

MAIL ROBBERY IS NOW NEAR SOLUTION

OLD GUARD TO BACK BUTLER IN ALL PLANS

NO BITTERNESS TO BE HELD OVER FROM CONVENTION.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press. Cleveland, Ohio, June 14.—Out of the series of tactical errors, amateur management and confusion in the Republican National Convention, several things stand out as inescapable and significant.

First, despite the fact that William M. Butler, personal manager for President Coolidge, tried to dictate the choice of a vice presidential candidate, the convention three times turned him down, rejecting Kenyon, Burton and Hoover.

Second, the selection of Charles G. Dawes as vice president means an attack by the Democrats on his labor record for he is an avowed champion of the "open shop" and the head of the "Minute men of America" who were organized to fight union labor.

Dawes Was True Choice. Third, apart from his labor record and his banking connections, Charles G. Dawes is an ideal candidate for he is Rooseveltian in temperament, dramatic, spectacular, straight-from-the-shoulder, and capable.

Fourth, Charles G. Dawes was the true choice of the entire convention and in many cases his labor record was an asset to him. Indeed, with Lowden refusing to run, Dawes was the type of man the delegates wanted all along but the White House spokesmen insisted on a candidate who would appeal to the western farmers, someone identified with the progressive movement and for that reason everyone supposed the wishes of the President would prevail and no one of the Dawes school of thought could be or would be nominated.

No Concessions to Radicals. Fifth, although there was natural resentment on the part of the "old guard" leaders at the tactics of Mr. Butler whom they denounced as amateurish and blundering, there was a far greater significance in the action of the delegates in turning down Lowden and Kenyon. The truth of the matter is the majority of the delegates to the Republican convention and the old line leaders are convinced it is a mistake to cater to the radicals by trying to give them any one approaching their type and that it is better to stand pat on a conservative man, and even take a defeat rather than compromise on principle.

This spirit was noticeable throughout and will have an important bearing on the campaign. Sixth, President Coolidge could have had anyone he wanted for vice president had his managers played their cards right. They did not know how to issue orders and at the same time avoid the resentment that comes from being given a command. They did not gather the various state chairmen together soon enough though there was plenty of time all week to do so. They did not really control the situation at any time after the balloting started and the convention did as it pleased with Andrew W. Mellon of Pennsylvania, secretary of the treasury, a potent figure in the discussions of the eastern delegates and perhaps the most important factor in the temporary overthrow of Mr. Butler for if Secretary Mellon refused to accept Kenyon, the other leaders felt free to do the same as everyone knew Mellon's influence

Building Up An Insanity Defense Now

Chicago, June 14.—More alienists appeared today at the county jail to examine Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, millionaires' sons and confessed kidnapers and slayers of 13 year old Robert Franks. Four alienists went to the jail today and spent several hours examining the youths as a part of the plan of the defense to prove them insane.

Leopold and Loeb were eating breakfast when the doctors appeared to resume a study of their minds. The youths greeted the doctors warmly but seemed amused by the mysterious equipment which they brought along.

While the defense is busy building up its case, the state is preparing to batter it down and one assistant state's attorney has been assigned to have complete charge of the legal barrier which the state hopes to construct to oppose the testimony of alienists for the defense.

POLICE CLEAR UP ROBBERIES

Locate Mess Of Variagated Loot In Highland Park.

(By The Associated Press.)

Detroit, June 14.—Highland Park detectives were kept busy today asserting a varied quantity of loot, resulting from numerous burglaries committed in the last 18 months, which was recovered following the arrest of Mike George, alias George Williams, aged 25, and Sam Miller, alias George Demitroff, aged 38, of Highland Park.

The loot, estimated to be worth $2,000, consists of all kinds of household articles from shaving sets to umbrellas, bracelets, manicure cases, cameras and brushes.

The two men, who in their confession to police bragged about their long and hitherto unchecked careers of burglary, were arrested in Detroit. The arrests clear up a number of burglaries in Highland Park in the last few months, it is said.

17 BALLOONS ARE READY FOR BIG AIR DERBY

(By The Associated Press.)

Brussels, June 14.—Seventeen balloons, representing seven nations, are being made ready for the take-off at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the 14th renewal of the Gordon Bennett Cup race for lighter than air balloons. Electrical storms—the bugbear of balloonists—threatened for a time, but tonight the weather had cleared somewhat and the latest report from the Belgian aerob club is that in all probability the race will be started according to schedule. If there is a continuance of the wind prevailing tonight the balloons will be carried toward central Europe, perhaps Russia.

Britons Witness American Rodeo

(By The Associated Press.)

London, June 14.—An audience of 130,000 Britons filled the gigantic stadium at Wembley today to find out for themselves just what an "imported American rodeo" is like. The afternoon demonstrations of the prowess of the cowboys were greeted with enthusiasm, but at the evening performance there was an unfortunate accident during the roping and tying contests. A steer's leg was broken. This brought many in the audience to their feet. They indulged in several minutes of booing and hissing and some of the women left the stadium.

In Zealand the atmosphere is so clear that objects can be seen by starlight at a distance of seven miles.

INQUIRY BOARD GETS ITS FIRST CLUE IN PROBE.

(By The Associated Press.)

San Pedro, Calif., June 14.—Lack of sufficient air pressure to clean out the great 14 inch gun barrels in turret number two, of the battleship Mississippi was the first evidential clue offered today to the board of inquiry investigating the cause of Thursday's disaster which cost 48 lives.

So low was the air pressure in the apparatus that blows out the rifle barrels and closes the breeches, that the latter had to be shoved home by hand after the second salvo, according to testimony of Francis Majewski, plug-man, whose duty it was to close the breech. He was one of the three sailors who escaped uninjured from the turret that became the tomb of his mates.

