

HOUSE PASSES SOLDIER BONUS BILL

WARREN WILL BE FAMILIAR WITH MEXICO

U. S. AMBASSADOR WILL BE STRONG INFLUENCE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press. Washington, Mar. 18.—The departure of Charles B. Warren, newly named American ambassador to Mexico, for his post next Thursday after conferences which began today with President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes will mark the beginning of an important era in the relations between the United States and Mexico.

In some respects the months that lie immediately ahead are more vital to the future of Mexico than any period since the fall of Diaz in 1911. The presidential elections will be held on July 6th to choose a successor to President Obregon who under the constitution is ineligible for re-election. The charge that the Obregon administration was trying to foist General Calles on the electorate led to the recent outbreak of revolution under Adolfo de la Huerta, another presidential candidate. This revolt has been fairly well subdued due, to some extent, to the promptness with which the Washington government sold munitions to the Mexican government and arranged for the passage of Mexican troops through American territory so as to reach otherwise inaccessible parts of Mexico.

Why Obregon Supported. Having recognized the Obregon government, the United States did not wish to see it dissolved when the export of munitions and the display of real moral support might be the means of discouraging not only the de la Huerta rebels but prospective revolutionists. In the last few weeks it has become apparent that the Obregon forces were gaining the upper hand. The reconstruction of the country has been delayed by revolution and now the opportunity comes once more to Mexico to begin the mending process. Satisfactory adjustment has been made of the long drawn out oil controversy as well as the matter of claims. The Mexican government has ratified both the treaties negotiated by Mr. Warren when he was special commissioner together with John Barton Payne last summer. Now as the machinery of claims tribunals is about to be put into operation, the American government considers itself fortunate that Mr. Warren was persuaded to go to Mexico City as ambassador and take up the work of cementing the relations between the two countries.

Prevent Friction. Also, European governments have claims and controversies and the exercise by the United States of its good offices will on the one hand prevent friction between Europe and Mexico but will also prevent undue interference by European elements in the internal affairs of Mexico. Only today dispatches from Mexico charge some British oil men with having supported the de la Huerta revolt. The United States has always taken the position that since Mexico was such a near neighbor, the friendly influence of the American government could be sought either by Mexico or the European governments in composing differences between the Mexicans and the governments across the Atlantic.

Mr. Warren won the confidence of President Obregon last summer and it was due to the tact and diplomacy of the American commissioner that the negotia-

Two New Chapters Written In Daugherty Case

JOHN BAIRD IS ON DEFENSIVE; COURTS PROBE

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., March 18.—John Baird, state conservation director, Tuesday declared that he welcomed the fullest possible investigation into charges of alleged misuse of state funds by him. Mr. Baird admitted that Benjamin Huskins, Bay City boat builder, was paid in currency for a boat which Huskins built for the conservation department in 1918. The conservation commissioner declared, however, that the apparent discrepancy between the contract price and the amount of the check drawn by the state treasurer, represented money used in payment for a cabin added to the boat and to pay other bills connected with its construction. Governor Groesbeck today sent an affidavit signed by Huskins to the attorney general's office for examination. It charged that Baird had a check for $1,175, made out by the state to pay for the boat, but that it was cashed by another man, and only $1,050 was paid him.

MRS. AUG. QUIST KILLED BY TREE

Bergman's Camp Is Scene Of Fatal Accident Tuesday.

Mrs. August Quist, about 40 years of age, was almost instantly killed at Bergman's Bark River camp, eight miles from Bark River, Tuesday afternoon, when a big tree which her husband was cutting, fell and pinned the unfortunate woman to the ground. One of the striking Mrs. Quist in the head and producing concussion of the brain, from which she died within a few minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Quist live in Bark River, but had been working in the Bergman camp this winter. After the breaking up of the camp a short time ago, they remained to do some extra work. Took Unexpected Direction. Mr. Quist had cut the tree in such a way that the tree should have fallen to the west. Mrs. Quist was working nearby. However, the tree took an unexpected angle and began falling to the south. Mrs. Quist being in its path. Her husband shouted to warn her and she ran directly toward the falling tree, according to his story.

After vainly trying to move the tree from his wife's body, Mr. Quist ran to the home of Silas Martin, near the camp and returned with help. Mrs. Quist, however, passed away within a short time after being taken from beneath the timber. Sheriff Investigators. The body was taken to the Martin home and Sheriff Carney was immediately notified of the accident. He got in touch with (Continued on Page Two.)

Electrician Killed at State Reformatory

(By The Associated Press.) Ionia, Mich., Mar. 18.—Clarence Haas, 23 years old, was killed at the Michigan reformatory late today when he touched a charged electric wire. Haas was an electrician and was working on wiring in the boiler room when the accident happened.

SENATE WARNED TO DISSOLVE AS A GRAND JURY AND GET BUSY ON LAW

Tax Legislation And Other Important Matters Neglected.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Mar. 18.—The senate heard another fanfare of oratory today running the scale of all of the disclosures of its investigators, and then listened to a solemn warning that the people back home soon may demand that congress forego its "grand jury" pursuits and address itself to a program of constructive legislation.

The Coolidge-McLean telegrams, the Dempsey-Carpenter fight films, Roxie Sinton and Secretary Fall's troublesome $100,000 all played their parts in a renewed discussion of the oil and Daugherty inquiries, launched from the Democratic side of the chamber by Senators Neely of West Virginia, Caraway of Arkansas, and Heflin of Alabama.

The warning was sounded by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho. Addressing not only the Democrats, but senators on his own side of the broad center aisle that is the senate's political no man's land, the Idaho leader predicted that unless the present "objectless program" gave way to more positive remedial measures, the session would end without tax legislation and with other important duties half performed.

Must Make Record. "The next campaign will not be won on the platform written at Cleveland," said Senator Borah to his party leaders. "We must make our record here if we are anxious to continue in power."

Senator Neely, in a carefully prepared speech brought the oil disclosures back into senatorial debate after acquiescence of nearly a week by bitterly assailing Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, questioning the wisdom of President Coolidge in his telegraphic correspondence with Edward B. McLean, and charging that newspapers were attacking the senate because their interests were being undermined by the continual disclosures before investigating committees.

The West Virginia senator said that every one hoped Senator Lodge was correct in his defense of the president's upright-ness, but recalled that on another occasion some years ago, Mr. Lodge, according to news reports, had delivered himself of a somewhat similar tribute to Albert Fall. The Republican's denunciation of Democratic senators for attacking the president, Senator Neely said was nothing less than an attempt to foreclose the right of free speech in the senate.

Caraway Attacks Hughes. Secretary Hughes was singled out by Senator Caraway as the particular target of his attack but he added that Mr. Coolidge, while he was vice president, Postmaster General New, and others also had attended the private showing of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight films at the McLean home here, after they had

SAUNDERS CASE TO BE DECIDED WITHIN 10 DAYS

(By The Associated Press.) Memphis, March 18.—Argument on Piggly Wiggly Corporation's application for an injunction restraining Clarence Saunders, its former president, from launching a new chain stores system under his own name, was ended today when Federal Judge J. W. Ross adjourned the hearing. Judge Ross promised a decision within ten days.

MINE COLLEGE GRADUATES TO CAP AND GOWN

(By The Associated Press.) Houghton, Mich., Mar. 18.—The senior class of the Michigan College of Mines voted today to wear cap and gown at the class day exercises in April. This action is unusual in that it is the first time in the history of the college that the graduating seniors have adopted full academic costumes for commencement. Fayette E. McIntire of Boyne City, Mich., was elected toastmaster of the class day banquet.

CIGARET HUNGER COSTS $1,000.00

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, March 18.—It cost Ray Taylor $1,000 Tuesday to come over to Detroit in a row boat to purchase cigarettes. In federal court he told Judge Arthur J. Tuttle that a chance acquaintance offered to come with him, and he saw no objection. The chance acquaintance turned out to be a man who had previously been rejected by the immigration officers, and Taylor was arrested on a charge of smuggling an alien.

MRS. ROOSEVELT SAILS FOR HOME

Genoa, Italy, Mar. 18.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, widow of former President Roosevelt, left here today for New York on board the steamer Conte Rosso.

LOUIS D. BRANDEIS. Mr. Brandeis is the man most prominently mentioned as a running mate for Senator La Follette in the event the Senator heads a third party movement.

WIFE SLAYER IS EMOTIONAL

Kisses His Dead Victim Reverently In Morgue.

(By The Associated Press.) Denver, Colo., Mar. 18.—Fred Janssen, confessed slayer of his wife, whose body was found by a railroad expressman in a trunk at Ogden, Utah, last Saturday, stopped and kissed the face of his dead wife this afternoon when he was taken to the county morgue.

After identifying the body and explaining in detail how he had beaten her to death with a hammer he pulled back as he was being led away and again kissed the woman he had confessed he killed.

Janssen today admitted his story of the employment of a Mexican to kill his wife, was untrue and then confessed his part in the crime. He told of slaying his wife with a hammer last Thursday night at their home here and then of secreting her body in the trunk, where it was discovered at Ogden.

Janssen's visit to the morgue was part of the trip in which he led detectives to the hotels and rooming houses where he spent his time from Friday morning when he checked the trunk containing the body of his wife to the time he left the city Sunday.

The district attorney announced today following the confession that charges of first degree murder would be filed against Janssen probably tomorrow.

TRADE DEALS IN SINCLAIR AGAIN BOB UP

MORE ABOUT FALL ATTEMPT TO COVER LOAN SOURCE.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, March 18.—Attorney General Daugherty and Albert Fall figured separately in two new chapters written today into the record of the oil committee as the senate investigators renewed their long public quest for all of the facts connected with the leasing of the naval oil reserves.

One story was that on the day the Sinclair lease of Teapot Dome was announced officially, Mr. Daugherty changed his margin account in Sinclair Oil stock at a Washington brokerage house from his own name to that of W. W. Spald, a member of the firm, who then was carrying a large account for Jess W. Smith, personal friend and confidant of the attorney general.

