceau on two very important issues. One was the military occupation of the Rhineland and the other a guarantee by the United States of the French frontier against acts of aggression by Germany."

"To describe this agreement as a 'secret compact' between Mr. Wilson and M. Clemenceau is ridiculous. Mr. Wilson, I need hardly say, acted with perfect loyalty, and it cannot be impudently as a blame either to the late president or to M. Clemenceau that I was called to England at the time these grave matters were under discussion."

Agreement Modified. "The fact that the late president and M. Clemenceau had arrived at an agreement during my absence was communicated to me on my return, and the agreement regarding the occupation of the Rhineland was, after some modification, ultimately incorporated in the peace treaty."

The former premier then explained that the communication from the foreign office was not signed, and, owing to this fact, there was delay in replying to it, which he regrets. He adds that of the documents thus proposed to be distributed by the French government, one is headed "articles concerning the guarantees of execution of treaties." Another is headed "Treaty between France and the United States."

"Both of these documents," says Mr. Lloyd George, "are footnoted identically thus: 'As approved by President Wilson and Clemenceau on April twentieth.'"

BITTER WAR OF WORDS IN DENBY CASE

DOHENY ASKSTOCORRECT TESTIMONY ON M'ADOO FEES.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—Abandoning further efforts to question Albert B. Fall, the senate oil committee went forward today with plans to press the naval oil lease investigation along every other available channel.

A new grant of authority for the committee to act was given by the senate to remove any ground for a challenge of its jurisdiction such as that made by Mr. Fall last Saturday when he refused to testify.

At the same time the senate voted to enlarge the area of naval oil lands sought to be recovered by the government by including sections 16 and 36 in the Elkhills, California field now held by the Standard Oil Company of California and other interests.

Bitter War of Words. With these two matters disposed of without debate or a dissenting vote, the senate renewed its bitter war of words over the resolution calling for the resignation of Secretary Denby, but without reaching a vote.

Chairman Lenroot received and made public a letter from E. L. Doheny in which the oil magnate asked leave to correct his previous testimony that William McAdoo former secretary of the treasury, and his one-time New York law firm had received a total of only $150,000 in fees from his company instead of $250,000 as originally testified to by Doheny.

President Cummins, of the senate, signed and sent to President Coolidge the Walsh resolution directing the institution of court

FINISH FIRST REVISION STEP

Agreement Reached To Report Revenue Bill To House.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—The first step in the revision of federal taxes was completed today when the house ways and means committee after two months' consideration agreed to report the new revenue bill to the house. Shortly afterward, the house opened debate on another feature of the taxation program, the constitutional amendment resolution to prohibit issuance of tax-exempt securities.

Revenue Loss. The committee revenue bill proposes reduction in income tax rates amounting to a loss in revenue of about $220,000,000 annually and cut off of about $114,000,000 annual revenue from the indirect or war-excite taxes, many of which were repealed. In addition a 25 per cent reduction in 1923 income taxes payable this year was provided, saving tax payers about $220,000,000 on these taxes.

Chairman Green will report the measure to the house next Monday with prospects of an extended fight on the floor against the income rates approved by the committee. Mr. Green himself has some out against the 25 per cent maximum surtax rate in the bill, and it became known today that Republican leaders had been conferring informally in the hope of effecting a compromise in the party on a higher surtax rate to assure passage of a Republican bill.

M'ADDO QUILTS DOHENY'S OIL ENTERPRIZES

SAYS HIS POSITION HAS BEEN UNFAIRLY REPRESENTED.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—William G. McAdoo announced here tonight that he had terminated his professional services with E. L. Doheny, California oil magnate.

Mr. McAdoo's announcement was contained in a letter to Chairman Lenroot, of the senate oil committee, in which he expressed the desire to testify before the committee immediately. He may be heard tomorrow. The former treasury secretary said that when he read in the newspapers, Mr. Doheny's "amazing disclosures about his transaction with Ex-Secretary Fall," he refrained from immediately terminating his professional services with Mr. Doheny, as was his first impulse, but had done so now "fearing that the newspaper accounts might be as vicious and unfair" to Mr. Doheny as some of them had been to him.

"Monstrously Unfair." "I indignantly protest," wrote Mr. McAdoo, "against the whispered suggestion that I—and others, lawyers and laymen who formed in the Mexican enterprises of which Mr. Doheny is the head—share any taint of any kind, or that insinuation as monstrously unfair. For those who, like myself, can stand up and make good their denial, it is not so important, but particularly do I resent the insinuation that because the late Franklin K. 14 ADRIFT IN THE SWOLLEN ST. LAWRENCE

VICTIMS WERE ON BRIDGE WHEN IT GAVE WAY.