Probable Action. Naval experts pointed out that lack of thorough cleansing of the gun barrels of fumes and gas after each discharge heightened the danger of ignition of powder left in the barrel, or of any fresh charge that might be rammed in.

The plug-man's testimony, said naval officers, if substantiated, might result in a fleet-wide investigation of every big gun to determine whether a similar defect existed on other ships of the navy.

Members of the court of inquiry, refused to comment on the evidence, reserving their statements for their final reports.

Premature Firing.

What was considered a partial solution of the premature firing of the left gun of number two turret after the Mississippi had reached port Thursday afternoon, was contained in the testimony of Lieutenant Gyle D. Conrad, one of the last witnesses to appear before today's session of the court of inquiry. He declared that the turret explosion and the resulting fire could have affected wires and mechanism in a manner that would have made possible the discharge of the left gun without firing the center gun which also was loaded, and also that either of the loaded guns could have become discharged despite the fact that the right gun was unloaded.

The investigation will be continued Monday and there is a general air of expectancy throughout the fleet, the prevailing belief being that the line of evidence offered by Majewski will be emphasized in the examination of other witnesses in an effort to fix definitely the cause of Thursday's explosion.

Important Witness Delirious. The man who is believed to know most about what occurred in the fatal moments within the ship's turret is Relief, seriously burned. He is F. J. Ryne, chief turret captain, whose station was directly in front of the breech of the gun.

Ryne was delirious today and is in a serious condition. Surgeons of the Relief said they expect him to pull through, although it will be some time before he is able to testify.

Preparations are going forward for the funeral of the 48 victims of the disaster which will take place here Tuesday, next, with full naval honors.

Funeral Services. The caskets containing the bodies will be grouped in the center of Trona Field, where in other days the navy athletes, some of them now among the 48,

FURIOUS STORM DEVASTATES A LARGE SECTION

Wall of Water 12 Feet High Rolls Across Land

(By The Associated Press.)

Johnson City, Tenn., June 14.—Twelve known dead, four seriously injured, more than a dozen houses, barns and mills demolished, 20 miles of the Appalachian division of Southern Railway made impassable with parts washed away and thousands of acres of farm land ruined, constituted the toll of the most disastrous cloudburst ever recalled in this section. It appeared to have its center near Hunter, Stam and Garden's Bluff, and on Little Stony Creek and Blue Springs Creek, where a house in which were two families, went to pieces, taking line lives.

The Dead. Mrs. Cecil C. Lomis and five children, of Stony Creek section. H. A. Smith, wife and son of Stony Creek section. A. B. Irick, of Fish Springs. Six year old daughter of N. G. Ellis of Stony Creek section. An unidentified sawmill worker.

Four dwellings, a storehouse and a mill, with considerable livestock, were washed away in the vicinity of Stam and four small houses at Fish Springs went with the water.

Breaks Without Warning. The storm came without warning last night and early today, and its fury was graphically told by Cecil Lewis and his sons, Walter and Charles, 7 and 11 years old, who were brought to a hospital at Johnson City, suffering from bruises and cut. The younger boy having his cheek cut open in which condition he remained in a tree top three hours waiting for the waters to recede.

Lewis stated that he was thrown from his house when a wall of water he estimated to be twelve feet high filled with rocks, earth and trees, struck the house. After being washed down the valley a short distance, he reached the bank and made his way to a neighbor's house.

Turms House Around. As he entered the house it was struck by the torrent, which turned the house completely around, but landed against a barbed wire fence and escaped. His two sons, Charles and Walter, escaped by catching the branches of trees, almost submerged. The younger boy caught the tree and pulled his brother up and there they remained until the waters receded.

All communications out of and east of Hunter, six miles from Elizabethton and from Hampton, four miles to the south, was cut off with the destruction of telephone lines, washing out of bridges, and demolishing of roadways.

Nobles began his stage career in 1867, playing in the picturesque western stock companies of that day. In 1875 he starred in his own dramatization of "Jim Bludsoe" in Wood's Museum, Philadelphia. He was the author of numerous melodies, among them "The Phoenix" in which he played for 25 years.

The now famous line, "and the villain still pursued her," is said to have originated in this play.

Bandits Rob Three Towns In Indiana

(By The Associated Press.)

Marion, Ind., June 15.—Five armed bandits in a topless automobile swooped down on three Indiana towns last evening, committed daring robberies in the center of each and seriously wounded two men who gave chase and at an early hour this morning were still at large.

The robbers first appeared at Gas City, near here, and then sped into Jonesboro and Upland, robbing a grocery store in each town. Marshal A. G. Lunsford, of Upland, and Jess Nelson, who gave chase, were both shot. Nelson was paralyzed from the waist down by the wound and his recovery is doubtful. Automobile passengers were hurriedly formed and were securing this section for the bandits.

FIVE BANDITS CAPTURED BY CHICAGO COP

ONE MAN WOUNDED FIVE TIMES IS IDENTIFIED.

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 4.—A quick solution of all details of the holdup Thursday night of Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul mail train a few miles from Chicago by bandits who obtained money and bonds valued upwards of $1,000,000 was predicted by the police tonight after two mail clerks had positively identified a man as one of the train robbers.

J. H. Wayne, desperately wounded, and believed by the police to be the bandit who was shot by a companion, who mistook him for a mail clerk during the robbery, is the man identified as one of the bandits. With three other men and a woman, Wayne was taken into custody in a spectacular raid on a flat as the result of a tip that the bandits would be found there.

