

MORE MYSTERY FOUND IN OIL INQUIRY

DAUGHERTY TO HAVE HIS DAY BUT WILL QUIT

DEMOCRATS NOW GOING AFTER MORE BLOOD.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press.) Washington, Feb. 28.—Attorney General Daugherty will have his day in court and he will also retire from the cabinet but he will do so when he is satisfied that his resignation will not be interpreted as a confirmation of the various accusations made against him by members of the senate.

At the moment, President Coolidge is loth to force a decision. Two lines of thought, each seemingly logical and each based upon what appears to their sponsors to be the best interests of the republican party, have been impressed upon the president.

One is that Mr. Coolidge will help himself and the republican party by permitting Mr. Daugherty to resign, thus making a clean sweep with respect to all persons in his cabinet who have been mentioned in connection with the oil controversy.

The other is that the republican party is on trial and not Mr. Coolidge and that whatever he does to weaken the prestige of the party by allowing Mr. Daugherty to resign under fire will react against the republican party and therefore against him if he is the candidate in the coming election.

The Turning Tide. Those who are urging the first course are close to Mr. Coolidge and believe they are advancing his political fortunes. His Massachusetts friends are eager for him to win and are anxious to see him enter the campaign unencumbered. It is not that they love Mr. Daugherty less but they love Mr. Coolidge more.

The practical politicians like Chairman John T. Adams, Chairman of the republican national committee, who are urging that the republican party stand up and fight and not let mere accusations stand are beginning to believe it is time to turn the tide by a mass attack on their political foe.

While very little has been said about it, there is a chance that the bill over the Daugherty question may make certain organizations swing their influence in the opposite direction and back some one against President Coolidge for the nomination. The Daugherty issue at any rate will not be easily disposed of and will cause friction inside the party.

The predicament. What to do then? Mr. Coolidge knows that he cannot, without encountering criticism, let Mr. Daugherty resign without a

BOYS CONFESS TO 15 STREET STICKUP JOBS

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Feb. 28.—Confessions clearing up fifteen street robberies, seven of them the same night, were made today, police declare, by members of a band of nine youths taken into custody in a clean up campaign which extended from midnight to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The arrests and confessions, officers believe, will go a long way towards solving the epidemic of holdups that has been in progress for several weeks.

In this connection, Judge Harwood, Thursday signed warrants lodging formal charges against Arthur Peltier, John Reardon, John Bright and William Masco, accused of robbery armed in holding up Oscar Felman, February 10, and taking $325 in cash and jewelry worth $400.

Larry Willette and Leroy Dewston, with Reardon, are also charged with assault with intent to rob, their alleged victim being Ralph Burroughs, who was held up February 25.

No warrants have yet been issued for three others taken late in the day.

Why Be Single; Marry Today At Less Than Cost

CONTEMPLATING matrimony? If so, today is bargain day. George E. Harvey, county clerk, announced yesterday that marriage licenses would be given free of charge to all applicants on this, the 20th of February.

In addition, if it is disclosed by the bride that she exercised her traditional Leap Year privilege and "proposed," the Daily Press has arranged with Probate Judge Judd Yeland to perform the ceremony without cost to the contracting parties.

Mr. Harvey's offer of a free license to every couple applying during office hours today, is contingent only upon a desire of the contracting parties to wed.

But if, in addition, it is ascertained that the decision to apply for the license originated in the girl's proposal, there's the free Leap Year ceremony.

1335 VESSELS ARE FOR SALE

U. S. Ready To Dispose Of First Merchant Fleet.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 28.—New terms and conditions under which the government would dispose of its entire merchant fleet, comprising 1,335 vessels of various types, were announced today by the shipping board, in a general advertisement calling for bids. Records show that only a quarter of the whole tonnage now is in operation, the remainder comprising the "laid up" fleet.

In announcing the call for bids the board said the advertisement was designed primarily to comply with the law governing the sale of its property and was not "a sudden effort to force the sale of the board's fleet." It was in accordance with the "due advertisement" provision of the merchant marine act, it was explained.

Previous offer of sale by the board has been on a flat basis of $30 a ton. Displacing this provision, the board said it now was prepared to consider offers for purchase "under the various types, based on their relative value as affected by their desirability from point of design, physical condition at time of sale and other pertinent factors."

The board's fleet is made up of 524 steel ocean built cargo ships; 324 steel lake built cargo ships; 14 refrigerated vessels, 43 steel tankers; 27 passenger ships; 35 tugs and 48 miscellaneous craft.

OLSON ADMITS HE AND MORAS WERE BANDITS

Reenact Holdup Last Night and Carlson Identifies Moras.

Carl "Red" Olson has confessed to Delta county officials that he, with Henry Moras, held up and robbed C. A. Carlson, 65-year-old gasoline filling station proprietor on Thursday night of last week.

Olson's confession was contained in a voluntary statement he made to Sheriff J. P. Carney late Wednesday night and made public yesterday morning after Mr. Carney had conferred with George Carr, county prosecutor. All of the details of the holdup, the tussle with Mr. Carlson and the flight of the two men from their room in a South Tenth street rooming house, were included in the confession.

Moras Not Told. Moras, confined in another portion of the jail had not been informed, late yesterday afternoon, of his partner's revelations. The men have not seen each other since they were taken to the county jail. They have not been permitted to have visitors, except members of their families and that only in the presence of a jail officer. The case against them was so complete that no attempt was made on the part of any official to obtain a confession from either of them and Olson's action came as a complete surprise to the sheriff.