(By The Associated Press.) Quebec, Feb. 7.—A break in the ice bridge that formed early today between Quebec and the little French village of Levis, across the St. Lawrence river, has caused all most certain death to three persons. At first it was reported that nearly a score were likely to lose their lives but all others were believed to have been rescued tonight.

Fourteen persons were adrift on cakes of ice in the swelling waters of the St. Lawrence river tonight and efforts of a ferry boat to reach them were futile. The fourteen were members of a party of seventeen who were standing on an ice bridge between Quebec and Levis when it snapped and broke away.

Hurriedly formed rescue parties set out for Quebec bridge toward which the ice floes were drifting, in the hope that they could rescue the victims with ropes as they passed beneath the bridge. From points along the shore it was reported as many as nine or ten persons had been seen on one cake of the floating ice.

First in 25 Years. The ice bridge, the first to be formed here in 25 years, was an unusual sight and hundreds of persons flocked to witness it. The persons who were carried away when it broke, were standing at the middle of the stream, making efforts to rescue all the more difficult.

Three persons—rescued—were comparatively close to the shore. With two others they were thrown in the river and while their companions were swept away, they were dragged from the water by employes of the Quebec and Levis Ferry Company. The fate of the other two was not known and while little hope was held for them, it was thought possible that they may have scrambled aboard one of the drifting pieces of ice.

Bridge Forms Suddenly. The ice bridge was formed with startling suddenness early this morning. As the crowd of

Johnson Denies Reports Of His Quitting Race

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 7.—Senator Johnson, of California, formally denied tonight published reports that he soon is to withdraw from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

"The reports circulated about my withdrawal are, of course, untrue," he said. "They emanate from my opponents, who after manufacturing them have the interested newspapers print them and editorialize concerning them. It's a contemptible and cowardly method of campaigning."

Can't Settle Disputed Train Service Over State Border.

(By The Associated Press.)
Detroit, Mich., Feb. 7.—The interstate commerce commission announced today that it was unable to function in the matter of the dispute regarding train service across the border of Michigan and Wisconsin, according to a special dispatch from Washington to the Detroit Free Press. The dispatch says: "The question before the commission today was a complaint, filed by the railroad commissions of the two states, against the Chicago & Northwestern and the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railroads, in which it was set forth that passenger trains were discontinued between Mellen, Wis., and Bessemer, Mich., in 1918, and between Mellen, Wis., and Wakefield, Mich., in 1922.

"The state commissions have investigated and found the present service inadequate. Each of them was contemplating ordering service renewed on its own side of the boundary, but the railroad boards involved held up this action by pleading that the federal commission has exclusive jurisdiction when a state line is crossed.

National Bank Resources Show Nice Increase

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Feb. 7.—Aggregate resources of the country's national banks increased $431,171,000 during 1923. Comptroller Dawes of the currency announced tonight in making public an analysis of banking conditions as shown in the call of December 29. The total resources were $22,406,128,000, the greatest since the call of December 29, 1920. Deposit liabilities of the national banks December 29, amounting to $17,828,861,000, were greater than at any call date in history except that of December 31, 1919. This represents an increase of $788,331,000 since the call of September 14, but an increase of only $408,380,000 over the end of 1922 because of the reduction in deposits during the summer producing season when heavy calls were made for funds.

U. S. TREASURY ATTACKED IN LATEST CHARGE Old Embers Fanned Into Blaze Again

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Feb. 7.—The smouldering embers of the bureau of engraving controversy, which first blazed up two years ago with a wholesale dismissal of employees by President Harding, has again been fanned into flame. Charles J. Brewer, department of justice attorney who investigated charges of duplication of government securities, brought the case into the open today with the filing of sensational charges against the treasury and despite denials by Secretary Mellon and other officials that Brewer's allegations contained merit, Representative LaGuardia Republican, New York, began steps by introducing a resolution of inquiry to force a congressional inquiry.

Charges Duplication.
The charges of Brewer were contained in a copy of a report he had sent previously to President Coolidge and Attorney General Cougherty, and were made public when they were attached as exhibits to an injunction suit filed here against government officials whom Brewer said were interfering with his inquiry. They set forth that there had been duplication of bonds; that the treasury had suppressed knowledge of them; that treasury officers had thwarted Brewer in his attempts to uncover the condition and that duplicates of bonds had been destroyed in the treasury.

Secretary Mellon on learning that Brewer's charges had been made public said that for every bond which has been issued, its face value had found its way into the treasury vaults. He added that there had been duplication of numbers, but there had been no loss to either the public or the government. He attributed the duplication of numbers to mechanical errors, which Brewer had said was not the case. Brewer's charges covered a wide range, the main features of which have been known to treasury officials for many months and which they said had been under investigation and disproved.