Tells Conflicting Tales. At first Wayne told the police that he was shot while near Hammond, Ind., by a woman of the name of Miss Margaret Ray. Later he said a bootlegger shot him. Five bullet wounds were found in his body and doctors said he probably would die. The other suspects are Walter McComb and his wife, whose flat was raided, and Paul Wade who said he lived in Tulsa, Okla., and James Mahoney, who were found in the flat.

"We are making rapid progress in the case and expect to reach a solution before long," Matthew Zimmer, deputy superintendent of police, said in announcing identification of one suspect.

Is It Tommy? Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman, after a perusal of his records, said that a description of one of the bandits tallies almost exactly with that of Tommy O'Connor, Chicago murderer, who broke jail three years ago, five days before he was to have been hanged.

A new $1,000 bill and a $500 bill were found in Wayne's clothing and a $1,000 bill was found in Wade's pocket. Serial numbers of the bills do not correspond with those of any of the money thus far reported stolen, it was announced after a hurried check.

Wade was reported to have been an aviator and this fact led to a revival of the theory that the bandits escaped in an airplane soon after the scene of the holdup the morning after the robbery.

Loss May Reach $3,000,000. The known loot was increased today to $447,000 in cash and bonds but it was admitted that more than this amount is missing and unofficial sources placed the loss at between $1,000,000 and $3,000,000. Postal inspectors and government agents were devoting a great part of their time to investigation of the theory that the robbery was the result of information given the bandits by a postal employee or federal bank employee, this theory being due to the faultless precision with which the holdup was executed.

After two detectives left for the scene of the robbery late today it was reported that a confession had been obtained from one of the suspects held and that the officers had gone to try to locate the place where the loot was buried.

Shot For Disobedience. It was also reported that Wayne had said later that he was shot by the bandit leader for disobeying orders. The police did not reveal which of the suspects had admitted participation in the holdup.

World's Record Smashed.
Despite the chilling rain that swept the field today and soaked the cinder path, one world's record was smashed, two more equalled, four Olympic standards bettered, one was tied, and one American mark equalled in the spectacular closing battle for places.
Jackson Scholz, New York Athletic Club, came back in the 200 meters to break the world's record for the second successive day in the most brilliant individual performance of the tryouts. His time of 20 3/10 seconds, made in a semi-final heat, was one tenth of a second faster than the mark he set yesterday, and considering the unfavorable condition under which it was made, ranks among the startling sprinting feats of all time.
Scholz followed this by triumphing decisively in the final heat in 21 seconds flat, a race in which Charles Paddock, California flier, disregarding the advice of Lawson Robertson, head Olympic track coach, suffered one of the worst setbacks of his career by finishing sixth and last.

but said that two others besides Wayne had been partly identified by mail clerks as participants in the holdup.
The police were attempting tonight to trace the records of the suspects, about which little was known. McComb, detectives said, had been under surveillance several times. The man who gave him his name as Mahoney came to McComb's flat while the raid was in progress. Little was known of him.
Wade claimed to be an Oklahoma aviator and said he had come to Chicago to see some big league baseball. An attempt to trace the record of Wayne was without result.
Think Lost Is Located.
"We have some of the bandits," Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins said tonight. "We hope to have them all before morning. We expect to have all of the loot then, too."
Captain William Shoemaker said that the bandits had overlooked $500,000 which was in one mail sack.
While the police predicted they would recover the loot intact, the two detectives sent to the scene of the robbery returned tonight empty handed. The police were also reported to have found some evidence, as yet unrevealed, in their raid on the flat today which tended to increase their confidence that some of those in custody are implicated in the robbery.
The police held the prisoners tonight but planned later to turn them over to the federal authorities in order to forestall writs of habeas corpus in the state courts for their release.

HERE'S LEGISLATOR WHO CAN FIGHT

REPRESENTATIVE FRED A. BRITTEN.

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer.
Washington, June 14.—When he was a kid in San Francisco, little Freddie Britten (now Congressman Fred A. Britten of Illinois) climbed his parents' backyard fence one day to lick one Johnny Flynn, for some reason the nature of which he does not now recall.
Instead, Johnny licked him in the highest style.
"This," said Freddie, as his mother was putting a beef poultice over his left eye, "is not going to happen again."
And he sought out Walter Watson, who was responsible for Joe Chornakl, Jim Corbett, Young Mitchell and other celebrated scrappers of bygone days. It wasn't so long after that until he won the lightweight championship of the Olympic Club.
Coast Champion.
He never passed from the amateur into the professional class, but if he had, according to such authorities as George Silver and Nels Innes, he'd have made good.
In due season, back from a Cape Horn voyage, stronger than ever, willing and tough, came Johnny Flynn. Once more Britten fought him. And that time it was Johnny who had to wear the poultice.
In 1892 Britten won the amateur lightweight championship of the Pacific Coast. In 1893, he visited Chicago with a team from the San Francisco Olympic Club and won the central championship.
Moreover, he changed his residence to Chicago and has lived there ever since.
Kayo in 12 Seconds.
In all, Britten has victories to his credit in about 30 big fights. He still holds the record for the speediest amateur victory on record.
It was in a go with Johnny Mackler. Mackler was bigger and stronger than Britten, but as he was setting himself for a right-hand swing, Britten smote him on the chin, knocking him thru the ropes. It took him just 12 seconds to pull off this stunt.
The congressman's a swimmer and a fancy diver, too. Likewise a sprinter. Once he won a 100-yard dash from John B. Crum, who afterward made the "same distance in 9 1/2 seconds."

GOOD BONDS A GOOD BUY

BABSON SEES BRIGHT SPOT IN CLOUDY BUSINESS SKY.