Only a few minutes before Sheriff Carney was called to Olson's cell on the second floor of the jail, Moras had told the sheriff that he was innocent and could prove it if he could only find a bondsman who would furnish the $10,000 bail demanded and let him out "to get the evidence."

"I think Olson was one of the men that stuck Carlson up," Moras is said to have informed Mr. Carney. "He wanted me to help him but I refused."

Gun From Toledo. The gun used in the holdup was purchased in Toledo, Olson told Mr. Carney. He also revealed that Moras had given him only $5 of the $45 taken from the Carlson cash register.

Olson learned, early Wednesday evening for the first time, something of the nature of the evidence against him. Previous to that time he had not known that it was laundry marks on the handkerchiefs the two men used as masks, both of which are now in the possession of the police, had enabled the officers to identify

What Congress Did Yesterday

(By The Associated Press.) Bids for shipping board fleet were based on slightly modified terms.

Forty members of the house announced they would each introduce a 2.75 per cent beer bill. The senate immigration committee agreed on the census of 1910 and a two per cent quota law for an immigration basis.

Virtual agreement was reached between Republican leaders and insurgents for the Longworth compromise to replace the Democratic income rates in the tax bill.

President Coolidge attended the placing on view at the library of congress of the originals of the declaration of independence and the constitution of the United States.

Chairman Lenroot of the senate oil committee informed the senate that the oil lease cases would be instituted in the courts "very soon."

Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, introduced a resolution proposing an inquiry into the income tax returns of E. L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair. The senate postponed until tomorrow consideration of the resolution of Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, for an investigation of the administration of Attorney General Daugherty.

The senate oil committee summoned A. Mitchell Palmer, and made public more telegrams to and from Edward B. McLean, and heard Carl C. Schuller of Colorado testify in connection with Teapot Dome. Senator Edwards, Democrat, New Jersey, assailed the prohibition bureau in an address dealing with the shooting of Senator Greene of Vermont and was answered by Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, and others.

OVER $12,000 IN CURRENCY IS RECOVERED

DECLINE TO ACCEPT ANY "CHICKEN FEED".

(By The Associated Press.) Saginaw, Mich., Feb. 28.—Three men alleged to have been implicated in the robbery Thursday afternoon of the Polish branch of the Bay County Savings Bank at Bay City were captured near here an hour after the robbery by Sheriff John P. Schuch and two of his deputies.

In a travelling bag in one of the two automobiles occupied by the three men, the officers found $12,995 in currency.

The three prisoners gave their names as: Otto Broukel, Chicago; Edward Ryan, Toledo and John Murphy, Flint.

The money and five revolvers were in the bag found in the small coupe driven by Murphy, Ryan and Broukel, who were in a larger car, a short distance ahead of Murphy, denied any connection with the robbery and asserted they never had seen Murphy, but Bay City officers who trailed them after the robbery said all three had been stopping at the same hotel in Bay City.

The robbery was committed by one man, who thrust a gun through the bars of Cashier Michael Dardas' cage, made him put up his hands, backed a girl-employee and two women patrons into the vault, then compelled Dardas to fill a money bag with currency. He warned the cashier not to put in any small bills. "Don't give me any of that chicken feed," he said when Dardas picked up a bundle of $1 bills. "Nothing less than fives goes with me."

Son of Wealthy Chicago Man Is Held For Murder

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Feb. 28.—Two warrants charging Julian Kaufman, son of a wealthy commission man, with murder and with accessory after the fact to murder, and a third charging Carl Hein with accessory after the fact to murder, in connection with the slayings last week of John Duffy, or Dougherty, and Leah Exley, known as Duffy's wife, were issued in municipal court today.

William Engelke, already in under a charge of murder in connection with the death of the Exley woman. The murder charge against Kaufman, relative to Duffy's death which presumably followed that of the woman who, Engelke asserts, was slain by Duffy while Engelke was in the Duffy apartment although the police refuse to accept his statement that Duffy shot her.

AKRON AGAIN IS TRACTION TOWN

Big Problem Now To Settle With Bus Owners.

(By The Associated Press.) Akron, O., Feb. 28.—With the resumption of street car service here today for the first time since February 1, the biggest immediate problem facing the city administration was the settlement of claims of out of town bus owners who brought their machines here to help the city operate its temporary transportation system.

Mayor D. C. Rybolt said that the city probably would pay the bus owners expenses to Akron and back to their former homes if they wish to leave. The question will be decided by the councilmen in the next few days, he said. The busses may continue to operate for sixty days on their present routes, but after that must accept new routes or cease operation.

Service on nearly every line of the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Company was in operation by noon, and officials declared that a full schedule would be in effect tomorrow.

TWO LAWYERS ARE RETAINED BY DAUGHERTY

WHEELER RESOLUTION TODAY.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Feb. 28.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, on leaving Chicago for Florida tonight, announced that he had retained George E. Chamberlain, former United States senator from Oregon, and Paul Howland, Cleveland attorney, to represent his personal interests in the senate oil investigation.

Mr. Daugherty's statement, in the form of a telegram to Senator Frank R. Willis, requested Senator Willis to advise the senate that he had not opposed the passage of the Wheeler resolution which comes up for consideration in the senate tomorrow.

NOT SATISFIED. Washington, Feb. 28.—Renewed efforts to bring about the resignation of Attorney General Daugherty are under consideration among senate Republicans.

Some of the party leaders who have participated in recent negotiations looking to his retirement are not satisfied with the arrangement which permits him to remain in the cabinet until the senate investigation of his administration is concluded. This plan, they say, may mean an indefinite delay.