Serious Charges.
They included the assertion that a clique swayed the actions of the treasury department, had complained of being discharged for bringing complaint to the notice of treasury officials in connection with alleged irregularities. Brewer also charged spurious securities had been issued from the treasury and that duplicate bonds had been traced "to treasury sources from surrendered bonds stolen from treasury vaults."

The report of Brewer disavowed that he had caused the dismissal of bureau employees by President Harding and set forth that the president had been informed of "many irregularities" at the bureau before Brewer entered the case.

Row Becomes General.
Treasury officials said today that the department of justice would make reply to Brewer's suit which seeks to prevent the treasury from recovering bonds which the attorney has been using in his inquiry. These bonds were given to Brewer on his receipts. They also said that a detailed check had been going forward on all of the charges but that no alarming condition had manifested itself.

While the charges of Brewer, the denials of Secretary Mellon and the threats of congressional investigation filled the air today, the employees discharged by President Harding and later exonerated called on Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, who has been active in their behalf to make complaint that they had not been reinstated. Secretary Mellon has announced they would be given re-employment, but no date has ever been set for it.

The offices held up were those of the Apel Coal Company, and the Turner-Butler Coal Company. Miss Ethel Fligo, a clerk, was behind a cashier's window when two men entered and engaged her in a conversation about an order of coal.

One of the men showed to her throat, while two others walked in, one of them smashing the window and another going thru an open space, were there was $500, besides a revolver and a pair of handcuffs. William L. Apel, Jr., was forced against a wall gun to his chest, by one of the thugs.

WORKING EVERY MINUTE ON THE FLOODED MINE

(By The Associated Press.)
Crosby, Minn., Feb. 7.—Some little encouragement in the task of trying to recover the bodies of two score miners who perished when the Millford mine near here was flooded Tuesday, was obtained by engineers today when soundings showed that the deepest part of the mud lake which flooded the underground pit, is but 16 feet. Previous measurements showed the depth to be 30 feet.

Facing a project that is looked upon as one of the most difficult undertakings in the history of iron ore mining, engineers are pushing the work of draining, working 24 hours a day.

A minimum of ten days has been placed on the job of draining the lake, which will be a necessary preliminary to pumping the mine dry and opening up the workings.

CLEVER "CON" MEN WANTED

"Reformed" a Few Months Ago But Have "Slipped" Again.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 7.—Joseph (Yellow Kid) Well and Fred Buckminster, known to the police as two of the slickest confidence men in the country and who told the world of their reformation when released from prison a year ago, were indicted here today charged with swindling George W. Malcomson, wealthy Detroit coal merchant, out of $30,000 in a copper mine transaction last December.

Detectives who not long ago heard the "Yellow Kid's" declaration of reformation went out today to try to find Well and his companion.

Buckmaster was arrested at Miami, Fla., and is being brought to Chicago according to a telegram received tonight. Well has not been arrested.

Well approached Malcomson with a proposition to purchase his coal properties. Malcomson charged, and later produced $100,000 in New York as evidence of good faith. The money was in a New York bank vault but was not turned over to Malcomson.

Many of those with whom the wish is father to the thought consider that the McAdoo candidacy has been killed by that statement. Not so with the McAdoo supporters who feel confident the average American citizen can distinguish between a fee given while a public official is in a position of responsibility and a fee given for legal services when a former official has gone back to his profession.

Mr. McAdoo has asked for a chance to testify and in all probability will have some caustic things to say about his critics, who have been so ready to drag him into a controversy in which he feels he had no part. He had no connection, he insists, with the oil leases giving his legal advice on Mexican matters.

May Be Boomerang.
The incident may prove a boomerang in favor of McAdoo, who has always exhibited a resiliency in politics. Again and again he has seemed to be disqualified by one circumstance or another but the McAdoo followers have some of the faithful crusading spirit which they gave Woodrow Wilson. They will not quit him because of an unverified statement of a man who described the Democratic party in 1920 and contributed to the campaign funds and whose bases have been annihilated largely through the efforts of Democratic members of the United States Senate.

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY TODAY

Get a Daily Press $1,000 Accident Policy At Cost.

When a man's house is in order, he has peace of mind. Not until he feels that all the necessary and proper safeguards have been thrown around himself and his family, is he privileged to experience that pleasant glow which follows work well done.

And no man's house is in order until he has made some effort to throw about himself and his family, a measure of protection to guard against that time when misfortune slips into his life through the medium of an accident.

Quickly and silently. That is over the way of the arrival of an accident. It is not preceded with any fanfare of trumpets. Neither does it send a messenger in any form. And accident is the constant traveling companion of everyone who is moving about or riding where others are doing the same thing.