Attempt to Conceal. The other chapter had to do with still another apparent attempt by Fall to conceal through the statement of an old friend that he had obtained $100,000 from Edward L. Doheny, California oil magnate, late in 1921, when he enlarged and improved his New Mexico ranch holdings.

Besides the dealings the attorney general had in oil stocks, the committee obtained from its expert accountant, Louis F. Bond, detailed accounts of transactions in oil stocks by two senators, Curtis of Kansas, assistant Republican leader in the senate, and Elkins of West Virginia and five then members of the house, including C. Bascom Sloop, now secretary to President Coolidge.

Both the stock transactions and the story of Price McKinney, of Cleveland that Fall sought to have him agree to say he had loaned the former interior secretary money will be followed up by the committee. Members regard McKinney's statement today one of the more important that has been developed in connection with the oil leases.

Identifying himself as an old friend of Fall, McKinney, a mine owner, testified that late in 1923 he had received a letter from the former secretary "asking me if I would state that I had made the loan for the purchase of the ranches of property in New Mexico."

The witness said he had not answered the letter and that Clarence C. Chase, son-in-law of Fall, had called upon him at Cleveland a day or two after Thanksgiving Day, which was November 29, to take up the subject.

"I think I did most of the talking," McKinney said. "After he got started I said 'I have not made him a loan and therefore I could not say that I have.'"

Destroyed Letter. Asked if he had the Fall letter, McKinney said that he had destroyed it "when Mr. Doheny testified that he himself had made the loan."

At the time, Chase visited McKinney, the committee was seeking the source of the funds which Fall evidently had received and the latter was preparing to come to Washington to testify, according to telegrams placed into the record. There is evidence of a conference between Fall and Chase at Chicago in early December, after which the former secured

Coolidge Leads Johnson Two To One In North Dakota Vote; La Follette Running Third

(By The Associated Press.) Fargo, N. D., March 18.—Maintaining a ratio established in first returns, President Coolidge was leading Senator Hiram Johnson of California, two to one for the Republican presidential endorsement when 100 precincts had reported from today's state-wide primary in North Dakota.

These 100 precincts out of 2,058 representing a poll scattered through 14 counties, gave the president 7,059; Johnson 3,436 and Senator Robert M. LaFollette 1,496. The vote for LaFollette resulted from a sticker campaign.

When 118 precincts had reported, the vote was: Coolidge 8,143; Johnson 3,842; LaFollette 1,885. Bismark For Coolidge. Bismark, capital city, gave the president a plurality of nearly two to one over Senator Johnson, who in turn had a corresponding margin over LaFollette, the vote in that city, all precincts reported, giving Coolidge 971; Johnson 498 and LaFollette 236.

Both city and rural districts reporting showed an advantage for the president, although rural returns are very meager as yet. Reports from over the state indicate a light vote.

Principal interest attached to the Republican presidential contest, with President Coolidge and Senator Hiram Johnson on the official ballot and Senator Robert M. LaFollette in the race through a sticker campaign. In the Democratic field the vote was unusually light with Wm. G. McAdoo unopposed for endorsement.

Both the Johnson and Coolidge headquarters tonight were expressing confidence in the outcome, with Coolidge backers of the opinion that the campaign to paste in LaFollette's name would cut into the Johnson strength.

The returns were principally from the larger cities where Johnson supporters have conceded Coolidge's superior strength contending that it is in the smaller cities and rural precincts that the Californian's power lies.

SAM COLLINS PUT ON GRILL

Is Asked What He Knows About Crookedness.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, March 18.—Behind closed doors the house committee which is investigating criminal charges against two representatives today questioned Sam Collins, prohibition director for Kentucky, and P. Green Miller, prohibition chief for the Kentucky-Tennessee division. The nature of the testimony of the two men who have also appeared before the federal grand jury here which is conducting an investigation of the cases was not disclosed.

Edward Robinson, former wholesale merchant of Baltimore, and Robert McKean, of Orlando, Fla., were also called before the committee but their examination was deferred.

During the questioning of Collins and Miller by the committee, Assistant Attorneys General Willembrandt and Davis, who are among the department of justice officials appearing before the grand jury here, were present.

Three Millions In Bonds Given In Herring Cases

(By The Associated Press.) Herring, Ill., March 18.—Williamson county's warfare on bootleggers went to the civil courts today where constitutional procedure won in the initial skirmish with a law enforcement program sponsored by adherents of the Ku Klux Klan.

S. Glenn Young, paid Klan leader in dry raids, which aroused the county and resulted in rioting, was placed under bonds aggregating approximately $100,000 when arraigned today before Judge E. N. Bowen on 65 indictments charging assault with intent to murder, rioting, falsely assuming office and other charges. Seventy of his aides in the drive to "clean up the territory" were placed under bonds totalling more than $3,000,000. All were bound over for trial in June.

Leigh Succeeds To Duval Job (By The Associated Press.) New York, Mar. 18.—R. Walter Leigh, of New York, vice president of the American Beet Sugar Company was elected chairman of the board and president of the company at a meeting of the directors today, to succeed H. Riemann Duval, who died at St. Augustine, Fla., this morning.

"DIE HARDS" MAKE BITTER LOSING FIGHT

FORTY MINUTES OF DEBATE PRECEDES VOTE.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, March 18.—The house today for the third time in four years passed a soldier bonus bill. The vote was 355 to 54, and was taken after forty minutes of debate.

Twenty speakers took the floor during the brief period advocating a full cash payment of the bill was taken up which limited debate and prevented the offering of amendments. "Die hards" of both parties declared against the measure on principle, while proponents argued it was a measure which could become law.

Paid Up Insurance. The measure provides for paid up 20 year endowment life insurance policies and cash payments to veterans entitled to no more than $50 in adjusted service credit. Provisions of the old bill for vocational training and farm or home aid are eliminated.

The insurance provision is somewhat different from the deferred payment certificates proposed in the old bill and because of these changes the measure faces an involved situation in the senate. Members of that body have asked time to study the new bill, while others already have prepared different proposals. The finance committee to which the measure will be referred is now occupied with the tax reduction bill.

Must Become Law. Chairman Green of the ways and means committee, who introduced the bill, reminded the house during the short debate preceding the vote that the two previous measures had not been enacted into law "for reasons known to all" and insisted this measure "will and must become law."

When asked by Representative Blankhead, Democrat, Alabama, whether he had conferred with President Coolidge as to the prospects for the bill becoming law, Mr. Green replied that he had not and added that he did not know the president's attitude toward the measure.

The old bill, after passing the house and senate, was vetoed by President Harding. More Than Majority. The vote today showed 43 more than the two thirds necessary to pass a bill over a veto.

Although veterans, particularly on the Democratic side, bitterly assailed the measure because it failed to carry an option for full cash payments, only twenty Democrats and 34 Republicans voted against it. Analysis of the vote showed 177 Democrats, 175 Republicans and the three independents voting for the measure. Four members voted present and nine did not vote.

The maximum cost of the bill is estimated at $2,119,000,000, spread over a period of twenty years. The highest annual maximum cost would come in the first year and is estimated at $135,000,000. Mr. Green decried the cost of the measure could be met by appropriations and would require no additional taxes. The bill provides for an appropriation not to exceed $100,000,000 for next year to meet the cost of the measure. If the estimated maximum expenditure should be necessary the first year, the additional amount could

Judge Curtis D. Wilbur Accepts Coolidge Appointment To Navy

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Mar. 18.—Selection of Curtis D. Wilbur, chief justice of the supreme court of California, to succeed Edwin B. Denby as secretary of the navy, was approved today by the senate in executive session of less than ten minutes. There was said to have been no debate on the nomination and no roll call asked when the motion that he be confirmed was made by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader. President Coolidge upon being informed of the senate's action immediately notified Judge Wilbur by telegraph, and it is understood, requested the new member of the cabinet to come to Washington as soon as he can conveniently arrange to do so. The new secretary is to take up the duties of the office where they stopped when Secretary Denby resigned, no outstanding policies awaiting his attention, even the appropriation bills having been framed for the new fiscal year.

WILL LEAVE AT ONCE.

San Francisco, Cal., Mar. 18.—Chief Justice Curtis D. Wilbur of the state supreme court today received a telegram from President Coolidge notifying him of his confirmation as secretary of the navy. Justice Wilbur sent a telegraphic reply to the president saying he was prepared to start for Washington tomorrow or whenever the president summoned him, and that he could take the oath of office here or in Washington as the president saw fit.

Globe-Girdling Aviators Get To Eugene, Oregon Tuesday

(By The Associated Press.) Eugene, Ore., March 18.—Three round-the-world army aviators landed at the Eugene aviation field this afternoon. Number one, piloted by Major Frederick L. Martin, fleet commander, made the field at 3:57 and number two, with Lieutenant Lowell Smith in command, landed at 4 o'clock. The third plane in command of Lieutenant Leigh Wade, which made a forced landing at Cottonwood, Calif. early this afternoon, took the air again and landed at 5:23. The schedule provides that the planes hop-off for the north tomorrow morning at 9:30, stopping at Vancouver Barracks for lunch at noon. City officials and a band were at the aviation field when the planes came in from the 550 mile flight from the south. A banquet for the army fliers was held this evening. Fine weather prevailed on the flight from Sacramento, although a rather stiff north wind was faced on the latter stages of the trip, the Major said. Shortly before the arrival of the world flight here, three army planes from Vancouver Barracks landed to greet the north bound planes. Mechanics are at work inspecting the three Douglas ships, making them ready for the trip tomorrow. Lieutenant Erik Nelson, pilot of the fourth round-the-world plane, is still at Clover Field, Calif., the starting place. He is to meet the

Senate Plans More Amendments To The U.S. Constitution

WOULD CHANGE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT

Plan to Change Date of Swearing In New Congress.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Mar. 15.—A step adding another amendment to the constitution was taken today when the senate by a vote of 63 to 7 adopted a joint resolution to have presidents inaugurated the third Monday in January and new congress go into office the first Monday in January after election.