The statement of Mr. Daugherty before he left suddenly yesterday for Chicago was an evident disappointment to these senators. Although the general belief is that his resignation will be demanded at the conclusion of the senate inquiry, it is argued by his critics that he ought not to be allowed to remain in office to influence the course of the investigation.

Wheeler on Watch. The resolution of inquiry is to be adopted tomorrow under a formal agreement entered into late today, giving it exclusive right of way. Its author, Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, remained on watch all day, but in the turmoil of other senate affairs, was unable to find an opportunity to call it up. Late in the afternoon Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, obtained an unanimous consent agreement for its consideration tomorrow immediately after the usual routine business, and it will be then debated continuously until a final vote is reached. The leaders expect comparatively little discussion, and adoption is assured.

G. E. HELMER TO GO ON PENSION ROLL OF C & N W

Announcement of Superintendent Comes As Surprise To Men.

After nearly 40 years of continuous service for the Northwestern road, C. E. Helmer, superintendent of the Peninsula Division, with headquarters in this city, will retire on the company's pension roll tomorrow and will be succeeded as superintendent of this division by G. H. Floyd, of the Galena division.

Official bulletins, announcing the retirement of Supt. Helmer and the appointment of Mr. Floyd as his successor, were received in Escanaba yesterday morning and posted at the company's general offices here.

Employees Surprised. It has been known by Supt. Helmer's intimate friends for some time that he greatly desired to be relieved of the burdens he has borne as head of one of the Northwestern's principle divisions, but the announcement received yesterday, placing him on the company's pension roll on March 1, came as a complete surprise to practically all employees of the peninsula division. Mr. Helmer declined last night to make any statement as to his future plans, but announced that he will probably issue a statement today and it is hoped by his hosts of friends in Escanaba that it will be his decision to remain as a resident of this city.

Up From Ranks. Mr. Helmer arose from the ranks in the employ of the company, serving for many years as brakeman and conductor for the company, later coming to Escanaba as train master under the late Supt. W. B. Linsley. Later he served as assistant superintendent here, being finally transferred to the Wirona division where he officiated as superintendent until he was recalled to Escanaba to become superintendent of the Peninsula Division.

No superintendent of the Peninsula Division has ever attained a greater degree of efficiency or has more thoroughly won the loyalty of the company's employees than Mr. Helmer during the years he has served as head of this division. His decision to retire from active railroad work will be received by all employees of the company, as well as by the company's officers, with genuine regret.

Senate discussion of the oil scandal was precipitated by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, who referred to published accounts of the visit of Chairman Lenroot made to Fall at his hotel here before the former interior secretary sent his statement to the committee that McLean had loaned him $100,000.

CODE MESSAGE OF M'LEAN IS QUITE FRUITY

LENROOT HOTLY OFFERS TO QUIT CHAIRMANSHIP.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 28.—Another engrossing chapter crammed with mystery and personal emotion was added to the public records today by the senate oil investigators.

The characters in the story included such mysterious personages as "Apricots," "Peaches" and "The Duck" referred to in code messages exchanged between Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post and his employees, during his visit to Florida.

Among the more striking passages in the chapter, before it was completed, was a dramatic appearance of Chairman Lenroot on the floor to explain and defend his committee's course and to announce that he would be glad to be relieved of the pressing duties of the chairmanship.

New Names Bob Up. As the day's story was unfolded, new names were brought into the inquiry, including those of Senators Curtis of Kansas, assistant Republican leader and Senator Underwood of Alabama, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, whose influence was sought in the effort to keep McLean off the witness stand.

Additional witnesses were summoned, among them A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson administration, who acted for a time as counsel for McLean in communications with the oil committee. He will be heard tomorrow.

The writing of more interesting chapters was arranged for by the investigators in their decision to have brought before them additional telegrams exchanged between McLean and others, as well as messages that may have been sent to Albert H. Fall, J. W. Zovely, counsel for Harry F. Sinclair, and E. L. Doheny.

SAMPLE SHOWS PRISON WATER CONTAMINATED

(By The Associated Press.) Marquette, Mich., Feb. 28.—How water from wells driven 90 feet in the ground only a few hundred feet from the shore of Lake Superior could become polluted is a question which puzzles Warden James P. Corgan of the Marquette branch prison, who today received reports from the city health officer in Marquette and the state health department's branch laboratory in Houghton that samples of the prison's drinking water showed dangerous contamination. The wells were driven about a year ago. No disease chargeable to the water has developed among the convicts, but on the strength of the tests the warden wired to Chicago for a chlorinator.

Former State Solon Summoned For Quiz

WANT LITTLE TO EXPLAIN SOME THINGS

State Insurance Commissioner Investigating Alleged Act.

(By The Associated Press.)
Lansing, Mich., Feb. 28.—Lloyd S. Little, member of the lower branch of the 1923 state legislature, has been cited to appear before L. T. Hands, state insurance commissioner, March 1 to explain charges that he illegally posed as a representative of the state insurance department.

Mr. Hands is in receipt of a memorandum said to have been written to I. F. McEvoy, an Algonquin insurance agent. The memorandum was signed "L. S. Little," department insurance. It alleged that Little summoned McEvoy and other insurance men before him for hearings and conferences regarding policies.

Seeks Information.

Little, according to Mr. Hands, has never been connected with the insurance department. When asked about the charges he told Mr. Hands that he did not think he had represented himself as an insurance department representative, but might have signed himself as a member of the insurance committee. He served on the house insurance committee.