In order that its subscribers might have opportunity to avail themselves of a cheap and at the same time, accident protection, the Daily Press has arranged with the Inter Ocean Casualty company to issue policies through the medium of this paper.

The Press considers this in the light of an added service, a little something plus to regular news service. It is giving subscribers a chance to get an accident insurance policy which will pay them a weekly indemnity in case of injury while riding on a street car, auto, motorcycle or any other power driven vehicle, or while riding a horse drawn vehicle.

The advertisements in this paper will enumerate the various sums payable in case of accident. Get It At Cost. The Press is not in the insurance business. It seeks no profit. The travel accident policy which this paper provides costs 75 cents and that is exactly what you are asked to pay for it. There is no profit made by the paper. It is sold to you at cost.

That is why the Press considers that it is extending an extra service—it is going a step farther than most businesses, to help protect its patrons. The insurance is here for you. It is for your benefit and for the protection of your family. The Press wants you to have it.

If you wish to know further details of this offer, call the Press, phone 693 and a representative will call at your home. Or drop into the office while you are down town during the day time.

Coverage Is Ample.

Briefly stated, the policy pays $10 a week while laid up from accident for a period as long as three months. It pays a lump sum of $500 in case of loss of a hand, foot or eye. It pays $1000 in case of the loss of any two members, and pays $1,000 in case of death from an accident while riding in any kind of power driven vehicle. It even pays a weekly indemnity if you are injured while crossing a street as a pedestrian, or riding a bicycle. It pays a lump sum in case of death under such circumstances.

The policy increases $100 a year for five years until it is worth $1500 and it costs you just what it costs the Press—75 cents a year.

Its For Everybody.

Every member of the family between the ages of 15 and 70 years is entitled to a policy by the payment of the registration fee of 75 cents and but one subscription need go into the family. As a plain matter of every day fact, no subscriber can afford to be without this protection. It is taking a long chance to go without it and simply flying in the face of fate. It might be that all the accidents will always happen to the other fellow, but if they don't, and some day your turn should come, this little accident policy will come in mighty handy.

Just look after the matter today and have it over with for a year. It costs 75 cents.

AMUSEMENTS

ST. JOSEPH'S AUDITORIUM. Coming next Sunday at St. Joseph's Auditorium is the beautiful picture, "The Range Patrol," a new Independent Picture release. The picture is one which is far above the average, having a strong story, an excellent cast, and splendid direction. It is guaranteed to be a one hundred per cent satisfactory picture to every patron who wants action, thrills, adventure and romance. The story was written by L. V. Jefferson and Rosemary Rode, and every one familiar with the stories of these two well known screen writers will realize that another treat of the same nature as these clever writers always, is in store for them.

The location of the story is in Arizona and tells of the adventures of Sergeant Lefe Houston, a member of the Range Patrol. While tracking down a band of and falls in love with Nellie Farleigh's ranch, the stranger meets and falls in love with Nellie Farleigh, who is also loved by "Hatch" Winters, an unscrupulous villain who is secretly in the pay of Zeb Stringer, the banker to whom Farleigh has mortgaged his property. A series of exciting experiences follow the meeting of Nellie and Houston, in which fist fights and thrilling rescues are said to figure prominently.

H. G. Moody directed "The Range Patrol," the cast including Jack Livingston, Mary Wynn, Al Ferguson, High Saxon and other well known screen favorites.

AT THE DELFT. Three of the most popular forms of exhibition dancing are shown in Allied Dwan's Paramount production of "Lawful Larceny," which is due at the Delft today, by three of Broadway's favorite dancers. Gilda Gray will be seen in the cabaret scenes of the picture in her south-sea dance which has made her famous as the premier dancer at the Rendez-Vous, one of New York's leading dance clubs. In the prologue of the picture Florence O'Denishawn interprets an ancient Egyptian dance as a colorful background for Nita Naldi, who is shown in a Cleopatra tableau. Alice Maison and her partner present modern ball room and eccentric dancing in the cabaret sequence. This trio of dancers represents the highest priced talent obtainable in New York City, or the United States, for that matter, and this is the first time their art was ever screened.

C. & N. W. Special Agent Investigating Number of Robberies.

Preparations for a series of seizures and arrests to clear up the mysteries surrounding the disappearance of quantities of lumber, merchandise and other property from the Northwestern yards, shops and box cars, are being made, it became known yesterday. Special Agent Morgan, of the Peninsula Division, has been doing considerable work in clearing up several of the cases, and he has had the cooperation of the lumber, merchandise and other property from the Northwestern yards, shops and box cars, are being made, it became known yesterday.

