YANKEE IDEA IS A TRIUMPH IN DIPLOMACY

HUGHES JUST LETS POINCARRE HAVE IT TO USE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press.) Washington, April 21.—The triumph of an idea, obscured for a time and even seemingly defeated, but a triumph in the end—thus does the diplomatic world size up the remarkable formula for the solution of the six year old reparations controversy drafted by the Dawes-Young commission and now accepted by Germany as well as the allied powers.

Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes sponsored the idea, fought long and valiant diplomatic battles with Premier Poincarre, and finally won out by the simple process of awarding to the French premier the opportunity to make the American idea his own. The inside history of the moves which have led to the happy solution now in prospect which is filling the world again with optimism can be revealed now as an enlightening chapter in the foreign policy of the United States.

Seek Aid in Vain. Great Britain sought American aid in vain. Finally through diplomatic influence, the reparations commission was prevailed upon to invite bankers and financiers to act as an advisory committee in finding a practicable solution. J. P. Morgan was invited to sit on such a committee.

Final Vote On Bill Sought For By This Evening.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, April 21.—A showdown on the proposal for a cash option in the pending straight insurance soldier bonus bill was demanded in the senate, today by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, after his party leaders earlier in the day had formally withdrawn such a substitute measure.

Agreement was reached to vote on the cash option proposal tomorrow afternoon and Senator Curtis, Republican, Kansas, in charge of the measure, added he would seek a final vote on the bonus bill by tomorrow night.

After Cash Option. Senator Copeland offered the cash option amendment which was drawn up by the minority members of the finance committee and which Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, its author, just previously had announced would not be pressed.

When Senators Copeland, Dill, Democrat, Washington, and Norris, Republican, Nebraska, earlier had requested Mr. Walsh to put the proposal forward now "and let the blame for its defeat fall where it may," the Massachusetts senator was defended in his course by Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democratic leader.

The pending insurance bill has received the endorsement of the American Legion and Commander Quinn last Saturday sent each senator a message urging that an attempt be made to amend it in view of this. Republican leaders were confident tonight that the cash option would not be voted in, pointing out that advocates of the pending measure would be joined probably by all opponents of a bonus bill.

Talk Of Veto. Senator Norris said a cash and insurance bill could be passed over a presidential veto in the house and that while he has made no poll, he believed there was good chance to obtain enough votes for this also in the senate.

Senator Walsh said the open declarations of Senators Watson, Indiana, Lodge, Massachusetts, Curtis, Kansas, and Willis, Ohio, Republicans, that they would vote to sustain a presidential veto of such a bill would vote to override a veto of the straight insurance measure showed that it would be impossible for a cash and insurance measure to become law now. He thought it wise, therefore, he said, to first get a bonus law and then seek to amend it.

Same As Vetoed Bill. Defending the pending bill in the face of the attacks by Democrats, favoring a cash payment option, Senator Curtis pointed out the measure was practically the same as that two of the four options were eliminated.

The proposal offered by Senator Copeland and provides for issuance of $1,500,000,000 in additional second liberty loan bonds to provide funds for payment of the cash to those choosing it. Such payments would not be made until nine months after enactment of the bill into law.

Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, again asked Republicans to determine the attitude of President Coolidge on the pending measure, asserting that if the president was intending to sign the straight insurance proposition and veto a cash and insurance bill, the senate ought to know it.

Senator Walsh insisted that "rumors" that the president would sign the pending measure must be "groundless" in the light of the statement a his message to congress that he did not favor a bonus.

MAGNIFICENT DISPLAYS ARE NOW ASSURED

GIGANTIC COMMUNITY SALE WILL BEGIN WEDNESDAY.

Today marks the opening of the second annual Auto-Radio show at the Coliseum Rink, in connection with the greatest Community sale ever undertaken by the merchants of Escanaba, the sale opening Wednesday and continuing over Thursday and Friday.

While today will, to some extent, be something like the first day of the county fair, in that displays will be in process of being moved in and located, the various committees will have everything ready for the handling of a crowd this afternoon and assurance is given that the evening program will be carried out on schedule time.