Babson Park, Mass., June 13.—There is a bright spot in the more or less cloudy business outlook according to Roger W. Babson, the statistician, who today predicts that we will again see the day when sound bonds will sell on a 3 3/4% basis.
"A detailed study of investment conditions made by my associates in Babson Institute shows that the investment market travels a broad trend running between 3 3/4% as a low average yield to around 6 1/2% as a high point," says Mr. Babson. "During the last two hundred years (this swing has been repeated four times) and all indications are that we have now started on the fifth movement. Bond prices, for instance, were very low in 1875, good bonds were then yielding 6.20%. By 1880 the market had risen so that securities were selling on a 4.90% basis. Five years later in 1885 we find that prices have risen so as to give an average yield of about 4.30% and by 1900 we had good sound bonds selling as high as to yield 3 3/4%.
The Down Swing.
"Then the down swing began and by 1905 bonds sold on a 4% basis. In 1910 they were around the 4.30% level. The same high was reached in 1915 5% basis was reached and these same good bonds selling on a 6.40% basis. We have charted the bond market since 1920 against this previous swing and the parallel between the action of the investment markets of the late seventies and the early twenties is remarkable. Bonds rose from the 6.40% basis to 4.85% in the first five years of the present swing, exactly as they did in the last century, and have now started on a sidewise movement exactly as they did in the early eighties.
"If the swing is completed, and both history and the action of our current market indicate that it will be, bonds will be selling at prices that will again yield less than 4%. While this strengthening of prices will not be steady, the broad trend should be distinctly upward and the investor will benefit both from his interest and from an increase in equity."
Price Factors.
When asked about the immediate outlook for bonds Mr. Babson replied that he would give us the facts and let us draw our own conclusions.
"Bond prices," says he, "are dependent upon several factors but react most quickly to changes in money rates and in the levels of commodity prices. Business, for instance, is slowing up at the present time (the Babson chart shows present activity at 13% below normal) and the demand for loans by high grade commercial firms is small. Money that is ordinarily loaned to business men is piling up in the banks. Rather than lose all the interest on it the bankers put it into bonds temporarily. This buying by the banks increases the demand for good bonds. At the same time the business man finds that his operations do not require additional investment as they do when things are booming. He in turn buys bonds with his surplus and the demand is again increased. Later when business picks up and the banks again have a demand for commercial borrowers. Business men likewise liquidate part of their holdings to invest more money in their business and the bond market suffers temporarily from too many sellers and not enough buyers.

and power in the Cabinet.
Should Have Used Force.
The silent man from Pennsylvania who has been heralded as one who never engages actively in politics found, perhaps to his own surprise, that the conservatives of the east clamored for his leadership and he stepped into the breach and asserted his influence with all the determination of a Penrose or a Quay. If he had any doubt before he came to Cleveland that the Republican party looks to elder statesmen for guidance, it was removed when he was given a thundering ovation on the first day of the convention when he was permitted to come to the stage to introduce a resolution appointing one of the numerous committees on the convention's routine program.
When Mr. Butler appealed to the "old guard" to abandon Dawes because of the attacks made on him by the Illinois Federation of Labor and the possibility of controversy on the subject, together with the necessity, as he saw it, of making a direct appeal to the farm states, all the pent-up feeling against the Massachusetts man which began to accumulate when the delegates first got here and found that he had appointed committees ahead of time, simply was exploded and nothing short of a direct and public statement from Mr. Coolidge himself could have changed the situation. This, the President refused to do or while he was willing to indicate privately in answer to questions just what his preferences were he did not care to appear publicly as the dictator or boss of the convention which nominated him.

May Crop Out Later.
There is always disappointment in every convention when there is a contest. Much of it will remain and will crop out during the campaign unless the "old guard" is given more of a say now than it had in the few days before the convention began balloting. But the old line leaders are always loyal and the Democrats need not count too much on the apathy of these men.
On the whole, the biggest asset the opposition to the Republican ticket will have will be the fact that the national convention turned down a man like Judge William S. Kenyon of Iowa and another like Herbert Hoover, ignored the demand of the farm states and selected for vice president a Chicago banker. The La Follette group went home today fully satisfied with what had happened as the 34 delegates who were hissed and jeered for their refusal to make the nomination of Coolidge unanimous and to support the platform are more than ever convinced that a third party ticket must be put into the field. The Democrats including McAdoo's manager, Judge David Ladd Rockwell, who was here during the convention, are sure the New York convention must nominate a progressive and even a radical, and someone who is friendlier to labor than the Coolidge-Dawes ticket.

GIRL SCOUTS' YEAR CLOSES

Twenty Troops, 336 Girls In Delta County's Organization.

The Girl Scout organization of Delta County is starting a new fiscal year of activities. The county organization was a new experiment and has accomplished its purpose. Each district having its own deputy commissioner, with an active committee to work out the problems of each community. Delta county at the present time has 20 troops, 336 girls, 100 council women and sponsors, 40 active leaders.

The Girl Scouts have been financed by popular contributions from people interested throughout the county, in a joint drive with the Boy Scouts. This has reduced the effort, time and expense in raising money and has fostered united planning on the part of both organizations. The Girl Scout budget for the year ending May 1, 1924, was $2,373.58.

Excellent Results.
The year's activities have been worth the time, effort and interest extended by those interested in keeping the work of the Girl Scouts up to standard. Among some of the year's activities are: First, working into a county unit as a council.

Second, Leaders' association, meeting twice a month for round table discussions to work out their own troop program.
Third, Individual Scout work, meetings every week, badge work in first aid, homemaking, sewing, cooking, etc.
Out-of-Door Sports.
Recreational Activities: County Rally and Madge Day at Glad-

Exhibit of Scout work at a Fair in the Wolverine Garage, April, 1924; 15 leaders and council women attended the National Camp and convention at Chicago, April, 1924.
Camp Plans Started.
The first activity for the new year will be camp. Plans have not all been fully completed, but there will be a leaders' camp for women and girls interested in the Girl Scout program. They will have an opportunity to train and obtain the necessary information for Scout leadership.