The insurance commissioner has no accurate information regarding the motives behind the legislator's alleged action. He has requested the agents who declare they were questioned by Little to appear Saturday also. In the meantime the attorney general has been asked to investigate the possibility of criminal charges. If the allegations are proven true Commissioner Hands said, Little will probably at least be deprived of his insurance agent's license.

Pat Questions Motive.

Little was a storm center in the 1923 legislative session when he held the balance of power in his committee on reporting out the administration rating bureau bill. His procedure drew heated remarks from Representative Patrick O'Brien, also a member of the committee, who from the floor of the house, questioned Little's motives for "holding out" when the other members of the committee had about decided to report the bill for a vote.

School Destiny That Of Nation

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Declaring that the destiny of the public schools is the destiny of the republic, the department of superintendence of the National Education Association adopted resolutions at the closing session of its convention today, calling for a broadened program of education to be offered the American boy and girl.

must be expected by the American public if proper training is to be given the youth of the land, the resolutions stated. They outline at the same time the department's endorsement of American education week, its support for a plan to make the school system of Washington, D. C., a model for the nation, its backing of the Sedling-Reed bill pending in congress providing for a cabinet department of education, its support of plans to better rural education, to avoid war through education of youth, and to bring law observance thru education.

Mother Of Girl Slain May Free A Life Prisoner

(By The Associated Press.)

Detroit, Feb. 28.—An effort to obtain a new hearing for Anson Best, former marine, now serving a life sentence at the Marquette branch prison for the killing of Vera Schneider, Pontiac telephone operator, may result from a letter written to Theodore W. Kolbe, welfare officer of the American Legion, by Mrs. A. F. Snyder, of Delhi, Michigan.

Mrs. Snyder wrote that Miss Schneider was in the company of a "dark, bushy haired man" just before her body was found on the porch of an unoccupied house. Best's hair is light and straight. The letter also quotes a young woman friend of the Schneider girl as saying "Best never killed Vera—is the one who did that." Mrs. Snyder said she had been unable to learn the name of the girl she quoted.

Mr. Kolbe said he would investigate Mrs. Snyder's story.

Government To Build Block Houses For Protection.

(By The Associated Press.)

Vera Cruz, Feb. 28.—The federal troops are advancing slowly toward Jalapa from Vera Cruz on account of the situation created by the destruction of the railway lines by the rebels. In addition to the rails having been torn up, the station at Santa Fe, twenty kilometers from Vera Cruz, is reported to have been burned. The rebels are said to be badly in need of food and supplies of petroleum and gasoline.

Through the influence of union stevedores, seven leaders among the rival organizations have been arrested, are charged with being in league with the rebels. It is feared that the arrests will bring on new labor troubles.

The government intends to commence immediately the construction of block houses for the protection of the railway lines. Artillery has been mounted at strategic points for the protection of the port of Vera Cruz.

Insurgents Swinging Over To Compromise On Revenue Bill

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—While the revenue bill was being rushed through another onslaught of amendments in the house today, reaching a point where a final vote is possible tomorrow, Republican organization leaders continued negotiations with the insurgents which brought predictions that the Democratic income rate schedule would be replaced by a compromise.

Republicans lowered the proposed

Longworth compromise normal rate to make a five per cent rate apply on incomes between $4,000 and $5,000 instead of six per cent on all above $4,000 on the basis of which insurgent leaders indicated an agreement was possible.

A last minute backfire into the insurgent group, resulted in new conferences which will continue tomorrow. A majority of the seventeen insurgents who voted for the Democratic income schedule are expected by Republican leaders to support the compromise.

Democratic leaders insisted tonight that the 203 members of their party who voted for the Garner schedule before would be in effect tomorrow. If the in-

Insurgents who supported them before, again vote for the Garner amendment, the decision would appear to hinge on the number of Republican absentees. On the previous vote the Republican organization force polled 196 votes to 222 by the opposition.

Automobile Taxes

In completing consideration of the excise tax section today reductions involving $23,000,000 loss in revenue were voted on the automobile taxes, the three per cent tax on automobile trucks and wagons, the chassis of which sells for $1,000 or less, being repealed, and the five per cent tax on automobile tires, parts and accessories being cut in half.

The stamp tax on drafts or checks and promissory notes, amounting to two cents for each $100 value, also was repealed, while the eight cent tax on each pack of playing cards was increased to ten cents. Several other amendments seeking to impose new special taxes or cut further those in the bill were defeated, including an attempt of Representative Fairchild, Republican, New York, to eliminate entirely the five per cent tax on jewelry. All articles selling for less than $50 had been exempted from the tax by action of the committee.

Miscellaneous Reductions.

The total miscellaneous tax reductions allowed as a result of committee and house action now involves about $120,000,000 in revenue. In completion of reading of the section the house gave automatic approval to the ways and means committee section repealing the tax on telegraph and telephone messages on soft drink beverages and on numerous other articles.

The Mellon provision for a board of tax appeals came under fire and some sections of it went over until tomorrow. The committee's action in giving the president power of appointment of members of the board instead of the secretary of the treasury, was approved, although an amendment was adopted making senate ratification of the appointments necessary.

Salaries of the board members also were cut from $10,000 to $7,500 on motion of Representative Simmons, Republican, Nebraska. On motion of Representative Laguardia, Republican, New York, a provision was inserted forbidding any member of the proposed board from accepting employment with a firm of corporation to handle tax disputes before the treasury within two years after leaving the board.