Space for displays was taken long ago and it is indicated that the marvelous amount of radio equipment shown this year will be more than a surprise to the attendants, while all of the latest models of the many cars handled in this section of the state will be on display in booths made most attractive by the decorative skill of the men who have long made this a business.

Scores of Novelties. In addition to the many exhibits, will be scores of novelties and what will make the displays so attractive this year is the fact that the committee is following out a general plan in which all exhibitors are cooperating, rather than leaving each individual exhibitor to carry out his own ideas without reference to the remainder of the exhibit.

During one brief dip into the situation surrounding the Montana indictment of Senator Wheeler, its "prosecutor," the committee was told by Robert S. Glenn of Nashville, Tenn., that a justice agent had asked him for facts as to Wheeler last March, and had endeavored to induce him to arrange a personal conference between the senator and Mr. Daugherty. "To call Wheeler off of Daugherty."

Complain of Delay. Chairman Thompson's testimony first dealt with conditions in the tobacco industry during 1920 and ensuing years. The commission had recommended to Mr. Daugherty that criminal prosecutions be instituted, on the ground that combinations existed both to hold up prices of manufactured tobacco to consumers, and to hold down prices of the raw material from farmers. It was ten months before the commission could get an answer from Mr. Daugherty, the witness said.

J. E. Wilkins, prison guard and school superintendent at Atlanta until April 16, when he was suspended, was then heard and touched on drug trafficking in the institution. George Remus, an Ohio bootlegger, Wilkins said, had a private room and bath at the prison and along with two or three other wealthy inmates was given special dining room service and comforts designed to alleviate the monotony. He said it was the impression that they were given consideration because they had money, but he did not know to whom the funds so supplied may have gone.

Adjournment was taken at the call of the chairman. College Fire Costs $200,000 (By The Associated Press.) Wilmore, Ky., April 21.—Mary Crawford Hall and Glide Hall, dormitories for girls, and the power plant of Ashbury College, were destroyed by fire here today with an estimated loss of $200,000.

Arrival of a fire engine from Lexington, 25 miles away, saved other college buildings from destruction. Three deep wells on the college campus provided an available water supply and within a couple of hours after the arrival of the Lexington engine, the fire was under control.

Prohibit Import Of Crude Opium (By The Associated Press.) Washington, April 21.—Without debate the house tonight adopted and sent to the senate a resolution which would prohibit importation of crude opium to be used in the manufacture of heroin.

Discharged Clerk Heard By Senate Daugherty Committee. (By The Associated Press.) Washington, April 21.—Allegations of liquor disappearance at the department of justice, of defaults in anti-trust law prosecutions, and of privileges extended to "millionaire" convicts at Atlanta federal penitentiary were made today before the senate Daugherty investigating committee.

Speaker Gillett of the house was allowed to open the hearing by entering an emphatic denial that any of the liquor seized by the department ever reached him, and Chairman Houston Thompson of the federal trade commission, who will be heard to a greater extent later, began an account of that body's endeavor to induce the department of justice under Attorney General Daugherty to institute criminal proceedings under the anti-trust law.

CLAIMS BEST SEIZED BOOZE WAS HELD OUT

Discharged Clerk Heard By Senate Daugherty Committee.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, April 21.—Allegations of liquor disappearance at the department of justice, of defaults in anti-trust law prosecutions, and of privileges extended to "millionaire" convicts at Atlanta federal penitentiary were made today before the senate Daugherty investigating committee.

Speaker Gillett of the house was allowed to open the hearing by entering an emphatic denial that any of the liquor seized by the department ever reached him, and Chairman Houston Thompson of the federal trade commission, who will be heard to a greater extent later, began an account of that body's endeavor to induce the department of justice under Attorney General Daugherty to institute criminal proceedings under the anti-trust law.

Private Stock. F. M. Boucher, a clerk dismissed by W. J. Burns from the bureau of investigation of the department of justice in 1921, said officials in the department had been accustomed to keep good liquor from seizures in their offices, for dispensing to friends, while Alonzo E. Bunch, who got a court order for the restoration of over 100 cases of whiskey, told a story of long and fruitless efforts to get it back, and asserted that it had all been "drunk up."