The camp staff will include camp director, camp manager, recreational director, trail nurse, dietitian and a nurse in charge of first aid. Camping is the keynote. Scouting and every scout who make it a point to be number one among the campers at Garth.

comedy which has been more heartily praised than anything Miss Normand has done since "Mickey." The star is assisted by a strong supporting cast. Strand Hills.
"The Six Fifty," is the week's opening bill at the Strand. Renee Adoree heads a capable cast. It is the story of a young farmer's wife who longs for the gay white lights of the city, brought to her gaze only in the motion pictures. Laughs predominate but there are some big dramatic minutes and a flash or two of tears.
Hoot Gibson in "The Rambler Kid," will take the feature spot at the Strand Wednesday and Thursday. It is a typical Hoot Gibson picture and as such should delight his many admirers here.
Friday and Saturday the Strand will present Gladys Walton in "The Untamable," a society drama.
St. Joseph's Auditorium.
"Three O'clock in the Morning," starring Constance Binney, will be shown today at two shows at St. Joseph's Auditorium.
The story of "Three O'clock in the Morning," is different from the usual movie story. There are plenty of thrills, dramatic moments and laughter in the photoplay. The story centers around Elizabeth Winthrop, a young girl of good family, who is fond of gay parties and bright lights. Her fiance accompanies her on these all-night parties, not because he is fond of night life, but rather to be near his sweetheart.
At one of the cabarets Elizabeth meets Hugo Von Strohm and he invites her to have dinner with him in his apartment the next night. She quarrels with her fiance and finally leaves home. How she meets the dangers that threaten girls alone in a big city and returns to her parents and sweetheart is worked out in a splendid manner.

PARADE OF PRIZE AUTOMOBILES VIEWED BY THROGS YESTERDAY

Buick "6" Sport Touring, Jewett "6" Brougham, And Two Chevrolet Touring Cars, To Be Given Away By Daily Press, Admired By Crowds.

Watched with eager interest by hundreds along the line of march, the parade of the four prize automobiles to be given away by The Escanaba Daily Press, on Saturday (August 2nd, headed by the Capital Prize Buick "6" Sport touring car, paraded yesterday afternoon through the downtown retail section of the city.

"Ohs" and "ahs" were heard on every hand from the admiring throng as the impressive spectacle proceeded slowly through the crowded streets. The weight of evidence of the magnitude of the generous offer made by The Daily Press could not have been more completely expressed, or conveyed through any other medium. On every side remarks were passed, commenting on the bigness of this great circulation offer, which far eclipses anything heretofore made by any newspaper in this section of the state.

The Escanaba Daily Press' extraordinary offer of $7,000 in prizes and cash to be given away free as rewards for spare time and effort reached a high pitch yesterday.

Dealers handling the exceptionally fine motor cars selected by The Daily Press, as prizes in the campaign report an immediate increased interest in the cars. One look at the cars paraded yesterday, is all that is necessary to convince one that spare time effort of a few weeks certainly seems a small matter for which to gain such great rewards.

AGES OF DEM CANDIDATES HAVE THEIR INFLUENCE

By HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

Washington.—Not the least of the considerations entering into the pre-convention maneuvering of Democratic chieftains are the ages of the respective candidates for the presidential nomination.

For the purposes of these leaders, the individuals considered as "possibilities" are merely pawns in a game, to be advanced or withdrawn as the exigencies of the play proceeds. Neither sentiment nor personal loyalty is permitted to stand in the way of making the play that promises to bring success to the particular interests or groups behind the game.

This matter of age enters into the plans of the play through the coolly considered possibility that the man put at the top of the ticket might not live out his term.

Falling to get across the particular man or sort of man they desire as the nominee for president, it might then become preferable to help boost into first place the man most likely to succumb to his years and the burdens of the office, seeking to get into second place on the ticket the man or type of man they would really prefer as president.

Of the dozen or more leading and "dark horse" candidates in the running at New York, five are more than 60 years of age.

McAdoo is the youngest of the sexagenarians. He will be 61 on Oct. 31. Also, he is physically the most active. Due to his temperament and his physical fitness, his age is no handicap. He has the sinewy wiriness of a broncho and the physical keenness of the average man of 40.

Underwood comes next, with 62 years behind him. Well preserved, well poised, somewhat phlegmatic, he is the sort that passes threescore and ten with reasonable security.

Walsh of Montana, at 65, also would be a good insurance risk. He feels, as he looks, more nearly 55.

Glass of Virginia, who is rumored as the legatee of the McAdoo strength in case William Gibbs cannot land the nomination, was 66 last January. He is small, wiry, physically as tough as sole leather.

Last, and oldest of the five, is Samuel Moffett Ralston of Indiana.

Much has been written of Ralston's age as a handicap to his nomination. No one has raised that issue against Glass, although Ralston is only one month and four days older. He was 66 on Dec. 1. But Ralston is a big, heavy-bodied man and his years appear at least to rest more heavily upon him.

And there is where the favor of the boys who may be forced to play a long shot to achieve their desires comes in.

Take the wets, for instance.

Failing to put across Smith or some equally open wet for the top of the ticket, it is suggested they throw their full strength to Ralston. Ralston is not a wet; he's a Hoosier Presbyterian.

But the nomination of Ralston for the first place might open the door to Ritchie of Maryland or Slicer of New Jersey for second place. Both are wets.

The final result would be left in the hands of Fate!