One arrest already has been made. The defendant entered a plea of guilty to larceny of lumber belonging to the company and paid a fine in Judge C. D. McEwen's court. Other arrests will be made within a day or two, it was hinted.

Although it generally is found that boys are responsible for such minor "raids" on property of others, most of the impending complaints will be against men. It was said, and some of the information to be filed will allege serious offenses. The raids, according to information available last night, will be made on the premises of persons who are known to have purchased or otherwise received stolen property.

VETERANS GET LAST CHANCE

Must Take Advantage of Citizenship Short Cut Feb. 20.

Veterans of the world war in Delta county, who have not completed their American citizenship will have their last opportunity to accept the "short-cut" method on Feb. 20 when George N. Danielson, of St. Paul, United States naturalization examiner will spend the day at the office of County Clerk George E. Harvey. It will be Mr. Danielson's last visit to Delta county before the date upon which the government's offer to admit soldiers without the formality of "first papers" or the payment of a fee, expires.

In his letter to Mr. Harvey, Examiner Danielson says: "February 20 will be the last chance for soldiers to file applicants for citizenship as the time expires March 3 and I shall not be in Escanaba again after that time. Any honorably discharged soldier who wishes to be admitted without the payment of a fee should appear on Feb. 20, with his honorable discharge and two witnesses to identify him." Mr. Harvey believes that there are a number of world war veterans in Delta county who will desire to take advantage of the "short cut" before the dead-line day.

LOCAL GIRL'S HUSBAND SAVED

He Is Superintendent Of Ill-Fated Crosby Mine.

The Crosby, Minn., mine disaster in which 42 men lost their lives under the most tragic circumstances this week, holds more than ordinary interest for a number of Escanabans in view of the fact that an Escanaba girl, wedded only a few months, missed losing her husband in the catastrophe only through the oddest of sheer good luck.

On November, 1923, Miss Grace Folio, daughter of Louis Folio, of this city, was married to Harry Middlebrook, superintendent of mines for the White-mountain Mining company, and in charge of operations of the Millford mine. It had been Mr. Middlebrook's daily practice to enter the Millford mine and in the natural course of things he would most certainly have been with the men trapped and drowned. But absolutely contrary to his usual custom and due to no particular reason other than he just was busy with other work, he did not go down in the mine the day of the disaster, the first day for months that he had not gone in.

Just what prompted Mr. Middlebrook to remain out of the mine on the fatal day, he will never know. He just didn't go down and thereby his life was spared.

TODAY'S EVENTS.

Patriotism will be the keynote of the 14th anniversary celebration of the Boy Scouts of America during the week beginning today.

Many Methodists plan to visit Mexico City and other places in that country for the ten-day celebration to be inaugurated today in honor of the semi-centennial of the founding of Methodist missions in Mexico.

This is the date fixed by the court in New York for passing sentence on William H. Anderson, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, who was recently found guilty on a charge of third degree forgery.

Strenuous efforts are being made to obtain a commutation of sentence in the cases of Hughie Sing and Gee Jon, Chinese murderers, who are scheduled to be executed today at Carson City, Nev. They are the first to be sentenced to die under the new Nevada law providing for execution by lethal gas.

READS METERS, LANDS IN JAIL

Minneapolis Man Held For Investigation By Local Police.

When H. Van Horne, who told the police he was from Minneapolis, began to "read electric meters" in several of Escanaba's down-town business houses yesterday, the merchants wondered why the city utilities should send two meter readers to their establishments the same day. The utilities officers were asked about it, police headquarters were notified and Van Horne was arrested.

He was arraigned before Judge C. D. McEwen, plead guilty to disorderly conduct and took a ten day sentence in the county jail. While he is serving his "jolt," efforts will be made by the police to trace his movements and if possible, learn whether he is wanted elsewhere. He refused to discuss his reasons for posing as a utility employe and his actions believe that he was looking over the premises with a view to peering the places a possible night call.

Was Soo Pass.

Van Horne appears to be about 20 or 21 years of age, although he claims to have been employed in the Soo Line train service for "five or six years." He had a "trip pass" in his pocket which will be valid between Minneapolis and Sault Ste. Marie until Feb. 29.

Tamarack Trapper Slain, Known Here

Edward Connors, "the trapper of Tamarack Lake," whose body was found Monday night at his home in Big Bay, was well known to many hunters and woodsmen of this vicinity. Tom Doane, another trapper, is being held by Marquette county authorities pending the outcome of the coroner's investigation.

Why do you eat Bran?

TO FIGHT CONSTIPATION—the most dangerous condition your system can become chained to—to get free from bleary biliousness, dull headaches, nausea—etc., etc.!!!

Rid yourself of this dangerous condition—or start "slipping" and become a prey to any one of the most dreaded human ailments which have their beginning with constipation and toxic poisoning!