E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, got some of it. Bunch insisted, on the word of a man who hauled it away from department of justice storerooms.

MORE TOURISTS HELD IN DESERT

Militiamen Still Patrol Colorado River Bridge.

(By The Associated Press.) Yuma, Ariz., April 21.—The stranded tourists' camp at Knob Siding, 14 miles west of here, which was broken up Saturday and Sunday when Arizona temporarily lifted the barrier it had established against east-bound motor travel as a result of the foot and mouth epidemic in California, began to grow again today.

Today's arrivals appeared to have come prepared for several days' seige on the desert. In Yuma, the only outward appearance of the border blockade were evidenced in militiamen still patrolling the state bridge across the Colorado river.

A statement purposed to have been made today at Phoenix by Indian Agent L. L. Odie that department of justice agents were in charge of the border situation, was discredited here tonight by the fact that there were no department of justice agents here, the only two who were sent to investigate conditions having left for San Diego, Calif., Sunday night.

Detroit Mayor To Veto Raise In All Salaries

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, April 21.—A five per cent salary increase for all city employees, voted by the common council when it reviewed the new city budget, will be vetoed by Acting Mayor Joseph A. Martin in a letter to the common council Tuesday night. Other items approved by the council and which will be vetoed by Martin will lower the sum to be raised by taxation to such an extent that the city is assured of a tax rate of approximately $21.63 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, as against last year's rate of $22.46. Seven of the eight members of the council will have to vote against Martin to override his veto.

Johnson Carried But Two Counties

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., April 21.—Wayne county supplied more than one-fifth of the total vote cast at the presidential primary this month. It was shown today as the secretary of state's office neared completion of the tabulation of the vote polled in the state.

All the 83 counties had reported today, with the exception of Wexford. The vote this year was particularly light. In the 1920 presidential primary there were 409,157 Republican votes and 88,494 Democratic, a total of nearly 500,000. The vote this year will run about 375,000 Republican and approximately 32,000 Democratic.

Bay and Dickinson were the only two counties carried by Hiram Johnson.

BANK BANDITS FIRE ON GIRL GIVING ALARM

GET AWAY WITH $4000 IN DETROIT BRANCH INSTITUTION.

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, April 21.—Julia Stolpa narrowly escaped a bullet today which one of four robbers fired at her during a robbery of the Bank of Detroit's Chene Street branch. A few minutes after the men escaped with more than $4,000 from the bank, Fred R. Waldron, cashier of the Red Top Taxicab Company was robbed of $2,000 by five men.

Miss Stolpa, a bookkeeper at the bank, dropped her hands in astonishment when four armed men entered the branch bank. One of them advanced to her window with a command to "stick 'em up." She backed away from the window toward a rear wall and he vaulted a low railing into the manager's office following her.

Fire Through Glass. After she had backed away about six feet, the bandit warned her not to touch the button that would sound an alarm at headquarters.

"I'll pay you for touching that button," the robber said, and fired through a glass partition directly at the girl. She dropped unconscious, although the bullet had not touched her. The other three men leaped over the seven foot partition, covering Bronislaw Chmielewski, the manager, and Ralph Butnick, the teller, with their pistols and one shot gun.

Waldron, cashier of a taxicab company, was driving with Dick Ringo, when a touring car crowded him to the curb. Five armed men ordered him to hand over the money he had. While he held his hands in the air, one of the men took the satchel, and warning Waldron not to follow them, drove away.

Shortly after the bank robbery, police arrested Alexander (Lefty) Zytowski, 26 years old, at his home. He had his clothes off and told the officers he had been in the house all day. Then they arrested Leo Grzeskowiak, 26 years old. He was in a Russian Street coffee house. Both men are held for investigation.

THAW CASE GOES TO JURY TODAY

(By The Associated Press.) Philadelphia, April 21.—Whether Harry K. Thaw is sane or a lunatic will be decided by a jury here tomorrow, testimony in his trial and the addresses of opposing counsel having been virtually completed today before Judge John Monaghan.