Popular Girls Are Given Rides In Press Prize Cars

A number of this city's most popular young ladies were given rides in the automobiles which are being given away by the Escanaba Daily Press in its circulation campaign. The girls all carried flags and pompons and attracted much attention as they drove through the city streets in the parade yesterday. Boy Scout buglers served as heralds.

The girls included the Misses Olive Groos, Margaret O'Connell, Lorraine Kemp, Charlotte O'Connell, Ethel Johnson, Alice Kidd, Grace Coan, Florence Plante, Gladys Phalen, Loretta Phalen, Clara Stein, Olga Pavlov, Marie Scherrif, Ruth Loeffler, Cecile Moreau, May LeClaire.

Detroit Motorists Are Detained Here By State Police

Morris Berlinsky, of Detroit, and "Chuck" Feinberg, his chauffeur are being detained in Escanaba by the state police while a check-up is being made of the ownership of their automobile. Berlinsky claims to have purchased the car from a Detroit dealer in second-hand machines. He has what is purported to be a bill of sale. But he has not been able to show an abstract of title, and the license number on the machine was issued to another person.

"Scratching posts" of wood are now provided in all the animal cages at the London Zoo, Holyrood Palace, Edinburgh, is so named from a monastery dedicated to the Holy Rood, or Cross, which originally occupied the site.

The cars themselves were all bedecked for the gala occasion with banners and bright ribbons. Sixteen of Escanaba's most beautiful and prominent young ladies rode in the parade, a touch of beauty added to the scene that made hundreds pause and gaze.

"NOT GUILTY," THEY PLEADED!

Revolutionary Results Told By Walter P. Chrysler

Revolutionary riding and driving results have come rapidly during the past year in the development of both the Chrysler and the Maxwell.

They are the fruit of an experience which bridges 20 years and the manufacture of some 2,000,000 cars.

During recent months, with participation of the Chrysler engineering staff, this experience has culminated sharply in refinements of the most important character, which set the good Maxwell above and beyond four-cylinder cars as you have always known them.

The great crying demand of the motoring public today is for removal of vibration and consequently greater ease of riding and driving.

And the good Maxwell now answers that demand in a way no four-cylinder car has ever done before.

Owners are now averaging 18,000 miles and more to a set of tires; better than 22 miles per gallon; grinding valves, setting up tappets and removing carbon only at long intervals; main bearings rarely if ever replaced.

Our assurance—my personal assurance, without reservation—is that the good Maxwell is the car to satisfy you on all counts; and that it will satisfy you if you give it the chance.

Jimmy Murphy Wins Classic

WONDERLICH IS IN FATAL SKID

Murphy Makes New Track Record Of 114 Miles An Hour.

(By The Associated Press.) Altoona, Pa., June 14.—The semi-annual 250 mile automobile race on the Altoona Speedway this afternoon, for a purse of $25,000 and points in the 1924 national champions hip, was captured by the veteran driver Jimmy Murphy, who pushed his car to an average of 114 miles an hour, a new track record.

Wonderlich, one of America's speed monarchs, came to grief on the back track, which was made dangerous by intermittent rainfall. Wonderlich was travelling at a terrific pace when his roaring car skidded. The machine flashed down the wet boards and crashed to the infield, with Wonderlich under the wreckage. He was carried from the field unconscious and the thousands of spectators were stunned when the official announcer told them that the valiant driver had died in the hospital, suffering from a brain concussion and a broken ankle.

May Recover. The attending doctors tonight announced that his condition was as good as could be expected and that his chances for recovery were excellent.

The fortunes of the race alternated frequently until Murphy took the lead. Harry Harts and Tommy Milton who finished fourth and fifth, lead the pack at the outset, driving their powerful machines to the limit.

BEYERS SLATED FOR SLAB DUTY

Local Ball Club Goes To Marquette For Week End Clash.

Hank Beyers probably will take the mound for Escanaba this afternoon at Marquette, it was made known last night, with Joe Petka, the young Wisconsin port-ender ready for service if it is deemed advisable to send him against the Lake Superior outfit at the last minute.

The remainder of the Escanaba lineup will be the same as that which has played the last three games—Koenche catching, Welch at first, Boyle at second, Nelson shortstop, Schwelbach third base, Bourke, Lantz and Perrow or Deslites in the outfield.

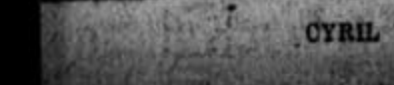

The Marquette management was undecided last night as to the probable pitching selection to attempt to topple the Escanaba from the league lead. Elmer Morin, of Ewen, who pitched in the Mine League last year was one possibility; Bob Kresse, a newcomer from Milwaukee was the other.

It will be Escanaba's first appearance on the Marquette lot this season.

START CLEAN-UP OVER WEEK-END

Six Days Of Rising Prices Followed By Irregularity.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, June 14.—Profit taking after six successive days of rising prices brought about some irregularity in today's brief session of the stock market, but it failed to halt the advance in several low-priced rails and a number of industrials and specialties reported to be under pool control.

Lackawanna was one of the outstanding strong spots in the rail group, climbing nearly 3 1/2 points to 126 7/8, a new peak price for the year.

American Can led the so-called pivotal stocks by climbing more than a point to 109 1/8. United States Steel continued advanced fractionally to 97; bulk Baldwin and Studebaker recorded slight advances.

Among the specialties, Woolworth continued to respond to reports of high current earnings, moving up five points to a record top at 99, or 16 points above the closing price last week.

Interest in the foreign exchange market was confined chiefly to French francs, which bounded up 15 points to just above 50 cents.

RAILROAD SHOP AT MANISTIQUE RAZED BY FIRE

The M. & L. S. railroad shops at Manistique were totally destroyed by fire about 11:30 Saturday morning.