The resolution which was offered by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, now goes to the house where, as in the senate, a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption. It will then go to the president for ratification.

Explaining provisions of the proposed amendment Senator Norris in a statement said: "First—The congress elected November will go into office the first Monday in January following, and a session of congress will then begin. This means that as soon as congress is elected it will commence its official duties without delay in a critical condition.

Second—It abolishes the existing short session. Under present constitutional provisions a congress assembles in December for election and runs until the fourth of March when it expires its session. It is in this so-called "short session" of congress that all kinds of jokers creep in under the law. The calendars of both houses are clogged and everybody knows that it is a physical impossibility to dispose of much important legislation pending. It is in the short session that bad laws are put on the statute books and desirable legislation is lost in the rush. It is in the short session that filibusters are effective and a few determined men can block desirable legislation simply by taking up

Third—Under the present constitution, if the people fail to elect a president, and the electors are thrown into the house, it is the old congress that elects a president, and not the new congress. An amendment will reverse this, and in such a case, a new congress will be elected by the people fresh from the polls. Under present conditions a congress that may have been rejected elects a president, who goes to office for four years.

Fourth—Under the existing constitution, if the people fail to elect a president at the election, and if the house and senate should under such conditions fail to elect a president, there is no provision in the constitution which provides who shall be president and there is no authority given to congress to elect a president. This amendment confers upon congress the power to provide by law who shall act as president in such an emergency.

Fifth—The senate took up today a resolution proposing another amendment to the constitution. This resolution provides that amendments must be completed by three-fourths of the states in six years of their approval. Congress, was made the unexcused business over the objection of Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, and several other senators who insisted that relief and the bonus should be the right of way.

The Wadsworth proposal includes also a provision that congress, on request of two-thirds of the state legislatures, shall call a convention for amending the constitution. Another provision is that any state may change its vote up to the time the three-fourths have ratified an amendment under consideration until one-fourth have rejected it. The final section provides that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate."

LITTLE JOE OUR IDEA OF AN OPTIMIST IS A CROSS EYED MAN WHO IS THANKFUL HE'S NOT BOWLEGGED

MAUGHAN WILL NOT GIVE UP

To Try Dawn-to-Dusk Coast To Coast Flight Again.

(By NEA Service) Kelly Field, Texas.—Daring and skill have won Lieut. Russell L. Maughan world-wide fame as the army's aviation ace. Two other qualities—perseverance and self-confidence—are expected to win Maughan fresh honors within a few months.

For Maughan, despite his failure on two attempts to fly from New York to San Francisco between dawn and dusk, is now getting ready for a third crack at his record. The army air service just authorized Maughan to repeat his attempt in June.

Already, Maughan, winner of the 1922 Pulitzer trophy race, with four German planes to his credit in the World War, is at work on plans for— "Its looking after details ahead of time that wins the flight," he declares. "Once the plane rolls out of the hangar and you hop off, there's not much you can do except trust to luck. It's useless to worry about materials and machinery when you're up. You can only have faith then."

Maughan leaves for McCook Field, at Dayton, O., shortly to begin testing the Curtiss pursuit plane he will use in the flight. This new plane will have a huge gas tank installed, and it may enable Maughan to hark the flight with three refueling stops—Dayton, St. Joseph, Mo., and Cheyenne, Wyo.—instead of four stops, as planned on the previous flights.

A clogged feed pipe forced Maughan down at St. Joseph, Mo., on his first attempt, July 9. Ten days later he covered 1964 miles of the 2640-mile trip ahead of schedule—but he was halted at Rock Springs, Wyo., because his plane leaked oil.

WARREN WILL BE FAMILIAR WITH MEXICO (Continued from Page One)

ations culminated in formal recognition and the ratification of the two treaties. Mr. Warren, therefore, goes to Mexico with a background of familiarity with the Mexican problem and personal association with the influential men in Mexico, all of which is counted upon by the American government to bring about better relations and, of course, the development of an era of orderly reconstruction so that trade and commerce may be improved and that the Mexicans themselves may be able at last to realize their true destiny in the western hemisphere.

JEWELER SAYS HE'S ROBBED OF $75,000.00 LOOT (By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Mar. 15.—Three bandits held up the Bpston Refiners, wholesale jewelers, here tonight and obtained loot estimated by Max Lipsitz, one of the members of the firm at $75,000 to $100,000. Lipsitz told the police he is in the store alone when the three men entered. They bound and gagged him, he says, and took a wallet containing a number of unset diamonds, 24 diamond rings and $355 in cash from the safe.

After the men left, Lipsitz says he worked loose from his bonds and called the police. SNAKE HAD RING. London.—A quartz ring, discovered in the mouth of one of the stone snakes in the strategy of the fountain of Hotel Savoy, has been restored to its owner after an interval of seven years. At a dance in 1917, a friend of the owner placed the ring in the snake's mouth and the two were unable to retrieve it.

Rep. Knutson And Companion Held To Virginia Grand Jury

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, March 15.—After a preliminary hearing of more than five hours in a crowded little Virginia courtroom, Representative Harold Knutson, of Minnesota, and Leroy M. Hull, a 29 year old government employe, today were held for the grand jury on grave charges preferred against them by two Arlington county police officers.

Judge Harry R. Thomas withheld, temporarily, issuance of a formal order, holding the two men for the grand jury in order to give them opportunity to arrange new bond. Each had been held in $5,000 bond for the preliminary hearing, which the court refused to reduce on motion of State Senator Frank L. Ball, of Virginia, of defense counsel.

In addition to Senator Ball, Knutson was represented by Representatives Larson and Newton, both of Minnesota, and Thomas C. Bradley, Washington attorney. Four witnesses were heard during the day, John Wise and John R. Burke, the officers who made the arrests on the night of March 9, on a road on the outskirts of Washington; Louis Zimmerman, brother-in-law of Burke and driver of the officers' car, when the arrests were made, and Harry Woodyard, jailer.

Wise, the first witness, testified as to the conditions under which the arrests were made, when he and Burke came upon Knutson's car, parked about 150 feet from the main road. He told of "offers" made to him by Knutson to "settle out of court", saying the "offers" were refused.

Didn't Know Prisoners. Replying to direct questioning by Commonwealth's Attorney William C. Glott, Wise said he was unaware at the time that Knutson was a member of congress or whether "he was a Democrat or Republican". Attorney Bradley objected, but was over-ruled by the court after Glott had declared an attempt was made by him to infer the arrests were the result of a "frameup".

Harry Woodyard, jailer of Arlington county, a defense witness testified he had charged the men on the books with a "felony" on the advice of Sheriff Howard Fields, after the latter had talked the matter over with Wise and Burke and that the records were in his office.

Bond Not Reduced. The defense asked that the records be brought into court but Judge Thomas refused to grant the request and expressed the opinion that he had no bearing on the case. After a strenuous appeal by Mr. Ball for a reduction of bond from $5,000 to $2,000, Judge Thomas refused the former amount was not excessive for such cases and held Knutson and Hull on that bond for the grand jury. The next grand jury session in Arlington county is set for April 21.

"DIE HARDS" MAKE BITTER LOSING FIGHT (Continued from Page One) be drawn from the treasury surplus, Mr. Green said. All Michigan representatives voted for the bonus bill. Exclusive of the first sixty days of service each enlisted man and woman and officer up to and including the rank of captain in the army and marine corps and lieutenant senior grade in the navy is entitled to a credit of $1 for each day of home service and $1.25 for each day of overseas service. If all service was at home $500 is the maximum allowed and if part was overseas $625 is the maximum.

Those not entitled to more than $50 would be paid in cash and to others an insurance policy would be issued. "The amount of this policy is figured on the total of adjusted compensation due on length of service plus one-fourth of that total.

NEW CARDINALS PAY THE FIRST FORMAL VISITS (By The Associated Press.) Rome, March 15.—Arch Bishop Hayes of New York and Arch Bishop Muncie of Chicago, who are to become members of the Sacred College at the approaching consistory, today made their first of numerous official visits in the round of such calls that must be made before their formal elevation.

Late this afternoon the American prelates visited the Vatican, where the saw Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state with whom they talked over various details of the preparations for next week's private and public consistories. It is expected that they will have an official audience of the pope shortly, possibly tomorrow.

Aside from the official calls, the arch bishops today also made a number of unofficial visits. Arch Bishop Muncie renewed numerous old acquaintanceships of his college days in Rome. Both he and Arch Bishop Hayes spent a couple of hours shopping and being fitted for the vestments they will require as princes of the churches.

LIMIT OF ENDURANCE. Washington.—Harry Jameson, arrested for assault and battery, told the judge how it came about: "We was shootin' craps, yo' honor, an' when Ah discovered one of them other boys was playin' with loaded dice, Ah couldn't forbear myself. So Ah crowned him."

Inasmuch as the coronation ceremony was performed with a brick, Jameson had to pay $15 and costs.

TRADE DEALS IN SINCLAIR AGAIN BOB UP (Continued From Page One)

retary went on to New York and then Atlantic City, where Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, agreed to say that he had loaned Fall $100,000 instead of giving him unused checks aggregating $100,000.

Another Thrill. The principal witness of the day, William A. Orr, of New York, in part confirmed and in part denied the story of previous witnesses about arrangements to exhibit the Dempsey-Carpenter fight pictures without prosecution. He then contributed another thriller to the committee's long list of sensational episodes by admitting that he had paid at least $6,000, collected from various drug companies, to Howard Mannington, a friend of the attorney general, for the purpose of keeping certain liquor cases "out of court".

The two cabinet officers summoned to testify were Secretaries Mellon of the treasury and Weeks of the war department. They will be asked about various statements made in previous testimony, but their testimony is expected to deal largely with liquor permits, handled through the treasury, and with the Standard Aircraft case, in connection with which Gaston B. Means has testified that he received $100,000 for Jess Smith.

Other Officials Called. Along with the two members of the cabinet, the committee subpoenaed several other officials and former officials of high rank. They included Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair, Elmer Dover, former assistant of the treasury; Assistant Attorney General John W. E. Cram and Henry Anderson; H. H. Vofaw, prison commissioner; and brother-in-law of the late President Harding, and James A. Finch, pardon attorney in the justice department.