Fight constipation as you would fight fire! Fight it with bran—Kellogg's Bran—BECAUSE IT IS ALL BRAN! Don't temporize! Don't waste time and health by going half-way! You need ALL BRAN; you need the bulk, the "roughage" of ALL BRAN, because it sweeps, cleanses and purifies!

REALIZE THIS—foods with a part bran content can only relieve constipation in proportion to the amount of bran they contain! If they are 25 or 50 per cent bran—you may get 25 or 50 per cent relief!

REMEMBER THIS—Kellogg's Bran is ALL BRAN and is guaranteed to give you positive and permanent relief if you will eat two tablespoonfuls daily, or as much with each meal in chronic cases!

Don't delay; don't fuss with half-way measures! You have too much at stake! All grocers sell—

LIVING ON A BUDGET.
The cost of living is now about 60 per cent higher than when the war started in 1914. This is the latest estimate by National Industrial Conference Board. It arrived at its figures by striking an average for the whole country. In some communities cost of living is higher. Other places, it's lower.
Also keep in mind that the 65 per cent figure is for a wage-earner with five in family.
In simpler terms, it now costs $1.65 to buy what cost $1 before the war. Also a man must make $1.65 now to have an income equivalent to what $1 was in pre-war days. Interesting for the individual to figure up and find how his income compares with "what should be" on this basis.
Do you live on a budget system—divide your income in advance, allowing so much for rent, so much for food, and so on? Here are the N. I. C. Board's figures showing how spending should be scientifically divided:
Out of a $10 bill, the Board figures $4.31 for food, $1.77 for rent or other shelter, $1.32 for clothing, 56 cents for fuel and light, $2.04 for "sundries." These figures cover only the income actually spent. They do not include the 10 or 20 per cent which experts say must be saved to provide properly for old age and success.
Consolation: While the Board reports that it now takes $1.65 to buy what cost $1 before the war, an outlay of $2.05 was required in purchasing the same stuff at the price peak in July, 1920.

I found a piece of anthracite out on the street today. A priceless piece of anthracite, I dug from out the clay. Most tenderly I wrapped it in a hundred-dollar bill. And put it in my pocket—then I nearly had a chill.
"Suppose," I thought, "Suppose a bandit bold some stilly night. Aware that in my home I have a piece of anthracite, A-sneaking to my sleeping room, armed with a cruel knife, To gain that precious carbon lump, should also take my life!"
I took it to a jeweler who opened wide his eyes. "I say, old top, that's anthracite!" he said in great surprise. "I'll set it in a band for you, on your hand you'll wear it. For it's a perfect specimen and weighs nigh half a carat.

And so upon my finger now I flash my prize with glee. And there are millionaires who focus envious eyes on me. Although I haven't cash sometimes to meet my bills, by jing, I'm always given credit when I show my costly ring.

MR. BRYAN'S FOREIGN POLICY

The Chicago Tribune said editorially the other day:
Mr. Bryan in a Memphis talk said that the United States ought to cancel the foreign debt and make it an investment in peace, conditional upon the debtor nations disarming and joining the movement for world peace. He is the daddy of debased currency and cares nothing for other people's dollars. One he can pick up is not unattractive, but ten billions of the country's money is no more than a bag of peanut shells.
That's the whole editorial and perhaps it needs no further comment. But we cannot refrain from remarking that one would think that a man whose record as Secretary of State was as poor as Bryan's would hide his head with shame instead of going around the country spouting about foreign affairs. And funny thing about it, he gets paid for doing it.

Although a republican, he supported Cleveland for president and sympathized with Woodrow Wilson's policies. His law firm is attorney for the Union Stock Yards of Chicago.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

BY JANE PHELPS.

FATE TAKES A HAND IN LAURETTA'S AFFAIRS.
Chapter XXIV.
I hated to threaten Nancy, but there seemed no other way. I felt now reasonably sure she would say nothing concerning Lauretta's visit. But my regret, my feeling that in my home, and by my wife's hand she had again procured a quantity of the drug kept me worried and anxious.
I knew Holbrook was in town, yet I hesitated. Then thinking I would make one more plea to Lauretta, hez her to tell him. I again made an early call, hoping to find her alone.
The maid who let me in motioned toward the drawing room. As I opened the door I heard angry voices, loud, strident.
Donald Holbrook was pacing back and forth, Lauretta standing defiantly in the center of the floor. They became silent at my entrance, but not before I had heard Lauretta vehemently deny doing something.
"I'm glad you came, Doctor Hayden," Holbrook stopped before me, his face working. "I caught Lauretta taking a shot of some drug. She denies it, but I saw her do it. I want the truth!" he demanded fiercely. "Is she in the habit of taking drugs?"
"Why don't you ask Lauretta?" I replied to gain time. This document so different from anything I had expected rather dazed me.
"Ask her!" with a raucous laugh. "Did you ever know an addict who wouldn't lie? You tell me!"
"There's no need to ask the doctor. Don, I'll tell you. I have taken a little occasionally, but you have no right to call me such names. I am not an addict."