"I'll be free tomorrow" was Thaw's confident assertion to his counsel as court adjourned. Admission by two alienists, called to the stand by counsel opposing his release, that during Thaw's confinement at the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases, he had shown no indications of insanity, was taken by his lawyers as a strong point in their client's favor although both alienists stated he was suffering from "moral insanity."

During today's proceedings Thaw evinced active interest, making numerous remarks to his attorneys. Former Judge John M. Patterson, chief counsel for Thaw, in his address to the jury, attacked the opposition for their failure to cross examine Thaw when he was on the stand, asserting that had they done so, "the result would have thrown their case out of court."

Neither Mrs. Mary C. Thaw, 82 year old mother of the slayer of Stanford White, nor Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, appeared on the witness stand.

Mexico City Is Rocked By An Earthquake

(By The Associated Press.) Mexico City, April 21.—A severe earthquake shock, lasting for one minute and 20 seconds, rocked Mexico City and the adjacent region of Mexico, shortly after one o'clock this afternoon. Slight material damage was reported from various points affected by the tremor.

There was no confirmation on reports that there had been loss of life.

BABE'S DEATH LEADS TO THE GIRL'S ARREST

MEETS ARMED OFFICERS WITH GUN IN HER HAND.

(By The Associated Press.) Jacksonville, Fla., April 21.—Celia Cooney, 20 years, snatched a demure good-bye she boarded a train here today for New York in custody of two detectives to charges there of high robbery and assault with intent to kill in connection with a long series of daring heists credited to "the bobbed hair girl bandit."

Her husband, Edward Cooney, also charged with the hold-up and shooting, was visibly shaken as he began the trip back to New York.

The couple make no attempt to fight extradition and Cooney expressed extreme indignation to return to New York.

Mrs. Cooney maintained alternate air of calm indifference and vivaciousness when she displayed from the time her arrest early this morning when she greeted the leveled volvers of the police with a gun and an automatic pistol.

"I won't shoot if you won't," she offered when the police broke in the door of the room which they were staying, and threatened gun fight was averted. She persuaded her husband she told police, not to shoot when the officers entered the room. Cooney, who faced police with a revolver in hand, wanted to kill her and commit suicide, rather than be captured. Mrs. Cooney told Detective F. S. Gray of the New York department. She made a promise not to open fire and forget the suicide pact idea.

Cooney, according to Detective Gray, confessed to taking part in a number of New York holdups credited to the couple.

Death Leads To Capture. It was the birth and subsequent death of their child which led to the apprehension of Cooneys. The child, a girl, born here on April 11, was eight days later. It was just ten days after the holding of the National Biscuit Company plant on April first, which Cooney said was her twentieth birthday.

The trail led through states, according to Detective Gray and William G. Casey New York. Upon arrival here last night, the detectives with the aid of Jacksonville police, they traced the couple from one rooming house to another without results. It was through the undertaker who had charge of the funeral arrangements of the child, that their address was obtained.

New York police say they obtained the "tip" that the Cooneys were in Jacksonville through a message for money that Cooney was said to have sent his mother in New York. The money, it was said, was used to pay the hospital bill. Police said the couple was without funds when arrested. They were living under the name of Sheehan.

whereby Germany would be able to pay reparations debts. The suggestion fell on deaf ears in France.

Then came Lloyd-George. Then Former Prime Minister David Lloyd-George came to America and pointed to the Hughes suggestion as practicable and urged its acceptance or at any rate that the British government take it up. President Coolidge let it be known that the Hughes plan announced under the Harding administration would be the policy of his administration. Mr. Lloyd-George seized upon it as a subject for further discussion.

The Baldwin government fearing that Mr. Lloyd-George would make it an issue on his return promptly tendered an invitation to the United States and other powers to participate in the selection of a commission of experts as suggested by Secretary Hughes in his New Haven speech.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, April 21.—A separate investigation into the leases granted to the Honolulu Oil Company on land within naval reserve number 2 in California is to be made by the senate oil committee, it was disclosed today by Senator Walsh, prosecutor for the committee.