Tonight committee members were considering how they might be able to bring Mannington before them. He is understood to be in Paris, connected in some capacity with Charles G. Dawes, and it is possible that the state department may be asked to help in summoning him to Washington.

In addition, Secretary Hughes and Postmaster General Now, who have issued statements about their presence at the home here of Edward B. McLean when the prize fight pictures were shown there, may be asked to come before the committee to explain conflicting stories as to just who made up the company entertained that night by the publisher.

Mr. Daugherty's attack on his accusers tonight took the form of a long statement, in which he reviewed the activities of his department and declared that nothing has been produced so far before the committee bearing on the department's efficiency.

"Tainted" Testimony. "The testimony as revealed in the hearings," he said, "has consisted of rumors, gossip and unreliable hearsay evidence emanating from tainted sources."

The statement made no reference to any of the specific points touched on in the testimony or to Mannington, whose injection into the story told today by Orr whetted the curiosity of committee members and opened up new leads which some senators believe may prove very fruitful.

A friend of Mr. Daugherty of long standing, Mannington served in the campaign headquarters at Marion during the 1920 campaign and after the inauguration in the following March came to Washington. Orr said he had been introduced to him by Daugherty, and had learned that his headquarters appeared to be in the "little green house on K Street."

The witness went on to say that he had arranged with perhaps a half dozen drug companies in New York and Brooklyn to avail themselves of Mannington's services to "avoid litigation" in regard to liquor matters.

Turned Over $6,000. Orr said he could not recall the exact amount of money he turned over to Mannington in these transactions, but after repeated questioning he fixed the total at least $6,000. He insisted under the pressure of further queries that he had kept none of it for himself.

The purpose of the committee in summoning Orr, who formerly was secretary to Governor Whitman of New York, was to learn more about the prize fight picture deal. On this subject he gave up little new information beyond confirming that he had an interest in the project and that his share of 20 per cent netted him $4,500. He denied that Jess Smith was a party to the arrangement.

The subject of lottery prosecutions made its first appearance in the inquiry through the testimony of Maco Stewart of Galveston, Texas, a lawyer. He declared the justice department had failed to prosecute "contract loan" companies, which he contended were preparing a nationwide swindle. Although advised of the operations of these concerns, he said, department representatives had acted only under the mail fraud statute. He named Wm. Sacks of St. Louis, as head of the "lottery ring."

NO IMMUNITY FOR BERGDOLL IF HE SHOULD RETURN TO AMERICA

Legion Commander Explains Effort To Get Him Back.

(By The Associated Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 15.—Asserting that it is "incompatible with Legion principles" to attempt to kidnap Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger now in Germany, John R. Quinn, national commander of the American Legion, issued a statement from the Legion national headquarters here tonight regarding the proposal to have Bergdoll return voluntarily to America. The statement read:

"Leighton H. Blood, a member of the Legion is going to Europe. He is delegated as a member to interview Grover Cleveland Bergdoll. It was suggested to Mr. Blood that he tell Bergdoll that the Legion did not advocate the use of violence in seeking Bergdoll's return. On the other hand, Bergdoll was to be advised to return voluntarily. The Legion merely took the stand that Bergdoll owes expatriation for his conduct in avoiding military service, but that it is incompatible with Legion principles to attempt to kidnap him or bring him back to these shores illegally against his will."

NO IMMUNITY HERE. Washington, Mar. 15.—War and state department officials today jointly announced that the Washington government would enter no agreement for his return from Germany. The government has taken no part in steps to have the draft evader return.

The war department officials said they had not been asked to enter into any agreement for a commutation of sentence for Bergdoll but that they would of course reject any such proposal if it were made.

It was pointed out that Bergdoll had served less than two months of his five years' prison sentence, and it was altogether improbable that any reduction of the remaining sentence would be allowed, in the event he returned. All that was possible to promise in the way of commutation, it was said, would be the usual allowance for good behavior and that would depend entirely upon the conduct of the prisoner after the major part of the sentence had been served.

A BERGDOLL SCHEME. Atlantic City, March 15.—John P. Dwyer, president of the Philadelphia draft board which caused the arrest of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, notorious draft dodger, issued a statement here today warning the American Legion that it "has unwittingly fallen a victim of the scheme of the notorious deserter and his family to get the best of Uncle Sam," by advocating his return to the United States.

"If it is true," reads the statement, "that a representative of the American Legion has arranged to induce Grover Cleveland Bergdoll to return to the United States, posing as a penitent sinner, it has unwittingly fallen a victim to the scheme of the notorious deserter and his family to get the best of Uncle Sam. The Bergdolls have been trying to stage a comeback of that kind for a year or more and it is due not to the desire of Bergdoll to pay the penalty, but to the fact that he and others of his family need the Bergdoll money now tied up by Uncle Sam, through the government attachment of the Bergdoll fortune."

While he did not oppose the pursuit of the pending investigations the Idaho senator went on, senators must realize that "the time is near at hand when we should dissolve ourselves as a grand jury," and resume the business of legislation. He asserted that at the present pace there scarcely would be time in the present session to consider adequately the necessary appropriation bills.

PUMP BALL FROM LUNG. Prague.—A 16-year-old youth, blowing steel balls through a blowpipe, inhaled too strongly and drew one into his lung. Efforts to extract it with forceps and a magnet were unsuccessful. Then a rubber hose was introduced until its end touched the obstruction, and an air pump was used. It succeeded almost immediately.

FAN WAS BETTER MAN. Milwaukee, Wis.—Tony Dennis, professional boxer, is suing the Milwaukee Auditorium Co. for $2000 alleging he was worsted in an encounter with a fight fan after leaving the ring during a boxing show here. Dennis claims his left hand is injured and that he is handicapped in following the fistie profession.

Mr. Darden said he got his leases in the Teapot land from a Democratic administration between the election of President Harding and his inauguration, whom he had known for years, called him to the White House and offered to do something to protect his interests in the Teapot Dome oil case. "What can I do?" Darden quoted President Harding as saying to him, "I want to take care of my friends. Fall says he is going to send marines out there. He is TNT on the subject."

Darden said he wouldn't let the president "get mixed up in it," so he told Mr. Harding there was only one thing to do, take it into court, which he did. He did not see Attorney General Daugherty, he said.

THIEF REFORMS, SLIPS BACK AND IS HOOKED AGAIN

Legion Commander Explains Effort To Get Him Back.

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, March 15.—A life of crime—its many vicissitudes, his efforts to go straight; subsequent persecution by the police; his re-entry into the life of crime, and his eventual arrest by Detroit police, were crowded into the narrative told to the police here today by Leo Gotch, who went under the alias of George Randall and R. H. Willis.

Gotch, who said he spent the milder months of the year in the north robbing homes, while the colder months were whittled away in the southwest recuperating from his northern activities, was arrested last night as he was creeping out of a rear window with a bag of jewelry which the police said were taken from the home of Charles L. Raymond.

Gotch directed the police to his room here where loot estimated to be worth about $10,000 was found.

WARN SENATE TO DISSOLVE AS GRAND JURY (Continued from Page One) been brought to Washington "in violation of the law."

He said that Mr. Hughes, an eminent lawyer and former supreme court justice, must have known that the law was violated, and declared that unless Attorney General Daugherty had "suspended" the criminal code, all of those who attended the exhibitions must be prosecuted for conspiracy.

Declaring that the president had contributed "not a word" to the senate's efforts to "drive the crooks" out of the government, Senator Hefflin renewed his demand that Mr. Daugherty be expelled from the cabinet and be asked to explain to the country, how Jess Smith obtained authority to exercise some of the important functions of the justice department.

Neither Senator Borah nor any other Republican made reply to those attacks. Instead the Idaho senator invited attention to what is going on outside Washington while the senate is investigating and debating, and called on the Republican leaders in particular to give more of their attention to pressing economic needs that affect wide sections of the country.

"Homes are being sold," he said, "business is embarrassed, and farms are passing from their owners because of taxes. Equally distressing is the agricultural problem. In one county in the northwest 6,000 items of property of farmers recently have been owned for sale."

While he did not oppose the pursuit of the pending investigations the Idaho senator went on, senators must realize that "the time is near at hand when we should dissolve ourselves as a grand jury," and resume the business of legislation. He asserted that at the present pace there scarcely would be time in the present session to consider adequately the necessary appropriation bills.

NEAR RIOT AT FINISH OF A FRENCH FIGHT

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, March 15.—A near riot developed tonight at a boxing show over the decision of the referee at the finish of a fifteen round bout between Fred Britton and Paul Fritsch, lightweights.

Previously 74 "Kid" Lewis had won the main bout of 15 rounds on points from Francis Charles Lewis displayed a shadow of his old time welterweight form.

Britton and Fritsch fought like wild cats throughout the entire fifteen rounds and both were on the verge of a knockout at the finish.

The bout was declared a draw and as soon as the announcer rendered the judges' decision, empty bottles, oranges, bananas and cans were flung from the second gallery into the ring at the referee. Many of the ring-side spectators were hit, but the referee escaped. One woman was struck on the forehead with a beer bottle and remained unconscious for several hours.

The police attempted to arrest the disturbers and a free for all fight developed. In the crush of panic stricken spectators who were struggling to reach the exits, many women were trampled. Several persons were arrested.

Frantz Reichel, secretary of the French boxing federation, announced that the federation would hold a special meeting tomorrow to consider the situation.

Bar Illinois Students From Campus Actions

(By The Associated Press.) Urbana, Ill., March 15.—Sixteen University of Illinois students were barred from campus activities because of membership in The Tau Nu Epsilon, secret political fraternity included in the list are E. M. Schwemm, president of the student council and athletic board of control and track manager, M. S. Angier, national javelin champion, as well as several other athletes and men engaged in student activities.

D. A. Fessenden, star quarter miler on the track team, Angier and M. K. Dubach, tennis champion last year, will be allowed to continue competition in athletics, but must resign campus offices.