yet had taken so strong a hold on her she could not break it. That in a year or two she might be thoroughly cured.
"Do you believe that, doctor? Do you believe that once an addict, a person will not return to the drug when life doesn't go to suit them, or they suffer pain? I want an honest answer."
"I should give you no other," I replied overlooking his brusque manner. He was distraught.
"Will?"
"Perhaps not a confirmed addict, no I wouldn't trust them, although there have been cases that, after years of struggle, never have resorted to it again. But in Lauretta's case, I feel great hope she may be permanently cured in a year or two—if she is happy in the meantime. I let the inference sink in, then added, "but if unhappy I cannot say what might happen."
"Yet you thought I should know before marrying her?"
"Yes. You are a man capable of being either very kind, or very severe. Had you found this out after marriage it would have embittered you toward that poor girl, driven her to do the very thing I am trying to help her overcome."
"Thank God, I found out in time! I may sound harsh to you, doctor, but while I care for Lauretta more than for anyone else in the world, I can't marry her. There might be children—she might—oh, I can't talk about it! Thank you for waiting."
Holbrook arose, and taking his action as my dismissal I left the house. I couldn't blame him—yet my heart bled for the poor, foolish child he had deserted.
The next day he left town. I never saw him again, but heard later he had married a quiet, rather unattractive girl he had known all his life.
The day after he left, Lauretta and her mother sailed for Europe, first sending me a check that surprised me by its generosity.

Taft Makes Headway in His Illness

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Feb. 7.—Chief Justice Taft was said to have made rapid progress today toward complete recovery from the attack of indigestion which prevented him from attending the funeral of former President Wilson.

Although he remained in bed, he did not refrain from work, dictating considerable correspondence and giving attention to his judicial duties.

The chief justice received a number of callers during the day and expects to leave his bed tomorrow. After another day indoors he hopes to resume the full swing of his daily activities, including a walk of several miles.

TRAIN SERVICE CLIMBING BACK TO "NORMALCY"

Train service on the Chicago & Northwestern, seriously interfered with by heavy snow between Green Bay and Milwaukee, Tuesday and Wednesday, returned to an almost normal basis yesterday. While several of the trains were late, all of them managed to complete their trips and things were moving along nearly as usual.

The postoffice here received its heaviest consignments of mail since the Christmas rush, and handled it exceptionally well. It was expected by postal officials that another 24 hours will see the arrival in the city and delivery of all mail matter delayed by the storm. Despite the "dumping" of extra-large volumes of mail here yesterday morning there was no delay in the local delivery although it took some strenuous work on the part of the postal force.

Tucker Home Scene Of Fire Thursday P. M.

One room of the Tucker residence on Range street was badly damaged by fire shortly after noon Thursday.

The blaze was caused by an electric warming pad placed under the bed clothes. The pad was thought to have been shut off, but in some manner the current continued to supply heat, and when discovered the bedding and mattresses were in flames.

The fire department was called at once, and was able to keep the flames confined to the one room. The bed and all bedding were destroyed, and the flames also spread to some of the woodwork in the room.

William Gentz Is Victim Of Bad Accident

William Gentz, employed at the Brown Lumber company plant, is in the Rutledge hospital, as a result of injuries received on Wednesday when he became entangled in a winch used for pulling cars.

Mr. Gentz was working about the winch and reached for a piece of board lying near by. As he did so, his jacket caught in the rope of the turning winch, and he was thrown about his clothing practically all torn off before he was rescued by fellow employees.

At the hospital, he was reported to be suffering much pain from the severe bruises, though no bones were broken.

VITAL FACTS FOR WOMEN

Sooner or later almost every woman is brought face to face with the fact that she is a victim of some weakness or ailment peculiar to her sex. It may be the young woman suffering from pain or irregularities, a mother who has brought on some weakness or displacement of over-work, or the middle aged woman passing through the most critical period of her life. For each of these trying periods Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved the greatest boon ever given to women, and there are women living in every town and city in the country who testify to its value.

"My first experience with Tanlac was four years ago, when I was fully relieved of all this long suffering. RETURN TILT TO BE PLAYED HERE TONIGHT

Coach Gordon and His Men Ready for Hard Fight with Esky.