THIS BRIGHT BABY GIRL

Brought Joy to Home. Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottdale, Pa. — "I never felt like working, and when I would try to do any work standing on my feet, I would just drag around all day long. At times I would have terrible pains and would be in bed three or four days. I was in this condition about a year when I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers. I had heard different women say it was good for women's troubles, and my aunt thought it would help me as it had helped her. So I took the Vegetable Compound and it brought things right, and I was in good shape before I became a mother again. I believe it helps at birth, too, as with both my other babies I suffered a great deal more than with this one. I thank you a thousand times for the good your medicine has done me."
— Mrs. ROBERT PRICER, Scottdale, Pa.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use.

Health Laws Are Criticized

Strong condemnation of Michigan's health laws came from Mrs. Malcolm Smith, State Chairman of the Department of Health of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs at a recent meeting in Lansing. This criticism prefaced the declaration that the Federated Women's Clubs of Michigan had decided on firm measures to insure more and better health legislation for the state.

Mrs. Smith is making a study of health laws in this and other states with special interest in those relating to the control of tuberculosis preparatory to the educational campaign to be carried on by the club women of Michigan. When interviewed during her stay in Lansing, the state chairman said: "I have been continually astonished at the lack of state aid for this most important work."

During the same period of time in which Minnesota spent $184,000.00 and Wisconsin $232,000.00, Michigan, the seventh wealthiest state in the Union, paid out $18,000.00 for assistance to the counties for tuberculosis control.

"It is nearly impossible for me to believe that there is not a single county in the state with a full-time health officer. There are only fourteen cities in Michigan employing a full-time man for that work. Out of over seven hundred part-time health officers there are only four hundred who have had medical training. It is like taking a watch to a cobbler."

"The Women's Clubs have always been active in all questions of public welfare, and it seems to us that in the present instance we are working on a problem of vital interest to every wife and mother in the state. There are over twenty thousand known cases of tuberculosis in Michigan, and behind every case there is some woman fighting for that precious life. A life that may be forfeited because the twenty thousand patients must accommodate themselves to twenty-three hundred beds—well over half of which are not up to standard."

Rex Ingram's Spectacle Lives Up To All Advance Promises.

"Scaramouche," the Rex Ingram screen adaptation of Rafael Sabatini's novel of the French revolution, opened its three-day stay at the Delft to crowded houses yesterday. The picture lived up to all of its advance promises, and it will be remembered here as the biggest achievement, thus far, in the career of the director who produced "The Sign of the Cross."

Alice Terry, Lewis Stone and Ramon Novarro are the featured players and they are given splendid support by a remarkably efficient cast and more than 10,000 extra people. The settings and costumes are elaborate.

Rafael Sabatini's novel is too well known to require more than the briefest resume. Andre-Louis Moreau, played spiritedly by dashing Novarro, renounces nobility and devotes his life to the cause of his people, after his boyhood sweetheart, played by Alice Terry, accepts the attentions of the Marquis de la Tour d'Azy.

Lewis Stone gives the finest performance of his career, as the marquis. Andre-Louis wins popularity with a troupe of traveling players as the clown, "Scaramouche." He denounces nobility from the stage one day and is forced to flee for his life. The story of the Revolution, the territorial looting of Paris by the mob, and reaches a logical and gripping climax.

Scaramouche will be shown at the Delft again today and tomorrow.

AT THE STRAND.

House Peters, whose characterizations of honest-to-goodness heroes that won him a niche all his own in the hearts of discerning film fans, adds another splendid portrait to his gallery of notable creations with his performance of Peter Smith, courageous fighter and timid lover in "Don't Marry For Money," his latest picture, which is to be seen at the Strand again today.

Benefit Is Questionable

Chicago, Ill., Apr. 21.—Chances of living to be more than sixty-five years old are 5 per cent better than in 1900 but chances of making a living after that age are 10 per cent poorer for a man in the United States, declared A. W. Frye, supreme regent of the Macabees, in an old age conference here.