The action was taken following an investigation by Thomas A. Clarke, dean of men. Dean Clarke has been leader in the fight on the organization by the National Inter-Fraternity Council. The present Illinois chapter sprang up after members of the old organization were forced to resign in 1921.

Syracuse Leads Bowling Tourney

(By The Associated Press.) Syracuse, N. Y., March 15.—Evans of the Syracuse University team shattered two intercollegiate bowling records today when Syracuse rolled 2,852 in a telegraphic match against DePue, newly admitted member of the league. Evans established a new high score for one game of 269 and three games record of 689. Syracuse is leading the intercollegiate league, having won all its matches.

WOULD AMEND ROAD PROGRAM

Several Counties Send Delegates to Lansing Meeting.

(By The Associated Press.)
Lansing, Mich., March 18.—Delegations from several counties appeared before the state administrative board seeking to write amendments into the recently adopted 1924 highway program. Spokesmen in some instances, asserted that other counties were given all the pavement, and expressed the feeling that they had been slighted. Governor Groesbeck explained that the board endeavored to map out a plan providing for the completion of important trunk line arteries, regardless of the allotment to counties.

Requests for eight miles of a non-trunk line road in Bay county, running east toward Unionville, 68 miles of concrete in North Branch, one mile in Menominee county, one mile on M-68 south of Iron Mountain near the Ford plant, and 2.5 miles on Rockland, were referred to the highway committee to be reported on next week.

The board authorized .9 of a mile of concrete in Ironwood and permitted Clare to build 1 1/4 miles on M-14, instead of 1 1/2 miles on M-20.

Bids for paving on M-16, between Detroit and Lansing were turned down. The average price in the bids was about $32,000 a mile, but the state will do the work itself, largely with prison labor. The law provides that bids must be asked for, even on work to be done by the state.

Deep Waterway Parley Set For Chicago, Apr. 20

Washington, March 18.—Governors of mid-western states have been asked to meet in Chicago Thursday with the St. Lawrence deeper waterways commission, appointed by President Coolidge and headed by Secretary Hoover and with executive members of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidelwater Association. Those attending will be asked to assist the commission to carry out the president's instructions that the project for an ocean canal via the St. Lawrence from the Great Lakes should be "thoroughly considered in its economic and national aspects."

States represented in the Tidelwater Association include Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Utah and Oregon. Governors of the states named are executive members of the association's executive committee.

OBITUARY

ELMER HORNEILL

MICHAEL SPIR

Michael Spir, 50 years of age, passed away at a local hospital yesterday. The cause of his death was given as cirrhosis of the liver. The body was taken to the Alto Funeral Home to be prepared for burial. Pending arrival of relatives no funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

BERNARD McMONAGLE

Bernard McMonagle, day old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMonagle, passed away yesterday morning. The body was prepared for burial at Alto's Funeral Home. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon, with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

JOHN ALBERT BURGESS

Funeral services for John Albert Burgess, crippled, who was found dead in the St. Clair hotel more than a week ago, will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning at the Anderson Undertaking parlors, Rev. H. W. Staver, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial will be made in Lakeview cemetery.

Since the discovery of the body, efforts have been made to locate relatives but it was not until Saturday that any were found. It was learned that a brother, Charles Burgess lived in Ewen, Mich., and he arrived in the city yesterday and completed arrangements for the funeral. The unfortunate man was 43 years of age and leaves two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Schario and Miss Eva May Strong, and a nephew, Ralph Finn, all of Muskegon, Mich.

FRENCH FRANC STILL RISING

New York, Mar. 18.—In its sensational recovery from a new low record for all time established ten days ago, the French franc today crossed five cents to a new high price for the year at 5.08 cents. The previous high level of 5.04 1/2 cents was reached on January 2. After that date, the franc declined almost steadily until March 8, when the climax of the foreign offensive against it forced the quotation down to 3.45 cents.

While official verification was lacking, it was reported in the financial district that the French government has as yet found it unnecessary to use any part of its $100,000,000 credit to bolster up the currency, the buying coming entirely from speculative and commercial interests.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT

"The French Doll," which is another way of saying Mae Murray, opened at the Delft Theatre last night to an audience that was highly appreciative and seemed to enjoy every bit of the picture. Mae Murray gives a sensitive interpretation of a role that has initial grace and charm.

"The French Doll" is a Metro picture presented by Robert Z. Leonard and sponsored by Tiffany Productions, of which Mr. Leonard is director general and M. H. Hoffman general manager. It will be shown at the Delft again today.

AT THE STRAND

An atmosphere little known to the world is shown in "Drifting," the Universal-Jewel special production which comes to the Strand theatre today with Priscilla Dean in the starring role.

"Drifting" is an adaptation of John Colton's stage play which was successfully produced by William A. Brady in New York. Alice Brady was the star of the stage piece.

Priscilla Dean has long been noted as an emotionalist of great sincerity, and it is a thing peculiar to her work that her roles always have what is professionally called "meat"—which is, in other words, human drama.

What Congress Did Yesterday

(By The Associated Press.)

The house passed the soldier bonus bill, 355 to 51.

The senate confirmed the nomination of Curtis D. Wilbur to be secretary of the navy.

The navy department announced a program of strict economy for future administration of naval oil lands.

Attorney General Daugherty issued another statement summing up his activities in the department of justice.

President Coolidge decided to ask the agricultural credit corporation to assist northwestern wheat growers to diversify their crops.

The department of agriculture said the agricultural outlook for this year indicated that farmers were undertaking a normal production program.

Arbitration treaties between the United States and sixteen other American nations were favorably reported by the senate foreign relations committee.

The senate approved a constitutional amendment which would have newly elected congresses and presidents take office in January following their election.

Oil, Daugherty and related subjects were debated in a senate flare-up with Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, sounding a warning against abandonment of executive duties for "grand jury" proceedings.

The senate oil committee went into details of transactions in oil stocks, obtaining from an expert accountant's reports of such by Attorney General Daugherty and members of the senate and house.

The Daugherty committee examined Will A. Orr, former private secretary to former Governor Whitman of New York, chiefly in relation to prize fight films, whiskey withdrawals, heard Stewart, a Texas attorney, who failed to prosecute lotteries, summoned Secretaries Mellon Weeks to inquire into the machinery of communicating confidential information between departments.

Why Is It?

WHY is there more argument about coffee than any other item of diet. Coffee has always needed defense—one of the few articles of diet that does.

No doubt exists about the fact that coffee contains caffeine, a drug which doctors prescribe as an emergency stimulant for the heart and nervous system; and many coffee drinkers know from experience that for them, coffee causes nervousness, headache or stomach trouble.

Since so many people, including health authorities, have reason to question coffee drinking, can you afford to risk your health with it—when you can have a safe mealtime drink, such as Postum?

You will like the delicious flavor of Postum. It fills every requirement of a hot drink; and many former coffee drinkers even prefer it to the best coffee.

With Postum as your mealtime beverage, your system free of caffeine, and your sleep sound and restful, you'll realize that Postum has established its genuine value in health and comfort.

Postum for Health

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in cans) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either form is about one-half cent a cup.

EDITORIAL

SOME "BEST MINDS."
 Marion Leroy Burton, president of the University of Michigan, has issued an ultimatum. Hundreds of serious minded men and mothers all over the world will agree with him and that he makes it stick. He is being sufficiently minded to support his position even though his verbal cascades of certain elements in student body hits very close home.

Burton has declared for a higher moral standard at the university. He has declared for the revival of some of the old-fashioned virtues which modern youth has so lightly and in such deep disdain.

He's as right as the pole.

Burton told 4,000 students in a few words, "You students are lazy," he said. "You loaf, you gamble, you waste week-ends in the big cities then you wonder why we don't want you here. We don't want you as fast as we find you."

We must have students who are serious. They must believe in hard work, plain decency, must respect themselves and be industrious.

It isn't so very many years ago that boys who had an opportunity to attend a great university knew enough to know that they owed only themselves and their parents a decent respect, but that the reputation of their college was something to be jealously guarded, something to be kept clean and unsullied, through diligent living and a very great desire to add to the good name of the college.

We suppose that if any of the gentlemen who heard Dr. Burton, were accused of being indolent, they would resent it by their bellicosity at every pore. And yet, in the final analysis, what are they doing but reaching into father's cash register and taking his money to spend idly, harmfully to themselves and without a chance of doing the name of their college a particle of good. They're not giving the gentleman a square deal, by any means, and yet the man who suggests that suggestion in person will encounter some physical force from these peppery-tempered, high strung, jazz-minded young burden bearers who will be crying for their share of the world's good things, whether they are equipped to bear their share of its burdens or not.

Nobody expects a college boy to be an old man, or deny himself any kind of clean, wholesome, healthful fun, but there is a point at which he is expected to be an example to his less fortunate brothers whose Dads can't afford to send them to college. He owes himself a decent respect, and because of his greater opportunities he bears correspondingly greater responsibilities.

Being good is such a lonesome job, but in actual practice, it really isn't difficult to be decent. Mental fifth breeds moral cholera and Dr. Burton seems to be taking measures to prevent an epidemic.

It is gratifying to know that such a man stands at the head of Michigan's great institution of learning. His utterance indicates a will to achieve and a disregard for whatever financial losses might follow his offending of the finer sensibilities of those whom the Burton shoe fits.

Blocker Bob LaFollette is so anxious to obtain a presidential nomination that he, apparently, doesn't care who gives it to him.

DICK COMPLIMENTS HIS MOTHER.
 Chapter IX.
 Rising half an hour earlier than usual, Beth combed her hair as she had the night before, usually she gave it a hard twist, and rushed out to get breakfast. She found a note of a delivery left from one of Mary's dresses and fished it out, tucking her dress away from her neck as she had with the tidy.

She felt her cheeks flushed as she heard the boys stirring, and it wasn't the heat of the stove that did it.

"Good morning, Mother. Why, Mother! How pretty you look!" And Dick, his eyes shining, kissed her. "I'd like to hear George Dowling say you looked old now! You are a great deal prettier than HIS mother."

