RE: NISHNAWBE NEWS

Attached is a letter from the Keweenaw Bay Tribal Center which, I suspect, was ghost written by someone at Northern.

The letter makes it sound like the Nishnawbe News has "NMU" written all over it when, in fact, NMU is barely mentioned in the paper except in a negative sense. In addition, their stationery and envelopes carefully avoid the use of NMU altogether.

I expect to see considerably more appreciation for the funds that are currently being provided before the next issue is printed. Please inform me as to the progress that you have made in this regard by January 23.

It occurred to me that funds for the Nishnawbe News could be raised by an increase in subscription rates. What do you think?

If Jeff does not return next semester as Editor, please let me know who is to take his place and act as the official spokesperson.