"Science has prolonged life but economic conditions have made the lengthening a questionable benefit," said Mr. Frye. "Old age dependency in the United States has been growing fast in this country. We now stand third in the list of great nations. In the United States 24 per cent of all persons sixty-five years old and older are dependent on public or private charity. In England the percentage is 35 and in France 50."

"High pressure industrialism is the cause of this condition. In 1900 we had 10,000,000 agricultural workers in this country and 18,000,000 industrial workers. Now we have about 31,000,000 industrial workers and 10,500,000 farm workers. Prices have increased 90 per cent and wages have tripled. Total income of the American people in 1900 was $18,000,000,000. In 1923 it was $65,000,000,000. There was an automobile for every 7.5 persons, child labor in five cities increased 10 per cent, and the nation's cosmetics and lip stick bill was $750,000,000.

"Any talk of checking the pace is mere theorizing but we can put an end to pauperism and child suffering."

So you fell too did you? ... Oh, gee, kid, you look swell ... If I thought I'd look as stunning as you do I have it done myself ... They're making all the hats for bobbed hair, and one simply can't get a decent hat unless ... What did Tom say? ... Doesn't it feel light? ... Turn around let-me see it in the back ... Thank goodness my wife still has her right mind ... You look five years younger ... It's a wonderful thing for the hair dressers ... "Beth, The Ambitious"

By JANE PHELPS.

BETH, THE ADAIR TALKS WITH BETH OF DICK.

Chapter XLII.

Adair had kept away from the tea room for days, then had taken a long business trip. Now he was back, and unable to deny himself a sight of Beth, he came in, ordered his dinner, quietly and gravely bowing to her as she passed the table. But his eyes followed her hungrily. He was neither thin nor had he lost his color, but there were lines in his face not there when he went away, a look in his eyes that wrung Beth's heart. And the smile that lighted his seriousness was gone.

Beth observed with an aching heart. She longed to know if he had forgiven her, yet hesitated to approach him, to question. But as he, for a bit, was practically detached from the other diners by those near him leaving, she approached his table and said in a low voice:

"You have forgiven me, Graham?"

"Yes, Beth."

"I couldn't rest until I knew."

"I understand now. It was just one of those things that had to be."

"And you don't hate me because of what I did?"

"No, Beth. I never shall feel any differently. I want to be your friend."

Her face lighted. She had feared he had not forgiven her, and she wanted to be friends.

"I shall be very grateful, very happy to have you for my friend," she returned, then passed on. She no longer felt the carelessness of the days before she had told of reward, you have it now. He never could have been the close friend to Dick, had you listened to his plea to divorce Harter. Your boy will gain by your sacrifice."

The thought cheered Beth. She had been a bit anxious about Dick. Not because of anything he did, but because of the feeling that he was at an age when he needed his father's companionship, a man's advice. She had assumed the father's duties as far as she had been able, had talked with Dick of many things that were a father's prerogative. She had warned him of bad habits, of sex attraction, yet had not been able to feel that she had quite filled the place a man would have taken.

Adair, after voicing his wishes concerning Dick (did not seek Beth out, neither did he avoid her, if he came less often to the room for his meals that was but natural. But when he did come he always spoke to her, showed by his manner that he had accepted her dictum, that he was her friend, nothing more.

One day he said:

"I am planning a month's stay in the Maine woods, hunting and fishing. May I have Dick as a companion?"

"Indeed you may! He will be delighted. He admires you very much, and a month like that will be just what he needs to set him up for his next year."

"Don't write him, let me tell him when he comes. I have a foolish wish to know just how he feels toward me," Adair replied. (To be Continued.)

Justice in Borneo is administered in a most primitive manner. One way of deciding between two disputants is to place two live shellfish on a plate and squeeze limejuice over them. The verdict is given according to which man's fish moves first.

URY PICKED TO TRY MORAS

Testimony Will Begin Today; Many Pleas Of Guilty Received.

Thirty-nine men had occupied the jury box in circuit court yesterday before twelve men were selected to try Henry Moras on a charge of having participated, with Carl "Red" Olson, in the armed holdup and robbery of the grocery store and gasoline station of Carl A. Carlson, in Eighth avenue south, last Feb. 11.