"Am I, dear?" Beth's voice trembled. How pleased Dick was, and it had been such a little thing.

"I'll tell the world you are! Why if you had fine clothes like some women wear you'd beat them all! Wouldn't she Mary?" His sister stood staring in the doorway.

"What HAVE you done to yourself, Mother? You look like a young girl. Why don't you always comb your hair like that and wear white collars?"

"I will hereafter if you like me better this way."

"We couldn't LIKE you better, Mother," Dick broke in, "but we'd be awful PROUD of you."

"Doesn't mother look nice this morning, and hasn't she combed her hair pretty?" Mary asked her father as he appeared for his breakfast.

"Yes, mother always looks all right to me," he replied. "I'm a little late, Beth, give me my breakfast at once."

Dick refused wondering eyes to his father. How could he be so queer not to notice how pretty mother looked, and not to say anything about it? But Beth hadn't noticed. She was thinking that she never again would neglect her appearance. They hadn't been PROUD of her in spite of their love. How could they be, a dowdy old thing who hadn't taken time to comb her hair decently in years. Who wore old clothes, and LOOKED as old as the clothes. Somehow she would manage to get a new dress, and a hat, but—how was she to get at those things when it took every penny to live and dress the others?

For days she puzzled over the problem, taking more pains with her simple toilet each day. The desire to look young and attractive for her children had its effect, she WAS younger. The boys didn't tire of praising her, she had washed her hair and brushed it until it shone. They admired her constantly, and one day Dick made an excuse to bring George Dowling into the house. Dick was so self-conscious that Beth knew at once what his object was: he wanted to show her off. The knowledge flushed her pale cheeks, and she looked more like her 34 years than she had yet done. As the boys went out she heard George say:

"Your mother is real young isn't she, Dick? I thought she looked older than that."

"I told you she was only 34. Why shouldn't she look young?" Dick's voice swaggered a little.

Beth ran to the mirror. She

Fellowship of Prayer

DID look longer, but her cheeks were so flushed, that was it, flushing more as she looked, her eyes bright with pleasure.

George Dowling was one of the boys who was going to college. Beth forgot herself, and her brows knit as she thought of Dick. How he would love to go to college. Lately he had talked about what he wanted to be. A lawyer! He couldn't be a lawyer with only a high school education. Sent to work in a bank as soon as he had finished. Her heart ached for her boy, brilliant in his studies, so manly, so wonderful! What difference did it make if she had no clothes? If only she knew some way—any way—

Other women earned money. Could she get work now, after all the years even if Harter would let her? No one would even give her a trial now. And the little she could earn in an office—help was so dear now, even cleaning women got $4 a day. No, it was out of the question, she decided, yet she kept thinking—thinking.

In Beth's dreams Dick became a famous lawyer. But her waking hours were filled with anguish at his prospects. Harter had spoken on more than once lately of his size, that perhaps he could quit school without taking the last year; could go to work in the bank.

Tomorrow—Beth considers Ways of Earning Money.

Unsolved Radio Mysteries
 Radio presents more mysteries than any other science. Of these H. Gernsbach, noted science writer, points out four outstanding phenomena that are still unsolved.
 1. Fading—the dying out of a concert for no apparent reason.
 2. Dead Spots—areas in which certain transmitted signals cannot be heard.
 3. Crystal Records—records of 500 to 1000 miles in reception made by crystal sets which ordinarily cannot receive more than 25 miles.
 4. Body Capacity—referring to the effect a person's body has on the reception of a radio set when he is close to it.

KFLB, a radio broadcasting station located at Menominee broadcasts every Saturday night. Tune in and see if you can get them.

A Washington amateur has built a miniature crystal set small enough to place within a single radio head phone.

Great Britain has 580,000 broadcast listeners compared with 30,000 a year ago.

Political campaigners must pay $100 for every ten minutes of talking if they seek to use the microphone at WEA. New York.

Lowest priced receiving sets in Japan cost about $25 or $30.

Keep a "log" showing the points on all dials of any station you may get.

SOCIAL

Surprise Party.
 A company of friends very pleasantly surprised Mrs. Emma Powers Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Freeman, 113 North Eleventh street. The party was composed of members of the Ladies' societies of the Baptist church and the evening proved most enjoyable throughout. Mrs. Powers was presented with a handsome gift in the form of a memento of the occasion and delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Green Party.
 The members of the Nonpartisan Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Mike Green Sixth Ave. South Monday evening instead of Tuesday which is their regular meeting night.

The ladies planned on surprising Mrs. Green in turn surprised them by presenting them with green caps as they entered the home.

A pleasant evening was spent playing cards after which delicious refreshments were served. The favors were clay pipes tied with green ribbons and at each place was a small green tissue paper doll on which was placed a potato containing a candle and a bow of green ribbon was tied on the potato. A good time was had and all voted Mrs. Green a most charming hostess.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
 Baby Marcella Provo celebrated her first birthday anniversary when her parents Mr. and Mrs. Horace Provo entertained a number of little children in her honor.

A huge birthday cake with one little green candle formed the center piece of the table. Baby Marcella's birthday falls on March 16th and the St. Patrick's decoration were carried out throughout the home. The dining room was especially decorated for the occasion. All reported having a good time.

Take Tire Chains Off, Save Streets
 Police of the city were instructed yesterday by City Manager Fred R. Harris, to order motorists to remove tire chains from automobiles.

"The chains are necessary to the operation of an automobile when the pavements are covered with snow," Mr. Harris said later in explaining the order, "but the need for them in the city has now passed and on the bare pavements they are very injurious to the streets."

"I know of nothing that could be attached to the wheels of a motor vehicle that could cause so much harm to pavements, and I am sure the public will cooperate with us in our efforts to keep our streets in good condition."

In a century of time at New York and in 87 years at New Orleans, the yearly means of temperature have not varied more than five or six degrees.

Is Your Back Giving Out?

ARE you miserable with an aching back? Do you get up lame and stiff—lag through the day, tired, weak and worn out? Do you wonder why you are so run down? Many times this condition is due to weak kidneys. Winter colds and chills are hard on the kidneys. The kidneys are apt to slow up in their work of filtering body-poisons from the blood. These poisons accumulate. Then comes backache, with rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and kidney irregularities.

Don't risk serious kidney trouble! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They are recommended by many Escanaba people. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Escanaba Folks:

Henry Zeegers, 618 S. 16th St., says: "Mornings there was a dull pain across my back which seemed to hold me down when I attempted to get up from bed. When I bent sharp catches took me in my back and it was hard to work. Lack of sleep had me tired and weak. I had to get up often nights to pass the kidney secretions which burned and contained sediment. Doan's Pills from the West End Drug Store fixed me up in good shape."

Mrs. Alex L. Giroux, 300 North 14th St., says: "A severe cold settled in my kidneys and the misery I went through was awful. I couldn't get any rest at all through the night. My kidneys were disordered and I suffered such awful pains, my breath would be almost cut off. Lack of rest had me all tired out and I was weak, nervous, depressed and all run down. Doan's Pills from the City Drug Store cured me. I haven't been troubled in any way since."

Funeral Services For Mrs. Cingrang Largely Attended
 St. Joseph's Church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends Tuesday morning at nine o'clock when the last sad rites for Mrs. Margaret Cingrang were held. Rev. Fr. Bertrand Labinski O. F. M. was the celebrant at the requiem high mass. The choir rendered some beautiful music. During the offertory Frank Hinn sang "O Meritum Passionis."

Members of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters attended the funeral services in a body. Honorary pallbearers chosen from the ranks of the W. C. O. F. were Mesdames, Margeret Lemmer, L. Peller, Tom. Sauer, Wm. Petrie, Nick Wagner and John Stelmets.

The Honorary pallbearers chosen from the ranks of the Cora Five Ladies of The Macabees were Mesdames, Peter Hinn, Carl Norval, Adel Richter, Carl Richter, Herman Kamrath Sr., M. Steinke, Wm. Richer, and Robert Kamrath.

The casket was borne by close friends of the family, Messrs M. N. Smith, John Kahlow, John A. Semer, Mathew Sullivan, George Loughmane and Louis N. Schemmel.

A beautiful blanket of roses covered the casket and other beautiful floral pieces surrounded the casket at the home where the hundreds of friends called to pay their last respect to the good woman who had always been a sincere friend.

Monday evening the home was packed with friends who came to recite the rosary which was led by Rev. Fr. Bertrand Pastor of the parish of which she was a faithful member. So large was the crowd at the home that some of the friends knelt out on the porch.

A long cortege of cars filled with sorrowing friends accompanied the body to its last resting place in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery where her husband and two children are buried.

The out of town relatives who came here to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Plant and daughter Margaret of Wilmette Ill., Mr. John Klein, a brother of Rockton Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goplet of Aurora Ill., Mr. C. R. Plant of Ashland Wis.

Varnish that Protects the Floor, it Beautifies
 FLOORS need the protection of a varnish that will absorb the shocks of wear without breaking, without loss of beauty and without exposing the surface underneath to the destructive action of dirt and moisture.

Devoe's Floor Finish Varnish brushes out smoothly and develops a firm, tough body with a brilliant, durable gloss.

It is extremely elastic and thus retains its surface continuous and unbroken—preventing an air-tight seal against dust and moisture that would otherwise destroy the wood underneath.

If you have a single floor that lacks character and beauty don't let it go another day without Devoe's Floor Finish Varnish. Pale, clear, translucent... it gives quality with a glass-like smoothness.

Remember... the quality of the product determines the kind of a job you get.

Try This Way To Get Relief From Head Colds
 Nothing to Swallow—You Just Melt a Little in a Spoon and Breathe in the Healing Vapors.

To stop a head cold, try this simple, direct method. Melt a little Vicks in a spoon and inhale the penetrating vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Juniper Tar, etc. Also put a little up each nostril and sniff well back.

Another method is to heat a tin cup, put in a teaspoonful of Vicks and inhale the vapors that way. As fast as the vapors lose their strength, throw out the melted Vicks and add fresh.