May Compromise.

Negotiations between Republican organization and insurgent leaders reached such a stage today that several of the former group informed President Coolidge the prospects were bright for Republicans regaining their majority and putting through a compromise. Representatives Bacharach, of New Jersey; Tilson, of Connecticut and Mills of New York, Republican members of the ways and means committee, and firm advocates of the Mellon rates, informed the president that there was no chance of obtaining a majority on the Mellon rates even though a record vote was in prospect.

Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, leader of the insurgent group, said there was little doubt that some of the group outside of the Wisconsin delegation, including Representatives Woodruff of Michigan, Laguardia of New York and Reid, of Illinois, would vote for the compromise. He said the group has intended for the bill which would raise the most revenue, in the interest of prospective home legislation, provided it worked a fair reduction in the income taxes.

Representative Frear of Wisconsin, Republican insurgent member on the ways and means committee, pointed out that under the proposed compromise the entire surtax schedule would be much changed from the original Mellon plan and in his estimation gave "a much fairer distribution of the proposed reductions, granting greater cuts to the lower income than to the higher."

WRITER FAILS; KILLS HERSELF

Writes Bitterly Of Methods Of Booking Agencies.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Feb. 28.—Discouraged by long years of failure to sell the product of her pen or to make a name on the musical comedy stage, Valerie Belasco Martin, 25 years old ended her life in her mother's Riverside Drive apartment today. She drank a bottle of cleaning fluid.

The girl's story of failure has its first chapter in Milwaukee, her native city. There her mother, when Valerie was 11 years old, established a little theatre, and Valerie wrote a play. It was a quaint piece and her mother staged it. People liked it and in Valerie's heart beat plans of success. The family moved to Seattle, where Valerie studied elocution, stage dancing and voice culture. At 19 her mother brought her here.

Seeking Bubble Success.

"You'll see," she told her mother, "soon you will have a famous daughter. Our cousin will start me on the road to big success."

The cousin was David Belasco, who helped her to an engagement in the musical comedy, "Very Good Eddie." Her part was a minor one, but she was content to start at the bottom. When the show ended, weeks of idleness followed. Her next engagement did not last long. Then followed a number of engagements with long lapses of idleness between. The "big time" she learned was crowded and there were many others like her.

Many Rejection Slips.

She started writing poems and short stories, and she turned out a few special articles. Few of them were marketable. The returns were mostly rejection slips.

An hour after she returned home early today, her mother heard groans, rushed to her and held her in her arms in which she died.

A note, addressed to the mother, spoke bitterly of booking agencies. There was also a reference to a book that advanced the theory that there are too many people in the world.

The postman today delivered the package at the apartment. It contained an autobiographical manuscript, "The Evolution of a Poetess," by Valerie Belasco Martin, and a rejection slip.

Miss Esther Monard returned to Hermanville after visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. Guimond.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—One man was shot and seriously wounded today when rioting again broke out as a result of the walkout yesterday of several thousand members of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

William Goldstein, of Samuel

SAYS MICHIGAN IS VILLIFIED

American Issue Hauls Wardell Over The Coals.

(By The Associated Press.)

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 28.—The Michigan edition of the American Issue, the Anti-Saloon League organ, today took Robert D. Wardell, secretary of the Michigan branch of the National Association Against the Prohibition Amendment to task for "villifying Michigan," in a recent speech at Washington. An article in the publication states that the dries in some Michigan cities "are considering giving Mr. Wardell an opportunity of appearing before one man grand juries to either show that his statements are true or are a part of his 'sense of boneheadedness.'"

"Perhaps the most stupid thing for himself and the most sinister for the proud state of Michigan was when he vilified this commonwealth when some unknown person left him alone on the speaking platform at the Face-the-Facts conference in Washington," the article declared. "Wardell's remarks were broadcast to a nation which heretofore had not pictured Michigan as a state in which booze, vice, crime and bootleg were first in the consideration of its citizens."

"Owosso was one of the cities which Wardell proclaimed to the world was reeking with booze. This did not make such a hit with some folks."

The article described Wardell as a blunderer and publicity seeker. It asserted that the charge that the Michigan Anti-Saloon League does not want the law enforced, is absolutely untrue.

Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, recognized as spokesman for Mr. Daugherty, said there was no desire to hamper or delay the Wheeler resolution. He and others will oppose the provision naming Senator Brookhart of Iowa, an insurgent Republican, to head the investigating committee, but it appeared likely tonight, that he and the other committee members named by Senator Wheeler would be chosen by a majority vote of the senate.

BEFORE GRAND JURY.

MR. DAUGHERTY'S visit here was still somewhat shrouded in mystery tonight. He appeared before the federal grand jury which is investigating activities of the veterans' bureau but made no comment on the questions asked him by the grand jury or what information he might voluntarily have given that body. He was in the grand jury room about twenty minutes.

When a newcomer is introduced to a group of two or more women, it is not necessary for those seated to rise and shake hands. A polite bow is all that is necessary.

GOOD MANNERS

is understood to have been similar to that given by him during the congressional investigation of the department.

Mr. Daugherty's only comment during the day on the proposed senate investigation of his office was when he was shown a news dispatch stating that the senate had postponed action on the Wheeler resolution proceeding for the investigation. He said he already had been told of the senate action by long distance telephone message from Washington.

WORK ON DAMS SPEEDING UP

Traction Company Expects to Complete Job Ahead of Breakup.