When court adjourned at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, both the state and the defense had expressed their satisfaction with the jury, and the men had taken the juror's oath, leaving the way open to begin the hearing of testimony in the case today.

The Jurors.

- The following are members of the jury:
- August Soder, grocer, Escanaba.
- Cornelius Gallagher, scaler, Escanaba.
- Oscar Rubens, machinist, Escanaba.
- William Kangas, millwright, Brampton.

Olson is expected to take the stand for the state. Court attaches expected last night, that the trial would take most of the day and some believed that it would run well into the time of the court tomorrow.
- Many Pleas Guilty.
- There were indications last night that the Moras trial would be the only criminal hearing of the term. Pleas of guilty were entered by the following:
- George Saykly, Charles Larson, George Gushka, John Chikowski, Frank Schimberg, William Hammersmith, Peter Klotz, Levi Barbeau of Rapid River, Mrs. Hilda McCarthy, and Norman Neveau to liquor law violation; Carl Olson, robbery;

About a dozen law cases were placed on the calendar for trial and about that number of chancery cases will also be heard.

It had not been decided which case would follow the Moras case.

Easter Service Very Impressive

The Resurrection services which were held at six o'clock Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church were very impressive. The solemn procession with the Blessed sacrament was very imposing. First in line were girls ranging from five to ten years of age, dressed in white and all carrying bouquets of cut flowers. 30 altar boys with cassocks and surplices also several members of St. John's Apolytical Society who acted as cross bearers and candle bearers, then followed the Rev. Fr. Bertrand, Pastor of the Parish preceded by Rev. Fr. Daniel. The procession entirely circled the edifice which was packed to the doors with persons of every denomination. During the high mass which was sung 700 persons received Holy Communion. Like a splendid instrument the choir responded to the directions of Miss Eva Cossettee, organist and especially at the opening hymn "Christ is Risen" and at the offertory when they sang "Jubilate Deo" the excellent music gripped the soul of the audience.

Second Schimkat Case Is Settled Out Of Court.

Saturday night found all cases disposed of on the Schoolcraft county circuit court calendar, and the April term was adjourned after one busy week.

The jurors were kept on duty up to the time of adjournment on Saturday, when a verdict was reached in the last jury case on the list.

While waiting for the jury Saturday, several other cases were taken up, among them three divorce bills. Divorces were granted in each of the following cases: Louise Longfield Faulkner vs. Fred Faulkner; Lydia Irie vs. William Irie; Axel Soder vs. Ruth Soder.

A second case against the Schimkat Cutlery Co., with the First National Bank as plaintiff, was settled by the parties concerned, without a trial. In the first Schimkat case, a verdict was awarded the Manistique Bank.

Joseph Vassau, who pleaded guilty to a violation of the liquor laws, was given a fine of $200 and costs by Judge L. H. Fead. Einar Sundberg, of Escanaba, who pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, was released on probation, to extend over a period of two years, during which time he will report regularly to Angus McLeod, local probation officer.

MANY ATTEND EASTER CANTATA AT M. E. CHURCH

A crowd which taxed the capacity of the Methodist Church greeted the presentation of the Easter Cantata, "The Greatest Love" as rendered by the M. E. choir Sunday evening, under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Kaye.

A special quartette, consisting of Mrs. Thomas Bolitho, soprano; Mrs. M. McNamara, contralto; W. F. Kefauver, tenor and H. A. Cockram, bass, assisted the choir in their rendition of this beautiful Easter composition. Solos, trios, quartettes and the impressive choruses by the full choir were equally pleasing.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

TWO LADS MAKE TRIP FROM FLINT IN "FLIVVER"

First To Travel From Lower Michigan On Own Power.

Two lads in a mud-spattered "flivver" arrived in Manistique Sunday morning from St. Ignace, thus annexing this year's honors as the first car to make the trip from lower Michigan by way of the Straits and St. Ignace.