Mothers prefer Vicks for their children because it avoids so much internal dosing. It can be used with perfect safety on the youngest child.

Increasing the Value of Telephone Service
 The Michigan Bell Telephone Company always is building—always expanding its service in order to efficiently serve the growing needs of Michigan.

Last year the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's expansion was one of the greatest in Michigan's telephone history—and that program is being continued.

108,984 miles of new telephone wires were installed during 1923; 98,501 miles to give additional local service; 10,483 miles of toll and long distance wires.

1,110,369 miles of wire now connect the telephones of this Company's subscribers.

96,805 new telephones were connected with the switchboards of this Company, for a net gain of 36,117, during 1923; 49,686 were added through the purchase of another company, both factors greatly increasing the value of the service to every telephone user in Michigan.

More than 437,000 telephones are served by this Company over its own switchboards; its connecting companies in Michigan serve 112,049 more; 14,000,000 others can be reached elsewhere in the country. $10,320,380 represents the total increase of telephone plant made by this Company in Michigan last year.

And an organization of 10,279 loyal telephone workers now serves Michigan. It is their unanimous desire to give the people of our state the highest possible grade of telephone service.

WANTS REMEDY OF CONDITION ON EAST ROAD

Civic Club Submits Suggestion to State Highway Department.

A resolution calling the attention of the state highway commission to conditions existing on the Manistique east road during the spring high water period was drafted at the Manistique Civic Club meeting on Monday, and the resolution was immediately wired to the highway department at Lansing.

Every year the spring flood water covers the section of road between the Tannery Houses and Soo Line tracks on the east road, during the flood water stage. Such water does much damage to the roadbed, and also blocks all traffic east for a period of several days each year.

It is the belief of the club that this condition is remediable, and should be taken care of as soon as possible by being included on the state highway construction program. This suggestion was made in the resolution sent to the state road board, Monday afternoon.

Firpo Spills Pugilism Plans

QUITTING RING WOULD GREATLY ALTER PROGRAM

American Sports Are Inclined To Be Skeptical.

(By The Associated Press.)
Buenos Aires, Mar. 18.—Notwithstanding that scores of Luis Firpo's friends and admirers sought throughout the day to persuade him to change his mind, the South American heavyweight declared to The Associated Press correspondent tonight that he intended to stand fast by his resolution to abandon fighting altogether.

New York, Mar. 18.—Luis Angel Firpo's announcement that he would retire from the ring after fighting Al Rich, an American at Buenos Aires next month came as something of a bombshell today in pugilistic circles where its effect on the year's festive program was the chief topic.

William McNarney, Firpo's American representative, who arranged an extended exhibition and fighting tour of the United States and Canada during the summer, late today had received no direct word from Firpo and was holding his program in abeyance until receipt of advice from the South American.

Max Rickard, under whose guidance the colorful South American climbed spectacularly in six months from obscurity to a record-breaking title fight with Jack Dempsey, was in Washington and his associates would make no comment.

Noted Athlete Passes Away At Home In East

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Mar. 18.—Elwood S. Brown, vice president and executive officer of the National Amateur Athletic Federation, who has been active for years in the development of physical education and athletics, particularly in the Far East and South America, died today at an Englewood, N. J., hospital.

Mr. Brown suffered a heart attack two weeks ago after a game of handball. He apparently was recovering when a blood clot developed in his left leg, necessitating an amputation, the effects of which he did not survive.

Akron Team In Third Position

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Mar. 12.—Today's bowling events were featured by the scores of Smallwood and Fletcher, Akron, O., who hit 1,279 for third position in the doubles. Their team scores were 455-438-453. Grossman and Cook rolled 1,277 for seventh place. Team scores were 474-419-384.

Soo Greyhounds Beat Hamilton

(By The Associated Press.)
Toronto, Ont., March 18.—The Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds, champions of the Northern Ontario Hockey Association, tonight defeated Hamilton Tigers, winners of the Ontario Hockey Association, 8 to 3, and won the round, 9 to 6. The Greyhounds will play the Sons of Ireland, Quebec City, in the Allen cup semi-final.

GOLF HAS ITS FREAK QUOTA

Baseball Not Only Game In Which Unusual Situations Arise.

BY BILLY EVANS
Baseball creates more unusual situations than any other sport. Yet some freak happenings are credited to the good old game of golf.

James Ockenden, the famous English golfer, in discussing freak happenings of the links, tells of the most unusual spoon shot on record.

Ockenden did not perform the shot himself, the credit for it, if any exists, goes to the great French golfer, Audrey Boomer. Hold Record "Low" Aside from the record spoon shot that Ockenden saw Boomer make, he is also credited with having negotiated 72 holes in 226, the lowest score ever made for that distance.

ACCORDING to Ockenden, Boomer thinks less of his record round than a freak spoon shot he made during the Daily Mail Thousand Guinea tournament at Lancharise last summer. On one hole Boomer, after a long drive, found his ball lying in front of an abrupt bank about two feet high over which he had to shoot.

The distance to the bank was only a few yards. Boomer wanted to get distance to reach the green and decided he could clear the obstruction with his spoon. Taking a tremendous swing he cut into the ball. There was a sharp crack that usually goes with a well hit ball. Eyes turned down the fairway but the ball was nowhere in sight.

A search of the neighboring rough failed to disclose it. Then a boy in the gallery, perhaps more in jest than anything else, told Boomer to look into the pocket of a sweater he was wearing.

Boomer did so, and to his great amazement discovered the lost ball in his sweater pocket. It had caromed off the dirt bank into the sweater pocket. Boomer's arms at the time being raised high above his shoulders in the "follow through."

No doubt many golf fans, and others who have never been on the links, read Ockenden's story, merely smiled and remarked "more hot air."

On the surface it may seem like an impossibility for a good golfer to play such a freak shot. Yet such a thing can happen. Such an incident came under my own observation I was one of the foursome playing at the time.

STEEL LEGION DRIVES OCONTO AT TOP SPEED

Loses Hot Game By Narrow Margin of Two Points

Manistique, Mich., March 18.—(Special)—The Manistique Legion basketball team suffered its second defeat of the season here tonight, by dropping tonight's game to the Oconto Legionaires by a margin of one basket, the final count standing 21 to 19 in favor of the visitors.

The locals gained a lead in the first half and by the time the second period ended was two baskets to the good, the score being 16 to 12. In the last half, however, Oconto came from behind and took the lead, the score standing 21 to 19 when the final whistle sounded.

The Oconto Legion squad depended in a large measure on long shots and did not show the brilliant passing that featured the play of the Waupaca team, which team appeared here some time ago.

HERE'S SPIRIT OF RIGHT SORT

Gladstone School Officials Appreciate Escanaba's Support.

Gladstone, March 18.—Rivalry between the Escanaba and Gladstone high schools is intense but friendly. That fact was proven at the upper peninsula basketball tournament at Marquette last week when members of the Escanaba team were among the most enthusiastic rooters for the Gladstone quintet in tournament play.

Principal Strickland and Coach Gordon of Gladstone high school yesterday expressed their pleasure at the spirit shown by the Escanaba boys.

BEAR RAIDERS DEPRESS PRICE

Hammer Various Issues But Recovery Is Shown At The Close.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Mar. 18.—Reactionary price tendencies prevailed throughout the greater part of today's stock market while bear raiders pressed their advantage, although a byrsk recovery was under way at the close. Pessimistic speculative sentiment was engendered by the adoption of the soldier bonus bill, lack of effective buying support by divergent financial interests, extension of the oil and Daugherty inquiries by the summoning of additional cabinet officers as witnesses and the reduction in sugar and other commodity prices.

Operators on the long side provided only limited support for their favorites, despite a further rally in the French franc to above five cents which was influenced by the French senate's adoption of the Poincare fiscal program and the lowest renewal rate for call money since January 5, 1923. While selling pressure was said to have originated largely with professional traders, some closing out of weakened marginal accounts was reported as a result of margin calls sent out last night.

Several Issues Respond.—Selling pressure was most effective in the motor, steel, rubber and tobacco shares. More than two score issues touched new low prices for the year, including Chandler at 54, Willys-Overland preferred at 78 1/2, Crucible Steel at 55 1/2, Gulf States steel at 79 1/2, Tannock Products at 55 1/2 and American Sumatra Tobacco preferred at 45 1/2, the last named closing at the bottom for most of the nearly 8 points but a part of others making substantial recovery from their low prices of the day.

Rail shares continued to offer stubborn resistance to pressure. Norfolk and Western closed 2 points higher at 121 1/2 and Chesapeake and Ohio and Erie first preferred improved fractionally on accumulation attributed to banking interests.

General Electric Situation.—General Electric was one of the individual features, jumping more than 8 points to 223 1/2, a new high price since 1902. U. S. Steel Common fluctuated within a range of 1 point, closing at 101 1/4 for a net gain of 4. Establishment of a new high for the year by Interborough Rapid Transit voting trust certificates at 24 1/2 reflected the resumption of Manhattan dividend rental payments. United States Rubber common established a new 1924 low.

Call money opened at 3 1/2 per cent and then dropped back to 3 1/4. The time money market continued easy, a few sixty day loans being reported at 4 1/2 per cent. The commercial paper rates were unchanged, prime names commanding 4 1/2 per cent. Foreign exchange rates moved irregularly higher. Demand sterling which has been heavy for several days, climbed nearly a cent to around $4.29.

CHICAGO GRAIN.—Chicago, March 18.—Influenced by favorable crop conditions and by downturns in New York stock and cotton quotations, the wheat market underwent a decline today to last week's lowest level. Closing prices were unsettled at 1/2 to 3/8 to 1/2 down with May 1.05 5/8 to 1.06 5/8 at 5 1/2 and July 1.06 1/4. Corn lost 1/8 to 5/8 at 1 1/2 and oats 1/8 to 1/4. In provisions the finish varied from 1/2 decline to 1/2 gain.