Work on the Escanaba Traction Company's No. 1 and No. 3 dams, which has been progressing throughout the winter, being rushed as rapidly as possible, so that a possible "early breakup" will not hamper the improvement, or rob the company of a chance to utilize all of the water which comes down the Escanaba river.

Three new water-wheels and a new generator are being installed at the No. 1 dam at Gross, where a new power house also is being constructed. Two of these wheels are on the ground and one of them is being installed. The third wheel is enroute from the manufacturers in Springfield, Ohio.

The present wheels, with a total capacity of 1200 horsepower, are to be replaced by two 800-horsepower, and one 600-horsepower wheels, raising the power maximum at the dam by 1,000 horsepower.

At the No. 3 dam, the river, under the wheels, is being deepened by about three feet in increase efficiency of the plant.

Start Paper Mill. Paper mill officials expect to start a second print paper machine going today to use up about 500 tons of pulp now in the yard before other pulp mills owned by the company begin their grinding operations.

Confidence in the ability of the contractors to complete the improvements before the spring ice breakup arrives, was expressed yesterday and an exceptionally busy season was forecasted.

How Would You Spend This Extra Day If You Could Be Given Uncurbed Opportunity

Today—February 29—will be an extra day, thrown in by the calendar makers for good measure. There would have been a full year—that is 365 days—had it been omitted entirely.

A number of Escanaba citizens were asked by Press reporters yesterday, how they would spend the day if they were given free, unlimited and unqualified power to carry out their wishes.

Some of the answers are appended:

John J. Tolan, Chief of Police—I'd find some quiet, comfortable spot and forget, for twenty-four hours that there is crime, law-violations and their accompanying misery, sorrow and misfortune. That would be an ideal and a happy condition.

L. M. Boggs, president of Kiwanis Club—I'd be just as happy as I could and I'd try to make everybody else just as happy—and I'd try to pay all my bills.

Carl E. Anderson, city clerk—I'd spend it preparing seed boxes getting ready for spring.

W. J. Clark, real estate—I'd start making a garden, of course. What would you do?

E. C. Voght, druggist—I'd spend the day writing letters and catching up with a lot of personal correspondence that has been weighing heavily on my conscience.

George E. Harvey, county clerk—That's easy. I'd go fishing.

Waino Kulukka, prisoner at county jail—Me? Why I'd go home.

W. H. Needham, electrical dealer—I'll bite; what?

TODAY'S EVENTS

February 29th—the date that was inserted to keep the calendar straight.

Today will witness the beginning of the annual Mardi Gras festivities at Mobile.

One hundred years ago today was born William T. Coleman, famous California pioneer and merchant, and president of the San Francisco Vigilance Committee.

The Yale Club of New York plans a big celebration for tonight in honor of the athletic victories of Yale teams in 1923, regarded by many Yale men as the most remarkable year in the university's athletic history.

Many famous men are to attend a banquet in London tonight in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Oxford Union Society, the debating club of the great England university, which numbered amongst its earliest members Mr. Gladstone, Cardinal Manning, and Bishop Wilberforce.

PHIL SULLIVAN MAKES LAST RUN

Popular Engineer Retires On C. & N. W. Pension Today.

When engineer Phil Sullivan pulled his run out of Escanaba yesterday, he made his last official trip for the Chicago & Northwestern railway and completed a period of more than 50 years' service for the company.

Today Mr. Sullivan will celebrate his 70th birthday anniversary and by reason of his attainment of that age, is entitled to retirement on pension. Mr. Sullivan will settle down to take things easy in his home at Green Bay where he has lived for many years.

He is one of the oldest and most widely known men on the Peninsula Division of the C. & N. W., which is but natural, in consequence of his having spent more than half a century in the employ of the company and most of that time being spent on this division.

Mr. Sullivan numbers his local friends by the store and all will be glad to know that he is in splendid health on his 70th birthday, as well as congratulating him upon the completion of such a long period of service for the railway company, which is now rewarding him with the well earned rest and the fruits of his loyalty and efficiency.

WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

What has become of the old-fashioned "home circle", the place where father and mother and the children used to gather after supper (that was before the spiffy dinner came in) to just visit and exchange confidences and absorb a spirit of peace and contentment.

What have they done to it? We doubt if in all of Escanaba there still remain a dozen of those old-fashioned atmospheres which exuded a deeper and more reverent respect for the home and those in it; one of those quaint, old-time rooms where the kiddies sprawled upon the floor amused by "picture books", or parching and popping corn, or munching apples, or listening to "Pop" reading one of those delightful old stories which fired the imagination and inspired emulation of the hero.

It must be gone. The old circle is broken but possibly it isn't irreparably shattered. We have faith to believe that here and there it still exists in something of its old time form, while in many other cases it is becoming a radio circle.

We should like to see "home" resume its former meaning in the American language, be in fact as well as name, the one place we would rather be than any other place on earth.

We are too crowded. We go to our work in a crowd. A crowd accompanies us home. We hurry through the evening meal in order to dress and get into another crowd.

Long solitary walks do not enter into the scheme of the young folks of the present generation. They must ever go in a crowd.