These harbingers of the tourist season reported that they had encountered large quantities of mud this side of St. Ignace, and the samples carried on their car seemed to bear out this assertion. With the aid of a jack, however, they managed to make the entire trip on the flivver's own power, though they were forced to spend the night in one particularly bad mud-hole.

The travelers had come from Flint, and proceeded on their way west after taking on a good-sized meal here.

ALL OUT OF SORTS? So Was This Escanaba Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells, that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Escanaba case is one of many:

Mrs. A. Johnson, 1219-1st St. N., says: "I had a sore back and when I did any washing or lifting my back ached. My feet were sore and swollen and I suffered with rheumatic pains. I also had headaches and my kidneys acted irregularly. I heard of Doan's Pills and bought a few boxes at the City Drug Store. They rid me of kidney complaint in a short time."

TUNNEY WILL INVOKE LAW TO STOP GEORGES

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, April 21.—Legal proceedings to prevent Georges Carpentier, French light heavyweight, from meeting Tom Gibbons of St. Paul, in Michigan City, Ind., on May 31, will be started in the courts of Indiana immediately on Carpentier's arrival, Billy Gibson, manager of Gene Tunney announced today. Gibson said he would base his application for an injunction on his contract with Desamps, the Frenchman's manager, for a Carpentier-Tunney match. This, he asserted, contains a clause prohibiting Carpentier from engaging in any other match in the United States before meeting Tunney.

ATHLETES ARE GOOD STUDENTS

Fail Less Frequently Than Other Students, Figures Show.

Escanaba high school is lowest among 14 of the larger high schools of the Upper Peninsula in the percentage of scholastic failures, and the percentage of B, H. S. athletes who "flunk" is lower than the general average for the school, a study of statistics, gathered by Principal R. E. Cheney, and made public in an address to the Kiwanis club yesterday, shows.

The figures from virtually all the schools "spike" the often-repeated statement that athletes are "flunkers" and are not able to carry their school work.

Four Subject Rule. The study covers a total of 6,342 students enrolled in the following high schools: Bessemer, Calumet, Crystal Falls, Escanaba, Hancock, Houghton, Iron Mountain, Iron River, Ishpeming, Marquette, Manistique, Messemie, Negaunee and Sault Ste. Marie.

Escanaba is the only school in the group which requires its athletes to carry at least four subjects successfully every week if they participate in athletic practice sessions and games the following week. Other schools require only three subjects. Despite this seeming handicap, the local school statistics show that only 1.8 per cent of its athletes fail as compared with 3.8 per cent of failures in the general student body.

Very Wide Range. "The study was started," Mr. Cheney said, "with the idea of learning something of the scholastic success of athletes, but some other very interesting data were also brought out.

It was found that one school had as high as 12.5 per cent of failures during the same semester. One school shows that 1.5 per cent of its athletes fail, while another shows 20 per cent of failures among its athletes.

"These figures on the athletes bring out one very surprising fact. In 11 out of the 14 schools, the per cent of failures for the athletes was less than the percentage of failures for the entire school."

Shows Complete Chart. Mr. Cheney illustrated his findings by many other interesting facts about school work in general, the number of pupils who quit school before the end of their courses, and the ranking of the schools in scholarship.

He did not make public the names of the schools in connection with the percentages, except those figures which came from the records of the local institution.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. James McGraw and Miss Nellie McCarthy, of Daggett, motored here Sunday to spend the day with relatives and friends.

Mrs. George Semer left last night for a few weeks' visit in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

OH, ALADDIN!

Aladdin, with all his magic, has to take a back seat. Movie cameramen are completing a little stunt that makes his magic palace look cheap. It will be possible for theatergoers to see a 32-story skyscraper shoot up from its foundations in less than a quarter of an hour. A Chicago film company, with a camera mounted immovably on a permanent stand in the park across the street, took a few yards of film each day while erection of the new Straus Building in Michigan avenue was in progress. Top picture shows the operations in their early stages, while the bottom is a view of the structure as it nears completion.

FLOWERS. The use of flowers is one of the newest notes in millinery. They are being massed and combined as they used to be before the craze for untrimmed hats and draped turbans struck us.