The big game, the return tilt between the Escanaba and Gladstone high school quints will be fought out tonight at the Junior high school gymnasium before what will probably be the biggest crowd of the entire season.

A preliminary between the second teams of the two schools will be played beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The big game will begin shortly after 8 o'clock.

A crowd of Escanaba fans, which will probably number well on from three hundred or so, will accompany the Escanaba team here for the game. The entire south side of the gymnasium will be reserved for the visitors and will be decorated in their colors, orange and black.

The purple and white banners and colors will be in the Gladstone fans in the other sections of the gymnasium.

Tonight's game will be one of the best fights of the season, according to all predictions. Both teams have had changes in the line since the first contest in which Escanaba suffered defeat earlier in the season, Gladstone having lost Feeney and Murdoch and Escanaba being without Bob Shelton.

Rivalry between the two teams is intense, since Gladstone's victory in the earlier game and Coach Gordon and his men are prepared for a hard well fought scrap.

Gene Dayton, referee, and Bob Hills, umpire, who handled the first Escanaba-Gladstone game in a fine manner, will be officials tonight.

The second team line is: John Norton, c; Phil Moore, Hugo Johnston, f; George Empeon, Elmer Peterson, g; Robert Norous, Alfred LaPine, Earl Maynard, subs.

PROMINENT RESIDENTS MARRIED

Miss Eunice Derry and W. L. Marble United in Home Ceremony.

A quiet home wedding, performed in the presence of only immediate relatives, Wednesday evening united two of Gladstone's prominent residents, Miss Eunice Derry and Webster L. Marble.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Marble. The Rev. Harry W. Colenso, pastor of Alice Memorial Methodist church, read the marriage service.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Marble.

Those present at the marriage ceremony were immediate relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Marble, the attendants, Miss Charlotte Marble, their daughter; and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hetrick. Floyd Marble, hurrying home from a business trip through the east in order to be present at the wedding, was delayed by the storm and did not arrive in Gladstone until Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Marble left last night for Florida where they will spend two or three months, returning in April to take up their residence here.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Marble are among the most widely esteemed and prominent residents of Gladstone. Mrs. Marble, until her resignation some time ago, was a member of the public school teaching force and she is known not only for her efficiency but for her personality and her faculty of winning close friendships among those with whom she comes in contact.

Mr. Marble as head of the Marble Arms Manufacturing company and the Marble Card Electric company, is one of Gladstone's big industrial leaders, a sportsman of note, and a man admired everywhere for his ability and his integrity.

Both he and Mrs. Marble have, in their marriage, the well wishing of the entire community.

FARMERS JOY IN BOARD ACT

Approve Fight For Release Of Extension Finances.

(By The Associated Press.) East Lansing, Mich., Feb. 7.—Delegates to the annual meeting of the Michigan State Farm Bureau today approved vociferously the action of the state board of agriculture in taking to the state supreme court the question of control of extension finance. The following resolution was adopted by a standing vote of the 140 delegates present while three hundred member visitors voiced their approval.

"Resolved, that we note with no little satisfaction the decision of the state supreme court upholding the state board of agriculture in the discharge of their full constitutional duties in the management of the Michigan Agricultural College and its extension activities. We commend the state board of agriculture for the courageous stand which they have taken in regard to this proposition which we believe to be both a matter of principle and an issue directly affecting the welfare of Michigan farmers and the future of American agriculture."

Want Clean Fairs. Other resolutions adopted approved the stand taken by the Michigan Fair Managers to bring clean fairs to the state; approved the request of the traffic bureau asking for the same feeding in transit rates enjoyed by farmers west of Chicago; approved the abolition of tax exempt securities; opposed the principle of price fixing upon farm or other products except in times of emergency, and opposed the continuation of the guarantee of earnings profits to the railroads contained in the Each-Cummins bill.

Another resolution demanded the application of dye to all imported alfalfa and red clover seed coming into this county.

The delegates also reaffirmed their last year's positions as opposed to the Pittsburgh plan, the progressive application of income tax rates; enforcement of the eighteenth amendment; approval of the Truth in Fabric law and the labelling of fruit juices to attain the same result.

Graduated Income Tax. Following out predictions made before the week's sessions started, the annual meeting again approved a plan for a graduated income tax upon net incomes, in an attempt to reduce the general property tax.

Other resolutions will come before the organization at its final meeting tomorrow.

America's most despicable animal out of captivity is the agitator politician, Eugene Davenport of Woodland, Mich., until recently dean of the College of Agriculture at the University of Illinois, exclaimed as he was concluding his address before the farmers of the state here today.

The farming interests are passing from a pioneer to a business stage, he declared, in the course of his remarks, and he strongly advocated that the farmer make a friend of the right kind of a banker and go to him with his business problems.