Selling from houses with eastern connections put pressure on the wheat market for the greater part of the day. Part of this selling was ascribed to reports that snowfalls over a wide territory had the outlook for winter wheat nearly ideal, especially in the southeast. Wheat scored a little recovery in the final half hour, pit traders correctly anticipating that the government after the close would show a decided reduction in the probable acreage of spring wheat this season.

Speculative selling as well as sympathy with what weakness had a depressing effect on the corn market. Oats were eased by forecasts of better weather for seeding. Provisions averaged a little higher in respect to an upturn in hog values.

KNOW ROAD PROGRAM SOON

Details Will Be Given Out Following Meeting At Menominee.

Details of the state's highway program as it affects Delta county will be made known here next Thursday, upon the return of R. Mason, county highway engineer, from the annual convention of the Upper Peninsula Road Builders' association, to be held at Menominee Thursday and Friday.

SOCIAL

"Golden Apple" Party.
The feature scheduled for Thursday night at the Coliseum rink is known as a "Golden Apple" Party. Each patron is presented with an apple, wrapped in paper and one of these apples will be found to contain a gold prize. This is one of the most expensive features the rink management puts on and it is expected that the usual big crowd will be out Thursday night.

There will be the usual matinee Thursday afternoon. Attendance at the rink is said to be unusual for the mild weather and the features which the management is offering every night of skating, are proving most popular.

Washington P. T. A. Meets.
The Washington School Parents-Teachers' Association will hold a business meeting on Thursday afternoon at 3:45 in the kindergarten building. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

HOW NATURAL!
Chicago — Chicago ministers complained that Voliva was broadcasting unseemly language over the radio. As a consequence, nearly every station from Singapore to Zanzibar is expected to tune in on the turbulent wave from Zion City.

GIRL SCOUTS IN GYPSY FESTIVAL

Bark River Troop Has Fine St. Patrick's Day Party.

The Girl Scouts of Bark River save an entertainment St. Patrick's Day evening. An old English ballad: "Oh No, John," was sung by Anna Kapohn and Frances Gagnon. All the Scouts took part in a play "The Gypsy Festival." The leading parts were taken by Iona Bergman; the Queen, Irene French; Gypsy Jane, and The Yankee Traveller, a character part, was played exceptionally well by Stella Bergman. After the play, a hand-made quilt made by the Girl Scouts was raffled. The entertainment was good and gave the Scouts a fund of about $70.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.
Information regarding the Girl Scout National Convention to be held in Chicago has been received at the local Scout office. Preceding the National Convention a training course for home, business, and college women who wish to become Girl Scout leaders will be held from April 22 to April 28. The convention will open on the 25th of April and continue to May 4. Officials of the Girl Scout organization and eminent educational authorities will speak at the convention.

Mrs. Juliette Low, founder and first president of the Girl Scouts, will be one of the chief speakers. Mrs. Herbert Hoover, president, and Mrs. Jane Deeter Rippin, national director and one of the foremost authorities on the modern girl, will talk. Others include: Mrs. James J. Storrow, of Boston; Mrs. Lyman Delano, New York; Dean Sarah Louise Arnold, Simmons College; Mrs. William Hoffman, Providence, R. I.; Mrs. Frederick Edey, New York; Mrs. Nicholas Brady, New York; Mrs. Arthur O. Choate, New York; Mrs. Helen Scudder, Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. Giles Whiting, New York.

MARCH'S CHANGEABLE WEATHER.

One may expect many changes in weather in March, and should be prepared for coughs and colds. The slight cold, if neglected, may develop into a serious illness. With the first sign of a cough or cold take FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND, the old reliable family cough remedy, excellent for coughs, colds, hoarseness, John R. Lyons, Prescott, Arizona, states: "I had a bad cough, used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND and it relieved me in a little while." Sold everywhere. Mar.-Wed. Fri.-Sun.—Adv.

ANOTHER LINK IN SMOTHERING OF MEX REVOLT

Federals Cleaning Up Tehuantepec Isthmus

(By The Associated Press.)
Mexico City, March 18.—The arrival at Santa Luceria of General Francisco Serrano with a column of 6,000 federal troops, together with the reoccupation of Acapulco and advances upon Caxaca and southward from Tiera Blanca, presages, according to reports given out by the war department, the speedy suffocation of the revolution in the states included in the Tehuantepec isthmus.

Acapulco was recaptured from a small force of revolutionaries without resistance Sunday by a column under General Rafael Sanchez, it is reported in official dispatches.

Special dispatches from Iguala report that Generals Romulo Figueroa, Amador Acevedo and Crispin are advancing against Guerrero, offering unconditional surrender.

The states of Guerrero, Michoacan and Jalisco are considered by the war department as pacified, despite possible activities by Generals Enrique Estrada and Manuel Dieguez. The whereabouts of Estrada, who led the Jalisco revolt, is not known, although he was last reported in the vicinity of Coliman, state of Colima, with a few followers. Dieguez seemingly is delaying submission, since the emissary he sent to Mexico City for the purpose of arranging terms of surrender has disappeared. It is generally believed that the Dieguez peace negotiations were a ruse to gain time.

General Roberto Cruz, together with General Marcel Caraveo, commanding the Guerrero rebels, has been ordered to proceed with the extermination of the Guerrero rebels. General Cruz' forces have occupied Iguala, the principal city of the state.

BINGHAM GIVES GREAT PROGRAM

Lyceum Entertainer Delights Large Audience At High School.

A pleasing voice, a piano, a violin, a torrent of humor and a world of personality, made up the "props" and the "script" of the evening's entertainment which Ralph Bingham gave a large crowd in the high school auditorium last night.

Mr. Bingham's appearance here was under auspices of the Escanaba Community Educational Bureau, and was a part of the regular annual lyceum course. It was received with an enthusiasm few entertainers and humorists have aroused with local lyceum audiences.

Guest of Rotary.
It was brimming full of originality and variety, it combined all of the elements vital to clean and wholesome fun, and it left the audience in a joyous mood. Those who heard it hope that Mr. Bingham will return to Escanaba on some future course of the bureau.

Mr. Bingham is remaining in Escanaba today and will be a guest of the local Rotary club at luncheon today.

SECRET OF KEEPING YOUNG

Why is it that some women look older at thirty-five than others do at fifty? Why is it that so many women are always run-down, weak, pale, nervous, irritable and unhappy? Health, vitality and freedom from pain and disease alone can prevent the signs of age from fastening themselves upon women. All over this country women are awakening to the fact that the ills, aches and pains of women may be relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the result is renewed life, energy and the glow of health. In fact the secret of keeping young is to ward off all internal ailments that cause premature old age, which is easily accomplished by this remarkable root and herb remedy. Adv.

CITY REBUILDS ALLEY WIRING

Will Increase Efficiency And Reduce Waste In Business Area.

Work of reconstructing the wiring in the alley between Ludington street and South 1st ave., was commenced yesterday by municipal lighting plant crews. The wiring in this alley, supplies much of the business district with current, and it has been too small to give efficient service. The larger wires will not only increase the capacity of the system, it was explained, but will cut down line losses and insure the regularity of the power transmitted.

It was pointed-out that until the last three or four years, virtually all of the secondary wiring in the city was No. 10 wire. At present it is virtually all No. 4 to No. 6 wire and considerable No. 2 wire is being strung.

Get Early Start.
The early spring weather will give the plant workers a chance to complete much repair work early in the summer, and get an earlier start on the new boulevard lighting program than was anticipated.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS
Sir Lomer Gouin, late Minister of Justice in the Canadian Government, born at Grandines, Que., 63 years ago today.

William J. Bryan, three times the Democratic nominee for President of the United States, born at Salem, Ill., 64 years ago today.

Dr. David Todd, eminent astronomer, who recently reported the discovery of a new sun spot, born at Lake Ridge, N. Y., 69 years ago today.

Alice French ("Octave Thanet"), celebrated author, born at Andover, Mass., 74 years ago today.

OPERA STARS STRIKE.
Bucharest, Rumania — The leading artists of the Rumanian opera have gone on strike because of the government's decision to end state control and hand the opera over to private enterprises with reduced government subsidy.

NEW POWDER FROM ITALY MAKES RHEUMATIC PAINS GO QUICKLY

No Medicines to Take Internally. A Startling New Method of Treatment.

The well-known Italian physician, Alessandro Volta, for whom the electric volt has been named, has made a scientific discovery that promises to make rheumatic pain a thing of the past for the thousands who have suffered its terrible tortures. He compounded a powder called Volta that is claimed to be a powerful and active Uric Acid solvent. It is not taken internally, but is shaken into the shoes or stockings and is absorbed through the pores in the soles of the feet. It is intended to be absorbed almost immediately into the blood, and this is due, no doubt, to the fact that the soles of the feet contain over ten times the number of pores to the square inch as does any other part of the body.

So remarkable and rapid have been the results from the use of Volta powder, both in this country and in Italy, that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense Volta with an unqualified guarantee of relief from the use of the very first package or your money will be refunded.

If you suffer from Rheumatic pains, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout or Neuralgia, you owe it to yourself to try this remarkable new scientific treatment. It is absolutely harmless and will not cost one cent if you do not receive wonderful relief.

TRAFFIC OFFICER TELLS INTIMATE DETAILS

Officer Hinkle Says It's Easy to Smile When One's Health Is Good—Gives Tanlac Credit for Recovery.

Few cities can boast of a more wide-awake and efficient traffic officer than Clarence D. Hinkle, 1345 Fleming St., Philadelphia, Pa., who has been a member of the Philadelphia Police Department for ten years and who handles the traffic at Fourth and Market Streets, one of the city's busiest corners.

"It is no easy thing," said Officer Hinkle, recently, "to serve the public with a smile when you are suffering the pangs of indigestion as I have done during the past year. Not only that, my appetite was lagging, I had frequent spells of nervousness and couldn't sleep right, and it kept me on my P's and Q's to look after my duties around the traffic zone."

"But since I have taken Tanlac, my stomach and nerves are strong and normal and I eat, sleep and feel so good that my work is a genuine pleasure." Tanlac is for sale by all good