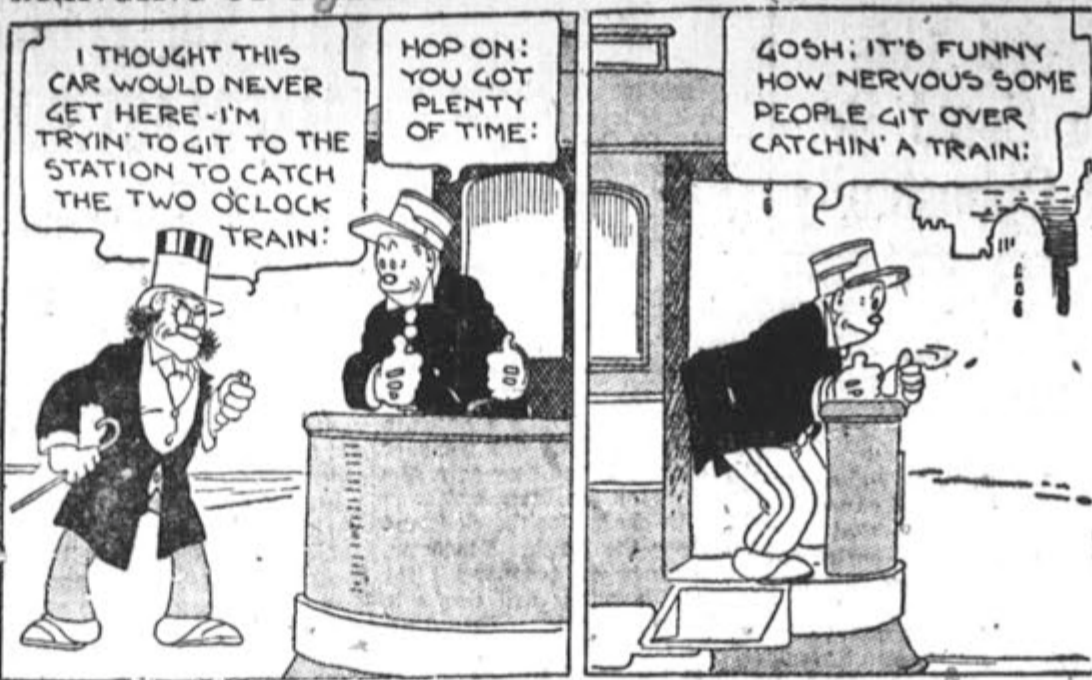

What's the "hurry"? What's all the fuss about? We go with a friend for a ride, expecting to roll easily along a lake bordered road overhung with beautiful greenery, and we are whisked through it all at 40 miles an hour in order to get some place so we can turn around and come back again.

We read with horror of three people being killed on a grade crossing and rush headlong into the selfsame danger, feeling that we are wiser than they. And one day others read about us.

We are utterly amazed when children under 11 develop into accomplished shoppers. We shudder when young men are arrested for robbing an aged man while armed, shooting to kill when resisted. And we piously hold up our hands and wonder "what is the world coming to?"

Right down in the innermost recesses of your heart—that part of you which is conscience and which distinguishes between right and wrong instinctively, whether you will or not—down there, don't you believe that a revival of the old-fashioned home circle, the old-fashioned family life, would be a most beneficial influence?

MARION RAMSEY DECIDES TO GO ABOARD.

As Nancy reawakened she held the whip hand over me—which she did because of her threats against Marion—she grew less abusive, and returned to her quiet, almost sulky manner.

"You require very little to make you happy," Nancy replied, and turned away.

The change seemed to do me good for a time. I was saved all anxiety over my office patients. I had hired a good man to attend my new office, a capable young fellow who was devoted to me because of the help I had given his invalid father.

Manistique Legion Books Double-Header For Next Week.

Will the Manistique Legion basketball team meet its Waterloo next week?

The local basketball team is still undefeated, and in the past six games have rolled up a score of 191 to their opponents 89. Their last game was too easy, and they decided to pick an outfit that could give them some real competition. There didn't seem to be any in Michigan, so P. G. Lundin started negotiations with the Waupaca Legion team, contenders for the Wisconsin state championship, and booked them for a double header to be played at Manistique on the evenings of March fifth and sixth.

Following are a few of the recent scores made by the Waupaca team, which give an indication of their strength:

- 26: Oconto Falls 15.
 - 33: Tomah 29.
 - 25: Whitehall 9.
 - 20: Lena 34.
 - 47: Laona 33.
 - 50: Laona 21.
 - 28: Ladysmith 24 (overtime).
 - 16: Ladysmith 14.
 - 31: Rice Lake Elks 13.
 - 20: Gilman 16.
 - 19: Fond du Lac 15.
 - 48: Minneapolis 9.
- Before bets are placed, however, the Manistique fan should look over Manistique's record, which isn't so rotten either:
- 37: Soo 10.
 - 20: Escanaba 14.
 - 26: Menominee 24.
 - 24: D. A. R. Club 14.
 - 32: Onaway 17.
 - 52: Daggett 10.

CHANGE RULES IN THE DAIRY SIRE CONTEST

Individual Ownership No Longer Necessary

New rulings have recently been made in the pure bred sire contest now in progress in Schoolcraft county. Attention has been called to the changes in a letter sent out by County Farm Agent T. R. Shane to all members of the local committee. The additions to the rules were adopted at a conference of county agents and central committee, and are as follows:

"It is recognized that the chief purpose of this campaign is to increase the number of farmers who will use a purebred bull in the place of a scrub bull. For this reason a replacement will be considered to have taken place if in the year 1924 a farmer purchases a registered bull or signs an agreement to use a neighbor's registered bull, and will make a sworn affidavit that during the year 1923 he used a scrub bull exclusively on his herd, and has now purchased a registered bull, or signed an agreement to use a neighbor's registered bull.