The blaze originated around a boiler pipe extending through the roof, which is thought to have become overheated. The flames spread rapidly and quickly filled the interior of the shop, preventing workmen from operating the pumps provided in the shop. Large doors on the side of the building chanced to be open at the time, and the wind blowing through these served to fan the flames to a great height in about five minutes.

The fire department arrived on the scene promptly and began a work of laying the several hundred feet of hose to the shops, which were located some distance back from Deer street. By playing streams on the adjoining structures, the men were able to save the wood shop, which is close to the shops. Locomotives were removed from the danger zone as soon as possible, and were unharmed by the fire. A newly painted coach in the round house was also saved by the streams of water from the structure.

Plans for reconstruction of the shops were not announced until after the fire, but it is understood that they will be rebuilt as soon as possible.

M-12 CROSSING TO RUN UNDER SOO LINE TRACK

A new grade separation plan for the Soo Line M-12 crossing east of Manistique has been worked out by the state highway engineers who have been surveying a re-location of the highway for the past few weeks.

The new proposal provides for a crossing under the railroad track, instead of over the track as previously surveyed. The new location has many advantages over the overhead route and may be constructed more economically. It is likely that the crossing will be put through this season. Under the first plan, a big fill would be necessary, and would require much longer to complete, besides being more expensive, and leaving the highway at a grade.

The new route, which has just been surveyed and found the most practical, leaves the present road at the top of the "Big Hill," and follows the contour of the hill slope down to the George Orr creek, going under the railroad track at a point near the present creek culvert, under the track. A comparison of levels has shown ample space for the road to run under the track. From the grade separation crossing the new road will follow along the lake shore to Manistique, as previously outlined.

BILLY VASSAU GOES AGAINST NEGAUNEE NINE

Bill Vassau, otherwise known as "Nig," will probably be used on the mound today, when Manistique plays Negaunee, their first non-association game of the season.

Today's game will also be Charley Burn's farewell appearance in Upper Peninsula baseball, after starting his third season with the Manistique team. Charley has received an attractive offer from the Rock Island Club, Mississippi Valley League, and will leave Manistique on Monday. He expects to be used at second base. Burn, who has been playing shortstop for Manistique this year, carried a way to the fans' hall of fame with his willow work at Gladstone last Thursday, knocking out two home runs. He is expected to distinguish himself further today, doing himself proud in his farewell appearance with the Manistique team.

Some changes have been made in the local lineup in preparation for the Negaunee team, which is regarded as a formidable opponent. Lou Wilson, who was out of the line on Wednesday and Thursday because of school duties, will be back in center field today. Manager Crittenden is also expected to take the field.

MAKE RUN ON MOON; RAID 4 DRINK PARLORS

Taking advantage of the convention week crowds to shield their activities, Leo Grove's men raided four Manistique soft drink parlors Friday evening, and as a result a party of proprietors and bartenders were arrested before the U. S. commissioner at Escanaba yesterday, charged with a violation of the prohibition law.

The places searched were: John Hayden's, Eugene Meron's, Arthur Miller's and Henry Orschel. The three latter places are on the west side, while the first is an old established stand in the Cedar street business block. All of the raids took place shortly before 8 o'clock Friday evening, with several of the state officers participating.

At Hayden's, a group of the state men entered, some of them calling for a cigar. While the bartender, Ed Nesson, was at the cigar case, others in the party walked behind the bar, armed with a search warrant, and located three pints of liquor, according to local officers. Similar antics were employed at the west side places. Thomas Vincent, bartender, was taken into custody at the Orschel shop, together with Meron and Miller, who were found at their places of business farther down the street.

All were then taken to the county jail, where sets of finger prints were made. Early Friday morning the party left for Escanaba to be examined before the U. S. Court Commissioner, C. D. McEwen.

Business Men Plan For Big Day On July 4

A mass meeting of Manistique business men has been called for Monday evening at the city hall, for the purpose of formulating plans for an appropriate Independence Day celebration at Manistique. All business men and others interested in having a good live Fourth of July celebration are earnestly urged to attend the meeting Monday night.

Assurance has been given by the Manistique baseball team that they will furnish one big entertainment attraction for the day. They have scheduled a game with the Illinois Colored Giants, a team that played two games here last July 4, splitting the series with the Manistique champs.

The topic for the meeting is "Art Centers and Mural Decorations," and the assignments are as follows: "The Art Museum of New York," Mrs. Baker; "The Pennsylvania Academy of Art," Mrs. Putnam; "The Boston Museum," Mrs. Shipman; "The Corcoran Gallery of Art," Mrs. McLean; "The Art Institute of Chicago," Mrs. Hovey; "Mural Decorations in the Boston Library," Mrs. Middlebrook; "Mural Decorations in the Congressional Library," Miss Heath; "Other Mural Decorations," Miss Hansen, Mrs. Baldwin.

Claim Redmond Forged A Note

T. A. Redmond, Manistique sign painter, was held at the Schoolcraft county jail yesterday on a forgery charge, made by a local banker.

It is alleged that Redmond issued a certain promissory note some time ago, to which was affixed the signature of his sister, Mrs. Anton Weber. The banker, E. H. Jewell, stated that he was aware that the signature was not genuine, and notified Redmond that it must be made good. On the latter's failure to do so, a complaint was made for his arrest.

The case will be bound over for circuit court.

Mrs. Lloyd McGregor of Newberry was the guest of her sister Mrs. A. W. Schofield of Manistique on Friday.

Dr. F. P. Bohn of Newberry called on friends in Manistique on Friday. He was accompanied by Judge John E. Quinlan.

