GANNETT GRANT FOR MINORITIES

The Frank E. Gannett Newspaper Foundation has granted $99,200 to help establish a National Center for Minorities and the Media at Northwestern University. The grant will make possible the expansion of another minorities program which began last year. It involves 11 schools of journalism in a cooperative effort to increase the training and employment opportunities available to their minority students.

Address:

John A. Scott, President
Frank E. Gannett Newspaper Foundation
One Lincoln First Square
Rochester, NY 14604

Maximum grant last year, $576,000; minimum, $25

Initial contact, full proposal, one copy.