"Regardless of whether a farmer replaces one or any number of scrub bulls on his farm, only one replacement will be considered to have taken place. No replacement will be considered unless all scrub bulls, 6 months of age or older on the particular farm have been sold or castrated."

Another bright light in the past week of bowling was W. B. Thomas, developed by Carl Ekstrom. Thomas earned a place on the honorable mention list by rolling one game of 206. Bert Waters also rolled his best game of the season this week, with a total of 512, or 171 average.

ANN ARBOR CO. OFFICIAL WAS WIDELY KNOWN

"Dad" Allison Dies At His Home In Minneapolis

Adam Allison, general agent of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, died at his home, 3219 Aldrich avenue South, Minneapolis, on February 25.

Mr. Allison was born in Ontario in 1851, and began his railroad career in 1870, moving to Michigan in 1888, where he was employed as operator and agent at various points along the Ann Arbor line, until 1902, when he was sent to Minneapolis as general manager, a position he held up to the time of his death. During the late war, he was stationed at Manistique for a time.

"Dad" Allison, as he was called, was known to every shipper in this section of the country as well as through the Northwest. He was a man of sterling qualities, a lovable disposition, and a personality that won him the friendship of all who came in contact with him.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Lawrence, an attorney at Minneapolis; and a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Robertson of Vancouver, B. C., besides the host of friends who mourn his death.

Interment was made last Saturday at Lakewood cemetery, Minneapolis. Among those who attended the funeral was A. J. McLellan of Manistique.

PICKED TEAMS FROM 2 ALLEYS CLASH TONIGHT

Brault's Champs and a picked team of Elk's bowlers will clash tonight on the Brault alleys in the first inter-alley combat of the season. This will be the bowling classic of the year, and there is enough rivalry between the stars of the two alleys to make the tilt a hot one.

Brault has selected four of his best men—Malloy, Pray, Olesak, and Busch, to roll with him, On the Elk's team are: Remell, Graphos, Hentschell, Ekstrom and Quick; the latter substituting for J. N. Forshar, who is out of the city.

The three games tonight are the first of a series. The next set will be rolled at the Elks' alleys.

A radio intercollegiate debate, said to be the first in the United States, will be held this evening between the State universities of Oregon and California.

BUT TIMES CHANGED FOR JESSE'S AIDE

"BILLY" STILES, EX-BANDIT COMRADE OF JESSE JAMES.

NEA Service Writer, Glendale, Calif., Feb. 28.—The only surviving member of Jesse James' gang is here—REFORMED!

William Stiles is a disturbing refutation of the proverb that you can't straighten the bent bough.

Billy in boyhood and prime was as crooked a bough as was ever fashioned by the storms of outlawry. Today, at the age of 74, he is as straight a human tree as ever weathered the gale.

He does odd jobs on a farm and writes a book between chores.

"I was bad from the time I can first remember," explains Stiles. "I started stealing as soon as I could walk."

But when he reached that age when most men consider their lives unalterably fixed, Stiles began to delve into the gospel instead of bank vaults and mail pouches.

His first crime was at 14. He robbed a drunken man. He ran away from home and went to a

WILL EXTEND BOULEVARD LIGHT SYSTEM

Commissioners Vote To Place Lights on 5 Blocks of Central Avenue.

Continuation of the boulevard lighting system, on Central avenue, on Wisconsin avenue, to Lake street was decided upon at the second meeting of the Gladstone city commission held Wednesday evening at the city hall.

The meeting was attended by Claude E. Hawkins, mayor pro tem, Commissioners John Mattson, Jackson Stephenson and M. J. Call and City Manager C. W. Ham.

The lighting project, which will call for placing of the lights on the five blocks of Central avenue, from Wisconsin avenue, to which street the lights now run, will mean an expenditure of approximately $3,000.

When the work is completed, a boulevard system of lights will be in use on the entire seven blocks of Central avenue from Delta avenue to the end of the street. The same kind of lights, as are now on the first two blocks, will be placed on the remainder of the street.

This lighting of Central avenue, which is part of the state highway line, will be a big improvement and the decision to continue the lighting system to Lake street, will be a matter of considerable civic pride to Gladstone citizens.

The big game in which the regulars will meet the first Sault Ste. Marie quintet will begin at 9:15 o'clock, following two preliminaries.

Shipping Men Here Hope for Breakup Early This Year

Ice in the bay is slightly less than 20 inches "thin," about a twelve inches under the average thickness at this time of the year. The past week's unusually mild weather has led to the hope that Spring, this year, will be earlier than usual.

There are records here when navigation, including the city's extensive ore traffic, has been in full swing by April 1, but these of course, have been out of the ordinary. Such seasons, however, come occasionally and the hope has been expressed frequently in local railroad and shipping circles that this would be one of the extraordinary ones.

Ice and snow in the streets was thawing rapidly and city street crews were having a busy time, yesterday, in keeping it flowing through the catch basins into the storm sewers.

Rub It On At Bedtime for All Deep Chest Colds

Absorbed Like a Linctant and at same time Inhaled as a Vapor, Vicks Quickly Reaches The Affected Parts.

When a cold goes down deep—threatens to turn into bronchitis or pneumonia—with soreness, tight breathing and a heavy, hollow cough, try the external vaporizing treatment.

First stretch the skin over throat and chest with hot, wet towels to open the pores. Then massage with Vicks for five minutes, spread on thickly and cover with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths.

The penetrative and stimulative effect of Vicks thru the skin helps to relieve congestion. At the same time, the vapors, inhaled with each breath all night long, carry the medication directly to the affected parts.