AWARDS CUPS TO FOUR LOCAL MEN AT DANCE

Four individual prizes of silver cups were won by Manistique K. P.'s in the team competitions held during the Upper Peninsula Pythian League meeting here on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week.

The awards were made by G. C. Fred D. Vos of Grand Rapids, at a monster ball held in the high school gymnasium Friday evening, with several hundred people in attendance. The ticket sales totaled $25, in addition to the visiting Pythians, who were admitted free.

The Evergreen Lodge men whose excellent work won them the cups on Friday were: John N. Forsnar, as second senator; Henry Neville as seventh senator; Clarence Hollenbeck and Lavern Smith as attendants and John A. Peterson as headman. Mr. Neville, however, was tied with a Menominee man for the seventh senator award, and lost the cup in the coin toss. Chief of Police Peterson, winner of the silver cup as the best headman, took this part for the first time in the competition this year, and was given a big ovation by the crowd when he was called to the platform by the Grand Chancellor to receive his prize.

Red Cross Lodge of Sault Ste. Marie, held the highest team score, with a total of 2,872 1-6, and was presented with the shield held by Menominee Lodge last year. Menominee was a close second in the competition at Manistique, with 2,854 3-5.

Escanaba came in for one of the individual awards for their herald. Iron River received prizes on First Senator, third senator, sixth senator; Menominee won the remaining senator cups, with the exception of the tenth which went to Marquette, and the second one noted above as won by John Forsnar of Manistique.

In his presentation speech at the gymnasium, Mr. Vos expressed satisfaction at the fine work done by upper peninsula Pythians and declared that it was a pleasure for him to come into upper Michigan for such a successful meeting as was held at Manistique.

The crowd in attendance at the dance was the largest on record at the high school gym, and one of the most appreciative. The music was by Hamill's orchestra of this city.

PIONEER OF CITY CALLED BY DEATH

Death claimed one of Gladstone's pioneer residents Friday night when Mrs. Phoebe Narracoo, 84 years of age, passed away at the family home, 1207 Wisconsin avenue.

Mrs. Narracoo's health had been falling for the past three years and for the last few months she had been confined to her bed. In spite of all efforts made to save her life, her condition grew gradually worse and death came at 8:45 o'clock Monday night. Complications brought on by old age caused her death.

The body was taken to the Swenson Brothers' undertaking establishment to be prepared for burial and will be taken to the home Monday morning where it will be in state until the time of the funeral.

Services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. J. M. Bolton, pastor, officiating. Members of the Eastern Star society of which Mrs. Narracoo was one of the oldest members, will be in charge of the services.

Mrs. Narracoo was born in Indianapolis, Ind., April 15, 1840. She was graduated from Lawrence college at Appleton, Wis. Later she went to Monticello, Wis., where she was married to David Narracoo. In 1888 they moved to Gladstone. Mr. Narracoo passed away in 1916 and since that time Mrs. Narracoo has made her home with her son, W. A. Narracoo.

Heid in Esteem.

Mrs. Narracoo leaves to mourn her, her devoted son, W. A. Narracoo, with whom she made her home, and son in Chicago, W. C. Narracoo of Chicago.

She was loved and esteemed by everyone who knew her and her death will be sincerely mourned by the community at large.

CITY MAKES CHECK-UP ON PEDDLERS

In accordance with the policy of making outside peddlers pay a license fee, following the peddlers' license ordinance, the city administration has been checking up the local peddlers with the result that about eight peddlers have been found selling wares without a license.

These sellers have been notified and will be required to pay the fee.

The increased revenue from this source will be approximately $200 each year, and the collection of it, it is believed, is the right course to pursue in fairness to local dealers who pay taxes here and to whom equalized competition is due.

The necessity of having a license will also put the peddlers under city government regulation and the administration will know at all times who is selling and what is being sold.

In the cases of peddlers who raise their own produce, no fee will be charged, but those who buy the produce from some one and then sell it will be required to pay the fee.

TEAM PLAYS AT ISHPERING THIS AFTERNOON

Gladstone baseball fans, or at least the majority, will have to do without their favorite Sunday afternoon diversion today, while Manager "Lefty" Gervais and his crew battle with Ishpeming on Ishpeming's home ground.

The local boys have been exhibiting a real brand of baseball and while Ishpeming is reputed to have a bunch of hard sluggers, Gladstone is going set for a big contest.

The next game at home will be next Sunday when Munising comes here, a game that is certain to attract the fans.

A number of Gladstone people will motor to Ishpeming today for the game but the greater number will have to wait until next Sunday for their next slant at the game.

The Michigan State Department of Public Health, through its workers, Dr. Lillian Smith of the Bureau of Child Hygiene and Public Health, and Miss Jennie Knevels, R. N., upper peninsula directors for the state department, will hold a baby clinic in Gladstone June 24 and 25.

Announcement of the clinic was made yesterday by the officers of the Child's Welfare club who are sponsoring the clinic this year, as they did during the year just past.

The clinic will be held at the Junior high school building on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25, with examination, weighing and measuring of all babies in Gladstone under school age, which is placed at five years.

The hours will be from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning, and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Smith and Miss Knevels will be in charge with the assistance of members of the club.

A four-course dinner was served with covers laid for twenty-one. The tables were beautifully decorated with carnations and marigolds, carnations being used as favors for the guests.

The evening was spent with music and a real social time was enjoyed. All left feeling that Mr. and Mrs. Albin are real entertainers, and that such hospitality toward the teachers of their children cannot fail to be a means of drawing closer together the school and the home.

The teachers present were Supt. and Mrs. C. H. Teague, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wagner, Mr. C. C. Strickland, Mrs. Mallongre, Misses Harris, Davis, Beneshak, Empson, Face, and Mr. Roberts.
